

Gallery...

Florida Fall Fireworks Festival 2001

A flight of one thousand rockets fills the sky (and ground) with 4 inch breaks for several minutes.

A hardy crew of tourbillion makers with their bounty of 100 large troubillions.

Setting up some wheels for competition.

Assembling a maltese star fish setpiece for competition.

One hundred guild-made tourbillions taking flight.

A double petal from round shell competition.

A sun and planets from canister shell competition.

An array of gerbs from ground level competition.

A scene from Santories splendid show on Saturday night.