OUTLINE FOR COURSE ON ESPIONAGE

```
I
    History and theory of espionage.
    a. Total Espionage. (Le san guerrases therey of Cops)
     b. Individual espionage.
    The Business Methods of Modern Espionage.
II
     a. Choice of agents.
       (1) Background.
                 Education and experience.
             (a)
             (b) Social status.
             (c) Financial status.
             (d) Political status.
             (e) Connections.
             (f) Appearance.
             (g) Other.
        (2) Circumstances at time of recruiting.
     b. Training.
        (1)
             Schools.
        (2)
             Subject matter.
             (a) Radio.
             (b) Secret Inks.
             (c) Language.
             (d) Social Manners.
             (e) Disguise.
             (f) Technical affairs, military, naval, air, etc.
     c. Mission
             Information Sought
             (a) Military.
             (b) Naval.
              (c) Air.
              (d) Commercial, industrial, agricultural.
              (e)
                 Political, psychological, propaganda.
             (f)
                Other
             Physical equipment.
                 Identification papers.
             (a)
             (b) Radio
             (c) Secret writing materials.
             (d) Photographic.
              (e) Binoculars, lenses, etc.
             (f) Firearms.
             (g) Transportation.
             (h) Clothing, uniform, disguise.
             (i) Money.
             (j) Other.
     d. Method of entry.
        (1) Regular travel (boat, plane, railroad, etc.)
           Airplane landing.
           Parachute landing.
            Submarine.
        (5)
             Other:
     e. Cover.
        (1)
            Citizenship status.
             (a) National or ally.
             (b) Neutral.
             (c) Enemy.
```

CONFIDENTIAL

(2) Vocation.

(a) Legitimate

```
CONFIDENTIAL
             (b)
                  Commercial representative,
             (c)
                  Diplomatic and consular.
             (d) Refugee.
             (e) Seaman.
             (f)
                  Lecturer, artist, student, etc.
     f. Points of contact.
             Sources of information (location of and contact with).
             (a) Loitering and direct personal observation.
             (b) Frequenting public places.
             (c)
                  Salons, centers of social activity.
             (d) Making friends, male and female.
                  Infiltration.
             (e)
             (f)
                 Purchase, bribery, and threat.
                  Theft and physical violence:
             (g)
             (h)
                The press and other local information.
             (i) Owher,
        (2)
             Other agents (location of and contact with).
             (a) Appointment
                 Introduction, personal or by message.
                Prearranged signs and tokens.
             (d) Accidental encounter.
        Organization,
        (1)
             Fay
        (2)
             Orders
             Parallel organization.
             (a) Security.
             (b) Double spying.
     h. Transmission of information.
        (1)
             Personal contact.
        (2)
            Post.
             (a) Clear
             (b) Clear code.
             (c) Secret writing.
             (d) Microphotography.
            Radio.
             (a) Clear code.
             (b) Commercial code.
             (c) Secret code.
            Courier and letter-drop.
            Ground signals.
            Symbols.
            Carrier pigeon.
        (8)
            Lights.
        (9)
            Other.
    i. Reasons for apprehension.
        (1)
            Security.
             Ignorance and mistakes.
            Chance.
III Principles of counter-espionage as derived from the above.
    a. Recapitulation of lessons to be drawn from:
        (1) The methods of the spy.
        (2) The mistakes of the spy.
    b. Disposition of espionage cases.
        (1) U. S. Civil law. (Sections 31, 32, 33, Title 50, Chapter 4, U. S. C. A.)
        (2) Military law. (A. W. 81 and 82).
        (3) Rules of Land Warfare.
                                 - 2 -
                              CONFIDENTIAL
```

CONFIDENTIAL

IV Case histories illustrative of these principles.

a. United States.

b. United Kingdom.

c. Iberia and Islands.

d. South America.

e. North Africa.

f. Middle East.

g. Pacific.

HOW DESTROYED	Upon direction of competent authority. Surned in presence of disinterested officer who will size certificer	cate which is returned to pffice of prigin.	Any. conyenient way. 22b	Inventory (6 mo Report of possed ion. Report of Transfer. De- Stroyed as above when ordered.
HOW. STORED	Most secure files avail- able. Room locked when not in use.	20a	So as to insure a reasonable degree of safety -20a	3 combination Inventory (6 safe. Only OWC. Report of postrusted and have Transfer. Deacess Change stroyed as combination above when every 6 mos.
HOW TRANSMIPTED	Officer-Courier U.S. Rugistered Wail. CO of Army Transport 18a.	Authorized mess- enger-insured mail-registered mail-ordinary mail occasionally for WI purposes.	Messenger. Ordinary mail or freight.	Registored Wail or Officer- Courier 18a
HOW WARKID	When secret, eath- orization and date of classification shown. Gover-title-& 1st DE., if fastened, if not, every lake top & bottom. On maps-under scale.	If to a civilian special notation as per AR 580-5 Sec II-Par 17 b.	17a	In addition to above, Ragisternumber, Short Title, Office of Record, and ingestructions as to returns or accounting.
AUTHORITY TO CLASSIFY	Sec of War Ch. of Staff = Chief of arm or service Gen'! Officer; 60 depot; Post, camp; or station: Com=. mandant of Gen'! or Sp. Serv. Sch. 8c	Any Commissioned Officer 9c	Any Commissioned Officer 10c	Officers authorized to designate as secret or confidential
. WHEN . CLASSIFIED	Indangers nat'l security. Seri- ously injure nat'l prestige, or great advantage to foreign nation.	Prejudicial to the interest of US or of advantage to foreign nation.	For official use only. To be denied gen'l public. 10a.	As necessary in interest of national defense. Exceptional importance.
TYPE	Signatur	SOME IDEMELAL	SESTELCTED	FEGCI STERED	