

Dan Tiller

Mr. Tiller joined the Institute of Criminal Justice Studies (ICJS) at Texas State University as an instructor in November, 1984, and retired in January of 2006. Prior to joining ICJS, he spent 20 years in law enforcement serving as a trooper with the Texas Department of Public Safety, Chief of Police in Gainesville, Texas and Sheriff of Cooke County. He is a graduate of the University of North Texas and the F.B.I. National Academy, Quantico, Virginia. Mr. Tiller presently serves as the Chief Instructor for the Law Advisory Group, which conducts training for law enforcement and school districts across the United States.