ANYONE CAN DO IT! the face-framing braid

Fashion stylist (and Lucky alum) Samantha Turner showed up at a party looking stunning with this mini French braid. "I'm the last person in the world to spend a ton of time on elaborate hairdos," Sam admitted. "This is a way for me to look dressed up without too much effort."

the shockingly easy step-by-step:

Run a little defrizzing serum through the front of your hair; then, beginning at one temple, start braiding with three tiny pieces of hair, each the width of spaghetti.

JOHN FRIEDA FRIZZ-EASE HAIR SERUM, $10, DRUGSTORES

Each time you cross one section over another, gather another spaghetti's worth of hair and combine it with the strand you're crossing over—so the three main strands get progressively bigger as you go.

When you reach the opposite temple, tie off the freshly made braid with a clear elastic. As the night goes on and wisps come loose, it gets sexier and sexier.

SUSAN PITTARD, HAIR; JAY PALANIUK FOR CONTACT NYC; MAKEUP: CLAUDIA LAKE FOR CONTACT NYC; STILL LIVES: LUCKY DIGITAL STUDIO.

If ever there were a new line to get excited about, it's this one:

The whole collection is hugely repairing (the key ingredient, argan oil, is one of the best healing ingredients in the world); it gives hair incredible shine; the understated ocean-meets-earth scent is fantastic; and the oil doubles as a body moisturizer—and leaves a beautiful gleam on skin.

SPRAY WAX: HOW AND WHY

If your goal is beachy-bedhead sexiness, this under-the-radar miracle product is the quickest route: Mist dry hair with lazily haphazard abandon (but avoid roots) and it does the styling for you, creating piecey cohesiveness that settles into grungy-hot, ultra-malleable (yet miraculously unsticky) texture in seconds. Then twist and coil as needed—the more disheveled, we say, the better.

Winter Smackdown

Cut the crackle, ban the breakage and snap her hair back into shape.

Electrified, dehydrated curls with poorly defined curves are just the beginning of most people's winter woes—at least in terms of their hair. When you factor in past summer sins and holiday abuse, many manes are just one shellacking away from being rushed to the beauty ER.

As a stylist, you know that winter hair is only blessed with shine and elasticity when there's a perfect balance of hydration (water) and moisture (oil). You also know from experience that this blissful state is hard to maintain. If your colors aren't lasting as long as they should; smoothing services are no longer yielding sterling results; styles are quickly losing their shape; or hair swiftly reverts to dull, wild or frizzy no matter what you use, it could be time to do some major changeups in your recommendations. For this endeavor, HOT's got you covered. Here are some of our favorite winter-proofing products.

Intensive Care

Providing deep conditioning benefits in as little as five minutes,

Moroccanoil Intense Hydrating Mask revitalizes hair with moisture and proteins to restore shine and elasticity. Star ingredient: Proprietary argan oil blend, which contains potent antioxidants vitamin E and polyphenols, as well as omega 6 and vitamin A to transform brittle hair into supple, resilient locks.

(Moroccanoil.com)

Rub-a-dub-dub

Scientists find that improper shampooing is a major source of breakage.

The next time you give your clients instructions on how to properly care for their hair, it would be smart to include how to handle their precious tresses when shampooing. How so? Using a scanning electron microscope, a study by Swift and Brown has shown that partial cuticle removal, followed by complete cuticle removal, was observed by rubbing wet hair together—without the addition of shampoo. Rubbing dry hair in a similar fashion failed to produce the same degree of cuticle damage. These results may or may not surprise you, but chances are they'll serve as eye-openers for your clients. Lesson: Never scrub and rub hair when shampooing. Instead, gently work shampoo through hair and rinse for a much healthier result. (Source: J. Soc. Cosmet. Chem. 26 289 1975)

Time-strapped New Yorkers will appreciate that this high-intensity, sticky lotion sinks in while you sleep. MAC Even if you wear your makeup fresh-faced rather than Lady Gaga funky, the latest beauty spot from this popular cosmetics giant has you covered. The ninth MAC store in Manhattan, this West Village location packs the entire product line into its glossy white-walled boutique. A giant LCD screen depicting abstract moving images on one wall and mirrors on the other gives the illusion of a larger space. Adding to the futuristic vibe, oversize square structures hanging from the ceiling dangle just below eye level, displaying super-bright shadow pots ($15) and matte lipsticks ($15). The side counters showcase the brand's latest specialty collections, including flashy Peacock long-lasting lipglosses ($18) and Cham Pale neutral shimmering highlighting powders ($28). *353 Bleecker St between Charles and W 10th Sts (212-255-0450, maccosmetics.com). Upper 90 Soccer + Sport Whether you're on a serious team or a social one that centers on postgame boozing, this soccer emporium is ready to outfit your crew. The second NYC shop (the other is on the Upper West Side) boasts a mini indoor field for testing out the chain's selection of unisex sneakers ($35-$240) and balls ($15-$150). Nike, Adidas, Umbro and Puma constitute the majority of the store's men's, women's and kids' footwear ($40-$250); those same powerhouse brands can also be found in the selection of athletic tees ($10-$25), shorts ($12-$40) and jerseys ($35-$150). The large, airy space is spiffed up with a flatscreen TV perpetually tuned to soccer matches and a mural featuring the New York Cosmos, NYC's pro soccer squad from 1971 to 1985. While Adidas neon, pro-caliber cleats ($250) pop in the sea of kicks, most of the store's wares are priced for the budget-conscious masses. Five O'Clock Shadow Apparel's cool tees printed with phrases like TEAM AMERICA ($25) and Sells goalkeeper pants ($35) pack enough padding to protect against any Prospect Park-game blunders. Your healthy-hair TOOLBOX

You can't go wrong with these top 10 shine-enhancers on your side

1 A top-notch brush makes all the difference. Brushworx Keratin Silk Ceramic Paddle Brush, $21.95 (datelinecity.com.au), contains ceramic ions to make hair easier to manage.

2 Banish frizzes with the John Frieda Full Repair Touch-Up Flyaway Tamer, $15.99 (johnfrieda.com). The mascara-style wand is great for around the hair line, where baby strands like to stick up.

3 It's a great idea to switch to an ionic hairdryer; they're much less damaging than the oldies. Our pick is VS Sassoon AC Salon Professional Dryer, $62.95 (1800 650 263). It has an internal ionic generator, which conditions hair to reduce static and increase silkiness while you dry.

4 Using MoroccanOil Intense Hydrating Mask, $49.50 (1300 437 436), once a week will make your hair as shiny as a Taylor Swift outfit on an awards night.

5 Ceramic plates in the Bio Ionic OnePass Nano Ceramic Straightening Iron, $299 (1300 760 165), cut down your straightening (and damaging) time by 70 per cent!

6 It's worth shelling out for salon-quality products, and Schwarzkopf BC Hairtherapy Repair Rescue Shampoo, $25.95, weighs in with its strengthening qualities – great for long hair.

7 Over time, products build up and dull your hair. Wash away residue with Garnier Fructis Strengthening Shampoo and Conditioner, $5.95 each. Bonus – they contain no silicone or parabens.

8 We love the original, but are stoked about MoroccanOil Light Oil Treatment, $52.50 (1300 437 436), which is designed especially for fine-haired lasses.

10 A leave-in product like Kérastase Reflection Chroma Protect, $42 (kerastase.com.au), creates a barrier to stop chemicals and other nasties from damaging your hair.

ELLE BELEZA TENDÊNCIA

TRUQUE DE MESTRE
Acha que o ruivo chama muito a atenção? Não se preocupe e combine, sim, o look com make pesada. "Aposte no batom vermelho ou destaque os olhos com sombra escura", sugere Ton Reis.

MODO DE USAR
"Os tons de vermelho geralmente combinam com mulheres de pele branca e que passam longe do sol", opina o cabeleireiro Nando Ardessore, de São Paulo. Mas quem quiser se arriscar na ruivice deve ir aos poucos: aposte na técnica ombré e mescle nuances diferentes. Outra dica: se você nasceu ruiva, mas não está satisfeita com o tom natural, apele para um tonalizante ou faça mechas bem finas, só para iluminar o rosto.

DICA DE EXPERT

SHOPPING

VRAAG HET DE STYLE SQUAD

Cosmo's beautyredacteur Anne-Kaisa Faber geeft tips voor een perfecte, zonnige mei-look.

"De echte wondercrème tegen rimpels is een zonne-brandcrème," tipt dr. Jetske Utee

Kiehl's Ultra Light Daily UV Defense SPF50 (€29 voor 30 ml)

Q Wat is het geheim voor gezond en glanzend haar?

Neem een voorbeeld aan Diane Krugers ritueel: "Ik laat elke zes weken mijn haar bijknippen." Ook zweert ze bij Moroccanoil: "Het heeft de textuur van mijn haar echt veranderd, ik gebruik het na elke wasbeurt."

Vier je 30e met...

...de Forever Youth Liberator-lijn van Yves Saint Laurent. Deze lift, verzorgt, geeft de huid haar glow terug én ruikt heerlijk licht bloemig (vanaf €34,42, te koop bij de Bijenkorf).

Q Hoe combineer ik kleur, zonder dat het 'clownesk' wordt?

Topvisagist Pat McGrath doet het je voor bij de catwalkshow van Dior. We spotten knalrode lipstick (kloppend met de vingertop aangebracht) in combinatie met Diors paarse Forget Me Not- of mintgroene Waterlily-nagellak (beide €24,50). En die lakjes ruiken nog lekker ook. Let's celebrate met kleur!

Q Ik wil iets anders met mijn lange haar, zonder schaar. Tips?

Bij de catwalkshow van DKNY zagen we two-toned hair. Boven een lichte en onder een contrasterende, donkere kleur. "Kleur enkel een paar lokken voor een krachtige, luxe look anno nu," aldus kleurexpert Josh Wood van Wella Professionals en de DKNY-show. Hoe? Breng donkere extensions aan, aan de onderkant van je haar. Of kleur zelf de onderste laag van je haar een paar tinten donkerder. Thuis tip: Syoss Mixing Colors voor je eigen custom made kleur (€10,99).

Roberto Cavalli For Her, R725 for 50ml, is a heady mix of pink pepper, green mandarin, orange flower absolute, mirabelle plum and benzoin resin.

Speaking of all things Cavalli, I absolutely loved the whimsical hair created by Malcolm Edwards for Moroccanil on the Just Cavalli spring/summer 2012 runway.

Edwards says he was inspired by the delicate and romantic style of the collection and wanted to bring a touch of sensuality to the hair: 'For the hairstyle to succeed it [was] important

A beauty who's on my radar at the moment is Italian model Elisa Sednaoui. Not only is she the goddaughter of Christian Louboutin (we'd love to see her shoe collection!), she's also the face of Roberto Cavalli's latest fragrance. 'Elisa is the Cavalli woman. [Cavalli] couldn't have made a better choice. She embodies all the values of Cavalli: glamour, elegance and sexiness. She definitely doesn't go unnoticed,' says Françoise Mariez of Coty Prestige, the fragrance's distributors. Sednaoui is an actress, singer and director too.

ON MY SHOPPING LIST

Radox Nature's Spa Herbal Body Scrub with Lemongrass & Bamboo, R24.99, is a pocket-friendly purchase that will keep dry skin at bay.

Chanel Sublimage La Crème Texture Fine, R3 220, is the newest product in Chanel's ultra-luxe Sublimage range and I love it already.

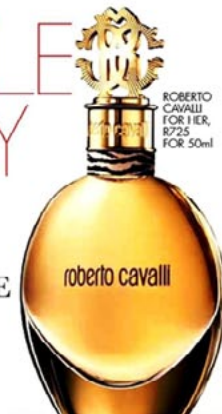

Marc Anthony Moisture Gloss, R89.99 – because I'd like to have hair with less frizz and more shine this winter.

Bulgari Omnia Coral R675 for 50ml, comes in a beautiful bottle. I love the optimistic colour and am dying to try the scent with its interesting mixture of bergamot, goji berries, hibiscus, water lily, pomegranate, cedar and musk.

to have healthy-looking, beautiful hair. To create this effect, I used Moroccanil products to give the hair a luminous and silky texture.' To restore moisture to your hair try Moroccanil Intense Hydrating Mask, R295.

The limited-edition Bobbi Brown Shimmer Brick Compact in Wild Rose, R515, from the Rose Gold collection has also caught my eye.

There are five bars of pearly, shimmering shades to highlight the skin and each can double up as eyeshadow. The trick to using the shimmer brick palette is to 'swirl [a blusher brush] across all the shades, and then lightly dust cheeks and forehead, or brush one shade on the eyes for subtle shimmer,' says Bobbi Brown. □
