CHIEF'S MESSAGE

The Manhattan Beach Police Department has a proud tradition of service to the city of Manhattan Beach. I am honored to continue that tradition by presenting our 2013-2015 Strategic Plan.

What is most exciting and unique about this plan is that it is the result of input from several different sources. We started building the framework for this plan with input from our department's sworn and professional staff leadership team. We then actively solicited the thoughts and ideas of all of our employees to further shape what we should be focusing on over the next three years. We also held a series of town hall meetings to hear from the Manhattan Beach community as to how they felt about our department's future direction. We then developed three comprehensive goal statements that describe what our department will look like as we move ahead into the next three years:

- Goal #1: Our police department is a highly effective organization, where community members are engaged and employees have the resources they need to carry out the department's mission.
- Goal #2: Our employees are trained to deliver the highest levels of police services to the city of Manhattan Beach.
- Goal #3: Our police department operates as a professional and committed team of community-minded, dependable, proactive, responsive and caring employees.

The Manhattan Beach Police Department is one of the finest police departments in the nation. Everyday, our employees work hard to deliver an unparalleled level of service to our community. This Strategic Plan will allow us to build on the excellent work that is already being done, while also helping us to continually grow. I want to thank everyone who attended all of the meetings and gave their input as we developed this plan. I am proud of what we have created and proud to lead this outstanding organization.

Sincerely,

Chief Eve R. Irvine
