Liability of agent for negligence.—A county not being liable for the negligent acts of its agent, the agent himself cannot be held liable, although in the manner of performing the work he acts maliciously. Packard v. Voltz, 94 Iowa 277, 62 N. W. 757, 58 Am. St. Rep. 396.

Liability of county surveyor for damage caused by want of professional skill.— The undertaking of a county surveyor employed by a highway commissioner being that he will bring to his work the necessary knowledge and skill to perform the same properly, if he fails to do so he will be liable to his employer for the damage caused thereby. Highway Com'rs v. Beebe, 55 Mich. 137, 20 N. W. 826.

Liability to assignee of warrants.— The Washington act of March 10, 1893, which makes it the duty of a county treasurer not to register and indorse warrants issued by school-district officers, unless the signatures thereon shall correspond with the signatures of the officers of the district on file in his office, was passed for the benefit of the school districts and of the county treasurer's office, and not at all for the benefit of the public at large; and hence a county treasurer's indorsement of a warrant is not a guaranty of its genuineness on which he is liable to an assignee of the warrant. Roberts v. Prescott, 15 Wash. 462, 46 Pac. 642.

Penalty for fees illegally charged.— Any excessive charge of fees by county officers will, under the statute of some of the states, render them liable to forfeit to the party injured a certain amount, usually several times the amount of the excess, and an action to recover such penalty may be instituted by any party injured by the charge, and is not confined to parties in the cause in which the fees were taxed. Richland County v. Miller, 16 S. C. 244.

83. Liability of deputy.— Under the Colorado statutes neither a deputy treasurer nor clerk gives bond to the public for the faithful performance of his duties, and there is no wrongful acts of his deputy, the penalty for such wrongful acts may be recovered from such official.[84]

7. Disabilities. The general rule that no executive or administrative officer shall take official action in a matter involving the rights of others in which he is personally interested applies to county officers, and express provision is usually made for temporarily supplying the place of such officers when disqualified by interest or relationship by the appointment of deputies.[85] County officers are usually forbidden to take action in matters involving rights of others in which they are personally interested,[86] and cannot become parties to contracts with the county in relation to public work.[87] Where a statute forbids county officers to purchase or speculate in any claim allowed by the court of claims of his county, such officers cannot buy county claims either for themselves or for others.[88]

8. Liability on Official Bonds[89] — a. Prerequisites to — (i) Valid Election. To render a county official liable on a bond it is not necessary that he should have been legally elected;[90] he is liable, although in possession by usurpation only.[91]

(ii) Bond Conforming to Statute. If a bond is conditioned in the manner and for the purposes authorized by law, a slight omission or immaterial variance from the language of the statute or in the amount of penalty contemplated therein will not affect the liability thereon;[92] and it has been held that the insertion in such privity between the county or the public and the deputy treasurer or clerk as to create an implied contract between them, in the face of an express contract between the treasurer and the public. Goss v. Boulder County, 4 Colo. 468.

84. Hilboldt v. Caraker, 41 Ill. App. 595, wrongful issue of marriage license by deputy. Compare Whyte v. Mills, 64 Miss. 158, 8 So. 171, where it was held that although the clerk of a board of supervisors gives his deputy entire charge of his office, he is not liable to the purchaser of county warrants fraudulently issued by the deputy, who used for that purpose the blanks furnished by the county, signing thereto the names of the clerk and the president of the board, and attaching the clerk's official seal.

85. Markley v. Rudy, 115 Ind. 533, 18 N. E. 50.

86. Markley v. Rudy, 115 Ind. 533, 18 N. E. 50.

87. Atchison County v. De Armond, 60 Mo. 19; Quayle v. Bayfield County, 114 Wis. 108, 89 N. W. 892.

Contracts for purchase of public lands.— County surveyors, being agents for the sale of swamp and overflowed lands, are sometimes prohibited through consideration of public policy from becoming the purchaser of such lands, directly or indirectly, and agreements to this effect are void. Edwards v. Estell, 48 Cal. 194.

Imposition of penalties.— In some states penalties are imposed by statute upon any county officer who shall contract directly or indirectly, or become in any way interested in any contract for the purchase of any draft or order on the treasury of the county, or for any jury certificate or any debt, claim, or demand for which said county may or can in any event be made liable (Read v. Smith, 60 Tex. 379, under Tex. Rev. Code, art. 248, punishing a violation by fine of from ten to twenty times the amount of the debt, etc.); or who shall become interested in the purchase or sale of anything made for or on account of such county (Rigby v. State, 27 Tex. App. 55, 10 S. W. 760, under Tex. Rev. Code, art. 250).

88. Moore v. Lawson, 102 Ky. 126, 42 S. W. 1136, 43 S. W. 409, 19 Ky. L. Rep. 1104, where it was held that where a deputy sheriff has bought with his own money a county claim which it was the duty of the sheriff to pay out of the county levy, it must be regarded as a payment of the claim by the deputy for his principal, and he is entitled to a credit therefor in his settlement with his principal.

89. See, generally, Bonds.

90. Duncan v. Pendleton County Ct., 4 Ky. L. Rep. 829.

91. People v. Slocum, 1 Ida. 62.

92. Alabama.— Wilson v. Cantrell, 19 Ala. 642.

Arkansas.— State v. Wood, 51 Ark. 205, 10 S. W. 624; In re Read, 34 Ark. 239.

Georgia.— Smith v. Taylor, 56 Ga. 292, bond not conditioned as prescribed.

Iowa.— Taylor County v. King, 73 Iowa 153, 34 N. W. 774, 5 Am. St. Rep. 666; Carroll County v. Ruggles, 69 Iowa 269, 28 N. W. 590, 58 Am. Rep. 223; Boone County v. Jones, 54 Iowa 699, 2 N. W. 987, 7 N. W. 155, 37 Am. Rep. 229.

Kentucky.— Carter v. Carter County Ct., 3 B. Mon. 334.

Nebraska.— Clark v. Douglas, 58 Nebr. 571, 79 N. W. 158; Perkins County v. Miller, 55 Nebr. 141, 75 N. W. 577.

New York.— Schoharie County v. Pindar, 3 Lans. 8; Allegany County v. Van Campen, 3 Wend. 48.

Pennsylvania.— Clarke v. Potter County, 1 Pa. St. 159.

Texas.— Kempner v. Galveston County, 73 Tex. 216, 11 S. W. 188.

the bond of words not authorized by the statute will be rejected as surplusage if inconsistent with the liability imposed by the statutory language.[93] So bonds, although not good under the statute, are frequently held valid and binding as common-law bonds.[94]

b. Grounds and Accrual of Liability — (i) In General. Every failure of a county official to pay over moneys which it is his official duty to so disburse, or his failure to turn over to his successor the public moneys, books, records, accounts, papers, and documents, gives a right of action on the bond.[95] So also does a payment to a party or body other than those lawfully authorized to receive payments,[96] a payment in excess of what is lawfully authorized,[97] a negligent failure to cancel county warrants paid by the officer,[98] or an unlawful conversion of public moneys.[99] Sureties on official bonds are liable only for such acts of their principals as are done virtute officii, and if under a proper construction of a statute it is determined that the act, the omission of which is complained of, is not officially

Wisconsin.—Milwaukee County v. Pabst, 45 Wis. 311.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 137 et seq.

Misnomer or misdescription of the obligee will not as a rule invalidate the bond. Hubert v. Mendheim, 64 Cal. 213, 30 Pac. 633 (where by virtue of the statute it was held that a bond of a deputy, executed by a treasurer instead of the state, could nevertheless be sued on as an official bond); Custer County v. Albien, 7 S. D. 482, 64 N. W. 533 (holding that the fact that a treasurer's bond ran to the county commissioners and their successors instead of to the county did not invalidate it); Smith v. Wingate, 61 Tex. 54; Jefferson County v. Jones, 19 Wis. 51 (holding that a bond running "unto the board of supervisors of said county," instead of to "the county board of supervisors," was sufficient). But a bond running to the state for the disbursement of a fund in which the county alone is interested is void. Marshall v. State, 8 Blackf. (Ind.) 162; St. Joseph County v. Coffenbury, 1 Mich. 355.

Signature.— A bond of a county official reciting that he and his sureties "are each severally held and firmly bound," and do bind themselves "severally and firmly by these presents," is a several bond, and the failure of the official to sign the same does not discharge the sureties who have subscribed thereto. Douglas County v. Bardon, 79 Wis. 641, 48 N. W. 969. See also Hall v. State, 69 Miss. 529, 13 So. 38.

The approval of a county treasurer's bond by a county judge instead of the supervisors who are authorized to make such approval does not affect its validity. Mendocino County v. Morris, 32 Cal. 145.

93. Clay County v. Simonsen, 1 Dak. 403, 46 N. W. 592.

94. State v. Sappington, 67 Mo. 529; State v. Thomas, 17 Mo. 503; Jefferson County v. Lineberger, 3 Mont. 231, 35 Am. Rep. 462; Edmiston v. Concho County, 21 Tex. Civ. App. 339, 51 S. W. 353.

95. Alabama.— Briggs v. Coleman, 51 Ala. 561.

Dakota.— Stutsman County v. Mansfield, 5 Dak. 78, 37 N. W. 304.

Illinois.— Stern v. People, 102 Ill. 540; Kingman v. Peoria County, 96 Ill. App. 417.

Indiana.— Madison County v. Wood, 126 Ind. 168, 25 N. E. 190 [distinguishing Jay County v. Fempler, 34 Ind. 322]; Halbert v. State, 22 Ind. 125.

Iowa.—Cedar Rapids, etc., R. Co. v. Cowan, 77 Iowa 535, 42 N. W. 436; Madison County v. Tullis, 69 Iowa 720, 27 N. W. 487.

Kansas.—Fuller v. Jackson County, 2 Kan. 445.

Nebraska.— Stoner v. Keith County, 48 Nebr. 279, 67 N. W. 411.

New York.— Tompkins County v. Bristol, 99 N. Y. 316, 1 N. E. 878.

North Carolina.— Wright v. Kinney, 123 N. C. 618, 31 S. E. 874.

Pennsylvania.— Elder v. Juniata County, 55 Pa. St. 485.

South Dakota.— Custer County v. Tunley, 13 S. D. 7, 82 N. W. 84, 79 Am. St. Rep. 870.

Tennessee.— Anderson County v. Hays, 99 Tenn. 542, 42 S. W. 266.

Texas.— Wilson v. Wichita County, 67 Tex. 647, 4 S. W. 67; Dunson v. Nacogdoches County, 15 Tex. Civ. App. 9, 37 S. W. 978.

Washington.— Snohomish County v. Ruff, 15 Wash. 637, 47 Pac. 35, 441.

Wisconsin.— Iowa County v. Vivian, 31 Wis. 217.

United States.—Spurlock v. West Virginia, 52 Fed. 382, 3 C. C. A. 151, construing the West Virginia code.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 41 et seq.

96. Mahaska County v. Searle, 44 Iowa 492; Howard v. Horner, 11 Humphr. (Tenn.) 532.

97. Allen v. State, 6 Kan. App. 915, 51 Pac. 572; Custer County v. Tunley, 13 S. D. 7, 82 N. W. 84, 79 Am. St. Rep. 870.

98. The same having afterward been stolen and put into circulation. Johnson County v. Hughes, 12 Iowa 360. See also Blake v. Johnson County Com'rs, 18 Kan. 266.

99. Drawing extra salary without authority (People v. Treadway, 17 Mich. 480), although the amount thus drawn be obtained on warrants payable to himself (Mahaska v. Ruan, 45 Iowa 328; Jones v. Lucas County, required, his bondsmen are not liable, although the party for whom he performed the service may have believed it to be his official duty, or although such services have often or habitually been performed by such official.[1]

(II) For Special or Particular Funds. If the bond of a county official is so conditioned that it is intended to cover all moneys coming into his hands in his official capacity, and of which he is the lawful custodian, his failure to properly account for the same would be a breach, regardless of the fact that such funds were for a special purpose or were not a part of the county fund;[2] and under such bond he has been held liable for a faithful accounting of school funds.[3] It is held, however, that where statutory provision is made for the protection of this or any other special fund by a special bond or security, the sureties on his general bond would not be liable therefor.[4]

(III) In Case of Accidental Loss or Failure of Depositary. In a few jurisdictions the rule of responsibility of bailees for hire has been applied to county officers having charge of county funds, exonerating them from liability for loss when guiltless of negligence, and the doctrine has been applied in the case of loss by theft or robbery,[5] or by the failure of a savings-bank which was in good standing at the time the moneys were placed there on deposit.[6] The weight of authority is, however, that the law of bailments is not the proper measure of the officer's responsibility.[7] The general proposition with respect to the liability of such officers and their sureties for the loss of public moneys is well settled, that where the statute in direct terms or from its general tenor imposes the duty to pay over public moneys received and held as such, and no condition limiting that obligation is discoverable in the statute, the obligation thus imposed upon 57 Ohio St. 189, 48 N. E. 882, 63 Am. St. Rep. 710; Cricket v. State, 18 Ohio St. 9) would be a conversion, the fact that such warrants were made payable to himself not changing the issuance from an official to a private act (Spindler v. People, 154 Ill. 637, 39 N. E. 580 [affirming 51 Ill. App. 613]. But see State v. Kent, 53 Ind. 112). So too if a county officer unlawfully converts moneys he is liable on his bond, regardless of his right to lawfully distribute the same. Henry v. State, 98 Ind. 381.

1. Idaho.— Ada County v. Ellis, 5 Ida. 333, 48 Pac. 1071.

Indiana.— Scott v. State, 46 Ind. 203.

Iowa.— Mahaska County v. Ruan, 45 Iowa 328.

Missouri.— State v. Bonner, 72 Mo. 387.

Nebraska.— Ottenstein v. Alpaugh, 9 Nebr. 237, 2 N. W. 219.

Nevada.— State v. Fish, 4 Nev. 216.

Texas.— Coe v. Nash, 91 Tex. 113, 41 S. W. 473; Henderson County v. Richardson, (Sup. 1897) 40 S. W. 38.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 141 et seq.

But where a county officer is authorized by law to issue genuine bonds by affixing his seal and signature thereto, a signing and sealing of fraudulent bonds is an official act for which his sureties are liable. Redemption Nat. Bank v. Rutledge, 84 Fed. 400.

2. Alabama.—Lewis v. Lee County, 66 Ala. 480.

Florida.— Perry v. Woodberry, 26 Fla. 84, 7 So. 483.

Illinois.— Prickett v. People, 88 Ill. 115.

Iowa.— Warren County v. Ward, 21 Iowa 84.

Kansas.— Jackson County Com'rs v. Craft, 6 Kan. 145.

Michigan.— Marquette County v. Ward, 50 Mich. 174, 15 N. W. 70.

New York.— Livingston County v. White, 30 Barb. 72.

Tennessee.— State v. McDannel, (Ch. App. 1900) 59 S. W. 451.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 146.

3. Perry v. Woodberry, 26 Fla. 84, 7 So. 483; Hall v. State, 69 Miss. 529, 13 So. 38; State v. Mayes, 54 Miss. 417; Wake County v. Magnin, 86 N. C. 285.

4. Alabama.— Morrow v. Wood, 56 Ala. 1.

Minnesota.— Swift County v. Knudson, 71 Minn. 461, 74 N. W. 158; Redwood County v. Tower, 28 Minn. 45, 8 N. W. 907; State v. Young, 23 Minn. 551.

Mississippi.—State v. Felton, 59 Miss. 402; State v. Hall, (1891) 8 So. 464.

Missouri.— State v. Johnson, 55 Mo. 80.

North Carolina.— State v. Bateman, 102 N. C. 52, 8 S. E. 882, 11 Am. St. Rep. 708.

Wisconsin.— Milwaukee County v. Pabst, 70 Wis. 352, 35 N. W. 337.

Compare Burk v. Galveston County, 76 Tex. 267, 13 S. W. 455; Kempner v. Galveston County, 73 Tex. 216, 11 S. W. 188.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 146.

5. Ross v. Hatch, 5 Iowa 149 (this case being difficult to reconcile with the later case of Lowry v. Polk County, 51 Iowa 50, 49 N. W. 1049, 33 Am. Rep. 114); Cumberland County v. Pennell, 69 Me. 357, 31 Am. Rep. 284.

6. York County v. Watson, 15 S. C. 1, 40 Am. Rep. 675.

7. Perley v. Muskegon County, 32 Mich. 132, 20 Am. Rep. 637; Board of Education v.

and assumed by the officer will be deemed to be absolute. Accordingly it has been held that the fact that such moneys have been stolen without any fault or negligence on the part of the officer will not exonerate him or his securities from liability on the bond,[8] and that it makes no difference that the county has failed to provide a safe or suitable place where its funds might be kept.[9] It is also well settled that if funds are lost by failure of a bank in which an officer has deposited them, the officer and his bondsmen are liable, notwithstanding the fact that he was guilty of no negligence in selecting the bank,[10] and notwithstanding the further fact that the county has failed to provide a safe place of deposit for the public fund.[11] Some decisions have even gone so far as to declare that the officer and his securities are not excused from loss, even though occasioned by

Jewell, 44 Minn. 427, 46 N. W. 914, 20 Am. St. Rep. 586; Maloy v. Bernalillo County, 10 N. M. 638, 62 Pac. 1106, 52 L. R. A. 126. And see cases cited infra, note 8 et seq.

8. Illinois.—Thompson v. Township No. 16, 30 Ill. 99.

Indiana.— Linville v. Leininger, 72 Ind. 491; Morbeck v. State, 28 Ind. 86; Halbert v. State, 22 Ind. 125.

Iowa.— Union Dist. Tp. v. Smith, 39 Iowa 9, 18 Am. Rep. 39.

Massachusetts.— Hancock v. Hazzard, 12 Cush. 112, 59 Am. Dec. 171.

Minnesota.— Board of Education v. Jewell, 44 Minn. 427, 46 N. W. 914, 20 Am. St. Rep. 586; Redwood County v. Tower, 28 Minn. 45, 8 N. W. 907; McLeod County Com'rs v. Gilbert, 19 Minn. 214; Hennepin County Com'rs v. Jones, 18 Minn. 199.

Mississippi.—Arnold v. State, 77 Miss. 463, 27 So. 596, 78 Am. St. Rep. 533.

Montana.— Jefferson v. Lineberger, 3 Mont. 231, 35 Am. Rep. 462.

Nevada.— State v. Nevin, 19 Nev. 162, 7 Pac. 650, 3 Am. St. Rep. 873.

New Jersey.— New Providence Tp. v. McEachron, 33 N. J. L. 339.

New York.— Muzzy v. Shattuck, 1 Den. 233 [overruling in effect Albany County v. Dorr, 25 Wend. 440].

Ohio.— State v. Harper, 6 Ohio St. 607, 67 Am. Dec. 363.

Texas.— Coe v. Foree, 20 Tex. Civ. App. 550, 50 S. W. 616.

United States.— U. S. v. Prescott, 3 How. 578, 11 L. ed. 734.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 143.

Reason for rule.— The rule on which these decisions have been based has been well stated in a leading case in the federal supreme court as follows: "Public policy requires that every depositary of the public money should be held to a strict accountability. Not only that he should exercise the highest degree of vigilance, but that 'he should keep safely' the moneys which come to his hands. Any relaxation of this condition would open a door to frauds, which might be practiced with impunity. A depositary would have nothing more to do than to lay his plans and arrange his proofs, so as to establish his loss, without laches on his part. Let such a principle be applied to our postmasters, collectors of the customs, receivers of public moneys, and others who receive more or less of the public funds, and what losses might not be anticipated by the public? No such principle has been recognized or admitted as a legal defense." U. S. v. Prescott, 3 How. (U. S.) 578, 588, 11 L. ed. 734.

9. Lowry v. Polk County, 51 Iowa 50, 49 N. W. 1049, 33 Am. Rep. 114 [citing and attempting to distinguish Ross v. Hatch, 5 Iowa 149].

10. Colorado.— Gartley v. People, 24 Colo. 155, 49 Pac. 272.

Georgia.— Lamb v. Dart, 108 Ga. 602, 34 S. E. 160.

Kansas.— Rose v. Douglass Tp., 52 Kan. 451, 34 Pac. 1046, 39 Am. St. Rep. 354.

Minnesota.— Redwood County v. Tower, 28 Minn. 45, 8 N. W. 907.

Mississippi.— Griffin v. Mississippi Levee Com'rs, 71 Miss. 767, 15 So. 107.

Missouri.— State v. Moore, 74 Mo. 413, 41 Am. Rep. 322.

Nebraska.— Tomssen v. Hall County, 63 Nebr. 777, 89 N. W. 389; Bush v. Johnson County, 48 Nebr. 1, 66 N. W. 1023, 58 Am. St. Rep. 673, 32 L. R. A. 223.

New York.— Tillinghast v. Merrill, 151 N. Y. 135, 45 N. E. 375, 56 Am. St. Rep. 612, 34 L. R. A. 678 [affirming 77 Hun 481, 28 N Y. Suppl. 1089].

Oklahoma.— Van Trees v. Territory, 7 Okla. 353, 54 Pac. 495.

Pennsylvania.—Nason v. Directors of Poor, 126 Pa. St. 445, 17 Atl. 616, 24 Wkly. Notes Cas. 60.

Texas.— McKinney v. Robinson, 84 Tex. 489, 19 S. W. 699; Wilson v. Wichita County, 67 Tex. 647, 4 S. W. 67.

Washington.— Kittitas County v. Travers, 16 Wash. 528, 48 Pac. 340; Fairchild v. Hedges, 14 Wash. 117, 44 Pac. 125, 31 L. R. A. 851.

Wisconsin.— Omro v. Kaime, 39 Wis. 468.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 143.

11. Gartley v. People, 24 Colo. 155, 49 Pac. 272; Bush v. Johnson County, 48 Nebr. 1, 66 N. W. 1023, 58 Am. St. Rep. 673, 32 L. R. A. 223; Fairchild v. Hedges, 14 Wash. 117, 44 Pac. 125, 31 L. R. A. 851. See also Jefferson County v. Lineberger, 3 Mont. 231, 35 Am. Rep. 462, holding it no defense to an action on a bond that the office and safe furnished by the county were broken open and robbed without any want of any reasonable care on the part of the treasurer.

the act of God and the public enemy;[12] but it has been said in others that loss so caused should not be visited upon the officer and his bondsmen.[13]

c. Liability of Sureties[14]—(i) Accrual and Extent of—(a) In General. The sureties are liable to the full extent of the statutory penalty for which the bond is conditioned;[15] their liability is limited, however, to the amount prescribed by statute,[16] and they cannot be held for a penalty which is intended to operate upon the official as an individual punishment[17] or for a default in moneys unlawfully borrowed by the county board and placed in his hands.[18] But the mere fact that an officer officially received more moneys than his sureties contemplated does not affect their liability.[19]

(b) On Successive Bonds. Where a county official is his own successor in office, the sureties on his bond for his second term are liable for a conversion of moneys officially held by him at the time of the execution thereof,[20] as well as that which may subsequently come into his hands.[21] Nor is it material that such funds are misappropriated to cover previous delinquencies;[22] but they would not be liable for moneys received by him during his first term, which he had not charged himself as having received on entering on his second term,[23] or for deficiencies in his accounts occurring after his settlement with the commissioners whereupon a new bond was accepted in lieu of the first.[24]

(c) For Official Duties Ex Officio. Inasmuch as making a holder of one office ex officio officer as to the duties of another does not merge the two into one, it has been held that the sureties on an officer's bond are not liable for malfeasance in his ex officio duties.[25]

(d) Period Over Which Liability Extends. As a general rule the sureties on a county officer's bond are liable only for acts done during the term for which the bond was given,[26] notwithstanding it may be provided by statute that the term

12. Clay County v. Simonsen, 1 Dak. 402, 46 N. W. 592; State v. Clarke, 73 N. C. 255.

13. Thompson v. Township No. 16, 30 Ill. 99; Arnold v. State, 77 Miss. 463, 27 So. 596, 78 Am. St. Rep. 533; Maloy v. Bernalillo County, 10 N. M. 638, 62 Pac. 1106, 52 L. R. A. 126.

14. See, generally, BONDS; PRINCIPAL AND SURETY.

15. People v. Slocum, 1 Ida. 62; Jerauld County v. Williams, 7 S. D. 196, 63 N. W. 905.

16. Graham v. State, 66 Ind. 386.

17. State v. Hall, 68 Miss. 719, 10 So. 54.

18. Mason v. De Kalb County Road, etc., Com'rs, 104 Ga. 35, 30 S. E. 513; Frost v. Maxsell, 38 N. J. Eq. 586. See also Lewis v. Lee County, 66 Ala. 480; Rensselaer County v. Bates, 17 N. Y. 242.

19. Simons v. Jackson County, 63 Tex. 428.

20. Moore v. Madison County, 38 Ala. 670; Com. v. Sweigart, 9 Pa. Super. Ct. 455, 16 Lanc. L. Rev. 219.

Necessity of accounting before approval of successive bond.—It is sometimes provided that an official having public funds in his control shall not upon reëlection have his bond approved, until he has produced and fully accounted for all funds and property under his control. Woodward v. State, 58 Nebr. 598, 79 N. W. 164.

21. Moore v. Madison County, 38 Ala. 670.

A report made by a treasurer as part of his official duty showing the amount of funds in his hands at the execution of his second bond is binding upon the sureties thereto. Cawley v. People, 95 Ill. 249.

22. Cook v. State, 13 Ind. 154; Pine County v. Willard, 39 Minn. 125, 39 N. W. 71, 12 Am. St. Rep. 622, 1 L. R. A. 118.

23. Custer County v. Tunley, 13 S. D. 7, 82 N. W. 84, 79 Am. St. Rep. 870.

24. Missoula County v. Edwards, 3 Mont. 60.

25. Territory v. Ritter, 1 Wyo. 318. But compare Clay County v. Simonsen, 1 Dak. 403, 46 N. W. 592, where it was held that the judge of probate should, before entering on the duties of his office, give bond in the sum of four thousand dollars; that section 25 made him county treasurer ex officio; and that while no provision required him to give bond, as such, although the act relating to revenue made frequent reference to the county treasurer and his liability on his official bond, that the bond required by section 22 secured the performance of his duties as treasurer.

26. Wapello County v. Bigham, 10 Iowa 39, 74 Am. Dec. 370 (even when the principal holds over after expiration of his term, but without qualifying anew by giving new bond); Rice County v. Lawrence County, 23 Kan. 283; Johns v. Hastings, 22 Kan. 464; Monger v. Harvey County, 22 Kan. 318; Riddle v. Cherokee County School Dist. No. 72, 15 Kan. 168; Bigelow v. Bridge, 8 Mass. 275. Hence they would not be liable for moneys lost by a treasurer before the execution of the bond. Coe v. Nash, 91 Tex. 113, 41 S. W. 473.

Limitation of rule.—In Minnesota it has of office shall be for a certain period "and until a successor is elected and qualified."[27] According to some decisions, however, the sureties upon the bond of a county officer are liable thereon after the expiration of his term, so long as he remains in possession of the office in accordance with the law, and until he delivers it over to his successor.[28] So also the particular wording of the condition of the obligation may render the sureties liable upon the bond of a county officer after the expiration of his term.[29]

(II) Discharge of Sureties. Where some of the sureties are in any manner discharged from their liability on the bond this will operate to release the others, inasmuch as it impairs their right to contribution.[30] They are also released where, subsequent to execution of the bond, the duties and responsibility of their principal are greatly increased by an act of the legislature.[31] But their liability is not affected by the fact that the bond was approved by one having no authority so to do,[32] by the failure of the board to advise them that the principal had defaulted in office during his previous term,[33] by representations as to the conditions of a bond, made by one having no authority to bind the state or county,[34] by the fact that they understood their liability to be different from that incurred according to the terms and legal effect of the bond,[35] or by the fact that additional sureties are subsequently required by the board which is by statute empowered so to do.[36] So a delay of three months allowed the treasurer of a parish in which to settle the amount due of a certain fund does not operate as a discharge of the sureties on a bond conditioned that such treasurer should account for and pay over all such funds coming to his hands.[37]

been held that the obligation of the sureties does not extend to a period subsequent to the end of the first term, unless under some circumstances for such further time as might be reasonably necessary for the purpose of filling the office by appointment, notwithstanding the fact that the statute provides that the term of office should "continue for two years, and until a successor is elected and qualified." Scott County v. Ring, 29 Minn. 398, 13 N. W. 181.

Reason of rule.— Where the incumbent in accordance with statute continues in office till his successor is elected and qualified, he is simply regarded as filling a part of his successor's term. Riddel v. Cherokee County School Dist. No. 72, 15 Kan. 168.

27. Scott County v. Ring, 29 Minn. 398, 13 N. W. 181.

28. Placer County v. Dickerson, 45 Cal. 12; Thompson v. State, 37 Miss. 518.

29. Thus sureties on the bond of a county officer remain liable after the expiration of his term where the bond is conditioned that the officer shall render an account of all funds in his hands (Clements v. Biossat, 26 La. Ann. 243; Jefferson County v. Jones, 19 Wis. 51), or shall properly pay over to his successor all money which officially came into his hands (Plymouth County v. Kersehom, 108 Iowa 304, 79 N. W. 67, 75 Am. St. Rep. 257). So where the sureties on the bond of a deputy county official appointed by his principal obligate themselves for the faithful performance by such deputy of the duties of his office during his continuance therein their obligation is general for a term solely dependent upon the will of the principal and will continue unless revoked during his entire term. Kruttschnitt v. Hauck, 6 Nev. 163. See also State v. Baldwin, 14 S. C. 135, holding that if there is no law limiting the tenure of his office the sureties on the bond of a county officer are liable until his removal.

30. People v. Buster, 11 Cal. 215.

31. Monroe County v. Clarke, 25 Hun (N. Y.) 282, holding, however, that where the duties of a county treasurer were increased by requiring him to handle an additional fund, and defaults arose in connection with the funds usually handled by him, as well as in the additional fund, his sureties, while not responsible for the default in the latter, were not discharged from liability as to the former.

What constitutes change in obligation.— Where four parties who had agreed to become sureties to a county treasurer each signed a separate blank bond, the amount for which the same should be given being unknown at the time, with the understanding that the treasurer should subsequently fill up the blanks, his so doing as to one of the bonds, and the pasting of the signatures of the other three thereto, does not change the obligation intended to be assumed. Lee County v. Welsing, 70 Iowa 198, 30 N. W. 481. Nor would the mere enlargement of an official's duties in degree, but not in kind, discharge his sureties. Territory v. Carson, 7 Mont. 417, 16 Pac. 569. See also Smith v. Peoria, 59 Ill. 412; State v. Young, 23 Minn. 551.

32. People v. Evans, 29 Cal. 429.

33. Cawley v. People, 95 Ill. 249.

34. McLean v. State, 8 Heisk. (Tenn.) 22.

35. Burk v. Galveston County, 76 Tex. 267, 13 S. W. 455.

36. Holt County v. Scott, 53 Nebr. 176, 73 N. W. 681.

37. Clements v. Biossat, 26 La. Ann. 243.

d. Enforcement of Liability — (I) By Action — (A) Demand or Permission to Institute. Where there has been a misappropriation of funds, or a refusal to pay them over to one's successor, or the loss has been occasioned through the official's misfeasance, it is generally held that no express demand of payment is necessary before instituting suit,[38] although in some jurisdictions the opposite rule prevails.[39] So too under some statutes leave of the court or other proper authorities must first be obtained,[40] but in others this is unnecessary.[41] It has been held that suit may be maintained on the bond of an official without the previous auditing of his accounts, where repeated efforts had been made to obtain a settlement with him, and he had also refused to pay over a sum designated by the county to the treasurer.[42]

(B) Limitations. The time within which an action for breach of a county official's bond must be brought is a matter of statutory regulation.[43]

(C) Parties[44] — (1) Plaintiff. If the bond of a county official is good only as a common-law obligation, suit must be brought in the name of the obligee only;[45] and in some jurisdictions it is still held that an action on the bond of a county official to recover public moneys must be prosecuted in the name of the obligee of the bond.[46] Under the statutes of some states actions for the breach of official bonds or for official misconduct or neglect may be brought by "the person aggrieved" in his own name, assigning the appropriate breach,[47] "by any person injured" thereby,[48] or by the real party in interest, although the state be the obligee in the bond.[49] In some jurisdictions actions upon the official bonds of any

38. Arkansas.— McCoy v. State, 22 Ark. 308.

Dakota.— Clay County v. Simonsen, 1 Dak. 403, 46 N. W. 592.

Kansas.— Blake v. Johnson County Com'rs, 18 Kan. 266.

Minnesota.— Redwood County v. Tower, 28 Minn. 45, 8 N. W. 907.

New York.— Allegany County v. Van Campen, 3 Wend. 48.

Texas.— Coe v. Nash, (Civ. App. 1897) 40 S. W. 235.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 153.

39. Owens v. Ballard County Ct., 8 Bush (Ky.) 611; Hickory County v. Dent, 121 Mo. 162, 25 S. W. 924. But see Clark County v. Hayman, 142 Mo. 430, 44 S. W. 237.

40. Hickory County v. Dent, 121 Mo. 162, 25 S. W. 924; Crook County v. Bushnell, 15 Oreg. 169, 13 Pac. 886. See also Com. v. Tilton, 48 S. W. 148, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 1056.

41. People v. Madden, 133 Cal. 347, 65 Pac. 741; Hunt v. State, 93 Ind. 311; Carver County v. Bongard, 82 Minn. 431, 85 N. W. 214; Waseca County v. Sheehan, 42 Minn. 57, 43 N. W. 690, 5 L. R. A. 785; Wall v. McConnell, 65 Tex. 397.

42. Cullom v. Dalloff, 94 Ill. 330.

43. California.— San Diego County v. Dauer, 131 Cal. 199, 63 Pac. 338, holding that the statute began to run from the time the treasurer lost control of the funds and not from the expiration of his office.

Indiana.— Ware v. State, 74 Ind. 181, three years.

Iowa.— Poweshiek County v. Ogden, 7 Iowa 177, holding, however, that the failure of a county judge to pay over to the county money received by him for the sale of county lands was not an "omission of an official duty," and hence the action on his bond was not barred within three years from each breach.

Kansas.— Graham County v. Van Slyck, 52 Kan. 622, 35 Pac. 299, action must be brought in three years.

Louisiana.— See Clements v. Biossat, 26 La. Ann. 243.

North Carolina.— Moore County Com'rs v. MacRae, 89 N. C. 95, holding that the statute began to run from the breach and not from the date of the bond.

See also, generally, Limitations of Actions.

44. See, generally, Parties.

45. Wilson v. Cantrell, 19 Ala. 642. And see Hunnicutt v. Kirkpatrick, 39 Ark. 172.

46. Albertson v. State, 9 Nebr. 429, 2 N. W. 742, 892; Hunter v. Mercer County, 10 Ohio St. 515.

47. Jackson County v. Derrick, 117 Ala. 348, 23 So. 193; Lewis v. Lee County, 66 Ala. 480 (holding that a county might be such person, after the expiration of the officer's term); Morrow v. Wood, 56 Ala. 1 (holding that the county superintendent of education, being authorized to receive the school moneys, was such person).

Transfer of order after refusal of payment. — The mere fact that the party aggrieved has exchanged the warrant on which the treasurer refused payment for others before commencing his action on the treasurer's bond to recover the statutory penalty for failure to pay county warrants does not preclude him from prosecuting the same. Dale v. Payne, 62 Ark. 357, 35 S. W. 786.

48. Cedar Rapids, etc., R. Co. v. Cowan, 77 Iowa 535, 42 N. W. 436; Mower County v. Smith, 22 Minn. 97.

49. Hunnicutt v. Kirkpatrick, 39 Ark. 172, holding that under such statute a county treasurer might maintain an action against his predecessor on the bond of the latter for school funds.

county officer are to be brought in the name of the county,[50] even though the bond runs to the commissioners and their successors,[51] or runs in the name of the state for the use and benefit of the county.[52] In other jurisdictions actions on bonds should be brought in the name of the board of commissioners or supervisors for the benefit of the party interested.[53] Generally where the state is the obligee in the bond, an action on such bond may be brought in the name of the state for the use and benefit of the county;[54] upon the relation of the proper county authorities,[55] and where the bond of a county treasurer is payable to the governor the action should be in the name of the governor for the use of the party in interest.[56] Where a county fiscal court after notice refuses to sue on behalf of the county for a breach of the bond of the county judge, a single taxpayer may sue for the benefit of all the taxpayers.[57]

(2) DEFENDANT. The principal and sureties on a county official's bond may be sued either jointly or severally,[58] and where a county treasurer gave two bonds during his term of office, the sureties on both bonds may properly be joined as defendants in a bill by the county for an accounting.[59]

(D) Pleadings[60] — (1) COMPLAINT. The complaint must show a breach of the bond.[61] It need not allege that the bond was approved and deposited with the proper authorities,[62] or that the official took the oath of office.[63] In actions for failure of duty facts must be stated showing that the officer was in a situation making it possible for him to perform the duty in question.[64] In an action against

50. California. — Sacramento County v. Bird, 31 Cal. 67.

Montana. — Jefferson County v. Lineberger, 3 Mont. 231, 35 Am. Rep. 462.

South Carolina. — Aiken County v. Murray, 35 S. C. 508, 14 S. E. 954; Greenville County v. Runion, 9 S. C. 1.

Texas. — Burk v. Galveston County, 76 Tex. 267, 13 S. W. 455; Smith v. Wingate, 61 Tex. 54.

Wyoming. — Sweetwater County v. Young, 3 Wyo. 684, 29 Pac. 1002.

51. Custer County v. Albein, 7 S. D. 482, 64 N. W. 533.

52. Kingman v. Peoria County, 96 Ill. App. 417; Blake v. Johnson County Com'rs, 18 Kan. 266.

53. Johr v. St. Clair County, 38 Mich. 532; Tompkins County v. Bristol, 99 N. Y. 316, 1 N. E. 878.

54. Arkansas. — McCoy v. State, 22 Ark. 308.

Idaho. — People v. Slocum, 1 Ida. 62.

Indiana. — Graham v. State, 66 Ind. 386; State v. Votaw, 8 Blackf. 2.

Iowa. — State v. Henderson, 40 Iowa 242.

Kansas. — Harvey v. Munger, 24 Kan. 205, county attorney has full power to use the name of the state in such actions.

Mississippi. — Kemp v. State, (1899) 24 So. 695 (by board in name of state); State v. Mayes, 54 Miss. 417.

Missouri. — State v. Sappington, 68 Mo. 454.

North Carolina. — State v. Thees, 89 N. C. 55; State v. McIntosh, 31 N. C. 307.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 156.

55. Upon relation of county auditor. — Hostetler v. State, 62 Ind. 183; Yater v. State, 58 Ind. 299; Cabel v. McCafferty, 53 Ind. 75; Taggart v. State, 49 Ind. 47; Snyder v. State, 21 Ind. 77.

Upon relation of commissioners. — Graham v. State, 66 Ind. 386; Westcott v. Thees, 89 N. C. 55; State v. Magnin, 78 N. C. 181.

In Nebraska a suit in behalf of the public against a county treasurer for a breach of the conditions of his bond must be instituted by the county clerk at the direction of the state auditor or county commissioners, and the petition should allege that it is so instituted. Albertson v. State, 9 Nebr. 429, 2 N. W. 742, 892.

56. Perry v. Woodberry, 26 Fla. 97, 7 So. 483.

57. Com. v. Tilton, 54 S. W. 11, 21 Ky. L. Rep. 1079.

58. State v. Roberts, 40 Ind. 451, holding that the code had not modified the common law in this respect.

59. Self v. Blount County, 124 Ala. 191, 27 So. 554.

60. See, generally, PLEADING.

61. Patrick v. Rucker, 19 Ill. 428; Annapolis Sav. Inst. v. Bannon, 68 Md. 458, 13 Atl. 353; State v. Thomas, 17 Mo. 503. And that it is the proximate cause of the loss or injury complained of. Sacramento County v. Bird, 31 Cal. 67; People v. Myers, (Colo. App. 1901) 65 Pac. 409; State v. Bottorff, 8 Blackf. (Ind.) 337; State v. Hall, 68 Miss. 719, 10 So. 54.

62. State v. Fredericks, 8 Iowa 553. See also White Pine County v. Herrick, 19 Nev. 34, 5 Pac. 276.

63. Schoharie County v. Pindar, 3 Lans. (N. Y.) 8.

64. Houghton County Sup'rs v. Rees, 34 Mich. 481. Thus in an action against a county treasurer upon his bond for failure to pay over funds coming into his hands, it should appear that funds had come into the official's hands during his term whereby he was enabled to comply with this requirement.

a county officer for failure to pay over balances found to be due from him, the declaration should aver either that such officer had settled with the county court and had failed to pay the amount due, or that he failed to settle and the county court had proceeded to adjust his accounts and render judgment against him.[65] In actions for non-payment of money, it should appear to whom he refused to make the payment in question,[66] but an allegation that he refused to pay over money to his successor in office has been held sufficient;[67] yet if his successor holds by virtue of appointment, the authority of the county to make the same should appear.[68] Where it is the duty of county commissioners to bring suit against the sheriff for failure to account for county taxes only where the county treasurer fails to bring such suit, the complaint when the commissioners are the relators should allege the failure of the county treasurer to sue, and the reason of their doing so.[69]

(2) ANSWER. The answer must clearly and specifically deny the breach alleged,[70] or state matters in avoidance, not amounting to conclusions of law.[71] And while a plea that the principal therein was not such official would be good,[72] if the execution of his bond is a matter of record a plea of non est factum cannot be made.[73]

(E) Defenses. In an action on a county official's bond for failure to account for all money actually received or collected by him in his official capacity, the obligors cannot defend upon the ground that the money did not belong to the county,[74] that it had been irregularly collected or receipted for,[75] that the funds received by him were illegal or exacted without authority of law,[76] or that the State v. Votaw, 8 Blackf. (Ind.) 2. And that the money remained in the officer's hands at the expiration of his term. Pickett v. Hamilton County, 24 Ind. 366.

65. Jones v. State, 15 Ark. 261. But see Clay County v. Simonsen, 1 Dak. 403, 46 N. W. 592.

Sufficient averment of settlement by court. — An averment that a certain sum remained in a treasurer's hands, that he was summoned to appear in court and settle, but failed so to do, that the court struck a certain sum as the balance against him, and that he is justly indebted as the records of the court show, is a sufficient averment of settlement. State v. Croft, 24 Ark. 550.

66. State v. Bottorff, 8 Blackf. (Ind.) 337.

67. Graves v. State, 136 Ind. 406, 36 N. E. 275; State v. Spears, Smith (Ind.) 360; State v. Bottorff, 8 Blackf. (Ind.) 337; Hickory County v. Fugate, (Mo. 1898) 44 S. W. 789; Crook County v. Bushnell, 15 Oreg. 169, 13 Pac. 886.

As to sufficient allegation of the existence of a successor see Redwood County v. Tower, 28 Minn. 45, 8 N. W. 907.

68. Washington County Sup'rs v. Semler, 41 Wis. 374.

As to sufficient averment of due appointment see Carver County v. Bongard, 82 Minn. 431, 85 N. W. 214.

Alleging that money belonged to county. — Where the complaint shows that the officer received money in his official capacity and failed to deliver the same to his successor in office, it is not necessary to allege that the money belonged to the county whose officer he was. Crook County v. Bushnell, 15 Oreg. 169, 13 Pac. 886.

69. State v. Clarke, 73 N. C. 255.

70. Kindle v. State, 7 Blackf. (Ind.) 586; McKinney v. State, 68 Miss. 284, 8 So. 648.

71. Perry v. Woodberry, 26 Fla. 84, 7 So. 483.

72. Taylor v. Arthur, 9 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 183.

73. Stuart v. Com., 91 Va. 152, 21 S. E. 246.

74. Coleman v. Pike County, 83 Ala. 326, 3 So. 755, 3 Am. St. Rep. 746. See also Helm v. Com., 79 Ky. 67.

75. California. — Heppe v. Johnson, 73 Cal. 265, 14 Pac. 833.

Illinois. — Campbell v. People, 154 Ill. 595, 39 N. E. 578 [affirming 52 Ill. App. 338].

Kansas. — Doolittle v. Atchison, etc., R. Co., 20 Kan. 329.

Michigan. — Montmorency County v. Wiltse, 125 Mich. 47, 83 N. W. 1010.

Texas. — Burk v. Galveston County, 76 Tex. 267, 13 S. W. 455.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 154.

A former recovery against a county treasurer and sureties on his first bond for a default occurring after its execution, and before the execution of a second bond, is no defense to an action on the latter for a default occurring after its execution, but during the same term of office. Warren County v. Ward, 21 Iowa 84.

76. Alabama. — Coleman v. Pike County, 86 Ala. 393, 5 So. 481.

Iowa. — Mahaska County v. Ingalls, 14 Iowa 170.

Mississippi. — McKinney v. State, 68 Miss. 284, 8 So. 648.

New York. — Seneca County v. Allen, 99 N. Y. 532, 2 N. E. 459; Rensselaer County v. Bates, 17 N. Y. 242.

commissioners had not complied with the statute in respect to their supervisory duties.[77] Nor will ignorance of the law relieve the official from a penalty for failing to submit his bond to the commissioners within the time specified.[78] And the county's liability to the state for misapplied state taxes will not absolve him from his liability to the state therefor.[79] So the sureties cannot defend upon the ground that the treasurer did not receive the money,[80] or that the commissioners knew of the loss for which the sureties are sought to be charged, before their execution of the bond.[81] In such action a plea of set-off is bad which fails to show that the claim sought to be set off has been presented to the board as required by statute.[82]

(F) Evidence.[83] In an action on a county official's bond the best evidence of default must of course be produced,[84] but the certificates, receipts, or vouchers of a county official for public moneys,[85] entries in his official books,[86] or duly and properly executed settlements or reports with the county official are admissible as against the obligors on his bond, upon the question of what funds came to his hands;[87] and evidence that payments had been made to a county treasurer which had not been credited affects only the weight to be given to such settlements as prima facie evidence of the state of his accounts.[88] On the other hand any evidence tending to rebut the evidence of his default would be admissible on behalf of the official.[89] If it appears that in the account of a county treasurer settled by

Ohio.— State v. Kelly, 32 Ohio St. 421; Feigert v. State, 31 Ohio St. 432.

Pennsylvania. — Boehmer v. Schuylkill County, 46 Pa. St. 452.

Tennessee.— Anderson County v. Hays, 99 Tenn. 542, 42 S. W. 266; Wilson v. State, 1 Lea 316.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 154.

77. Alabama.— See Jackson County v. Derrick, 117 Ala. 348, 23 So. 193.

Iowa.— Muscatine County v. Carpenter, 33 Iowa 41.

Kansas.— Loper v. State, 48 Kan. 540, 29 Pac. 687.

Minnesota.— Waseca County v. Sheehan, 42 Minn. 57, 43 N. W. 690, 5 L. R. A. 785.

Pennsylvania. — Boehmer v. Schuylkill County, 46 Pa. St. 452; Wylie v. Gallagher, 46 Pa. St. 205.

Utah.— State v. Stanton, 14 Utah 180, 46 Pac. 1109.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 154.

78. Wimbish v. Com., 75 Va. 839.

79. Hughes v. Com., 48 Pa. St. 66.

80. The auditor's report shows that such amounts actually came into his hands. Com. v. Sweigart, 9 Pa. Super. Ct. 455, 16 Lanc. L. Rev. 219.

81. Coe v. Nash, (Tex. Civ. App. 1897) 40 S. W. 235.

82. State v. Banks, 66 Miss. 431, 6 So. 184; Botetourt County v. Burger, 86 Va. 530, 10 S. E. 264.

83. See, generally, EVIDENCE.

84. Thus where the law directs the money to be paid only on the warrants or receipts of other public officers, such warrants or receipts must be produced or their loss explained. State v. Teague, 9 S. C. 149. See also Clements v. Boissat, 26 La. Ann. 243.

85. Butte County v. Morgan, 76 Cal. 1, 18 Pac. 115; Placer County v. Dickerson, 45 Cal. 12; Burk v. Galveston County, 76 Tex. 267, 13 S. W. 455. See also Albertson v. State, 9 Nebr. 429, 2 N. W. 742, 892.

86. Cawley v. People, 95 Ill. 249.

Books of account, provided for by statute to be kept by the county clerk with the county treasurer, are evidence of the amount due the county in case of default by the treasurer. Rizer v. Callen, 27 Kan. 339; State v. Teague, 9 S. C. 149.

87. Coleman v. Pike County, 83 Ala. 326, 3 So. 755, 3 Am. St. Rep. 746; Monroe County v. Clarke, 25 Hun (N. Y.) 282; Tompkins County v. Bristol, 15 Hun (N. Y.) 116 (holding, however, that statements made by him to his successor after the expiration of his term would not be admissible); State v. McDannel, (Tenn. Ch. App. 1900) 59 S. W. 451. See also Clark County v. Hayman, 142 Mo. 430, 44 S. W. 237.

A report of an expert who had examined a treasurer's accounts is not error, where the expert testifies orally at the instance of the objecting party to the facts stated in his report. Doll v. People, 145 Ill. 253, 34 N. E. 413 [affirming 48 Ill. App. 418].

But a mere synopsis of the settlement with the county of a sheriff who was authorized to take in payment for swamp lands cash, notes, and county railroad bonds, without distinguishing between the amounts of each received, is not sufficient on which to found a judgment in a suit on the sheriff's bond. State v. Roberts, 62 Mo. 388. See also Scott County v. Ring, 29 Minn. 398, 13 N. W. 181.

88. Montmorency County v. Putnam, 122 Mich. 581, 81 N. W. 573.

89. As for instance payments and expenditures during the term subsequent to that during which the default is alleged to have occurred. Moore v. Madison County, 38 Ala. 670.

As to sufficiency of evidence in general see the following cases:

the auditor the treasurer has charged himself and credited the county which was indebted to him with a sum of money, for the amount of which he has drawn an order on the treasurer of another county, it is decisive evidence, in an action brought for the use of the county against the person on whom the order was drawn, that the county has received the money, whether the order was paid or not.[90]

(G) Judgment.[91] Where the finding on a county official's bond is for the full penalty, judgment will not be arrested for failure to make special entry of the amount of the execution.[92] Nor will a judgment against him for the amount for which he has failed to account be reversed because of an irregularity in charging such amount.[93] It is proper in an action on a bond of a county official to enter judgment against each of the sureties for the amount for which he is liable.[94]

(II) By Summary Proceedings[95] — (A) Right to Institute — (1) In General. In many jurisdictions proceedings of a summary nature are provided for by statute by which a county official or his sureties may on default be proceeded against in a more expeditious manner than the usual judicial proceedings.[96] Such provisions must, however, be strictly followed,[97] and are not extended by implication or intendment.[98]

(2) By County. In some jurisdictions a motion may be maintained in the name of the state for the use of a county against a delinquent trustee and his sureties to recover moneys collected by him.[99]

(3) By Creditor of County. Express statutory provision is made in some states for summary proceedings against county treasurers or trustees and their sureties on their official bonds for failure to pay allowed claims against the county, by the holders of such claims or their assignees.[1] In others a county creditor can

California.— Sonoma County v. Stofen, 125 Cal. 32, 57 Pac. 681; Los Angeles County v. Lankershim, 100 Cal. 525, 35 Pac. 153, 556; Butte County v. Morgan, 76 Cal. 1, 18 Pac. 115.

Michigan.— Montmorency County v. Putnam, 127 Mich. 36, 86 N. W. 398; Montmorency County v. Wiltse, 125 Mich. 47, 83 N. W. 1010.

New York.— Tompkins County v. Bristol, 99 N. Y. 316, 1 N. E. 878.

Texas.— Burk v. Galveston County, 76 Tex. 267, 13 S. W. 455.

West Virginia.—State v. Keadle, 44 W. Va. 594, 29 S. E. 976.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 158.

90. Boggs v. Miles, 8 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 407.

91. See, generally, Judgments.

92. State v. Bonner, 5 Mo. App. 13.

93. Beaver v. State, 124 Ind. 324, 24 N. E. 242.

94. Custer County v. Albien, 7 S. D. 482, 64 N. W. 533. See also People v. Rooney, 29 Cal. 642.

95. See, generally, Summary Proceedings.

96. Lamb v. Dart, 108 Ga. 602, 34 S. E. 160 (holding that by virtue of such statute the county board were authorized to issue execution against the estate of a deceased defaulting treasurer); Jones v. Collier, 65 Ga. 553; Com. v. Jackson, 10 Bush (Ky.) 424 (holding that a trustee of a jury fund is an officer "authorized to collect public money" within such statute); McGuire v. Owsley County, 7 B. Mon. (Ky.) 340; Derrick v. State, 3 Lea (Tenn.) 396.

By officer against deputy and sureties.— In Virginia a county treasurer may proceed by motion, and upon due notice against his deputy and the sureties of the latter for failure of the deputy to pay over on account money for tax tickets placed in his hands for collection, and in such a proceeding formal pleadings are not required, but any proper defense may be made as well without as with a plea. Hall v. Ratliff, 93 Va. 327, 24 S. E. 1011.

97. Judson v. Smith, 104 Mo. 61, 15 S. W. 956.

98. Caldwell v. Dunklin, 65 Ala. 461. See also Lamb v. Dart, 108 Ga. 602, 34 S. E. 160, where it was held that a proper construction of the statutory provisions allowing the remedy against a county treasurer authorized a recovery of twenty per cent interest upon the amount for which execution is issued.

99. Jernegan v. Gray, 14 Lea (Tenn.) 536.

Amendment.— The sureties cannot, in the absence of fraud or collusion, object to the changing of the party plaintiff from chairman of the county court to that of the state. Jernegan v. Gray, 14 Lea (Tenn.) 536.

1. Enloe v. Reike, 56 Ala. 500.

Necessity for written transfer of claim.— Under the statutes of Alabama providing that such proceedings against a treasurer for failure to pay an allowed claim may be instituted by "the party to whom the claim is payable, his legal representative, or assigns," the assignee should be one who had received such claim by a transfer in writing and not by mere delivery (Enloe v. Reike, 56 Ala.

maintain a motion in his own name against a county official or his sureties for failure to pay a county claim, but cannot maintain it against both.[2] The statutes authorizing such proceedings must be strictly followed in all matters of substance, and the record must affirmatively show every material fact necessary to sustain the proceeding.[3]

(B) Notice to Official. Notice is required to be given, under most of the statutory provisions, permitting a summary remedy.[4]

9. Criminal Responsibility — a. What Constitutes Offense. In many of the states certain acts of malfeasance or nonfeasance by county officers are made criminal offenses or misdemeanors punishable by indictment or information, as for instance the wilful omission by a county officer to perform any duty enjoined upon him by law;[5] the obtaining of county funds not belonging to him;[6] the taking of illegal fees;[7] failure to give notice of funds available to redeem county warrants;[8] failure to deliver to his successor all money, securities, property, books, papers, etc., belonging to the county or appertaining to the office;[9] or speculation in county warrants, orders, or demands on the county by buying up the same for less than par value.[10] And it is no defense to an indictment for this latter offense that the person from whom he purchased it did not have a good title,[11] or that the official intended to purchase it for another, it not being shown that the money of such other was used.[12] So also members of a county board of civil-service commissioners may be indicted for a violation of the county civil-service act by irregularly issuing a certificate of appointment without regular examination of the appointee.[13] It is not compounding a felony for a county treasurer to account for moneys as received from his predecessor, which he has not in fact received, and 500), but in Tennessee his possession of the claim is prima facie evidence of his ownership (Howard v. Horner, 11 Humphr. (Tenn.) 532).

2. Ridener v. Rogers, 6 B. Mon. (Ky.) 594.

3. Enloe v. Reike, 56 Ala. 500.

Thus it should be made to clearly appear upon what claim the motion is founded (Howard v. Horner, 11 Humphr. (Tenn.) 532); that the claim, payment of which is sought to be enforced, has been duly allowed (Cohen v. Coleman, 71 Ala. 496); and that funds for its liquidation are in the officer's hands or could be secured by the exercise of his official powers (Thompson v. Healy, 4 Metc. (Ky.) 257. See also Caldwell v. Guinn, 54 Ala. 64).

4. Caldwell v. Guinn, 54 Ala. 64; Foster v. Justices Cherokee County Inferior Ct., 9 Ga. 185; Adams v. Arnold, 76 Miss. 655, 24 So. 868; Hall v. Ratliff, 93 Va. 327, 24 S. E. 1011.

Under a later provision of the Georgia statute this requirement was omitted. Price v. Douglas County, 77 Ga. 163, 3 S. E. 240.

5. Ex p. Harrold, 47 Cal. 129; Kennedy v. State, 34 Ohio St. 310.

Application of statute.— In Ex p. Harrold, 47 Cal. 129, it was held that Cal. Pen. Code, § 176, which makes a wilful omission by an officer to perform a duty enjoined by law a misdemeanor, does not apply to conditions or qualifications upon which the incumbent's right to hold an office depends; but to duties pertaining to the office while in the discharge of official duties, and that the failure of a county treasurer to reside at the county-seat of his county, as required by Cal. Pol. Code, § 4119, is not an "omission to perform any duty enjoined by law upon a public officer," within the meaning of Cal. Pen. Code, § 176, and is not made a misdemeanor.

6. State v. Crowley, 39 N. J. L. 264.

Fraudulent taking or misapplication of money belonging to county.— The term "money" as used in Tex. Pen. Code, art. 103, which provides for the punishment of any county officer who shall fraudulently take or misapply any "money" belonging to the county, means legal-tender metallic coins or legal-tender currency of the United States; the definition of the term in articles 789, 792, being confined to the offenses of embezzlement and swindling. Lewis v. State, 28 Tex. App. 140, 12 S. W. 736.

7. McCarthy v. Territory, 1 Wyo. 311.

8. Ex p. Howe, 26 Oreg. 181, 37 Pac. 536.

9. State v. Hebel, 72 Ind. 361; Howze v. State, 59 Miss. 230.

10. Wilder v. State, 47 Ga. 522; Vanhook v. State, 5 Blackf. (Ind.) 450; Marks v. State, 71 Miss. 206, 14 So. 459.

Amount must appear on face of order.— Under Ind. Rev. Stat. (1838), p. 154, making it an indictable offense for a county officer to receive an order on demand against his county for an amount less than that expressed on its face, the order or demand must express its amount on its face. It is not sufficient that it may be arrived at by calculation. Vanhook v. State, 5 Blackf. (Ind.) 450.

11. Wilder v. State, 47 Ga. 522.

12. Marks v. State, 71 Miss. 206, 14 So. 459.

13. Morrison v. People, 196 Ill. 454, 63 N. E. 989.

himself assume their payment upon the predecessor's assurance that he will make the amount good if his accounts are incorrect.[14]

b. Indictment and Trial.[15] Where the indictment is for failure to pay over moneys to the defendant's successor in office it must be alleged that his term of office had expired, and that at the expiration of the term there remained in his possession moneys received by him as such officer, and that he failed to pay over the same to his successor.[16] An indictment for buying up county orders at less than par sufficiently charges the offense when it alleges that this was done either by himself or his agents, directly or indirectly.[17] An indictment for taking illegal fees, which merely alleges that the defendant "was then and there unlawfully and corruptly guilty of malfeasance" is insufficient.[18] An indictment against an officer of a county for obtaining county funds not belonging to him need not state the means and methods of obtaining the money.[19] A county treasurer, when prosecuted for embezzlement of county funds, may, in order to establish a defense that the embezzlement in fact occurred more than three years previous to the finding of the indictment, impeach the previous settlements made by him, and show that in such settlements the certificates of deposit and other vouchers produced by him were false, and that the amounts of cash represented thereby were not to his credit in the banks at the time of such settlements.[20]

V. PROPERTY.

A. Acquisition and Tenure — 1. In General. In accordance with the general rule already stated, that counties have a corporate capacity only for particular specified purposes, and such powers only as are specifically granted by the act of incorporation, or as are necessary for the purpose of carrying into effect the powers expressly granted,[21] they have only such powers with regard to the acquisition of real estate as are given them either expressly or impliedly by statute.[22] They may be, and generally are, expressly empowered to acquire and hold both real and personal estate,[23] but usually with some such limitation as that the acqui-

14. Van Ness v. Hadsell, 54 Mich. 560, 20 N. W. 585.

15. See, generally, CRIMINAL LAW; INDICTMENTS AND INFORMATIONS.

16. State v. Hebel, 72 Ind. 361.

17. Wilder v. State, 47 Ga. 522.

18. McCarthy v. Territory, 1 Wyo. 311.

19. State v. Crowley, 39 N. J. L. 264, where it was held that an indictment which states that the defendant was an officer of the county of B, that is to say, a chosen freeholder for the township of W; that he, while he continued such officer, wilfully and unlawfully did obtain from said board of chosen freeholders, that is to say, from the county of B, a certain sum of money not lawfully and justly due him at the time of obtaining the same, sufficiently describes the offense against the statute.

20. State v. Hutchinson, 60 Iowa 478, 15 N. W. 298.

21. Williams v. Lash, 8 Minn. 496.

22. Shelley v. Lash, 14 Minn. 498; Williams v. Lash, 8 Minn. 496.

People of county incompetent to take by grant.— In Jackson v. Cory, 8 Johns. (N. Y.) 385, it was held that the people of a county not being a corporate body, have no capacity to take by grant, and that the act of 1801 enabling supervisors of counties to take conveyances of land apply only to conveyances made to the supervisors by name.

23. Indiana.— Holten v. Lake County, 55 Ind. 194; Hayward v. Davidson, 41 Ind. 212.

Minnesota.— Shepard v. Murray County, 33 Minn. 519, 24 N. W. 291; James v. Wilder, 25 Minn. 305; Shelley v. Lash, 14 Minn. 498; Williams v. Lash, 8 Minn. 496.

New York.— People v. Ingersoll, 58 N. Y. 1, 17 Am. Rep. 178.

Texas.— Scalf v. Collins County, 80 Tex. 514, 16 S. W. 314; Milam County v. Bateman, 54 Tex. 153.

Wisconsin.— French v. Dunn County, 58 Wis. 402, 17 N. W. 1.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 161.

Delegation of power to committee.— Under a statute giving a county board power to purchase land for a poor farm, the county board may delegate to a committee of its members the power to purchase such land and under a resolution authorizing it "to purchase a suitable farm for a county poor-farm," the committee may in its discretion purchase unimproved land. French v. Dunn County, 58 Wis. 402, 17 N. W. 1.

Grant of land to remain unbuilt on with reservation of use to grantor.—In 1772 plaintiff's predecessor in title granted a strip of land eight feet in width to the commissioners of Berks county, adjoining the county jail, reserving the use of the same for an open yard, garden, or grass lot, for the purpose that the same should "be and remain for-sition shall be for the public use of the county.[24] In some jurisdictions, however, the statutes confer the right of counties to take title to and enjoy real estate without any limitation as to the purpose for which the same shall be used.[25]

2. Devise, Donation, or Dedication. A county may take and hold property for such purposes as are authorized by statute, by donation,[26] devise,[27] or dedica-

ever hereafter unbuilt on, in order to prevent any prisoner or prisoners making their escape over the said prison wall, by reason or means of any building to be erected contiguous to the said wall." In 1848 the commissioners, by act of assembly, were authorized to sell the jail property, a new jail having been erected in another place, and they did so sell it to defendant's predecessors in title. Plaintiff filed a bill praying for the cancellation of the deed of 1772, alleging that "she was anxious to sell the property, but was unable to secure an adequate price for the same for the reason that defendants alleged that they had succeeded to the rights of the county commissioners under the deed of 1772 and would assert the same." It was held that the estate in the county under the deed of 1772 was a base fee which determined upon the sale of the jail property, and that plaintiff was entitled to a cancellation of the instrument of 1772. Slegel v. Lauer, 148 Pa. St. 236, 23 Atl. 996, 15 L. R. A. 547.

Land encumbered or granted conditionally. — Under a statute prohibiting county commissioners from receiving conveyances of land in fee simple to the county with a reservation or condition, such commissioners have no power to receive a donation of land with a reservation or limitation in the deed; and so a contract of reconveyance in the event that the county court should not build a court-house upon land conveyed, or that it should be used for other purposes than a site for a court-house, cannot be lawfully made. Rogers v. Sebastian County, 21 Ark. 440. The words "a good unincumbered title" in the eighteenth section of the New York act of April 14, 1854, erecting the county of Schuyler, means a title in fee simple absolute, free and clear from any legal exception or charge thereon. They import an estate without any prior claim, to continue forever, and having no qualifications or conditions in regard to its continuance. It is accordingly held that a deed conveying land to the supervisors so long as said property should be occupied for a county site for the court-house, jail, etc., and when it ceased to be used for the purposes aforesaid, then to revert to the grantor, was not a compliance with the act, and did not convey such a title as was contemplated by the act. Gillespie v. Broas, 23 Barb. (N. Y.) 370.

Power given to a county board or county court by statute to erect a court-house, jail, or other public building, carries with it by implication power to acquire the necessary land on which to erect such buildings. De Witt v. San Francisco, 2 Cal. 289; Sheidley v. Lynch, 95 Mo. 487, 8 S. W. 434; Culpeper v. Gorrell, 20 Gratt. (Va.) 484.

24. Shepard v. Murray County, 33 Minn. 519, 24 N. W. 291: James v. Wilder, 25 Minn. 305; Williams v. Lash, 8 Minn. 496; People v. Ingersoll, 58 N. Y. 1, 17 Am. Rep. 178; Jackson v. Hartwell, 8 Johns. (N. Y.) 422; Vankirk v. Clark, 16 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 286; Alleghany County v. Parrish, 93 Va. 615, 25 S. E. 882. In Hayward v. Davidson, 41 Ind. 212, it was held that counties are expressly empowered to acquire and hold title to real estate for the location of county buildings and for a poor farm, and there may be other instances. See also Holten v. Lake County, 55 Ind. 194, in which it was held that the commissioners of a county have a right prima facie to purchase a tract of land to be used as a home for the poor of their county, which right cannot be questioned in a collateral proceeding.

Purchase of real estate sold on execution. — A county has no capacity to become the purchaser of real estate sold on execution in its favor, where the purchase is not made for the public use of the county within the meaning of Minn. Comp. Stat. p. 109, § 251. Shelley v. Lash, 14 Minn. 498; Williams v. Lash, 8 Minn. 496.

Who may raise question as to acquisition for unauthorized use. — Where a corporation is authorized to acquire and hold title to real estate for some purposes, the state only can question whether or not real estate acquired by such corporation has been acquired for the authorized uses or not. Hayward v. Davidson, 41 Ind. 212; Quitman County v. Stritze, 69 Miss. 460, 13 So. 35; New York L. Ins. Co. v. Cuyahoga County, 106 Fed. 123, 45 C. C. A. 233.

25. Scalf v. Collins County, 80 Tex. 514, 16 S. W. 314.

A county holding stock in a railroad company by authority of a legislative act not restricting the nature of its ownership holds it as a private corporation, and not for a public governmental purpose, and hence the interests of the county therein are not subject to the Mississippi laws of 1894, page 29, authorizing the state revenue agent to sue on obligations or debts to a county. Adams v. Natchez, etc., R. Co., 76 Miss. 714, 25 So. 667.

26. Quitman County v. Stritze, 69 Miss. 460, 13 So. 35; Abernathy v. Dennis, 49 Mo. 468; Gumpert v. Luzerne County, 202 Pa. St. 340, 51 Atl. 968; Milam County v. Bateman, 54 Tex. 153; Gilmore v. Hayworth, 26 Tex. 89.

Donation vesting absolute title. — A donation of real estate to a county for a county-seat, "or for what other use the county may see proper to convert the same," vests in the donee an absolute title to the same and there is no reversion to the donor or to his heirs in case the county-seat is removed. Gilmore v. Hayworth, 26 Tex. 89.

27. Hayward v. Dodson, 41 Ind. 212; Fulbright v. Perry County, 145 Mo. 432, 46 S. W.

tion.[28] The fact that a devise to a county omits to designate the uses to which the property is to be applied will not render such devise void.[29]

3. Proceedings — a. Compliance With Statutory Requirements. The power of a county to acquire and hold real property being derived from statutes, statutory provisions as to the board or officer by whom such power is to be exercised must be strictly followed.[30] So also provisions as to the mode to be pursued are not simply directory, but operate as a limitation upon the power to purchase and must be followed,[31] as for instance, where it is provided that property shall not be purchased unless the taxpayers shall petition therefor,[32] that the question shall be submitted to a popular vote of the county,[33] that notice of intention to purchase is published for a certain time and in a certain manner,[34] or that two successive grand juries shall report that the necessities of the county require ground at the county-seat for the purpose of erection of county buildings.[35]

955; Christy v. Ashtabula County Com'rs, 41 Ohio St. 711; Carder v. Fayette County, 16 Ohio St. 353; Bell County v. Alexander, 22 Tex. 350, 73 Am. Dec. 268.

A devise to the county is a devise to the commissioners of the county and vests the title in them. Carder v. Fayette County, 16 Ohio St. 353.

28. Kent County v. Grand Rapids, 61 Mich. 144, 27 N. W. 888. See also Mahon v. Luzerne County, 9 Kulp (Pa.) 453, where it was held that a county has no inherent right of property in a public square which has been dedicated to the use of all the citizens of the commonwealth. Such a public square resembles a public highway, and no one can block it up.

29. Carder v. Fayette County, 16 Ohio St. 353.

30. Pulaski County v. Lincoln, 9 Ark. 320; Casady v. Woodbury County, 13 Iowa 113.

Commissioners appointed "to locate and establish a seat of justice" in a county have no authority to make contracts in behalf of the county with the owner of land which they decide upon, for the location of such county-seat. Overman v. Kerr, 17 Iowa 485.

Right of county convention to act with county commissioners.— Under N. H. Gen. Stat. c. 22, § 2, giving a county convention power to raise county taxes and to authorize the repair of public buildings costing more than one thousand dollars in a single year, the convention cannot by committee or otherwise act with the county commissioners in the purchase of furniture and other personal property for the use of a county poor farm. Brown v. Reding, 50 N. H. 336.

The county judge and justices are the sole judges of the need of a poor-house, and can purchase land therefor and make necessary improvements under Ky. Gen. Stat. c. 86, § 4. Jones v. Pendleton County Ct., (Ky. 1892) 19 S. W. 740.

Two of three commissioners appointed by the county court to select and contract for a site for a poor-house cannot make a valid purchase. Pulaski County v. Lincoln, 9 Ark. 320.

Where it is necessary for the county court to approve the purchase of land by special commissioners, and a presiding judge by reason of his interest in the sale as vendor cannot vote on such approval, the other judges cannot proceed without him, and the act of a court in approving the purchase without the vote of such presiding judge is void. Pulaski County v. Lincoln, 9 Ark. 320.

31. Hudson v. Jefferson County Ct., 28 Ark. 359; Winn v. Shaw, 87 Cal. 631, 25 Pac. 968.

32. Hudson v. Jefferson County Ct., 28 Ark. 359.

33. Ball v. Bannock County, 5 Ida. 602, 51 Pac. 454; Casady v. Woodbury County, 13 Iowa 113.

Necessity of acceptance by board after vote. — Where a building is leased to a county board with the stipulation that the county might at any time purchase it after the majority vote in favor of purchasing it, this vote does not constitute a complete contract of sale, but the same must be consummated by a ratification by the act of the board. Starr v. Des Moines County, 22 Iowa 492.

34. Winn v. Shaw, 87 Cal. 631, 25 Pac. 968.

Ohio Rev. Stat. § 877, which requires commissioners to publish notice of their intentions in purchasing land to erect any building, do not apply to proceedings under section 929 for the purpose of lands for the Children's Home. State v. Darke County, 43 Ohio St. 311, 1 N. E. 209.

35. Sharp v. Wike, (Pa. 1887) 9 Atl. 454; Bennett v. Norton, 171 Pa. St. 221, 32 Atl. 1112 [affirming 7 Kulp (Pa.) 443]; Northampton County Com'rs' Appeal, 57 Pa. St. 452; York v. Commissioners, 6 Watts (Pa.) 229. But see Gumpert v. Luzerne County, 202 Pa. St. 340, 51 Atl. 968.

The Pennsylvania act of April 15, 1837, authorizing county commissioners to erect public buildings, on procuring the sanction of two successive grand juries, is not applicable merely to new counties, but such sanction is necessary before the commissioners can be authorized to rebuild a court-house where the one in use is too small for the accommodation of the public. York v. Commissioners, 6 Watts (Pa.) 229.

Power of quarter sessions to reverse its action.— Where two successive grand juries recommended the erection of county buildings and such recommendation was approved by the court of quarter sessions, the authority to erect such buildings is completely vested

b. Power to Purchase Without Previous Appropriation. In one state it is expressly provided by statute that where a board of freeholders is authorized to purchase sites for public buildings, to purchase toll-roads, to build bridges, or to erect public buildings, the extraordinary expenditures so authorized may be in addition to and in excess of the annual appropriation previously made by such board.[36]

c. Failure to Levy Tax For Purchases at Proper Time. Where the county votes the levy of a tax for the purchase of real property upon the valuation of taxable property of the county for a certain year and the land in question is purchased during that year, the failure to levy the tax at the proper time will not invalidate the purchase nor prevent the commissioners from levying such tax afterward.[37]

d. Implied Acceptance of Property From Use Under Protest. Where a lot and the building thereon are donated to county commissioners for a court-house, an occupation of such building by the board as their place of meeting, although under protest, is a sufficient acceptance of the building as a court-house by the county.[38]

e. Effect of Deed, Conveyance, or Mortgage to County Commissioners. According to a number of decisions a conveyance of land to the county commissioners vests in the county a legal title to such property;[39] so also a mortgage given to county commissioners instead of to the county has been held to be good.[40]

B. Construction, Maintenance, and Repair of Public Buildings — 1. In General. The authority to provide, construct, improve, maintain, and repair court-houses, jails, and other public county buildings is usually vested in the county board of commissioners of each county,[41] or the county court, or a judge in the county commissioners, and the quarter sessions have no power subsequently to suspend or reverse its action. Northampton County Com'rs' Appeal, 57 Pa. St. 452.

36. Quackenbush v. State, 57 N. J. L. 18, 29 Atl. 431, holding that the New Jersey act of April 2, 1888, to the effect stated in the text, applies to the county of Passaic.

37. State v. Pratt County, 42 Kan. 641, 22 Pac. 722.

38. Stafford County v. State, 40 Kan. 21, 18 Pac. 889.

39. Street v. McConnell, 16 Ill. 125; Sumner v. Darnell, 128 Ind. 38, 27 N. E. 162, 12 L. R. A. 173. See also Skipwith v. Martin, 50 Ark. 141, 6 S. W. 514.

By Pa. Pub. Laws (1834), p. 537, § 9, the titles to all court-houses, jails, etc., theretofore vested in county commissioners are declared to be vested in the respective counties. Prior to the passage of the above act the commissioners and their successors in office were regarded as corporations. As such they had power to accept a grant of land for such purposes as were lawful, having no power to hold land for other than a lawful purpose. In case land were taken and the purpose ceases the right to hold the land would determine. Slegel v. Lauer, 148 Pa. St. 236, 23 Atl. 996, 15 L. R. A. 547. See also Slegel v. Herbine, 10 Pa. Co. Ct. 347.

40. Rood v. Winslow, 2 Dougl. (Mich.) 68 [affirming Walk. (Mich.) 340].

A deed for an interest in land for the use and benefit of a county made to individuals as commissioners appointed by an act creating a county, but whose duties under the act were to determine when county commissioners should be elected and qualified, is valid and effective, although executed after the election and qualification of others as county commissioners. Elk County v. Earley, 121 Pa. St. 496, 15 Atl. 602.

41. Illinois.— Randolph County Com'rs v. Jones, 1 Ill. 237.

Indiana.— Robling v. Pike County, 141 Ind. 522, 40 N. E. 1079; Potts v. Bennett, 140 Ind. 71, 39 N. E. 518; Kitchel v. Union County, 123 Ind. 540, 24 N. E. 366; Nash v. State, 33 Ind. 78.

Iowa.— Way v. Fox, 109 Iowa 340, 80 N. W. 405; Miller v. Merriam, 94 Iowa 126, 62 N. W. 689; Merchant v. Tama County, 32 Iowa 200.

Kentucky.— Hollenbeck v. Winnebago County, 1 Ky. L. Rep. 198.

Michigan.— Thomas v. Kent Cir. Judge, 116 Mich. 106, 74 N. W. 381; Wayne County v. Carpenter, 114 Mich. 44, 72 N. W. 19.

Mississippi.— Allgood v. Hill, 54 Miss. 666.

New Hampshire.— Whitcher v. Grafton County, 67 N. H. 582, 39 Atl. 441.

New York.— Roach v. O'Dell, 33 Hun 320; People v. Opdyke, 40 Barb. 306.

Ohio.— Ex p. Black, 1 Ohio St. 30; State v. Williams County, 2 Ohio Cir. Dec. 227; State v. Urner, 9 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 271, 12 Cinc. L. Bul. 34; State v. Ottawa County, 7 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 34, 5 Ohio N. P. 260.

Pennsylvania.— Sharp v. Wike, (1887) 9 Atl. 454; Mogel v. Berks County, 154 Pa. St. 14, 26 Atl. 227; Northampton County Com'rs' Appeal, 57 Pa. St. 452; York v. Commissioners, 6 Watts 229.

thereof,[42] and under such authority the question as to the necessity for the erection or repair of a county building, the amounts necessary, whether or not such buildings are sufficiently constructed, etc., are usually left to the discretion of the board or county court,[43] and their decision is final in the absence of an abuse of discretion amounting to fraud.[44]

2. SUBMISSION TO POPULAR VOTE. In some jurisdictions it is expressly provided by statute that the question of the erection of county buildings must be submitted to the vote of the electors of the county.[45] So in one jurisdiction the authorities

Texas.— Robertson v. Breedlove, 61 Tex. 316; Cresswell Ranch, etc., Co. v. Roberts County, (Civ. App. 1894) 27 S. W. 737.

Virginia.— Norfolk County Sup'rs v. Cox, 98 Va. 270, 36 S. E. 380; Manly Mfg. Co. v. Broaddus, 94 Va. 547, 27 S. E. 438.

United States.— Montgomery v. Orr, 27 Fed. 675.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 165.

A suitable building for a jail may be acquired instead of building one. Roach v. O'Dell, 33 Hun (N. Y.) 320; Ex p. Black, 1 Ohio St. 30.

Appropriations and disbursements of appropriations for county asylums.— Under Wis. Laws (1881), c. 233, § 8, amounts to be appropriated for the improvement of the grounds and buildings of the county insane asylums are to be determined by the board in its discretion, but moneys so appropriated are to be disbursed by the trustees of the asylum, who may exercise their discretion as to the nature and character of the improvements. Milwaukee County v. Paul, 59 Wis. 341, 18 N. W. 321.

Necessity for separate estimate as to cost of the building and grounds.— In Iowa the board of supervisors may order the erection of a public building, the cost of which does not exceed five thousand dollars, and may also order the purchase of grounds on which to erect the same, but the cost of the building and grounds are not to be estimated together. Merchant v. Tama County, 32 Iowa 200.

Power to insure county property is included in the power to take care of and improve it. Potts v. Bennett, 140 Ind. 71, 39 N. E. 518; Walker v. Linn County, 72 Mo. 650.

Power to make expenditures for setting out shade trees is included in the power to maintain a good and convenient court-house. Allgood v. Hill, 54 Miss. 666.

Where prison inspectors without authority from the county commissioners or the court of quarter sessions add a building to a county prison, and there is no bill or document to show the expenditures upon the building, a claim for its erection is properly disallowed by the county auditors. Mogel v. Berks County, 154 Pa. St. 14, 26 Atl. 227.

42. Arkansas.— Armstrong v. Truitt, 53 Ark. 287, 13 S. W. 934; In re Buckner, 9 Ark. 73.

Missouri.— Walker v. Linn County, 72 Mo. 650; Vitt v. Owens, 42 Mo. 512.

Tennessee.— Nelson v. Carter County, 1 Coldw. 207.

Vermont.— Campbell v. Franklin County, 27 Vt. 178.

West Virginia.— Hanly v. Randolph County Ct., 50 W. Va. 439, 40 S. E. 389.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 165.

Assent of all the justices unnecessary.—By Tenn. Acts (1856), c. 253, a county judge, as such, has the power to bind the county court by his individual contract for repairs done and improvements made upon the court-house when necessary and proper, without the direction or assent of all the justices. Nelson v. Carter County, 1 Coldw. (Tenn.) 207.

Effect of failure of commissioners of public buildings to take bond.— A statute requiring the commissioners of public buildings to take bond of the person who undertakes the erection of a court-house is directory, and his failure so to do does not affect the jurisdiction of the county court over the subject-matter. Ex p. Buckner, 9 Ark. 73.

Necessity for attendance of justices.— A county court under Ark. Dig. c. 42, have authority to order the building of a court-house without notifying all the justices of the county to attend, providing they have sufficient funds with which to build such court-house. But a tax for such purpose cannot be levied without an order of the court made after a notification to all the justices of the county to attend for that purpose. Ex p. Buckner, 9 Ark. 73.

The power to improve and repair county property may under the Vermont statutes be delegated by the county court judges to a committee. Campbell v. Franklin County, 27 Vt. 178.

43. Robling v. Pike County, 141 Ind. 522, 40 N. E. 1079; Kitchell v. Union County, 123 Ind. 540, 24 N. E. 366; Ex p. Black, 1 Ohio St. 30; State v. Urner, 9 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 277, 12 Cinc. L. Bul. 34; Robertson v. Breedlove, 61 Tex. 316; Cresswell Ranch, etc., Co. v. Roberts County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 27 S. W. 737.

44. Robling v. Pike County, 141 Ind. 522, 40 N. E. 1079; Kitchell v. Union County, 123 Ind. 540, 24 N. E. 366; Robertson v. Breedlove, 61 Tex. 316; Cresswell Ranch, etc., Co. v. Roberts County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 27 S. W. 737; Montgomery v. Orr, 27 Fed. 675. And see Mahon v. Luzerne County, 9 Kulp (Pa.) 453.

Method of reviewing proceedings of quarter sessions.— The proper method of bringing before the supreme court the proceedings of the court of quarter sessions in the erection of a new jail is by certiorari sued out by the county commissioners. Northampton County Com'rs' Appeal, 57 Pa. St. 452.

45. State v. Harrison, 24 Kan. 268; Pauly Jail-Bldg., etc., Co. v. Kearney County, 68 of the county cannot, without submitting the question to vote, contract for expenditures for the erection of a court-house in excess of funds on hand and the proceeds of taxation applicable for the object for the year in which the contract is made;[46] and in others, they cannot contract for the erection of a county building involving an expenditure of more than a designated amount.[47] The question must be submittted at a general or special election, as the statute may provide.[48] It has been held, however, that such provisions do not require the submission to a public vote of the question of making repairs or alterations in a public building already existing.[49]

C. Control and Disposition — 1. In General. The control and management of all property, real and personal, for the use of a county, is usually expressly vested by statute in the county board or county court of each county.[50] They cannot, however, authorize the use of county property for purposes other than those provided by law.[51]

2. Regulation and Use of Property — a. Control Over County Buildings. Under a general authority given to county boards to provide county buildings

Fed. 171, 15 C. C. A. 351; Brown v. Sherman County, 5 Fed. 274, 2 McCrary 469; Lewis v. Sherman County, 5 Fed. 269, 2 McCrary 464, construing Nebraska statute.

In Maine it is provided (Rev. Stat. c. 78, § 14) that county commissioners shall not remove a county building or erect a new one instead of it more than one-half mile from the former location, without first giving notice of their intention and of the place where they propose to locate it, to the municipal officers of each town in the county who shall present the same to the town at its next annual meeting for choice of state or town officers and receive, sort, and count the votes for and against the proposal. See also Hubbard v. Woodsum, 87 Me. 88, 32 Atl. 802.

46. Lewis v. Lofley, 92 Ga. 804, 19 S. E. 57. See also Habersham County v. Porter Mfg. Co., 103 Ga. 613, 30 S. E. 547.

47. Way v. Fox, 109 Iowa 540, 80 N. W. 405; Miller v. Merriam, 94 Iowa 126, 62 N. W. 689; Rock v. Rinehart, 88 Iowa 37, 55 N. W. 21; Cook v. Des Moines County, 70 Iowa 171, 30 N. W. 394; Gray v. Mount, 45 Iowa 591; Marine Ruffner, etc. v. Hamilton County Com'rs, 1 Disn. (Ohio) 39, 12 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 473. In Miller v. Merriam, 94 Iowa 126, 62 N. W. 689, under section 311 of the code, providing when the question submitted involves the borrowing or the expenditure of money, the proposition must be accompanied by a proposition to levy tax for the payment, it is not necessary to submit the proposition for the levy of the tax when there is available money in the county treasury sufficient to pay for the proposed building.

48. Miller v. Merriam, 94 Iowa 126, 62 N. W. 689; Gray v. Mount, 45 Iowa 591; Pauly Jail-Bldg., etc., Co. v. Kearney County, 68 Fed. 171, 15 C. C. A. 351.

Sufficient submission of question.— A submission to the voters of a county of the question whether the county judge shall levy a specified tax for the purpose of constructing a court-house, the tax to be levied from year to year until a sufficient amount is raised for the purpose, is a sufficient submission of the question whether money shall be borrowed to build a court-house and negotiable bonds be sold for obtaining the same. Lynde v. Winnebago County, 16 Wall. (U. S.) 6, 21 L. ed. 272.

Inclusion of more than one object in proposition.— In the submission to the electors of a proposition for the outlay of money for public buildings, two distinct objects, such for instance as the building of a court-house and also a school-house, each calling for a certain specified amount, cannot be included in one proposition, thus preventing the voter from voting for the one and against the other. Gray v. Mount, 45 Iowa 591. See also Hubbard v. Woodsum, 87 Me. 88, 32 Atl. 802. In Rock v. Rinehart, 88 Iowa 37, 55 N. W. 21, a ballot submitting the question whether a court-house to cost not exceeding fifty thousand dollars shall be erected "from the proceeds arising from the sale of land belonging to said county" was held not objectionable as containing two propositions — the erection of the court-house and the sale of the land.

49. State v. Harrison, 24 Kan. 268; Pauly Jail-Bldg., etc., Co. v. Kearney County, 68 Fed. 171, 15 C. C. A. 351. See also Cook v. Des Moines County, 70 Iowa 171, 30 N. W. 394.

50. Arkansas.— State v. Baxter, 50 Ark. 447, 8 S. W. 188.

Illinois.— McDonough County v. Thomas, 84 Ill. App. 408; Hardin v. Sangamon County, 71 Ill. App. 103; Dahnke v. People, 57 Ill. App. 619.

Indiana.— State v. Hart, 144 Ind. 107, 43 N. E. 7, 32 L. R. A. 118.

Kansas.— Brown County Com'rs v. Barnett, 14 Kan. 627.

Missouri.— Sparks v. Purdy, 11 Mo. 219.

New Mexico.— Agna Pura Co. v. Las Vegas, 10 N. M. 6, 60 Pac. 208.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 170.

51. Franklin County v. Gills, 96 Va. 330, 31 S. E. 507.

Powers of sheriff as custodian.— Ill. Rev. Stat. c. 34, § 25, providing that the county board shall have power "to take and have the care and custody of all the real and personal estate owned by the county," does not curtail the common-law powers of the sheriff, as custodian of the court-house and jail, to employ and suitable rooms for county purposes and to control the same, such boards have the power to designate and appropriate rooms in the county court-house for the use of county officers.[52] Where county commissioners are empowered, in case there are no county buildings, to provide suitable rooms for county purposes, they may under such authority provide rooms for county officers, even though the county may possess a court-house which is unsuitable for the occupation or inadequate to the wants of the county; and the judgment of the commissioners is ordinarily conclusive as to unfitness or insufficiency of such buildings.[53]

b. Abandonment of Use of Public Buildings. Where a county abandons the use of public buildings situated on a public square of a county town, it has no equity against the citizens or trustees of such town therefor, and can confer no such equity by sale to a private individual.[54]

3. Renting or Leasing — a. Of County Property — (I) Statutory Authority. In accordance with the general rule heretofore stated that county boards or county courts have no other powers than those conferred expressly or by necessary implication,[55] such courts or boards have no power to rent or lease property or franchises owned by the county in the absence of statutory authority so to do.[56]

(II) Distress For Rent Due County. Under a code provision conferring upon the several counties of the state all the rights of private parties in a janitor to take care of the same. McDonough County v. Thomas, 84 Ill. App. 408.

52. California.— San Joaquin County v. Budd, 96 Cal. 47, 30 Pac. 967.

Illinois.— Dahnke v. People, 57 Ill. App. 619.

Kansas.— Butler v. Neosho County Com'rs, 15 Kan. 178.

Kentucky.— Marshall v. Com., Ky. Dec. 326.

Nevada.— Owen v. Nye County, 10 Nev. 338.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 169.

Mandate to compel board to provide library room.— Where a board of supervisors of a county which has once adopted the provisions of the California act of March 31, 1891, establishing law libraries, fails to provide a suitable or sufficient library room, the board of law library trustees of the county may by mandate compel the board of supervisors to provide such room. Board of Law Library Trustees v. Orange County, 99 Cal. 571, 34 Pac. 244.

Power not exhausted by one designation.— The power of county supervisors to designate rooms in a court-house for the use of county officers is not exhausted by one designation, but they may assign to the district attorney rooms occupied by the judges of the superior court, although such rooms were designated on the building plans as "judges chambers." San Joaquin County v. Budd, 96 Cal. 47, 30 Pac. 967.

Right of the court or judge to provide accommodations upon the failure of the supervisors.— It is expressly provided by Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 144, that if suitable rooms for holding the superior courts are not provided in any county by the supervisors thereof together with the furniture, fuel, and lights sufficient for the transaction of business, the courts or the judge or judges thereof may direct the sheriff to provide such room, etc. It has been held, however, that such provision will not authorize a judge to anticipate the action of the county court or board in completing and furnishing a room of a county court-house designed for him, although the board are unreasonably delaying such work. Los Angeles County v. Los Angeles County Super. Ct., 93 Cal. 380, 28 Pac. 1062.

Right to change courts from one room to another.— The control by a county board over such of the court-rooms in a court-house as have been set apart for and used by the circuit and superior courts, arising from its legal duty to have the care and custody thereof, does not extend so far as to permit it to compulsorily require the judges to change their courts from one room to another at the pleasure of the board. Dahnke v. People, 57 Ill. App. 619.

Under the authority given to judges of county courts to control county buildings they have the power to expel intruders therefrom, yet, where a person has had possession of a public building by consent or permission of the court, he should be notified and have a reasonable time to leave. Sparks v. Purdy, 11 Mo. 219, where it was held that if such person be summarily expelled by order of the justices the latter will be liable.

53. Brown County Com'rs v. Barnett, 14 Kan. 627.

54. Augusta v. Perkins, 8 B. Mon. (Ky.) 207.

After the public use has ceased the right to the ground and buildings belongs to the trustees of the town for the benefit of the town and its citizens. Augusta v. Perkins, 8 B. Mon. (Ky.) 207; Com. v. Bowman, 3 Pa. St. 202

55. See supra, IV, C, 7.

56. State v. Hart, 144 Ind. 107, 42 N. E. 7, 33 L. R. A. 118; Roper v. McWhorter, 77 Va. 214.

Where such authority is conferred it must be strictly pursued, and where this is not done or the authority is exceeded, any lease matters of litigation, a board of county supervisors may distrain for rent due the county from a lessee or his assignee.[57]

b. Of Buildings For County Use. Power to provide for the permanent location of a building by erecting the same has been held to authorize the hiring of a building for that purpose for a term of years.[58] If a demand by certain authorities on the county board for a building is by law made a prerequisite to their authority to provide it a lease of such building without such demand is void.[59] Where a statute provides that the county authorities shall not contract a debt without providing in the ordinance creating it the means of paying it, a lease of property for county purposes without making provisions for payment of the rent as so required is invalid.[60]

4. Power to Mortgage. Without statutory authority county commissioners cannot give a promissory note or mortgage the property of a county, such authority not being provided for in the statute.[61]

5. Alienation — a. Power to Alienate. Counties, like other municipal corporations, possess the right to alienate or dispose of the real or personal property of the corporation of a private nature, unless restrained by charter or statute,[62] and of county property will not be binding and may be set aside. State v. Baxter, 50 Ark. 447, 8 S. W. 188; De Russy v. Davis, 13 La. Ann. 468.

In exercising the power conferred by statute to control county property, being the guardian of property interests of the county, they occupy in that respect a possession of trust, in which they are bound to the same measure of good faith toward the county which is required of an ordinary trustee toward the cestui que trust. State v. Baxter, 50 Ark. 447, 8 S. W. 188; Andrews v. Pratt, 44 Cal. 309.

57. Lewis v. Washington County, 62 Miss. 160.

58. People v. Earle, 47 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 370.

Effect of lease under seals of commissioners.— A lease of a building for a specified time by county commissioners under their own seals and not the county seal is binding on the county as an express contract, and if the possession be not delivered up at the end of the term, but the occupancy continued, an implied contract arises against the county. Dauphin County v. Bridenhart, 16 Pa. St. 458.

Liability for negligent destruction of property.— Where a building leased for county purposes is destroyed by fire through the negligence of its officers the county is responsible to the owner for its value. Williams v. Kearny, 61 Kan. 708, 60 Pac. 1046.

Recovery of rent under unauthorized lease. — Even though county commissioners are not bound by law to provide a building for certain purposes, yet it has been held that if they lease a house for such purpose, the lessor is not bound to inquire under what arrangement it is made; and if without knowledge of the illegal character of the act of the commissioners he may recover rent from the county. Dauphin County v. Bridenhart, 16 Pa. St. 458.

59. Ford v. New York, 63 N. Y. 640; Boller v. New York, 40 N. Y. Super. Ct. 523.

60. Destrehan v. Police Jury, 31 La. Ann. 179.

61. Stewart v. Otoe County, 2 Nebr. 177.

Power to sell is not a power to mortgage, and therefore express authority conferred by statute upon the county commissioners without the consent of the justices of the peace of a county to sell real estate of the county at a fair price does not imply power to encumber the same by mortgage. Vaughn v. Forsyth County, 118 N. C. 636, 24 S. E. 425.

62. Warren County v. Patterson, 56 Ill. 111; Shannon v. O'Boyle, 51 Ind. 565; Tippecanoe County v. Reynolds, 44 Ind. 509, 15 Am. Rep. 245; Missouri River, etc., R. Co. v. Miami County Com'rs, 12 Kan. 482.

Conveyance of swamp lands to agent as compensation for recovery of same.— A county under its power to acquire and hold property and contract for the management, control, and improvement of the same may, through its board, where its title to swamp lands is in doubt, make a valid contract with an individual that in the event of his having the claim to the county established and allowed by the general government, it will allow him as compensation a certain proportion of the lands recovered or of the indemnity granted in lieu thereof. Grimes v. Hamilton County, 37 Iowa 290; Allen v. Cerro Gordo County, 34 Iowa 54.

Lands received by a county as swamp and overflowed or lands as indemnity therefor may be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the erection of public buildings for the use of the town. Rock v. Rinehart, 88 Iowa 37, 55 N. W. 21; Page County v. American Emigrant Co., 41 Iowa 115.

Limitations of power.— In some jurisdictions the power to alienate is subject to some restrictions. Thus under some statutes no sale can be made without the consent of a majority of the electors. Stenberg v. State, 48 Nebr. 299, 67 N. W. 190, 50 Nebr. 127, 69 N. W. 849; Douglass County v. Kellar, 43 Nebr. 635, 62 N. W. 60.

may exercise such power through the proper county authorities.[63] They may even sell all or a part of property which has been purchased for a specific purpose expressed in the deed.[64] This power, however, is subject to the limitation that a county cannot alienate or dispose of for its own benefit property dedicated to or held by it in trust for the public use.[65]

b. By Whom Effected. The exercise of the power of alienation usually devolves upon the county board of commissioners or supervisors.[66] This power must, however, be exercised by the board as a board, and not by the members individually;[67] and it has been held that any number less than the whole has no power to execute a valid deed of sale.[68]

c. Manner of Making Sale. The power which a county possesses to alienate its property must not only be exercised by the proper officer, but where the mode is prescribed the same must be followed or a conveyance of such property will be void.[69] Where the mode of exercising a power by the subordinate agencies of Sale of shares of railroad stock owned by county.— County commissioners may sell and transfer stock of a railroad company belonging to the county as well as any other personal property belonging to the county. Shannon v. O'Boyle, 51 Ind. 565; Missouri River, etc., R. Co. v. Miami County Com'rs, 12 Kan. 482.

63. Hunnicutt v. Atlanta, 104 Ga. 1, 30 S. E. 500; Lyman v. Gedney, 114 Ill. 388, 29 N. E. 282, 55 Am. Rep. 871; Warren County v. Patterson, 56 Ill. 111; Allen v. Cerro Gordo County, 34 Iowa 54.

64. Lyman v. Gedney, 114 Ill. 388, 29 N. E. 282, 55 Am. Rep. 871; Warren County v. Patterson, 56 Ill. 111.

65. West Carroll Parish v. Giddis, 34 La. Ann. 928. See also Lyman v. Gedney, 114 Ill. 388, 29 N. E. 282, 55 Am. Rep. 871, where it was held that where a private individual conveys property to the public for a specified use or where the public authority plat and lay off grounds as dedicated to a public use and sell other adjacent property on the faith of such public use remaining, and in consideration of its benefits to the property sold, it would seem that such property so dedicated to the public cannot afterward be sold to private persons to the detriment of those who have purchased in consideration of the donation. It was further held, however, that a person buying a lot around a public square after the sale of one or more lots thereon cannot be heard to complain nor can any one else after the lapse of fifty years.

66. Florida.— Martin v. Townsend, 32 Fla. 318, 13 So. 887.

Illinois.— Lyman v. Gedney, 114 Ill. 388, 29 N. E. 282, 55 Am. Rep. 871; Warren County v. Patterson, 56 Ill. 111; Williams v. Doe, 2 Ill. 502.

Indiana.— Shannon v. O'Boyle, 51 Ind. 565.

Iowa.— Grimes v. Hamilton County, 37 Iowa 290.

Kansas.— Missouri River, etc., R. Co. v. Miami County Com'rs, 12 Kan. 482.

Ohio.— Reynolds v. Stark County Com'rs, 5 Ohio 204.

Virginia.—Alleghany County v. Parrish, 93 Va. 615, 25 S. E. 882.

Wisconsin.— McCrossen v. Lincoln County, 57 Wis. 184, 14 N. W. 925.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 170 et seq.

Power of county board to prescribe terms of sale of tax certificates.— The provision of Wis. Laws (1861), c. 138, § 1, that the county board may "prescribe the terms of sale and the rate of interest chargeable" by the county treasurer on a sale of tax certificates does not empower the board to authorize him to sell on credit or for anything else than money or to make an executory or conditional contract of sale. Smith v. Barron County, 44 Wis. 686.

67. McCrossen v. Lincoln County, 57 Wis. 184, 14 N. W. 925.

In Texas, however, sales of county real estate can only be made by a commissioner appointed for the purpose by the county court. Ferguson v. Halsell, 47 Tex. 421.

68. Petrie v. Doe, 30 Miss. 698. See also Triecler v. Berks County, 2 Grant (Pa.) 445.

69. Ferguson v. Halsell, 47 Tex. 421.

Limitation as to price.— A county board has no right to give away any property or money of the county, or to dispose of its property for a sum less than its known value or than is offered for the same. McCord v. Pike, 121 Ill. 288, 12 N. E. 259, 2 Am. St. Rep. 85.

Sale at auction.— In some states it is required by statute that property of a county must be disposed of at public auction. Beals v. Evans, 10 Cal. 459; Crow v. Warren County, 118 Ind. 51, 20 N. E. 642; Platter v. Elkhart County, 103 Ind. 360, 2 N. E. 544; Llano County v. Knowles, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 29 S. W. 549. The Cal. Acts (1855), § 9, requiring boards of supervisors to dispose of county property at public auction, was not intended to apply to choses in action, and a county may therefor assign or transfer a warrant drawn in its favor by another county on its treasurer without selling the same at auction. Beals v. Evans, 10 Cal. 459. Under Ind. Rev. Stat. (1881), § 4248, a board of commissioners can sell county property only at public auction after an advertised notice giving the terms, time, and place of sale, a description of the property to be sold, and the kind of security which the purchaser will be required to give. Platter v. Elkhart County, 103 Ind. 360, 2 N. E.

the government is prescribed it is usually held to be a restriction to that particular mode.[70]

d. Consideration. In one jurisdiction it has been held that under a statute providing that the county board shall prescribe the terms of sale of county property they have power to sell only for money;[71] but in the federal supreme court the view is taken that in the absence of some express provision of law restricting the power to sales for money only, the consideration need not be paid in money so long as it is adequate.[72]

e. Deeds — (I) By Whom Executed. Boards of county commissioners may execute deeds of public lands of their counties conveyed by them,[73] and in some jurisdictions they may authorize any officer or member to execute and deliver such deeds.[74]

(II) Execution by Commissioners in Individual Names. In executing a deed of county lands the members of boards of county commissioners do not act for themselves as individuals, but officially on behalf of their county,[75] and a deed by such commissioners executed in behalf of the county in their individual names under their private seals will pass the estate therein conveyed.[76]

6. Suits to Recover Possession of County Property. An action for money or property belonging to a county fraudulently or tortiously obtained or taken can be maintained only by the county to whom the money or property belongs and not by the state.[77] A county may pursue its property in the hands of any one who has it wrongfully, or recover its value from any one who has wrongfully converted it to his own use, in the same manner and to the same extent as it could if it were a private individual.[78] A county having the power to purchase and hold real estate, and capable of suing and being sued, may maintain ejectment for lands which it owns and of which it is entitled to possession,[79] and may bring a

544. Where a contract is made for the removal of old buildings and the furnishing of all necessary material in addition to the material that the old buildings may furnish, such old material does not cease to be the property of the county, and hence the provisions of Ind. Rev. Stat. (1881), § 4248, relating to the sale of county property, do not apply. Crow v. Warren County, 118 Ind. 51, 20 N. E. 642.

Stipulation as to mimimum price.— It is sometimes expressly provided that the property of a county shall not be sold at less than a specified price. Platter v. Elkhart County, 103 Ind. 360, 2 N. E. 544. In Iowa the price of the sale of county swamp lands is not limited to one and twenty-five one hundredth dollars per acre where the county devotes its swamp lands to the purposes prescribed by section 986 of the revision. Page County v. American Emigrant Co., 40 Iowa 460, 41 Iowa 115.

70. Ferguson v. Halsell, 47 Tex. 421.

71. Smith v. Barron County, 44 Wis. 686.

72. Roberts v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 158 U. S. 1, 15 S. Ct. 756, 39 L. ed. 873, where it was held that such lands might be sold for a consideration consisting in the construction of a railroad through the county and the making of improvements in the form of wharves, docks, and depots within the county for the public accommodation.

73. Martin v. Townsend, 32 Fla. 318, 13 So. 887.

74. Weston v. Moody, 37 Fla. 473, 19 So. 880; McCord v. Pike, 121 Ill. 288, 12 N. E. 259, 2 Am. St. Rep. 85; Wabash, etc., R. Co. v. McDougal, 113 Ill. 603; Dart v. Hercules, 34 Ill. 395; Haseltine v. Donahue, 42 Wis. 576.

75. Martin v. Townsend, 32 Fla. 318, 13 So. 887, where it was held that it was not necessary that to the name of each commissioner signing a deed his individual seal should be affixed.

76. Williams v. Doe, 2 Ill. 502, where it was so held under the Illinois act of 1835 making valid conveyances of county property made before that time by county commissioners.

Adoption of seal of probate court.— In the execution of a deed for county land by a county board in the absence of a provision for a distinctive "county seal" the board may properly adopt and affix the seal of the probate court, the judge of which was ex officio president of the board. Martin v. Townsend, 32 Fla. 318, 13 So. 887.

77. People v. Ingersoll, 58 N. Y. 1, 17 Am. Rep. 178 [affirming 67 Barb. 472].

78. Taylor County v. Standley, 79 Iowa 666, 44 N. W. 911, where it was held that where defendant, by conspiracy with the treasurer of plaintiff, came into possession of plaintiff's money and refused to pay it to plaintiff, an action was properly begun and maintained against him therefor. Plaintiff was not confined to its remedy on the treasurer's bond.

79. Lincoln County v. Magruder, 3 Mo. App. 314.

forcible entry and detainer suit to recover possession of any part of its property which is illegally occupied.[80]

7. Actions to Recover For Injuries to County Property. A county, by reason of its control over them, has such an interest in its bridges and highways as to entitle it to maintain an action to recover damages for injuries thereto.[81] And where it has been compelled to pay damages for injuries caused by a defective bridge it may sue to recover such damages from a person or corporation who was under obligation to keep such bridge in a safe condition.[82] The record books of a county being purchased and paid for and owned by the county, it is entitled to sue to recover the value of such books when injured or destroyed through negligence.[83]

8. Actions to Rescind Sale of Property. In an action by taxpayers to annul a sale of county property on account of the inadequacy of the price and other alleged illegalities, the county is entitled to intervene and join the defendants in sustaining the sale, on the ground that it was advantageous to the county.[84]

D. Power of Legislature to Enforce Restitution of Property Exacted by Taxation. In the absence of constitutional provisions to the contrary a state legislature possesses the power to direct a restitution to the taxpayers of a county, of property exacted from them by taxation regardless of the form into which such property may be changed, so long as it remains in the possession of the county. The exercise of such power by the legislature infringes no provision of the federal constitution.[85]

VI. CONTRACTS.

A. Power to Contract — 1. In General. Counties are corporations to the extent that they may lawfully enter into contracts through their authorized officers or agents, usually the board of county commissioners,[86] the county 80. Hardin v. Sangamon County, 71 Ill. App. 103.

81. Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Whitley County Ct., 95 Ky. 215, 24 S. W. 604, 15 Ky. L. Rep. 734, 44 Am. St. Rep. 220; Lawrence County v. Chattaroi R. Co., 81 Ky. 225.

82. Chesapeake, etc., Canal Co. v. Alleghany County Com'rs, 57 Md. 201, 40 Am. Rep. 430.

Remedy for violation of ordinance as to obstruction of levy.— Under the ordinance of the police jury of the parish of Jefferson, that body have no right in their corporate capacity to sue for a violation of their ordinance relative to obstructing the space, in the rear of the levee of the Mississippi, reserved for public use; the parish judge is empowered, on the complaint of any riparian proprietor or other white person, to order the removal of such obstruction, and to impose the fine fixed by the ordinance on the party violating it. Police Jury v. Eastman, 9 Rob. (La.) 297.

83. Toncray v. Dodge County, 33 Nebr. 802, 51 N. W. 235.

84. McConnell v. Hutchinson, 71 Iowa 512, 32 N. W. 481.

85. Tippecanoe County v. Lucas, 93 U. S. 108, 23 L. ed. 822 [affirming 44 Ind. 524].

86. Alabama.— Hays v. Ahlrichs, 115 Ala. 239, 22 So. 465; Montgomery County v. Barber, 45 Ala. 237.

Idaho.— Jolly v. Latah County, 5 Ida. 301, 48 Pac. 1063.

Illinois.— Wheeler v. Wayne County, 132 Ill. 599, 24 N. E. 625; Sexton v. Cook County, 114 Ill. 174, 28 N. E. 608; Jackson County v. Rendleman, 100 Ill. 379, 39 Am. Rep. 44; Randolph County Com'rs v. Jones, 1 Ill. 237.

Indiana.— Duncan v. Lawrence County, 101 Ind. 403; Moon v. Howard County, 97 Ind. 176; State v. Sullivan, 74 Ind. 121.

Iowa.— Fonke v. Jackson County, 84 Iowa 616, 51 N. W. 71.

Kansas.— Neosho County Com'rs v. Stoddart, 13 Kan. 207.

Kentucky.— Field v. Stroube, 103 Ky. 114, 44 S. W. 363, 19 Ky. L. Rep. 1751; O'Mahoney v. Bullock, 97 Ky. 774, 31 S. W. 878, 17 Ky. L. Rep. 523; Whaley v. Com., 61 S. W. 35, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1292.

Michigan.— Stamp v. Cass County, 47 Mich. 330, 11 N. W. 183.

Mississippi.— Jefferson County v. Arrighi, 54 Miss. 668.

Ohio.— Hamilton County v. Noyes, 35 Ohio St. 201; Deters v. Hamilton County, 1 Ohio Cir. Ct. 295.

Oklahoma.— Cleveland County v. Seawell, 3 Okla. 281, 41 Pac. 592.

Pennsylvania.— Treichler v. Berks County, 2 Grant 445; Close v. Berks County, 2 Woodw. 453.

South Carolina.— Edmondston v. Aiken County, 14 S. C. 622; Ostendorff v. Charleston County Com'rs, 14 S. C. 403.

Tennessee.— Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Davidson County Ct., 1 Sneed 637, 62 Am. Dec. 424.

court,[87] or the county clerk.[88] As in the case of other municipal corporations, the officers or agents of a county cannot bind the county by any contract which is beyond the scope of its lawful powers or foreign to its purpose;[89] nor can they extend their obligations so as to bind the county even by an express contract.[90]

2. Notice of Limitations on Power of County Officers to Make Contract. All persons dealing with officers or agents of counties are bound to ascertain the limits of their authority or power as fixed by statutory or organic law, and are chargeable with knowledge of such limits.[91] The acts of such officers or agents do not bind the county unless strictly within the limits so imposed;[92] and no

United States.—McLean v. Hamilton County, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 8,881.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 174 et seq.

A contract, although not made at the office of the county commissioners, is valid and binding if within the scope of their authority. Jefferson County v. Slagle, 66 Pa. St. 202.

A statute prohibiting a member of the board from having an interest in designated county contracts includes both executed and executory contracts. Land, etc., Lumber Co. v. McIntyre, 100 Wis. 258, 75 N. W. 964.

Incompetency of county commissioners cannot be inquired into in a collateral proceeding to enjoin the erection of a vault under a contract let by them within the scope of their authority. Hays v. Ahlrichs, 115 Ala. 239, 22 So. 465.

Must act as a court.— County commissioners have power to contract only as a court. Randolph County Com'rs v. Jones, 1 Ill. 237. See also as to the necessity for a regular session of the commissioners' court Potts v. Henderson, 2 Ind. 327; Groton Bridge, etc., Co. v. Warren County, 80 Miss. 214, 31 So. 711; Bradford County v. Horton, 6 Lack. Leg. N. (Pa.) 306.

One county commissioner alone cannot bind the county by contract, unless he act by the authority of a majority of the board. Treichler v. Berks County, 2 Grant (Pa.) 445. And see Castle v. Bannock County, (Ida. 1901) 67 Pac. 35.

The legislature cannot impair the obligation of a contract made by the board. Slaughter v. Mobile County, 73 Ala. 134.

87. Lawrence County v. Coffman, 36 Ark. 641; Bauer v. Franklin County, 51 Mo. 205.

Ordinaries.— Paulding County v. Scoggins, 97 Ga. 253, 23 S. E. 845.

88. Under the Australian ballot law, which requires the county clerk to cause to be printed, and to furnish to the electors, all ballots, and the county court to audit and pay from the county treasury the necessary expenses incurred by the clerk and sheriff in carrying out the provisions of the act, a county clerk has power to bind the county by a contract for the printing of ballots, subject to the limitation that the price agreed to be paid must be reasonable. Flagg v. Marion County, 31 Oreg. 18, 48 Pac. 693.

89. Wheeler v. Wayne County, 31 Ill. App. 299; Driftwood Valley Turnpike Co. v. Bartholomew County, 72 Ind. 226; Putney Bros. Co. v. Milwaukee County, 108 Wis. 554, 84 N. W. 822. See also Shawnee County Com'rs v. Carter, 2 Kan. 115, where it was held that when the duties of the officers of a county are not only pointed out by law but the mode of performing them is laid down, there is no discretion in the officers as to the manner in which they are to act.

The measure of the duties and powers of county commissioners is the plain language of the act of the legislature that defines them, and beyond such measure they cannot be made liable on an implied contract for any services of the county officer, however meritorious. Close v. Berks County, 2 Woodw. (Pa.) 453.

90. Close v. Berks County, 2 Woodw. (Pa.) 453. And see Grannis v. Blue Earth County, 81 Minn. 55, 83 N. W. 495.

Defense of ultra vires.— There is a broad difference between a private corporation organized for a private purpose, although subserving a public interest, and a public corporation like a county or a city organization, for public purposes only. The latter class may always defend on the ground that the supposed contract was outside of the authority conferred on them by law. Driftwood Valley Turnpike Co. v. Bartholomew County, 72 Ind. 226.

91. Arkansas.— Barton v. Swepston, 44 Ark. 437.

Georgia.— Turner v. Fulton County, 109 Ga. 633, 34 S. E. 1024.

Illinois.— Barnard v. Sangamon County, 91 Ill. App. 98 [reversed in 190 Ill. 116, 60 N. E. 109].

Indiana.— Jay County v. Fertich, 18 Ind. App. 1, 46 N. E. 699.

Kentucky.— Murray v. Carothers, 1 Metc. 71.

Missouri.— Bauer v. Franklin County, 51 Mo. 205.

Montana.— Lehcher v. Custer County, 9 Mont. 315, 23 Pac. 713.

New York.— Freel v. Queens County, 9 N. Y. App. Div. 186, 41 N. Y. Suppl. 68.

South Dakota.— Meek v. Meade County, 12 S. D. 162, 80 N. W. 182.

West Virginia.— Davis v. Wayne County Ct., 38 W. Va. 104, 18 S. E. 373.

Wisconsin.— Endion Imp. Co. v. Evening Telegram Co., 104 Wis. 432, 80 N. W. 732.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 55 et seq.

92. Turner v. Fulton County, 109 Ga. 633, 34 S. E. 1024; Meek v. Meade County, 12 S. D. 162, 80 N. W. 182.

estoppel can be created by the acts of such agents or officers in excess of their statutory powers.[93]

3. Power to Bind Successors by Contract. Although it has been held in some cases that the contract of a county board may be valid and binding, even though performance of some part may be impossible until after the expiration of the term of the majority of the board as it then existed,[94] yet the general rule is that contracts extending beyond the term of the existing board and the employment of agents or servants of the county for such a period, thus tying the hands of the succeeding board and depriving the latter of their proper powers, are void as contrary to public policy,[95] at least in the absence of a showing of necessity of good faith and public interest.[96]

4. Powers in Respect to Particular Contracts — a. Construction of Buildings and Other Improvements. A county board of supervisors or county court have authority to erect a county building, or build bridges or highways, by contract,[97] and in the exercise of this authority they may employ such agents as they choose

93. Platter v. Elkhart County, 103 Ind. 360, 2 N. E. 544; Bazille v. Ramsey County, 71 Minn. 198, 73 N. W. 845; Bay St. Louis v. Hancock County, 80 Miss. 364, 32 So. 54; Storey v. Murphy, 9 N. D. 115, 81 N. W. 23.

Contract valid in part.— Where a county engages a physician for a stated time, at a stated salary, to perform certain services, and a part of the services it had not the power to engage him to perform, the contract is valid for that part for which it had the power to enter into, and it would be bound to that extent the same as a private individual. Galveston County v. Dncie, 91 Tex. 665, 45 S. W. 798.

Estoppel by receiving benefits.— Road commissioners appointed under Kan. Sess. Laws (1887), c. 214, since declared unconstitutional, were without authority; and road improvement certificates issued by them are not binding on the county, and it is not estopped to deny their validity because of having received the benefits of the labor and materials for which they were issued. Willis v. Wyandotte County, 86 Fed. 872, 30 C. C. A. 445.

94. Liggett v. Kiowa County, 6 Colo. App. 269, 40 Pac. 475; Webb v. Spokane County, 9 Wash. 103, 37 Pac. 282.

A contract by the board of commissioners employing a person as superintendent of a county asylum for a period of five years is valid and not contrary to public policy; but such a contract does not prohibit the board discontinuing the asylum. Pulaski County v. Shields, 130 Ind. 6, 29 N. E. 385.

Where a physician has been employed for the term of one year by county commissioners to attend the poor of the county and has accepted the employment and entered upon the discharge of his duties, the contract cannot be afterward rescinded by the county, although extending for a period beyond the terms of the commissioners making it. Webb v. Spokane County, 9 Wash. 103, 37 Pac. 282 [citing Pulaski County v. Shields, 130 Ind. 6, 29 N. E. 385].

95. Illinois.— Millikin v. Edgar County, 142 Ill. 528, 32 N. E. 493, 18 L. R. A. 447 [affirming 42 Ill. App. 590].

Indiana.— Pulaski County v. Shields, 130 Ind. 6, 29 N. E. 385; Jay County v. Taylor, 123 Ind. 148, 23 N. E. 752, 7 L. R. A. 160.

Iowa.— State v. Platner, 43 Iowa 140.

Kansas.— Coffey County v. Smith, 50 Kan. 350, 32 Pac. 30; Shelden v. Butler County, 48 Kan. 356, 29 Pac. 759, 16 L. R. A. 257; Medicine Lodge First Nat. Bank v. Peck, 43 Kan. 643, 23 Pac. 1077.

New Jersey.— Hudson County v. Layton, 28 N. J. L. 244.

New York.— Vacheron v. New York, 34 Misc. 420, 69 N. Y. Suppl. 608.

Ohio.— Franklin County v. Ranck, 9 Ohio Cir. Ct. 301, 2 Ohio Cir. Dec. 269.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 175.

Application of rule to contract for county printing.— A board of county commissioners about to be dissolved under operation of law cannot enter into a contract designating the official newspaper of the county, and providing for the county printing for another year so as to prevent the new board about to meet and organize, from selecting the official paper and contracting for county printing for the ensuing year. Coffey County v. Smith, 50 Kan. 350, 32 Pac. 30.

Employment of attorney.— In Jay County v. Taylor, 123 Ind. 148, 23 N. E. 752, 7 L. R. A. 160 [quoted in Franklin County v. Ranck, 9 Ohio Cir. Ct. 301, 6 Ohio Cir. Dec. 133], it was held that "a board of county commissioners has not the power to appoint its successors by employing attorneys to act for a period beyond the time when the board will, by operation of law, have to be reorganized."

96. Franklin County v. Ranck, 9 Ohio Cir. Ct. 301, 6 Ohio Cir. Dec. 133.

97. California.— McGowan v. Ford, 107 Cal. 177, 40 Pac. 231; Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488.

Georgia.— Carruth v. Wagener, 114 Ga. 740, 40 S. E. 700.

Massachusetts.— Morse v. Norfolk County, 170 Mass. 555, 49 N. E. 925.

Michigan.— Wayne County Sup'rs v. Donovan, 111 Mich. 33, 69 N. W. 83; Plummer v. Kennedy, 72 Mich. 295, 40 N. W. 433.

Missouri.— Wolcott v. Lawrence County, 26 Mo. 272.

to execute what they have determined upon doing.[98] Such contracts must, however, be in conformity with the provisions of the acts of the legislature providing for the erection of such buildings.[99]

b. Contracts For County Printing, Records, Stationery, Etc. As a general rule it is within the power and is the duty of a county board or county court to contract for all county printing and stationery.[1] It is also usually the duty of county commissioners or courts to contract for indexing or transcribing county

New Jersey.— Ferguson v. Passaic County, 60 N. J. L. 404, 38 Atl. 676.

New York.— People v. McIntyre, 154 N. Y. 628, 49 N. E. 70 [affirming 21 N. Y. App. Div. 633, 47 N. Y. Suppl. 1146].

North Carolina.— Black v. Buncombe County, 129 N. C. 121, 39 S. E. 818.

Ohio.— Wood County v. Pargallis, 10 Ohio Cir. Ct. 376, 6 Ohio Cir. Dec. 717; Plessner v. Pray, 8 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 149, 6 Ohio N. P. 444.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 177.

98. Plummer v. Kennedy, 72 Mich. 295, 40 N. W. 433.

Acquiescence by other member.— Where a board of supervisors passed a resolution to build a court-house, and appointed a committee to contract for and complete the building, and the contractor employed ceased work on the building, the act of a single member of the building committee in contracting for brick to complete the building, which was acquiesced in by the other members of the committee, is binding on the county as the act of the building committee, and hence of the board of supervisors, in the absence of fraud, collusion, or bad faith. Crawford County v. Walter, 89 Ill. App. 7.

Act of single member of commission.— A county is not liable for the acceptance of an order on the county, payable from the fund to be paid for a bridge by one member of the bridge commission, since he cannot bind the entire commission. Spring City Bank v. Rhea County, (Tenn. Ch. App. 1900) 59 S. W. 442.

Necessity for ratification of commissioners' contract.— While an order appointing commissioners to make a contract for the building of a court-house ought to provide for a ratification of the contract by the court, yet, as the omission of such a provision may be supplied by an amendment of the order, it does not authorize an injunction perpetually enjoining the commissioners from proceeding with the work. Field v. Stroube, 103 Ky. 114, 44 S. W. 363, 19 Ky. L. Rep. 1751.

A board of county commissioners may in some jurisdictions appoint a superintendent to let contracts for the construction of public works and to superintend the work and this, where it is done, makes him the agent of the county for the purpose of the construction of such public work, and he may bind the county by requiring work to be done beyond that contemplated by the contract. Carroll County v. O'Connor, 137 Ind. 622, 35 N. E. 1006, 37 N. E. 16 [citing Gibson County v. Motherwell Iron, etc., Co., 123 Ind. 364, 24 N. E. 115]; Clinton County v. Hill, 122 Ind. 215, 23 N. E. 779; Bass Foundry, etc., Works v. Parke County, 115 Ind. 234, 17 N. E. 593; Harrison County v. Byrne, 67 Ind. 21.

99. Wolcott v. Lawrence County, 26 Mo. 272; Mahon v. Luzerne County, 197 Pa. St. 1, 46 Atl. 894; Kinsey v. Little River County, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,829.

Where commissioners exceed their authority in selecting a site for county buildings, thereby invalidating such selection, the contract for the buildings upon such site is also void and no recovery can be had by the contractor thereunder. Gillespie v. Broas, 23 Barb. (N. Y.) 370.

1. California.— Frandzen v. San Diego County, 101 Cal. 317, 35 Pac. 897; Times Pub. Co. v. Alameda County, 64 Cal. 469, 2 Pac. 246; Maxwell v. Stanislaus County, 56 Cal. 114.

Illinois.—Piatt County v. Republican Printing Co., 99 Ill. App. 411.

Indiana.— Henry County v. Gillies, 138 Ind. 667, 38 N. E. 40; Hoffman v. Lake County, 96 Ind. 84. And see Morrison v. Decatur County, 16 Ind. App. 317, 44 N. E. 65, 1012. Compare Washington County v. Kemp, 14 Ind. App. 604, 43 N. E. 314, holding that the act of letting the county printing is a ministerial or administrative act and may be performed by any ministerial officer of the county to whom such duty has been intrusted by the legislature, and that even if the duty has previously been enjoined upon the board of commissioners by express statute, the legislature may, by a later statute, relieve the board of such duty and confer it upon the auditor.

Kansas.— Harper County v. State, 47 Kan. 283, 27 Pac. 997.

Washington.—Olympian-Tribune Pub. Co. v. Byrne, (1902) 68 Pac. 335.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 178.

Approval of contracts for purchase of county stationery.— County commissioners may at their option pay or refuse to pay a bill contracted by a county clerk for stationery furnished for the use of his office. Madison County v. Burford, 93 Ind. 383. See also Hancock County v. Mitchell, 93 Ind. 307.

No appeal from contract for stationery.— The act of a board of county commissioners in entering into a contract for the purchase of stationery for the county is an administrative one from which no appeal will lie. Henry County v. Gillies, 138 Ind. 667, 38 N. E. 40.

Quality and cost of stationery in discretion of board.— Under an act authorizing county commissioners to direct the controller to advertise for tax receipts for use by the treasurer, the question as to quality of the paper to be used and the cost of the same is wholly within the discretion of the commissioners.

records,[2] and to make lists of all property within the county, its valuation, owners, etc.[3]

c. Power to Employ Counsel — (i) In Civil Actions. A county has the power through its proper officers or agents, usually the county board, to employ counsel other than the official attorney to represent the county in civil suits[4] in Allegheny County v. Grier, 26 Pittsb. Leg. J. N. S. 380.

In New York it has been expressly held that county boards have no power to contract in advance for the official printing necessary for the several county officers, as it is the duty and privilege of such officers themselves to so contract. People v. Cortland County, 58 Barb. 139.

2. Hoffman v. Lake County, 96 Ind. 84; Leavenworth County Com'rs v. Keller, 6 Kan. 510; Boggs v. Caldwell County, 28 Mo. 586; Burnett v. Markley, 23 Oreg. 436, 31 Pac. 1050.

A verbal direction from the judges from the county court bench or from the presiding judge given to the clerk to have an index made to the books of the recorded deeds, and allow a reasonable compensation for the work out of the county funds, is binding upon the county. Boggs v. Caldwell County, 28 Mo. 586.

Compensation to be fixed by county court. — Wagner Stat. Mo. p. 420, which requires the judges of the several courts to examine and superintend their records and requires that the several dockets "and all indexes to the record be correctly made out at the proper time," does not authorize the circuit court to order the making of an index of the records of the court and fix the compensation for such services at the county's expense. Such compensation must be audited and paid by the county court, and if there were no provisions on the subject the county court, by virtue of its general powers and duties in regard to claims against the county, is the proper body to which the claim for compensation should be presented. Ward v. Cole County Ct., 50 Mo. 401.

Power of board to fix fees for copying.— Services for copying indices are not covered by a statute fixing the fees of registers of deeds at so much per folio for copying any deed or paper, but may be fixed by contract or by proper allowance by the board. Leavenworth County Com'rs v. Keller, 6 Kan. 510.

Power to contract for transcript of records of another county.— In the absence of statutory authority a county board cannot contract for a transcript of such records of another county, from whose territory such county was organized, as relates to the title of lands in its county, and a warrant given for the performance of such contract is void. Erskine v. Steele County, 4 N. D. 339, 60 N. W. 1050, 28 L. R. A. 645.

Transcribing of register books to be by contract.— Under the Pennsylvania act of May 1, 1861, providing that all writing and work shall be done by a contract, the work of transcribing the register books must be done by contract. Com. v. Mercer, 24 Pittsb. Leg. J. N. S. 377.

3. Tasker v. Garrett County, 82 Md. 150, 33 Atl. 407; Burnett v. Markley, 23 Oreg. 436, 31 Pac. 1050.

Effect of refusal by board to procure abstract books.— Where a board of commissioners of a county make an order refusing to allow the assessor to use a set of abstract books in making his assessment, but notwithstanding this the assessor uses such books and agrees that the county will pay for the same, the county will not be liable to the owner of such books for their use. Snohomish County Abstract Co. v. Anderson, 9 Wash. 349, 37 Pac. 471.

Procurement of ownership books for use of assessor.— Under the general power to manage county business conferred on county courts by Hill Code Oreg. § 896, those courts have authority to procure for the use of the assessor, present-ownership books of all the property in the county, and to employ competent persons to prepare such books. Burnett v. Markley, 23 Oreg. 436, 31 Pac. 1050.

4. California.— Colusa County v. Welch, 122 Cal. 428, 55 Pac. 243; Merced County v. Cook, 120 Cal. 275, 52 Pac. 721; Lamberson v. Jefferds, 118 Cal. 363, 50 Pac. 403; Merriam v. Barnum, 116 Cal. 619, 48 Pac. 727; Power v. May, 114 Cal. 207, 46 Pac. 6; Lassen County v. Shinn, 88 Cal. 510, 26 Pac. 365; Herrington v. Santa Clara County, 44 Cal. 496; Hornblower v. Duden, 35 Cal. 664.

Idaho.— Anderson v. Shoshone County, 6 Ida. 76, 53 Pac. 105; Conger v. Latah County, 5 Ida. 347, 48 Pac. 1064; Ravenscraft v. Blaine County, 5 Ida. 178, 47 Pac. 942; Hampton v. Logan County, 4 Ida. 646, 43 Pac. 324.

Illinois.— Franklin County v. Layman, 145 Ill. 138, 33 N. E. 1094 [affirming 43 Ill. App. 163]; Ottawa Gaslight, etc., Co. v. People, 138 Ill. 336, 27 N. E. 924.

Indiana.— Barr v. State, 148 Ind. 424, 47 N. E. 829; McCabe v. Fountain County, 46 Ind. 380; Holman v. Robbins, 5 Ind. App. 436, 31 N. E. 863.

Iowa.— Bevington v. Woodbury County, 107 Iowa 424, 78 N. W. 222; Taylor County v. Standley, 79 Iowa 666, 44 N. W. 911; Jordan v. Osceola County, 59 Iowa 388, 13 N. W. 344; Tatlock v. Louisa County, 46 Iowa 138; Chickasaw County v. Bailey, 13 Iowa 435.

Kansas.— Doster v. Howe, 28 Kan. 353; Thatcher v. Jefferson County Com'rs, 13 Kan. 182; Freeman v. Wyandotte County, 8 Kan. App. 72, 54 Pac. 294.

Kentucky.— Garrard County Ct. v. McKee, 11 Bush 234.

Mississippi.— Marion County v. Taylor, 55 Miss. 184; Lewenthall v. State, 51 Miss. 645; Cocke v. Board of Police, 38 Miss. 340.

Missouri.— State v. Butler County, 164 Mo. 214, 64 S. W. 176; Reynolds v. Clark County, which the county is interested,[5] in the absence of any statute requiring such representation to be by the official attorney.[6] Where, however, statutes exist requiring the performance of such services by the county or district attorney, or by the attorney-general, a county has no authority to contract for the employment of other counsel.[7]

162 Mo. 680, 63 S. W. 382; Butler v. Sullivan County, 108 Mo. 630, 18 S. W. 1142; Thrasher v. Greene County, 87 Mo. 419; Henley v. Clover, 6 Mo. App. 181.

Nevada.— Clarke v. Lyon County, 8 Nev. 181, 7 Nev. 75; Ellis v. Washoe County, 7 Nev. 291.

New York.— Brady v. New York, 10 N. Y. 260 [affirming 2 Sandf. 460]; Gillespie v. Broas, 23 Barb. 370.

Oregon.— Taylor v. Umatilla County, 6 Oreg. 394.

Pennsylvania.— Chester County v. Barber, 97 Pa. St. 455.

Tennessee.— McHenderson v. Anderson County, 105 Tenn. 591, 59 S. W. 1016.

Texas.— Grooms v. Atascosa County, (Civ. App. 1895) 32 S. W. 188; Austin City Nat. Bank v. Presidio County, (Civ. App. 1894) 26 S. W. 775.

Wisconsin.— Eagle River v. Oneida County, 86 Wis. 266, 56 N. W. 644.

Wyoming.— Appel v. State, 9 Wyo. 187, 61 Pac. 1015.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 179.

A county judge has power to employ counsel to defend a suit against the county. Chickasaw County v. Bailey, 13 Iowa 435.

A temporary board of commissioners appointed under the laws of Kansas on the organization of a new county has power to employ attorneys to protect the interests of the county, and advise its officers, until the election of a county attorney. Speer v. Kearney County, 88 Fed. 749, 32 C. C. A. 101.

Board the judge of the necessity for such employment and its determination thereon can only be attacked for fraud. Appel v. State, 9 Wyo. 187, 61 Pac. 1015.

Necessity for concurrent act of majority of board.— McCabe v. Fountain County, 46 Ind. 380.

No authority to contract for services for fixed period.— Grooms v. Atascosa County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 32 S. W. 188.

Right not dependent on consent of county attorney.— Taylor County v. Standley, 79 Iowa 666, 44 N. W. 911.

The chairman of the county board has no power to employ an attorney in actions by or against his county, but may be empowered by the board to make the contract as its agent. Tatlock v. Louisa County, 46 Iowa 138.

5. Bevington v. Woodbury County, 107 Iowa 424, 78 N. W. 222; Taylor County v. Standley, 79 Iowa 666, 44 N. W. 911. And see cases cited supra, note 4.

A committee appointed by a county convention of representatives to execute an unauthorized vote of the convention, requiring the committee to act in conjunction with the county commissioners in making purchases for the use of the county farm, cannot employ counsel at the expense of the county to try the question of authority. Hackett v. Rockingham County, 52 N. H. 617.

Employment of attorneys by collectors.— Simmes v. Chicot County, 50 Ark. 566, 9 S. W. 308; Butler v. Sullivan County, 108 Mo. 630, 18 S. W. 1142.

Limitation to suits pending or about to be instituted.— Marion County v. Taylor, 55 Miss. 184.

Necessity for assertion of adverse claim by county.— Henley v. Clover, 6 Mo. App. 181.

The employment of counsel to take an appeal is within the power of the county board. Eagle River v. Oneida County, 86 Wis. 266, 56 N. W. 644. See also Duluth, etc., R. Co. v. Douglas County, 103 Wis. 75, 79 N. W. 34.

To defeat collection of tax claimed to be illegal a county board has power to employ counsel under a statute empowering them to "do all other acts in relation to the concerns of the county." Franklin County v. Layman, 34 Ill. App. 606.

To defend board.— Doster v. Howe, 28 Kan. 353.

Question as to validity of county subscription.— Where a state court has taken one view of the validity of a county subscription and the federal court has taken another, it cannot be said that a suit to test such question is useless, so as to make it improper for the county to employ attorneys therein. Thrasher v. Greene County, 87 Mo. 419.

6. Austin City Nat. Bank v. Presidio County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 26 S. W. 775. See also Brome v. Cuming County, 31 Nebr. 362, 47 N. W. 1050.

7. Kansas.— Waters v. Trovillo, 47 Kan. 197, 27 Pac. 822; Clough v. Hart, 8 Kan. 487.

Nebraska.— Brome v. Cuming County, 31 Nebr. 362, 47 N. W. 1050; Platte County v. Gerrard, 12 Nebr. 244, 11 N. W. 298.

North Dakota.— Storey v. Murphy, 9 N. D. 115, 81 N. W. 23.

Oklahoma.— Logan County v. Jones, 4 Okla. 341, 51 Pac. 565.

Wisconsin.— Frederick v. Douglas County, 96 Wis. 411, 71 N. W. 798; McDonald v. Milwaukee County, 41 Wis. 642.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 179.

When circuit or district attorney resides within the county a county court is not authorized under Wagner Stat. Mo. p. 205, § 35, to employ a special attorney to attend to the county business, it being made the duty in such case of that officer to attend to the law business of the county. Dixon v. Livingston County, 70 Mo. 239. See also Herrington v. Santa Clara County, 44 Cal. 496, where it is held that it is not the duty of the district

(II) In Criminal Cases. In a number of states it is held that a county board is without authority to employ counsel other than the official attorney on behalf of the county to prosecute or assist in the prosecution of criminal cases,[8] and provisions are made for cases where the official attorney fails for any reason to appear at the trial or where it is deemed essential that he shall have assistance.[9] In other states, however, county boards are held to have the power to employ an attorney or attorneys to prosecute or defend in criminal cases properly belonging to the duties of the official attorney,[10] and the board may properly devolve on a committee of its own members the duty and power to carry out such contract of employment.[11]

d. Power to Employ Agents, Servants, Etc. County boards in the absence of positive legal authority so to do cannot in any case appoint an agent to exercise powers which such boards cannot themselves exercise.[12] Such boards in the exercise of powers conferred upon them may appoint agents to discharge ministerial duties not calling for the exercise of reason or discretion, but cannot go beyond this and delegate to others duties, the discharge of which calls for the use of reason and discretion, and which are regarded as public trusts.[13] With these limitations county boards or courts have power to appoint such agents, officers, and servants as may be required for county purposes and which are not otherwise provided for by law or by the state constitution.[14] attorney to prosecute or defend civil actions in which the county is interested, which are pending in any other county than his own, and consequently the board of supervisors of a county have a right to decline the services of such district attorney when tendered in such action, and may employ other counsel.

When the commissioners are sued as the county board beyond the limits of their own county, and where the county attorney is not bound to go, they may employ counsel to defend the action. Thacher v. Jefferson County Com'rs, 13 Kan. 182.

8. Modoc County v. Spencer, 103 Cal. 498, 37 Pac. 483; Ripley County v. Ward, 69 Ind. 441; Hight v. Monroe County, 68 Ind. 575; McDonald v. Milwaukee County, 41 Wis. 642; Montgomery v. Jackson County, 22 Wis. 69.

9. In Sneed v. People, 38 Mich. 248, it was held that the prosecuting attorney has a right to employ counsel with leave of the court to assist in the prosecution of a case, and the services so rendered will constitute a proper charge against the county.

Designation by court.— In California, if the district attorney who is at once the law officer of the county and the public prosecutor, fails for any reason to appear at the trial in a criminal case for the discharge of his duty, the court is authorized to designate some competent attorney to take his place for the occasion, and if at any time it is deemed essential for the public services that he may have assistance in its behalf it is made the duty of the attorney-general to go to his aid. Modoc County v. Spencer, 103 Cal. 498, 27 Pac. 483.

No power except where county has a direct interest.— Under the constitution and laws of Ohio, a board of county commissioners has no power to employ an attorney to prosecute criminal complaints before the examining magistrates of the county except in cases in which the county in its quasi-corporate capacity has a direct interest; nor can a board of commissioners be compelled by mandamus to pay for such services out of the treasury of the county. State v. Franklin County Com'rs, 21 Ohio St. 648.

10. Hopkins v. Clayton County, 32 Iowa 15.

A county board of excise in New York has power to employ an attorney to conduct prosecutions for penalties, and as it acts as the agent of the county in so doing, the claim for such services is a county charge. People v. Delaware County, 45 N. Y. 196.

11. Hopkins v. Clayton County, 32 Iowa 15.

12. House v. Los Angeles County, 104 Cal. 73, 37 Pac. 796; Smith v. Los Angeles County, 99 Cal. 628, 34 Pac. 439. See also Potts v. Henderson, 2 Ind. 327.

13. House v. Los Angeles County, 104 Cal. 73, 37 Pac. 796; Scollay v. Butte County, 67 Cal. 249, 7 Pac. 661.

The act of receiving or collecting license-taxes is an official function to be performed only by a county officer invested for the purpose with a part of the sovereign power of the state; and a board of supervisors has no power to make a contract with a private individual to collect license-taxes for an agreed compensation. Ventura County v. Clay, 112 Cal. 65, 44 Pac. 488.

14. Wilhelm v. Cedar County, 50 Iowa 254; Ringgold County v. Allen, 42 Iowa 697; Tasker v. Garrett County, 82 Md. 150, 33 Atl. 407; Hall v. Lauderdale, 46 N. Y. 70.

For example it has been held that county boards or courts have power to employ agents to select swamp lands (Baker v. Washington County, 26 Iowa 148); to carry abstracts or lists of swamp lands to the state land-office and have them approved (Webster County v. Taylor, 19 Iowa 117); to hire an expert accountant to examine accounts of the county treasurer (Duncan v. Lawrence County, 101 Ind. 403. See also Perry County v. Gardner,

5. Limitations and Conditions Precedent to Power to Contract. In many states express limitations or conditions are imposed upon the making of contracts by counties through their proper agents, and such limitations and conditions must be complied with in order that such contracts may be valid and enforceable. Thus it is sometimes provided that no agent of a county shall make contracts on behalf of the county unless an appropriation has been previously made therefor, which is wholly or in part unexpended;[15] that county boards must not contract debts and liabilities which, added to the salaries of officers, etc., will exceed the revenue of the county for the year;[16] that no debt can be contracted or obligation binding upon the county incurred, unless the means of paying such debt shall be at the same time provided in the ordinance or resolution creating the debt;[17] that no contract for the erection of county buildings can be made until the county commissioners shall have procured a sum which is by them deemed adequate;[18] or that no contract shall be made for the erection of a public building 155 Ind. 165, 57 N. E. 908); to hire agents to discover and collect property due to the county, wrongfully withheld from it (Garrigus v. Howard County, 157 Ind. 103, 60 N. E. 948); to hire agent or attorney to aid in collecting taxes (Wilhelm v. Cedar County, 50 Iowa 254; State v. Hall, 37 Oreg. 479, 63 Pac. 13); to appoint a surveyor and necessary assistants to establish boundary lines between certain counties (Kornburg v. Deer Lodge County, 10 Mont. 325, 25 Pac. 1041); to appoint a custodian of county offices (Conway v. New York, 6 Daly (N. Y.) 515); to hire a janitor for a court-house (Hetsch v. Com., 86 Ky. 327, 5 S. W. 781, 9 Ky. L. Rep. 591; Deters v. Hamilton County, 1 Ohio Cir. Ct. 162; Ferriss v. Williamson, 8 Baxt. (Tenn.) 424), guards for a county jail (Mitchell v. Leavenworth County Com'rs, 18 Kan. 188), or agents to refund bonds (Lancaster County v. Green, 54 Nebr. 98, 74 N. W. 430); or to hire recruiting officers (Hall v. Lauderdale, 46 N. Y. 70).

Approval of compensation of employees by board of control.— State v. Fratz, 7 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 623, 4 Cinc. L. Bul. 320.

Effect of resolution fixing compensation but specifying no time.— Arapahoe County v. Clapp, 9 Colo. App. 161, 48 Pac. 157.

Employment of court stenographer dependent upon population.— Randolph County v. Henry County, 27 Ind. App. 378, 61 N. E. 612.

Statutory authority not indispensable.— County commissioners are not necessarily prohibited from expending money for services of persons necessarily employed for a special purpose, although there is no statutory provision for such employment; and where there is no suspicion of collusion or fraud attached to such payments courts will decline to interfere by injunction. Barber v. Lucas County, 5 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 98, 7 Ohio N. P. 330.

Where a statute allows only six clerks for the board of equalization, a board of county commissioners have no authority to provide additional clerical assistance for such board. State v. Wilson, 9 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 39, 10 Cinc. L. Bul. 217.

15. Hilliard v. Bunker, 68 Ark. 340, 58 S. W. 362; Durrett v. Buxton, 63 Ark. 397, 39 S. W. 56; Wiegel v. Pulaski County, 61 Ark. 74, 32 S. W. 116; Lawrence County v. Coffman, 36 Ark. 641; Worthen v. Roots, 34 Ark. 356.

Expenditures in excess of appropriation.— If an appropriation has been made the fact that the expenditures are in excess of the appropriation will not invalidate the contract, and the same will be binding upon the county. Fones Hardware Co. v. Erb, 54 Ark. 645, 17 S. W. 7, 13 L. R. A. 353; Thompson v. Searcy County, 57 Fed. 1030, 6 C. C. A. 674 [disapproving dictum in Lawrence County v. Coffman, 36 Ark. 641].

16. Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488, where it was held that Cal. Pol. Code, § 170, to the effect stated in the text, does not mean by "revenue" the actual amount of money received in the treasury, but the estimate of the board of supervisors of what the revenue will be.

17. Lacey v. Police Jury, 28 La. Ann. 455; Hazie v. Police Jury, 28 La. Ann. 263; Rills v. Iberville Parish, 24 La. Ann. 146; Talbott v. Iberville Parish, 24 La. Ann. 135, where it was held, however, that if a parish is involved in heavy litigations, the police jury have the right to contract with experienced attorneys in addition to their regularly paid attorney to aid in the defense of such suits, and the parish is legally bound for the payment of their fees.

18. Ruggles v. Washington County, 3 Mo. 496, where it was held that where commissioners have been appointed by an act of the legislature with power to cause public buildings in a county to be erected as soon as sufficient funds shall have been obtained for the same by the sale of town lots and proceed to let out the said buildings before having the necessary funds in amount, they render themselves individually liable, and the county is not bound for their contracts for the buildings because they have not pursued their authority. Where, however, the act of the legislature makes the commissioners the judges of the county buildings to be erected, and whether the same is sufficient to accomplish the object, and an estimate is to be made on the sum procured and not on the sum raised and collected, they will be regarded as having pursued their authority and the county will be liable for the contract they have made.

at a price in excess of the estimates required to be made.[19] Another common provision is to the effect that certain contracts shall not be binding until they shall be submitted to and approved by certain specified county officers.[20] Where the statute fixes a limit to be paid by a county for the survey of school lands donated to such county, a higher price cannot be recovered, although contracted for.[21]

6. Validity of Specific Stipulations — a. In General. County boards having authority to contract for the county may in so contracting make such specific stipulations as they deem proper, provided the same are within the scope of their authority as fixed by law and are not contrary to public policy.[22]

b. Liability For Interest on Contracts and Orders. Counties are not liable for interest on their contracts after the completion of the work,[23] or on county orders,[24] in the absence of an express agreement to pay it.[25]

c. Promise to Defend Suits Against Grantees of County. Only y the record made by the board can a promise be made by a county, and no such promise can

19. State v. Franklin County, 1 Ohio Cir. Ct. 194, where it was held the county commissioners have no authority to enter into a contract for any particular branch of the work to be done on such building at a price in excess of the preliminary estimate.

20. Approval by prosecuting attorney.— Fornoff v. Nash, 23 Ohio St. 335, where it is further held that under such provision it is the duty of a prosecuting attorney to investigate and ascertain whether such contract accords with the provisions of the act, and if he so finds to indorse his certificate to that effect.

Approval by freeholders acting with commissioners.— Wood County v. Pargillis, 10 Ohio Cir. Ct. 376, 6 Ohio Cir. Dec. 717.

Approval of expenditures by board of control.— State v. Fratz, 7 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 623, 4 Cinc. L. Bul. 320.

Duty to report contract to court.— An order by the commissioners' court for the appointment of commissioners "to locate and let out the contract for building said bridge, at public outcry, and report to this court," does not require a ratification of the contract by the court before it becomes binding, but merely that the contract should be reported to it, in order that it may have on file the proper evidence of its transactions and obligations. Tuskaloosa County v. Logan, 57 Ala. 296.

21. Tomlinson v. Hopkins County, 57 Tex. 572, where it was held that a conveyance of part of the land under a contract for the survey thereof would be set aside.

22. Contract to pay contingent attorney's fees.— Millard v. Richland County, 13 Ill. App. 537.

Contracts to pay in county warrants for services rendered in the erection of county buildings. Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488, holding that such contract is in effect one payable in money.

Prohibition as to percentage and commission on contracts.— Weatherhogg v. Jasper County, 158 Ind. 14, 62 N. E. 477.

Provision for payments in instalments.— A contract made by the police jury of a parish in which payments for a court-house are provided for in instalments is not a bond, promissory note, or warrant, the issuing of which is prohibited by Act 30 of 1877 and by the organic law. Louisiana, etc., R. Co. v. Police Jury, 48 La. Ann. 331, 9 So. 282.

Stipulation as to disposition of land and buildings on removal of county-seat.— In Henderson v. Sibley County, 28 Minn. 515, 11 N. W. 91, the county board of S county entering into a contract with the borough of H in said county, agreed that the county should erect on county lands within such borough a court-house to cost not less than seven thousand five hundred dollars, provided the borough shall pay into the county treasury five thousand dollars toward the cost of such building. It was further agreed that the borough should have the use of a certain portion of the building when the same was not in use by the district court, and it was also provided that in case of a removal of the county-seat from the borough at any time the county should have the option of transferring the land and building to the borough on the payment to the county of three thousand dollars or the refunding of five thousand dollars, and that the county should not sell the land and building without the consent of the borough. It was held that such contract was beyond the scope of the county's power and that no rights were acquired thereunder by the borough.

Stipulation for payment of claims against contractor for work and material.— It is not ultra vires for a county board in contracting for a public building to stipulate that payments are not to be made to the contractors, so long as any claims for work or materials stand against them. Knapp v. Swaney, 56 Mich. 345, 23 N. W. 162, 56 Am. Rep. 397. See also as to the power of the county commissioners to agree with counsel for reasonable compensation. Chester County v. Barber, 97 Pa. St. 455.

23. Pike County v. Hosford, 11 Ill. 170. See also South Park Com'rs v. Dunlevy, 91 Ill. 49; Grundy County v. Hughes, 8 Ill. App. 34.

24. Madison County v. Bartlett, 2 Ill. 67.

25. Contract to pay in county orders bearing interest.— Jackson County v. Rendleman, be made whereon a recovery can be had, except in so far as the county board can act in pursuance of the duties prescribed by law.[26]

7. RESTRAINT OF EXERCISE OF POWER. A court of equity will enjoin the award by county commissioners of an illegal contract,[27] or restrain them from carrying ont an unauthorized or ultra vires contract.[28]

B. Requisites as to Form and Manner — 1. IN GENERAL. Where the mode and manner of contracting are not prescribed or the persons or agents by and with whom contracts are to be made, counties may make contracts in all matters necessarily appertaining to them in the same manner as individuals or other corporations.[29] If, however, such mode and manner of contracting, or the officers or agents by and with whom contracts are to be made, are prescribed, the mode prescribed must be pursued.[30] It has been held, however, that the violation of statutory provisions in regard to the mode of making contracts by counties, designed for their protection, may be waived by a county and cannot be urged by the other party to defeat the contract.[31]

2. NECESSITY FOR WRITTEN CONTRACT. While it is perhaps a usual provision that contracts made on behalf of the county shall be in writing and entered on the minutes by the body making the contract as an agent of the county,[32] it has 100 Ill. 379, 39 Am. Rep. 44 [affirming 8 Ill. App. 287].

26. Thus for instance liability on the part of the county to pay the expenses of defending a suit brought against grantee of lands conveyed by the county must exist, if at all, by virtue of covenant for quiet enjoyment, and cannot arise in consequence of a promise subsequently made. Wheeler v. Wayne County, 31 Ill. App. 299.

27. Henry County v. Gillies, 138 Ind. 667, 38 N. E. 40. And see Vaughn v. Forsyth County, 118 N. C. 636, 24 S. E. 425.

No injunction for mere irregularity.— Where the action of a board of county supervisors in awarding contracts for advertising is irregular, but no additional expense or cost is imposed on taxpayers thereby, a taxpayer cannot enjoin the performance of the contracts. Sperry v. Kretchner, 65 Iowa 525, 22 N. W. 660.

Time for such injunction.—Under the statute providing that the taxpayer may have an injunction in cases where "a contract in contravention of the laws of this state has been or is about to be entered into or has been or is being executed," the taxpayer is not compelled to enjoin an illegal contract at any particular time, but has such right until the completion of the contract. State v. Gibson, 11 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 90, 8 Ohio N. P. 367.

To prevent award to other than lowest bidder.— Mueller v. Eau Claire County, 108 Wis. 304, 84 N. W. 430. See also Davenport v. Walker, 57 N. Y. App. Div. 221, 68 N. Y. Suppl. 161.

28. Dyer v. Erwin, 106 Ga. 845, 33 S. E. 63; Dixon v. Greene County, 76 Miss. 794, 25 So. 665; Grannis v. Blue Earth County, 81 Minn. 55, 83 N. W. 495.

29. Montgomery County v. Barber, 45 Ala. 237.

30. Alabama.—Montgomery County v. Barber, 45 Ala. 237.

California.— Murphy v. Napa County, 20 Cal. 497.

Indiana.— Henry County v. Gillies, 138 Ind. 667, 38 N. E. 40.

Mississippi.— Jefferson County v. Arrighi, 54 Miss. 668.

Nevada.—Sadler v. Eureka County, 15 Nev. 39.

North Carolina.— Berlin Iron Bridge Co. v. Wilkes County, 111 N. C. 317, 16 S. E. 314.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 183.

In Missouri it has been held that a statute providing that if a claim against a county be for work and labor done or material furnished, the claimant, if he has fulfilled his contract, shall be entitled to recover the just value of such work, labor, or material, although the prescribed form in making the contract may not have been pursued, refers only to such labor as the county may require in the ordinary and usual transaction of its business and does not include contracts for services performed in the compromise and settlement of township bonds. Woolfolk v. Randolph County, 83 Mo. 501. Nor does such statute authorize a recovery on a contract with a county official when he had no power to make it. Bryson v. Johnson County, 100 Mo. 76, 13 S. W. 239.

31. In re Worcester County, 102 Fed. 808, 42 C. C. A. 637.

32. Milburn v. Glynn County, 112 Ga. 160, 37 S. E. 178; Akin v. Bartow County, 54 Ga. 59; Pritchett v. Bartow County Inferior Ct., 46 Ga. 462; Marion County v. Woulard, 77 Miss. 343, 27 So. 619; Bridges v. Clay County, 58 Miss. 817; Woolfolk v. Randolph County, 83 Mo. 501; Athens County Com'rs v. Baltimore Short Line R. Co., 37 Ohio St. 205.

In Ohio it has been held that where the county has accepted the benefit of the contract executed to its commissioners for the conveyance of land it cannot avoid paying the consideration stipulated in such contract, on the ground of failure by the proper officer to enter the contract upon the minutes of the board as required by statute (Wilder v. Hamilton County Com'rs, 41 Ohio St. 601), and been held that such a contract need not be in writing unless required by statute.[33]

3. Stipulation as to Hours of Labor. In some states provision is expressly made as to the number of hours of labor which shall constitute a legal day's work in all cases where the same is performed under the authority of any law of the state, and it is directed that a stipulation to that effect shall be made part of all contracts to which any municipal corporation within the state shall be a party.[34]

C. Construction and Operation of Contracts[35] — 1. Binding Effect of Terms and Conditions of Contract. Parties contracting with a county through its duly authorized agents must be held to be bound by the terms of such contract and by all the terms and stipulations which the agents of the county have seen fit to embody in such contracts, both as to the work to be done, the rate, and time of payment,[36] and the means by which such payment is to be secured;[37] so also all conditions precedent imposed by the county in making a contract must be performed by the other party thereto in order to entitle him to a recovery under such contract.[38]

2. When Contract Construed as Official and When as Personal to Agent. Whenever the contract or engagement of a county officer or agent is connected with a subject fairly within the scope of his authority, the extent of which is known to the other party, the same will be intended to have been made officially and in his public character, unless the contrary appears by satisfactory evidence of an express agreement to be personally liable;[39] but where the contract does not that where the contract has been fully performed on the part of the county the other party to the contract cannot refuse performance on his part, on the ground of such failure to enter, for by accepting performance by the county board he is precluded from raising this question (Athens County Com'rs v. Baltimore Short Line R. Co., 37 Ohio St. 205).

33. Orange County v. Ritter, 90 Ind. 362. See also McCabe v. Fountain County, 46 Ind. 380; Talbot County Inferior Ct. Justices v. House, 20 Ga. 328.

34. It has been held, however, that this law being passed for the protection of the laborer an officer of the county cannot refuse to carry out a contract because of the omission of such stipulation, such omission in the contract being more favorable to the county. Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488.

35. It is sometimes expressly provided that an uncertainty in a contract between a public body and a private person shall be presumed to be caused by the latter, and most strongly construed against him. McPherson v. San Joaquin County, (Cal. 1899) 56 Pac. 802.

Where counties comprising a judicial circuit through their board of supervisors consent to the employment of a stenographer without stipulation as to compensation, thus leaving his salary at the statutory rate, and such sum was apportioned among the counties and paid for a number of years until one of the counties was detached, it was held that the previous assent of the counties did not continue to be binding after this change, but that they were entitled to make new arrangements. Hitchcock v. Blackman, 47 Mich. 146, 10 N. W. 176.

With respect to the interpretation of state statutes regulating the making of contracts by counties, the decisions of the state courts are binding upon the courts of the United States. Thompson v. Searcy County, 57 Fed. 1030, 6 C. C. A. 674.

36. King v. Mahaska County, 75 Iowa 329, 39 N. W. 636; Quigley v. Sumner County, 24 Kan. 293; McKenzie v. Polk County, 61 Minn. 145, 63 N. W. 613.

37. Byrne v. East Carroll Parish, 45 La. Ann. 392, 12 So. 521; Moody v. Cass County, 74 Mo. 307; Pettis County v. Kingsbury, 17 Mo. 479.

Agreement for payment from particular fund.— Where a contractor agrees to be paid for his work for a county out of a particular fund which the county has no means of replenishing, he cannot, on the exhaustion of that fund, resort to other funds. Moody v. Cass County, 74 Mo. 307. See also Pettis County v. Kingsbury, 17 Mo. 479.

38. American Clock Co. v. Licking County Com'rs, 31 Ohio St. 415.

Effect of agreement by board to superintend work.— Although a contract to build a court-house in a workmanlike manner recites an agreement by the commissioners to superintend the erection of said building, such superintendence is not a matter precedent to a recovery on the contract, since such agreement is in reality only the recital of something to be done for the benefit or advantage of the county. Greene v. State, 8 Ohio 310. For other instances of cases in which certain facts were held not to be conditions precedent to the recovery see Hall v. Los Angeles County, 74 Cal. 502, 16 Pac. 313 [reversing (Cal. 1887) 13 Pac. 854]; Page County v. American Emigrant County, 41 Iowa 115.

39. Broadwell v. Chapin, 2 Ill. App. 511; Murray v. Carothers, 1 Metc. (Ky.) 71; Detroit First Nat. Bank v. Becker County, upon its face purport to have been made by or with persons who could be recognized as public agents, the contract must be regarded as an individual undertaking, even though the parties making such contract describe themselves as county commissioners.[40]

D. Ratification of Unauthorized Contracts. Ordinarily unauthorized contracts made on behalf of the county may be ratified by such county through the agents who would have been authorized in the first place to make such contract;[41] but the ratification must be made by them in the same capacity in which they were required to act in making the contract in the first instance,[42] and with full knowledge of the existence and nature of the contract in question.[43] It is also essential that the contract be of such a nature that the body assuming to ratify it would have had power to make it in the first instance. A contract void because made under an unconstitutional statute,[44] or because made in disregard of the provisions and directions of the statutes regulating the making of such contracts, is not capable of being validated by a subsequent ratification.[45] The ratification of an unauthorized contract may be either express or implied.[46]

81 Minn. 95, 83 N. W. 468; Hall v. Lauderdale, 46 N. Y. 70. Thus a contract setting forth the official position of certain parties as commissioners appointed by the county court to make such contract and signed by them with the name of their office after their surnames is an official and not a personal act (Murray v. Carothers, 1 Metc. (Ky.) 71); so also a contract entered into by a board of supervisors for and on behalf of the county and signed by the chairman of the board is the contract of the county (Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488).

40. Potts v. Henderson, 2 Ind. 327. See also Warrick County v. Butterworth, 17 Ind. 129, holding that where a party makes a contract which in the introductory part purports to be made by him as agent of the county, but after describing the work to be done, etc., provides that said party shall pay the stipulated price, such an agreement binds the party making it and not the county for which he assumes to be acting to pay for such work, and an action cannot be maintained upon it against the county without the averment of other facts, as that the contract was accepted and adopted by the county as its own.

Primary liability of county tax assessor for printing.—The printing necessary for the office of the county tax assessor is not to be done at his expense; yet if he contract for it he is primarily liable to the printer, unless there is an understanding between them to the contrary. White v. Williams, 49 Ala. 130.

41. Illinois.— Jackson County v. Hall, 53 Ill. 440; La Salle County v. Hatheway, 78 Ill. App. 95.

Kansas.— Mitchell v. Leavenworth County Com'rs, 18 Kan. 188.

Minnesota.—True v. Crow Wing County, 83 Minn. 293, 86 N. W. 102.

Missouri.— Ruggles v Washington County, 3 Mo. 496.

Nevada.— Clarke v. Lyon County, 8 Nev. 181, 7 Nev. 75.

Oregon.— Steiner v. Polk County, 40 Oreg. 124, 66 Pac. 707.

Pennsylvania.— Upper Bern Tp. v. Berks County, 2 Woodw. 194.

Tennessee.— State v. Anderson County, 8 Baxt. 249.

Texas.— Boydston v. Rockwall County, 86 Tex. 234, 24 S. W. 272.

West Virginia.— Goshorn v. Kanawha County, 42 W. Va. 735, 26 S. E. 452.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 185.

42. Johnson v. School Dist., 67 Mo. 319.

43. Phelan v. San Francisco County, 6 Cal. 531; Clarke v. Lyon County, 7 Nev. 75; Boydston v. Rockwall County, 86 Tex. 234, 24 S. W. 272.

44. Phelan v. San Francisco County, 6 Cal. 531; Hovey v. Wyandotte County, 56 Kan. 577, 44 Pac. 17.

45. Arkansas.— Wiegel v. Pulaski County, 61 Ark. 74, 32 S. W. 116.

Iowa.— King v. Mahaska County, 75 Iowa 329, 39 N. W. 636.

Mississippi.— Jefferson County v. Arrighi, 54 Miss. 668.

Missouri.— Maupin v. Franklin County, 67 Mo. 327.

Nebraska.— Tullock v. Webster County, 46 Nebr. 211, 64 N. W. 705.

Oregon.— Municipal Security Co. v. Baker County, 39 Oreg. 396, 65 Pac. 369.

United States.— Marsh v. Fulton County, 10 Wall. 676, 19 L. ed. 1040.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 185.

46. Upper Bern Tp. v. Berks County, 2 Woodw. (Pa.) 194.

Ratification by election to carry out provisions of contract.— An unauthorized contract of the county judge to purchase county bonds for the permanent school fund is ratified by the election of the county commissioners' court with knowledge of the contract to carry out its provisions and to hold the bonds. Boydston v. Rockwall County, 86 Tex. 234, 24 S. W. 272.

What does not amount to ratification.— The fact that work not authorized by a resolution of the county board was paid for by the county does not constitute a contract on the part of the county to pay for other unauthorized work ordered by the architect of

E. Letting of Contracts — 1. Request For Bids. It is usually provided by statute that before the county through its proper agents shall let contracts for performing certain services for the county, such as the construction of county buildings[47] or bridges,[48] for the improvement of roads,[49] for county printing,[50] for the furnishing of goods[51] or stationery for the county,[52] or as is sometimes provided, for any work done for the county involving the expenditure of more than a certain amount of money,[53] due notice thereof shall be given,[54] usually by the building which was being constructed. Sexton v. Cook County, 114 Ill. 174, 28 N. E. 608. Where the board of supervisors who had in their individual capacity consented to a change in the contract for the construction of a bridge, and afterward the bridge was completed, appointed a committee to examine the same, the power to accept or reject it, the appointment of the committee with the powers indicated, and the subsequent qualified acceptance by the board, will not amount to a ratification of the change in the contract. Mallory v. Montgomery County, 48 Iowa 681.

47. California.— McGowan v. Ford, 107 Cal. 177, 40 Pac. 231.

Indiana.—Robling v. Pike County, 141 Ind. 522, 40 N. E. 1079; Bass Foundry, etc., Works v. Parke County, 115 Ind. 234, 17 N. E. 593; Eigemann v. Posey County, 82 Ind. 413.

Nebraska.— Townsend v. Holt County, 40 Nebr. 852, 59 N. W. 381; State v. Cunningham, 37 Nebr. 687, 56 N. W. 485.

Nevada.—Sadler v. Eureka County, 15 Nev. 39.

New York.— Moynahan v. Birkett, 81 Hun 395, 31 N. Y. Suppl. 293.

United States.—Richardson v. Grant County, 27 Fed. 495.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 188.

A soldiers' monument authorized to be erected by county commissioners under the Pennsylvania act of May 22, 1895, is not a "county building" within the meaning of the Pennsylvania act of April 19, 1895, requiring county commissioners, in the erection of "a court house, jail, or other county building," to let the work to the lowest and best bidder. Spangler v. Leitheiser, 182 Pa. St. 277, 37 Atl. 832 [following Cincinnati Soc.'s Appeal, 154 Pa. St. 621, 26 Atl. 647, 20 L. R. A. 323].

48. Indiana.— Smith v. Miami County, 6 Ind. App. 153, 33 N. E. 243.

Missouri.— Heidelberg v. St. Francois County, 100 Mo. 69, 12 S. W. 914.

Nebraska.— Townsend v. Holt County, 40 Nebr. 852, 59 N. W. 381; State v. Cunningham, 37 Nebr. 687, 56 N. W. 485; Brown v. Merrick County, 18 Nebr. 355, 25 N. W. 356.

Ohio.—Buchanan Bridge Co. v. Campbell, 60 Ohio St. 406, 54 N. E. 372; State v. Biddle, I Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 130, 3 Ohio N. P. 173.

United States.—Pacific Bridge Co. v. Clackamas County, 45 Fed. 217.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 188.

Contracts for repairs of county bridges.— When such repairs do not amount to a substantial reconstruction, they may be let by the county court privately, so also modifications in the plan of a bridge in the course of construction involving labor and material in excess of that originally contracted for may be let privately so long as the same is done in good faith and not with the intention to supersede the original contract for the construction with another one not publicly let. Pacific Bridge Co. v. Clackamas County, 45 Fed. 217.

No application to erection of joint county bridges.—Westmoreland County's Appeal, 164 Pa. St. 355, 30 Atl. 288.

49. Follmer v. Nuckolls County, 6 Nebr. 204.

50. California.— Harris v. Cook, 119 Cal. 454, 51 Pac. 692; Maxwell v. Stanislaus County, 53 Cal. 389.

Colorado.— Saguache County v. Skinner, 8 Colo. App. 272, 45 Pac. 514.

Nebraska.— State v. Lincoln County, 35 Nebr. 346, 53 N. W. 147.

Pennsylvania.— Allegheny County v. Grier, 26 Pittsb. Leg. J. N. S. 380.

Washington.— Baum v. Sweeny, 5 Wash. 712, 32 Pac. 778.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 188.

51. American Clock Co. v. Licking County Com'rs, 31 Ohio St. 415.

No application to furnishing of postage.— Ind. Acts (1875), Reg. Sess. p. 31, making the county board the purchasing agent of the county for all articles necessary for conducting the county offices, and requiring such board to give a certain notice to bidders for furnishing supplies, does not apply to the furnishing of postage. Williams v. Henry County, 27 Ind. App. 207, 60 N. E. 1099.

52. Barnard v. Sangamon County, 190 Ill. 116, 60 N. E. 109 [reversing 91 Ill. App. 98]; Henry County v. Gillies, 138 Ind. 667, 38 N. E. 40.

53. Work involving more than five hundred dollars.— State v. Yeatman, 22 Ohio St. 546.

Work involving more than one hundred dollars.— Com. v. Mercer, 165 Pa. St. 1, 30 Atl. 501, 35 Wkly. Notes Cas. (Pa.) 411.

54. Williams v. Henry County, 27 Ind. App. 207, 60 N. E. 1099; Com. v. Mercer, 165 Pa. St. 1, 30 Atl. 501, 35 Wkly. Notes Cas. (Pa.) 411.

Ten days' notice.— Maxwell v. Stanislaus County, 53 Cal. 389 (county printing); Henry County v. Gillies, 138 Ind. 667, 38 N. E. 40 (bids to furnish stationery).

Thirty days' notice.— Smith v. Miami County, 6 Ind. App. 153, 33 N. E. 243, bids for erection of bridge.

Sixty days' notice.— McGowan v. Ford, 107

advertising,[55] in a paper or papers published and of general circulation in the county,[56] stating the character of the work, supplies, etc., required, and asking for bids.[57] Where such statutory provisions exist they are usually held to be mandatory, and contracts let without complying with such provisions are held not to be binding.[58] Where, however, there is no law making it the duty of the county through its agents to advertise for bids and to let by contract to the lowest bidder, they will not be compelled by mandamus to take such action,[59] and may award a contract for work in the absence of fraud or collusion to one at any price within the legal rate, even though another offers to do such work for a much less amount.[60]

Cal. 177, 40 Pac. 231, contract for erecting or rebuilding court-house and other public buildings.

Advertising for four weeks.— State v. Cunningham, 37 Nebr. 687, 56 N. W. 485; Brown v. Merrick County, 18 Nebr. 355, 25 N. W. 356, erection of bridge.

In Washington a statute requiring notice for bids for county printing to be published for a certain time prior to the May session of the board of county commissioners is merely directory. Baum v. Sweeney, 5 Wash. 712, 32 Pac. 778.

55. California.— Smeltzer v. Miller, 125 Cal. 41, 57 Pac. 668; McGowan v. Ford, 107 Cal. 177, 40 Pac. 231.

Colorado.— Saguache County v. Skinner, 8 Colo. App. 272, 45 Pac. 514.

Georgia.— Manly Bldg. Co. v. Newton, 114 Ga. 245, 40 S. E. 274; Dyer v. Erwin, 106 Ga. 845, 33 S. E. 63.

Indiana.—Robling v. Pike County, 141 Ind. 522, 40 N. E. 1079; Bass Foundry, etc., Works v. Parke County, 115 Ind. 234, 17 N. E. 593; Benton County v. Templeton, 51 Ind. 266.

Missouri.— Heidelberg v. St. Francois County, 100 Mo. 69, 12 S. W. 914.

Montana.— State v. Coad, 23 Mont. 131, 57 Pac. 1092.

Nebraska.— State v. Cunningham, 37 Nebr. 687, 56 N. W. 485; Brown v. Merrick County, 18 Nebr. 355, 25 N. W. 356.

Nevada.— Office Specialty Mfg. Co. v. Washoe County, 24 Nev. 359, 55 Pac. 22; Sadler v. Eureka County, 15 Nev. 39.

New York.— Moynahan v. Birkett, 81 Hun 395, 31 N. Y. Suppl. 293.

Ohio.— State v. Yeatman, 22 Ohio St. 546; State v. Butler County, 18 Ohio Cir. Ct. 275, 10 Ohio Cir. Dec. 118; State v. Biddle, 1 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 130, 3 Ohio N. P. 173.

Pennsylvania.— Allegheny County v. Grier, 26 Pittsb. Leg. J. N. S. 380.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 188.

Discretion of board in selection of paper.— Where the county board act in good faith, their decision as to the selection of the paper in which to advertise for bids cannot be attacked in a collateral proceeding. Brown v. Merrick County, 18 Nebr. 355, 25 N. W. 356.

56. Brown v. Merrick County, 18 Nebr. 355, 25 N. W. 356; State v. Yeatman, 22 Ohio St. 546; Bradford County v. Horton, 6 Lack. Leg. N. (Pa.) 306.

Publication in papers of general circulation throughout the state is sometimes required. Brown v. Merrick County, 18 Nebr. 355, 25 N. W. 356.

57. Dixon v. Greene County, 76 Miss. 794, 25 So. 665; State v. Cunningham, 37 Nebr. 687, 56 N. W. 485; American Clock Co. v. Licking County Com'rs, 31 Ohio St. 415.

Separate proposals.— State v. Williams County, 2 Ohio Cir. Dec. 227.

Sufficient for advertisement to refer to plans and specifications.— Notice by county commissioners for the letting of a contract for the county jail in the manner required by statute is sufficient which states the place where the building is to be erected, the terms of construction, the manner of payment, the bond required, the time, place, and terms of letting the contract, and which also refers to the plans and specifications on file in the auditor's office. It is not necessary that the advertisement shall set forth the plan of the building. Robling v. Pike County, 141 Ind. 522, 40 N. E. 1079. See also Dixon v. Greene County, 76 Miss. 794, 25 So. 665.

58. Georgia.— Dyer v. Erwin, 106 Ga. 845, 33 S. E. 63.

Indiana.— Henry County v. Gillies, 138 Ind. 667, 38 N. E. 40.

Nebraska.— Townsend v. Holt County, 40 Nebr. 852, 59 N. W. 381.

Ohio.— State v. Yeatman, 22 Ohio St. 546; State v. Biddle, 1 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 130, 3 Ohio N. P. 173.

United States.—Richardson v. Grant County, 27 Fed. 495.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 188.

59. State v. Lincoln County, 35 Nebr. 346, 53 N. W. 147; State v. Dixon County, 24 Nebr. 106, 37 N. W. 936.

Completion by board of an abandoned contract without letting new contract.—Where the contractor for the construction of a county building abandons his contract after a material portion of the work has been performed, the board of county commissioners has incidental power to take charge of the work and complete the building without adopting new plans and specifications or letting a new contract, and the county is liable for money, labor, or materials furnished at the request of the board and used in the construction of the building. Bass Foundry, etc., Works v. Parke County, 115 Ind. 234, 17 N. E. 593.

60. Journal Pub. Co. v. Whitney, 97 Cal. 283, 32 Pac. 237; Henry County v. Gillies, 138 Ind. 667, 38 N. E. 40; Harper County v. State, 47 Kan. 283, 27 Pac. 997.

2. Character of Specifications Required in Advertising For Bids. In requesting or advertising for bids upon which to let a contract to perform work for a county, it is the duty of the county commissioners to adopt in advance of the letting, plans and specifications so definite and detailed as to disclose the thing to be undertaken with circumstantial fulness and precision as a basis on which bids may be received.[61] Such commissioners have no authority to require each bidder to accompany his bid with his own plans and specifications, adopting such plans as they see fit and accepting the accompanying bid, since this would do away with all competition or comparison of bids, which is the object of requiring a public letting, and would open the way to corruption, favoritism, and fraud,[62] and a statute authorizing such a letting is in violation of a constitutional provision that all such contracts shall be given to the lowest bidder.[63] The fact that a board of county commissioners have adopted what they denominate "general specifications" will not satisfy the requirement of detailed specifications where the board at the same time invite proposals and competitive plans and specifications.[64]

3. Waiver of Defects in Form. A board of county commissioners may waive defects in the form of a bid, where such waiver works no prejudice to the rights of the public for whom the board acts.[65]

4. Necessity of Furnishing Guaranty of Performance With Bid. It is sometimes required that every bidder shall give a bond for the faithful performance of the work according to the conditions stated in the advertisement,[66] or that each bid shall be accompanied by a sufficient guaranty of some disinterested person.[67]

5. Award — a. To Whom Contract Given. It is usually provided that county contracts shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder,[68] or to the "lowest and

61. Arkansas.— Fones Hardware Co. v. Erb, 54 Ark. 645, 17 S. W. 7, 13 L. R. A. 353; Armstrong v. Truitt, 53 Ark. 287, 13 S. W. 934.

Idaho.— Andrews v. Ada County, 7 Ida. 453, 63 Pac. 592.

Indiana.—Fulton County v. Gibson, 158 Ind. 471, 63 N. E. 982; Gibson County v. Cincinnati Steam Heating Co., 128 Ind. 240, 2 N. E. 612, 12 L. R. A. 502; Kitchel v. Union County, 123 Ind. 540, 23 N. E. 366; Eigemann v. Posey County, 82 Ind. 413.

Nebraska.— People v. Buffalo County, 4 Nebr. 150.

Ohio.— State v. Shelby County Com'rs, 36 Ohio St. 326; State v. Crawford County, 17 Ohio Cir. Ct. 370, 9 Ohio Cir. Dec. 715; Plessner v. Pray, 8 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 149, 6 Ohio N. P. 444.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 188.

If the notice inviting proposals is defective in excluding fair competition, the commissioners cannot be required to award the contract to any of the bidders. American Clock Co. v. Licking County Com'rs, 31 Ohio St. 415.

No bar to incorporation of stipulation as to alteration and details.— Ind. Rev. Stat. § 4243, providing that it shall not be lawful for commissioners to make any contract for the construction of any court-house until plans and specifications have been adopted and deposited in the office of the auditor, is no bar to the incorporation in the specifications of a stipulation that the commissioners may alter the details of the work with corresponding changes in the contract price. Kitchel v. Union County, 123 Ind. 540, 24 N. E. 366.

62. Ertle v. Leary, 114 Cal. 238, 46 Pac. 1; People v. Buffalo County, 4 Nebr. 150; Price v. Passaic County, 96 Fed. 174, 37 C. C. A. 443.

63. Fones Hardware Co. v. Erb, 54 Ark. 645, 17 S. W. 7, 13 L. R. A. 353.

64. Fones Hardware Co. v. Erb, 54 Ark. 645, 17 S. W. 7, 13 L. R. A. 353.

65. State v. Board of Education, 42 Ohio St. 374.

66. Robling v. Pike County, 141 Ind. 522, 40 N. E. 1079.

If the bond is not in compliance with the advertisement, a bond subsequently furnished, which is in compliance therewith, is enforceable. Robling v. Pike County, 141 Ind. 522, 40 N. E. 1079.

67. So provided by Ohio Rev. Stat. § 3988. State v. Board of Education, 42 Ohio St. 374.

68. Arkansas.— Fones Hardware Co. v. Erb, 54 Ark. 645, 17 S. W. 7, 13 L. R. A. 353.

California.— Ertle v. Leary, 114 Cal. 238, 46 Pac. 1; McGowan v. Ford, 107 Cal. 177, 40 Pac. 231; Murphy v. Napa County, 20 Cal. 497.

Colorado.— Dawson v. Woodhams, 11 Colo. App. 394, 53 Pac. 238.

Indiana.— Robling v. Pike County, 141 Ind. 522, 40 N. E. 1079; Boseker v. Wabash County, 88 Ind. 267; Smith v. Miami County, 6 Ind. App. 153, 33 N. E. 243.

Iowa.— Vincent v. Ellis, 116 Iowa 609, 88 N. W. 836.

Kansas.— State v. Shawnee County, 57 Kan. 267, 45 Pac. 616.

Massachusetts.—Mayo v. Hampden County, 141 Mass. 74, 6 N. E. 757.

Mississippi.— Jefferson County v. Arrighi, 54 Miss. 668.

best" bidder,[69] on the terms in the notice mentioned and on the plans and specifications furnished,[70] provided the bid is in the proper form,[71] is received at the proper time,[72] and provided that such bidder has the qualifications prescribed by statute for executing the particular contract in question.[73] Where as is the case in some jurisdictions county commissioners are not required by statute to make a public letting of contracts affecting the county after due advertisement to the lowest bidder, it has been held that they must show on settlement of their accounts that the county paid no more than a fair market price for the things contracted for or purchased.[74]

b. Discretion of Board — (i) In Determining Responsibility of Bidder. Even though the requirement that a county contract shall be awarded to the

Montana.— State v. Coad, 23 Mont. 131, 57 Pac. 1092.

Nebraska.— State v. Cunningham, 37 Nebr. 687, 56 N. W. 485; People v. Buffalo County, 4 Nebr. 150.

New Jersey.— Connolly v. Hudson County, 57 N. J. L. 286, 30 Atl. 548.

New York.— People v. Kings County, 42 Hun 456.

Ohio.— State v. Board of Education, 42 Ohio St. 374; State v. Marion County Com'rs, 39 Ohio St. 188; State v. Shelby County Com'rs, 36 Ohio St. 326; State v. Hamilton County Com'rs, 20 Ohio St. 425; State v. Betts, 2 Ohio Cir. Dec. 434.

Oregon.— Springfield Milling Co. v. Lane County, 5 Oreg. 265.

Pennsylvania.— Van Baman v. Gallagher, 182 Pa. St. 277, 37 Atl. 832; Wilkes-Barre Record v. Luzerne County, 9 Kulp 26.

Wisconsin.— Mueller v. Eau Claire County, 108 Wis. 304, 84 N. W. 430.

United States.—Pacific Bridge Co. v. Clackamas County, 45 Fed. 217.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 191.

The lowest "responsible bidder" is one who complies with all the requirements of the statute, and not merely one whose bid is less than his competitors. Boseker v. Wabash County, 88 Ind. 267; Jefferson County v. Arrighi, 54 Miss. 668.

Injunction against payment of more than amount of lowest bid.— Where an ordinary has let out the building of a bridge to one who is not the lowest bidder, an injunction against paying the contractor more than the amount of the lowest bid is sufficiently comprehensive, and a refusal to restrain any and all payment whatever is no abuse of discretion. Crabtree v. Gibson, 78 Ga. 230, 3 S. E. 10, where the ordinary upon refusal of the lowest bidder to give the required bond contracted with the second bidder.

60. Com. v. Mercer, 165 Pa. St. 1, 30 Atl. 501.

Letting to lowest and best separate bidder. — By the Ohio act of May 5, 1877, it is provided that contracts for public buildings may be let to separate bidders for different parts of the work, and the contracts are required to be let to the lowest and best separate bidder. State v. Marion County Com'rs, 39 Ohio St. 188; State v. Shelby County Com'rs, 36 Ohio St. 326. This act is not inconsistent with and did not repeal the act of April 27, 1869, requiring contracts let for the entire job to be awarded to the person offering to do the work at the lowest price and giving a sufficient bond for its faithful performance, and hence where bids are required to be such that the contract must be let for the entire job, county commissioners are allowed no discretion in awarding the contract otherwise than to the lowest bidder, provided he has good and sufficient bond. State v. Marion County Com'rs, 39 Ohio St. 188; Boren v. Darke County Com'rs, 21 Ohio St. 311.

Where a bid is uncertain as to whether it is for parts of a job as well as for the whole, and the bidder induces the board to construe the same as for all or none, such bidder cannot afterward complain that the board awarded the whole job to a lower bidder, although under a different construction the board would have been bound to award to such bidder a portion of the work. State v. Board of Education, 42 Ohio St. 374.

70. Robling v. Pike County, 141 Ind. 522, 40 N. E. 1079.

Award not compulsory where notice defective.— Where a notice inviting proposals for furnishing goods to a county is so defective as to exclude fair competition, the commissioners cannot be required to award the contract to any of the bidders. American Clock Co. v. Licking County Com'rs, 31 Ohio St. 415.

Conditional award.— Where a contract was awarded by board of county commissioners on a condition which was not accepted, such condition not having been accepted, no contract existed. Olympian-Tribune Pub. Co. v. Byrne, (Utah 1902) 68 Pac. 335.

71. State v. Franklin County, 1 Ohio Cir. Ct. 194.

Modification of bid not permissible.— County commissioners who have advertised for the sale of county bonds under two plans, while they have the power to accept or reject any bid, have no power to permit a bidder to privately amend and modify his bid so as to make it better than that of another bidder or to render it acceptable to them. State v. Douglas County, 11 Nebr. 484, 9 N. W. 691.

72. Brumfield v. Douglass County, 2 Nev. 65.

73. Baum v. Sweeney, 5 Wash. 712, 32 Pac. 778.

74. Bradford County v. Horton, 6 Lack. Leg. N. (Pa.) 306.

lowest responsible bidder be held to be mandatory and not merely directory,[75] yet the agents through whom the county let such contracts have broad discretionary powers in determining the responsibility of the bidder as depending upon the sufficiency of the bond tendered.[76] They will not, however, be permitted to exercise such discretion to accomplish fraud and favoritism, and such abuse of discretion will be prevented by the courts.[77]

(II) Right to Reject Any and All Bids. County boards are in a number of jurisdictions empowered to reserve the right to reject any and all bids, if they think such a course to be for the public interest,[78] and to advertise anew for proposals.[79] If, however, such boards determine not to readvertise for further proposals, it has been held to be their duty to enter into a contract with the lowest bidder,[80] and to award the contract to the bidder offering to do the work and furnish the materials at the next lowest price where the lowest bidder failed to comply with the statute by entering into the contract and executing the requisite bond.[81]

(III) Liability of County For Expenditure of Time and Money in Preparing Bids. An unsuccessful bidder for a county contract cannot recover for time and money expended in preparing a bid when he knows that there are to be competing bidders. In such a case there is no implied contract to reimburse the bidder for the work of preparing and submitting bids.[82]

c. Appeal From Award. An award of a contract for the erection of a county building is not an "allowance" within the meaning of a constitutional provision giving the right to citizens and resident taxpayers to appeal from allowances made for or against counties.[83]

F. Contractors' Bonds — 1. For Faithful Performance of Contract — a. Necessity For Bond. It is frequently required by statute that a party under-

75. Boseker v. Wabash County, 88 Ind. 267; State v. Marion County Com'rs, 39 Ohio St. 188.

76. Boseker v. Wabash County, 88 Ind. 267; Connolly v. Hudson County, 57 N. J. L. 286, 30 Atl. 548; State v. Franklin County, 1 Ohio Cir. Ct. 194.

Bonds the only qualification.— Ind. Rev. Stat. 1894, § 5591, after providing for the letting of contracts to the lowest responsible bidder upon his giving a prescribed bond, provides further that "said bond shall be the only requirement said commissioners may demand of such lowest responsible bidder as a qualification for said work." Robling v. Pike County, 141 Ind. 522, 524, 40 N. E. 1079.

77. State v. Franklin County, 1 Ohio Cir. Ct. 194.

78. Indiana.—Henry County v. Gillies, 138 Ind. 667, 38 N. E. 40.

Massachusetts.— Connors v. Stone, 177 Mass. 424, 59 N. E. 71; Mayo v. Hampden County, 141 Mass. 74, 6 N. E. 757.

Nebraska.— State v. Douglas County, 11 Nebr. 484, 9 N. W. 691.

New Jersey.— Connolly v. Hudson County, 57 N. J. L. 286, 30 Atl. 548.

New York.— People v. Kings County, 42 Hun 456.

Ohio.— State v. Board of Education, 42 Ohio St. 374; State v. Franklin County, 1 Ohio Cir. Ct. 194, 1 Ohio Cir. Dec. 106.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 191.

Rejection for alterations.— After rejecting specifications for a county building because of material alterations, the commissioners' court was not bound to accept any further propositions from the bidders, but could reject the plans entirely. Clayton v. Galveston County, 20 Tex. Civ. App. 591, 50 S. W. 737.

Right of bidder to be heard before rejection. — Where a question is raised as to the truth of statements in a bid which, being on its face in strict conformity with the advertised requirements and the lowest bid presented, would entitle the bidder to the contract, the board cannot decide that question against the bidder and award the contract to another without giving the first bidder an opportunity to be heard. Connolly v. Hudson County, 57 N. J. L. 286, 30 Atl. 548.

79. State v. Shelby County Com'rs, 36 Ohio St. 326; State v. Franklin County, 1 Ohio Cir. Ct. 194.

Waiver of objection to reservation of right. — Where the advertisement reserves this right to reject any and all bids, a party making his bids under such advertisement cannot object that under the statute the board had no authority to reserve the power to reject bids. People v. Kings County, 42 Hun (N. Y.) 456.

80. State v. Franklin County, 1 Ohio Cir. Ct. 194.

81. State v. Shelby County Com'rs, 36 Ohio St. 326.

82. Boseker v. Wabash County, 88 Ind. 267.

83. Armstrong v. Truitt, 53 Ark. 287, 13 S. W. 934.

taking a contract to erect county buildings or perform county work shall give a bond conditioned for the faithful performance of such contract,[84] in an amount fixed at the discretion of the county commissioners,[85] and with proper sureties.[86]

b. Actions on Bond. In an action on such bond it is proper to join all the parties as plaintiffs or defendants who have so participated in the transaction as to render them interested in the determination of the suit.[87] So it is not error to join in the same suit claims for property converted and for damages approximately resulting from a breach of the contract, when the matters relied on for a recovery are connected with and grew out of the same cause of action and subject-matter in dispute.[88] The declaration on such bond should state for what county's use it is taken.[89]

2. For Payment of Debts Incurred by Contractor. Although a county has not, unless expressly authorized by law, the power to take a bond for the security or benefit of third parties,[90] it is expressly provided by statute in a few states that the bond of a contractor for the construction or performance of any kind of work shall in addition to the faithful performance of the work guarantee that such contractor shall pay all debts incurred by him in the prosecution of such work, including labor, materials furnished, and boarding the laborers, etc.[91] Under

84. Arkansas.— Armstrong v. Truitt, 53 Ark. 287, 13 S. W. 934; In re Buckner, 9 Ark. 73.

Georgia.— Forsyth County v. Gwinnett County, 108 Ga. 510, 33 S. E. 892; Crabtree v. Gibson, 78 Ga. 230, 3 S. E. 10.

Indiana.— Robling v. Pike County, 141 Ind. 522, 40 N. E. 1079; State v. Hinsdale-Doyle Granite Co., 117 Ind. 476, 20 N. E. 437; Faurote v. State, 110 Ind. 463, 11 N. E. 472; Boseker v. Wabash County, 88 Ind. 267.

Minnesota.— Breen v. Kelly, 45 Minn. 352, 47 N. W. 1067.

Mississippi.— Jefferson County v. Arrighi, 54 Miss. 668.

Ohio.— Boren v. Darke County Com'rs, 21 Ohio St. 311; State v. Crawford County, 17 Ohio Cir. Ct. 370, 9 Ohio Cir. Dec. 715.

Tennessee.—Templeton v. Nipper, 107 Tenn. 548, 64 S. W. 889.

Texas.— Milliken v. Callahan County, 69 Tex. 205, 6 S. W. 681.

Washington.— Gilmore v. Westerman, 13 Wash. 390, 43 Pac. 345.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 194.

Statute directory and not mandatory.— The Arkansas statute requiring the commissioner of public buildings to take a bond of the person who undertakes the erection of a court-house has been held directory, and his failure to do so does not render the contract invalid. In re Buckner, 9 Ark. 73. And in Indiana it has been held that the failure or neglect of the commissioners to require a bond of a bridge contractor does not make the county liable to a third party for damage occasioned by the neglect. Pike County Com'rs v. Norrington, 82 Ind. 190, 193.

85. McCormick v. Johnson County, 68 Ind. 214, where it was held that their decision is not reviewable.

86. Resident sureties.— In McCormick v. Johnson County, 68 Ind. 214, it was held that a statute requiring sureties on a contractor's bond to be "residents" merely requires sureties residing in the state and not necessarily those residing in the county. In Boren v. Darke County Com'rs, 21 Ohio St. 311, it was held that it is not an abuse of the discretionary powers vested in them for county commissioners in taking a bond for the faithful performance of a contract to erect county buildings to refuse to accept non-residents as sureties.

87. Milliken v. Callahan County, 69 Tex. 205, 6 S. W. 681.

88. Milliken v. Callahan County, 69 Tex. 205, 6 S. W. 681.

89. Governor v. Throckmorton, 3 Bibb (Ky.) 243.

Evidence.— In accordance with the general rule that all preliminary negotiations leading to the execution of a contract are deemed to have been merged into such contract, an order of a county commissioners' court of a county entered on the same day, but before a contract was signed, is merely a preliminary negotiation and cannot be introduced in an action on a contractors' bond to vary or extend the terms of such contract, the same being full and complete in all its parts. Milliken v. Callahan County, 69 Tex. 205, 6 S. W. 681.

90. Breen v. Kelly, 45 Minn. 352, 47 N. W. 1067.

91. Indiana.—State v. Hinsdale-Doyle Granite Co., 117 Ind. 476, 20 N. E. 437; Faurote v. State, 110 Ind. 463, 11 N. E. 472, 111 Ind. 73, 11 N. E. 476, 790, 119 Ind. 600, 21 N. E. 663; Secrist v. Delaware County, 100 Ind. 59.

Michigan.— Plummer v. Kennedy, 72 Mich. 295, 40 N. W. 433; Owen v. Hill, 67 Mich. 43, 34 N. W. 649.

Missouri.— See also Erath v. Allen, 55 Mo. App. 107, under Nebraska statute.

Nebraska.— Korsmeyer Plumbing, etc., Co. v. McClay, 43 Nebr. 649, 62 N. W. 50.

Washington.— Rounds v. Whatcom County, 22 Wash. 106, 60 Pac. 139; Gilmore v. Westerman, 13 Wash. 390, 43 Pac. 345.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 195 et seq.

these provisions any laborer, materialman, or person furnishing board to a contractor, and having a claim against such contractor, may bring suit against him and his bondsmen upon the bond given to secure a proper payment of the debts incurred by him in the prosecution of the work, including labor, materials furnished, etc.,[92] and this right of action cannot be defeated by any action done or omitted to be done by a county board in contracting for any county building or work.[93] It has been held, however, that the obligor upon such a bond is not liable for debts incurred by a subcontractor,[94] that a subcontractor cannot maintain an action on such a bond for a balance due him from the contractor for materials and wages paid to laborers, and that he cannot be subrogated to the rights of laborers and mechanics paid by him.[95]

G. Modification of Contracts — 1. By County Board or Court. There is some diversity of ruling as to the power of a county board or court to make alterations or modifications in a contract for the erection of county buildings, which is in the main accounted for by diversity in the statutory and constitutional provisions. Under a constitutional provision that the legislature cannot authorize a county to allow any extra compensation after a contract has been entered into, and performed in whole or in part, the county has no power to pay a contractor a greater sum than that contracted to be paid him for the work after it has been commenced,[96] and where a statute requires a popular vote of the electors to authorize the erection of a building when the probable cost will exceed a designated amount, and an election is accordingly held authorizing the expenditure of a greater amount, the county board has no power to so modify the contract as to allow the contractor a greater sum than that authorized by the vote.[97] Nevertheless in the absence of some constitutional or statutory prohibition the county board or court may make necessary changes in the matters of detail and increase or diminish the price accordingly;[98] but in no event can they make important general changes in the plan of the building.[99] So they have no power after the acceptance of a bid and the award of the contract to insert in the formal contract tendered to the contractor for his signature stipulations not in the advertisement and proposals, records, etc., relating to the subject of the contract.[1]

2. By Agents, Commissioners, or Engineers. Agents, commissioners, architects, or engineers appointed to superintend the erection of county buildings or bridges have no power to modify the contract in any respect or waive any of its provisions. The exercise of this power, provided it can be exercised at all, is vested solely in the county board or court,[2] and it has been held that the board have no

92. Faurote v. State, 110 Ind. 463, 11 N. E. 472; Secrist v. Delaware County, 100 Ind. 59; Dewy v. State, 91 Ind. 173; Gilmore v. Westerman, 13 Wash. 390, 43 Pac. 345.

Right of action assignable.— A materialman's right of action on such a bond is assignable. Gilmore v. Westerman, 13 Wash. 390, 43 Pac. 345.

In whose name brought.— The action on such a bond shall be in the name of the party claiming the benefit of the act. Erath v. Allen, 55 Mo. App. 107.

93. Dewey v. State, 91 Ind. 173.

94. State v. Hinsdale-Doyle Granite Co., 117 Ind. 476, 20 N. E. 437; Faurote v. State, 110 Ind. 463, 11 N. E. 472, 111 Ind. 73, 11 N. E. 476, 790, 119 Ind. 600, 21 N. E. 663.

95. Erath v. Allen, 55 Mo. App. 107.

96. Shelby County v. Gibson, 18 Tex. Civ. App. 121, 44 S. W. 302.

97. King v. Mahaska County, 75 Iowa 329, 39 N. W. 636. See also Burlington, etc., R. Co. v. Benton County, 56 Iowa 89, 8 N. W. 797; Reichard v. Warren County, 31 Iowa 381; Keith County v. Ogalalla Power, etc., Co., (Nebr. 1902) 89 N. W. 375.

98. Gibson County v. Cincinnati Steam-Heating Co., 128 Ind. 240, 27 N. E. 612, 12 L. R. A. 502; Kitchel v. Union County, 123 Ind. 540, 24 N. E. 366. See also Benton County v. Patrick, 54 Miss. 240.

99. Gibson County v. Cincinnati Steam-Heating Co., 128 Ind. 240, 27 N. E. 612, 12 L. R. A. 502.

1. Highland County Com'rs v. Rhoades, 26 Ohio St. 411.

2. Bouton v. McDonough County, 84 Ill. 384; Dixon v. Greene County, 76 Miss. 794, 25 So. 665; Benton County v. Patrick, 54 Miss. 240; Hague v. Philadelphia, 48 Pa. St. 527; Sullivan County v. Ruth, 106 Tenn. 85, 59 S. W. 138. It has accordingly been held that building commissioners and their engineers have no power to waive any of the requirements of the contract (Sullivan County v. Ruth, 106 Tenn. 85, 59 S. W. 138); authority to delegate this power,[3] although in one jurisdiction at least this is denied.[4]

H. Extension of Time For Performance After Forfeiture. Where a contract with a county has been forfeited because not completed within the time stipulated therein, the county board of supervisors cannot extend the time for performance and thus revive and validate a dead contract.[5]

I. Release. The fact that a county court was authorized by the vote of the people of such county to make a contract does not by implication give the court authority to release such contract.[6]

J. Cancellation and Rescission. Where a county has by its properly constituted authorities entered into a valid contract, it cannot without good ground and without the consent of the other contractual party rescind such contract,[7] nor is it a valid ground to rescind such a contract that the people of the county by a subsequent vote decided that it was extravagant.[8] So it is not a ground to rescind a contract that a stipulation required by statute was omitted therefrom, where such omission renders the contract more favorable to the county, and the statute does not make it a consequence of such omission that the contract shall be void.[9] Where a contract for the sale of property to a county fails because of the latter's inability to pay all of the consideration, the other party is entitled to rescind it and to a reconveyance, on placing the county in statu quo as far as possible, by restoring what consideration has been received.[10]

K. Performance and Breach — 1. In General. As is the case with contracts generally, to authorize a recovery under a contract with a county performance in accordance with its terms must be shown,[11] or that failure to so perform was caused through the fault of the other party or parties to such contract.[12] Where a party has performed his contract with a county he is entitled to the specific performance of the contract as to payment by the county for such services in the absence of fraud or misrepresentation;[13] but fraud or misrepresentation is a good defense to an action against a county for a breach of contract.[14] and although the county board accepts the building contracted for, when completed, on the report of the commissioners stating that he has authorized the extra work for which claim is made and recommending payment therefor, the county is not liable for such extra work, if it at the same time refused to receive the part of the commissioners' report relating to such extra work (Benton County v. Patrick, 54 Miss. 240).

3. Dixon v. Greene County, 76 Miss. 794, 25 So. 665. See also Benton County v. Patrick, 54 Miss. 240.

4. Mueller v. Eau Claire County, 108 Wis. 304, 84 N. W. 430.

5. La Societe Francaise D'Epargne, etc. v. Fishel, (Cal. 1886) 10 Pac. 395; Fanning v. Schammel, 68 Cal. 428, 9 Pac. 427; Beveridge v. Livingstone, 54 Cal. 54.

6. People v. Louisville, etc., R. Co., (Ill. 1886) 5 N. E. 379.

7. Tippecanoe County v. Everett, 51 Ind. 543.

8. Cook v. Hamilton County Com'rs, 6 Fed. Cas. No. 3,158, 6 McLean 612.

9. Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488.

10. Chapman v. Douglas County, 107 U. S. 348, 2 S. Ct. 62, 27 L. ed. 378.

11. Dameron v. Irwin, 30 N. C. 421; Lillard v. Freestone County, 23 Tex. Civ. App. 363, 57 S. W. 338; Chenowith v. Ritchie County Ct., 32 W. Va. 628, 9 S. E. 910; Kinsley v. Monongalia County Ct., 31 W. Va. 464, 7 S. E. 445.

Duty of proper performance not altered by appointment of superintendent.—Although a contract for building a court-house in a workmanlike manner recites that the county commissioners will superintend the work, such superintendence is not a condition precedent to the progress of the work, nor does the appointment of a superintending agent relieve the contractors from the necessity of performing their contract in the proper manner. Greene v. State, 8 Ohio 310.

12. Foy v. Ripley County, 37 Ind. 347.

Recovery for deficient work done by order of county superintendent.— In Carroll County v. O'Connor, 137 Ind. 622, 35 N. E. 1006, 37 N. E. 16, it was held that where a contract to build a bridge for a county provided that the excavations should be made to such depth as the engineer might determine, the plaintiff might recover for a foundation put in over his protest, but by the requirement of the superintendent and with the concurrence of the commissioners, although the same was so deficient as to settle and cause the abutment of the bridge to fall when completed.

13. Allen v. Cerro Gordo County, 40 Iowa 349; Spring City Bank v. Rhea County, (Tenn. Ch. App. 1900) 59 S. W. 442.

14. Jennings County v. Verbarg, 63 Ind. 107.

In accordance with the general rule that one who is not a party to a contract cannot sue in respect of a breach of duty arising out of the contract, a contractor for county work is not liable to a third person for any defects resulting simply from a breach of his contract with the county and not due to any neglect or fault on his part.[15]

2. Conclusiveness of Acceptance by County. Where work done, material furnished, etc., under a contract with a county, have been accepted by the duly authorized agents of such county, such acceptance is conclusive on the county,[16] at least in the absence of evidence of imposition, fraud, or mistake.[17]

L. Actions Against County — 1. For Services Rendered — a. Declaration, Petition, or Complaint. In actions to recover for services rendered it must be alleged that they were rendered for and procured by the county.[18] Performance by the plaintiff and breach by the defendant should also be alleged,[19] and that the county received benefit from such performance.[20] There is a conflict of authority as to whether the complaint must allege that the contract was made at a regular meeting of the board.[21] If a statute requires the contract to be entered on the minutes of the proper authorities in charge of the financial affairs of the county, the petition must allege that the contract was duly entered on the minutes.[22] So it has been held that where it is provided by statute that certain contracts shall not be made in the absence of a previous appropriation to cover the expense thereof, a petition setting up such a contract should allege that at the time the contract was made there was money on hand available for the purpose.[23]

b. Plea or Answer. Where the complaint in an action against a county

15. Marvin Safe Co. v. Ward, 46 N. J. L. 19.

16. Guilder v. Dayton, 22 Minn. 366; Despard v. Pleasants County, 23 W. Va. 318. See also McCoy v. Able, 131 Ind. 417, 30 N. E. 528, 31 N. E. 453; Hamilton County v. Noyes, 35 Ohio St. 201.

Acceptance by superintendent.— When county commissioners have an authorized superintendent upon the ground watching the progress of the work, and when it is done pursuant to his directions, with his approval and in substantial compliance with the plans and specifications, the commissioners not only waive their right to pass upon the workmanship and materials, but also their right to condemn either, unless there is collusion between the contractor and superintendent. Carroll County v. O'Connor, 137 Ind. 622, 35 N. E. 1006, 37 N. E. 16.

17. Despard v. Pleasants County, 23 W. Va. 318.

18. Miner v. Solano County, 26 Cal. 115; Hoffman v. Lake County, 96 Ind. 84.

Allegations that county duly contracted implies compliance with law.— In an action to recover from a county the agreed price for the publication and printing in a newspaper the "delinquent tax-list" of the county, it is not necessary to specifically allege in the complaint that the newspaper in which the publication was made was of the quality and size required by Minn. Gen. Stat. (1878), c. 11, § 110. A general allegation that the county "duly contracted" with the plaintiff for the publication of the list in this newspaper, and that plaintiff duly and regularly printed and published said list according to law, is sufficient. Folsom v. Chisago County, 28 Minn. 324, 9 N. W. 881.

19. In Jennings County v. Verbarg, 63 Ind. 107, a complaint against a board of commissioners alleged that, pursuant to a proposition by the board for bids on certain work to be done for the county, the plaintiff had made a bid, which was accepted by the board, conditioned upon his giving bond, which he had done, and averred performance by him and a breach by the board. It was held on demurrer that the facts alleged constitute a contract and that the complaint is sufficient.

20. Miner v. Solano County, 26 Cal. 115.

21. That this is necessary see Archer v. Allen County, 3 Blackf. (Ind.) 501. For the contrary view see De Kalb County v. Auburn Foundry, etc., Works, 14 Ind. App. 214, 42 N. E. 689.

If the contract is entered into by an agent in behalf of the county it will be sufficient to allege that the county made the contract by and through its duly authorized agent. McPherson v. San Joaquin County, (Cal. 1899) 56 Pac. 802.

Presumption as to authority of chairman of board to contract.— Where a petition in an action by an attorney against a county for services alleges that the chairman of the county board, acting for the latter, employed plaintiff to defend an action against the county, it must be presumed on demurrer that the chairman was acting under legal authority of the board. Tatlock v. Louisa County, 46 Iowa 138.

22. Milburn v. Glynn County, 109 Ga. 473, 34 S. E. 848.

23. Tullock v. Webster County, 46 Nebr. 211, 64 N. W. 705. But compare Johnson v. Yuba County, 103 Cal. 538, 37 Pac. 528.

alleges that work was done under a contract with the county board, and the defendant's answer, while admitting a contract with the plaintiff and another person, avers this to be the only contract made by them, such complaint must be understood to aver a contract in accordance with the statute, and the answer is sufficient to put plaintiff upon proof of his alleged contract.[24] In an action on a contract made between plaintiff and a county judge, an answer which denies that the county made the contract raises the issue as to the power of the judge to make the contract in question.[25]

c. Evidence. In an action against a county for services the declarations of a director of the board of freeholders as to the amount of the appropriations ordered by the board are not admissible as proof thereof.[26] The claimant must introduce sufficient evidence to show prima facie the rendition of the services for which he seeks to recover,[27] and that such services were authorized.[28]

2. By Employee For Dismissal. If a county violate a contract of employment the employee has an adequate remedy at law, and equity will not enforce it and restrain his dismissal by injunction.[29]

3. By Contractor. Where contractors furnishing services to a county assign claims against the fund due them, before its maturity, more than sufficient to absorb it, the county cannot be made to pay until all the rights are adjudicated, and it is not liable for costs.[30] In a suit on warrants issued in compliance with the provisions of a contract for the full contract price, the contractor is entitled to recover the full price, although the work was worth less than such price, in the absence of a showing of fraud in procuring the contract or of a non-compliance with its terms.[31] Where a county sued upon a contract admits the fact of an agreement, but asserts that the same is void for violation of the law or failure to comply with a statutory provision, this is new matter which must be pleaded.[32] With respect to the bond it need not be alleged specifically that the same was approved by the board.[33]

4. By Subcontractor. Under a statute giving a subcontractor a right of action for labor or materials done or furnished against the principal contractor and the county for which they were furnished, jointly for the recovery thereof, the commencement of such action gives to the plaintiff priority over other subcontractors and creditors of principal contractors who may commence their actions later.[34]

24. Murphy v. Napa County, 20 Cal. 497.

25. Holtzclaw v. Hamilton County, 101 Tenn. 338, 47 S. W. 421.

26. Downie v. Passaic County, 54 N. J. L. 223, 23 Atl. 954.

27. The certificate of a coroner that services were rendered is, in an action against a county for the costs of an inquest, prima facie evidence that the services were rendered. Carmack v. Dade County, 127 Mo. 527, 30 S. W. 162.

28. A recital in a claim filed against a county of the date when the services were rendered on account of which the claim is made is merely evidence of such date to go to the jury, and a court is not justified in basing its charge on the assumption that such recital is conclusive. Rollins v. Rio Grande County, 90 Fed. 575, 33 C. C. A. 181.

Insufficient evidence to show that services were authorized.— In an action against a county by a road overseer to recover for services and money expended in the repair of county roads, testimony of the road commissioner that he had spoken to plaintiff in regard to working on the public roads and had always directed him not to run in debt in excess of the funds appropriated for such work, and that he did not know anything about plaintiff's doing the work on which his claim was based until the bills therefor came in, is insufficient to show that the work in question was authorized by the commissioner, so as to authorize plaintiff to recover therefor. Ludy v. Colusa County, (Cal. 1896) 45 Pac. 166.

29. Thomas v. Cook County, 56 Ill. 351.

30. Harris County v. Donaldson, 20 Tex. Civ. App. 9, 48 S. W. 791.

31. Thompson v. Searcy County, 57 Fed. 1030, 6 C. C. A. 674.

32. San Juan County v. Tulley, (Colo. App. 1902) 67 Pac. 346. See also Johnson v. Yuba County, 103 Cal. 538, 37 Pac. 528.

33. Folson v. Chisago County, 28 Minn. 324, 9 N. W. 881, holding that an allegation that plaintiff "duly executed and delivered to defendant a bond as required by defendant, and in accordance with the laws of the state" was sufficient.

34. James v. Davidson, 81 Wis. 321, 51 N. W. 565.

Findings.— Subcontractors suing the principal contractor and the county for work

M. Actions by County. When the legally constituted business agent of a county contracts for work in respect to which he has no power to make contracts and executes a warrant for the amount thereof upon the treasurer of the county, which is voluntarily paid by the latter officer, the county cannot recover back the amount so voluntarily paid.[35] Although a contract has been improperly let and the contractor has been paid in advance, where it appears that the work is done by the contractor in substantial compliance with his contract, and that he tendered the proper bonds, he is not liable in an action by the county brought at the instance of the successor of the officer with whom he had contracted for the money received from the latter, although in the opinion of witnesses the prices paid to him were too large.[36] That a contract into which the plaintiff, a county, entered with defendant was ultra vires is no defense to an action by the county to recover the consideration paid therefor as the result of defendant's failure to carry out his work, although it may be a defense to the sureties on the contractor's bond.[37] When a penal bond for the payment of money, importing an executed consideration, has been taken by a county board, the obligor having authority to make the same, the right of the board to recover in an action on such bond cannot be denied on the ground of want of authority to take the same, where the money for the payment of which the bond was given is due the board as a corporation, in the exercise of its legitimate powers.[38] One who has borrowed from a county fund, giving a note and mortgage as security, cannot avoid liability on those instruments on the ground that the county had no authority to loan the money.[39]

VII. COUNTY EXPENSES, CHARGES, AND STATUTORY LIABILITIES.

A. Expenses and Charges — 1. In General. One who asks payment of a claim against a county must show some statute authorizing it or that it arises from some contract express or implied which finds authority of law.[40] No claims are chargeable on a county treasury or can be paid therefrom except such as the law imposes on the county or empowers it to contract for, either expressly or as a necessary incident, and no officer of the county can charge it with the payment of other claims, however meritorious the consideration, or whatever may be the benefit the county may derive from them,[41] and where a statute prescribes that certain things shall be done at the expense of the county by certain officials of performed and material furnished for the erection of a county building cannot maintain that a finding of the trial court fixing the balance of the reserve fund from which they are to be paid is erroneous, as not including money paid to the principal contractor by the county from such reserve fund before the commencement of their actions, where they do not claim such payment to have been fraudulently made. James v. Davidson, 81 Wis. 321, 51 N. W. 565.

Necessity for actual indebtedness from county to principal contractor.— An action under this provision cannot be maintained until there is something actually due from the county to the principal contractor. James v. Davidson, 81 Wis. 321, 51 N. W. 565.

35. Long v. Boone County, 36 Iowa 60.

36. Paulding County v. Scoggins, 97 Ga. 253, 23 S. E. 845.

37. Edwards County v. Jennings, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 33 S. W. 585.

38. Baker v. Washington County, 53 Ind. 497.

39. Albright v. Allday, (Tex. Civ. App. 1896) 37 S. W. 646.

40. Irwin v. Yuba County, 119 Cal. 686, 52 Pac. 35.

Implied liability.— Where a statute provides that a county, through its proper officers, shall have certain services performed and material furnished, the person furnishing such services and materials at the request of the proper officers is entitled to compensation from the county, although the statute does not expressly provide that the county shall be liable therefor. San Juan County v. Tulley, (Colo. App. 1902) 67 Pac. 346.

41. Alabama.— Jack v. Moore, 66 Ala. 184; Van Eppes v. Mobile Com'rs Ct., 25 Ala. 460. And see Mobile County v. Kimball, 54 Ala. 56.

Arkansas.— Desha County v. Newman, 33 Ark. 788.

California.— Irwin v. Yuba County, 119 Cal. 686, 52 Pac. 35.

Georgia.— Talbot County v. Mansfield, 115 Ga. 766, 42 S. E. 72; Howard v. Early County, 104 Ga. 669, 30 S. E. 880; Collier v. Elliott, 100 Ga. 363, 28 S. E. 117; Houston County v. Kersh, 82 Ga. 252, 10 S. E. 199; Kennedy v. Seamans, 60 Ga. 612; Maxwell v. Cumming, 58 Ga. 384.

the county, or by persons designated by them, only such officials or persons designated can put the county to expense for such items.[42] Wherever the state constitution imposes a duty upon a county,[43] such county must pay the compensation of all officers employed in the discharge of the duty imposed as well as all expenses incident thereto.[44] Where certain expenses are declared by statute to be county charges, a county board cannot by resolution or ordinance provide that such expenses shall not be paid unless incurred in a particular manner, or make anything a prerequisite to their performing the duty of auditing such accounts.[45]

2. County Office Expenses. In some jurisdictions it is the duty of the county board to provide offices at the expense of the county for certain of the county officers,[46] but this duty extends only to those officers specified by statute.[47] So also in some jurisdictions it is the duty of county boards to supply the furniture for the offices of county officers,[48] the fuel necessary for the heating of such offices[49] and lights therefor,[50] as well as janitor's service.[51] And the county is sometimes made liable for clerk hire.[52] Allowance for stationery, blanks, and record books for county offices is illegal in the absence of statute authorizing such

Illinois.— Peoria County v. Roche, 65 Ill. 77; Piatt County v. J. D. Knott, 99 Ill. App. 420.

Iowa.— Mousseau v. Sioux City, 113 Iowa 246, 84 N. W. 1027; Turner v. Woodbury County, 57 Iowa 440, 10 N. W. 827; Foster v. Clinton County, 51 Iowa 541, 2 N. W. 207.

Minnesota.— Rasmusson v. Clay County, 41 Minn. 283, 43 N. W. 3.

Missouri.— Person v. Ozark County, 82 Mo. 491; Bright v. Pike County, 69 Mo. 519.

Montana.— Sears v. Gallatin County, 20 Mont. 462, 52 Pac. 204, 40 L. R. A. 405.

New York.— People v. Greene County, 39 Hun 299; People v. Hill, 36 Hun 619; People v. Albany County, 28 How. Pr. 22.

Oklahoma.— Greer County v. Watson, 7 Okla. 174, 54 Pac. 441.

Pennsylvania.— Cumberland County v. Directors of Poor, 7 Pa. Super. Ct. 614; Thomas v. County Com'rs, 6 Phila. 411, 24 Leg. Int. 100; Hinkle v. York County, 12 Lanc. Bar 175. Contra, McCalmont v. Allegheny County, 29 Pa. St. 417, where it was held that the usage which had prevailed for a county to defray certain expenses was sufficient to impose a liability therefor without an express statutory enactment.

Wisconsin.— Townsley v. Ozaukee County, 60 Wis. 251, 18 N. W. 840; Fernandez v. Winnebago County, 53 Wis. 247, 10 N. W. 447.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 199 et seq.

Petition must show complete liability.— A petition in an action against a county to enforce a statutory obligation is demurrable, unless it states all the facts necessary to make the alleged liability complete. Clearwater v. Garfield, (Nebr. 1902) 91 N. W. 496.

42. Thompson v. Jo Daviess County, 98 Ill. App. 293.

43. Where there is no constitutional provision making an expense chargeable to the county, it has been held that it must be for a county purpose, in order to justify the legislature in authorizing a county to resort to taxation to defray the same. Opinion of Justices, 13 Fla. 687; Matter of Greene, 55 N. Y. App. Div. 475, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 291 [affirmed in 166 N. Y. 485, 60 N. E. 183].

44. Opinion of Justices, 13 Fla. 687.

45. People v. New York County, 21 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 322, 22 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 71.

46. Greene County v. Axtell, 96 Ind. 384; Owen v. Nye County, 10 Nev. 338.

Mandamus lies to compel a board to furnish a county official with an office. He cannot, however, on their refusal to act, rent an office and bind the county for the rent. Cleary v. Eddy County, 2 N. D. 397, 51 N. W. 586. See also Waldo v. Manitowoc, 54 Wis. 71, 11 N. W. 252.

47. Greene County v. Axtell, 96 Ind. 384.

48. Young v. Bradford County, 7 Pa. Co. Ct. 428, holding that the Pennsylvania act of April 25, 1889, in authorizing county commissioners to furnish office furniture, etc., to county officers is not open to the constitutional objection that it increases the emoluments of office.

49. De Kalb County v. Beveridge, 16 Ill. 312; Jackson County v. Kink, 7 Ind. 721; Townsley v. Ozaukee County, 60 Wis. 251, 18 N. W. 840; Jefferson County v. Besley, 5 Wis. 134. Contra, Thomas v. County Com'rs, 6 Phila. (Pa.) 411, 24 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 100.

Under the Pennsylvania acts of March 27, 1790, and April 15, 1834, requiring the county to keep the public buildings in convenient order and repair, the county is not bound to furnish fuel to heat the offices of the county officials (Swope v. Adams County, 31 Leg. Int. 325, 2 Walk. 498), except the court-room and the commissioner's office (Kirkendall v. Luzerne County, 1 Phila. 575, 33 Leg. Int. 313).

50. De Kalb County v. Beveridge, 16 Ill. 312; Jefferson County v. Besley, 5 Wis. 134. Contra, Thomas v. Bucks County Com'rs, 6 Phila. (Pa.) 411, 24 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 100.

51. Dalton v. Commissioners, 8 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 770, 9 Cinc. L. Bul 322.

52. Arapahoe County v. Clapp, 9 Colo. App. 161, 48 Pac. 157; Unkrich v. Potter County, 19 Pa. Co. Ct. 548.

allowance,[53] but the furnishing of such supplies is by statute made a proper county charge in some jurisdictions.[54]

3. ELECTION EXPENSES. In some jurisdictions a county is liable for necessary election expenses in the case of certain elections within the county,[55] including registration expenses,[56] publication of election notices,[57] publication of nominations to office,[58] election tickets, cards of instruction, and sample ballots,[59] the printing and distribution of ballots,[60] the cost of serving notice upon a candidate in nomination proceedings,[61] the service of certificates of election by constables or school directors, judges and inspectors of election, and assessors,[62] the expenses of judges of election in coming to the commissioners' office to receive the ballots,[63] and the cost of articles necessary for the accommodation of persons conducting elections.[64] In some jurisdictions, where there is probable cause for inaugurating an election contest, the proper costs thereof will be ordered to be paid by the county.[65] A board of supervisors cannot, however, in the absence of statutory authority, lawfully engage a county in or bind it to the payment of the expenses of a litigation by an individual to establish his right to an office, and the audit and payment thereof is unlawful.[66] In the absence of statute providing therefor a county is

53. Desha County v. Newman, 33 Ark. 788; People v. Green, 2 Thomps. & C. (N. Y.) 23; Towsley v. Ozaukee County, 60 Wis. 251, 18 N. W. 840.

Expense of changing index.—Where a statute prescribes specifically the index to be kept by each county auditor in the state it is not within the power of the county commissioners to incur the expense of another and different method, either as a substitute for or as a supplement to the old one. Smith v. Lamping, 27 Wash. 624, 68 Pac. 195.

54. Colorado.—Arapahoe County v. Koons, 1 Colo. 160.

Illinois.— McClaughry v. Hancock County, 46 Ill. 356; Knox County v. Arms, 22 Ill. 175.

Indiana.— Greene County v. Axtell, 96 Ind. 384.

New York.— People v. Stout, 23 Barb. 349, 4 Abb. Pr. 22; People v. Earle, 47 How. Pr. 368.

Oklahoma.— Garfield County v. Isenberg, 10 Okla. 378, 61 Pac. 1067.

Pennsylvania.—Henrie v. Columbia County, 16 Pa. Super. Ct. 339 [affirming 24 Pa. Co. Ct. 171].

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 200 et seq.

Allowance of bill on clerk's certificate.— Under Ohio Rev. Stat. § 1264, providing that "the county commissioners shall furnish to the clerk all blank books, . . . blanks, stationery, and all things necessary to the prompt discharge of his duty, all which articles the clerk may procure, and shall be allowed for upon his certificate," all the clerk has power to do is to select or procure such books and supplies as he may need, when, in the discretion of the commissioners as to the amount paid and whether the supplies are necessary, the bill may be allowed upon the clerk's certificate. There is no binding obligation on the county until the bill has been allowed by the county commissioners. Lyle Printing Co. v. Highland County Com'rs, 10 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 89.

Blank forms peculiar to one office are not included under a statute providing that suitable books and stationery shall be furnished each county officer at the expense of the county. Arapahoe County v. Koons, 1 Colo. 160.

55. Marion County v. Center Tp., 107 Ind. 584, 8 N. E. 625; Fayette County v. Lexington, 63 S. W. 477, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 389.

56. Fayette County v. Lexington, 63 S. W. 477, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 389.

57. Kearney County v. Stein, 26 Nehr. 132, 41 N. W. 1071; Graham v. Schuylkill County, 16 Pa. Super. Ct. 180; Fernandez v. Winnebago County, 53 Wis. 247, 10 N. W. 447.

Liable only in case of general elections.— In Wilkes-Barre Record v. Luzerne County, 9 Kulp (Pa.) 26, it was held that since February municipal and local elections are not general elections, for which the sheriff is required to make proclamation, the county is not liable for advertising any proclamation therefor.

58. Johnson v. Yuba County, 103 Cal. 538, 37 Pac. 528; Washington County v. Nesbit, 7 Kan. App. 298, 53 Pac. 882.

59. Washington County v. Menaugh, 13 Ind. App. 311, 41 N. E. 605.

60. Packer v. Northampton County, 2 Pa. Dist. 514.

61. In re Howell's Nomination, 6 Pa. Dist. 690, 19 Pa. Co. Ct. 598.

62. Lehigh County v. Yingling, 6 Pa. Co. Ct. 594.

63. Mellott v. Fulton County, 7 Pa. Dist. 81.

64. Com. v. Philadelphia County, 2 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 193.

65. In re O'Neil, 98 Pa. St. 461; In re Stevens, 94 Pa. St. 281; Gressang v. Beard, 6 Pa. Co. Ct. 1; In re Kinnear's Contested Election, 2 Pa. Co. Ct. 666; McPherson's Case, 2 Leg. Rec. (Pa.) 135.

66. Richmond County v. Ellis, 59 N. Y. 620.

not liable even for the necessary expenses incurred in providing a place in which to hold an election, nor any other expenses incident to the election;[67] nor are the expenses of witnesses summoned before a board of registration held in a county by virtue of statute payable by the county unless such payment is authorized by the statute.[68]

4. Expenses of Administering Justice. In some jurisdictions the county commissioners are required by law to furnish everything necessary to be used and employed in the administration of justice,[69] and while in a few jurisdictions it is held that even in the absence of provisions for the necessary expenses of the judiciary in its official duties the county in which it is held is ordinarily liable,[70] yet in most of the states such expenses come under the general rule before stated that authority for paying out the public money should be found in some law, and the payment thereof is a county charge only by virtue of a constitutional or statutory provision for their payment.[71] Thus it is held that in the absence of statute a county is not liable for the payment of the costs of publishing the general presentments of the grand jury,[72] charges for publishing notices of terms of court,[73] the fees of officers for apprehending criminals,[74] or the expenses incurred in extradition proceedings;[75] expenses incurred in investigating a felony certified from another county,[76] the expenses of an unsuccessful attempt to arrest a fugitive from justice who has taken refuge in another state,[77] or the expenses of sureties in bringing back a defaulting county officer.[78] The salaries of deputy sheriffs appointed by a sheriff under authority from a county have been held a proper charge against a county.[79]

5. Court-Room Furniture and Records. While in a number of jurisdictions it is the duty of the county to provide the necessary buildings or rooms for the administration of justice,[80] yet this duty is limited to such cases as are clearly

67. Turner v. Woodbury County, 57 Iowa 440, 10 N. W. 827. In McBride v. Hardin County, 58 Iowa 219, 12 N. W. 247, it was held that a county being in no way interested in the voting of taxes in its various townships in aid of railroads, it cannot be required to pay any part of the expenses thereby incurred.

Special police serving at election.— Iowa Code, § 1129, declaring that the expenses of providing election booths, guard-rails, and other things required for elections shall be paid in the same manner as other election expenses, does not make the county liable for the services of special policemen appointed to serve at a general election. Mousseau v. Sioux City, 113 Iowa 246, 84 N. W. 1027.

68. Finney v. Sullivan County, 48 Mo. 350.

69. Trumbull County v. Hutchins, 11 Ohio 369.

70. Venango v. Durban, 3 Grant (Pa.) 66. See also McCalmont v. Allegheny County, 29 Pa. St. 417.

71. Houston County v. Kersh, 82 Ga. 252, 10 S. E. 199.

72. Houston County v. Kersh, 82 Ga. 252, 10 S. E. 199.

73. People v. Greene County, 39 Hun (N. Y.) 299. See also People v. Hill, 36 Hun (N. Y.) 619.

The expense of printing general term calendar as required by rule 34 is a county charge. People v. Monroe County, 15 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 225.

74. People v. Saginaw County Sup'rs, 35 Mich. 91.

Compensation in addition to expenses.— Under the Pennsylvania act of March 31, 1860, relating to the payment of expenses incurred in arresting persons who have escaped into another county, a person duly authorized by requisition papers to apprehend a person in another state is entitled, not only to reasonable expenses actually incurred, but also to reasonable compensation for services rendered. Fraser v. Allegheny County, 6 Pa. Dist. 380.

For the expenses of the arresting officer in carrying a person to the county where the alleged offense was committed a county is liable under Ga. Pen. Code, § 898. Harris County v. Brady, 115 Ga. 767, 42 S. E. 71.

75. Kroutinger v. Board of Examiners, (Ida. 1902) 69 Pac. 279; Walling v. New York, 49 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 383.

76. Henry County v. St. Clair County, 81 Mo. 72.

77. Steckman v. Bedford County, 84 Pa. St. 317; Andrus v. Warren County, 32 Pa. St. 540; O'Brien v. Luzerne County, 9 Kulp (Pa.) 195; Charters v. Dauphin County, 5 Pa. Dist. 145, 17 Pa. Co. Ct. 300.

78. Hooper v. Ely, 46 Mo. 505.

79. Taylor v. Canyon County, 7 Ida. 171, 61 Pac. 521. See also to the same effect Philips v. Christian County, 87 Ill. App. 481.

80. Adams v. Norfolk County, 166 Mass. 303, 44 N. E. 224; Trumbull County v. Hutchins, 11 Ohio 369; Mayhew v. Hamilton within the statute imposing such duty,[81] and when a county board has provided suitable accommodations they cannot be compelled to pay for other accommodations.[82] So also it is the duty of county commissioners to furnish,[83] repair, and keep the same in order.[84] It is also sometimes made the duty of the county board or court to furnish or make allowances for the furnishing of books, records, stationery, postage, etc.,[85] unless such duty is imposed on the city in which the court is situated,[86] but a county is not liable for the expense of indexing records where this is a part of the duties of a clerk of the court.[87]

6. JURY FEES AND EXPENSES. The fees and expenses of jurors are to be paid in the manner fixed by law and are not a charge against a county unless by virtue of some statute making them so.[88] In some jurisdictions, however, the county is liable for jurors' expenses and fees,[89] mileage and attendance,[90] board and lodging,[91] and compensation for a survey of premises where a crime has been committed.[92]

County, 1 Disn. (Ohio) 186, 12 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 565; Orleans County v. State Auditor, 65 Vt. 492, 27 Atl. 197; Barnett v. Ashmore, 5 Wash. 163, 31 Pac. 466.

81. No application to trial justices.— A court is not bound to furnish to trial justices places in which to hold their courts. Adams v. Norfolk County, 166 Mass. 303, 44 N. E. 224.

A room for transacting business of the law commissioners' court of St. Louis county need not be furnished by the county under the act of 1851 concerning such court. Watson v. St. Louis County, 16 Mo. 91.

82. People v. Montgomery County, 34 Hun (N. Y.) 599.

83. Mayhew v. Hamilton County, 1 Disn. (Ohio) 186, 12 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 565; Orleans County v. State Auditor, 65 Vt. 492, 27 Atl. 197; Barnett v. Ashmore, 5 Wash. 163, 31 Pac. 466.

Power of judge to order.— Under Mo. Rev. Stat. (1879), § 1184, providing for the payment by the county of necessary expenses incurred by the probate court, the probate judge is authorized to order a necessary desk without first getting an order from the county court. Gammon v. Lafayette County, 79 Mo. 223.

84. People v. Stout, 23 Barb. (N. Y.) 349, 4 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 22, 13 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 314; Com. v. Philadelphia County Com'rs, 3 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 551; Orleans County v. State Auditor, 65 Vt. 492, 27 Atl. 197.

85. Desha County v. Newman, 33 Ark. 788; Sayler v. Nodaway County, 159 Mo. 520, 60 S. W. 1057.

Recopy of records.— Where a statute provides that the board shall determine whether a recopy of books in the probate judge's office is necessary, the determination of the board is conclusive. Washington County v. Porter, 128 Ala. 278, 29 So. 185.

86. Bourne v. Marion County Ct., 15 Mo. 600.

87. Peoria County v. Roche, 65 Ill. 77; Rasmusson v. Clay County, 41 Minn. 283, 43 N. W. 3.

88. Payable by successful party in civil cases in California. Hilton v. Curry, 124 Cal. 84, 56 Pac. 784.

Board and lodging.— A county is not liable in the absence of statute for the food and lodging furnished a jury. Justices Richmond County Inferior Ct. v. State, 24 Ga. 82. Prior to the Missouri act of 1883 the expense of boarding and lodging juries kept together by order of the court in cases of felony was not a proper item of costs and could not be taxed against the county as such by the court. Person v. Ozark County, 82 Mo. 491; Bright v. Pike County, 69 Mo. 519.

Fees for striking jury.— Under Ind. Rev. Stat. (1881), § 527, providing that the party requiring a struck jury shall pay the fees for striking the same, and the per diem of the jurors, such jurors are not entitled to any compensation from the county. Randolph County v. Henry County, 27 Ind. App. 378, 61 N. E. 612.

Jurors' fees in city courts.— In Illinois the fees of grand and petit jurors for services in city courts are not made a charge upon the county treasury, but are required to be paid out of the treasuries of cities in which such courts are held. People v. Stookey, 98 Ill. 537.

89. People v. Treasurer, 40 Mich. 62; Corell v. Kent County, 36 Mich. 332; State v. Akins, 18 Ohio Cir. Ct. 19; Huddleston v. Noble County, 8 Okla. 614, 58 Pac. 749.

90. Salt Lake County v. Richards, 14 Utah 142, 46 Pac. 659.

When a jury is summoned by the county commissioners to determine the damages sustained by landowners from flowage caused by a dam erected across a river by a city for its waterworks, the county and not the city should bear the expenses of the jury and attending officer. Penobscot County v. Bangor, 70 Me. 497.

91. Lycoming County Com'rs v. Hall, 7 Watts (Pa.) 290.

92. Washoe County v. Humboldt County, 14 Nev. 123.

Effect of custom to allow carriage hire of grand jurors.— The hire of carriages procured by a sheriff under the direction of a circuit judge to convey grand jurors to a county jail for the purpose of inspecting the same is no charge against the county, although the commissioners' court may for a number of years have been in the habit of allowing such items. Van Epps v. Mobile Com'rs Ct., 25

Under a statute providing that in case of change of venue of a civil action the expenses caused thereby to the county to which the change is made shall be paid by the county from which it is made, the expense of the regular panel of jurors while in attendance during the trial should be so paid, although the case is tried by a struck jury.[93]

7. Prison and Jail Charges — a. Necessity For Statute Imposing Liability. A county is not liable, in the absence of statute, for expenses connected with jails,[94] not even for medical services rendered to prisoners therein.[95]

b. Custody, Maintenance, Clothing, and Medical Attendance of Prisoners — (i) In General. The custody, maintenance, board, and lodging of prisoners is, however, usually made a county charge,[96] as are the expenses of medical attendance furnished prisoners,[97] and the expense of clothing the prisoners.[98]

(ii) Where Committed to Jail of Another County. Where a prisoner is properly committed to the jail of some other county, the county from which he is taken is usually liable for his necessary expenses including board and lodging.[99]

Ala. 460, on the ground that the fixed per diem compensation of grand jurors is considered as extending to all services required of them.

93. Randolph County v. Henry County, 27 Ind. App. 378, 61 N. E. 612.

94. Orleans County v. State Auditor, 65 Vt. 492, 27 Atl. 197.

95. Mitchell v. Tallapoosa County, 30 Ala. 130; Roberts v. Pottawatomie County Com'rs, 10 Kan. 29; Gray v. Coahoma County, 72 Miss. 303, 16 So. 903.

In Kansas by statute the board of county commissioners may allow a moderate compensation for medical services, fuel, bedding, and medical attendance furnished to prisoners committed to the county jail, which shall be paid out of the county treasury; but the allowance of such claims is wholly discretionary with the county board, and the liability of the county for the same can only arise upon an order made by the county commissioners when duly convened and acting as a board. Hendricks v. Chautauqua County, 35 Kan. 483, 11 Pac. 450.

96. California.— Sonoma County v. Santa Rosa, 102 Cal. 426, 36 Pac. 810; Fulkerth v. Stanislaus County, 67 Cal. 334, 7 Pac. 754.

Illinois.— Scott County v. Drake, 71 Ill. App. 280.

Michigan.— Detroit v. Wayne County, 43 Mich. 169, 5 N. W. 77.

New York.— People v. Columbia County, 67 N. Y. 330.

Oregon.— Kelly v. Multnomah County, 18 Oreg. 356, 22 Pac. 1110.

Pennsylvania.— Boland v. Luzerne County, 186 Pa. St. 68, 40 Atl. 156.

Texas.—Galveston County v. Ducie, 91 Tex. 665, 45 S. W. 798.

Utah.— Taylor v. Salt Lake County Ct., 2 Utah 405.

Wyoming.— Albany County v. Boswell, 1 Wyo. 292.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 205.

Liability for board and care at private house.— Where a person was wounded while resisting arrest by a city marshal, and was taken into custody by the sheriff, and an information was filed against him for resisting the arrest, the county was liable for the care and board of such prisoner at a private house, where he was directed by the sheriff to be kept on account of the dangerous character of his wounds, although the marshal was attempting the arrest for a violation of a city ordinance. Miller v. Dickinson County, 68 Iowa 102, 26 N. W. 31.

97. Alabama.—Malone v. Escambia County, 116 Ala. 214, 22 So. 503; Mitchell v. Tallapoosa County, 30 Ala. 130.

Arkansas.— Hart v. Howard County, 44 Ark. 560.

Indiana.— Lamar v. Pike County, 4 Ind. App. 191, 30 N. E. 912.

Iowa.— Miller v. Dickinson County, 68 Iowa 102, 26 N. W. 31.

Mississippi.— Gray v. Coahoma County, 72 Miss. 303, 16 So. 903.

New Hampshire.— Perkins v. Grafton County, 67 N. H. 282, 29 Atl. 541.

Oregon.— Kelly v. Multnomah County, 18 Oreg. 356, 22 Pac. 1110.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 205.

98. Miller v. Dickinson County, 68 Iowa 102, 26 N. W. 31; Feldenheimer v. Woodbury County, 56 Iowa 379, 9 N. W. 315; Kelly v. Multnomah County, 18 Oreg. 356, 22 Pac. 1110.

99. Colorado.— Montezuma County v. San Miguel County, 3 Colo. App. 137, 32 Pac. 346.

Georgia.— Talbot County v. Mansfield, 115 Ga. 766, 42 S. E. 72.

Kansas.— Finney County v. Gray County, 8 Kan. App. 745, 54 Pac. 1100.

Michigan.— Detroit v. Wayne County, 43 Mich. 169, 5 N. W. 77.

Texas.— Gates v. Johnson County, 36 Tex. 144; White v. Mason County, 7 Tex. Civ. App. 441, 26 S. W. 1007.

Wisconsin.— Portage County v. Waupaca County, 15 Wis. 361.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 205.

Limitations of rule.—A parish has no right to charge for the mere use of its jail to incarcerate prisoners sent from an adjacent parish under an order of the district judge, issued under statutory authority, when it has, through its authorized agent, given consent to the use, and it has acquiesced by that consent in the execution of the order. Caddo

The expenses of medical attendance have also been held to be a proper charge against such county.[1]

c. Wages or Compensation of Officials Charged With Custody of Prisoner. Where provision is made for charges for each prisoner committed or discharged from jail these may be paid the sheriff from the county treasury.[2] In the absence of statute a county is not liable for the wages of a jailer appointed by the sheriff, but he must look to the sheriff for compensation for his services.[3] If an extra guard is needed to keep a prisoner safely, it is the duty of the sheriff to furnish such, and of the county to pay the necessary expense,[4] and one county is not liable for the guard of a prisoner committed to jail therein for an offense committed in another county.[5] Where the expense of guarding a prisoner is necessary and consequent upon the change of venue, it must be paid by the county from which the case is removed.[6] The cost of a special guard for prisoners coming from different counties should be shared between the counties; hence the sheriff, in an action against one of them, can recover only its proportionate share.[7] In some jurisdictions it is provided by statute that the sheriff, marshal, or other officer who shall have in custody or under his charge any person "undergoing examination preparatory to commitment" shall, for transporting, safe-keeping, and maintaining such person, receive a certain amount for every day he may have such person under his charge,[8] and in some the fees of constables for conveying prisoners to the penitentiary and juvenile delinquents to the house of refuge are county charges.[9]

d. Other Charges. The furnishing of fuel, light, etc.,[10] and necessary supplies for use in the jail are often made county charges;[11] and where by statute it is made the duty of county commissioners to take all necessary precautions against sickness and infection in the common jails of the county, this implies that the necessary expense of such precautions shall be paid, in the first instance at least, by the county.[12] It has been held that an item for meals furnished the board of prison inspectors while at the prison, in discharge of their official labors, should be allowed the prison treasurer, in settling his accounts; for, although there is no express provision in the law for such expenditure, yet, since the duties of the inspectors require constant attendance in the prison, they have authority to pro-

Parish v. Bossier Parish, 42 La. Ann. 939, 8 So. 533.

For pleadings in action to recover board, etc., by one county against another see Montezuma County v. San Miguel County, 3 Colo. App. 137, 32 Pac. 346.

1. Hart v. Howard County, 44 Ark. 560; Perkins v. Grafton County, 67 N. H. 282, 29 Atl. 541.

2. McKee v. Tippecanoe County, 6 Ind. App. 700, 33 N. E. 251; Hawthorn v. Randolph County, 5 Ind. App. 280, 30 N. E. 16, 31 N. E. 1124; People v. Columbia County, 67 N. Y. 330.

3. Union County v. Patton, 63 Ill. 458; Seibert v. Logan County, 63 Ill. 155; Crossen v. Wasco County, 6 Oreg. 215; Hartwell v. Waukesha County, 43 Wis. 311.

4. Gage County v. Kyd, 38 Nebr. 164, 56 N. W. 964.

5. Perry County v. Logan, 4 Mo. 434.

6. Hart v. Vigo County, 1 Ind. 309; Baltimore v. Howard County Com'rs, 61 Md. 326. Where, however, a prisoner is removed by change of venue to another county not provided with a sufficient jail, the former county is not liable for the expenses of guarding the prisoner in the former, when the cost arose from the failure of the county to provide such jail. Ransom v. Gentry County, 48 Mo. 341.

7. James v. Lincoln County, 5 Nebr. 38.

8. State v. Wofford, 116 Mo. 220, 22 S. W. 486, holding that a county marshal is not entitled to such fee where a prisoner is in his custody as jailer, committed under authority of statute pending a continuance of his examination.

9. People v. Orange County, 18 Hun (N. Y.) 19.

10. Vigo County v. Weeks, 130 Ind. 162, 29 N. E. 776; Marion County v. Reissner, 58 Ind. 260; Miller v. Dickinson County, 68 Iowa 102, 26 N. W. 31; Richardson v. Clarion County, 14 Pa. St. 198.

A state charge.— In Vermont by Act No. 155 it is provided that the expense for warming a jail shall be paid by the state. Orleans County v. State Auditor, 65 Vt. 492, 27 Atl. 197.

11. Marion County v. Reissner, 66 Ind. 568; Schenck v. New York, 67 N. Y. 44 [affirming 40 N. Y. Super. Ct. 165].

12. Slotts v. Rockingham County, 53 N. H. 598.

vide themselves with food out of the prison funds while in discharge of such duties.[13]

8. Maintenance of Children Committed to Houses of Correction, Etc. Whether the expense of the maintenance of children committed to houses of correction, industrial schools, etc., is a county charge depends upon statutory provisions.[14]

B. Statutory Imposition of Liability For Claim For Which No Liability Previously Existed. In accordance with the rule that a state legislature is not restrained in its powers to levy money by taxation to cases in which a legal demand exists against the state or county, but can make appropriations of public moneys for the payment of claims founded in equity or justice, or even in gratitude or charity, a legislature may by special act require a county board to audit and pay a claim for which no legal liability existed on the part of the county previous to the passage of such act,[15] in the absence of any constitutional limitation upon such power.[16]

C. Statutory Imposition of Liability For Injury Caused by Acts of Omission or Commission. So also a legislature may by statute give an action against a county for an injury arising from its act of omission or commission.[17] An action for such penalty imposed upon a county for doing that which the 13. Mogel v. Berks County, 154 Pa. St. 14, 26 Atl. 227, where it was also held that the expense of a journey taken by the inspectors to another prison, to become familiar with the use of a machine they were authorized to buy to enable the warden to make a registry of all convicts according to the Bertillon system, should be allowed.

14. A county is not liable for costs incurred in committing children to societies named in the Pennsylvania act of June 8, 1893, as provided thereby. Com. v. Watts, 21 Pa. Co. Ct. 556.

Infants committed to house of correction for "incorrigible conduct" are not committed for "offenses against a law of the state," under Ohio Stat. § 2071, and are therefore not subject to support by the county. State v. Schlatterbeck, 39 Ohio St. 268.

Maintenance of children committed to industrial schools.— The expense of maintaining children committed under Wis. Rev. Stat. §§ 1546, 1547, to industrial school corporations, is chargeable to the counties from which the commitments are made, unless otherwise specified therein. Wisconsin Industrial School v. Clark County, 103 Wis. 651, 79 N. W. 422.

15. People v. Erie County, Sheld. (N. Y.) 517 (an act authorizing a county board to audit and pay as a county charge disbursements of counsel assigned to defend one charged with murder); Civic Federation v. Salt Lake County, 22 Utah 6, 61 Pac. 222 (an act authorizing counties to refund moneys advanced by citizens to aid counties to enforce the laws).

Liability for damages for sheep killed by dogs.— By the Pennsylvania act of May 15, 1893, provision is made for the compensation by a county for any loss or damage to sheep by dogs, to be recovered by proceedings by the owner in a certain time and manner. Quemy v. Huntingdon County, 15 Pa. Co. Ct. 163, holding that a delay of nine months in beginning such proceeding was fatal to recovery. See also as to recovery for such damages under the act of March 28, 1873 (a special act for Wyoming county), the case of Vosburg v. County Com'rs, 7 Pa. Co. Ct. 646, in which it was held that county commissioners need not draw their warrant on the treasurer to pay such damages unless the certificate presented has been regularly and fairly obtained.

16. The rule as stated in the text was formerly followed in New York, but at the present time under N. Y. Const. (1874), art. 8, § 10, forbidding a county to give money or property to or in aid of any individual association or corporation, or to incur any indebtedness except for county purposes, it is held that a legal or at least an equitable claim must exist. Matter of Greene, 55 N. Y. App. Div. 475, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 291 [affirmed in 166 N. Y. 485, 60 N. E. 183].

A statute authorizing a defrayal by counties and states of expense of legal proceedings incurred by any one of their officials who shall successfully defend any action, to convict him of any crime in the performance of or in connection with his official duties, is not within the limitations imposed by N. Y. Const. art. 8, § 10, upon the power of the legislature to require the expenditure by counties, etc., of their money, and is of no effect. Matter of Straus, 44 N. Y. App. Div. 425, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 37. Compare In re Labrake, 29 Misc. (N. Y.) 87, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 571.

A statute providing for the payment of medical treatment of persons injured in mines out of certain contingencies by counties is in violation of a constitutional provision prohibiting the legislature from passing any act granting any corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive privilege or immunity. La Ross v. Allegheny County, 8 Pa. Dist. 301.

17. Hoexter v. Judson, 21 Wash. 646, 59 Pac. 498; Eastman v. Clackamas County, 32 Fed. 24, 12 Sawy. 613. See also Cope v.

statute prohibits, or for omitting to do that which the statute requires, must of course be brought while the statute is in force, because the repeal of the statute takes away the right of action.[18]

VIII. LIABILITY FOR TORTS.

A. Necessity of Statutes Imposing Liability. Counties considered as quasi-corporations or incorporations established for specific and defined purposes are held to be liable only for wrongs committed in the use or misuse of their corporate powers,[19] and are not subject to liability for any tort, in the absence of statutes which either expressly or by implication impose such liability on them.[20] Some decisions, however, clearly recognize a limitation of this rule. They hold that it has no application to cases in which the property of another has been either wilfully or negligently appropriated by agents of the county to its use and benefit, and have held in applying this doctrine that counties are liable for a wrongful appropriation of another's patent.[21]

B. Arising From Condition of Public Buildings. In accordance with this rule counties are held not to be liable in the absence of statute for injuries arising from the failure to keep the county buildings, grounds, etc., in proper condition, or for the negligence of its agents in the care and control of the same,[22] as for Hampton County, 42 S. C. 17, 19 S. E. 1018; Rose v. Pierce County, 25 Wash. 119, 64 Pac. 913.

18. Cope v. Hampton County, 42 S. C. 17, 19 S. E. 1018.

19. Barbour County v. Horn, 48 Ala. 649.

20. Alabama.— Barbour County v. Horn, 48 Ala. 649.

Delaware.— Carter v. Wilds, 8 Houst. 14, 31 Atl. 715.

Georgia.—Millwood v. De Kalb County, 106 Ga. 743, 32 S. E. 577; Haygood v. Justices Inferior Ct., 20 Ga. 845; Governor v. Justices Clark County Inferior Ct., 19 Ga. 97.

Idaho.— Davis v. Ada County, 5 Ida. 126, 47 Pac. 93.

Indiana.— Vigo County v. Daily, 132 Ind. 73, 31 N. E. 531; Morris v. Switzerland County, 131 Ind. 285, 31 N. E. 77; White v. Sullivan County, 129 Ind. 396, 28 N. E. 846; Abbett v. Johnson County, 114 Ind. 61, 16 N. E. 127; Schnurr v. Huntington County, 22 Ind. App. 188, 53 N. E. 425; Greene County v. Boswell, 4 Ind. App. 133, 30 N. E. 534.

Iowa.— Lindley v. Polk County, 84 Iowa 308, 50 N. W. 975; Kincaid v. Hardin County, 53 Iowa 430, 5 N. W. 589, 36 Am. Rep. 236.

Kentucky.— Hite v. Whitley County Ct., 91 Ky. 168, 15 S. W. 57, 12 Ky. L. Rep. 764, 11 L. R. A. 122; Downing v. Mason County, 87 Ky. 208, 8 S. W. 264, 10 Ky. L. Rep. 105; Layman v. Beeler, 67 S. W. 995, 24 Ky. L. Rep. 174; Sheppard v. Pulaski County, 18 S. W. 15, 13 Ky. L. Rep. 672; Mobley v. Carter County, 5 Ky. L. Rep. 694.

Minnesota.—Dosdall v. Olmsted County, 30 Minn. 96, 14 N. W. 458, 44 Am. Rep. 185.

Missouri.— Reardon v. St. Louis County, 36 Mo. 555.

New York.— Markey v. Queens County, 154 N. Y. 675, 49 N. E. 71, 39 L. R. A. 46.

North Carolina.—Jones v. Franklin County, 130 N. C. 451, 42 S. E. 144; Manuel v. Cumberland County, 98 N. C. 9, 3 S. E. 829; White v. Chowan, 90 N. C. 437, 47 Am. Rep. 534.

Ohio.— Alexander v. Brady, 61 Ohio St. 174, 55 N. E. 173.

South Carolina.— Cope v. Hamilton, 42 S. C. 17, 19 S. E. 1018.

United States.—Jacobs v. Hamilton County, 13 Fed. Cas. No. 7,161, 1 Bond 500, 4 Fish. Pat. Cas. 81.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 209.

21. May v. Logan County, 30 Fed. 250 [disapproving Jacobs v. Hamilton County, 13 Fed. Cas. No. 7,161, 1 Bond 500, 4 Fish. Pat. Cas. 81]; May v. Mercer County, 30 Fed. 246; May v. Fond du Lac County, 27 Fed. 691.

These decisions proceed upon the principle that the benefits secured cannot be retained and enjoyed by setting up the wrongful act in retaining it; that to allow this to be done would violate the plainest dictates of justice and common honesty. May v. Logan County, 30 Fed. 250.

22. Georgia.—Haygood v. Justices Inferior Ct., 20 Ga. 845. See also Governor v. Justices Clark County Inferior Ct., 19 Ga. 97.

Illinois.—Hollenbeck v. Winnebago County, 95 Ill. 148, 35 Am. Rep. 151.

Indiana.— Vigo County v. Daily, 132 Ind. 73, 31 N. E. 531; Morris v. Switzerland County, 131 Ind. 285, 31 N. E. 77; White v. Sullivan County, 129 Ind. 396, 28 N. E. 846; Greene County v. Boswell, 4 Ind. App. 133, 30 N. E. 534.

Kentucky.— Sheppard v. Pulaski County, 18 S. W. 15, 13 Ky. L. Rep. 672; Mobley v. Carter County, 5 Ky. L. Rep. 694.

Minnesota.—Dosdall v. Olmsted County, 30 Minn. 96, 14 N. W. 458, 44 Am. Rep. 185.

Nebraska.— Wehn v. Gage County Com'rs, 5 Nebr. 494, 25 Am. Rep. 497.

New York.— Alamango v. Albany County, 25 Hun 551.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 210.

instance where the health of prisoners is injured by the unsanitary condition of a jail,[23] where county buildings are kept in such condition as to become a nuisance to those living in the vicinity,[24] or where a pest-house is maintained in the vicinity of a person's dwelling and disease is thereby communicated to his family.[25] Contrary to the general rule, however, it has been held in one state that a county is answerable to the sheriff, where the latter has been subjected to the payment of damages for an escape rendered possible through the insufficiency of the jail.[26] And in another jurisdiction a county is directly liable to the person or persons who have sustained damages by the escape of a prisoner from the county jail through the insufficiency of such jail,[27] unless a clear and adequate remedy against some other person can be shown.[28]

C. Arising From Construction of Public Works, Etc. In the absence of statute a county is not liable for damages to private interests by the construction of public works and improvements.[29]

D. Acts of Officers, Agents, and Employees — 1. General Rule. The general rule of law that the superior or employer must answer civilly for the negligence or want of skill of his agent or servant in the course or line of his employment, by which another is injured, does not apply to counties.[30] Counties are usually held to be involuntary quasi-corporations, merely political or civil divisions of the state, created by general laws to aid in the administration of the government. The statutes prescribe all the duties which counties owe, and impose all 23. Indiana.— White v. Sullivan County, 129 Ind. 396, 28 N. E. 846.

Iowa.— Lindley v. Polk County, 84 Iowa 308, 50 N. W. 975.

Kansas.—Pfefferle v. Lyon County, 39 Kan. 432, 18 Pac. 506.

Michigan.— Webster v. Hillsdale County, 99 Mich. 259, 58 N. W. 317.

North Carolina.— Manuel v. Cumberland County, 98 N. C. 9, 3 S. E. 829.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 210.

24. Wehn v. Gage County Com'rs, 5 Nebr. 494, 25 Am. Rep. 497.

25. Haag v. Vanderburgh County, 60 Ind. 511, 28 Am. Rep. 654.

26. Brown County Com'rs v. Butt, 2 Ohio 348. See also Stiles v. Dearborn, 6 N. H. 145.

27. Clark v. Litchfield County, Kirby (Conn.) 318.

Amount recoverable.— In an action against the county, for an escape on mesne process, damages may upon inquiry be recovered to the amount of the whole sum for which the person who has escaped was in custody and interest; but not of course as the consequence of a verdict for the plaintiff. Hubbard v. Shaler, 2 Day (Conn.) 195.

Where a prisoner escapes by means of external force and not through the insufficiency of the jail the county is not liable. Paul v. Tolland County, 2 Root (Conn.) 196.

28. Dutton v. Litchfield County, 1 Root (Conn.) 450; Clark v. Litchfield County, Kirby (Conn.) 318.

29. Coffey County Com'rs v. Venard, 10 Kan. 95 (vacating county road); Downing v. Mason County, 87 Ky. 208, 8 S. W. 264, 10 Ky. L. Rep. 105, 12 Am. St. Rep. 473 (obstruction of stream flooding premises); Walter v. Wicomico County Com'rs, 35 Md. 385 (repairs to highways resulting in damage); Tyson v. Batimore County Com'rs, 28 Md. 510 (erection of wall on side of public road causing overflow of river and injury to mill-dam); Swineford v. Franklin County, 73 Mo. 279 (filling up mill-race to prevent injury to county road).

For liabilities for injuries arising from defects in bridges, flowage of land by construction of bridges, etc., generally, see Bridges.

For liabilities for injuries arising from defective drains see, generally, Drains.

For liabilities for injuries on highways see, generally, Highways.

The police jury of a parish is liable for any actual damage caused to a neighboring inhabitant by building any work of public convenience that obstructs an unnavigable watercourse; but the jury will not, if the work be of great convenience to the inhabitants of the vicinage, be compelled to remove it. Lalanne v. Savoy, 29 La. Ann. 516.

Evidence.— If the action is for personal injuries from a defective bridge the jury cannot consider the wealth of the defendant or the poverty of the plaintiff in making up their verdict. Barbour County v. Horn, 48 Ala. 566. If the injury complained of is caused by the building of a wall upon a public county road, a statute recognizing the road as a public one is admissible in evidence where the person under whom plaintiff claimed title knew and approved of such law and acted under it as one of the commissioners. Tyson v. Baltimore County Com'rs, 28 Md. 510. In such an action opinions and views of persons appointed by the county commissioners to examine the wall complained of as to its probable effect upon the plaintiff's property unsupported by oath are inadmissible, although such parties might be called and examined as experts. Tyson v. Baltimore County Com'rs, 28 Md. 510.

30. Symonds v. Clay County, 71 Ill. 355; Summers v. Daviess County, 103 Ind. 262, 2 N. E. 725, 53 Am. Rep. 512.

the liabilities to which they are subject, and unless made so by express legislative enactment, they are not considered liable to persons injured by the wrongful neglect of duty or wrongful acts of their officers, agents, or employees done in the course of the performance of corporate powers, or in the execution of corporate duties,[31] unless authorized or ratified by them.[32]

31. California.— Santa Cruz R. Co. v. Santa Clara County, 62 Cal. 180; Crowell v. Sonoma County, 25 Cal. 313; Sherbourne v. Yuba County, 21 Cal. 113, 81 Am. Dec. 151.

Colorado.— Pitkin County v. Ball, 22 Colo. 125, 43 Pac. 1000.

Georgia.— Bailey v. Fulton County, 111 Ga. 313, 36 S. E. 596; Wilson v. Fannin County, 74 Ga. 818; Hammond v. Richmond County, 72 Ga. 188; Dougherty County v. Kemp, 55 Ga. 252.

Illinois.—Hollenbeck v. Winnebago County, 95 Ill. 148, 35 Am. Rep. 151; Symonds v. Clay County, 71 Ill. 355.

Indiana.— Smith v. Allen County, 131 Ind. 116, 30 N. E. 949; Vigo Tp. v. Knox County, 111 Ind. 170, 12 N. E. 305; Summers v. Daviess County, 103 Ind. 262, 2 N. E. 725, 53 Am. Rep. 512; Browning v. Owen County, 44 Ind. 11; Schnurr v. Huntington County, 22 Ind. App. 188, 53 N. E. 425; Johnson County v. Reinier, 18 Ind. App. 119, 47 N. E. 642.

Iowa.— Packard v. Voltz, 94 Iowa 277, 62 N. W. 757, 58 Am. St. Rep. 396; Cedar Rapids, etc., R. Co. v. Cowan, 77 Iowa 535, 42 N. W. 436.

Kentucky.— Hollenbeck v. Winnebago County, 1 Ky. L. Rep. 198.

Michigan.— Larkin v. Saginaw County, 11 Mich. 88, 82 Am. Dec. 63.

Minnesota.—Schussler v. Hennepin County, 67 Minn. 412, 70 N. W. 6, 64 Am. St. Rep. 424, 39 L. R. A. 75.

Missouri.— Hannon v. St. Louis County, 62 Mo. 313; Swineford v. Franklin County, 6 Mo. App. 39.

Montana.— Territory v. Cascade County, 8 Mont. 396, 20 Pac. 809, 7 L. R. A. 105.

Nebraska.— Saline County School Dist. No. 2 v. Saline County, 9 Nebr. 403, 2 N. W. 877.

New York.— Hughes v. Monroe County, 147 N. Y. 49, 41 N. E. 407, 39 L. R. A. 33 [affirming 79 Hun 120, 29 N. Y. Suppl. 495]; Gray v. Tompkins County, 93 N. Y. 603; People v. Westchester County, 57 N. Y. App. Div. 135, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 981; Alamango v. Albany County, 25 Hun 551; De Grauw v. Queens County, 13 Hun 381.

North Carolina.— Burbank v. Beaufort County, 92 N. C. 257.

Ohio.— Hamilton County v. Mighels, 7 Ohio St. 109.

Pennsylvania.— Com. v. Brice, 22 Pa. St. 21, 60 Am. Dec. 79.

Tennessee.— Rhea County v. Sneed, 105 Tenn. 581, 58 S. W. 1063; McAndrews v. Hamilton County, 105 Tenn. 399, 58 S. W. 483.

Texas.— Floria v. Galveston County, (Civ. App. 1900) 55 S. W. 540; Crause v. Harris County, 18 Tex. Civ. App. 375, 44 S. W. 616.

Virginia.— Field v. Albemarle County, (1895) 20 S. E. 954; Fry v. Albemarle County, 86 Va. 195, 9 S. E. 1004, 19 Am. St. Rep. 879.

Wisconsin.— Randles v. Waukesha County, 96 Wis. 629, 71 N. W. 1034.

United States.— Smith v. Carlton County, 46 Fed. 340; May v. Juneau County, 30 Fed. 241; Jacobs v. Hamilton County, 13 Fed. Cas. No. 7,161, 1 Bond 500, 4 Fish. Pat. Cas. 81.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 212.

For a misappropriation or conversion of funds by a county officer the county is not liable in the absence of express statutory provision to that effect (Vigo Tp. v. Knox County, 111 Ind. 170, 12 N. E. 305; Cedar Rapids, etc., R. Co. v. Cowan, 77 Iowa 535, 42 N. W. 436; Estep v. Keokuk County, 18 Iowa 199; Saline County School Dist. No. 2 v. Saline County, 9 Nebr. 403, 2 N. W. 877; Gray v. Tompkins County, 93 N. Y. 603; De Grauw v. Queens County, 13 Hun (N. Y.) 381); at least where the money has not passed to the credit of the county, nor been used for its benefit (Cedar Rapids, etc., R. Co. v. Cowan, 77 Iowa 535, 42 N. W. 436; Gray v. Tompkins County, 93 N. Y. 603).

That a tax-collector unlawfully collects taxes a second time on the same property creates no cause of action against the county, but is the personal tort of such collector. Burbank v. Beaufort County, 92 N. C. 257.

Unskilful treatment or maltreatment in county hospitals, jails, etc.— As a general rule a county is not liable for damage sustained by reason of the unskilful treatment of indigent sick persons in the county hospital, or by reason of insufficient food, etc. Sherbourne v. Yuba County, 21 Cal. 113, 81 Am. Dec. 151. Under Ga. Code, § 1864, a county is not liable for the maltreatment of a person while committed to jail preparatory to being sent to the lunatic asylum. Wilson v. Fannin County, 74 Ga. 818.

32. Schussler v. Hennepin County, 67 Minn. 412, 70 N. W. 6, 64 Am. St. Rep. 424, 39 L. R. A. 75.

Adoption or ratification of act of officer.— Where a member of a county board of supervisors in California, who was also ex officio a road commissioner, claiming to act in his official capacity, with the assistance of other citizens, repeatedly tore down a gate opening into private grounds, claiming that the road through such grounds was a public road by prescription or dedication, and thereafter the board of supervisors

2. WHEN SPECIAL DUTIES IMPOSED. It has been held, however, that the rule that counties as political subdivisions of the state are not liable for the laches or misconduct of their servants has no application to a neglect of those obligations incurred by counties when special duties are imposed upon them with their consent, or are voluntarily assumed by them.[33]

E. Murder or Personal Injury by Outlaws or Mobs. In several of the states liability is expressly imposed by statute or by the constitution upon counties in case of murder or personal injuries perpetrated by outlaws, mobs, disguised persons, or for political opinions, etc., such damages in the case of murder to be recovered by the husband or wife or next of kin of the deceased.[34] These statutes adopted a resolution declaring such road a public road, and caused it to be surveyed and recorded as such, it was an adoption or ratification of said supervisor's acts, and rendered the county liable for the trespasses committed by him. Coburn v. San Mateo County, 75 Fed. 520.

33. Hannon v. St. Louis County, 62 Mo. 313. In this case where the county of St. Louis made a contract for laying water-pipe to the county insane asylum, the work being done under the supervision of the county engineer, and while a trench was being dug in the grounds of the asylum, it caved in and killed one of the workmen, it was held that the duty in which the county was engaged was not one imposed by general law upon all counties, but a self-imposed one; that quoad hoc the county was a private corporation, engaged in a private enterprise (more especially as the work was being done on its own property), and governed by the same rules as to its liability. In such case it is immaterial whether the performance of the work is voluntarily assumed in the first instance, or is a special duty imposed by the legislature, and assented to by the county. And municipal and quasi-corporations are subject to the same doctrine of liability. See also Lefrois v. Monroe County, 24 N. Y. App. Div. 421, 48 N. Y. Suppl. 519, to the effect that a county which owns and conducts a farm as a convenient but non-essential adjunct to an almshouse is liable for the injury done to adjoining owner by utilizing the sewage of the almshouse to fertilize its farm.

Trespass or damage in opening roads.— A county is liable for trespasses or damage done to private property by its officers, in the exercise of powers conferred for the benefit of the locality and its inhabitants, such as those relating to the opening and keeping open of roads, as distinguished from powers relating to the administration of the general laws and the enforcement of the general policy of the state. Coburn v. San Mateo County, 75 Fed. 520. A right of action exists against a county for damaging private property for public uses in causing public roads to be worked or drained in such manner as to injure or damage the adjacent premises of a landed proprietor. Barfield v. Macon County, 109 Ga. 386, 34 S. E. 596.

34. Dale County v. Gunter, 46 Ala. 118; Champaign County v. Church, 62 Ohio St. 318, 57 N. E. 50, 78 Am. St. Rep. 718, 48 L. R. A. 737; Mitchell v. Champaign County, 10 Ohio Cir. Ct. 801, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 821; Brown v. Orangeburg County, 55 S. C. 45, 32 S. E. 764, 44 L. R. A. 734.

The words "in disguise," etc., construed.— A person "in ambush, or concealed in the bushes," is not a person in disguise, within the purview and meaning of the act first above named, and the assassination or murder of a party by a person so ambushed or concealed does not inflict upon the county the penalty given by the first section of said act, unless said party is so assassinated or murdered "for past or present party affiliation or political opinion." Dale County v. Gunter, 46 Ala. 118.

The word "outlaw" as employed in the first section of said act is not to be understood in the sense of that term as used in the English statutes and common law, but is to be understood as referring to the character of person or persons named in the act entitled "An act for the suppression of secret organizations of men disguising themselves for the purpose of committing crimes and outrages," approved Dec. 26, 1868, and who by said act, while under cover of such disguise, and while in the act of committing, threatening, or attempting to commit the offenses therein named are put out of the protection of the law, and may lawfully be shot or killed by any person. Dale County v. Gunter, 46 Ala. 118; Ladd v. Holmes, 40 Oreg. 167, 66 Pac. 714, 91 Am. St. Rep. 457.

Elements constituting a mob.— An essential element to change a collection of individuals into a "mob" is the intent to do damage or injury to someone, or the pretense to exercise correctional power over other persons by violence and without authority of law. Mitchell v. Champaign County, 10 Ohio Cir. Ct. 801, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 821.

Element of unlawful assemblage.— To constitute the assembling of persons for an unlawful purpose there must be in the minds of the persons making up such assemblage, as an existent fact, a fixed purpose to do an unlawful act, formed either before or at the time of assembling, or with the agreement of mutual assistance after the assembling. Mitchell v. Champaign County, 10 Ohio Cir. Ct. 801, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 821.

The existence and time of formation of the have been uniformly held constitutional,[35] and are considered salutary because their effect is to protect human life and make communities law abiding.[36]

F. Injuries to Property by Mobs. In a few states statutes have been enacted which expressly impose liability upon counties to make compensation to parties whose property has been injured or destroyed in consequence of mobs or riots,[37] when such destruction is not occasioned or sanctioned by the owner or in any way aided by his negligence,[38] and when timely notice of such threatened agreement to do an unlawful act, necessary to constitute an unlawful assemblage, are questions of fact for the jury. Mitchell v. Champaign County, 10 Ohio Cir. Ct. 801, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 821.

No formal agreement to do an unlawful act necessary to constitute an unlawful assembly is necessary. It may be inferred from the circumstances and facts of the case. Mitchell v. Champaign County, 10 Ohio Cir. Ct. 801, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 821.

Taking a prisoner from a jail and lynching him raises a prima facie presumption that the person doing so intended to do the prisoner damage or injury. Mitchell v. Champaign County, 10 Ohio Cir. Ct. 801, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 821.

Essential allegations of complaint.— The complaint need not allege that the murder was on account of past or present party affiliation or political opinion, but it will be sufficient if it conforms to the statute by alleging the murder in the county by an outlaw, person or persons in disguise, riot or mob, and that it was done at least six months before the commencement of the suit. Gunter v. Dale County, 44 Ala. 639.

35. Champaign County Com'rs v. Church, 62 Ohio St. 318, 57 N. E. 50, 78 Am. St. Rep. 718, 48 L. R. A. 738; Mitchell v. Champaign County, 10 Ohio Cir. Ct. 801, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 821; Brown v. Orangeberg County, 55 S. C. 45, 32 S. E. 764, 44 L. R. A. 734. Contra, Caldwell v. Cuyahoga County Com'rs, 6 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 367, 4 Ohio N. P. 249.

36. Brown v. Orangeberg County, 55 S. C. 45, 32 S. E. 764, 44 L. R. A. 734.

37. Ely v. Niagara County, 36 N. Y. 297; Hill v. Rensselaer County, 53 Hun (N. Y.) 194, 6 N. Y. Suppl. 716; Paladino v. Westchester County, 47 Hun (N. Y.) 337; Loomis v. Oneida County, 6 Lans. (N. Y.) 269; Moody v. Niagara County, 46 Barb. (N. Y.) 659; Schiellein v. Kings County, 43 Barb. (N. Y.) 490; Lake Shore, etc., R. Co. v. Erie County, 2 N. Y. St. 317; Wolfe v. Richmond County, 11 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 270, 19 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 370; Allegheny County v. Gibson, 90 Pa. St. 397, 35 Am. Rep. 670; Lavery v. County, 2 Pa. St. 231; Donoghue v. County, 2 Pa. St. 230; St. Michael's Church v. Philadelphia County, Brightly (Pa.) 121, 4 Pa. L. J. Rep. 150, 7 Pa. L. J. 181; St. Augustine v. Philadelphia County, Brightly (Pa.) 116, 4 Pa. L. J. Rep. 120, 7 Pa. L. J. 124.

Extends to property in transitu belonging to non-residents. Allegheny County v. Gibson, 90 Pa. St. 397, 35 Am. Rep. 670.

Mere possession is evidence of ownership of personal property in a suit against a county for property destroyed by riot or violence, and in the absence of contrary evidence, is held conclusive. St. Augustine v. Philadelphia County, Brightly (Pa.) 116, 4 Pa. L. J. Rep. 120, 7 Pa. L. J. 124.

In Louisiana a parish is not liable for damages caused by the acts of a mob, although such acts result from the torts of its officers, under Rev. Stat. § 2453, providing that the different municipal corporations in the state shall be liable for damages done to property by mobs or riotous assemblages in their respective limits; a parish not being a municipal corporation within the intent of the act. Fischer Land, etc., Co. v. Bordelon, 52 La. Ann. 429, 27 So. 59.

Negation of provisions restricting right to recover.— In an action for injuries by a mob to property, the declaration need not exclude by averment any provision restricting the right to recover contained in a clause separate from the clause giving the right of action. Clark Thread Co. v. Hudson County, 54 N. J. L. 265, 23 Atl. 820.

38. Hill v. Rensselaer County, 53 Hun (N. Y.) 194, 6 N. Y. Suppl. 716.

If a mob be maddened by the voluntary unlawful act of the claimant, as by the sale of intoxicating liquors without any license, and the destruction of his property is the result, a good defense exists in favor of the county when sued for such injury. Paladino v. Westchester County, 47 Hun (N. Y.) 337.

The fact that a house was a bawdy-house and a rendezvous for criminals is not such an act of carelessness or negligence as will preclude recovery. Ely v. Niagara County, 36 N. Y. 297; Moody v. Niagara County, 46 Barb. (N. Y.) 659.

Plaintiff need not aver that he did not aid in, assist, or permit the destruction of his property. Wolfe v. Richmond County, 19 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 370.

Evidence.— In actions against counties for injury to property by a mob any evidence is competent which is a part of the res gestæ. In such actions it is not necessary for the plaintiff to prove every article destroyed, but it will be sufficient if a general estimate be submitted to the jury. St. Augustine v. Philadelphia County, Brightly (Pa.) 116, 4 Pa. L. J. Rep. 120, 7 Pa. L. J. 124. In Lake Shore, etc., R. Co. v. Erie County, 2 N. Y. St. 317, which was an action against the county for damages for the destruction of property by a mob, the order of a superior officer of military forces, delivered to a captain shortly before the burning of plaintiff's injury has been given to the county authorities,[39] if the owner has knowledge of such intention,[40] and there is time so to do.[41] Such notice is of course not essential to a recovery, when the owner of the property destroyed has no knowledge of the intended attack,[42] or if there is not sufficient time,[43] or where it would have been useless for the purpose of protection.[44] This liability is irrespective of any neglect on the part of the sheriff,[45] and is not limited by the fact that the county authorities are unable to quell the riot, or that the state renders assistance to the county.[46]

IX. FISCAL MANAGEMENT — DEBT AND SECURITIES.

A. General Indebtedness — 1. Power to Borrow Money or Contract Debts Generally. A state legislature has the power to make provisions to prevent the abuse by counties of their powers of borrowing money and contracting debts,[47] and this power to incur indebtedness cannot be exercised where there is any prohibition or limitation thereof, either express or implied,[48] as for instance where a statute provides taxation as a means for raising money.[49] So while expressions may be found in some cases, from which it might be inferred that the power of a county to borrow money may arise from statutory implication,[50] and a few decisions which apparently so hold,[51] the weight of authority from the adjudged cases is that counties being the creatures of statute have no powers except those granted by statute, and that the power to borrow money and issue bonds will not be implied but must be expressly granted to authorize its exercise.[52] cars, directed him to guard the property of plaintiff. It was held properly received as belonging to the res gestæ, and as evidence that the captain came to the place by the order of the superior. So also the evidence of one of plaintiff's employees on duty near the car when burned that he was requested to join the mob, and on declining was assaulted, was properly received as part of the res gestæ.

39. Loomis v. Oneida County, 6 Lans. (N. Y.) 269; Schiellein v. Kings County, 43 Barb. (N. Y.) 490; Lake Shore, etc., R. Co. v. Erie County, 2 N. Y. St. 317; Allegheny County v. Gibson, 90 Pa. St. 397, 35 Am. Rep. 670; St. Michael's Church v. Philadelphia County, Brightly (Pa.) 121, 4 Pa. L. J. Rep. 150, 7 Pa. L. J. 181.

Notice to be in writing.— St. Michael's Church v. Philadelphia County, Brightly (Pa.) 121, 4 Pa. L. J. Rep. 150, 7 Pa. L. J. 181.

40. Loomis v. Oneida County, 6 Lans. (N. Y.) 269; Lake Shore, etc., R. Co. v. Erie County, 2 N. Y. St. 317.

41. Schiellein v. Kings County, 43 Barb. (N. Y.) 490.

42. Ely v. Niagara County, 36 N. Y. 297; Allegheny County v. Gibson, 90 Pa. St. 397, 35 Am. Rep. 670; Lavery v. County, 2 Pa. St. 231; Donoghue v. County, 2 Pa. St. 230.

43. St. Michael's Church v. Philadelphia County, Brightly (Pa.) 121, 4 Pa. L. J. Rep. 150, 7 Pa. L. J. 181.

44. Schiellein v. Kings County, 43 Barb. (N. Y.) 490.

45. Wolfe v. Richmond County, 11 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 270, 19 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 370.

46. Allegheny County v. Gibson, 90 Pa. St. 397, 3 Am. Rep. 670.

47. Monroe County v. Strong, 78 Miss. 565, 29 So. 530.

48. Alabama.— Simpson v. Lauderdale County, 56 Ala. 64.

Kansas.—Shawnee County Com'rs v. Carter, 2 Kan. 115.

Michigan.— Dickinson County v. Warren, 98 Mich. 144, 56 N. W. 1111.

Washington.— Lancey v. King County, 15 Wash. 9, 45 Pac. 645, 34 L. R. A. 817.

United States.— Kinsey v. Little River County, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,829.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 214.

49. Simpson v. Lauderdale County, 56 Ala. 64.

50. See Simpson v. Lauderdale County, 56 Ala. 64; Kinsey v. Little River County, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,829.

51. Fenton v. Blair, 11 Utah 78, 39 Pac. 485. See also Pennington v. Gammon, 67 Ga. 456.

52. Illinois.— Hardin County v. McFarlan, 82 Ill. 138; Strodtman v. Menard County, 56 Ill. App. 120.

Nevada.— Waitz v. Ormsby County, 1 Nev. 370.

North Carolina.— Daniel v. Edgecombe County, 74 N. C. 494.

Texas.— Robertson v. Breedlove, 61 Tex. 316.

Utah.— Daggett v. Lynch, 18 Utah 49, 54 Pac. 1095 [overruling without mention Fenton v. Blair, 11 Utah 78, 39 Pac. 485].

United States.— Wells v. Pontotoc County, 102 U. S. 625, 26 L. ed. 122; Police Jury v. Britton, 15 Wall. 566, 21 L. ed. 251; Kinsey v. Little River County, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,829.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 214.

"Power to borrow money is not an incident to local political government, and upon prin-

2. Limitations Upon Power to Create Indebtedness — a. By Constitutional and Statutory Provisions — (I) In General. In many of the states the amount of indebtedness which may be contracted by a county is expressly limited by the constitution [53] or by the statutes of such states,[54] or as is sometimes the case both by constitution and by statute.[55] In the case of territories this limitation is sometimes imposed by act of congress.[56] A prohibition against incurring indebtedness for any single purpose exceeding a designated amount cannot be evaded by splitting the amount into several sums, the aggregate of which is greater than that ciple, a county cannot exercise it in the absence of express authority of law so to do." Strodtman v. Menard County, 56 Ill. App. 120, 125.

Prominent text-writers on the subject also take this view. 2 Daniel Neg. Instr. 1527 et seq.; Dillon Mun. Corp. § 117 et seq.

53. Alabama.— Alabama, etc., R. Co. v. Reed, 124 Ala. 253, 27 So. 19, 82 Am. St. Rep. 166.

California.— Smilie v. Fresno County, 112 Cal. 311, 44 Pac. 556; Howland v. San Joaquin County, 109 Cal. 152, 41 Pac. 864; Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488.

Colorado.— Lake County v. Standley, 24 Colo. 1, 49 Pac. 23; People v. May, 9 Colo. 414, 15 Pac. 36, 9 Colo. 80, 10 Pac. 641; Hockaday v. Chaffee County, 1 Colo. App. 362, 29 Pac. 287.

Georgia.— Butts v. Little, 68 Ga. 272; Spann v. Webster County, 64 Ga. 498.

Idaho.— Dunbar v. Canyon County, 5 Ida. 407, 49 Pac. 409; Bannock County v. Bunting, 4 Ida. 156, 37 Pac. 277.

Illinois.— People v. Hamill, 134 Ill. 666, 17 N. E. 799, 29 N. E. 280.

Indiana.— Monroe County v. Harrell, 147 Ind. 500, 46 N. E. 124; Burton v. State, 111 Ind. 600, 12 N. E. 486; Strieb v. Cox, 111 Ind. 299, 12 N. E. 481; Miller v. Dearborn County, 66 Ind. 162.

Iowa.— Anderson v. Orient F. Ins. Co., 88 Iowa 579, 55 N. W. 348.

Kentucky.— O'Mahoney v. Bullock, 97 Ky. 774, 31 S. W. 878, 17 Ky. L. Rep. 523.

Missouri.—Mountain Grove Bank v. Douglas County, 146 Mo. 42, 47 S. W. 944; Andrew County v. Schell, 135 Mo. 31, 36 S. W. 206; Book v. Earl, 87 Mo. 246; Potter v. Douglas County, 87 Mo. 239.

Montana.—Hoffman v. Gallatin County, 18 Mont. 224, 44 Pac. 973; Hefferlin v. Chambers, 16 Mont. 349, 40 Pac. 787; Hotchkiss v. Marion, 12 Mont. 218, 29 Pac. 821.

New York.— Adams v. East River Sav. Inst., 136 N. Y. 52, 32 N. E. 622 [affirming 65 Hun 145, 20 N. Y. Suppl. 12].

Oregon.— Municipal Security Co. v. Baker County, 33 Oreg. 338, 54 Pac. 174; Grant County v. Lake County, 17 Oreg. 453, 21 Pac. 447.

Pennsylvania.— Van Baman v. Gallagher, 182 Pa. St. 277, 37 Atl 832; Pike County v. Rowland, 94 Pa. St. 238.

Utah.— Fenton v. Blair, 11 Utah 78, 39 Pac. 485.

Washington.— Strain v. Young, 25 Wash. 578, 66 Pac. 64; Farquharson v. Yeargin, 24 Wash. 549, 64 Pac. 717; Mullen v. Sackett, 14 Wash. 100, 44 Pac. 136; State v. Hopkins, 14 Wash. 59, 44 Pac. 134, 550; Hunt v. Fawcett, 8 Wash. 396, 36 Pac. 318; Rehmke v. Goodwin, 2 Wash. 676, 27 Pac. 473.

West Virginia.— Neale v. Wood County, 43 W. Va. 90, 27 S. E. 370.

Wisconsin.— Hebard v. Ashland County, 55 Wis. 145, 12 N. W. 437.

Wyoming.— State v. Laramie County, 8 Wyo. 104, 55 Pac. 451; Grand Island, etc., R. Co. v. Baker, 6 Wyo. 369, 45 Pac. 494, 71 Am. St. Rep. 926, 34 L. R. A. 835.

United States.— Lake County v. Rollins, 130 U. S. 662, 9 S. Ct. 651, 32 L. ed. 1060 [overruling 34 Fed. 845]; Lake County v. Keene Five-Cents Sav. Bank, 108 Fed. 505, 47 C. C. A. 464; Ætna L. Ins. Co. v. Lyon County, 44 Fed. 329; Wilder v. Rio Grande County, 41 Fed. 512; Barnard v. Knox County, 37 Fed. 563, 2 L. R. A. 426; Kimball v. Grant County, 21 Fed. 145; Durant v. Iowa County, 8 Fed. Cas. No. 4,189, 1 Woolw. 69.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 215 et seq.

54. California.— Smilie v. Fresno County, 112 Cal. 311, 44 Pac. 556; Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488.

Indiana.—Hamilton County v. Cottingham, 56 Ind. 559.

Kentucky.— Harrison County Ct. v. Smith, 15 B. Mon. 155.

Minnesota.— Rogers v. Le Sueur County, 57 Minn. 434, 59 N. W. 488.

Nebraska.— State v. Weir, 33 Nebr. 35, 49 N. W. 785.

North Dakota.— State v. Getchell, 3 N. D. 243, 55 N. W. 585.

Ohio.—Dexter v. Hamilton County Com'rs, 10 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 338, 20 Cinc. L. Bul. 364.

Utah — Fenton v. Blair, 11 Utah 78, 39 Pac. 485.

Washington.— Hunt v. Fawcett, 8 Wash. 396, 36 Pac. 318.

United States.— Coffin v. Kearney County, 114 Fed. 518.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 215 et seq.

55. See cases cited supra, notes 53, 54.

56. McRae v. Cochise County, (Ariz. 1896) 44 Pac 299; Catron v. Santa Fe County, 5 N. M. 203, 21 Pac. 60; Roger Mills County v. Rowden, 8 Okla. 406, 58 Pac. 624; Hall Lithographing Co. v. Roger Mills County, 8 Okla. 378, 58 Pac. 620.

limited by the provision.[57] It has been held, however, that a legislature possessing the power to raise the debt limit of a county when a warrant, void by reason of being issued in excess of such limit, is issued, may afterward validate such warrant,[58] and that constitutional or statutory limitations upon state indebtedness are not operative as a limit upon the right of counties to incur indebtedness.[59]

(II) How Limits Fixed. The methods of fixing the limits vary; one of the most usual provisions is that the indebtedness shall not exceed a designated amount;[60] other provisions are that the amount of indebtedness which the county may incur shall not exceed in any year the income and revenue provided for such year,[61] or shall not exceed a certain per cent on the value of the taxable property in the county.[62]

57. Hoffman v. Gallatin County, 18 Mont. 224, 44 Pac. 973.

58. Daggett v. Lynch, 18 Utah 49, 54 Pac. 1095.

59. California.— Pattison v. Yuba County, 13 Cal. 175.

Iowa.— Dubuque County v. Dubuque, etc., R. Co., 4 Greene 1.

Kansas.— Leavenworth County Com'rs v. Miller, 7 Kan. 479, 12 Am. Rep. 425.

Nebraska.— Hallenbeck v. Hahn, 2 Nebr. 377.

United States.— Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Otoe County, 16 Wall. 667, 21 L. ed. 375.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 215 et seq.

60. Harrison County Ct. v. Smith, 15 B. Mon. (Ky.) 155; Hoffman v. Gallatin County, 18 Mont. 224, 44 Pac. 973; Dexter v. Hamilton County, 10 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 338, 20 Cinc. L. Bul. 364; Grant County v. Lake County, 17 Oreg. 453, 21 Pac. 447.

61. California.—Pacific Undertakers v. Widber, 113 Cal. 201, 45 Pac. 273; Smilie v. Fresno County, 112 Cal. 311, 44 Pac. 556; Howland v. San Joaquin County, 109 Cal. 152, 41 Pac. 864; McGowan v. Ford, 107 Cal. 177, 40 Pac. 231; Lewis v. Widber, 99 Cal. 412, 33 Pac. 1128; Shaw v. Statler, 74 Cal. 258, 15 Pac. 833; San Francisco Gas Co. v. Brickwedel, 62 Cal. 641; Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488.

Idaho.— Bannock County v. Bunting, 4 Ida. 156, 37 Pac. 277.

Kansas.— Webster v. Haskell County, 7 Kan. App. 764, 53 Pac. 529.

Mississippi.— Monroe County v. Strong, 78 Miss. 565, 29 So. 530.

Missouri.— State v. Johnson, 162 Mo. 621, 63 S. W. 390; State v. Allison, 155 Mo. 325, 56 S. W. 467; State v. Appleby, 136 Mo. 408, 37 S. W. 1122; Andrew County v. Schell, 135 Mo. 31, 36 S. W. 206; Book v. Earl, 87 Mo. 246; Potter v. Douglas County, 87 Mo. 239.

Nebraska.—F. C. Austin Mfg. Co. v. Brown County, (1902) 90 N. W. 929; Union Pac. R. Co. v. Cheyenne County, (1902) 90 N. W. 917; State v. Weir, 33 Nebr. 35, 49 N. W. 785.

North Dakota.— State v. Getchel, 3 N. D. 243, 55 N. W. 585.

United States.—Gillette-Herzog Mfg. Co. v. Canyon County, 85 Fed. 396; Barnard v. Knox County, 37 Fed. 563, 2 L. R. A. 426.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 215 et seq.

In Utah it is held that the amount of indebtedness which the county court can in any way create cannot at any time exceed the revenues of the current fiscal year beyond the amount of the county revenue and income for the two years immediately preceding. Fenton v. Blair, 11 Utah 78, 39 Pac. 485. See also Pleasant Valley Coal Co. v. Salt Lake County, 15 Utah 97, 48 Pac. 1032.

Reduction of amount by assets on hand.— The fact that a contract involves an expenditure in excess of the revenue provided for the year does not render it void, as the creation of an indebtedness in excess of such revenue, where the available assets on hand are sufficient to reduce the amount so as to bring it within the levy made. Field v. Stroube, 103 Ky. 114, 44 S. W. 363, 19 Ky. L. Rep. 1751.

62. Alabama.— Alabama, etc., R. Co. v. Reed, 124 Ala. 253, 27 So. 19, 82 Am. St. Rep. 166.

Arizona.—McRae v. Cochise County, (1896) 44 Pac. 299.

Colorado.— Lake County v. Standley, 24 Colo. 1, 49 Pac. 23; People v. May, 9 Colo. 80, 10 Pac. 641, 9 Colo. 404, 12 Pac. 838, 9 Colo. 414, 15 Pac. 36; Hockaday v. Chaffee County, 1 Colo. App. 362, 29 Pac. 287.

Georgia.— Butts v. Little, 68 Ga. 272.

Illinois.— Hodges v. Crowley, 186 Ill. 305, 57 N. E. 889; People v. Hamill, 134 Ill. 666, 17 N. E. 799, 29 N. E. 280.

Indiana.— Miller v. Dearborn County, 66 Ind. 162; Hamilton County v. Cottingham, 56 Ind. 559.

Iowa.— Anderson v. Orient F. Ins. Co., 88 Iowa 579, 55 N. W. 348.

New York.— Adams v. East River Sav. Inst., 136 N. Y. 52, 32 N. E. 622 [affirming 65 Hun 145, 20 N. Y. Suppl. 12].

Oklahoma.— D. County v. Gillett, 9 Okla. 593, 60 Pac. 277; Roger Mills County v. Rowden, 8 Okla. 406, 58 Pac. 624; Hall Lithographing Co. v. Roger Mills County, 8 Okla. 378, 58 Pac. 620; McMurtry v. Roger Mills County, 6 Okla. 60, 55 Pac. 1069.

Pennsylvania.—Pike County v. Rowland, 94 Pa. St. 238; Schuylkill County v. Snyder, 20 Pa. Co. Ct. 649.

South Dakota.—Lawrence County v. Meade County, 10 S. D. 175, 72 N. W. 405.

(III) To What Debts Applicable. In some jurisdictions statutory limitations on the amount of indebtedness which a county may create are held to apply to any and all indebtednesses created in any manner or for any purpose,[63] whether compulsory obligations imposed by law, or voluntary obligations entered into for any purpose.[64] In other jurisdictions, however, such limitations have been held to apply only to debts and liabilities voluntarily created and not to necessary

Utah.— Fritsch v. Salt Lake County, 15 Utah 83, 47 Pac. 1026.

Washington.— Mullen v. Sackett, 14 Wash. 100, 44 Pac. 136; State v. Hopkins, 14 Wash. 59, 44 Pac. 134, 550; Hunt v. Fawcett, 8 Wash. 396, 36 Pac. 318; Rehmke v. Goodwin, 2 Wash. 676, 27 Pac. 473.

Wisconsin.— Hebard v. Ashland County, 55 Wis. 145, 12 N. W. 437.

Wyoming.— In re Fremont, etc., County, 8 Wyo. 1, 54 Pac. 1073; Grand Island, etc., R. Co. v. Baker, 6 Wyo. 369, 45 Pac. 494, 71 Am. St. Rep. 926, 34 L. R. A. 835.

United States.— Lake County v. Rollins, 130 U. S. 662, 9 S. Ct. 651, 32 L. ed. 1060; Keene Five-Cent Sav. Bank v. Lyon County, 90 Fed. 523; Meade County v. Ætna L. Ins. Co., 90 Fed. 237, 32 C. C. A. 600; Seward County v. Ætna L. Ins. Co., 90 Fed. 222, 32 C. C. A. 585; Rollins v. Lake County, 34 Fed. 845; Durant v. Iowa County, 8 Fed. Cas. No. 4,189, 1 Woolw. 69.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 215 et seq.

Deduction of cash assets, taxes assessed for current year and unpaid taxes.— In determining the indebtedness of a county within the meaning of the constitutional provision limiting the same, there should be deducted the cash assets of the county, the amount of taxes assessed for county purposes on the tax-roll for the current year, and the amount of taxes unpaid on the rolls for prior years. Kelley v. Pierce County, 15 Wash. 697, 46 Pac. 253.

In excess of funds in treasury and maximum amount assessable.—Although by Minn. Gen. Stat. (1878), c. 8, §§ 85, 86, it is made the duty of the board of county commissioners to furnish a county court-house, etc., under c. 11, §§ 49, 114, such board has no power to incur liability for the county for that purpose while the ordinary current yearly expenses and other liabilities payable within a year will exceed both the amount of funds in the county treasury and the maximum amount which can be assessed as one year's taxes for county purposes according to the tax-lists on file when the contract is made under which the liability will be incurred. Rogers v. La Sueur, 57 Minn. 434, 59 N. W. 488.

Last assessment before issue of bonds.— The limitation of the indebtedness of a county is measured by the last assessed valuation of the property therein before the bonds are issued, and not by the last assessed valuation before they are voted. Corning v. Meade County, 102 Fed. 57, 42 C. C. A. 154.

No limitation until assessment.— The provision that no county shall become indebted for an amount exceeding a designated per cent on the value of its taxable property will not become operative, until there has been an assessment in the county for county and territorial taxation. Hall Lithographing Co. v. Roger Mills County, 8 Okla. 378, 58 Pac. 620.

On what assessment amount computed.— Under the act of congress of July 30, 1886, the amount of taxable property is "to be ascertained by the last assessment of territorial and county taxes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness." McMurtry v. Roger Mills County, 6 Okla. 60, 55 Pac. 1069. In People v. Hamill, 134 Ill. 666, 17 N. E. 799, 29 N. E. 280, it was held that it is the value of the taxable property of the county, to be ascertained by the "last assessment for State and county taxes previous to the incurring of" an indebtedness, that is, the assessment made by the local assessor, upon which the five per cent is to be computed, which limits the power of the county to contract a debt, and not the equalized valuation as fixed by the state board of equalization.

63. Colorado.—People v. May, 9 Colo. 414, 15 Pac. 36, 9 Colo. 404, 12 Pac. 838, 9 Colo. 80, 10 Pac. 641.

Iowa.— Anderson v. Orient F. Ins. Co., 88 Iowa 579, 55 N. W. 348.

Missouri.— Barnard v. Knox County, 105 Mo. 382, 16 S. W. 917, 13 L. R. A. 244 [overruling Potter v. Douglas County, 87 Mo. 239].

Montana.—Hoffman v. Gallatin County, 18 Mont. 224, 44 Pac. 973.

Wisconsin.— Hebard v. Ashland County, 55 Wis. 145, 12 N. W. 437 (indebtedness incurred for building court-house, and to redeem county orders).

United States.— Lake County v. Rollins, 130 U. S. 662, 9 S. Ct. 651, 32 L. ed. 1060 [reversing 34 Fed. 845].

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 216.

64. D. County v. Gillett, 9 Okla. 593, 60 Pac. 277; Fritsch v. Salt Lake County, 15 Utah 83, 47 Pac. 1026; Grand Island, etc., R. Co. v. Baker, 6 Wyo. 369, 45 Pac. 494, 71 Am. St. Rep. 926, 34 L. R. A. 835.

Limitation applies to fees of officers, witnesses, jurors, etc.— People v. May, 9 Colo. 404, 12 Pac. 838; Lake County v. Rollins, 130 U. S. 662, 9 S. Ct. 651, 32 L. ed. 1060.

Subscription by a magisterial district to an internal improvement, being a county debt, is to be regarded in determining the limits of the county indebtedness fixed by W. Va. Const. art. 10, § 8. Neale v. Wood County, 43 W. Va. 90, 27 S. E. 370.

county expenses or compulsory obligations,[65] as in the case of salaries of county officers,[66] or the erection of necessary county buildings.[67] So also such limitations and inhibitions as to incurring debt have been held not to apply to refunding bonds issued by a county for the purpose of taking up a prior valid indebtedness,[68] to warrants drawn against and not exceeding a special fund already provided and certain to be paid in during the fiscal year,[69] to bonds payable only from a particular fund derived from assessments,[70] to the apportionment of debts upon the division of counties,[71] or even to temporary loans to meet temporary emergencies.[72] Debts created before a constitution limiting the amount of indebtedness which a county may incur went into effect are not within its provisions.[73]

(IV) Exceeding Constitutional or Statutory Limits. When the limit prescribed by constitution or statute has been reached, the county has no further capacity to make contracts out of which additional burdens may arise. As to such contracts it may be said that the county has no existence.[74] A county by receiving benefits is not estopped to assert the invalidity of warrants issued in excess of the constitutional limit of indebtedness,[75] even though the claim for which it was issued was properly audited and the warrant duly issued and certified to be within the debt limit.[76] Nor will the fact of payment of claims allowed

65. Municipal Security Co. v. Baker County, 33 Oreg. 338, 54 Pac. 174; Grant County v. Lake County, 17 Oreg. 453, 21 Pac. 447; Farquharson v. Yeargin, 24 Wash. 549, 64 Pac. 717; Duryee v. Friars, 18 Wash. 55, 50 Pac. 583; Rauch v. Chapman, 16 Wash. 568, 48 Pac. 253, 58 Am. St. Rep. 52, 36 L. R. A. 407. See also Pacific Undertakers v. Widber, 113 Cal. 201, 45 Pac. 273; Lewis v. Widber, 99 Cal. 412, 33 Pac. 1128.

66. State v. Weir, 33 Nebr. 35, 49 N. W. 785. In McGrath v. Grout, 171 N. Y. 7, 63 N. E. 547 [affirming 74 N. Y. Suppl. 782] it was held that the affixing of salaries to the offices of sheriff, register, and county clerk of Kings county, in lieu of fees, under N. Y. Laws (1901), cc. 704, 706, was not in violation of N. Y. Const. art. 8, § 10, providing that when any city shall include in its boundaries more than one county the power of any county within such city to become indebted shall cease, as the obligation of the county for current expenses is not a debt which the county is thereby inhibited from incurring.

67. Hanley v. Randolph County Ct., 50 W. Va. 439, 40 S. E. 389.

68. Ætna L. Ins. Co. v. Lyon County, 44 Fed. 329. See also, as holding that the issuance of bonds to refund county indebtedness is not the creation of a new debt, but only a matter of fiscal administration, Lake County v. Standley, 24 Colo. 1, 49 Pac. 23; Seward County v. Ætna L. Ins. Co., 90 Fed. 222, 32 C. C. A. 585

69. Hockaday v. Chaffee County, 1 Colo. App. 362, 29 Pac. 287. See also Monroe County v. Harrell, 147 Ind. 500, 46 N. E. 124.

Appropriation of revenue uncollected.— A county which has reached the constitutional limit of indebtedness may constitutionally make assignments of the annual revenue accruing from taxes levied but uncollected for the current year, provided such assignments are not in excess of the amount covered by the annual levy for the year in which such assignment is made, and the warrant or instrument of assignment is expressly made payable out of the incoming revenue for the current year, and is an assignment pro tanto, without recourse by the county, of such fund. People v. May, 9 Colo. 404, 12 Pac. 838.

The allowance of claims equal to the tax revenue for the current year is not a creation of indebtedness against the county. Fenton v. Blair, 11 Utah 78, 39 Pac. 485. See also Andrew County v. Schell, 135 Mo. 31, 36 S. W. 206, in which it was held that a county warrant duly issued for legitimate county expenses, and which together with prior warrants issued for the same purpose during the same year does not exceed in amount the revenue provided for that year, is valid, although a sufficient sum may not be collected from such levy to pay all warrants so issued.

70. Strieb v. Cox, 111 Ind. 299, 12 N. E. 481. See also Burton v. State, 111 Ind. 600, 12 N. E. 486.

71. In re Fremont, etc., County, 8 Wyo. 1, 54 Pac. 1073.

72. Miller v. Dearborn County, 66 Ind. 162.

Temporary loans payable from available current revenue.— It is lawful for county commissioners to make temporary loans, as the necessities of the county may require, to meet the usual and ordinary expenses of the county, provided they borrow no more than they can repay out of the current revenue of the county available within the year in which such money is borrowed. Schuylkill County v. Snyder, 20 Pa. Co. Ct. 649.

73. Rollins v. Rio Grande County, 90 Fed. 575, 33 C. C. A. 181.

74. Wilder v. Rio Grande County, 41 Fed. 512.

75. Municipal Security Co. v. Baker County, 33 Oreg. 338, 54 Pac. 174.

76. Fritsch v. Salt Lake County, 15 Utah 83, 47 Pac. 1026.

beyond the constitutional limit of a county's indebtedness estop taxpayers of the county from asserting the invalidity of other claims of the same nature outstanding, since county officials have no power of ratification as to such liabilities.[77] Nevertheless a constitutional limitation of county indebtedness is not self-acting, but the protection of its provisions must be invoked at the proper time and in the proper mode.[78] And in order that a county may defend against the payment of a judgment on the ground that the limitation of its indebtedness has been exceeded, it must be shown that the limit fixed had been reached when the original debt was contracted,[79] and where a prima facie case is made, as for instance in an action on county warrants by the introduction of such warrants properly executed and proof of their ownership by the plaintiff, the burden of proof devolves upon the county to prove such fact.[80]

b. By Necessity of Submitting Proposed Indebtedness to Popular Vote. Although in the absence of a constitutional inhibition, the legislature of a state may properly authorize a county to create a debt for a governmental purpose without a submission to a vote of the people,[81] yet it may, and in some states does, require an affirmative vote of the people of the county to authorize the county to borrow money;[82] and in a number of jurisdictions it is expressly provided that no indebtedness or liability shall be incurred by a county in excess of a certain amount or rate without submitting the question of such proposed indebtedness to a popular vote,[83] or unless such incurrence of debt or liability be subsequently

77. Municipal Security Co. v. Baker County, 33 Oreg. 338, 54 Pac. 174.

78. Ætna L. Ins. Co. v. Lyon County, 44 Fed. 329.

79. Lake County v. Standley, 24 Colo. 1, 49 Pac. 23; Perry County v. Gardner, 155 Ind. 165, 57 N. E. 908; Johnson v. Pawnee County, 7 Okla. 686, 56 Pac. 701; Wilder v. Rio Grande County, 41 Fed. 512; Barnard v. Knox County, 37 Fed. 563, 2 L. R. A. 426.

Liability for items furnished before funds exhausted.— A county which issued warrants exceeding the constitutional limit of indebtedness is liable for the items thereof that were furnished before the funds were exhausted, notwithstanding all the funds have been paid out on subsequently issued warrants, since the debt was created when the services or goods were furnished. Mountain Grove Bank v. Douglas County, 146 Mo. 42, 47 S. W. 944.

80. Custer County v. De Lana, 8 Okla. 213, 57 Pac. 162; Johnson v. Pawnee County, 7 Okla. 686, 56 Pac. 701; Rollins v. Rio Grande County, 90 Fed. 575, 33 C. C. A. 181.

Insufficient proof of issuance of warrants after limit reached.—A contention that county warrants in suit are void because issued after the limit in amount authorized by statute had been passed is not supported by proof that the warrants in suit were issued in the order of the numbers they bear, and that warrants bearing lower numbers than any in suit were issued to an aggregate amount, which still left a margin within which others might legally be issued. Speer v. Kearney County, 88 Fed. 749, 32 C. C. A. 101.

81. St. Louis County Ct. v. Griswold, 58 Mo. 175; Sinton v. Carter County, 23 Fed. 535.

A constitutional prohibition of the loan of their credit by counties to companies or corporations without a vote of the people (Mo. Const. art. 11, § 14) does not affect the constitutionality of a law authorizing a county to create a debt to establish a public park without a vote. St. Louis County Ct. v. Griswold, 58 Mo. 175.

82. Strodtman v. Menard County, 56 Ill. App. 120; Johnson v. Wilson County, 34 Kan. 670, 9 Pac. 384; Doty v. Ellsbree, 11 Kan. 209; Theis v. Washita County, 9 Okla. 643, 60 Pac. 505.

83. California.—Pacific Undertakers v. Widber, 113 Cal. 201, 45 Pac. 273; McGowan v. Ford, 107 Cal. 177, 40 Pac. 231; Shaw v. Statler, 74 Cal. 258, 15 Pac. 833; San Francisco Gas Co. v. Brickwedel, 62 Cal. 641.

Colorado.— People v. May, 9 Colo. 414, 15 Pac. 36, 9 Colo. 404, 12 Pac. 838, 9 Colo. 80, 10 Pac. 641.

Georgia.— Dyer v. Erwin, 106 Ga. 545, 33 S. E. 63; Butts v. Little, 68 Ga. 272; Spann v. Webster County, 64 Ga. 498.

Idaho.—Bannock County v. Bunting, 4 Ida. 156, 37 Pac. 277.

Kentucky.— O'Mahoney v. Bullock, 97 Ky. 774, 31 S. W. 878, 17 Ky. L. Rep. 523; Whaley v. Com., 61 S. W. 35, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1292.

Mississippi.— Monroe County v. Strong, 78 Miss. 565, 29 So. 530.

Missouri.— Andrew County v. Schell, 135 Mo. 31, 36 S. W. 206; Gaston v. Lamkin, 115 Mo. 20, 31 S. W. 1100; Barnard v. Knox County, 105 Mo. 382, 16 S. W. 917, 13 L. R. A. 244; St. Louis, etc., R. Co. v. Apperson, 97 Mo. 300, 10 S. W. 478.

Montana.— Tinkel v. Griffin, 26 Mont. 426, 68 Pac. 859; Hefferlin v. Chambers, 16 Mont. 349, 40 Pac. 787; Hotchkiss v. Marion, 12 Mont. 218, 29 Pac. 821.

ratified by a submission to popular vote for the purpose of validating the debt or ratifying the liability.[84]

c. By Neeessity of Making Provision For Payment — (i) In General. It is sometimes expressly provided by the constitution or statutes that counties incurring indebtedness shall at or before the time of so doing provide for the means of paying the same by the collection of a tax.[85] And when this is the case no vote adopting a proposition involving the borrowing or expending of money is of any effect unless the question submitted provides also for levying a tax to pay the same, and the vote adopt the tax also.[86] It is not, however, requisite that there should be a distinct proposition for levying a tax separate from the question of borrowing.[87] A debt contracted in violation of these provisions is incapable of judicial enforcement.[88]

(ii) Creating Sinking Fund. In some states in addition to requiring the proposition of increasing county indebtedness beyond the statutory limit, to be submitted to a popular vote, it is expressly provided that before or at the time of incurring such indebtedness, provision shall be made for the collection of an annual tax to pay the interest thereon as it falls due, and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal within a prescribed time.[89]

3. Right to Enjoin Creation of Debts in Excess of Limits. An injunction will issue at the instance of the taxpayers to restrain the creation of a debt in excess of the limit prescribed by the constitution.[90]

Nebraska.— State v. Cherry County, 58 Nebr. 734, 79 N. W. 825.

North Dakota.— State v. Getchell, 3 N. D. 243, 55 N. W. 585.

Pennsylvania.— Pike County v. Rowland, 94 Pa. St. 238.

Utah.— Fritsch v. Salt Lake County, 15 Utah 83, 47 Pac. 1026.

Washington.— Strain v. Young, 25 Wash. 578, 66 Pac. 64; Rauch v. Chapman, 16 Wash. 568, 48 Pac. 253, 58 Am. St. Rep. 52, 36 L. R. A. 407; Rehmke v. Goodwin, 2 Wash. 676, 27 Pac. 473.

United States.— Lake County v. Rollins, 130 U. S. 662, 9 S. Ct. 651, 32 L. ed. 1060; Dudley v. Lake County, 80 Fed. 672, 26 C. C. A. 82.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 218, and infra, note 84.

Assent of three fifths of those voting on proposition.— Wash. Const. art. 8, § 6, providing that no county shall become indebted exceeding a certain amount without the assent of three fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose, only requires the assent of three fifths of those voting on the specific proposition submitted, and not three fifths of the votes cast at the general election at which the general question of the county indebtedness is submitted. Strain v. Young, 25 Wash. 578, 66 Pac. 64.

84. State v. Getchell, 3 N. D. 243, 55 N. W. 585.

Effect of joinder of indebtedness which cannot be validated with that which may.— Under Wash. Laws (1893), p. 181, § 1, provision is made for the ratification of such invalid county indebtedness only as was incurred prior to March 9, 1893, the date that said act took effect. The joinder in one proposition for submission to the voters for ratification of indebtedness which cannot be validated with that which may be vitiates and renders nugatory the entire proceeding. Under Wash. Laws (1893), p. 181, § 2, a proposition submitted to the voters of a county for the purpose of ratifying its invalid indebtedness is illegal, when it does not specify the dates at or between which the different items of indebtedness were attempted to be incurred. Hunt v. Fawcett, 8 Wash. 396, 36 Pac. 318.

85. Citizens' Bank v. Jennings, 107 La. 547, 32 So. 66; Schuylkill County v. Snyder, 20 Pa. Co. Ct. 649; Keystone Lumber Co. v. Bayfield, 94 Wis. 491, 69 N. W. 162.

86. McMillan v. Lee County, 3 Iowa 311; Theis v. Washita County, 9 Okla. 643, 60 Pac. 505.

87. McMillan v. Lee County, 3 Iowa 311; Hamlin v. Meadville, 6 Nebr. 227.

88. Citizens' Bank v. Jennings, 107 La. 547, 32 So. 66.

89. Howland v. San Joaquin County, 109 Cal. 152, 41 Pac. 864; Book v. Earl, 87 Mo. 246; State v. Gibson, 11 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 90, 8 Ohio N. P. 367; Mitchell County v. City Nat. Bank, 15 Tex. Civ. App. 172, 39 S. W. 628.

Under Tex. Const. art. 11, § 7, providing that no debt shall be incurred by any city or county unless provision is made for a tax to pay the interest thereon, and to provide a sinking fund, a contract made by a county for the building of bridges, to be paid for in county bonds, is void, in the absence of any provision for such a tax. Brazoria County v. Youngstown Bridge Co., 80 Fed. 10, 25 C. C. A. 306.

90. Womington v. Pierce, 22 Oreg. 606, 30 Pac. 450.

As to injunctions generally see Injunctions.

B. Administration, Appropriation, and Use of County Funds — 1. Division Into General and Special Funds — a. General County Funds. What shall constitute the general fund of a county and what taxes or proportion thereof shall be paid into the same is usually a matter of statutory regulation,[91] as is also the manner in which the same shall be paid out and expended;[92] and county commissioners have no authority to make changes in this respect.[93] With regard to the purpose of creating such fund it may be stated generally that it is created for the purpose of meeting all such expenses as the maintenance and conduct of the necessary business of the county.[94]

b. Special Funds — (i) Creation. In some jurisdictions the creation of separate or distinct funds out of the revenues or moneys belonging to the county is held to be unauthorized, and in fact forbidden by statute,[95] even where the purpose of such fund is to provide for the payment of current expenses.[96] In the absence of statutory provisions on this subject, however, there would seem to be no doubt that county boards as the fiscal agents of their counties may direct the

91. People v. Washoe County, 1 Nev. 460.

Money not otherwise appropriated belongs to the general fund. San Juan County v. Oliver, 7 Colo. App. 515, 44 Pac. 362.

Two thirds of the poll-tax must be paid into the general fund, and there is no authority for paying it all into the indigent sick fund. People v. Washoe County, 1 Nev. 460.

Two thirds of the property tax must be placed in the general fnnd. People v. Washoe County, 1 Nev. 460.

Effect of consolidation of several funds in general fund.— Where by statute the fines-and-forfeitures-fund of a county is consolidated with the general county fund, a claim or warrant subsequently drawn which would previously have been paid from the fines-and-forfeitures-fund is payable from such consolidated fund. Mobile County v. Powers, 103 Ala. 207, 15 So. 642; Scruggs v. Underwood, 54 Ala. 186; Michael v. Marengo County, 52 Ala. 159.

92. People v. Washoe County, 1 Nev. 460, where it was held that there can be no restraint on the treasurer as to the manner of paying out said fund except that imposed by law.

93. People v. Washoe County, 1 Nev. 460; State v. Hopkins, 12 Wash. 602, 41 Pac. 906.

Right to enjoin unauthorized appropriation. — If a county board demands an appropriation of money from the general fund for purposes not authorized by law, payment may be enjoined by a taxpayer of the county (Rothrock v. Carr, 55 Ind. 334) or by a creditor holding warrants against the general fund (Webster v. Fish, 5 Nev. 190).

94. State v. Allison, 155 Mo. 325, 56 S. W. 467; State v. Hopkins, 12 Wash. 602, 41 Pac. 906.

Payment of county's portion of state tax.— The obligation of the county to pay its portion of the state tax is a liability against the county in its corporate capacity, payable out of the funds received for general county purposes. Northum v. Hoyt, 31 Oreg. 524, 49 Pac. 754.

Payment of interest on funding bonds.— Under Nev. Stat. (1873), p. 54, § 9, requiring the treasurer of Lincoln county to draw on the general funds of the county to pay the interest on certain funding bonds, if the special fund provided therefor is insufficient he must pay out of such fund if such contingency occurs, although it is insufficient to meet the current expenses of the county. Odd Fellows Sav., etc., Bank v. Quillen, 11 Nev. 109.

Payment of judgment against county.— In determining whether a judgment against a county must be paid from the ordinary revenue, or whether a special tax may be levied for its payment, the character of the original claim may be considered as governing the character of the judgment. Grand Island, etc., R. Co. v. Baker, 6 Wyo. 369, 45 Pac. 494, 71 Am. St. Rep. 926, 34 L. R. A. 835.

Refunding order when taxes erroneously levied or collected.— Where taxes have been imposed for general revenue purposes any unexpended funds in the treasury may be drawn upon to refund taxes erroneously levied and collected. State v. Rouch, 47 Ohio St. 478, 25 N. E. 59.

Services rendered a county in one year may be paid from the levy of another year. State v. Furnas County, 10 Nebr. 361, 6 N. W. 434.

The cost of the construction and repair of roads and bridges may, under Nev. Stat. (1864–1865), 376, relating to the apportionment of county revenues, be properly considered such county expenditures as may be met by moneys in the "general fund." Webster v. Fish, 5 Nev. 190.

95. Laforge v. Magee, 6 Cal. 285; Montague v. Horton, 12 Wis. 599. The latter case was decided in accordance with the law that all money belonging to the county as such, and not coming into its hands in the capacity of trustee, is to be treated as one fund out of which all its liabilities are to be discharged, such intention being evidenced by Wis. Rev. Stat. c. 13, § 129, providing that "county orders properly attested . . . shall be entitled to a preference as to payment according to the order of time in which they may be presented to the county treasurer," etc.

96. Laforge v. Magee, 6 Cal. 285.

disposition of the county revenues;[97] and in a number of states express provision is made by statute for the setting apart of special funds for particular purposes.[98]

(II) Use and Application. Where special county funds are authorized, and are in fact raised for a particular purpose, they must be applied thereto and cannot be diverted to any other purpose,[99] or transferred to any other fund,[1] unless a surplus remains after satisfying the indebtedness or demands for which the fund was originally created;[2] and, where special funds are authorized and raised for a

97. Laforge v. Magee, 6 Cal. 285.

Use of funds voluntarily paid under illegal assessment.— It is not a misappropriation of moneys in the county treasury to devote a sum made up of the taxes voluntarily paid by taxpayers on an assessment under an illegal act to the purpose for which they were so paid. State v. Bader, 56 Ohio St. 718, 47 N. E. 564.

98. State v. Hortsman, 149 Mo. 290, 50 S. W. 811.

As for instance, for jurors' fees (Allen v. Watts, 88 Ala. 497, 7 So. 190; Enloe v. Reike, 56 Ala. 500; Com. v. Godshaw, 92 Ky. 435, 17 S. W. 737, 13 Ky. L. Rep. 572; Chemung Canal Bank v. Chemung County, 5 Den. (N. Y.) 517); for paying stenographers (Franklin County v. McRaven, 67 Ark. 562, 55 S. W. 930); for paying salaries (Esser v. Spaulding, 17 Nev. 289, 30 Pac. 896; Spokane, etc., Trust Co. v. Lavigne, 14 Wash. 681, 45 Pac. 664); for improving public roads (State v. Street, 117 Ala. 203, 23 So. 807); for building bridges (State v. Street, 117 Ala. 203, 23 So. 807) or ditches (Hall v. State, 54 Nebr. 280, 74 N. W. 590); for paying county commissioners (Enloe v. Reike, 56 Ala. 500); for creating fine-and-forfeiture-funds (State v. Coleman, 73 Ala. 550; Scruggs v. Underwood, 54 Ala. 186); or to pay orders drawn by the superintendent of the poor, and if the funds are wasted or lost to provide others to replace them (Chemung Canal Bank v. Chemung County, 5 Den. (N. Y.) 517).

99. Alabama.— Allen v. Watts, 88 Ala. 497, 7 So. 190.

Arkansas.— Franklin County v. McRaven, 67 Ark. 562, 55 S. W. 930; Lee County v. Robertson, 66 Ark. 82, 48 S. W. 901; Gray v. Matheny, 66 Ark. 36, 48 S. W. 678.

California.— Power v. May, 123 Cal. 147, 55 Pac. 796; Crocker v. Wolson, 30 Cal. 663.

Illinois.— Cook County v. McCrea, 93 Ill. 236.

Iowa.— Davis v. Muscatine County, Morr. 161.

Kansas.— Doty v. Ellsbree, 11 Kan. 209.

Nebraska.— Oakley v. Valley County, 40 Nebr. 900, 59 N. W. 368; Union Pac. R. Co. v. Dawson County, 12 Nebr. 254, 11 N. W. 307.

Ohio.—Jenifer v. Hamilton County, 2 Disn. 189.

Oregon.— Northup v. Hoyt, 31 Oreg. 524, 49 Pac. 754.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 220.

Rule not altered by submission to arbitration.— County commissioners cannot by a submission to arbitration impose an obligation on the county to disburse a particular fund in a manner or for a purpose prohibited by statute. Jenifer v. Hamilton County, 2 Disn. (Ohio) 189.

1. Lee County v. Robertson, 66 Ark. 82, 48 S. W. 901; Crocker v. Wolson, 30 Cal. 663; State v. Hopkins, 12 Wash. 602, 41 Pac. 906.

2. California.— Crocker v. Wolson, 30 Cal. 663.

Missouri.— State v. Appleby, 136 Mo. 408, 37 S. W. 1122.

Nebraska.— Union Pac. R. Co. v. Dawson County, 12 Nebr. 254, 11 N. W. 307.

Nevada.— Esser v. Spaulding, 17 Nev. 289, 30 Pac. 896.

Tennessee.—Kennedy v. Montgomery County, 98 Tenn. 165, 38 S. W. 1075.

Washington.— Spokane, etc., Trust Co. v. Lavigne, 14 Wash. 681, 45 Pac. 664.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 220.

Application of excess of road fund to payment for constructing jail.— N. Y. Laws (1898), c. 614, amending the Highway Law so as to authorize county commissioners to apply a balance of a fund not needed to improve a road for which the fund was created to the improvement of a different road, does not preclude the commissioners from appropriating such a balance to pay a debt for constructing a jail. Queens County v. Phipps, 35 N. Y. App. Div. 350, 54 N. Y. Suppl. 946.

Borrowing from general funds.— Under Nebr. Comp. Stat. c. 89, art. 1, creating a ditch fund, it is provided that whenever it is necessary the county commissioners are authorized to borrow from the county general funds for the benefit of said ditch fund, but all money so borrowed is to be returned as soon as possible. Hall v. State, 54 Nebr. 280, 74 N. W. 590.

No application to balances in funds for which yearly levy required.— In Union Pac. R. Co. v. Cheyenne County, (Nebr. 1902) 90 N. W. 917, 918, it was held by the court that "the statute providing for the transfer of an unexpended balance remaining in a fund to the general county fund probably has no application to balances remaining in funds for which, under the statute, a levy is required each year."

Surplus a part of general funds.— The surplus remaining after the object of a levy has been accomplished must be treated as a part of the general funds of the county, and available for general county purposes, notwithstanding Ky. Const. § 180, forbidding the diversion of taxes from the purposes for which they were levied. Field v. Stroube, 103 Ky. 114, 44 S. W. 363, 19 Ky. L. Rep. 1751.

particular purpose, their application to the original purpose may be compelled by a taxpayer.[8]

2. Appropriation and Disposition of Funds — a. What Constitutes an Appropriation. An appropriation is to set apart or vote a sum of money to a particular object.[4] There is no appropriation of any part of a common fund until the board by some proper method indicate the specific object to which it is to be applied.[5]

b. Necessity For. It is sometimes expressly provided that unless an appropriation therefor has been previously made no liability shall be incurred,[6] or that no money shall be paid out of the treasury until appropriated by law.[7]

c. By Whom Made. It is the duty of the county board, court, or police jury of a county, as its fiscal agent, to make specific appropriations for the several objects for which the county has to provide,[8] during their term of office, and at the time fixed by law,[9] and as a rule in the exercise of such power they have a reasonable discretion.[10] Where, however, the legislature directs the payment of a certain sum by a county the commissioners of such county have no discretion as to the appropriation of such money.[11] So where the constitution provides for the application of the proceeds of certain taxes to specified objects and in a fixed proportion, the county commissioners cannot make a different appropriation, even

3. Union Pac. R. Co. v. Dawson County, 12 Nebr. 254, 11 N. W. 307; Kennedey v. Montgomery County, 98 Tenn. 165, 38 S. W. 1075.

Appeal from order diverting funds.— A taxpayer who presents his protest to the quorum court of a county against the diversion of a fund from the purpose for which it was raised may appeal from the order making such appropriation. Lee County v. Robertson, 66 Ark. 82, 48 S. W. 901.

4. Pollock v. Lawrence County, 19 Fed. Cas. No. 11,255. And see 3 Cyc. 565.

Resolution held to sufficiently indicate appropriation.—Colo. Sess. Laws (1891), p. 111, § 1, requires the county commissioners, by resolution, to appropriate such sums as are necessary for the county expenses for the ensuing year; the resolution to specify the purposes for which the several appropriations are made. The resolution adopted provided that certain amounts were appropriated for the different purposes, one of which was "for ordinary county revenues, 6 mills, $40,446.23." It was held that such appropriation was not so defective as to enable the county to defend an action for the contract-price for the publication of the delinquent tax-list for the year for which the appropriation was made, on the ground that no appropriation was made for such purpose. Beshoar v. Las Animas County, 7 Colo. App. 444, 43 Pac. 912.

5. Pollock v. Lawrence County, 19 Fed. Cas. No. 11,255.

6. La Plata County v. Hampson, 24 Colo. 127, 48 Pac. 1101.

7. Durrett v. Buxton, 63 Ark. 397, 39 S. W. 56.

8. State v. Lewis, 8 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 575, 6 Ohio N. P. 198.

Duty of auditors to furnish estimate to board for specific appropriations.— Ohio Rev. Stat. § 1005, requiring the county auditor to furnish the commissioners a detailed estimate of money needed for county purposes, and section 1007, providing that the county commissioners shall make specific appropriations for the several objects for which the county has to provide, being mandatory, the failure of the officers to comply therewith invalidates their acts. State v. Lewis, 8 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 575, 6 Ohio N. P. 198.

Exclusive jurisdiction of county court.—By the Arkansas constitution of 1874 the county court has exclusive original jurisdiction in all matters pertaining to county taxes, the disbursement of money for county purposes, and in every other case that may be necessary to the internal improvements and local concerns of the county. Ex p. Turner, 40 Ark. 548.

9. State v. Halsted, 39 N. J. L. 402.

At the time of making annual tax levy.— La Plata County v. Hampson, 24 Colo. 127, 48 Pac. 1101.

10. People v. Baker, 29 Barb. (N. Y.) 81.

Appropriation in advance of excess over current expenses.— A police jury has the authority to appropriate the excess of the current expenses of the parish within the ten mills' limit, for the purpose of building a court-house, and can set apart the excess in advance for future collection to pay the instalments due as expressed in the contract. Louisiana, etc., R. Co. v. Police Jury, 48 La. Ann. 331, 19 So. 282.

11. Hockaday v. Chaffee County, 1 Colo. App. 362, 29 Pac. 287; Humboldt County v. Churchill County Com'rs, 6 Nev. 30.

Effect of statute applying appropriated fund to payment of past indebtedness.— A statute directing certain funds, then in the hands of the county treasurer, which were appropriated for building a court-house, to be applied in payment of the past indebtedness of the county, did not prevent the county treasurer from paying a warrant drawn for money due for building the court-house. Its effect was to place all the past indebtedness of the county, whether contracted for build-though the same be authorized by statute.[12] When the appropriation has once been made the control of the county board or court is exhausted, and the duty of making the actual disbursement as a rule rests upon the county treasurer,[13] and should there be funds in the hands of a county treasurer which he should transfer to the county commissioners for disbursement, the proper method of obtaining such funds is by mandamus; and the board cannot maintain an action against the treasurer to compel distribution among the different departments of the county government.[14]

d. Limitations Upon Appropriations — (I) As to Purpose. In the absence of statutory authority so to do appropriations cannot be made from the funds of a county for other than county purposes.[15] A state legislature may, however, in the absence of constitutional restrictions,[16] authorize appropriations from a county fund for other than strictly county purposes, as for instance by an act authorizing appropriations in aid of charitable organizations[17] or agricultural societies,[18] or to pay for bounties for volunteers or substitutes required to satisfy the quota of troops assigned to be raised by a county[19] or for the protection and maintenance of the families of volunteers during their continuance in the armies of the United States, etc.[20]

(II) Excessive Appropriations. The permission given to eke out the deficiencies of one appropriation from the surplus of another when estimates

ing a court-house or otherwise, upon the same footing. Marco v. County Treasurer, 4 S. C. 96.

12. Forsyth County v. Forsyth County, 127 N. C. 263, 37 S. E. 261.

13. State v. Hortsman, 149 Mo. 290, 50 S. W. 811.

Right of commissioners to gross sum from county treasurer.— County commissioners have no right to demand and receive of the county treasurer a sum of money in gross; their duty is simply to audit legal demands upon the county and certify the same to the county treasurer for payment. The county treasurer is the legal custodian of the county funds, and the duty of disbursing the same is on him. Fairfield County v. Winnsboro Nat. Bank, 7 S. C. 78.

14. Sanders v. Colleton County Com'rs, 7 S. C. 359; Fairfield County v. Winnsboro Bank, 7 S. C. 78.

15. Perry v. Kinnear, 42 Ill. 160; Warren County Agricultural Joint Stock Co. v. Barr, 55 Ind. 30; Davis v. Ontonagon County, 64 Mich. 404, 31 N. W. 405; Paxton v. Arthur, 60 Miss. 832. And see Shelby County v. Tennessee Centennial Exposition Co., 96 Tenn. 653, 36 S. W. 694, 33 L. R. A. 717.

Erection of school building.— A county board cannot make an appropriation of any sum out of the general county fund for the erection of a school building. Rothrock v. Carr, 55 Ind. 334.

16. By N. Y. Const. art. 8, § 10, it is expressly provided that "no county, city, town or village shall hereafter give any money or property, or loan its money or credit to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation, or become directly or indirectly the owner of stock in, or bonds of, any association or corporation; nor shall any such county, city, town or village be allowed to incur any indebtedness except for county, city, town or village purposes. This section shall not prevent such county, city, town or village from making such provision for the aid or support of its poor as may be authorized by law." Matter of Greene, 55 N. Y. App. Div. 475, 481, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 291.

17. Lund v. Chippewa County, 93 Wis. 640, 67 N. W. 927, 34 L. R. A. 131. In Lexington Orphan Soc. v. Fayette County, 6 Bush (Ky.) 413, it was held that the authority given to county courts to purchase land and establish poor-houses is not compulsive, and could not constructively abolish the power to provide for the poor in other modes, and that such court might rightfully contribute to aid in extending a building erected by the Lexington Orphan Society to accommodate a portion of the poor of the county who would not otherwise be provided for as well or at all. See, however, In re Northern Home for Friendless Children, 11 Phila. (Pa.) 192, 33 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 83, where it was held that the Pennsylvania act of April 12, 1875, making it the duty of county courts to appropriate money to aid the homes for friendless children, was of doubtful constitutionality, and hence such duty would not be enforced by the courts.

18. Nemaha Fair Assoc. v. Myers, 44 Kan. 132, 24 Pac. 71.

19. Young v. Franklin County, 25 Ind. 295; King v. Course, 25 Ind. 202; Miami County v. Bearss, 25 Ind. 110; Oliver v. Keightley, 24 Ind. 514; Coffman v. Keightley, 24 Ind. 509.

Appropriations to reimburse for voluntary contributions made by private citizens previous to such appropriations, for the same objects, are not within the curative statute of 1865, and are void. Miami County v. Bearss, 25 Ind. 110; Oliver v. Keightley, 24 Ind. 514.

20. Adams County v. Mertz, 27 Ind. 103.

have proved erroneous does not relieve from the duty of making an honest estimate of the probable expenditures necessary for the several items designated, or give the right to a board to make an excessive appropriation for one class of expenditure.[21] Nor can a board make a levy for a certain fund in excess of the amount required for the year in which the levy was made with the purpose of transferring the balance to the general fund.[22]

e. Power to Enjoin Unlawful Appropriation or Disposition of Funds. A court of equity has power to prevent the unlawful appropriation or disposition of the funds belonging to the county,[23] or to compel the restoration of the same.[24]

3. Collection and Custody of Funds — a. In General. Although county commissioners must see to the collection of the debts due the county, as well as provide for the payment of those which it owes, yet in the performance of these duties they have a wide discretion and are not bound to sue a debtor of the county where they know that nothing can be recovered.[25] In some jurisdictions it is held that a county treasurer is an officer who acts on his own responsibility, and independently of the board of commissioners of the county so far as the keeping of the funds of the state and county is concerned, that he is the proper custodian of such funds, and that the board of commissioners has no legal authority to direct him as to where or in what manner the same shall be kept.[26] In other states, however, the power of designating the bank in which the county funds shall be deposited is given to other officers of the county, as for instance to the board of county commissioners,[27] to the board of auditors,[28] or to such board

21. Paterson v Passaic County, 56 N. J. L. 459, 29 Atl. 331.

22. Union Pac. R. Co. v. Cheyenne County, (Nebr. 1902) 90 N. W. 917.

23. California.— Johnston v. Sacramento County, 137 Cal. 204, 69 Pac. 962.

Georgia.— Mitchell v. Lasseter, 114 Ga. 275, 40 S. E. 287.

Indiana.— Harney v. Indianapolis, etc., R. Co., 32 Ind. 244.

Iowa.— Snyder v. Foster, 77 Iowa 638, 42 N. W. 506.

Nebraska.—Shepard v. Easterling, 61 Nebr. 882, 86 N. W. 941.

New York.— Govers v. Westchester County, 55 N. Y. App. Div. 40, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 27.

Ohio.— State v. Cuyahoga County, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 76, 6 Ohio N. P. 405.

Oregon.— Burness v. Multnomah County, 37 Oreg. 460, 60 Pac. 1005.

Pennsylvania.— Bennett v. Norton, 7 Kulp 443.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 308; and, generally, Injunctions.

A taxpayer may interfere by injunction where county commissioners, acting in their official capacity, are being misled, or are about to be misled, into unlawfully paying out public money. State v. Cuyahoga County, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 76.

24. Bailey v. Strachan, 76 Minn. 526, 80 N. W. 694; Northern Trust Co. v. Snyder, 113 Wis. 516, 89 N. W. 460.

25. Schwamble v. Sheriff, 22 Pa. St. 18; Com. v. Curren, 2 Chest. Co. Rep. (Pa.) 393.

Collection by execution.— Upon the refusal of a banker to pay over money which had been "collected for any county purpose whatever," and deposited with him by the county treasurer or tax-collector, the ordinary or other proper county authorities may issue execution against the banker for the purpose of obtaining from him the amount thus placed in his hands. Hobbs v. Dougherty County, 98 Ga. 574, 25 S. E. 579.

26. Halbert v. State, 22 Ind. 125; State v. Whipple, 60 Nebr. 650, 83 N. W. 921.

Effect of indorsement to treasurer of certificate of deposit.— Where a sheriff of a county indorses a bank certificate of deposit to a county treasurer as part of the county funds, the latter is not merely the custodian of such funds but the certificate becomes the property of the county as soon as received by him. Iredell County v. Wasson, 82 N. C. 308.

27. Medicine Lodge First Nat. Bank v. Peck, 43 Kan. 643, 23 Pac. 1077.

28. Meeker County v. Butler, 25 Minn. 363; Stillwater First Nat. Bank v. Shepard, 22 Minn. 196.

Necessity for bond by depositary.— Under Minn. Gen. Stat. (1878), § 150, a board of county auditors may designate the depositary for county funds before a bond has been filed by such depositary, but such designation does not become operative so as to authorize a deposit of such funds in pursuance thereof until the required bond is furnished and approved by the board of county commissioners. Meeker County v. Butler, 25 Minn. 363.

Warrant as condition precedent to making deposit.— The warrant of a county auditor required by statute as a condition precedent to deposits in the county treasury is not a muniment or condition of title in the county, but merely an element in the statutory system of bookkeeping devised for the protection of the county, and therefore the transfer of a banker's certificate of deposit in a mode otherwise sufficient to pass the property therein to the county, will not be avoided by and the treasurer together.[29] Where this power of designation is given it is valid and binding only during the term of the officer or officers to whom it is given, or at most until their successors are qualified and enter upon their duties,[30] and no contract can be entered into binding the hands of the successors of such officers.[31]

b. Actions Against Insolvent Depositary. A county treasurer being merely a custodian or trustee of public moneys coming into his hands by nature of his office, if he deposits such funds with one who knows their trust character, and the latter afterward becomes insolvent, the county may sue to impress a trust on the insolvent estate.[32] The debt of a depositary of county funds is to the county and not to the state, and when such depositary fails, it is not proper for the state to bring an action against the depositary's assignee to recover them and claim a preference under an act, providing that debts due the state from an insolvent shall be preferred.[33]

4. Loan of Funds — a. Power to Make. In some states the loan of county funds either with or without interest is forbidden.[34] In a number of the states, however, counties are authorized to make loans of surplus county funds through their boards,[35] or agents appointed by the latter,[36] and under such reasonable rules and restrictions as such boards may see proper to impose.[37]

b. Power to Take and Foreclose Mortgages. Counties when authorized to loan money from their funds may also take a mortgage to secure the loan and its deposit in the county treasury without the authority of such warrant. Shanklin v. Madison County Com'rs, 21 Ohio St. 575.

29. City Sav. Bank v. Huebner, 84 Mich. 391, 47 N. W. 690, where it was held that such designation should be as soon as may be convenient after the new treasurer qualifies and enters upon his duties, and that until a new depositary is so designated it is the duty of the treasurer to deposit the public funds with the existing depositary or depositaries.

30. City Sav. Bank v. Huebner, 84 Mich. 391, 47 N. W. 690.

31. Medicine Lodge First Nat, Bank v. Peck, 43 Kan. 643, 23 Pac. 1077; City Sav. Bank v. Huebner, 84 Mich. 391, 47 N. W. 690.

No power to contract for definite time.— No authority is given by Kan. Laws (1889), c. 189, to the board of county commissioners to designate a bank or banks for the deposit of the public moneys for a definite period of time; nor can the board make any order, or make any contract with the depository that will prevent the designation of a different depository whenever the board in its discretion determines that the public interest will be best subserved by such a change. Medicine Lodge First Nat. Bank v. Peck, 43 Kan. 643, 23 Pac. 1077.

32. State v. Foster, 5 Wyo. 199, 38 Pac. 926, 63 Am. St. Rep. 47, 29 L. R. A. 226.

County not entitled to preference over other depositors.— Where a bank in which county funds are deposited fails, the county, in the absence of any legal right of preference in such cases, must stand on an equal footing with other depositors, and is not entitled to a lien on the assets in preference to the individual depositors. Glynn County v. Brunswick Terminal Co., 101 Ga. 244, 28 S. E. 604, where it was further held that if there is such a thing as prerogative right of preference on the part of the state, it cannot be divided among the counties of which the state is composed.

33. State v. Wilson, 77 Mo. 633; State v. Rubey, 77 Mo. 610.

34. Moulton v. McLean, 5 Colo. App. 454, 39 Pac. 78; State v. Rubey, 77 Mo. 610; Allibone v. Ames, 9 S. D. 74, 68 N. W. 165, 33 L. R. A. 585.

A general deposit is not a loan within a statutory inhibition of loans of county funds. Moulton v. McLean, 5 Colo. App. 454, 39 Pac. 78; State v. Rubey, 77 Mo. 610; Allibone v. Ames, 9 S. D. 74, 68 N. W. 165, 33 L. R. A. 585.

35. Kitchens v. Greene County Com'rs, 5 Ill. 485; Halstead v. Lake County, 56 Ind. 363; Emmet County v. Skinner, 48 Iowa 244; Haynes v. Covington, 13 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 408.

36. Kitchens v. Greene County Com'rs, 5 Ill. 485.

Loans by ex officio trustees of fund.— Under Ind. Rev. Stat. (1881), § 3784, the clerk, auditor, and recorder of the county are ex officio trustees of the county library, and as such trustees they are authorized by section 3788 to loan the surplus library fund for any term not exceeding five years with seven per cent interest, payable annually in advance. Traylor v. Dykins, 91 Ind. 229.

37. Emmet County v. Skinner, 48 Iowa 244.

Investment of funds pending litigation.— A state legislature may authorize a county to loan funds collected for the payment of interest on bonds, pending litigation as to the validity of such bonds, provided no contract be made which will tie up such funds and keep them out of the reach of the bondholders after the conclusion of the litigation. George v. Ralls County, 8 Fed. 647, 3 McCrary 181.

may enforce the same by the ordinary legal proceedings.[38] In some jurisdictions a county holding a mortgage on lands as a security for a loan of county funds cannot buy in such lands at the mortgage sale.[39] Nor, as it has been sometimes held, can the county authorities buy in for the use of the school fund an outstanding tax-title for the purpose of defeating the lien of a mortgage held by a third party which is prior to one existing on the same land in favor of the fund.[40]

c. Repayment of Loans. Under a statute making all debts due a county payable in county scrip or warrants a debt for money loaned by the county is payable in the same, and a tender of the amount due in county scrip or warrants is good.[41] Where a borrower of county funds has repaid the same and the money has actually reached the treasury of the county, the payment is complete, and he cannot be again held liable on the ground that the payment was not made to the proper officer.[42]

5. Adjustment of Accounts — a. With State — (i) Payment of Moneys Into State Treasury.[43] Taxes levied and collected for state purposes must be paid

38. Indiana.— Slaughter v. State, 132 Ind. 465, 31 N. E. 1112; Traylor v. Dykins, 91 Ind. 229.

Iowa.— Miller v. Gregg, 26 Iowa 75.

Missouri.— Walters v. Brooks, 115 Mo. 534, 22 S. W. 514; Walters v. Senf, 115 Mo. 524, 22 S. W. 511; Mitchell v. Nodaway County, 80 Mo. 257; Linville v. Bohanan, 60 Mo. 554; Holt County v. Harmon, 59 Mo. 165; Lincoln County v. McLellan, 3 Mo. App. 312.

New York.— Sherman v. Dodge, 6 Johns. Ch. 107.

Pennsylvania.— Vankirk v. Clark, 16 Serg. & R. 286.

United States.— Alexander v. Knox, 1 Fed. Cas. No. 170, 6 Sawy. 54.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 225.

A circuit court has jurisdiction over proceedings for the foreclosure of a mortgage held by a county. Lincoln County v. McLellan, 3 Mo. App. 312.

Effect of defective advertisement of sale.— Where, under the New York act of April 18, 1786, loans of money were made by county loan officers, and the advertisements of sale on default in payment were not posted in the manner provided in the act, and did not correctly describe the land as to quantity and situation, the sale will be set aside. Sherman v Dodge, 6 Johns. Ch. (N. Y.) 107.

Foreclosure by ex officio trustees of fund.— The auditor, clerk, and recorder of a county being, under Ind. Rev. Stat. (1881), § 3784, ex officio trustees of the county library, they may sue in their own names to foreclose a mortgage taken to secure the loan of library funds. Traylor v. Dykins, 91 Ind. 229.

Purchase of mortgage.— Where the board of commissioners of a county, in regular session, as a loan of money, lying idle, belonging to a fund of such county to be used for building purposes, purchase and take an assignment of a mortgage on real estate, such transaction is not rendered void because no record thereof has been made. Halstead v. Lake County, 56 Ind. 363.

Satisfaction of mortgage by auditor without payment to treasurer.—Where the amount due on a school-fund mortgage was paid to the county auditor, who appropriated the same to his own use, and never paid any part of the same into the treasury of the county, a purchaser, in good faith, of the land, who paid full value therefor without any knowledge whatever that the loan had not in fact been paid, had a right to rely upon the satisfaction of said mortgage as it appeared in the recorder's office, without an examination of the offices of the treasurer and auditor. Finding the school-fund mortgage satisfied by the proper county officers, the only persons who could satisfy the same, the purchaser had the right to presume, without looking further, that the county auditor had proceeded regularly, and that the mortgage debt had in fact been paid to the county treasurer before said satisfaction was entered. Slaughter v. State, 132 Ind. 465, 31 N. E. 1112.

39. Holt County v. Harmon, 59 Mo. 165; Ray County v. Bentley, 49 Mo. 236.

No application to mortgage to secure price of swamp lands.— Under the Missouri act of Feb. 28, 1885, and various previous acts, the absolute title to swamp lands in the different counties was vested in them respectively, and where purchased of the county with a mortgage to secure the purchase-money, the county has the right to buy them in equally as in the case of a purchase by a private mortgagee. Such a purchase is not to be confounded with the purchase of lands, such as state school lands, to which the counties never had a title. Mitchell v. Nodaway County, 80 Mo. 257; Linville v. Bohanan, 60 Mo. 554.

40. Miller v. Gregg, 26 Iowa 75.

41. White v. State, (Ark. 1889) 11 S. W. 765.

42. Poweshiek County v. Allen, 90 Iowa 195, 57 N. W. 706.

43. All money raised by legislative authority upon a county's credit, and for which its corporate bonds had been issued and sold to bona fide purchasers, belong to the county, although the amount realized may be in excess of the amount necessary to accomplish the purpose contemplated by the legislative authorization. Such excess is not the property of the state or recoverable for, or pay-into the state treasury[44] without any deductions for commissions or other charges,[45] unless provision is made for such deduction or allowance,[46] and a county in an action for such taxes by the state through the auditor-general cannot set up by way of a counter-claim a demand of its own against the state.[47] Nor can a county treasurer justify his act in withholding from the state treasury the amount received by him for a state tax, on the ground that the statute imposing the tax in question was void as being in violation of a constitutional provision, and that he is under obligation to refund the moneys collected to the taxpayers.[48]

(II) Duty of County Board to Make Prompt Apportionment. When a statement of account between a county and the state, showing a debt from the former to the latter, is correctly and regularly made, and the ascertained amount is seasonably certified in due form to the clerk, it is the duty of the county board to at once make the proper apportionment upon the taxable property in the county.[49]

(III) When State Entitled to Interest. Interest charges by a state to the several counties have been held proper upon taxes charged back to the county and upon items erroneously credited to the county and thereafter charged back,[50] able into, the state treasury. People v. Ingersoll, 58 N. Y. 1, 17 Am. Rep. 178.

In Indiana the docket-fees taxed to the losing party are to be paid by the clerk into the county treasury, and paid over to the state as her property by the county treasurer. State v. Newton County, 66 Ind. 216.

In Pennsylvania all fees receivable by officers of counties containing over one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants belong to the respective counties, except such fees as are levied by the state. Com. v. Allegheny County, 168 Pa. St. 303, 31 Atl. 1061, 36 Wkly. Notes Cas. 303; Com. v. Mann, 168 Pa. St. 290, 31 Atl. 1003, 36 Wkly. Notes Cas. 297.

44. Idaho.— Cunningham v. Moody, 3 Ida. 125, 28 Pac. 395.

Michigan.— People v. Van Tassel, 73 Mich. 28, 40 N. W. 847.

New York.—People v. Williams, 3 Thomps. & C. 338.

Pennsylvania.— Schuylkill v. Com., 36 Pa. St. 524.

Wyoming.— State v. Laramie County, 8 Wyo. 104, 55 Pac. 451.

Negligence or default of officer.— The county is not relieved from liability for its quota of taxes, because of the negligence of its officers in failing to collect them. State v. Laramie County, 8 Wyo. 104, 55 Pac. 451. But compare Territory v. Bashford, (Ariz. 1887) 12 Pac. 671, holding that where on the default of a county treasurer there is a shortage of moneys collected both for the county and the territory, such shortage is to be apportioned according to the amount each is entitled to receive from the taxes collected.

Insufficiency of officer's bond.— A county's liability is not in any way affected by the insufficiency of the bond taken from the county treasurer, or the failure of the state treasurer to charge on his books against the county the amount remaining unpaid. Schuylkill County v. Com., 36 Pa. St. 524.

45. Cunningham v. Moody, 3 Ida. 125, 28 Pac. 395. See also Bartholomew County v. State, 116 Ind. 329, 19 N. E. 173, where it was held that a judgment of the board of commissioners rejecting a claim filed by a township trustee asking the board to pay into the county treasury, to the credit of the township, school funds unlawfully diverted to the payment of attorney's fees, is not a bar to an action by the state to compel the board to make good the amount so unlawfully diverted.

Settlement between officers and commissioners no bar.— A settlement between the board of commissioners and a county officer does not preclude the state from maintaining an action to recover school funds unlawfully paid to such officer. Jackson County v. State, 106 Ind. 270, 6 N. E. 623.

46. In Schuylkill County v. Com., 36 Pa. St. 524, 535, it was held that if a county's quota of the state tax be not paid by a certain time "the amount remaining unpaid, after deducting such commissions as are or shall be allowed by law for the collection of the same, shall be charged against said county," etc.

Allowance by state to county for collecting tax.— Nev. Stat. (1885), p. 85, § 21, provides that "the state shall allow the several counties, for services rendered, under the revenue act, by the auditor, assessor and treasurer of each county, a sum which shall be the proportion of the state tax to the whole tax levied by the county on the basis of the salaries allowed." The object of such section is to allow each county the stated proportion of the necessary expense it might incur in collecting the state and county tax and no more. State v. La Grave, 24 Nev. 147, 50 Pac. 796.

47. People v. Van Tassel, 73 Mich. 28, 40 N. W. 847.

48. People v. Williams, 3 Thomps. & C. (N. Y.) 338.

49. People v. Jackson County, 24 Mich. 237.

50. Aplin v. Shiawassee County, 74 Mich. 536, 42 N. W. 143.

upon moneys paid for the use of the county for the benefit of the deaf and dumb,[51] and upon annual balances due from the county to the state.[52]

(IV) Right of State to Withhold Funds of Indebted County. A state may withhold the amount due a county on account of funds collected by the state for the several townships of such county, so long as the latter is shown to be indebted to the state.[53]

(V) Recovery Back of Money Paid State. In Indiana it is provided by statute that whenever it appears to the board doing county business in any county that improper or erroneous payments have been made by the county treasurer to the state treasurer, the county auditor is required, under the order and direction of the county board, to certify, under his seal of office, such improper or erroneous payments to the auditor of state, whose duty it is to audit and allow the same as a claim against the state treasurer, and he is required to pay such claim out of any money not otherwise appropriated.[54]

b. With Other Municipalities — (I) Another County. It has been held in one jurisdiction that a county that has illegally collected taxes in another county is liable for such money to the individuals from whom it was collected, but not to the county itself.[55] In another jurisdiction it has been held that where taxes are paid to the wrong county, it is liable therefor to the county to which they rightfully belong.[56] Under a statute conferring authority on county boards "to make such orders concerning the corporate property of the county as they may deem expedient," to "settle and allow all accounts, demands, or causes of action against the county," and to "have the care of the county property, and the management of the business and concerns of the county, in all cases," the respective county boards of two counties which have been created out of one county have authority to agree that tax certificates held by the old county shall be retained by it in settlement of claims which it has against the new one.[57]

(II) Towns, Townships, or Villages. Where taxes due a town, township, or village are by virtue of statute collected by the county treasurer, the county is liable to the township therefor when the treasurer refuses to pay them over.[58] A statute providing for the adjustment of certain taxes between townships and counties, wherein only a part of the territory is organized into townships, has no application to such municipal corporations as cities, towns, or villages.[59] A town-

51. Aplin v. Shiawassee County, 74 Mich. 536, 42 N. W. 143.

52. Auditor-Gen. v. Ottawa County, 76 Mich. 295, 42 N. W. 1101; Aplin v. Shiawassee County, 74 Mich. 536, 42 N. W. 143.

53. Ottawa County v. Alpin, 69 Mich. 1, 36 N. W. 702.

Contra, as to drainage fund from sale of swamp lands.— Where a county was indebted to the state for its proportion of taxes, and the state treasurer had in his possession moneys appropriated to the county, as part of the drainage fund arising from the sale of swamp lands, it was held that the treasurer could not retain the money in his hands to pay the county indebtedness to the state. The proceeds of the sales of the swamp and overflowed lands cannot be diverted from the purposes of the grant by the state authorities, under the constitution of the state, and the act of congress granting the lands. State v. Hastings, 11 Wis. 448. See also State v. Slavan, 11 Wis. 153.

54. Wolfe v. State, 90 Ind. 16.

55. Grant County v. Delaware County, 4 Blackf. (Ind.) 256, and a statute passed subsequently to the collection, directing the county by whom the same was made to pay the money to the other, cannot affect the rights or liabilities of the parties.

56. Humboldt County v. Lander County, 24 Nev. 461, 56 Pac. 228.

57. Hall v. Baker, 74 Wis. 118, 123, 42 N. W. 104.

58. White Sulphur Springs v. Pierce, 21 Mont. 130, 53 Pac. 103; Potter County v. Oswago Tp., 47 Pa. St. 162. And see Oneida v. Madison County, 136 N. Y. 269, 32 N. E. 852.

Mandamus lies by the trustee of a township to compel the auditor to issue a warrant for money apportioned to his township. Manor v. State, 149 Ind. 310, 49 N. E. 160.

Retention of delinquent taxes due county. — A county treasurer, required to pay all moneys shown by it to be due the township to the proper receiving officer, has no right to retain, out of money due a city, a sum equal to the delinquent personal taxes due the county, for collection of which he has issued his warrant to the city treasurer whose duty it is to collect them. Muskegon v. Soderberg, 111 Mich. 559, 69 N. W. 1116.

59. Parkston v. Hutchinson County, 10 S. D. 294, 73 N. W. 76.

ship which has suffered a loss of its funds by the defalcation of the county treasurer is entitled to its proportion of a sum recovered on his bond, but it cannot maintain an action therefor against the county unless its share has actually been covered into the county treasury to the credit of the general fund.[60] If township school-money be wrongfully paid out by the county court no claim arises for reimbursement from the county treasury. The court in managing the township fund does not represent the county, which has no responsibility in the matter.[61]

(III) CITY. Where a county treasurer who is also treasurer of a city mingles and keeps together the moneys of the two corporations, and a deficit occurs during his term of office, the moneys so commingled belong to the two corporations pro rata.[62] Where a city tax-collector, whose statutory duty was to pay over the taxes collected to the city and county treasurers, has paid to the county treasurer a sum he should have paid to the city treasurer, and the county treasurer retained custody of such sum in his official capacity, mandamus will lie to recover such sum, and the collector may proceed in his own name.[63] In Ohio the councils of cities of a certain grade and class are authorized by statute to demand and receive one half of the bridge tax collected upon the property within such cities.[64] Where a statute provides that certain damages caused by laying out roads or streets in cities or boroughs of a certain county shall be paid from the county treasury, the city is primarily liable regardless of further provisions as to the liability of the city to the county, and the property holder must resort to the county treasury and the county to the city, and the question of the city's liability can be raised only in a proceeding between the county and city.[65]

6. REPORTS AS TO COUNTY FINANCES. In some states the county commissioners are required by statute to make annually a detailed report in writing of their financial transactions during the year next preceding the time of making such report,[66] showing the date, amount, for what, and to whom each payment of money from the public funds was made.[67]

C. Aid to Corporations and Investments in Stock — 1. RIGHTS OF COUNTIES IN GENERAL. Although a county having no inherent right of legislation cannot aid public improvements by making appropriations or by subscribing for stock in the same, unless authorized to do so by the legislature, either expressly or by implication,[68] yet the legislatures of the various states have the right, unless restrained by the organic law of the state,[69] and within the limits thereby

60. Vigo Tp. v. Knox County, 111 Ind. 170, 12 N. E. 305. See also Guittard v. Marshall County Com'rs, 4 Kan. 388, holding that where a county collects taxes for the towns within its limits it is not liable to them for their pro rata share, until the taxes are paid into the county treasury.

61. Township Bd. of Education v. Boyd, 58 Mo. 276.

62. Clark County Com'rs v. Springfield, 36 Ohio St. 643.

63. Webster v. Wheeler, 119 Mich. 601, 78 N. W. 657.

64. State v. Board of County Com'rs, 6 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 225.

65. Lancaster County v. Frey, 128 Pa. St. 593, 18 Atl. 478, 24 Wkly. Notes Cas. (Pa.) 568.

66. State v. Washington County, 56 Ohio St. 631, 47 N. E. 565; State v. Preble County, 6 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 268, 4 Ohio N. P. 177; State v. Gage, 2 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 613; Schuylkill County v. Snyder, 20 Pa. Co. Ct. 649.

67. State v. Gage, 2 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 613.

68. Arkansas.— Hancock v. Chicot County, 32 Ark. 575; English v. Chicot County, 26 Ark. 454.

Florida.— Jefferson County v. Hawkins, 23 Fla. 223, 2 So. 362; Jefferson County v. Lewis, 20 Fla. 980.

Illinois.— Choisser v. People, 140 Ill. 21, 29 N. E. 546; Colton v. Hanchett, 13 Ill. 615.

Indiana.— Driftwood Valley Turnpike Co. v. Bartholomew County, 72 Ind. 226; Delaware County v. McClintock, 51 Ind. 325; Harney v. Indianapolis, etc., R. Co., 32 Ind. 244.

Iowa.— State v. Wapello County, 13 Iowa 388; Clapp v. Cedar County, 5 Iowa 15, 68 Am. Dec. 678.

Maryland.— Baltimore, etc., R. Co. v. Pumphrey, 74 Md. 86, 21 Atl. 559.

United States.— Thompson v. Lee County, 3 Wall. 327, 18 L. ed. 177.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 228.

69. Reineman v. Covington, etc., R. Co., 7 Nebr. 310.

Prohibition of donations.— In some jurisdictions the state legislature has no power to imposed,[70] to authorize counties to aid in the construction of railroads or other works of internal improvement, by appropriations, donations, or subscriptions to stock,[71] to borrow the money necessary for such purpose, and to levy taxes to authorize donations by counties to railroads and such donations are absolutely void. Colorado Cent. R. Co. v. Lea, 5 Colo. 192; Ellis v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 77 Wis. 114, 45 N. W. 811; Bound v. Wisconsin Cent. R. Co., 45 Wis. 543; Whiting v. Sheboygan, etc., R. Co., 25 Wis. 167, 3 Am. Rep. 30.

Not within prohibitions of donations.—In Wisconsin a distinction is made between the case of donations of money or property to a railroad company and subscriptions to its stock and payment in money or bonds, and such subscriptions may be authorized by the legislature, notwithstanding the prohibitions of donations of money or credit. Ellis v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 77 Wis. 114, 45 N. W. 811; Bound v. Wisconsin Cent. R. Co., 45 Wis. 543; Single v. Marathon County Sup'rs, 38 Wis. 363; Roberts v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 158 U. S. 1, 15 S. Ct. 756, 39 L. ed. 873.

Prohibition of gift of money or property or loan of money or credit.— In a number of the states the constitution expressly provides that no county can be authorized to give any money or property or to loan its money or credit to or in aid of any individual, association, or corporation, etc.

Alabama.— Garland v. Board of Revenue, 87 Ala. 223, 6 So. 402.

New York.— In re Greene, 166 N. Y. 485, 60 N. E. 183 [affirming 55 N. Y. App. Div. 475, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 291].

Ohio.— Taylor v. Ross County Com'rs, 23 Ohio St. 22; Delaware County Com'rs v. Andrews, 18 Ohio St. 49.

Pennsylvania.— Wilkesbarre City Hospital v. Luzerne County, 84 Pa. St. 55.

Washington.— Lancey v. King County, 15 Wash. 9, 45 Pac. 645, 34 L. R. A. 817.

Prohibition as to stock-holding.— In addition to the provisions above mentioned the constitutions of some states also prohibit a county from becoming a stock-holder either directly or indirectly in any association, company, or corporation. McClure v. Owen, 26 Iowa 243; State v. Wapello, 13 Iowa 388 [overruling Dubuque County v. Dubuque, etc., R. Co., 4 Greene (Iowa) 1, and approving Stokes v. Scott County, 10 Iowa 166]; Whitney v. Kentucky Midland R. Co., 110 Ky. 955, 63 S. W. 24, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 472; Municipal Security Co. v. Baker County, 39 Oreg. 396, 65 Pac. 369; Wilkesbarre City Hospital v. Luzerne, 84 Pa. St. 55; Lancey v. King County, 15 Wash. 9, 45 Pac. 645, 34 L. R. A. 817. See also Jefferson County v. Burlington, etc., R. Co., 66 Iowa 385, 16 N. W. 561, 23 N. W. 899.

In Iowa although, as has been seen, a county is prohibited from becoming a stockholder, this does not apparently affect the right of a county to vote a tax to aid in its construction (Harwood, etc., R. Co. v. Case, 37 Iowa 692) or to convey its swamp lands to a railroad company in aid of the construction of its road upon submitting the question to a popular vote (Cedar Rapids, etc., R. Co. v. Boone County, 34 Iowa 45).

A conveyance of land by a county to a railroad company in consideration of one dollar and the construction of a road through the county, and building of wharves, etc., is a sale and not a donation. Roberts v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 158 U. S. 1, 15 S. Ct. 756, 39 L. ed. 873 [affirming 42 Fed. 734].

Surrender of shares of a railroad company which are owned by the county constitutes a donation. Colorado Cent. R. Co. v. Lea, 5 Colo. 192.

70. As for instance the limits imposed by the constitution upon the amount of the subscription or donation. Reineman v. Covington, etc., R. Co., 7 Nebr. 310. See also Hedges v. Dixon County, 150 U. S. 182, 14 S. Ct. 71, 37 L. ed. 1044 [affirming 37 Fed. 204].

Application to single subscriptions only.— Where a state law confers a general power on a county to subscribe to the stock of any railroad in the state for any amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, the county may subscribe to the stock of two or more railroads one hundred thousand dollars to each. Chicot County v. Lewis, 103 U. S. 164, 26 L. ed. 495.

Interest due on previous unpaid donations in aid of works of internal improvement should not be considered in determining whether the amount of such donations exceed the constitutional limitation. Jones v. Hurlburt, 13 Nebr. 125, 13 N. W. 5.

The limitation imposed by the Nebraska constitution applies only to indebtedness to aid in construction of works of internal improvement. Bridges built by a county on its highways and wholly within the county are not such works. De Clerq v. Hager, 12 Nebr. 185, 10 N. W. 697.

71. California.— Robinson v. Bidwell, 22 Cal. 379; Pattison v. Yuba County, 13 Cal. 175.

Florida.— Cotten v. Leon County Com'rs, 6 Fla. 610.

Illinois.— Scates v. King, 110 Ill. 456; Prettyman v. Tazewell County Sup'rs, 19 Ill. 406, 71 Am. Dec. 230.

Indiana.— Lafayette, etc., R. Co. v. Geiger, 34 Ind. 185.

Kansas.—Morris v. Morris County Com'rs, 7 Kan. 576; State v. Nemaha County Com'rs, 7 Kan. 542; Leavenworth County Com'rs v. Miller, 7 Kan. 479, 12 Am. Rep. 425.

Kentucky.— Allison v. Louisville, etc., R. Co., 9 Bush 247; Shelby County Ct. v. Cumberland, etc., R. Co., 8 Bush 209.

Missouri.— Spurlock v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 90 Mo. 199, 2 S. W. 219; Osage Valley, etc., R. Co. v. Morgan County Ct., 53 Mo. 156; St. Joseph, etc., R. Co. v. Buchanan County Ct., 39 Mo. 485.

Nebraska.— State v. Babcock, 19 Nebr. 230, repay the same either with or without the sanction of a popular vote.[72] Such authority when conferred must be strictly pursued.[73]

2. Requisites and Validity of Subscriptions or Donations — a. Necessity For Compliance With Statute. Where authority is given by statute to counties to extend aid to railroads or other internal improvements by subscribing to the stock

27 N. W. 98; De Clerq v. Hager, 12 Nebr. 185, 10 N. W. 697; Reineman v. Covington, etc., R. Co., 7 Nebr. 310; Hamlin v. Meadville, 6 Nebr. 227.

Nevada.— Gibson v. Mason, 5 Nev. 283.

New Mexico.— Coler v. Santa Fe County, 6 N. M. 88, 27 Pac. 619.

North Carolina.— Hill v. Forsythe County Com'rs, 67 N. C. 367; Caldwell v. Burke County Justices, 57 N. C. 323.

South Carolina.— State v. Chester, etc., R. Co., 13 S. C. 290; Glenn v. York County Com'rs, 6 S. C. 412.

Tennessee.— Nelson v. Haywood County, 87 Tenn. 781, 11 S. W. 885, 4 L. R. A. 648; Mulloy v. Nashville, etc., R. Co., 8 Lea 427; Lauderdale County v. Fargason, 7 Lea 153; Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Davidson County Ct., 1 Sneed 637, 62 Am. Dec. 424.

Texas.— Austin v. Gulf, etc., R. Co., 45 Tex. 234.

Virginia.— Powell v. Brunswick County, 88 Va. 707, 14 S. E. 543; Taylor v. Board of Sup'rs, 86 Va. 506, 10 S. E. 433.

United States.— Roberts v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 158 U. S. 1, 15 S. Ct. 756, 39 L. ed. 873; Howard County v. Boonville Cent. Nat. Bank, 108 U. S. 314, 2 S. Ct. 689, 27 L. ed. 738; Moultrie County v. Fairfield, 105 U. S. 370, 26 L. ed. 945; Clay County v. Savings Soc., 104 U. S. 579, 26 L. ed. 856; Chicot County v. Lewis, 103 U. S. 164, 26 L. ed. 495; Macon County v. Shores, 97 U. S. 272, 24 L. ed. 889; Randolph County v. Post, 93 U. S. 502, 23 L. ed. 957; Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Otoe County, 16 Wall. 667, 21 L. ed. 375; Kenicott v. Wayne County, 16 Wall. 452, 21 L. ed. 319; Thompson v. Lee County, 3 Wall. 327, 18 L. ed. 177; Wilkes County v. Coler, 113 Fed. 725, 51 C. C. A. 399; Stanly County v. Coler, 96 Fed. 284, 37 C. C. A. 484 [reversing 89 Fed. 257]; Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Roberts, 42 Fed. 734; Bissit v. Kentucky R. Nav. Co., 15 Fed. 353; Stebbins v. Pueblo County, 4 Fed. 282, 2 McCrary 196; Woodward v. Calhoun County, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 18,002.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 228.

Legislature may authorize portion of county to issue bonds and subscribe to stock. Hancock v. Louisville, etc., R. Co., 145 U. S. 409, 12 S. Ct. 969, 36 L. ed. 755.

Subscriptions toties quoties as required.— Under the charter of a railroad company providing that any counties through which the road passed might subscribe for any such amount of the capital stock as the majority of the voters of the county might approve such subscriptions may be made toties quoties, as the emergencies of the undertaking may require. Caldwell v. Burke County Justices, 57 N. C. 323.

Applicable to railroads organized under subsequent statute.— A statute authorizing counties to take stock in railroads is applicable to a railroad duly organized under a subsequent statute. Stebbins v. Pueblo County, 4 Fed. 282, 2 McCrary 196.

Aid to foreign corporations.— Unless prohibited by statute the legislature may empower a county to aid the construction of a road of a foreign corporation. St. Joseph, etc., Co. v. Buchanan County Ct., 39 Mo. 485; Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Otoe County, 16 Wall. (U. S.) 667, 21 L. ed. 375.

Subscriptions to stock of coal-mining company.— A corporation with authority to construct, complete, and operate a railroad is not the less a railroad company within the statute authorizing municipal subscriptions because it is also a coal-mining, a furnace, or a manufacturing company. Randolph County v. Post, 93 U. S. 502, 23 L. ed. 957.

Aid in construction of branch roads.— A railroad constructed from the junction of the main line of one railroad with another, but extending in a different direction, is a branch road within the meaning of a statute authorizing the issue of bonds by a county through which it passes, for the construction of a branch. Howard County v. Boonville Cent. Nat. Bank, 108 U. S. 314, 2 S. Ct. 689, 27 L. ed. 738.

Aid by counties through which connecting lines run.— The charter of the Mt. Vernon Railroad Company, passed Feb. 15, 1855, provided that any county through which that road might run, and every county through which any other railroad might run, with which the Mt. Vernon railroad might be joined, connected, or intersected, were authorized to aid in the construction of the same, etc. In 1859 the Mt. Vernon Railroad Company issued certain construction bonds, to secure which the county of Wayne conveyed its swamp and overflowed lands, in trust. The Mt. Vernon railroad did not, and could not, under its charter, run through Wayne county, nor did any other railroad run through that county with which that road was joined, connected, or intersected. So the condition upon which Wayne county might aid in the construction of the Mt. Vernon railroad did not exist, and the deed of trust executed for that purpose was made without the power or authority in the county to do so, and was therefore void. Scates v. King, 110 Ill. 456.

72. Thompson v. Lee County, 3 Wall. (U. S.) 327, 18 L. ed. 177; Woodward v. Calhoun County, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 18,002. And see State v. Chester, etc., R. Co., 13 S. C. 290.

73. Choisser v. People, 140 Ill. 21, 29 N. E. 546.

of the same, such statutes must be strictly followed, and such subscription can be made only for the purpose,[74] through the officers and agents authorized,[75] and in the manner and upon the terms provided by such statute.[76]

b. Validation or Ratification of Defective Proceedings. A state legislature has the power to pass a law remedying defects or irregularities in the exercise by a county of the power to give aid to railroads,[77] which will be effective, although

74. Winchester, etc., Turnpike Road Co. v. Clark County Ct., 3 Metc. (Ky.) 140.

75. County commissioners.—People v. Pueblo County, 2 Colo. 360; Com. v. Perkins, 43 Pa. St. 400; Mercer County v. Pittsburgh, etc., R. Co., 27 Pa. St. 389.

County court.— Mercer County Ct. v. Kentucky River Nav. Co., 8 Bush (Ky.) 300; Winchester, etc., Turnpike Road Co. v. Clark County Ct., 3 Metc. (Ky.) 140; Rubey v. Shain, 54 Mo. 207; Bates County v. Winters, 112 U. S. 325, 5 S. Ct. 157, 28 L. ed. 744; Cass County v. Gillett, 100 U. S. 585, 25 L. ed. 585; Bissit v. Kentucky River Nav. Co., 15 Fed. 353.

By agent appointed by county court to make a subscription to stock. Bates County v. Winters, 112 U. S. 325, 5 S. Ct. 157, 28 L. ed. 744.

Amount to be fixed by grand jury.— Mercer County v. Pittsburgh, etc., R. Co., 27 Pa. St. 389; Woods v. Lawrence County, 1 Black (U. S.) 386, 17 L. ed. 122. See also Curtis v. Butler County, 24 How. (U. S.) 435, 16 L. ed. 745.

Recommendation insufficient to confer authority.— In Frick v. Mercer County, 138 Pa. St. 523, 21 Atl. 6, it was held that under a statute authorizing subscriptions by a county to the stock of a railroad company, subject to the restriction inter alia that the amount should be designated by the grand jury, a recommendation by the grand jury of a subscription not exceeding a certain amount conferred upon the commissioners no authority to make any subscription whatever.

Right of grand jury to fix time and manner of payment.— Where a county is authorized to subscribe to the stock of a railroad company, the amount thereof not to exceed a certain amount to be determined and approved by the grand jury of the county, it is not necessary for the grand jury to fix the manner and terms of the payment of such subscription. Woods v. Lawrence County, 1 Black (U. S.) 386, 17 L. ed. 122.

Effect of subscribing less than amount recommended.— The fact that one grand jury requested the commissioners to subscribe twenty thousand shares to the capital stock of the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company, and the commissioners subscribed but fifteen thousand, in no way invalidates the subscription made. Com. v. Perkins, 43 Pa. St. 400.

76. Winchester, etc., Turnpike Road Co. v. Clark County Ct., 3 Metc. (Ky.) 140.

Actual manual subscription unnecessary.— An actual manual subscription on the books of a railroad company is not necessary to entitle a county to the stock of such company, nor to bind it as a subscriber thereto. Bates County v. Winters, 112 U. S. 325, 5 S. Ct. 157, 28 L. ed. 744; Cass County v. Gillett, 100 U. S. 585, 25 L. ed. 585.

Necessity for express contract.— A county, by voting to subscribe for stock in a railway company, and to issue bonds in payment therefor, does not thereby create a contract between the county and the railway company for that purpose. It makes no difference that the vote of the county is to subscribe for the stock and to issue the bonds upon certain conditions, which conditions the railway company afterward performs. Where stock has not been subscribed for, and no express contract is made by the county to subscribe therefor, the county is not bound to issue the bonds upon tender of the stock by the railway company to the county. Land Grant R., etc., Co. v. Davis County, 6 Kan. 256.

Payment in tax certificates.— Tax certificates are "other property" within the meaning of Wis. Rev. Stat. § 949, providing that a county may make a subscription to the capital stock of a railroad company, "to be paid in money, lands, or other property." Hall v. Baker, 74 Wis. 118, 42 N. W. 104.

Publication of act authorizing subscription. — The provision of Md. Const. art. 3, § 54, that no county shall contract any debt or obligation in the construction of a railroad, or give or loan its credit to a corporation, unless authorized by an act of assembly which shall be published for two months before the next election for members of the house of delegates in the newspapers published in said counties, is mandatory. Baltimore, etc., R. Co. v. Pumphrey, 74 Md. 86, 21 Atl. 559.

Subscription executory till actually made. — The mere vote to subscribe does not of itself form such a contract with the railroad company as will be protected by article 1, section 10, of the constitution of the United States, but until the subscription is actually made the contract is unexecuted. Cumberland, etc., R. Co. v. Barren County Ct., 10 Bush (Ky.) 604.

When subscription complete.— If the body or agency having authority to make such a subscription passes an ordinance or resolution to the effect that it does thereby, in the name and on behalf of the municipality, subscribe a specified amount of stock, and presents a copy of that ordinance or resolution to the company for acceptance as a subscription, and the company does in fact accept, and notifies the municipality or its proper agent to that effect, the contract of subscription is complete and binds the parties according to its terms. Bates County v. Winters, 112 U. S. 325, 3 S. Ct. 157, 28 L. ed. 744.

77. Bartholomew County v. Bright, 18 Ind. 93; McMillen v. Boyles, 6 Iowa 304; Atchi-enacted after the commencement of a suit based on alleged defects in such proceedings.[78] It has been held, however, that such acts are designed merely to cure irregularities and to remove all technical hindrances to the carrying into effect of the will of the majority, and will not have the effect to legalize illegal votes,[79] or to authorize or validate a subscription made without the holding of the required election and submission of the question to a popular vote, as required by law,[80] since to do so would be to impose an obligation upon a municipality without its consent legally expressed.[81] It has also been held that when the original subscription is not binding by reason of its irregularity, the parties may by their subsequent conduct so ratify and acquiesce in the subscription as to estop the county to deny the validity thereof.[82]

c. By What Laws Validity Determined. The validity of a county subscription, donation, or other aid to internal improvements is to be determined by the laws in force when the same is made;[83] and a subsequent repeal of the authorizing laws after subscription or donation but before payment will not invalidate such donation or subscription or release the county.[84]

3. Submission to Popular Vote — a. Necessity For Submission. A state legislature may if it sees fit authorize a county to aid in works of internal improvement, such as railroads, turnpikes, river navigation companies, etc., by subscribing for stock in the same without requiring the proposition of thus extending aid to be submitted to a popular vote of the inhabitants of the county,[85] and where such submission is not required by the state constitution at the time of granting the charter to the company containing a provision granting this permission, such permission is not abrogated or affected by a subsequent constitutional provision or general act of the legislature, requiring a popular vote to authorize such sub-son, etc., R. Co. v. Jefferson County Com'rs, 17 Kan. 29; Hall v. Baker, 74 Wis. 118, 42 N. W. 104.

78. Hall v. Baker, 74 Wis. 118, 42 N. W. 104.

79. Atchison, etc., R. Co. v. Jefferson County Com'rs, 17 Kan. 29.

80. Choisser v. People, 140 Ill. 21, 29 N. E. 546; Atchison, etc., R. Co. v. Jefferson County Com'rs, 17 Kan. 29; Norton v. Shelby County, 118 U. S. 425, 6 S. Ct. 1121, 30 L. ed. 178.

81. Choisser v. People, 140 Ill. 21, 29 N. E. 546.

82. Bissit v. Kentucky River Nav. Co., 15 Fed. 353.

The county judge's voting the amount of stock proposed to be subscribed for by the county, in meetings of the stock-holders of a railroad company, does not bind the county to the subscription as by a ratification or estoppel. Cumberland, etc., R. Co. v. Barren County Ct., 10 Bush (Ky.) 604.

83. Callaway County v. Foster, 93 U. S. 567, 23 L. ed. 911.

The saving clause in the proviso of separate section 2 of the Illinois constitution of 1870, in regard to municipal subscriptions, to the effect that the section shall not affect the right to make such subscriptions, where the same have been authorized "under existing laws, under a vote of the people," etc., prior to the adoption of the constitution, refers to and embraces subscriptions that had been authorized by a vote of the people, under laws existing at the time the vote was taken. Under this proviso, the subscription, to be saved, must have been authorized by a vote of the people, and therefore a subscription legalized by an act of the legislature, but not made in proper time, is excluded. All curative acts legalizing such votes, not acted upon by the municipality before the constitution took effect, were repealed by that instrument. Williams v. People, 132 Ill. 574, 24 N. E. 647.

84. Nelson v. Haywood County, 87 Tenn. 781, 11 S. W. 885, 4 L. R. A. 648; Fairfield v. Gallatin County, 100 U. S. 47, 25 L. ed. 544; Callaway County v. Foster, 93 U. S. 567, 23 L. ed. 911; Moultrie County v. Rockingham Sav. Bank, 92 U. S. 631, 23 L. ed. 631.

Completion of contract by subsequent issue of bonds in payment of donation or of subscription to stock. Nelson v. Haywood County, 87 Tenn. 781, 11 S. W. 885, 4 L. R. A. 648; Fairfield v. Gallatin County, 100 U. S. 47, 25 L. ed. 544; Moultrie County v. Rockingham Sav. Bank, 92 U. S. 631, 23 L. ed. 631.

85. Pattison v. Yuba County, 13 Cal. 175; Howard County v. Paddock, 110 U. S. 384, 4 S. Ct. 24, 28 L. ed. 171; Foster v. Callaway County, 9 Fed. Cas. No. 4,967, 3 Dill. 200 [affirmed in 93 U. S. 567, 23 L. ed. 911].

Where a special act provides for the subscription without a vote.— Where a special act provides for the subscription by a certain county to stock of a certain turnpike company, without a vote of the people, a general act of later date, providing that all counties may subscribe to stock in turnpike companies within their borders, upon a favorable vote of the people, does not repeal the special act and does not make a vote necessary for the subscription therein provided. Foreman v. Murphy, 7 Bush (Ky.) 303.

scriptions by the county.[86] So when the charter of a railway company permits counties to subscribe to its stock without a popular vote, such authority is not extinguished by the subsequent consolidation of that company with others.[87] In a number of the states, however, constitutional provisions or acts of the legislature expressly require submission to a popular vote as a condition precedent to the exercise of any authority or power on the part of a county to make a subscription or levy a tax.[88]

b. Application For Submission. The usual methods of securing such submission are by petition or proposal therefor, by the commissioners of the road, or its directors if organized,[89] or by a petition signed by the required proportion of 86. Slack v. Maysville, etc., R. Co., 13 B. Mon. (Ky.) 1; State v. Greene County, 54 Mo. 540; Smith v. Clark County, 54 Mo. 58; State v. Sullivan County Ct., 51 Mo. 522; Howard County v. Paddock, 110 U. S. 384, 4 S. Ct. 24, 28 L. ed. 171; Cass County v. Gillett, 100 U. S. 585, 25 L. ed. 585; Henry County v. Nicolay, 95 U. S. 619, 24 L. ed. 394; Scotland County v. Thomas, 94 U. S. 682, 24 L. ed. 219; Callaway County v. Foster, 93 U. S. 567, 23 L. ed. 911; Huidekoper v. Dallas County, 12 Fed. Cas. No. 6,850, 3 Dill. 171. Contra, State v. Dallas County Ct., 72 Mo. 329; State v. Garroutte, 67 Mo. 445, holding that Mo. Sess. Acts (1861), p. 60, withdrew the power conferred on the county courts by the charter of certain railroad companies to subscribe to the stock of such companies without first submitting the question to a vote of the people. In both these cases the opinion was by Sherwood, C. J., Henry and Norton, JJ., concurring, and Napton and Hough, JJ., dissenting, on the ground that the doctrine of stare decisis demanded an adherence to the decision in the case of Smith v. Clark County, 54 Mo. 58.

87. Schuyler County v. Thomas, 98 U. S. 169, 25 L. ed. 88 [affirming 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,909, 3 Dill. 7].

88. California.— Robinson v. Bidwell, 22 Cal. 397.

Illinois.— Choisser v. People, 140 Ill. 21, 29 N. E. 546; Onstott v. People, 123 Ill. 489, 15 N. E. 34; People v. Logan County, 63 Ill. 374.

Indiana.— Nixon v. Campbell, 106 Ind. 47, 4 N. E. 296, 7 N. E. 258; Garrigus v. Parke County, 39 Ind. 66.

Kansas.— Atchison, etc., R. Co. v. Jefferson County Com'rs, 17 Kan. 29; Morris v. Morris County Com'rs, 7 Kan. 576; Leavenworth County Com'rs v. Miller, 7 Kan. 479, 12 Am. Rep. 425.

Kentucky.— Kentucky Union R. Co. v. Bourbon County, 85 Ky. 98, 2 S. W. 687, 8 Ky. L. Rep. 881; Madison County Ct. v. Richmond, etc., R. Co., 80 Ky. 16, 3 Ky. L. Rep. 501; Foreman v. Murphy, 7 Bush 303; Bullock v. Curry, 2 Metc. 171; Brown v. Tinsley, 21 S. W. 535, 14 Ky. L. Rep. 745.

Louisiana.—Vicksburg, etc., R. Co. v. Scott, 52 La. Ann. 512, 27 So. 137; Webster Parish v. Police Jury, 52 La. Ann. 465, 27 So. 102.

Maryland.—Baltimore, etc., R. Co. v. Pumphrey, 74 Md. 86, 21 Atl. 559.

Mississippi.— Hawkins v. Carroll County, 50 Miss. 735.

Missouri.— State v. Dallas County Ct., 72 Mo. 329; State v. Curators State University, 58 Mo. 178; State v. Sullivan County, 51 Mo. 522; State v. Saline County Ct., 51 Mo. 350, 11 Am. Rep. 454; Leavenworth, etc., R. Co. v. Platte County Ct., 42 Mo. 171; State v. Macon County Ct., 41 Mo. 453; St. Joseph, etc., R. Co. v. Buchanan County Ct., 39 Mo. 485.

Nebraska.— Jones v. Hurlburt, 13 Nebr. 125, 13 N. W. 5.

North Carolina.— Claybrook v. Rockingham County, 114 N. C. 453, 19 S. E. 593, subscription to stock.

South Carolina.— Trimmier v. Bomar, 20 S. C. 354.

Tennessee.— Colburn v. Chattanooga Western R. Co., 94 Tenn. 43, 28 S. W. 298; Winston v. Tennessee, etc., R. Co., 1 Baxt. 60; Humphreys County v. McAdoo, 7 Heisk. 585; Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Davidson County Ct., 1 Sneed 637, 62 Am. Dec. 424.

Virginia.— Taylor v. Board of Sup'rs, 86 Va. 506, 10 S. E. 433.

United States.—Knox County v. New York City Ninth Nat. Bank, 147 U. S. 91, 13 S. Ct. 267, 37 L. ed. 93; Meriwether v. Muhlenberg County Ct., 120 U. S. 354, 7 S. Ct. 563, 30 L. ed. 653; Norton v. Shelby County, 118 U. S. 425, 6 S. Ct. 1121, 30 L. ed. 178; Olcott v. Fond du Lac County, 16 Wall. 678, 21 L. ed. 382; Stanly County v. Coler, 113 Fed. 705, 96 Fed. 284, 37 C. C. A. 484; Deland v. Platte County, 54 Fed. 823.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 231.

Construction of railroad a county purpose. — The construction of a railroad through a county or a municipal corporation is a county or corporation purpose, within the meaning of Tenn. Const. art. 2, § 29; and the fact that the road runs into or through other counties or states, or is owned or managed in whole or in part by others, cannot deprive it of this character. Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Davidson County Ct., 1 Sneed (Tenn.) 637, 62 Am. Dec. 424.

The issue of county bonds in aid of a school of mines and metallurgy supported by the state, although under the authority of a statute, is a loaning of the credit of the county to a corporation within the meaning of a constitutional provision requiring a two-thirds vote of the inhabitants of the county to authorize such a loan. State v. Curators State University, 57 Mo. 178.

89. Fayette County Ct. v. Lexington, etc., R. Co., 17 B. Mon. (Ky.) 335; Louisville, the taxpayers of the county.[90] Such petition must be sufficiently definite and certain to prevent any misapprehension of the intention of the petitioners,[91] and must be presented to the board of commissioners or commissioners' court of the county at a regular or special session thereof.[92]

c. Requisites of Submission. Such submission must be by order of the proper county authorities,[93] and to render the election of any validity, and to confer any etc., R. Co. v. Davidson County Ct., 1 Sneed (Tenn.) 637, 62 Am. Dec. 424.

Application by commissioners appointed to organize company.— The order of a county court for an election to determine whether or not the county shall subscribe for stock in a railroad company and issue bonds to pay therefor will not be vitiated by the fact that the application was made in the name of the commissioners appointed by the legislature to organize the company, although at the time the company had been organized and the directors elected, who were the proper agents of the company to make the application. Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. State, 8 Heisk. (Tenn.) 663.

Subscription to stock and election of directors as requisite to proposal.— A railroad company, incorporated under the Alabama act entitled, "An act to provide for the creation and regulation of railroad companies in the State of Alabama," approved Dec. 29, 1868 (Pamphl. Acts, p. 462), is not in a condition to make a proposition for county subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, until ten per cent of its capital stock has been subscribed, and a board of directors elected by the stock-holders and qualified as provided by the ninth section of said act. Trammell v. Pennington, 45 Ala. 673.

90. Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Chase County, 43 Kan. 760, 23 Pac. 1064.

91. Jussen v. Lake County, 95 Ind. 567, where it was held that such a petition for aid, asking for an appropriation by the "board of commissioners" rather than by "the township," is not so defective as to mislead any one, and also that such a petition is not invalid because of failure to state whether the amount shall be donated to the company or invested in its capital stock, nor because it asks for an appropriation to the company "or its successor by consolidation."

92. Jussen v. Lake County, 95 Ind. 567. See also to same effect Ex p. Selma, etc., R. Co., 46 Ala. 230.

93. County courts.— Richland County v. People, 3 Ill. App. 210; Bowling Green, etc., R. Co. v. Warren County Ct., 10 Bush (Ky.) 711; Fayette County Ct. v. Lexington, etc., R. Co., 17 B. Mon. (Ky.) 335; Clark v. Leathers, 5 S. W. 576, 9 Ky. L. Rep. 558; Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Davidson County Ct., 1 Sneed (Tenn.) 637, 62 Am. Dec. 424. Under the Illinois act of March 1, 1867, vesting in the county court power to call an election for a subscription in excess of one hundred thousand dollars by a county in aid of a railroad, an election for such a subscription, at the call of the county supervisor, is void. Richland County v. People, 3 Ill. App. 210. Under the Kentucky act of Feb. 28, 1873, providing that whenever the president and directors of the company shall in writing request the county court of any county through which it is proposed to construct its railroad to do so, such court may submit to qualified voters of the county the question whether said court shall subscribe to the capital stock of the company for and in behalf of the county, either absolutely, or upon such terms and conditions as may be proposed by the company, the company is the judge of the character of the proposition it will present, and the county court has discretionary power to submit or not to submit the question of subscription to the voters of the county, they having the ultimate power of adoption or rejection. Madison County Ct. v. Richmond, etc., R. Co., 80 Ky. 16, 3 Ky. L. Rep. 501. It is not necessary for the county justices to sit with the county court. Brown v. Tinsley, 21 S. W. 535, 14 Ky. L. Rep. 745; Meriwether v. Muhlenburg County Ct., 120 U. S. 354, 7 S. Ct. 563, 30 L. ed. 653.

Duty of court to order election upon application of majority of commissioners or directors of road. Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Davidson County Ct., 1 Sneed (Tenn.) 637, 62 Am. Dec. 424.

Order by county judge while holding county court.— Where the time for holding an election to determine upon a subscription to the stock of a turnpike company is to be set by the county judge, the fact that the latter at the time he entered the order was sitting as judge of the county court will not affect the validity of the proceeding. Clark v. Leathers, 5 S. W. 576, 9 Ky. L. Rep. 558.

Call by county boards.— Under section 330 of the Iowa revision conferring upon boards of supervisors the jurisdiction and powers formerly possessed by county judges, a county board of supervisors has authority to call a special election for the ratification of a contract between the county and a railroad company, under which the swamp lands of the county are to be conveyed to the company in aid of the construction of a railroad. Cedar Rapids, etc., R. Co. v. Boone County, 34 Iowa 45.

Validity of unsigned order.— In Goddard v. Stockman, 74 Ind. 400, it was held to be no objection to the validity of an election for the purpose of voting aid to a railroad that the board of county commissioners did not sign the order for election at the time it was issued by them.

Specification of name of corporation.— An order submitting to the voters of a county a proposition to subscribe stock in aid of a railroad under the general railroad law of authority by it, all the requisites of the statute must be complied with, in reference to each question or proposition submitted by them.[94] The proposition should be free from conditions and qualifications,[95] and should be definite and certain as to the property to be conveyed and its value,[96] and in its designation of the recipient of the proposed donation,[97] although it has been held that in submitting to the voters of a county the question whether the county shall extend aid in the construction of a railroad, it is improper to submit more than one project or proposition at one time,[98] yet it has also been held that the mere fact that there was a submission of several different questions at the same time will not of itself invalidate the proceedings under such submission where all the other steps are regular, and each proposition is complete in itself so as to afford to the voters an opportunity to express their opinion upon each question separately.[99] Where the submission contains an unlawful proposition, this will invalidate, and an election held in pursuance thereof will be void.[1] The commissioners of a county cannot properly submit to its voters a proposition to vote for or against an appropriation to two or more railroad companies at the same time, when the proposition is so submitted that the voters cannot vote for one and against the other, but must vote for or against both.[2]

d. Notice of Election. Due notice of the intended election should be given,[3] specifying the sum to be appropriated,[4] and in some jurisdictions stating the point

Missouri need not specify the name of the corporation, where the proposition describes the proposed route of the road with the requisite certainty. New York City Ninth Nat. Bank v. Knox County, 37 Fed. 75. See also Block v. Bourbon County, 99 U. S. 698, 25 L. ed. 491; Johnson County v. Thayer, 94 U. S. 631, 24 L. ed. 133.

94. McMillan v. Lee County, 3 Iowa 311.

95. Jones v. Hurlburt, 13 Nebr. 125, 13 N. W. 5.

96. Sufficient definiteness as to property and value.— A proposition by a railroad company that a county make a subscription to its capital stock, to be paid by conveying to the company all the lands which the county owned and which were not occupied for public purposes when the proposition should be accepted, and by transferring all the tax certificates which the county then owned and which should come to its possession before the completion of the road, was sufficiently definite as to the property and its value, although no lands or tax certificates were specifically described. Hall v. Baker, 74 Wis. 118, 42 N. W. 104.

97. Jones v. Hurlburt, 13 Nebr. 125, 13 N. W. 5, holding that a proposition to extend aid "to the Lincoln & Northwestern Railroad Company, or the Blue Valley Railroad Company," upon the construction by either company of two distinct lines of railroad, is insufficient to support a vote in its favor, by reason of its failure to designate with reasonable certainty the recipient of the donation.

98. People v. Tazewell County, 22 Ill. 147; Fulton County v. Mississippi, etc., R. Co., 21 Ill. 338; Christian County v. Smith, 12 S. W. 134, 13 S. W. 276, 11 Ky. L. Rep. 834.

99. McMillan v. Lee County, 3 Iowa 311.

1. Ex p. Selma, etc., R. Co., 46 Ala. 230.

2. Clarke v. Hancock County, 27 Ill. 305; Finney v. Lamb, 54 Ind. 1; Bronenberg v. Madison County, 41 Ind. 502; Garrigus v. Parke County, 39 Ind. 66.

The vote should be taken separately on the appropriation for each road. Finney v. Lamb, 54 Ind. 1.

Under the Kentucky act of March 17, 1870, declaring that if more than one question of taxation is voted on at any one election such tax shall be void, an election upon county subscriptions to the capital stock of two different railroad companies at the same time is void, and the fact that the election is void as to one of the subscriptions voted on does not validate the other. Christian County v. Smith, 12 S. W. 134, 13 S. W. 276, 11 Ky. L. Rep. 834.

3. Harding v. Rockford, etc., R. Co., 65 Ill. 90; Cincinnati, etc., R. Co. v. Wells, 39 Ind. 539; Crooke v. Daviess County, 36 Ind. 320; Kleise v. Galusha, 78 Iowa 310, 43 N. W. 217; Allard v. Gaston, 70 Iowa 731, 29 N. W. 752.

Advertisement of election.—Under an order of the county court requiring notice of a special election upon a proposition of granting aid to a railroad to be given through a newspaper for five weeks, an advertisement in five successive weekly issues of the paper named is sufficient. Knox County v. New York City Ninth Nat. Bank, 147 U. S. 91, 13 S. Ct. 267, 37 L. ed. 93.

Election not vitiated by omission of notice.— The failure to give the notice of election required by the Tennessee acts of 1852 and 1854, in submitting to a popular vote the question of a subscription to a railroad, will not operate to the prejudice but in favor of the negative voters and they cannot be heard to complain therefor, nor does such omission vitiate the election and subscription. Hord v. Rogersville, etc., R. Co., 3 Head (Tenn.) 208.

4. Crooke v. Daviess County, 36 Ind. 320.

to which the road must be completed before the proposed tax shall become due.[5]

e. Qualification of Voters and Number of Votes Required. The persons who shall be entitled to vote at an election called to determine the question of extending county aid to railroads, etc., is a matter which is usually regulated by the provisions authorizing such county aid and prescribing the conditions upon which it may be granted.[6] So also the number of votes which shall be required to be cast in favor of such a proposition is usually fixed by such provisions and varies in the different states.[7]

f. The Election. Although the statute authorizing the election prescribes the form of the ballots for and against the proposition submitted, a variance therefrom expressing the same meaning will be immaterial and will not vitiate the election.[8] Although the manner prescribed by statute for conducting such elections should be observed, a substantial compliance is sufficient, and the statutory provisions, in so far as unnecessary to determine the result, are directory and not mandatory.[9]

g. Necessity For Previous Incorporation or Location of Road. It is not essential to the validity of a vote extending aid to a railroad company that prior thereto a contract for its construction had been made,[10] that the road should have been incorporated,[11] that an estimate should have been made of the quantity of grading,[12] or even that there should have been a final and definite location of the entire line of the company's road.[13] All that is required is a substantial location,

5. Allard v. Gaston, 70 Iowa 731, 29 N. W. 752.

6. Only those entitled to vote at general elections can vote in Louisiana. McKenzie v. Wooley, 39 La. Ann. 944, 3 So. 128.

A statute authorizing only male taxpayers to vote is not unconstitutional. Baltimore, etc., R. Co. v. Jefferson County, 29 Fed. 305.

Where only holders of real estate are by statute empowered to vote, an election submitting the question to all the voters of the county is invalid. Bullock v. Curry, 2 Metc. (Ky.) 171.

Submission to voters absent from state in military service.— In Cedar Rapids, etc., R. Co. v. Boone County, 34 Iowa 45, it was held that it cannot be successfully urged against the validity of a contract between the county and a railroad company under which the swamp lands of the county are to be conveyed to the company to aid in the construction of its road that the question of its ratification was not submitted to "all" the voters of the county, because at the time of the submission a portion thereof to whom no submission was made were engaged in the military service of the United States.

7. Majority of all votes cast.— Slack v. Maysville, etc., R. Co., 13 B. Mon. (Ky.) 1; St. Louis v. Alexander, 23 Mo. 483; Claybrook v. Rockingham County, 114 N. C. 453, 19 S. E. 593; Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. State, 8 Heisk. (Tenn.) 663; Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Davidson County Ct., 1 Sneed (Tenn.) 637, 62 Am. Dec. 424.

Two thirds of qualified voters.— Hawkins v. Carroll County, 50 Miss. 735; State v. Saline County, 51 Mo. 350, 11 Am. Rep. 454; State v. Macon County Ct., 41 Mo. 453; Cass County v. Gillett, 100 U. S. 585, 25 L. ed. 585.

Insufficient record of county court as to vote.— The requirements of a railroad charter that "a majority of the taxable inhabitants" of a strip through which the road may pass may vote to tax themselves in payment of subscriptions to stock in the road is not satisfied by a record of the county court levying such tax that "the taxable inhabitants aforesaid voted," etc., without other recital or finding that a majority voted in favor. Deland v. Platte County, 54 Fed. 823.

8. Claybrook v. Rockingham County, 114 N. C. 453, 19 S. E. 593.

9. Trimmier v. Bomar, 20 S. C. 354.

Mere informalities in the returns of the election which cannot possibly prejudice any substantial right or a failure to conform to any direction of the statute which is directory only, or an error which is clearly clerical, are not sufficient to defeat the appropriation voted. Irwin v. Lowe, 89 Ind. 540.

10. Parks v. Iowa Cent. R. Co., 24 Iowa 188.

Subscription before articles of association filed void.— A subscription of stock ordered by a county court to a railroad company, before its articles of association have been executed or filed with the secretary of state, is illegal and void. But where the county court orders the levy of a tax to meet the subscription, and the collector proceeds to enforce its collection, a taxpayer cannot have his action to recover back the amount so collected from him. His remedy is by proceeding to arrest the execution of such illegal subscription, and the state may, through her legal representatives, arrest the issue of the bonds. Rubey v. Shain, 54 Mo. 207.

11. Coleman v. Marin County, 50 Cal. 493.

12. Wilson County v. Nashville Third Nat. Bank, 103 U. S. 770, 26 L. ed. 488.

13. Harwood, etc., R. Co. v. Case, 37 Iowa 692; Wilson County v. Nashville Third Nat. Bank, 103 U. S. 770, 26 L. ed. 488; Johnson designating the termini and general direction of the road, and an estimate of the cost of constructing it.[14]

h. Operation and Effect of Favorable Vote. Since the people of a county can make no contract binding on such county, the vote of the legal electors of a county authorizing a subscription to the stock of a railroad goes for nothing until the proper authorities of the county take action thereon.[15] All county subscriptions or donations authorized by a vote of the people of the county must be executed strictly upon the terms and conditions as voted;[16] and unless authorized by statute a county through its officers empowered to make subscription has no power to modify or alter a stock subscription voted by the people of such county.[17] Whether or not the county authorities have discretion to withhold a subscription after the vote in favor thereof depends upon the statute under which the vote is taken. They cannot do so without either express or implied authority therefor.[18]

i. Contest of Election. The validity of an election held to determine the question of extending county aid to railroads, etc., may be contested by an individual interested by proper proceedings for that purpose,[19] instituted within the County v. Thayer, 94 U. S. 631, 24 L. ed. 133; Woods v. Lawrence County, 1 Black (U. S.) 386, 17 L. ed. 122.

Location and performance of work as a condition of donation.— By Ind. Rev. Stat. (1881), § 4060, it is provided that "no donation of money shall be made to any railroad company by such board of county commissioners until the railroad to be constructed shall have been permanently located, and work thereon done and paid for by the company equal to the amount of the donation then made." It has been held that the word "donation" in this provision meant payment, and that the statute did not preclude a vote and order for a tax before the requisite amount of work had been done. Nixon v. Campbell, 106 Ind. 47, 4 N. E. 296, 7 N. E. 258.

14. Wilson County v. Nashville Third Nat. Bank, 103 U. S. 770, 26 L. ed. 488.

15. People v. Pueblo County, 2 Colo. 360.

Subscription executory till actually made. — The mere vote to subscribe does not of itself form such a contract with the railroad company as will be protected by article 1, section 10, of the constitution of the United States, but until the subscription is actually made the contract is unexecuted. Cumberland, etc., R. Co. v. Barren County Ct., 10 Bush (Ky.) 604.

16. Choisser v. People, 140 Ill. 21, 29 N. E. 546; Madison County Ct. v. Richmond, etc., R. Co., 80 Ky. 16, 3 Ky. L. Rep. 501.

Donation not authorized by vote authorizing subscription.— Where the vote of the people of a county authorized the county commissioners to "subscribe" for stock in a railroad company, it was held in Hamlin v. Meadville, 6 Nebr. 227, that such authority did not empower the commissioners to "donate" the bonds of the county to a railroad company. See also Sampson v. People, 140 Ill. 466, 30 N. E. 689; Choisser v. People, 140 Ill. 21, 29 N. E. 546.

17. Bell v. Mobile, etc., R. Co., 4 Wall. (U. S.) 598, 18 L. ed. 338. See also Douglas County v. Walbridge, 38 Wis. 179.

Limiting time for completion.— It has been held, however, that a county court making a subscription to the construction of a railroad may insert a limit of time for its completion, or any terms and conditions reasonable and prudent to protect the public, not contravening anything in the vote of the people or in the statute. West Virginia, etc., R. Co. v. Harrison County Ct., 47 W. Va. 273, 34 S. E. 786.

Power to authorize divergence from proposed line.— Under the California act of April 4, 1870, after a railroad company has proposed to build a road upon a certain route, and the question has been submitted to the electors who have voted to grant the aid, and the board of supervisors has accepted the proposition and resolved to extend the aid, it may authorize the railroad to diverge from the proposed line of road in part. Coleman v. Marin County, 50 Cal. 493.

18. People v. Cass County Bd., 77 Ill. 438.

Mo. Sess. Acts (1861–1862), p. 388, authorizing the county court of Buchanan county to subscribe to the stock of railroads terminating at or near said county, after submitting the matter to a vote of the taxable inhabitants of said county, left to the court the discretion of subscribing or refusing to subscribe to such railroads, notwithstanding a vote of the taxable inhabitants authorizing it to make such subscription. St. Joseph, etc., R. Co. v. Buchanan County Ct., 39 Mo. 485.

19. Guillory v. Avoyelles R. Co., 104 La. 11, 28 So. 899; Goforth v. Rutherford R. Constr. Co., 96 N. C. 535, 2 S. E. 361; McDowell v. Massachusetts, etc., Constr. Co., 96 N. C. 514, 2 S. E. 351; Anderson County v. Houston, etc., R. Co., 52 Tex. 228.

Contest on ground of "fraud, illegality, and irregularity."— By the terms of La. Acts (1892), No. 106, a parish election held to take the sense of property taxpayers on a proposition to grant a tax in aid of a railway enterprise may be contested by taxpayers in interest on grounds of "fraud, illegality, and proper time,[20] but not in collateral proceedings,[21] as for instance an action to enjoin the collection of the tax voted at such election.[22]

j. Second Submission. Where an election upon the question of a county subscription to the stock of a railroad company results unfavorably, such question may be again submitted to the electors of the county,[23] in the absence of any prohibition to that effect in the act authorizing the subscription.[24] On the other hand it has been held that when a railroad company has, in accordance with the law, proposed the conditions of a contemplated subscription which, upon submission to the people by the county court, have been adopted by a favorable vote, the county court cannot revoke its action and order a second vote, since to do so would be to assume legislative functions.[25]

4. Performance of Conditions Imposed — a. Necessity For. Where, as is usual, certain conditions are imposed either by statute, by a popular vote authorizing county aid to railroad companies, or by agreement of the company, they form a condition precedent to the right to receive such aid, and must be at least substantially complied with by the company claiming such aid or the subscription or donation may be withheld;[26] but a substantial compliance is sufficient.[27]

b. Effect of Failure to Comply With Conditions — (i) As to Completion of Road. In one state where a county court makes an order for the subscription of stock to a railroad company upon condition that such road shall be completed irregularity." Guillory v. Avoyelles R. Co., 104 La. 11, 28 So. 899.

Right to appear before board and appeal from decision.— While the law for contesting elections is not applicable to elections held for the purpose of voting aid for the construction of a railroad, yet the board of county commissioners has the right to go behind the canvass of the vote and inquire into the truth of the return made by the canvassers; and any individual interested may appear before the board and contest the result of the election, and if aggrieved at their decision may appeal to the circuit court and in this way the validity of the result of such election, as to the legality of the votes cast, may be contested, but not by a suit to enjoin the collection of the tax levied in pursuance thereof. Goddard v. Stockman, 74 Ind. 400.

20. Anderson County v. Houston, etc., R. Co., 52 Tex. 228, within time prescribed for certiorari, bill of review, or writ of error.

The suit must be brought within three months after the promulgation of the result of the election. Guillory v. Avoyelles R. Co., 104 La. 11, 28 So. 899.

21. Goddard v. Stockman, 74 Ind. 400; Goforth v. Rutherford R. Constr. Co., 96 N. C. 535, 2 S. E. 361; McDowell v. Massachusetts, etc., Constr. Co., 96 N. C. 514, 2 S. E. 351; Anderson County v. Houston, etc., R. Co., 52 Tex. 228. Compare People v. Jackson County, 92 Ill. 441.

22. Goddard v. Stockman, 74 Ind. 400.

23. Caldwell v. Burke County Justices, 57 N. C. 323; Calhoun County v. Galbraith, 99 U. S. 214, 25 L. ed. 410; Woodward v. Calhoun County, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 18,002.

24. Calhoun County v. Galbraith, 99 U. S. 214, 25 L. ed. 410.

So it has been held that a second supplementary and amendatory election may be held for the purpose of changing or removing certain conditions prescribed by a previous election. Mercer County v. Hubbard, 45 Ill. 139; Morris v. Morris County Com'rs, 7 Kan. 576.

25. Madison County Ct. v. Richmond, etc., R. Co., 80 Ky. 16, 3 Ky. L. Rep. 501.

26. California.— California Northern R. Co. v. Butte County, 18 Cal. 671.

Indiana.— Nixon v. Campbell, 106 Ind. 47, 4 N. E. 296, 7 N. E. 258; Marion County v. Center Tp., 105 Ind. 422, 2 N. E. 368, 7 N. E. 189.

Iowa.— Meeker v. Ashley, 56 Iowa 188, 9 N. W. 124.

Kansas.— Southern Kansas, etc., R. Co. v. Towner, 41 Kan. 72, 21 Pac. 221.

Maryland.— Baltimore, etc., R. Co. v. Pumphrey, 74 Md. 86, 21 Atl. 559.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 237.

Company bound by agreement circulated prior to election.—Where, prior to an election to vote upon the question of aiding in the construction of a certain railroad by a township tax, a paper was circulated among the electors, signed by the president of the railway company and having the corporate seal attached, providing that in case a tax was voted it should be collectable only at specified times and on certain conditions, which paper was issued by and with the consent of a majority of the directors of the company, it was held that the company was bound by its provisions. Meeker v. Ashley, 56 Iowa 188, 9 N. W. 124.

27. Young v. Webster City, etc., R. Co., 75 Iowa 140, 39 N. W. 234; Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Chase County, 49 Kan. 399, 30 Pac. 456; Southern Kansas, etc., R. Co. v. Towner, 41 Kan. 72, 21 Pac. 221.

What amounts to substantial compliance.— In Adams v. Douglas County, 1 Fed. Cas. No. 52, McCahon (Kan.) 235, an issue of county within a certain time, it is within the power of the court by a subsequent order to suspend the delivery of county bonds issued in payment of such subscription and remaining in the hands of a trustee when it appears that the road has not been completed within the specified time.[28] In another it is held that there can be no forfeiture of a tax or donation voted to a railroad company by its failure to complete its road in the time specified unless and until so declared by the board of county commissioners, upon the application of twenty-five freeholders of the county and notice.[29]

(II) As to Expenditures by Road. In some jurisdictions the expenditure by a railroad company upon its road of a certain amount within a specified time is made a condition of the issuance of county bonds in its aid;[30] and in others if the required amount has not been expended within the prescribed time, the county commissioners may cancel the appropriation in their discretion on the application of twenty-five freeholders of the county.[31]

(III) As to Private Subscriptions. Where by statute private subscriptions to an amount sufficient with the aid of the county subscription of a certain amount to complete each mile of road to which such county subscriptions apply are indispensable to authorize a county court to bind the county by its subscription, any payment or levy on account of said void and unauthorized subscription may be enjoined on the petition of taxpayers of the county.[32]

c. Waiver of and Estoppel to Raise Objection. Counties may waive the condition as to the time of completion provided in the contract of subscription to a railroad, and estop itself from raising the objection of non-performance within the specified time.[33]

5. Payment of Interest on Unpaid Instalments of Subscription. When a county subscription to the stock of a railroad is to be paid in instalments with money raised by taxation, deferred instalments of the subscription are not upon the footing of past-due indebtedness bearing interest.[34]

6. Effect of Change in Corporation or Amendment to Charter. A subscription once made by a county in aid of a railroad company will not be annulled or the county released therefrom by subsequent changes in the corporation, its consolidation with another company,[35] agreement to sell and transfer its road after bonds in aid of a railroad was authorized by a vote of the people, in the manner prescribed by law, with a condition that the railroad track should be completed and in full operation by a certain date, and that the road should run to Lawrence. The track was completed, but not equipped with turntables, water-tanks, etc., by the date fixed, and came within only a quarter of a mile of Lawrence. It was held, on application to enjoin the issue of the bonds and a tax levy to pay the first coupons, that there had been a substantial performance.

28. Cooper v. Sullivan County, 65 Mo. 542.

29. Nixon v. Campbell, 106 Ind. 47, 4 N. E. 296, 7 N. E. 258; Marion County v. Center Tp., 105 Ind. 422, 2 N. E. 368, 7 N. E. 189; Sellers v. Beaver, 97 Ind. 111; State v. Delaware County, 92 Ind. 499; Caffyn v. State, 91 Ind. 324; Tipton County v. Indianapolis, etc., R. Co., 89 Ind. 101; Wilson v. Hamilton County, 68 Ind. 507.

30. California Northern R. Co. v. Butte County, 18 Cal. 671.

31. Nixon v. Campbell, 106 Ind. 47, 4 N. E. 296, 7 N. E. 258. See also Sellers v. Beaver, 97 Ind. 111.

Unless, however, there is such an adjudication of forfeiture because of a failure to make the required expenditure, the collection of the tax cannot be enjoined. Nixon v. Campbell, 106 Ind. 47, 4 N. E. 296, 7 N. E. 258.

32. Clay v. Nicholas County Ct., 4 Bush (Ky.) 154.

33. Randolph County v. Post, 93 U. S. 502, 23 L. ed. 957, this being in accordance with the rule that municipal corporations have the power to alter their legally made contracts by waiving conditions found to be injurious to their interests, and can estop themselves like other parties to a contract.

34. Humphreys County v. McAdoo, 7 Heisk. (Tenn.) 585.

35. Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Stafford County, 36 Kan. 121, 12 Pac. 593; Bates County v. Winters, 112 U. S. 325, 5 S. Ct. 157, 28 L. ed. 744.

Payment to consolidated company.—Where a railroad company was organized under the general railroad law of Missouri, the subsequent consolidation of that company with another organized under the same law does not avoid a subscription made to its stock, and the bonds in payment of the subscription may be properly delivered to the consolidated company. Bates County v. Winters, 112 U. S. 325, 3 S. Ct. 157, 28 L. ed. 744.

completion,[36] or the partial asssignment of its franchises.[37] The subscription of a county to the stock of a railroad company is not released by amendments to the charter of such company which have not been acted upon.[38]

7. Rights of County or Taxpayers as Stock-Holders — a. Disability of County as Defense to Non-Performance of Contract by Corporation. The want of authority on the part of a county court to subscribe stock in a corporation is no reason for such corporation refusing, after receiving the money on the subscription, to comply with its agreement to issue and deliver to the county court certificates for the stock subscribed and paid for.[39]

b. Ownership and Right to Vote Stock. In the case of a subscription by a county to the stock of a corporation, the question as to who is the owner of such stock and who may, as such, exercise the rights and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote the stock, depends upon the provisions of the statute authorizing such subscription.[40] It is competent for the legislature in such statute authorizing subscriptions, and the imposition of taxes, to pay the same, to declare whether the stock subscribed for should belong to the county in its corporate capacity or to the taxpayer, and where it declares such stock to belong to the taxpayer he has the exclusive right to stock due from the company under a stock subscription made under the general railroad law, and the company cannot issue it to another person.[41]

c. Conversion of Tax Certificate Into Stock. In some states it is expressly provided by statute that in the case of taxes levied to pay a county subscription in aid of a railroad, certificates shall be issued to the taxpayer by the county court which shall be assignable and convertible into stock upon certain conditions.[42]

36. Southern Kansas, etc., R. Co. v. Towner, 41 Kan. 72, 21 Pac. 221.

37. Cass County v. Gillett, 100 U. S. 585, 25 L. ed. 585.

38. Taylor v. Board of Sup'rs, 86 Va. 506, 10 S. E. 433.

Presumption of action with reference to possible amendment.— Where a county subscribes under an act authorizing subscriptions to aid in the construction of a railroad such county and all the citizens thereof must be taken to have acted with reference to the fact that the charter was liable to be amended as occasion should require. Powell v. Brunswick County, 88 Va. 707, 14 S. E. 543.

39. Com. v. Springfield, etc., Turnpike Road Co., 10 Bush (Ky.) 254.

40. County ownership.— By the act incorporating the Pacific railroad the respective counties in which the railroad should be located were authorized to subscribe for the stock of the company and invest the funds of the county therein. The stock was to be held, owned, and treated as county property, and the stock subscribed by each county belonged to and is owned by the county, unless its title has been divested by acts and transactions subsequent to the original subscription. Ridings v. Hall, 48 Mo. 100.

Effect of payment by special tax.— Section 30 of the Missouri act of February, 1853, authorizing the formation of railroad associations (Sess. Acts (1853), p. 121), has in view subscriptions made after the passage of said act — not subscriptions made prior thereto. Section 33 of that act, which authorizes the levy of a special tax to pay the interest on bonds theretofore issued, and provides a sinking fund to pay the principal, grants no stock rights to individual taxpayers. The stock subscribed prior to the passage of this act, under the authority of section 14 of the act of 1849 (Sess. Acts (1849), p. 222), belonged to the county subscribing it and contracting to pay for it, notwithstanding it may have been paid for by the proceeds of special taxes levied under section 33 of the act of 1853. Ridings v. Hall, 48 Mo. 100.

41. Mastin v. Pacific R. Co., 83 Mo. 634.

42. Spurlock v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 90 Mo. 199, 206, 2 S. W. 219 [following 61 Mo. 319], where the court held under the Missouri act of 1853 that "the stock paid by special taxation is not the property of the county. To the extent that it is paid by taxation, it is the property of the taxpayers. It is held by the county in trust for them. When not paid for by taxation, it is conceded the subscriber, whether an individual, or county, or city, would not be entitled to a stock certificate until the whole subscription is paid. But when paid by special taxes, the law under which the subscription was made distributes the stock to those who pay the taxes. They are entitled to their shares of stock whenever tax certificates are presented 'in amounts equal to one or more entire shares of stock.' The proviso is entirely consistent with this, for it only contemplates that the shares of stock to be issued from time to time, shall not exceed the amount actually paid to the railroad company. Payments to the tax collector is not sufficient. It must also be made by the court to the company. This section, to my mind, taken in its end. Power of County to Sell Stock. In one state power is expressly given to commissioners of counties which have subscribed to the capital stock of any railroad company and have issued bonds for the payment of such subscription to sell the stock or any part of it on such terms as they shall deem to be for the interest of the county, and to apply the proceeds of the sale to the payment of the bonds of such county.[43]

e. Estoppel of County to Demand Interest on Subscription. Where a railroad charter provides for the allowance of interest on stock from the time of payment until the first dividend, the action of a county commissioner in voting for a resolution declaring a stock dividend for the purpose of stopping interest on payments of stock subscriptions, being unauthorized either by statute, by the county court, or by his co-commissioners, will not estop the county from demanding such interest.[44]

f. Estoppel of Commissioners by Acquiescence in County Court's Disposition of Stock. Although the control of certain railroad stock subscribed to by a county and the right to order its deduction from the first dividend declared may lay with the county commissioners instead of the county court, yet where the commissioners stand by and allow the stock to be disposed of in accordance with an order of such court, and no objection is entered for more than five years, they cannot then claim the stock from the railroad.[45]

D. County Warrants and Certificates of Indebtedness — 1. Definition and Nature. County warrants may be defined as orders directing the payment of a claim which has passed the scrutiny of the auditing board. While they are therefore prima facie evidence of an indebtedness, like a written admission of a debt made by a private individual, they are by no means conclusive tire scope, means that the taxpayer is entitled to his certificate of stock upon the production of the proper tax certificates, and upon showing that the company had received the money, whether the whole subscription has been paid or not."

It is the certificate of stock and not the collector's tax receipt which is made assignable and convertible into stock, and where one does not show that any certificates for taxes paid were ever issued to him or to the taxpayers, he presents no right to have the railroad issue its stock to him. Spurlock v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 90 Mo. 199, 2 S. W. 219.

Payment of taxes to discharge interest on bonds.— The Kentucky act of March 15, 1851, incorporated the Shelby Railroad Company, and authorized the county of Shelby to subscribe for stock, and to levy taxes to pay therefor, each person paying such tax to become entitled to his pro rata share of the stock. By an amendment of Feb. 3, 1869, a specified portion of Shelby county was authorized to subscribe for stock, issue bonds in payment thereof, and levy taxes, with the provision that stock for which certificates had been issued to taxpayers should be voted by the individuals holding the same. By the act of March 11, 1870, the charter was again amended, so as to provide that any county, or part of a county, which had delivered bonds in payment of stock should be entitled to representation and to vote the amount of such stock through the county judge and justices of the peace. It was held that taxes paid and used merely to discharge interest on the bonds did not entitle the taxpayer to stock, and the county or district thereof itself was entitled to vote the stock represented by the amount of bonds still outstanding. Hancock v. Louisville, etc., R. Co., 145 U. S. 409, 12 S. Ct. 969, 36 L. ed. 755.

43. Knox County Com'rs v. McComb, 19 Ohio St. 320.

Effect of statutory pledge of profits and dividends of stock.— By the Ohio act of 1846, it was declared "that the net profits or dividends upon the stock subscribed by the county shall stand pledged for the payment of the indebtedness and interest which may become demandable from the county under this act." Upon suit brought by the county commissioners to compel payment of the price at which defendant had purchased a portion of said stock from the county in 1853, it was held that said statutory pledge of the profits and dividends of said stock was intended as a security to the holders of the county bonds issued in payment of said subscription; and, in the absence of any assertion by them of rights under this statutory pledge, the purchaser cannot invalidate his contract of purchase, on the ground that its terms impair the obligations of the bondholders' contract. Knox County Com'rs v. McComb, 19 Ohio St. 320.

44. Hardin County v. Louisville, etc., R. Co., 92 Ky. 412, 17 S. W. 860, 14 Ky. L. Rep. 401.

45. Simpson County v. Louisville, etc., R. Co., 19 S. W. 665, 14 Ky. L. Rep. 673.

evidence of an indebtedness, and do not bar a reinvestigation of the merits of the claim on which the warrant is founded when a suit is brought on the warrant.[46]

2. Issuance — a. Delivery. It has been held that to issue county orders or warrants means to send out, deliver, or put them into circulation, and that such order or warrant remaining in the hands of a county clerk cannot be said to have been issued.[47] The mere fact that a county order or warrant is issued and delivered in another county will not render the same illegal.[48]

b. Who May Direct. The authority to issue county orders and warrants is a statutory one,[49] and warrants or certificates issued without authority of law impose no legal debt or obligation upon a county or parish.[50] The power to make allowances and to order the issuance of county warrants is vested in the fiscal officers of the county, usually the board of county commissioners,[51] county board of revenue,[52] or county court,[53] to be exercised at a meeting of such board or court.[54] While in some jurisdictions such boards or courts are authorized to themselves draw and issue such warrants,[55] as a general rule the actual issuance is 46. Hamilton County v. Sherwood, 64 Fed. 103, 11 C. C. A. 507. See also Shawnee County Com'rs v. Carter, 2 Kan. 115; Lake County v. Keene Five-Cents Sav. Bank, 108 Fed. 505, 47 C. C. A. 464.

County not estopped to question validity. — Where a county board agrees to pay superintendent of schools compensation provided by statute subsequently declared invalid, and the services are performed, the subsequent allowance of the claim and issue of warrants by the county board does not estop the county from questioning the validity of the warrants. Chehalis County v. Hutcheson, 21 Wash. 82, 57 Pac. 341, 75 Am. St. Rep. 818.

Not judicial decisions as to validity of claim. — Warrants issued by a county court, acting as fiscal agent of the county, in compromise of claims against the county for services rendered, are not judicial decisions upon the validity of the claims; hence the county treasurer is bound by a subsequent order issued by such court prohibiting their payment. Frankl v. Bailey, 31 Oreg. 285, 50 Pac. 186.

47. State v. Pierce, 52 Kan. 521, 35 Pac. 19.

Delivery as essential to right of action. — Suit cannot be brought upon a county commissioners' warrant, where such warrant has never been delivered by the commissioners to the payee. Com. v. Crawford County Com'rs, 20 Pa. Co. Ct. 593.

Delivery to agent of payee. — It is not carelessness for the county auditor to deliver a warrant to the agent of the party in whose favor it is drawn, although such agent has no authority to collect in cash. State v. Lewis, 6 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 221, 4 Ohio N. P. 176.

48. Clark County v. Lawrence, 63 Ill. 32, 35, where the court said: "Those orders need not have attached to them any seal of office. They are properly executed when signed by the clerk and the treasurer. This mere clerical duty might be performed in one place as well as in another, if circumstances rendered it necessary or more convenient."

49. Stoddard v. Benton, 6 Colo. 508.

50. Edwards v. Bossier Parish, 24 La. Ann. 457; Smallwood v. Lafayette County, 75 Mo. 450, holding that county courts have no power to issue certificates of county indebtedness.

The police jury of a parish have no power to issue its warrants or paper of any kind, negotiable or otherwise, for any purpose unless specifically authorized to do it by the legislature, and the means of paying the debt are provided for in the ordinance creating it. Smith v. Madison Parish, 30 La. Ann. 461; Lodds v. Vermilion Parish, 28 La. Ann. 618; Bertrand v. Vermilion Parish, 28 La. Ann. 588; Citizens' Bank v. Police Jury, 28 La. Ann. 263; Mathe v. Plaquemines Parish, 28 La. Ann. 77; Flagg v. St. Charles Parish, 27 La. Ann. 319; Sterling v. West Feliciana Parish, 26 La. Ann. 59.

51. Stoddard v. Benton, 6 Colo. 508; Ray v. Wilson, 29 Fla. 342, 10 So. 613, 14 L. R. A. 773; Johnson v. Wakulla County, 28 Fla. 720, 9 So. 690; State v. Buckles, 39 Ind. 272; Nave v. King, 27 Ind. 356.

Acting county commissioners appointed by the governor before the election of county officers have the same power to issue county warrants for the ordinary expenses of the county government that is exercised by other boards throughout the state. Kearney County v. McMasters, 68 Fed. 177, 15 C. C. A. 353.

Act of board valid, although erroneous. — Where the board of county commissioners have the power to act in relation to a given matter, their acts are valid and binding, even though erroneous, and the auditor cannot refuse to issue his warrant in accordance therewith, unless such acts are appealed from and legitimately annulled. State v. Buckles, 39 Ind. 272.

52. Parker v. Hubbard, 64 Ala. 203.

53. Parsel v. Barnes, 25 Ark. 261.

54. Stoddard v. Benton, 6 Colo. 508.

55. Parker v. Hubbard, 64 Ala. 203.

a ministerial duty to be performed by the clerk or other ministerial officers upon the direction of the proper authorities.[56]

c. Necessity For Audit, Allowance, and Order. As a general rule a county warrant can be issued only for claims against the county which have been audited and allowed by the proper officers,[57] or the amounts of which are fixed by law.[58] Whenever a claim has been duly examined, allowed, and ordered to be paid, the officer is in duty bound to draw his warrant in favor of the holder of such claim,[59]

56. Parker v. Hubbard, 64 Ala. 203; Parsel v. Barnes, 25 Ark. 261; Attala County v. Grant, 9 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 77, 47 Am. Dec. 102.

Clerk alone authorized.— The clerk of a board of police is authorized to issue a warrant on the county treasury for any allowance made by the board, and the treasurer is authorized to pay such warrant. But the board of police have no power to issue such warrant; and if they should the treasurer is not bound to pay it. Attala County v. Grant, 9 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 77, 47 Am. Dec. 102.

County auditor.— Sehorn v. Williams, 110 Cal. 621, 43 Pac. 8; Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488; Connor v. Morris, 23 Cal. 447; Draper v. Noteware, 7 Cal. 276; State v. Buckles, 39 Ind. 272; State v. Yeatman, 22 Ohio St. 546; Cricket v. State, 18 Ohio St. 9.

Issue of certificate in lieu of one lost.— Where an act of the legislature authorizes and requires the county commissioners to instruct the auditor of the county to issue to the owner of the original a certificate of indebtedness similar in amount and in lieu of one that has been lost, the issuance of the certificate cannot be restrained as the creation of an unjust indebtedness against the county, or in any just sense an injury to taxpayers. Hayes v. Davis, 23 Nev. 318, 46 Pac. 888.

No application to auditor's claim for compensation.— The amount due the auditor for his official services is not a claim against the county for which he is authorized to draw his own warrant under section 13 of the Ohio act of April 4, 1859, and the obtaining of money from the treasury as compensation to which he is not entitled, upon his own warrant, constitutes a misfeasance, for which, to the extent that the money obtained exceeds the amount due, his bond affords a remedy; and the fact that there had been a verbal allowance by the commissioners will be no defense. Cricket v. State, 18 Ohio St. 9.

Probate judge.— Jeffersonian Pub. Co. v. Hilliard, 105 Ala. 576, 17 So. 112; Jack v. Moore, 66 Ala. 184; Board of Revenue v. Barber, 53 Ala. 589; Commissioners Ct. v. Moore, 53 Ala. 25.

57. Alabama.— Board of Revenue v. Barber, 53 Ala. 589.

California.—Connor v. Morris, 23 Cal. 447; Draper v. Noteware, 7 Cal. 276.

Idaho.— Jolly v. Woodward, 4 Ida. 496, 42 Pac. 512.

Indiana.— Booth v. Cass County, 84 Ind. 428.

Iowa.— Polk County v. Sherman, 99 Iowa 60, 68 N. W. 562.

Kansas.— Shawnee County Com'rs v. Carter, 2 Kan. 115.

Nebraska.— Wilson v. State, 53 Nebr. 113, 73 N. W. 456.

Ohio.— State v. Merry, 34 Ohio St. 137; State v. Craig, 21 Ohio Cir. Ct. 180, 11 Ohio Cir. Dec. 557.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 244.

Necessity for peremptory order to clerk.— When a county board of revenue have ordered the drawing of a warrant by their clerk, if he refuses to draw it in proper form, the claimant cannot have a mandamus from the circuit court to compel him, but must first ask for a peremptory order from the board. Until such application has been made and failed there is no right to appeal to the circuit court. Parker v. Hubbard, 64 Ala. 203.

Recording of order.— While the Mississippi code requires the order of the board directing the issuance of a warrant to be recorded, it need not be stated in the warrant. Clayton v. McWilliams, 49 Miss. 311. The Iowa code permits a county auditor to issue warrants only on the recorded vote or resolution of the board of supervisors, except in payment of jury fees; and the issuance of a warrant without such vote to a taxpayer for an amount claimed to have been paid by him to the treasurer on an excessive valuation of his property is without authority. Polk County v. Sherman, 99 Iowa 60, 68 N. W. 562.

Stipulation waiving audit and allowance.— The court of county commissioners in contracting for the support of the poor has no authority to make it a condition of the contract that the probate judge shall draw his warrant on the treasurer for the amount accruing monthly, without due audit and allowance by the commissioners' court in termtime. Board of Revenue v. Barber, 53 Ala. 589.

58. State v. Merry, 34 Ohio St. 137; State v. Hagerty, 5 Ohio Cir. Dec. 215; State v. Ratterman, 2 Ohio Cir. Dec. 364. See also Jolly v. Woodward, 3 Ida. 496, 42 Pac. 512, where it was held that the fact that the charge for the publication of a delinquent tax-list arose under an express contract definitely fixing the amount thereof, did not bring it within Ida. Rev. Stat. § 2005, requiring the auditor to draw warrants for all claims against the county, the amounts of which are "fixed by law."

59. Walton v. McPhetridge, 120 Cal. 440, 52 Pac. 731; Sehorn v. Williams, 110 Cal. 621, 43 Pac. 8.

and in the performance of such ministerial duty he has no discretion unless the order of allowance is itself void and on its face an absolute nullity, imposing no duty and conferring no rights,[60] in which case he may properly refuse to draw the required warrant and cannot be compelled to do so by mandamus.[61]

d. Rescission of Order Directing Issuance. In some jurisdictions it is held that where a county board has ordered the drawing of a warrant, its power over the public funds is exhausted and it cannot, in the absence of fraud, imposition, or failure of consideration, rescind it and direct the withholding of the warrant, and the auditor must issue the warrant in accordance with the original order, although the board has assumed to rescind it.[62] In others, however, it is held that where an order for a warrant has been rescinded by the county board, whether rightfully or wrongfully, the officer whose duty it is to issue county warrants has no authority to issue the warrant.[63]

e. Limitations as to Amount. In some jurisdictions the issue of warrants is limited by statute to a certain proportion of the amount levied by tax for the current year.[64]

60. Jack v. Moore, 66 Ala. 184 [quoted in Jeffersonian Pub. Co. v. Hilliard, 105 Ala. 576, 17 So. 112]; Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488.

Omission of clerk to certify items of claim, etc.— A statute requiring a claim presented to the board of supervisors to be itemized, "giving names, dates, and particular services rendered," before it can be allowed, is directed to the board of supervisors alone, and the auditor must draw his warrant in favor of every person whose claim has been legally examined, allowed, and ordered to be paid by the board of supervisors; and the statute does not justify him in withholding a warrant merely because the clerk has not certified the items of the claim, or the liability for which it was allowed. It is his duty in such case to ascertain by inquiry the nature of the liability in order to distinctly specify it in the warrant, and that the claim has been allowed and ordered paid by the board of supervisors, and, upon receiving such information from the county clerk, it is his duty to draw the warrant. Sehorn v. Williams, 110 Cal. 621, 43 Pac. 8.

61. Walton v. McPhetridge, 120 Cal. 440, 52 Pac. 731; Linden v. Case, 46 Cal. 171; State v. Yeatman, 22 Ohio St. 546. Thus an order omitting reference to the law under which it is made, which expressly requires this to be done, is within the rule (Land v. Allen, 65 Miss. 455, 4 So. 117); and so is an order for the payment of a sum allowed by the commissioners as being due on a contract made by them in disregard of a statute requiring them to award the contract to the lowest bidder (State v. Yeatman, 22 Ohio St. 546).

Excessive certificate as to jurors' compensation.— The certificate of the clerk is not conclusive, and if he certifies for days in excess of the number for which the jurors are legally entitled to compensation, the auditor may refuse to issue orders on the county treasurer for such excess. State v. Merry, 34 Ohio St. 137.

62. State v. Auditor, 43 Ohio St. 311, 1 N. E. 209.

63. People v. Klokke, 92 Ill. 134.

Dismissal of appeal as annulment of order. — Where a party claims an allowance by the board of commissioners for damages sustained by the location of a highway through his land, and appeals from such order to the circuit court, such appeal and a dismissal of the proceedings annul such allowance, and money thereafter paid to him by the county treasurer upon a warrant drawn by the auditor for such allowance may be recovered back by the county commissioners in an action therefor. Booth v. Cass County, 84 Ind. 428.

64. Under Kan. Comp. Laws (1879), c. 1, § 8, rule 11, providing that the word "year" alone shall be equivalent to the expression "year of our Lord" the word "year" as used in Kan. Comp. Laws (1879), c. 25, art. 1, § 1, making it unlawful for any board of county commissioners to issue county warrants "in any one year" to a greater amount than the county tax levied in the same year to defray county expenses, and as used in Kan. Comp. Laws (1879), c. 25, § 220, limiting the amount of taxes the board of county commissioners can levy for current expenses "in any one year" means a calendar, and not a fiscal, year; and hence, to determine whether there has been an overissue of county warrants in any one year, the computation should begin with January 1 of that year. Garfield Tp. v. Samuel Dodsworth Book Co., 9 Kan. App. 752, 58 Pac. 565.

Under the Nebraska statutes warrants may be issued to the extent of seventy-five per cent of the tax levied for the current year, and after the amount levied for the year has been exhausted and there are no funds in the treasury for the payment of the same, warrants drawn should not be chargeable against the county, but against the county board or any member thereof for the payment of the same. In re House Roll 284, 31 Nebr. 505, 48 N. W. 275.

Warrants in anticipation of revenues.—By Colo. Sess. Laws (1887), p. 247, § 2, "whenever there are no moneys in the county treasury of a county to the credit of the proper

f. Prohibition Against Issuance in Absence of Funds. In some jurisdictions it is provided by statute[65] that warrants payable on demand or checks on the county treasurer shall be drawn and issued only when there is sufficient money in the appropriate fund in the treasury to pay them, and warrants drawn in violation of this prohibition are invalid whether in the hands of the original holder or of an assignee.[66]

g. Issuance of Several Warrants For One Claim. In some states several warrants may be issued for one claim against a county, instead of issuing a single warrant.[67]

h. Mandamus to Compel Issuance of Warrants.[68] A writ of mandamus will lie at the relation of one showing himself entitled to a county warrant to compel the drawing and delivery to him of such warrant,[69] unless there be no money in the treasury applicable to the purpose,[70] and is the proper remedy instead of an action against the individual members of the county board for damages.[71] Since a warrant is not the subject of levy on execution, it is no answer to an application for a mandamus to compel the delivery thereof to the person in whose favor it was allowed, that it was made out, but before delivery was taken in execution against the relator and the money paid by the county treasurer thereon to the officer taking the same.[72]

i. Restraint of Issuance by Injunction.[73] A court of equity may restrain the issuance or payment of orders or warrants illegally drawn.[74]

3. Discount of Warrants. A county court or board has no power to discount its warrants in payment of a county debt.[75] fund to meet and defray the necessary expenses of the county, it shall be lawful for the board of county commissioners of such county to provide that county warrants and orders of such county may be drawn and issued against, and in anticipation of, the collection of taxes already levied for the payment of such expenses, to the extent of eighty per centum of the total amount of the taxes levied; provided, that warrants and orders so drawn and issued under the provisions of this section shall show upon their face that they are payable solely from the fund upon which the same is drawn, and the taxes levied to form the same when collected, and not otherwise." People v. Austin, 11 Colo. 134, 135, 17 Pac. 485.

65. Starr & Curt. Anno. Stat. Ill. p. 2460; 17 S. C. Stat. at L. p. 891.

66. Cook County v. Lowe, 23 Ill. App. 649; Hunter v. Mobley, 26 S. C. 192, 1 S. E. 670.

67. U. S. v. Macon County Ct., 45 Fed. 400, where it was held construing a Missouri statute that such act did not so change the administration of county finances as to impair the remedy for the collection of outstanding warrants.

Orders in fractions of appropriations.— Where a board of supervisors made an appropriation to assist a township in the construction of a bridge, having previously specifically rescinded a resolution that orders should not be issued in fractions in discharge of any appropriation, but should be for the whole amount, the rescinding of the resolution was held, by necessary implication, to sanction the issuing of county orders in small amounts in discharge of the appropriation. Lawrence County v. Sage, 89 Ill. 265.

68. See, generally, Mandamus.

69. Alabama.— Jeffersonian Pub. Co. v. Hilliard, 105 Ala. 576, 17 So. 112; Jack v. Moore, 66 Ala. 184.

California.— Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488.

Indiana.— State v. Buckles, 39 Ind. 272.

Michigan.— People v. Wayne County, 5 Mich. 223.

Ohio.— State v. Auditor, 43 Ohio St. 311, 1 N. E. 209.

South Carolina.— Hunter v. Mobley, 26 S. C. 192, 1 S. E. 670.

United States.—U. S. v. Macon County Ct., 45 Fed. 400.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 241 et seq.

Warrants drawn on other than specified funds.— Mandamus having been granted requiring the county court to draw warrants in favor of relators, payable out of "the general funds of the county," the warrants were drawn accordingly; but at relator's request other warrants were drawn on another fund in lieu of the warrants already drawn, and were issued to relators. It was held that the latter warrants were issued pursuant to the writ of mandamus. U. S. v. Macon County Ct., 45 Fed. 400.

70. Com. v. Philadelphia County Com'rs, 2 Whart. (Pa.) 286, 1 Whart. (Pa.) 1; Com. v. Lancaster County Com'rs, 6 Binn. (Pa.) 5.

71. Hunter v. Mobley, 26 S. C. 192, 1 S. E. 670.

72. People v. Wayne County, 5 Mich. 223.

73. See, generally, Injunctions.

74. Andrews v. Pratt, 44 Cal. 309; Ackerman v. Thummel, 40 Nebr. 95, 58 N. W. 738; Broomfield v. Houser, 30 Oreg. 534, 49 Pac. 843.

75. Bauer v. Franklin County, 51 Mo. 205.

4. Requisites and Validity — a. In General. It is essential to the validity of a county warrant that it should have been issued in payment of a valid and authorized indebtedness,[76] without fraud on the part of the board,[77] and upon proper consideration,[78] and that the statutory prerequisites to the issuance shall have been complied with, such for instance as the provision for means of payment in the ordinance authorizing the issue;[79] the provision that the claims or accounts shall be itemized and verified;[80] or the provision that a written statement of expenses incurred, etc., shall be filed.[81] Where a proposition to incur unusual expenditures is required by statute to be submitted to a popular vote, warrants issued in payment of such expenditures are void unless authorized by such vote[82] or validated by a subsequent election.[83]

b. As to Form — (I) In General. So also there should be a compliance with all requirements as to the form of the warrant or order, such as its signature and attestation,[84] seal,[85] registration,[86] etc.

So when upon the adjustment and settlement of accounts they have ordered the clerk to issue a warrant, their power is extinct and they have no right to give an additional sum to raise the warrants to a cash standard. Bauer v. Franklin County, 51 Mo. 205; Erskine v. Steele County, 4 N. D. 339, 60 N. W. 1050, 28 L. R. A. 645.

Warrants void as to excess.— Erskine v. Steele County, 4 N. D. 339, 60 N. W. 1050, 28 L. R. A. 645; Shirk v. Pulaski County, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,794, 4 Dill. 209.

76. Perry v. Ames, 26 Cal. 372; Waitz v. Ormsby County, 1 Nev. 370; Wall v. Monroe County, 103 U. S. 74, 26 L. ed. 430; Hamilton County v. Sherwood, 64 Fed. 103, 11 C. C. A. 507.

77. Hamilton County v. Sherwood, 64 Fed. 103, 11 C. C. A. 507.

78. Campbell v. Polk County, 3 Iowa 467; Hamilton County v. Sherwood, 64 Fed. 103, 11 C. C. A. 507.

Effect of cancellation and reissue as evidence of validity.—The cancellation and reissue of county warrants is not such a determination of the validity of the debt for which they were issued that the parties are estopped from raising the question. Wall v. Monroe County, 103 U. S. 74, 26 L. ed. 430.

Effect of issue and cancellation of duplicate.— In Royster v. Granville County, 98 N. C. 148, 3 S. E. 739, plaintiff claimed to have lost a county order, and the defendant county, pursuant to resolution, issued a duplicate, which was never taken by plaintiff, the original having been found. Subsequently the duplicate was canceled. It was held that the issue and cancellation of the duplicate was not an admission or recognition of the validity of the original.

79. Young v. Police Jury, 32 La. Ann. 392; Smith v. Madison Parish, 30 La. Ann. 461; Flagg v. St. Charles Parish, 27 La. Ann. 319; Sterling v. West Feliciana Parish, 26 La. Ann. 59.

80. State v. Pierce, 52 Kan. 521, 35 Pac. 19; Hamilton County v. Sherwood, 64 Fed. 103, 11 C. C. A. 507, where it was held, however, that a warrant issued for an account not verified as required by Kan. Gen. Stat. (1889), c. 25, § 28, is not void, and a recovery may be had thereon unless it is shown to have been issued fraudulently, without consideration, or for an indebtedness which the board was not authorized to contract.

81. Thorne v. Washington County, 7 Minn. 150.

82. People v. Presque Isle County, 36 Mich. 377; Theis v. Washita County, 9 Okla. 643, 60 Pac. 505; Brown v. Sherman County, 5 Fed. 274.

83. Richards v. Klickitat County, 13 Wash. 509, 43 Pac. 647; Williams v. Shoudy, 12 Wash. 362, 41 Pac. 169.

84. Signature by clerk.— Parker v. Hubbard, 64 Ala. 203; Clark County v. Lawrence, 63 Ill. 32; Smeltzer v. White, 92 U. S. 390, 23 L. ed. 508.

To be countersigned by the clerk and sealed with county seal. State v. Maccuaig, 8 Nebr. 215.

Signature by chairman of board and attestation by clerk.— Stoddard v. Benton, 6 Colo. 508; State v. Maccuaig, 8 Nebr. 215.

Signature by clerk or judge.— Callaghan v. Salliway, 5 Tex. Civ. App. 239, 23 S. W. 837.

Signature by president and clerk of police jury under authority of jury.— Capmartin v. Police Jury, 19 La. Ann. 448.

Counter-signature by county treasurer.— Clark County v. Lawrence, 63 Ill. 32.

Counter-signature by controller.— Lee v. Davis, 22 Pa. Co. Ct. 492.

Indorsement of justices.— Wilkinson v. Cheatham, 43 Ga. 258.

Counter-signature of orders on militia fund. — Treasurer v. Shannon, 51 Pa. St. 221.

85. In Iowa it was held that a county warrant is invalid unless the seal of the county be attached. The seal of the district court of the county is insufficient. Springer v. Clay County, 35 Iowa 241. See also Prescott v. Gonser, 34 Iowa 175; State v. Maccuaig, 8 Nebr. 215; Smeltzer v. White, 92 U. S. 390, 23 L. ed. 508. In other jurisdictions no seal is necessary. Clark County v. Lawrence, 63 Ill. 32; Parker County v. Courts, 2 Tex. Unrep. Cas. 398.

86. Taylor v. Chickasaw County, 74 Miss. 23, 16 So. 907, 19 So. 834.

Non-presentation for examination no de-

(II) Recitals. Orders or warrants drawn upon a particular fund should specify upon their face upon what account and for what services they are drawn.[87] In some jurisdictions certain warrants and orders are required to show upon their faces that they are payable solely from the fund upon which the same are drawn, and even in a case where the statute does not require it there is no impropriety in making the designation so long as the correct fund is named.[88] The insertion of other words in a county warrant besides those in the statutory form will not vitiate the warrant, where the prescribed words are there and the other words do not destroy their effect.[89]

5. Assignment and Negotiability[90] — a. Assignment — (I) Assignability. County warrants are assignable so as to enable the assignee to sue thereon,[91] provided such assignment be made in the form prescribed by statute;[92] and a county treasurer cannot be compelled to pay a warrant to any other person than the one in whose favor it is drawn, without an assignment thereof by the payee.[93]

(II) How Assignment Made. As a general rule the written assignment or indorsement of the payee is essential to the valid assignment of a county warrant which will vest the legal title in the assignee,[94] unless payable to bearer, in which

fense for non-payment.— An order of a board of county commissioners requiring that county warrants previously issued shall be presented for reëxamination by the board, and providing that all such scrip not presented by a stated day shall be of no effect, or "repudiated," is, although published according to the terms of the order, no defense to the payment of warrants not presented. Ray v. Wilson, 29 Fla. 342, 10 So. 613, 14 L. R. A. 773.

87. Ventura County v. Clay, 114 Cal. 242, 46 Pac. 9; Territory v. Browne, 7 N. M. 568, 37 Pac. 1116; Treasurer v. Shannon, 51 Pa. St. 221.

88. San Juan County v. Oliver, 7 Colo. App. 515, 44 Pac. 362.

89. Young v. Camden County, 19 Mo. 309.

Unless a claim is required by law to be drawn on a particular fund, the validity of a warrant will not be affected, because it is drawn upon a fund not appropriate to the character of the allowance. Warren County v. Klein, 51 Miss. 807.

90. See, generally, Assignments.

91. Arkansas.— Crawford County v. Wilson, 7 Ark. 214.

California.— People v. Gray, 23 Cal. 125; Dana v. San Francisco, 19 Cal. 486.

Colorado.— People v. Hall, 8 Colo. 485, 9 Pac. 34.

Indiana.— Brownlee v. Madison County Com'rs, 81 Ind. 186.

Iowa.— McCormick v. Grundy County, 24 Iowa 382.

Kansas.— See School Dist. No. 73 v. Dudley, 28 Kan. 160.

Texas.— Leach v. Wilson County, 62 Tex. 331.

United States.— Wall v. Monroe County, 103 U. S. 74, 26 L. ed. 430.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 249.

Mandamus to compel disallowance.—Where services have been rendered in good faith and a certificate of indebtedness, which was passed, was assigned to a bona fide holder for value before an application for mandamus was made to compel its disallowance, the only remedy, if the audit was incorrect, is by certiorari. People v. Greene County, 14 Abb. N. Cas. (N. Y.) 29.

The transferee of an invalid county warrant is under no obligation to demand payment thereof from the county, or to undertake to establish its validity as against the county, before seeking a return of the consideration paid therefor from the transferrer. Walsh v. Rogers, 15 Nebr. 309, 18 N. W. 135.

Warrant on a non-existent fund is nevertheless an acknowledgment of indebtedness by the county, and the assignment invests the assignee with the ownership of the debt. Blanchard v. Chaffee County, 15 Colo. App. 410, 62 Pac. 579.

92. International Bank v. Franklin County, 65 Mo. 105, 27 Am. Rep. 261.

Partial assignment.— The holder of a warrant cannot assign a part without the consent of the parish authorities. They are not bound to pay their debts in portions. Le Blanc v. East Baton Rouge Parish, 10 Rob. (La.) 25.

93. People v. Gray, 23 Cal. 125.

Although it is not an unwarranted stretch of authority for a county auditor to deliver a warrant drawn in payment of goods purchased to a mere selling agent of the vendor, the county treasurer has no authority to pay the warrant to such agent. State v. Hamilton County, 5 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 545, 7 Ohio N. P. 116.

94. Garvin v. Wiswell, 83 Ill. 215; International Bank v. Franklin County, 65 Mo. 105, 27 Am. Rep. 261; Craig v. Mason, 64 Mo. App. 342 (holding that the indorsement must be written out as required by Mo. Rev. Stat. (1889), § 3194); Bradley County v. Surgoine, 9 Baxt. (Tenn.) 407; U. S. v. Macon County Ct., 45 Fed. 400 (indorsement in full essential).

Indorsement by agent of payee.— In the absence of a course of dealing between the parties authorizing it, a county treasurer pays a warrant indorsed by one assuming case it is transferable by mere delivery.[95] Nevertheless the equitable title may pass by a sale and mere delivery,[96] or by an indorsement in blank.[97]

b. Negotiability.[98] It may be stated as a general rule that county warrants, certificates, and orders, although in form negotiable, are not negotiable in the sense of the law merchant so as to shut out in the hands of a bona fide purchaser inquiries as to their validity or preclude defenses or set-offs which could be made to them in the hands of the original parties,[99] even when they are payable to bearer;[1] and an assignee of such paper stands in the shoes of the original holder.[2]

6. Payment — a. Necessity For. Unless barred by a call for reissuance, county orders, warrants, or other county scrip must be paid by the county treasurer if he have funds on hand, regardless of how long the same may have been issued and outstanding;[3] nor can a county treasurer refuse the payment of any warrant legally drawn upon him and presented for payment, for the reason that warrants of prior presentation have not been paid when there is money in the treasury belonging to the fund drawn upon, sufficient to pay such prior warrants, and any warrant so presented.[4] to act as agent of the payee at his peril as to the authority of the agent to make the indorsement. State v. Lewis, 6 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 221, 4 Ohio N. P. 176.

95. Crawford County v. Wilson, 7 Ark. 214; Sweet v. Carver County Com'rs, 16 Minn. 106; Crawford v. Noble County, 8 Okla. 450, 58 Pac. 616; Jerome v. Rio Grande County, 18 Fed. 873, 5 McCrary 639. In McCormick v. Grundy County, 24 Iowa 382, which was an action by M on a county warrant, the petition set out a copy of a warrant purporting to have been issued to B or order, and by him assigned to S or bearer. It was held that the assignment to S or bearer, and the possession of the instrument by M were sufficient to enable him to maintain the action.

Due to holder as upon direct promise.— County warrants payable to bearer are not assignable within the meaning of the act of congress of 1875 regulating the jurisdiction of federal courts. They are taken to be due on an original and direct promise from the maker to the bearer and not by assignment from the first holder. Jerome v. Rio Grande County, 18 Fed. 873, 5 McCrary 639.

96. Garvin v. Wiswell, 83 Ill. 215.

97. Craig v. Mason, 64 Mo. App. 342.

98. See, generally, Commercial Paper.

99. Alabama.—Allen v. McCreary, 101 Ala. 514, 14 So. 320; Savage v. Mathews, 98 Ala. 535, 13 So. 328.

Arkansas.— Crawford County v. Wilson, 7 Ark. 214.

California.— Santa Cruz County Bank v. Bartlett, 78 Cal. 301, 20 Pac. 682; People v. Gray, 23 Cal. 125; Keller v. Hicks, 22 Cal. 457, 83 Am. Dec. 78; Dana v. San Francisco, 19 Cal. 486; People v. El Dorado County, 11 Cal. 170.

Colorado.— People v. Hull, 8 Colo. 485, 9 Pac. 34; People v. Rio Grande County, 11 Colo. App. 124, 52 Pac. 748.

Illinois.— People v. Johnson, 100 Ill. 537; 39 Am. Rep. 63 [affirming 8 Ill. App. 395]; Garvin v. Wiswell, 83 Ill. 215; Cook County v. Lowe, 23 Ill. App. 649; Hall v. Jackson County, 5 Ill. App. 609.

Indiana.— State v. Benson, 70 Ind. 481.

Iowa.— Clark v. Polk County, 19 Iowa 248.

Kansas.— Garfield Tp. v. Crocker, 63 Kan. 272, 65 Pac. 273.

North Carolina.— McPeeters v. Blankenship, 123 N. C. 651, 31 S. E. 876. See also Gastonia First Nat. Bank v. Warlick, 125 N. C. 593, 34 S. E. 687.

North Dakota.— Erskine v. Steele County, 4 N. D. 339, 60 N. W. 1050, 28 L. R. A. 645.

Tennessee.—Donaldson v. Walker, 101 Tenn. 236, 47 S. W. 417; Camp v. Knox County, 3 Lea 199.

Texas.— Stringer v. Morris, 82 Tex. 39, 17 S. W. 926; Leach v. Wilson County, 62 Tex. 331; Lane v. Hunt County, 13 Tex. Civ. App. 315, 35 S. W. 10.

United States.— Wall v. Monroe County, 103 U. S. 74, 26 L. ed. 430; Jerome v. Rio Grande County, 18 Fed. 873, 5 McCrary 639; Kinsey v. Little River County, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,829; Shirk v. Pulaski County, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,794, 4 Dill. 209.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 249.

No innocent holder of illegal warrant.— There can be no innocent holder of a warrant against a county issued without authority of law, if the record of such warrant provided for by a statute in such cases, discloses on its face the illegality of its issuance. Honea v. Monroe County, 63 Miss. 171.

1. People v. Gray, 23 Cal. 125; Jerome v. Rio Grande County, 18 Fed. 873, 5 McCrary 639.

2. Santa Cruz County Bank v. Bartlett, 78 Cal. 301, 20 Pac. 682; People v. Hall, 8 Colo. 485, 9 Pac. 34; Van Akin v. Dunn, 117 Mich. 421, 75 N. W. 938; Loomis v. Brown County, 15 S. D. 606, 91 N. W. 309.

3. Howell v. Hogins, 37 Ark. 110. And see Gamble v. Clark, 92 Ga. 695, 19 S. E. 54.

4. Andrew County v. Schell, 135 Mo. 31, 36 S. W. 206.

The burden of proof to justify refusal of payment of a warrant is on the treasurer, when it appears that the claim was allowed and an order made to draw a warrant, and that it was regularly drawn by the auditor

b. From What Funds Payable.[5] No county order or warrant should be drawn on any fund not properly raised for its payment,[6] as claims against counties can be satisfied only out of the revenue available for the payment of such claims;[7] and as a general rule where a county order or warrant is on its face payable out of a special fund, the holder having accepted the same can look only to such fund for the payment of his claim,[8] and cannot recover payment after such fund has been exhausted,[9] unless the county has diverted the money of such fund from the payment of the warrants drawn against it and has used the same for other purposes.[10] A state legislature being the paramount political power can direct and control county officers in their disposition of the money of the county, and may forbid the payment by the treasurer of warrants issued on indebtedness occurring prior to a certain date, except with funds then on hand or subsequently received and belonging to the revenue of the county previous to such date.[11]

c. Order in Which Warrants Payable. The order in which county orders or warrants shall be paid is usually fixed by statute, and when so fixed cannot be and delivered to the respondents. McGowan v. Ford, 107 Cal. 177, 40 Pac. 231.

5. Application to legislature for means of payment.—Where an act provides what taxes may be imposed by a county for county purposes, and designates the purpose to which each fund shall be devoted, no provision being made for that class of indebtedness to which certain warrants belong, except the funding provisions contained in the act, where there are no funds in the treasury applicable to the purpose for which a warrant was issued when the holder demanded payment of the treasurer, his only remedy is to apply to the legislature to provide means of paying his debt. Rose v. Estudillo, 39 Cal. 270.

6. Mitchell v. Speer, 39 Ga. 56.

7. Cooper v. Wait, 106 Ky. 628, 51 S. W. 161, 21 Ky. L. Rep. 229; Wilson v. Knox County, 132 Mo. 387, 34 S. W. 45, 477.

Payment from general fund of subsequent year.—A county warrant drawn on the general county fund of one year may be paid out of the general fund of a subsequent year, in Missouri (Wilson v. Knox County, 132 Mo. 387, 34 S. W. 45, 477; Reynolds v. Norman, 114 Mo. 509, 21 S. W. 845); but not until all warrants drawn for the expenses of the year for which the taxes were levied have been paid (Andrew County v. Schell, 135 Mo. 31, 36 S. W. 206). In California and Kentucky each year's revenue must pay each year's indebtedness. McGowan v. Ford, 107 Cal. 177, 40 Pac. 231; Cooper v. Wait, 106 Ky. 628, 51 S. W. 161, 21 Ky. L. Rep. 229.

Payment of warrants for jurors' fees from general fund.— Under Kan. Comp. Laws (1879), pp. 445, 446, §§ 16, 20, 21, providing for the payment of jurors' fees out of the county treasury, warrants issued by the county in payment of such fees should be paid out of the general fund, if the treasurer has sufficient money on hand, although such payment will not leave sufficient funds to pay the fees and salaries of the county officers, clerks, and employees, and Laws (1876), c. 36, § 4, providing that no warrant of the county of Leavenworth shall be drawn or issued on the treasurer, in payment of any indebtedness to exceed the amount of funds on hand in the treasury, to the credit of the fund on which the order is drawn at the time, after reserving therefrom a sum sufficient to pay the fees and salaries of the county officers, clerks, and employees, is unconstitutional and void. Shepherd v. Helmers, 23 Kan. 504.

Warrant to defray the expenses of making assessments for taxation drawn by the county treasurer under S. C. Acts (1874), § 84, is payable "from the first collection of county funds" of the fiscal year for which the assessments were made, and not of the fiscal year in which they were made. State v. Ransom, 9 S. C. 199.

8. State v. Hortsman, 149 Mo. 290, 50 S. W. 811; Moody v. Cass County, 85 Mo. 477, 74 Mo. 307; Campbell v. Polk County Ct., 76 Mo. 57; Kingsberry v. Pettis County, 48 Mo. 207, 17 Mo. 479; State v. Seaman, 23 Ohio St. 389; Theis v. Washita County, 9 Okla. 643, 60 Pac. 505; Loomis v. Brown County, 15 S. D. 606, 91 N. W. 309.

9. Moody v. Cass County, 85 Mo. 477; Campbell v. Polk County Ct., 76 Mo. 57; Campbell v. Polk County, 49 Mo. 214; Hall v. State, 54 Nebr. 280, 74 N. W. 590; Redmon v. Chacey, 7 N. D. 231, 73 N. W. 1081.

Words descriptive of purpose only.— Under a provision that all moneys belonging to the county as such and not held by it in trust constitute one fund out of which all its liabilities are to be paid, an order on the county treasurer made payable out of the fund for jail purposes is payable out of the general county fund, and these words must be understood as simply descriptive of the purpose for which the order was drawn and not as a limitation. Montague v. Horton, 12 Wis. 599.

10. Valleau v. Newton County, 81 Mo. 591, 72 Mo. 593; State Sav. Bank v. Davis, 22 Wash. 406, 61 Pac. 43.

11. McDonald v. Maddux, 11 Cal. 187.

changed by county boards or courts.[12] While it has sometimes been provided that county orders or warrants shall be paid in the order of their issuance,[13] the usual provision is that such warrants or orders shall be paid in the order in which they shall be presented for payment,[14] or regularly reached in the order of their registration.[15]

d. Powers and Duties of Treasurer. A county treasurer is not required to pay all warrants drawn upon him, but only such as are founded on orders of the board of supervisors for the payment of demands legally chargeable against the county and allowed by the board;[16] and he may and should refuse to pay warrants known by him to have been drawn for claims not authorized by law, or expenditures beyond the power of the board to incur,[17] or to have been improvidently issued.[18] Where, however, a county board issues a warrant which they are authorized to issue, the treasurer can exercise no discretion, but it is his duty to pay the same.[19] It is the duty of a county treasurer upon refusal to pay a war-

12. Laforge v. Magee, 6 Cal. 285.

13. Mitchell v. Speer, 39 Ga. 56; Munson v. Mudgett, 15 Wash. 321, 46 Pac. 256.

14. California.— Laforge v. Magee, 6 Cal. 285; McCall v. Harris, 6 Cal. 281; Taylor v. Brooks, 5 Cal. 332.

Colorado.— People v. Austin, 11 Colo. 134, 17 Pac. 485; Hockaday v. Chaffee County, 1 Colo. App. 362, 29 Pac. 287.

Kansas.—Monroe v. Crawford, 9 Kan. App. 749, 58 Pac. 232.

Missouri.— State v. Johnson, 162 Mo. 621, 63 S. W. 390; State v. Hortsman, 149 Mo. 290, 50 S. W. 811; Andrew County v. Schell, 135 Mo. 31, 36 S. W. 206; State v. Trammel, (1889) 11 S. W. 747; Morrow v. Surber, 97 Mo. 155, 11 S. W. 48.

Montana.— Greeley v. Cascade County, 22 Mont. 580, 57 Pac. 274.

South Dakota.— Stuart v. Custer County, 14 S. D. 155, 84 N. W. 764.

United States.— U. S. v. Macon County Ct., 75 Fed. 259; Hamilton County v. Sherwood, 64 Fed. 103, 11 C. C. A. 507.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 252.

Application to payment of old warrants from surplus.—State v. Johnson, 162 Mo. 621, 63 S. W. 390.

Applies only as between warrants of given year.— In Shaw v. Statler, 74 Cal. 258, 15 Pac. 883, it was held that section 77 of the California county government act, providing that claims against a county are entitled to payment "according to priority of time in which they were presented," must be construed as requiring priority of payment only as between the warrants of any given year.

Order not changed by recovery of judgment.—Monroe v. Crawford, 9 Kan. App. 749, 58 Pac. 232; Garden City First Nat. Bank v. Morton County, 7 Kan. App. 739, 52 Pac. 580.

Priority as affected by commencement of fiscal year.— Under Mo. Rev. Stat. (1889), § 3166, providing that county warrants "for any one year" shall be paid in the order in which they were registered with the county treasurer, warrants registered between January 1 and May 1 are entitled to priority of payment over those registered after May 1, since the fiscal year of a county begins January 1. State v. Allison, 155 Mo. 325, 56 S. W. 467, where it was further held that the provision that no warrant shall be paid out of the county's revenue for any one year until the expenses incurred in maintaining the county for that year are paid, a county treasurer cannot refuse to pay warrants issued for the current expenses of the county for the fiscal year because warrants issued prior to the fiscal year were unpaid.

15. Grayson v. Latham, 84 Ala. 546, 4 So. 200, 866.

Although warrants on a county fund are payable in the order of registration, it is not necessary, where several are registered at the same time, that enough to satisfy all be accumulated before there is any payment, but a reasonable amount being accumulated it should be distributed among them. U. S. v. Macon County Ct., 75 Fed. 259.

16. Keller v. Hyde, 20 Cal. 593.

17. Kelly v. Sersanous, (Cal. 1896) 46 Pac. 299; Ventura County v. Clay, 114 Cal. 242, 46 Pac. 9; Von Schmidt v. Widber, 105 Cal. 151, 38 Pac. 682; Los Angeles County v. Landershim, 100 Cal. 525, 35 Pac. 153, 556; Linden v. Case, 46 Cal. 171; Friedman v. Horning, 128 Mich. 606, 87 N. W. 752; Merkel v. Berks County, 81* Pa. St. 505. And see Jefferson County v. Arrighi, 54 Miss. 668.

Where a county warrant was issued during the Civil war by a county in one of the Confederate States to the sheriff for taxes overpaid during such war, the amount overpaid, undoubtedly in Confederate money, being taxes for the support of the war, the illegality of the allowance affords conclusive ground for its non-payment. Files v. McWilliams, 49 Miss. 578.

18. Priet v. Hubert, 62 Cal. 9.

19. Von Schmidt v. Widber, 105 Cal. 151, 38 Pac. 682; Friedman v. Horning, 128 Mich. 606, 87 N. W. 752; Hendricks v. Johnson, 45 Miss. 644; State v. McAlpin, 26 N. C. 140.

Personal liability for non-payment.—A teacher of a common school, in whose favor an order is drawn by the school commissioners on the county trustee for services actually rendered under a valid contract, is entitled to have the same paid by the trustee out rant upon presentation for want of funds to indorse such warrant, "Not paid for want of funds," and for failure so to do he will be personally liable.[20] Where the order is drawn subject to the deduction of delinquent taxes due from the payee, the county treasurer may deduct delinquent taxes due from the payee on paying an order presented to him.[21]

e. Sufficiency and Effect of Payment.[22] It has been held that receiving county warrants in payment of taxes,[23] their purchase by the county treasurer,[24] or the parting with such warrants at a sacrifice on account of the failure of the county to pay them on demand, constitute a valid payment of such warrants.[25] Where county orders or warrants payable to bearer are presented, and the county treasurer pays the same in good faith and without notice of defect in the title of the one presenting the same, as it is his duty to do under such circumstances, the county will be discharged from any further liability thereon.[26] Where county orders or warrants have been paid by the county treasurer[27] they lose their vitality and are thereby extinguished as evidence of indebtedness, and cannot again become valid securities in the hands of an innocent holder.[28]

7. Interest on Warrants. As a general rule in the absence of statutory provision therefor, county orders or warrants in the usual form do not bear interest,[29] at least until after demand and refusal of payment,[30] and in some jurisdictions the of any money in his hands, when the order is presented, belonging to the school district, or the first money which may come to his hands thereafter, whether the money be received on the apportionment for the year in which the services were rendered or any subsequent year, and the trustee is personally liable to the holder of the order for the amount called for if he fails to pay it in the order of its presentation. The holder of the order is not required to resort to a mandamus. Bayless v. Driskell, 5 Lea (Tenn.) 265.

Where a warrant is regular and legal in form, it is the duty of the treasurer to pay the same, and he is not liable for an illegal payment unless he has notice that it was not based upon a lawful demand or of facts sufficient to put an ordinarily prudent officer upon inquiry, which, if diligently prosecuted, would lead to a discovery of the illegality of the claim. Los Angeles County v. Lankershein, 100 Cal. 525, 35 Pac. 153, 556.

20. Marks v. Purdue University, 56 Ind. 288.

Mandamus to compel indorsement.— It has also been held in Montana that mandamus will lie to compel such indorsement as of the time the party presenting the warrant was entitled thereto. Territory v. Gilbert, 1 Mont. 371.

21. State v. Miller, 145 Ind. 598, 44 N. E. 309.

22. The holder of a county warrant issued by a county in one of the Confederate States during the Civil war can only require in payment the equivalent in lawful currency of the amount of the bond in Confederate money at the date of the warrant. Clayton v. McWilliams, 49 Miss. 311.

23. So held under a Kansas statute. Thorpe v. Cochran, 7 Kan. App. 726, 52 Pac. 107.

24. Allen v. McCreary, 101 Ala. 514, 14 So. 320, holding that the purchase by a county treasurer or his deputy of county certificates when he has county funds in his hands, and which he does not account for on the expiration of his office, is in law a payment of such certificates with the county funds which were unaccounted for, and a transferee of such officer cannot again collect them.

25. Crawford County v. Wilson, 7 Ark. 214, where it was held that although the original payee of county warrants may have parted with them at a sacrifice on account of the failure of the county to pay them on demand, by thus parting with them he elected to regard them as payment, and he cannot recover of the county the difference between the nominal amount of the warrants and the price at which he sold them.

26. Sweet v. Carver County Com'rs, 16 Minn. 106.

27. Where, however, without any fraudulent intent the holder of large county orders exchanges them with the treasurer for smaller ones which he had paid, but which had never been allowed in his accounts, the debt represented by the large orders is not extinguished. Chemung Canal Bank v. Chemung County, 5 Den. (N. Y.) 517.

28. Chemung Canal Bank v. Chemung County, 5 Den. (N. Y.) 517; Lane v. Hunt County, 13 Tex. Civ. App. 315, 35 S. W. 10.

29. Illinois.— Madison County v. Bartlett, 2 Ill. 67.

Mississippi.— Warren County v. Klein, 51 Miss. 807.

Oregon.— Seton v. Hoyt, 34 Oreg. 266, 55 Pac. 967, 75 Am. St. Rep. 641, 43 L. R. A. 634.

Pennsylvania.—Com. v. Philadelphia County Com'rs, 4 Serg. & R. 125.

Texas.— Ashe v. Harris County, 55 Tex. 49,

30. Skinner v. Platte County, 22 Mo. 437.

After demand of payment and refusal and indorsement thereof by treasurer in some jurisdictions warrants bear interest.

Iowa.—Rooney v. Dubuque County, 44 Iowa allowance or payment of interest on county scrip is expressly forbidden,[31] even after such demand and refusal,[32] and even though the order contains a clause for the payment of interest where there is no authority for allowing interest.[33] Counties may, however, be authorized by an act of the legislature to issue interest-bearing orders payable in the future.[34]

8. Acceptance in Discharge of Obligations to County. County warrants have been held to be receivable in discharge of county or city revenue, license, tax, assessment, fine, penalty, or forfeiture,[35] etc.

9. Surrender For Examination, Redemption, Reissue, or Funding — a. Power to Require. A state legislature may by statute authorize the proper fiscal officers of 128; Brown v. Johnson County, 1 Greene 486.

Missouri.— Robbins v. Lincoln County Ct., 3 Mo. 57.

Montana.— Higgins v. Edwards, 2 Mont. 585; Territory v. Gilbert, 1 Mont. 371.

North Carolina.— Yellowly v. Pitt County Com'rs, 73 N. C. 164.

Oregon.— Seton v. Hoyt, 34 Oreg. 266, 55 Pac. 967, 75 Am. St. Rep. 641, 43 L. R. A. 634.

Change of legal rate of interest after a warrant is indorsed "not paid" for want of funds and before the time of payment does not affect the right of the holder to interest at the rate payable when the warrant was so indorsed. Seton v. Hoyt, 34 Oreg. 266, 55 Pac. 967, 75 Am. St. Rep. 641, 43 L. R. A. 634.

Effect of failure to indorse non-payment.— The neglect of the county treasurer to properly indorse a county warrant that has been duly presented to him for payment does not release the county from its liability to pay the interest authorized by the statute, and the court will regard the indorsement as made, because it should have been made. Territory v. Gilbert, 1 Mont. 371.

Necessity for actual tender to suspend accumulation.— Nothing but an actual tender of the amount due on outstanding county warrants, which have been indorsed by the treasurer, "Not paid for lack of funds," will suspend the accumulation of interest thereon. Mere publication of notice that the treasurer is ready to redeem them is not sufficient for that purpose. Rooney v. Dubuque County, 44 Iowa 128.

No interest till special fund created.— A county order, payable out of a special fund to be created, is not due until the fund is created; and judgment cannot be rendered upon it, unless that fact is established; nor does such an order draw interest before the fund is created. Brown v. Johnson County, 1 Greene (Iowa) 486.

On past-due instalment of donation.— Where the board of county commissioners made an order providing for a donation to a college, and that it should be paid in five instalments without interest, it was held that the fair construction was that none of the instalments should bear interest until they respectively became due. After an instalment became due and a warrant was issued for it, if it could not be paid for want of funds, there was no reason why it should not bear interest like any other county order not paid for want of funds. Marks v. Purdue University, 37 Ind. 155.

Until money in treasury to meet warrant. — In Davidson County v. Olwill, 4 Lea (Tenn.) 28, it was held that the county court, as the representative of the county, may, in consideration of forbearance to sue, contract with a creditor of the county for the payment of interest on a county warrant after its registration by the county trustee, until there is money in the treasury to meet it in its regular order, but no longer.

31. Jacks v. Turner, 36 Ark. 89; Hall v. Jackson County, 95 Ill. 352; Madison County v. Bartlett, 2 Ill. 67.

32. Jacks v. Turner, 36 Ark. 89; Camp v. Knox County, 3 Lea (Tenn.) 199; Alexander v. Oneida County, 76 Wis. 56, 45 N. W. 21.

33. Hall v. Jackson County, 95 Ill. 352. Compare San Patricio County v. McClane, 58 Tex. 243, holding that a county court may, under its authority to provide for public buildings and to allow and settle county accounts and direct their payment, issue interest-bearing warrants.

34. Frankford Real Estate, etc., Co. v. Jackson County, 98 Fed. 942, 39 C. C. A. 355.

In cases where interest is allowed, illegal county warrants subsequently ratified and validated by a popular vote will bear interest as though they were valid at their inception. Williams v. Shoudy, 12 Wash. 362, 41 Pac. 169.

35. U. S. v. Macon County Ct., 45 Fed. 400, receivable in payment of special tax levied for payment of county bonds, although the priority in which such warrants are required by law to be paid is thereby defeated.

For county taxes.— Howell v. Hogins, 37 Ark. 110; English v. Oliver, 28 Ark. 317; Thorpe v. Cochran, 7 Kan. App. 726, 52 Pac. 107; State v. Payne, 151 Mo. 663, 52 S. W. 412, not for any year other than that for which they were issued.

In payment of fine.— Lusk v. Perkins, 48 Ark. 238, 2 S. W. 847.

Parol evidence inadmissible to show agreement to pay in money.— All debts due a county, being by statute (Ark. Dig. 1884, § 1146) payable in its warrants, a county cannot prove by parol, in defense to a petition for the sheriff to receive such warrants in payment of a judgment recovered by it, that it was agreed that the note on which such a county to issue an order calling in county warrants for redemption, funding, cancellation, and reissue, examination or classification[36] upon the giving of proper notice of such order.[37]

b. Effect of Non-Compliance With Order. In one state it has been held that warrants not presented after due notice of an order calling them in no longer exist as debts against the county, and such failure to present constitutes a good defense to an action thereon.[38] In another it has been held that while the legislature of a state cannot require the creditors of a county to surrender their evidences of indebtedness and accept new ones different in terms from the old,[39] it may refuse to provide funds to pay any portion of the old indebtedness unless the creditors will accept new evidence in place of the old.[40]

c. Remedy Where Warrants Surrendered For Void Bond. The owner of parish warrants who surrenders them to the parish in exchange for bonds of the parish which prove to be void acquires no right of action for damages against the parish because the warrants had been destroyed by the parish to the knowledge and with the tacit consent of the owner.[41] Where a county undertakes to fund its outstanding indebtedness into bonds, and on issuing such bonds, payable to bearer, judgment was based should be paid in money, when neither note nor judgment specifies in what medium it is to be paid, since to do so would be to modify the terms of a written instrument by parol. Richie v. Frazer, 50 Ark. 393, 8 S. W. 143.

Use by assignee.— Where warrants have been received from an assignee thereof in payment of taxes, and such payment has been approved by the county court on the settlement of the accounts of the county treasurer, such payment will be considered sufficient, although the assignment was not in the form required by law. U. S. v. Macon County Ct., 45 Fed. 400.

36. Arkansas.— Crudup v. Richardson, 61 Ark. 259, 32 S. W. 684; Thompson v. Scanlan, (1891) 16 S. W. 197; Lusk v. Perkins, 48 Ark. 238, 2 S. W. 847; Goldsmith v. Stewart, 45 Ark. 149; Allen v. Bankston, 33 Ark. 740; Fry v. Reynolds, 33 Ark. 450; Seymour v. Jefferson County, 28 Ark. 254; Chicot County v. Campbell, 23 Ark. 699.

California.— People v. Morse, 43 Cal. 534; Soher v. Calaveras County, 39 Cal. 134; Hunsaker v. Borden, 5 Cal. 288, 63 Am. Dec. 130.

Louisiana.— State v. Funding Bd., 39 La. Ann. 395, 1 So. 910; O'Connor v. East Baton Rouge Parish, 31 La. Ann. 221.

Montana.— Thomas v. Smith, 1 Mont. 21.

North Dakota.— Erskine v. Nelson County, 4 N. D. 66, 58 N. W. 348, 27 L. R. A. 696.

United States.— Ouachita County v. Wolcott, 103 U. S. 559, 26 L. ed. 505; Cissell v. Pulaski County, 10 Fed. 891, 3 McCrary 446.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 255.

Funding of auditor's warrants.— The constitutional ordinance of Louisiana for the relief of delinquent taxpayers, which authorizes the funding of auditor's warrants in "baby" bonds, only grants to the warrant holder the option of having his warrants exchanged for bonds, to be exercised prior to Jan. 1, 1886, the date therein fixed for their maturity. The power conferred upon the funding board continues subsequent to that date for the sole purpose of examining, auditing, and funding, nunc pro tunc, such warrants as shall have been presented to them, or to some officer of the board antecedent to that date. State v. Funding Bd., 39 La. Ann. 395, 1 So. 910.

Validation of warrants issued in excess of authority.— In Erskine v. Nelson County, 4 N. D. 66, 58 N. W. 348, 27 L. R. A. 696, it was held that the act of March 13, 1885, authorizing Nelson county to fund its outstanding indebtedness and call in all outstanding warrants, validates county warrants theretofore issued in excess of authority.

37. Miller County v. Gazola, 65 Ark. 353, 46 S. W. 423; Crudup v. Richardson, 61 Ark. 259, 32 S. W. 684; Thompson v. Scanlan, (Ark. 1891) 16 S. W. 197; Lusk v. Perkins, 48 Ark. 238, 2 S. W. 847. And see cases cited supra, note 36.

County cannot object to want of notice.— The notice required by the statute to be given of the order of the county court calling in warrants for cancellation and reissue is for the benefit of the warrant holders, and the county cannot object that legal notice of such call was not given. Cissell v. Pulaski County, 10 Fed. 891, 3 McCrary 446.

Order allowing less than statutory time for presentaton.— An order of the county court calling in county warrants for reissue, which gives less than three months from its date to the time appointed for presenting the warrants, is invalid, and a scrip holder is not obliged to appeal from it or quash it by certiorari, but may compel the county collector by mandamus from the circuit court to receive his scrip for county taxes. Fry v. Reynolds, 33 Ark. 450.

38. Cope v. Collins, 37 Ark. 649; Ouachita County v. Wolcott, 103 U. S. 559, 26 L. ed. 505.

39. People v. Morse, 43 Cal. 534; Soher v. Calaveras County, 39 Cal. 134; Hunsaker v. Borden, 5 Cal. 288, 63 Am. Dec. 130.

40. People v. Morse, 43 Cal. 534.

41. A suit on the discharged warrants to recover their amount is the form of action proper in such a case. O'Connor v. East Baton Rouge Parish, 31 La. Ann. 221.

takes up, cancels, and destroys the warrants evidencing such indebtedness, and the bonds are bought in the open market, and are afterward repudiated by the county, and are held by the court to be void, for want of power at the time in the county to issue them, the purchaser of the bonds for a valuable consideration, on offering to surrender them to the county, is entitled to be subrogated to the rights of the original holder of the warrants.[42] So also where county warrants, valid, but lacking a necessary recital, are delivered up in exchange for new warrants which prove to be void, the holder can compel a return of the original warrants and their reformation by inserting the necessary recital, and an assignee of one of the void warrants is entitled to the same relief.[43]

10. PROCEEDINGS TO ENFORCE — a. By Mandamus.[44] In a number of jurisdictions an action will not lie in the state courts for the refusal of payment of county warrants, but the proper remedy is by mandamus against the treasurer,[45] at least in all cases where the treasurer is in funds;[46] and it has been held that a statute giving the right to sue a county does not embrace cases where claims have been allowed and warrants issued, and that it is only where a county board has refused to allow a claim that suit may be brought on it.[47] Express provision is made in some states for the trial of issues of fact raised by traverse to the return upon

42. Coffin v. Kearney County, 114 Fed. 518 [following Irvine v. Kearney County, 75 Fed. 765].

The statute of limitations does not begin to run against such suit until denial by the county of its obligation on such bonds; and the action of the county commissioners of such county in adopting a resolution recognizing the obligation of the county on the warrants and directing the funding of the debt into bonds is tantamount to a new acknowledgment, and stops the running of the statute of limitations. Coffin v. Kearney County, 114 Fed. 518.

43. Goldsmith v. Stewart, 45 Ark. 149.

44. See, generally, MANDAMUS.

45. Day v. Callow, 39 Cal. 593; Dana v. San Francisco, 19 Cal. 486; Polk v. Tunica County, 52 Miss. 422; Klein v. Warren County, 51 Miss. 878; Greeley v. Cascade County, 22 Mont. 580, 57 Pac. 274. And see Commissioners Ct. v. Moore, 53 Ala. 25; Elmore County v. Long, 52 Ala. 277.

Not per se a proper subject of action.— In Port Royal v. Graham, 84 Pa. St. 426, it was held that although an ordinary county warrant drawn on the treasurer in payment of a debt is not per se a proper subject of an action, such an instrument of writing in the form of a warrant, and to be held as a voucher, may contain other matters which make it a contract and evidence of debt.

Liability of county on orders by military board.— Where orders were made upon the county treasurer by the military board under the provisions of the militia act of April 8, 1870, and its supplements, the county is not liable therefor, and the remedy of the holder is against the county treasurer to compel payment. Wyoming County v. Bardwell, 84 Pa. St. 104.

Doubtful claims.— Under Tex. Rev. Stat. art. 998, which provides that if the county treasurer has any doubt of the legality of a warrant presented for payment he shall not pay the same, but report it to the commissioners' court for their consideration, if he has doubts of its validity and has been ordered by the commissioners' court not to pay the warrant, he cannot be compelled by mandamus to act in violation of that discretion, unless there was evidence that he had acted arbitrarily and without any reason in the matter. Walker v. Barnard, 8 Tex. Civ. App. 14, 27 S. W. 726.

46. Hockaday v. Chaffee County, 1 Colo. App. 362, 29 Pac. 287; Ray v. Wilson, 29 Fla. 342, 10 So. 613, 14 L. R. A. 773; Wood v. State, 155 Ind. 1, 55 N. E. 959; Greeley v. Cascade County, 22 Mont. 580, 57 Pac. 274.

Must show funds at time of demand.— One seeking to compel a county treasurer to pay orders which sixteen months before were duly stamped "Paid" by respondent's predecessor, pursuant to Burns Rev. Stat. Ind. (1894), § 7998, must show not only non-payment but that at the time of demand the money liable to the payment was still in the treasury; there being no presumption that such money, shown to be there at the time the orders were drawn, remained in the treasury to the time of demand. Wood v. State, 155 Ind. 1, 55 N. E. 959.

47. Klein v. Warren County, 51 Miss. 878.

Necessity to show real foundation of indebtedness.— The holder of a county warrant cannot sue the county in an ordinary action, based upon the warrants. If the instrument upon which this action is based is declared on as a county warrant, the action cannot be maintained. If it is to be regarded as an action on a debt contracted by the board of police, out of the ordinary course of dealing, the declaration must show the circumstances which authorized the board to contract such a debt. In no case is the warrant, which is the act of the clerk, a cause of action. It is the order of the board allowing such claim which is the evidence of the claimant's right, and the foundation of any proceeding against the board. Polk v. Tunica County, 52 Miss. 422.

the writ.[48] It has been held in one state that no statute of limitation operates against the right to bring mandamus because the party entitled to payment cannot coerce satisfaction by suing out execution.[49]

b. By Action — (i) Right to Maintain. The weight of authority as shown in the decisions is, however, to the effect that upon the non-payment of county warrants or orders upon demand, a judgment may be obtained against the county in an ordinary action in the nature of assumpsit, debt, or covenant,[50] without going back to the original consideration.[51] It has been held in some jurisdictions that suit can be maintained thereon if not paid on presentation without regard to whether an appropriation adequate to pay such warrants has been made,[52] and although there is no money in the treasury to pay;[53] but in others it has been held that where a warrant is drawn upon a special fund no action can rightfully be brought thereon until such fund is raised, or at least until sufficient time has elapsed to enable the county to levy and collect it in the mode provided by law.[54] In the federal courts it has been held that the remedy of the holder of county warrants for non-payment is by action at law prosecuted to judgment as a foundation for a writ of mandamus to compel the levy and collection of a tax

48. Wood v. State, 155 Ind. 1, 55 N. E. 959; Greeley v. Cascade County, 22 Mont. 580, 57 Pac. 274.

49. Taylor v. Chickasaw County, 70 Miss. 87, 12 So. 210; Klein v. Smith County, 54 Miss. 254; Carroll v. Board of Police, 28 Miss. 38.

50. Illinois.— People v. Clark County, 50 Ill. 213.

Iowa.— Campbell v. Polk County, 3 Iowa 467; Steel v. Davis County, 2 Greene 469; Brown v. Johnson County, 1 Greene 486.

Kansas.— Atchison, etc., R. Co. v. Kearny County, 58 Kan. 19, 48 Pac. 583.

Missouri.— International Bank v. Franklin County, 65 Mo. 105, 27 Am. Rep. 261.

New York.— Staten Island Bank v. New York, 68 N. Y. App. Div. 231, 74 N. Y. Suppl. 284.

South Dakota.— Kane v. Hughes County, 12 S. D. 438, 81 N. W. 894; Heffleman v. Pennington County, 3 S. D. 162, 52 N. W. 851.

Wisconsin.—Markwell v. Waushara County, 10 Wis. 73; Pelton v. Crawford County Sup'rs, 10 Wis. 69; Savage v. Crawford County Sup'rs, 10 Wis. 49.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 256.

In Tennessee the question as to whether county warrants are instruments of such character that suits can be maintained thereon seems not to be definitely settled. In Bradley County v. Surgoine, 9 Baxt. (Tenn.) 407, it seems to have been assumed that they were such instruments, while in the later case of Camp v. Knox County, 3 Lea (Tenn.) 199, this was seriously questioned. In Gibson County v. Rains, 11 Lea (Tenn.) 20, the court held that it was unnecessary to determine the question as no objection was taken in the court below.

County a necessary party defendant.— In Heritage v. Bronnenberg, 25 Ind. App. 692, 58 N. E. 1064, it was held that where the holder of a county warrant brought an action for its payment against the county treasurer without making the county a party defendant, he could not recover, since the county, and not the county treasurer, was the debtor.

51. Campbell v. Polk County, 3 Iowa 467; Brown v. Johnson County, 1 Greene (Iowa) 486.

Even in those jurisdictions where mandamus is the proper remedy for non-payment of warrants, where the treasurer is in funds, it has been held that if the fund appropriated for the payment of a warrant has been illegally withdrawn and appropriated to other purposes by the county authorities and a proceeding by mandamus would be useless, an action in assumpsit is maintainable. Hockaday v. Chaffee County, 1 Colo. App. 362, 29 Pac. 287.

52. Thompson v. Searcy County, 57 Fed. 1030, 6 C. C. A. 674.

53. Wilson v. Knox County, 132 Mo. 387, 34 S. W. 45, 477; International Bank v. Franklin County, 65 Mo. 105, 27 Am. Rep. 261 [overruling Howells v. Reynolds County, 51 Mo. 154].

Action on warrants on ditch fund — Judgment when no such fund.— Where a ditch has been constructed by the county under statutory authority and warrants have been drawn on the ditch fund, and payment thereof is refused, when presented to the county treasurer, because the supervisors have not raised a fund by the levy of a tax, as contemplated by Iowa Code, § 1214, the holder of the warrant is entitled to a judgment against the county for the amount thereof, and to the enforcement of payment by the levy of a tax in obedience to the provisions of the statute. It is not necessary to the recovery of such judgment that a request be made upon the supervisors to raise a fund by the levy of the proper tax, and that such request be denied. Mills County Nat. Bank v. Mills County, 67 Iowa 697, 25 N. W. 884.

54. Forbes v. Grand County, 23 Colo. 344, 47 Pac. 388; Brewer v. Otoe County, 1 Nebr. 373; King Iron Bridge, etc., Co. v. Otoe County, 124 U. S. 459, 8 S. Ct. 582, 31 L. ed. 514; Chapman v. Douglass County, 107 U. S. 348, 2 S. Ct. 62, 27 L. ed. 378.

for the payment of such warrants,[55] when the sum in controversy and the character of the parties confer jurisdiction,[56] and that the remedy by mandamus is not lost by a merger of the warrant in a judgment recovered thereon in the federal court.[57]

(II) Limitation of Action. The period of limitation for bringing suit on county warrants depends of course on statutory provisions. If there are no statutes especially relating to warrants, the period of limitation will be that governing actions on written contracts generally.[58] In some jurisdictions, however, there are special provisions relating to county warrants.[59] There is some diversity of holding in respect to the time when the statute of limitations begins to run against the right to bring an action on a county warrant. In one state it has been held that the statute commences to run from the time of issuance and delivery of the warrant to those in whose favor they are drawn.[60] In others it is held that the statute does not begin to run from the date of issuance or refusal of payment, but only from the time when the money for payment is collected.[61] If the warrant is payable out of a particular fund, the county cannot avail itself of the statute of limitations without first showing that it had provided such fund.[62]

(III) Jurisdiction of Federal Courts. The federal courts have jurisdiction of an action on county warrants payable to certain payees or to bearer, where the holder or assignee of such warrants who brings the action is a non-resident of the state in which the county issuing the warrants is situated, whether the payees named were citizens of such state or not,[63] and without reference to the citizenship of the payee where the other jurisdictional facts appear.[64]

Order not due till creation of fund.— A county order payable out of a special fund to be created is not due until the fund is created, nor is an action maintainable until then. Brown v. Johnson County, 1 Greene (Iowa) 486.

55. Chickaming Tp. v. Carpenter, 106 U. S. 663, 1 S. Ct. 620, 27 L. ed. 307; Jerome v. Rio Grande County, 18 Fed. 873, 5 McCrary 639; Goldman v. Conway County, 10 Fed. 888, 2 McCrary 327; Shirk v. Pulaski County, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,794, 4 Dill. 209. In Jerome v. Rio Grande County, 18 Fed. 873, 5 McCrary 639, it was held that regardless of the proceedings in the state courts the practice in the federal courts is to proceed to judgment, as a foundation for a writ of mandamus to compel the levy of taxes to pay county warrants, and when the holder of such warrants is a citizen of another state he may maintain an action thereon in the federal court even when the payee cannot maintain such action.

56. Lyell v. Lapeer County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,618, 6 McLean 446.

57. U. S. v. King, 74 Fed. 493.

58. See Crudup v. Ramsey, 54 Ark. 168, 15 S. W. 458; Thompson v. Searcy County, 57 Fed. 1030, 6 C. C. A. 674; Goldman v. Conway County, 10 Fed. 888, 2 McCrary 327.

59. In Missouri the statutes provide that county warrants not presented within five years' time after being presented and protested for want of funds and not presented again within five years shall be barred. This statute will govern such action to the extent of the exclusion of the general statutes of limitation. State v. Holt County Ct., 135 Mo. 533, 37 S. W. 521; Wilson v. Knox County, 132 Mo. 387, 34 S. W. 45, 477 [overruling (Mo. 1894) 28 S. W. 896]; Knox County v. Morton, 68 Fed. 787, 15 C. C. A. 671 [affirming 65 Fed. 369].

In South Dakota, if county warrants are required by statute to be sealed, the period of limitations is governed by the statute relating to sealed instruments. Heffleman v. Pennington County, 3 S. D. 162, 52 S. W. 851.

60. Crudup v. Ramsey, 54 Ark. 168, 15 S. W. 458; Thompson v. Searcy County, 57 Fed. 1030, 6 C. C. A. 674; Goldman v. Conway County, 10 Fed. 888, 2 McCrary 327.

In Iowa it was held in one case that the statutes do not begin to run until the fund out of which the warrant was payable came into existence (Wetmore v. Monona County, 73 Iowa 88, 34 N. W. 751); in another that, under a statute giving counties authority to make additional assessments to pay the costs of county ditches, limitations begin to run against actions on county warrants payable out of the ditch fund from the date of their issuance, and not from the date when they are assets actually in the fund out of which they are payable (Bodman v. Johnston County, 115 Iowa 296, 88 N. W. 331).

61. Apache County v. Barth, (Ariz. 1898) 53 Pac. 187; State v. Holt County Ct., 135 Mo. 533, 37 S. W. 521; Wilson v. Knox County, 132 Mo. 387, 34 S. W. 45, 477, 28 S. W. 896; Brewer v. Otoe County, 1 Nebr. 373; King Iron Bridge Mfg. Co. v. Otoe County, 124 U. S. 459, 8 S. Ct. 582, 31 L. ed. 514; Knox County v. Morton, 58 Fed. 787, 15 C. C. A. 671.

62. King Iron Bridge, etc., Co. v. Otoe County, 124 U. S. 459, 8 S. Ct. 582, 31 L. ed. 514.

63. Kearney County v. McMasters, 68 Fed. 177, 15 C. C. A. 353; Jerome v. Rio Grande County, 18 Fed. 873, 5 McCrary 639.

64. Thompson v. Searcy County, 57 Fed. 1030, 6 C. C. A. 674.

(IV) PLEADING—(A) Petition or Complaint. In an action on a large number of warrants the petition need not fully describe them, where the aggregate amount is stated, and an exhibit attached sets forth the date, amount, and payee of each warrant.[65] An allegation that county warrants were issued and delivered to plaintiff is sufficient to show that he is the present owner thereof.[66] If the action is based on a warrant payable out of a certain fund as fast as it shall accrue, it should be alleged that the county has reserved money from such fund with which such order or part thereof might be paid, or that the order or warrant was fraudulently drawn on a fund in which the county had no assets; and a complaint alleging that no part of the fund has accrued is bad on demurrer.[67] If it is alleged that the county had absolutely refused to pay the warrants and that other warrants of a similar class and later date and registration had been paid, it need not also be alleged that the county treasurer had funds from which to pay the warrants sued on.[68]

(B) Answer or Affidavit. In an action on county warrants an answer averring that such warrants were issued without a recorded vote of the county board is insufficient if it fails to also aver that the warrants were not of a class which might be issued without a vote.[69] A county is not bound to file an affidavit denying the execution of warrants sued on in order to require proof by the holders thereof of the lawful execution of such warrants.[70] Where to a suit against a county to recover an amount unpaid under an order of the board, the defendant pleads by way of set-off that the plaintiff is indebted to the county for several county orders issued to him, such answer will be bad where it fails to aver that such orders were obtained through fraud or mistake, since the presumption will be that as the county is not authorized to loan its orders, such orders were issued for a purpose authorized by law.[71]

(V) DEFENSES. In a suit by the assignee of county orders issued to a county officer, it is no defense that the payment of such orders had been forbidden because of his official misconduct, since to permit such defense would be to allow a claim arising from a tort to be set up by way of counter-claim to a cause of action based on contract.[72] Warrants which have been issued to a county treasurer in settlement of his accounts are presumed to represent a balance due such treasurer, and in an action on such warrants an indebtedness alleged to be due from the treasurer to the county, at their issuance, cannot be set off against them in the absence of allegations attacking the settlement.[73] Where a person holding claims against a county assigns the same to another to whom a warrant was issued therefor, stating that it was subject to any delinquent taxes due by the party to whom it was issued, such warrant is issued to the assignee of the claims, and not

65. Sherwood v. La Salle County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 26 S. W. 650.

66. Dorothy v. Pierce, 27 Oreg. 373, 41 Pac. 668.

Averment of extrinsic facts to show right or title has been held unnecessary. Pollock v. Stanton County, 57 Nebr. 399, 77 N. W. 1081. But see Bradley County v. Surgoine, 6 Baxt. (Tenn.) 108, holding that in the case of warrants negotiable only by indorsement or written assignment, a declaration in an order therein alleging title by delivery merely is defective and demurrable.

67. Union County v. Mason, 9 Ind. 97.

Allegation of funds or lapse of time for collection of tax.— In Brewer v. Otoe County, 1 Nebr. 373, it was held that a petition alleging the issue and non-payment of a county warrant without alleging that there is money in the treasury for its payment, or that the time has elapsed for the collection of the money by taxation, will be dismissed without prejudice.

Omission supplied in aid of verdict.— In Howell v. Reynolds County, 51 Mo. 154, it was held that while the petition was defective in not stating that there were funds in the treasury out of which the warrants might have been paid and that the treasurer refused to pay them, such omission will not, after a verdict has been rendered, impair the judgment, but will be supplied by the court in aid of the verdict.

68. Sherwood v. La Salle County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 26 S. W. 650.

69. Clark v. Polk County, 19 Iowa 248.

70. Cook County v. Schaffner, 46 Ill. App. 611.

71. Adams County v. Mertz, 27 Ind. 103.

72. Trotter v. Swain County, 90 N. C. 455.

73. San Juan County v. Oliver, 7 Colo. App. 515, 44 Pac. 362.

to his assignor, and the treasurer has no right to deduct from the amount thereof delinquent taxes due the county from such assignor.[74]

(VI) Evidence—(A) Presumptions and Burden of Proof. In a suit against a county board on warrants issued under their order, if such warrants are valid on their face they are presumed to have been validly issued, and the burden of establishing their invalidity devolves upon the defendants.[75] Where a county seeks to avoid the payment of a warrant on the ground that at the time the debts were incurred and the obligations issued, the county was indebted beyond the limit fixed by law, the burden of proof is on it to establish such facts.[76]

(B) Admissibility. In a suit upon county warrants, a warrant issued for a proper allowance and under a regular order of the county board should be admitted when offered in evidence, and its exclusion is error.[77] If fraud and failure of consideration is set up as a defense, the minutes of the court showing the proceedings at the time the warrant was authorized are properly admitted in evidence, as tending to throw light on the entire transaction.[78] Where the records of the county commissioners have been destroyed by fire, it is competent to show by oral proof that no order had ever been made by such commissioners authorizing the issue of the county warrants sued upon.[79] And entries in the records of a county, made by the clerk in due course of business, either under the express provisions of a statute or in the usual course of official duty, are admissible in evidence in behalf of the county.[80]

74. Brink v. Coutts, 87 Iowa 199, 54 N. W. 207.

75. Alabama.— Grayson v. Latham, 84 Ala. 546, 4 So. 200, 866.

Arizona.— Apache County v. Barth, (1898) 53 Pac. 187.

California.— Keiley v. Sersanous, (1896) 46 Pac. 299.

Colorado.— San Juan County v. Oliver, 7 Colo. App. 515, 44 Pac. 362.

Nebraska.— Pollock v. Stanton County, 57 Nebr. 399, 77 N. W. 1081.

Oklahoma.— D County v. Sauer, 8 Okla. 235, 61 Pac. 367; Custer County v. De Lana, 8 Okla. 213, 57 Pac. 162; Johnson v. Pawnee County, 7 Okla. 686, 56 Pac. 701.

South Dakota.— Lyman County v. State, 11 S. D. 391, 78 N. W. 17.

United States.— Lake County v. Keene Five-Cents Sav. Bank, 108 Fed. 505, 47 C. C. A. 464; Rollins v. Rio Grande County, 90 Fed. 575, 33 C. C. A. 181; Speer v. Kearney County, 88 Fed. 749, 32 C. C. A. 101.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 259.

For example where the plaintiff has proved by competent evidence the loss or destruction of records on which warrants were issued, and the warrants are shown to have been regularly issued, the burden is on defendant to show that the claims are illegal or fraudulent. Taylor v. Chickasaw County, 74 Miss. 231, 19 So. 834.

Resolutions of commissioners as to validity.— In State v. Gloyd, 14 Wash. 5, 44 Pac. 103, it was held that in an action by the holder of a county warrant to enforce payment from the county treasurer, the plaintiff may properly introduce in evidence a resolution of the county commissioners declaring certain warrants invalid and providing for their validation, which it was proposed to do under Wash. Laws (1895), p. 44, but whose validation had failed to carry, for the purpose of showing that such warrants, although prior in point of time to the one in suit, were not entitled to payment out of the funds in the county treasury.

76. Custer County v. De Lana, 8 Okla. 213, 57 Pac. 162; Johnson v. Pawnee County, 7 Okla. 686, 56 Pac. 701. In Mountain Grove Bank v. Douglas County, 146 Mo. 42, 47 S. W. 944, it was held that a general denial, with a special defense to an action on county warrants that the constitutional limit of indebtedness had been exceeded, imposes the burden on plaintiff to prove that the warrants were for debts created before the funds were exhausted, in order to make his prima facie case and then the burden shifts to defendant to prove its affirmative defense.

77. Taylor v. Chickasaw County, (Miss. 1895) 16 So. 907.

Effect as evidence of date of indebtedness. — Neither the date of a county warrant nor of the claim on which it was issued is evidence of the date of the creation of the indebtedness. Rollins v. Rio Grande County, 90 Fed. 575, 33 C. C. A. 181.

Orders admissible under general issue.— A county order signed by the county clerk and countersigned by the treasurer is evidence of indebtedness on the part of the county issuing the same, and is therefore admissible under the common counts. Clark County v. Lawrence, 63 Ill. 32.

Where the warrant sued on has been lost, a copy thereof may be offered and admitted in evidence, where the testimony furnishes sufficient basis for such admission. McCormick v. Grundy County, 24 Iowa 382.

78. Auerbach v. Salt Lake County, 23 Utah 103, 63 Pac. 907.

79. Grayson v. Latham, 84 Ala. 546, 4 So. 200, 866.

80. Rollins v. Rio Grande County, 90 Fed. 575, 33 C. C. A. 181.

(c) Sufficiency. Where a warrant is in form payable to bearer, its possession and presentation by plaintiff at the trial is prima facie evidence of the plaintiff's ownership, even though such ownership be denied in the defendant's answer, and is sufficient until the ownership is attacked by some evidence.[81] Where it is provided by statute that no action shall be brought upon a county order until a certain number of days after a demand for payment, an indorsement on an order dated more than the prescribed number of days before the bringing of the suit and purporting to be signed by the county treasurer, which recites that it was presented and payment refused for want of funds, is sufficient evidence of such presentation to justify the bringing of a suit thereon.[82] In an action on county warrants, a compilation of the taxable property found in the published reports of the county auditor, and a certificate of the clerk of the county in the state auditor's office, giving the valuation of the property claimed to have been furnished when bonds issued by the county were presented for registration, is inadmissible to show the taxable value of the property.[83]

(VII) Instructions. In an action on a county warrant, although there are facts tending very strongly to show that such warrant was without consideration and fraudulent, yet where such facts do not prove beyond controversy that the warrant may not have issued in consummation of a legitimate transaction, the plaintiff is entitled to have his theory of the transaction distinctly presented in the charge to the jury.[84]

(VIII) Confession of Judgment. Where the county or parish officers were without authority to issue certain warrants sued on, they are also without authority to bind their county or parish by confessing judgment for the amount of such warrants.[85]

11. Proceedings to Set Aside Judgment on Warrants. In an action to set aside a judgment alleged to have been fraudulently secured on warrants fraudulently issued, discovery of the fraud within the meaning of the statute of limitations is not to be imputed from the moment the fraud was perpetrated merely because it was known to the officer who committed it.[86]

E. Bills and Notes. The rule is well settled that in the absence of statutory authority therefor, express or implied, the fiscal agents of a county cannot issue commercial paper so as to charge the county,[87] and where such authority

81. Heffleman v. Pennington County, 3 S. D. 162, 52 N. W. 851.

Effect of verified answer denying execution. — Under Ariz. Rev. Stat. par. 735, providing that an answer denying the execution of the instrument sued on shall be verified, the verification itself does not throw the burden on plaintiff of establishing the validity of the instrument by affirmative evidence. Apache County v. Barth, (Ariz. 1898) 53 Pac. 187.

82. Alexander v. Oneida County, 76 Wis. 56, 45 N. W. 21.

83. Coffin v. Kearney County, 114 Fed. 518.

84. Leach v. Wilson County, 68 Tex. 353, 4 S. W. 613.

85. Benham v. Carroll Parish, 28 La. Ann. 343.

86. O'Brien County v. Brown, 18 Fed. Cas. No. 10,399, 1 Dill. 588.

87. Kentucky.— Crittenden County Ct. v. Shanks, 88 Ky. 475, 11 S. W. 468, 11 Ky. L. Rep. 8.

Louisiana.— Snelling v. Joffrion, 42 La. Ann. 886, 8 So. 609; Citizens' Bank v. Police Jury, 28 La. Ann. 263.

Nebraska.— Stewart v. Otoe County, 2 Nebr. 177.

New York.— Ballston Spa First Nat. Bank v. Saratoga County, 106 N. Y. 488, 13 N. E. 439; Parker v. Saratoga County, 106 N. Y. 392, 13 N. E. 308; Chemung Canal Bank v. Chemung County, 5 Den. 517.

Texas.— San Patricio County v. McClane, 44 Tex. 392.

West Virginia.— Exchange Bank v. Lewis County, 28 W. Va. 273.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 260.

Discretionary power under authority to erect and pay for public buildings.— Under a statute authorizing county commissioners to erect necessary county buildings and raise by taxation the money to pay for the same, the board of commissioners may issue and sell or discount the notes of the county to provide the means to pay for a court-house. Vaughn v. Forsyth County, 117 N. C. 429, 23 S. E. 354.

Issuance by treasurer.— A county being largely indebted on account of county and town bounties to volunteers, represented by short loans for which annual taxes were levied, the treasurer was authorized to obtain extensions as the towns might desire, by resolutions of the board each year till 1875. The treasurer assumed the authority of borrowing money on notes of the county signed by himself officially, and giving new notes for old is given to fiscal agents it must be strictly pursued or the county cannot be held for the payment thereof.[88]

F. Bonds — 1. Power to Issue — a. In the Absence of Statutory Authority. In the absence of authority conferred expressly or by necessary implication by the legislature, counties or parishes have no power to issue bonds,[89] and an injuncnotes and bonds. The board being empowered under N. Y. Laws (1864), cc. 8, 72, to borrow money and renew its obligations for bounties, which statutes also ratified subsisting obligations of that nature, it was held that the treasurer's acts were binding on the county. Clark v. Saratoga County, 107 N. Y. 553, 14 N. E. 428; Parker v. Saratoga County, 106 N. Y. 392, 13 N. E. 308.

Power not limited to a single exercise.— Under a statute conferring upon boards of supervisors power to borrow money on the credit of their respective counties to pay bounties, etc., and to execute obligations for its payment, the power is not limited to a single exercise thereof, but the board is authorized to borrow money and to renew the county obligations from time to time for the purpose of paying or continuing the indebtedness created thereunder. Parker v. Saratoga County, 106 N. Y. 392, 13 N. E. 308.

88. Capmartin v. Police Jury, 23 La. Ann. 190.

Issue pursuant to order of police jury.— Notes given by the police jury without an ordinance of that body authorizing their issue impose no legal obligation on the parish to redeem them, and an ordinance of the police jury, passed subsequently to the issuing of notes, authorizing their issue, will not render valid those notes which were issued without the authority of the ordinance and before it was passed. Capmartin v. Police Jury, 23 La. Ann. 190.

89. California.— Sutro v. Pettit, 74 Cal. 332, 16 Pac. 7, 5 Am. St. Rep. 442.

Illinois.—Stebbins v. Perry County, 167 Ill. 567, 47 N. E. 1048; Hardin County v. McFarlan, 82 Ill. 138.

Louisiana.— Breaux v. Iberville Parish, 23 La. Ann. 232.

Minnesota.— Rogers v. Le Sueur County, 57 Minn. 434, 59 N. W. 488; Goodnow v. Ramsey County, 11 Minn. 31.

Nebraska.— State v. Babcock, 23 Nebr. 802, 37 N. W. 645.

New York.— Ghiglione v. Marsh, 23 N. Y. App. Div. 61, 48 N. Y. Suppl. 604.

South Carolina.— Duke v. Williamsburg County, 21 S. C. 414.

South Dakota.— Brown v. Bon Homme County, 1 S. D. 216, 46 N. W. 173.

Tennessee.— Colburn v. Chattanooga Western R. Co., 94 Tenn. 43, 28 S. W. 298 [criticizing State v. Anderson County, 8 Baxt. 24].

Texas.— Ball v. Presidio County, 88 Tex. 60, 29 S. W. 1042; Nolan County v. State, 83 Tex. 182, 17 S. W. 823; Robertson v. Breedlove, 61 Tex. 316; Morrill v. Smith County, (Civ. App. 1895) 33 S. W. 899.

Virginia.— Bonsack v. Roanoke County, 75 Va. 585.

United States.—Claiborne County v. Brooks, 111 U. S. 400, 4 S. Ct. 489, 28 L. ed. 470; Police Jury v. Britton, 15 Wall. 566, 21 L. ed. 251; Washington County v. Williams, 111 Fed. 801, 49 C. C. A. 621; Coffin v. Kearney County, 57 Fed. 137, 6 C. C. A. 288; Francis v. Howard County, 50 Fed. 44; Lewis v. Sherman County, 5 Fed. 269, 2 McCrary 464; Whitwell v. Pulaski County, 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,605, 2 Dill. 249.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 261.

Bonds issued without authority not accommodation paper.— Counties issued to a railroad company bonds in payment of a subscription to the stock of the company, made on the condition of the construction of the railroad through such counties by way of certain towns therein. The company negotiated the bonds, and at maturity the counties were compelled by suit to pay them. It was supposed when the bonds were issued that the counties had authority to issue them, and it was intended that they should pay them; but it was subsequently decided that they had no such authority, whereupon the counties sued the company to recover the amount paid, alleging that the bonds were accommodation paper. It was held that as the company had constructed the road as agreed there was a consideration for the bonds, and as it was intended that the counties should pay them when due they could not be considered as accommodation paper. Jefferson County v. Burlington, etc., R. Co., 66 Iowa 385, 16 N. W. 561, 23 N. W. 899.

Effect of recognition of validity where right doubtful.— In Washington County v. Williams, 111 Fed. 801, 49 C. C. A. 601, it was held that while obligations issued by a municipal corporation cannot acquire validity through the operation of the doctrine of estoppel, if the corporation was without statutory power to issue them in the first instance, yet, where the act from which the power is derived is susceptible of different constructions, and the right to issue bonds is doubtful, the fact that they have been recognized by the municipality and its citizens as valid for a long number of years, during which it has paid interest thereon without objection, will entitle the holders to a more liberal construction of the statute under which the power was claimed and exercised than would be given it if their validity had been challenged before their issuance or soon thereafter.

Prohibition of issuance by newly organized counties.— Kan. Laws (1886), p. 123, relating to the organization of new counties, provides that no bond of any kind shall be issued by any county organized thereunder within one year after the organization, and, as amended by Kan. Laws (1887), p. 186, directs that no bonds shall be voted for and issued by any county or township within one year

tion will issue to restrain their issuance in the absence of such statutory authority.[90]

b. Under Statutory Authority. The state legislatures may, however, and often do, authorize counties to issue bonds for certain purposes and upon certain conditions,[91] and in so doing they do not violate the prohibition of the federal constitution against the issuance by states of bills of credit,[92] etc., or the prohibition usual in state constitutions against the loaning or giving of their credit by counties.[93] There must be at least a substantial compliance with acts conferring such authority.[94] Such statutes may be not only permissive but mandatory, requiring the issuance and sale of bonds for certain purposes, in which case there is no discretion left to a county board as to such issuance.[95] Express authority is not in all cases required for the issuance of negotiable paper, but may be implied from other express powers granted.[96] There is, however, no room for any implication of such power where a statute makes other specific provision for the payment of indebtedness, as by taxation, etc.,[97] or by warrant on the treasurer for money after the organization of such new county under the provisions of such act. Sage v. Fargo Tp., 107 Fed. 383, 46 C. C. A. 361, where it was held that railroad-aid bonds issued pursuant to a vote at an election held within a year after the organization of the county are void, although not issued until after the expiration of such year. A statutory provision that no bonds of any kind shall be issued by any county within one year after its organization, prohibits the issue or sending forth of bonds within the year; but it does not prohibit the presentation of a petition for the submission of a proposition to issue the bonds, or the calling and giving notice of an election thereon, within the year, and bonds based upon such a petition, call, and notice are valid. Corning v. Meade County, 102 Fed. 57, 42 C. C. A. 154.

The authority to issue "county orders" for a certain purpose given by Minn. Laws, Ex. Sess. (1857), p. 301, to county commissioners for a certain purpose, "subject to the same rules as other county orders," does not give them authority to issue bonds payable at a future time with interest coupons. Goodnow v. Ramsey County, 11 Minn. 31.

The power of issuing unimpeachable paper obligations which may be multiplied to an indefinite extent cannot be implied from the power of fiscal agents of a county to incur obligations for work done for the county and to give proper vouchers therefor. Colburn v. Chattanooga Western R. Co., 94 Tenn. 43, 28 S. W. 298; Police Jury v. Britton, 15 Wall. (U. S.) 566, 21 L. ed. 251.

90. Eagle v. Beard, 33 Ark. 497; Allison v. Louisville, etc., R. Co., 9 Bush (Ky.) 247.

91. Alabama.— Alabama Great Southern R. Co. v. Reed, 124 Ala. 253, 27 So. 19, 82 Am. St. Rep. 166.

California.— People v. San Luis Obispo County, 50 Cal. 561.

Georgia.— Neel v. Bartow County, 94 Ga. 216, 21 S. E. 516.

Iowa.— Witter v. Polk County, 112 Iowa 380, 83 N. W. 1041.

Kansas.— Doty v. Ellsbree, 11 Kan. 209.

Texas.— Mitchell County v. Paducah City Nat. Bank, 91 Tex. 361, 43 S. W. 880.

United States.— Wilkes County v. Coler, 113 Fed. 725, 51 C. C. A. 399; Corning v. Meade County, 102 Fed. 57, 42 C. C. A. 154.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 261.

92. McCoy v. Washington County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,731, 3 Phila. (Pa.) 290, 15 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 388, 3 Wall. Jr. 381.

93. State v. Nelson County, 1 N. D. 88, 45 N. W. 33, 26 Am. St. Rep. 609, 8 L. R. A. 283.

94. Morrill v. Smith County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 33 S. W. 899.

95. People v. San Luis Obispo County, 50 Cal. 561.

96. Thus the power to borrow money has been held to give the power to issue the ordinary securities for its repayment, whether in the form of notes or bonds payable in future. Doty v. Ellsbree, 11 Kan. 209; State v. Anderson County, 8 Baxt. (Tenn.) 249; Bunch v. Fluvanna County, 86 Va. 452, 10 S. E. 532; Police Jury v. Britton, 15 Wall. (U. S.) 566, 21 L. ed. 251. And so does the power to subscribe for stock in corporations, to purchase property for public use, and other like powers incapable of being carried into execution without borrowing money or giving obligations payable in the future. Witter v. Polk County, 112 Iowa 380, 83 N. W. 1041; Police Jury v. Britton, 15 Wall. (U. S.) 566, 21 L. ed. 251. And it has been held that the power to make donations of money or other securities includes the power to issue bonds for that purpose. Lund v. Chippewa County, 93 Wis. 640, 67 N. W. 927, 34 L. R. A. 131.

97. Hardin County v. McFarlan, 82 Ill. 138; Marionneaux v. Police Jury, 23 La. Ann. 251; Campbell County Justices v. Knoxville, etc., R. Co., 6 Coldw. (Tenn.) 598; Claiborne County v. Brooks, 111 U. S. 400, 4 S. Ct. 489, 28 L. ed. 470; Wells v. Pontotoc County, 102 U. S. 625, 26 L. ed. 122.

Aid to corporations limited to that from improvement fund.— Gould Dig. Ark. c. 101, art. 111, § 52, provides that counties having or controlling internal improvement funds, granted to them by the state, may subscribe to the capital stock of any valid and duly organized railroad company. This statute confers no general authority on the counties to subscribe for stock in railway companies; payable out of a designated fund or any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.[98]

c. Construction of Statutes Authorizing Issue.[99] Where bonds are issued upon the authority of an ambiguously worded statute, the court will adopt a liberal construction in order to sustain their validity, although it would have prevented their issue had seasonable application therefor been made.[1]

d. Statutory Validation. Where bonds issued by counties are invalid merely for the want of legislative authority to issue the same, they may be validated by a subsequent act of the legislature,[2] and all irregularities in the proceedings under an act authorizing the issuance of bonds will be cured by an act recognizing the validity of all that has been done under such prior act;[3] and the validity of the bonds is not affected by the repeal of the validating act.[4]

e. Effect of Consolidation or Division of Corporation. Where a railroad corporation by subsequent amendment of its charter is divided into several corporations, a vote in favor of issuing bonds in aid of the original corporation will not authorize the issue of bonds in favor of one of the new corporations;[5] and if it is by statute consolidated with another, after a subscription of bonds in its aid but before issuance, its right to the bonds is not affected by the consolidation,[6] nor are such bonds rendered invalid.[7] Where the corporate organization of a company to which subscriptions were made has been abandoned and the franchise and subscriptions thereto transferred according to law, to a new corporation the power given is to subscribe to the internal improvement fund. The act contemplates that the bonds should be issued on the credit of that fund, to which alone the holders of the bonds can look for payment; and bonds issued by a county independently of the limitations contained in the act are void. Hancock v. Chicot County, 32 Ark. 575. See also English v. Chicot County, 26 Ark. 454.

98. Shawnee County Com'rs v. Carter, 2 Kan. 115.

99. Whether county bonds were issued under a general statute or under a special act is a matter determinable in a suit on the bonds and one to be finally settled by the judgment thereon. Knox County v. New York City Ninth Nat. Bank, 147 U. S. 91, 13 S. Ct. 267, 37 L. ed. 93.

1. Woodhull v. Beaver County, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 17,974, 20 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 76, 3 Wall. Jr. 274.

2. Nolan County v. State, 83 Tex. 182, 17 S. W. 823; Ball v. Presidio County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 27 S. W. 702; Grenada County Sup'rs v. Brown, 112 U. S. 261, 5 S. Ct. 125, 28 L. ed. 704; Leavenworth County v. Barnes, 94 U. S. 70, 24 L. ed. 63.

An act assuming to validate bonds will not have that effect if not passed in the manner required by the constitution. Buncombe County v. Payne, 123 N. C. 432, 31 S. E. 711.

If, however, at the time of the attempted creation of such contract the legislature could not have authorized it, it may be doubted whether the legislature could make it valid, although in the meantime by a change in the constitution the restriction upon its power may have been removed. Nolan County v. State, 83 Tex. 182, 17 S. W. 823. And see Shearer v. Bay County, 128 Mich. 552, 87 N. W. 789.

3. Arizona.— Yavapai County v. McCord, (1899) 59 Pac. 99.

Iowa.— McMillan v. Lee County Judge, 6 Iowa 391.

Pennsylvania.— York County v. Small, 1 Watts & S. 315.

Virginia.— Bell v. Farmville, etc., R. Co., 91 Va. 99, 20 S. E. 942; Cumberland County v. Randolph, 89 Va. 614, 16 S. E. 722.

United States.— Otoe County v. Baldwin, 111 U. S. 1, 4 S. Ct. 265, 28 L. ed. 331.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 239.

Irregularity in the conduct of the election may be cured by a statute validating the election. Carpenter v. Greene County, 130 Ala. 613, 29 So. 194.

Variance from statute as to interest.— Where the board orders an election for the issuance of bonds bearing semiannual interest, under a statute authorizing an election for bonds bearing annual interest, and the election is favorable to the issuing of bonds, the legislature may pass a statute curing the defect. Cutler v. Madison County, 56 Miss. 115.

4. Duke v. Williamsburg County, 21 S. C. 414.

5. Marsh v. Fulton County, 10 Wall. (U. S.) 676, 19 L. ed. 1040.

6. Morrill v. Smith County, 89 Tex. 529, 36 S. W. 56 [affirming (Civ. App. 1895) 33 S. W. 899].

7. Nelson v. Haywood County, 87 Tenn. 781, 11 S. W. 885, 4 L. R. A. 648; Morrill v. Smith County, 89 Tex. 529, 36 S. W. 56 [affirming (Civ. App. 1895) 33 S. W. 899]; Livingston County v. Portsmouth First Nat. Bank, 128 U. S. 102, 9 S. Ct. 18, 32 L. ed. 359; Schuyler County v. Thomas, 98 U. S. 169, 25 L. ed. 88; Leavenworth County v. Barnes, 94 U. S. 70, 24 L. ed. 63; Thomas v. Scotland County, 22 Fed. Cas. No. 13,909, 3 Dill. 7 [affirmed in 94 U. S. 682, 24 L. ed. 219].

organized for the same purpose, bonds issued to the new corporation in payment of the subscription are valid.[8]

f. Limitations and Conditions Precedent to Issuance — (I) As to Amount — (A) In General. In many if not all the states in which the issuance of bonds by counties is authorized, such issue is limited in amount either by express provision or by the constitutional or statutory limitations upon indebtedness generally.[9] The provisions imposing such limitations vary in the different jurisdictions, the most usual being to the effect that bonds shall not be issued in excess of a certain specified amount,[10] in excess of appropriations,[11] or in excess of a certain per cent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in the county,[12] or that no larger amount of bonds shall be issued than a certain rate of taxation will liquidate within a specified time.[13]

(B) Effect of Excessive Issue. Where bonds are issued in excess of the amount limited by constitutional or statutory provisions, so much of the issue as is excessive is absolutely void,[14] and not enforceable even in the hands of a purchaser for value before maturity and without knowledge of the excessive issue.[15] Nevertheless that part of the bonds which are not in excess of the constitutional or statutory limit are valid and enforceable,[16] and where an issue of bonds in excess of the limit is delivered at the same or different times as part of one transaction the holders of the bonds should bear ratably their proportion of the loss of the invalid part.[17] So where bonds are issued at different times to pay for improvements, under an act limiting the total amount to be issued, the fact that bonds are issued beyond the limit does not invalidate such bonds as were issued and sold before the limit was reached.[18]

8. Ray County v. Vansycle, 96 U. S. 675, 24 L. ed. 800. But compare Morgan County v. Thomas, 76 Ill. 120, where it was held that where a company to which an absolute and unconditional subscription has been made abandons its organization and its franchise which by statute is transferred to another company that completes the road, the county cannot donate and deliver to the latter a portion of its bonds issued on its subscription, to the new company as against creditors of the old, and that this could not be done even under legislative authority, as they were trust funds for the payment of debts.

9. As to limitations of indebtedness see supra, IX, A, 2.

10. Sutro v. Rhodes, 92 Cal. 117, 28 Pac. 98; Sutro v. Pettit, 74 Cal. 332, 16 Pac. 7, 5 Am. St. Rep. 442.

11. Siedler v. Hudson County, 39 N. J. L. 632.

12. State v. Babcock, 18 Nebr. 141, 24 N. W. 556; Coler v. Santa Fe County, 6 N. M. 88, 27 Pac. 619; Crook County v. Rollins Invest. Co., 3 Wyo. 470, 27 Pac. 683; Hedges v. Dixon County, 150 U. S. 182, 14 S. Ct. 71, 27 L. ed. 1044 [affirming 37 Fed. 204]; U. S. v. Dodge County, 110 U. S. 156, 3 S. Ct. 590, 28 L. ed. 103; Valley County v. McLean, 79 Fed. 728, 25 C. C. A. 174 [affirming 74 Fed. 389].

13. Nolan County v. State, 83 Tex. 182, 17 S. W. 823, no larger amount than a tax of one quarter of one per cent annually will liquidate in ten years. To the same effect see Francis v. Howard County, 50 Fed. 44.

14. Sutro v. Rhodes, 92 Cal. 117, 28 Pac. 98; Daviess County Ct. v. Howard, 13 Bush (Ky.) 101; Hardeman County v. Foard County, 19 Tex. Civ. App. 212, 47 S. W. 30, 536; Daviess County v. Dickinson, 117 U. S. 657, 6 S. Ct. 897, 29 L. ed. 1026; Ætna L. Ins. Co. v. Lyon County, 95 Fed. 325; Francis v. Howard County, 50 Fed. 44.

Where county receives no part of the proceeds.— The holders of bonds issued by a county in excess of its authority cannot, by an offer to surrender and cancel so much of such bonds as exceed the limit authorized, have relief in a court of equity, decreeing the residue of such bonds valid and enforcing the payment thereof against the county, where the county received no part of the proceeds of the bonds, but they were issued as a donation to a railroad company. Hedges v. Dixon County, 150 U. S. 182, 14 S. Ct. 71, 37 L. ed. 1044.

15. Daviess County v. Dickinson, 117 U. S. 657, 6 S. Ct. 897, 29 L. ed. 1026; Francis v. Howard County, 50 Fed. 44.

16. Nolan County v. State, 83 Tex. 182, 17 S. W. 823; Ætna L. Ins. Co. v. Lyon County, 95 Fed. 325.

17. Nolan County v. State, 83 Tex. 182, 17 S. W. 823; Ætna L. Ins. Co. v. Lyon County, 95 Fed. 325; Francis v. Howard County, 50 Fed. 44.

18. Catron v. La Fayette County, 106 Mo. 659, 17 S. W. 577.

Loss sustained by those obtaining bonds after power exhausted.— In Gillim v. Daviess County, 14 S. W. 838, 12 Ky. L. Rep. 596, bonds were issued by a county to a railroad company in excess of the amount authorized. When the last issue was made, twenty-five thousand one hundred and fifty dollars was due from the county, and one hundred and

(II) As to Time. The power given to counties to issue bonds may be limited as to time.[19]

(III) Conditions to Be Performed by Payee — (A) The Usual Provisions. The issue and delivery of bonds in aid of certain internal improvements, railroads, etc., are very often conditioned upon the performance of certain acts by the payee of such bonds. While such conditions necessarily vary in each case, the following are among the most usual: That the road shall be permanently located along a certain route;[20] that the work shall be completed to or through a certain place;[21] that shops and other buildings shall be located at certain places;[22] that the bonds shall be payable only for work done in the county;[23] that delivery shall be at a specified rate for a certain amount of completed work,[24] or when sufficient stock to complete the road has been subscribed;[25] or that before delivery security shall be given for the faithful application of their proceeds of the bonds to the purpose intended.[26]

(B) Effect of Failure to Comply With Provisions — (1) In General. Where a railroad company fails to perform the condition upon which county bonds are to be issued in payment of its stock taken by the county, the county authorities have no power to issue such bonds, and if issued without authority of law taxes eighty-five bonds for five hundred dollars each were then issued. It was held that the twenty-five thousand one hundred and fifty dollars due at the last issue was to be divided pro rata between the holders of the bonds then issued.

19. Thus where a statute gives to county boards the power to provide for the payment of any loan made by them by a tax upon the county which shall in all cases be within a certain number of years from the date of the loan, such statute limits the issue of all county bonds to such number of years. Alpena v. Simmons, 104 Mich. 305, 62 N. W. 292; McMullen v. Ingham Cir. Judge, 102 Mich. 608, 61 N. W. 260.

20. Alley v. Adams County, 76 Ill. 101.

21. German Sav. Bank v. Franklin County, 128 U. S. 526, 9 S. Ct. 159, 32 L. ed. 519; Mercer County v. Provident L., etc., Co., 72 Fed. 723, 19 C. C. A. 44.

Impracticable condition.— Where a statute prescribed that bonds should be issued to a railroad if it should pass a certain point, to entitle the road to the bonds it must pass such point notwithstanding this might prove to be impracticable. Virginia, etc., R. Co. v. Lyon County Com'rs, 6 Nev. 68.

22. Onstott v. People, 123 Ill. 489, 15 N. E. 34; Citizens' Sav., etc., Assoc. v. Perry County, 156 U. S. 692, 15 S. Ct. 547, 39 L. ed. 585.

23. Morgan County v. Thomas, 76 Ill. 120; Thomas v. Morgan County, 59 Ill. 479, 39 Ill. 496.

Discretionary power of committee.— In Satterlee v. Strider, 31 W. Va. 781, 8 S. E. 552, a county subscribed a certain amount of its bonds to the stock of a railroad, to be expended on the portion of the road that lay within the county, and appointed three citizens to take charge of the bonds and deliver them to the company in such amounts as would in their judgment be a fair compensation for the work then done. It was held that the committee were mere agents of the county, and that the county court did not impair its contract by an ordinance requiring the bonds still undelivered to be countersigned by the president of the county court, who should concur in and approve their delivery.

Work by successors.— The work need not be done by the company with which the stipulation was entered into. If the work is done by its successors, endowed with all the rights, privileges, and franchises of the latter, this will be a substantial performance of the conditions. Thomas v. Morgan County, 59 Ill. 479.

24. Nevada Bank v. Steinmitz, 64 Cal. 301, 30 Pac. 970.

25. Knox County Com'rs v. Nichols, 14 Ohio St. 260.

26. Com. v. Chesapeake, etc., R. Co., 91 Ky. 118, 15 S. W. 53, 12 Ky. L. Rep. 709; Cumberland, etc., R. Co. v. Judge Washington County Ct., 10 Bush (Ky.) 564; Breckinridge County v. McCracken, 61 Fed. 191, 9 C. C. A. 442, no application where road completed before delivery.

Enforcement refused in absence of security.— Where there is danger of a misapplication of funds subscribed by a county in aid of a corporation, a court of equity, and also a court of law, should refuse to enforce the subscription until the corporation properly secures the appropriation of the bonds or their proceeds in accordance with the terms of the subscription. Cumberland, etc., R. Co. v. Judge Washington County Ct., 10 Bush (Ky.) 564.

Omission as rendering road or lessee indictable.— In Com. v. Chesapeake, etc., R. Co., 91 Ky. 118, 15 S. W. 53, 12 Ky. L. Rep. 709, it was held that the failure of a railroad company to give bond for the faithful application of the money arising from a county subscription to aid in building its road does not render it liable to indictment; and even if it were liable, its lessee could not be made liable for the lessor's wrong.

cannot be levied to pay the interest thereon,[27] and the county cannot be compelled by mandamus to issue its bonds if the condition is not complied with.[28] So if the delivery of county bonds issued in aid of a railroad company is made to depend upon the performance of certain conditions by the railroad company, the road cannot enforce the delivery of such bonds.[29] And if issued and improperly placed in the hands of trustees for the railroad company before the performance of the conditions, any disposition of such bonds except the delivery back to the county authorities may be enjoined.[30] It has been held that if county authorities issue and deliver the bonds of a county to a railroad company before performance of the conditions upon which they were to be issued and delivered, this will be a waiver of the condition by the county.[31]

(2) As Defense to Actions on Bonds. Where the recitals in county bonds issued to a railroad company do not import, either expressly or by necessary implication, a compliance with the condition precedent imposed by the popular vote for their issue, the county may, in an action on the bonds, show that such condition had never been performed, and that the bonds were therefore invalid.[32] Where bonds or coupons placed in the hands of an agent of the county to be issued conditionally are delivered in disregard of these conditions, one with knowledge of the facts cannot recover on such bonds or coupons in a suit against the county, although a bona fide holder may recover.[33] Where bonds are issued and delivered to the company on an understanding that they are to be applied in payment for work done in the county, such understanding is binding upon all persons affected with notice of what it was, and as to such persons the bonds can be applied to no other purpose than that indicated.[34]

(iv) Provision For Payment. In the absence of any constitutional or statutory requirement, an act authorizing the issuance of bonds need not provide for the levy and collection of taxes for their payment,[35] and the omission to make such provision is not a valid objection to the legality of such act, or to the issue of the bonds thereunder.[36] Where, however, a constitutional provision requires

27. Onstott v. People, 123 Ill. 489, 15 N. E. 34.

28. Virginia, etc., R. Co. v. Lyon County Com'rs, 6 Nev. 68.

29. Jackson County v. Brush, 77 Ill. 59; Alley v. Adams County, 76 Ill. 101.

30. Jackson County v. Brush, 77 Ill. 59. To the same effect see Wagner v. Meety, 69 Mo. 150.

Effect of unlawful delivery by trustee.— Where negotiable county bonds authorized to be issued and delivered to A, upon performance by him of a condition precedent, were unlawfully issued and delivered by B as trustee before the performance of the condition, in order to avoid the effect of a suit then about to be brought and which was thereafter brought against him to restrain the delivery of the bonds and have them declared void, and where the bonds were placed upon the market and sold it was held that they could not be enforced against the county by a purchaser with notice either of their infirmity or of the suit, or of their delivery in anticipation of the suit; but that they could be enforced by purchasers for value and without notice, even where purchased from a party who had purchased with notice; and that after passing through the hands of one or more innocent purchasers for value and without notice they could be enforced by a subsequent purchaser for value with notice. Hill v. Scotland County, 25 Fed. 395.

31. Chiniguy v. People, 78 Ill. 570.

32. Citizens' Sav., etc., Assoc. v. Perry County, 156 U. S. 692, 15 S. Ct. 547, 39 L. ed. 585; Mercer County v. Provident L., etc., Co., 72 Fed. 623, 19 C. C. A. 44.

33. Hill v. Scotland County, 25 Fed. 395. Where certain county bonds and a number of detached coupons were placed in the hands of an agent of the county to be issued by him conditionally, and the agent issued them fraudulently and transferred the detached coupons to A, his brother-in-law, and where B, who, while the county was disputing the validity of said bonds and coupons, and negotiating for a compromise with the holders thereof, and with a full knowledge of the facts, entered into a contract with said county to procure said bonds and coupons for surrender, purchased the coupons transferred to A, in the name of C, and C brought suit thereon against the county, it was held that C was not a bona fide holder for value and could not recover. Whitford v. Clark County, 13 Fed. 837.

34. Thomas v. Morgan County, 39 Ill. 496.

35. Young v. Tipton County, 137 Ind. 323, 36 N. E. 118.

36. Stockton v. Powell, 29 Fla. 1, 10 So. 688, 15 L. R. A. 42; Hardeman County v. Foard County, 19 Tex. Civ. App. 212, 47 S. W. 30, 536; Watson v. De Witt County, 19 Tex. Civ. App. 150, 46 S. W. 1061. And that provision shall be made at the time of incurring any debt by a county for levying a sufficient tax to pay the interest and create a sinking fund, such provision is essential to a valid issue, and county bonds issued without a compliance with such requirement are invalid,[37] even in the hands of an innocent purchaser,[38] and a legislature has no power to validate county bonds issued in violation of such constitutional provision alive and in force at the time of the validating act.[39]

(v) Submission to Popular Vote—(A) Necessity For. Counties may be authorized to issue bonds without a submission of the question to a popular vote, and may do so where no provision is made for such submission;[40] but the fact that bonds are issued pursuant to an election when not made necessary by statute will not invalidate such issue.[41] Statutes requiring the submission of a proposed bond issue to popular vote are, however, very common, usually in connection with provisions as to the incurring of indebtedness by counties, the extending of aid to corporations, etc.; and where this requirement exists the county officers have no authority to make a valid issue of bonds without a submission of the proposition to popular vote,[42] and the approval of the same by the qualified electors of the see Marion County v. Coler, 67 Fed. 60, 14 C. C. A. 301.

37. Kyes v. St. Croix County, 108 Wis. 136, 83 N. W. 637; Wade v. Travis County, 72 Fed. 985.

Effect of failure to perform duty at time specified.— The fact that no tax was levied to pay interest and create a sinking fund before the issuance of bonds, as required by the Texas act of Feb. 22, 1873, providing for the construction of a court-house in Marion county, did not render the bonds void, for the commissioners had full power to contract the debt, and the duty was imposed on the county government to execute the bonds and provide for the interest and sinking fund, and the failure of the county authorities to perform their duty at the time specified could not affect the validity of the bonds. Marion County v. Coler, 67 Fed. 60, 14 C. C. A. 301.

Bonds issued under resolution of board a county charge.— A resolution of a board of supervisors, providing for the issuing of county bonds to each supervisor who may call for the same, to pay a bounty of a specified amount to each recruit that shall be mustered into the service of the United States, to the credit of their respective towns, is a provision to issue the bonds upon the credit of the county; and the bonds issued under it are a county charge and binding on the whole county. Such bonds, being issued under the authority of the board of supervisors, upon the credit of the county, are valid bonds of the county; and it is the right and duty of the board of supervisors to provide accordingly for their payment, as legitimate public debts of the county. Magee v. Cutler, 43 Barb. (N. Y.) 239. See also People v. Livingston County, 34 N. Y. 516 [affirming 43 Barb. (N. Y.) 298]; Faulkner v. Metcalf, 43 Barb. (N. Y.) 255.

Effect of insufficient levy.— Under the Texas act of April 2, 1871, authorizing railroad-aid bonds by counties, provided there was first levied an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest thereon, and two per cent annually as a sinking fund, but also provided that if the levy should prove insufficient the controller should have an additional tax levied, it was contemplated that the court in levying the tax should exercise its judgment as to the amount required; and the levy of an insufficient amount will not render the bond invalid. Morrill v. Smith County, 89 Tex. 529, 36 S. W. 56.

38. Quaker City Nat. Bank v. Nolan County, 66 Fed. 883, 14 C. C. A. 157 [affirming 59 Fed. 660].

39. Quaker City Nat. Bank v. Nolan County, 59 Fed. 660.

40. Riley v. Garfield Tp., 58 Kan. 299, 49 Pac. 85; Jewell v. Weed, 18 Minn. 272; Hunt v. Fawcett, 8 Wash. 396, 36 Pac. 318; Rehmke v. Goodwin, 2 Wash. 676, 27 Pac. 473; Murry v. Fay, 2 Wash. 352, 26 Pac. 533; Dallas County v. McKenzie, 110 U. S. 686, 4 S. Ct. 184, 28 L. ed. 285; Ralls County v. Douglass, 105 U. S. 728, 26 L. ed. 957; Ritchie v. Franklin County, 22 Wall. (U. S.) 67, 22 L. ed. 825; Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Otoe County, 16 Wall. (U. S.) 667, 21 L. ed. 375; Geer v. Ouray County, 97 Fed. 435, 38 C. C. A. 250; Pratt County v. Savings Soc., 90 Fed. 233, 32 C. C. A. 596 [affirming 82 Fed. 573]; Howard v. Kiowa County, 73 Fed. 406.

41. Hunt v. Fawcett, 8 Wash. 396, 36 Pac. 318.

42. Colorado.—Packard v. Jefferson County, 2 Colo. 338.

Dakota.— Territory v. Steele, 4 Dak. 78, 23 N. W. 91.

Florida.— Stockton v. Powell, 29 Fla. 1, 10 So. 688, 15 L. R. A. 42.

Georgia.— Floyd County v. State, 112 Ga. 794, 38 S. E. 37; Kaigler v. Roberts, 89 Ga. 476, 15 S. E. 542.

Illinois.— Onstott v. People, 123 Ill. 489, 15 N. E. 34; Locke v. Davison, 111 Ill. 19.

Iowa.— Casady v. Woodbury, 13 Iowa 113; Hull v. Marshall County, 12 Iowa 142.

Kentucky.— Stone v. Gregory, 61 S. W. 1002, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1.

county.[43] Where a statute provides that submission of the question to voters shall only be necessary on a petition by the voters asking it, assent to the proposed issue will be presumed in the absence of such petition.[44]

(B) Requisites of Submission — (1) In General. With regard to the manner of submitting such proposition for the issuance of bonds, the same general rules apply as have been already described in the case of the submission of other propositions, such as that of aid to railroads and other corporations,[45] and for incurring indebtedness and making expenditures generally,[46] and in submitting the question of a bond issue to the vote of the electors of a county, a substantial compliance with the formalities of the statute is sufficient.[47]

(2) By Whom Made. The submission must be upon the order of the proper county authorities,[48] ordinarily, the county board[49] or county court.[50]

(3) Contents. A proposition for the issuance of bonds should not cover

Minnesota.— Murphy v. Cook County, 74 Minn. 28, 76 N. W. 951.

Missouri.— State v. Conrad, 147 Mo. 654, 49 S. W. 857; Steines v. Franklin County, 48 Mo. 167, 8 Am. Rep. 87.

Nebraska.— State v. Cornell, 54 Nebr. 72, 74 N. W. 432.

New Mexico.— Coler v. Santa Fe County, 6 N. M. 88, 27 Pac. 619.

North Carolina.— Buncombe County v. Payne, 123 N. C. 432, 31 S. E. 711; McCless v. Meekins, 117 N. C. 34, 23 S. E. 99; Wilmington, etc., R. Co. v. Onslow County, 116 N. C. 563, 21 S. E. 205; Blanton v. McDowell County, 101 N. C. 532, 8 S. E. 162.

Tennessee.— Nelson v. Haywood County, 87 Tenn. 781, 11 S. W. 885, 4 L. R. A. 648.

Texas.— Hendrick v. Culberson, 23 Tex. Civ. App. 409, 56 S. W. 616.

United States.— Hughes County v. Livingston, 104 Fed. 306, 43 C. C. A. 541; Carpenter v. Buena Vista County, 5 Fed. Cas. No. 2,429, 5 Dill. 556.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 269.

Does not prohibit issuance of bonds in lieu of orders for necessary expenses.— Under N. C. Const. art. 7, § 7, providing that a municipal corporation shall not contract any debt, "except for the necessary expenses thereof," unless by a majority vote of the people, the county board has authority to issue bonds in lieu of orders which have previously issued for the necessary expenses of the county without such vote. McCless v. Meekins, 117 N. C. 34, 23 S. E. 99.

Issuance for previous indebtedness.—A constitutional provision providing that a municipal corporation shall not contract any debt, except for the necessary expenses thereof, unless by a majority vote of the people, does not prohibit county commissioners from issuing county bonds in the place of orders previously issued for the necessary expenses of the county without obtaining the sanction of a majority vote. McCless v. Meekins, 117 N. C. 34, 23 S. E. 99.

43. See cases cited supra, note 42.

Qualification of voters.— Fla. Const. art. 6, § 8, provides that the legislature shall have power to make the payment of the capitation tax a prerequisite for voting. The law relating to general elections required the capitation tax to be paid as a prerequisite of voting, but the act of June 11, 1891, authorizing Duval county to vote bonds for the improvement of the navigation of the St. Johns river, did not expressly declare such payment a prerequisite of voting at such special election, and the act prescribed a complete system of procedure. It was held that such payment was not a prerequisite of voting at such election. Stockton v. Powell, 29 Fla. 1, 10 So. 688, 15 L. R. A. 42.

Presumption that vote was that of all the voters.— Under a law authorizing a county to subscribe to the stock of a railroad company, upon condition that a majority of the votes cast at an election on the question should be in favor of it, an election was held resulting in a majority in favor of the subscription, and the subscription was made and bonds issued. It was held that the bonds were rightfully registered in the auditor's office under the funding act of April 16, 1869, which requires that the subscription upon which bonds sought to be registered were issued should have been voted for by a majority of the legal voters living in the county, it being the presumption that the vote cast at the election on the question of subscription was that of all the voters of the county. Melvin v. Lisenby, 72 Ill. 63, 22 Am. Rep. 141.

44. People v. Burr, 13 Cal. 343.

45. See supra, IX, C, 3.

46. See supra, IX, A, 2, h.

47. Wilmington, etc., R. Co. v. Onslow County, 116 N. C. 563, 21 S. E. 205.

48. Gaddis v. Richland County, 92 Ill. 119.

49. People v. Counts, 89 Cal. 15, 26 Pac. 612; People v. Baker, 83 Cal. 149, 23 Pac. 364, 1112; Territory v. Steele, 4 Dak. 78, 23 N. W. 91; People v. Logan County, 63 Ill. 374; Marshall County v. Cook, 38 Ill. 44, 87 Am. Dec. 282.

50. Gaddis v. Richland County, 92 Ill. 119; Nelson v. Haywood County, 87 Tenn. 781, 11 S. W. 885, 4 L. R. A. 648; Post v. Pulaski County, 47 Fed. 682, 1 C. C. A. 405.

By majority of justices at quarterly term. — Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. State, 8 Heisk. (Tenn.) 663, where it was held, however, that such bonds will not be subject to attack after more than one object or purpose.[51] Two or more questions cannot be connected, or the adoption of one be made to depend upon the adoption of the other.[52] The submission should state the purpose of the indebtedness,[53] and the amount of bonds proposed to be issued;[54] and if the bonds are to be voted in aid of a railroad the donee should be named.[55] If the proposition specifies the rate of interest on the bonds, the county authorities have no authority to issue bonds bearing a different rate.[56] But it has been held that the rate need not be specified, or the time for the payment of such interest, if the rate of tax proposed and the whole amount to be paid is stated, nor is it necessary to state at what time the proposition if carried will take effect.[57] Nor will the submission of a proposition for the issuing of notes or obligations of the county be void, because the proposition fails to state for what time the bonds shall be issued.[58]

(4) Notice of Election. Notice of election required by statute must be given or the election will be invalid,[59] and will not authorize an issue of bonds.[60] It has been held, however, that an irregularity in the election notice cannot be set up against an innocent person, where the county has paid interest on the bonds for fifteen years.[61]

(o) Effect of Election. Where at a proper election the requisite number of qualified voters of the county vote to issue bonds, it is the duty of the proper county authorities to issue such bonds,[62] unless discretionary power be vested in them.[63] Such vote does not, however, constitute a binding contract for the issu-issue, because the order was made by a majority of the justices not at a quarterly term.

51. California.— People v. Counts, 89 Cal. 15, 26 Pac. 612.

Illinois.— Williams v. People, 132 Ill. 574, 24 N. E. 647; People v. Tazewell County, 22 Ill. 147; Fulton County v. Mississippi, etc., R. Co., 21 Ill. 338.

Iowa.— McMillan v. Lee County, 3 Iowa 311.

Maine.— Hubbard v. Woodsum, 87 Me. 88, 32 Atl. 802.

United States.— Union Pac. R. Co. v. Merrick County, 24 Fed. Cas. No. 14,383, 3 Dill. 359.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 269.

For example a proposition in the alternative to issue bonds to a certain corporation named "or" to another designated corporation is ineffectual to authorize the issuing of bonds even if adopted by the legal voters (State v. Roggen, 22 Nebr. 118, 34 N. W. 108); and the issuing and delivering of bonds voted under such a proposition may be enjoined on timely application (North v. Platte, 29 Nebr. 447, 45 N. W. 692, 26 Am. St. Rep. 395). But a proposition submitted by county commissioners to be passed upon by the voters of their county, to see if such commissioners shall be authorized to construct new county buildings on a new site therefor, at a cost not to exceed thirty thousand dollars, and be further authorized to hire money on the credit of the county for the purpose of such construction, is not objectionable as covering more than the subject-matter or thing; the elements of site, construction, cost, and credit are no more than parts of one and the same proposition. Hubbard v. Woodsum, 87 Me. 88, 32 Atl. 802. And the specification of a purpose to construct two wagon-roads with the bonds to be issued is not objectionable as being expressive of more than one object or purpose. People v. Counts, 89 Cal. 15, 26 Pac. 612.

52. McMillan v. Lee County, 3 Iowa 311.

53. People v. Counts, 89 Cal. 15, 26 Pac. 612.

54. People v. Counts, 89 Cal. 15, 26 Pac. 612; People v. Baker, 83 Cal. 149, 23 Pac. 364, 1112.

55. State v. Roggen, 22 Nebr. 118, 34 N. W. 108; Spurck v. Lincoln, etc., R. Co., 14 Nebr. 293, 15 N. W. 701; Jones v. Hurlburt, 13 Nebr. 125, 13 N. W. 5.

56. People v. Ford County, 63 Ill. 42.

57. Whittaker v. Johnson County, 10 Iowa 161.

58. Hubbard v. Woodsum, 87 Me. 88, 32 Atl. 802.

59. Packard v. Jefferson County, 2 Colo. 338; Territory v. Steele, 4 Dak. 78, 23 N. W. 91; Wilbur v. Wyatt, 63 Nebr. 261, 88 N. W. 499; Post v. Pulaski County, 47 Fed. 282.

Thirty days' notice.— Williams v. People, 132 Ill. 574, 24 N. E. 647; Post v. Pulaski County, 47 Fed. 282.

60. Williams v. People, 132 Ill. 574, 24 N. E. 647.

61. Nelson v. Haywood County, 87 Tenn. 781, 11 S. W. 885, 4 L. R. A. 648. See also Knox County v. Aspinwall, 21 How. (U. S.) 539, 16 L. ed. 208.

62. Wilmington, etc., R. Co. v. Onslow County, 116 N. C. 563, 21 S. E. 205.

63. Wadsworth v. St. Croix County, 4 Fed. 378.

Part subscription.— Where a statute provides that on a favorable vote the subscription authorized or any part thereof shall be made, the authorities are not compelled, when the electors have voted in favor of issuing bonds to aid in railroad construction, to issue the same or to subscribe for the whole stock, but they have a discretion in this regard. People v. Tazewell County, 22 Ill. App. 147.

ance of bonds, and until the action of the proper authorities the contract is unexecuted and obligatory upon neither party.[64]

g. By Whom Power Exercised — (i) In General. Unless county bonds are issued by the proper tribunal or officers no liability is imposed on the county by such issue,[65] and all who are required to participate in their issue must have performed their respective duties.[66] Ordinarily county bonds are to be issued by the county board[67] or county court,[68] acting as a body, and in a regular manner.[69]

(ii) Authority of De Facto Officer, Etc. County bonds issued by a de facto county court, sealed with the seal of the court, and signed by the de facto president, cannot be impeached in the hands of an innocent holder by showing that the acting president was not de jure one of the justices of the court.[70] Although the organization of a county is unauthorized and invalid because such county contains less than the prescribed area, where it has a de facto organization, is recognized as a county, and the statute creating the county is not void upon its face, bonds issued by such county in regular form while its organization as a county was in existence, are valid obligations in the hands of bona fide purchasers.[71]

(iii) Implied Power to Issue Negotiable Bonds. A statute authorizing a county board to issue and market bonds which are to run for a long period of time and bear interest authorizes by implication the issuance of bonds negotiable in form.[72]

(iv) Fixing Denomination by Agreement. Where it is expressly provided in an act authorizing the issue of bonds in aid of a railroad company that such bonds shall be of such denomination as the commissioners' court and the company should agree on, the parties are not bound, except as to the total

64. Wadsworth v. St. Croix County, 4 Fed. 378 [following Aspinwall v. Daviess County, 22 How. (U. S.) 364, 16 L. ed. 296].

65. Dent v. Cook, 45 Ga. 323; Schuyler County v. People, 25 Ill. 181; Brown v. Bon Homme County, 1 S. D. 216, 46 N. W. 173.

Necessity for specific order.— It has been held in Georgia that when the issue of bonds has been authorized by a popular vote and the result entered on the minutes the authority of the county court to issue such bonds is complete without any further entry or order of the court. Floyd County v. Shorter, 50 Ga. 489.

66. Brown v. Bon Homme County, 1 S. D. 216, 46 N. W. 173.

67. Prettyman v. Tazewell County, 19 Ill. 406, 71 Am. Dec. 230; Brown v. Bon Homme County, 1 S. D. 216, 46 N. W. 173; Polly v. Hopkins, 74 Tex. 145, 11 S. W. 1084; Kankakee County v. Ætna L. Ins. Co., 106 U. S. 668, 2 S. Ct. 80, 27 L. ed. 309 (as successors of county court); Curtis v. Butler County, 24 How. (U. S.) 435, 16 L. ed. 745.

68. Schuyler County v. People, 25 Ill. 181.

The presiding justice of the county court and the county clerk of Cass county, Missouri, were by the terms of the order of Oct. 20, 1871, of the county court, authorized to execute bonds which would bind the county for their payment under the law of that state authorizing counties "to fund any and all debts they may owe." Cass County v. Shores, 95 U. S. 375, 24 L. ed. 419.

69. Anderson County Com'rs v. Paola, etc., R. Co., 20 Kan. 534.

Bonds issued in pursuance of resolutions passed by two members of the board without notice to the other are invalid. Anderson County Com'rs v. Paola, etc., R. Co., 20 Kan. 534.

The presence of a majority of the county justices is necessary when a bond is executed; otherwise the bond will be void. Dinwiddie County v. Stuart, 28 Gratt. (Va.) 526.

70. This is in accordance with the rule that the acts of an officer de facto are valid, so far as they concern the public, or the rights of third persons who have an interest in the thing done. Ralls County v. Douglass, 105 U. S. 728, 26 L. ed. 957.

71. Riley v. Garfield Tp., 54 Kan. 463, 38 Pac. 560.

So also, although the organization of a county was confessedly fraudulent, where it was afterward recognized as valid by the legislature, it is binding, and bonds of such county which are regular on their face are valid obligations in the hands of bona fide purchasers before maturity. Harper County v. Rose, 140 U. S. 71, 11 S. Ct. 710, 35 L. ed. 344; Comanche County Com'rs v. Lewis, 133 U. S. 198, 10 S. Ct. 286, 33 L. ed. 604.

72. Ashley v. Presque Isle County, 60 Fed. 55, 8 C. C. A. 445.

Discretion of county court as to form and time.— Mo. Gen. Stat. (1865), c. 36, p. 221, provided there should be erected in each county a court-house and jail, and for these purposes the county courts might "issue bonds of their respective counties in such form, for such time and in such sums, as they may deem expedient." The county court of defendant county entered an order that a ceramount, by the sums specified in the proposition of the railroad company for subscription submitted to and voted upon by the company, and the bonds will not be void because not of the same denominations as those specified in such proposition.[73]

(v) Provision For Payment in Gold. When authority is conferred upon a county to issue bonds, in the absence of legislative restriction it is for the county to determine as to the kind of money in which they shall be payable, and it may make them payable in gold if it sees fit so to do.[74]

2. Restraining Issuance of Bonds. A court of equity at the instance of a taxpayer will enjoin the corporate authorities of a county from issuing its bonds without the sanction of the law.[75]

3. For What Purpose Issued. Where counties are authorized by a constitutional statute to extend aid to railroads or other corporations,[76] they may be and usually are also authorized to issue bonds for such purpose.[77] Where, however, tain number of bonds of a certain sum each should be issued to a contractor, but did not prescribe their form or time. Negotiable bonds fixing the time and interest were issued under the seal of the court and signed by the presiding judge and attested by the clerk. It was held that the bonds were within the terms of the order and were within the authority of the county court. Catron v. La Fayette County, 106 Mo. 659, 17 S. W. 577.

Negotiability dependent on delivery by treasurer.— In Lewis v. Barbour County, 3 Fed. 191, 1 McCrary 458, it was held that it is competent for the legislature to make the negotiability of county bonds dependent upon their delivery by the state treasurer.

73. Greene County v. Daniel, 102 U. S. 187, 26 L. ed. 99.

74. Packwood v. Kittitas County, 15 Wash. 88, 45 Pac. 640, 55 Am. St. Rep. 875, 33 L. R. A. 673. See, however, Burnett v. Maloney, 97 Tenn. 697, 37 S. W. 689, 34 L. R. A. 541, in which it was held, Snodgrass, C. J., and Beard, J., dissenting, that under Tenn. Laws (1895), c. 80, authorizing the county court of Knox county to issue the bonds of the county for the building of a bridge, and to levy a tax sufficient for the payment of the interest and principal as they mature, which act contains no specifications in regard to the bonds except as to the amount to be issued and the rate of interest, the court has no power to make such bonds, either principal or interest, payable in United States gold coin of the present standard of weight and fineness.

75. Chestnutwood v. Hood, 68 Ill. 132; Franklin v. Baird, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 715, 7 Ohio N. P. 571; Snyder v. Kantner, 190 Pa. St. 440, 42 Atl. 884; Kyes v. St. Croix County, 108 Wis. 136, 83 N. W. 637.

Jurisdiction of federal court.— A United States circuit court cannot take jurisdiction on the ground of diverse citizenship of a suit by a non-resident taxpayer to enjoin county officers from issuing county bonds and from levying a tax to pay the coupons thereof, unless the bill shows that the tax to be paid by complainant or his liability determined by the ratio of his taxable property in the county exceeds five hundred dollars.

Adams v. Douglas County, 1 Fed. Cas. No. 52, McCahon (Kan.) 235.

76. Act authorizing payment of individual creditors of company unconstitutional.— In Baltimore, etc., R. Co. v. Spring, 80 Md. 510, 31 Atl. 208, 27 L. R. A. 72, it was held that Md. Acts (1892), c. 295, authorizing county commissioners to issue bonds to pay the county's subscription to the capital stock of a railroad company, and providing that before any of the money is paid over to the company all bona fide claims held by residents of the county against the company shall be first paid, is unconstitutional where, before the passage of the act, the railroad, after having been completed, had become insolvent, and there had been in fact no subscription by the county, and it was merely an act to pay the individual claims of certain creditors of the company at the expense of the taxpayers of the county.

77. Alabama.— Ex p. Selma, etc., R. Co., 45 Ala. 696, 6 Am. Rep. 722.

Arkansas.— Hancock v. Chicot County, 32 Ark. 575.

Florida.— Cotten v. Leon County Com'rs, 6 Fla. 610.

Kansas.— Leavenworth, etc., R. Co. v. Douglas County, 18 Kan. 169; Leavenworth County Com'rs v. Miller, 7 Kan. 479, 12 Am. Rep. 425.

Kentucky.—Richmond Cemetery Co. v. Sullivan, 104 Ky. 723, 47 S. W. 1079, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 1028; Sparks v. Bohannon, 61 S. W. 260, 22 Ky. L. Rep. 1710; Shortell v. Green County, 59 S. W. 522, 22 Ky. L. Rep. 1010.

Massachusetts.— Portage County v. Wisconsin Cent. R. Co., 121 Mass. 460.

Nebraska.— Hamlin v. Meadville, 6 Nebr. 227; Hallenbeck v. Hahn, 2 Nebr. 377.

Nevada.— Gibson v. Mason, 5 Nev. 283.

Pennsylvania.— Com. v. Allegheny County Com'rs, 37 Pa. St. 237.

Tennessee.—Clay v. Hawkins County, 5 Lea 137; Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Davidson County Ct., 1 Sneed 637, 62 Am. Dec. 424.

West Virginia.— Goshorn v. Ohio County, 1 W. Va. 308.

United States.— Kankakee County v. Ætna L. Ins. Co., 106 U. S. 668, 2 S. Ct. 80, 27 L. ed. 309; Wilson County v. Nashville Third Nat. Bank, 103 U. S. 770, 26 L. ed. 488; counties are not authorized to make appropriations for the purpose of extending aid to a railroad or to subscribe for or hold stock therein, bonds of the county issued for such purpose are void.[78] It is also held that counties may be authorized to issue bonds for the purpose of funding or refunding county indebtedness,[79]

Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Otoe County, 16 Wall. 667, 21 L. ed. 375; Woods v. Lawrence County, 1 Black 386, 17 L. ed. 122; Curtis v. Butler County, 24 How. 435, 16 L. ed. 745; Kingman County Com'rs v. Cornell University, 57 Fed. 149, 6 C. C. A. 296; Adams v. Lawrence County, 1 Fed. Cas. No. 59.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 262.

To what corporations applicable.— A statute authorizing counties to issue bonds to aid a corporation to complete a railroad begun prior to the adoption of the constitution of 1868 does not include a corporation which was first organized under a charter of reincorporation conferred after such adoption, although its original charter was conferred prior to such adoption. Buncombe County v. Payne, 123 N. C. 432, 31 S. E. 711. And see Wilkes County v. Call, 123 N. C. 308, 31 S. E. 481.

78. Delaware County v. McClintock, 51 Ind. 325; McClure v. Owen, 26 Iowa 243; Chamberlain v. Burlington, 19 Iowa 395; Ten Eyck v. Keokuk, 15 Iowa 486; Smith v. Henry County, 15 Iowa 385; Rock v. Wallace, 14 Iowa 593; McMillan v. Boyles, 14 Iowa 107; Myers v. Johnson County, 14 Iowa 47.

Bonds subscribed after new constitution adopted.— A railroad charter authorized the commissioners of a county through which the road passed to subscribe for stock and issue bonds, provided a majority of the voters consented. After the election at which a majority voted to subscribe, but before the subscription was made, a new constitution was adopted, which prohibited counties from loaning their credit, or borrowing money, to pay such subscriptions. It was held that bonds subsequently issued by the county in payment of stock subscribed for in said railroad were void. Aspinwall v. Daviess County, 22 How. (U. S.) 364, 16 L. ed. 296.

79. Arizona.— Schuerman v. Territory, (1900) 60 Pac. 895; Yavapai County v. McCord, (1899) 59 Pac. 99.

Arkansas.— Pulaski County v. Reeve, 42 Ark. 54.

California.— Chapman v. Morris, 28 Cal. 393.

Colorado.— Lake County v. Standley, 24 Colo. 1, 49 Pac. 23; In re Funding of County Indebtedness, 15 Colo. 421, 24 Pac. 877.

Idaho.—Bannock County v. Bunting, 4 Ida. 156, 37 Pac. 277.

Kansas.— Riley v. Garfield Tp., 54 Kan. 463, 38 Pac. 560; Carpenter v. Hindman, 32 Kan. 601, 5 Pac. 165.

Kentucky.—Richmond Cemetery Co. v. Sullivan, 104 Ky. 723, 47 S. W. 1079, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 1028; Smith v. Mercer County, 104 Ky. 596, 47 S. W. 596, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 812; Sparks v. Bohannon, 61 S. W. 260, 22 Ky. L. Rep. 1710; Muhlenburg County v. Morehead, 46 S. W. 216, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 377.

Missouri.— Butler County v. Boatmen's Bank, 143 Mo. 13, 44 S. W. 1047; Bradley v. Franklin County, 65 Mo. 638; Steines v. Franklin County, 48 Mo. 167, 8 Am. Rep. 87.

Montana.— Hotchkiss v. Marion, 12 Mont. 218, 29 Pac. 821.

Nebraska.—State v. Benton, 33 Nebr. 823, 51 N. W. 140, 33 Nebr. 834, 51 N. W. 144; Jefferson County Com'rs v. People, 5 Nebr. 127.

North Carolina.— McCless v. Meekins, 117 N. C. 34, 23 S. E. 99.

Oklahoma.— Territory v. Hopkins, 9 Okla. 133, 59 Pac. 976.

Pennsylvania.— Snyder v. Kantner, 190 Pa. St. 440, 42 Atl. 884; Com. v. Allegheny County Com'rs, 37 Pa. St. 237.

South Dakota.— Brown v. Bon Homme County, 1 S. D. 216, 46 N. W. 173.

Texas.— Clarke v. San Jacinto County, 18 Tex. Civ. App. 204, 45 S. W. 315.

Utah.— Darke v. Salt Lake County, 15 Utah 467, 49 Pac. 257.

Washington.—Richards v. Klickitat County, 13 Wash. 509, 43 Pac. 647.

Wyoming.— Carbon County v. Rollins, 9 Wyo. 281, 62 Pac. 351.

United States.— Meath v. Phillips County, 108 U. S. 553, 2 S. Ct. 869, 27 L. ed. 819; Pratt County v. Savings Soc., 90 Fed. 233, 32 C. C. A. 596; Haskell County v. National L. Ins. Co., 90 Fed. 228, 32 C. C. A. 591; Seward County v. Ætna L. Ins. Co., 90 Fed. 222, 32 C. C. A. 585; Rathbone v. Kiowa County, 83 Fed. 125, 27 C. C. A. 477; Howard v. Kiowa County, 73 Fed. 406; Sinton v. Carter County, 23 Fed. 535.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 263.

Advertisement for bids.— Wash. Laws (1895), p. 465, § 3, requiring the publication of a notice calling for bids before the issuance of county bonds, should be complied with, although it is desired to issue the bonds in order to take up warrants, all in the hands of one person willing to exchange them for the bonds, and although by reason of its debt limitations the county could not obtain the money on the bonds by a sale while the warrants were outstanding; for the bonds might be sold to one not holding the warrants and the proceeds deposited with an agent to be used in taking up the warrants. Duryee v. Friars, 18 Wash. 55, 50 Pac. 583.

Inclusion of indebtedness evidenced by county warrants.— A statute authorizing the funding by a county of "matured and maturing indebtedness of every kind and description" (Kan. Act, March 8, 1879) includes indebtedness evidenced by county warrants. Howard v. Kiowa County, 73 Fed. 406. See also as holding that indebtedness evidenced by warrants may be funded Bannock County v. Bunting, 4 Ida. 156, 37 Pac. 277; Hotch-provided the debt is a valid and binding one;[80] for erecting or repairing county buildings;[81] and for aid to works of internal and public improvement,[82] as for instance a water grist-mill,[83] the improvement of navigation,[84] the construction and improvement of roads,[85] the building of bridges, etc.[86] And it has been held that a bond of a county for money borrowed for the support of soldiers' families during the Civil war is valid.[87] kiss v. Marion, 12 Mont. 218, 29 Pac. 821; Brown v. Bon Homme County, 1 S. D. 216, 46 N. W. 173; Richards v. Klickitat County, 13 Wash. 509, 43 Pac. 647. In Whitwell v. Pulaski County, 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,605, 2 Dill. 249, it was held that where the statute of the state provided that the county court (the body having the management of county affairs) shall issue ordinary county warrants of a prescribed form for all sums of money found due from the county, the county court had no implied authority to fund outstanding warrants by the issue of negotiable bonds payable at a fixed future time, and which if valid would change and enlarge the liability of the county. Such bonds under the legislation of the state are ultra vires, and impose no liability upon the county even when in the hands of a holder for value.

Presumption of issue to fund valid debt.— Where the facts and conditions might have been such under the law that any part of the excessive debt funded might have been valid, the legal presumption is, in an action on the bond, that these facts and conditions existed, and that the bond in action was issued to fund a valid portion of the debt, because the presumption is that the county officers faithfully discharged their duties, and issued the bond only after ascertaining the validity of the debt for which it was exchanged. Lake County v. Keene Five-Cents Sav. Bank, 108 Fed. 505, 47 C. C. A. 464.

Prohibition of issuance by new county.— Kan. Laws (1876), c. 63, § 1, concerning the organization of new counties, contained a proviso that "no bonds of any kind shall be issued by any county . . . within one year after the organization" thereof. This act was afterward amended (1 Kan. Gen. Stat. pp. 535, 536, § 120), and the proviso was changed to the following: "That no bonds . . . shall be voted for and issued . . . within one year after the organization." It was held that the words "voted for" were a further restriction, and not an enlargement, of the power of counties, and that funding bonds were within the prohibition of the act. Coffin v. Kearney County, 57 Fed. 137, 6 C. C. A. 288.

80. Dunbar v. Canyon County 5 Ida. 407, 49 Pac. 409; McCless v. Meekins, 117 N. C. 34, 23 S. E. 99; Kiowa County v. Howard, 83 Fed. 296, 27 C. C. A. 531.

81. Nolan County v. State, 83 Tex. 182, 17 S. W. 823; Russell v. Cage, 66 Tex. 428, 1 S. W. 270; Robertson v. Breedlove, 61 Tex. 316; Comanche County Com'rs v. Lewis, 133 U. S. 198, 10 S. Ct. 286, 33 L. ed. 604; Lynde v. Winnebago County, 16 Wall. (U. S.) 6, 21 L. ed. 272; Montgomery v. Orr, 27 Fed. 675.

Implied in absence of restrictions.— Where power is given to a county board to erect or repair public buildings, court-houses, jails, etc., without any restrictions, they have the power to issue bonds to pay for the same. Cushman v. Carver County, 19 Minn. 295; Nininger v. Carver County, 10 Minn. 133; Chaska County v. Carver County, 6 Minn. 204.

Where, however, this power is restricted, as for instance by a limitation upon the power of the county to incur indebtedness, the board has no power to issue bonds for such purpose. Rogers v. Le Sueur County, 57 Minn. 434, 59 N. W. 488; State v. Lincoln County, 18 Nebr. 283, 25 N. W. 91.

82. Must not violate constitutional prohibition as to loan of credit, etc., to any person or corporation. Martin v. Tyler, 4 N. D. 278, 60 N. W. 392, 25 L. R. A. 838; Colburn v. Chattanooga Western R. Co., 94 Tenn. 43, 28 S. W. 298.

83. State v. Clay County, 20 Nebr. 452, 30 N. W. 528; State v. Keith County, 16 Nebr. 508, 20 N. W. 856; Traver v. Merrick County, 14 Nebr. 327, 15 N. W. 690, 45 Am. Rep. 111; De Clerq v. Hager, 12 Nebr. 185, 10 N. W. 697; Union Pac. R. Co. v. Colfax County, 4 Nebr. 450; Clapp v. Otoe County, 104 Fed. 473, 45 C. C. A. 579; Kimball v. Grant County, 21 Fed. 145; Shelley v. St. Charles County, 17 Fed. 909, 5 McCrary 474.

84. Stockton v. Powell, 29 Fla. 1, 10 So. 688, 15 L. R. A. 42.

85. Catron v. La Fayette County, 106 Mo. 659, 17 S. W. 577; State v. Warren County, 17 Ohio St. 558; Kimball v. Board of Com'rs, 21 Fed. 145.

Where only part of county contributes to road fund.— The levying of a tax for county road purposes on property in a city in which work and improvements on the street are done by virtue of laws relating to street work and improvements therein, being prohibited by Cal. Stat. (1883), p. 20, so that the road fund is one to which only part of the county contributes, and which is to be expended for the benefit of such part only, the county's bonds cannot be issued for construction of a road. Devine v. Sacramento County, 121 Cal. 670, 54 Pac. 262.

86. State v. Keith County, 16 Nebr. 508, 20 N. W. 856; Fremont Bldg. Assoc. v. Sherwin, 6 Nebr. 48; Union Pac. R. Co. v. Colfax County, 4 Nebr. 450; Mitchell County v. City Nat. Bank, 91 Tex. 361, 43 S. W. 880 [reversing 15 Tex. Civ. App. 172, 39 S. W. 628]; Coler v. Wyandot County, 6 Fed. Cas. No. 2,987, 3 Dill. 391 note.

87. Conyers v. Bartow County, 108 Ga. 559, 34 S. E. 351.

4. Requisites and Form of Bonds — a. Compliance With Statutory Requirements. Bonds when issued by the proper county authorities should comply with the prescribed statutory requirements in regard to form.[88] It therefore follows that they should be dated,[89] signed,[90] countersigned,[91] attested,[92] sealed,[93]

88. Otherwise the party who has agreed to purchase them is not bound to accept them, even though they might be valid in the hands of a purchaser. Merced County v. State University, 66 Cal. 25, 4 Pac. 780.

Directory provisions as to form.— Where a statute under which bonds were issued and which prescribes that they shall be payable to a certain corporation and its successor and assigns is merely directory, a divergence from such formula by making the bonds payable to the corporation or bearer is one of form and not of substance, of which the company will be estopped to take advantage by the recital in the bonds of conformity to the statutes. Calhoun County v. Galbraith, 99 U. S. 214, 25 L. ed. 410. See also Woodward v. Calhoun County, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 18,002.

89. Prettyman v. Tazewell County, 19 Ill. 406, 71 Am. Dec. 230.

Date where issuance delayed.— Bonds to be issued by a county in aid of a railroad should bear date and draw interest as of and from the time when they should have issued, whether the issuance has been delayed by the officers or not. Prettyman v. Tazewell, 19 Ill. 406, 71 Am. Dec. 230.

The antedating of bonds has been held not to affect their validity. State v. Moore, 46 Nebr. 590, 65 N. W. 193, 50 Am. St. Rep. 626; Morrill v. Smith County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 33 S. W. 899.

90. Curtis v. Butler County, 65 U. S. 435, 16 L. ed. 745.

Delegation of power to sign.— The county board may delegate the power to sign bonds to the county judge. Clark v. Hancock County, 27 Ill. 305. So it has been held that the clerk may sign the bond upon the order of the county judge. Ring v. Johnson County, 6 Iowa 365.

Signature and sealing in adjoining county. — County commissioners, when about to issue bonds in aid of railroad construction in pursuance of a valid election held for that purpose, being apprehensive of an injunction to prevent the issue, went into an adjoining county before the issuing of the injunction, and without knowledge that one had been obtained, taking with them the county seal and a deputy clerk, and there signed and sealed the bonds. It was held that the bonds were validly executed, and that they must be delivered to the donee. Jones v. Hurlburt, 13 Nebr. 125, 13 N. W. 5.

Signature by judge when absent from county.— In Lynde v. Winnebago County, 16 Wall. (U. S.) 6, 21 L. ed. 272, it was held that it was competent for the county judge to visit New York and there affix to the bonds a seal there procured and for that purpose, although a statute of the state provided that in case of the absence of that officer the county clerk shall fill his place.

Signature by majority of board.— The signature of two out of three county commissioners to county bonds is binding upon the county. Curtis v. Butler County, 24 How. (U. S.) 435, 16 L. ed. 745; Howard v. Crawford County, 12 Fed. Cas. No. 6,757, 1 Pittsb. (Pa.) 531. When a law directs that certain bonds of a parish shall be signed by a majority of the members of its police jury, it means a majority of the members designated by the jury. It does not mean any majority of its members not selected for the purpose by the jury. State v. Police Jury, 30 La. Ann. 287.

Signature of coupons by one county officer only.— If the bonds to which coupons are annexed are properly signed and sealed by the officers of the county, it is no defense to an action on the coupons that they are signed by only one of the county officers. Thayer v. Montgomery County, 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,870, 3 Dill. 389.

91. Douglass v. Lincoln County, 5 Fed. 775, 2 McCrary 449.

The omission of a treasurer to countersign bonds as required by statute is a mere defect in their execution, which a court of equity will supply in the absence of a remedy at law. Melvin v. Lisenby, 72 Ill. 63, 22 Am. Rep. 141.

92. State v. Roggen, 22 Nebr. 118, 34 N. W. 108; People v. Ingersoll, 58 N. Y. 1, 17 Am. Rep. 178.

Duty of auditor and secretary of state to register and certify.— In registering and certifying bonds issued under the Nebraska act, "To authorize the issue of county bonds in certain cases," approved Feb. 19, 1877, the auditor and secretary of state have no right to review the action of their predecessors upon the original bonds. State v. Alexander, 14 Nebr. 280, 15 N. W. 365.

The legislature has the power to direct by what agency claims against the county shall be ascertained and adjusted, and by what officials the bonds of a county authorized to be issued to provide means of payment therefor shall be attested and issued. People v. Ingersoll, 58 N. Y. 1, 17 Am. Rep. 178.

93. Stockton v. Powell, 29 Fla. 1, 10 So. 688, 15 L. R. A. 42; Howard v. Crawford County, 12 Fed. Cas. No. 6,757.

Presumption as to sealing coupons.—Where interest coupons recognize the fact that they constitute part of and belong to certain county bonds, and recite that they are given for interest becoming due upon them, it is to be presumed that they are correctly executed by the county judge and are under the county seal. Ring v. Johnson County, 6 Iowa 265.

The seal of the judge of probate is suffi-and registered, if the statute under which their issuance is authorized so prescribes.[94]

b. Effect of Erroneous Reference to Statute. Where county bonds reciting that they were issued in conformity to law refer to the wrong statute, this will not render them void, so long as ample authority is found elsewhere under statutes in force at the time of issuance which have been substantially complied with.[95] This rule does not, however, apply where the official records show proceedings not in conformity with the act authorizing the issue, and the recitals of the bonds themselves exclude the possibility that they were issued under such act.[96]

5. Rights of Corporation in Whose Favor Issued. Where a statute provides that county bonds shall issue for a certain purpose after certain conditions precedent, and such conditions have been performed, it is the duty of the county, upon the request of the payee, to issue such bonds to the payee, or to reissue them if wrongfully destroyed.[97] Bonds of a county issued in payment of its cient in Florida, where counties have no seal. Jefferson County v. Lewis, 20 Fla. 980.

94. Melvin v. Lisenby, 72 Ill. 63, 22 Am. Rep. 141; Territory v. Hopkins, 9 Okla. 133, 59 Pac. 976; Douglass v. Lincoln County, 5 Fed. 775, 2 McCrary 449.

Effect of erroneous description as to payee. — That bonds described in their registration as being payable to the "State of Texas" were "payable to bearer" was held in Hardeman County v. Foard County, 19 Tex. Civ. App. 212, 47 S. W. 30, 536, not to invalidate them, since the statute does not prescribe what the registration shall contain.

95. Dawson County v. McNamar, 10 Nebr. 276, 4 N. W. 991; Johnson County v. January, 94 U. S. 202, 24 L. ed. 110. See also Anderson County v. Beal, 113 U. S. 227, 5 S. Ct. 433, 28 L. ed. 966. In Dawson County v. McNamar, 10 Nebr. 276, 4 N. W. 991, county bonds issued to raise money to build a court-house recited that they were issued under the authority of the aforesaid "internal improvement" acts. It was held that this reference to a statute which gave no authority was no ground for declaring the bonds invalid, so long as ample authority was found elsewhere which had been substantially observed.

Right of bondholder to show issuance under another statute. — A recital on the face of county bonds that they are "issued under and pursuant to order of the county court . . for subscription to the stock of the Missouri & Mississippi Railroad Company as authorized by an act . . . entitled 'An act to Incorporate the Missouri & Mississippi Railroad Company,' approved February 20, 1865," although it may estop the county in favor of the bondholder, is not conclusive in favor of the county, and the bondholder may introduce evidence to prove that the bonds were issued under authority of another statute. Knox County v. New York City Ninth Nat. Bank, 147 U. S. 91, 94, 13 S. Ct. 267, 37 L. ed. 93 [affirming 37 Fed. 75]. See also Smith v. Clark County, 54 Mo. 58, where it was held that where certain railroad-aid bonds recited that they were issued under the general act passed in 1855, and the same act as amended by the acts of 1860 and 1861, which required a popular vote to authorize the issue of such bonds, such recitals would not estop an innocent holder from showing in point of fact that the bonds were issued under the special act of 1857, not requiring such vote.

Where there is a variance between the recitals of a bond and of the petition in a suit thereon as to the statute under which the bond was issued, the presumption is that the recitals in the bond were true, and these will control in the absence of evidence that such recitals were written by mistake and that the power to issue was in fact derived from another than the act named. U. S. v. Knox County, 15 Fed. 704, 5 McCrary 76.

96. Gilson v. Dayton, 123 U. S. 59, 8 S. Ct. 66, 31 L. ed. 74; Crow v. Oxford, 119 U. S. 215, 7 S. Ct. 180, 30 L. ed. 388.

97. Matthews v. Blount County, 3 Lea (Tenn.) 120; Morrill v. Smith County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 33 S. W. 899.

Bill in equity by contractors on completion of contract. — The legislature of Alabama passed an act creating a harbor board, with authority to contract for the improvement of Mobile harbor, and requiring the authorities of the county of Mobile to issue to said harbor board the bonds of the county, to an amount not exceeding one million of dollars, to pay for said improvement. The harbor board made a contract for work on the harbor, to be paid for in county bonds. The work was performed by the contractors, and on settlement there was found due to them six county bonds of one thousand dollars each. The act creating the harbor board was repealed, and the board could not demand or receive from the county authorities the bonds to pay this obligation. It was held that the bill in equity of the contractors, against the county, to compel the delivery directly to them of the bonds, was well brought, and that a court of equity had jurisdiction of the case. The rights of the contractors could not be impaired by the repeal of the law creating the harbor board or any other legislation enacted after the date of their contract. Kimball v. Mobile County, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,774, 3 Woods 555.

Ultra vires of payee as defense. — In King-subscription to a railroad company will not be invalidated merely for imperfections in the decree of court by which the corporation was organized.[98]

6. Rights of Purchasers — a. In General. As a general rule county bonds issued to the obligee or bearer possess all the elements of commercial paper, and are subject to all the rules pertaining thereto.[99] Their holders are entitled to all the rights, privileges, and immunities attaching to negotiable instruments,[1] and in the hands of innocent holders for value before maturity such bonds are neither subject to antecedent equities,[2] nor invalidated by mere irregularities, not going to the power to issue the same.[3] A purchaser or holder of such bonds who has man County Com'rs v. Cornell University, 57 Fed. 149, 6 C. C. A. 296, a county with general powers to lend its credit in aid of railroads issued bonds in exchange for the stock of a railway company on condition that the company build a railway of standard gauge through the county, which condition was subsequently fulfilled. In making this issue all formalities required by law were complied with. It was held that the county could not set up the defense of ultra vires, in an action on the bonds, merely because the railway company was authorized to build only a narrow-gauge railroad.

98. Williams v. Duck River Valley Narrow Gauge R. Co., 9 Baxt. (Tenn.) 488.

99. Arkansas.— Hancock v. Chicot County, 32 Ark. 575.

Missouri.—Barrett v. Schuyler County Ct., 44 Mo. 197.

New York.— Lindsley v. Diefendorf, 43 How. Pr. 357.

Texas.— Board v. Texas, etc., R. Co., 46 Tex. 316.

United States.— Durant v. Iowa County, 8 Fed. Cas. No. 4,189, Woolw. 69; Kennicott v. Wayne County, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,710, 6 Biss. 138.

Contra.— Diamond v. Lawrence County, 37 Pa. St. 383, 78 Am. Dec. 429. And compare Madison County v. Brown, 28 Ind. 161.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 289; and, generally, Commercial Paper.

Bonds payable from special fund.— Bonds issued by a county which acknowledge an indebtedness in a certain sum, and promise to pay the same to the payee or bearer from a special fund to be raised by the annual levy of a specified rate of tax on the taxable property of the county, such fund to be applied pro rata on such bonds, first to the payment of the interest, and then the principal, are not negotiable instruments within the law merchant, because there is no certainty as to the fact or time of payment, which depends entirely on the adequacy of the fund. Washington County v. Williams, 111 Fed. 801, 49 C. C. A. 621.

1. Barrett v. Schuyler County Ct., 44 Mo. 197; Lindsley v. Diefendorf, 43 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 357; Board v. Texas, etc., R. Co., 46 Tex. 316; Durant v. Iowa County, 8 Fed. Cas. No. 4,189, Woolw. 69; Kennicott v. Wayne County, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,710, 6 Biss. 138.

2. Barrett v. Schuyler County Ct., 44 Mo. 197; Scotland County v. Hill, 132 U. S. 107, 10 S. Ct. 26, 33 L. ed. 261 [affirming 25 Fed. 395].

3. Illinois.— Maxcy v. Williamson County Ct., 72 Ill. 207.

Nebraska.— State v. Moore, 46 Nebr. 590, 65 N. W. 193, 50 Am. St. Rep. 626.

New Mexico.— Coler v. Santa Fe County, 6 N. M. 88, 27 Pac. 619.

North Carolina.— Street v. Craven County, 70 N. C. 644.

Tennessee.— State v. Anderson County, 8 Baxt. 249; Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. State, 8 Heisk. 663.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 289.

As for instance: That the company was not organized within the time limited by charter. Ralls County v. Douglass, 105 U. S. 728, 26 L. ed. 957. That the road was consolidated with another after the election. Tipton County v. Rogers Locomotive, etc., Works, 103 U. S. 528, 26 L. ed. 340; Warrener v. Kankakee County, 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,205. That the company sold bonds at a discount in violation of statute. Woods v. Lawrence County, 1 Black (U. S.) 386, 17 L. ed. 122; Adams v. Lawrence County, 1 Fed. Cas. No. 59, 2 Pittsb. (Pa.) 60. That the proceeds of bonds were used for another purpose than that for which they were issued. Francis v. Howard County, 50 Fed. 44. That there was a non-compliance with conditions imposed by the county before delivery. Nelson v. Haywood County, 87 Tenn. 781, 11 S. W. 885, 4 L. R. A. 648. That the company was not created according to law, until after the favorable vote. Daviess County v. Huidekoper, 98 U. S. 98, 25 L. ed. 112. That officers of the railroad failed to fulfil their promises to citizens of the county, that the road would run through the county, to induce them to vote for the subscription. Carpenter v. Greene County, 130 Ala. 613, 29 So. 194. That the agent authorized to make the subscription purchased stock instead of subscribing. Street v. Craven County, 70 N. C. 644; Lewis v. Taylor, 18 Ohio Cir. Ct. 443, 10 Ohio Cir. Dec. 205. That there were irregularities in the election. Williams v. People, 132 Ill. 574, 24 N. E. 647; Mercer County v. Hubbard, 45 Ill. 139; Clarke v. Hancock County, 27 Ill. 305; State v. Kiowa County, 39 Kan. 657, 19 Pac. 925, 7 Am. St. Rep. 569; State v. Sanderson, 54 Mo. 203; Steines v. Franklin County, 48 Mo. 167, 8 Am. Rep. 87; Citizens' Sav., etc., Assoc. v. Perry County, 156 U. S. 692, 15 S. Ct. 547, 39 L. ed. 585; Knox notice of irregularities or infirmities, or is in possession of facts sufficient to put him on inquiry, is not, however, entitled to such immunities, but takes subject to such irregularities or infirmities.[4]

b. In Case of Unauthorized Issue. Where the county officers in the exercise of their authority issue county bonds, the presumption is that they were issued conformably to authority,[5] and that all preliminaries, including the election, etc., have been complied with.[6] Where, however, bonds are issued by those having no authority so to do,[7] in violation of statutory provisions as to conditions precedent,[8] or registration,[9] or in excess of the amount allowed by law, etc., it has been held that such bonds are void even in the hands of a bona fide holder.[10]

7. Estoppel to Deny Validity of Bonds — a. By Recitals in Bonds — (1) In General. Where the statutes leave it to the officers issuing the bonds to determine whether the facts exist which constitute the statutory or constitutional conditions precedent to an issuance of the bonds, and does not require these facts to be made a matter of public record, the county is estopped by the recital of such facts in its bonds to deny their validity in the hands of bona fide purchasers.[11] The County v. Wallace, 21 How. (U. S.) 546, 16 L. ed. 211; Knox County v. Aspinwall, 21 How. (U. S.) 539, 16 L. ed. 208; Schenck v. Marshall County, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,449, 1 Biss. 533 [affirmed in 5 Wall. 772, 18 L. ed. 556].

Reversal of decision as to the validity.— Where bonds are bought upon the decision of the supreme court declaring them valid, the fact that they are subsequently declared invalid by such court does not invalidate those purchased in good faith and before maturity. U. S. v. Lee County, 26 Fed. Cas. No. 15,589, 2 Biss. 77.

The determination of the supreme court as to the constitutionality of a statute authorizing an issue of bonds in payment of subscription is conclusive and cannot be questioned, or the validity of the bonds in the hands of a bona fide holder impeached. Columbia County Com'rs v. Davidson, 13 Fla. 482; Columbia County Com'rs v. King, 13 Fla. 451.

4. Minnesota.— St. Paul First Nat. Bank v. Scott County, 14 Minn. 77, 10 Am. Dec. 194.

Mississippi.— Madison County v. Paxton, 57 Miss. 701.

Missouri.— Cass County v. Green, 66 Mo. 498.

Texas.— Ball v. Presidio County, 88 Tex. 60, 29 S. W. 1042.

United States.—Chambers County v. Clews, 21 Wall. 317, 32 L. ed. 517; Francis v. Howard County, 54 Fed. 487, 4 C. C. A. 460 [affirming 50 Fed. 44]; Mobile Sav. Bank v. Oktibbeha County, 24 Fed. 110; Whitford v. Clark County, 13 Fed. 837.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 289 et seq.

Burden of proof is on county to show knowledge of irregularities. Coler v. Santa Fe County, 6 N. M. 88, 27 Pac. 619.

Negotiability dependent on delivery by treasurer of state.— Where a legislature has made the negotiability of county bonds depend upon their delivery by the treasurer of state, a purchaser of such bonds, which purport upon their face to have been issued under the provisions of a statute containing such condition, is not a bona fide purchaser without notice, where such bonds were fraudulently issued, without being delivered by the treasurer of state. Lewis v. Barbour County, 3 Fed. 191, 1 McCrary 458.

The mere fact that some of the interest coupons were overdue at the time of plaintiff's purchase of railroad-aid bonds issued by a county is not sufficient to put him upon inquiry or charge him with notice of any defenses to the bonds, especially where, during the time these coupons were running, the negotiation of the bonds had been restrained by an injunction which was finally dissolved. Preble v. Portage County, 19 Fed. Cas. No. 11,380, 8 Biss. 358.

5. Maxcy v. Williamson County Ct., 72 Ill. 207; Schenck v. Marshall County, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,449, 1 Biss. 533 [affirmed in 5 Wall. 772, 18 L. ed. 556].

Record sufficient for purchaser.— If the record of a county respecting the issue of its bonds shows enough upon the matter of authority to justify a purchaser in taking the bonds, he cannot be compelled to go behind it and show that the record is true. Clapp v. Cedar County, 5 Iowa 15, 68 Am. Dec. 678.

6. Burr v. Chariton County, 12 Fed. 848, 2 McCrary 603.

7. Marshall County v. Cook, 38 Ill. 44, 87 Am. Dec. 282; Clapp v. Cedar County, 5 Iowa 15, 68 Am. Dec. 678; Whitwell v. Pulaski County, 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,605, 2 Dill. 249.

8. Hancock v. Chicot County, 32 Ark. 575.

Without authorization of popular vote.— Hull v. Marshall County, 12 Iowa 142; Sherrard v. Lafayette County, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,771, 3 Dill. 236.

9. Anthony v. Jasper County, 1 Fed. Cas. No. 488, 4 Dill. 136.

10. Daviess County v. Dickinson, 117 U. S. 657, 6 S. Ct. 897, 29 L. ed. 1026; Francis v. Howard County, 50 Fed. 44.

11. Florida.—Jefferson County v. Lewis, 20 Fla. 980.

holder is in such case bound to look for nothing except legislative authority given for the issuance of such bonds, and he is not required to examine whether the conditions upon which such authority may be exercised have been fulfilled, but may rely upon the recital.[12] If, however, the statute expressly requires the Mississippi.— Madison County v. Brown, 67 Miss. 684, 7 So. 516; Cutler v. Madison County, 56 Miss. 115.

Missouri.— Smith v. Clark County, 54 Mo. 58; State v. Saline County Ct., 48 Mo. 390, 8 Am. Rep. 108; Steines v. Franklin County, 48 Mo. 167, 8 Am. Rep. 87; Barrett v. Schuyler County Ct., 44 Mo. 197.

New Mexico.— Coler v. Santa Fe County, 6 N. M. 88, 27 Pac. 619.

North Carolina.— Belo v. Forsythe County Com'rs, 76 N. C. 489.

Ohio.— State v. Fayette County, 37 Ohio St. 526.

Tennessee.— Shelby County v. Jarnagin, (Sup. 1875) 16 S. W. 1040; Nelson v. Haygood County, 87 Tenn. 781, 11 S. W. 885, 4 L. R. A. 648.

Texas.— Nolan County v. State, 83 Tex. 182, 17 S. W. 823; Anderson County v. Houston, etc., R. Co., 52 Tex. 228; Mitchell County v. Paducah City Nat. Bank, 17 Tex. Civ. App. 172, 39 S. W. 628; Ball v. Presidio County, (Civ. App. 1894) 27 S. W. 702.

United States.— Sutliff v. Lake County, 147 U. S. 230, 13 S. Ct. 318, 37 L. ed. 145; Comanche County Com'rs v. Lewis, 133 U. S. 198, 10 S. Ct. 286, 33 L. ed. 604 [affirming 35 Fed. 343]; Anderson County Com'rs v. Beal, 113 U. S. 227, 5 S. Ct. 433, 28 L. ed. 966; Grenada County v. Brown, 112 U. S. 261, 5 S. Ct. 125, 28 L. ed. 704; Dixon County v. Field, 111 U. S. 83, 4 S. Ct. 315, 28 L. ed. 360; Dallas County v. McKenzie, 110 U. S. 686, 4 S. Ct. 184, 28 L. ed. 285; Northern Nat. Bank v. Porter Tp., 110 U. S. 608, 4 S. Ct. 254, 28 L. ed. 258; Sherman County v. Simond, 109 U. S. 735, 3 S. Ct. 502, 27 L. ed. 1093; Bourbon County v. Block, 99 U. S. 686, 25 L. ed. 491; Henry County v. Nicolay, 95 U. S. 619, 24 L. ed. 394; Douglas County v. Bolles, 94 U. S. 104, 24 L. ed. 46; Moultrie County v. Rockingham Sav. Bank, 92 U. S. 631, 23 L. ed. 631; Chambers County v. Clews, 21 Wall. 317, 22 L. ed. 517; Nugent v. Putnam County, 19 Wall. 241, 22 L. ed. 83 [overruling 18 Fed. Cas. No. 10,377, 3 Biss. 105]; Kenicott v. Wayne County, 16 Wall. 452, 21 L. ed. 319; Lynde v. Winnebago County, 16 Wall. 6, 21 L. ed. 272; Knox County v. Aspinwall, 21 How. 539, 16 L. ed. 208; Clapp v. Otoe County, 104 Fed. 473, 45 C. C. A. 579; Hughes County v. Livingston, 104 Fed. 306, 43 C. C. A. 541; Cowley County v. Heed, 101 Fed. 768, 41 C. C. A. 668; Barber County v. Savings Soc., 101 Fed. 767, 41 C. C. A. 667; Lake County v. Sutliff, 97 Fed. 270, 38 C. C. A. 167; Haskell County v. National L. Ins. Co., 90 Fed. 228, 32 C. C. A. 591; Ashley v. Presque Isle County, 60 Fed. 55, 8 C. C. A. 455; Potter v. Chaffee County, 33 Fed. 614; Mobile Sav. Bank v. Oktibbeha County, 24 Fed. 110; Lewis v. Sherman County, 5 Fed. 269, 2 McCrary 464; Darlington v. La Clede County, 6 Fed. Cas. No. 3,577, 4 Dill. 200; Smith v. Tallapoosa County, 22 Fed. Cas. No. 13,113, 2 Woods 574; Westermann v. Cape Girardeau County, 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,432, 5 Dill. 112.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 283.

Effect of recital of issue pursuant to order of court.— A recital in county bonds that they are issued "pursuant to an order of the county court" puts all persons dealing in the bonds upon inquiry as to the terms of the order. Post v. Pulaski County, 49 Fed. 628, 1 C. C. A. 405.

Estoppel to raise question of debt limit.— Where bonds recite that all the requirements of the act authorizing issuance have been complied with, that the issue was authorized by popular vote, and that the whole amount of the issue does not exceed the constitutional debt limit, the county is estopped from asserting that the contrary is the fact as against a bona fide holder. Gunnison County v. Rollins, 173 U. S. 255, 19 S. Ct. 390, 43 L. ed. 689; Chaffee County Com'rs v. Potter, 142 U. S. 355, 12 S. Ct. 216, 35 L. ed. 1040 [affirming 33 Fed. 614]; Dallas County v. McKenzie, 110 U. S. 686, 4 S. Ct. 184, 28 L. ed. 285; Meade County v. Ætna L. Ins. Co., 90 Fed. 237, 32 C. C. A. 600; Dudley v. Lake County, 80 Fed. 672, 26 C. C. A. 82.

Recital conclusive on county.— The recitals in a bond executed by the county judge and issued by the county to a railroad company in payment for the subscription to its stock are conclusive in an action thereon by a third person who acquired the same bona fide. Clapp v. Cedar County, 5 Iowa 15, 68 Am. Dec. 678.

The action and certificate of the auditor.— The action and certificate of the auditor are conclusive evidence, as between the county and a bona fide holder, that bonds unconditional upon their face were regularly and legally issued and therefore negotiable. Lewis v. Barbour County, 105 U. S. 739, 26 L. ed. 993.

12. Douglas County v. Bolles, 94 U. S. 104, 24 L. ed. 46. And see Dodge v. Platte County, 82 N. Y. 218.

Effect of misnomer of payee.— Where the voters approve the issuance of bonds, in aid of the construction of wagon roads in the name of the Del Norte and Summit Wagon Road Company, and the county thereupon issues and registers bonds, but in the name of the Del Norte and Summit-Wagon Toll-Road Company, if the companies are one, and the bonds recite that the voters have approved their issue in the latter name, and the county pays the interest regularly and assumes the management of the completed road, the bonds are valid in the hands of a bona fide facts constituting the conditions precedent to the issuance of bonds to be made a matter of public record open to the inspection of everyone, there can be no implication that it was intended to leave the matter to be determined and concluded contrary to the facts so recorded, to the officers charged with the duty of issuing the bonds, and the purchaser is charged with notice and bound to ascertain from the record whether the county has power to issue the bonds.[13] The doctrine is well established that a purchaser of county bonds is bound to ascertain if the county has authority to issue them, and that no recital contained in a county bond can cure such a defect as an utter want of power in the county to execute it, and the county will not be estopped thereby, even as against a bona fide purchaser.[14]

(II) No Recitals to Show Authority. Where the bonds contain no recitals to show authority for their issuance, but are mere naked promises to pay, every purchaser and holder thereof is chargeable with notice of whatever appears upon the face of the county records, and if want of authority appears the bonds are void even in the hands of an otherwise bona fide holder.[15] purchaser notwithstanding the misnomer. Haag v. Rio Grande County, 34 Fed. 778.

13. Madison County v. Brown, 67 Miss. 684, 7 So. 516; Nolan County v. State, 83 Tex. 182, 17 S. W. 823; Sutliff v. Lake County, 147 U. S. 230, 13 S. Ct. 318, 37 L. ed. 145; Lake County v. Graham, 130 U. S. 674, 9 S. Ct. 654, 32 L. ed. 1065; Quaker City Nat. Bank v. Nolan County, 59 Fed. 660; Coffin v. Kearney County, 57 Fed. 137, 6 C. C. A. 288; Francis v. Howard County, 54 Fed. 487, 4 C. C. A. 460, 50 Fed. 44; Post v. Pulaski County, 47 Fed. 282. "If the fact necessary to the existence of the authority was by law to be ascertained, not officially by the officers charged with the execution of the power, but by reference to some express and definite record of a public character, then the true meaning of the law would be, that the authority to act at all depended upon the actual objective existence of the requisite fact, as shown by the record, and not upon its ascertainment and determination by anyone; and the consequence would necessarily follow, that all persons claiming under the exercise of such a power might be put to proof of the fact, made a condition of its lawfulness, notwithstanding any recitals in the instrument." Dixon County v. Field, 111 U. S. 83, 4 S. Ct. 315, 28 L. ed. 360.

14. Brown v. Bon Homme County, 1 S. D. 216, 46 N. W. 173; Morrill v. Smith County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 33 S. W. 899; Citizens' Sav., etc., Assoc. v. Perry County, 156 U. S. 692, 15 S. Ct. 547, 39 L. ed. 585; Lake County v. Graham, 130 U. S. 674, 9 S. Ct. 654, 32 L. ed. 1065; German Sav. Bank v. Franklin County, 128 U. S. 526, 9 S. Ct. 159, 32 L. ed. 519; Dixon v. Field, 111 U. S. 83, 4 S. Ct. 315, 28 L. ed. 360; Anthony v. Jasper County, 101 U. S. 693, 25 L. ed. 1005; Dallas County v. MacKenzie, 94 U. S. 660, 24 L. ed. 182; Marsh v. Fulton County, 10 Wall. (U. S.) 676, 19 L. ed. 1040; Coffin v. Kearney County, 57 Fed. 137, 6 C. C. A. 288; Deland v. Platte County, 54 Fed. 823; Post v. Pulaski County, 47 Fed. 282; Sutliff v. Lake County, 47 Fed. 106; Sherrard v. Lafayette County, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,771, 3 Dill. 236.

Recital as to age of county.— Under Kan. Gen. Stat. pp. 535, 536, § 120, declaring that after certain steps have been taken a new county "shall be deemed duly organized, provided that no bonds shall be issued . . . within one year after the organization," a county, after taking such steps, is not "duly organized" for the purpose of issuing bonds, and is not estopped by any recitals in its bonds to show that they were issued within the forbidden time, and are therefore invalid in the hands of bona fide holders. Coffin v. Kearney County, 57 Fed. 137, 6 C. C. A. 288 [approving State v. Haskell County, 40 Kan. 65, 19 Pac. 362].

When act under which bonds are issued is unconstitutional and the bonds are therefore invalid a recital in them of authority to issue them does not make them valid in the hands of a bona fide purchaser. Dundy v. Richardson County, 8 Nebr. 508, 1 N. W. 565.

Where the state constitution prohibits county subscriptions to railroad stock, and the issue of bonds to pay therefor, except in cases where a vote had already been taken, and bonds are issued in a case coming within the exception, the bonds will be invalid if the vote was irregular, and the county is not estopped to set up such invalidity because it did not give notice of such irregularity when the bonds were delivered, nor because the company performed labor and incurred liabilities on the faith of the subscription. People v. Jackson County, 92 Ill. 441.

15. Lewis v. Bourbon County Com'rs, 12 Kan. 149; Ball v. Presidio County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 27 S. W. 702.

The fact that they were registered in accordance with the statutory requirement and a certificate to that effect indorsed thereon does not preclude the county from showing that the statute was not complied with in their issuance, even as against innocent holders. Bolles v. Perry County, 92 Fed. 479, 34 C. C. A. 478.

(iii) Recitals Showing Want of Authority. Where a bond shows on its face want of legislative authority for its issuance every taker thereof has notice of such want of power,[16] and if the recitals therein import a want of authority to issue them a bona fide holder cannot maintain an action thereon.[17]

b. By County Records. Innocent holders of county bonds will be protected where the county records themselves show that the conditions precedent to a valid issue of such bonds have been complied with, and the county will be estopped to deny such recitals in the record.[18]

8. Ratification of Bonds. A county may, unless restrained by constitutional or statutory provisions, so acquiesce in and confirm the acts of its agents or officers in issuing county bonds which, although irregular, are not ultra vires as to be estopped from questioning the validity of the bonds;[19] as by failure to protest or commence legal proceedings[20] or by laches in so doing;[21] by payment of interest on the bonds;[22] by retention of the proceeds, etc.;[23] by accepting stock in payment of bonds;[24] by voting to issue or issuing refunding bonds in place of those originally issued.[25] So where a county with power to fund its indebtedness

16. McClure v. Oxford Tp., 94 U. S. 429, 24 L. ed. 129.

17. Dodge v. Platte County, 82 N. Y. 218 [reversing 16 Hun 285]. So where the recitals do not import either expressly or by necessary implication a compliance with the condition precedent imposed by the popular vote for their issue, the county may, in an action on the bonds, show that that condition was not performed when the bonds were issued by order of the county court, and had never been performed, and therefore that the bonds were invalid. Citizens' Sav., etc., Assoc. v. Perry County, 156 U. S. 692, 15 S. Ct. 547, 39 L. ed. 585.

18. Florida.—Jefferson County v. Lewis, 20 Fla. 980.

Iowa.— Clapp v. Cedar County, 5 Iowa 15, 68 Am. Dec. 678.

Kansas.—Lewis v. Bourbon County Com'rs, 12 Kan. 186.

North Carolina.— Belo v. Forsythe County, Com'rs, 76 N. C. 489.

United States.— Valley County v. McLean, 79 Fed. 728, 25 C. C. A. 174.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 292.

If the records show enough upon the matter of authority to justify a purchaser in taking the bond, he cannot be held bound to go behind it and show that the record is true. Clapp v. Cedar County, 5 Iowa 15, 68 Am. Dec. 678; State v. Fayette County, 37 Ohio St. 526.

19. Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Chase County, 49 Kan. 399, 30 Pac. 456; Hutchinson, etc., R. Co. v. Kingman County, 48 Kan. 70, 28 Pac. 1078, 30 Am. St. Rep. 273, 15 L. R. A. 401; State v. Wilkinson, 20 Nebr. 610, 31 N. W. 376; Pendleton County v. Amy, 13 Wall. (U. S.) 297, 20 L. ed. 579; Marshall County v. Schenck, 5 Wall. (U. S.) 772, 18 L. ed. 556.

20. Prettyman v. Tazewell County Sup'rs, 19 Ill. 406, 71 Am. Dec. 230; Hutchinson, etc., R. Co. v. Kingman County, 48 Kan. 70, 28 Pac. 1078, 30 Am. St. Rep. 273, 15 L. R. A. 401.

21. Prettyman v. Tazewell County Sup'rs, 19 Ill. 406, 71 Am. Dec. 230; Hutchinson, etc., R. Co. v. Kingman County, 48 Kan. 70, 28 Pac. 1078, 30 Am. St. Rep. 273, 15 L. R. A. 401.

Failure to object until maturity of bonds. — Johnson v. Stark County, 24 Ill. 75.

22. Illinois.— Clarke v. Hancock County, 27 Ill. 305.

Kansas.— State v. Scott County, 58 Kan. 491, 49 Pac. 663; Leavenworth, etc., R. Co. v. Douglas County, 18 Kan. 169.

South Dakota.— Brown v. Bon Homme County, 1 S. D. 216, 46 N. W. 173.

Texas.— Noel Young Bond, etc., Co. v. Mitchell County, 21 Tex. Civ. App. 638, 54 S. W. 284.

United States.— Ray County v. Vansycle, 96 U. S. 675, 24 L. ed. 800; Marshall County v. Schenck, 5 Wall. 772, 18 L. ed. 556.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 290 et seq.

As by levy and collection of tax to pay interest coupons attached to its bonds see Cook v. Lyon County, 6 Ky. L. Rep. 360. Contra, Buncombe County v. Payne, 123 N. C. 432, 31 S. E. 711.

Will not waive or ratify excess of power.— In Daviess County Ct. v. Howard, 13 Bush (Ky.) 101, it was held that payment by the taxpayers of a county, of a tax levied for several successive years to pay the interest on county bonds, does not operate to waive or ratify excess of power in issuing the bonds. See also Noel Young Bond, etc., Co. v. Mitchell County, 21 Tex. Civ. App. 638, 54 S. W. 284.

23. Mobile County v. Sands, 127 Ala. 493, 29 So. 26; Hutchinson, etc., R. Co. v. Kingman County, 48 Kan. 70, 28 Pac. 1078, 30 Am. St. Rep. 273, 15 L. R. A. 401; Nolan County v. State, 83 Tex. 182, 17 S. W. 823.

24. Ray County v. Vansycle, 96 U. S. 675, 24 L. ed. 800; Leavenworth County v. Barnes, 94 U. S. 70, 24 L. ed. 63; Pendleton County v. Amy, 13 Wall. (U. S.) 297, 20 L. ed. 579.

25. State v. Dakota County, 22 Nebr. 448, 35 N. W 225; State v. Wilkinson, 20 Nebr. 610, 31 N. W. 376; Jasper County v. Ballou, 103 U. S. 745, 26 L. ed. 422 [affirming 3 Fed. 620].

issues bonds in payment of judgments standing against it, it cannot attack the validity of such bonds by showing that the judgments are invalid as being in excess of the constitutional debt limit.[26] And where a county files a bill to restrain the negotiation of bonds issued by it in aid of a railroad, and the case is decided against the county, the latter is estopped from setting up against subsequent purchasers of the bonds any ground of illegality which might have been set up in the bill.[27] The county will, however, in no case be estopped from setting up a total want of power to issue bonds.[28] And the usual rule that a ratification being in its effect upon the act of an agent equivalent to the possession by him of previous authority can only be made when the party ratifying possesses the power to perform the act ratified applies to the issuance of bonds by county officers without previous authorization by popular vote.[29]

9. Sale — a. Power to Sell. A state legislature may in connection with the grant of authority to a county to issue bonds also authorize it to sell such bonds in order to carry out the purpose of the issue,[30] and may further require such sale to be at the highest price obtainable.[31] But the power conferred by statute upon county authorities to subscribe for stock in a railroad company and issue bonds therefor does not by implication authorize the selling of such bonds and employing the money to pay for the subscription.[32]

b. Terms of Sale. According to some decisions a limitation imposed by statute that bonds issued by counties in payment of subscriptions to railroads shall not be sold by the company at less than par, after it has taken them in payment of the subscription, has no other meaning than that it shall not so sell them at the expense of the county,[33] and the fact that the company does sell or pay out the bonds for less than par will not affect the right of the holder of such bonds and coupons to recover the principal and interest at par.[34] According to others the county is entitled upon a sale of the bonds by the company at less than par to rescind the bonds on the ground of fraud,[35] and to a return of the bonds remaining in the hands of the company, and to be paid the par value of those disposed of,[36] or the county may by a proceeding in equity compel the holder to receive in satisfaction of such bonds the sum paid by the first purchaser with interest thereon.[37]

10. Payment[38] — a. In General. A valid county bond cannot be paid by a void one.[39] Where the law relating to the redemption and cancellation of the

26. Ætna L. Ins. Co. v. Lyon County, 44 Fed. 329.

27. Preble v. Portage County, 19 Fed. Cas. No. 11,380, 8 Biss. 358.

28. Marshall County v. Cook, 38 Ill. 44, 87 Am. Dec. 282.

29. Daviess County Ct. v. Howard, 13 Bush (Ky.) 101; Citizens' Sav., etc., Assoc. v. Perry County, 156 U. S. 692, 15 S. Ct. 547, 39 L. ed. 585; Norton v. Shelby County, 118 U. S. 425, 6 S. Ct. 1121, 30 L. ed. 178; Marsh v. Fulton County, 10 Wall. (U. S.) 676, 19 L. ed. 1040; Aspinwall v. Daviess County, 22 How. (U. S.) 365, 16 L. ed. 296.

30. Alabama, etc., R. Co. v. Reed, 124 Ala. 253, 27 So. 19.

Change of terms of sale after the advertisement thereof does not render the sale void, unless it appear that it will work injury to the county, and the issue of such bonds cannot for that reason be enjoined. Franklin v. Baird, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 715, 7 Ohio N. P. 571.

31. Williams v. Butler County, 123 Ala. 432, 26 So. 346.

32. Daviess County Ct. v. Howard, 13 Bush (Ky.) 101.

33. Woods v. Lawrence County, 1 Black (U. S.) 386, 17 L. ed. 122.

Payment of commission.— Where a statute prescribes that county bonds may not be sold by the county commissioners at less than their par value, such provision is violated by the payment of a commission to the purchaser of such bonds. Hunt v. Fawcett, 8 Wash. 396, 36 Pac. 318.

34. Richardson v. Lawrence County, 154 U. S. Appendix 536, 14 S. Ct. 1157, 17 L. ed. 558.

35. Lawrence County's Appeal, 67 Pa. St. 87; Lawrence County v. Northwestern R. Co., 32 Pa. St. 144.

36. Lawrence County v. Northwestern R. Co., 32 Pa. St. 144.

37. Armstrong County v. Brinton, 47 Pa. St. 367.

38. For payment generally see PAYMENT.

39. The debt created is not thereby extinguished but can be sued upon. Jefferson County v. Hawkins, 23 Fla. 223, 2 So. 362.

securities for the funded debts of counties makes it the duty of the county auditor to draw at the proper time his warrant upon the treasurer for the payment of such instalments of principal and interest as may then be due and to deliver the same to the treasurer, he should issue and deliver the same without request of the bondholders.[40]

b. Manner of Providing For Payment. Where no special mode of paying bonds is provided, it is implied that it is to be done in the ordinary way by the levy and collection of taxes.[41] Mandamus will lie to compel the levy of a tax for such purpose.[42]

c. From What Funds Payable. County bonds issued for a particular improvement are usually chargeable only against the fund collected for that improvement and are not a charge against the general fund of the county from which a general liability of the county will arise.[43] With regard to the payment of bonds issued by a county in payment of subscriptions to railroads, etc., pursuant to a statute which also authorizes the levy of a special tax to pay the same, the authorities differ as to whether or not the money raised by such special tax constitutes the only fund out of which the bonds or warrants issued to pay judgments rendered thereon are of right payable.[44]

40. Wilson v. Neal, 23 Fed. 129.

41. Com. v. Perkins, 43 Pa. St. 400.

42. Elliott County v. Kitchen, 14 Bush (Ky.) 289; Osenton v. Carter County, 5 Ky. L. Rep. 686; Johnston v. Cleaveland County, 67 N. C. 101; State v Clinton County, 6 Ohio St. 280; State v. Anderson County, 8 Baxt. (Tenn.) 249.

A judgment is not a prerequisite to the right to a writ of mandamus. State v. Anderson County, 8 Baxt. (Tenn.) 249.

Necessity for raising arrears in one year.— Where interest on bonds has not been paid for many years, the board should not be required to raise in one year by taxation the whole amount of interest in arrear, but in the case of mandamus ordering them to levy a tax and pay the interest, it was a prudent exercise of a discretion to raise part by taxation, and issue county bonds in order to raise the remainder. Johnston v. Cleaveland County, 67 N. C. 101.

43. Walker v. Monroe County, 11 Ind. App. 285, 38 N. E. 1095. Under a statute authorizing county commissioners to issue gravel-road bonds of the county, to be paid out of assessments on the land benefited, the county is not liable thereon; the holder simply having a right to receive from the treasurer the money collected from the assessments. Kirsch v. Braun, 153 Ind. 247, 53 N E. 1082.

Effect of diversion of funds.— In Morrill v. Smith County, 89 Tex. 529, 36 S. W. 56, a statute authorizing the issuance of bonds by counties to railroad companies provided for the levy of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest and at least two per cent of the principal, when collected to be paid into the state treasury for the benefit of the holders of the bonds, to whom the interest and two per cent of the principal of their bonds should be paid annually by warrants drawn by the comptroller, and the excess, if any, to be used in the purchase of bonds for cancellation. In a particular case no payments were made by the controller on the principal of the bonds, but all above interest was treated as excess, and used in the purchase of bonds for cancellation. It was held that the bonds purchased with such two per cent would be treated as still in force, and were the property of the bondholders whose money was used in their purchase.

Payment before maturity only from surplus of certain fund.— In Davis v. Yuba County, 75 Cal. 452, 453, 13 Pac. 874, 17 Pac. 533, it was held that bonds issued in pursuance of Cal. Stat. (1871–1872), p. 662, authorizing "the county of Yuba to issue sixty thousand dollars of bonds for the purpose of constructing, repairing, and improving wagon-roads and bridges in said county," are not authorized to be paid prior to the expiration of twenty years from their issue, except out of a surplus remaining after payment of interest due, in the "Wagon-road and Bridge Interest and Sinking-fund" provided for in the act; and an attempt by the county to pay such bonds before maturity in any other manner than out of such surplus is void as against a non-assenting holder, and such holder, having presented his coupons to the county treasurer for payment, is entitled to interest thereon from that time.

The county treasurer will not be justified in paying interest coupons on county bonds out of any other than specific funds raised for that purpose and in his hands, until the board of county commissioners have issued an order upon him to do so. Bailey v. Lawrence County, 2 S. D. 533, 51 S. W. 331.

44. That this does constitute the only fund available is held in one jurisdiction. State v. Trammel, 106 Mo. 510, 17 S. W. 502; State v. Macon County Ct., 68 Mo. 29; State v. Shortridge, 56 Mo. 126. But the supreme court of the United States holds that such bonds are entitled to be paid out of the general funds of the county so far as the special tax may be insufficient to pay them. Knox County v. U. S., 109 U. S. 229, 3 S. Ct. 131, 27 L. ed. 915; Macon County v. Huidekoper, 99 U. S. 592, 25 L. ed. 333; U. S. v. Macon County Ct., 99 U. S. 582, 25 L. ed. 331; U. S.

d. Time and Place of Payment. County bonds, unlike county warrants, being obligations payable at a definite time running through a series of years, are payable at maturity, regardless of the order of their presentation.[45] In the absence of any designation county bonds are payable at the county treasury,[46] and according to some authorities counties, unless specially authorized by legislative enactment, have no power to make their bonds payable at any other place than at their treasuries.[47] According to other decisions, however, where no place of payment is designated by the statute, the power to issue bonds carries with it the power to make the same payable beyond the limits of the county.[48]

11. INTEREST.[49] Under a statute authorizing the issue of bonds and not limiting the rate of interest, the county court or board may fix any rate not prohibited by law.[50] In some jurisdictions the statute authorizing the issue of bonds in aid of a railroad provides that the interest to be paid on such bonds shall be specified in the proposition to be submitted to the electors, thus leaving the determination of the rate of interest to the people of the county, and the rate so fixed is valid.[51] Where the time of payment of interest is fixed by statute, the board must fix the time of payment in accordance with the statute;[52] if not fixed by statute, the board may fix the time.[53] Where county bonds or coupons payable at a certain place are silent as to the rate of interest after maturity, the rate of interest established by law in the state where they are payable is to be allowed after maturity.[54] In jurisdictions where the law provides for the payment of interest upon every debt due and unpaid, without any stipulation to that effect in the contract or obligation out of which the debt arose, holders of county bonds stipulating for the

v. Clark County Ct., 96 U. S. 211, 24 L. ed. 628; U. S. v. Knox County, 5 Fed. 556, 2 McCrary 625, 51 Fed. 880.

45. Shelley v. St. Charles County, 21 Fed. 699, 5 McCrary 474.

46. Johnson v. Stark County, 24 Ill. 75; Skinker v. Butler County, 112 Mo. 332, 20 S. W. 613.

47. Johnson v. Stark County, 24 Ill. 75; People v. Tazewell County Sup'rs, 22 Ill. 147.

The fact that a coupon is made payable elsewhere than at the treasury of the county issuing it will not invalidate it, but the objectionable words will be regarded as surplusage. Johnson v. Stark County, 24 Ill. 75.

48. Skinker v. Butler County, 112 Mo. 332, 20 S. W. 613; Calhoun County v. Galbraith, 99 U. S. 214, 25 L. ed. 410; Lynde v. Winnebago County, 16 Wall. (U. S.) 6, 21 L. ed. 272.

49. For interest generally see INTEREST.

Deposit precluding accruing interest.— A county by making an unconditional deposit of funds for the payment of its bonds at the time and place provided in such bonds may preclude the accruing of further interest; but this effect will not be attained where to the deposit is attached the condition that no bond shall be paid unless accompanied by all coupons for accrued interest. Bailey v. Buchanan County, 8 N. Y. St. 145.

Special agreement.— Although by agreement the corporation in whose aid county bonds stipulating for the payment of interest by the county are issued are to pay all interest accruing on the bonds, and are entitled to all the profits and dividends of the stock until the bonds are redeemed by the county, the holders of such bonds are entitled to their interest from the county. State v. Clinton County, 6 Ohio St. 280. See also McCoy v. Washington County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,731, 3 Phila. (Pa.) 290, 15 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 388, 3 Wall. Jr. 381.

Where a county is authorized to issue interest-bearing bonds in subscription stock of a railroad company bearing certain interest, and to deliver such bonds to the company when the latter shall begin the construction of its road, and shall deposit a bond to secure the interest thereon until the completion of the road in the county, when stock to the amount of the bonds is to be received by the county, the company is not liable for interest on the bonds after the county has received and become entitled to interest on its stock, even though the latter was received before the road was completed. Lancaster County v. Cheraw, etc., R. Co., 28 S. C. 134, 5 S. E. 338.

50. Beattie v. Andrew County, 56 Mo. 42.

Necessity for registration.— County commissioners may provide for paying the interest on county bonds issued in payment of a county subscription, although such bonds may not have been registered with the state auditor. St. Louis County v. Nettleton, 22 Minn. 356.

51. Coler v. Santa Fe County, 6 N. M. 88, 27 Pac. 619.

52. English v. Smock, 34 Ind. 115, 7 Am. Rep. 215.

53. Wilson v. Neal, 23 Fed. 129.

54. Scotland County v. Hill, 132 U. S. 107, 10 S. Ct. 26, 33 L. ed. 261; Hughes County v. Livingston, 104 Fed. 306, 43 C. C. A. 541. But compare Sober v. Calaveras County, 39 Cal. 134; Beals v. Amador County, 28 Cal. 449, holding that where no provision is made in a funding statute for the payment of interest, after the bonds issued under it have become due, no interest will accrue thereon after that date.

payment of interest semiannually, although part only of such bonds have coupons therefor attached, are entitled to recover interest upon all semiannual instalments of interest from the date on which they become due.[55]

12. Actions — a. Right to Maintain. An action at law will lie for judgment on county bonds or coupons thereon, notwithstanding the fact that mandamus will lie to compel the levy of a tax to satisfy the same.[56]

b. Jurisdiction.[57] The holder of a county bond if otherwise entitled to sue in the United States circuit court may sue there, although the bonds were issued to a railroad in the same state as the county is situated, and which therefore could not have been sued in the federal court.[58]

c. Conditions Precedent. It is not essential to the right to maintain an action on coupons that the bonds to which they had been attached shall be produced;[59] and the fact that coupons on county bonds are made payable at a particular place does not make a presentation of them for payment at that place necessary before an action can be maintained upon them.[60]

d. Statutes of Limitation.[61] The statute of limitations does not bar a right of action on interest coupons attached to a county bond until the right of action on the bond itself is barred;[62] and where coupons are payable only when money comes into the treasurer's hands applicable thereto and the same are presented to the treasurer and payment refused because there is no money to pay them with, the statute does not run against such coupon until money applicable to their payment has been received by the treasurer.[63] A county cannot plead the statute of limitations to an action against it on bonds or coupons payable from a particular fund without first showing that it had provided such fund.[64]

e. In Whose Name Brought. Where county bonds issued to a railroad company covenant to pay the holder thereof, the county is liable to the holder thereof, who may sue in his own name, notwithstanding an agreement between the company and the county that the former shall pay the bond.[65]

f. Pleadings[66] — (1) Declaration, Petition, or Complaint. In an action on county bonds or coupons issued under a special act, the power to issue such bonds must appear by distinct averment of the special authority conferring the right, unless such authority appears from the instrument annexed to the declaration or petition,[67] which will be sufficient.[68] It is not necessary to plead in detail

55. Wilson v. Neal, 23 Fed. 129.

56. Osenton v. Carter County, 5 Ky. L. Rep. 686; Peter v. Taylor County, 5 Ky. L. Rep. 315. And see Morrill v. Smith County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 33 S. W. 899.

57. For jurisdiction generally see Courts.

58. McCoy v. Washington County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,731, 3 Phila. (Pa.) 290, 15 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 388, 3 Wall. Jr. 381.

59. Thompson v. Lee County, 3 Wall. (U. S.) 327, 18 L. ed. 177; Knox County v. Aspinwall, 21 How. (U. S.) 539, 16 L. ed. 208; Kennard v. Cass County, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,697, 3 Dill. 147; McCoy v. Washington County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,731, 3 Phila. (Pa.) 290, 15 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 388, 3 Wall. Jr. 381.

60. Hughes County v. Livingston, 104 Fed. 306, 43 C. C. A. 541.

61. For statutes of limitation generally see Limitations of Actions.

62. Cushman v. Carver County, 19 Minn. 295.

63. Lincoln County v. Luning, 133 U. S. 529, 10 S. Ct. 363, 33 L. ed. 766.

64. State v. Lincoln County, 23 Nev. 262, 45 Pac. 982; Lincoln County v. Luning, 133 U. S. 529, 10 S. Ct. 363, 33 L. ed. 766; Robertson v. Blaine County, 90 Fed. 63, 32 C. C. A. 512, 47 L. R. A. 459.

65. McCoy v. Washington County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,731, 3 Phila. (Pa.) 290, 15 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 388, 3 Wall. Jr. 381.

66. For pleading generally see Pleading.

67. Jefferson County v. Lewis, 20 Fla. 980; Catron v. La Fayette County, 106 Mo. 659, 17 S. W. 577; Donaldson v. Butler County, 98 Mo. 163, 11 S. W. 572; Carpenter v. Buena Vista County, 5 Fed. Cas. No. 2,429, 5 Dill. 556; Kennard v. Cass County, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,697, 3 Dill. 147; Thayer v. Montgomery County, 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,870, 3 Dill. 389. Compare Ring v. Johnson County, 6 Iowa 265, in which it was held that as the power of a county to issue bonds in the payment of subscription to the capital stock of a railway exists by virtue of the general law of the land, such power need not be set forth in the declaration in an action upon the bonds.

For the want of such showing the pleading will be demurrable. Donaldson v. Butler County, 98 Mo. 163, 11 S. W. 572.

68. Carpenter v. Buena Vista County, 5 Fed. Cas. No. 2,429, 5 Dill. 556; Thayer v.

a compliance with the contract and statute under which the issue was made,[69] or that the holder shall allege in his petition the election or other facts showing a compliance with the preliminary steps required of the county officers before they are authorized to issue and deliver the bonds.[70] If the bonds are issued under an act limiting the total amount to be issued, the petition need not allege that there was not an overissue, where the sum sued for is less than the amount so limited.[71] So where the bonds in suit were issued by a county subscribing to railroad stock, it is not necessary to show an actual subscription in the manner prescribed by statute or that a certificate of railroad stock issued.[72] Nor is it necessary to allege a reservation made in such bonds by the county as to the time of their payment, where there was no such reservation in the act authorizing the subscription, as such reservation does not affect the power to issue but is a matter of defense to be set up by answer.[73] An allegation that the bonds were "executed in due form of law and issued" sufficiently alleges execution.[74] In declaring on coupons[75] the instruments in suit should be identified on the face of the declaration by the number of the bond, date, sum, and time of payment.[76]

(II) Plea or Answer.[77] The plea of the general issue puts in issue the authority to issue the bonds in suit and the question of bona fides, and notice is also put in issue thereby.[78] If fraud and misrepresentation are relied on as a defense the facts constituting the fraud or mispresentation must be stated.[79]

Montgomery County, 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,870, 3 Dill. 389.

Sufficient showing of authority and purpose.—A declaration on a railroad bond guaranteed by a county set forth the indorsement on the bond which was in part as follows: "The credit of the county of Shelby . . . by virtue of an act . . . January 23, 1871, is hereby pledged for the payment of this bond . . . in accordance with an order of the court of said county passed October 5, 1871, and approved by the people at an election held in said county on the 11th of November, 1871. Witness my hand. . . . T. C. Bleckley, Chairman of County Court." It was held that this sufficiently sets forth the action of the court in ordering the indorsement, and also the vote of the people approving thereof. Shelby County v. Jarnagin, (Tenn. 1875) 16 S. W. 1040.

69. Catron v. La Fayette County, 106 Mo. 659, 17 S. W. 577.

70. Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Otoe County, 5 Fed. Cas. No. 2,667, 1 Dill. 338. A complaint which sets out the bond, which contains a recital that it was issued in pursuance of a specified legislative act, and avers that the bond was issued in conformity with the enactment therein recited, and that the plaintiff is a bona fide purchaser thereof for value, is good, although it does not otherwise allege a compliance with the conditions precedent to its issue. Hughes County v. Livingston, 104 Fed. 306, 43 C. C. A. 541.

71. Catron v. La Fayette County, 106 Mo. 659, 17 S. W. 577, where it was further held that even if such overissue were not a matter of defense, an averment in the petition that the bonds were duly issued would be sufficient.

72. McCoy v. Washington County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,731, 3 Phila. (Pa.) 290, 15 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 388, 3 Wall. Jr. 381.

73. Breckenridge County v. McCracken, 61 Fed. 191, 9 C. C. A. 442.

74. Nininger v. Carver County, 10 Minn. 133.

75. It is not necessary to declare on the bonds to which such coupons were attached, or to set them out in the petition. Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Otoe County, 5 Fed. Cas. No. 2,667, 1 Dill. 338; McCoy v. Washington County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,731, 3 Phila. (Pa.) 290, 15 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 388, 3 Wall. Jr. 381.

76. Kennard v. Cass County, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,697, 3 Dill. 147.

77. Invalidity of issue.— A plea alleging invalidity of the bonds, because the required number of qualified voters did not vote at the election held to determine the issuance of such bonds, and that plaintiff knew of such fact, but which does not allege how many votes were cast at the election, the number of the qualified voters in the county, nor how many votes were cast in favor of and how many against the proposition, is not sufficient to enable the court to decide whether or not the defense is valid, and is bad on demurrer. Mobile Sav. Bank v. Oktibbeha County, 22 Fed. 580.

Knowledge of holder.— A plea in an action on county bonds issued in payment for railroad stock, setting up the failure or refusal of the company to comply with the conditions upon which the bonds were issued, which does not aver that the plaintiff had had any knowledge or notice of such conditions or of the intention of the company not to comply with the same, is insufficient. Mobile Sav. Bank v. Oktibbeha County, 22 Fed. 580.

78. Chambers County v. Clews, 21 Wall. (U. S.) 317, 22 L. ed. 517.

79. Mobile Sav. Bank v. Oktibbeha County, 22 Fed. 580.

g. Evidence[80] — (I) Burden of Proof. Where bonds are issued within the apparent scope of a lawful power,[81] and their recitals import the performance of all conditions precedent, and irregularities in the exercise of such power are relied on as a defense to an action thereon, the burden of proof is on the county to show that the holder had knowledge of such irregularities,[82] but the burden of proof is upon the purchaser of bonds who had notice of facts sufficient to put him on inquiry as to their validity to show that he exercised reasonable diligence in making the inquiry.[83] So where the plaintiff by his own evidence establishes the fact that he is the holder of bonds issued without authority by law, he cannot recover without first showing that he was an innocent purchaser and without notice of illegality.[84]

(II) Admissibility and Sufficiency. Where the question is under which of two statutes bonds were issued, statements on the records of the county are competent evidence, and the whole conduct of the county both before, at the time, and after the issue of its bonds may be shown.[85] In an action on the common counts against a county, an interest coupon from a county bond is admissible as evidence of money loaned to the maker, if issued to the holder, and if he bought it it is evidence of money paid by him for the use of the maker on the debt of the latter.[86] Where the plaintiff produces the bonds and coupons sued on, the execution of them not being put in issue, this establishes the plaintiff's case, and presumptively that he is the holder for value before maturity and without notice.[87]

G. Taxation[88] — 1. Power to Tax. Counties have no inherent power of taxation, nor are they usually invested by the constitution with such power, but this must be conferred by statute expressly or by necessary implication.[89] The legislatures of the states may and usually do delegate to counties the power to assess and levy taxes for certain local purposes.[90] And the power need not be expressly

80. For evidence generally see Evidence.

81. Where by a constitutional provision counties are prohibited from subscribing or making donations in aid of railroad or private corporations, but an exception is made in the case of subscriptions already authorized under the existing law, all bonds issued in payment for such subscriptions are prima facie invalid, and the burden is thrown upon the one affirming their validity of proving that they were authorized as provided under the then existing laws. Choisser v. People, 140 Ill. 21, 29 N. E. 546; Post v. Pulaski County, 47 Fed. 282.

82. Coler v. Santa Fe County, 6 N. M. 88, 27 Pac. 619, knowledge of overissue. See also Lake County v. Linn, 29 Colo. 446, 68 Pac. 839.

83. Ball v. Presidio County, 88 Tex. 60, 29 S. W. 1042. To the same effect see Cass County v. Green, 66 Mo. 498.

84. Frick v. Mercer County, 138 Pa. St. 523, 21 Atl. 6.

85. Knox County v. New York City Ninth Nat. Bank, 147 U. S. 91, 13 S. Ct. 267, 37 L. ed. 93.

86. Johnson v. Stark County, 24 Ill. 75.

Necessity for proof of execution.— In Coler v. Santa Fe County, 6 N. M. 88, 27 Pac. 619, it was held that in a suit on interest coupons, where there was no plea denying under oath the execution of the coupons, they were admissible in evidence under the common money counts, without any further proof of their execution.

87. Chambers County v. Clews, 21 Wall. (U. S.) 317, 22 L. ed. 517.

88. For taxation generally see Taxation.

89. State v. Street, 117 Ala. 203, 23 So. 807; Albany Bottling Co. v. Watson, 103 Ga. 503, 30 S. E. 270; Hunter v. Campbell County Justices, 7 Coldw. (Tenn.) 49.

90. Alabama.— State v. Street, 117 Ala. 203, 23 So. 807; State v. Brewer, 64 Ala. 287.

Arkansas.— Bush v. Wolf, 55 Ark. 124, 17 S. W. 709.

Georgia.— Daniel v. Putnam County, 113 Ga. 570, 38 S. E. 980, 54 L. R. A. 292; Jones v. Sligh, 75 Ga. 7; Spann v. Webster County, 64 Ga. 498; Board of Public Education v. Barlow, 49 Ga. 232; Powers v. Dougherty County Inferior Ct., 23 Ga. 65.

Maryland.—Board of Public School Com'rs v. Allegany County Com'rs, 20 Md. 449.

Minnesota.— St. Louis County v. Nettleton, 22 Minn. 356.

Nebraska.— Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Klein, 52 Nebr. 258, 71 N. W. 1069.

North Carolina.— Caldwell v. Burke County Justices, 57 N. C. 323.

Ohio.— Wasson v. Wayne County, 11 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 475, 27 Cinc. L. Bul. 134.

Tennessee.— Nashville v. Towns, 5 Sneed 186.

Texas.— Bagby v. Bateman, 50 Tex. 446.

Virginia.— Harrison County Justices v. Holland, 3 Gratt. 247.

Washington.— Lancey v. King County, 15 Wash. 9, 45 Pac. 645, 34 L. R. A. 817.

conferred, but may be implied from the grant of other powers to the exercise of which the power of taxation is essential, as for instance, from the grant of power to borrow money and issue bonds, the power to levy a tax for the payment of the same may be implied in the absence of a contrary provision.[91]

2. Limitation of Power to Tax — a. As to Amount — (1) In General. The power of counties to levy taxes is usually, if not universally, limited by the constitutions or statutes of the various states to a certain rate or amount that may be levied during any one year.[92] Such restrictions upon the taxing power are mandatory and binding and must be enforced in all cases, save where they may contravene the prohibitions of the federal constitution,[93] and cannot be evaded by

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 300 et seq.

Regulation and restriction by legislature.— Miss. Const. art. 12, § 16, provides as follows: "No county shall be denied the right to raise, by special tax, money sufficient to pay for the building and repairing of court-houses, jails, bridges, and other necessary conveniences for the people of the county, and money thus collected shall never be appropriated for any other purpose; provided, the tax thus levied shall be a certain per cent on all taxes levied by the State." This provision does not confer upon the county boards of supervisors the right, exclusive of legislative control, to levy special taxes in whatever amount they may deem proper for the purposes therein specified, but it must be considered as a direction to the legislature not to withhold from the counties the right to levy sufficient taxes for the purposes mentioned. And this right, thus guarded, may be regulated and restricted by the legislature, provided the rate of taxation prescribed be sufficient for the purposes enumerated in the section above quoted; and of the sufficiency thereof the legislature must determine. Beck v. Allen, 58 Miss. 143.

To assess a tax is to adjudge and determine what proportion of his property the taxpayer shall contribute to the public. To levy a tax is to make a record of this determination, and to extend the assessment against the taxpayer's property. Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Klein, 52 Nebr. 258, 71 N. W. 1069.

Validity of curative statutes as to tax proceedings.— "Barring the matter of the right to a hearing, (For this cannot be dispensed with,) the legislature may legalize any step or declare immaterial any omission in a tax proceeding, provided, of course, there is something which may be called an assessment and levy. If the officer authorized to make the assessment fails to make it, but the property is assessed by another, the act of the latter may be declared an assessment, provided he could have been authorized originally to make such assessment." Wells County v. McHenry, 7 N. D. 246, 256, 74 N. W. 241.

91. Peoria, etc., R. Co. v. People, 116 Ill. 401, 6 N. E. 497; Board of Public School Com'rs v. Allegany County Com'rs, 20 Md. 449; Ralls County Ct. v. U. S., 105 U. S. 733, 26 L. ed. 1220.

92. Alabama.— Francis v. Southern R. Co., 124 Ala. 544, 27 So. 22; McDaniel v. State, 31 Ala. 390.

Illinois.— Pope County v. Sloan, 92 Ill. 177.

Iowa.— Tobin v. Hartshorn, 69 Iowa 648, 29 N. W. 764; Williams v. Poor, 65 Iowa 410, 21 N. W. 753.

Kansas.— Howard v. Hulbert, 63 Kan. 793, 66 Pac. 1041, 88 Am. St. Rep. 267; Osborne County v. Blake, 25 Kan. 356; Atchison, etc., R. Co. v. Woodcock, 18 Kan. 20.

Minnesota.— Johnston v. Becker County, 27 Minn. 64, 6 N. W. 411.

Missouri.— State v. Kansas City, etc., R. Co., 145 Mo. 596, 47 S. W. 500; State v. Macon County Ct., 68 Mo. 29; State v. Shortbridge, 56 Mo. 126.

Nebraska.— Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Klein, 52 Nebr. 258, 71 N. W. 1069.

North Carolina.— Williams v. Craven County, 119 N. C. 520, 26 S. E. 150; Clifton v. Wynne, 80 N. C. 145; Street v. Craven County, 70 N. C. 644; Uzzle v. Franklin County Com'rs, 70 N. C. 564; Haughton v. Jones County Com'rs, 70 N. C. 466; Simmons v. Wilson, 66 N. C. 336.

Ohio.—Dexter v. Hamilton County, 10 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 338, 20 Cinc. L. Bul. 364.

Tennessee.— Byrd v. Ralston, 3 Head 477.

Texas.— Texas, etc., R. Co. v. Harrison County, 54 Tex. 119.

Wyoming.— State v. Laramie County, 8 Wyo. 104, 55 Pac. 451; Grand Island, etc., R. Co. v. Baker, 6 Wyo. 369, 45 Pac. 494, 71 Am. St. Rep. 926, 34 L. R. A. 835.

United States.—U. S. v. Macon County, 144 U. S. 568, 12 S. Ct. 921, 36 L. ed. 544 [affirming 35 Fed. 483]; U. S. v. Macon County, 51 Fed. 883; U. S. v. Knox County, 15 Fed. 704, 5 McCrary 76, 51 Fed. 880.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 303.

Road taxes are county taxes within the meaning of the constitutional or statutory limitations on the amount that may be levied in one year. State v. Kansas City, etc., R. Co., 145 Mo. 596, 47 S. W. 500.

No restriction for building and repairing court-houses.— The legislature may limit the power of the board of supervisors as to expenditures and taxation except for purposes of "building and repairing bridges, jails and court-houses" for which its power to levy is not subject to restriction under the constitution. Warren County v. Klein, 51 Miss. 807.

Special tax to build a new jail is within the provisions limiting the amount of taxation. McDaniel v. State, 31 Ala. 390.

93. Witkowski v. Bradley, 35 La. Ann. 904.

making an unnecessary levy for another purpose and transferring the same when collected to a fund which has already reached its limit;[94] but they do not apply to taxes levied to pay debts against the county existing at or before the adoption of the constitution.[95]

(II) EFFECT OF EXCESSIVE LEVY. Where a county levies a tax in excess of the constitutional or statutory limit, the tax is void as to so much as is in excess thereof,[96] and where a county has already exhausted its power of taxation, by levying a tax to the full amount authorized by statute or constitutional provision, any subsequent taxation is illegal and void.[97] In some jurisdictions, however, where authority is granted by the legislature to a county to contract an extraordinary debt by the issue of negotiable securities, the power to levy taxes sufficient to meet at maturity the obligation to be incurred is held to be implied from the power to contract, and such power may be exercised, although the limit placed upon ordinary taxes be thereby exceeded, unless the law conferring the authority or some general law in force at the time clearly manifests a contrary

Unconstitutionality must clearly appear.— Ala. Acts (1890–1891), p. 440, permitting Jefferson county to levy a tax of five cents on the one hundred dollars of taxable property therein for the support of its schools, is not in violation of Ala. Const. art. 11, § 5, forbidding the general assembly to authorize any county to levy a larger rate of taxation in any year, on the value of taxable property therein, than one-half of one per cent, since the act must be construed as authorizing said county to levy the tax, if within the rate prescribed by the constitution. Francis v. Southern R. Co., 124 Ala. 544, 27 So. 22.

94. Jefferson Iron Co. v. Hart, 18 Tex. Civ. App. 525, 45 S. W. 321.

95. Illinois.— Pope County v. Sloan, 92 Ill. 177; Chiniquy v. People, 78 Ill. 570.

Kentucky.— Columbia Bank v. Taylor County, 65 S. W. 451, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1483.

Nebraska.— Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Klein, 52 Nebr. 258, 71 N. W. 1069.

North Carolina.— Blanton v. McDowell County, 101 N. C. 532, 8 S. E. 162; Clifton v. Wynne, 80 N. C. 145; Trull v. Madison County, 72 N. C. 388; Mauney v. Montgomery County, 71 N. C. 486; Brothers v. Currituck County Com'rs, 70 N. C. 726; Street v. Craven County, 70 N. C. 644; Uzzle v. Franklin County Com'rs, 70 N. C. 564; Haughton v. Jones County Com'rs, 70 N. C. 466; Simmons v. Wilson, 66 N. C. 336.

Texas.— Texas, etc., R. Co. v. Harrison County, 54 Tex. 119.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 303.

The auditing by the county commissioners of debts against a county, contracted prior to the adoption of the constitution restricting the amount of taxation, does not so change their character as to subject them to such restrictions as to taxation. Mauney v. Montgomery County, 71 N. C. 486.

96. Does not render whole tax void.— A levy of taxes in excess of the rate fixed by the constitution or statute does not render the whole tax void, but only so much of it as is in excess of the limit, if the tax within the limit can be separated from the portion that is in excess thereof. Mix v. People, 72 Ill. 241; People v. Nichols, 49 Ill. 517; Briscoe v. Allison, 43 Ill. 291; Whaley v. Com., 61 S. W. 35, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1292.

97. Alabama.— Frederick v. Northern Alabama R. Co., 130 Ala. 407, 30 So. 426.

Arkansas.— Graham v. Parham, 32 Ark. 676; Greedup v. Franklin County, 30 Ark. 101.

Illinois.— Mix v. People, 72 Ill. 241.

Iowa.— Iowa R. Land Co. v. Sac County, 39 Iowa 124; Polk v. Winett, 37 Iowa 34.

Kansas.— Atchison, etc., R. Co. v. Atchison County, 47 Kan. 722, 28 Pac. 999; Osborne County v. Blake, 25 Kan. 356; Atchison, etc., R. Co. v. Woodcock, 18 Kan. 20.

Louisiana.— Byrne v. East Carroll Parish, 45 La. Ann. 392, 12 So. 52; Reynolds, etc., Co. v. Police Jury, 44 La. Ann. 863, 11 So. 236; Witkowski v. Bradley, 35 La. Ann. 904; State v. Police Jury 34 La. Ann. 673.

Nebraska.— Union Pac. R. Co. v. Cheyenne County, (1902) 90 N. W. 917; Union Pac. R. Co. v. Buffalo County, 9 Nebr. 449, 4 N. W. 53.

Texas.— Dean v. Lufkin, 54 Tex. 265.

Wyoming.— Grand Island, etc., R. Co. v. Baker, 6 Wyo. 369, 45 Pac. 494, 71 Am. St. Rep. 926, 34 L. R. A. 835.

United States.— Louisiana v. Police Jury, 116 U. S. 135, 6 S. Ct. 332, 29 L. ed. 588; U. S. v. Clark County Ct., 95 U. S. 769, 24 L. ed. 545; U. S. v. Macon County Ct., 51 Fed. 883; U. S. v. Knox County, 51 Fed. 880; U. S. v. Miller County, 26 Fed. Cas. No. 15,776, 4 Dill. 233.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 303.

Liability for penalty where levy partly legal and partly excessive.— Where part of the tax assessed on personal property is illegal by reason of excessive levies, and the taxpayer has had no opportunity to pay that which is legal without also paying that which is illegal, and the treasurer proceeds under Ohio Rev. Stat. § 2859, to enforce the collection, by a civil action against such person, who interposes and maintains a defense to the illegal part, the ten per cent penalty previously added under Ohio Rev. Stat. § 2855, was wholly unwarranted and invalid, and no part of it should be included in the judgment.

legislative intention.[98] And in other jurisdictions the legislature is empowered by the constitution to authorize by special act counties to exceed the usual limit imposed by constitutions in order to procure funds for special purposes.[99]

b. As to Purpose — (i) In General. Where the constitution provides the objects for which the power to levy taxes may be delegated to counties, such power cannot be exercised for other purposes.[1] So also acts authorizing the levy of taxes for certain purposes must be strictly followed and will not authorize the levy of taxes for other purposes, and the levy of taxes for purposes not authorized by the legislature will be void.[2] And in some jurisdictions it is expressly provided that the order of the county court for the levy of a tax for a special purpose shall specify the purpose thereof.[3]

(ii) Specific Purposes For Which Taxes May Be Levied. Generally speaking taxation by counties is authorized for corporate purposes,[4] and among the purposes which have been held to come under this definition, and for which a county may properly levy a tax, are the payment of the principal and interest on county bonds as they become due,[5] and the creation of a sinking fund for their Western, etc., R. Co. v. Stewart, 7 Ohio Cir. Dec. 193.

Penalty not a part of tax.—The penalty for the non-payment of a tax pertains to the remedy, and is no part of the tax when it is levied; and where the tax itself is within the statutory limit it is immaterial that the tax with the penalty added is in excess of the limit. Tobin v. Hartshorn, 69 Iowa 648, 29 N. W. 764.

98. Scotland County v. U. S., 140 U. S. 41, 11 S. Ct. 197, 35 L. ed. 351 [affirming 32 Fed. 774]; Ralls County v. U. S., 105 U. S. 733, 26 L. ed. 1220. See also Burnett v. Maloney, 97 Tenn. 697, 37 S. W. 689, 34 L. R. A. 541; Lauderdale County v. Fargason, 7 Lea (Tenn.) 153.

99. Smathers v. Madison County, 125 N. C. 480, 34 S. E. 554; Herring v. Dixon, 122 N. C. 420, 29 S. E. 368; Williams v. Craven County, 119 N. C. 520, 26 S. E. 150; Simmons v. Wilson, 66 N. C. 336.

1. Daniel v. Putnam County, 113 Ga. 570, 38 S. E. 980, 54 L. R. A. 292; Jones v. Sligh, 75 Ga. 7; Livingston County v. Weider, 64 Ill. 427, for corporate purposes.

2. Georgia.—Daniel v. Putnam County, 113 Ga. 570, 38 S. E. 980, 54 L. R. A. 292; Vanover v. Davis, 27 Ga. 354.

Illinois.— Allen v. Peoria, etc., R. Co., 44 Ill. 85.

Michigan.— Atty.-Gen. v. Bay County, 34 Mich. 46.

Tennessee.— Hunter v. Campbell County Justices, 7 Coldw. 49.

United States.— Carroll County v. U. S., 18 Wall. 71, 21 L. ed. 771.

Legal not invalidated by connection with unauthorized, if separable.— The board of supervisors having authority to levy a tax to pay existing indebtedness, the levying of a tax in connection therewith to pay a non-existing indebtedness does not render the entire levy void, if the authorized can be separated from the unauthorized. Allen v. Peoria, etc., R. Co., 44 Ill. 85.

3. Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Com., 89 Ky. 531, 12 S. W. 1064, 11 Ky. L. Rep. 734; Dean v. Lufkin, 54 Tex. 265. See also Labadie v. Dean, 47 Tex. 90, where it was held that where the order of the court imposing the tax states the amount and character of the tax and of the property upon which it is levied such order is sufficient.

4. Illinois.— Livingston County v. Weider, 64 Ill. 427.

Maryland.— Board of Public School Com'rs v. Allegany County Com'rs, 20 Md. 449.

New York.— Bush v. Orange County, 159 N. Y. 212, 53 N. E. 1121, 70 Am. St. Rep. 538, 45 L. R. A. 556 [affirming 10 N. Y. App. Div. 542, 42 N. Y. Suppl. 417].

Ohio.— Wasson v. Wayne County, 11 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 475, 27 Cinc. L. Bul. 134.

Tennessee.— Nashville v. Towns, 5 Sneed 186.

Washington.— Lancey v. King County, 15 Wash. 9, 45 Pac. 645, 34 L. R. A. 817; Mason v. Purdy, 11 Wash. 591, 40 Pac. 130.

United States.— U. S. v. Macon County Ct., 51 Fed. 883; U. S. v. Knox County, 51 Fed. 880.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 300 et seq.

The term "corporate purposes" has been held to mean only such as are germane to the objects of the creation of the municipality. These do not include that of securing the location of a state reform school. Livingston County v. Weider, 64 Ill. 427.

5. Georgia.— Powers v. Dougherty County Inferior Ct., 23 Ga. 65.

Illinois.— Peoria, etc., R. Co. v. People, 116 Ill. 401, 6 N. E. 497.

Missouri.— State v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 165 Mo. 597, 65 S. W. 989; State v. Hannibal, etc., R. Co., (1889) 11 S. W. 746.

South Dakota.— Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Faulk County, 15 S. D. 501, 90 N. W. 149.

Texas.— Mitchell County v. Paducah City Nat. Bank, 91 Tex. 361, 43 S. W. 880; Baghy v. Bateman, 50 Tex. 446.

Washington.— Seymour v. Frost, 25 Wash. 644, 66 Pac. 90.

United States.— Ralls County Ct. v. U. S., 105 U. S. 733, 26 L. ed. 1220; Washington County v. Williams, 111 Fed. 801, 49 C. C. A. 621.

redemption;[6] the payment of outstanding indebtedness evidenced by its warrants legally issued in former years;[7] the payment of appropriations in aid of railroads;[8] public improvements;[9] county buildings;[10] bridges;[11] poor farms;[12] the payment of appropriations in aid of a system of general education within the limits of the county;[13] and the payment of appropriations to secure the location of a state agricultural experiment station, etc.[14] On the other hand a levy of taxes by a county court for the payment of county indebtedness when there is no such indebtedness is illegal,[15] and where the indebtedness for which a tax has been

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 301.

For the purchase of the cancellation bonds of the county, a tax having been levied to pay the interest and provide for a sinking fund. Dean v. Lufkin, 54 Tex. 265.

Effect of existence of illegal bonds.— Where there were illegal county bonds outstanding, and also valid outstanding bonds, a county-tax levy for the purpose of paying bonds could not be held invalid by reason of the existence of the illegal bonds, since it would be presumed that the levy was made for the purpose of paying lawful obligations. Henderson v. Hughes County, 13 S. D. 576, 83 N. W. 682.

Effect on taxpayers' liability of payment of bonds.— The fact that a county which has levied a special tax to pay bonds has paid the bonds out of the proceeds of such tax paid by other taxpayers before the institution of suit against a delinquent taxpayer to recover the amount assessed against him will not preclude it from maintaining such suit. State v. Gibson, 27 Tex. Civ. App. 355, 65 S. W. 690; State v. Parker, (Tex. Civ. App. 1901) 65 S. W. 495.

6. Mitchell County v. Paducah City Nat. Bank, 91 Tex. 361, 43 S. W. 880; Presidio County v. Paducah City Nat. Bank, 20 Tex. Civ. App. 511, 44 S. W. 1069.

7. State v. Harvey, 12 Nebr. 31, 10 N. W. 406.

Judgment must be actually satisfied from proceeds of levy.— The obligation of a county to pay a judgment recovered for unpaid warrants is a continuing obligation, and is not satisfied by a tax levy which if all paid would be sufficient to discharge the judgment, unless said judgment is actually paid in full from the proceeds of such levy. Garden City First Nat. Bank v. Morton County, 7 Kan. App. 739, 52 Pac. 580.

8. Huntington County v. State, 109 Ind. 596, 10 N. E. 625; State v. Wheadon, 39 Ind. 520; Merrill v. Marshall County, 74 Iowa 24, 36 N. W. 778; Burges v. Mabin, 70 Iowa 633, 27 N. W. 464.

Limitation to property of district subscribing.— Levies made by the county court to pay subscriptions of a magisterial district to internal improvements must be limited to property within such district. Neale v. Wood County, 43 W. Va. 90, 27 S. E. 370.

9. Albany Bottling Co. v. Watson, 103 Ga. 503, 30 S. E. 270; Deitrick v. Parke County, 28 Ind. App. 83, 62 N. E. 97; Lancey v. King County, 15 Wash. 9, 45 Pac. 645, 34 L. R. A. 817, ship canal connecting two lakes in same county.

10. Arkansas.— Durrett v. Buxton, 63 Ark. 397, 39 S. W. 56.

California.— Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488, county jail.

Georgia.—Habersham County v. Porter Mfg. Co., 103 Ga. 613, 30 S. E. 547; Barlow v. Sumter County, 47 Ga. 639, repair of public buildings.

Kansas.— State v. Pratt County, 42 Kan. 641, 22 Pac. 722, purchase of county poor-house.

Missouri.— Mississippi County v. Jackson, 51 Mo. 23, erection of jail.

North Carolina.—Black v. Buncombe County, 129 N. C. 121, 39 S. E. 818; McKenzie v. Buchanan, 51 N. C. 31, such taxes demandable and receivable from the sheriff by the treasurer of public buildings and not by the county trustee.

Texas.— Brown v. Graham, 58 Tex. 254 (additions to buildings already built may be paid for under laws conferring power to levy taxes for the "erection of public buildings"); Creswell Ranch, etc., Co. v. Roberts County, (Civ. App. 1894) 27 S. W. 737.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 302.

Levy by instalments.— As in the matter of building a court-house and jail it is not to be expected that the whole sum necessary can be covered by the tax levy of one year, since the levy for erecting such buildings must not exceed in any one year the rate of five mills, the amount and number of instalments necessary to cover the whole cost is in the discretion of the levying court. Hilliard v. Bunker, 68 Ark. 340, 58 S. W. 362.

Levy without issuance of bonds.— Under statutes authorizing the issuance of bonds for the purpose of erecting public buildings a tax may be levied for such purpose without the issuance of bonds. Mississippi County v. Jackson, 51 Mo. 23; Creswell Ranch, etc., Co. v. Roberts County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 27 S. W. 737.

11. Ada Tp. v. Grove, 114 Mich. 77, 72 N. W. 35.

12. Armour Bros. Banking Co. v. Finney, County, 41 Fed. 321.

13. Board of Public Education v. Barlow, 49 Ga. 232.

14. Wasson v. Wayne County, 11 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 475, 27 Cinc. L. Bul. 134.

15. Greedup v. Franklin County, 30 Ark. 101.

A levy of a tax by a county board for the payment of judgments is unauthorized if there are no judgments against the county when the levy is made. Custer County v.

ordered is found to have been satisfied, it is competent for the court to rescind the order and arrest the collection of the tax.[16]

c. Necessity For Submission to Public Vote. It is a very usual provision that where it is desired to levy a tax to meet an unusual outlay for certain purposes in excess of the rate fixed by law, the proposition shall be submitted to the voters to be affected thereby,[17] taxes for necessary expenses constituting an exception in some jurisdictions.[18]

d. Necessity For Estimate of Expenses. It is sometimes expressly required that the authorities of a county before fixing the amount of taxation for the current year shall make an estimate of the county expenses for the current year upon which the tax may be based.[19]

e. Necessity For Order of Court Authorizing Levy. In Missouri county courts are authorized by statute[20] to levy certain taxes without an order of the circuit court directing the levy, and are prohibited from levying any other tax without such order,[21] and a tax not of the former class levied without the required order is void.[22]

3. Duty to Levy Taxes. It is the duty of the proper county officers to levy taxes for purposes authorized by statute, where required by the public interests or individual rights;[23] and under such circumstances the statute authorizing such

Chicago, etc., R. Co., 62 Nebr. 657, 87 N. W. 341.

Levy in anticipation of deficiency.— A county has no authority to make a special levy in anticipation of a deficiency in the levy for its quota of state taxes. State v. Laramie County, 8 Wyo. 104, 55 Pac. 451.

Necessity for existence of debt eo nomine. — A tax levied by a county to pay a turnpike debt was held not to be void, although there was not in existence any turnpike debt eo nomine. It was also held sufficient that there existed an indebtedness created on account of a turnpike debt. Marion County v. Louisville, etc., R. Co., 91 Ky. 388, 15 S. W. 1061, 12 Ky. L. Rep. 961.

16. People v. Macoupin County Ct., 54 Ill. 217.

17. Iowa.— Iowa R. Land Co. v. Sac County, 39 Iowa 124.

Kansas.— Osborne County v. Blake, 25 Kan. 356.

Michigan.—Ada Tp. v. Grove, 114 Mich. 77, 72 N. W. 35.

Nebraska.— Grand Island, etc., R. Co. v. Dawes County, 62 Nebr. 44, 86 N. W. 934.

North Carolina. — Black v. Buncombe County, 129 N. C. 121, 39 S. E. 818.

And see supra, V, B, 2; IX, A, 2, b; IX, F, l, f, (v).

Vote ineffective without levy by board.— Where the question of levying for the year 1871, and from year to year thereafter, in addition to the tax allowed by law, a special tax for four mills on the dollar, "for the purpose of redeeming outstanding county warrants and for ordinary county revenue," was submitted by the board of supervisors to the electors of a county and carried in the affirmative, but the tax was never in fact levied by the board under the authority thus delegated, it was held that the tax was invalid, and the auditor was not authorized to place it upon the tax books. Iowa R. Land Co. v. Woodbury County, 39 Iowa 172.

18. Black v. Buncombe County, 129 N. C. 121, 39 S. E. 818; State v. Haywood County, 122 N. C. 812, 30 S. E. 352.

19. Police Jury v. Bouanchaud, 51 La. Ann. 860, 25 So. 653; Lorie v. Hitchcock, 26 La. Ann. 154; Seymour v. Frost, 25 Wash. 644, 66 Pac. 90. See also Constant v. East Carroll Parish, 105 La. Ann. 286, 29 So. 728.

20. Mo. Rev. Stat. (1879), § 6799; Mo. Rev. Stat. (1889), § 7654.

21. State v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 165 Mo. 597, 65 S. W. 989; State v. Hannibal, etc., R. Co., 101 Mo. 136, 13 S. W. 505; State v. Wabash, etc., R. Co., 97 Mo. 296, 10 S. W. 434; State v. Hager, 91 Mo. 452, 3 S. W. 844; State v. Hannibal, etc., R. Co., 87 Mo. 236.

22. State v. Wabash, etc., R. Co., 97 Mo. 296, 10 S. W. 434.

The presumption that the necessary preliminary order has been made arises from the levy of a tax in the absence of evidence to the contrary. State v. Hannibal, etc., R. Co., 101 Mo. 136, 13 S. W. 505.

23. California.— English v. Sacramento, 19 Cal. 172.

Florida.— State v. Rose, 26 Fla. 117, 7 So. 370.

Nebraska.— Jackson v. Washington County, 34 Nebr. 680, 52 N. W. 169.

New York.— People v. Niagara County, 49 Hun 32, 1 N. Y. Suppl. 460; People v. New York County, 3 Abb. Dec. 566, 2 Keyes 288, 34 How. Pr. 379.

Tennessee. — Newman v. Scott County, 5 Sneed 695.

United States.— Meriwether v. Muhlenburg County Ct., 120 U. S. 354, 7 S. Ct. 563, 30 L ed. 653; Rock Island County v. U. S., 4 Wall. 435, 18 L. ed. 419.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 304.

Levy of new tax for sum retained by treasurer.— Until a loss has actually been sustained by the default of a county treasurer to pay over the proceeds of a state tax, the levy will be deemed mandatory and as leaving no discretion to be exercised by such officers,[24] even though in terms they are merely permissive.[25]

4. By Whom Power to Levy Taxes Exercised. When the power of taxation is delegated to a county the exercise of such power devolves usually upon the county commissioners,[26] county court,[27] or police jury.[28]

5. Procedure to Compel Levy. A writ of mandamus lies to compel the proper county officers to levy a county tax,[29] and a court of equity has no jurisdiction to board of supervisors is not required by the statute (N. Y. Laws (1850), c. 298, § 25) to levy a new tax for the sums retained by him. People v. Livingston County, 17 N. Y. 486.

Right of subsequent holder of bond.— When a funding act provides that a certain tax shall be levied to pay bonds, a person who takes the bonds in place of his claim is entitled as part of his contract to have the tax so levied; and any subsequent holder is entitled to such levy. English v. Sacramento, 19 Cal. 172.

The mere order of county commissioners that a levy be made for future years, based on the assessment of a previous year, amounts to nothing as an actual levy of a tax. Hodges v. Crowley, 186 Ill. 305, 57 N. E. 889.

Upon request by board of health a tax may be levied to defray their expenses under the Florida act of June 7, 1889. State v. Rose, 26 Fla. 117, 7 So. 370.

24. People v. Niagara County, 49 Hun (N. Y.) 32, 1 N. Y. Suppl. 460; Meriwether v. Muhlenburg County Ct., 120 U. S. 354, 7 S. Ct. 563, 30 L. ed. 653. And see People v. Livingston County, 6 Hun (N. Y.) 572.

25. State v. Hamilton County, 5 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 471, 6 Am. L. Rec. 106; Rock Island County v. U. S., 4 Wall. (U. S.) 435, 18 L. ed. 419.

26. Alabama. — State v. Street, 117 Ala. 203, 23 So. 807.

Kansas.—Connelly v. Trego County, 64 Kan. 168, 67 Pac. 453.

Mississippi.— Beck v. Allen, 58 Miss. 143.

Nebraska.— Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Klein, 52 Nebr. 258, 71 N. W. 1069; Union Pac. R. Co. v. Buffalo County, 9 Nebr. 449, 4 N. W. 53.

Ohio.— Wasson v. Wayne County, 11 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 475, 27 Cinc. L. Bul. 134.

Washington.— Mason v. Purdy, 11 Wash. 591, 40 Pac. 130.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 300 et seq.

Amount fixed by board.—A state legislature may, instead of itself fixing the amount of a special county tax, authorize the board of county supervisors to raise so much not in excess of a certain limit as shall be by them found fully due for services rendered. People v. Haws, 34 Barb. (N. Y.) 69.

Power to reduce levy.—County commissioners have authority, after concluding that a tax levy theretofore made by them is in excess of the financial necessities of the county for the fiscal year for which such tax was levied, to amend their action in that respect and reduce the levy. State v. Headlee, 22 Wash. 126, 60 Pac. 126.

27. Palmer v. Craddock, Ky. Dec. 182; Harrison County Justices v. Holland, 3 Gratt. (Va.) 247.

County judge and justices.—Under the Kentucky act of Feb. 24, 1868, amending the charter of the Elizabethtown and Paducah Railroad Company, the "county court" which is authorized to levy a tax to pay bonds in aid of the railway is the county judge and the justices of the peace for the county, and not the county judge alone. Meriwether v. Muhlenburg County Ct., 120 U. S. 354, 7 S. Ct. 563, 30 L. ed. 653 [affirming 8 Fed. 737]. Compare Feland v. Morton, 10 Ky. L. Rep. 217, 8 S. W. 852.

Necessity for signature to proceedings.— The proceedings of a levying court were not invalid because the proceedings were not signed by the members of the court participating, where the authorized officer had written up the minutes of the record, and their verity had not been called in question, since, the county court having general jurisdiction of the subject-matter, and being a superior court, the truth of the minutes could be established by parol. Hilliard v. Bunker, 68 Ark. 340, 58 S. W. 362.

28. Lorie v. Hitchcock, 26 La. Ann. 154; New Orleans v. Lockett, 3 La. Ann. 99.

29. Knox County v. Montgomery, 106 Ind. 517, 6 N. E. 915; Davis v. Simpson, 25 Nev. 123, 58 Pac. 146, 83 Am. St. Rep. 570; State v. Anderson County, 8 Baxt. (Tenn.) 249; Thompson v. Allen County, 115 U. S. 550, 6 S. Ct. 140, 29 L. ed. 472; Ceredo First Nat. Bank v. Savings Soc., 80 Fed. 581, 25 C. C. A. 466. See supra, IX, D, 10, a; and, generally, MANDAMUS.

In Indiana the remedy by mandamus in the first instance is not exclusive. A petition to procure a levy may be first presented to the board and an adverse decision appealed from. Knox County v. Montgomery, 106 Ind. 518, 6 N. E. 915; White County v. Karp, 90 Ind. 236; Gavin v. Decatur County, 81 Ind. 480. And in case the board refuses to act mandamus will lie. Knox County v. Barnett, 106 Ind. 599, 7 N. E. 205; Knox County v. Montgomery, 106 Ind. 518, 6 N. E. 915.

Appointment of commissioner improper.— In Rusch v. Des Moines County, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,142, Woolw. 313, it was held that where the county supervisors, in disobedience to the command of a mandamus from the federal circuit court, have neglected to levy a tax to raise money to pay a judgment, the court will not appoint a special commissioner to levy the tax, where the county treasurer whose sole duty it is to collect the tax has never refused to perform his duty.

compel the levy of a tax, even though the remedy at law by mandamus is insufficient.[30] If the tax is to procure funds to pay bonds owing by the county, a judgment thereon is not a prerequisite to the right to a writ of mandamus;[31] nor is a judgment a prerequisite under a statute requiring supervisors to raise such sum as may be found due to certain claimants, and the controller to pay said amount when the same shall be judicially determined.[32] Where, however, a statute only authorizes a tax for the purpose of paying outstanding warrants and other floating indebtedness a board of county commissioners cannot be compelled to levy a tax for the payment of a particular claim unless it has been reduced to judgment.[33]

6. COLLECTION AND PAYMENT. A court of equity has no jurisdiction to enforce collection of taxes to pay the debts of municipal corporations.[34] A county court has no power to extend the time for the collection of taxes.[35] A statute imposing a penalty for wrongfully enjoining the collection of taxes does not apply to assessments made under an order of court to pay a judgment against the parish.[36] An officer who has collected money by illegal taxation on a void subscription to public improvements holds the same as a trust fund for the benefit of the taxpayers contributing the same.[37] County warrants may be received in payment of a special tax, even though the priority in which such warrants are required by law to be paid is thereby defeated.[38]

7. DISPOSITION OF TAXES — a. Legislative Control. The legislature has full power to direct what shall be done with the taxes levied and collected by any county.[39] Statutes designating the objects for which county funds can be appropriated are at all times subject to repeal or alteration, so as to appropriate the funds in a manner, or to objects different from those provided;[40] and the taxes may be intercepted while in process of collection or withdrawn from the county.[41] The legislature may require that all taxes levied within unorganized territory attached to organized counties shall be expended within the limits of such territory.[42] It may order the division and apportionment of taxes collected and paid

Neglect of officers charged with the duty of levying taxes to raise money which they are required to raise for the benefit of public creditors may amount under peculiar circumstances to a refusal to do so. People v. New York County, 3 Abb. Dec. (N. Y.) 566, 2 Keyes (N. Y.) 288, 34 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 379.

Mandamus to compel relevy upon misappropriation by treasurer.— In People v. Delaware County, 75 N. Y. App. Div. 184, 77 N. Y. Suppl. 676, it was held that where in an action against a county, a town recovered judgment, with directions, under N. Y. Laws (1869), c. 907, that a tax be levied therefor, and that the money when collected be deposited with the county treasurer, and by him invested for the benefit of the town, and such tax was levied and collected, the judgment is met and satisfied so far as the board is concerned, and the fact that the treasurer misappropriated the money by paying it out on other obligations of the county does not entitle the town to a mandamus to compel the board to levy another tax to satisfy such judgment.

30. Thompson v. Allen County, 115 U. S. 550, 6 S. Ct. 140, 29 L. ed. 472.

31. See supra, IX, D, 10, a.

32. People v. New York County, 3 Abb. Dec. (N. Y.) 566, 2 Keyes (N. Y.) 288, 34 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 379.

33. Vincent v. Hinsdale County, 12 Colo. App. 40, 54 Pac. 393.

34. Thompson v. Allen County, 115 U. S. 550, 6 S. Ct. 140, 29 L. ed. 472. To the same effect see McLean County v. Owensboro Deposit Bank, 81 Ky. 254. Contra, Post v. Taylor County, 19 Fed. Cas. No. 11,302, 2 Flipp. 518.

35. Lane v. Howell, 1 Lea (Tenn.) 275.

A county court may sue the sheriff for a surplus in his hands collected on a levy that has turned out to be larger than was needed for its special purpose, and this right is not affected by the rule that when such court has levied a tax to pay claims against the county, the sheriff failing to pay over the tax collected is suable only by the creditors and not by the court. Hardy v. Logan County Ct., 23 S. W. 661, 15 Ky. L. Rep. 405.

36. Wilson v. Anderson, 28 La. Ann. 261.

37. Blair v. Carlisle, etc., Turnpike Co., 4 Bush (Ky.) 157. See also Clay v. Nicholas County Ct., 4 Bush (Ky.) 154.

38. U. S. v. Macon County Ct., 45 Fed. 400.

39. Hannibal v. Marion County, 69 Mo. 571; State v. St. Louis County Ct., 34 Mo. 546; Hamilton v. St. Louis County Ct., 15 Mo. 3.

40. State v. St. Louis County Ct., 34 Mo. 546.

41. State v. Brewer, 64 Ala. 287.

42. Midland Tp. v. Roscommon Tp., 39 Mich. 424.

into the county treasury between counties and cities,[43] direct the county to appropriate part of its funds to pay certain expenses of a city within its limits,[44] or direct that the county in which a city is situated shall on a certain contingency pay to the city a certain portion of the taxes collected for county purposes,[45] in the absence of constitutional prohibition.[46] So it may direct the payment of a certain proportion of specified taxes to the municipality in which they were collected.[47]

b. Appropriation of Surplus. Notwithstanding a constitutional provision that "no tax levied for one purpose shall ever be devoted to another purpose," where a surplus remains after the purpose for which a particular levy was made has been accomplished it may be appropriated by the county for general purposes.[48]

c. Recall of Money in Hands of Agent. Where a county court has levied a tax for the amount of its subscription to a railroad company, and appointed an agent to receive the money collected and pay it over upon the order of the court, the railroad has no lien on such money collected and in the agent's hands, but not ordered to be paid over, and such money can be recalled from the agent at any time before payment to the company.[49]

8. Rights and Remedies of Taxpayers — a. In General. In many jurisdictions resident taxpayers of a county may invoke the interposition of a court of equity to prevent an illegal disposition of the moneys or other funds of the county, or the illegal creation of a debt by the county which they in common with other property holders of the county may otherwise be compelled to pay,[50] provided

43. Logan County v. Lincoln, 81 Ill. 156.

Omission of officers to perform duty.— Where such a statute makes it the duty of the county judge and the mayor of a city to divide and apportion the county revenue in a certain way, the duty is merely ministerial, and upon the neglect of such officers to perform the duty the amount due the city may be ascertained in any mode by which the fact may be satisfactorily established. Logan County v. Lincoln, 81 Ill. 156.

44. State v. St. Louis County Ct., 34 Mo. 546, to pay portion of police expenses.

45. Hannibal v. Marion County, 69 Mo. 571.

46. State v. Police Jury, 47 La. Ann. 1244, 17 So. 792; State v. Pohling, 1 Ohio Cir. Ct. 486; Nasnville v. Towns, 5 Sneed (Tenn.) 186.

47. Ratterman v. State, 44 Ohio St. 641, 10 N. E. 678; Com. v. Martin, 170 Pa. St. 118, 32 Atl. 624.

Application of taxation on railroad property to payment of town bonds.— In New York it is provided that taxes collected from any railroad upon its property in a town which has issued bonds in aid of such railroad shall be applied to the payment of such bonds. People v. Cayuga County, 136 N. Y. 281, 32 N. E. 854; Clark v. Sheldon, 106 N. Y. 104, 12 N. E. 341; Bridges v. Sullivan County, 92 N. Y. 570; Ackerson v. Niagara County, 72 Hun (N. Y.) 616, 25 N. Y. Suppl. 196 [affirming 18 N. Y. Suppl. 219]; Kilbourne v. Sullivan County, 62 Hun (N. Y.) 210, 16 N. Y. Suppl. 507 [affirmed in 137 N. Y. 170, 33 N. E. 159]; Vinton v. Cattaraugus County, 50 Hun (N. Y.) 600, 2 N. Y. Suppl. 367; Wood v. Monroe County, 50 Hun (N. Y.) 1, 2 N. Y. Suppl. 369.

48. Whaley v. Com., 110 Ky. 154, 61 S. W. 35, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1292.

49. Henry County v. Allen, 50 Mo. 231, where it was further held that for refusal to restore the money on call the agent becomes liable to his principal.

50. Newmeyer v. Missouri, etc., R. Co., 52 Mo. 81, 14 Am. Rep. 394; Normand v. Otoe County, 8 Nebr. 18; Carman v. Woodruff, 10 Oreg. 133; Crampton v. Zabriskie, 101 U. S. 601, 25 L. ed. 1070.

To compel taxes to be applied to proper object.— A taxpayer may petition a county board praying that money collected by taxation in his township to aid a railroad by taking stock therein be applied accordingly, and upon refusal he may appeal to the circuit court. White County v. Karp, 90 Ind. 236.

To enjoin county judge from doing an act detrimental to the interests of themselves and other citizens of the county, as for instance to enjoin him from building a court-house at a place not the county-seat in default of any particular officer whose duty it is to restrain him. Rice v. Smith, 9 Iowa 570.

Illustrations.— Upon a proper case being made, at the instance of a taxpayer, a court of equity may enjoin the collection of a tax or assessment which is void, illegal, or vitiated by fraud (State v. Baxter, 38 Ark. 462; Worthen v. Badgett, 32 Ark. 496; Du Page County v. Jenks, 65 Ill. 275; Brandirff v. Harrison County, 50 Iowa 164; Kentucky, etc., R. Co. v. Bourbon County, 85 Ky. 98, 2 S. W. 687, 8 Ky. L. Rep. 881; Lee v. Mehew, 8 Okla. 136, 56 Pac. 1046; may prevent the unlawful appropriation or disposition of the funds belonging to the county or compel the restoration of the same (see supra, IX, B, 2, e); may prevent the creation of debts in ex-there be no adequate remedy at law for the protection and enforcement of their rights as such taxpayers.[51]

b. Special Interest Distinct From That of Public. In some jurisdictions, however, it is held that taxpayers of a county cannot maintain, in the absence of statute, such a suit unless they have some special interest distinct from that of the public.[52] Nevertheless it has been held that although a party, simply because he is a taxpayer, has not such an interest in a litigation to which a county is defendant as will entitle him to intervene and defend,[53] yet when in an action against a county the county board conspire with the plaintiff to aid him in procuring a judgment, a taxpayer has such an interest in the litigation as entitles him to intervene.[54]

c. Estoppel. The general rule that one who receives a benefit under an unconstitutional law may be estopped from denying its constitutionality applies to suits by a taxpayer to enjoin the levying of taxes issued in accordance with a statute.[55] So also the right to enjoin the collection of a tax on the ground that the county board exceeded their authority in making the contract, in payment of which such tax was levied, may be held to be waived where such contract is let, the work done, and the settlement made in good faith and without objection at the time.[56]

9. Suits Arising Out of Taxation. A county is not a trustee for its taxpayers

cess of the legal limit (see supra, IX, A, 3); may restrain the allowance by a county board of a claim, the payment of which will be in violation of law and the rights of the plaintiff and other taxpayers (see infra, X, B, 3, c, (II)); may restrain the issue or payment of orders or warrants illegally drawn (see supra, IX, D, 2, i); may restrain the making by the county of fraudulent and collusive sales of tax certificates at less than their value (Willard v. Comstock, 58 Wis. 565, 17 N. W. 401, 46 Am. Rep. 657); or may prevent the making of an unlawful contract by a county board (see supra, VI, A, 7). So it may restrain the corporate authorities of the county from issuing its bonds without the sanction of the law. See supra, IX, F, 2.

51. Burr v. Sacramento County, 96 Cal. 210, 31 Pac. 38; Wood v. Bangs, 1 Dak. 179, 46 N. W. 586; Tackett v. Stevenson, 155 Ind. 407, 58 N. E. 534.

52. Alabama.— Perry County v. Perry County Medical Soc., 128 Ala. 257, 29 So. 586.

California.— Merriam v. Yuba County, 72 Cal. 517, 14 Pac. 137.

Dakota.— Wood v. Bangs, 1 Dak. 179, 46 N. W. 586.

Kansas.— Wyandotte, etc., Bridge Co. v. Wyandotte County, 10 Kan. 326; Craft v. Jackson County Com'rs, 5 Kan. 518.

New York.— People v. Ingersoll, 58 N. Y. 1, 17 Am. Rep. 178; Roosevelt v. Draper, 23 N. Y. 318; Doolittle v. Broome County, 18 N. Y. 155.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 300 et seq.

No right in advance of actual levy.— In Michigan an individual has no right, as a taxpayer, either in his own name or on behalf of himself and the other taxpayers, to file a bill to enjoin proceedings in advance of the actual levy of a tax. He cannot seek redress until his own tax can be ascertained, and he cannot then proceed in equity except to protect his individual interests from injuries not remediable otherwise. Miller v. Grandy, 13 Mich. 540 [followed in Steffes v. Moran, 68 Mich. 291, 36 N. W. 76].

53. Greeley v. Lyon County, 40 Iowa 72; Cornell College v. Iowa County, 32 Iowa 520; Orleans County v. Bowen, 4 Lans. (N. Y.) 24.

54. Greeley v. Lyon County, 40 Iowa 72.

Intervention of ten taxpayers after judgment.— After judgment has been obtained against a county, ten taxpayers may intervene under the Pennsylvania act of June 12, 1878, and take the case to the supreme court. Under this act the court has no discretion to grant or withhold the permission to intervene. The petition is merely in the nature of a suggestion for the purpose of getting the taxpayers upon the record. Bell v. Allegheny County, 149 Pa. St. 381, 24 Atl. 209.

55. Vickey v. Hendricks County, 134 Ind. 554, 32 N. E. 880.

Estoppel to object to illegal election.— A property taxpayer is estopped from contesting the legality of a tax voted in aid of a railroad corporation at a special election ordered by a police jury under La. Const. (1879), art. 242, and La. Acts (1886), No. 35, making provision for such election, on the ground that the police jury was without power to order the election, since the petition presented to them was not signed by a proper number of property taxpayers, where the exercise of the right is unreasonably delayed until after the railroad is constructed, and the corporation has expended large amounts of money on the faith of the official promulgation of the result of the election. Vicksburg, etc., R. Co. v. Scott, 52 La. Ann. 512, 27 So. 137.

56. Hull v. Kearney County, 13 Nebr. 539, 14 N. W. 529.

as a body so as to maintain a suit in their behalf to prevent action under a tax law on the ground that the law discriminates against the individual taxpayers of the county in favor of those living in other counties,[57] nor can a new county maintain a suit in equity to enjoin the sale for taxes of lands within its limits by officers of the county from which it was formed, since it has no interest in the subject-matter.[58]

X. CLAIMS AGAINST COUNTIES.

A. Presentation For Audit and Allowance — 1. Necessity For — a. In General. It is usually expressly provided by statute in the several jurisdictions that unliquidated claims or demands against a county shall be presented to the proper county officer or tribunal for audit and allowance or rejection,[59] or 57. Arapahoe County v. McIntire, 23 Colo. 137, 46 Pac. 638.

58. Nassau County v. Phipps, 43 N. Y. App. Div. 595, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 249.

59. Alabama.— Mobile County v. Sands, 127 Ala. 493, 29 So. 26; Roberts v. Cleburne County, 116 Ala. 378, 22 So. 545; Crenshaw County v. Fleming, 109 Ala. 554, 19 So. 906; Boothe v. King, 71 Ala. 497; Schroeder v. Colbert County, 66 Ala. 137; Briggs v. Coleman, 51 Ala. 561; Palmer v. Fitts, 51 Ala. 489; Vincent v. Gilmer, 51 Ala. 387; Dale County v. Gunter, 46 Ala. 118; Jackson v. Dinkins, 46 Ala. 69; Barbour County v. Horn, 41 Ala. 114; Falkner v. Randolph County, 19 Ala. 177.

Arizona.—Yavapai County v. O'Neil, (1892) 29 Pac. 430.

California.— San Diego County v. Riverside County, (1899) 58 Pac. 81 [reversing (1898) 55 Pac. 7]; Nelson v. Merced County, 122 Cal. 644, 55 Pac. 421; San Diego County v. Riverside County, (1898) 55 Pac. 7; Ames v. San Francisco, 76 Cal. 325, 18 Pac. 397; Clear Lake Waterworks Co. v. Lake County, 45 Cal. 90; Alden v. Alameda County, 43 Cal. 270; McCann v. Sierra County, 7 Cal. 121.

Colorado.— Rio Grande County v. Phye, (Sup. 1899) 59 Pac. 55; Rio Grande County v. Bloom, 14 Colo. App. 187, 59 Pac. 417.

Florida.— Johnson v. Wakulla County, 28 Fla. 720, 9 So. 690.

Idaho.— Jolly v. Woodward, 4 Ida. 496, 42 Pac. 512; Rankin v. Jauman, 4 Ida. 394, 39 Pac. 1111.

Illinois.— Clinton County v. Pace, 59 Ill. App. 576; Kern v. People, 44 Ill. App. 181.

Indiana.— Gibson County v. Tichenor, 129 Ind. 562, 29 N. E. 32; Montgomery County v. Courtney, 105 Ind. 311, 4 N. E. 896; Morris v. State, 96 Ind. 597; Pfaff v. State, 94 Ind. 529; Morgan County v. Pritchett, 85 Ind. 68; Bartholomew County v. Ford, 27 Ind. 17; Randolph County v. Henry County, 27 Ind. App. 378, 61 N. E. 612; Wright v. Caskey, 26 Ind. App. 520, 60 N. E. 320; Barnhill v. Woodard, 26 Ind. App. 482, 59 N. E. 1085; Hamilton County v. Tipton County, 23 Ind. App. 330, 55 N. E. 453; Carroll County v. Pollard, 17 Ind. App. 470, 46 N. E. 1012; Cole v. Harrison County, 3 Ind. App. 13, 28 N. E. 1031.

Iowa.— Des Moines v. Polk County, 107 Iowa 525, 78 N. W. 249; Homan v. Franklin County, 98 Iowa 692, 68 N. W. 559; Marsh v. Benton County, 75 Iowa 469, 39 N. W. 713; Ferguson v. Davis County, 57 Iowa 601, 10 N. W. 906; Cerro Gordo County v. Wright County, 50 Iowa 439; Clapp v. Cedar County, 5 Iowa 15, 68 Am. Dec. 678; State v. Floyd County Judge, 5 Iowa 380; Bradford v. Jackson County, Morr. 219.

Kansas.— Skinner v. Cowley County, 63 Kan. 557, 66 Pac. 635; Atchison, etc., R. Co. v. Kearney County, 58 Kan. 19, 48 Pac. 583; Saline County Com'rs v. Bondi, 23 Kan. 117; Saline County Com'rs v. Young, 18 Kan. 440; State v. Bonebrake, 4 Kan. 247; Finney County v. Gray County, 8 Kan. App. 745, 54 Pac. 1100; Herdman v. Woodson County, 6 Kan. App. 513, 50 Pac. 946.

Kentucky.— Weis v. Lawrence County Ct., 13 Ky. L. Rep. 975.

Maine.— Huse v. Cumberland County, 29 Me. 467; Weymouth v. Gorham, 22 Me. 385.

Michigan.— Webster v. Wheeler, 119 Mich. 601, 78 N. W. 657; Auditor Gen. v. Bay County, 106 Mich. 662, 64 N. W. 570.

Minnesota.— Washington County v. Clapp, 83 Minn. 512, 86 N. W. 775; Bailey v. Strachan, 77 Minn. 526, 80 N. W. 694.

Mississippi.— Marion County v. Woulard, 77 Miss. 343, 27 So. 619; Clay County v. Chickasaw County, 76 Miss. 418, 24 So. 975; Lawrence County v. Brookhaven, 51 Miss. 68.

Montana.—Powder River Cattle Co. v. Custer County, 9 Mont. 145, 22 Pac. 383.

Nebraska.— Greeley County v. Gebhardt, (1902) 89 N. W. 753; Ayres v. Thurston County, 63 Nebr. 96, 88 N. W. 178; Shepard v. Easterling, 61 Nebr. 882, 86 N. W. 941; Sheibley v. Dixon County, 61 Nebr. 409, 85 N. W. 399; State v. Cass County, 60 Nebr. 566, 83 N. W. 733; Perkins County v. Keith County, 58 Nebr. 323, 78 N. W. 630; Douglas County v. Taylor, 50 Nebr. 535, 70 N. W. 27; State v. Baushausen, 49 Nebr. 558, 68 N. W. 950; Hollingsworth v. Saunders County, 36 Nebr. 141, 54 N. W. 79; Fuller v. Colfax County, 33 Nebr. 716, 50 N. W. 1044; Richardson County v. Hull, 28 Nebr. 810, 45 N. W. 53, 24 Nebr. 536, 39 N. W. 608; Dixon County v. Barnes, 13 Nebr. 294, 13 N. W. 623.

demand of payment made[60] within the time prescribed by statute,[61] before

Nevada.— Thornburg v. Hermann, 1 Nev. 473.

New Hampshire.—Brown v. Grafton County, 69 N. H. 130, 36 Atl. 874.

New Jersey.— Irving v. Applegate, 49 N. J. L. 376, 8 Atl. 505.

New York.— Foy v. Westchester County, 168 N. Y. 180, 61 N. E. 172 [affirming 60 N. Y. App. Div. 412, 69 N. Y. Suppl. 887]; People v. Delaware County, 45 N. Y. 196; Staten Island Bank v. New York, 68 N. Y. App. Div. 231, 74 N. Y. Suppl. 284; People v. Westchester County, 57 N. Y. App. Div. 135, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 981; People v. Cayuga County, 9 Hun 440; Brady v. New York, 2 Sandf. 460; People v. Schuyler County, 2 Abb. Pr. N. S. 78.

North Carolina.— Jones v. Bladen County, 73 N. C. 182; McLendon v. Anson County Com'rs, 71 N. C. 38; Alexander v. McDowell County Com'rs, 67 N. C. 330.

North Dakota.— Barrett v. Stutsman County, 4 N. D. 175, 59 N. W. 964.

Ohio.— State v. McConnell, 28 Ohio St. 589; State v. Dreihs, 11 Ohio Cir. Ct. 226, 1 Ohio Cir. Dec. 215; In re Holiday, 6 Ohio Cir. Dec. 751; State v. Grigsey, 8 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 616, 6 Ohio N. P. 202; Ottawa County v. County Auditor, 5 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 597, 7 Ohio N. P. 400.

Pennsylvania.— Luzerne County v. Day, 23 Pa. St. 141; In re Boyle, 20 Pa. Super. Ct. 1; Com. v. Lloyd, 9 Kulp 296.

South Carolina.—Colleton County v. Hampton County. 52 S. C. 589, 30 S. E. 484; State v. Baldwin, 14 S. C. 135.

South Dakota.— Lyman County v. Lyman County Com'rs, 14 S. D. 341, 85 N. W. 597; Thomas v. Douglas County, 13 S. D. 520, 83 N. W. 580; State v. Pennington County, 13 S. D. 430, 83 N. W. 563.

Texas.—Mills County v. Lampasas County, 90 Tex. 603, 40 S. W. 403; Trinity County v. Vickery, 65 Tex. 554; Colorado County v. Beethe, 44 Tex. 447; Bowie County v. Powell, (Civ. App. 1901) 66 S. W. 237; Herring-Hall-Marvin Co. v. Kroeger, 23 Tex. Civ. App. 672, 57 S. W. 980; Luckie v. Schneider, (Civ. App. 1900) 57 S. W. 690; Mills County v. Lampasas County, (Civ. App. 1897) 40 S. W. 552; Herring-Hall-Marvin Co. v. Bexar County, 16 Tex. Civ. App. 673, 40 S. W. 145.

Utah.— Auerbach v. Salt Lake County, 23 Utah 103, 63 Pac. 907, 90 Am. St. Rep. 685; Fenton v. Salt Lake County, 3 Utah 423, 4 Pac. 241.

Virginia.— Prince George County v. Atlantic, etc., R. Co., 87 Va. 283, 12 S. E. 667.

Washington.— Nickeus v. Lewis County, 23 Wash. 125, 62 Pac. 763; Hoexter v. Judson, 21 Wash. 646, 59 Pac. 498; State v. Snohomish County, 18 Wash. 160, 51 Pac. 368.

West Virginia.— Chancey v. Roane County Ct., 51 W. Va. 252, 41 S. E. 156; Yates v. Taylor County Ct., 47 W. Va. 376, 35 S. E. 24.

Wisconsin.— Northern Trust Co. v. Snyder, 113 Wis. 516, 89 N. W. 460, 90 Am. St. Rep. 867; Jones v. Washburn County, 106 Wis. 391, 82 N. W. 286; Miller v. Crawford County, 106 Wis. 210, 82 N. W. 175; Pier v. Oneida County, 93 Wis. 463, 67 N. W. 702; Lincoln County v. Oneida County, 80 Wis. 267, 50 N. W. 344; Hyde v. Kenosha County Sup'rs, 43 Wis. 129; Kellogg v. Winnebago County Sup'rs, 42 Wis. 97; Stringham v. Winnebago County, 24 Wis. 594; Jackson County v. La Crosse County, 13 Wis. 490.

Wyoming.— Appel v. State, 9 Wyo. 187, 61 Pac. 1015; In re Fremont, etc., County, 8 Wyo. 1, 54 Pac. 1073.

United States.— Lincoln County v. Luning, 133 U. S. 529, 10 S. Ct. 363, 33 L. ed. 766; Greene County v. Daniel, 102 U. S. 187, 26 L. ed. 99; Lorsbach v. Lincoln County, 94 Fed. 963; Speer v. Kearney County, 88 Fed. 749, 32 C. C. A. 101; Vincent v. Lincoln County, 62 Fed. 705; May v. Jackson County, 35 Fed. 710; May v. Cass County, 30 Fed. 762; May v. Buchanan County, 29 Fed. 469.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 309 et seq.

In Georgia the bringing of suit within the time limited is a sufficient presentation of the claim. Demard v. De Kalb County, 97 Ga. 733, 25 S. E. 382.

60. Jones v. Bladen County, 73 N. C. 182; McLendon v. Anson County Com'rs, 71 N. C. 38; Alexander v. McDowell County Com'rs, 67 N. C. 330; Luzerne County v. Day, 23 Pa. St. 141; In re Boyle, 20 Pa. Super. Ct. 1; Fenton v. Salt Lake County, 3 Utah 423, 4 Pac. 241.

When a claim is delivered to the county clerk it will be considered filed, although he fails to indorse thereon the fact and time of filing. State v. Cass County, 60 Nebr. 566, 83 N. W. 733.

61. People v. Monroe, 23 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 395.

Thus some statutes require claims to be filed within twelve months after their accrual. Marengo County v. Coleman, 55 Ala. 605; Michael v. Marengo County, 52 Ala. 159; Carroll v. Siebenthaler, 37 Cal. 193; Powell v. Muscogee County, 71 Ga. 587; Carroll v. Board of Police, 28 Miss. 38. Others require that claims shall be presented during the fiscal year. Colleton County v. Hampton County, 52 S. C. 589, 30 S. E. 484. And others require that claims shall be presented within two years after accrual. Herdman v. Woodson County, 6 Kan. App. 513, 50 Pac. 946; Royster v. Granville County, 98 N. C. 148, 3 S. E. 739.

Claim barred after six years.— A claim against a county for witness' fees is barred after six years, although no demand be made in that time. Lineberger v. Mercer County, 19 Pa. Co. Ct. 532, 28 Pittsb. Leg. J. N. S. 154.

Failure to act on claim within statutory period.— If a claim is presented within the statutory period it is not barred, although the

the payment of such claims can be enforced.[62] And to authorize the bringing of an action, it must be shown that the claim thus presented was rejected or that a reasonable time for action had elapsed before bringing the suit.[63] The object of these requirements is to prevent the revenue of a county from being consumed in litigation by providing that an opportunity for amicable adjustment shall be first afforded to the county before it can be charged with the costs of a suit.[64]

b. What Claims Must Be Presented. In some jurisdictions the obligation to present claims before suit thereon applies to claims for damages arising from torts as well as to those arising upon contracts.[65] In other states, however, it has been held that the word "claim" refers only to "claims" arising upon contract and not upon tort.[66] In any event only unauthenticated and unliquidated claims against a county need be presented for audit and allowance.[67] Presentation for allowance is unnecessary in the case of county orders or warrants, or claims which have already been presented, audited, and allowed;[68] or in the case of county bonds or coupons belonging thereto issued for a purpose authorized by law,[69] or judgments thereon;[70] claims which constitute a primary charge on the fine-and-forfeiture fund, and which do not constitute a charge against the county;[71] charges imposed by a state upon a county upon allowance by the proper state officer;[72] and claims in respect board fails to act on it, until after the expiration of the time within which the claim must be presented. Dinwiddie County v. Stuart, 28 Gratt. (Va.) 526.

Waiver of limitations.— The county board may waive the defense of the statute of limitations as to a claim already barred, and its action in this regard binds its successor. Woods v. Madison County, 136 N. Y. 403, 32 N. E. 1011.

62. Falkner v. Randolph County, 19 Ala. 177.

63. Rio Grande County v. Bloom, 14 Colo. App. 187, 59 Pac. 417.

64. McCann v. Sierra County, 7 Cal. 121; McLendon v. Anson County Com'rs, 71 N. C. 38.

65. Schroeder v. Colbert County, 66 Ala. 137; Barbour County v. Horn, 41 Ala. 114; McCann v. Sierra County, 7 Cal. 121.

66. Douglas County v. Taylor, 50 Nebr. 535, 70 N. W. 27; Hollingsworth v. Saunders County, 36 Nebr. 141, 54 N. W. 79; Henderson v. Newberry County, 27 S. C. 419, 3 S. E. 787; Chancey v. Roane County Ct., 51 W. Va. 252, 41 S. E. 156.

67. Clapp v. Cedar County, 5 Iowa 15, 68 Am. Dec. 678; Lincoln County v. Luning, 133 U. S. 529, 10 S. Ct. 363, 33 L. ed. 766; May v. Jackson County, 35 Fed. 710.

68. Florida.— Ray v. Wilson, 29 Fla. 342, 10 So. 613, 14 L. R. A. 773; Johnson v. Wakulla County, 28 Fla. 720, 9 So. 690.

Iowa.— Campbell v. Polk County, 3 Iowa 467.

Nebraska.— Ayres v. Thurston County, 63 Nebr. 96, 88 N. W. 178; Perkins County v. Keith County, 58 Nebr. 323, 78 N. W. 630.

New York.— Chemung Canal Bank v. Chemung County, 5 Den. 517.

Wisconsin.— Savage v. Crawford County Sup'rs, 10 Wis. 49.

United States.— Lyell v. Lapeer County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,618, 6 McLean 446.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 311.

Bills fixed by judges as fees for lawyers assisting in criminal prosecutions are not reviewable by the county commissioners. State v. Franklin County, 5 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 579, 7 Ohio N. P. 563. See also Worcester County v. Melvin, 89 Md. 37, 42 Atl. 910.

Effect of allowance and attempt to pay.— Where a person received a grant of school lands from a county under a voidable conveyance, in consideration of services rendered, an objection in an action by the county to recover the land that defendant was not entitled to recover for the services of his remote grantor, the county's grantee, because the latter's claim against the county had not been presented to the commissioners' court for allowance, is without merit, since the commissioners' court had allowed and sought to pay it by the conveyance to its grantee. Club Land, etc., Co. v. Dallas County, 26 Tex. Civ. App. 449, 64 S. W. 872.

69. Alabama.—Limestone County v. Rather, 48 Ala. 433.

Iowa.— Clapp v. Cedar County, 5 Iowa 15, 68 Am. Dec. 678.

Nebraska.— Ayres v. Thurston County, 63 Nebr. 96, 88 N. W. 178.

New York.— Parker v. Saratoga County, 106 N. Y. 392, 13 N. E. 308.

United States.— Lincoln County v. Luning, 133 U. S. 529, 10 S. Ct. 363, 33 L. ed. 766; Greene County v. Daniel, 102 U. S. 187, 26 L. ed. 99; Lorsbach v. Lincoln County, 94 Fed. 963.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 311.

70. Lorsbach v. Lincoln County, 94 Fed. 963; Vincent v. Lincoln County, 62 Fed. 705.

71. Briggs v. Coleman, 51 Ala. 561.

72. Auditor-Gen. v. Bay County, 106 Mich. 662, 64 N. W. 570. And see Morris v. State, 96 Ind. 597.

Certificate of commanding officer as to compensation of armorer.— Under section 125 of the military code of New York, the certificate of the commanding officer as to the

to which the statute prescribes the method of collection and the manner by which the means for payment are to be obtained.[73] So it has been held that presentation is unnecessary where difficult questions of law are involved and the examination of witnesses are necessary.[74]

2. Who Has Cognizance of Claims. Where it is necessary to present claims for audit and allowance, they should be presented to and acted upon by the proper county authorities, ordinarily the board of county commissioners or supervisors,[75] the county court,[76] or the board of police.[77] Nevertheless power is often given to other officers to audit and allow or reject demands and expense accounts without the submission of the same to the county board or court,[78] and a right of appeal amount due to an armorer is conclusive upon the board of supervisors, and nothing remains for them to do but to levy, collect, and pay such amount. People v. Cayuga County, 9 Hun (N. Y.) 440.

73. In such case the claim must be enforced and paid in the mode provided and in no other way. Dale County v. Gunter, 46 Ala. 118; Clear Lake Waterworks Co. v. Lake County, 45 Cal. 90.

74. Kellogg v. Winnebago County Sup'rs, 42 Wis. 97.

75. Alabama.— Speed v. Cocke, 57 Ala. 209; Curbbert v. Lewis, 6 Ala. 262.

California.— McBride v. Newlin, 129 Cal. 36, 61 Pac. 577; Hunt v. Broderick, 104 Cal. 313, 37 Pac. 1040; McFarland v. Cowen, 98 Cal. 329, 33 Pac. 113 (except salaries of officers); Ex p. Widber, 91 Cal. 967, 27 Pac. 733; Babcock v. Goodrich, 47 Cal. 488.

Colorado.— Roberts v. People, 9 Colo. 458, 13 Pac. 630; Garfield County v. Leonard, 3 Colo. App. 576, 34 Pac. 583.

Indiana.— Waller v. Wood, 101 Ind. 138; Orange County v. Ritter, 90 Ind. 362; Marion County v. Reissner, 58 Ind. 260; Carroll County v. Pollard, 17 Ind. App. 470, 46 N. E. 1012.

Iowa.— Dalt v. Webster County, 76 Iowa 370, 41 N. W. 1; Bean v. Carroll County, 57 Iowa 53, 49 N. W. 1049.

Kansas.— State v. Bonebrake, 4 Kan. 247.

Michigan.— People v. Manistee County, 33 Mich. 497.

Nebraska.— State v. Merrell, 43 Nebr. 575, 61 N. W. 754; Boone County v. Armstrong, 23 Nebr. 764, 37 N. W. 626.

New Hampshire.—Brown v. Grafton County, 69 N. H. 130, 36 Atl. 874.

New York.— People v. Haws, 34 Barb. 69, 21 How. Pr. 117; People v. Green, 2 Thomps. & C. 18; Brown v. Earle, 16 Abb. Pr. N. S. 64, 46 How. Pr. 308; People v. Monroe County, 23 How. Pr. 395; People v. Dutchess County, 9 Wend. 508; People v. Washington County, 1 Wend. 75.

Virginia.— Dinwiddie County v. Stuart, 28 Gratt. 526.

Wisconsin.— Marsh v. St. Croix County Sup'rs, 42 Wis. 355.

United States.— Speer v. Kearney County, 88 Fed. 749, 32 C. C. A. 101.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 312.

Audit of expenses upon transfer of cause.— Where the expenses of a criminal trial have been properly audited in the county where the trial was had. it is unnecessary to have the same claims verified, and presented as unaudited accounts to the commissioners of the county from which the cause was transferred. Washoe County v. Humboldt County, 14 Nev. 123.

Power not implied from management of county business.— The general care and management of the county funds and business confided to the county court, while it authorizes the county court, as representative of the county, to pay the fees of officers for services rendered for the county, and perhaps all just and lawful claims against the county, does not necessarily imply the authority to audit and allow claims in the judicial sense "to hear and to determine," and its refusal to pay such fees, in whole or in part, is not the exercise of judicial functions, or a "decision" which can only be reviewed by the writ of review provided by the code. Crossen v. Wasco County, 10 Oreg. 111.

Power of temporary board.— Under a statute providing for the organization of new counties, and authorizing the governor to appoint temporary officers, on whose qualification "the county shall be deemed to be duly organized," a temporary board of commissioners so appointed has power to audit claims for legitimate county expenses and to issue warrants therefor. Speer v. Kearney County, 88 Fed. 749, 32 C. C. A. 101.

76. Worthen v. Roots, 34 Ark. 356; Chicot County v. Tilghman, 26 Ark. 461; Jefferson County v. Hudson, 22 Ark. 595.

Justices of county court.—In Tennessee the power to audit claims against a county, and to issue county warrants therefor, belongs to the justices of the county court, and in the absence of an express order made by a competent member of them the county judge has no authority to allow such claims. Connell v. Davidson County Judge, 2 Head (Tenn.) 189.

Must act as a court.— Members of a county court can bind their county in the matter of claims only when acting as a court, and its records are the only admissible evidence of their judicial acts. McHaney v. Marion County, 77 Ill. 488.

The court must be held by the county judge alone, in Arkansas, and not with the justices of the peace, when contracts and allowances for county expenses are to be made by the county court. Lawrence County v. Coffman, 36 Ark. 641.

77. Cotton v. Board of Police, 27 Miss. 367.

78. Hunt v. Broderick, 104 Cal. 313, 37 Pac. 1040.

from their action to the county board given the claimant.[79] So in one jurisdiction it has been held that the county board may delegate to its chairman and clerk the power to audit claims against the county.[80]

3. REQUISITES OF STATEMENT OF CLAIM — a. In General. In presenting a claim for allowance no formal pleadings are required;[81] and the statement need not possess all the essentials of a complaint in an action;[82] nor need it allege all the steps which the law requires to be taken to render the county liable;[83] but enough must be alleged to show that the county is liable for the demand.[84] It should be in writing,[85] and should set forth the nature of the claim,[86] its amount,[87] and the facts on which it is based,[88] with sufficient clearness to enable the board whose Allowance by circuit court for services, stationery, etc.— State v. St. Louis County Ct., 42 Mo. 496.

Allowance to clerks for books, furniture, etc.— Under a statute providing that the circuit and chancery courts shall make allowance to the clerks thereof for needful books, furniture, etc., for their offices and court-rooms, "and certify such allowance to the board of supervisors," where a bill for such supplies is presented by the clerk, the court should allow or disallow the bill, rather than certify the same to the board of supervisors to be passed on. Jones v. Lee County, (Miss. 1892) 12 So. 341.

Contingent expenses of the court.— Where the statute requires county treasurers to pay contingent expenses of the courts, the court, and not the treasurer or the county supervisors, is the proper judge of the necessity of the expenditure. People v. Greene County, 15 Abb. N. Cas. (N. Y.) 447.

Costs of investigation of county finances must be taxed by chief justice. State v. Middlesex County, 58 N. J. L. 285, 33 Atl. 197.

Expenses incurred in providing suitable court-room for holding the superior courts where such are not provided by the supervisor, may be audited by the judge. Ex p. Widber, 91 Cal. 367, 27 Pac. 733.

79. Hunt v. Broderick, 104 Cal. 313, 37 Pac. 1040.

80. Wilson v. State, 53 Nebr. 113, 73 N. W. 456.

81. Wiegel v. Pulaski County, 61 Ark. 74, 32 S. W. 116; Dubois County v. Wertz, 112 Ind. 268, 13 N. E. 874; Stout v. Grant County, 107 Ind. 343, 8 N. E. 222; Howard County v. Jennings, 104 Ind. 108, 3 N. E. 619; Duncan v. Lawrence County, 101 Ind. 403; Gibson County v. Emmerson, 95 Ind. 579; Orange County v. Ritter, 90 Ind. 362; Fountain County v. Wood, 35 Ind. 70.

A demurrer does not lie to a claim presented to a county court for allowance. Wiegel v. Pulaski County, 61 Ark. 74, 32 S. W. 116.

Rules of pleading not applicable to a claim filed for allowance. La Grange County v. Kromer, 8 Ind. 446.

82. Tippecanoe County v. Everett, 51 Ind. 543; Hart v. Vigo County, Smith (Ind.) 133.

Petition by several persons.— In Hart v. Vigo County, Smith (Ind.) 133, it was held that it is no objection to a petition by several persons to the county commissioners for the payment of expenses arising in the same case that the claims of the petitioners are several, such petition not being in the nature of an action.

83. Orange County v. Ritter, 90 Ind. 362; Blackford County v. Shrader, 36 Ind. 87.

84. Orange County v. Hon, 87 Ind. 356.

85. Shepard v. Easterling, 61 Nebr. 882, 86 N. W. 941; French v. Dunn County, 58 Wis. 402, 17 N. W. 1.

86. Carroll County v. Graham, 98 Ind. 279; French v. Dunn County, 58 Wis. 402, 17 N. W. 1.

A detailed and succinct statement of claim is sufficient in any case commenced before a county board. Gibson County v. Emmerson, 95 Ind. 579; Fountain County v. Loeb, 68 Ind. 29.

A claim in the form of an itemized account is sufficient. Jay County v. Gillum, 92 Ind. 511; Newson v. Bartholomew County, 92 Ind. 229; Orange County v. Ritter, 90 Ind. 362 [overruling on this point Orange County v. Hon, 87 Ind. 356]; Taylor v. Bosworth, 1 Ind. App. 54, 27 N. E. 115. And see infra, X, A, 3, b.

Presentation of account and proof of services is sufficient in the case of an application by a physician to the county court for services rendered in examination, on the order of a justice, of a person exposed to smallpox. Marion County v. Averitt, 1 Ky. L. Rep. 267.

87. Dale v. Webster County, 76 Iowa 370, 41 N. W. 1.

88. Dale v. Webster County, 76 Iowa 370, 41 N. W. 1; Miller v. Crawford County, 106 Wis. 210, 82 N. W. 175; French v. Dunn County, 58 Wis. 402, 17 N. W. 1; Eaton v. Manitowoc County, 40 Wis. 668.

Claimant need not produce his evidence, although in many cases it may be desirable for him to do so. Dale v. Webster County, 76 Iowa 370, 41 N. W. 1.

Effect of claim of lien not authorized by statute.— Where a contractor furnishing labor and material for a county building filed with the proper officer an itemized and sworn statement of his demand therefor, within thirty days of the time the last material and labor were furnished, the validity of his claim is not affected by the fact that he also included in such statement a claim for duty it is to pass upon it to investigate the facts involved and reach an intelligent decision.[89]

b. Itemized Account and Dates of Items. It is a very usual requirement that an account presented to a county tribunal for allowance shall be itemized,[90] and that the dates shall be given when necessary to their identification.[91]

c. Verification. So the statutes in a number of jurisdictions require that the claim shall be verified before presentation for allowance[92] by the claimant or someone having personal knowledge of the facts.[93] If made by the claimant it is a lien on the building, and on the funds set apart for its erection. Epeneter v. Montgomery County, 98 Iowa 159, 67 N. W. 93.

89. Dale v. Webster County, 76 Iowa 370, 41 N. W. 1; Thomas v. Douglas County, 13 S. D. 520, 83 N. W. 580.

Claim held too indefinite for allowance.— A claim by a district attorney for "Car fares and other incidental expenses necessarily incurred by Mr. Jas. Seaton, stenographer," and for "traveling and other expenses necessarily incurred" in a certain case, is not sufficiently definite to justify its allowance by the board of supervisors. In re Pinney, 17 Misc. (N. Y.) 24, 40 N. Y. Suppl. 716.

Effect to designate county as debtor.— In State v. Cass County, 60 Nebr. 566, 83 N. W. 733, a claim in favor of a party for property sold to a county under a contract with the county, wherein it is recited that the property was sold to the county commissioners of such county as per agreement, was held to be a claim against the county, and the failure to designate the county by name as debtor was only an irregularity, which did not affect the validity of the claim.

90. Alabama.— Washington County v. Porter, 128 Ala. 278, 29 So. 185; Schroeder v. Colbert County, 66 Ala. 137.

Colorado.— Roberts v. People, 9 Colo. 458, 13 Pac 630; Garfield County v. Leonard, 3 Colo. App. 576, 34 Pac. 583.

Idaho.— Clyne v. Bingham County, (1900) 60 Pac. 76.

Indiana.— Dubois County v. Wertz, 112 Ind. 268, 13 N. E. 874; Orange County v. Ritter, 90 Ind. 362.

Kansas.— Atchison County Com'rs v. Tomlinson, 9 Kan 167.

Nebraska.— Wilson v. State, 53 Nebr. 113, 73 N. W. 456.

New York.— Matter of White, 51 N. Y. App. Div. 175, 64 N. Y. Suppl. 726; People v. Wayne County, 45 Hun 62; People v. Monroe County, 18 Barb. 567; People v. Delaware County, 9 Abb Pr. N. S. 416.

Oregon.— Brownfield v. Houser, 30 Oreg. 534, 49 Pac. 843.

South Carolina.— Maxwell v. Saluda County, 55 S. C. 382, 33 S. E. 457; State v. Appleby, 25 S. C. 100.

South Dakota.—Thomas v. Douglas County, 13 S. D 520, 83 N. W. 580.

Wisconsin.—Miller v. Crawford County, 106 Wis. 210, 82 N. W. 175; Outagamie County v. Greenville, 77 Wis. 165, 45 N. W. 1090.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 313.

Notice to itemize necessary.— A claim against a county for a specific sum due on a contract cannot be repudiated because not itemized as required by statute, where no notice to itemize it was given to claimant pursuant to such statute. Colusa County v. Welch, 122 Cal. 428, 55 Pac. 243.

Where the account is for services or labor, but not for specific fees, such as are allowed by law, the time actually and necessarily devoted to the performance of such service or labor should be specified. Atchison County Com'rs v. Tomlinson, 9 Kan. 167.

91. Dubois County v. Wertz, 112 Ind. 268, 13 N. E. 874; Orange County v. Ritter, 90 Ind. 362.

92. Alabama.— Washington County v. Porter, 128 Ala. 278, 29 So. 185; Schroeder v. Colbert County, 66 Ala. 137.

Arkansas.—Perry County v. Conway County, 52 Ark. 430, 12 S. W. 877, 6 L. R. A. 665.

California.—McCormick v. Tuolumne County, 37 Cal. 257.

Iowa.— Hegele v. Polk County, 92 Iowa 701, 61 N. W. 393.

Nebraska.—Shepard v. Easterling, 61 Nebr. 882, 86 N. W. 941.

New Jersey.— Curley v. Hudson County, 66 N. J. L. 401, 49 Atl. 471.

New York.— People v. Monroe County, 18 Barb. 567; People v. Delaware County, 9 Abb. Pr. N. S. 416; People v. Schuyler County, 2 Abb. Pr. N. S. 78; People v. O'Reilly, 61 How. Pr. 3.

South Carolina.— Maxwell v. Saluda County, 55 S. C. 382, 33 S. E. 457; Green v. Richland County, 27 S. C. 9, 28 S. E. 618.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 314.

Affidavit may be made before a commissioner of deeds in and for the county. People v. O'Reilly, 61 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 3.

Essential to allowance to clerk for services. — Nave v. Ritter, 41 Ind. 301.

No application to claims under special statutes.—Under a special statute providing that a county which has received territory detached by a previous act from another county shall be liable to the latter for a just proportion of its debt, existing at the date of the segregating act, to be allowed on a claim presented to the county court, it is not necessary to authenticate such claim in the manner required by the general statute, in case of ordinary demands against counties, if the special statute does not require it. Perry County v. Conway County, 52 Ark. 430, 12 S. W. 877, 6 L. R. A. 665.

93. Schroeder v. Colbert County, 66 Ala. 137.

If the verification is by an agent he need not necessary for him to state that he has personal knowledge of its correctness.[94] If a claim is not verified as required by statute the refusal of the board to audit the same will not be reviewed or a mandamus issued to the board in aid of the claimant;[95] but it has been held that the board may waive the benefit of the statute.[96]

4. Amendment and Correction. The board may permit an amendment of a claim which is not sufficiently full in details or is insufficiently verified,[97] and it has been held that mandamus will lie to compel the board to permit such amendment.[98]

B. Hearing and Determination — 1. Time and Place. It is for the county tribunals to whom claims against a county are required to be presented to fix the time and place when they will consider a claim and hear the proofs,[99] and to give notice thereof.[1]

2. Proceedings — a. The Hearing — (i) In General. The tribunal which passes on the validity of the claim should permit the claimant to furnish such proof as he desires to establish its validity,[2] and mandamus will lie to compel it to do so.[3] Such boards also have the power to examine witnesses and gather such proofs in regard to a claim presented to them as they may desire before taking final action thereon,[4] and need not accept statements supported only by claimant's not state therein that he is acting as agent. Gillette-Herzog Mfg. Co. v. Aitkin County, 69 Minn. 297, 72 N. W. 123.

94. Mobile County v. Sands, 127 Ala. 493, 29 So. 26.

95. People v. Delaware County, 9 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 416; People v. Schuyler County, 2 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 78.

96. People v. St. Lawrence County, 30 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 173; Parker v. Grant County, 1 Wis. 414.

97. People v. Herkimer County, 3 How. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 241.

98. People v. Wayne County, 45 Hun (N. Y.) 62.

99. Hickey v. Oakland County, 62 Mich. 94, 28 N. W. 771.

Deliberations in private.— A statute providing that no claim shall be passed on except when the board and their clerk are in private does not violate a constitutional provision that all courts shall be open. State v. Rogers, 107 Ala. 444, 19 So. 909, 32 L. R. A. 520.

Effect of postponement upon right to plead subsequent repeal of statute.— The fact that the county board postponed without prejudice the consideration of a town's claim against the county did not preclude it from subsequently pleading in bar of the claim that since the postponement the statute was repealed. Wirt v. Allegany County, 90 Hun (N. Y.) 205, 35 N. Y. Suppl. 887.

1. Hickey v. Oakland County, 62 Mich. 94, 28 N. W. 771.

Need not notify claimant of day of trial.— In passing upon county claims, the board of county commissioners acts as a board of audit, and is not required to notify the claimant of the day of trial, so that he may appear with his witnesses as in courts of trial. Tinsley v. Union County, 40 S. C. 276, 18 S. E. 794.

2. Hickey v. Oakland County, 62 Mich. 94, 28 N. W. 771; People v. Manistee County, 26 Mich. 422; Pickens County v. Day, 45 S. C. 161, 22 S. E. 772.

Affidavit that account is just insufficient. — In Hickey v. Oakland County, 62 Mich. 94, 28 N. W. 771, a constable presented an account for allowance by the board of supervisors, made up of charges for official services claimed to have been rendered in criminal cases, verified by his affidavit, in which he swore that the account "was just and true, and that the same, or any part thereof, had not been paid." It was held that such affidavit was insufficient to establish the justness or correctness of the account, or to prove that it was a proper charge to be allowed and paid from the treasury of the county.

It may be shown by parol that allowances made by the board of commissioners on account of special contracts for work in the court-house and jail did not include a claim for repairs in the jail under a subsequent parol contract. De Kalb County v. Auburn Foundry, etc., Works, 14 Ind. App. 214, 42 N. E. 689.

Showing as to services included in prior account.— When an account has been presented against a county and allowed and paid, and thereafter the claimant presents a claim for fees for services apparently included in the first account, the claimant is not concluded thereby; but may show as a matter of fact what services were covered by the charges in the first account. Jefferson County Com'rs v. Patrick, 12 Kan. 605.

Waiver of hearing.— Where a claimant is asked to explain certain items and makes no request for a hearing thereon, he cannot afterward complain of not having been heard. People v. Saratoga County, 45 N. Y. App. Div. 42, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 1122.

3. People v. Cortland County, 15 N. Y. Suppl. 748.

4. People v. Herkimer County, 3 How. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 241.

affidavit,[5] unless they see fit so to do.[6] They are bound to give its proper effect to all testimony laid before them in the same manner in which courts and judicial bodies are expected to give effect to proofs in the course of justice.[7] Where claimant's counsel is permitted to examine witnesses and discuss the claim before a committee appointed by the board for audit it is discretionary with the board whether the counsel shall be permitted to make an argument before it.[8]

(II) Opposition and Defenses to Claim. Any resident taxpayer has the right to oppose in a proper manner the allowance of a claim against a county before the board of commissioners.[9] A county board cannot offset against a meritorious claim[10] the amount of a claim allowed claimant by a former board and paid, on the ground of the erroneous allowance of the first claim.[11]

(III) Reference For Trial. As the filing of a claim does not constitute an action, there can be no reference thereof for trial.[12]

(IV) Reconsideration. A county board has not the power after it has passed on a claim presented to it, and after the term at which its decision was rendered has closed, to reconsider and set it aside;[13] but it has during its meeting full control over its actions upon claims presented to it during its session,[14] and may set aside or reconsider the same when found to have been erroneous.[15]

3. Decision — a. Necessity For. A county tribunal to whom claims have been properly presented are bound to come to a decision upon the merits of each claim, or distinctly record the fact that they reject it as not properly admissible, so as to enable the party to obtain a judicial decision whether they are bound to consider it,[16] and mandamus will lie to compel such action on their part in case of

5. In re Lanehart, 32 N. Y. App. Div. 4, 52 N. Y. Suppl. 671.

Requirement of further testimony.—The law of South Carolina does not require the board of county commissioners to demand further proof of a claim presented against the county, where the proof submitted does not satisfy them of the correctness of the claim. The proviso to S. C. Gen. Stat. § 623, is permissive only. Tinsley v. Union County, 40 S. C. 276, 18 S. E. 794; Green v. Richland County, 27 S. C. 9, 2 S. E. 618. A committee of a board of supervisors, to which has been referred a sheriff's bills, in passing upon the same may rely on the knowledge of its individual members, and on information received from persons having knowledge of the subject, and are not bound to swear witnesses, if they can acquire information without so doing. People v. Saratoga County, 45 N. Y. App. Div. 42, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 1122.

6. People v. Ingham County, 38 Mich. 658.

7. Hickey v. Oakland County, 62 Mich. 94, 28 N. W. 771; People v. Manistee County, 26 Mich. 422.

8. People v. Fulton County, 74 Hun (N. Y.) 251, 26 N. Y. Suppl. 610.

9. State v. White Pine County, 22 Nev. 80, 35 Pac. 485.

10. A county court cannot, it has been held, pay off or take assignments of claims against a creditor of the county and set off the same against his demand, in the absence of statute authorizing such procedure. Idaho Bank v. Malheur County, 30 Oreg. 420, 45 Pac. 781, 35 L. R. A. 141.

11. Cuming County v. Thiele, 48 Nebr. 888, 67 N. W. 883.

12. Gilmore v. Putnam County, 35 Ind. 344.

13. Alabama.—Commissioners' Ct. v. Moore, 53 Ala. 25.

Arkansas.— Kersh v. Lincoln County, 36 Ark. 589.

Illinois.— Cook County v. Ryan, 51 Ill. App. 190.

Indiana.— Lyons v. Miller, 17 Ind. 250.

Mississippi.— Arthur v. Adam, 49 Miss. 404.

Missouri.— State v. Cooper County Ct., 17 Mo. 507.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 325.

In Arkansas county courts are empowered to review all allowances made at previous terms. Desha County v. Newman, 33 Ark. 788.

14. People v. Stocking, 50 Barb. (N. Y.) 573, 32 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 48, 6 Park. Crim. (N. Y.) 263.

15. Dean v. Saunders County, 55 Nebr. 759, 76 N. W. 450; People v. Broome County, 65 N. Y. 222; People v. Saratoga County, 45 N. Y. App. Div. 42, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 1122; Appel v. State, 9 Wyo. 187, 61 Pac. 1015. And see People v. Manistee County, 33 Mich. 497.

Effect of order of disallowance after reconsideration.— Where an order disallowing a claim against a county has been reconsidered, such order of disallowance will not operate as an adjudication of the claim. Dean v. Saunders County, 55 Nebr. 759, 76 N. W. 450.

Notice of reconsideration is waived by the appearance of counsel for the claimant and the obtaining of a postponement by him. State v. Bausbausen, 49 Nebr. 558, 68 N. W. 950.

16. Hickey v. Oakland County, 62 Mich. 94, 28 N. W. 771; People v. Manistee County, 26 Mich. 422.

refusal.[17] They cannot make it a condition precedent to such action that the claimant release all errors in a case in which the county has obtained judgment against him,[18] or refuse to act on a claim properly presented, because it had been formerly rejected because not properly presented.[19]

b. Requisites. It is not essential, or according to some decisions even proper, for the board to enter a formal judgment as in courts of law; but it will be sufficient if it appear that the claim was duly presented and was allowed or rejected.[20] In order, however, to render counties liable on claims against them, such claims must be audited and allowed at an authorized term of the commissioners' court,[21] each item must be passed on separately,[22] the bill or claim must receive the assent of a majority of the members of the board,[23] the precise amount allowed must be stated,[24] and the allowance of the claim should be spread upon the record.[25] Where the extent of the power of a board is to determine on the 17. Ex p. Taylor, 5 Ark. 49; People v. San Francisco, 11 Cal. 42; People v. Cortland County, 15 N. Y. Suppl. 748; People v. Delaware County, 9 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 408; Weldy v. Hocking County, 8 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 767, 9 Cinc. L. Bul. 313.

Such a writ does not, however, control or prescribe the mode or determine the result of their action. People v. San Francisco, 11 Cal. 42; People v. Oneida County, 24 Hun (N. Y.) 413; People v. Delaware County, 9 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 408.

18. Ex p. Taylor, 5 Ark. 49.

19. Smith v. San Bernardino County, 99 Cal. 262, 33 Pac. 1094.

Effect of mandamus compelling inclusion of claim in tax estimate.— The allowance of a writ of mandamus to compel a county board to include relator's claim in its estimate of the taxes to be levied for the ensuing year is not necessarily an adjudication that a definite sum is due from the county to relator, in view of the fact that the statute contemplates that the estimate shall be made before the allowance of claims against the county, and the drawing of warrants in payment of the same. State v. Baushausen, 49 Nebr. 558, 68 N. W. 950.

20. Black v. Saunders County Com'rs, 8 Nebr. 440, 1 N. W. 144.

What amounts to rejection.— A statement by the board that they would not allow the claim nor make any record of its rejection or allowance amounts to a rejection. Nickeus v. Lewis County, 23 Wash. 125, 62 Pac. 763.

Adoption of report advising rejection amounts to a disallowance. Warner v. Outagamie County, 19 Wis. 611. See also Adams v. Wheatfield, 46 N. Y. App. Div. 466, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 738.

Allowance of physician's claim for services at inquest.— The making and filing with the county auditor of a fee bill, by a justice of the peace acting as coroner, for the expenses of an inquest held by him, which included an item in favor of a physician, is a sufficient allowance of the physician's claim. Bradley v. Delaware County, 54 Iowa 137, 6 N. W. 175.

Allowance of several claims at one vote.— Under a statute providing that every ordinance or resolution, etc., providing for the expenditure of public moneys in sums exceeding five hundred dollars shall be published before final action upon the same, the board of supervisors may at one vote allow several claims against the city and county without passing an ordinance, even if the aggregate of the demands exceeds five hundred dollars, provided each claim is for less than five hundred dollars. Sweeny v. Maynard, 52 Cal. 468.

Disallowance of single item.— In People v. Orleans County, 16 Misc. (N. Y.) 213, 38 N. Y. Suppl. 890, it was held that an examination of the various items of an account and the disallowance of a single item is an audit of the account.

Inclusion of claim in assessment roll.—Under a statute requiring the board of supervisors to include in the assessment roll such claims as are allowed by them, the inclusion of a claim in such roll constitutes an audit thereof, although it was included without investigation, and while an appeal was pending from its allowance by a town board. Adams v. Wheatfield, 46 N. Y. App. Div. 466, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 738.

21. Wightman v. Karsner, 20 Ala. 446.

22. People v. Westchester County, 57 N. Y. App. Div. 135, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 981; People v. Fulton County, 74 Hun (N. Y.) 251, 26 N. Y. Suppl. 610; Taylor v. Salt Lake County, 2 Utah 405.

Disallowance of similar claims as a whole. — Items of a sheriff's account which are of the same character may be grouped together and disallowed as a whole by the board of supervisors. People v. Saratoga County, 45 N. Y. App. Div. 42, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 1122.

23. State v. Rogers, 107 Ala. 444, 19 So. 909, 32 L. R. A. 520; Rice v. Plymouth County, 43 Iowa 136.

Claim marked "allowed" by one with consent of all.— In Griggs v. Kimball, 42 Iowa 512, where a claim against the county was examined by the board of supervisors and marked "allowed" by one of them, with the knowledge and consent of all, in accordance with the usual course of business of the board, it was held that the allowance was legal and bound the county, although no formal vote was taken or appeared of record.

24. Spring Valley Water Works v. Ashbury, 52 Cal. 126.

25. Speed v. Cocke, 57 Ala. 209.

Registry of claims allowed.— By Ala. Rev.

validity of claims presented, they have no authority to determine out of what fund such claims are to be paid, and any such judgment is a nullity.[26]

c. Discretionary Powers of Tribunals — (i) In General. The power of county boards or courts to audit and allow accounts, claims, and demands against the county, being conferred by statute, must be exercised according to law;[27] but they are ordinarily empowered to exercise a reasonable legal discretion in allowing or rejecting claims which are legitimate charges against the county, but the compensation for which is not fixed by statute, nor even expressly provided for;[28] and a court of equity will not interfere with their action in the allowance or rejection of claims, unless fraud or corruption be shown, or they have undertaken to allow a claim not of a character to be paid by the county.[29] They cannot, however, refuse to allow legal claims at the amount fixed by law;[30] and where county boards are required by statute to audit and allow accounts of public officers, they have no discretion to exercise, but must allow the salary as fixed by law.[31] So also where a statute authorizes a county board to audit and pay certain claims against the county, such provision has been held to be mandatory in its operation and as leaving no discretion with the board as to its action;[32] nor can the board

Code, § 907, "every claim, or such part thereof as is allowed must be registered in a book kept for that purpose," etc. Commissioners' Ct. v. Moore, 53 Ala. 25, 27.

26. Cuthbert v. Lewis, 6 Ala. 262. And See White v. Hayden, 126 Cal. 621, 59 Pac. 118.

27. Garfield County v. Leonard, 3 Colo. App. 576, 34 Pac. 583; Warren County v. Klein, 51 Miss. 807.

28. Colorado.— Roberts v. People, 9 Colo. 458, 13 Pac. 630; Garfield County v. Leonard, 3 Colo. App. 576, 34 Pac. 583.

Indiana.— Rothrock v. Carr, 55 Ind. 334; Carroll County v. Richardson, 54 Ind. 153. See also Marion County v. Reissner, 58 Ind. 260.

Iowa.— Whicher v. Cedar County, 1 Greene 217.

Maine.—Bangor v. Penobscot County Com'rs, 87 Me. 294, 32 Atl. 903.

Michigan.— People v. Ingham County, 38 Mich. 658.

Minnesota.— Gerken v. Sibley County, 39 Minn. 433, 40 N. W. 508; Fuller v. Morrison County, 36 Minn. 309, 30 N. W. 824.

New York.— People v. Oneida County, 24 Hun 413; People v. Haws, 34 Barb. 69, 21 How. Pr. 117; Chase v. Saratoga County, 33 Barb. 603; People v. Webb, 21 N. Y. Suppl. 298; People v. St. Lawrence County, 30 How. Pr. 173; People v. Dutchess County, 9 Wend. 508.

Ohio.—Handy v. Hamilton County, 1 Disn. 263, 12 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 611.

Pennsylvania.—Butz v. Fayette County, 168 Pa. St. 464, 32 Atl. 28; Parker v. Lancaster County, 1 Watts & S. 460.

Texas.— Parker County v. Courts, 2 Tex. Unrep. Cas. 398.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 318.

Audit of services of de facto officer.—When a coroner is given a certificate of election by the supervisors, and performs the duties of the office, but is afterward ousted by another candidate, the board may properly allow his account for services and disbursements while holding the office. Deane v. Greene County, 66 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 461.

Disallowance of claim for gratuitous services.— As no compensation is provided for services rendered in aiding the prosecuting attorney to examine the reports of county commissioners, said services must be regarded as gratuitous, and no claim for compensation can be enforced; hence the county board may properly disallow a claim therefor. Anderson v. Jefferson County, 25 Ohio St. 13. See also to same effect McClave v. Miller, 25 Ohio St. 14.

29. Fitzgerald v. Harms, 92 Ill. 372; People v. Oneida County, 24 Hun (N. Y.) 413.

30. People v. Manistee County, 26 Mich. 422; People v. Delaware County, 9 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 408; People v. St. Lawrence County, 30 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 173.

Fees for summoning witnesses for the grand jury are part of the public expense of carrying on the circuit court, and are payable out of the county treasury, upon the certificate of the circuit court in which the expenses occur, and the county court has no authority to reject or reduce a claim for such expenses so authenticated. Jefferson County v. Hudson, 22 Ark. 595.

31. People v. Stout, 23 Barb. (N. Y.) 338; Morris v. People, 3 Den. (N. Y.) 381.

32. People v. Livingston County, 68 N. Y. 114; People v. Erie County, Sheld. (N. Y.) 517; People v. St. Lawrence County, 30 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 173, 181, where it is said: "In settling the amount, if it is for any matter the price of which is fixed by law, by custom, by authority, or by contract, with one having authority to contract on behalf of the county, the board have no discretion. It must settle or declare the amount according to such law, custom, authority or contract; but if the amount is for any matter which does not come within either of said classes, the board in settling or fixing amounts is vested with a discretion, and acts in the light in passing upon claims against the county attach conditions precedent to their allowance and payment.[33]

(II) Claim Not Legally Chargeable to County. A county board or court has no power to audit and allow accounts not legally chargeable to the county,[34] or which grow out of contracts which the county is not authorized to make.[35] The discretion given to such bodies to make allowances means that they may exercise a legal (and not a personal) discretion in making such allowances as are authorized by law,[36] and the allowance of a claim which is not legally enforceable imports no acknowledgment of liability of the county thereon,[37] and will neither bind nor estop the county.[38] Furthermore a court of equity will restrain the allowance by a county board of a claim, the payment of which will be in violation of law and the rights of the plaintiff and other taxpayers.[39]

(III) Effect of Lack of Funds. The fact that there is no appropriation to pay a claim or that there are no funds in the treasury to meet necessary expenses does not justify a refusal to audit, approve, and allow a claim;[40] this merely justifies non-payment.[41]

C. Effect of Decision — 1. On County — a. In General. In some jurisdictions it is held that a county board in passing upon claims against the county does not necessarily act in a judicial capacity, but merely in an executive or ministerial capacity as agents of the county, and their allowance of claims, while prima facie evidence of their correctness, will not constitute an adjudication binding on the county.[42] In others, however, it is held that a county board or court, in passing of such information as it may possess or seek, or as may be furnished to it by claimants."

33. Henderson v. Pueblo County, 4 Colo. App. 301, 35 Pac. 880; People v. Livingston County, 68 N. Y. 114.

34. Alabama.— Jack v. Moore, 66 Ala. 184.

California.— Linden v. Case, 46 Cal. 171.

Colorado.— Garfield County v. Leonard, 3 Colo. App. 576, 34 Pac. 583.

Indiana.— Gross v. Whitley County, 158 Ind. 531, 64 N. E. 25, 58 L. R. A. 394; State v. Monroe County, 158 Ind. 102, 62 N. E. 1000; Rothrock v. Carr, 55 Ind. 334; Huntington County v. Buchanan, 21 Ind. App. 178, 51 N. E. 939.

Iowa.— Foster v. Clinton County, 51 Iowa 541, 2 N. W. 207.

Louisiana.— Beauregard v. East Baton Rouge Parish, 28 La. Ann. 306.

Michigan.— People v. Manistee County, 26 Mich. 422.

Mississippi.— Bridges v. Clay County, 57 Miss. 252; Warren County v. Klein, 51 Miss. 807.

Missouri.— Hooper v. Ely, 46 Mo. 505.

New York.— Richmond County v. Ellis, 59 N. Y. 620; People v. Lawrence, 6 Hill 244.

Ohio.— Jones v. Lucas County, 57 Ohio St. 189, 48 N. E. 882, 63 Am. St. Rep. 710; State v. Griggsy, 8 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 616, 6 Ohio N. P. 202.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 319.

35. English v. Chicot County, 26 Ark. 454; Gemmill v. Arthur, 124 Ind. 258, 25 N. E. 283; Waymire v. Powell, 105 Ind. 328, 4 N. E. 886; Miller v. Embree, 88 Ind. 133; People v. Stout, 13 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 314.

36. Rothrock v. Carr, 55 Ind. 334.

37. Peoria County v. Rocke, 65 Ill. 77; People v. Green, 2 Thomps. & C. (N. Y.) 23.

38. Alabama.—Commissioners' Ct. v. Moore, 53 Ala. 25.

Arkansas.— Desha County v. Newman, 33 Ark. 788.

Colorado.— Roberts v. People, 9 Colo. 458, 13 Pac. 630; Garfield County v. Leonard, 3 Colo. App. 576, 34 Pac. 583.

Indiana.— Gross v. Whitley County, 158 Ind. 531, 64 N. E. 25, 58 L. R. A. 394.

Ohio.—Richardson v. State, 66 Ohio St. 108, 63 N. E. 593.

United States.—Sbirk v. Pulaski County, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,794, 4 Dill. 202.

Amount of fees limited by statute.—Where the fees of county officers are definitely fixed by law their audit by the county board is a ministerial and not a judicial duty, and the board cannot allow more than the statute provides for. State v. Roderick, 25 Nebr. 629, 41 N. W. 404.

39. Peter v. Prettyman, 62 Md. 566; Wilson v. Wallace, 64 Miss. 13, 8 So. 128; White v. Multnomah County, 13 Oreg. 317, 10 Pac. 484, 57 Am. Rep. 20.

40. People v. Earle, 47 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 370; People v. New York County, 21 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 322 [affirmed in 22 How. Pr. 71]. But see Clark v. Greer County, 8 Okla. 425, 58 Pac. 639, holding that county commissioners have no authority to allow warrants as a claim against the county, there being no fund from which they can be paid, as the existence of such a fund is a necessary prerequisite to the allowance of a claim.

41. People v. Earle, 47 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 370.

42. Alabama.—Commissioners' Ct. v. Moore, 53 Ala. 25.

Indiana.— Huntington County v. Heaston, 144 Ind. 583, 41 N. E. 457, 43 N. E. 651, 55 Am. St. Rep. 192; De Kalb County v. Auburn upon claims or demands which they have jurisdiction to hear and determine, act judicially, or at least in a quasi-judicial capacity, and their allowance and settlement in such cases have the force of judgments and are conclusive upon the county,[43] in the absence of fraud or mistake,[44] and unless reversed or vacated in the manner provided by law.[45] Such allowance is conclusive upon the board[46] and their successors;[47] and the officer whose duty it is to pay the claim or draw a Foundry, etc., Works, 14 Ind. App. 214, 42 N. E. 689; Jackson County v. Nichols, 12 Ind. App. 315, 40 N. E. 277, 54 Am. St. Rep. 528.

Kansas.— Leavenworth County Com'rs v. Keller, 6 Kan. 510.

North Carolina.— Abernathy v. Phifer, 84 N. C. 711.

Virginia.— Board of Sup'rs v. Calett, 86 Va. 158, 9 S. E. 999.

United States.— Gurnee v. Brunswick County, 11 Fed. Cas. No. 5,872, 1 Hughes 270; Shirk v. Pulaski County, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,794, 4 Dill. 209.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 322 et seq.

43. California.— Alameda County v. Evers, 136 Cal. 132, 68 Pac. 475; McBride v. Newlin, 129 Cal. 36, 61 Pac. 577; McFarland v. McCowen, 98 Cal. 329, 33 Pac. 113; Placer County v. Campbell, (1886) 11 Pac. 602; Colusa County v. De Jarnett, 55 Cal. 373; El Dorado County v. Elstner, 18 Cal. 144; Knox v. Woods, 8 Cal. 545.

Illinois.— Cook County v. Ryan, 51 Ill. 190.

Kentucky.— Boone County v. Dills, 5 Ky. L. Rep. 135.

Mississippi.— Carroll v. Board of Police, 28 Miss. 38.

Nebraska.— Taylor v. Davey, 55 Nebr. 153, 75 N. W. 553; Trites v. Hitchcock County, 53 Nebr. 79, 73 N. W. 215; State v. Vincent, 46 Nebr. 408, 65 N. W. 50; Heald v. Polk County, 46 Nebr. 28, 64 N. W. 376; Sioux County v. Jameson, 43 Nebr. 265, 61 N. W. 596; State v. Churchill, 37 Nebr. 703, 56 N. W. 484; Ragoss v. Cuming County, 36 Nebr. 375, 54 N. W. 683; State v. Buffalo County, 6 Nebr. 454; Brown v. Otoe County Com'rs, 6 Nebr. 111.

New York.— People v. Stout, 23 Barb. 349, 4 Abb. Pr. 22, 13 How. Pr. 314; Onondaga County v. Briggs, 2 Den. 26.

South Carolina.— State v. Appleby, 25 S. C. 100; State v. Kirby, 17 S. C. 563; Richland County v. Miller, 16 S. C. 236.

Washington.— State v. Headlee, 19 Wash. 477, 53 Pac. 948; State v. Headlee, 17 Wash. 637, 50 Pac. 493; Dillon v. Whatcom County, 12 Wash. 391, 41 Pac. 174. Compare Ferry v. King County, 2 Wash. 337, 26 Pac. 537.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 322 et seq.

By auditing a portion of bills for expenses incurred by a county officer, the board thereby concedes their necessity, and gives the act of the officer incurring the same the effect of being made with the board's prior authority. People v. Cayuga County, 22 Misc. (N. Y.) 816, 50 N. Y. Suppl. 16.

Presumpton as to compliance with conditions.— Where a claim has been allowed by county commissioners, it is presumed that the commissioners have investigated as to whether claimant has complied with all statutory requirements. State v. Headlee, 18 Wash. 220, 51 Pac. 369.

Although a claim is of doubtful validity the county court may allow it. State v. Ferriss, (Tenn. Ch. App. 1899) 56 S. W. 1039.

44. California.— El Dorado County v. Elstner, 18 Cal. 144.

Missouri.— Phelps County v. Bishop, 68 Mo. 250, may be collaterally attacked for fraud.

New York.— Staten Island Bank v. New York, 68 N. Y. App. Div. 231, 74 N. Y. Suppl. 284.

Ohio.— Ridenour v. State, 14 Ohio Cir. Ct. 393, 7 Ohio Cir. Dec. 481; Weldy v. Hocking County, 8 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 767, 9 Cinc. L. Bul. 313; State v. Griggsy, 8 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 616, 6 Ohio N. P. 202.

Pennsylvania.— Bradford County v. Horton, 6 Lack. Leg. N. 306.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 322.

45. Carroll v. Board of Police, 28 Miss. 38; Gage County v. Hill, 52 Nebr. 444, 72 N. W. 581; Sioux County v. Jameson, 43 Nebr. 265, 61 N. W. 596.

46. Prebels v. Chism, 5 T. B. Mon. (Ky.) 158; People v. Green, 64 Barb. (N. Y.) 162.

Effect of act authorizing disallowance.— In State v. Cathers, 25 Nebr. 250, 41 N. W. 182, it was held that whatever effect the Nebraska statute of 1879, which authorizes the disallowance of claims after they are allowed, may have, it can only apply to claims allowed since the act took effect, and cannot destroy vested rights in claims allowed before the act took effect.

No review after roll signed and warrant delivered.— In People v. Rensselaer County, 34 Hun (N. Y.) 266, it was held that a county board cannot review an audit after the roll has been signed and the warrants delivered.

47. People v. Green, 64 Barb. (N. Y.) 162; Chenango County v. Birdsall, 4 Wend. (N. Y.) 453; Northampton County v. Yohe, 24 Pa. St. 305; State v. Kirby, 17 S. C. 563. In State v. Richland County, 28 S. C. 258, 5 S. E. 622, a claim was presented to a board of county commissioners and disallowed, and no appeal was taken. The same claim was then presented to a succeeding board who refused to consider it because already passed upon. It was held that claimant was not entitled to a writ of mandamus to compel this latter board to consider this claim, it having been already passed upon.

warrant therefor cannot lawfully refuse so to do,[48] unless the board allows a claim in excess of its jurisdiction.[49] In order that the allowance shall have a binding effect the claim must be of a nature which the board may lawfully allow. The audit and allowance of illegal claims is not binding on the county.[50]

b. Recovery Back of Money Paid.[51] A county may recover back money paid on claims audited and allowed by the board, if the allowance was made through fraud or mistake of fact;[52] and where claims are not legally chargeable against a county, and in allowing and auditing the same county boards or courts exceed their jurisdiction, their action is not conclusive and the money paid may be recovered back by action.[53] The payment of such a claim so audited is not a voluntary payment by the county, but an unauthorized act of its agents.[54] Where, however, money is voluntarily paid, with a knowledge of all the facts, and is not procured by fraud or false representation, it cannot be recovered back, although the money was not due or owing.[55] Money allowed and paid by the county under a mistake of law cannot be recovered back;[56] nor can money be recovered back by the 48. California.— McFarland v. McCowan, 98 Cal. 329, 33 Pac. 113.

Colorado.— Beeney v. Irwin, 6 Colo. App. 66, 39 Pac. 900.

Georgia.— State v. Bell, 9 Ga. 334; Coleman v. Neal, 8 Ga. 560.

New York.— People v. Edmonds, 15 Barb. 529; People v. Gallup, 12 Abb. N. Cas. 64, 65 How. Pr. 108; People v. Fitzgerald, 54 How. Pr. 1.

Texas.— Callaghan v. Salliway, 5 Tex. Civ. App. 239, 23 S. W. 837.

Washington.— State v. Headlee, 19 Wash. 477, 53 Pac. 948.

Wisconsin.— State v. Richter, 37 Wis. 275.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 323.

Conclusive on auditors as to value of services.— The allowance of a claim for services is conclusive on the auditor of the rendition and value of the services. Lamberson v. Jefferds, 118 Cal. 363, 50 Pac. 403.

49. Walton v. McPhetridge, 120 Cal. 440, 52 Pac. 731; Merriam v. Yuba County, 72 Cal. 517, 14 Pac. 137; Linden v. Case, 46 Cal. 171.

50. Richmond County v. Ellis, 59 N. Y. 620.

Compromise ineffectual.— A county board cannot bind the county by allowing and ordering an illegal claim to be paid, and a compromise of such claim is of no effect. Endion Imp. Co. v. Evening Telegram Co., 104 Wis. 432, 80 N. W. 732.

Part payment of an illegal demand will not estop the county from denying its liability for the balance of such claim. Gill v. Appanoose County, 68 Iowa 20, 25 N. W. 908.

51. See, generally, PAYMENT.

52. Marion County v. Phillips, 45 Mo. 75; New York County v. Tweed, 13 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 152.

53. Kansas.— Jefferson County v. Patrick, 12 Kan. 605.

Nevada.— State v. Washoe County Com'rs, 14 Nev. 66.

New York.— Richmond County v. Ellis, 59 N. Y. 620; Richmond County v. Van Clief, 1 Hun 454, 3 Thomps. & C. 458; Chemung Canal Bank v. Chemung County, 5 Den. 517; People v. Lawrence, 6 Hill 244.

Ohio.— Richardson v. State, 66 Ohio St. 108, 63 N. E. 593; Higgins v. Logan County, 62 Ohio St. 621, 57 N. E. 504; Jones v. Lucas County, 57 Ohio St. 189, 48 N. E. 882, 63 Am. St. Rep. 710; Logan County v. Easton, 6 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 333.

Oregon.— Union County v. Hyde, 26 Oreg. 24, 37 Pac. 76; Grant County v. Sels, 5 Oreg. 243.

South Carolina.— Richland County v. Miller, 16 S. C. 236.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 324.

54. Richmond County v. Ellis, 59 N. Y. 620.

Not a payment under mistake of law.— In some jurisdictions it is held that payment under an allowance of claims made by the board of county commissioners in defiance of a positive statute is not a payment by the county within the rule that a payment under mistake of law cannot be recovered. Huntington County v. Heaston, 144 Ind. 583, 41 N. E. 457, 43 N. E. 651, 55 Am. St. Rep. 192. And see Jones v. Lucas County, 57 Ohio St. 189, 48 N. E. 882, 63 Am. St. Rep. 710.

55. Randall v. Lyon County, 20 Nev. 35, 14 Pac. 583; Onondaga County v. Briggs, 2 Den. (N. Y.) 26; Macon County v. Jackson County, 75 N. C. 240 (even though there was in fact no debt); Ottawa County v. Auditor, 5 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 597, 7 Ohio N. P. 400.

Excessive allowances and overcharges for fees of officers.— Where one board of commissioners allows and pays duly itemized and verified accounts of a county officer for services in the line of official duty, for which no specified fees are allowed by law, a subsequent board cannot recover back from such officer the whole sum so paid him, on the ground that it was for overcharges and paid by mistake, in the absence of fraud on his part in obtaining payment. Garfield County v. Leonard, 3 Colo. App. 576, 34 Pac. 583. See also Scioto County v. Gherky, Wright (Ohio) 493, holding that a county cannot recover overcharges for fees of officers in the absence of fraud.

56. Boone County v. Dils, 5 Ky. L. Rep. 686; Scioto County v. Gherky, Wright (Ohio) county merely because there has been an abuse of discretionary power by the board in auditing and allowing the claim.[57]

2. On Claimant — a. Rejection of Claim. In some jurisdictions it is held that where the allowance of a claim or the fixing of compensation is a matter left to the exclusive discretion of a county board or court, the decision of such tribunal is conclusive upon the claimant.[58] So also where it is the duty of county boards to audit and allow such fees of officers as are legal, and order them paid from the county treasury their decision is final. The law gives no appeal therefrom and the officer cannot create one by suit to recover his claim.[59] Where, however, the nature of a claim is not such as to give a county board or court absolute discretion in passing upon it, their action in rejecting the same in whole or in part is not final and conclusive so as to prevent the claimant from obtaining relief thereupon by appeal from the decision or by action on the claim against the county.[60] In the case of a partial allowance, however, the claimant should notify the board of his unwillingness to accept the amount allowed.[61]

b. Allowance of Claim. Suit cannot be maintained against a county on a claim which has been audited and allowed,[62] but the proper remedy of the holder in such case is by mandamus to compel the levy of a tax or against the treasurer

493; Ottawa County v. Auditor, 5 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 597, 7 Ohio N. P. 400. And see supra, note 55.

57. Garfield County v. Leonard, 3 Colo. App. 576, 34 Pac. 583.

58. Colorado.— Arapahoe County v. Graham, 4 Colo. 201.

Illinois.— See Tazewell County v. McEnrow, 5 Ill. App. 496.

Kansas.— Linton v. Linn County Com'rs, 7 Kan. 79.

Michigan.— Stamp v. Cass County, 47 Mich. 330, 11 N. W. 183.

New York.— Martin v. Greene County, 29 N. Y. 645; Adams v. Oswego County, 66 Barb. 368; Chase v. Saratoga County, 33 Barb. 603; Boyce v. Cayuga County, 20 Barb. 294; Brady v. New York, 2 Sandf. 460 [affirmed in 10 N. Y. Suppl. 260]; Erhard v. Kings County, 36 N. Y. Suppl. 656; People v. Herkimer County, 3 How. Pr. N. S. 241.

Ohio.— Geauga County Com'rs v. Ranney, 13 Ohio St. 388.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 326 et seq.

59. Sterling v. Cumberland County, 91 Me. 316, 39 Atl. 1003.

60. Arizona.— Smith v. Mojave County, (1885) 5 Pac. 160.

California.— Arbios v. San Bernardino County, 110 Cal. 553, 42 Pac. 1080; Price v. Sacramento County, 6 Cal. 254.

Colorado.— Gunnison County v. McCormick, 1 Colo. App. 319, 29 Pac. 25.

Illinois.— Tazewell County v. McEnrow, 5 Ill. App. 496.

Iowa.— Garber v. Clayton County, 19 Iowa 29; Marvin v. Fremont County, 11 Iowa 463.

Missouri.— Boggs v. Caldwell County, 28 Mo. 586.

Montana.— Davis v. Lewis, etc., County, 4 Mont. 292, 1 Pac. 750.

Nebraska.— Jarvis v. Chase County, (1902) 89 N. W. 624.

Ohio.— Clermont County Com'rs v. Robb, Wright 48, 5 Ohio 490.

South Carolina.— Wheeler v. Newberry County, 18 S. C. 132.

Virginia.— Dinwiddie County v. Stuart, 28 Gratt. 526.

Wisconsin.— Conover v. Washington County, 5 Wis. 438.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 326.

Refusal to audit unitemized claim.— The refusal of a county board of supervisors to entertain a claim against the county, the statement of which is not properly itemized as required by Wis. Rev. Stat. § 677, until such statement is amended, is not such a disallowance of the claim as may be appealed from to the circuit court. Miller v. Crawford County, 106 Wis. 210, 82 N. W. 175.

Sufficient evidence of refusal.— Where the record of the county board as kept by the clerk shows the proper presentation of a claim and that the board refused to grant it, this will be enough to authorize an appeal by the claimant. Black v. Saunders County Com'rs, 8 Nebr. 440, 1 N. W. 144.

Where a resolution to disallow is tabled this is not such an order of disallowance as can be appealed from. Tazewell County v. McEnrow, 5 Ill. App. 496.

61. Arbios v. San Bernardino County, 110 Cal. 553, 42 Pac. 1080.

62. Commissioners' Ct. v. Moore, 53 Ala. 25; Elmore County v. Long, 52 Ala. 277; Covington County v. Dunklin, 52 Ala. 28 [overruling Randolph County v. Hutchins, 46 Ala. 397]; Marshall County v. Jackson County, 36 Ala. 613.

For remedies of holders of county warrants or orders issued on audit and allowance of claims see supra, IX, D, 10.

Insufficient allowance to bar action.—Where the statute authorizing the issuance of bonds provides for their payment by levying a special tax and creating a special fund, the allowance by the county board and audit of a claim on a judgment on such bonds, as payable out of the general fund, is not an allowance in the manner and to the extent to

if he fails without sufficient excuse to make payment.[63] The allowance of a claim which had formerly been disallowed and on which a suit is pending bars further proceedings in the suit.[64]

c. Effect of Acceptance of Partial Allowance. An acceptance by a claimant of the amount allowed by a county board with notice of the rejection of the residue is a bar to a suit to recover all that may have been due, and a waiver of the right to appeal from the action of the board.[65] A further recovery will not be precluded, however, where the claimant accepts part payment of his claim with no notice of the rejection of the residue,[66] or where he accepts part payment and there is no dispute as to the facts and no agreement that it shall be in full.[67]

D. Proceedings to Obtain Relief From Action of Board — 1. By Claimant — a. In Case of Total or Partial Rejection of Claim — (I) Jurisdictions in Which Remedy by Action Is Exclusive. In some jurisdictions it is held that a board of county commissioners is not such a judicial tribunal that its decision in passing upon claims against the county can be reviewed on appeal, but the proper remedy to test the validity of a rejected claim is by civil action.[68] which the holder is entitled, and he is not precluded from maintaining an action on the judgment because another remedy is prescribed by statute to enforce payment of claims allowed and audited. Vincent v. Lincoln County, 62 Fed. 705.

(II) Jurisdictions in Which Appeal[69] and Action Are Concurrent Remedies. In many of the states the right of appeal from the decision of a county tribunal, rejecting a claim in whole or in part, expressly provided for by statute is not an exclusive but a concurrent remedy, and does not operate as a bar to the right to maintain an independent action against the county at law or in equity.[70]

63. Commissioners' Ct. v. Moore, 53 Ala. 25; Elmore County v. Long, 52 Ala. 277.

64. Jeffersonian Pub. Co. v. Hilliard, 105 Ala. 576, 17 So. 112.

Matters not included in claim.— The allowance or rejection by a county board of a claim against the county will not, however, bar a recovery for matters not included in the claim. De Kalb County v. Auburn Foundry, etc., Works, 14 Ind. App. 214, 42 N. E. 689.

65. Alabama.— Looney v. Jackson County, 105 Ala. 597, 17 So. 105.

Arizona.—Yavapai County v. O'Neill, (1892) 29 Pac. 430.

Colorado.— La Plata County v. Morgan, 28 Colo. 322, 65 Pac. 41.

Idaho.— Clyne v. Bingham County, (1900) 60 Pac. 76; Eakin v. Nez Perces County, 4 Ida. 131, 36 Pac. 702.

Iowa.— Brick v. Plymouth County, 63 Iowa 462, 19 N. W. 304 [distinguishing Fulton v. Monona County, 47 Iowa 622]; Harding v. Montgomery County, 55 Iowa 41, 7 N. W. 396; Wapello County v. Sinnaman, 1 Greene 413.

Michigan.— Browne v. Livingston County, 126 Mich. 276, 85 N. W. 745.

New York.—People v. Hamilton County, 56 Hun 459, 10 N. Y. Suppl. 88; People v. Queens County, 33 Hun 305; Chase v. Saratoga County, 33 Barb. 603.

Oklahoma.— Cleveland County v. Seawell, 3 Okla. 281, 41 Pac. 592.

Contra.—Belle v. Waupaca County, 62 Wis. 214, 22 N. W. 398. For rule under previous statute see Pulling v. Columbia County, 3 Wis. 337.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 327.

An agreement between the claimant and the board that his acceptance of an allowance of his claim in part shall not affect his right to sue for the amount disallowed is void. Yavapai County v. O'Neill, (Ariz. 1892) 29 Pac. 430.

66. Fulton v. Monona County, 47 Iowa 622.

67. People v. Hamilton County, 56 Hun (N. Y.) 459, 10 N. Y. Suppl. 88.

68. McMillan v. Robeson County, 90 N. C. 28; Jones v. Franklin County, 88 N. C. 56.

In Alabama, by the code, suit against a county is prohibited until the claim has been disallowed in whole or in part, but if a statute creating a claim against the county provides no remedy for its enforcement, a suit against the county is the proper remedy. Lowndes County v. Hunter, 49 Ala. 507; Montgomery County v. Barber, 45 Ala. 237; Antauga County v. Davis, 32 Ala. 703.

69. For appeal generally see Appeal and Error.

70. Colorado.—Wasson v. Hoffman, 4 Colo. App. 491, 36 Pac. 445; Park County v. Locke, 2 Colo. App. 508, 31 Pac. 351; Pitkin County v. Brown, 2 Colo. App. 473, 31 Pac. 525.

Dakota.— Spencer v. Sully County, 4 Dak. 474, 33 N. W. 97.

Idaho.— Ada County v. Gess, 4 Ida. 611, 43 Pac. 71.

Illinois.— Grundy County v. Hughes, 8 Ill. App. 34.

Iowa.—Curtis v. Cass County, 49 Iowa 421; Armstrong v. Tama County, 34 Iowa 309; State v. Floyd County Judge, 5 Iowa 380; Wapello County v. Sinnaman, 1 Greene 413.

(III) Jurisdictions in Which Appeal[71] or Certiorari[72] Are Exclusive Remedies. In other jurisdictions where a county board or court has rejected a claim properly before them, in whole or in part, the only remedy is by appeal[73] or by certiorari.[74]

(IV) Appellate Procedure[75] — (A) Parties. The right of appeal from a decision auditing, settling, and directing the payment of demands against the county only extends to such persons as may have an interest in the claim and who feel aggrieved by the allowance or rejection of their demand. It has no reference to the citizens of a county who are not interested in the allowance of the claim.[76] It has been held in one jurisdiction that the county cannot be made Kansas.— Leavenworth County Com'rs v. Brewer, 9 Kan. 307.

Kentucky.— Washington County Ct. v. Thompson, 13 Bush 239; Boone County v. Dils, 5 Ky. L. Rep. 135.

Minnesota.— Gutches v. Todd County, 44 Minn. 383, 46 N. W. 678; Murpby v. Steele County Com'rs, 14 Minn. 67.

Mississippi.— Taylor v. Marion County, 51 Miss. 731; Yalabusha County v. Carbry, 3 Sm. & M. 529.

Missouri.— Reppy v. Jefferson County, 47 Mo. 66.

Montana.— Greeley v. Cascade County, 22 Mont. 580, 57 Pac. 274.

Nevada.— Waitz v. Ormsby County, 1 Nev. 370.

Wyoming.— Boswell v. Albany County, 1 Wyo. 235.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 328.

In Indiana under the act of 1852 if a claim was disallowed by the county board the claimant might appeal, or at his option bring suit against the county. Fulton County v. Maxwell, 101 Ind. 268; Jameson v. Bartholomew County, 64 Ind. 524; Blackford County v. Shrader, 36 Ind. 87; Bartholomew County v. Wright, 22 Ind. 187; Decatur County v. Wheeldon, 15 Ind. 147. This act was, however, repealed by the law of 1879 providing that no court should have jurisdiction except on appeal from the decision of the board. Fulton County v. Maxwell, 101 Ind. 268; State v. Washington County, 101 Ind. 69; Jackson County v. Applewhite, 62 Ind. 464. Since the later statute of 1885, however, a party aggrieved by the decision of the board may appeal or bring an action against the county. Myers v. Gibson, 152 Ind. 500, 53 N. E. 646; Myers v. Gibson, 147 Ind. 452, 46 N. E. 914; Bass Foundry, etc., Works v. Parke County, 141 Ind. 68, 32 N. E. 1125; Allen County v. Creviston, 133 Ind. 39, 32 N. E. 735 (applies to actions in tort as well as in contract); Maxwell v. Fulton County, 119 Ind. 20, 23, 19 N. E. 617, 21 N. E. 453; Posey County v. Stock, 11 Ind. App. 167, 33 N. E. 928.

In Ohio if the claim is based on statute the remedy by appeal is exclusive; if founded on contract, the party has a concurrent remedy either by appeal or action. Belmont County Com'rs v. Ziegelhofer, 38 Ohio St. 523; State v. Hamilton County, 26 Ohio St. 364; Shepard v. Darke County, 8 Ohio St. 354; Stewart v. Logan County, 2 Ohio Cir. Ct. 134.

In Virginia when the claim duly presented to the board of supervisors has been rejected in whole or in part by the board, such disallowance shall be final, and a perpetual bar to any such claim, unless an appeal be taken, or the board consent to the institution of an action against the county, provided, however, that when the board of supervisors shall refuse or neglect to act upon any claim duly presented to them, the statute shall not be so construed as to prevent the institution of an action by such claimant. Prince George County v. Atlantic, etc., R. Co., 87 Va. 283, 12 S. E. 667.

71. For certiorari generally see CERTIORARI.

72. For appeal generally see APPEAL AND ERROR.

73. Fuller v. Colfax County, 33 Nebr. 716, 50 N. W. 1044; Richardson County v. Hull, 24 Nebr. 536, 39 N. W. 608; Dixon County v. Barnes, 13 Nebr. 294, 13 N. W. 623; State v. Furnas County, 10 Nebr. 361, 6 N. W. 434; Black v. Saunders County Com'rs, 8 Nebr. 440, 1 N. W. 144; State v. Buffalo County, 6 Nebr. 454; Brown v. Otoe County Com'rs, 6 Nebr. 111; Jennings v. Abbeville County, 24 S. C. 543; Civic Federation v. Salt Lake County, 22 Utah 6, 61 Pac. 222.

As to appeal from decisions of county board see supra, IV, C, 9, h, (v).

74. Foy v. Westchester County, 168 N. Y. 180, 61 N. E. 172 [affirming 60 N. Y. App. Div. 412, 69 N. Y. Suppl. 887]; Adams v. Wheatfield, 46 N. Y. App. Div. 466, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 738.

75. For appeal generally see APPEAL AND ERROR.

76. Hudson v. Jefferson County Ct., 28 Ark. 359 [following Chicot County v. Tilghman, 26 Ark. 461].

Appeal by district attorney on demand of taxpayer.— Since S. D. Comp. Laws, § 610, authorizing the district attorney to appeal to the circuit court from the action of the county commissioners on claims against the county when seven taxpayers of the county demand it, does not require that such demand shall recite that those who sign it are taxpayers, it will be presumed in the absence of proof to the contrary that persons signing such demand are taxpayers of the county. Lyman County v. Lyman County Com'rs, 14 S. D. 341, 85 N. W. 597.

Manner of docketing appeal from order of allowance.— On an appeal by one to the circuit court from an order of a county board allowing a claim filed by another before said a party, and that it is improper to join it with the board, as it can only be proceeded against by an action under the provisions of statutes authorizing suits against counties.[77]

(B) Transcript. On failure to file a transcript as required by statute, containing notice of appeal, the order or decision appealed from, and the accounts, bills, contracts, or papers connected therewith and necessary to a proper hearing, an appeal should be dismissed.[78]

(C) Pleadings. The proceedings on appeal must be substantially for the claim presented to the commissioner.[79] And in some jurisdictions it is held that the statement ought to contain the substantial requisites of a complaint.[80] In one jurisdiction on appeal from the disallowance of a claim it is held that the appeal must be heard upon the original papers without pleading.[81] In another the verified claim or account is to be treated as the complaint, and the order or vote of the board disallowing the same as the answer.[82] And in another no judgment can be rendered on appeal from an order disallowing a claim, unless formal pleadings are filed.[83] A formal complaint when required need not allege a demand upon the county.[84] If no formal pleadings are required, the county in the absence of such pleadings may make the same defense as an individual could, and avail itself of any counter-claim or set-off it may have against the claimant.[85]

(D) Hearing and Determination. On appeal from a decision of a county board in respect to a claim presented for allowance there is a hearing de novo on the merits.[86] A court may dismiss an appeal from the allowance by a county board of a claim against the county, if it be shown that the appeal was not taken in good faith.[87] So where the parties have acted upon the theory that issues should be made, if the appellant after a demurrer has been sustained to all the paragraphs of his answer except one, withdraws his remaining answer and declines to plead further, the court may dismiss the appeal and give judgment for the appellee without hearing evidence.[88] In jurisdictions where appeal is the only remedy, where an appeal from an adverse decision of a claim is dismissed in the board, the cause should be docketed in the circuit court in the names of the claimant and appellant, the former as plaintiff and the latter as defendant. Ralston v. Radcliff, 34 Ind. 513. Where an appeal is taken by a district attorney under S. D. Comp. Laws, § 610, the cause should be docketed in the circuit court in the name of the claimant against the county, and not in the name of the county against the commissioners. Lyman County v. Lyman County Com'rs, 14 S. D. 341, 85 N. W. 597.

77. Gorman v. Boise County, 1 Ida. 627.

78. Clyne v. Bingham County, 7 Ida. 75, 60 Pac. 76.

79. Orange County v. Hon, 87 Ind. 356; Thomas v. Scott County Com'rs, 15 Minn. 324.

80. Orange County v. Hon, 87 Ind. 356.

Very little formality in pleading is required, however, and a succinct and detailed statement of the claim will be sufficient. Gibson County v. Emmerson, 95 Ind. 579; Jay County v. Gillum, 92 Ind. 511; Taylor v. Bosworth, 1 Ind. App. 54, 27 N. E. 115.

A defective statement on appeal may be amended. Orange County v. Hon, 87 Ind. 356.

81. Stewart v. Logan County, 2 Ohio Cir. Ct. 134.

82. Tarbox v. Adams County Sup'rs, 34 Wis. 558.

The court may, however, at its discretion permit or require more formal pleadings to be filed (Baker v. Columbia County Sup'rs, 39 Wis. 444; Tarbox v. Adams County Sup'rs, 34 Wis. 558. See also Eaton v. Manitowoc County Sup'rs, 49 Wis. 668); and where this is done a formal complaint filed by the plaintiff must be treated on demurrer as in other cases and nothing considered except that which appears or is referred to within it (Smith v. Barron County, 44 Wis. 686).

83. Box Butte County v. Noleman, 54 Nebr. 239, 74 N. W. 582.

84. Smith v. Barron County, 44 Wis. 686.

85. Jefferson County Com'rs v. Patrick, 12 Kan. 605.

86. See supra, IV, C, 9, h, (V), (G), (I).

87. Gage County v. George E. King Bridge Co., 58 Nebr. 827, 80 N. W. 56.

The motion to dismiss, if based on occurrences subsequent to the appeal, or on the ground that the appeal is for corrupt purposes, will be entertained at any time during the proceedings before the trial on the merits, and after, if the reasons for the motion were not discovered before, and any delay in the presentment of the motion before trial will not constitute its waiver, unless it appears that the delay was without excuse. Gage County v. George E. King Bridge Co., 58 Nebr. 827, 80 N. W. 56.

88. Taylor v. Bosworth, 1 Ind. App. 54, 27 N. E. 115.

district court, such judgment is a final disposition of the suit unless reversed on error in the supreme court.[89]

(E) Effect of Judgment on the Merits. Where a court decides against allowance of a claim on appeal from the decision of the board in respect thereto, this puts an end to the claim.[90]

(V) Procedure by Action— (A) Statutes of Limitation.[91] Where a claimant may waive an appeal from the decision of a county board upon his claim and sue direct in the circuit court such action need not be brought within the time prescribed for taking the appeal.[92] In some jurisdictions, where it is a condition precedent to an action against the county on an unliquidated claim that the same shall be first presented to the county board or court for allowance, the statute commences to run against the claim from the time it accrued and not from the date of presentation.[93] In other jurisdictions a claim will be barred unless an action be brought thereon within a certain time after it has been rejected by the county commissioners.[94] An acknowledgment of a claim or waiver of prescription by a county or parish officer will not operate as an interruption of prescription unless it be shown that he was duly authorized to make such waiver.[95]

(B) Pleadings— (1) Petition, Declaration, or Complaint.[96] According to the weight of authority, where it is necessary to present a claim against a county for allowance before suit can be brought thereon, the complaint, declaration, or petition in such suit must allege such presentation,[97] within the time prescribed,[98]

89. Richardson County v. Hull, 24 Nebr. 536, 39 N. W. 608.

90. State v. Benson, 70 Ind. 481.

91. For statutes of limitation generally see Limitations of Actions.

92. Posey County v. Stock, 11 Ind. App. 167, 36 N. E. 928.

93. Noel Young Bond, etc., Co. v. Mitchell County, 21 Tex. Civ. App. 638 54 S. W. 284. In Baker v. Johnson County, 43 Iowa 645, the board of supervisors employed an agent to procure and furnish proof of the character of its swamp lands and secure compensation therefor from the general government. It was held that his cause of action against the county for services accrued, not at the time when the county received its scrip, but at the time of the completion of his work under the contract, and that his right of action was barred in five years from that time.

94. Apache County v. Barth, (Ariz. 1898) 53 Pac. 187 (applies to open unliquidated accounts and not to warrants); Honea v. Monroe County, (Miss. 1894) 15 So. 789.

Rejection of claim before passage of statute of limitations.— Under a statute requiring actions on rejected claims to be commenced within six months after the first rejection, a claim rejected before the passage of the act is barred if no action is commenced thereon within six months after its passage. Greeley v. Cascade County, 22 Mont. 580, 57 Pac. 274.

95. Hynes v. Police Jury, 22 La. Ann. 71.

96. For form of complaint held sufficient in respect to allegations of presentment see Rhoda v. Alameda County, 69 Cal. 523, 11 Pac. 57.

97. Alabama.—Schroeder v. Colbert County, 66 Ala. 137; Autauga County v. Davis, 32 Ala. 703.

California.—Rhoda v. Alameda County, 52 Cal. 350, 69 Cal. 523, 11 Pac. 57.

Georgia.— Maddox v. Randolph County, 65 Ga. 216.

Iowa.— Bibbins v. Clark, 90 Iowa 230, 57 N. W. 884, 59 N. W. 290, 29 L. R. A. 278.

Mississippi.— Lawrence County v. Brookhaven, 51 Miss. 68.

North Carolina.— Jones v. Bladen County, 73 N. C. 182; Love v. Chatham County Com'rs, 64 N. C. 706.

Texas.— Hohman v. Comal County, 34 Tex. 36.

Utah.—Fenton v. Salt Lake County, 4 Utah 466, 11 Pac. 611.

West Virginia.—Chapman v. Wayne County Ct., 27 W. Va. 496.

Contra.— Gibson County v. Tichenor, 129 Ind. 562, 29 N. E. 32; Hancock County v. Leggett, 115 Ind. 544, 18 N. E. 53; Mullen v. Decatur County, 9 Ind. 502; Gillett v. Lyon County Com'rs, 18 Kan. 410.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 356.

Effect of allegation of presentation and part payment.— An allegation in a complaint in an action against a county that the claim sued on was presented to the county court for payment, and that subsequently a part of the amount claimed was paid thereon, does not render the complaint demurrable, by raising a presumption that such payment was made or accepted in full of the claim. Flagg v. Marion County, 31 Oreg. 18, 48 Pac. 693.

Limitations of rule.— When, however, a claim against the county is not allowed for the reason that it is not a charge against the county, and its form and proper presentation is not questioned, it has been held that it is not necessary for the complaint to allege that the requirements of the statute as to form of claim and proper presentation thereof has been complied with. Taylor v. Canyon County, 7 Ida. 171, 61 Pac. 521.

98. Maddox v. Randolph County, 65 Ga. 216.

and must show that the claim was itemized and verified as required.[99] It will not be sufficient to allege generally that the claim was duly presented and rejected.[1]

(2) ANSWER.[2] In a suit against a county board for services an answer alleging that the plaintiff has presented his claim to the board and has appealed from their rejection of the same, and that the appeal is still pending, must show the perfecting of such appeal according to the statute.[3] In an action against a police jury, where the jury are only nominal defendants and the taxpayers are the real parties in interest, they will not be held to allegations made erroneously in the answer by the police jury.[4]

(c) Evidence.[5] As a usual rule the records of a county court or board where such were made are the only admissible evidence of their judicial acts in passing upon claims against a county, and parol evidence is inadmissible to vary the same. In order to show that the legal requirements as to the presentation of an itemized and verified statement of a claim before bringing suit against a county have been complied with, such statement may be read in evidence in such a suit.[7] In an action against a county to recover the amount of a claim which has been presented to the county board but, it is alleged, has neither been allowed nor disallowed, the original bill filed with the county board is not of itself evidence of any fact tending to support the cause of action.[8]

(D) Judgment.[9] Where a suit is brought for work and labor done for the county, a judgment by default against the county should show that the amount was to be collected only from the property of the county.[10] Where the complaint alleges that the claim has been presented to the court of county commissioners as required by statute, and disallowed, and judgment is entered on default, it is not necessary that the judgment recite that proof was made of such presentation and refusal, as by default the county admitted the truth of the allegations.[11] The rule that a party cannot split up his cause of action applies to a claim against a county, and if upon an allowance by a county board of a part of his claim a claimant sues and recovers judgment upon a portion of the original claim, the judgment in the first suit is when properly pleaded a bar to further proceedings to enforce the

99. Washington County v. Porter, 128 Ala. 278, 29 So. 185; Schroeder v. Colbert County, 66 Ala. 137; Billings First Nat. Bank v. Custer County, 7 Mont. 464, 17 Pac. 551; Rice v. Schuylkill County, 14 Pa. Co. Ct. 541.

1. Rhoda v. Alameda County, 52 Cal. 350.

2. For pleadings generally see PLEADING.

3. Morgan County v. Holman, 34 Ind. 256.

Necessity for verification.— Such an answer, and also an answer that said claim has been presented by the plaintiff to said board for allowance and is still pending before the board, are answers in abatement, and must be verified by affidavit. Morgan County v. Holman, 34 Ind. 256.

4. Brown v. Police Jury, 4 La. Ann. 180.

5. For evidence generally see EVIDENCE.

6. McHaney v. Marion County, 77 Ill. 488.

An agreement of accord and satisfaction which has been performed between a county board representing the county and those having claims against the county may be proven by parol evidence, in the absence of any written record of minutes of the county board of such agreement. Green v. Lancaster County, 61 Nebr. 473, 85 N. W. 439.

Promises of county attorney that county would pay a certain debt are not admissible in a suit upon such claim against the county. Holten v. Lake County, 55 Ind. 194.

Orders issued by township trustees for supplies to poor persons, while not conclusive upon them or the county, are admissible in evidence in support of claims against counties by persons furnishing such supplies in connection with proof aliunde that the supplies had actually been furnished to the persons named in such orders and that they were entitled thereto. Posey County v. Harlem, 108 Ind. 164, 8 N. E. 913.

Where a county warrant declared on and introduced in evidence shows on its face that it was issued on account of a claim bearing a certain number, a certified copy of such claim from the county records is admissible on behalf of the county as evidence of the date of the rendition of the services for which the claim was filed. Rollins v. Rio Grande County, 90 Fed. 575, 33 C. C. A. 181.

7. Winnebago County v. Rockford, 61 Ill. App. 656.

8. Jones v. Washburn County, 106 Wis. 391, 82 N. W. 286.

9. For judgments generally see JUDGMENTS.

10. Sybert v. Ellis, 3 Blackf. (Ind.) 229.

11. Washington County v. Porter, 128 Ala. 278, 29 So. 185.

claim as allowed by the board.[12] The validity of the judgment cannot be attacked in a collateral proceeding.[13] It has been held that the allowance of interest in a judgment on a claim due by a county is not a contract by the county to pay interest and does not violate a constitutional prohibition of the issuance by counties of any interest-bearing evidences of indebtedness.[14]

b. In Case of Failure to Act. In some jurisdictions where the auditing tribunal has failed or neglected to act upon a claim properly presented to it an action will lie against the county, where such action would have been proper in the case of the rejection of the claim in whole or in part;[15] and it will not be necessary for the claimant to apply for mandamus to compel the board to act.[16]

2. By County. A right of appeal is usually given to a county or a taxpayer thereof, from the allowance in whole or in part, of claims by its board, except where allowances are made for services voluntarily rendered or things voluntarily furnished to the county;[17] but this right of appeal does not prevent the mainte-

12. Zirker v. Hughes, 77 Cal. 235, 19 Pac. 423.

13. Lambeth v. De Bellevue, 24 La. Ann. 394.

14. Nevada County v. Hicks, 50 Ark. 416, 8 S. W 180, where it was held that under Mansf. Dig. §§ 4740, 4741, a decree against a county for a sum of money bears interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, although no interest is therein provided for.

15. Iowa.— Ferguson v. Davis County, 57 Iowa 601, 10 N. W. 906; White v. Polk County, 17 Iowa 413.

Kansas.— Gillett v. Lyon County Com'rs, 18 Kan. 410.

North Dakota.— Barrett v. Stutsman County, 4 N. D. 175, 59 N. W. 964.

Virginia.— Prince George County v. Atlantic, etc., R. Co., 87 Va. 283, 12 S. E. 667.

Wisconsin.— Hyde v. Kenosha County, 43 Wis. 129.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 328 et seq.

Although no hearing had on merits.— That a claim for damages against a county is refused payment by the ordinary, after having been presented to him within twelve months, is sufficient to allow suit in the superior court, although no hearing upon the merits of the claim was had before the ordinary. The ordinary has not exclusive jurisdiction of such cases. Cobb County v. Adams, 68 Ga. 51.

Necessity for proof of rejection or lapse of reasonable time.— Where the plaintiff failed to introduce evidence that his claim against the county had been rejected by its board of county commissioners, or that a reasonable time had elapsed for their action thereon, the court should have compelled such proof, and where the case went to the jury without it a new trial should have been granted. Rio Grande County v. Bloom, 14 Colo. App. 187, 59 Pac. 417.

Reference to attorney of board.— In Clay County v. Chickasaw County, 76 Miss. 418, 24 So. 975, after a claim against a county was presented by the claimant's attorney, it was referred by the board of supervisors to its attorney, who thereafter informed the claimant's attorney that he did not think the county was liable, and that claimant would have to bring suit, but no order of refusal to allow the claim was entered on the minutes of the board. It was held that it was sufficient evidence of a refusal, the statute only requiring an order of allowance to be entered on the minutes.

16. Barrett v. Stutsman County, 4 N. D. 175, 59 N. W. 964.

17. Arkansas.—St. Francis County v. Roleson, 66 Ark. 139, 49 S. W. 351.

Idaho.— Ada County v. Gess, 4 Ida. 611, 43 Pac. 71.

Indiana.— Myers v. Gibson, 147 Ind. 452, 46 N. E. 914; Gemmill v. Arthur, 125 Ind. 258, 25 N. E. 283; Vermillion County v. Potts, 10 Ind. 286; Wright v. Caskie, 26 Ind. App. 520, 60 N. E. 320; Barnhill v. Woodard, 26 Ind. App. 482, 59 N. E. 1085; Robbins v. Marshall County, 24 Ind. App. 341, 56 N. E. 729.

Iowa.— Garber v. Clayton County, 19 Iowa 29.

Kentucky.— Ohio County Ct. v. Newton, 79 Ky. 267.

Minnesota.— Ryan v. Dakota County, 32 Minn. 138, 19 N. W. 653.

Montana.— Twohy v. Granite County, 17 Mont. 461, 43 Pac. 494; State v. Minar, 13 Mont. 1, 31 Pac. 723.

Nebraska.— Shepard v. Easterling, 61 Nebr. 882, 86 N. W. 941; Gage County v. George E. King Bridge Co., 58 Nebr. 827, 80 N. W. 56; State v. Slocum, 34 Nebr. 368, 51 N. W. 969.

South Dakota.— Lyman County v. Lyman County Com'rs, 14 S. D. 341, 85 N. W. 597.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 329 et seq.

Appeal from separate items.— An appeal may be taken by a taxpayer from separate items of the allowance of a claim against a county without appealing from the whole allowance. Twohy v. Granite County, 17 Mont. 461, 43 Pac. 494.

Determination as to nature of decision and right of appeal.— Where an appeal is taken from an allowance made upon a claim for a certain sum of money presented to the board of county commissioners by the claimants, it is a question of law for the court to deter-

nance of a suit by a county to recover back money illegally paid by the fiscal agents of the county.[18]

E. Payment[19]— 1. In General. Where a claim against a county has been properly adjusted and allowed, and there is a balance in the treasury to be appropriated for such expenses, the proper county officer will be required to pay the same by mandamus.[20] Claims can as a rule only be paid out of the fund raised or appropriated for such purpose,[21] and no duty is imposed upon a county treasurer to pay claims before he has received moneys applicable to their payment.[22]

2. Necessity For Warrant or Order. The auditing and allowance of a claim against a county gives the holder thereof no lien upon or right to any money in the treasury or which may come into it, but it is the order or warrant which gives such right.[23] The legislature may, however, provide for the payment of claims upon the certificate of a county board without an order authorizing the treasurer to pay the same.[24]

3. Registration. In a number of the states claims against a county must be registered and numbered,[25] and where a statute providing for the registration and mine, after hearing all the facts, or after the facts are found, whether the decision appealed from was one which made an allowance for voluntary services within the discretion of the board, and from which no appeal would lie. Gemmill v. Arthur, 125 Ind. 258, 25 N. E. 283.

18. Ada County v. Gess, 4 Ida. 611, 43 Pac. 71; Meller v. Logan County, 4 Ida. 44, 35 Pac. 712; Sheibley v. Dixon County, 61 Nebr. 409, 85 N. W. 399.

19. Issue of bonds to pay claim.— Under the New York act relative to the indexing of deeds, etc., in the county of Kings, the expenses of the register are payable as a county charge, and if the county treasurer is without funds to pay a claim of this nature, he may raise the money necessary by the issue of county bonds, provided the total amount thereof does not exceed the amount appropriated or required to carry out the provisions of the act. Matter of Kenna, 91 Hun (N. Y.) 178, 36 N. Y. Suppl. 280.

20. People v. Earle, 46 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 267.

In Kentucky a creditor whose claim against the county is payable out of the county levy is not entitled to ten per cent damages against the sheriff for his failure to pay. Combs v. Crawford, 44 S. W. 358, 19 Ky. L. Rep. 1704.

Effect of delay in collection.— Where officers in charge of a county's finances delayed the collection of a claim against it, payable out of its funds for a certain year, they cannot take advantage thereof to oppose payment of the judgment based on such claim from funds on hand in a succeeding year intended for other purposes. Maxwell v. Bodie, 56 S. C. 402, 34 S. E. 692.

Where a deputy sheriff has bought with his own money a county claim which it was the duty of the sheriff to pay out of the county levy, it must be regarded as a payment of the claim by the deputy for his principal, and he is entitled to a credit therefor in his settlement with his principal. Moore v. Lawson, 102 Ky. 126, 42 S. W. 1136, 43 S. W. 409, 19 Ky. L. Rep. 1104.

21. Sherwood v. Connolly, 35 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 124.

As to payment from special funds see supra, IX, B, 1, b; IX, D, 6, b.

22. People v. Robinson, 76 N. Y. 422.

23. Humboldt County v. Churchill County Com'rs, 6 Nev. 30; Com. v. Buckwalter, 1 Chest. Co. Rep. (Pa.) 342.

As to county warrants and orders, their issuance, payment, etc., see supra, IX, D, 2 et seq.

24. Beally v. State, 9 Ga. 367.

Order or warrant as essential to refund of tax rebate.— Where the board of supervisors rebates a tax for any of the reasons named in Iowa Code, § 800, and the tax has been paid when such rebate is made, the county treasurer has no authority to refund such tax without an order to that effect from the board of supervisors. Whether a warrant from the auditor would not also be necessary quære. Crosby v. Flocte, 65 Iowa 370, 21 N. W. 682.

25. State v. Fisher, 30 La. Ann. 514; San Patricio County v. McClane, 44 Tex. 392; Clarke v. San Jacinto County, 18 Tex. Civ. App. 204, 45 S. W. 315.

Purpose and effect of registry.— Neither the registry by the treasurer of an account against the parish, nor its indorsement by him under the statute, amounts to the issuance of scrip or negotiable obligations of the parish. State v. Fisher, 30 La. Ann. 514, 518, where the court said: "The object of the registry and the manner of evidencing it is not that, but to enable the parish authorities to know the extent and character of its indebtedness, that they may make provision accordingly, as well as also to identify the claim with a view, as is evident from the latter clause of the statute, to its possible use in the payment of taxes, or its ready collection otherwise. But were it the issuance of such evidence of indebtedness as argued by the defendant, it is specifically authorized and required by the statute."

The officer to whom the claim is presented cannot refuse to register it on the ground that there is no money in the treasury (State v. Fisher, 30 La. Ann. 514), or on the ground that it has been paid in part by the state as payment of claims prohibits payment except in the number and date of presentation for registration, the holder of a claim cannot lawfully demand payment without complying with the law, and in a suit on a claim not so presented for registration that fact may be pleaded.[26]

4. PREFERRED CLAIMS. The payment of all ordinary claims against a county is subject to any specific appropriation and setting apart of the county revenues for any designated purpose, unless such appropriation interfere with some prior vested right to the revenue, and a legislature has the power to direct that certain claims against a county shall have a preference over all others which are not so situated as to give the holder a vested right to money in or to come into the treasury.[27]

5. PAYMENT IN DEPRECIATED WARRANTS. In paying claims against a county in county warrants, such warrants must in the absence of statute be considered as at par, and no allowance made because they are at a discount,[28] and it is sometimes expressly provided by statute that they cannot allow in warrants any greater sum for a claim against the county than the amount actually due thereon, dollar for dollar.[29]

6. INTEREST. A claim audited and allowed by a county tribunal does not bear interest from the day of its allowance nor from the day of its registration.[30] But where the county court under legislative authority assumes the liability of taxpayers for attorney's fees incurred in a suit by the taxpayers to defeat the collection of a tax on a subscription to railroad stock, and levies a tax for the payment of such fee, it cannot refuse to pay interest on the debt so assumed, on the ground that it is an ordinary appropriation not arising from contract.[31]

F. Compromise and Arbitration. As a general rule counties through their proper officers, usually the county board of supervisors or county court, have the power to compromise and settle disputed claims, etc.,[32] and judgments recovered in favor of the county,[33] and to submit to arbitration matters in controversy which might be the subject of a suit.[34] provided by statute (Gray v. Abbott, 130 Ala. 322, 30 So. 346).

26. San Patricio County v. McClane, 44 Tex. 392.

27. Humboldt County v. Churchill County Com'rs, 6 Nev. 30.

Allowance of diminished compensation raises no presumption of preference.— Where an act of the legislature required the recorder of a county to transcribe certain records, and allowed him less compensation therefor than was usually allowed, it raised no presumption that his claim for such compensation was to have preference over other claims against the county. People v. Williams, 8 Cal. 97.

28. Bauer v. Franklin County, 51 Mo. 205; Cleveland County v. Seawell, 3 Okla. 281, 41 Pac. 592. See also Foster v. Coleman, 10 Cal. 278.

The loss sustained by a creditor of a county by his discounting a valid claim against such county is not a county charge and he cannot by mandamus compel its allowance. People v. Ulster County, 43 Hun (N. Y.) 385.

29. Dorsey County v. Whitehead, 47 Ark. 205, 1 S. W. 97; Barton v. Swepston, 44 Ark. 437; Union County v. Smith, 34 Ark. 684; Goyne v. Ashley County, 31 Ark. 552; Crump v. Colfax County, 52 Miss. 107.

30. Vincent v. Gilmer, 51 Ala. 387; State v. Evans, 18 S. C. 137; Holmes v. Charleston County, 14 S. C. 146.

As to interest on warrants see supra, IX, D, 7.

A county treasurer is not required to pay interest on claims allowed by the fiscal court, where no provision has been made therefor. Cooper v. Wait, 51 S. W. 161, 21 Ky. L. Rep. 229.

31. Washington County Ct. v. McKee, 13 S. W. 909, 12 Ky. L. Rep. 102.

32. Mills County v. Burlington, etc., R. Co., 47 Iowa 66; Labette County v. Elliott, 27 Kan. 606; St. Louis, etc., R. Co. v. Anthony, 73 Mo. 431.

For compromises generally see COMPROMISE AND SETTLEMENT.

Compromise of claim pending appeal.— A board of county commissioners has power, in the absence of fraud or collusion, to compromise a disputed claim of the county after judgment and pending appeal, by the acceptance of less than the amount of the judgment. State v. Davis, 11 S. D. 111, 75 N. W. 897, 74 Am. St. Rep. 780.

Pending litigation involving title to swamp lands may be compromised by a county, and it cannot afterward set up the fact in order to defeat the compromise that the lands in controversy were swamp lands, and that it therefore had no power to convey them as provided by the terms of the compromise. Mills County v. Burlington, etc., R. Co., 47 Iowa 66.

33. Collins v. Welch, 58 Iowa 72, 12 N. W. 121, 43 Am. Rep. 111; Orleans County v. Bowen, 4 Lans. (N. Y.) 24.

34. Remington v. Harrison County Ct., 12 Bush (Ky.) 148; Chapline v. Overseers of Poor, 7 Leigh (Va.) 231, 30 Am. Dec. 504.

XI. ACTIONS.[35]

A. Capacity of County to Sue and Be Sued. At common law a county could neither sue nor be sued, and it is only by virtue of statutory authority that any action can be maintained either in its behalf or against it.[36] In most of the states at the present time counties are authorized to sue and be sued, either by express statute or by virtue of their character as political corporations or quasi-corporations.[37] The right to sue may be given without imposing the liability to

For arbitration generally see ARBITRATION AND AWARD.

35. For actions against counties: For torts see supra, VIII. On contract by contractor see supra, VI, L, 3. On contract by employee for dismissal see supra, VI, L, 2. On contract for services rendered see supra, VI, L, 1. On contract by subcontractor see supra, VI, L, 4.

For actions between counties to settle and determine boundaries see supra, III, B, 5, d.

For actions by counties on contracts see supra, VI, M.

For actions on the bonds of contractors see supra, VI, F, b.

For actions to enforce: Civil liabilities of members of county boards see supra, IV, C, 12, f. Claims against counties see supra, X, D, 1, a, (v). Liability of county officers on their official bonds see supra, IV, D, 8, d. (I). Payment of bonds issued by county see supra, IX, F, 12. Payment of county warrants see supra, IX, D, 10, b.

For adjustment of liabilities between new counties and counties from which territory was taken to create them see supra, III, C, 4, e. (I), (B).

For indictments of members of county boards see supra, IV, C, 13, b.

For proceedings for removal: Of county-seat see supra, IV, B, 5, c. Of members of county boards see supra, IV, C, 3, f.

36. Alabama.—Lowndes County v. Hunter, 49 Ala. 507.

California. — Whittaker v. Tuolumne County, 96 Cal. 100, 30 Pac. 1016; Hastings v. San Francisco, 18 Cal. 49; Hunsaker v. Borden, 5 Cal. 288, 63 Am. Dec. 130.

Colorado.— Phillips County v. Churning, 4 Colo. App. 321, 35 Pac. 918.

Connecticut.— Ward v. Hartford County, 12 Conn. 404; Lyon v. Fairfield County, 2 Root 30; Sheldon v. Litchfield County, 1 Root 158.

Georgia.— Talbot County v. Mansfield, 115 Ga. 766, 42 S. E. 72; Monroe County v. Flint, 80 Ga. 489, 6 S. E. 173.

Illinois.— Rock Island County v. Steele, 31 Ill. 543.

Louisiana.— McGuire v. Bry, 3 Rob. 196; St. Helena v. Fluker, 1 Rob. 389; Police Jury v. McDonough, 7 Mart. 8.

Massachusetts. — Hampshire County v. Franklin County, 16 Mass. 76; Hawkes v. Kennebeck County, 7 Mass. 461; Lincoln County v. Prince, 2 Mass. 544.

Mississippi.—Anderson v. State, 23 Miss. 459.

New Hampshire. — Plymouth v. Grafton County, 68 N. H. 361, 44 Atl. 523.

North Carolina.— Bell v. Johnston County, 127 N. C. 85, 37 S. E. 136.

Ohio.— Summers v. Hamilton County, 5 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 553, 7 Ohio N. P. 542.

South Carolina. — Wheeler v. Newberry County, 18 S. C. 132.

Washington.—Hoexter v. Judson, 21 Wash. 646, 59 Pac. 498.

United States.— Chicot County v. Sherwood, 148 U. S. 529, 13 S. Ct. 695, 37 L. ed. 546; Marion County v. McIntyre, 10 Fed. 543, 2 McCrary 143; Lyell v. St. Clair County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,621, 3 McLean 580.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 338.

An unorganized county cannot be sued, although attached to an organized county for judicial purposes, intended for the administration of the laws and the protection of its citizens. Brewster County v. Presidio County, 19 Tex. Civ. App. 638, 48 S. W. 213.

37. Alabama.— Lowndes County v. Hunter, 49 Ala. 507; Randolph County v. Hutchins, 46 Ala. 397.

California.— Price v. Sacramento County, 6 Cal. 254.

Georgia.— Harris County v. Brady, 115 Ga. 767, 42 S. E. 71; Justices Clark County Inferior Ct. v. Haygood, 15 Ga. 309.

Illinois. — Schuyler County v. Mercer County, 9 Ill. 20.

Indiana.— Blackwell v. Lawrence County, 2 Blackf. 143; Gibson County v. Harrington, 1 Blackf. 260.

Kentucky.— Lawrence County v. Chattaroi R. Co., 81 Ky. 225.

Missouri.— Lincoln County v. Magruder, 3 Mo. App. 314.

Nebraska.—Ayres v. Thurston County, 63 Nebr. 96, 88 N. W. 178.

North Carolina.—Winslow v. Perquimano County Com'rs, 64 N. C. 218.

Ohio.— State v. Piatt, 15 Ohio 15.

Oregon.— State v. Baker County, 24 Oreg. 141, 33 Pac. 530.

Pennsylvania.—Vankirk v. Clark, 16 Serg. & R. 286.

United States.—Vincent v. Lincoln County, 30 Fed. 749; May v. Mercer County, 30 Fed. 246; Hall v. El Dorado County, 24 Fed. 257; Nash v. El Dorado County, 24 Fed. 252; Lyell v. St. Clair County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,621, 3 McLean 580.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 338.

In Ohio the power to sue or the liability to be sued, with the single exception of the be sued,[38] and in some jurisdictions it has been held that, although not liable to suit,[39] a county may bring suit, although not expressly authorized so to do by statute on the ground that the right to sue is a power incident to such corporations and without which it could not carry out the powers given it.[40] Where there is no statutory authority for suits against counties, mandamus to the county board or court is the proper remedy to compel the payment of debts due from such county.[41]

B. In What Name Actions in Behalf of County Brought — 1. In Name of County Board or Designated Officers. In many jurisdictions counties as corporations are expressly authorized by constitutional or statutory provisions to bring suit in their corporate names.[42] In other jurisdictions suits in favor of the county must as a general rule be brought in the name of the county board,[43] power to sue for injury done to county property, extends only to actions arising upon contract and not upon tort. Hamilton County v. Noyes, 5 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 281, 4 Am. L. Rec. 216.

The levy court of Washington county, in the District of Columbia, if not a corporation in the full sense of the term, is a quasi-corporation, and can sue and be sued in regard to any matter in which by law it has rights to be enforced, or is under obligations which it refuses to fulfil. Washington County Levy Court v. Woodward, 2 Wall. (U. S.) 501, 17 L. ed. 851.

38. Ward v. Hartford County, 12 Conn. 404.

39. Taylor v. Salt Lake County Ct., 2 Utah 405.

40. Salt Lake County v. Golding, 2 Utah 319.

41. Lowndes County v. Hunter, 49 Ala. 507; Tarver v. Tallapoosa County, 17 Ala. 527; Taylor v. Salt Lake County Ct., 2 Utah 405.

42. California.— Solano County v. Neville, 27 Cal. 465; Smith v. Myers, 15 Cal. 33. And see Hedges v. Dam, 72 Cal. 520, 14 Pac. 133.

Georgia.— Bennett v. Walker, 64 Ga. 326. See also Jackson v. Dougherty County, 99 Ga. 185, 25 S. E. 625; Lumpkin County v. Williams, 89 Ga. 388, 15 S. E. 487.

Idaho.— U. S. v. Shoup, 2 Ida. (Hasb.) 493, 21 Pac. 656.

Iowa.— Cedar County v. Sager, 90 Iowa 11, 57 N. W. 634.

Kentucky.— Com. v. Tilton, 49 S. W. 2, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 1216.

Missouri.— Cole County v. Dallmeyer, 101 Mo. 57, 13 S. W. 687; State v. Rubey, 77 Mo. 610; Barry County v. McGlothlin, 19 Mo. 307.

North Carolina.— Tyrrel v. Simmons, 48 N. C. 187.

Oregon.— Weiss v. Jackson County, 9 Oreg. 470.

Pennsylvania.— Slegel v. Lauer, 148 Pa. St. 236, 23 Atl. 996, 15 L. R. A. 547 [affirming 10 Pa. Co. Ct. 347].

South Carolina.— Richland County v. Miller, 16 S. C. 236, 244; Greenville County v. Runion, 9 S. C. 1.

Texas.— McConnell v. Wall, 67 Tex. 323, 3 S. W. 287; De la Garza v. Bexar County, 31 Tex. 484.

Wyoming.— Sweetwater County v. Young, 3 Wyo. 684, 29 Pac. 1002.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 348.

Bills of interpleader if maintainable at all must be brought in the name of the county and not in the name of the judge of probate. Patrick v. Robinson, 83 Ala. 575, 2 So. 694.

Suits in the name of the chief justice for the benefit of the county are not authorized under a statute providing that suits by or against counties shall be in the name of or against the county. De la Garza v. Bexar County, 31 Tex. 484.

The fact that a prosecuting attorney instituted a suit for the benefit of the county in his own name instead of that of the county will not render the judgment void, where the county appeared at the trial by its commissioner. State v. Headlee, 18 Wash. 220, 51 Pac. 369.

Under direction of treasurer.— Under Tex. Rev. Stat. art. 995, it is made the duty of a county treasurer "to direct prosecutions according to law for the recovery of all debts that may be due his county and superintend the collection thereof," but under Tex. Rev. Stat. art. 1200, such suits should be brought in the name of the county. McConnell v. Wall, 67 Tex. 323, 325, 3 S. W. 287.

43. Illinois. — Rock Island County v. Steele, 31 Ill. 543.

Indiana.—Tipton County v. Kimberlin. 108 Ind. 449, 9 N. E. 407; Caldwell v. Fayette County, 80 Ind. 99; Franklin County v. McIlvain, 24 Ind. 382; Peirce v. Ruley, 5 Ind. 69; State v. Clark, 4 Ind. 315; Harper v. Ragan, 2 Blackf. 39; Gibson County v. Harrington, 1 Blackf. 260.

New York.— New York County v. Tweed, 13 Abb. Pr. N. S. 152; Weld v. Columbia County, 9 How. Pr. 315.

Ohio.— Perry County v. Newark, etc., R. Co., 43 Ohio St. 451, 2 N. E. 854; Hamilton County v. Noyes, 35 Ohio St. 201; State v. Pratt, 15 Ohio 15; Gallia County Com'rs v. Holcomb, 7 Ohio 232; State v. Zumstein, 4 Ohio Cir. Ct. 268; State v. Cappeller, 8 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 547, 8 Cinc. L. Bul. 311.

Wisconsin.— Oconto County v. Hall, 42 Wis. 59.

county court,[44] or other county officers who are the financial representatives of the county, where the cause of action arises out of a subject-matter within their control, as for instance a county ordinary,[45] or presidents of police boards.[46]

2. IN NAME OF STATE. Actions may sometimes, and in certain cases, be brought in the name of the state upon the relation of county officers or agents.[47]

C. In What Name Counties Sued. In some jurisdictions actions are expressly authorized against counties as corporate bodies and in their corporate names;[48] and where this is the case, an action cannot properly be brought against a county in the name of the commissioners,[49] and when so brought should be dismissed on motion.[50] In other jurisdictions the county board is the corporation, and actions against the county should be brought against the board[51] as a board

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 348 et seq.

Continuance of action in name of consolidated corporation.— New York County v. Tweed, 3 Hun (N. Y.) 682, 6 Thomps. & C. (N. Y.) 223.

44. Maury County v. Lewis County, 1 Swan (Tenn.) 236.

45. In Georgia suits in behalf of a county may be brought by the ordinary, and if during their pendency a board of commissioners are by law appointed for the county, the commissioners may by amendment be substituted in lieu of the ordinary. Cook v. Houston County, 54 Ga. 163.

46. Police Jury v. Mansura Corp., 107 La. 201, 31 So. 650.

Misnomer.— Where in an action which should have been brought against a county by its corporate name, the complaint names instead three of the commissioners of the county, the error has been held simply one of misdescription of parties defendant; it is a misnomer amenable at the trial if objected to, and to be disregarded both at the trial and on appeal when such objection is not taken (Anthony v. Bank of Commerce, 97 U. S. 374, 24 L. ed. 1060); but where, however, a county which has adopted township organization is sued by any other name than that of the board of supervisors contrary to express statutory provision, it has been held that it is error and that there is no necessity for a plea of misnomer as in ordinary cases (Rock Island County v. Steele, 31 Ill. 543).

47. Thus actions to recover moneys loaned from county funds, or money fraudulently obtained from the county treasury, may be upon the relation of the county board (State v. Clark, 4 Ind. 315; Hamilton County v. Noyes, 5 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 238, 3 Am. L. Rec. 745), or of the agent in charge of the funds (State v. Rush, 7 Ind. 221); and suits against a county treasurer individually for trust funds and state and other taxes may be on the relation of the county auditor, when ordered by the board of county commissioners (Tipton County v. Kimberlin, 108 Ind. 449, 9 N. E. 407; Caldwell v. Fayette County, 80 Ind. 99; Vanarsdall v. State, 65 Ind. 176; Franklin County v. McIlvain, 24 Ind. 382).

The county trustee, where there is one, is the proper relator in an action in the name of the state to recover moneys due to the county, except when he is a defaulter or when he refuses to proceed against defaulters. State v. Woodside, 31 N. C. 496.

48. Solano County v. Neville, 27 Cal. 465; Arnett v. Decatur County, 75 Ga. 782; Bennett v. Walker, 64 Ga. 326.

49. Weiss v. Jackson County, 9 Oreg. 470; Slegel v. Lauer, 148 Pa. St. 236, 23 Atl. 996, 15 L. R. A. 547 [affirming 10 Pa. Co. Ct. 347]; Wilson v. Huntingdon County Com'rs, 7 Watts & S. (Pa.) 197; De la Garza v. Bexar County, 31 Tex. 484.

The power given to a county board to defend on behalf of the county will not render the board liable to be sued directly for a claim against the county. Hastings v. San Francisco, 18 Cal. 49.

50. Arnett v. Decatur County, 75 Ga. 782.

51. Colorado.—Phillips County v. Churning, 4 Colo. App. 321, 35 Pac. 918.

Illinois.— Rock Island County v. Steele, 31 Ill. 543.

Indiana.— Gibson County v. Harrington, 1 Blackf. 260.

New York.— Doolittle v. Broome County, 18 N. Y. 155; Hill v. Livingston County, 12 N. Y. 52; Magee v. Cutler, 43 Barb. 239; Chase v. Saratoga County, 33 Barb. 603; Wild v. Columbia County, 9 How. Pr. 315.

Ohio.— State v. Piatt, 15 Ohio 15.

United States.— Lyell v. St. Clair County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,621, 3 McLean 580.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties, § 351.

In Georgia and Pennsylvania such actions were formerly required to be brought against the county board as the managers of the fiscal affairs of the county. Collins v. Hudson, 54 Ga. 25; Vankirk v. Clark, 16 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 286; Lyon v. Adams, 4 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 443.

In North Carolina there is no direction either in the constitution or statutes as to the name by which a county shall be sued. Anthony v. Bank of Commerce, 97 U. S. 374, 24 L. ed. 1060.

The board of justices in their corporate capacity may be sued under Ind. Rev. Code (1842), p. 86, for any legal demand against the county. Blackwell v. Lawrence County, 2 Blackf. (Ind.) 143.

Revivor against board of action against county court.—In Carson v. Cleaveland County Com'rs, 64 N. C. 566, it was held that the

and not against the individual members thereof.[52] Where it is thus provided that the name in which a county shall be sued shall be that of the board of county commissioners, a judgment for the plaintiff in a suit against the county is a nullity, and since the board is not a party to such suit it cannot be affected by the judgment, and a writ of error by such board will be dismissed.[53]

D. Statutes of Limitations.[54] Municipal corporations are not within the operation of the statute of limitations as respects public rights,[55] except under special circumstances which would make it highly inequitable or oppressive to enforce such public rights, in which case the court will interpose by holding the municipality estopped from so doing;[56] but in regard to contracts or mere private rights the statute is operative both in behalf of and against them;[57] and the exemption of the state as a sovereign power from the operation of statutes of limitations has been held not to extend to civil actions brought by a county or in the name of any officer or person for the benefit of a county.[58] Where the statute of limitations is expressly made applicable to the state it is applicable to the counties of the state and runs against the county.[59]

E. Jurisdiction[60] and Venue — 1. Actions by Counties. A county author-board of county commissioners is the successor, not the representative of the former county court, as regards matters of administration. Therefore a suit pending against the latter at the time of its dissolution cannot be revived against the former.

52. Hill v. Livingston County, 12 N. Y. 52; Magee v. Cutler, 43 Barb. (N. Y.) 239.

Designation of defendant.— In an action against a county the suit should be brought against "the board of supervisors" of the county; but when the action is against the supervisors, the suit should be brought against them individually, specifying their name of office. Wild v. Columbia County, 9 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 315. A complaint against the board of commissioners of D county is not bad for designating such board as "the commissioners of D county." De Kalb County v. Auburn Foundry, etc., Works, 14 Ind. App. 214, 42 N. E. 689. See also Fountain County v. Loeb, 68 Ind. 29. A suit against G, F, and W, described as commissioners of Portage county, is against them in their corporate capacity, not as individuals. Paine v. Portage County, Wright (Ohio) 417.

53. Phillips County v. Churning, 4 Colo. App. 321, 35 Pac. 918.

Corporate name of board as that of county. — Where a statute provides that a county must be known in suits as "The board of county commissioners of the county of ——," this must be regarded as the corporate name for the purpose of bringing suits, no other name being expressly designated by statute. Sweetwater County v. Young, 3 Wyo. 684, 29 Pac. 1002. And see Phillips County v. Churning, 4 Colo. App. 321, 35 Pac. 918.

54. For statutes of limitations generally see Limitations of Actions.

55. Catlett v. People, 151 Ill. 16, 37 N. E. 855; Logan County v. Lincoln, 81 Ill. 156; Pike County v. Cadwell, 78 Ill. App. 201.

Exemption only as to recovery of roads, streets, sidewalks, grounds, etc.— In Johnston v. Llano County, 15 Tex. Civ. App. 421, 39 S. W. 995, it was held that the right of a county to recover lands not acquired or used for public purposes may be barred by limitations, although the state is exempt from the operation of the statute, and the constitution recognizes counties as subdivisions of the state, since it also classifies them as municipal corporations, and such corporations are subject to limitations in such cases; and since Tex. Rev. Stat. (1895), art. 3351, exempting the state generally from the operation of the statute in suits to recover land, exempts counties from its operation only as to the right to recover any "road, street, sidewalk, or grounds."

Where funds involved in a controversy are in the nature of trust funds held by a county to be disposed of by it according to law, the statute of limitations is not available as a defense. Pike County v. Cadwell, 78 Ill. App. 201.

56. Piatt County v. Goodell, 97 Ill. 84.

57. Catlett v. People, 151 Ill. 16, 37 N. E. 855; Piatt County v. Goodell, 97 Ill. 84; Logan County v. Lincoln, 81 Ill. 156; Pike County v. Cadwell, 78 Ill. App. 201; Cross v. Grant County, 9 N. M. 410, 54 Pac. 880; Municipal Security Co. v. Baker County, 39 Oreg. 396, 65 Pac. 369; Shelby County v. Bickford, 102 Tenn. 395, 52 S. W. 772.

Statute applies to mandamus by county to compel clerk to perform the duties of reporting all the fees of his office and to pay into the treasury any excess over the amount he is entitled to retain. State v. Boyd, 49 Nebr. 303, 68 N. W. 510.

58. Armstrong v. Dalton, 15 N. C. 568.

59. Bannock County v. Bell, (Ida. 1901) 65 Pac. 710 [overruling Fremont County v. Brandon, 6 Ida. 482, 56 Pac. 264], holding that the statute of limitations runs against the county in a civil action brought by the county against an ex-clerk of the district court, who was ex officio auditor and recorder of such county for alleged fees and compensation collected by him from the county during his term of office.

60. For jurisdiction generally see Courts.

ized to bring suit may resort to any court having jurisdiction of the subject-matter in the county where the defendant resides.[61]

2. Actions Against Counties — a. In General. As a general rule all suits against a county must be brought in the courts of the defendant county.[62] Courts of other counties have no jurisdiction in the absence of a statute conferring it,[63] and it does not follow that because counties may bring a suit in another county that the same rule may be applied to them when defendant.[64]

b. Federal Jurisdiction. Where a state law declares a county to be a corporation with power to sue or be sued in any court within the state, a county is subject to suit in the United States courts.[65] A state statute requiring all persons having claims against a county to present the same to the county court for allowance does not deprive non-resident creditors of their right to sue the county in a federal court, when the amount is sufficient to invoke the jurisdiction of such court.[66]

3. Change of Venue.[67] When an action against a county has been brought in the proper court of such county it may like all civil actions be removed by a change of venue to the court of another county, where the statutory causes authorizing it are alleged to exist.[68]

61. Dandurand v. Kankakee County, 196 Ill. 537, 63 N. E. 1011 [affirming 96 Ill. App. 464].

62. Illinois.— McBane v. People, 50 Ill. 503; Kane County v. Young, 31 Ill. 194; Randolph County v. Ralls, 18 Ill. 29; Schuyler County v. Mercer County, 9 Ill. 20.

Missouri.— Givens v. Daviess County, 107 Mo. 603, 17 S. W. 998.

North Carolina. — Henderson County v. Rutherford County, 70 N. C. 657; Steele v. Rutherford County Com'rs, 70 N. C. 137; Jones v. Bladen County, 69 N. C. 412; Alexander v. McDowell County Com'rs, 67 N. C. 330; Johnston v. Cleaveland County, 67 N. C. 101.

Pennsylvania. — Lehigh County v. Kleckner, 5 Watts & S. 181.

Texas.—Austin City Nat. Bank v. Presidio County, (Civ. App. 1894) 26 S. W. 775.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 345.

A proceeding by mandamus is a suit within the meaning of a statute requiring all suits against a county to be brought in the circuit court of the county being sued. McBane v. People, 50 Ill. 503. See also Woodman v. Somerset County Com'rs, 24 Me. 151.

By the Arkansas act of Feb. 27, 1879, the Arkansas legislature expressly repealed all laws declaring counties to be corporations and forbade suits against them except in the county court. Shaver v. Lawrence County, 44 Ark. 225. In Griffith v. Sebastian County, 49 Ark. 24, 3 S. W. 886, it was held that this act does not apply to a cause of action in equity which had already accrued; and as the county court has no equity jurisdiction such a suit may be brought in the circuit court of the county sued.

Minn. Laws (1860), p. 132, § 8, confers jurisdiction upon the district court of all actions against a county. Bingham v. Winona County, 6 Minn. 136.

Under Nebr. Comp. Stat. (1899) c. 18, art. 1, § 37, the jurisdiction of the district court to hear and determine actions for the enforcement of claims against counties arising ex contractu is derivative, and not original. Shepard v. Easterling, 61 Nebr. 882, 86 N. W. 941.

The superior court of the city of Buffalo had jurisdiction of an action against the board of supervisors of Erie county, where the summons was served upon the chairman or clerk of the board in that city. Buffalo, etc., R. Co. v. Erie County, 48 N. Y. 93.

Jurisdiction of justices of the peace.—Gammon v. Lafayette County, 79 Mo. 223; Floral Springs Water Co. v. Rives, 14 Nev. 431; Paine v. Portage County, Wright (Ohio) 417.

63. Lehigh County v. Kleckner, 5 Watts & S. (Pa.) 181; Austin City Nat. Bank v. Presidio County, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 26 S. W. 775.

In Nevada it has been held that a statute providing that actions against counties may be commenced in the district court of the judicial district embracing said county does not preclude the bringing of such an action in another judicial district subject to defendant's right to a change of venue, which right may be waived by appearance and answer without objection to the jurisdiction. Clarke v. Lyon County, 8 Nev. 181.

In New York it has been held that an attachment will be granted in a proper case against a county of another state which is made capable by statute of suing and being sued. Van Horn v. Kittitas County, 46 N. Y. App. Div. 623, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 1150 [affirming 28 Misc. 333, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 883].

64. Lehigh County v. Kleckner, 5 Watts & S. (Pa.) 181.

65. Floyd County v. Hurd, 49 Ga. 462, 15 Am. Rep. 682; McLean v. Hamilton County, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 8,881.

66. Thompson v. Searcy County, 57 Fed. 1030, 6 C. C. A. 674 [following Chicot County v. Sherwood, 148 U. S. 529, 13 S. Ct. 695, 37 L. ed. 546].

67. For change of venue generally see Venue.

68. McBane v. People, 50 Ill. 503.

F. Process.[69] The officers of a county upon whom process shall be served is a matter of statutory regulation and varies in the different states;[70] thus there are provisions which make it necessary to serve process on the clerk of the county board;[71] on the clerk of the county court;[72] on the county judge;[73] on a majority of the county commissioners;[74] on the president of the county board;[75] or on the parish police jury.[76] The fact that a county officer who, as a ministerial officer, was merely a nominal party in an injunction suit, was not served with process, and did not appear in the suit, will not render the judgment void, where the real party in interest appeared and litigated the issues.[77]

G. Payment and Enforcement of Judgment Against Counties[78] — 1. In General. Where a judgment is rendered against a county, it is the duty of the board to apply such funds in the treasury of the county as are not otherwise appropriated to its payment,[79] and to order a warrant to be drawn upon the treasurer for the amount of the judgment.[80] But if there are no funds and the board possesses the power to levy a tax for that purpose, it should do so, and in case it refuses to apply funds on which the judgment may be paid to the payment thereof or to resort to taxation to create a fund in case there are no funds applicable to the payment of the judgment, resort may be had to mandamus to compel it so to do.[81] If, however, there are no funds and the power to levy a tax has

Change of venue in suits where a county is a party.— In a suit where a county is a party, a change of venue may be awarded to another county, as in all civil actions, when application therefor is properly made. Jackson County v. Hall, 53 Ill. 440.

69. For process generally see Process.

70. Exclusive manner of service.— Where the statutes thus specify the manner and upon whom service shall be made, they must be regarded as providing an exclusive manner of service (Weil v. Greene County, 69 Mo. 281), and no jurisdiction is conferred by service upon another than the specified officer (Gross v. Sioux County, 11 Fed. Cas. No. 5,842, 2 Dill. 509).

71. Kane County v. Young, 31 Ill. 194; Leavenworth County v. Sellew, 99 U. S. 624, 25 L. ed. 333.

72. Weil v. Greene County, 69 Mo. 281; Knox County v. Harshman, 133 U. S. 152, 10 S. Ct. 257, 33 L. ed. 586.

By leaving copy of original summons with clerk at least fifteen days before the return-day thereof. Weil v. Greene County, 69 Mo. 281.

The clerk's failure to communicate fact of service to the court will not affect the validity of the service or the judgment obtained therein by default as he is the agent of the court. Knox County v. Harshman, 133 U. S. 152, 10 S. Ct. 257, 33 L. ed. 586.

73. Gross v. Sioux County, 11 Fed. Cas. No. 5,842, 2 Dill. 509.

74. Early County v. Powell, 94 Ga. 680, 20 S. E. 10 (constitutes personal service on county); Collins v. Hudson, 54 Ga. 25.

Effect of summons naming members of board.—Although a writ which commands the summoning of a board of county commissioners names the members thereof, it is process against the board as such and not against the individual members. Jones v. Rowan County, 85 N. C. 278.

Service upon two commissioners, of a writ of summons against a county is good. Klechner v. Lehigh County, 6 Whart. (Pa.) 66, according to which case it would seem that service upon one would have been sufficient.

75. Clarke County v. State, 61 Ind. 75.

76. Lucky v. Police Jury, 46 La. Ann. 679, 15 So. 89.

77. State v. Headlee, 18 Wash. 220, 51 Pac. 369.

78. For enforcement of judgments generally see Judgments.

79. Emric v. Gilman, 10 Cal. 404, 70 Am. Dec. 742; King v. McDrew, 31 Ill. 418.

80. King v. McDrew, 31 Ill. 418; Knox County v. Arms, 22 Ill. 175.

81. California.— Emeric v. Gilman, 10 Cal. 404, 78 Am. Dec. 742.

Colorado.— See People v. Rio Grande County, 11 Colo. App. 124, 52 Pac. 748.

Kansas.— Lockard v. Decatur County, 10 Kan. App. 316, 62 Pac. 547.

North Carolina. — Hughes v. Craven County, 107 N. C. 598, 12 S. E. 465.

United States.— Ceredo First Nat. Bank v. Savings Soc., 80 Fed. 581, 25 C. C. A. 466; U. S. v. King, 74 Fed. 493.

By mandamus against commissioners or motion against treasurer.— On a judgment against a county, neither an execution nor a garnishment can be sued out; but the judgment must be filed as a claim against the county, and if not paid the creditor has his remedy by motion against the county treasurer and the sureties on his official bond, or by mandamus against the commissioners' court in a proper case. Edmondson v. De Kalb County, 51 Ala. 103.

Sufficiency of demand.— Under the Kentucky county funding act of March 18, 1878, a demand made by a bondholder pursuant to section 20 for the levy of a tax to pay his claim is not insufficient merely because made at the same time, and by the same instrument, both upon the county judge when presiding alone and on the court when composed not been delegated to the board, the legislature must be invoked for additional authority.[82]

2. Execution.[83] An execution cannot be awarded on a judgment against a county to satisfy the same,[84] nor on a decree in equity.[85]

H. Costs[86] — 1. In General. At common law counties are liable for no costs.[87] And it is well settled that a county is liable for the costs of judicial proceedings only when made so by constitutional or statutory provisions.[88] Every claimant of the county judge and the justices. Fleming v. Trowsdale, 85 Fed. 189, 29 C. C. A. 106.

Questions considered on application for mandamus.—On an application for mandamus to compel the levy of a tax to pay a judgment, no questions affecting the validity of the bonds on which the judgment is founded, or the validity or correctness of the judgment itself, are open to consideration. Fleming v. Trowsdale, 85 Fed. 189, 29 C. C. A. 106.

82. Emeric v. Gilman, 10 Cal. 404, 70 Am. Dec. 742.

83. For executions generally see Executions.

84. Alabama. — Edmondson v. De Kalb County, 51 Ala. 103.

California.— Emeric v. Gilman, 10 Cal. 404, 70 Am. Dec. 742.

Illinois.— King v. McDrew, 31 Ill. 418; Knox County v. Arms, 22 Ill. 175; Randolph County v. Ralls, 18 Ill. 29.

Missouri.— State v. New Madrid County Ct., 51 Mo. 82.

North Carolina.— Lutterloh v. Cumberland County, 65 N. C. 403; Gooch v. Gregory, 65 N. C. 142.

Contra.— Dictum in Lyell v. St. Clair County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,621, 3 McLean 580.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Counties," § 365.

Liability of private property to execution. — The private property of an inhabitant of a county is not liable to seizure and sale on execution for the satisfaction of a judgment recovered against the county. Emeric v. Gilman, 10 Cal. 404, 70 Am. Dec. 742. This is the general rule, although in some of the New England states the doctrine of individual liability of the inhabitants of towns and parishes prevails and is founded upon immemorial usage. See Beardsley v. Smith, 16 Conn. 368, 41 Am. Dec. 148; Gaskill v. Dudley, 6 Metc. (Mass.) 546, 39 Am. Dec. 750; Chase v. Merrimack Bank, 19 Pick. (Mass.) 564, 31 Am. Dec. 163.

Seizure of public buildings.— Where execution is issued against a police jury buildings provided by it in accordance with its duty, for courts and jurors, and a jail for prisoners, where they are used for public purposes, are not liable to seizure. Police Jury v. Michel, 4 La. Ann. 84.

Under the Georgia constitution there seems to be no way to enforce a judgment against a county for damages. Gwinnett County v. Dunn, 74 Ga. 358.

Provisional allowance of execution.— In Montana a statute provides that execution shall not issue on a judgment against a board of county commissioners, but that "the same shall be levied and paid by tax or other county charges," "provided, that execution may issue on said judgment if payment be not made within 60 days after the time required for the payment of county taxes to the county treasurer." It was held that a judgment recovered against a board of county commissioners after the annual tax levy is not entitled to payment until after the next levy. State v. Cascade County, 16 Mont. 271, 273, 40 Pac. 595.

85. King v. McDrew, 31 Ill. 418.

Mandamus executions.— By the Pennsylvania act of April 16, 1834, it is provided that: "It shall be lawful for the court in which such judgment may be obtained to issue thereon a writ commanding the commissioners of the county to cause the amount thereof, with the interest and costs, to be paid to the party entitled to such judgment, out of any moneys unappropriated of such county, or, if there be no such moneys, out of the first moneys that shall be received for the use of such county, and to enforce obedience to such writ by attachment." The duty of the commissioners, on whom process under this act is served, is plainly set forth: (1) If there be any money in the treasurer's hands unappropriated by previous orders, the exigencies of this writ require that the commissioners cause it to be paid to the party. (2) If there be not money enough in the treasury to satisfy the whole judgment, it is their duty to pay it out of the first money received. (3) If the taxes of the current year are insufficient to pay the judgments and other expenses of the county, it is their duty to assess and collect on the next year a sufficient sum for this purpose. (4) The judgment of the court is an appropriation of all the money in the treasury not already drawn or appropriated by previous county orders in payment of previous demands audited and allowed by the controller; and also of the first money thereafter received for the use of the county. Loute v. Allegheny County, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,544. See also Pollock v. Lawrence County, 19 Fed. Cas. No. 11,255.

86. For costs generally see Costs.

87. Sipler v. Clarion County, 8 Pa. Dist. 253; Hinkle v. York County, 12 Lanc. Bar (Pa.) 175.

88. Miner v. Shiawassee County, 49 Mich. 602, 14 N. W. 562; Sipler v. Clarion County, 8 Pa. Dist. 253. See also Franklin County v. Conrad, 36 Pa. St. 317; Berks County v. Pile, 18 Pa. St. 493.

Allowance for costs advanced.— Where a must be able to point to the statute which obliges the county to pay what he claims, and this liability cannot be extended beyond the limits fixed by the legislature.[89] It has been held that where counties are made capable of suing and being sued by statute, the same as a natural person, they are within the operation of statutes authorizing the taxation of costs against unsuccessful parties,[90] or statutes providing that when a plaintiff in an action shall recover judgment he shall have judgment for costs against the defendant.[91] On certiorari to county commissioners costs cannot be allowed against the county, as it is not a party, but they must be awarded against the commissioners if they oppose the proceedings, and the latter can reimburse themselves from the county treasury.[92]

2. PERSONAL LIABILITY OF COUNTY OFFICERS. County officers are not liable individually for the costs of a judgment rendered against them in suits commenced by them.[93]

3. DEFENSES TO CLAIM FOR COSTS. A county may plead the statute of limitations to a claim for costs, where no demand has been made for their payment for nine years.[94]

I. Fees. Fees are not a proper county charge in the absence of some statute[95] authorizing their payment from the funds of the county.[96] Among the fees often made county charges by statute are the following: Witness' fees in state cases;[97] fees in proceedings to determine the sanity or insanity of a person where county was engaged in litigation, and necessity for the present payment of a small amount of costs arose, and a member of the board of commissioners advanced the required sum, an allowance by the board of the sum so advanced will not be reversed. Osborn v. Ravenscraft, 5 Ida. 612, 51 Pac. 618.

In civil cases to which a county is not a party it is not chargeable for costs and expenses which the sheriff has failed to collect. Bransom v. Larimer County, 5 Colo. App. 231, 37 Pac. 957.

Liability not imputed.— The courts will not impute to the legislature an intent to make the county liable for costs where it is not so expressed in the act. Conley v. York County, 5 Pa. Dist. 748.

In Illinois it has been provided by statute that in all suits and actions commenced for or on behalf of any county, or in the name of any person for the use of any county, if the plaintiff recovers any debt or damages the plaintiff shall recover costs as any other person in like cases, but if such plaintiff suffer a discontinuance, be nonsuited or non-prossed or verdict pass against such plaintiff the defendant shall not recover any costs whatever; but it is also provided that nothing in such statute shall extend to any popular action, nor to any action to be prosecuted by any person on behalf of himself and the people or a county upon any penal statute. Ward v. Alton, 23 Ill. App. 475, in which it was held that a county when acting as a public agency of the state in proceedings for the collection of the general and local taxes assessed in the name of the people is within Ill. Rev. Stat. c. 33, § 17, and is not liable for costs. See also People v. Coultas, 9 Ill. App. 39.

89. Sipler v. Clarion County, 8 Pa. Dist. 253. See also Brinker v. Northampton County, 5 Pa. Dist. 686.

90. State v. Parker, 83 Ala. 269, 3 So. 552; Dover v. State, 45 Ala. 244; Hurd v. Hamill, 10 Colo. 174, 14 Pac. 126.

Interpleader by county.—Thus where pending an action against a county for a fund to which there are several claimants, whose rights can be adjudicated in that action, the county brings an independent action in the nature of interpleader against the claimants, it is liable for costs of the latter action. Harris County v. Donaldson, 20 Tex. Civ. App. 9, 48 S. W. 791.

91. Jefferson County v. Philpot, 66 Ark. 243, 50 S. W. 453; Harris County v. Donaldson, 20 Tex. Civ. App. 9, 48 S. W. 791.

92. Stetson v. Penobscot County Com'rs, 72 Me. 17. To the same effect see Pike County v. Goldthwaite, 35 Ala. 704.

93. Avery v. Slack, 19 Wend. (N. Y.) 50, holding this to be true, although their individual names appear on the record, provided it also appear that they sued in their representative character for the benefit of their constituents and not for their own benefit.

94. Com. v. Crawford County Com'rs, 20 Pa. Co. Ct. 593.

95. When fees are claimed to be a county charge by virtue of statutory provision allowing them in certain proceedings, the case must be clearly within the purview of the statute, and the latter will not be so construed as to allow fees in any other proceeding. Des Moines v. Polk County, 107 Iowa 525, 78 N. W. 249; Christ v. Polk County, 48 Iowa 302.

96. Polk County v. Crocker, 112 Ga. 152, 37 S. E. 178; Price v. Lancaster County, 24 Pa. Co. Ct. 225; Whittle v. Saluda County, 59 S. C. 554, 38 S. E. 168; Ex p. Henderson, 51 S. C. 331, 29 S. E. 5, 40 L. R. A. 426.

97. Ex p. Henderson, 51 S. C. 331, 29 S. E. 5, 40 L. R. A. 426.

the estate of such person is insufficient to pay the costs and expenses;[98] fees of coroners, jurors, and witnesses in cases of inquests;[99] the fees of a physician at such inquest;[1] fees of physicians called in by a justice of the peace to make an autopsy where impracticable to secure the county physician;[2] fees of expert witnesses;[3] fees for the arrest of vagrants;[4] the compensation awarded to court auditors;[5] fees of justices and constables in criminal cases;[6] referee's fees in certain cases;[7] the daily rate of pay of criers and tipstaves when fixed by the judges of the courts;[8] the pay of stenographers when employed by certain courts, and in certain cases;[9] fees to a sheriff for summoning witnesses to appear before the grand jury;[10] fees of witnesses required to attend before the grand jury, or in criminal cases in any of the courts.[11] It has been held that a county is not liable for officers' fees in proceedings under the fraudulent debtors' act,[12] and that a county is not liable for the fees of a United States commissioner for his services as a committing magistrate, although the offense was committed in such county.[13]

COUNTIES PALATINE. Three English counties, Chester, Durham, and Lancaster.[1]

98. Saline County Com'rs v. Bondi, 23 Kan. 117.

99. Washington County Levy Court v. Woodward, 2 Wall. (U. S.) 501, 17 L. ed. 851.

1. The reasonable value of the services of a physician, but not his fees as an expert, in making the necessary examination to ascertain the cause of death, are a charge against the county. Fairchild v. Ada County, 6 Ida. 340, 55 Pac. 654. See also Northampton County v. Innes, 26 Pa. St. 156; Brinker v. Northampton County, 5 Pa. Dist. 686.

2. Polk County v. Phillips, 92 Tex. 630, 51 S. W. 328.

3. Tompkins v. New York, 14 N. Y. App. Div. 536, 43 N. Y. Suppl. 878; People v. Cayuga County, 22 Misc. (N. Y.) 616, 50 N. Y. Suppl. 16.

Fee of analyzing chemist.— Where a medical man has, by order of the district attorney, rendered services in making a chemical analysis in an inquiry into a case of alleged poisoning, such services are properly chargeable against the county. People v. St. Lawrence County, 30 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 173.

What compensation shall be paid to an expert witness necessarily employed by a district attorney in a criminal case must be determined by the board of supervisors. People v. Jefferson County, 35 N. Y. App. Div. 239, 54 N. Y. Suppl. 782.

4. Hays v. Cumberland County, 186 Pa. St. 109, 40 Atl. 282.

5. Fessenden v. Nickerson, 125 Mass. 316.

6. Cal. Stat. (1895) p. 267, providing that the boards of supervisors may reject all bills for fees of justices and constables in criminal cases in which the district attorney has not approved the issue of the warrant of arrest, is in conflict with Cal. Const. art. 11, § 5, providing that the legislature shall regulate the compensation of county and township officers in proportion to the duties they perform, and also with article 1, section 11, requiring all laws of a general nature to have a uniform operation. Westerfield v. Riverside County, (Cal. 1897) 50 Pac. 929; Dwyer v. Parker, 115 Cal. 544, 47 Pac. 372.

7. Under the New Hampshire statutes the fees of referees as allowed by the court must be paid by the county in cases wherein the parties are entitled to a trial by jury, in cases referred without the consent of the parties, by order of the court in term-time, and in cases referred with or without their consent by a justice in vacation. In all other cases the court may order that the whole, a part, or none of the fees be paid by the county. Davis v. Richardson, 62 N. H. 272; Dodge v. Stickney, 61 N. H. 607.

8. Com. v. Pattison, 12 Phila. (Pa.) 242, 35 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 120.

9. In Munson v. New York, 57 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 497, it was held that a stenographer to the surrogate's court is not limited under the act of 1865 in the collection of his salary, to the fees paid by that court into the county treasury, and that any excess over such fees is a county charge.

Contra.— State v. Yakima County Super. Ct., 4 Wash. 30, 29 Pac. 764, holding that a court has no power to charge a county with the expense of a stenographer's notes upon the trial of a civil action, although the case may involve many parties and conflicting rights.

10. Jefferson County v. Hudson, 22 Ark. 595, as part of the expense of carrying on the court.

Contra.— Polk County v. Crocker, 112 Ga. 152, 37 S. E. 178.

11. People v. Hull, 23 Misc. (N. Y.) 63, 50 N. Y. Suppl. 463.

Contra.— Greer County v. Watson, 7 Okla. 174, 54 Pac. 441.

12. Wayne County v. Randall, 43 Mich. 137, 5 N. W. 75.

13. Wilkins v. Iron County, 2 Utah 532.

1. 1 Bl. Comm. 116.

COUNTING-HOUSE. A part of a house devoted to purposes of commerce;[2] a part of a house which is devoted to the purposes of commercial business.[3]

COUNTOR. In old English practice, an ADVOCATE (q. v.) or professional pleader; one who counted for his client, that is, related his case, recited his count, or orally pleaded his cause.[4] Also, a debtor's prison; a bench on which goods are exposed for sale; one who counts or calculates.[5] (See ATTORNEY AND CLIENT; COUNT.)

COUNTRY.[6] In its primary meaning, signifies place, and, in a larger sense, the territory or dominions occupied by a community, or even waste and unpeopled sections or regions of the earth; but its metaphorical meaning is no less definite and well understood, and, in common parlance, in historical and geographical writings, in diplomacy, legislation, treaties, and international codes, not to refer to sacred writ, the word "country" is employed to denote the population, the nation, the state, the government, having possession and dominion over the country.[7] The term has also been held to embrace all the possessions of a foreign state, however widely separated, which are subject to the same supreme and legislative control.[8] In extradition proceedings, under an international convention, the term has been defined as the special political jurisdiction that has cognizance of the crime.[9] In pleading and practice, the inhabitants of a district from which a jury is summoned in a cause;[10] a jury summoned, or to be summoned.[11] (Country: Exclusion From, see ALIENS. Indian, see INDIANS. Trial by Jury, see JURIES. See, generally, INTERNATIONAL LAW; STATES; UNITED STATES.)

COUNTRY DAMAGE. As applied to cotton, a result due to the bad condition of the commodity when it is baled, or from its exposure to bad weather, or from ill usage in its interior transportation.[12]

2. Per Bovill, C. J., in Piercy v. Maclean, L. R. 5 C. P. 252, 258, 1 Hopw. & C. 371, 39 L. J. C. P. 115, 22 L. T. Rep. N. S. 213, 18 Wkly. Rep. 732. And see Wright v. Stockport, B. & Arn. 39, 7 Jur. 1112, 1115, 13 L. J. C. P. 50, 1 Lutw. 32, 5 M. & G. 33, 7 Scott N. R. 561, 44 E. C. L. 28; Re Creek, 3 B. & S. 459, 9 Jur. N. S. 646, 32 L. J. Q. B. 89, 7 L. T. Rep. N. S. 596, 11 Wkly. Rep. 234, 113 E. C. L. 459.

3. Per Willes, J., in Piercy v. Maclean, L. R. 5 C. P. 252, 261, 1 Hopw. & C. 371, 39 L. J. C. P. 115, 22 L. T. Rep. N. S. 213, 18 Wkly. Rep. 732. And see Toms v. Luckett, 5 C. B. 23, 34, 11 Jur. 993, 17 L. J. C. P. 27, 2 Lutw. 19, 57 E. C. L. 23; Reg. v. Potter, 3 C. & K. 179, 5 Cox C. C. 187, 188, 2 Den. C. C. 235, 15 Jur. 498, 20 L. J. M. C. 170, T. & M. 561, 4 Eng. L. & Eq. 575.

4. Burrill L. Dict. [citing 1 Bl. Comm. 24, note t; 9 Coke ix].

5. English L. Dict.

6. "The term country seems to be well understood by everybody. However, as it is taken in different senses, it may not be unuseful to give it here an exact definition. It commonly signifies the state of which one is a member." "In a more confined sense, this term signifies the state, or even more particularly the town or place of our birth." Vattel Law Nat. bk. 1, c. 9, § 122 [quoted in U. S. v. The Recorder, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 16,129, 1 Blatchf. 218].

7. U. S. v. The Recorder, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 16,129, 1 Blatchf. 218.

In the preamble to the convention of 1815, "countries," "territories," and "people," are used by the two governments [United States and Great Britain] as having one import; and, in the first article, "territories" is employed as the correlative of "inhabitants." U. S. v. The Recorder, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 16,129, 1 Blatchf. 218.

8. So defined by the secretary of the treasury in instructions to customs officers relative to the enforcement of the revenue laws. Stairs v. Peaslee, 18 How. (U. S.) 521, 530, 15 L. ed. 474 [quoted in Campbell v. Barney, 4 Fed. Cas. No. 2,354, 5 Blatchf. 221]; U. S. v. The Recorder, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 16,129, 1 Blatchf. 218.

9. In re Farez, 8 Fed. Cas. No. 4,645, 2 Abb. 346, 7 Blatchf. 345.

10. Burrill L. Dict.

A "conclusion to the country" is an offer of trial by jury. Burrill L. Dict. [citing 3 Bl. Comm. 315].

"To make a certain jury of the country," were words of the old writ of venire facias. Burrill L. Dict.

Under the old system of pleading prior to that provided by the code, the phrase, used by a pleader, "and of this he puts himself upon the country," etc., meant that the truth of the fact so stated he desired to have tried by a jury. Bell v. Yates, 33 Barh. (N. Y.) 627, 629 [citing 2 Chitty Pl. 450]. If the traverse or denial comes from the defendant, the issue is tendered in this manner, "and of this he puts himself upon the country," thereby submitting himself to the judgment of his peers: but if the traverse lies upon the plaintiff, he tenders the issue, or prays the judgment of the peers against the defendant in another form; thus "and this he prays may be inquired of by the country." 3 Bl. Comm. 313.

11. Burrill L. Dict.

12. Bradstreet v. Heran, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,792*a*, 2 Blatchf. 116.

COUNTRY ROCK. The character and description of the general body of the mountain, whether it is granite, or gneiss, or syenite, or porphyry, or any other of the many different kinds of rock;[13] "neighboring rock."[14]

COUNTY. See Counties.

COUNTY AFFAIRS. Those relating to the county in its organic and corporate capacity, and included within its governmental or corporate powers.[15] (See, generally, Counties.)

COUNTY AFORESAID. The county named in the margin of the declaration.[16] (See Aforesaid; and, generally, Pleading.)

COUNTY ATTORNEY. See Prosecuting Attorneys.

COUNTY AUTHORITY. The justices of a county in general or quarter sessions assembled.[17]

COUNTY BOARD. See Counties.

COUNTY BRIDGE.[18] A bridge built by the county authorities in the exercise of their statutory power;[19] a public bridge which the county is liable to repair.[20] (See, generally, Bridges; Counties.)

COUNTY CHARGES. Moneys necessarily expended by any county officer in executing the duties of his office in cases in which no specific compensation for such services is provided by law.[21] (See, generally, Counties.)

COUNTY CLERK. See Clerks of Courts; Counties.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER. See Counties.

COUNTY CORPORATE. A City (q. v.) or town, with more or less territory annexed, having the privilege to be a county of itself, and not to be comprised in any other county.[22] (See, generally, Counties; Municipal Corporations.)

COUNTY COURT.[23] In old English law, a court incident to the jurisdiction of the sheriff.[24] In modern English law the name is appropriated to a system of tribunals established by 9 & 10 Vict. c. 95, having a limited jurisdiction, principally for the recovery of small debts.[25] In American law the name is used in "Country damaged," used in reference to a cargo of wheat, means damaged by being wet, or from some other cause before shipment. Alexander v. McNear, 28 Fed. 403.

13. Stevens v. Williams, 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,414, where it is said: "They [miners] use that word to describe the general mass of rock of which the mountain is composed, as distinguished from that which is found in the vein or lode."

The cleft between the inclosing rocks.—Iron Silver Min. Co. v. Cheesman, 116 U. S. 529, 29 L. ed. 712.

14. King v. Amy, etc., Consol. Min. Co., 9 Mont. 543, 565, 24 Pac. 200, where it is said: "The 'neighboring rock' being called in the miner's language the 'country' or the 'country rock.'"

15. Hankins v. New York, 64 N. Y. 18, 22 [quoted in Fragley v. Phelan, 126 Cal. 383, 388, 58 Pac. 923].

16. Sutton v. Fenn, 2 W. Bl. 847, 848, where the declaration referred to more than one county.

17. Reg. v. Dover, 49 J. P. 86, 32 Wkly. Rep. 876, 877, construing the highways act of 1878 (41 & 42 Vict. c. 77).

18. "County bridge" is said to be an expression not known to the law. Reg. v. Chart, L. R. 1 C. C. 237, 239.

May be included in the term "highway." See Mass. Pub. Stat. (1882), c. 3, § 8.

The term includes hundred bridges. Queen v. Chart, L. R. 1 C. C. 237, 240.

19. Soper v. Henry County, 26 Iowa 264, 269. See also Taylor v. Davis County, 40 Iowa 295, 297, where it is said that bridges which are properly designated county bridges are bridges of a larger class which the county is required to erect and maintain at an extraordinary expenditure of money.

20. Queen v. Chart, L. R. 1 C. C. 237, 239.

21. N. Y. Laws (1892), c. 686, § 230 [quoted in Worth v. Brooklyn, 34 N. Y. App. Div. 223, 224, 54 N. Y. Suppl. 484].

22. Such as London, York, Bristol, Norwich, and other cities in England. Black L. Dict. [citing 1 Bl. Comm. 120]. And see State v. Finn, 4 Mo. App. 347, 355.

23. A court of high antiquity in England. Black L. Dict.

"County court" and "court of the county," are convertible terms. Palmer v. Craddock, Ky. Dec. 182.

24. 3 Bl. Comm. 35.

It was not a court of record. 3 Bl. Comm. 35.

The freeholders of the county were the real judges in this court, and the sheriff was the ministerial officer. 3 Bl. Comm. 36.

25. Black L. Dict.

"Court commonly called the county court."—Where a statute prescribed a punishment for a contempt of court, and referred to "the court commonly called the county court," the reference was construed to mean the ancient county court. Reg. v. Judge Brompton County Ct., [1893] 2 Q. B. 195, 198, 57 J. P. 648, 62 L. J. Q. B. 604, 5 Reports 462, 41 Wkly. Rep. 648.

many of the states to designate the ordinary courts of record having jurisdiction for trials at nisi prius.[26] Again, as defined with reference to its jurisdiction the terms may mean a court presided over by the county judge alone.[27] (County Court: As Administrative Body, see COUNTIES. As Judicial Body, see COURTS.)

COUNTY JAIL. See PRISONS.

COUNTY OFFICER. See COUNTIES.

COUNTY PURPOSE.[28] A purpose in accordance with the object of its organization.[29] (See CITY PURPOSE; and, generally, COUNTIES.)

COUNTY RATE. An imposition levied on the occupiers of lands, and applied to many miscellaneous purposes.[30]

COUNTY ROAD. See STREETS AND HIGHWAYS.

COUNTY-SEAT. A COUNTY TOWN,[31] q. v. (See, generally, COUNTIES.)

COUNTY SESSIONS. In England, the court of general quarter sessions of the peace held in every county once in every quarter of a year.[32] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COUNTY TOWN. The town of a county where the county business is transacted — a shire town;[33] the chief town of a county, the seat of justice.[34] (See, generally, COUNTIES.)

COUNTY WARRANT. See COUNTIES.

COUPLED WITH AN INTEREST.[35] A power which accompanies, or is connected with, an interest.[36] As applied to a license, the term means that where a party obtains a license to do a thing, he also acquires a right to do it.[37] (See, generally, PRINCIPAL AND AGENT; POWERS.)

COUPLING CARS. See MASTER AND SERVANT.

It is also the name of certain tribunals of limited jurisdiction in the county of Middlesex, established under 22 Geo. II, c. 33. Black L. Dict.

26. Black L. Dict.

The appellation was probably taken from the constitution of 1777. People v. Albany C. Pl., 19 Wend. (N. Y.) 27, 30.

The term will embrace the court of common pleas. Arnold v. Allen, 8 Mass. 147, 149. In People v. New York, 25 Wend. (N. Y.) 9, 19, it is said: "We have long had courts, 'which, from their jurisdiction, business, local organization and character,' are sufficiently designated by the name of 'county courts.' Such are the two courts in each county, of common pleas and general sessions of the peace. People v. Albany C. Pl., 19 Wend. (N. Y.) 27."

The term "county court," as used in the act of Feb. 12, 1849, was designed only to apply to the sittings of the county court for the transaction of county business. St. Clair County v. Irwin, 15 Ill. 54, 56.

27. Bowling Green, etc., R. Co. v. Warren County Ct., 10 Bush (Ky.) 711, 717.

28. County and town purposes.— The designation of a square laid off upon the map as "court square" does not have the effect to limit the dedication thereof to the use of the public for "county" as distinguished from "town" purposes. San Leandro v. Le Breton, 72 Cal. 170, 177, 13 Pac. 405.

29. English L. Dict.

The term includes maintenance of public roads. State v. Hannibal, etc., R. Co., 101 Mo. 120, 135, 13 S. W. 406. But will not include labor upon a local drain. State v. Seaman, 23 Ohio St. 389, 394. And see McCormick v. Fitch, 14 Minn. 252.

30. Wharton L. Lex [citing 15 & 16 Vict. c. 81].

31. Webster Dict. [quoted in In re County Seat, 4 Pa. Dist. 319].

32. Black L. Dict.

33. Webster Dict. [quoted in In re County Seat, 4 Pa. Dist. 319].

34. Zell Encycl. [quoted in In re County Seat, 4 Pa. Dist. 319].

Synonymous with "county-seat," which has been defined to be "the seat of government of a county; the town in which the county and other courts are held, and where the county officers perform their functions." Zell Encycl. [quoted in In re County Seat, 4 Pa. Dist. 319].

35. Attorney's authority coupled with an interest see 4 Cyc. 953, n. 33.

36. Hunt v. Rousmanier, 8 Wheat. (U. S.) 174, 202, 5 L. ed. 589 [quoted in Missouri v. Walker, 125 U. S. 339, 8 S. Ct. 929, 31 L. ed. 769].

"The power and the interest are united in the same person. But if we are to understand by the word 'interest,' an interest in that which is to be produced by the exercise of the power, then they are never united. The power, to produce the interest, must be exercised, and by its exercise, is extinguished. The power ceases when the interest commences, and, therefore, cannot, in accurate law language, be said to be 'coupled' with it." Hunt v. Rousmanier, 8 Wheat. (U. S.) 174, 204, 5 L. ed. 589 [quoted in Johnson v. Johnson, 27 S. C. 309, 3 S. E. 606, 13 Am. St. Rep. 636; Daugherty v. Moon, 59 Tex. 397, 399].

37. 2 Bouvier Inst. 568 [citing Warren v. Arthur, 2 Mod. 317, 318; Bringloe v. Morrice, 1 Mod. 210].

COUPON BONDS. Instruments payable to bearer, and provided with interest warrants called "coupons," for each installment of interest.[38] (See CONVERTIBLE COUPON BONDS; COUPONS; and, generally, BONDS; COMMERCIAL PAPER; INTEREST.)

COUPON NOTE. A promissory note with coupons attached.[39] (See CONVERTIBLE COUPON BONDS; COUPONS; and, generally, BONDS; COMMERCIAL PAPER; INTEREST.)

COUPONS.[40] Written contracts for the payment of a definite sum of money, on a given day, and being drawn and executed in a form and mode for the very purpose that they may be separated from the bonds;[41] promises to pay money;[42] interest and dividend certificates;[43] also those parts of a commercial instrument which are to be cut,[44] and which are evidence of something connected with the contract mentioned in the instrument;[45] a term employed in England[46] and elsewhere to denote the warrants for the payment of the periodical dividends on the 38. Benwell v. Newark, 55 N. J. Eq. 260, 263, 36 Atl. 668.

39. The coupons being notes for the interest, written at the bottom of the principal note and designed to be cut off when the notes are presented for payment or paid. Anderson L. Dict.; Webster Int. Dict. [quoted in Williams v. Moody, 95 Ga. 8, 11, 22 S. E. 30].

40. Derived from the French,—" couper," to cut. Howard v. Bates County, 43 Fed. 276, 277. See also Myers v. York, etc., R. Co., 43 Me. 232, 239.

Distinguished from bills of credit in Poindexter v. Greenhow, 114 U. S. 270, 9 S. Ct. 903, 29 L. ed. 185.

Distinguished from promissory note.—" The coupon is not an independent instrument, like a promissory note for a sum of money, but is given for interest thereafter to become due upon the bond, which interest is parcel of the bond, and partakes of its nature." Kenosha v. Lamson, 9 Wall. (U. S.) 477, 19 L. ed. 725 [quoted in State v. Spartanburg, etc., R. Co., 8 S. C. 129, 163; Howard v. Bates County, 43 Fed. 276, 278]. And see Williamsport Gas Co. v. Pinkerton, 95 Pa. St. 62, 64; Enthoven v. Hoyle, 13 C. B. 373, 394, 16 Jur. 272, 21 L. J. C. P. 100, 76 E. C. L. 373.

41. Aurora v. West, 74 U. S. 82, 19 L. ed. 50 [quoted in Holland Trust Co. v. Thomson-Houston Electric Co., 62 N. Y. App. Div. 299, 309, 71 N. Y. Suppl. 51; Edwards v. Bates County, 163 U. S. 269, 271, 18 S. Ct. 967, 41 L. ed. 155].

"Coupons are annexed to bonds in order that they may be severed and transferred by delivery, and thereby carry to the purchaser the interest which they represent." Miller v. Berlin, 17 Fed. Cas. No. 9,562, 13 Blatchf. 245 [quoted in Holland Trust Co. v. Thomson-Houston Electric Co., 62 N. Y. App. Div. 299, 309, 71 N. Y. Suppl. 51].

Coupons are commercial paper in the strictest sense. Holland Trust Co. v. Thomson-Houston Electric Co., 62 N. Y. App. Div. 299, 309, 71 N. Y. Suppl. 51 [quoting Collins v. Gilbert, 94 U. S. 753, 24 L. ed. 170]. And see Spooner v. Holmes, 102 Mass. 503, 507, 3 Am. Rep. 491.

Coupons are negotiable, and a suit may be maintained on them without the necessity of producing the bonds to which they were attached. Edwards v. Bates County, 163 U. S. 269, 271, 16 S. Ct. 967, 41 L. ed. 155; Aurora v. West, 74 U. S. 82, 107, 19 L. ed. 50.

Each matured coupon is a separable promise, and gives rise to a separate cause of action. It may be detached from the bond and sold by itself. Nesbitt v. Riverside Independent Dist., 144 U. S. 610, 12 S. Ct. 746, 36 L. ed. 562.

Functions of coupons.—" Coupons are, substantially, but copies from the body of the bond in respect to the interest and, as is well known, are given to the holder of the bond for the purpose: first, of enabling him to collect the interest at the time and place mentioned without the trouble of presenting the bond every time it becomes due; and, second, to enable the holder to realize the interest due, or to become due, by negotiating the coupons to the bearer in business transactions, on whom the duty of collecting them devolves." Kenosha v. Lamson, 9 Wall. (U. S.) 477, 483, 19 L. ed. 725 [quoted in Lexington v. Butler, 14 Wall. (U. S.) 282, 296, 20 L. ed. 809]. And see Evertsen v. Newport Nat. Bank, 4 Hun (N. Y.) 692, 695 [quoted in Howard v. Bates County, 43 Fed. 276, 278].

42. Poindexter v. Greenhow, 114 U. S. 270, 5 S. Ct. 903, 29 L. ed. 185.

43. Wharton L. Lex. [quoted in McKenzie v. Montreal, etc., R. Co., 27 U. C. C. P. 224, 227].

There are as many of these certificates as there are payments of interest to be made. At each time of payment one is cut off and presented for payment. Myers v. York, etc., R. Co., 43 Me. 232, 239; Howard v. Bates County, 43 Fed. 276, 277 [citing Worcester Dict.].

44. Wharton L. Lex. [quoted in McKenzie v. Montreal, etc., R. Co., 27 U. C. C. P. 224, 227].

Something intended to be cut off from another thing. Williams v. Moody, 95 Ga. 8, 11, 22 S. E. 30.

45. Wharton L. Lex. [quoted in McKenzie v. Montreal, etc., R. Co., 27 U. C. C. P. 224, 227].

46. In England, they are known as "warrants" or "dividend warrants," and the securities to which they belong, debentures. Bouvier L. Dict. [citing Enthoven v. Hoyle, 13 C. B. 373, 16 Jur. 272, 21 L. J. C. P. 100, 76 E. C. L. 373.

public stocks, a number of which being appended to the bonds are severally cut off for presentation as the dividends fall due.[47] (Coupons: Action on, see BONDS. Drawing Interest, see INTEREST; USURY. Negotiability of, see BONDS. Payment of, see PAYMENT. Secured by Mortgage, see MORTGAGES. See also CONVERTIBLE COUPON BONDS: COUPON BONDS; and, generally BONDS; COMMERCIAL PAPER.)

COUPON STAMP. A government revenue stamp with a coupon attached, used on intoxicating liquors.[48] (See, generally, INTERNAL REVENUE.)

COUPON TICKETS. Complete tickets fastened together, issued by carriers of passengers to be detached and given up in payment of fare.[49] (See, generally, CARRIERS.)

COURAGE. That quality of mind which enables one to encounter dangers and difficulties with firmness, or without fear or depression of spirits; valor, boldness, bravery, etc.[50]

COURSE.[51] A running or moving forward — a continuous progression or advance;[52] motion considered with reference to its direction; line of progress, direction;[53] progress from point to point without change of direction; any part of the progress from one place to another, which is in a straight line or in one direction; the track or line of motion; direction in which motion takes place; the direction or motion; the line in which a body moves; as what "course" shall the pilot steer; the course of a projectile through the air;[54] the direction of a line with reference to a meridian;[55] order; sequence; rotation; succession of one to another in office, property, dignity, duty, etc.[56] As used in higher institutions of learning the word means curriculum.[57] In practice, the word signifies pro-

47. Webster Dict. [quoted in Myers v. York, etc., R. Co., 43 Me. 232, 239].

Synonymous with "certificate."— Where the secretary of a company gave two "certifications" of transfer, one "coupon for 1100*l* preference shares in the company's office," etc., the court said: "'Coupon' is identical in its meaning in the above documents with 'certificate.'" Whitechurch v. Cavanagh, [1902] A. C. 117, 133, 71 L. J. K. B. 400, 85 L. T. Rep. N. S. 349, 9 Manson 351, 50 Wkly. Rep. 218.

48. English L. Dict.

49. English L. Dict.

50. Gardner v. State, 40 Tex. Crim. 19, 22, 48 S. W. 170 [citing Tex. Pen. Code, § 700], distinguishing the term "courage" from the term "temper."

51. "Course of the vein on the surface" as used in mining laws see Iron Silver Min. Co. v. Elgin Min., etc., Co., 118 U. S. 196, 6 S. Ct. 1177, 30 L. ed. 98.

52. Britannia v. Cleugh, 153 U. S. 130, 142, 14 S. Ct. 795, 38 L. ed. 660.

53. Webster Dict. [quoted in Bayha v. Taylor, 36 Mo. App. 427, 442].

54. Webster Dict. [quoted in Britannia v. Cleugh, 153 U. S. 129, 148, 14 S. Ct. 795, 38 L. ed. 660, dissenting opinion]. And see Wharton v. Brick, 49 N. J. L. 289, 291, 6 Atl. 442, 8 Atl. 529.

Applied to navigation.—Where the rules of navigation provided that "one of two vessels shall keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course," etc., the court said: "Now, unless we are to give to the word 'course' a meaning quite different from that given by the grammarians, we must hold that the steamer discharged her obligation to 'keep her course' by keeping steadily in the direction in which she had been previously going." Britannia v. Cleugh, 153 U. S. 129, 148, 14 S. Ct. 795, 38 L. ed. 660, dissenting opinion. And see The Beryl, 5 Aspin. 321, 53 L. J. Adm. 75, 51 L. T. Rep. N. S. 554, 556, 9 P. D. 137, 33 Wkly. Rep. 191 [quoted in The Oporto, [1897] P. 249, 66 L. J. Adm. 49; Britannia v. Cleugh, 153 U. S. 130, 149, 14 S. Ct. 795, 38 L. ed. 660, dissenting opinion], where the court, in construing a similar rule, said: "Now 'keeping her course' means that she is to keep in the same direction as before, it does not relate to the question of speed." See also General Steam Nav. Co. v. Hedley, L. R. 3 P. C. 44, 51, 39 L. J. Adm. 20, 21 L. T. Rep. N. S. 686, 6 Moore P. C. N. S. 263, 18 Wkly. Rep. 264, 17 Eng. Reprint 725, where a provision in the rules of navigation relative to a vessel, that she "shall keep her course," was construed. See also COLLISION, 7 Cyc. 357.

55. Bouvier L. Dict.

56. Century Dict.

"Course of entail."— Where the intention of a testatrix was expressed in the recital in the codicil to be, "to settle the estates devised by her will in a course of settlement to correspond, as far as may be practicable, with the limitations of the Barony of Buckhurst," and she directed her trustees "to convey, settle, and assure her estates in a course of entail to correspond as nearly as may be with the limitations of the barony," Lord Chelmsford said: "There can be no doubt that the words 'course of settlement,' and 'course of entail,' and 'as far as may be practicable,' and 'as nearly as may be,' were used as equivalent expressions." Sackville-West v. Holmesdale, L. R. 4 H. L. 543, 563, 39 L. J. Ch. 505.

57. Iron City Commercial College v. Kerr, 3 Brewst. (Pa.) 196, 200.

gressive action in a suit or proceeding not yet determined.[58] (See, generally, BOUNDARIES.)

COURSE OF BUSINESS. The usual custom in business or a particular line of business.[59] (See COURSE OF TRADE.)

COURSE OF EMPLOYMENT. Whatever may be incident to the employment.[60] (See, generally, MASTER AND SERVANT; PRINCIPAL AND AGENT.)

COURSE OF LAW. See DUE COURSE OF LAW.

COURSE OF RIVER. A line parallel with its banks.[61]

COURSE OF TRADE. What is customarily or ordinarily done in the management of trade or business.[62] (See COURSE OF BUSINESS.)

COURSE OF VOYAGE. The regular and customary track, if such there be, which long usage has proved to be the safest and the best;[63] the route pursued from port to port.[64] (See, generally, SHIPPING.)

COURT-BARON. An inferior court of civil jurisdiction in England, attached to a manor, being an inseparable incident thereto, and holden by the steward within the manor.[65] (See, generally, COURTS.)

58. Williams v. Ely, 14 Wis. 236, 257. See also People v. Turner, 39 Cal. 370, 371 (step or proceeding "arising during the course of the trial"); Langford v. State, 9 Tex. App. 283, 285 (perjury or false swearing "in course of a judicial proceeding").

59. English L. Dict. And see Clough v. Patrick, 37 Vt. 421, 429 [quoted in Chelsea Nat. Bank v. Isham, 48 Vt. 590, 593].

60. Redding v. South Carolina R. Co., 3 S. C. 1, 7, 16 Am. Rep. 681.

61. Atty.-Gen. v. Paterson, etc., R. Co., 9 N. J. Eq. 526, 550, where it is said: "The 'current of the stream,' will vary from the general 'course of the river,' depending upon a variety of circumstances." And see Jackson v. Camp, 1 Cow. (N. Y.) 605, 612.

62. Black L. Dict.

"Conveyance of any goods or burden in the course of trade" does not include a traveling circus, and carriages belonging thereto, used in a parade, so as to be exempt from duty under a statute. Speak v. Powell, L. R. 9 Exch. 25, 28, 43 L. J. M. C. 19, 29 L. T. Rep. N. S. 434.

"Course of trade and dealing" as used in a statute see Harwood v. Lomas, 11 East 127, 131.

63. 1 Bouvier Inst. 482.

64. English L. Dict.

65. This court, however, is now fallen into almost entire disuse in England. Burrill L. Dict.

Customary court-baron is one appertaining entirely to copyholders. Freeholder's court-baron is one held before the freeholders who owe suit and service to the manor. It is the court-baron proper. Black L. Dict. See also Burrill L. Dict. [citing 3 Bl. Comm. 33].

The old manors in the province of New York had their courts-baron and courts-leet. Burrill L. Dict.

COURT COMMISSIONERS

By Ernest H. Wells

CROSS-REFERENCES

For Matters Relating to:
Auditors, see REFERENCES.
Commissioners:
As Additional Members of Court, see COURTS; JUDGES.
In Admiralty, see ADMIRALTY.
In Chancery, see EQUITY.
Of Federal Court, see UNITED STATES COMMISSIONERS.
Of Insolvent Estate, see EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS.
To Make:
Partition, see PARTITION.
Sale, see JUDICIAL SALES.
To Set Off Dower, see DOWER.
To Take Deposition, see DEPOSITIONS.
Masters in Chancery, see EQUITY.
Referees, see REFERENCES.
United States Commissioners, see UNITED STATES COMMISSIONERS.

I. DEFINITION.

A court commissioner is an officer possessing certain minor judicial or quasi-judicial powers.[1] He is a subordinate officer of the court of which he is commissioner.[2]

1. See In re Burger, 39 Mich. 203.
Ministerial powers.—Sometimes he is given some purely ministerial functions such as the power "to take acknowledgments and proof of deeds, mortgages," etc. A statute giving him such power is not affected by the amendment of another statute which omits commissioners from the officers named who can take acknowledgments, etc., for there is no necessary inconsistency in the two provisions. Malone v. Bosch, 104 Cal. 680, 38 Pac. 516.

2. In re Burger, 39 Mich. 203, 205 (where it is said: "The circuit court commissioner is a subordinate and assistant to the circuit court rather than an independent judicial officer"); Boinay v. Coats, 17 Mich. 411. See also infra, III, C, D.

II. CREATION OF OFFICE.

By virtue of permissive constitutional provisions,[3] statutes in a number of the states have created the office.[4]

III. POWERS.

A. In General. Since the office of court commissioner is one created by statute, he has no powers but what are conferred by statute.[5] His powers as prescribed by statute cannot be enlarged by consent of the parties,[6] nor can the court confer upon a commissioner powers not given him by law.[7]

B. Chamber Powers of Judge. In states where this officer exists the several constitutions generally limit his powers to those of a judge in chambers.[8] These powers are those which are exercised in preliminary, intermediate, or ex

3. Fenelon v. Butts, 49 Wis. 342, 5 N. W. 784.

Conferring office on recorder of city.— Where the constitution provides for the office, the legislature cannot, in the absence of express constitutional authority, confer such office on the recorders of cities. McClintock v. Laing, 19 Mich. 300. But in New York other officers have been given the powers of court commissioners. See for example Tallmadge v. Teller, 22 Wend. (N. Y.) 646.

The power to act as a probate judge under a statutory provision is not in conflict with a constitutional provision that vacancies in the office of probate judge are to be filled by the appointment of the governor. And such a statute authorizes a court commissioner to act as a probate judge when the probate judge is temporarily disqualified or is ill or absent. Kelley v. Edwards, 38 Mich. 210.

4. Fenelon v. Butts, 49 Wis. 342, 5 N. W. 784.

In New York the office once existed under authority of the courts. As early as 1819 it was decided that commissioners appointed under the authority of a statute did not supersede the commissioners already appointed by the supreme court. Jones v. Smith, 16 Johns. (N. Y.) 232. The constitution of 1821 recognized the office as already existing. The office was abolished by the constitution of 1846. It has been held, however, that this did not prevent the legislature from conferring powers formerly held by the commissioners. Cushman v. Johnson, 4 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 256, 13 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 495.

5. See Bicknell v. Tallman, 3 Pinn. (Wis.) 388, 4 Chandl. (Wis.) 95. See also Loder v. Littlefield, 39 Mich. 374, where the court said that a commissioner's powers to allow certiorari were those defined by statute.

Appointment of receiver.— Since Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 259, does not give a court commissioner any jurisdiction to appoint a receiver, and since section 564 of the code provides that a receiver may be appointed by the court, or a judge thereof, the power to appoint a receiver is confined to the court or judge thereof. Therefore a court commissioner has no jurisdiction to appoint a receiver, and a bond given by a receiver so appointed is void. Quiggle v. Trumbo, 56 Cal. 626 [citing Stone v. Bunker Hill Copper, etc., Min. Co., 28 Cal. 497].

Approval of appeal-bond.— Where the power to approve appeal-bonds is not among the powers of the commissioner enumerated in the statute, and where the statute further provides that the commissioner may do "such other things as are required by the court, or as are necessary and proper for the full exercise of the powers hereby granted" the commissioner cannot approve an appeal-bond. Anonymous, 8 Wis. 308. But see Emerson v. Atwater, 5 Mich. 34.

Dissolution of injunction.— Where by statute a court commissioner may hear a motion or make any order in reference to the dissolution of an injunction, when the question is referred to him by the court, he has no jurisdiction to hear such a motion or make such order unless the matter has been referred to him by the court. Stone v. Bunker Hill Copper, etc., Min. Co., 28 Cal. 497.

Grant of injunction.— Where a court commissioner has the power in the absence of the judge of the circuit court to grant writs of injunction, he has the power to grant a writ of injunction in any cause in which a circuit judge if present could have granted such a writ, but he cannot incorporate into his order restraining the sheriff from making a sale of goods in execution of a judgment, a further order that the sheriff shall make an appraisement and a schedule of that portion of the judgment debtor's property which he claims to be exempt from execution under the constitution. The only power a commissioner has in the premises is to grant an injunctional order restraining the sale of so much of the property levied upon and advertised to be sold as was exempt to complainant from a forced sale. McMichael v. Grady, 34 Fla. 219, 15 So. 765.

6. Jackson v. Puget Sound Lumber Co., (Cal. 1898) 52 Pac. 838 [reversed in 123 Cal. 97, 55 Pac. 788].

7. The fact that the court had, under the terms of a previous order, authorized and afterward affirmed the action of the commissioner does not affect the question of his jurisdiction. Haight v. Lucia, 36 Wis. 355.

8. As to powers of judge in chambers see JUDGES.

parte matters, not involving the merits of a cause — powers which may be exercised by a judge out of term, acting as a judge merely, not as a court.[9] If a commissioner has the powers of a judge at chambers, a power granted by statute to a judge at chambers is impliedly conferred on the commissioner.[10]

C. Power to Review Judicial Decision. A court commissioner cannot review or investigate the proceedings of a judicial tribunal, for such a power involves the exercise of a judicial power in the strict legal sense.[11] Nor can he transfer a case from one court of record to another on the ground of prejudice of the judge of the former court.[12]

D. Power to Try Title to Land. A court commissioner cannot try the title to land either under a statute conferring on him directly the power of adjudicating tax-titles,[13] or in the exercise of his rightful power to entertain summary proceedings to recover the possession of land wrongfully detained by tenants;[14] and when the question of title arises by the proofs offered it is his duty to dismiss.[15]

9. Prignitz v. Fischer, 4 Minn. 366; Pulver v. Grooves, 3 Minn. 359; Gere v. Weed, 3 Minn. 352; Cushman v. Johnson, 13 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 495.

Illustrations.—A court commissioner may take bail in criminal cases (Daniels v. People, 6 Mich. 381; Hoskins v. Baxter, 64 Minn. 226, 66 N. W. 969; Gere v. Weed, 3 Minn. 352), may grant exoneration of bail (De Meyer v. McGonegal, 32 Mich. 120), may entertain summary proceedings to recover lands unlawfully detained by tenants (Streeter v. Paton, 7 Mich. 341), may dissolve attachments (Edgarton v. Hinchman, 7 Mich. 352. See also ATTACHMENT, 4 Cyc. 781, note 42), may enter judgment by default (Peterson v. Dillon, 27 Wash. 78, 67 Pac. 397), may forbid a transfer or disposition of the property of a judgment debtor not exempt from execution (In re Perry, 30 Wis. 268), may issue an execution for the collection of costs in proceedings held before him (Watson v. Randall, 44 Mich. 514, 7 N. W. 84), may make an order for security of costs and may modify or revoke it (Harris v. Mason, 10 Wend. (N. Y.) 568; Moore v. Merritt, 9 Wend. (N. Y.) 482), may extend the time for settling a bill of exceptions where the delay is satisfactorily excused (Pellage v. Pellage, 32 Wis. 136), and may order the arrest and take the examination of offenders (Hoskins v. Baxter, 64 Minn. 226, 66 N. W. 969; Faust v. State, 45 Wis. 273). But an order allowing alimony (Thorp v. Thorp, 2 Mich. N. P. 209), an order striking out irrelevant and redundant matter from a pleading (Balkins v. Baldwin, 84 Wis. 212, 54 N. W. 403), an order determining the right of contesting parties to the control, custody, education, and nurture of a child (Rowe v. Rowe, 28 Mich. 353), or an order regulating the admission of attorneys (Anonymous, 2 Wend. (N. Y.) 280) is not within the power of a commissioner to make. So his order overruling a demurrer to a complaint (Gere v. Weed, 3 Minn. 352), or denying a motion to set aside a summons in an action (Pulver v. Grooves, 3 Minn. 359) is void. Nor can a court commissioner entertain supplementary proceedings or punish for contempt and disobedience of his orders. He is limited to the power of granting a preliminary order for an examination before the judge. In re Remington, 7 Wis. 643.

10. Hempsted v. Cargill, 46 Minn. 141, 48 N. W. 686.

A court commissioner may make an order for the service of summons without the state, under a statute which declares that such an order may be made by a court or a judge thereof, even though it is otherwise provided by statute that when a statute authorizes an order to be made "by the presiding judge, or by the circuit judge, using such words of designation," the commissioner has no power to make such order. Pfister v. Smith, 95 Wis. 51, 69 N. W. 984.

Vacating a default judgment.— Where a statute provides that the circuit court "or a judge thereof" may at any time within a year relieve a party from a judgment obtained against him through his surprise, mistake, or excusable neglect, a court commissioner may vacate a default judgment of the circuit court within the prescribed time, even though by statute a court commissioner is precluded from acting where any statute authorizes an order or proceeding by the court, or by a court or a presiding judge thereof. Freiberg v. La Clair, 78 Wis. 164, 47 N. W. 178.

11. In re Burger, 39 Mich. 203; In re Buddington, 29 Mich. 472.

A court commissioner cannot issue a certiorari to review an order of the circuit court. Church v. Anti-Kalsomine Co., 119 Mich. 437, 78 N. W. 478.

12. Bicknell v. Tallman, 3 Pinn. (Wis.) 388, 4 Chandl. (Wis.) 95.

In Michigan a court commissioner is prohibited by rule of court from granting injunctions to stay proceedings in law without notice previously given to the adverse party. This rule was made to prevent "the unseemly spectacle of a subordinate officer overruling the action of a circuit judge or court." Bonay v. Coats, 17 Mich. 411, 416.

13. Case v. Dean, 16 Mich. 12; Waldby v. Callendar, 8 Mich. 430.

14. Mulder v. Corlett, 54 Mich. 80, 19 N. W. 756. Nor in an action of forcible entry and detainer. Hyndman v. Stowe, 9 Utah 23, 33 Pac. 227.

15. Jenkinson v. Winans, 109 Mich. 524, 67 N. W. 549.

E. Powers of Court in Vacation. The powers of a court in vacation[16] cannot be exercised by a court commissioner, for such powers are greater than those possessed by a judge in chambers.[17]

IV. TERRITORIAL JURISDICTION.

A commissioner with the powers of a judge at chambers may grant a writ of habeas corpus in another county when it appears in the application for the writ that there is no officer in the county in which a prisoner was detained authorized to grant the writ.[18] A circuit court commissioner may grant a certiorari to review proceedings which took place outside of his county.[19]

V. TERM OF OFFICE.

Where a statute provides for the appointment of a court commissioner for a definite term of years, his office expires at the end of the term, and he cannot continue to hold office until his successor is appointed.[20]

VI. DISQUALIFICATION TO ACT.

A commissioner is disqualified from performing the duties of his office in an action wherein he is plaintiff's attorney,[21] or where his law partner is interested in the case.[22]

VII. BOND.

The failure of the court to require a court commissioner to renew his bond as required by statute does not release the sureties on the existing bond.[23]

VIII. PROCEEDINGS BEFORE COMMISSIONER.[24]

In the absence of a statutory requirement a circuit court commissioner is not obliged to wait an hour for the appearance of defendant beyond the time at which the summons is made returnable before proceeding to trial.[25]

But the jurisdiction of the commissioner is not ousted by a plea of title in defendant, or by the mere fact that defendant asserts that the instrument under which plaintiff claims is void as a matter of law. It is only where the question of title is necessarily involved that the jurisdiction is ousted. Barrett v. Cox, 112 Mich. 446, 70 N. W. 220; Butler v. Bertrand, 97 Mich. 59, 56 N. W. 342.

16. As to powers of judge in vacation see JUDGES.

17. Gere v. Weed, 3 Minn. 352. See also JUDGES.

18. State v. Hill, 10 Minn. 63.

But where the constitution limits the jurisdiction of a court commissioner to his own county, a statute appointing a commissioner resident in a village situated in two counties is unconstitutional. Fenelon v. Butts, 49 Wis. 342, 5 N. W. 784.

19. Loder v. Littlefield, 39 Mich. 374. See also Heyn v. Farrar, 36 Mich. 258, holding that under a general statute which provides that a court commissioner may perform the duties of a court commissioner of an adjoining county when the latter is disqualified, an application to dissolve an attachment may be heard before the court commissioner of an adjoining county when such disqualification exists.

20. Court commissioners appointed under such a statute cannot properly be said to have successors in office any more than notaries public, and therefore cannot hold over until the appointment of a successor as public policy requires county officers to do. Johnson v. Eldred, 15 Wis. 481.

21. Crouch v. Crouch, 30 Wis. 667. See also Brown v. Byrne, Walk. (Mich.) 453.

As to disqualification of judge generally see JUDGES.

22. Heyn v. Farrar, 36 Mich. 258.

23. Ison v. Com., 60 S. W. 1125, 22 Ky. L. Rep. 1588.

24. Entitlement of proceedings to dissolve attachment.— The proceedings before a court commissioner to dissolve an attachment need not be entitled in the original cause. Heyn v. Farrar, 36 Mich. 258.

Order of taking proof.—A court commissioner has no power to control the order of taking proofs before him in chancery cases. Either party has the right to take his testimony in any order he may choose. Brown v. Brown, 22 Mich. 242.

25. Fowler v. Bredin, 98 Mich. 133, 56 N. W. 1110.

IX. COMPENSATION AND FEES.

Since a court commissioner is not a county officer, a statute relating to the salaries and fees of county officers does not affect his fees already specifically fixed by statute.[26]

COURT FOR CONSIDERATION OF CROWN CASES RESERVED. A court established by 11 & 12 Vict. c. 78, composed of such of the judges of the superior courts of Westminster as were able to attend, for the consideration of questions of law reserved by any judge in a court of oyer and terminer, gaol delivery, or quarter sessions, before which a prisoner had been found guilty by verdict.[1] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT FOR CORRECTION OF ERRORS. The style of a court having jurisdiction for review, by appeal or writ of error.[2] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT FOR CORRECTION OF ERRORS AT LAW. At common law, a court that has such jurisdiction as a writ of error can confer upon it.[3] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT FOR DIVORCE AND MATRIMONIAL CAUSES. The name of a new court established in England by 20 & 21 Vict. c. 85, and to which has been transferred all the jurisdiction of the ecclesiastical courts in respect of divorces a mensa et thoro, suits of nullity of marriage, suits for restitution of conjugal rights, and in all causes and matters matrimonial.[4] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT FOR RELIEF OF INSOLVENT DEBTORS. A local court which has its sittings in London only, which receives the petitions of insolvent debtors, and decides upon the question of granting a discharge.[5] (See, generally, BANKRUPTCY; COURTS; INSOLVENCY.)

COURT FOR TRIAL OF IMPEACHMENTS. A tribunal empowered to try any officer of government or other person brought to its bar by the process of impeachment.[6] (See COURT OF IMPEACHMENT; and, generally, OFFICERS.)

COURT HAND. In old English practice, the peculiar hand in which the records of the courts were written from the earliest period down to the reign of George II.[7]

COURT-HOUSE.[8] A house where courts are held.[9]

26. Cochise County v. Johnston, (Ariz. 1898) 52 Pac. 356.

Services of stenographer.— Where a statute prescribing the fees of court commissioners on criminal examinations refers only to cases where the evidence is taken by the officer in person, the amount to be paid for the services of a stenographer to take such testimony is such an amount as would be a reasonable recompense for the services performed. Pistorius v. Saginaw County Sup'rs, 51 Mich. 125, 16 N. W. 262.

1. Such a question is stated in the form of a special case. Black L. Dict. [citing 4 Stephen Comm. 442].

2. The name was formerly used in New York and South Carolina. Black L. Dict.

3. State v. Bailey, 1 S. C. 1, 5.

4. Burrill L. Dict.

5. Black L. Dict.

6. In England, the house of lords constitutes such a court; in the United States, the senate; and in the several states, usually, the upper house of the legislative assembly. Black L. Dict.

7. Burrill L. Dict.

Blackstone speaks of "The ancient immutable court hand in writing the records or other legal proceedings; whereby the reading of any record that is fifty years old is now become the object of science, and calls for the help of an antiquarian." 3 Bl. Comm. 323.

8. "The court house, as the term implies, is chiefly for the use of the court; the remaining uses being subordinate, and to a great extent incidental." Vigo County v. Stout, 136 Ind. 53, 58, 35 N. E. 683.

"Court-house" and "jail" operating as a dedication see Travis County v. Christian, (Tex. Civ. App. 1892) 21 S. W. 119.

"Court-house" and "door of the court-house" as places for making judicial sales see, generally, EXECUTIONS; JUDICIAL SALES.

9. Harris v. State, 72 Miss. 960, 965, 18 So. 387, 33 L. R. A. 85. See also Schanewerk v. Hoberecht, 117 Mo. 22, 27, 28 S. W. 949, 38 Am. St. Rep. 631 (where the words "court house in Benton County" were interpreted to mean "the house provided by the county for the purpose, and in which are held the sessions of the various courts of the county, . . . and in which are generally the offices of the county officials"); Hambright v. Brock-

COURT LANDS. Demains, or lands kept in demesne, i. e. in the lord's own hands, to serve his family.[10]

COURT-LEET. A court of record in England.[11] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT MARTIAL. See ARMY AND NAVY.

COURT NOT OF RECORD. See COURTS.

COURT OF ADMIRALTY. See ADMIRALTY.

COURT OF ANCIENT DEMESNE. A court of peculiar constitution, held by a bailiff appointed by the king, in which alone the tenants of the king's demesne could be impleaded.[12] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF APPEALS. An appellate tribunal which is often the court of last resort.[13] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF APPEALS IN CASES OF CAPTURE. A court created by congress under the articles of confederation, before the adoption of the United States constitution, having appellate jurisdiction in prize cases.[14] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF APPELLATE JURISDICTION. See COURTS.

COURT OF ARBITRATION OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. A court of arbitrators, created for the convenience of merchants in the city of New York, by act of the legislature of New York.[15]

COURT OF ARCHES. A court of appeal belonging to the archbishop of Canterbury.[16] (See ARCHDEACON'S COURT.)

COURT OF ASSISTANTS. A New England colonial supreme court.[17]

man, 59 Mo. 52, 57 (where the court in construing the words "at the court house door," etc., said: "When a court house is mentioned, it is obviously designed to designate the building where courts are held, and where the people attending such courts are supposed to congregate").

"'At the courthouse' has, in the legislation and decisions of this state, a crystallized and settled meaning in this connection, and means at the 'building occupied and appropriated according to law for the holding of the courts.'" Harris v. State, 72 Miss. 960, 965, 18 So. 387, 33 L. R. A. 85.

"Court-house purposes."—"What is meant by the phrase 'court-house purposes,' within the intention of these parties, we need not attempt to define. The customs and usages of a particular State or locality might contribute largely in shaping such a definition. Some of these customs might also be matters so general, and of such common knowledge, as to be the subjects of judicial cognizance, without proof. However this may be, one point is very clear to our mind. No mere incidental and collateral use, to which the lot in question may be temporarily devoted, which does not conflict or interfere with its use by the county for court-house purposes, can be construed to be a breach of the conditions of the deed." Henry v. Etowah County, 77 Ala. 538, 540.

"By the 'court house door' of a county is meant either of the principal entrances to the house provided by proper authority for the holding of the District Court; and where from any cause there is no such house, the door of the house where the District Court was last held in that county shall be deemed to be the court house door. Where the court house or house used by the court has been destroyed by fire or other cause, and another has not been designated by the proper authority, the place where such house stood shall be deemed to be the court house door." Tex. Rev. Stat. art. 2310 [quoted in Boone v. Miller, 86 Tex. 74, 79, 23 S. W. 574]. See also as to the meaning of the words "court-house door," where the court-house had been destroyed by fire, Longworthy v. Featherston, 65 Ga. 165, 167 [quoted in Harris v. State, 72 Miss. 960, 965, 18 So. 387, 33 L. R. A. 85]; Chandler v. White, 84 Ill. 435, 440; Alden v. Goldie, 82 Ill. 581; Waller v. Arnold, 71 Ill. 350, 353.

10. Burrill L. Dict.

11. Held once or twice in every year within a particular hundred, lordship, or manor, before the steward of the leet, for the preservation of the peace, and the punishment of all trivial misdemeanors. Burrill L. Dict.

A grant for years, in reversion, of a court-leet, and court-baron, is good as to the court-baron only; and assumpsit lies for the fees of that office, to which the defendant claimed title. Howard v. Wood, 2 Show. 361, 364.

12. Black L. Dict. [citing 2 Bl. Comm. 99].

Ancient demesne may be pleaded in ejectment by leave of the court, and upon a proper affidavit. Doe v. Roe, 2 Burr. 1046, 1048.

13. Black L. Dict.

14. Rapalje & L. L. Dict. See also Talbot v. Three Brigs, 1 Dall. (Pa.) 95, 107, 1 L. ed. 52. And see U. S. v. Peters, 5 Cranch 115, 140, 3 L. ed. 53; Ross v. Rittenhouse, 2 Dall. (Pa.) 160, 169, 3 L. ed 321.

This was not a common-law court. Talbot v. Three Brigs, 1 Dall. (Pa.) 95, 105, 1 L. ed. 52.

15. It decides disputes between members of the chamber of commerce, and between members and outside merchants who voluntarily submit themselves to the jurisdiction of the court. Black L. Dict.

16. 3 Bl. Comm. 65.

17. English L. Dict.

COURT OF ATTACHMENTS. The lowest of the forest courts.[18]

COURT OF AUDIENCE. See AUDIENCE COURT.

COURT OF AUGMENTATION. An English court created in the time of Henry VIII.[19]

COURT OF BANKRUPTCY. An English court of record, having original and appellate jurisdiction in matters of bankruptcy, and invested with both legal and equitable powers for that purpose.[20] (See, generally, BANKRUPTCY; COURTS; INSOLVENCY.)

COURT OF BERGHMOTE. A court not of record which administered justice among the miners of the Peak, in Derbyshire, England.[21]

COURT OF CASSATION. The highest court in France; so termed from possessing the power to quash (casser) the decrees of inferior courts.[22] (See CASSATION; and, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF CHANCERY. See COURTS; EQUITY.

COURT OF CHIVALRY. A court formerly held before the lord high constable and earl marshal of England jointly, and afterwards before the latter only.[23]

COURT OF CLAIMS. See COURTS.

COURT OF CLERK OF THE MARKET. An English court of inferior jurisdiction held in every fair or market for the punishment of misdemeanors committed therein, and the recognizance of weights and measures.[24]

COURT OF COMMISSIONERS OF SEWERS. The name of certain English courts created by commission under the great seal pursuant to the statute of sewers, (23 Hen. VIII, c. 5.)[25]

COURT OF COMMON BENCH. See COMMON BENCH.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS. See COMMON PLEAS.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS FOR CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK. The oldest court in the state of New York.[26]

COURT OF CONSISTORY. An ecclesiastical court held by each bishop with appeal to the archbishop.[27]

COURT OF CONSTRUCTION. See CONSTRUCTION, COURT OF.

COURT OF CONVOCATION. See CONVOCATION.

COURT OF CORONER. See CORONERS.

COURT OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. In Alabama a court of record, composed of the judge of probate, as principal judge, and four commissioners, who are elected at the times prescribed by law, and hold office for four years.[28] (See, generally, COUNTIES; COURTS.)

COURT OF DELEGATES. Formerly, the great court of appeal in England in all ecclesiastical causes.[29]

COURT OF DUCHY OF LANCASTER. A court of special jurisdiction, held before the chancellor of the duchy or his deputy, concerning all matters of equity relating to lands holden of the king in right of the duchy of Lancaster.[30]

COURT OF EQUITY. See COURTS; EQUITY

COURT OF ERROR. An expression applied especially to the court of exchequer chamber and the house of lords, as taking cognizance of error brought.[31] (See, generally, COURTS.)

18. Burrill L. Dict. [citing 3 Bl. Comm. 71, 72; Termes de la Ley].

19. It had jurisdiction over the property and revenue of certain religious foundations, which had been made over to the king by act of parliament, and over suits relating to the same. Black L. Dict.

20. Black L. Dict.

21. English L. Dict.

22. Burrill L. Dict.

23. It had cognizance of contracts and other matters touching deeds of arms and war, as well out of the realm as within it. Burrill L. Dict. [citing 3 Bl. Comm. 68, 103, 105].

24. Black L. Dict.

25. Black L. Dict.

26. Rapalje & L. L. Dict. Abolished by N. Y. Const. (1895), art. 6, § 5.

27. English L. Dict.

28. Black L. Dict. And see Ala. Civ. Code (1896), § 951.

29. The judicial committee of the privy council is now substituted for this court. Burrill L. Dict.

30. Burrill L. Dict. [citing 3 Bl. Comm. 78].

31. Black L. Dict.

In some of the United States the name applied to the court of last resort in the state;

COURT OF ERRORS AND APPEALS. The court of last resort in the state of New Jersey.[32] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF EXCHEQUER. A very ancient court of record, set up by William the Conqueror as part of the aula regis, and afterwards one of the four superior courts at Westminster.[33] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF EXCHEQUER CHAMBER. The name of a former English court of appeal, intermediate between the superior courts of common law and the house of lords.[34]

COURT OF FACULTIES. An archbishop's court.[35]

COURT OF FIRST INSTANCE. Court of primary jurisdiction.[36]

COURT OF GENERAL JURISDICTION. See COURTS.

COURT OF GENERAL QUARTER SESSIONS OF THE PEACE. A court of criminal jurisdiction in New Jersey and in England.[37] (See, generally, COURTS; CRIMINAL LAW.)

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS. A court of general original jurisdiction in criminal cases in some states.[38] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF GREAT SESSIONS IN WALES. A court formerly held in Wales.[39]

COURT OF GREEN CLOTH. A court within the King's household having charge of the King's Court and keeping the peace therein.[40]

COURT OF HIGH COMMISSION. An ecclesiastical and admiralty court of appellate jurisdiction established under Henry VIII.[41]

COURT OF HUSTINGS. The county court of London, held before the mayor, recorder and sheriff, but of which the recorder is, in effect, the sole judge;[42] a local court in some parts of Virginia.[43] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF IMPEACHMENT. A court for the trial of government officials.[44] (See COURT FOR TRIAL OF IMPEACHMENTS; and, generally, OFFICERS.)

COURT OF INQUIRY. See ARMY AND NAVY.

COURT OF JUSTICE SEAT. The principal of the forest courts.[45]

COURT OF JUSTICIARY. A Scotch court of general criminal jurisdiction of all offenses committed in any part of Scotland, both to try causes and to review decisions of inferior criminal courts.[46]

COURT OF KING'S BENCH. The supreme court of common law in the kingdom.[47] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF LAND REGISTRATION. In Massachusetts, a court of record having exclusive original jurisdiction of all applications for the registration of title to land within the commonwealth, with power to hear and determine all questions arising upon such applications, and of such other questions as may come before it, subject to the right of appeal.[48] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF LAST RESORT. One from which there is no appeal.[49] and in its most general sense denotes any court having power to review the decisions of lower courts on appeal, error, certiorari, or other process. Black L. Dict.

32. Formerly, the same title was given to the highest court of appeal in New York. Black L. Dict.

33. The judicature act of 1873 transferred the business and jurisdiction of this court to the "exchequer division" of the "high court of justice." Black L. Dict.

In Scotch law, it was a court which had jurisdiction of matters of revenue, and a limited jurisdiction over cases between the crown and its vassals where no questions of title were involved. Black L. Dict.

34. By the judicature act of 1873 the jurisdiction of this court is transferred to the court of appeal. Black L. Dict.

35. English L. Dict.

36. English L. Dict.

37. Black L. Dict. [citing 4 Stephen Comm. 317–320].

38. Black L. Dict.

39. Black L. Dict. [citing 3 Stephen Comm. 317 note].

40. It was held in the counting house, at a board covered with green cloth, from which it takes its name. English L. Dict.

41. English L. Dict.

42. Burrill L. Dict.

43. Black L. Dict. [citing Smith v. Com., 6 Gratt. (Va.) 696].

44. English L. Dict.

45. Black L. Dict.

46. Black L. Dict.

47. It is now merged in the high court of justice under the judicature act of 1873. Black L. Dict.

48. 2 Mass. Rev. Laws (1902), c. 128, § 1.

49. English L. Dict.

COURT OF LAW. See Courts.

COURT OF LIMITED JURISDICTION. See Courts.

COURT OF LORD HIGH STEWARD. A court instituted for the trial, during the recess of parliament, of peers indicted for treason or felony, or for misprision of either.[50]

COURT OF LORD HIGH STEWARD OF THE UNIVERSITIES. A court constituted for the trial of scholars or privileged persons connected with the university at Oxford or Cambridge who are indicted for treason, felony, or mayhem.[51]

COURT OF MAGISTRATES AND FREEHOLDERS. A court formerly established in South Carolina for the trial of slaves and free persons of color for criminal offenses.[52]

COURT OF MARCHES. A court on the marches of Wales having limited jurisdiction.[53]

COURT OF MARSHALSEA. A court which had jurisdiction of all trespasses committed within the verge of the king's court, where one of the parties was of the royal household; and of all debts and contracts, when both parties were of that establishment.[54]

COURT OF MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION. In Michigan a court established by statute for the hearing and settlement of any grievance or dispute of any nature which shall arise between any employer and his employees.[55]

COURT OF NISI PRIUS. A term frequently used as a general designation of any court exercising general, original jurisdiction in civil cases, (being used interchangeably with "trial-court").[56] (See, generally, Courts.)

COURT OF ORDINARY. The name sometimes given to the probate or surrogate's court.[57] (See Court of Probate.)

COURT OF ORIGINAL JURISDICTION. See Courts.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER. In English law, a court for the trial of cases of treason and felony. In American law, the name is generally used (sometimes, with additions) as the title, or part of the title, of a state court of criminal jurisdiction, or of the criminal branch of a court of general jurisdiction, being commonly applied to such courts as may try felonies, or the higher grades of crime.[58] (See, generally, Courts.)

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER AND GENERAL JAIL DELIVERY. A court of criminal jurisdiction in the state of Pennsylvania.[59]

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER, GENERAL JAIL DELIVERY, AND COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS OF THE PEACE, IN AND FOR THE CITY AND COUNTY OF PHILADELPHIA. A court of record of general criminal jurisdiction in and for the city and county of Philadelphia, in the state of Pennsylvania.[60] (See, generally, Courts.)

COURT OF PALACE AT WESTMINSTER. A court which had jurisdiction of personal actions arising within twelve miles of the palace at Whitehall.[61]

COURT OF PASSAGE. An inferior court, possessing a very ancient jurisdiction over causes of action arising within the borough of Liverpool.[62]

COURT OF PECULIARS. A spiritual court in England, being a branch of, and annexed to the Court of Arches,[63] q. v.

COURT OF PIEPOUDRE, PIEPOWDERS, or PYPOWDERS.[64] A court held in

50. Black L. Dict.
51. Black L. Dict.
52. Black L. Dict.
53. English L. Dict.
54. It was abolished by 12 & 13 Vict. c. 101, § 13. Black L. Dict.
55. 1 Mich. Comp. Laws (1897), c. 30, § 1.
56. Black L. Dict.
57. Black L. Dict.
58. Black L. Dict. See 5 Cyc. 78, note 81.
59. Black L. Dict. [citing Brightly Purd. Dig. Pa. pp. 26, 382, 1201].
60. Black L. Dict.
61. Abolished by 12 & 13 Vict. c. 101. Black L. Dict. [citing 3 Stephen Comm. 317 note].
62. It appears to have been also called the "Borough Court of Liverpool." It has the same jurisdiction in admiralty matters as the Lancashire county court. Black L. Dict. [citing Roscoe Adm. 75].
63. Burrill L. Dict.
64. Derived from pied pouldreaux, a pedlar. Jacob L. Dict.

fairs, to do justice to buyers and sellers, and for redress of disorders committed in them.[65]

COURT OF PLEAS. A court of the county palatine of Durham, having a local common-law jurisdiction.[66]

COURT OF POLICIES OF ASSURANCE. A court established by 43 Eliz. c. 12, to determine in a summary way all causes between merchants, concerning policies of insurance.[67]

COURT OF PRIVATE LAND CLAIMS. A court created by congress, with jurisdiction over claims for lands in the territory acquired from Mexico, based on Mexican title.[68]

COURT OF PROBATE. In England, a court to which the testamentary jurisdiction of ecclesiastical and other courts has been transferred.[69] In America, a court having jurisdiction over the probate of wills, the grant of administration, and the supervision of the management and settlement of the estates of decedents, including the collection of assets, the allowance of claims, and the distribution of the estate.[70] (See, generally, COURTS; EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS; ORPHANS' COURT; SURROGATE'S COURT; WILLS.)

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS OF THE PEACE. A court of criminal jurisdiction in the state of Pennsylvania, having power to try misdemeanors, and exercising certain functions of an administrative nature.[71] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH. See COURT OF KING'S BENCH.

COURT OF RECORD. See COURTS.

COURT OF REGARDS. One of the forest courts, held every third year for the lawing or expeditation of dogs.[72]

COURT OF REQUESTS. A court, not of record, constituted by act of parliament in the city of London, and other towns, for the recovery of small debts.[73]

COURT OF REVIEW. A court whose principal function is passing upon final decisions of other courts.[74] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF SESSION. The name of the highest court of civil jurisdiction in Scotland.[75]

COURT OF SESSIONS. Courts of criminal jurisdiction existing in some of the states.[76] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF SHEPWAY. A court of which the lord warden of the cinque port was judge.[77]

COURT OF SPECIAL JURISDICTION. See COURTS.

COURT OF STANNARIES. A court established in Devonshire and Cornwall, for the administration of justice among the miners and tinners, and that they may not be drawn away from their business to attend suits in distant courts.[78]

COURT OF STAR CHAMBER. An English court of very ancient origin, but newly-modeled by 3 Hen. VII, c. 1, and 21 Hen. VIII, c. 20, consisting of divers

65. So-called because they are most usual in summer, when the suitors to the court have dusty feet; and from the expedition in hearing causes proper thereunto, before the dust goes off the feet of the plaintiffs and defendants. Jacob L. Dict.

66. It was abolished by the judicature act of 1873, which transferred its jurisdiction to the high court. Black L. Dict [citing 3 Bl. Comm. 79].

67. Burrill L. Dict.

68. English L. Dict.; 26 U. S. Stat. at L. p. 854, c. 539 [U. S. Comp. Stat. (1901) p. 764].

69. Burrill L. Dict. Established by 20 & 21 Vict. c. 77, §§ 3, 4.

70. In some states the probate courts also have jurisdiction of the estates of minors, including the appointment of guardians and the settlement of their accounts, and of the estates of lunatics, habitual drunkards, and spendthrifts. And in some states these courts possess a limited jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases. They are also called "orphans' courts" and "surrogate's courts." Black L. Dict.

71. Black L. Dict. [citing Brightly Purd. Dig. Pa. pp. 26, 383, § 35; p. 1198, § 1].

72. Burrill L. Dict. [citing 3 Bl. Comm. 72].

73. Burrill L. Dict.

74. English L. Dict.

75. 37 Alb. L. J. 4; Black L. Dict.

76. Black L. Dict. See 5 Cyc. 82, note 6.

77. English L. Dict.

78. The stannary court is a court of record, with a special jurisdiction. Black L. Dict. [citing 3 Bl. Comm. 79].

lords, spiritual and temporal, being privy councillors, together with two judges of the courts of common law, without the intervention of any jury.[79]

COURT OF STEWARD AND MARSHAL. A high court, formerly held in England by the steward and marshal of the king's household.[80]

COURT OF STEWARD OF KING'S HOUSEHOLD. A court which had jurisdiction of all cases of treason, misprision of treason, murder, manslaughter, bloodshed, and other malicious strikings whereby blood is shed, occurring in or within the limits of any of the palaces or houses of the king, or any other house where the royal person is abiding.[81]

COURT OF ST. MARTIN LE GRAND. An ancient, but local, London court so called from the church of that name.[82]

COURT OF SUMMARY JURISDICTION. As defined by statute, any justice or justices of the peace, or other magistrate, by whatever name called, to whom jurisdiction is given by, or who is authorized to act under, the Summary Jurisdiction Acts, whether in England, Wales or Ireland, and whether acting under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts or any of them or under any other act, or by virtue of his commission, or under the common law.[83]

COURT OF SURVEY. A court for the hearing of appeals by owners or masters of ships, from orders for the detention of unsafe ships, made by the English board of trade, under the merchant shipping act of 1876.[84]

COURT OF SWEINMOTE. One of the forest courts, having a somewhat similar jurisdiction to that of the COURT OF ATTACHMENTS,[85] q. v.

COURT OF TEIND. In Scotch law, a court having jurisdiction of tithes, stipends and parish boundaries.[86]

COURT OF TRAILBASTON. A court established by Edward I, with jurisdiction over certain criminal offences, and presided over by justices of Trailbaston.[87]

COURT OF UNIVERSITIES. Courts organized by statute at the universities of Oxford and Cambridge, and having jurisdiction in all personal actions to which any member or servant of the respective university is a party, provided that the cause of action arose within the liberties of the university, and that the member or servant was resident in the university when it arose, and when the action was brought.[88] (See, generally, COURTS.)

COURT OF WARDS AND LIVERIES. A court of record, established in England in the reign of Henry VIII.[89]

COURT RULES. See COURTS.

79. Brown L. Dict.

The jurisdiction extended legally over riots, perjury, misbehavior of sheriffs, and other misdemeanors contrary to the laws of the land; yet it was afterwards stretched to the asserting of all proclamations and orders of state, to the vindicating of illegal commissions and grants of monopolies; holding for honorable that which it pleased, and for just that which it profited, and becoming both a court of law to determine civil rights and a court of revenue to enrich the treasury. It was finally abolished by 16 Car. I, c. 10. Brown L. Dict.

80. Burrill L. Dict. [citing 2 Reeve Hist. 235, 247, 249, 415, 420].

81. It was created by 33 Hen. VIII, c. 12, but long since fell into disuse. Black L. Dict. [citing 4 Bl. Comm. 276, 277 and notes].

82. English L. Dict.

83. Boulter v. Kent, [1897] A. C. 556, 563, 61 J. P. 532, 66 L. J. Q. B. 787, 77 L. T. Rep. N. S. 288, 46 Wkly. Rep. 114. And see Reg. v. Glamorganshire, [1892] 1 Q. B. 621, 629 [citing 9 Geo. IV, c. 61], where Fry, L. J., said: "The effect seems to be that a 'court of summary jurisdiction' means a justice or justices of the peace acting as such."

84. Black L. Dict.

85. Black L. Dict.

86. English L. Dict.

87. English L. Dict.

88. Black L. Dict. [citing 3 Stephen Comm. 299; 19 & 20 Vict. c. 17; 25 & 26 Vict. c. 26, § 12].

Each university court also has a criminal jurisdiction in all offenses committed by its members. Black L. Dict. [citing 4 Stephen Comm. 325].

89. Burrill L. Dict. [citing Crabb Eng. L. 468; 4 Reeve Eng. L. 258].

COURTS

By Joseph A. Joyce * and Howard C. Joyce †

---

* Author of "A Treatise on Marine, Life, Accident, and Other Insurances;" joint author of "A Treatise on Damages," "A Treatise on Electric Law," etc., etc.
† Joint author of "A Treatise on Damages," "A Treatise on Electric Law," etc., etc.

CROSS-REFERENCES

For Matters Relating to:
Amicus Curiæ, see AMICUS CURIÆ.
Appearance in Court, see APPEARANCES.
Clerks of Courts, see CLERKS OF COURTS.
Contempt of Court, see CONTEMPT.
Court Commissioners, see COURT COMMISSIONERS.
Deposits in Court, see DEPOSITS IN COURT.
Distribution of Governmental Powers, see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW.
Embracery, see EMBRACERY.
Judges, see JUDGES.
Judicial Notice of Jurisdiction of Courts, see EVIDENCE.
Obstructing Justice, see OBSTRUCTING JUSTICE.
Particular Classes of Courts:
Admiralty Courts, see ADMIRALTY.
Bankruptcy Courts, see BANKRUPTCY.
Consular Courts, see AMBASSADORS AND CONSULS.
Courts For Trial of Impeachments, see OFFICERS.
Courts-Martial, see ARMY AND NAVY; MILITIA; WAR.
Courts of Equity, see EQUITY.
Courts of Inquiry, see ARMY AND NAVY.
Courts of Insolvency, see INSOLVENCY.
Justices of the Peace, see JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.
Naturalization Courts, see ALIENS.
Prize-Courts, see ADMIRALTY.
Power to Determine Constitutional Questions, see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW.
Removal of Cause to Federal Court, see REMOVAL OF CAUSES.
Reports of Judicial Decisions, see REPORTS.
Submission of Controversy, see SUBMISSION OF CONTROVERSY.
Venue, see VENUE.

I. DEFINITIONS.

A. Court Generally. A court[1] has been defined as: A place where justice

1. Derivation.— Curia, court, is derived à cura, quia in curiis publicis curas gerebant. Coke Litt. 58*a*.

The word "court" may be construed to mean "courts." Shaw v. McHenry, 52 Iowa 182, 186, 2 N. W. 1076, construing Iowa Code, § 45, subs. 3.

The term "court" has a well understood and accepted meaning. Popular as well as legal parlance impart to it a sense generally recognized and received. Ex p. Carson, 5 S. C. 117, 119. The word is used in its technical sense in the provision of the constitution which vests the judicial power in certain courts. State v. Woodson, 161 Mo. 444, 61 S. W. 252, 255, construing Mo. Const. art. 6, § 1.

Constituent parts.— As understood in its full modern signification, a court consists of at least three constituent parts; the actus, reus, and judex. The actus, or plaintiff, who complains of any injury done; the reus, or defendant, who is called upon to make satisfaction for it; and the judex, or judicial is judicially administered;[2] the presence of a sufficient number of the members of a body in the government, to which the public administration of justice is delegated, regularly convened in an authorized place, at an appointed time, power, which is to examine the truth of the fact, to determine the law arising upon the fact and, if any injury appears to have been done, to ascertain and, by its officers, to apply the remedy. 3 Bl. Comm. 25 [quoted in Clayton v. Berry, 27 Ark. 129, 134; Union Colony v. Elliott, 5 Colo. 371, 381; People v. Van Allen, 55 N. Y. 31, 35; Reg. v. Bunting, 7 Ont. 118, 125].

Our system of courts and the principles governing them are derived from the common law. But in England the tribunal was called the "curia" or "court," because it was held by the king himself originally. The judgments of the court read as the judgments of the king, and when he ceased to hold the court in person, and delegated this function to one of his officers, the character of the judgment was the same. Manifestly, there the subject was not responsible for damages for the act of the king. In this country the power vested in the king vests in the body of the people, and the courts sit as their representative. Bridges v. McAlister, 106 Ky. 791, 796, 51 S. W. 603, 45 L. R. A. 800.

A judge sitting at chambers is a court, in the proper and usual sense of the term. Foote v. Silsby, 9 Fed. Cas. No. 4,917, 1 Blatchf. 542.

A board to try election contests may be a court. Pratt v. Breckinridge, 65 S. W. 136, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1356, 1366, 53 L. R. A. 245.

A master commissioner is not a court, and judicial duties which courts can exercise cannot be conferred upon him. Shoultz v. McPheeters, 79 Ind. 373, 376.

Justices of the peace are embraced in the term "courts" within the meaning of the Illinois constitution relative to the administration of justice. Tissier v. Rhein, 130 Ill. 110, 144, 22 N. E. 848. But see Waldo v. Wallace, 12 Ind. 569, 583, where it is said: "The judicial power is vested in Courts, not in officers. An officer may not necessarily be a Court. A justice of the peace is not necessarily a Court. He is not a Court when elected, simply by virtue of his election, and is not vested, by his election simply, with judicial power. But if the legislature, after or before his election, vest judicial power in that officer, as such, the exercise of which is made the chief and permanent duty of his office, he thus becomes a Court." See also JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

2. Alabama.— Ex p. Branch, 63 Ala. 383, 384.

Arkansas.— Dunn v. State, 2 Ark. 229, 252, 35 Am. Dec. 54.

California.— Von Schmidt v. Widber, 99 Cal. 511, 512, 34 Pac. 109.

Colorado.— Union Colony v. Elliott, 5 Colo. 371, 381.

Indiana.— White County v. Gwin, 136 Ind. 562, 576, 36 N. E. 237, 22 L. R. A. 402; Shoultz v. McPheeters, 79 Ind. 373, 375; Levey v. Bigelow, 6 Ind. App. 677, 34 N. E. 128.

Iowa.— Hobart v. Hobart, 45 Iowa 501, 503.

Kansas.— Auditor v. Atchison, etc., R. Co., 6 Kan. 500, 506, 7 Am. St. Rep. 575.

Kentucky.— Com. v. Rodes, 5 T. B. Mon. 318, 334 (dissenting opinion); Venhoff v. Morgan, 11 Ky. L. Rep. 276, 278.

Minnesota.— See Fitzpatrick v. Simonson Bros. Mfg. Co., 86 Minn. 140, 149, 90 N. W. 378.

Missouri.— State v. Woodson, 161 Mo. 444, 453, 61 S. W. 252; Mason v. Woerner, 18 Mo. 566, 570.

New Jersey.—Lewis v. Hoboken, 42 N. J. L. 377, 379.

New York.—Losee v. Dolan, 74 N. Y. Suppl. 685, 688; People v. Barrett, 9 N. Y. Suppl. 321, 322, 18 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 230.

Pennsylvania.— Murdy v. McCutcheon, 95 Pa. St. 435, 437; King v. King, 1 Penr. & W. 15, 19; Com. v. Brower, 7 Pa. Dist. 254, 9 Kulp 317, 318.

Tennessee.— Illinois Cent. R. Co. v. Crider, 91 Tenn. 489, 505, 19 S. W. 618, where it is said: "The meaning of 'court' depends upon the connectior in which it is used. It may refer to the place where justice is judicially administered."

Texas.— Henderson v. Beaton, 52 Tex. 29, 42, dissenting opinion.

West Virginia.— Johnston v. Hunter, 50 W. Va. 52, 55, 40 S. E. 448.

United States.— Fuller v. Colfax County, 14 Fed. 177, 178, 4 McCrary 535.

England.— 3 Bl. Comm. 23; Coke Litt. 58*a*.

Criticism of definition.— In Hobart v. Hobart, 45 Iowa 501, 503 [quoted in Shoultz v. McPheeters, 79 Ind. 373, 375; In re Terrill, 52 Kan. 29, 32, 34 Pac. 457, 39 Am. St. Rep. 327], it is said: "This definition obviously wants fullness; it is limited to the place of a court in its expression. In addition to the place, there must be the presence of the officers constituting the court, the judge or judges certainly, and probably the clerk authorized to record the action of the court; time must be regarded, too, for the officers of a court must be present at the place and at the time appointed by law in order to constitute a court. To give existence to a court, then, its officers and the time and place of holding it must be such as are prescribed by law." In White County v. Gwin, 136 Ind. 562, 577, 36 N. E. 237, 22 L. R. A. 402, it is said: "The prominence of the word 'place,' in this definition, no doubt arises from the ancient idea that the king was the fountain and dispenser of justice, and wherever he was domiciled was a court or place where justice was dispensed. In modern times, and under our form of government, the judicial power is exercised by means of courts. . . . A time when, a place where, and the persons by whom judicial functions are to be exercised, are essential to complete the idea of a court. It is engaged in the full and regular performance of its duties;[3] a body in the government to which the public administration of justice is delegated;[4] an organized in its organized aspect, with all these constituent elements of time, place, and officers, that completes the idea of a court in the general legal acceptation of the term. But a court may exist in legal contemplation, without any officers charged with the duty of administering justice." In People v. Barrett, 9 N. Y. Suppl. 321, 322, 18 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 230, it is said: "The term 'place' must be understood figuratively, for a court is properly composed of persons consisting of the judge or judges, and other proper officers, united together in a civil organization, and invested by law with the requisite functions for the administration of justice."

"To administer justice judicially, there must be a judge, and usually, though not always, there are also other officers, such as clerk and sheriff or marshal. That also implies the right to issue compulsory process to bring parties before the court, so that jurisdiction may be acquired over the person or property which forms the subject-matter of the controversy. To administer justice judicially, two parties to a controversy must exist; there must be a wrong done or threatened, or a right withheld, before the court can act. Then a hearing or trial follows, and the 'justice to be judicially administered' results in a formal judgment for one of the parties to the controversy. The judgment to be pronounced usually has full binding force, unless modified or reversed." Fuller v. Colfax County, 14 Fed. 177, 178, 4 McCrary 535.

3. Bouvier L. Dict. [quoted in State v. Woodson, 161 Mo. 444, 453, 61 S. W. 252; Illinois Cent. R. Co. v. Crider, 91 Tenn. 489, 505, 19 S. W. 618; Henderson v. Beaton, 52 Tex. 29, 42 (dissenting opinion); Erwin v. U. S., 37 Fed. 470, 476, 2 L. R. A. 229].

Open court.— In Hobart v. Hobart, 45 Iowa 501, 504, it is said: "The word open, used in the section before us as an adjective qualifying the noun court, is to be understood as conveying the idea in this connection that the court must be in session, organized for the transaction of judicial business. This is its meaning when used elsewhere in the Code. It may, possibly, in this connection, mean public, free to all. If so, such signification would not materially change the force of the expression, and certainly would not require us to understand the term court to imply anything other than a tribunal organized for the administration of justice at the time and place prescribed by law."

Session of court.— Where a statute granted payment to a clerk "for his attendance on the court while actually in session," the court said: "'Court' is here used clearly in the sense of 'term' or 'session' of the court, . . . because it is the term or session of the court which is 'required by law to be held' at a particular time and place." Erwin v. U. S., 37 Fed. 470, 476, 2 L. R. A. 229.

4. Connecticut.— See Miles v. Strong, 68 Conn. 273, 286, 36 Atl. 55.

Idaho.— Rupert v. Alturas County, 2 Ida. (Hasb.) 19, 21, 2 Pac. 718.

Illinois.— Tissier v. Rhein, 130 Ill. 110, 114, 22 N. E. 848.

Indiana.— See Vigo County v. Stout, 136 Ind. 53, 58, 35 N. E. 683, 22 L. R. A. 398.

Kentucky.—Pratt v. Breckenridge, 66 S. W. 405, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1858, 1861.

Michigan.— See Shurbun v. Hooper, 40 Mich. 503, 505; Streeter v. Paton, 7 Mich. 341.

Missouri.— State v. Woodson, 161 Mo. 444, 453, 61 S. W. 252.

Texas.— Henderson v. Beaton, 52 Tex. 29, 42, dissenting opinion.

Other similar definitions are: "A body in the government organized for the public administration of justice at the time and place prescribed by law." Steberg v. State, 48 Nebr. 299, 312, 67 N. W. 190.

"A tribunal charged, as a substantive duty, with the exercise of judicial power." Waldo v. Wallace, 12 Ind. 569, 583.

"A tribunal organized for the purpose of administering justice, and presided over by a judge or judges." Shoultz v. McPheeters, 79 Ind. 373, 375.

"A tribunal presided over by one or more judges, for the exercise of such judicial power as has been conferred upon it by law." Von Schmidt v. Widber, 99 Cal. 511, 512, 34 Pac. 109 [quoted in State v. Woodson, 161 Mo. 444, 454, 61 S. W. 252].

"A tribunal whose office and purpose is to administer exact justice as nearly as may be to all parties before it." Hinson v. Adrien, 92 N. C. 121, 127.

"A tribunal established for the administration of justice (Pratt v. Breckenridge, 66 S. W. 405, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1858, 1861; People v. Van Allen, 55 N. Y. 31, 35; In re Huntingdon County Line, 8 Pa. Super. Ct. 380, 391) and composed of one or more persons, assembled under authority of law for the hearing and trial of causes, and the transaction of judicial business (State v. Atherton, 19 Nev. 332, 341, 10 Pac. 901), or of one or more judges, who sit for that purpose at fixed times and places, attended by proper officers" (Mason v. Woerner, 18 Mo. 566, 570; Butts v. Armor, 164 Pa. St. 73, 83, 30 Atl. 357, 26 L. R. A. 213).

"An organization invested by law with certain functions for the administration of justice." People v. Barrett, 9 N. Y. Suppl. 321, 322, 18 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 230.

"Persons officially assembled, under authority of law, at the appropriate time and place, for the administration of justice." In re Allison, 13 Colo. 525, 528, 22 Pac. 820, 16 Am. St. Rep. 224, 10 L. R. A. 790 [quoted in White County v. Gwin, 136 Ind. 562, 569, 36 N. E. 237, 22 L. R. A. 402].

Courts or tribunals in the nature of courts are the only agencies of the law by which a cause can be heard and determined, they are the only depositaries of judicial power. Without them it lies dormant and inactive in the body, with defined powers, meeting at certain times and places, for the hearing and decision of causes and other matters brought before it, and aided in this, its proper business, by its proper officers, viz., attorneys and counsel, to present and manage the business, clerks to record and attest its acts and decisions, and ministerial officers to execute its commands and secure order in its proceedings;[5] a tribunal empowered to hear and determine issues between parties, upon pleadings, either oral or written, and upon evidence to be adduced under well-defined and established rules, according to settled principles of law;[6] an incorporeal political being, which requires for its existence the presence of its judges, or a competent number of them, and a clerk or prothonotary, at or during which, and at a place where it is, by law, authorized to be held, and the performance of some public act indicative of the design to perform the functions of a court;[7] a judicial assembly;[8] an official assembly, legally met together for the transaction of judicial business; a judge or judges sitting for the hearing or trial of causes.[9] In a broad sovereignty of the state. Its active and potent existence is inseparable from that of a court. Johnston v. Hunter, 50 W. Va. 52, 55, 40 S. E. 448.

Includes police judge.— It is not unconstitutional to apply the word "court" to a tribunal presided over by a police judge. It is an inferior court which the legislature may establish in any corporation, city, or town, or city and county. Boys, etc., Aid Soc. v. Reis, 71 Cal. 627, 633, 12 Pac. 796.

5. Ex p. Gardner, 22 Nev. 280, 284, 39 Pac. 570 [quoting Burrill L. Dict.]; State v. Atherton, 19 Nev. 332, 341, 10 Pac. 901 [quoting Abbott L. Dict.]; Walsh v. Matchett, 6 Misc. (N. Y.) 114, 117, 26 N. Y. Suppl. 43 (dissenting opinion); People v. Barrett, 9 N. Y. Suppl. 321, 322, 18 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 230.

"Any court of law."— Where a statute required conveyances of lands made by persons non-residents of the state to be acknowledged "before any court of law," it was said: "'Any court of law' . . . means any person or persons who at the time constituted a court of law in the state where the grantor resided." Loree v. Abner, 57 Fed. 159, 164, 6 C. C. A. 302.

6. State v. Columbia, 17 S. C. 80, 82.

7. Bacon Abr. tit. Court [quoted in In re Terrill, 52 Kan. 29, 31, 34 Pac. 457, 39 Am. St. Rep. 327; State v. Judge Cir. Dist. Ct., 32 La. Ann. 1256, 1261; Gray v. Bostedo, 46 N. J. L. 453, 455; Lewis v. Hoboken, 42 N. J. L. 377, 379; Davis v. Delaware Tp., 41 N. J. L. 55, 56]; In re Lawyer's Tax Cases, 8 Heisk. (Tenn.) 565, 650 [citing Bouvier L. Dict.].

Essential elements of time, place, and officers.— In Dunn v. State, 2 Ark. 229, 252, 35 Am. Dec. 54, it is said: "And therefore to constitute a court there must be a place appointed by law for the administration of justice, and some person authorized by law to administer justice at that place, must be there for that purpose. Then, but not otherwise, there is a court, and the judicial power of the State may be there exercised by the judge or person authorized by law to hold it." And see State v. Woodson, 161 Mo. 444, 453, 61 S. W. 252; Johnston v. Hunter, 50 W. Va. 52, 55, 40 S. E. 448. In Williams v. Reutzel, 60 Ark. 155, 158, 29 S. W. 374 [citing Dunn v. State, 2 Ark. 229, 252, 35 Am. Dec. 54], it is said: "The meeting together of the judge and officers of a court at the place, but not at the time, fixed by law for holding the court, was not a court under our constitution and law, but was a mere collection of officers, whose acts must be regarded as coram non judice and void." And see Brumley v. State, 20 Ark. 77, 84; Walsh v. Matchett, 6 Misc. (N. Y.) 114, 117, 26 N. Y. Suppl. 43. In Venhoff v. Morgan, 11 Ky. L. Rep. 276, 278, it is said: "Certainty, both as to time and place, is essential to the conception of a court of justice; it would be eminently Caligulan could it act when and where it pleases the judge. Without recourse to the notion of a court as a sort of incorporate entity it is obvious that a judge does not at all times and places constitute a court, and that he can not, when he pleases, assert and enforce his judicial power. He becomes a judge when he is appointed or elected, but he becomes a court only when at the time and place designated by law he performs judicial duties. As said in Dunn v. State, 2 Ark. 229, 252, 35 Am. Dec. 54, the time and place designated by law and the presence of the judge there acting judicially are the 'union and combination of circumstances' which constitute a court. Jurisdiction is not predicated of the judge but of the court." And see King v. King, 1 Penr. & W. (Pa.) 15, 19, where it is said: "It is difficult to conceive of the office of a judge, without at the same time associating with it the idea of a place for the performance of its duties." But if the law should not, however, appoint a place for sitting of a court, it would doubtless rest in the power of the judge to appoint the time and place of sitting; and the only limitation of the power would be, that the place should be within the territory of his jurisdiction. But when the law prescribes the time and place time and place are as essential elements of jurisdiction, as subject-matter and parties. Ex p. Branch, 63 Ala. 383, 384 [citing Wightman v. Karsner, 20 Ala. 446].

8. State v. Woodson, 161 Mo. 444, 453, 61 S. W. 252.

9. Webster Dict. [quoted in Shoultz v. McPheeters, 79 Ind. 373, 376].

sense the term may include a judge,[10] and a jury,[11] as well as a judge and a clerk.[12]

B. Courts of General and Courts of Limited or Special Jurisdiction. Courts of general jurisdiction are courts which take cognizance of all causes, civil or criminal, of a particular nature.[13] Courts of limited or special jurisdiction are those which can take cognizance of a few specified matters only.[14]

C. Courts of Original and Courts of Appellate Jurisdiction. Courts of original jurisdiction are those in which an action has its first source or existence,

10. California.— Von Schmidt v. Widber, 99 Cal. 511, 513, 34 Pac. 109. See also Brewster v. Ludekins, 19 Cal. 162.

Colorado.— Compare Gruner v. Moore, 6 Colo. 526, 529, where it is said: "It was contended by counsel for petitioner, in argument, that the term 'court,' as here used, admits of a meaning synonymous with that of 'judge.' We cannot think that the statute was intended to admit of such a construction. The words court and judge seem to be here employed with the peculiar significance which ordinarily attaches to each term distinctively."

Georgia.— See Rodgers v. Price, 105 Ga. 67, 68, 31 S. E. 126.

Indiana.— Pressley v. Lamb, 105 Ind. 171, 185, 4 N. E. 682 (where it is said: "In a legal sense, the judge of a court is the court; certainly, there can be no court, under our laws, constitutional or statutory, without a judge. So nearly akin are the two words 'court' and 'judge,' in legal parlance, that, as they are used in the sections of the code now under consideration, they may well be regarded as synonyms, each of the other"); Michigan Cent. R. Co. v. Northern Indiana R. Co., 3 Ind. 239, 245 [quoted in Shoultz v. McPheeters, 79 Ind. 373, 375; Levey v. Bigelow, 6 Ind. App. 677, 34 N. E. 128].

Mississippi.— Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. McDonald, 79 Miss. 641, 643, 31 So. 417 [citing Brewster v. Ludekins, 19 Cal. 162, 170], where it is said: "The word 'court' is often used interchangeably with the word 'judge.'"

Missouri.— State v. Woodson, 161 Mo. 444, 453, 61 S. W. 252 (where it is said: "The judge of the court is its presiding officer. While the judge is often called the 'court' yet he is only so rightly called when the tribunal over which he presides is in session"); McClure v. McClurg, 53 Mo. 173, 175.

Nebraska.— Porter v. Flick, 60 Nebr. 773, 84 N. W. 262 [citing In re Van Sciever, 42 Nebr. 772, 60 N. W. 1037, 47 Am. St. Rep. 730].

New York.— People v. Molineux, 168 N. Y. 264, 329, 61 N. E. 286 (where it is said: "The word 'court' in the statutes is used in its generic sense, and includes both judge and jury in a case where a jury is present"); Matter of Brenner, 35 Misc. 212, 217, 70 N. Y. Suppl. 744 [citing Goddard v. State, 2 Yerg. (Tenn.) 96, 104].

Tennessee.—See Lawyer's Tax Cases, 8 Heisk. 565, 650, where it is said: "In another sense, the judges, clerk or prothonotary, counsellors and ministerial officers are said to constitute the court."

West Virginia.— See Carper v. Cook, 39 W. Va. 346, 348, 19 S. E. 379.

England.— Wilson v. Hood, 3 H. & C. 148, 152, where it is said that the word "'Judge' must mean one who in himself constitutes the Court, and not a Judge sitting at Nisi prius."

The judge and officers of the court are, of course, constituents of its organization, but they are not the court except when regularly convened at the time and place prescribed by law for the exercise of their several functions. People v. Barrett, 9 N. Y. Suppl. 321, 18 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 230 [quoted in Walsh v. Matchett, 6 Misc. (N. Y.) 114, 117, 26 N. Y. Suppl. 43].

11. People v. Molineux, 168 N. Y. 264, 329, 61 N. E. 286; Matter of Brenner, 35 Misc. (N. Y.) 212, 217, 70 N. Y. Suppl. 744 [citing Goddard v. State, 2 Yerg. (Tenn.) 96, 104]; Gold v. Vermont Cent. R. Co., 19 Vt. 478, 482.

"The court trying the cause" as used in a statute, would be the judge and jury. Illinois Cent. R. Co. v. Crider, 91 Tenn. 489, 506, 19 S. W. 618. See also State v. Schlitz Brewing Co., 104 Tenn. 715, 739, 59 S. W. 1033, 78 Am. St. Rep. 941.

12. Gold v. Vermont Cent. R. Co., 19 Vt. 478, 482.

13. Kinney L. Dict.

A court of general jurisdiction, whether named in the constitution or established in pursuance of the provisions of the constitution, cannot be directed, controlled, or impeded in its functions by any of the other departments of the government. Vigo County v. Stout, 136 Ind. 53, 59, 35 N. E. 683, 22 L. R. A. 398.

The division of courts, recognized at common law, was superior or courts of general jurisdiction, and inferior, or courts of limited jurisdiction. Superior courts derived much of their jurisdiction from the common law. Inferior courts derived their whole existence and jurisdistion from the statutes constituting them. Ex p. Roundtree, 51 Ala. 42, 44. See also Hahn v. Kelly, 34 Cal. 391, 94 Am. Dec. 742.

14. Bouvier L. Dict.

Another definition is: "One the jurisdiction of which is limited to special cases." English L. Dict.

The courts of the United States are all of limited jurisdiction, and their proceedings are erroneous, if the jurisdiction be not shown upon them. Kempe v. Kennedy, 5 Cranch (U. S.) 173, 185, 3 L. ed. 70 [quoted in Ex p. Watkins, 3 Pet. 193, 205, 7 L. ed. 650]. And see infra, XII, A, 3.

and which do not take jurisdiction of it by appeal.[15] Courts of appellate jurisdiction are those which review causes removed by appeal or error from another court.[16]

D. Courts of Equity and Courts of Law. Courts of equity are those which have jurisdiction in cases where the parties have only equitable rights.[17] Courts of law are courts having jurisdiction of actions and suits at law as distinguished from courts of equity.[18]

E. Courts of Record and Courts Not of Record. A court of record[19] has been defined as a court where the acts and judicial proceedings are enrolled in parchment for a perpetual memorial and testimony,[20] and which has power to fine and imprison for contempt of its authority;[21] a court that is bound to keep a 15. Abbott v. Knowlton, 31 Me. 77, 79.

The phrase "original jurisdiction" does not mean exclusive jurisdiction; two or more courts may have original jurisdiction of the same actions. Abbott v. Knowlton, 31 Me. 77, 79.

16. Kinney L. Dict.

17. 4 Bouvier Inst. 73, No. 2535 [citing 1 Story Eq. c. 2].

18. English L. Dict.

Another definition is: "Any court which administers justice according to the principles and forms of the common law." Anderson L. Dict.

"Courts having common law jurisdiction are such as exercise their powers according to the course of the common law." People v. McGowan, 77 Ill. 644, 648, 20 Am. Rep. 254 [quoted in Dean, Petitioner, 83 Me. 489, 496, 22 Atl. 385, 13 L. R. A. 229]. See also Matter of Conner, 39 Cal. 98, 2 Am. Rep. 427.

19. Called in law French, court que porte record; a court which bears record. Burrill L. Dict.

"Recordum, is a memoriall or remembrance in rolles of parchment, of the proceedings and acts of a court of justice which hath power to hold plea according to the course of the common law, of reall or mixt actions, or of actions quare vi et armis, or of personall actions, whereof the debt or dammage amounts to fortie shillings or above, which wee call Courts of Record and are created by parliament, letters patent, or prescription. . . . But legally records are restrained to the rolles of such only as are courts of record, and not the rolles of inferiour, nor of any other courts which proceed not secundum legemet consuetudinem Angliæ." Coke Litt. 260*a* [quoted in Planters', etc., Bank v. Chiply, 1 Ga. Dec. 50, 51].

All courts of record are the king's courts, in right of his crown and royal dignity, and therefore no other court hath authority to fine and imprison; so that the very erection of a new jurisdiction, with the power of fine and imprisonment, makes it a court of record. 3 Bl. Comm. [quoted in Planters', etc., Bank v. Chipley, 1 Ga. Dec. 50, 51; Young v. Woodcock, 5 N. Brunsw. 554, 558].

20. California.— Hahn v. Kelly, 34 Cal. 391, 422, 94 Am. Dec. 742.

Georgia.— Planters', etc., Bank v. Chipley, 1 Ga. Dec. 50, 51.

New Mexico.— Bucher v. Thompson, 7 N. M. 115, 118, 32 Pac. 498.

New York.— Hutkoff v. Demorest, 103 N. Y. 377, 386, 8 N. E. 899, 10 N. E. 535; Wheaton v. Fellows, 23 Wend. 372, 377.

Ohio.— Adair v. Rogers, Wright 428, 429, where it is said: "We have no parchment or roll, but a book of records of paper, in which alone our judicial proceedings are preserved."

United States.— The Thomas Fletcher, 24 Fed. 481, 482.

Canada.— Young v. Woodcock, 5 N. Brunsw. 554, 558.

The privilege of having these enrolled memorials constitutes the great leading distinction in English and American law between courts of record, and courts not of record, or, as they are frequently designated, superior and inferior courts. In the United States paper has universally supplied the place of parchment as the material of the record, and the roll form has, on that account, fallen into disuse; but in other respects the forms of the English records have, with some modifications, been generally adopted. But whether in parchment or paper, in the roll form or otherwise, this judgment-roll is what is known in law as the record — the technical record — and is what is meant by courts and law writers when they speak of records of superior courts, or courts of record. This technical record is the only strict and proper proof of the proceedings of the courts in which they are preserved and are regarded in law as proof of so absolute a nature as to admit of no contradiction. In the language of Lord Coke, "they import in themselves such incontrollable credit and verity, as they admit no averment, plea or proof to the contrary." Hahn v. Kelly, 34 Cal. 391, 423, 94 Am. Dec. 742 [citing 3 Bl. Comm. 24; Burrill L. Dict.; Coke Litt. 260*a*; 3 Stephen Comm. 583].

21. Bucher v. Thompson, 7 N. M. 115, 118, 32 Pac. 498. In Groenvelt v. Burwell, 1 Salk. 200, Holt, C. J., said: "Wherever a power is given to examine, hear, and punish, it is a judicial power, and they in whom it is reposed act as judges: And wherever there is a jurisdiction erected with power to fine and imprison, that is a court of record, and what is there done is matter of record."

Other similar definitions are:. "Any jurisrecord of its proceedings, and that may fine or imprison;[22] a judicial, organized tribunal, having attributes, and exercising functions, independently of the person of the magistrate designated generally to hold it, and proceeding according to the course of the common law;[23] a court having a seal.[24] Courts not of record are those of inferior dignity, which have no power to fine or imprison, and in which the proceedings are not enrolled or recorded.[25]

F. Civil and Criminal Courts. Civil courts are those which are authorized by the common law, or by the constitution or statute, to decide upon all civil actions, and disputes between persons, in their private capacity; whether such matters relate to the persons of the parties, or to their personal or real property.[26] Criminal courts are those established for the repression of crimes and for their punishment.[27]

G. Superior and Inferior Courts. A superior court is a court with controlling authority over some other court or courts, and with certain original jurisdiction of its own.[28] Inferior courts are those which are subordinate to other courts or those of a very limited jurisdiction.[29] According to the technical meandiction which has power to fine and imprison." Wahrenberger v. Horan, 18 Tex. 57, 59.

"A court which has jurisdiction to fine and imprison, or one having jurisdiction of civil cases above forty shillings, and proceeding according to the common law." Woodman v. Somerset, 37 Me. 29, 38; Bucher v. Thompson, 7 N. M. 115, 118, 32 Pac. 498.

A power to fine and imprison is sometimes stated as the distinguishing characteristic; but as such power may be given by special statute, or otherwise, it is no certain test. Thayer v. Com., 12 Metc. (Mass.) 9, 11.

22. Hooker v. State, 7 Blackf. (Ind.) 272, 273.

"A court of record necessarily requires some duly authorized person to record the proceedings." Ex p. Cregg, 6 Fed. Cas. No. 3,380, 2 Curt. 98.

23. Ex p. Thistleton, 52 Cal. 220. 224; Dean, Petitioner, 83 Me. 489, 494, 22 Atl. 385, 13 L. R. A. 229; Thayer v. Com., 12 Metc. (Mass.) 9, 11; Ex p. Gladhill, 8 Metc. (Mass.) 168, 170; U. S. v. Hall, 5 N. M. 178, 182, 21 Pac. 85.

24. Ingoldsby v. Juan, 12 Cal. 564, 580. But see Hutkoff v. Demorest, 103 N. Y. 377, 386, 8 N. E. 899, 10 N. E. 535.

Designation by statute.— Courts may be designated by statute as courts of record. Thus a probate court (Davis v. Hudson, 29 Minn. 27, 11 N. W. 136; Johnson v. Beazley, 65 Mo. 250, 27 Am. Rep. 276; Sheldon v. Newton, 3 Ohio St. 494; State v. Burnside, 33 S. C. 276, 11 S. E. 787), a municipal court (Shaffel v. State, 97 Wis. 377, 78 N. W. 888), a justice's court (Hooker v. State, 7 Blackf. (Ind.) 272; Hinchman v. Cook, 20 N. J. L. 271; State v. Daily, 14 Ohio 91; Adair v. Rogers, Wright (Ohio) 428. But see Thomas v. Robinson, 3 Wend. (N. Y.) 267), or a board of county commissioners (State v. Conner, 5 Blackf. (Ind.) 325. But see Brumfield v. Douglas County, 2 Nev. 65) may be a court of record.

25. Burrill L. Dict. [citing 3 Stephen Comm. 384].

A court, not of record, is where it cannot hold plea of debt or damages amounting to forty shillings, but of pleas under that sum; or where the proceedings are not according to the course of the common law, nor enrolled; as the county court, and the court baron, etc. Jacob L. Dict. [citing 1 Inst. 117, 260; 4 Rep. 52]. All courts which do not come within the definition of a court of record, are courts not of record. 4 Bouvier Inst. 68, No. 2524.

26. 4 Bouvier Inst. 71, No. 2530.

Another definition is: "A court instituted for the enforcement of private rights and the redress of private wrongs." Anderson L. Dict.

27. 4 Bouvier Inst. 71, No. 2531.

Another definition is: "One with jurisdiction to hear and determine criminal charges." English L. Dict.

28. Anderson L. Dict.

A court in some of the United States between the inferior and supreme courts, the jurisdiction of which is fixed by statute. English L. Dict.

To constitute a court, a superior court, as to any class of actions, its jurisdiction of such actions must be unconditional, so that the only thing essential, to enable the court to take cognizance of them, is the acquisition of jurisdiction of the persons of the parties. Simons v. De Bare, 4 Bosw. (N. Y.) 547, 553.

29. Bailey v. Winn, 113 Mo. 155, 159, 20 S. W. 21 [citing Bouvier L. Dict.].

All courts from which an appeal lies are inferior courts in relation to the appellate court before which their judgment may be carried; but they are not therefore inferior courts in the technical sense of those words. They apply to courts of a special and limited jurisdiction, which are erected on such principles that their judgments, taken alone, are entirely disregarded, and the proceedings must show their jurisdiction. Kempe v. Kennedy, 5 Cranch (U. S.) 173, 185, 3 L. ed. 70 [quoted in Ex p. Watkins, 3 Pet. (U. S.) 193, 205, 7 L. ed. 650; McCormick v. Sullivant, 10 Wheat. (U. S.) 192, 199, 6 L. ed. 300]. See also Sanders v. State, 55 Ala. 42;

ing of the term, inferior courts are those the judgments of which, standing alone, are mere nullities, and in order to give them validity their proceedings must show their jurisdiction.[30]

H. Local Courts. Local courts are those which have jurisdiction of causes occurring in certain places only, usually the limits of a town or borough, or, in England, of a barony.[31]

II. NATURE, EXTENT, AND EXERCISE OF JURISDICTION IN GENERAL.

A. Definitions — 1. JURISDICTION GENERALLY. Jurisdiction[32] has been defined as: The power to hear and determine a cause;[33] the power to hear and determine Ex p. Roundtree, 51 Ala. 42; Nugent v. State, 18 Ala. 521.

A circuit court, although an inferior court, in the language of the constitution, is not so in the language of the common law; nor are its proceedings subject to the scrutiny of those narrow rules, which the caution, or jealousy, of the courts at Westminster, long applied to courts of that denomination; but are entitled to as liberal intendments, or presumptions, in favor of their regularity, as those of any supreme court. Turner v. Enrille, 4 Dall. (U. S.) 7, 11, 1 L. ed. 717.

The test of inferiority may be solved by showing that the court is either placed under the supervisory or appellate control of other courts, or that the jurisdiction as to the subsequent matter is limited and confined. Bailey v. Winn, 113 Mo. 155, 159, 20 S. W. 21 [citing State v. Daniels, 66 Mo. 192, 201].

In England an inferior court is a court which is not one of the four great courts of the realm; that is, the court of chancery and the three great common-law courts sitting at Westminster. Tomlin L. Dict. [quoted in Swift v. Wayne Cir. Judges, 64 Mich. 479, 480, 31 N. W. 434].

30. Nugent v. State, 18 Ala. 521, 524 [quoted in Sanders v. State, 55 Ala. 42, 44], where it is said: "But all courts, from which an appeal or writ of error lies, are inferior courts in relation to the court before which their judgments may be carried, and by which they may be reviewed, annulled, or affirmed. Ex p. Watkins, 3 Pet. (U. S.) 193, 205, 7 L. ed. 650. It is in this latter sense that the framers of our constitution used the words 'inferior courts.' They meant thereby courts, whose judgment could be reviewed, and their errors corrected by another and a higher tribunal." See also infra, II, H, 3.

31. Bouvier L. Dict.

32 The word "jurisdiction" (jus dicere) is a term of large and comprehensive import. Hopkins v. Com., 3 Metc. (Mass.) 460, 462. The very word in its origin imports much; it is derived from juris and dico; I speak by the law. And that sentence ought to be inscribed in living light on every tribunal of criminal power. It is the right of administering justice through the laws, by the means which the law has provided for that purpose. Mills v. Com., 13 Pa. St. 627, 629 [quoted in Johnston v. Hunter, 50 W. Va. 52, 54, 40 S. E. 448].

Distinguished from judgment.— Between judgment and jurisdiction there is, however, a clear distinction. The one is, the decision of the law, given by the court as a result of proceedings therein instituted; the other has reference to the power conferred to take cognizance of, and determine causes according to law, and to carry the same into execution. Lampson v. Platt, 1 Iowa 556, 558.

A plain distinction must be observed between jurisdiction and the exercise of jurisdiction. A court may have the right and power to determine the status of a thing, and yet may exercise its authority erroneously. After jurisdiction attaches in any case, all that follows is exercise of jurisdiction. Wells v. Clarkson, 5 Mont. 336, 343, 5 Pac. 894.

33. Alabama.— Goodman v. Winter, 64 Ala. 410, 431, 38 Am. Rep. 13; Woodruff v. Stewart, 63 Ala. 206, 211 (where it is said: "And it exists whenever an officer or tribunal is by law clothed with the capacity 'to act upon the general, and, so to speak, the abstract question, and to determine and adjudge whether the particular facts presented call for the exercise of the abstract power'"); Lamar v. Gunter, 39 Ala. 324, 328.

California.—Ex p. Bennett, 44 Cal. 84, 88; Central Pac. R. Co. v. Board of Equalization, 43 Cal. 365, 368; Hickman v. O'Neal, 10 Cal. 292, 295.

Illinois.— Bush v. Hanson, 70 Ill. 480, 482.

Indiana.— Worthington v. Dunkin, 41 Ind. 515, 520.

Ohio.— Sheldon v. Newton, 3 Ohio St. 494, 499.

Vermont.— Perry v. Morse, 57 Vt. 509, 513; Vaughn v. Congdon, 56 Vt. 111, 127, 48 Am. Rep. 758, dissenting opinion.

West Virginia.— Johnston v. Hunter, 50 W. Va. 52, 54, 40 S. E. 448 [citing Quarl v. Abbett, 102 Ind. 233, 239, 1 N. E. 476, 52 Am. Rep. 662; U. S. v. Arredondo, 6 Pet. (U. S.) 691, 8 L. ed. 547].

United States. — Nash v. Williams, 20 Wall. 226, 22 L. ed. 254; Grignon v. Astor, 2 How. 319, 338, 11 L. ed. 283; U. S. v. Arredondo, 6 Pet. 691, 709, 8 L. ed. 547; In re Bogart, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,596, 2 Sawy. 396.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 1.

It is the power to do both or either — to hear without determining, or to determine a cause — the authority by which judicial officers take cognizance of and decide them;[34] the power to hear and determine the particular case involved;[35] the power of a court or a judge to entertain an action, petition, or other proceeding;[36] the legal power of hearing and determining controversies;[37] the power conferred by law to determine causes concerning certain subjects, and between parties legally before the court, by process and notice, actual or constructive;[38] a power constitutionally conferred upon a judge or magistrate to take cognizance of and determine causes according to law, and to carry his sentence into execution;[39] the power and authority to declare the law;[40] the right of administering justice through the laws;[41] authority to judge or declare the law between parties brought into court;[42] the power to hear and determine the subject-matter in controversy between parties to the suit; to adjudicate or exercise any judicial power over them.[43] As applied to a particular claim or controversy, jurisdiction is the power to hear and determine that controversy.[44] The term imports authority to expound or apply the laws, and excludes the idea of power to make the laws.[45] The term also means the district or geographical limits within which the judgments or orders of a court can be enforced or executed.[46]

2. GENERAL AND LIMITED OR SPECIAL JURISDICTION. General jurisdiction extends to all cases comprised within a class or classes of causes.[47] Limited or special without hearing. Ex p. Bennett, 44 Cal. 84, 88 [quoted in Brownsville v. Basse, 43 Tex. 440, 449].

Any movement of the court is the cause of an exercise of jurisdiction. Grignon v. Astor, 2 How. (U. S.) 319, 338, 11 L. ed. 283; Rhode Island v. Massachusetts, 12 Pet. (U. S.) 657, 718, 9 L. ed. 1233 [quoted in Vaughn v. Congdon, 56 Vt. 111, 127, 48 Am. Rep. 758, dissenting opinion].

It is coram judice whenever a case is presented which brings the power to hear and determine a cause into action. Goodman v. Winter, 64 Ala. 410, 431, 38 Am. Rep. 13; Lamar v. Gunter, 39 Ala. 324; Bush v. Hanson, 70 Ill. 480; Gray v. Bowles, 74 Mo. 419, 423; Rhode Island v. Massachusetts, 12 Pet. (U. S.) 657, 718, 9 L. ed. 1233; U. S. v. Arredondo, 6 Pet. (U. S.) 691, 709, 8 L. ed. 547; Grignon v. Astor, 2 How. (U. S.) 319, 338, 11 L. ed. 283; In re Bogart, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,596, 2 Sawy. 396.

34. Brownsville v. Basse, 43 Tex. 440, 449 [citing Sheldon v. Newton, 3 Ohio St. 494; U. S. v. Arredondo, 6 Pet. (U. S.) 691, 8 L. ed. 547].

35. Bassick Min. Co. v. Schoolfield, 10 Colo. 46, 50, 14 Pac. 65; Gray v. Bowles, 74 Mo. 419, 423; Babb v. Bruere, 23 Mo. App. 604. 606. See also Munday v. Vail, 34 N. J. L. 418.

The authority to hear and determine a cause is jurisdiction to try and decide all of the questions involved in the controversy. Quarl v. Abbett, 102 Ind. 233, 239, 1 N. E. 476, 52 Am. Rep. 662 [cited in Johnston v. Hunter, 50 W. Va. 52, 54, 40 S. E. 448].

36. Perry v. Morse, 57 Vt. 509, 513 [quoting Rapalje & L. L. Dict.].

37. Huber v. Beck, 6 Ind. App. 47, 32 N. E. 1025, where it is said: "As the derivatives of the word import, it is the law declaring or speaking. Jurisdiction of the subject-matter always comes from the law, it cannot be waived nor conferred by consent of the parties or their counsel."

38. House v. Williams, 40 Tex. 346, 358.

39. Johnson v. Jones, 2 Nebr. 126, 135 [citing In re Ferguson, 9 Johns. (N. Y.) 239].

40. Mills v. Com., 13 Pa. St. 627, 629 [quoted in Johnston v. Hunter, 50 W. Va. 52, 54, 40 S. E. 448].

41. Mills v. Com., 13 Pa. St. 627, 629 [quoted in Johnston v. Hunter, 50 W. Va. 52, 54, 40 S. E. 448].

42. In re Pierce, 44 Wis. 411, 454 [quoting Bracton 5, c. 1, f. 400].

43. Rhode Island v. Massachusetts, 12 Pet. (U. S.) 657, 718, 9 L. ed. 1233.

44. Central Pac. R. Co. v. Board of Equalization, 43 Cal. 365, 368.

45. Glenn v. York County Com'rs, 6 S. C. 412, 441, where it is said: "This word is often used in a broader sense, but when employed for the purpose of indicating a partition of powers among the different departments of the government must be used in a strict sense."

The test of jurisdiction is, whether the tribunal had power to enter upon the inquiry, not whether its methods were regular, its findings right, or its conclusions in accordance with the law. Johnson v. Miller, 50 Ill. App. 60, 70.

46. Sweet L. Dict. [citing In re Smith, L. R. 1 P. D. 300, 301].

The space or extent of country over which the judge is entitled to exercise the power of judging. Debaillon v. Ponsony, 5 Mart. N. S. (La.) 42, 43.

Within the jurisdiction of the court is meant within the state. Stevens v. Irwin, 12 Cal. 306, 308.

47. Anderson L. Dict.

General jurisdiction in law and equity is jurisdiction of every kind that a court can possess, of the person, subject-matter, territorial, and generally the power of the court jurisdiction on the other hand is jurisdiction which is confined to particular causes.[48]

3. ORIGINAL AND APPELLATE JURISDICTION. Original jurisdiction is jurisdiction conferred upon, or inherent in, a court in the first instance.[49] Appellate jurisdiction is the power and authority conferred upon a superior court to rehear and determine causes which have been tried in inferior courts.[50]

4. EXCLUSIVE AND CONCURRENT OR COORDINATE JURISDICTION. Exclusive jurisdiction is jurisdiction confined to a particular tribunal or grade of courts.[51] Concurrent or coördinate jurisdiction is that jurisdiction exercised by different courts at the same time over the same subject-matter and within the same territory, and wherein litigants may, in the first instance, resort to either court indifferently.[52]

5. CRIMINAL AND CIVIL JURISDICTION. Criminal jurisdiction is that which exists for the punishment of crimes.[53] Civil jurisdiction is that which exists when the subject-matter is not of a criminal nature.[54]

6. TERRITORIAL JURISDICTION. Territorial jurisdiction is the power of the tribunal considered with reference to the territory within which it is to be exercised.[55]

B. Source of Jurisdiction and Right to Assume Jurisdiction — 1. IN GENERAL. Jurisdiction in the general sense as applied to the subject-matter of a suit at law or equity is always conferred by law, and it is error to suppose that the power to decide in any case rests solely upon the averments in a pleading.[56] State courts as a general rule derive their jurisdiction from the constitution of the state.[57] And although they may possess implied and resulting powers from in the discharge of its judicial duties. Bouvier L. Dict. [citing Mussen v. Ausable Granite Works, 63 Hun (N. Y.) 367, 18 N. Y. Suppl. 267].

48. Anderson L. Dict.

Limited jurisdiction (called also special and inferior) is that which extends only to certain specified causes. Bouvier L. Dict. [cited in State v. Daniels, 66 Mo. 192, 201].

49. Anderson L. Dict.

Another definition is: "That bestowed upon a tribunal in the first instance." Bouvier L. Dict.

50. Brownsville v. Basse, 43 Tex. 440, 449 [quoting Bouvier L. Dict.]. See also APPELLATE JURISDICTION, 3 Cyc. 536.

51. Anderson L. Dict.

Another definition is: "That which gives to one tribunal sole power to try the cause." Bouvier L. Dict.

Exclusive jurisdiction as given by statute to a police court, taken by itself alone, is a grant only of exclusive authority to try, or to examine and bold for trial, those who are charged with the offenses of which such court has cognizance. Com. v. O'Connell, 8 Gray (Mass.) 464, 468.

52. Hercules Iron Works v. Elgin, etc., R. Co., 141 Ill. 491, 498, 30 N. E. 1050.

Another definition is: "That which is possessed over the same parties or subject-matter at the same time by two or more separate tribunals." Bouvier L. Dict.

Concurrent jurisdiction on the river as conferred by an act of congress is jurisdiction which "pertains only to acts or causes of action on the water or in some way connected with the navigation thereof, or floatable purposes of some kind, or to the service of process upon persons while on the water in some sense." Roberts v. Fullerton, (Wis. 1903) 93 N. W. 1111, 1114. See also Com. v. Garner, 3 Gratt. (Va.) 624.

53. Bouvier L. Dict. See, generally, CRIMINAL LAW.

54. Bouvier L. Dict.

55. Bouvier L. Dict.

The tract of land or district within which a court, judge, or magistrate has jurisdiction is called his "territory," and his power in relation to his territory is called his "territorial jurisdiction." 4 Bouv. Inst. 72, No. 2,532.

56. Thomas v. People, 107 Ill. 517, 47 Am. Rep. 458.

Mere assumption of jurisdiction by an inferior court where there is no compliance with statutory prerequisites will not establish jurisdiction. Van Loon v. Lyons, 61 N. Y. 22.

In courts created by statute jurisdiction of the subject-matter can be conferred only by statute. Thorp v. Porter, 70 Vt. 570, 41 Atl. 657.

A rule of court cannot confer jurisdiction on another court. Bell v. O'Rourke, 11 La. 124. So a ratification of an invalid judgment of one court by another will be inoperative, as one court cannot enlarge the powers of another. Hously v. Lindsay, 10 Heisk. (Tenn.) 651; Allen v. Van Rosenberg, (Tex. Sup. 1891) 16 S. W. 1096.

57. McNealy v. Gregory, 13 Fla. 417; Rencher v. Anderson, 93 N. C. 105; Messner v. Giddings, 65 Tex. 301; Teel v. Yancey, 23 Gratt. (Va.) 691; Griffin v. Cunningham, 20 Gratt. (Va.) 31.

The jurisdiction of a court is determined by the rights of the complainant and not those of defendant. Jersey City v. Gardner, 33 N. J. Eq. 622. And the power of the court to entertain jurisdiction of an action a general grant of jurisdiction they possess no inherent powers.[58] Again they cannot decline jurisdiction conferred upon them nor assume that which is not conferred.[59]

2. Of Cause of Action — a. In General. Where a cause of action is necessarily local the territorial jurisdiction will be exclusive,[60] and if there is no right to recover for an injury to a person or property in the state or territory where the injury is alleged to have been inflicted, no courts in any other state will assume jurisdiction of an action to recover therefor.[61] Again if different causes of action are alleged in a complaint, of some of which the court has jurisdiction and of others not, the case may be tried as to those of which the court has jurisdiction.[62] But by the waiver of the tort and suing in assumpsit jurisdiction will not be conferred upon a court which did not originally possess it.[63]

b. Place Where Cause of Action Accrues. Jurisdiction may be determined by the place where the injury is received,[64] as in the case of injury to the person,[65] to personal property,[66] or to real property.[67] In the case of contracts made in one state to be performed in another, a cause of action thereon will accrue in the latter state.[68] or proceeding does not depend upon the existence of a sustainable cause of action, but upon the performance by the party of the prerequisites authorizing it to determine whether one exists or not. Fischer v. Langbein, 103 N. Y. 84, 8 N. E. 251. Again where certain facts should exist as a necessary prerequisite to give a court jurisdiction they should exist at or before the time such jurisdiction is assumed. Carney v. Taylor, 4 Kan. 178. The proper test of jurisdiction is whether the court had power to enter on the inquiry. Johnson v. Miller, 50 Ill. App. 60. Jurisdiction may depend on the existence of one of two or more alternative facts or conditions. Clason v. Corley, 5 Sandf. (N. Y.) 454. See also Peck v. Dickey, 5 Misc. (N. Y.) 95, 24 N. Y. Suppl. 834, 23 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 210 [construing N. Y. Code Civ. Proc. § 340].

58. McNealy v. Gregory, 13 Fla. 417; Messner v. Giddings, 65 Tex. 301.

59. McNealy v. Gregory, 13 Fla. 417. See also O'Fallon v. Elliott, 1 Mo. 364; Cowan v. Nixon, 28 Tex. 230.

And where jurisdiction and judicial powers are so conferred they are not subject to legislative control unless such power is expressly conferred upon the legislature. Rencher v. Anderson, 93 N. C. 105. See Cullen v. Glendora Water Co., 113 Cal. 503, 39 Pac. 769, 45 Pac. 822, 1047. Nor is the jurisdiction of courts a part of the obligations of a contract. McNealy v. Gregory, 13 Fla. 417.

60. Cragin v. Quitman, 22 Hun (N. Y.) 101. Compare Holmes v. Barclay, 4 La. Ann. 63.

61. Holderman v. Pond, 45 Kan. 410, 25 Pac. 872, 23 Am. St. Rep. 734, 11 L. R. A. 542.

62. Diblee v. Davison, 25 Ill. 486; Taylor v. Hollander, 4 Mart. N. S. (La.) 535.

63. Mann v. Kendall, 47 N. C. 192. See also Holderman v. Pond, 45 Kan. 410, 25 Pac. 872, 23 Am. St. Rep. 734, 11 L. R. A. 542.

64. Alabama.— Smith v. State, 103 Ala. 57, 15 So. 866.

Connecticut.— Lewis v. Hull, 39 Conn. 116; Clark v. Smith, 9 Conn. 379; Maples v. Wightman, 4 Conn. 376. 10 Am. Dec. 149; Wooster v. Parsons, Kirby 27.

Kansas.— Payne v. Kansas City First Nat. Bank, 16 Kan. 147.

Kentucky.— Com. v. Calhoun, 11 B. Mon. 292; Gano v. Hart, Hard. 297.

Michigan.— Cofrode v. Wayne County Cir. Judge, 79 Mich. 332, 44 N. W. 623, 7 L. R. A. 511.

New York.— Boyd v. Howden, 3 Daly 455; Hilleary v. Skookum Root Hair Grower Co., 4 Misc. 127, 23 N. Y. Suppl. 1016.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 13.

A police court of a city may have jurisdiction conferred upon it by the legislature to try a person for an offense against the state committed outside the city. Fletcher v. State, 7 Ohio Cir. Dec. 316.

65. Cameron v. Vandergriff, 53 Ark. 381, 13 S. W. 1092, where it was held that a cause of action accrued in Arkansas for an injury received in that state from a blast fired in the Indian Territory.

Where a continuous tort by a railroad company is commenced in one county and completed in another, the principal damage being done in the latter county, the courts of that county have jurisdiction of the cause of action. Georgia Cent. R. Co. v. Dorsey, 116 Ga. 719, 42 S. E. 1024.

66. Chesapeake, etc., R. Co. v. American Exch. Bank, 92 Va. 495, 23 S. E. 935, 44 L. R. A. 449.

67. Stillman v. White Rock Mfg. Co., 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,446, 3 Woodb. & M. 538, where it was held that for injury to mills in one state by the act in another of drawing water from a stream in which both parties were tenants in common, the action might be prosecuted personally for the direct act in the latter state or in the former state for the consequential injury to the mills.

68. Brinley v. Avery, Kirby (Conn.) 25; U. S. Graphite Co. v. Pacific Graphite Co., 68 Fed. 442. See also Burckle v. Eckhart, 3

c. Transitory Actions. Where a cause of action is transitory in its nature, the courts of a state may assume jurisdiction thereof, although it may be based on an act done in another state.[69]

d. Of Actions Under Laws of Another State or Country — (i) In General. Courts of justice in one state will out of comity assume jurisdiction of causes of action which are transitory in their nature, given by and arising under the statutes of a foreign state, where by so doing they will not violate their own laws or inflict injury upon their own citizens.[70] So also laws of a foreign country may in some cases be enforced,[71] and courts of a state may likewise assume jurisdiction of an action arising under the common law of another state, although there be a variance of view as to the law which controls, provided it does not amount to a fundamental difference of policy.[72] This principle applies in the case of a right of action for a tort given by the statute of another state and committed therein,[73]

N. Y. 132; Phillio v. Blythe, 12 Tex. 124; and CONTRACTS, XI, A, 2 [9 Cyc. 665].

For breach of contract of carriage a cause of action accrues where the contract is broken and not where made. Maxwell v. Atchison, etc., R. Co., 34 Fed. 286.

In action against a surety the court of the place where the indorsement was made has jurisdiction. Phelps v. Garrow, 3 Edw. (N. Y.) 139.

That courts of the place where the contract is made may have jurisdiction see Richmond, etc., R. Co. v. Trousdale, 99 Ala. 389, 13 So. 23, 42 Am. St. Rep. 69; Ord v. The Uncle Sam, 13 Cal. 369; Jones v. Norwich, etc., Transp. Co., 50 Barb. (N. Y.) 193; Mayer v. Brown, (Tex. App. 1890) 16 S. W. 788.

69. Hale v. Lawrence, 21 N. J. L. 714, 47 Am. Dec. 190.

This principle has been applied in an action for failure of a railroad company to fence its road (Hurley v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 57 Mo. App. 675), to recover for personal property (Southern Pac. Co. v. Graham, 12 Tex. Civ. App. 565, 34 S. W. 135), on a bail-bond (Otis v. Wakeman, 1 Hill (N. Y.) 604), on a covenant of quiet enjoyment (Jackson v. Hanna, 53 N. C. 188), and in an action by a creditor of a corporation of another state against a stock-holder to enforce the remedy given by the statute of that state (Whitman v. Citizens' Bank, 110 Fed. 503, 49 C. C. A. 122).

70. Arkansas.— St. Louis, etc., R. Co. v. Brown, 62 Ark. 254, 35 S. W. 225.

Illinois.— O'Donnell v. Lewis, 104 Ill. App. 198.

Nebraska. — Delahaye v. Heitkemper, 16 Nebr. 475, 20 N. W. 385.

New York.— Roblin v. Long, 60 How. Pr. 200.

Rhode Island.— O'Reilly v. New York, etc., R. Co., 16 R. I. 388, 17 Atl. 171, 19 Atl. 244, 5 L. R. A. 364, 6 L. R. A. 719.

Wisconsin.— Eingartner v. Illinois Steel Co., 94 Wis. 70, 68 N. W. 664, 59 Am. St. Rep. 859, 34 L. R. A. 503. Compare Bettys v. Milwaukee, etc., R. Co., 37 Wis. 323; Anderson v. Milwaukee, etc., R. Co., 37 Wis. 321.

United States.—Whitman v. Citizens' Bank, 110 Fed. 503, 49 C. C. A. 122; Delilah v. Jacobs, 7 Fed. Cas. No. 3,773, 4 Cranch C. C. 238.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 18.

The courts of one state will not enforce laws of another state where they are repugnant to its own. Petit's Succession, 49 La. Ann. 625, 21 So. 717, 62 Am. St. Rep. 659. So where a citizen would be deprived of property obtained by a bona fide purchase for value, the courts will not enforce a law of another state. Woodward v. Roane, 23 Ark. 523.

Under a statute of Georgia regulating compensation of inspectors a recovery cannot be had in South Carolina for services performed in the latter state. Fitzsimons v. Guanahani Co., 16 S. C. 192.

71. Evey v. Mexican Cent. R. Co., 81 Fed. 294, 26 C. C. A. 407, 38 L. R. A. 387, where it is decided that the right of an employee of a railroad company injured in the republic of Mexico by the negligence of such company to recover in a civil action damages for such injury under the law of that republic may be enforced in a federal court which has jurisdiction of the parties and of the subject-matter, where there is not such a dissimilarity between such laws and those of the state in which they are sought to be enforced as to conflict with the settled public policy of that state.

That an extraordinary indemnity in such sum as may be determined, considering the "social position" of the person injured which is against the policy of our laws, is provided for by the law of a foreign country, does not prevent the enforcement in a court of this country of the right to recover under such law, where there is no prayer for such indemnity. Evey v. Mexican Cent. R. Co., 81 Fed. 294, 26 C. C. A. 407, 38 L. R. A. 387.

72. Walsh v. New York, etc., R. Co., 160 Mass. 571, 36 N. E. 584, 39 Am. St. Rep. 514; St. Joseph F. & M. Ins. Co. v. Leland, 90 Mo. 177, 2 S. W. 431, 59 Am. Rep. 9.

73. Indiana.— Burns v. Grand Rapids, etc., R. Co., 113 Ind. 169, 15 N. E. 230.

Iowa.— Morris v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 65 Iowa 727, 23 N. W. 143, 54 Am. Rep. 39.

to the enforcement of a valid obligation of a legatee, executed in another state, to carry out the provisions of a will,[74] and to an action for damages against a railroad for unjust discrimination in violation of the laws of another state;[75] and a contract implied by official relations in a foreign state, by the law of that state, will be recognized and enforced at the suit of the sovereign who is the creditor by force of such relations.[76]

(II) PENAL STATUTES. Penal laws of a state are local in their character and effect, and do not extend and will not be enforced beyond the territorial jurisdiction wherein they are established.[77] But where a private right is conferred by such a statute it has been decided that the mere fact that the statute was passed as a penal one or as a police regulation is no reason why such right should not be enforced in another state, unless it be contrary to the public policy of such state.[78]

e. Fictitious or Unnecessary Controversies and Questions. The purpose for which courts are constituted is to administer justice and where a controversy is fictitious it will be dismissed.[79] Some individual right affecting the parties litigant should be involved and a suit which is brought merely to obtain a decision upon some abstract question of law, or to establish a precedent for subsequent cases, will not be entertained.[80]

Massachusetts.—Walsh v. New York, etc., R. Co., 160 Mass. 571, 36 N. E. 584, 39 Am. St. Rep. 514.

Minnesota.— Herrick v. Minneapolis, etc., R. Co., 31 Minn. 11, 16 N. W. 413, 47 Am. Rep. 771.

Mississippi. — Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Doyle, 60 Miss. 977.

Nebraska.— Missouri Pac. R. Co. v. Lewis, 24 Nebr. 848, 40 N. W. 401, 2 L. R. A. 67.

New York.— Leonard v. Columbia Steam Nav. Co., 84 N. Y. 48, 38 Am. Rep. 491.

Pennsylvania.— Knight v. West Jersey R. Co., 108 Pa. St. 250, 56 Am. Rep. 200.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 18.

74. Groves v. Nutt, 13 La. Ann. 117.

75. McDuffee v. Portland, etc., R. Co., 52 N. H. 430, 13 Am. Rep. 72.

76. King of Prussia v. Kuepper, 22 Mo. 550, 66 Am. Dec. 639.

77. Com. v. Green, 17 Mass. 515; Peterson v. Walsh, 1 Daly (N. Y.) 182; U. S. v. Campbell, Tapp. (Ohio) 29.

Federal judiciary will not enforce penal laws of a foreign country.—Ex p. Dos Santos, 7 Fed. Cas. No. 4,016, 2 Brock. 403.

78. Boyce v. Wabash R. Co., 63 Iowa 70, 18 N. W. 673, 50 Am. Rep. 730. See also Chesapeake, etc., R. Co. v. American Exch. Bank, 92 Va. 495, 23 S. E. 935, 44 L. R. A. 449. But see Bird v. Hayden, 2 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 61.

Whether such a statute may or may not be enforced depends upon the question whether the object of the statute is to furnish a private remedy to the person injured by the wrongful act or to punish an offense against the public justice of the state. Huntington v. Attrill, 146 U. S. 657, 13 S. Ct. 224, 36 L. ed. 1123.

79. California.— People v. Pratt, 30 Cal. 223.

Illinois.—People v. Leland, 40 Ill. 118.

Louisiana.— Kohn v. Louisiana Ins. Co., 15 La. 86.

Mississippi.— Port Gibson Bank v. Dickson, 4 Sm. & M. 689.

New York.— Judson v. Flushing Jockey Club, 14 Misc. 562, 36 N. Y. Suppl. 128.

United States.— Livingston v. D'Orgenoy, 108 Fed. 469, 1 Mart. (La.) 86.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 11; and DISMISSAL AND NONSUIT.

As to necessity of actual controversy to give appellate court jurisdiction see APPEAL AND ERROR, II, A [2 Cyc. 533]; XIV, B [3 Cyc. 182].

Where parties who really claim adverse titles to land bring a suit by agreement in reference thereto, such suit will not on this account be considered fictitious. Dubuque, etc., R. Co. v. Litchfield, 23 How. (U. S.) 66, 16 L. ed. 500. So a petition by a stock-holder to restrain the expenditure of money in the operation of a road already constructed, and the construction of other lines in violation of franchises presents no fictitious issue. Teachout v. Des Moines Broad-Gauge St. R. Co., 75 Iowa 722, 38 N. W. 145. And in a suit to try the validity of a statute and to restrain officers from acting thereunder, the court acquires jurisdiction, although the parties are agreed as to its validity. Parker v. State, 132 Ind. 419, 31 N. E. 1114.

80. Illinois.— Washburne v. People, 50 Ill. App. 93.

Indiana.— Brewington v. Lowe, 1 Ind. 21, 48 Am. Dec. 349.

Iowa.— Cutcomp v. Utt, 60 Iowa 156, 14 N. W. 214.

Missouri.— Blair v. Illinois State Bank, 8 Mo. 313.

North Carolina.— Little v. Thorne, 93 N. C. 69.

Pennsylvania.— Potter's Estate, 4 Pa. Dist. 329.

Texas.— Moore v. Blagge, (Civ. App. 1896) 34 S. W. 311; Blagge v. Moore, 6 Tex. Civ. App. 359, 23 S. W. 466.

Virginia.— Flanagan v. Central Lunatic

f. Contentions Originating in Unlawful Transactions. Courts of justice will not assume jurisdiction of contentions originating in unlawful purposes or transactions.[81] But on the other hand jurisdiction of an action will not be affected by the fact that the wrong-doer was acting without authority of law.[82]

g. Prize Questions. Questions as to property captured upon the high seas and condemned as prize are exclusively of admiralty jurisdiction.[83]

h. Torts Causing Injuries in Another State. Courts of one state will in many cases assume jurisdiction of an action for a tort or wrongful act committed or causing injury in another state or country, where they have the means and can obtain jurisdiction over the wrong-doer.[84] Under such circumstances they may so act in cases of personal injury,[85] as where an action is brought against a railway company by an employee or passenger for injuries so sustained,[86] and in Asylum, 79 Va. 554; Randolph v. Randolph, 2 Leigh 540.

Wisconsin.—Zentner v. Schinz, 90 Wis. 236, 63 N. W. 162.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 11.

81. Fabacher v. Bryant, 46 La. Ann. 820, 15 So. 181.

82. Baltimore, etc., R. Co. v. Meyers, 62 Fed. 367, 10 C. C. A. 485.

83. Novion v. Hallett, 16 Johns. (N. Y.) 327; Cheriot v. Foussat, 3 Binn. (Pa.) 220; Bingham v. Cabbot, 3 Dall. (U. S.) 19, 1 L. ed. 491. See also ADMIRALTY, IV, E, 5 [1 Cyc. 838].

That action to recover prize-money for seamen where question of prize or no prize is not involved may be in common-law court see Henderson v. Clarkson, 1 Yeates (Pa.) 148.

That action to recover the value of a vessel where sentence of condemnation is reversed may be in common-law court see Taxier v. Sweet, 2 Dall. (Pa.) 81, 1 L. ed. 298.

84. Alabama Great Southern R. Co. v. Thomas, 89 Ala. 294, 7 So. 762, 18 Am. St. Rep. 119; Burdick v. Freeman, 46 Hun (N. Y.) 138, 10 N. Y. St. 756, 27 N. Y. Wkly. Dig. 313; Ducktown Sulphur, etc., Co. v. Barnes, (Tenn. Sup. 1900) 60 S. W. 593.

Thus jurisdiction may be assumed of an action to recover damages for fraud committed in another state (McQueen v. New, 87 Hun (N. Y.) 206, 33 N. Y. Suppl. 802), of an action against the lessee of a railroad for a tort committed in another state (Western, etc., R. Co. v. Roberson, 61 Fed. 592, 9 C. C. A. 646), of an action for a nuisance in one state injuring property in another (Ruckman v. Green, 9 Hun (N. Y.) 225), of an action for the diversion of water in one state injuring property in another (Thayer v. Brooks, 17 Ohio 489, 49 Am. Dec. 474; Stillman v. White Rock Mfg. Co., 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,446, 3 Woodb. & M. 539), and of an action for a failure to deliver a telegram sent to another state (Western Union Tel. Co. v. Phillips, 2 Tex. Civ. App. 608, 21 S. W. 638, 30 S. W. 494. See also Western Union Tel. Co. v. Clark, 14 Tex. Civ. App. 563, 38 S. W. 225).

Essentials to maintenance of action.—It has been held in the United States that for a tort committed within the exclusive jurisdiction of a foreign country, no action can be maintained in the United States unless it would be maintainable by the laws of both countries. Petersen v. The Lamington, 87 Fed. 752. But in England it has been determined that while the act must be actionable in that country, it is not necessary that it be the subject of civil proceedings in the country in which committed. Machado v. Fontes, [1897] 2 Q. B. 231, 66 L. J. Q. B. 542, 76 L. T. Rep. N. S. 588, 45 Wkly. Rep. 565. And in New Brunswick it has been decided that an action may be maintained there for a wrong committed abroad, provided that at the time it was brought the wrong was actionable under the laws of the country where committed. Campbell v. McGregor, 29 N. Brunsw. 644.

85. Newman v. Goddard, 3 Hun (N. Y.) 70, 48 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 363; Beach v. Bay State Steamboat Co., 16 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 1; Smith v. Bull, 17 Wend. (N. Y.) 323; Shmit v. Day, 27 Oreg. 110, 39 Pac. 870; Curtis v. Bradford, 33 Wis. 190.

Action for double damages for injury to a person from bite of a dog is local and a court will not take jurisdiction of an action thereunder for injury to a person from being bitten in another state. Le Forest v. Tolman, 117 Mass. 109, 19 Am. Dec. 400.

Where the parties reside in the state where the injury was inflicted, the courts of another state will not assume jurisdiction unless special reasons are shown. Ferguson v. Neilson, 11 N. Y. Suppl. 524.

86. Alabama.—Helton v. Alabama Midland R. Co., 97 Ala. 275, 12 So. 276.

Georgia.—Watson v. Richmond, etc., R. Co., 91 Ga. 222, 18 S. E. 306.

New Jersey.—Ackerson v. Erie R. Co., 31 N. J. L. 309.

New York.—Flynn v. New Jersey Cent. R. Co., 142 N. Y. 439, 37 N. E. 514.

Wisconsin.—McCarthy v. Whitcomb, 110 Wis. 113, 85 N. W. 707.

United States.—Hills v. Richmond, etc., R. Co., 37 Fed. 660.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 24.

One injured in another country by the negligence of a railroad company may sue in a United States court, especially where the company owns and operates part of the same line of railroad in the state in which the suit is brought, and the court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject-matter. Mexican Cent. R. Co. v. Marshall, 91 Fed. 933, 34 actions for assault and battery,[87] wrongful arrest and imprisonment,[88] and for slander.[89] Again jurisdiction may be assumed of actions to recover for injuries to personal property in another state.[90] Actions for injury or trespass to real estate, however, are local in their character and must be brought in the state where the land is located,[91] subject to this exception, that where the action is in the nature of trover, although the facts alleged might be sufficient to constitute a cause of action for injury to real estate, the courts of one state may take jurisdiction of such an action where the wrongful act was done in another state.[92]

3. Of the Person — a. Generally. No jurisdiction will be acquired in a state court of an action against a person, where neither he nor any property of his can be found within the state.[93] But civil and criminal jurisdiction will attach to all persons found within the state whether their residence be permanent or temporary;[94] and by personal service of process on a defendant in the prescribed legal manner a court having authority to issue such process acquires prima facie a jurisdiction of his person,[95] which may continue, although defendant goes beyond the court's jurisdiction.[96] Again to give the court jurisdiction of the person of

C. C. A. 133 [following Evey v. Mexican Cent. R. Co., 87 Fed. 294, 26 C. C. A. 407, 38 L. R. A. 387]. But see Mexican Nat. R. Co. v. Jackson, 89 Tex. 107, 33 S. W. 857, 59 Am. St. Rep. 28, 31 L. R. A. 276 [reversing (Civ. App. 1895) 32 S. W. 230].

87. Watts v. Thomas, 2 Bibb (Ky.) 458; Armstrong v. Foote, 11 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 384. See also Assault and Battery, 3 Cyc. 1079.

88. Tupper v. Morin, 12 N. Y. Suppl. 310, 25 Abb. N. Cas. (N. Y.) 398. See also Henry v. Sargeant, 13 N. H. 321, 40 Am. Dec. 146.

89. Hull v. Vreeland, 42 Barb. (N. Y.) 543, 18 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 182; Lister v. Wright, 2 Hill (N. Y.) 320. Compare Hatfield v. Sisson, 28 Misc. (N. Y.) 255, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 73.

90. Boyce v. Wahash R. Co., 63 Iowa 70, 18 N. W. 673, 50 Am. Rep. 730; Mason v. Warner, 31 Mo. 508; Gregg v. Union Pac. R. Co., 48 Mo. App. 494; St. Louis, etc., R. Co. v. Holden, 3 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 323.

A personal action against a sheriff for wrongful levy on plaintiff's property may be maintained in any state in which the sheriff is found and served with process. Moores v. Winter, 67 Ark. 189, 53 S. W. 1057.

Where buildings are erected on land with right of removal courts may so act in suits for damages for injuries thereto. Laird v. Connecticut, etc., R. Co., 62 N. H. 254, 13 Am. St. Rep. 564. So where damages are both to personalty and realty jurisdiction may be taken. Barney v. Burstenbinder, 7 Lans. (N. Y.) 210.

Civil damage act is local and has no extra-territorial effect, and therefore cannot be invoked where a person becomes drunk and injures property in another state. Goodwin v. Young, 34 Hun (N. Y.) 252.

91. Alabama.— Howard v. Ingersoll, 23 Ala. 673.

Illinois.— Eachus v. Illinois, etc., Canal, 17 Ill. 534.

Massachusetts.— Sumner v. Finegan, 15 Mass. 280.

Minnesota.— Compare Little v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 65 Minn. 48, 67 N. W. 846, 60 Am. St. Rep. 421, 33 L. R. A. 423.

New York.— American Union Tel. Co. v. Middleton, 80 N. Y. 408; Day v. Sun Ins. Office, 40 N. Y. App. Div. 305, 57 N. Y. Suppl. 1033; Genet v. Delaware, etc., Canal Co., 56 Hun 640, 8 N. Y. Suppl. 822; Dodge v. Colby, 37 Hun 515; De Courcy v. Stewart, 20 Hun 561.

Texas.— Morris v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 78 Tex. 17, 14 S. W. 228, 22 Am. St. Rep. 17, 9 L. R. A. 349.

Vermont.— Niles v. Howe, 57 Vt. 388.

Wisconsin.— Bettys v. Milwaukee, etc., R. Co., 37 Wis. 323.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 23.

92. So held in an action for the value of sand removed from one's land and converted to use of defendant (McGonigle v. Atchison, 33 Kan. 726, 7 Pac. 550) and for timber cut and carried away (Greeley v. Stilson, 27 Mich. 153; Tyson v. McGuineas, 25 Wis. 656).

93. Skinner v. McDaniel, 4 Vt. 418.

Where property is taken from the custody of the federal circuit court such court has power by summary process to compel the restoration of the same, whether the party taking it be or be not a party to the suit concerning such property. Erie R. Co. v. Heath, 8 Fed. Cas. No. 4,514, 8 Blatchf. 536.

94. Molyneux v. Seymour, 30 Ga. 440, 76 Am. Dec. 662; Parker v. Lynch, 7 Okla. 631, 56 Pac. 1082.

Jurisdiction of probate court in insolvency proceedings exists over a person who leaves the state until he acquires a domicile elsewhere. Ayer v. Weeks, 65 N. H. 248, 18 Atl. 1108, 23 Am. St. Rep. 37, 6 L. R. A. 716. See, generally, Insolvency.

A railroad corporation partly in two states and operating under legislative acts of each will be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of either state. Richardson v. Vermont, etc., R. Co., 44 Vt. 613.

A recital in a writ that defendant is an "absent and absconding debtor" does not show want of jurisdiction, being a form prescribed by law. Bissell v. Wheelock, 11 Cush. (Mass.) 277.

95. Barnes v. Harris, 4 N. Y. 374.

96. People's Bldg., etc., Assoc. v. Mayfield, 42 S. C. 424, 20 S. E. 290.

a defendant it should affirmatively appear that he was served with process or appeared.[97]

b. Non-Residents — (I) GENERALLY. It is not of itself sufficient to defeat the jurisdiction of a state court that a party to an action is a resident of another state.[98] Likewise inferior courts in a state may have jurisdiction of a cause of action, although both parties may not reside within the territorial limits of such court's particular jurisdiction.[99]

(II) ACTIONS BY. Courts will assume jurisdiction of actions by non-residents to enable them to assert their rights, unless there exists some legal restraint to prevent them from so acting.[1]

(III) ACTIONS AGAINST. State courts cannot as a general rule take jurisdiction of actions against non-residents who own no property within the state and upon whom no personal service of process has been had within such state.[2] Nor does the ownership of property by a non-resident give state courts jurisdiction

97. State v. Ennis, 74 Ind. 17. See, generally, PROCESS.

Service by publication is not sufficient. Sowders v. Edmunds, 76 Ind. 123; Bartlett v. Holmes, 12 Hun (N. Y.) 398.

98. Swan v. Smith, 26 Iowa 87. See also Western Union Tel. Co. v. Phillips, 2 Tex. Civ. App. 608, 21 S. W. 638.

As to who are non-residents see Glover v. Glover, 18 Ala. 367; Charter Oak Bank v. Reed, 45 Conn. 391; Clarkson v. Mittnacht, 6 Daly (N. Y.) 398; Gundlin v. Hamburg American Packet Co., 6 Misc. (N. Y.) 620, 26 N. Y. Suppl. 73; Bartlett v. Brisbane, 2 Rich. (S. C.) 489.

Averments in pleadings as to residence see Ormsby v. Lynch, Litt. Sel. Cas. (Ky.) 303; Banks v. Fowler, 3 Litt. (Ky.) 332; Hager v. Coup, 50 Mich. 4, 14 N. W. 698; Bagley v. Pridgeon, 42 Mich. 550, 4 N. W. 289; Cleaveland v. Hatch, 25 Hun (N. Y.) 308; Allison v. Pearce, (Tenn. Ch. App. 1900) 59 S. W. 192.

99. Louden Irrigating Canal Co. v. Handy Ditch Co., 22 Colo. 102, 43 Pac. 535; Richards v. Stewart, 2 Day (Conn.) 328; Hogar v. Coup, 50 Mich. 54, 14 N. W. 698; Bagley v. Pridgeon, 42 Mich. 550, 4 N. W. 289; Heenan v. New York, etc., R. Co., 34 Hun (N. Y.) 602, 6 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 348, 1 How. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 53; Evans v. Wood, 15 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 416.

1. Indiana.— Burke v. Simonson, 104 Ind. 173, 2 N. E. 309, 3 N. E. 826, 54 Am. Rep. 304.

Kentucky.— Lexington Mfg. Co. v. Door, 2 Litt. 256.

Louisiana.— Amato v. Ermann, 47 La. Ann. 967, 17 So. 505.

Missouri.— King of Prussia v. Kuepper, 22 Mo. 550, 66 Am. Dec. 639.

New York.— Wertheim v. Clergue, 53 N. Y. App. Div. 122, 65 N. Y. Suppl. 750; Jackson v. Wheedon, 3 Code Rep. 186. See also Gibson v. American L. & T. Co., 58 Hun 443, 12 N. Y. Suppl. 444.

Tennessee.— Lisenbee v. Holt, 1 Sneed 42.

Texas.— Western Union Tel. Co. v. Phillips, (Civ. App. 1893) 30 S. W. 494. See also Western Union Tel. Co. v. Clark, 14 Tex. Civ. App. 563, 38 S. W. 225.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 35.

That a non-resident plaintiff shall be held to answer a cross-action is provided for in some states. Aldrich v. Blatchford, 175 Mass. 369, 56 N. E. 700; Rice v. Sharpleigh Hardware Co., 85 Fed. 559.

2. Alabama.— Iron Age Pub. Co. v. Western Union Tel. Co., 83 Ala. 498, 3 So. 449, 3 Am. St. Rep. 758; Glover v. Glover, 16 Ala. 440.

Georgia.— Howell v. Gordon, 40 Ga. 302; Adams v. Lamar, 8 Ga. 83; Dearing v. Charleston Bank, 5 Ga. 497, 48 Am. Dec. 300. See also Reynolds, etc., Estate Mortg. Co. v. Martin, 116 Ga. 495, 42 S. E. 796.

Illinois.— Waverly v. Auditor of Public Accounts, 100 Ill. 354.

Indiana.— Beard v. Beard, 21 Ind. 321.

Kentucky.— Meres v. Chrisman, 7 B. Mon. 422.

Louisiana.— Lenmann v. Truxillo, 32 La. Ann. 65; Dejona v. The Osceola, 17 La. Ann. 277; Fell v. Darden, 17 La. Ann. 236.

Maine.— Smith v. Eaton, 36 Me. 298, 58 Am. Dec. 746; Lovejoy v. Albee, 33 Me. 414, 54 Am. Dec. 630.

Massachusetts.— Ewer v. Coffin, 1 Cush. 23, 48 Am. Dec. 587.

Mississippi.— Cocke v. Brewer, 68 Miss. 775, 9 So. 823.

Missouri.— Hiles v. Rule, 121 Mo. 248, 25 S. W. 959.

New York.—Mahr v. Norwich Union F. Ins. Soc., 127 N. Y. 452, 28 N. E. 391; Schwinger v. Hickok, 53 N. Y. 280. Compare Reed v. Chilson, 16 N. Y. Suppl. 744; Ward v. Arredondo, Hopk. 213, 14 Am. Dec. 543.

Ohio.— Pennywit v. Foote, 27 Ohio St. 600, 22 Am. Rep. 340.

South Carolina.— McKinne v. Augusta, 5 Rich. Eq. 55.

Texas.—Compare Butterworth v. Kinsey, 14 Tex. 495.

Virginia.— Miller v. Sharp, 3 Rand. 41; Hopkirk v. Bridges, 4 Hen. & M. 413.

United States.— Wilson v. Graham, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 17,804, 4 Wash. 53.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 36.

By joining a nominal party, who is a resident of the county, as co-defendant, jurisdiction of the real party defendant who is a of the owner's person,[3] although they may have jurisdiction in some cases of actions against a non-resident to the extent of such property.[4] But if a defendant who is a non-resident is found within the state and service of process is there made upon him, jurisdiction will thereby be acquired.[5]

(IV) ACTIONS BETWEEN. Courts of one state will in many cases assume jurisdiction of actions between non-residents, where either the subject-matter of the controversy is in reference to rights in or to property situated within such state, or where the cause of action, although it accrues in another state, is transitory in its nature and the parties are personally within the jurisdiction of the court.[6] And of actions between foreigners state courts will in many instances assume jurisdiction where defendant can be found within the state and process there personally served upon him.[7]

c. Political Corporations. The political corporation known as the parish or county exists everywhere throughout its territorial limits and may therefore be non-resident cannot be obtained. Robinson v. Harrison, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 701, 7 Ohio N. P. 273; Weekes v. Sunset Brick, etc., Co., 22 Tex. Civ. App. 556, 56 S. W. 243.

A federal district court in one state has no jurisdiction in personam against a citizen of another state who has not been served with process in the former state. Wilson v. Graham, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 17,804, 4 Wash. 53.

A fraudulent conveyance of land may be set aside, although defendant is a non-resident, where constructive service by publication of a warning order is had on him. McLaughlin v. McCrory, 55 Ark. 442, 18 S. W. 762, 29 Am. St. Rep. 56 (service under Mansf. Ark. Dig. §§ 4989, 4990).

3. McVicker v. Beedy, 31 Me. 314, 50 Am. Dec. 666.

4. Adams v. Lamar, 8 Ga. 83; Penn v. Evans, 28 La. Ann. 576; White v. White, 7 Gill & J. (Md.) 208; Johnson v. Herbert, 45 Tex. 304.

Stocks and bonds accompany person of the owner, being personal property, and although within the state, the court acquires no jurisdiction of action against non-resident in reference thereto. Huntzinger v. Philadelphia Coal Co., 11 Phila. (Pa.) 609, 33 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 178.

5. Illinois.— Brewster v. Scarborough, 3 Ill. 280.

Iowa.— Darrah v. Watson, 36 Iowa 116.

Maine.— Alley v. Caspari, 80 Me. 234, 14 Atl. 12, 6 Am. St. Rep. 178; Badger v. Towle, 48 Me. 20.

Massachusetts.— Barrell v. Benjamin, 15 Mass. 354.

New York.— Johnson v. Ackerson, 40 How. Pr. 222.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 36.

Persons having a place of business in New York city are to be deemed residents for the purpose of suing. Routenberg v. Schweitzer, 165 N. Y. 175, 58 N. E. 880; Clarkson v. Millnacht, 56 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 323; N. Y. Laws (1862), c. 484; Greater N. Y. Charter, § 1370, subs. 3.

6. California.—Roberts v. Dunsmuir, 75 Cal. 203, 16 Pac. 782.

Florida.— La Trobe v. Hayward, 13 Fla. 190.

Indiana.— Levi v. Kaufman, 12 Ind. App. 347, 39 N. E. 1045.

New Jersey.— Tomson v. Tomson, 31 N. J. Eq. 464.

New York.—Burdick v. Freeman, 120 N. Y. 420, 24 N. E. 949; Latourette v. Clarke, 45 Barb. 327, 30 How. Pr. 242; Walter v. F. E. McAlister Co., 21 Misc. 747, 48 N. Y. Suppl. 26, 27 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 33. But in an action by one foreign corporation against another the courts have no jurisdiction in the absence of statutory authority. Anglo-American Provision Co. v. Davis Provision Co., 50 N. Y. App. Div. 273, 63 N. Y. Suppl. 987. And see Smith v. Crocker, 162 N. Y. 600, 57 N. E. 1124 [affirming 14 N. Y. App. Div. 245, 43 N. Y. Suppl. 427], as to actions in tort where the cause of action arises outside the state. See also Hatfield v. Sisson, 28 Misc. 255, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 73.

North Carolina.— Walters v. Breeder, 48 N. C. 64; Miller v. Black, 47 N. C. 341.

Texas.— Ward v. Lathrop, 11 Tex. 287.

Vermont.— Whitmore v. Orcutt, Brayt. 22.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 40.

In actions upon a contract jurisdiction may be taken. Johnston v. Trade Ins. Co., 132 Mass. 432; Roberts v. Knights, 7 Allen (Mass.) 449; Furbush v. Nye, 17 N. Y. App. Div. 325, 45 N. Y. Suppl. 214; Mitchell v. Bunch, 2 Paige (N. Y.) 606, 22 Am. Dec. 669; Pullman Palace Car Co. v. Arents, 28 Tex. Civ. App. 71, 66 S. W. 329; American Well Works v. De Aguayo, (Tex. Civ. App. 1899) 53 S. W. 350.

An act conferring jurisdiction in actions "between non-residents and citizens" confers jurisdiction where plaintiffs are all non-residents and only one of defendants a citizen. Turner v. O'Bannon, 2 J. J. Marsh. (Ky.) 186.

Where defendant has no property in the state the court has no jurisdiction. Ward v. Lathrop, 4 Tex. 180. So in an action on book-account where both parties are non-residents and neither person nor property are attached or held within the state, the court has no jurisdiction. Osborn v. Lloyd, 1 Root (Conn.) 301.

7. Peabody v. Hamilton, 106 Mass. 217; Caignett v. Rouge, 1 Yeates (Pa.) 546.

sued in any court of proper or competent jurisdiction within such territorial limits.[8]

4. Of Subject-Matter or Property — a. Essentials of. If the remedy is purely statutory it is applicable only to cases where the circumstances that warrant it have occurred within the jurisdiction of the state,[9] and if neither the person nor the subject-matter are within the jurisdiction of the court it has no power over them.[10] But these rules are not exclusive in a general sense, for if there is something to which the jurisdiction can attach the court will take cognizance of the action even though other matters are involved which of themselves are without the limitation of the court's power, between which and the question of jurisdiction of defendant or of the property or subject-matter there may be and frequently is a distinction.[11] In connection with the preceding statement it is proper to notice here another analogous underlying principle, and that is that the presence of the subject-matter, the rem, within the territorial dominion of the sovereign power under authority of which the court acts, confers jurisdiction on such court.[12]

b. What Constitutes Jurisdiction of the Subject-Matter. Jurisdiction of the subject-matter is the power to hear and determine cases of the general class to which the proceedings in question belong.[13]

8. State v. Dupre, 46 La. Ann. 117, 14 So. 907; State v. Judge First Justice's Ct., 41 La. Ann. 403, 6 So. 653.

Police jury must be sued in Louisiana in a court having jurisdiction over the whole parish. Berthaud v. Police Jury, 7 Rob. (La.) 550.

The phrase "in any court of this state," in an act providing for action by the state on the relation of the state auditor against the board of commissioners of a county, means any court having competent jurisdiction and does not permit the action to be brought in any county. State v. Vanderburgh County, 49 Ind. 457.

9. Nations v. Alvis, 5 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 338.

Form of procedure not essential.—Although an actual seizure is required in proceedings in rem against the personal property of an absconding debtor, yet the court may obtain jurisdiction by virtue of a vendor's lien retained by the creditor upon real estate which constitutes the property in question and which is sought to be purchased. Oswald v. Kampmann, 28 Fed. 36.

10. Waverly v. Auditor of Public Accounts, 100 Ill. 354. Nor will the court assume jurisdiction to examine into a fraudulent perversion of the proceedings of the court of another state and set aside transfers based thereon when the actions, the transactions, and the property are all within said state. Claflin v. McDermott, 12 Fed. 375, 20 Blatchf. 522.

Where no fund is actually in court it should not frame an issue to determine its distribution, although such fund is in some other court of coördinate jurisdiction. Walker v. Erie Mar. Nat. Bank, 98 Pa. St. 574.

A contract violating the public policy of a state, although resulting from the transaction of business within the state, will not be enforced as an exercise of comity. Henni v. Fidelity Bldg., etc., Assoc., 61 Nebr. 744, 86 N. W. 475, 87 Am. St. Rep. 519.

11. Thus where land is attached within the court's jurisdiction for the payment of a debt, such court may take cognizance, notwithstanding the alleged indebtedness did not arise from any dealing in relation to the land (Philips v. Hines, 33 Miss. 163), and although money is obtained possession of without the parish, yet if it is deposited in a bank within the parish the court thereof obtains jurisdiction (Coit v. Jennings, 8 Mart. (La.) 166). So a court of limited jurisdiction may take cognizance of an action for the recovery of personal property taken on the high seas and brought in the custody of a United States marshal within the territory over which said court may exercise its powers. Cashmere v. Crowell, 1 Code Rep. (N. Y.) 95. Again the question may become specifically one of limitation of power of the court and not one of jurisdiction over defendant, as where defendant corporation has its principal place of business without the limits of the court's jurisdiction and service is there made. Heenan v. New York, etc., R. Co., 34 Hun (N. Y.) 602, 6 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 348, 1 How. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 53.

12. New York Bank Note Co. v. Hamilton Bank Note Engraving, etc., Co., 28 N. Y. App. Div. 411, 50 N. Y. Suppl. 1093; Monroe v. Douglas, 4 Sandf. Ch. (N. Y.) 126; Chesapeake, etc., R. Co. v. Rison, 99 Va. 18, 37 S. E. 320; Pennoyer v. Neff, 95 U. S. 714, 24 L. ed. 565; The Bee, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,219, 1 Ware 332, 336. See also Delaware Tp. v. Ripley County, 26 Ind. App. 97, 59 N. E. 189.

A cause of action arising out of commercial transactions affecting property rights, some of which at least arose within the state, will confer jurisdiction, as in case of an action of deceit for false representations inducing a sale, and so even though both parties are non-residents. Wertheim v. Clergue, 53 N. Y. App. Div. 122, 65 N. Y. Suppl. 750.

13. State v. Neville, 110 Mo. 345, 19 S. W. 491.

c. Property of Non-Resident Within State. The proper tribunals of a state may inquire into the nature and extent of the obligations of a non-resident where he has property within such state and may control its disposition or appropriate it to satisfy the claims of her citizens; but there is nothing upon which the state courts can adjudicate in the absence of such property within the limits of their jurisdiction.[14] And jurisdiction will attach to the thing even though all the parties in interest are foreigners, and although such thing has been brought within the territory by a violation of the sovereign rights of another nation.[15]

C. Mode of Acquiring Jurisdiction — 1. In General. It is a general rule that every state may within its constitutional authority prescribe the manner in which its courts shall exercise jurisdiction;[16] and if a new jurisdiction is created by statute without its form of proceeding being prescribed, such jurisdiction may pursue its own forms and regulations if not inconsistent with the laws of the land.[17] But where the mode of acquiring jurisdiction is prescribed by statute compliance therewith is essential or the proceedings will be a nullity.[18] Again where there is an absence of power conferred by law a court will not act in the premises.[19]

2. Court Cannot Act Sua Sponte. The court cannot of its own motion assume jurisdiction. Some person must in some legal way invoke its action.[20]

3. Of Plaintiff — Commencement of Suit. A court acquires jurisdiction of plaintiff when he applies for its power and assistance to render him his rights, but this aid must be sought according to the prescribed forms. The court must in some manner acquire jurisdiction of something relating to the controversy. When, however, plaintiff lawfully submits himself and the subject-matter to the court's jurisdiction, and the court or law commences acting under his claim for investigation, he has commenced his suit. But jurisdiction of the person of

It includes the authority to adjudge concerning the general questions involved therein, and is not dependent upon the state of facts which may appear in a particular case or the ultimate existence of a good cause of action in plaintiff. Hunt v. Hunt, 72 N. Y. 217, 28 Am. Rep. 129. Again it seems that in all cases where the averments are such that the tribunal has power to proceed and try them and to render judgment according to its finding, it has then jurisdiction of the subject-matter. Wanzer v. Howland, 10 Wis. 8.

14. Southwestern R. Co. v. Wright, 68 Ga. 311; Todd v. Lancaster, 104 Ky. 427, 47 S. W. 336, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 623; Pennoyer v. Neff, 95 U. S. 714, 24 L. ed. 565; Ormsby v. Ottman, 85 Fed. 492, 29 C. C. A. 295. See also Molyneux v. Seymour, 30 Ga. 440, 76 Am. Dec. 662; Hardy v. Beaty, 84 Tex. 562, 19 S. W. 778, 31 Am. St. Rep. 80, holding that the district court has jurisdiction of an action against non-resident heirs brought by one who seeks to recover land, situate in the county, by virtue of an ancestral title.

Appointment in Montreal of tutor ad hoc aux biens is illegal where minor is domiciled in the United States, although he has property in Montreal. Donohue v. La Banque Jacques Cartier, 11 Quebec Super. Ct. 90.

An action lies to collect the value of improvements from property in a court within the territorial limits of which land belonging to an infant is situate and the contract relative to improvements thereon was made. Shumate v. Harbin, 35 S. C. 521, 15 S. E. 270 (Code Civ. Proc. § 156, subs. 4).

15. The Bee, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,219, 1 Ware 336.

16. Campbell v. Wilson, 6 Tex. 379.

17. Pilotage Com'rs v. Low, R. M. Charlt. (Ga.) 298.

18. Paul v. Armstrong, 1 Nev. 82; People v. Board of Police, 6 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 162. See also Wortman v. Wortman, 17 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 66 (holding that where the jurisdiction is strictly statutory the specific mode of acquiring jurisdiction is exclusive); Odell v. Campbell, 9 Oreg. 298; Campbell v. Wilson, 6 Tex. 379 (holding that jurisdiction if acquired in the manner prescribed by statute cannot be questioned within the state); Ratcliff v. Polly, 12 Gratt. (Va.) 528 (where although the suit was for freedom of a slave, nevertheless the principle asserted is applicable, viz., that the acts relied upon to confer jurisdiction must be done in conformity with the statute, otherwise jurisdiction fails, especially if a writ is resorted to merely to evade the statute).

Mere error of judgment as to pleadings by state court does not affect jurisdiction. Griswold v. Hazard, 141 U. S. 260, 11 S. Ct. 972, 999, 35 L. ed. 678 [affirming 28 Fed. 578].

19. In re Bickley, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,387, where the court refused in time of war to transcend or revoke or vary the commands of the commander-in-chief to an officer of the army in respect to military services.

20. Johnson v. Miller, 50 Ill. App. 60; Townsend's Succession, 37 La. Ann. 114; Dowd v. Morgan, 1 Miss. 587.

defendant is not essential to the commencement of the suit nor is his appearance or service upon him necessary therefor, where by the practice of the state and under the law the taking of certain legal steps precedes the service of process.[21]

4. Service of Process and Notice — a. In General. In a suit in a common-law court there must be some service upon the adverse party in some mode authorized by law or the court cannot proceed, and a judgment rendered without such service would be a nullity.[22] So the rule prevails that service of process or the prescribed legal or statutory notice is always a prerequisite to jurisdiction over either the person or property,[23] and this statutory mode of service or of giving notice must be followed,[24] including requirements as to time,[25] or the return.[26] Nor does a person's knowledge of the existence of an action, no matter how clearly brought home to him, supply the want of compliance with the statutory or legal requirements,[27] and so even though the party is in the court's presence unless he is brought there by legal means.[28] Again an attachment of property cannot give jurisdiction so as to affect the interest of a person therein who is not legally notified.[29] It is not necessary, however, in order to acquire jurisdiction of the subject-matter in rem that the court shall bring the parties within reach of its process.[30]

b. Sending Process Out of Jurisdiction. Service of process out of the territorial jurisdiction of the court from which it issues, at common law, is a nullity,[31] for process of court has no force outside of its jurisdiction.[32] This rule applies to 21. Ex p. Cohen, 6 Cal. 318; Schroeder v. Merchants', etc., Ins. Co., 104 Ill. 71.

As to when action is deemed commenced see Actions, 1 Cyc. 747.

Existence or filing of written pleadings is not essential to rendition of judgment when proceedings are according to the course of the common law. Johnson v. Miller, 50 Ill. App. 60.

Mere filing of bill and notice thereof of a motion for appointment of receiver does not confer jurisdiction. Wheeler v. Walton, etc., Co., 65 Fed. 720.

22. Ex p. Davis, 41 Me. 38, holding that a memorial filed alleging the invalidity of the removal of a justice of the supreme court is not a process known to the common law.

23. Wheeler v. Walton, etc., Co., 65 Fed. 720 [citing Belmont Nail Co. v. Columbia Iron, etc., Co., 46 Fed. 8; Platt v. Archer, 19 Fed. Cas. No. 11,213, 9 Blatchf. 559; Union Trust Co. v. Rockford, etc., R. Co., 24 Fed. Cas. No. 14,401, 6 Biss. 197, and quoting Bradley, J., in Wilmer v. Atlanta, etc., Air-Line R. Co., 30 Fed. Cas. No. 17,775, 2 Woods 409, as follows: "Service of process gives jurisdiction over the person, seizure gives jurisdiction over the property"].

Rule is supported by the following cases:

Georgia.— Pilotage Com'rs v. Low, R. M. Charlt. 298.

Kansas.—Cohen v. Trowbridge, 6 Kan. 385.

Kentucky.— Jones v. Kenny, Hard. 96.

Louisiana.— Caldwell v. Glenn, 6 Rob. 9; McNairy v. Bell, 5 Rob. 418; Slocomb v. Bowie, 13 La. 10; Zacharie v. Blandin, 4 La. 154; Wall v. Wilson, 2 La. 169.

Mississippi.— Hunt v. Johnson, Freem. 282.

New Jersey.— Karr v. Karr, 19 N. J. Eq. 427.

Oregon.— Woodward v. Baker, 10 Oreg. 491.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 69.

Action wrongly begun before clerk, process may be amended where it gets into superior court by appeal or otherwise, that court having jurisdiction of the whole cause. Elliott v. Tyson, 117 N. C. 114, 23 S. E. 102.

24. Cohen v. Trowbridge, 6 Kan. 385; Karr v. Karr, 19 N. J. Eq. 427; Odell v. Campbell, 9 Oreg. 298.

25. Matlock v. Layman, 3 N. J. L. 993; Karr v. Karr, 19 N. J. Eq. 427.

26. Matlock v. Layman, 3 N. J. L. 993; Stone v. Miller, 62 Barb. (N. Y.) 430.

27. Caldwell v. Glenn, 6 Rob. (La.) 9; Wall v. Wilson, 2 La. 169.

28. Jones v. Kenny, Hard. (Ky.) 96.

29. Wells v. Sequin, 14 Iowa 143.

Resident assignee may attach, although nonresident assignor could not. McBride v. Farmers' Bank, 26 N. Y. 450.

30. Monroe v. Douglas, 4 Sandf. Ch. (N. Y.) 126. See The Bee, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,219, 1 Ware 332, holding that suits in rem are local and that the court within whose jurisdiction the thing is situate is the proper forum, although all the parties in interest are foreigners. See also Pennoyer v. Neff, 95 U. S. 714, 24 L. ed. 565.

31. Litchfield v. Burwell, 5 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 341, Code Rep. N. S. (N. Y.) 42.

32. Isett v. Stuart, 80 Ill. 404, 22 Am. Rep. 194.

Order for service of writ out of jurisdiction discharged in a suit to establish widow's right to estate and to enjoin defendants from obtaining it, they having been appointed in ex parte proceedings in Scotland executrixes. In re De Penny, [1891] 2 Ch. 63, 60 L. J. Ch. 518, 64 L. T. Rep. N. S. 521, 39 Wkly. Rep. 571.

state,[33] county,[34] district,[35] and inferior courts of municipalities,[36] except where otherwise specifically and lawfully provided,[37] or there is a waiver.[38] If, however, from the nature of the action the court has no jurisdiction it cannot obtain it either over the person of a non-resident or over the subject-matter by publication of an order of appearance nor by issuing a subpœna;[39] nor will jurisdiction be conferred contrary to state laws by the joinder of defendants over whom the court has jurisdiction.[40] But jurisdiction is conferred over several or joint defend-

Decree to set aside foreclosure is not a mere continuation of original foreclosure so as to authorize service of subpœna without the territorial jurisdiction. Pacific R. Co. v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 3 Fed. 772, 2 McCrary 347.

33. Indiana.— Sturgis v. Fay, 16 Ind. 429, 79 Am. Dec. 440, notice.

Iowa.— Bates v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 19 Iowa 260, notice.

Louisiana.— In re Dumas, 32 La. Ann. 679, process in personal action.

Michigan.— Pratt v. Windsor Bank, Harr. 254, service of subpœna irregular.

New York.— Appleton v. Appleton, 50 Barb. 486. But see Fetes v. Volmer, 5 Silv. Supreme 408, 8 N. Y. Suppl. 294.

Pennsylvania.— Ralston's Appeal, 93 Pa. St. 133 (sheriff cannot depute sheriff of another state to execute a writ); Scott v. Noble, 72 Pa. St. 115, 13 Am. Rep. 663 (notice and indorsement "I accept service of this writ"); Briggs v. Briggs, 6 Kulp 490 (subpœna).

South Carolina.— Toms v. Richmond, etc., R. Co., 40 S. C. 520, 19 S. E. 142 (service of summons gives no jurisdiction in absence of an attachment); Tillinghast v. Boston, etc., R. Lumber Co., 39 S. C. 484, 18 S. E. 120, 22 L. R. A. 49 (personal service on foreign corporation in another state).

Texas.— Maddox v. Craig, 80 Tex. 600, 16 S. W. 328 (notice); Kimmarle v. Houston, etc., R. Co., 76 Tex. 686, 12 S. W. 698 (service); Masterton v. Little, 75 Tex. 682, 13 S. W. 154.

Vermont.— Davis v. Richmond, 35 Vt. 419, service by sheriff in another state.

Virginia.— Raub v. Otterback, 89 Va. 645, 16 S. E. 933.

United States.— Pennoyer v. Neff, 95 U. S. 714, 24 L. ed. 565. See Pacific R. Co. v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 3 Fed. 772, 1 McCrary 647.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 70.

34. Florida.— Sanchez v. Haynes, 35 Fla. 619, 18 So. 27.

Illinois.— Maxwell v. Vansant, 46 Ill. 58 (promissory note was indorsed to resident of S. county but was executed in M. county. It did not appear where transfer was made. Summons from M. county into S. county invalid); Aird v. Haynie, 36 Ill. 174 (service on assignor of note).

Kentucky.— Cowan v. Montgomery, 7 J. J. Marsh. 299 (service of process in transitory action); Rogers v. Hagan, 6 J. J. Marsh. 578 (action of trespass; judgment void against defendant served within the county); Dicken v. King, 3 J. J. Marsh. 591; Cave v. Trabue, 2 Bibb 444 (subpœna in transitory action).

Massachusetts.— Pitman v. Tremont Nail Co., 2 Allen 531.

Michigan.— Turrill v. Walker, 4 Mich. 177.

Minnesota.— Shatto v. Latham, 33 Minn. 36, 21 N. W. 838, service of summons.

Oregon.— Brown v. Deschuttes Bridge Co., 23 Oreg. 7, 35 Pac. 177.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 70.

35. Gibson v. Huie, 14 La. 129; Nesbit v. McDaniel, Cheves (S. C.) 12; Romaine v. Union Ins. Co., 28 Fed. 625 (subpœna as compulsory process). See also Burns v. Yost, 47 N. J. L. 222, summons.

36. Dixon v. Dixon, 61 Ill. 324 (process generally); Holmes v. Fihlenburg, 54 Ill. 203 (summons); Burns v. Yost, 47 N. J. L. 222 (summons); Wellman v. Bergmann, 44 N. J. L. 613 (construction of statute as to jurisdiction and process); Hoag v. Lamont, 60 N. Y. 96 (strictly local court). See also Porter v. Lord, 4 Duer (N. Y.) 682, 4 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 43, 13 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 254.

37. Colorado.— Phelps v. Spruance, 1 Colo. 414.

Florida.— Sanchez v. Haynes, 35 Fla. 619, 18 So. 27.

Illinois.— Linton v. Anglin, 12 Ill. 284.

Minnesota.— Gould v. Johnston, 24 Minn. 188.

New York.— Porter v. Lord, 4 Duer 682, 13 How. Pr. 254, 4 Abb. Pr. 43; Gemp v. Pratt, 53 How. Pr. 83 (common pleas of city of New York [abolished by Const. (1895), art. 6, § 5, and jurisdiction vested in supreme court] may issue process in any county of state); Code Civ. Proc. § 426.

Wisconsin.— American L. & T. Co. v. Bond, 91 Wis. 204, 64 N. W. 854, circuit court process runs throughout state, applied to superior courts. See also Chase v. Ostrom, 50 Wis. 640, 7 N. W. 667.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 70.

The legislature may authorize service of process beyond territorial limits (Hickman v. O'Neal, 10 Cal. 292), but has no power to authorize extraterritorial service of process contrary to the constitution (Holmes v. Fihlenburg, 54 Ill. 203; Rockwell v. Raymond, 5 N. Y. Suppl. 642; Landers v. Staten Island R. Co., 14 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 346).

38. Cowan v. Montgomery, 7 J. J. Marsh. (Ky.) 299.

39. Gifford v. Thorn, 7 N. J. Eq. 90.

40. Goldstein v. New Orleans, 38 Fed. 626, warrants against a city. See also Herkimer v. Sharp, 5 Ill. App. 620.

ants, part of whom are non-residents, by the proper service upon resident defendants where the statute so provides.[41] The statute must, however, be complied with, and acts of service or joinder or other acts calculated to evade the statute or which are otherwise not within its purport and intent will be non-effective to confer jurisdiction.[42]

c. Fraud and Improper Means to Obtain Jurisdiction. A defendant is not amenable to process unless he is in or comes voluntarily within the territorial jurisdiction of the court, and if he is wrongfully, fraudulently, or by deceit induced by abuse of process or otherwise to come within the process of the court, service is not effective either as to his person or property and should be set aside, dismissed, vacated, or quashed.[43]

5. JURISDICTION BY CONSENT — a. Statement of Rule. Parties cannot by consent or by stipulation invest a court with jurisdiction or power not authorized by law or conferred upon it by the constitution.[44] This rule applies to jurisdiction

41. Indiana.—McCammock v. Clark, 16 Ind. 320.

Kentucky.— Turner v. O'Bannon, 2 J. J. Marsh. 186.

Louisiana.— Adams v. Scott, 25 La. Ann. 528; Toby v. Hart, 8 La. 523; Flower v. Hagan, 2 La. 223.

Michigan.— Allison v. Kinne, 104 Mich. 141, 62 N. W. 152.

Mississippi.— Comstock v. Rayford, 1 Sm. & M. 423, 40 Am. Dec. 102.

New York.— Clason v. Corley, 5 Sandf. 454.

Virginia.— Porter v. Young, 85 Va. 49, 6 S. E. 803.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 71.

Although rights of non-residents are wholly distinct from parties before court it is sufficient if one material defendant is served. Jackson v. Tiernan, 10 Yerg. (Tenn.) 172, under Stat. (1787), c. 22.

Co-executors living in different counties, action will not abate because served on one living in jurisdiction and not on others. Park v. Morrison, 4 N. C. 155.

42. Illinois.— Aird v. Haynie, 36 Ill. 174.

Kentucky.— Bayse v. Brown, 78 Ky. 553 (party improperly joined); Fernold v. Speer, 3 Metc. 459 (pro forma joinder only without proceedings or disposition of suit); Pottinger v. Mayfield, 14 B. Mon. 647 (must appear that one party is a resident); Lewis v. Davis, 2 Bibb 570.

Nebraska.— Dunn v. Haines, 17 Nebr. 560, 23 N. W. 501.

New York.— Hoag v. Lamont, 60 N. Y. 96 (jurisdiction of local court cannot be extended to bring it within the law); Delafield v. Wright, 3 Sandf. 746.

Ohio.—Allen v. Miller, 11 Ohio St. 374 (real parties in interest does not mean nominal parties only); Fisher v. Murdock, 1 Handy 544, 12 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 280.

Tennessee.— Yancey v. Marriott, 1 Sneed 28 (nolle prosequi entered as to resident defendant, jurisdiction over non-resident co-defendants fails); Jackson v. Tiernan, 10 Yerg. 172.

Texas.— Pool v. Pickett, 8 Tex. 122 (joinder must be bona fide); Henderson v. Kissam, 8 Tex. 46.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 71.

Jurisdiction is not dependent upon successful prosecution of suit against resident defendants. Rich v. Rayle, 2 Humphr. (Tenn.) 404.

43. Illinois.— Wanzer v. Bright, 52 Ill. 35.

Kentucky.— Wood v. Wood, 78 Ky. 624.

Michigan.— Stilson v. Greeley, 2 Mich. N. P. 222.

Minnesota.— Chubbuck v. Cleveland, 37 Minn. 466, 35 N. W. 362, 5 Am. St. Rep. 864.

Missouri.— Christian v. Williams, 111 Mo. 429, 20 S. W. 96 [overruling Byler v. Jones, 22 Mo. App. 623].

New Jersey.—Reed v. Williams, 29 N. J. L. 385; Heston v. Heston, 52 N. J. Eq. 91, 28 Atl. 8.

New York.— Dunham v. Cressy, 51 Hun 641, 4 N. Y. Suppl. 13; Metcalf v. Clark, 41 Barb. 45; Wyckoff v. Packard, 20 Abb. N. Cas. 420; Baker v. Wales, 14 Abb. Pr. N. S. 331, 45 How. Pr. 137; Steiger v. Bonn, 59 How. Pr. 496.

Ohio.— Ex p. Everts, 2 Disn. 33.

Oregon.— Compare Commercial Nat. Bank v. Davidson, 18 Oreg. 57, 22 Pac. 517.

Pennsylvania.— Hevener v. Heist, 9 Phila. 274, 30 Leg. Int. 46. Compare Fearl v. Hanna, 129 Pa. St. 588, 18 Atl. 556.

Tennessee.— Battelle v. Youngstown Rolling Mill Co., 16 Lea 355.

Wisconsin.— Townsend v. Smith, 47 Wis. 623, 3 N. W. 439, 32 Am. Rep. 793.

United States.— Blair v. Turtle, 5 Fed. 394, 1 McCrary 372; Steiger v. Bonn, 4 Fed. 17.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 73.

44. Alabama.—Dunham v. Hatcher, 31 Ala. 483; Fields v. Walker, 23 Ala. 155; State v. Caroline, 20 Ala. 19; Winn v. Freele, 19 Ala. 171; Humphrey v. State, Minor 64.

California.— Boggs v. Merced Min. Co., 14 Cal. 279.

Colorado.— Haverly Invincible Min. Co. v. Howcutt, 6 Colo. 574.

Connecticut.— Andrews v. Wheaton, 23 Conn. 112.

Florida.— Post v. Carpenter, 2 Fla. 441; Bluett v. Nicholson, 1 Fla. 384.

Georgia.— Georgia Mut. Loan Assoc. v.

of the cause of action or subject-matter,[45] to causes wherein the necessary juris-

McGowan, 59 Ga. 811; Central Bank v. Gibson, 11 Ga. 453; Pilotage Com'rs v. Low, R. M. Charlt. 298.

Illinois.— Shissler v. People, 93 Ill. 472; Fleischman v. Walker, 91 Ill. 318; Beesman v. Peoria, 16 Ill. 484; Ginn v. Rogers, 9 Ill. 131; Leigh v. Mason, 2 Ill. 249; Foley v. People, 1 Ill. 57; Mathias v. Mathias, 104 Ill. App. 344; Leman v. Sherman, 18 Ill. App. 368.

Indiana.— Herbster v. State, 80 Ind. 484.

Iowa.— Dicks v. Hatch, 10 Iowa 380; Michales v. Hine, 3 Greene 470.

Kansas.— Van Bentham v. Osage County, 49 Kan. 30, 30 Pac. 111.

Kentucky.— Davis v. Davis, 10 Bush 274; Stark v. Thompson, 3 J. J. Marsh. 299; Ormsby v. Lynch, Litt. Sel. Cas. 303; Lindsey v. McClelland, 1 Bibb 262; Brown v. Crow, Hard. 443.

Louisiana.— Riggs v. Bell, 39 La. Ann. 1030, 3 So. 183; State v. Judge Eleventh Dist. Ct., 21 La. Ann. 258; State v. Judge Judicial Dist. Ct., 13 La. Ann. 89; Marsoudet v. Bienvenu, 11 La. 122.

Maine.— Hobbs v. Gould, (1887) 10 Atl. 457; Powers v. Mitchell, 75 Me. 364; State v. Bonney, 34 Me. 223.

Massachusetts.— Osgood v. Thurston, 23 Pick. 110; Carlisle v. Western, 21 Pick. 535.

Michigan.— Hagar v. Coup, 50 Mich. 54, 14 N. W. 698.

Mississippi.— Lester v. Harris, 41 Miss. 668; Bell v. Tombigbee R. Co., 4 Sm. & M. 549; Hurd v. Tombes, 7 How. 229.

Missouri.— Cones v. Ward, 47 Mo. 289; Dodson v. Scroggs, 47 Mo. 285; In re Williams, 62 Mo. App. 339.

Montana.— Sanders v. Farwell, 1 Mont. 599; Wilson v. Davis, 1 Mont. 98.

Nevada.— Phillips v. Welch, 11 Nev. 187; Paul v. Armstrong, 1 Nev. 82.

New Jersey.— Collins v. Keller, 58 N. J. L. 429, 34 Atl. 753; Cottrell v. Thompson, 15 N. J. L. 344; Parker v. Munday, 1 N. J. L. 70; Falkenburg v. Cramer, 1 N. J. L. 31.

New York.—Davidsburgh v. Knickerbocker L. Ins. Co., 90 N. Y. 526; Perry v. Erie Transfer Co., 4 Misc. 598, 23 N. Y. Suppl. 878; Tucker v. Tucker, 4 Abb. Dec. 428, 4 Keyes 136; Parkhurst v. Rochester Lasting Mach. Co., 65 Hun 489, 20 N. Y. Suppl. 395; Ansonia Brass, etc., Co. v. New York Lamp Chimney Co., 64 Barb. 435; Clyde, etc., Plank Road Co. v. Parker, 22 Barb. 323; Coffin v. Tracy, 3 Cai. 129.

North Carolina.— Green v. Collins, 28 N. C. 139.

Ohio.— Evans v. Iles, 7 Ohio St. 233; Gilliland v. Sellers, 2 Ohio St. 223; Mygatt v. Ingham, Wright 176.

Pennsylvania.— Oil City v. McAboy, 74 Pa. St. 249; Gettysburg R. Co. v. Kohler, 3 Lanc. Bar 10.

Rhode Island.— Weeden v. Richmond, 9 R. I. 128, 98 Am. Dec. 373.

South Carolina.— Chalmers v. Turnipseed, 21 S. C. 126; Bent v. Graves, 3 McCord 280, 15 Am. Dec. 632.

Tennessee.— Rice v. Alley, 1 Sneed 51; Ex p. Williams, 4 Yerg. 579.

Texas.— Wynns v. Underwood, 1 Tex. 48.

Virginia.— Tyson v. Glaize, 23 Gratt. 799; Randolph v. Kinney, 3 Rand. 394; Clarke v. Conn, 1 Munf. 160; Brickhouse v. Hunter, 4 Hen. & M. 363, 4 Am. Dec. 528; Bogle v. Fitzhugh, 2 Wash. 213.

Washington.— Steiner v. Nerton, 6 Wash. 23, 32 Pac. 1063; Puget Sound Agricultural Co. v. Pierce County, 1 Wash. Terr. 75.

Wisconsin.— Hager v. Falk, 82 Wis. 644, 52 N. W. 432; Hills v. Miles, 13 Wis. 625; Wanzer v. Howland, 10 Wis. 8.

United States.— Fourniquet v. Perkins, 7 How. 160, 12 L. ed. 650; Olds Wagon Works v. Benedict, 67 Fed. 1, 14 C. C. A. 285; Central Trust Co. v. Virginia, etc., Co., 55 Fed. 769; Daly v. Doe, 3 Fed. 903. See also St. Louis R. Co. v. Pacific R. Co., 52 Fed. 770; Ketchum v. Farmers' L. & T. Co., 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,736, 4 McLean 1.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 75.

As to conferring jurisdiction on appellate court by consent see APPEAL AND ERROR, II, B, 1 [2 Cyc. 536].

Total want of jurisdiction cannot be cured by consent of parties. In re Aylmer, 20 Q. B. D. 258, 57 L. J. Q. B. 168, 36 Wkly. Rep. 231; Jones v. Owen, 5 D. & L. 669, 13 Jur. 261, 18 L. J. Q. B. 8; Bacon Abr. tit. Courts (A).

45. Alabama.— Walker v. Ivey, 74 Ala. 475; Harrison v. Harrison, 20 Ala. 629, 56 Am. Dec. 227; Jeffries v. Harbin, 20 Ala. 387; Wyatt v. Judge, 7 Port. 37.

Arkansas.— Jacks v. Moore, 33 Ark. 31.

California.— Ball v. Putnam, 123 Cal. 134, 55 Pac. 773.

Colorado.— Whipple v. Stevenson, 25 Colo. 447, 55 Pac. 188; McKinnon v. Hall, 10 Colo. App. 291, 50 Pac. 1052.

District of Columbia.— Palmer v. Fleming, 1 App. Cas. 528.

Georgia.— Raney v. McRae, 14 Ga. 589, 60 Am. Dec. 660.

Illinois.— Parsons v. Millar, 189 Ill. 107, 59 N. E. 606; Robertson v. Wheeler, 162 Ill. 566, 44 N. E. 870; Peak v. People, 71 Ill. 278; Bureau County v. Thompson, 39 Ill. 566.

Indian Territory.— In re Frazee, (1901) 64 S. W. 545.

Iowa.— Chapman v. Morgan, 2 Greene 374.

Kentucky.— Brown v. McKee, 1 J. J. Marsh. 471.

Maryland.— Hadaway v. Hynson, 89 Md. 305, 43 Atl. 806; Danner v. State, 89 Md. 220, 42 Atl. 965.

Michigan.— Kirkwood v. Hoxie, 95 Mich. 62, 54 N. W. 720, 35 Am. St. Rep. 549.

Minnesota.— State v. Dike, 20 Minn. 363.

dictional amount is involved,[46] to a supreme court concerning questions brought up from below pending trial,[47] to long acquiescence as a basis of jurisdiction of a court of appeals,[48] to an action of trespass and a stipulation to try title,[49] to a case where jurisdiction is conferred upon another court,[50] or to extending jurisdiction so as to have certain matters settled in a proceeding before the court,[51] and it precludes bringing a local action in another county than that in which the property lies.[52]

b. Qualification of Rule. Where jurisdiction has attached and the cause of action or subject-matter is legally and properly within the power and cognizance of the court, it may proceed upon consent or stipulation with reference to the matters before it;[53] and this rule applies where the court has general jurisdiction

Mississippi.— Holloman v. Holloman, 5 Sm. & M. 559.

Missouri.—Abernathy v. Moore, 83 Mo. 65; Brown v. Woody, 64 Mo. 547; Tippack v. Briant, 63 Mo. 580.

Nebraska.— Crawford v. Hathaway, 61 Nebr. 317, 85 N. W. 303; Armstrong v. Mayer, 60 Nebr. 423, 83 N. W. 401; Johnson v. Bouton, 56 Nebr. 626, 77 N. W. 57.

New Hampshire.—Batchelder v. Currier, 45 N. H. 460.

New Jersey.— Warren County School Dist. No. 28 v. Stocker, 42 N. J. L. 115; Newkirk v. Morris, 12 N. J. Eq. 62.

New York.— In re Walker, 136 N. Y. 20, 32 N. E. 633 [reversing 17 N. Y. Suppl. 666]; Dudley v. Mayhew, 3 N. Y. 9; Matter of Campbell, 88 Hun 374, 34 N. Y. Suppl. 831; Shakespeare v. Markham, 10 Hun 311; Bumstead v. Read, 31 Barb. 661; Harriott v. New Jersey R., etc., Co., 2 Hilt. 262; Matter of Krakauer, 33 Misc. 674, 68 N. Y. Suppl. 935; Perry v. Erie Transfer Co., 4 Misc. 598, 23 N. Y. Suppl. 878; Albany Brewing Co. v. Smith, 74 N. Y. Suppl. 901; Chambers v. Feron, 56 N. Y. Suppl. 338; Dakin v. Demming, 6 Paige 95; Shaw's Estate, Tuck. Surr. 352.

North Carolina.— Leach v. Western North Carolina R. Co., 65 N. C. 486.

Ohio.— Rohn v. Dunbar, 13 Ohio St. 572; Gilliland v. Sellers, 2 Ohio St. 223; Ballou v. Farnsworth, 4 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 88, Clev. L. Rep. 17; Wilson v. Swigart, 1 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 418.

Pennsylvania.— Small's Appeal, (1888) 15 Atl. 767; Hoch's Appeal, 72 Pa. St. 53.

Rhode Island.— Fitts v. Shaw, 22 R. I. 17, 46 Atl. 42.

South Carolina.— Gallman v. Gallman, 5 Strobh. 207.

Tennessee.— Baker v. Mitchell, 105 Tenn. 610, 59 S. W. 137; Anderson v. Cannon, Cooke 27.

Texas.— Haney v. Millikin, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 221.

West Virginia.— Yates v. Taylor County Ct., 47 W. Va. 376, 35 S. E. 24.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 76.

46. California.— Feillett v. Engler, 8 Cal. 76.

Indiana.— Horton v. Sawyer, 59 Ind. 587.

Louisiana.— Gee v. Thompson, 39 La. Ann. 310, 1 So. 537; Tague v. Royal Ins. Co., 38 La. Ann. 456.

Michigan.— Gamber v. Holben, 5 Mich. 331.

Missouri.— Tippack v. Briant, 63 Mo. 580.

Texas.— Southern Pac. R. Co. v. Burns, (Civ. App. 1893) 23 S. W. 288; McMahan v. Dennis, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 1209.

Virginia.— Wynn v. Scott, 7 Leigh 63.

United States.— Merrill v. Petty, 16 Wall. 338, 21 L. ed. 499.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 78.

47. Long v. Long, Morr. (Iowa) 381.

48. Clarke v. Conn, 1 Munf. (Va.) 160. See also Warren County School Dist. No. 28 v. Stocker, 42 N. J. L. 115.

49. Union Coal Co. v. La Salle, 136 Ill. 119, 26 N. E. 506, 12 L. R. A. 326.

50. Yates v. Taylor County Ct., 47 W. Va. 376, 35 S. E. 24.

51. Hadaway v. Hynson, 89 Md. 305, 43 Atl. 806.

52. McHenry v. Wallen, 2 Yerg. (Tenn.) 441.

Land without state — When consent gives jurisdiction.— But a village police justice has jurisdiction by consent over land in another town in the county (Brandon v. Avery, 22 N. Y. 469), and a promise in writing to submit to service within the state coupled with service, confers jurisdiction over a contract for the sale of land situate without the state (Shattuck v. Cassidy, 3 Edw. (N. Y.) 152).

53. Thus parties may consent to try a cause at chambers instead of at the regular term (Lindsay v. People, 1 Ida. 438), and the court may try an action transferred by agreement from another county (Milner v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 77 Iowa 755, 42 N. W. 567. See Fourniquet v. Perkins, 7 How. (U. S.) 160, 12 L. ed. 650). So consent can dispense with recitals or statements in pleadings setting forth the jurisdiction (Clyde, etc., Plank Road Co. v. Parker, 22 Barb. (N. Y.) 323), and jurisdiction over a particular action can be conferred by agreement (Greer v. Cagle, 84 N. C. 385). So the whole controversy may be by consent submitted on a rehearing (Badgely v. Badgely, 5 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 495, 6 Am. L. Rec. 286), and consent may restore jurisdiction which has once attached, but which has been exercised so that the court's power is gone and said suit may be redetermined (Brown of the cause in controversy.[54] Again the principle as to consent has been held to be applicable only to the question of general jurisdiction to adjudicate as to the subject-matter and not to the question whether the particular facts of the case bring it within that conceded jurisdiction.[55] It has also been asserted that the rule that jurisdiction cannot be conferred by consent does not cover cases where the agreement of the parties is in effect only waiving the ordinary process by which the power of the court is invoked,[56] especially so where the court has general jurisdiction over the subject-matter and has proceeded to final judgment without objection taken.[57] So parties who consent that an order of court be made have been held to be obligated thereby, even though the court had no power to make such order.[58]

c. As to the Person. Although the rule that parties cannot by consent confer jurisdiction where the law gives none has been applied to an appearance by defendant and answering to the merits[59] or confessing the bill by omitting to make answer;[60] yet where the court has jurisdiction over the subject-matter, or the exemption of the party is a personal privilege, it may, the parties being legally competent, be waived by express consent or stipulation, or by some act equivalent thereto,[61] or where a foreign corporation designates in compliance with the law a person upon whom process may be served.[62] So the rule applies where the jurisdiction is exclusive over the subject-matter;[63] but third persons cannot be prejudiced by such consent of the parties.[64] It has also been held that jurisdiction of the person, although not of the subject-matter, may be conferred by consent.[65]

v. Crow, Hard. (Ky.) 443; Bogle v. Fitzhugh, 2 Wash. (Va.) 213). So parties may "agree to come to trial" (Vanderveer v. Ingleton, 7 N. J. L. 140), or that an action may be brought (Bowers v. Durant, 43 Hun (N. Y.) 348), and after injunction improperly granted, parties may stipulate to refer all matters in dispute to arbitrators (Brickhouse v. Hunter, 4 Hen. & M. (Va.) 363, 4 Am. Dec. 528). Again irregular proof of facts showing that a cause is properly before a court may be admitted by consent (Hills v. Miles, 13 Wis. 625), and consent of creditors suing on separate attachments that the property be surrendered to the assignee appointed by another court gives the latter exclusive jurisdiction (Plume, etc., Mfg. Co. v. Caldwell, 35 Ill. App. 492 [affirmed in 136 Ill. 163, 26 N. E. 599, 29 Am. St. Rep. 305]). But a stipulation does not confer jurisdiction to try a cause after an adjournment in one county and the commencement of a term in another county. Bates v. Gage, 40 Cal. 183.

54. Foreman v. Hough, 98 N. C. 386, 3 S. E. 912. See also Hawkins v. Hughes, 87 N. C. 115.

55. Wanzer v. Howland, 10 Wis. 8.

56. Groves v. Richmond, 56 Iowa 69, 8 N. W. 752 [distinguishing McMeans v. Cameron, 51 Iowa 691, 49 N. W. 856].

"Consent of parties cannot confer jurisdiction on the court in a matter excluded by law. But when the court has jurisdiction of the subject-matter, and the party is privileged from the jurisdiction, he may waive such privilege." Bacon Abr. tit. Courts (A).

57. In re Spring St., 112 Pa. St. 258, 3 Atl. 581.

58. Chalmers v. Turnipseed, 21 S. C. 126.

59. Parkhurst v. Rochester Lasting Mach. Co., 65 Hun (N. Y.) 489, 20 N. Y. Suppl. 395.

60. Burckle v. Eckhart, 3 N. Y. 132.

61. California.— Gray v. Hawes, 8 Cal. 562.

Georgia.— Raney v. McRae, 14 Ga. 589, 60 Am. Dec. 660; Central Bank v. Gibson, 11 Ga. 453; Bostwick v. Perkins, 4 Ga. 47.

Illinois.— Allen v. Belcher, 8 Ill. 594.

Indiana.— Gage v. Clark, 22 Ind. 163.

Nebraska.— Bedford v. Ruby, 17 Nebr. 97, 22 N. W. 76.

Ohio.— Campbell v. Cowden, Wright 484.

South Carolina.— Brown v. Overstreet, 4 McCord 79.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 79.

Consent prior to institution of proceeding. — The execution of a consent and waiver prior to the institution of a proceeding does not confer upon a surrogate jurisdiction over the party executing such consent and waiver. Matter of Graham, 39 Misc. (N. Y.) 226, 79 N. Y. Suppl. 573, 12 N. Y. Annot. Cas. 157.

Upon the substitution of a wife as administratrix in place of a deceased husband, in a proceeding against the husband and wife to foreclose a tax lien, the court may continue the action to a decree. State v. Jordan, 25 Tex. Civ. App. 17, 59 S. W. 826, 60 S. W. 1008.

62. Gray v. Quicksilver Min. Co., 21 Fed. 288.

63. Randolph County v. Ralls, 18 Ill. 29.

64. Raney v. McRae, 14 Ga. 589, 60 Am. Dec. 660; Georgia R., etc., Co. v. Harris, 5 Ga. 527.

65. Gage v. Clark, 22 Ind. 163.

That jurisdiction over the person may be conferred by consent see Fowler v. Halbert, 3 Bibb (Ky.) 384; Brown v. Woody, 64 Mo.

D. Scope and Extent of Jurisdiction — 1. In General. Courts established by law cannot transcend the powers granted, nor can such jurisdiction be enlarged by intendment.[66] Nor can authority over a cause of an equitable nature include matters preliminary to the exercise of such jurisdiction which are purely of equitable cognizance over which as such the court has no power,[67] nor are the consequences and incidents of a matter included where the matter itself is excluded,[68] nor will an express statutory exclusion of certain cases be controlled by a subsequent enactment which merely indicates an inclusion thereof,[69] nor can a limitation of jurisdiction be inferred when not expressed in the act conferring the same, although it may arise from a necessary implication.[70] But where the statute gives jurisdiction over certain proceedings in a specified matter, it may be exercised, although the enforcement of the entire remedy is not necessary for the protection of plaintiff's legal rights.[71] Again the court will not modify an order where such act would be a delegation of its authority to a tribunal of another state,[72] nor will a court take cognizance of the acts of its predecessors to correct their judgments or decrees.[73] Again the jurisdiction of a court is generally confined to its territorial limits.[74]

2. Over Entire Controversy. The authority to hear and determine a cause is jurisdiction to try and decide all the questions involved in the controversy,[75] and if a court legally obtains jurisdiction of the parties and subject-matter, it may decide all questions arising in the cause, and its decisions are binding until reversed by a competent court.[76]

3. Ancillary and Incidental Jurisdiction — a. In General. Although the legislature may by virtue of constitutional authority give to a court cognizance over all incidental and dependent matters, so that the litigants shall have the full benefit of their rights and the court be enabled to pronounce finally,[77] still a grant of jurisdiction implies the necessary and usual incidental powers essential to effectuate it;[78] and a court's power to apply a remedy is coextensive with its jurisdiction over the subject-matter.[79] So that demands, matters, or questions ancillary or incidental to or growing out of the main action, and which also come within the above principles, may be taken cognizance of by the court and determined, 547; Burnley v. Cook, 13 Tex. 586, 65 Am. Dec. 79; Walker v. Rogan, 1 Wis. 597.

Rule applies to justices' courts.— Grimm v. Dundee Land, etc., Co., 55 Mo. App. 457.

66. Baker v. Chisholm, 3 Tex. 157.

67. Mally v. Mally, 31 Iowa 60.

68. Matter of Ferguson, 9 Johns. (N. Y.) 239.

69. Ludington v. U. S., 15 Ct. Cl. 453.

70. U. S. v. Samperyac, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 16,216*a*, Hempst. 118.

71. Kenny v. Geohegan, 9 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 378.

72. Taylor v. Atlantic, etc., R. Co., 57 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 9.

73. Reed v. Allison, 54 Cal. 489; Saunders v. Smith, 3 Ga. 121; Long v. Pellett, 1 Harr. & M. (Md.) 531. But see Davis v. Watson, 54 Miss. 679.

74. Gardner v. Witbord, 59 Ill. 145; Sherry v. Winton, 1 Ind. 96; Winet v. Berryhill, 55 Iowa 411, 7 N. W. 681.

75. Quarl v. Abbett, 102 Ind. 233, 1 N. E. 476, 52 Am. Rep. 662.

76. Arkansas.— Evans v. Percifull, 5 Ark. 424.

Connecticut.— Sherwood v. Stevenson, 25 Conn. 431.

Georgia.— Leyden v. Hickman, 75 Ga. 684.

Iowa.— Smith v. Engle, 44 Iowa 265.

Louisiana.— Wheeless v. Fisk, 28 La. Ann. 731; McDowell v. Read, 3 La. Ann. 391.

New York.— Douglass v. Ferris, 138 N. Y. 192, 33 N. E. 1041, 34 Am. St. Rep. 435; Hall v. Hall, 30 How. Pr. 51.

Ohio.— Borntraeger v. Borntraeger, 7 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 551, 3 Cinc. L. Bul. 891.

Texas.— Heidenheimer v. Johnson, 76 Tex. 200, 13 S. W. 46; Peticolas v. Carpenter, 53 Tex. 23; Kenedy v. Jarvis, (Sup. 1886) 1 S. W. 191.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 83.

A court of equity will not retain bill against resident parties in respect to property or claims thereto held by them as agents of foreign governments where by international law courts can exercise no jurisdiction over them. Leavitt v. Dabney, 3 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 469.

77. State Bank v. Duncan, 52 Miss. 740.

78. State v. Rombauer, 104 Mo. 619, 15 S. W. 850, 16 S. W. 502. See also Jenkins v. Simms, 45 Md. 532.

79. Kershaw v. Thompson, 4 Johns. Ch. (N. Y.) 609.

If court has no jurisdiction over a suit it will not construe a contract involved. Tay-for such jurisdiction is in aid of its authority over the principal matter.[80] Again a court may entertain proceedings ancillary to the judgment, for jurisdiction once acquired is not exhausted by the rendition of judgment, but continues until such judgment is satisfied and includes the power to issue all proper process and to take all proper proceedings for its enforcement.[81] A court may also entertain a lor v. Mutual Reserve Fund L. Assoc., 97 Va. 60, 33 S. E. 385, 45 L. R. A. 621.

80. Thus the power to render judgment involves the power to take the preliminary steps (Com. v. Simpson, 2 Grant (Pa.) 438), and jurisdiction of a cause vested in a district court includes incidental demands, growing out of or connected with the main suit (State v. Thompson, 34 La. Ann. 758). The rule also includes jurisdiction over a warrantor of defendant subsequently brought in (Meade v. Warring, (Tex. Civ. App. 1896) 35 S. W. 308), and an orphans' court has power to discharge a party attached in contempt (Kuntz's Estate, 2 Lehigh Val. L. Rep. (Pa.) 241). So the supreme court has inherent power to protect parties in interest from injustice and fraud (Baldwin v. New York, 42 Barb. (N. Y.) 549), and although a supreme court may not have original jurisdiction in equity to relieve against fraud as a direct object of a bill, yet where the question of fraud arises incidentally to a suit the court may consider it (Goodrich v. Staples, 2 Cush. (Mass.) 258). The rule also applies to the power of a superior court to order the taking of an account (Rountree v. Britt, 94 N. C. 104), to the right of a chancellor to grant an injunction incidental merely to a decree (Mason v. Chambers, 4 J. J. Marsh. (Ky.) 401), to the right of a parish court to enforce the sale of property on execution (McGinty v. Richmond, 27 La. Ann. 606), to the right of the court of a county or city to restrain the sale of real estate in another county or city (Winston v. Midlothian Coal Min. Co., 20 Gratt. (Va.) 686), to the right of a county court to pass upon title to land in an action of trespass (Melvin v. Chancy, 8 Tex. Civ. App. 252, 28 S. W. 241), to the right of a court of common pleas to determine title in an action for partition between heirs (Thompson v. Mills, 39 Ind. 528), to the trial of land titles as an incidental matter in counties other than that where the land lies (Royston v. Royston, 21 Ga. 161), and to the cancellation of a deed by a county court in an action of partition (Bell v. Gittere, 9 N. Y. Suppl. 400 [affirmed in 134 N. Y. 616, 32 N. E. 640]). But circuit courts cannot set aside conveyances in foreign countries in aid of executions issued by the circuit court of one county to the sheriff of another. Richards v. Hyde, 21 Ill. 640. A city court may within the rule grant a writ of assistance to put a purchaser in possession of land sold on foreclosure of a mechanic's lien (O'Connor v. Schaeffel, 11 N. Y. Suppl. 737, 19 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 378, 25 Abb. N. Cas. (N. Y.) 344), and the title to premises concerning which a foreclosure is sought may be settled (Ewing v. Patterson, 35 Ind. 326. See also Denny v. Graeter, 20 Ind. 20; Toner v. Mitchell, 13 Ind. 530). So a circuit court may regulate all proceedings necessary to foreclose a mortgage (Tooley v. Gridley, 3 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 493, 41 Am. Dec. 628), and a county court may reform a condition of a bond secured by mortgage as incidental to an action to foreclose (Mead v. Langford, 56 Hun (N. Y.) 279, 9 N. Y. Suppl. 586, 18 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 293; N. Y. Code Civ. Proc. §§ 340, 348). Such court may also in such an action dispose of issues arising upon a counter-claim, although it has no original jurisdiction over such claim. Hall v. Hall, 30 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 51. But a power to reform a mortgage is not vested in said courts as incidental to the power to foreclose. Thomas v. Harmon, 122 N. Y. 84, 25 N. E. 257 [affirming 46 Hun 75, 11 N. Y. St. 79, 27 N. Y. Wkly. Dig. 316]. The power, however, to make distribution of the mortgage fund involves the power to determine all incidental questions including an attorney's compensation (Ihmsen's Estate, 29 Pittsb. Leg. J. (Pa.) 218), and a power to declare trusts of a devisee or executor and to determine liabilities in payment of legacies of lands devised authorizes granting incidentally the application of the personalty or to apply the land to satisfy the legacies (Devereux v. Devereux, 81 N. C. 12; N. C. Acts (1876–1877), c. 241, § 6). So a petition for a sale of real property for the payment of debts gives a circuit court power to make all incidental orders and decrees required by the circumstances and equities of the case. Moore v. Moore, 11 Humphr. (Tenn.) 512. Again in a suit by a vendee, in so far as its object is the recovery from a third person of the land in controversy, the district court has power to hear and determine in the alternative the branch of action against the vendor on the warranty, regardless of the amount sued for. Chesnutt v. Chism, (Tex. Civ. App. 1898) 48 S. W. 549.

81. Phelps v. Mutual Reserve Fund L. Assoc., 112 Fed. 453, 50 C. C. A. 339 [reversing 103 Fed. 515].

The power to arrest judgment after verdict is necessarily inherent in the common-law courts and belongs therefore to the district court. Wentworth v. Wentworth, 2 Minn. 277, 72 Am. Dec. 97. So the power to compel the return of an execution issued is incidental to the authority to issue the same (Shindler v. Blunt, 1 Sandf. (N. Y.) 683), and the power to issue executions is a necessary incident of a court of record (Bailey v. Winn, 101 Mo. 649, 12 S. W. 1045). So a petition to restrain a foreign corporation over which it has jurisdiction from doing anything to prevent a receiver from acting in matters which pertain to the subject-matter of the suit before it, such as taking possession of property.[82]

b. Of Probate and Like Courts — (I) In General. Probate and like courts have a special jurisdiction only, and their powers as to ancillary or incidental questions must of necessity be exercised within certain limitations.[83] Beyond this point the difficulty in formulating any general rule of value in a specific case is obvious;[84] especially so in view of the fact that in rendering their decisions the expressions of the courts have differed upon essential points, principally as to the degree of strictness with which the grant of jurisdiction should be construed.[85] circuit court in Mississippi has power to correct any oppressive or unjust abuse of its process and to quash an execution and set aside a sale thereunder. Hopton v. Swan, 50 Miss. 545.

82. Chesapeake, etc., R. Co. v. Swayze, 60 N. J. Eq. 417, 47 Atl. 28.

Order appointing receiver will not be modified so as to make the action in one state collateral or ancillary to that pending in another state, especially where such modification would be a delegation of the court's authority to the tribunal of another state. Taylor v. Atlantic, etc., R. Co., 57 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 9.

83. See Clarke v. Ratcliffe, 7 How. (Miss.) 162; Matter of Hawley, 104 N. Y. 250, 10 N. E. 352; Carman v. Cowles, 2 Redf. Surr. (N. Y.) 414; Ainey's Appeal, 2 Pennyp. (Pa.) 192.

84. In New York the difficulty may be illustrated by the fact that the legislature attempted at an early date to specifically restrict the exercise of "incidental powers" by surrogates, and it being found that compliance with precise statutory restrictions was incompatible with the business necessities of that court the statute was repealed and the surrogate's "incidental powers" were restored. Laws (1837), c. 460, § 71, repealing 2 Rev. Stat. 221. See Sipperly v. Baucus, 24 N. Y. 46. See also Campbell v. Thatcher, 54 Barb. 382; Dobke v. McClaran, 41 Barb. 491. The present code after enumerating the "incidental powers" of that court provides in conclusion for the exercise by it of "such incidental powers, as are necessary to carry into effect the powers expressly conferred." Code Civ. Proc. § 2481. Under this provision such court may on a judicial settlement, in order to determine the rights of the parties, pass upon the validity of an alleged assignment of a legacy. Matter of Havens, 8 Misc. 574, 29 N. Y. Suppl. 1085, 24 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 68. Again the imposition and collection of the succession tax imposed upon legacies are simply incidents in the final settlement of estates and therefore are not foreign to the jurisdiction (In re McPherson, 104 N. Y. 306, 10 N. E. 685, 58 Am. Rep. 502), and a surrogate may issue a supplemental citation where the necessary parties are not before it (Matter of Phalen, 51 Hun 208, 4 N. Y. Suppl. 409, 16 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 292), may relieve a purchaser at an executor's sale of lands of a deceased person from his purchase, where the proceedings in which the order of sale was made were defective, so as to cloud the title (In re Lynch, 33 Hun 309, 67 How. Pr. 436 [reversing 2 Dem. Surr. 611]), may determine the validity of alleged gifts by deceased (Fowler v. Lockwood, 3 Redf. Surr. 465), may bring all the parties in court to accomplish the objects of the statute (Danser v. Jeremiah, 3 Redf. Surr. 130), may try any question on which for the settlement of an executor's accounts a decision may be required and may determine whether assets were a gift to the executor (Merchant v. Merchant, 2 Bradf. Surr. 432), and may direct that securities be deposited in a safe place (O'Connor's Estate, 1 N. Y. Suppl. 110).

85. Thus it has been decided that the code contemplated an expansion rather than a contraction of the surrogate's jurisdiction, and that where the legislature has neglected to point out the precise way in which that court may exercise its powers it is at liberty to adopt such modes of procedure as the exigencies of the case may demand, which would include the "incidental powers" vested in it by the code. Delaplaine's Estate, 12 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 35. It has also been determined that a surrogate takes no incidental powers or constructive authority by implication which is not expressly given by statute. In re Hawley, 104 N. Y. 250, 10 N. E. 352 [citing Wood v. Brown, 34 N. Y. 337; Craig v. Craig, 3 Barb. Ch. (N. Y.) 76; In re Woodworth, 2 Barb. Ch. (N. Y.) 351; Bulkley v. Van Wyck, 5 Paige (N. Y.) 536; In re Andrews, 1 Johns Ch. (N. Y.) 99]), and that the "incidental powers" of that court are only such as are reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of the statute, and such as may be inferred from its language to be necessary to accomplish its objects (Carman v. Cowles, 2 Redf. Surr. (N. Y.) 414). Again a constitutional provision giving to probate courts "jurisdiction in all matters testamentary and of administration" is decided to impliedly draw to its aid every incidental power and authority necessary to the proper discharge of its important functions and to the full and successful accomplishment thereof. Powell v. Burrus, 35 Miss. 605. See also West v. Gibbs, 42 Miss. 168; Killcrease v. Kill-

There seems, however, to be a general tendency, in the absence of express and specific restrictions to the contrary, to uphold the exercise by these courts of such incidental powers as are, within the purview of their grant of authority, reasonably necessary to enable them to accomplish the objects for which they were invested with jurisdiction and to perfect the same.[86]

(II) Over Title to Property and Validity of Contracts. The consensus of opinion is that probate and like courts have no jurisdiction to try title to land or other property in direct proceedings therefor and decide directly upon the validity thereof. If, however, the question of title arises collaterally or incidentally and its examination is necessary in order to reach a correct determination in matters over which such courts have jurisdiction, or to enforce their rightful or admitted jurisdiction then they may and should take cognizance thereof and make the requisite inquiry into the same.[87] The same rule has also been applied to the question of the validity of contracts.[88]

(III) Over Construction of Wills. The power to construe wills or to inquire into their validity and legal effect and to determine the rights of the parties thereunder is conceded to probate and like courts where the exercise of such power is necessarily incidental to the carrying into effect the powers expressly granted over the administration, settlement, and distribution of estates.[89]

crease, 7 How. (Miss.) 311. So in an early Louisiana decision a court of probate was decided to possess under the code all the powers necessary to the exercise of its jurisdiction. Babin v. Nolan, 4 Rob. (La.) 278. It is also determined that the power of the orphans' court once invoked in matters of distribution of decedents' estates is commensurate with its duties. Ainey's Appeal, 2 Pennyp. (Pa.) 192, 196 [citing Shollenberger's Appeal, 21 Pa. St. 337; Whiteside v. Whiteside, 20 Pa. St. 473].

86. See in this connection cases supra, note 85.

Incidental powers include the ademption of legacies (May v. May, 28 Ala. 141), the production of books of account in the hearing of claims against the estate (Miller v. People, 52 Ill. App. 236), questions of warranty, eviction, and damages (Durnford's Succession, 8 Rob. (La.) 488), the right to inquire collaterally into a sale to ascertain if the property is to be included in the partition (McCaleb v. McCaleb, 8 La. 459), jurisdiction to partition real estate (Phillips v. Perry, 49 N. H. 264), jurisdiction to determine the parties in interest or any other question necessarily involved in the exercise of its legal authority (Dunham v. Marsh, 52 N. J. Eq. 256, 30 Atl. 473), jurisdiction to compel an administrator or executor to return a full inventory (Killcrease v. Killcrease, 7 How. (Miss.) 311. See also Compton v. Compton, 6 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 194), jurisdiction to compel property to be added to the inventory and to inquire if it be assets (Compton v. Compton, 6 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 194), jurisdiction to enter a widow's dissent on transfer of case (Ramsour v. Ramsour, 63 N. C. 231), jurisdiction to settle all questions of advancement or of debts that stand therefor (Springer's Appeal, 29 Pa. St. 208), and jurisdiction to enforce necessary orders against distributees after distribution and upon final settlement (Powell v. Burrus, 35 Miss. 605).

Power not of necessity incidental to the exercise of any of the granted powers cannot be exercised, and this applies to the enforcement of an attorney's lien on money recovered. Clarke v. Ratcliffe, 7 How. (Miss.) 162.

87. California.— Kimberly's Estate, 97 Cal. 281, 32 Pac. 234; Haas' Estate, 97 Cal. 232, 31 Pac. 893; Burton's Estate, 64 Cal. 428, 1 Pac. 702; In re Dunn, Myr. Prob. 122.

Louisiana.— Hemken v. Ludewig, 12 Rob. 188; Durnford's Succession, 8 Rob. 488; In re Hackett, 4 Rob. 290; Babin v. Nolan, 4 Rob. 278; Goodrich's Succession, 3 Rob. 100; Badon v. Foucher, 15 La. 455.

Maine.— Shaw, Appellant, 81 Me. 207, 16 Atl. 662.

Mississippi.— McWillie v. Van Vacter, 35 Miss. 428, 72 Am. Dec. 127; Gaskins v. Hammett, 32 Miss. 103.

New Hampshire.— Phillips v. Perry, 49 N. H. 264; Bellows v. Grant, Smith 115.

New Jersey.— Robison v. Furman, 47 N. J. Eq. 307, 20 Atl. 898; Swackhamer v. Kline, 25 N. J. Eq. 503.

Pennsylvania.—Corson's Estate, 137 Pa. St. 160, 20 Atl. 588.

South Carolina.— Gregory v. Rhoden, 24 S. C. 90.

Tennessee.—Walsh v. Crook, 91 Tenn. 388, 19 S. W. 19.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 86.

88. McWillie v. Van Vacter, 35 Miss. 428, 72 Am. Dec. 127.

89. Alabama.—Harrison v. Harrison, 9 Ala. 470.

Michigan.— Glover v. Reid, 80 Mich. 228, 45 N. W. 91.

Missouri.— Brown v. Stark, 47 Mo. App. 370.

New Jersey.— Hill v. Bloom, 41 N. J. Eq. 276, 7 Atl. 438.

4. Property Without Territorial Limits of Jurisdiction. Jurisdiction may rest upon proceedings in rem over property or be based upon properly bringing the person within the court's control. This is a principle running through all the cases. The first question therefore to be determined is the extent of the tribunal's authority and the limitation upon its powers. The nature of the action or character of the remedy sought is also important. Thus in cases of fraud, trust, or contract the jurisdiction of equity is sustainable wherever the person can be found, although lands without the limits of the court's authority may be affected by the decree. If, however, the suit relates to a mere question of title it must be tried in the district where the land lies,[90] for if the subject-matter of the controversy lies without the limits of the court's control and where its process cannot reach the locus in quo it has no jurisdiction.[91] This rule also applies to a

New York.— In re Verplanck, 91 N. Y. 439; Matter of Perkins, 75 Hun 129, 26 N. Y. Suppl. 958; Matter of Havens, 8 Misc. 574, 29 N. Y. Suppl. 1085, 24 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 68; In re Owens, 33 N. Y. Suppl. 422, 24 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 256; Matter of Kick, 11 N. Y. St. 688.

Washington.— Webster v. Seattle Trust Co., 7 Wash. 642, 33 Pac. 970, 35 Pac. 1082.

Wisconsin.— Schæffner's Appeal, 41 Wis. 260.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 87.

90. Massie v. Watts, 6 Cranch (U. S.) 148, 3 L. ed. 181.

91. Northern Indiana R. Co. v. Michigan Cent. R. Co., 15 How. (U. S.) 233, 14 L. ed. 674.

Application of rule.— If the nature of the suit is that of a proceeding in rem it must be prosecuted within the jurisdiction where the property is situate, as where it is sought to subject assets descended to the heir to the payment of an ancestor's debt. Williams v. Ewing, 31 Ark. 229. So where a court's jurisdiction does not extend beyond the limits of a city it has no control of lands without said city. Watts v. White, 13 Cal. 321. A claim to lands must be determined in the state where the lands lie, whether based on contract express or implied, direct or in secret trust. Clopton v. Booker, 27 Ark. 482. Although the legislature may authorize proceedings to subject equitable interests in real estate this does not include land beyond the territorial limits of the state. Butterfield v. Ogborn, 1 Disn. (Ohio) 550, 12 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 789. So a petition to confirm a claim to land in another state will be dismissed on objection to the jurisdiction. Callender v. U. S., 4 Fed. Cas. No. 2,321, Hempst. 34. On a bill to rescind a contract relating to land outside its jurisdiction a court cannot decree that defendant remove his machinery from the land and deliver possession of said land to plaintiff. Genet v. Delaware, etc., Canal Co., 13 Misc. (N. Y.) 409, 35 N. Y. Suppl. 147. The location of the property will operate as a limitation upon the power of a district court, even though the constitution of the state grants such court jurisdiction of all cases in law or equity. Louden Irrigating Canal Co. v. Handy Ditch Co., 22 Colo. 102, 43 Pac. 535; Colo. Const. art. 6, § 11. So the court's authority is limited by the fact that the land is located in another county. Bunch v. Bunch, 26 Ind. 40. So also where the object to be seized under executory process of a city court is beyond the city's limits. Elwyn v. Jackson, 14 La. 411. No real action lies in Louisiana for lands situate in Mississippi. Edwards v. Ballard, 14 La. Ann. 362. So where the statute expressly limits the jurisdiction to premises within the judicial district, its decree cannot affect property without said district. People v. Third Dist. Ct., 57 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 443. See also People v. Campbell, 22 Hun (N. Y.) 574, 60 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 102. Again the superior court of Cincinnati cannot restrain the assessment or collection of an illegal tax on lands without the city's limits. Jones v. Gerke, 2 Cinc. Super. Ct. 500. Like principles have also been applied to other courts of special or limited jurisdiction. Morris v. Remington, 1 Pars. Eq. Cas. (Pa.) 387 (a court of common pleas); Atkins v. Fraker, 32 Wis. 510 (a municipal court); Brockway v. Carter, 25 Wis. 510 (a municipal court).

Person within jurisdiction — Property, etc., not.— Equity may prevent persons over whom it has jurisdiction from prosecution of actions without the state. Cole v. Cunningham, 133 U. S. 107, 10 S. Ct. 269, 33 L. ed. 538. And where a husband is within the control of chancery it may exercise its powers as to him, even though his wife's equitable estate out of which he seeks a settlement is within a foreign state. Guild v. Guild, 16 Ala. 121. But see Bunch v. Bunch, 26 Ind. 400. So a court which has jurisdiction over a creditor may prevent his defeating the operation of an assignment and thereby obtaining a preference over domestic creditors, although his proceedings were directed against real property in another state. Hayden v. Yale, 45 La. Ann. 362, 12 So. 633, 40 Am. St. Rep. 232. Again, even though defendant's property is beyond reach of process of the court, yet it may compel a defendant who is personally within its jurisdiction to bring said property within the court's control, or to execute such a trans-case of a boundary line between states, where the jurisdiction does not extend beyond the middle of a stream dividing them,[92] or where the exclusive jurisdiction of a state in respect to navigable and tide-waters is limited by certain lines of demarcation or qualified as to commerce on such waters or as to designated property within ascertainable lines.[93]

E. Exercise of Jurisdiction — 1. Mode of Exercise in General — a. Regulation and Limitation of. The legislature has the power, even though the constitution gives the court exclusive jurisdiction in certain cases, to regulate the manner or fix the conditions under which the jurisdiction shall be exercised.[94] And if authority is given by a legislative act in a particular case the court will not deviate from the letter thereof. It cannot confound its original jurisdiction and its jurisdiction conferred by the special act, even though it is to be enforced by the same mode of procedure; nor will it deviate from the exercise of its powers under the private statute and make orders founded partly upon such express specific authority and partly upon its original jurisdiction.[95]

b. Relative Powers as Court or Judge. If a judge is vested with exclusive power he must act as judge,[96] and a judge may exercise the power conferred by statute upon him as judge in the name of the court and as the act of the court.[97] But the authority may be given to the court and not to the judge thereof in his individual capacity.[98] fer and conveyance thereof as will vest the legal title as well as the possession of the property according to the lex loci rei sitæ. Mitchell v. Bunch, 2 Paige (N. Y.) 606, 22 Am. Dec. 669. But service upon a party within the limits of the court's jurisdiction does not give it control where its jurisdiction is limited. Fisher v. Murdock, 1 Handy (Ohio) 544, 12 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 280.

Decree in personam — Land in another state. — The jurisdiction acquired over parties to an action incidentally affecting lands in another state is purely in personam and the judgment has no extraterritorial force in rem. Bullock v. Bullock, 52 N. J. Eq. 561, 30 Atl. 676, 46 Am. St. Rep. 528, 27 L. R. A. 213. The power of equity to enforce such decrees does not extend to a case where a simple contract debtor attempts to make the voluntary grantors of his deceased debtor account to him. Lide v. Parker, 60 Ala. 165. Nor has chancery jurisdiction, where the decree sought would not be in personam, but would direct the sale of land without the jurisdiction, through the medium of a trustee. White v. White, 7 Gill & J. (Md.) 208.

92. Gilbert v. Moline Water Power, etc., Co., 19 Iowa 319, holding that courts cannot abate a nuisance existing beyond the dividing line of a river, even though both states have concurrent jurisdiction over commerce on said stream. See also Mississippi, etc., R. Co. v. Ward, 2 Black (U. S.) 485, 17 L. ed. 311. Contra, where there was held to be concurrent jurisdiction over a stream in an action for injuries resulting in death. Opsahl v. Judd, 30 Minn. 126, 14 N. W. 575. See also Sanders v. St. Louis, etc., Anchor Line, 97 Mo. 26, 10 S. W. 595, 3 L. R. A. 390, so holding although in this case the parties were citizens of the domestic state.

93. State v. Babcock, 30 N. J. L. 29; People v. New Jersey Cent. R. Co., 42 N. Y. 283.

94. In re North Chester Election Dist., 3 Pa. Co. Ct. 247.

95. Williamson v. Berry, 8 How. (U. S.) 495, 12 L. ed. 1170. See also Williamson v. Ball, 8 How. (U. S.) 566, 12 L. ed. 1200; Williamson v. New York Irish Presb. Congregation, 8 How. (U. S.) 565, 12 L. ed. 1200.

96. Regan v. Traube, 16 Daly (N. Y.) 152, 9 N. Y. Suppl. 495, 18 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 332, holding that where the statute provides that an order for service of summons by publication shall be made, not by the court but by a judge, and such an order bears a special term caption and a direction to enter by the judge, such direction may be disregarded and the order treated as a chambers order. See also Crosby v. Thedford, 13 Daly (N. Y.) 150, 7 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 245. And see People v. Donovan, 63 Hun (N. Y.) 512, 18 N. Y. Suppl. 501 [reversed in 135 N. Y. 76, 31 N. E. 1009, 29 Abb. N. Cas. (N. Y.) 172, 23 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 1].

Where the power to act is exclusively conferred on the judge and not on the court to partition lands, the court has no jurisdiction in the premises. Smith v. Craig, 10 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 447.

Although a statute contemplates that an act is to be done by the judge out of court unless by a court in the county where the bill is pending, yet it may be done by a judge sitting in court in another county, but if so done it can have only the effect of an act of a judge at chambers. Androscoggin, etc., R. Co. v. Androscoggin R. Co., 49 Me. 392.

97. King v. McClurg, 7 S. D. 67, 63 N. W. 219.

98. Porter v. U. S., 19 Fed. Cas. No. 11,290, 2 Paine 313.

c. Orders Made by Court or Judge. Orders made by the court should not be entered as orders of the judge thereof,[99] and the presumption that a clerk's action was done by order of the judge does not exist where the act is a judicial one of the judge necessary to be evidenced by an order.[1]

2. Discretion of Court — a. Obligation or Duty to Assume Jurisdiction. Courts are bound to solve doubtful questions of law and not to refer them to the legislature.[2] And if no discretion is reposed or the jurisdiction is a positive one the court must proceed in a cause or matter properly before it.[3]

b. Right to Retain or Assume Jurisdiction. Where discretion may be exercised jurisdiction may be retained, no valid reason being shown to the contrary,[4] especially so where there are also good reasons therefor.[5] And equity[6] may assume jurisdiction against a foreign corporation,[7] or grant relief in case of doubtful jurisdiction,[8] or where a less circuitous and better remedy can be given than is afforded by the courts of another state.[9]

c. Right to Refuse Jurisdiction. A court which is not in a condition to do complete justice in the case should decline to entertain jurisdiction.[10] So jurisdiction, where a matter of discretion, may be refused in the absence of sufficient reasons for assuming it.[11] Jurisdiction may also be refused where it would be advisable,[12] where the action is between non-residents or arose without the state and so, even though the action is transitory,[13] where the suit is against a foreign corporation or its stock-holders[14] or in favor of such stock-holders,[15] where there is an objection to the jurisdiction in a cause before a supreme court by stipulation, although the court might otherwise proceed,[16] or where the court whose aid

A motion to set aside an order appointing a receiver is properly made to the court and not to a judge. Lippincott v. Westray, 6 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 74.

Where superior court judge transacts judicial business at the place designated his acts are, under the constitution, the acts of the "court." Von Schmidt v. Widber, 99 Cal. 511, 34 Pac. 109.

99. Lippincott v. Westray, 6 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 74, holding that an order purporting to be made by a judge of the court should not be substituted for one made by the court.

1. Baltimore v. Baltimore County Com'rs, 19 Md. 554.

In special proceedings originally instituted before the clerk of court an order of the judge before issues are made up and the case has been certified to the court is extrajudicial. Wharton v. Wilkerson, 92 N. C. 407.

2. Breedlove v. Turner, 9 Mart. (La.) 353.

3. Dunphy v. Belden, 57 Cal. 427; Wolff v. Matthews, 39 Mo. App. 376; Petersen v. Brockelmann, 1 N. Y. City Ct. 193.

Court has no discretion to refuse jurisdiction, although demand is stale. Hutsonpiller v. Stover, 12 Gratt. (Va.) 579.

4. Cofrode v. Wayne County Cir. Judge, 79 Mich. 332, 44 N. W. 623, 7 L. R. A. 511.

Court cannot refuse jurisdiction because rights might be more conveniently and completely determined in another forum. Kimball v. Neal, 44 Vt. 567.

5. Winchester v. Browne, 13 N. Y. Suppl. 655.

Where a statute is so clearly valid as to admit of no reasonable discretion the court will not, upon a mere suggestion of its invalidity, surrender its jurisdiction of a cause. Schaffer v. Coorsen, 10 Ky. L. Rep. 634.

6. As to equity discretion to foreclose mortgage see Corbett v. Rice, 2 Nev. 330.

7. Pierce v. Equitable L. Assur. Soc., 145 Mass. 56, 12 N. E. 858, 1 Am. St. Rep. 433. See also Wilson v. Martin-Wilson Automatic Fire-Alarm Co., 149 Mass. 24, 20 N. E. 318.

8. Adriance v. New York, 1 Barb. (N. Y.) 19.

9. Richardson v. Williams, 56 N. C. 116.

10. Harris v. Pullman, 84 Ill. 20, 25 Am. Rep. 416; National Telephone Mfg. Co. v. Du Bois, 165 Mass. 117, 42 N. E. 510, 52 Am. St. Rep. 503, 30 L. R. A. 628.

11. People v. Kern County, 47 Cal. 205; State v. Branch, 28 Mo. App. 131; Burdick v. Freeman, 46 Hun (N. Y.) 138, 10 N. Y. St. 756, 27 N. Y. Wkly. Dig. 313 [affirmed in 120 N. Y. 420, 24 N. E. 949].

12. In re Health Com'rs, 6 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 1174, 11 Am. L. Rec. 651.

Where there are reasons of policy against entertaining an action, jurisdiction should not be exercised except for special reasons shown, even though the court has the right to take cognizance. Dewitt v. Buchanan, 54 Barb. (N. Y.) 31.

13. Morris v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 78 Tex. 17, 14 S. W. 228, 22 Am. St. Rep. 17, 9 L. R. A. 349. See also Reynolds, etc., Estate Mortg. Co. v. Martin, 116 Ga. 495, 42 S. E. 796.

14. Post v. Toledo, etc., R. Co., 144 Mass. 341, 11 N. E. 540, 59 Am. Rep. 86. See also Bank of North America v. Rindge, 154 Mass. 203, 27 N. E. 1015, 26 Am. St. Rep. 240, 13 L. R. A. 56.

15. Kimball v. St. Louis, etc., R. Co., 157 Mass. 7, 31 N. E. 697, 34 Am. St. Rep. 250.

16. Rathbun v. Moody, 4 Minn. 364.

is invoked has not the equitable jurisdiction in the premises possessed by another court.[17]

3. BEYOND TERRITORIAL LIMITS — a. Generally. A judge of one court may be authorized to perform such acts in relation to law cases as are necessary to be performed in vacation in another court.[18] But a judge cannot, contrary to the statute, summon a judgment debtor residing in another county to appear and be examined.[19]

b. Issuing Injunctions. Generally the right of a court to issue injunctions is only coextensive with the limits of its territorial jurisdiction,[20] and the same principles and the exceptions to the rule which govern the scope and extent of jurisdiction over extraterritorial property control and prevent the issuance of injunctions relating to property in another state.[21] Again the courts of a state have no jurisdiction to enjoin the doing of threatened acts or to compel the undoing of the same in another state, even though such acts constitute an interference with contract rights.[22] A judge may, however, be authorized by statute to award injunctions to judgments rendered or proceedings apprehended out of his own circuit with a limitation excluding the right of such judge to hear and determine the cause.[23] So discrimination by a railroad company where its road runs through different states may be enjoined,[24] and a corporation owing its existence in part to and exercising its functions in a state may be there restrained from expending its funds anywhere for any other than corporate purposes.[25] Again where jurisdiction has been obtained over a foreign defendant he may be restrained from performing or exhibiting a drama in a foreign state in violation of plaintiff's rights.[26]

c. Title to, Conveyance, Reconveyance, and Sale of Lands — (i) IN GENERAL. A court of a state other than that in which the land is situate cannot make a decree affecting the legal or equitable title to such land, and within this rule are conveyances and reconveyances, sale and resale, and assignments.[27] There are, 17. People v. Blackman, 1 Den. (N. Y.) 632.

18. State v. Hocker, 35 Fla. 19, 16 So. 614.

19. Wilson v. Andrews, 9 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 39.

20. Western Union Tel. Co. v. Pacific, etc., Tel. Co., 49 Ill. 90; Montgomery v. Commercial Bank, Sm. & M. Ch. (Miss.) 632. See, generally, INJUNCTIONS.

21. Western Union Tel. Co. v. Western, etc., R. Co., 8 Baxt. (Tenn.) 54.

Injunction to restrain entry on land cannot be maintained in county other than that in which the land is situate. Norfolk, etc., R. Co. v. Postal Tel. Cable Co., 88 Va. 932, 14 S. E. 689, 88 Va. 936, 14 S. E. 690.

Construction of dam may be restrained even though one end thereof extends into another state. In re Binney, 2 Bland (Md.) 99.

Exception exists where jurisdiction over person exists.— Alexander v. Tolleston Club, 110 Ill. 65; Frank v. Peyton, 82 Ky. 150; Jennings v. Beale, 158 Pa. St. 283, 27 Atl. 948.

22. Atlantic, etc., Tel. Co. v. Baltimore, etc., R. Co., 46 N. Y. Super. Ct. 377, 11 N. Y. Wkly. Dig. 122 [modified in 87 N. Y. 355, 14 N. Y. Wkly. Dig. 365]. See also American Union Tel. Co. v. Western Union Tel. Co., 67 Ala. 26, 42 Am. Rep. 90; Western Union Tel. Co. v. Pacific, etc., Tel. Co., 49 Ill. 90.

A court will decline on ground of comity to restrain breach of contract in another state made by a foreign railroad company for transportation in such foreign state. Delaware, etc., R. Co. v. New York, etc., R. Co., 12 Misc. (N. Y.) 230, 33 N. Y. Suppl. 1081.

23. Randolph v. Tucker, 10 Leigh (Va.) 655.

A court having jurisdiction in personam may require defendant to do or refrain from doing, beyond its territorial jurisdiction, anything which it has power to require him to do or omit within the limits of its territory. State v. Fredlock, 52 W. Va. 232, 43 S. E. 153.

24. Scofield v. Lake Shore, etc., R. Co., 43 Ohio St. 571, 3 N. E. 907, 54 Am. Rep. 846.

25. State v. Northern Cent. R. Co., 18 Md. 193.

26. French v. Maguire, 55 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 471.

27. Arkansas.—Williams v. Nichol, 47 Ark. 254, 1 S. W. 243.

District of Columbia.—Contee v. Lyons, 19 D. C. 207.

Kentucky.— McLawrin v. Salmons, 11 B. Mon. 96, 52 Am. Dec. 563.

Louisiana.— Mussina v. Alling, 11 La. Ann. 568.

Maryland.— White v. White, 7 Gill & J. 208.

New Jersey.— Davis v. Headley, 22 N. J. Eq. 115.

however, certain exceptions which qualify the rule and which come within the principles hereinbefore stated, as where the court has jurisdiction of the parties and power to pass upon the subject-matter, or where there is the factor of fraud and the like.[28]

(II) Power to Cancel, Reform, or Establish Deeds to Land. A court of one state cannot decree that a conveyance of land in another state is fraudulent and void, nor annul the deed,[29] nor will it assume jurisdiction in such case,[30] although if it acquires jurisdiction of the parties it may declare that a deed to such lands is void,[31] cancel it when obtained by fraud,[32] take cognizance of a suit

New York.— Glen v. Gibson, 9 Barb. 634; Smith v. Tozer, 11 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 349; Hawley v. James, 7 Paige 213, 32 Am. Dec. 623.

Ohio.— Daniels v. Stevens, 19 Ohio 222; Nowler v. Coit, 1 Ohio 519, 13 Am. Dec. 640.

Pennsylvania.— Thomas v. Hukill, 131 Pa. St. 298, 18 Atl. 875.

Tennessee.— Miller v. Birdsong, 7 Baxt. 531.

Texas.— Moseby v. Burrow, 52 Tex. 396; Paschal v. Acklin, 27 Tex. 173.

Virginia.— Pillow v. Southwest Virginia Imp. Co., 92 Va. 144, 23 S. E. 32, 53 Am. St. Rep. 804; Gibson v. Burgess, 82 Va. 650; Poindexter v. Burwell, 82 Va. 507.

United States.— Lyman v. Lyman, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,628, 2 Paine 11; Tardy v. Morgan, 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,752, 3 McLean 358.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 54.

Cannot decree sale of land in another county or district.— State v. Jacksonville, etc., R. Co., 16 Fla. 708; Montgomery v. Montgomery, 2 Bush (Ky.) 49; Wilmot v. Cole, 10 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 777, 23 Cinc. L. Bul. 339; Ludlow v. McBride, 3 Ohio 240. Contra, where the statute confers jurisdiction so to do upon a probate court. Van Horn v. Ford, 16 Iowa 578.

28. Thus a court can decree as to title in case of fraudulent conspiracy by defendants in another state to divest plaintiff of his title to lands therein, when the relief sought is damages for the wrong and an accounting and payment of the rents and profits, the title to the property being only incidentally involved. Mussina v. Belden, 6 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 165. And chancery may compel a judgment debtor to convey lands in another state for the benefit of his creditors so as to vest in the grantee the legal title. Bailey v. Ryder, 10 N. Y. 363. So a defendant personally within the court's jurisdiction may be compelled to make such a transfer or conveyance of property without the state, as will vest the legal title and possession. Mitchell v. Bunch, 2 Paige (N. Y.) 606, 22 Am. Dec. 669; Lyman v. Lyman, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,628, 2 Paine 11; Tardy v. Morgan, 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,752, 3 McLean 358. And a court can compel conveyance or reconveyance when it has acquired jurisdiction of the parties (McGee v. Sweeney, 84 Cal. 100, 23 Pac. 1117; Cooley v. Scarlett, 38 Ill. 316, 87 Am. Dec. 298; Seixas v. King, 39 La. Ann. 510, 2 So. 416; Gardner v. Ogden, 22 N. Y. 327, 78 Am. Dec. 192; Roblin v. Long, 60 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 200; Guerrant v. Fowler, 1 Hen. & M. (Va.) 5), or where it has jurisdiction in a suit to cancel a deed fraudulently recorded (Vreeland v. Vreeland, 49 N. J. Eq. 322, 24 Atl. 551), and where partition has been decreed in Indiana of lands there and in Kentucky a court of the latter state may compel a conveyance of lands in said state from minor heirs, who were parties to the Indiana suit and had removed to Kentucky, to person entitled under the foreign judgment (Page v. McKee, 3 Bush (Ky.) 135, 96 Am. Dec. 201).

Conveyance of equity of redemption may be decreed, although the mortgaged land be out of the state where the mortgagor and mortgagee reside in the state. Eaton v. McCall, 86 Me. 346, 29 Atl. 1103, 41 Am. St. Rep. 561.

Court can decree sale of lands of a partnership by a receiver, where the court has general equity powers and has jurisdiction of the parties in a suit for the dissolution of the partnership. Dunlap v. Byers, 110 Mich. 109, 67 N. W. 1067. And it can act on a person within its jurisdiction and compel compliance with its decree affecting the sale of lands. Poindexter v. Burwell, 82 Va. 507. So where a widow has used assets of her deceased husband's estate in the purchase of lands, some of which are in another state, her sureties may be coerced within the jurisdiction to convey said lands to an administrator to be sold for the benefit of creditors and distributees. Miller v. Birdsong, 7 Baxt. (Tenn.) 531.

29. Carpenter v. Strange, 141 U. S. 87, 11 S. Ct. 960, 35 L. ed. 640. See also Gray v. Folwell, 57 N. J. Eq. 446, 41 Atl. 869.

30. Cooley v. Scarlett, 38 Ill. 316, 87 Am. Dec. 298; Cumberland Coal, etc., Co. v. Hoffman Steam Coal Co., 30 Barb. (N. Y.) 159; Bennett v. Erving, 4 Rob. (N. Y.) 671, 32 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 384.

31. McGee v. Sweeney, 84 Cal. 100, 23 Pac. 1117.

Establishment of lost deed.— A court of equity in another state, having acquired jurisdiction over the persons of the parties to the suit, may compel the restoration of a deed for the conveyance of land in the state which had been fraudulently destroyed. Pillow v. King, 55 Ark. 633, 18 S. W. 764.

32. Guerrant v. Fowler, 1 Hen. & M. (Va.) 5.

alleging it to be fraudulent,[33] or set it aside on that ground, especially where part of the land is in both states.[34] Again a covenant of seizin being a personal one a deed may be reformed as to that, even though the land be without the jurisdiction.[35]

(III) Rescinding Contracts to Convey and Recovery Back of Consideration. In an action to rescind a contract of sale of property in another state, if the real object is to obtain a recovery back of the consideration which the vendees were fraudulently induced to give therefor, the court will assume jurisdiction, and it constitutes no valid objection that title is involved by reason of an offer to restore such title to the vendors, this being an equitable obligation on the part of the vendees. The right of the court to take cognizance in such case will be further justified where there are other factors by reason of which the jurisdiction attaches.[36] But where the entire object of the action is to determine the personal rights and obligations of defendant, the suit being merely in personam, process from the tribunals of one state cannot run into another state and summon parties there domiciled to leave its territory and respond in proceedings against them. The property must be brought within the court's control by some legally sufficient act.[37]

(IV) Enforcing Contracts. A decree for the specific performance of a contract to convey land in another state to be executed by one acting in a fiduciary capacity is ineffectual in the latter state;[38] nor can chancery compel a domestic corporation to go into another state and specifically execute a contract to make improvements on lands, and on its default enforce the decree by attachment and sequestration of the property in the home state.[39] So the courts of one state will not assume jurisdiction at the instance of a foreign resident against a foreign corporation over a contract entered into in another state and relating to land there situate,[40] although the right to decree specific performance of contracts for the sale and purchase of land without the territory has been asserted,[41] even though the contract was made and to be performed there,[42] and so where a part of the tract of land, the sale of which is decreed, lies within the court's jurisdiction,[43] or

33. Reed v. Reed, 75 Me. 264.

34. De Klyn v. Watkins, 3 Sandf. Ch. (N. Y.) 185.

Where fraudulent transfer of foreign land constitutes the consideration of a sale of domestic land the court may rescind the sale. Paul v. Chenault, (Tex. Civ. App. 1900) 59 S. W. 579.

35. Bethell v. Bethell, 92 Ind. 318.

36. Loaiza v. San Francisco Super. Ct., 85 Cal. 11, 24 Pac. 707, 20 Am. St. Rep. 197, 9 L. R. A. 376. It appeared in this case that the contract of sale was entered into in the state where the remedy was sought; that even though the parties were non-residents plaintiffs had voluntarily submitted to the jurisdiction and the consideration was in the hands of the vendor's agent within said state, he being a resident thereof.

Contract for sale of goods may be rescinded. Bradberry v. Keas, 5 J. J. Marsh. (Ky.) 446.

37. Dull v. Blackman, 169 U. S. 243, 247, 18 S. Ct. 333, 42 L. ed. 733 [citing Pennoyer v. Neff, 95 U. S. 714, 24 L. ed. 565]. See also Dewey v. Des Moines, 173 U. S. 193, 19 S. Ct. 379, 43 L. ed. 665; Goldey v. Morning News, 156 U. S. 518, 15 S. Ct. 559, 39 L. ed. 517; Wilson v. Seligman, 144 U. S. 41, 12 S. Ct. 541, 36 L. ed. 338. But see Barrow Steamship Co. v. Kane, 170 U. S. 100, 18 S. Ct. 526, 42 L. ed. 964; Hart v. Sansom, 110 U. S. 151, 3 S. Ct. 586, 28 L. ed. 101.

38. Morris v. Hand, 70 Tex. 481, 8 S. W. 210. See Baldwin v. Talmadge, 39 N. Y. Super. Ct. 400, as to compelling specific performance where the parties have been brought by service of process or otherwise within the jurisdiction. See, generally, Specific Performance.

The place of execution and performance of a contract for the sale of personal property may preclude the right of the court to determine its validity (D'Invernois v. Leavitt, 23 Barb. (N. Y.) 63) or may support its jurisdiction (Wilson Mfg. Co. v. Schwind, 5 Misc. (N. Y.) 205, 25 N. Y. Suppl. 808).

39. Port Royal R. Co. v. Hammond, 58 Ga. 523.

40. Day v. Sun Ins. Office, 167 N. Y. 543, 60 N. E. 1110 [affirming 40 N. Y. App. Div. 305, 57 N. Y. Suppl. 1033].

41. Potter v. Hollister, 45 N. J. Eq. 508, 18 Atl. 204; Newton v. Bronson, 13 N. Y. 587, 67 Am. Dec. 89; Macon Episcopal Church v. Wiley, 2 Hill Eq. (S. C.) 584, 30 Am. Dec. 386. See also Muller v. Stemmler, 1 N. Y. City Ct. 4.

42. Cleveland v. Burrill, 25 Barb. (N. Y.) 532.

43. Barger v. Buckland, 28 Gratt. (Va.) 850.

where the parties reside there,[44] and the consideration is an act to be there performed,[45] or where jurisdiction has attached, even though the land has, pending suit, been set off as a part of another state.[46] Again where a foreign resident submits to the jurisdiction to enforce a contract for the exchange of land situate in the foreign and domestic jurisdiction, such jurisdiction will be entertained.[47]

(v) Proceeds of Land. A person whose domicile is within the court's jurisdiction may bring suit to recover the proceeds of foreign land.[48]

(vi) Mortgage of Land. A court may in the exercise of its equitable powers foreclose a mortgage upon corporate property of a railway, although embracing lands in another state, and may direct a sale thereof, and the execution of a proper conveyance to the purchaser where the parties, and the cause of action or the property as an entire indivisible thing is properly within the jurisdiction of the court.[49] The same rule applies generally to a foreclosure of a mortgage covering lands partly within two states.[50] Again a court of equity will decree relief in an action for the strict foreclosure of a mortgage on foreign land where defendants have been served with process within the court's jurisdiction and appear and contest plaintiff's demand;[51] and a proceeding to foreclose a mortgage executed by a foreign corporation on lands without the state is not precluded by the rule that an action for damages to land cannot be maintained in the courts of the state, where such suit is brought, especially so where the mortgage provides that the trustee may take possession of the property and sell without legal proceedings.[52] A court will not, however, decree redemption of a mortgage on lands without the jurisdiction at the instance of a judgment creditor whose judgment is by statute of the jurisdiction wherein the land is situate a lien thereupon, and so, even though the parties reside in the jurisdiction sought.[53] But although a decree of foreclosure is granted and a sale thereunder is made in one state of property situate therein, and in another state the deed of the referee does not, it has been decided, convey title to the property in the foreign state nor does the sale constitute a defense to a suit of foreclosure in the latter state;[54] and a sale under a foreclosure has been determined to be restricted to lands within the

44. Cloud v. Greasley, 125 Ill. 313, 17 N. E. 826; Johnson v. Kimbro, 3 Head (Tenn.) 557, 75 Am. Dec. 781.

45. Cloud v. Greasley, 125 Ill. 313, 17 N. E. 826.

46. Brown v. Desmond, 100 Mass. 267.

47. Montgomery v. Ruppensburg, 31 Ont. 433.

48. Edwards v. Ballard, 14 La. Ann. 362; Kessler v. Kessler, 3 Pa. Co. Ct. 522. Contra, as to the proceeds of land of a lunatic, even though such proceeds are brought into the state after his death. Allison v. Campbell, 21 N. C. 152.

Where assignee having assets of lands both within and without the state is within the power of the court, it may direct a distribution of the foreign fund. Moss' Estate, 138 Pa. St. 646, 21 Atl. 206, 27 Wkly. Notes Cas. (Pa.) 300.

49. Connecticut.— Mead v. New York, etc., R. Co., 45 Conn. 199.

Georgia.— McTighe v. Macon Constr. Co., 94 Ga. 306, 21 S. E. 701, 47 Am. St. Rep. 153, 32 L. R. A. 208.

Maine.— Eaton v. McCall, 86 Me. 346, 29 Atl. 1103, 41 Am. St. Rep. 561.

New York.— Union Trust Co. v. Olmsted, 102 N. Y. 729, 7 N. E. 822, 1 Silv. Supreme 153.

United States.— Muller v. Dows, 94 U. S. 444, 24 L. ed. 207.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 64.

Courts of Manitoba cannot decree sale of entire railroad on foreclosure, where part thereof is situate without the province; nor can it decree sale of the part within the province unable to be cut off and separately operated by purchaser. Gray v. Manitoba, etc., R. Co., 11 Manitoba 42.

Where the mortgage is to a trustee in the state and the railroad property is in a foreign state, the court of the state where the trustee resides may restrain such trustee from a diversion of the company's income contrary to the terms of the mortgage and compel an accounting. Buel v. Baltimore, etc., R. Co., 24 Misc. (N. Y.) 646, 53 N. Y. Suppl. 749. See Dunlap v. Byers, 110 Mich. 109, 67 N. W. 1067.

50. Union Trust Co. v. Olmsted, 102 N. Y. 729, 7 N. E. 822, 1 Silv. Supreme (N. Y.) 153.

51. House v. Lockwood, 40 Hun (N. Y.) 532.

52. People v. American L. & T. Co., 17 N. Y. Suppl. 76.

53. Henderson v. Hamilton Bank, 23 Can. Supreme Ct. 716.

54. Farmers' L. & T. Co. v. Postal Tel. Co.,

state wherein the decree is rendered; but a deficiency judgment is not dependent upon the result of a foreclosure in the foreign jurisdiction.[55] It has also been denied that a court of a foreign state has jurisdiction to foreclose a mortgage on domestic railroad property or transfer any title thereto.[56] Again the court may entertain a suit to declare that a mortgage with the usual covenants of payment was taken in the name of the mortgagee instead of a debtor, where all the parties reside within the jurisdiction, even though the mortgage covers foreign land.[57]

d. Liens. A court with limited powers cannot enforce a lien upon property not within the territorial limits of its jurisdiction,[58] and a lien or privilege founded upon a debt cannot be established where the court has no jurisdiction of the question whether such a debt exists.[59]

e. Trusts and Trustees — (i) In General. An action by a landlord against tenants to establish a trust in lands in another state, purchased at a judicial sale, will not be entertained, where such purchase if fraudulent at all was only constructive or legal and not an actual fraud;[60] nor has a court of equity jurisdiction to enforce a trust created in another state.[61] It has been determined, however, that a trustee residing in a state may be compelled by its courts to convey the legal title to lands held by him in trust and lying without the jurisdiction.[62] And where the only fund remaining undisposed of is a judgment of the courts of the state where the suit is brought, the court will assume jurisdiction, at the instance of the maker of the trust deed, to protect the residue of the fund from misap-

55 Conn. 334, 11 Atl. 184, 3 Am. St. Rep. 53.

55. Clark v. Simmons, 55 Hun (N. Y.) 175, 8 N. Y. Suppl. 74.

56. Eaton, etc., R. Co. v. Hunt, 20 Ind. 457. See Pittsburgh, etc., R. Co.'s Appeal, (Pa. 1886) 4 Atl. 385.

Foreclosure suit will be entertained where a mortgage covers telegraph property in several states and provides that in case of default the mortgagee's rights shall be obtained only by a public sale of the whole property to be made as specified. Farmers' L. & T. Co. v. Bankers', etc., Tel. Co., 44 Hun (N. Y.) 400.

57. Pavey v. Davidson, 23 Ont. App. 9.

58. Fisher v. Murdock, 1 Handy (Ohio) 544, 12 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 280.

Accounting and sale of land. — Where the parties agreed to conduct a business on an island without the court's jurisdiction and to divide profits and losses, and complainants were to have a lien on the island for advances made, the court, upon a bill for an accounting and sale of the land, will decree an accounting and settlement of the rights of the parties. Wood v. Warner, 15 N. J. Eq. 81.

In Florida a circuit court may fix the rights and define the liens of the several parties before it in respect to lands in another circuit. State v. Jacksonville, etc., R. Co., 16 Fla. 708.

59. Gay v. Eaton, 27 La. Ann. 166.

60. Pickett v. Ferguson, 86 Tenn. 642, 8 S. W. 386 [citing Massie v. Watts, 6 Cranch (U. S.) 148, 3 L. ed. 181].

61. Campbell v. Sheldon, 13 Pick. (Mass.) 8, holding that equity could not compel an executor to perform his trust where the property had been conveyed in trust to a person living in another state where he died, it appearing that his will was there proved and an executor appointed who lived in the state in the courts of which relief was sought, and who having received the testator's effects, including the trust property, brought it into the state. The will, however, was not there proved nor a copy thereof there filed. See, generally, TRUSTS.

The refusal of the courts to take cognizance of such cases is not, however, always put upon the broad ground of want of jurisdiction; but often on the ground of comity. This principle requires the courts of one state to leave courts of other states untrammeled in matters which are strictly within their control. Again there might be circumstances which would deprive a plaintiff of any remedy in the courts of the foreign state, and which from necessity might require the domestic court to take cognizance. And it cannot be absolutely asserted that where an express trust is created by act of the donor, a trustee might not be called to an accounting by a cestui que trust in a state other than that where the deed was executed. Alger v. Alger, 31 Hun (N. Y.) 471, holding that the court will not take jurisdiction of a suit requiring an account from a trustee, the trust having been created in another state where the property was, and the courts of that state being competent to deal with the case.

The courts of one state cannot appoint a trustee of lands in another state in place of one appointed in the latter by a court thereof. Williams v. Maus, 6 Watts (Pa.) 278, 31 Am. Dec. 465.

62. Vaughan v. Barclay, 6 Whart. (Pa.) 392.

Although title to foreign land is incidentally affected, courts may enforce trusts. Manley v. Carter, 7 Kan. App. 86, 52 Pac. 915 [citing Phelps v. McDonald, 99 U. S. 298, 25 L. ed. 473; Massie v. Watts, 6 Cranch (U. S.) 148, 3 L. ed. 181].

plication, and have the trustees to account, even though the trust was created in another state.[63]

(II) Trusts Created by Will. If a trust is created by will in the state where relief is sought, the courts thereof may compel persons within the jurisdiction to execute the trust over lands in another state, even though the will is not probated therein. The action in such case is not in rem, nor one to establish title; but is a suit in personam to enforce a personal obligation.[64] And chancery will take cognizance of a suit by creditors and heirs residing without the territory against the executor or administrator of a trustee who died within the domestic state to subject his estate to the payment of the unaccounted-for fund, even though the trustee was appointed under a will in the foreign jurisdiction. This is a matter not of comity, but of right.[65]

f. Decedent's Property — (I) In General. An executor cannot change the forum in which he will litigate questions by the removal of personal property from the state of the testator's domicile at the time of his death, and the court of the state to which the property is removed has no jurisdiction thereof.[66] Nor can a probate court confer authority on an administrator or guardian to lease or collect rents from land without the state.[67] Nor will a court of chancery exercise any jurisdiction or control over foreign courts or their proceedings as to the probate of wills and settlement of estates nor decide the rights of parties to foreign assets. The lex loci rei sitæ is of paramount force in all questions relative to the nature and amount of said assets, and the lex domicilii governs in the final distribution.[68] A qualification may exist, however, as to the proceeds of part of the assets which can be traced into land within the court's jurisdiction to the extent that such fund may be administered according to the law of the state where the intestate died.[69] Again under a statute making directors of a corporation liable to the full amount of debts contracted in excess of the subscribed capital stock in case of the corporation's dissolution, such statute is contractual and not penal, and a deceased director's estate is liable in any state.[70]

(II) Enforcing Legacy. If legacies are charged upon lands, the courts of equity in the state where the land lies have exclusive jurisdiction to enforce their payment.[71]

63. Wilcox v. Morrison, 9 Lea (Tenn.) 699.

Court of chancery may compel a defendant within the state to account as trustee for the proceeds of lands situate in another state, although their management was confined to that state. Reading v. Haggin, 58 Hun (N. Y.) 450, 12 N. Y. Suppl. 368.

64. Gilliland v. Inabnit, 92 Iowa 46, 60 N. W. 211.

Where trustees of will resided in England, and service of summons could be had upon them, the court assumed jurisdiction, at the instance of a resident of another state, to recover the price of land in another state purchased by their testator in his lifetime. Belden v. Wilkinson, 44 N. Y. App. Div. 420, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 1083, 7 N. Y. Annot. Cas. 48.

65. Bird v. Key, 8 Baxt. (Tenn.) 366. But see Blount v. Blount, 8 N. C. 365, holding that chancery cannot decree an acting executor residing within the state to sell land, lying without the territory, according to the directions of a will executed within the territory.

66. Varner v. Bevil, 17 Ala. 286. See, generally, Executors and Administrators.

67. Smith v. Wiley, 22 Ala. 396, 58 Am. Dec. 262.

68. Beach v. Norton, 9 Conn. 182. See also Parsons v. Millar, 189 Ill. 107, 59 N. E. 606.

The rule applies even though the probate court has control of part of the assets. Parker's Estate, 7 Phila. (Pa.) 514.

The law of the situs governs as to the capacity or incapacity of the testator, the extent of his power to dispose of immovable property, the descent and heirship thereof, and the manner in which it shall be disposed of for the payment of debts. Per Battle, J., in Williams v. Nichol, 47 Ark. 254, 1 S. W. 243.

69. McNamara v. McNamara, 62 Ga. 200.

70. Farr v. Briggs, 72 Vt. 225, 47 Atl. 793, 82 Am. St. Rep. 930.

71. Williams v. Nichol, 47 Ark. 254, 1 S. W. 243.

Residence within the state of the surviving executors of the executor of a will, and the control by them of a part of the estate, does not of itself justify the court in granting relief as to said fund, under a claim that one is a residuary legatee thereof, where the testator was a non-resident, and his will had never been proved in the state where the bill was brought. Van Gieson v. Banta, 40 N. J. Eq. 14. But where the sole question is whether a legacy draws interest, and the ex-

g. Final Process. Local courts may have authority vested in them to issue final process beyond the limits of their original jurisdiction to aid in enforcing their judgments.[72]

F. Loss or Divestiture of Jurisdiction — 1. In General. The general principles and exceptions are applicable here which are elsewhere stated as underlying the effect of the exercise of legislative power in organizing or reorganizing courts, abolishing the same, or otherwise changing, transferring, or superseding their jurisdiction.[73]

2. When Ousted. Jurisdiction over pending causes will be ousted by the repeal of the statute upon which it wholly depends,[74] unless there be a saving clause in the enactment.[75] But necessarily this rule does not apply to exclusively constitutional courts.[76] Again jurisdiction may be lost or divested by the withdrawal of plaintiff,[77] by his transfer of all his claims to another court,[78] by a final judgment, dismissal of the parties, and closing of the term of the court,[79] and by the existence of facts being shown which in themselves prove the lack of jurisdiction.[80] But where the jurisdiction of a court is exclusive and has once lawfully attached it cannot be ousted by subsequent events or facts arising in the cause, but the court may proceed to final judgment unless some constitutional statute operates to divest that particular court of its jurisdiction.[81] Nor will the ecutor and plaintiff are residents of the state whose jurisdiction is invoked, the former having personally the title to the real and personal property of the testator as executor and residuary legatee, the court will determine the suit; but it will consider the law of the foreign state. Brown v. Knapp, 17 Hun (N. Y.) 160.

72. Covill v. Phy, 26 Ill. 432; People v. Barr, 22 Ill. 241.

73. See infra, III, A, 1 et seq.

74. Remington v. Smith, 1 Colo. 53; Langdon v. Applegate, 5 Ind. 327; Hunt v. Jennings, 5 Blackf. (Ind.) 195, 33 Am. Dec. 465; Todd v. Landry, 5 Mart. (La.) 459, 12 Am. Dec. 479; Gates v. Osborne, 9 Wall. (U. S.) 567, 19 L. ed. 748.

75. Pennypacker v. Switzer, 75 Va. 671. See also Langdon v. Applegate, 5 Ind. 327; Hunt v. Jennings, 5 Blackf. (Ind.) 195, 33 Am. Dec. 465.

76. Knight v. Knight, 12 La. Ann. 59.

77. Ryan v. Tomlinson, 31 Cal. 11, holding that the suit will not be continued in such case to try conflicting claims of defendants.

78. Thoms v. Southard, 2 Dana (Ky.) 475, 26 Am. Dec. 467, which was a suit to subject a vessel to sale. She was libeled in a foreign port by others and plaintiff brought all his claims there.

79. Clay v. Edwards, 84 Ky. 548, 2 S. W. 147, 8 Ky. L. Rep. 559.

80. Pickering v. Pickering, 21 N. H. 537.

81. Estes v. Martin, 34 Ark. 410; Tindall v. Meeker, 2 Ill. 137; Burch v. Davenport, etc., R. Co., 46 Iowa 449, 26 Am. Rep. 150. See also State v. St. Louis County Ct., 38 Mo. 402.

Illustrations.— If an orphans' court rightfully assumes jurisdiction it cannot be divested of it, except in the statutory cases (Dorman v. Ogbourne, 16 Ala. 759); nor is jurisdiction divested by a discontinuance of the case (Sanford v. Sanford, 28 Conn. 6); nor by a continuance (Wilson v. Piper, 77 Ind. 437); nor by an adjournment to a day certain and failure to sit on said day, where the court sits on a subsequent day within the statutory time (Langhorne v. Waller, 76 Va. 213); nor by the failure to regularly adjourn (Wright v. Nostrand, 94 N. Y. 31 [reversing 47 N. Y. Super. Ct. 441]); nor by the expiration of the term for hearing and determining the cause (Gibbons v. Sheppard, 2 Brewst. (Pa.) 1); nor by a mistake of the law controlling the decision (People v. Court of Appeals, 27 Colo. 405, 61 Pac. 592, 51 L. R. A. 105); nor by an error of the court in determining the nature of the proceeding or remedy (Fisher v. Hepburn, 48 N. Y. 41); nor by a subsequent error or irregularity (Hard v. Shipman, 6 Barb. (N. Y.) 621); nor by the clerk's omitting the cause from the docket for several years (Farmers' College v. Cary, 35 Ohio St. 648); nor by the sole judge becoming personally incapacitated (Humphreys v. King, 2 La. 49); nor, in the absence of an express statute, by a subsequent change in the condition or residence of the parties (Anderson v. Wilson, 100 Ind. 402; Dustin v. Dickinson, 2 Mich. N. P. 6; Upton v. New Jersey Southern R. Co., 25 N. J. Eq. 372; Koppel v. Heinrichs, 1 Barb. (N. Y.) 449); nor by the voluntary removal of the trustee of a will to a foreign state (McGehee v. Polk, 24 Ga. 406); nor by a recantation (In re Quakertown, 3 Grant (Pa.) 203); nor by the withdrawal of some of the petitioners (State v. Wilkins, 67 N. H. 164, 29 Atl. 693); nor, as to non-resident co-defendants, by a dismissal of the suit as to resident defendants (Read v. Renaud, 6 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 79); nor by a claim of reconvention or intervention of which the court has not original jurisdiction (Hoover v. York, 30 La. Ann. 752); nor by plaintiff's appropriation of the property in trover to his own use (Montpelier, etc., R. Co. v. Coffrin, 52 Vt. 17); nor by the sale of the claim to a third party (Blake v. State Bank, 22 La. Ann. 572); nor by defendants trans-court be deprived of jurisdiction where the proceeding which would have so operated under the statute has been instituted and withdrawn before jurisdiction attached.[82] Nor is jurisdiction ousted by the fraud or misconduct of the judge unless the facts clearly supporting the charge are shown.[83]

3. Effect of Death of Party. Whether jurisdiction is divested or not by the death of a party depends primarily upon the nature of the action and the governing statute and also upon the nature of the jurisdiction with which the court is invested.[84] But the court does not lose its jurisdiction by the death of some of the petitioners;[85] and the statute may provide for continuance,[86] as by the substitution of a representative.[87] But in such case the court cannot proceed, except to discontinue the action, until the administrator appears, or, being served, suffers default.[88]

G. Presumptions as to Jurisdiction — 1. Courts of General Jurisdiction — a. Statement of Rule. Jurisdiction will be presumed as to courts of general jurisdiction, unless the contrary appears of record.[89] This presumption has ferring the note attached and so taking advantage of his own wrong (Gibson v. Huie, 14 La. 129); nor by the accidental destruction of the instrument sued on (Bliss v. Covington, etc., Turnpike Co., 9 Dana (Ky.) 265); nor will the satisfaction of the claim in the original action after cross writ filed defeat the cross-action (Aldrich v. Blatchford, 175 Mass. 369, 56 N. E. 700); nor is attached jurisdiction ousted by incidentally putting in issue the title to real estate (Bourgette v. Hubinger, 30 Ind. 296); nor by an amendment averring additional matter which the court is not competent to consider and which is surplusage (Finch v. Baskerville, 85 N. C. 205); nor by sustaining a demurrer to an answer voluntarily filed and whereby jurisdiction was acquired (Brooks v. Chatham, 57 Tex. 31); nor by the appearance of facts which would have authorized a proceeding in another court (Paul v. Fulton, 25 Mo. 156).

A judge who begins to hear a cause before appointment to superseding court may continue hearing without resubmission. Seale v. Ford, 29 Cal. 104.

Order for transfer does not oust jurisdiction where the conditions are not complied with. Hill v. Henderson, 13 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 688.

82. Thurston v. Gough, 42 N. J. Eq. 346, 7 Atl. 573.

83. Liddicoat v. Treglown, 6 Colo. 47.

84. See Abatement and Revival, III [1 Cyc. 47].

Court may have power to decide case after death.— Branham v. Johnson, 62 Ind. 259.

Court's power continues until after appointment of commissioners by probate court. Miller v. Williams, 30 Vt. 386.

85. State v. Wilkins, 67 N. H. 164, 29 Atl. 693.

86. Ashley v. Harrington, 1 D. Chipm. (Vt.) 348.

87. Indiana.— Lawson v. Newcomb, 12 Ind. 439.

Louisiana.— Prall v. Peet, 3 La. 274.

New Hampshire.— Parker v. Badger, 26 N. H. 466.

Texas.— State v. Jordan, 25 Tex. Civ. App. 17, 59 S. W. 826, 60 S. W. 1008.

Vermont.— Ashley v. Harrington, 1 D. Chipm. 348.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 128.

88. Parker v. Badger, 26 N. H. 466.

89. Alabama.— Foster v. Glazener, 27 Ala. 391.

California.— Mahoney v. Middleton, 41 Cal. 41; Hahn v. Kelly, 34 Cal. 391, 94 Am. Dec. 742; Sharp v. Daugney, 33 Cal. 505; Carpentier v. Oakland, 30 Cal. 439.

Connecticut.— Sullivan v. Vail, 42 Conn. 90.

Illinois.— Matthews v. Hoff, 113 Ill. 90; Wenner v. Thornton, 98 Ill. 156; Dodge v. Cole, 97 Ill. 338, 37 Am. Rep. 111; Harris v. Lester, 80 Ill. 307; Wallace v. Cox, 71 Ill. 548; Clark v. Thompson, 47 Ill. 25, 95 Am. Dec. 457; Welch v. Sykes, 8 Ill. 197, 44 Am. Dec. 689; Wells v. Mason, 5 Ill. 84; Seavey v. Seavey, 30 Ill. App. 625.

Indiana.—Cosby v. Powers, 137 Ind. 694, 37 N. E. 321; McCormick v. Webster, 89 Ind. 105; Houk v. Barthold, 73 Ind. 21; Kinnaman v. Kinnaman, 71 Ind. 417; Carlisle v. Gaar, 18 Ind. 177; Hanes v. Worthington, 14 Ind. 320.

Iowa.— Suiter v. Turner, 10 Iowa 517; Morrow v. Weed, 4 Iowa 77, 66 Am. Dec. 122; Rowan v. Lamb, 4 Greene 468.

Kansas.— English v. Woodman, 40 Kan. 752, 21 Pac. 283; Comstock v. Adams, 23 Kan. 513, 33 Am. Rep. 191; Butcher v. Brownsville Bank, 2 Kan. 70, 83 Am. Dec. 446.

Kentucky.—Newcomb v. Newcomb, 13 Bush 544, 26 Am. Rep. 222; Clarey v. Marshall, 4 Dana 95.

Louisiana.— House v. Croft, 8 Mart. N. S. 704.

Maine.— Stetson v. Corinna, 44 Me. 29.

Massachusetts.— Rogers v. Woodbury, 15 Pick. 156.

Minnesota.—Holmes v. Campbell, 12 Minn. 221.

Mississippi.— Ratcliff v. Ratcliff, 12 Sm. & M. 134.

Missouri.— Huxley v. Harrold, 62 Mo. 516; Gibson v. Vaughan, 61 Mo. 418. Compare Vickery v. Omaha, etc., R. Co., 93 Mo. App. 1.

greater force after lapse of time,[90] and embraces jurisdiction not only of the cause or subject-matter of the action in which the judgment was rendered, but of the parties also.[91] So it will be presumed that every step necessary to give jurisdiction has been taken,[92] although this presumption may be rebutted by extrinsic evidence,[93] as want of jurisdiction may be inquired into.[94] Any acts or omissions affecting the validity of the proceedings must be affirmatively shown.[95]

b. Limitations of Rule — (i) In General. The presumptions that the law implies in support of judgments of superior courts of general jurisdiction arise only with respect to jurisdictional facts concerning which the record is silent, and if the record states the evidence or makes an averment with reference to a jurisdictional fact it is understood to speak the truth on that point, and it will not be presumed that the record was false. Such presumptions are also limited to persons within the court's territorial limits, and also to proceedings that are in accordance with the course of the common law or which are brought into action by the usual form of common law or chancery.[96] And generally where want of Montana.— Beach v. Spokane Ranch, etc., R. Co., 25 Mont. 379, 65 Pac. 111.

Nebraska.— Parsons v. State, 61 Nebr. 244, 85 N. W. 65.

New Hampshire.— Wingate v. Haywood, 40 N. H. 437; Flanders v. Atkinson, 18 N. H. 167.

New Jersey.— State v. Lewis, 22 N. J. L. 564.

New York.— U. S. Trust Co. v. U. S. Fire Ins. Co., 18 N. Y. 199, 8 Abb. Pr. 192; Ray v. Rowley, 1 Hun 614; Chemung Canal Bank v. Judson, 8 N. Y. 254, Seld. Notes 49; Wright v. Douglass, 10 Barb. 97 [reversed in 7 N. Y. 564]; Hutchinson v. Brand, 6 How. Pr. 73 [affirmed in 9 N. Y. 208].

Ohio.— Beebe v. Scheidt, 13 Ohio St. 406; Reynolds v. Stansbury, 20 Ohio 344, 55 Am. Dec. 459.

Oregon.— Rutenic v. Hanakar, 40 Oreg. 444, 67 Pac. 196; Heatherly v. Hadley, 4 Oreg. 1.

Pennsylvania.— Lacaze v. State, Add. 59.

Rhode Island.— Slocum v. Providence Steam, etc., Co., 10 R. I. 112.

Tennessee.— Wilcox v. Cannon, 1 Coldw. 369; Hopper v. Fisher, 2 Head 253; McCarroll v. Weeks, 5 Hayw. 246.

Texas.— Largen v. State, 76 Tex. 323, 13 S. W. 161; Williams v. Ball, 52 Tex. 603, 36 Am. Rep. 730; Black v. Epperson, 40 Tex. 162.

Vermont.— Arel v. Centebar, 73 Vt. 238, 50 Atl. 1064; Huntington v. Charlotte, 15 Vt. 46.

Virginia.— Devaughn v. Devaughn, 19 Gratt. 556; Cox v. Thomas, 9 Gratt. 323.

West Virginia.— Mayer v. Adams, 27 W. Va. 244.

Wisconsin.— Falkner v. Guild, 10 Wis. 563.

United States.— Galpin v. Page, 18 Wall. 350, 21 L. ed. 959; Harvey v. Tyler, 2 Wall. 328, 17 L. ed. 871; Gray v. Larrimore, 10 Fed. Cas. No. 5,721, 2 Abb. 542, 4 Sawy. 636.

England.— Howard v. Gosset, 10 Q. B. 359, 11 Jur. 750, 16 L. J. Q. B. 345, 59 E. C. L. 359.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 140.

90. Wilcox v. Cannon, 1 Coldw. (Tenn.) 369.

91. Galpin v. Page, 18 Wall. (U. S.) 350, 21 L. ed. 959.

92. Applegate v. Lexington, etc., Min. Co., 117 U. S. 255, 6 S. Ct. 742, 29 L. ed. 892.

Rule applies to the various stages of the proceedings from institution to completion as well as to judgments or decrees. Voorhees v. Jackson, 10 Pet. (U. S.) 449, 9 L. ed. 490.

93. Heatherly v. Hadley, 4 Oreg. 1.

94. Harrington v. People, 6 Barb. (N. Y.) 607. See Wright v. Douglass, 10 Barb. (N. Y.) 97 [reversed in 7 N. Y. 564].

95. People v. Robinson, 17 Cal. 363.

No presumption against jurisdiction can be indulged in. Rowan v. Lamb, 4 Greene (Iowa) 468.

96. Galpin v. Page, 18 Wall. (U. S.) 350, 21 L. ed. 959.

In order to give jurisdiction court will not presume that the assignment of a mortgage was merely nominal. Caufman v. Sayre, 2 B. Mon. (Ky.) 202.

Presumption of jurisdiction at variance with recitals of record.— A finding in favor of jurisdiction is not conclusive over record evidence. Senichka v. Lowe, 74 Ill. 274. And the presumption is rebutted in a collateral proceeding where the record shows an insufficient service, and there is no finding showing any other service or appearance. Clark v. Thompson, 47 Ill. 25, 95 Am. Dec. 457. So the presumption of jurisdiction is overcome, and the judgment is void where the facts appearing of record are insufficient, for such presumption must be consistent with the record. But although the record is insufficient to support a finding of jurisdiction, the presumption is not destroyed as to jurisdiction of the person, for it will be presumed that the court heard other evidence not necessary to be preserved therein, or that it acquired jurisdiction in some other manner than that stated. Bannon v. People, 1 Ill. App. 496. Again if the record shows that the cause of action was beyond the jurisdiction, or that the court proceeded without notice, no presumption arises. Heatherly v. Hadley, 4 Oreg. 1. And where a specific mode of acquiring jurisdiction is disclosed by the record, and that is insufficient to confer it, something further in the jurisdiction appears affirmatively on the face of the proceedings, no presumption exists favoring the validity of judgments even of courts of general jurisdiction.[97] But unless the want of jurisdiction, either as to the subject-matter or the parties, appears in some proper form, jurisdiction in case of collateral attack upon a judgment will be supported by every intendment.[98] Again a qualification of the general rule may exist where the statute requires evidence thereof to be in the record.[99]

(II) Exercise of Specially Conferred Powers. Where courts of general jurisdiction do not act within the scope thereof, but exercise other and special statutory powers in derogation of, or not according to, the course of the common law, or where such special powers are purely ministerial, no presumption of jurisdiction favors the judgments of said courts;[1] since by the exercise of such special powers a court stands in this respect on the same footing with courts of limited and inferior jurisdiction.[2] But the rule has been held not applicable to a statute merely regulating the mode of procedure in receiving the confession of a judgment.[3]

2. Courts of Inferior, Limited, or Special Jurisdiction. The mere exercise of jurisdiction by courts of inferior, limited, or special jurisdiction does not raise a presumption of the existence of the requisite jurisdictional facts, for nothing is presumed to be within the jurisdiction of such courts, except that which expressly appears to be so.[4] The rule applies to jurisdiction over the subject-matter of the record is necessary to justify the presumption that another mode was adopted, or that jurisdiction was acquired in another way. Northcut v. Lemery, 8 Oreg. 316; Ely v. Tallman, 14 Wis. 28. So no presumption exists from part of record produced that remainder contains facts necessary to give jurisdiction, unless it appears that a portion of the record is gone, and there is no secondary proof of its contents. Hargis v. Morse, 7 Kan. 415.

97. Dillard v. Central Virginia Iron Co., 82 Va. 734, 1 S. E. 124; Wade v. Hancock, 76 Va. 620.

98. Ex p. Cuddy, 131 U. S. 280, 9 S. Ct. 703, 33 L. ed. 154. See also Cooper v. Newell, 173 U. S. 555, 19 S. Ct. 506, 43 L. ed. 808; Manson v. Duncanson, 166 U. S. 533, 17 S. Ct. 647, 41 L. ed. 1105; In re New York, etc., Steamship Co., 155 U. S. 523, 15 S. Ct. 183, 39 L. ed. 246; In re Rice, 155 U. S. 396, 15 S. Ct. 149, 39 L. ed. 198; Ex p. Cooper, 143 U. S. 472, 12 S. Ct. 453, 36 L. ed. 232; Robinson v. Fair, 128 U. S. 53, 9 S. Ct. 30, 32 L. ed. 415; White v. Crow, 110 U. S. 183, 4 S. Ct. 71, 28 L. ed. 113; Gunn v. Plant, 94 U. S. 664, 669, 24 L. ed. 304; Cooper v. Reynolds, 10 Wall. (U. S.) 308, 19 L. ed. 931.

"If the court had jurisdiction of the subject matter, and the parties, it is altogether immaterial how grossly irregular, or manifestly erroneous, its proceedings may have been; its final order cannot be regarded as a nullity, and cannot, therefore, be collaterally impeached. On the other hand, if it proceeded without jurisdiction, it is equally unimportant how technically correct, and precisely certain, in point of form, its record may appear; its judgment is void to every intent, and for every purpose." Per Ranney, J., in Sheldon v. Newton, 3 Ohio St. 494, 498.

When collaterally questioned everything done within the power of a jurisdiction which has once attached "is to be held conclusive of the rights of the parties, unless impeached for fraud. Every intendment is made to support the proceeding. It is regarded as if it were regular and irreversible for error." Laing v. Rigney, 160 U. S. 531, 542, 16 S. Ct. 366, 40 L. ed. 525.

99. Applegate v. Lexington, etc., Min. Co., 117 U. S. 255, 6 S. Ct. 742, 29 L. ed. 892.

1. Alabama.— Foster v. Glazener, 27 Ala. 391, summary proceedings.

Illinois.— Firebaugh v. Hall, 63 Ill. 81.

Iowa.— Cooper v. Sunderland, 3 Iowa 114, 66 Am. Dec. 52; Tiffany v. Glover, 3 Greene 387, attachment proceedings.

Maine.— Prentiss v. Parks, 65 Me. 559.

Oregon.— Furgeson v. Jones, 17 Oreg. 204, 20 Pac. 842, 11 Am. St. Rep. 808, 3 L. R. A. 620; Northcut v. Lemery, 8 Oreg. 316.

Texas.— Bruhn v. Jefferson Nat. Bank, 54 Tex. 152.

Virginia.— Chesterfield County v. Hall, 80 Va. 321.

United States.— Galpin v. Page, 18 Wall. 350, 21 L. ed. 959; Tolmne v. Thompson, 24 Fed. Cas. No. 14,080, 3 Cranch C. C. 123 [reversed in 2 Pet. 157, 7 L. ed. 381].

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 143.

2. Foster v. Glazener, 27 Ala. 391; Cooper v. Sunderland, 3 Iowa 114, 66 Am. Dec. 52.

3. Bush v. Hanson, 70 Ill. 480.

4. Alabama.— Chamblee v. Cole, 128 Ala. 649, 30 So. 630; Pettus v. McClannahan, 52 Ala. 55; Talladega Com'rs Ct. v. Thompson, 18 Ala. 694.

Arkansas.— McClure v. Hill, 36 Ark. 268.

Connecticut.— Raymond v. Bell, 18 Conn. 81.

Illinois.— Kenney v. Greer, 13 Ill. 432, 54 Am. Dec. 439; Beaubien v. Brickerhoff, 3 Ill. 269; Spooner v. Warner, 2 Ill. App. 240.

Maryland.— Clark v. Bryan, 16 Md. 171.

judgment, and the parties.[5] But where these courts have not transcended their powers, and jurisdiction is once established, or has once actually attached, the validity of subsequent proceedings will be presumed until the contrary be shown, nor will such jurisdiction be lost in such case by an irregularity in the mode of exercising it.[6] Again if the jurisdiction of the special or inferior tribunal over the subject-matter be made to appear upon the face of the proceedings, the maxim omnia præsumuntur rite esse acta applies.[7] And where the record declares the ascertainment of the jurisdictional fact it is conclusive.[8] A party, however, who relies upon a decision or order of such special, limited, or inferior courts, or who claims any right or benefit under their proceedings, must affirmatively show their jurisdiction in the premises by alleging and proving the same,[9] and this covers jurisdiction over both subject-matter and parties.[10]

3. Courts of Probate and County Courts. The rules as to the presumptions in favor of the jurisdiction of courts of general jurisdiction[11] apply to courts of probate and those with like powers, where they are courts of general jurisdiction or possess the attributes thereof,[12] even though they have not exclusive jurisdic-

Michigan.— Truesdale v. Hazard, 2 Mich. 344.

Mississippi.— Root v. McFerrin, 37 Miss. 17, 75 Am. Dec. 49.

Missouri.— Rohland v. St. Louis, etc., R. Co., 89 Mo. 180, 1 S. W. 147; Gibson v. Vaughan, 61 Mo. 418; McCloon v. Beattie, 46 Mo. 391.

Nebraska.— Kuker v. Beindorff, 63 Nebr. 91, 88 N. W. 190.

New Hampshire.— Tebbetts v. Tilton, 31 N. H. 273.

New York.— Matter of Baker, 173 N. Y. 249, 65 N. E. 1100; Chemung Canal Bank v. Judson, 8 N. Y. 254, Seld. Notes 49; Stone v. Miller, 62 Barb. 430; Ford v. Babcock, 1 Den. 158; People v. Koeber, 7 Hill 39.

Oregon.— Farley v. Parker, 6 Oreg. 105, 25 Am. Rep. 504; Johns v. Marion County, 4 Oreg. 46.

Tennessee.— Hopper v. Fisher, 2 Head 253. Compare Mankin v. State, 2 Swan 206.

Texas.— Williams v. Ball, 52 Tex. 603, 36 Am. Rep. 730.

Vermont.— The same presumptions exist in favor of justices as apply to superior courts. Vaughn v. Congdon, 56 Vt. 111, 48 Am. Rep. 758.

West Virginia.— Mayer v. Adams, 27 W. Va. 244.

United States.— Galpin v. Page, 18 Wall. 350, 21 L. ed. 959.

England.— Howard v. Gosset, 10 Q. B. 359, 11 Jur. 750, 16 L. J. Q. B. 345, 59 E. C. L. 359; Reg. v. Silkstone, 2 Q. B. 520, 42 E. C. L. 788; London v. Cox, L. R. 2 H. L. 239, 36 L. J. Exch. 225, 16 Wkly. Rep. 44; Rex v. All Saints Parish, 7 B. & C. 785, 6 L. J. M. C. O. S. 53, 1 M. & R. 663, 31 Rev. Rep. 296, 14 E. C. L. 351; Taylor v. Clemson, 11 Cl. & F. 610, 8 Jur. 833, 8 Eng. Reprint 1233 [affirming 2 Q. B. 978, 2 G. & D. 346, 11 L. J. Exch. 447, 3 R. & Can. Cas. 65, 42 E. C. L. 1005]; Dempster v. Purnell, 1 Dowl. P. C. N. S. 168, 11 L. J. C. P. 33, 3 M. & G. 375, 4 Scott N. R. 30; Stanton v. Styles, 5 Exch. 578, 19 L. J. Exch. 336, 1 L. M. & P. 575; Rex v. Hulcott, 6 T. R. 583.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 142.

The old rule was that nothing is intended to be within the jurisdiction of an inferior court, except that which is specially alleged. Howard v. Gosset, 10 Q. B. 359, 11 Jur. 750, 16 L. J. Q. B. 345, 59 E. C. L. 359; Peacock v. Bell, 1 Wm. Saund. 73.

5. Tebbetts v. Tilton, 31 N. H. 273.

6. Smith v. Engle, 44 Iowa 265; Little v. Sinnett, 7 Iowa 324; Morrow v. Weed, 4 Iowa 77, 66 Am. Dec. 122; Kuker v. Beindorff, 63 Nebr. 91, 88 N. W. 190. And where a court has jurisdiction over the person and subject-matter, and no objection is raised below as to the jurisdiction of the parties, it will be presumed. Erwin v. Lowry, 7 How. (U. S. 172, 12 L. ed. 655 [reversing 6 Rob. (La.) 192, 39 Am. Dec. 556]. And see Wooster v. Parsons, Kirby (Conn.) 110.

7. Fowler v. Jenkins, 28 Pa. St. 176. See also Barnes v. Keane, 15 Q. B. 75, 14 Jur. 786, 19 L. J. Q. B. 309, 69 E. C. L. 75; Taylor v. Clemson, 11 Cl. & F. 610, 8 Jur. 833, 8 Eng. Reprint 1233; Dempster v. Purnell, 1 Dowl. P. C. N. S. 168, 11 L. J. C. P. 33, 3 M. & G. 375, 4 Scott N. R. 30.

8. Pettus v. McClannahan, 52 Ala. 55; Raymond v. Bell, 18 Conn. 81.

9. Von Kettler v. Johnson, 57 Ill. 109; Stone v. Miller, 62 Barb. (N. Y.) 430; People v. Koeber, 7 Hill (N. Y.) 39; Gray v. Larrimore, 10 Fed. Cas. No. 5,721, 2 Abb. 542, 4 Sawy. 638; Stanton v. Styles, 5 Exch. 578, 19 L. J. Exch. 336, 1 L. M. & P. 575.

10. Ford v. Babcock, 1 Den. (N. Y.) 158.

11. See supra, II, G, 1.

12. Alabama.—Acklen v. Goodman, 77 Ala. 521; Steele v. Tutwiler, 68 Ala. 107.

California.— Irwin v. Scriber, 18 Cal. 499.

Georgia.— Bush v. Lindsey, 24 Ga. 245, 71 Am. Dec. 117; Wood v. Crawford, 18 Ga. 526.

Illinois.—Salomon v. Wincox, 104 Ill. App. 277.

tion[13] or have a limited, but not a special, jurisdiction,[14] or their powers are limited to certain specified subjects.[15] These rules and their limitations[16] also apply to county courts of general jurisdiction,[17] or where such courts are courts of limited but not of inferior jurisdiction,[18] or where jurisdiction of the subject-matter has been acquired.[19] Under some decisions, however, probate courts are brought within the rules[20] applicable to courts of special and limited jurisdiction,[21] particularly when they exercise powers in special matters constituting exceptions to their general authority.[22]

4. Courts of Another State. The presumption exists, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that courts of record or of general jurisdiction of other states have the authority which they assume to exercise, and that their modes of procedure were authorized.[23]

H. Necessity of Jurisdiction Appearing of Record — 1. In General. If the court is one of competent general jurisdiction, and the want of jurisdiction is not availed of by plea, and the record is not contradictory thereof, the presumption is that every act is rightly done without its appearing of record, unless the contrary be shown.[24]

Louisiana.— Gary v. Sandoz, 16 La. 11.

Minnesota.—Davis v. Hudson, 29 Minn. 27, 11 N. W. 136.

Mississippi.— Pollock v. Buie, 43 Miss. 140.

Missouri.— State v. Nolan, 99 Mo. 569, 12 S. W. 1047.

New Jersey.— Hess v. Cole, 23 N. J. L. 116.

United States.— Adams v. Lewis, 1 Fed. Cas. No. 60, 5 Sawy. 229.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 144.

13. Acklen v. Goodman, 77 Ala. 521.

14. Hess v. Cole, 23 N. J. L. 116.

15. Davis v. Hudson, 29 Minn. 27, 11 N. W. 136.

16. See supra, II, G, 1.

17. Matthews v. Hoff, 113 Ill. 90; People v. Cole, 84 Ill. 327; People v. Gray, 72 Ill. 343; Housh v. People, 66 Ill. 178.

18. People v. Cole, 84 Ill. 327.

19. Davenport Mut. Sav. Fund, etc., Assoc. v. Schmidt, 15 Iowa 213. But see Morrow v. Weed, 4 Iowa 77, 66 Am. Dec. 122.

20. See supra, II, G, 2.

21. Potwine's Appeal, 31 Conn. 381; Morrow v. Weed, 4 Iowa 77, 66 Am. Dec. 122; People v. Hartman, 2 Sweeny (N. Y.) 576; People v. Corlies, 1 Sandf. (N. Y.) 228; Easley v. McClinton, 33 Tex. 288.

22. Vogelsang v. Dougherty, 46 Tex. 466; Bowser v. Williams, 6 Tex. Civ. App. 197, 25 S. W. 453.

23. Ward v. Baker, 16 Kan. 31; Haynes v. Cowen, 15 Kan. 637; Dodge v. Coffin, 15 Kan. 277; Buffum v. Stimpson, 5 Allen (Mass.) 591, 81 Am. Dec. 767; Council Bluffs Sav. Bank v. Griswold, 50 Nebr. 753, 70 N. W. 376.

Full faith and credit is to be given in each state to the judicial proceedings of every other state. U. S. Const. art. 4; Laing v. Rigney, 160 U. S. 531, 16 S. Ct. 366, 40 L. ed. 525. But the fact that necessary jurisdictional facts did not exist, notwithstanding the record of a judgment of another state, may be shown irrespective of the constitutional requirement that full faith and credit be given to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of sister states, and of the acts of congress in pursuance thereof. Thompson v. Whitman, 18 Wall. (U. S.) 457, 21 L. ed. 897. See also Cooper v. Newell, 173 U. S. 555, 19 S. Ct. 506, 43 L. ed. 808; Scott v. McNeal, 154 U. S. 34, 14 S. Ct. 1108, 38 L. ed. 896; Huntington v. Attrill, 146 U. S. 657, 13 S. Ct. 224, 36 L. ed. 1123; Reynolds v. Stockton, 140 U. S. 254, 11 S. Ct. 773, 35 L. ed. 464; Simmons v. Saul, 138 U. S. 439, 11 S. Ct. 369, 34 L. ed. 1054; Grover, etc., Sewing Mach. Co. v. Radcliffe, 137 U. S. 287, 11 S. Ct. 92, 34 L. ed. 670; Renaud v. Abbott, 116 U. S. 277, 6 S. Ct. 1194, 29 L. ed. 629.

Nothing will be presumed in favor of foreign military tribunal erected by hostile force. Snell v. Faussatt, 22 Fed. Cas. No. 13,138, 1 Wash. 271.

24. Illinois.— Anderson v. Gray, 134 Ill. 550, 25 N. E. 843, 23 Am. St. Rep. 696; Osgood v. Blackmore, 59 Ill. 261.

Indiana.— Godfrey v. Godfrey, 17 Ind. 6, 79 Am. Dec. 448; Brownfield v. Weicht, 9 Ind. 394; Delaware Tp. v. Ripley County, 26 Ind. App. 97, 59 N. E. 189.

New Jersey.— State v. Passaic County Agricultural Soc., 54 N. J. L. 260, 23 Atl. 680.

New York.— Gervais v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 13 N. Y. Suppl. 589, 18 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 404 [affirmed in 12 N. Y. Suppl. 312, 20 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 95].

Tennessee.—Campbell v. McIrwin, 4 Hayw. 60.

Virginia.—Shelton v. Jones, 26 Gratt. 891; Ballard v. Thomas, 19 Gratt. 14.

United States.— Harvey v. Tyler, 2 Wall. 328, 17 L. ed. 871; Voorhees v. Jackson, 10 Pet. 449, 9 L. ed. 490 [affirming 2 Fed. Cas. No. 939, 1 McLean 221].

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 134.

Ground for the exercise of authority must appear where a chancellor of another circuit than that at which a suit is brought presides at a hearing for injunction at cham-

2. Courts With Specially Conferred Powers — a. In General. Where the statute confers special authority not within the general jurisdiction of the court, to be exercised not according to the course of the common law, sufficient matter must appear of record or on the face of the proceedings to show the case to be within such special jurisdiction.[25]

b. Summary Proceedings. As a rule everything necessary to give the court jurisdiction in summary proceedings should appear upon the face of the record.[26]

3. Courts of Inferior, Limited, or Special Jurisdiction. A court of special, limited, or inferior jurisdiction must by its record show all essential or vital jurisdictional facts of its authority to act in the particular case, and in what respect it has jurisdiction.[27] This rule also applies to jurisdiction over special statutory pro-

bers. Sharman v. Thomaston, 67 Ga. 246. So the record must show jurisdiction over defendant, or there must be a finding or recital of jurisdiction over him or that he appeared. Jackson v. Rickard, 19 Ill. App. 507. And the judgment of a state court does not raise a presumption of the existence of jurisdictional facts against the exclusive jurisdiction of a federal court, but such facts must appear from the record. The Montauk v. Walker, 47 Ill. 335. So jurisdiction over a non-resident must appear of record. Semple v. Anderson, 9 Ill. 546. And this is true as to a non-resident plaintiff, although the fact need not necessarily appear in the bill. Lexington Mfg. Co. v. Dorr, 2 Litt. (Ky.) 256. So the record must affirmatively show that all the parties are capable of suing. Anderson v. Jackson, 1 Fed. Cas. No. 357, 2 Paine 426.

If jurisdiction is necessary to be shown, and it is not, consent does not give it. Boybshall v. Oppenheimer, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,592, 4 Wash. 482. See also supra, II, C, 5.

25. Iowa.— Cooper v. Sunderland, 3 Iowa 114, 66 Am. Dec. 52.

Maryland.— Boarman v. Patterson, 1 Gill 372.

Minnesota.— Ullman v. Lion, 8 Minn. 381, 83 Am. Dec. 783.

Missouri.— Eaton v. St. Charles County, 76 Mo. 492; Kansas City, etc., R. Co. v. Campbell, 62 Mo. 585.

New Jersey.— Bergen Turnpike Co. v. State, 25 N. J. L. 554.

New York.— Smith v. Fowle, 12 Wend. 9; Denning v. Corwin, 11 Wend. 647. See Burckle v. Eckart, 3 Den. 279 [affirmed in 3 N. Y. 132].

Ohio.— Adams v. Jeffries, 12 Ohio 253, 40 Am. Dec. 477.

Oregon.—Northcut v. Lemery, 8 Oreg. 316.

Virginia.— Chesterfield County v. Hall, 80 Va. 321; Pulaski County v. Stuart, 28 Gratt. 872; Dinwiddie County v. Stuart, 28 Gratt. 526.

United States.— Galpin v. Page, 18 Wall. 350, 21 L. ed. 959; Cowdrey v. Caneadea, 16 Fed. 532, 21 Blatchf. 351. Compare Harvey v. Tyler, 2 Wall. 328, 17 L. ed. 871.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 137.

26. Levert v. Planters', etc., Bank, 8 Port. (Ala.) 104; Bates v. Planters', etc., Bank, 8 Port. (Ala.) 99; Chicago v. Rock Island R. Co., 20 Ill. 286; Crockett v. Parkison, 3 Coldw. (Tenn.) 219; Hamilton v. Burum, 3 Yerg. (Tenn.) 355; Mayer v. Adams, 27 W. Va. 244.

27. Alabama.— Chamblee v. Cole, 128 Ala. 649, 30 So. 630; Joiner v. Winston, 68 Ala. 129; Lowndes County Com'rs Ct. v. Hearne, 59 Ala. 371; Trammell v. Pennington, 45 Ala. 673; State v. Falconer, 44 Ala. 696; State v. Ely, 43 Ala. 568; Owen v. Jordan, 27 Ala. 608; Russell Com'rs Ct. v. Tarver, 25 Ala. 480; Molett v. Keenan, 22 Ala. 484; Lamar v. Marshall County Com'rs Ct., 21 Ala. 772; Barnett v. State, 15 Ala. 829; Talladega County Road, etc., Com'rs v. Thompson, 15 Ala. 134; McCartney v. Calhoun, 11 Ala. 110; Caskey v. State, 6 Ala. 193; Lister v. Vivian, 8 Port. 375.

Arkansas.— Trice v. Crittenden County, 7 Ark. 159.

Georgia.— Tift v. Griffin, 5 Ga. 185.

Illinois.—Osgood v. Blackmore, 59 Ill. 261.

Indiana.— Ohio, etc., R. Co. v. Shultz, 31 Ind. 150; State v. Gachenheimer, 30 Ind. 63; Rosenthal v. Madison, etc., Plank-Road Co., 10 Ind. 358; Rhode v. Davis, 2 Ind. 53.

Iowa.— Cooper v. Sunderland, 3 Iowa 114, 66 Am. Dec. 52; Rowan v. Lamb, 4 Greene 468.

Kentucky.— Triplett v. Waring, 5 Dana 448; Grant v. Tams, 7 T. B. Mon. 218; Ormsby v. Lynch, Litt. Sel. Cas. 303; Taylor v. Moore, 65 S. W. 612, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1572.

Maine.— State v. Pownal, 10 Me. 24.

Maryland.—Wickes v. Caulk, 5 Harr. & J. 36.

Michigan.— Denison v. Smith, 33 Mich. 155.

Mississippi.— Linn v. Kyle, Walk. 315; Blanchard v. Buckholts, Walk. 64.

Missouri.— State v. Metzger, 26 Mo. 65.

Nebraska.— Kuker v. Beindorff, 63 Nebr. 91, 88 N. W. 190.

New Hampshire.— Tebbetts v. Tilton, 31 N. H. 273.

New Jersey.— Nixon v. Ruple, 30 N. J. L. 58; Perrine v. Farr, 22 N. J. L. 356.

New York.— Frees v. Ford, 6 N. Y. 176; Simons v. De Bare, 4 Bosw. 547, 8 Abb. Pr. 269; Sophian v. Henig, 31 Misc 759, 64 N. Y. Suppl. 8; Parker v. Dennett Surpassing Coffee Co., 30 Misc. 768, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 785; Wilson v. Hogan, 30 Misc. 763, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 854; Gilbert v. York, 12 N. Y. Civ.

ceedings exercised in derogation of, or not according to, the course of the common law.[28] So the necessary jurisdictional facts must affirmatively appear by averment and proof to bring the case within the jurisdiction of such courts.[29] The evidence, however, on which the court bases its decision or judgment need not be set forth in the record.[30] Again the legislature which creates the court may change or qualify the rule or principle as to the record.[31]

4. Courts of Probate. In so far as probate courts have general jurisdiction their records need not affirmatively show the existence of facts upon which the exercise of their jurisdiction depends.[32] And the rule applies even though the court is one of limited jurisdiction where it is invested with full authority over probate and testamentary matters and is a court of record.[33] This general rule has, however, not only been limited[34] but the contrary has been asserted.[35]

I. Waiver of Objections — 1. In General. Three distinct factors are to be considered in determining whether or not there is a waiver: (1) Jurisdiction itself; (2) the pleadings as affecting the same; and (3) the proceedings in the action. As to the first, if there is an absolute want of jurisdiction[36] in the prem-

Proc. 345; People v. Mallon, 39 How. Pr. 454.

Oregon.— Tompkins v. Clackamas County, 11 Oreg. 364, 4 Pac. 1210; State v. Officer, 4 Oreg. 180.

Texas.— Guilford v. Love, 49 Tex. 715; Bohl v. Brown, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 538; Lacroix v. Evans, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 673.

West Virginia.— Mayer v. Adams, 27 W. Va. 244.

United States.— Grignon v. Astor, 2 How. 319, 11 L. ed. 283; Voorhees v. Jackson, 10 Pet. 449, 9 L. ed. 490 [affirming 2 Fed. Cas. No. 939, 1 McLean 221]; Kemp v. Kennedy, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,686, Pet. C. C. 30 [affirmed in 5 Cranch 173, 3 L. ed. 70]; Mayhew v. Davis, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 9,347, 4 McLean 213.

England.— Taylor v. Clemson, 11 Cl. & F. 610, 8 Jur. 833, 8 Eng. Reprint 1233.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 135.

Jurisdictional facts may be shown aliunde. — Van Deusen v. Sweet, 51 N. Y. 378.

That requisite number of magistrates were present need not be recited in record; it is sufficient if it is shown that the magistrates were present. McCullough v. Moore, 9 Yerg. (Tenn.) 305.

28. Chandler v. Nash, 5 Mich. 409; State v. Lewis, 22 N. J. L. 564; Furgeson v. Jones, 17 Oreg. 204, 20 Pac. 842, 11 Am. St. Rep. 808, 3 L. R. A. 620; Northcut v. Lemery, 8 Oreg. 316; Chesterfield County v. Hall, 80 Va. 321. See also Mayhew v. Davis, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 9,347, 4 McLean 213.

29. Colorado.— Learned v. Fritch, 6 Colo. 432.

Connecticut.— Buel v. Fabrick, 1 Root 150; Wooster v. Parsons, Kirby 27.

Illinois.— Shute v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 26 Ill. 436; Trader v. McKee, 2 Ill. 558.

Kentucky.— Ormsby v. Lynch, Litt. Sel. Cas. 303.

Michigan.— Denison v. Smith, 33 Mich. 155.

Minnesota.— Clark v. Norton, 6 Minn. 412.

New York.— Giallorenzi v. Caggiano, 31 Misc. 785, 65 N. Y. Suppl. 194; Consolidated Copalquin Mines Co. v. Broadway Realty Co., 31 Misc. 783, 65 N. Y. Suppl. 227.

Texas.— Bohl v. Brown, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 538.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 135.

That process must show case within jurisdiction see City Council v. Truchelut, 1 Nott & M. (S. C.) 227.

30. Trice v. Crittenden County, 7 Ark. 159.

31. Rutter v. Sullivan, 25 W. Va. 427; Kempe v. Kennedy, 5 Cranch (U. S.) 173, 3 L. ed. 70.

32. Alabama.— Sims v. Waters, 65 Ala. 442.

Georgia.— Barnes v. Underwood, 54 Ga. 87; Perkins v. Attaway, 14 Ga. 27.

Iowa.— Cooper v. Sunderland, 3 Iowa 114, 66 Am. Dec. 52.

New Jersey.— Obert v. Hammel, 18 N. J. L. 73.

Ohio.— Shroyer v. Richmond, 16 Ohio St. 455.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 138.

33. Shroyer v. Richmond, 16 Ohio St. 455.

34. Sims v. Waters, 65 Ala. 442.

In pleading appointment of guardian facts conferring jurisdiction should be alleged. Holden v. Scanlin, 30 Vt. 177.

Where the facts essential to jurisdiction are required to be set forth there must be a sufficient showing that jurisdiction has been acquired as claimed. Hershberger v. Blewett, 55 Fed. 170.

35. Alabama.— Taliferro v. Bassett, 3 Ala. 670.

Mississippi.— Sullivan v. Blackwell, 28 Miss. 737.

New York.— Bloom v. Burdick, 1 Hill 130, 37 Am. Dec. 299; Dakin v. Hudson, 6 Cow. 221.

Pennsylvania.— Forster's Estate, 2 Lanc. L. Rev. 206.

Texas.— Easley v. McClinton, 33 Tex. 288.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 138.

36. Want of jurisdiction over the subject-matter cannot be waived.

ises, that which is without existence cannot be brought into being by a waiver, for a nullity cannot be waived. Consent, as has been elsewhere stated,[37] cannot, in the absence of an express statutory provision, give jurisdiction. As to the second factor, whatever distinctions exist between the common law and such code systems as prevail will in some measure account for the varying decisions as to waiver, and here the question of defects in matters of substance and of mere form should be noted, since as to the former one might formerly often avail himself of such defects after pleading over, the sufficiency of law and of fact not being thereby necessarily admitted, while as to the latter the maxim consensus tollit errorem applied. And finally, as to proceedings in the action, such maxim applies to irregularities where the party has knowledge thereof and subsequently does the alleged act of waiver, but here again proceedings which are absolutely defective and void cannot by any subsequent waiver be given validity.[38] These Illinois.— Demilly v. Grosvenaud, 201 Ill. 272, 66 N. E. 234; Hammond v. Leavitt, 181 Ill. 416, 54 N. E. 982.

Iowa.— Smith v. Dubuque County, 1 Iowa 492.

Louisiana.— Debuys v. Yerby, 1 Mart. N. S. 380.

Missouri.— Klingelhoefer v. Smith, 171 Mo. 455, 71 S. W. 1008.

New Jersey.— School Dist. No. 28 v. Stocker, 42 N. J. L. 115.

New York.— De Bussiene v. Holladay, 4 Abb. N. Cas. 111; Bennett v. American Art Union, 5 Sandf. 614.

Ohio.—The General Buell v. Long, 18 Ohio St. 521; Wilson v. Swigart, 1 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 418.

Tennessee.— Baker v. Mitchell, 105 Tenn. 610, 59 S. W. 137; Agee v. Dement, 1 Humphr. 332.

Texas.—Newman v. McCallum, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 273.

West Virginia.— Freer v. Davis, 52 W. Va. 1, 43 S. E. 164, 59 L. R. A. 556.

United States.— Earl v. Raymond, 8 Fed. Cas. No. 4,243, 4 McLean 233.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 147; and cases cited infra, note 40.

As to effect of appearance as waiver of objections to jurisdiction over subject-matter see APPEARANCES, V, A, 1, b, (I) [3 Cyc. 515].

37. See supra, II, C, 5.

38. Want of jurisdiction over the person may be waived where jurisdiction over the subject-matter exists. Pease v. Delaware, etc., R. Co., 10 Daly (N. Y.) 459; Agee v. Dement, 1 Humphr. (Tenn.) 332. So mere irregularity in bringing parties before the court may be waived (Mayo v. Murchie, 3 Munf. (Va.) 358), as may be mere defects in service, teste, or place of return, where the court has jurisdiction in other respects (Simonds v. Parker, 1 Metc. (Mass.) 508; Carlisle v. Weston, 21 Pick. (Mass.) 535); and that a justice is "near of kin" may be waived (Rector v. Drury, 3 Pinn. (Wis.) 298, 4 Chandl. (Wis.) 24). So an exception should be taken in limine where the court has jurisdiction of the subject and the lack of it in some particular case depends upon some exceptional matter. Hawkins v. Hughes, 87 N. C. 115. See also English v. Randle, 29 Ind. App. 681, 65 N. E. 22; Illinois Cent. R. Co. v. Glover, 71 S. W. 630, 24 Ky. L. Rep. 1447.

Jurisdiction is waived or an estoppel is raised by filing a cross bill asking affirmative relief (Tygh v. Dolan, 95 Ala. 269, 10 So. 837. See also Burgess v. Wheate, 1 Eden 177, 1 W. Bl. 123), by coming into court by consent (Gager v. Doe, 29 Ala. 341), by the voluntary submission by a guardian of the settlement of his guardianship (Norton v. Miller, 25 Ark. 108), by voluntarily submitting and going to a hearing upon the merits (Adamski v. Wieczorek, 93 Ill. App. 357), by answering at a law term, the writ being returnable at a probate instead of a law term, there being jurisdiction of the subject-matter (Kreitz v. Behrensmeyer, 125 Ill. 141, 17 N. E. 232, 8 Am. St. Rep. 349), by accepting and exercising a trust as administrator (Williamson v. Hill, 6 Port. (Ala.) 184), by permitting trial to proceed until near the close, without objection (Burdick v. Freeman, 120 N. Y. 420, 24 N. E. 949 [affirming 46 Hun 138, 10 N. Y. St. 756, 27 N. Y. Wkly. Dig. 313]), by participating, without objection, at an extra term of the court, in the trial of a cause not docketed properly (Rivers v. Priester, 58 S. C. 194, 36 S. E. 543), by a failure to plead in abatement (Searles v. Jacksonville, etc., R. Co., 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,586, 2 Woods 621), by plaintiff bringing an action and by defendant pleading generally and going to trial without objection (Sentenis v. Ladew, 140 N. Y. 463, 35 N. E. 650, 37 Am. St. Rep. 569 [affirming 24 N. Y. Suppl. 1141]), or by giving an undertaking to appear, both plaintiff and defendant residing wholly without the county (Oulton v. Radcliffe, L. R. 9 C. P. 189, 43 L. J. C. P. 87, 30 L. T. Rep. N. S. 22, 22 Wkly. Rep. 372). So where the state appears and submits to process in her legislative capacity and pleads in bar, all doubts as to jurisdiction are at rest, and a motion to dismiss is not analogous to a plea to the jurisdiction of a court of common law or equity in England. Rhode Island v. Massachusetts, 12 Pet. (U. S.) 657, 9 L. ed. 1233.

principles, in the absence of statutory or code provisions or a prevailing practice to the contrary, govern largely if not exclusively in determining what constitutes a waiver, and were early stated.[39]

2. TIME OF OBJECTING. Want of jurisdiction over the subject-matter may be taken advantage of at any stage of the proceedings.[40] An objection to the jurisdiction must be made, however, in apt time or it will be waived, where there is not a want of jurisdiction, where there is a mere irregularity in the proceeding, or where the objection is to the form and not the substance.[41]

Jurisdiction is not waived nor is an estoppel raised by calling for a bill of particulars (Watkins v. Brown, 5 Ark. 197), by the appearance of a non-resident and pleading to the jurisdiction (Bryant v. Ela, Smith (N. H.) 396), by answering "ready" on call of the calendar (Feist v. Third Ave. R. Co., 13 Misc. (N. Y.) 240, 34 N. Y. Suppl. 57, 25 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 257), by pleading to the jurisdiction alleging facts showing a want thereof (Van Antwerp v. Hulburd, 28 Fed. Cas. No. 16,826, 7 Blatchf. 426), by pleading in abatement and consenting to a continuance (Simpson v. East Tennessee, etc., R. Co., 89 Tenn. 304, 15 S. W. 735), by asking for and obtaining an adjournment when brought before the court by illegal process, and pleading to the action under force of such process (Robinson v. West, 11 Barb. (N. Y.) 309 [reversing 1 Sandf. (N. Y.) 19]), by moving for instructions or reserving a point (Grant v. Tams, 7 T. B. Mon. (Ky.) 218), by executing a delivery bond for attached property (Egan v. Lumsden, 2 Disn. (Ohio) 168), by filing a stipulation on dissolution of injunction to abide decree, defendant, a non-resident, having first appeared specially to object to jurisdiction (Walling v. Beers, 120 Mass. 548), by failing to except when there is no jurisdiction (Sigourney v. Sibley, 21 Pick. (Mass.) 101, 32 Am. Dec. 248), and objection to the jurisdiction may be made at the hearing (Clark v. Manufacturers' Nat. Bank, 74 Conn. 263, 50 Atl. 727).

As to effect of appearance as waiver of objections to jurisdiction over the person see APPEARANCES, V, A, 1, b, (II) [3 Cyc. 515].

39. Lawrence v. Wilcock, 11 A. & E. 941, 39 E. C. L. 495; Furnival v. Stringer, 1 Bing. N. Cas. 68, 5 L. J. C. P. 344, 4 M. & S. 578, 27 E. C. L. 547; Tyerman v. Smith, 6 E. & B. 719, 2 Jur. N. S. 860, 25 L. J. Q. B. 359, 88 E. C. L. 719; Andrewes v. Elliott, 6 E. & B. 338, 2 Jur. N. S. 663, 25 L. J. Q. B. 336, 4 Wkly. Rep. 527, 88 E. C. L. 338; St. Victor v. Devereux, 14 L. J. Ch. 244; Anonymous, 2 Salk. 519; Lucking v. Denning, 1 Salk. 201; Cowne v. Bowles, 1 Salk. 93; Bacon Abr. tit. Courts (A); Brown Leg. Max. 136.

40. Alabama. — Talladega Com'rs Ct. v. Thompson, 18 Ala. 694.

Connecticut. — Davison v. Champlin, 7 Conn. 244. See also Olmstead's Appeal, 43 Conn. 110.

Delaware. — Beeson v. Elliott, 1 Del. Ch. 368.

Illinois. — Vogel v. People, 37 Ill. App. 388.

Indiana. — Harris v. Harris, 61 Ind. 117; Brownfield v. Weicht, 9 Ind. 394.

Iowa. — Orcutt v. Hanson, 71 Iowa 514, 32 N. W. 482; Smiths v. Dubuque County, 1 Iowa 492.

Massachusetts. — Osgood v. Thurston, 23 Pick. 110; Carlisle v. Weston, 21 Pick. 535.

Michigan. — Farrand v. Bentley, 6 Mich. 281.

Mississippi. — Green v. Creighton, 10 Sm. & M. 159, 48 Am. Dec. 742.

New Hampshire. — State v. Richmond, 26 N. H. 232.

New York. — Robinson v. Oceanic Steam Nav. Co., 112 N. Y. 315, 19 N. E. 625, 16 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 225, 2 L. R. A. 636 [affirming 56 N. Y. Super. Ct. 108, 1 N. Y. Suppl. 418, 15 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 88, 28 N. Y. Wkly. Dig. 518]; Baer v. Kempner, 15 Daly 110, 3 N. Y. Suppl. 529; Perry v. Erie Transfer Co., 23 N. Y. Suppl. 878 [affirming 1 Misc. 208, 20 N. Y. Suppl. 891]; Wilkins v. Williams, 3 N. Y. Suppl. 897, 15 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 168; Brooks v. Mexican Nat. Constr. Co., 3 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 36, 64 How. Pr. 364; Titus v. Relyea, 8 Abb. Pr. 177, 16 How. Pr. 371; Delafield v. Wright, 3 Sandf. 746, Code Rep. N. S. 123.

North Carolina. — Hannah v. Richmond, etc., R. Co., 87 N. C. 351; Branch v. Houston, 44 N. C. 85.

Pennsylvania. — Rankin's Appeal, 95 Pa. St. 358; Collins v. Collins, 37 Pa. St. 387; In re Little Meadows, 28 Pa. St. 256; Stearly's Appeal, 3 Grant 270.

South Carolina. — Gibbes v. Morrison, 39 S. C. 369, 17 S. E. 803.

South Dakota. — Wayne v. Caldwell, 1 S. D. 483, 47 N. W. 547, 36 Am. St. Rep. 750.

Vermont. — Lamson v. Worcester, 58 Vt. 381, 4 Atl. 145; Stoughton v. Mott, 13 Vt. 175.

Wisconsin. — State v. Tappan, 29 Wis. 664, 9 Am. Rep. 622; Damp v. Dane, 29 Wis. 419.

United States. — Dailey v. Doe, 3 Fed. 903; Donaldson v. Hazen, 7 Fed. Cas. No. 3,984, Hempst. 423; Kelly v. Harding, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,670, 5 Blatchf. 502; Maisonnaire v. Keating, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 8,978, 2 Gall. 325.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 148.

41. Gilmanton v. Ham, 38 N. H. 108; Rankin's Appeal, 95 Pa. St. 358; Gilman v. Perkins, 7 Fed. 887, 10 Biss. 430.

Application of rule. — Objection comes too late: After answering to the merits where want of jurisdiction relates to the person and not to the subject-matter (Pease v. Delaware, etc., R. Co., 10 Daly (N. Y.) 459), where not made before entering a general appearance

J. Determination of Jurisdictional Questions — 1. In General. The question of jurisdiction is always open for determination, even though there may be in the same case prior rulings of the same or another judge sustaining the jurisdiction,[42] and is to be decided as regards the nature of the thing in controversy, by the character of the suit, without reference to what defenses exist.[43] These questions also rest in the sound judicial discretion of the court itself,[44] to be decided in the first instance by the court whose judicial action is first invoked,[45] except where dependent upon questions of fact, when the jury may, subject to the direction of the court as to matter of law, affirm jurisdiction or not by a general verdict.[46] So defendant has the right to challenge the jurisdiction in the first instance, and he may also have the cause set down for a hearing upon that issue and have it determined.[47] In addition there is an implied ruling in favor of jurisdiction arising from the issuance of process.[48] So the allegations of the pleadings determine whether a cause of action arose within the state, and such and answering to the merits, the objection being founded on a personal privilege (The Bee, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,219, 1 Ware 332), after filing a claim and plea to the merits (The Abby, 1 Fed. Cas. No. 14, 1 Mason 360), after going to trial on the merits after voluntarily withdrawing a motion to dismiss for want of jurisdiction in a personal action (Luco v. Tuolumne Supreme Ct., 71 Cal. 555, 12 Pac. 677; Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 848), after trial in justice's court stipulating for submission to district court which has jurisdiction of the subject-matter and proceeding to trial (Edwards v. Smith, 16 Colo. 529, 27 Pac. 809), after trial and verdict (Smith v. Bauer, 9 Colo. 380, 12 Pac. 397), after verdict (Ohio, etc., R. Co. v. Heaton, 137 Ind. 1, 35 N. E. 687), after trial without objection and on second trial the court having jurisdiction of the subject-matter (Schrader v. Hoover, 87 Iowa 654, 54 N. W. 463), after defendant goes into the evidence and the testimony is closed (Head v. Gervais, Walk. (Miss.) 431, 12 Am. Dec. 577), after designedly failing to object until after various proceedings are had and the court has jurisdiction over the cause (Warren v. Glynn, 37 N. H. 340), where the trial is nearly closed (Burdick v. Freeman, 120 N. Y. 420, 24 N. E. 949 [affirming 46 Hun 138, 10 N. Y. St. 756, 27 N. Y. Wkly. Dig. 313]), after reference, trial, and decision in one court, an appeal to another and reference and trial there (Mason v. Alexander, 44 Ohio St. 318, 7 N. E. 435), after trial and decree (McDonald v. Crockett, 2 McCord Eq. (S. C.) 130), after appearing and defending suit and want of jurisdiction does not appear on the bill (Whyte v. Gibbes, 20 How. (U. S.) 541, 15 L. ed. 1016), after judgment by default (Tegarden v. Powell, 15 La. Ann. 184), when not made before judgment (Corsicana v. Kerr, 75 Tex. 207, 12 S. W. 982), after judgment and neglect to plead in abatement at the proper time (Covington v. Neilson, 6 Yerg. (Tenn.) 475), after judgment if not objected to when action was pending (Collamer v. Page, 35 Vt. 387), when raised for the first time after appeal (Olmstead's Appeal, 43 Conn. 110; Wroe v. Greer, 2 Swan (Tenn.) 172), and after sixteen years (Brown's Appeal, 89 Pa. St. 139).

42. Sheldon v. Wabash R. Co., 105 Fed. 785.

When it is ascertained that the lien sought to be enforced has no existence the suit will be dismissed. Storrie v. Woessner, (Tex. Civ. App. 1898) 47 S. W. 837.

If disclosed on appeal that a case embraces a cause of action legal in its nature and a simulated equitable action not arising from the same transaction nor transactions connected with the same subject of action, and the appellate court has no jurisdiction over the legal action, the entire petition will be dismissed. Wellston v. Morgan, 59 Ohio St. 147, 52 N. E. 127.

43. Boone v. Poindexter, 12 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 640.

44. People v. Chicago, 193 Ill. 507, 62 N. E. 179, 58 L. R. A. 833; U. S. v. Sanders, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 16,220, Hempst. 483.

Court may inquire if statutory remedy exists in determining whether it has jurisdiction at common law. Fisher v. Kreebel, 1 Leg. Chron. (Pa.) 113.

45. Manier v. Trumbo, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 18,309.

46. U. S. v. Sanders, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 16,220, Hempst. 483. See also Hamilton v. Gorman, 24 N. Y. App. Div. 85, 48 N. Y. Suppl. 1002.

47. Robinson v. Harrison, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 701, 7 Ohio N. P. 273.

Defendant only can raise question of jurisdiction to enforce a decree against a foreign tribunal. Ernst v. Elmira Municipal Imp. Co., 24 Misc. (N. Y.) 583, 54 N. Y. Suppl. 116.

Defendant cannot object that judge is not legally commissioned by way of plea to the jurisdiction. Beard v. Cameron, 7 N. C. 181.

48. Manier v. Trumbo, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 18,309, holding that whether or not there is any jurisdiction arises immediately upon application for the original or first process in the action, and is then decided as of necessity in favor of the jurisdiction, and is also by necessary implication thereafter decided as preliminary to every order, sentence, or mandate of the writ, and every order or process exhibits on its face a decision of the court that it is made and awarded by competent authority.

averments are exclusive of affidavits upon the point.[49] Again jurisdiction will not be defeated by a rigid construction.[50]

2. COURT'S POWER. A court has judicial power to hear and determine the question of its own jurisdiction,[51] and is not bound to dismiss the suit on a mere allegation, but may inquire into the correctness of the averment.[52] So it may receive testimony on a preliminary question to determine its jurisdiction.[53] Courts of law will also incidentally inquire into the validity of judgments of special jurisdictions whenever necessary to the exercise of their ordinary powers.[54]

3. RIGHT AND DUTY OF COURT TO ACT OF ITS OWN MOTION. The court may of its own motion, even though the question is not raised by the pleadings or is not suggested by counsel, recognize the want of jurisdiction, and it is its duty to act accordingly by staying proceedings, dismissing the action, or otherwise noticing the defect,[55] unless the petition be reformed where it can be done.[56]

4. EFFECT OF DECISION. Where a court has power to determine its own jurisdiction its decision will have relatively the same effect as to conclusiveness as will the judgments or records of such courts upon matters confessedly within their jurisdiction. Within this rule are courts of last resort,[57] a superior court or court of record,[58] a court of general jurisdiction,[59] inferior courts[60] having general jurisdiction,[61] appellate courts,[62] and generally courts of whatever rank.[63]

49. Delaware, etc., R. Co. v. New York, etc., R. Co., 12 Misc. (N. Y.) 230, 33 N. Y. Suppl. 1081. But see infra, II, J, 2.

On an averment of domicile it is error to exclude evidence of defendant to contradict evidence of plaintiff offered in support of such allegation. Stephenson v. Broadwell, 26 La. Ann. 387.

That a remedy existed in another state cannot be shown to defeat jurisdiction in an action by a citizen of that state to enforce a liability of a transitory nature against a corporation of the state where suit is brought, and so even though the cause of action arose wholly in such foreign state. Sorkin v. Houston, etc., R. Co., (Tex. Civ. App. 1899) 53 S. W. 608.

50. Stanley v. Barker, 25 Vt. 507.

51. King v. Poole, 36 Barb. (N. Y.) 242; Gormley v. McIntosh, 22 Barb. (N. Y.) 271; Silver v. Schuylkill County, 32 Pa. St. 356; Lindsey v. Luckett, 20 Tex. 516; Holmes v. Oregon, etc., R. Co., 5 Fed. 523, 6 Sawy. 276. See State v. Judge Second City Ct., 35 La. Ann. 1110.

Court cannot consider questions under constitution of United States for purpose of determining its own jurisdiction. Bennett v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 105 Mo. 642, 16 S. W. 947 [remanding 44 Mo. App. 372]. But see Davis v. Packard, 7 Pet. (U. S.) 276, 8 L. ed. 684.

52. State v. Voorhies, 34 La. Ann. 1142.

53. Caton v. Carter, 9 Gill & J. (Md.) 476.

54. Savage Mfg. Co. v. Owings, 3 Gill (Md.) 497.

55. Arkansas. — Crawford v. Carson, 35 Ark. 565.

Connecticut. — Pettibone v. Phelps, 2 Root 137.

District of Columbia. — Dewey Hotel Co. v. U. S. Electric Lighting Co., 17 App. Cas. 356.

Louisiana. — Fabacher v. Bryant, 46 La. Ann. 820, 15 So. 181; Fleming v. Hiligsberg, 11 Rob. 77; Greiner v. Thielen, 6 Rob. 365; Dupey v. Greffin, 1 Mart. N. S. 198.

Maine. — Chalmers v. Hack, 19 Me. 124.

Maryland. — Berrett v. Oliver, 7 Gill & J. 191.

Massachusetts. — Lawrence v. Smith, 5 Mass. 362.

Mississippi. — Stamps v. Newton, 3 How. 34.

New York. — Griffin v. Dominguez, 2 Duer 656, 11 Leg. Obs. 285.

North Carolina. — Hannah v. Richmond, etc., R. Co., 87 N. C. 351.

South Carolina. — Hammarskold v. Bull, 9 Rich. 474.

Texas. — Burks v. Bennett, 55 Tex. 237.

Vermont. — Glidden v. Elkins, 2 Tyler 218.

United States. — Heriot v. Davis, 12 Fed. Cas. No. 6,404, 2 Woodb. & M. 229.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 156.

Upon suggestion of amicus curiæ the court may stay proceedings for want of jurisdiction. Chalmers v. Hack, 19 Me. 124; Hammarskold v. Bull, 9 Rich. (S. C.) 474. See also AMICUS CURIÆ, III, B [2 Cyc. 282].

Court will not of its own motion raise objection to jurisdiction where it has jurisdiction of the subject-matter and parties and the issues are tried without objection. Courtney v. Neimeyer, 33 Nebr. 796, 51 N. W. 234.

56. Crawford v. Carson, 35 Ark. 565.

57. People v. Clark, 1 Park. Crim. (N. Y.) 360 [reversed in 7 N. Y. 385, 11 N. Y. Leg. Obs. 4].

58. McCauley v. Fulton, 44 Cal. 355; Bannon v. People, 1 Ill. App. 496.

59. Cannon v. Cooper, 39 Miss. 784, 40 Am. Dec. 101.

60. In re Grove, 61 Cal. 438; Mullikin v. Bloomington, 72 Ind. 161; Evansville, etc., Straight Line R. Co. v. Evansville, 15 Ind. 395; Stohmier v. Stumph, Wils. (Ind.) 304; State v. Scott, 1 Bailey (S. C.) 294.

61. Delphi v. Startzman, 104 Ind. 343, 3 N. E. 937.

62. Fahs v. Darling, 82 Ill. 142.

63. Dowdy v. Wamble, 110 Mo. 289, 19 S. W. 489.

K. Proceedings and Acts Without Jurisdiction — 1. In General. Where a court is without jurisdiction in the premises its acts and proceedings can be of no force or validity, nor can it by its decisions or otherwise acquire jurisdiction.[64] This rule applies, even though the court's powers are thereafter enlarged by an amendment of the law.[65] It is especially applicable when jurisdiction is denied by the constitution.[66] Again if a court of special or limited jurisdiction exceeds its powers its proceedings are void[67] and not merely voidable.[68]

2. Jurisdiction as to Part of Demand. Although jurisdiction is lacking as to part of the demand, nevertheless the court may proceed as to the part within its jurisdiction,[69] and an award will be void only as to the excess.[70]

3. Proceedings Subsequent to Decision That No Jurisdiction Exists. Upon determining that it has no jurisdiction the court may not only refuse to proceed further and determine other objections or the rights of the parties,[71] but it is improper to decide upon the sufficiency of other matters of defense.[72] Nor has the court authority to proceed after the cause is dismissed.[73]

III. Creation, Constitution, and Officers of Court.

A. Power to Create, Organize, Abolish, Reorganize, Consolidate, and Transfer Courts — 1. Source of Power. The authority to establish a court must emanate from the supreme power of the state, otherwise the court itself is an absolute nullity, and all its proceedings are utterly void.[74] No person can in 64. California.— Rogers v. Cady, 104 Cal. 288, 38 Pac. 81, 43 Am. St. Rep. 100.

Illinois.— Clark v. Carr, 45 Ill. App. 469.
Indiana.— Marsh v. Sherman, 12 Ind. 358.
Louisiana.— Bradley v. Woodruff, 26 La. Ann. 299; Mora v. Kuzac, 21 La. Ann. 754.
Maryland.— Wickes v. Caulk, 5 Harr. & J. 36.
Massachusetts.— Sigourney v. Sibley, 21 Pick. 101, 32 Am. Dec. 248.
Michigan.— Richards v. Morton, 18 Mich. 255.
Missouri.— Latimer v. Union Pac. R. Co., 43 Mo. 105, 97 Am. Dec. 378.
New York.— Harrington v. People, 6 Barb. 607; Bigelow v. Stearns, 19 Johns. 39, 10 Am. Dec. 189.
Pennsylvania.— Thompson v. Lyle, 3 Watts & S. 166; Taylor v. Knipe, 2 Pears. 151.
See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 157.
Court cannot reverse a case from below and place it on its own docket for trial where it has no jurisdiction of the subject-matter. Banks v. Porter, 39 Conn. 307.

65. Mora v. Kuzac, 21 La. Ann. 754.

66. Rogers v. Cady, 104 Cal. 288, 38 Pac. 81, 43 Am. St. Rep. 100.
Where a statute which confers jurisdiction on a certain court is held unconstitutional, such decision will have no retroactive effect on the principle, communis error facit jus, and where proceedings have been regularly had under the law as it existed before such decision they will not be disturbed. Thomas v. Poole, 19 S. C. 323; Herndon v. Moore, 18 S. C. 339.

67. Barrett v. Crane, 16 Vt. 246; Walbridge v. Hall, 3 Vt. 114.

68. Hendrick v. Cleaveland, 2 Vt. 329.

69. Levi v. Hare, 8 Ind. App. 571, 36 N. E. 369; State v. Ogden, 35 La. Ann. 738; Taylor v. Hollander, 4 Mart. N. S. (La.) 535.

70. American Ins. Co. v. Fisk, 1 Paige (N. Y.) 90.

71. Stough v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 71 Iowa 641, 33 N. W. 149.

72. Howard v. Kentucky, etc., Mut. Ins. Co., 13 B. Mon. (Ky.) 282.

73. Gray v. Dean, 136 Mass. 128; Wheeler, etc., Mfg. Co. v. Whitcomb, 62 N. H. 411.
Court may enter judgment on a replevy bond for the property or its value, even though it has no jurisdiction to hear and determine the cause. Close v. Hannig, (Tex. App. 1890) 17 S. W. 350.

74. State v. Boone County Ct., 50 Mo. 317, 11 Am. Rep. 415; 3 Bl. Comm. 24.
Courts created by the constitution proceed directly from the sovereign will; they constitute a coördinate and independent department of the government. Perkins v. Corbin, 45 Ala. 103, 6 Am. Rep. 698.
As a sovereign the United States is bound by the limitations of the federal constitution, and it cannot create a state court and appoint a judge to administer it. Mechanics', etc., Bank v. Union Bank, 25 La. Ann. 387.
Power to hear appeals must be expressly granted. Rhoads v. Philadelphia, 2 Phila. (Pa.) 149, 13 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 238.
The establishment of separate ecclesiastical courts was not a part of the common law, and the English statutes relating thereto were in derogation of the common law, and were never in force in Indiana. Short v. State, 58 Ind. 29.
In England all jurisdiction is derived from the crown. Rex v. Knollys, 2 Salk. 509; Bacon Abr. tit. Courts (A). See also Matter of Colenso, 3 Moore P. C. N. S. 115, 12 Jur. N. S. 353, 12 L. T. Rep. N. S. 188, 13 Wkly. Rep. 549, 16 Eng. Reprint 43.

the absence of law create a court and preside over the same as judge,[75] and judges cannot hold a court which is unconstitutional in its organization.[76] In the United States the constitutions of the several states generally vest the judicial power in designated courts, and delegate certain powers in respect thereto; and as to other courts, to the legislature, although courts are created by the constitution in numerous instances conferring power directly upon them independently of legislative enactment or interference.[77]

75. State v. Boone County Ct., 50 Mo. 317, 11 Am. Rep. 415, holding, however, that where a court has a legal existence, a person may without any authority assume the office of judge and preside as such and the acts of the court will be valid.

The president of the United States cannot create a court to decide any civil controversy. Mechanics', etc., Bank v. Union Bank, 25 La. Ann. 387.

76. Com. v. Swank, 79 Pa. St. 154. See also APPEAL AND ERROR, 3 Cyc. 213, note 12.

77. Alabama.— Perkins v. Corbin, 45 Ala. 103, 118, 6 Am. Rep. 698; Nugent v. State, 18 Ala. 521.

Arkansas.— State v. Martin, 60 Ark. 343, 30 S. W. 421, 28 L. R. A. 153; State v. Fairchild, 15 Ark. 619.

California.— People v. Sands, (1894) 35 Pac. 330; People v. Toal, (1890) 23 Pac. 203; Vassault v. Austin, 36 Cal. 691; People v. Provines, 34 Cal. 520; Hicks v. Bell, 3 Cal. 219.

Colorado.— People v. Richmond, 16 Colo. 274, 26 Pac. 929.

Connecticut.— Smith v. Hall, 71 Conn. 427, 42 Atl. 86.

Delaware.— Morrow v. State, 2 Marv. 4, 37 Atl. 43.

Florida.— Ex p. Pitts, 35 Fla. 149, 17 So. 76.

Illinois.— People v. Opel, 188 Ill. 194, 58 N. E. 996; People v. Rose, 166 Ill. 422, 47 N. E. 64; Reid v. Morton, 119 Ill. 118, 6 N. E. 414; Klokke v. Dodge, 103 Ill. 125; People v. Rumsey, 64 Ill. 44; People v. Evans, 18 Ill. 361; In re Welsh, 17 Ill. 161.

Indiana.— Woods v. McCay, 144 Ind. 316, 43 N. E. 269, 33 L. R. A. 97; State v. Bear, 135 Ind. 701, 34 N. E. 877; State v. Friedley, 135 Ind. 119, 34 N. E. 872, 21 L. R. A. 634; Branson v. Studabaker, 133 Ind. 147, 33 N. E. 98.

Iowa.— Page v. Millerton, 114 Iowa 378, 86 N. W. 440; Milner v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 77 Iowa 755, 42 N. W. 567.

Kansas.— Morris v. Bunyan, 58 Kan. 210, 48 Pac. 864; State v. Young, 3 Kan. 445.

Kentucky.— Hildreth v. McIntire, 1 J. J. Marsh. 206, 19 Am. Dec. 61; Dotson v. Fitzpatrick, 66 S. W. 403, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 2042; Pratt v. Breckinridge, 65 S. W. 136, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1356; Addams' Petition, 26 S. W. 182, 16 Ky. L. Rep. 45.

Louisiana.— State v. Walsh, 32 La. Ann. 1234; La Chambre v. Cole, 30 La. Ann. 961; State v. Judge Seventh Dist. Ct., 22 La. Ann. 565; State v. Jones, 8 Rob. 573.

Michigan.— Renand v. State Ct., 124 Mich. 648, 83 N. W. 620, 83 Am. St. Rep. 346, 51 L. R. A. 458; Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Nester, 63 Mich. 657, 30 N. W. 315; People v. Kent County Cir. Judge, 37 Mich. 472.

Minnesota.— Warren v. First Div. St. Paul, etc., R. Co., 18 Minn. 384.

Mississippi.— Hughes v. State, 79 Miss. 77, 29 So. 786; Houston v. Royston, 7 How. 543.

Missouri.— State v. Vallino, 140 Mo. 523, 41 S. W. 887; State v. Laughlin, 75 Mo. 147; State v. Mann, 41 Mo. 395.

Nevada.— State v. Atherton, 19 Nev. 332, 10 Pac. 901.

New Jersey.— State v. Gruff, 68 N. J. L. 287, 53 Atl. 88; Johnson v. State, 59 N. J. L. 271, 35 Atl. 787 [affirmed in 59 N. J. L. 535, 37 Atl. 949, 39 Atl. 646, 38 L. R. A. 373]; Schalk v. Wrightson, 58 N. J. L. 50, 32 Atl. 820.

New York.— Worthington v. London Guarantee, etc., Co., 164 N. Y. 81, 58 N. E. 102, 31 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 274; Alexander v. Bennett, 60 N. Y. 204; Sill v. Corning, 15 N. Y. 297; People v. Howland, 17 N. Y. App. Div. 165, 45 N. Y. Suppl. 347; Beaudrias v. Hogan, 16 N. Y. App. Div. 38, 44 N. Y. Suppl. 785; Fifth Ave. Bank v. Forty-Second Street, etc., R. Co., 6 N. Y. App. Div. 567, 40 N. Y. Suppl. 219; De Hart v. Hatch, 3 Hun 375.

North Carolina.— State v. Wilmington, etc., R. Co., 122 N. C. 877, 29 S. E. 334; Rhyne v. Lipscombe, 122 N. C. 650, 29 S. E. 57; Washington v. Hammond, 76 N. C. 33.

North Dakota.— McDermont v. Dinnie, 6 N. D. 278, 69 N. W. 294.

Ohio.— State v. Archibald, 52 Ohio St. 1, 38 N. E. 314.

Pennsylvania.— In re Cahill, 110 Pa. St. 167, 20 Atl. 414; Com. v. Dumbauld, 97 Pa. St. 293; Com. v. Green, 58 Pa. St. 226.

South Carolina.— Middleton v. Taber, 46 S. C. 337, 24 S. E. 282; Land Mortg. Invest., etc., Co. v. Faulkner, 45 S. C. 503, 23 S. E. 516, 24 S. E. 288; State v. Fillebrown, 2 S. C. 404.

Tennessee.—State v. Lindsay, 103 Tenn. 625, 53 S. W. 950; McCully v. State, 102 Tenn. 509, 53 S. W. 134, 46 L. R. A. 567; McElwee v. McElwee, 97 Tenn. 649, 37 S. W. 560.

Texas.— Lytle v. Halff, 75 Tex. 128, 12 S. W. 610; Ex p. Hart, 41 Tex. Crim. 581, 56 S. W. 341; Ex p. Wilbarger, 41 Tex. Crim. 514, 55 S. W. 968; Corey v. State, 28 Tex. App. 490, 13 S. W. 778; Daniel v. Hutcheson, 4 Tex. Civ. App. 239, 22 S. W. 278.

Virginia.—In re Richmond Mayoralty Case, 19 Gratt. 673.

Washington.— State v. Rusk, 15 Wash. 403, 46 Pac. 387.

Wisconsin.— American L. & T. Co. v. Bond, 91 Wis. 204, 64 N. W. 854; Lannon v. Hackett, 49 Wis. 261, 5 N. W. 474; Smith v. Odell, 1 Pinn. 449.

2. CONSTITUTIONAL AND LEGISLATIVE POWER — a. General and Specific Rules. There are certain rules which may be denominated as fundamental and controlling as to the power of courts. These rules are as follows: (1) Where the intent of a constitutional provision is to abrogate special legislation, and establish uniformity in the powers, proceedings, and practice of all courts of the same class or grade it will so operate, and a constitution designed to remove an existing mischief will never be construed as dependent for its efficacy and operation upon legislative will.[78] (2) If it is claimed that a court is abolished by the constitution, the burden is upon the party asserting the point to satisfy the court either from the express language of the constitution or by necessary implication from such language that the court in question was abolished. There should be left no doubt, and where there is nothing in the constitution or from a reasonable intendment showing such fact the claim will not be sustained.[79] (3) If several statutes relate to the creation, organization, and reorganization of courts the rule will be applied that statutes in pari materia should be read together as one law.[80] (4) If in a statute organizing a court the unconstitutional part can be separated from the valid parts the latter will stand.[81] (5) The repeal of statutes by implication is not favored. If there is no essential repugnancy in statutes they should be construed so as to stand consistently together. Other kindred rules of statutory construction[82] also apply to legislative enactments creating, abolishing, or reorganizing courts, establishing new judicial districts, attaching or detaching counties, etc., and to statutes generally relating to the powers of courts and their facilities for transacting business.[83] (6) As opposed to the statutory intent a general statute organizing certain courts throughout the state will not apply to a particular locality excepted in the statute, where a special provision continues the existence of similar courts in the excepted locality.[84] (7) It is not necesssary to clothe a court with appellate jurisdiction over its decisions in order to create a judicial tribunal.[85] (8) Literal compliance with the constitution, in the enacting clause of an act of the legislature, is not essential where the substance of the required enacting words remains, there being a distinction between mandatory and directory provisions as applied to organic law. This applies where courts are created by the constitution and the election of its judges provided for, and the act in question is merely one of reorganization or rearrangement.[86] So where the legislature is empowered to establish as many courts of a certain class within specified limits as the public interest may require, an act establishing a court of the same class as provided is constitutional, even though it omits its specific name or denomination.[87] (9) A statute cannot operate retroactively so as to lawfully create and establish a court from a date anterior to the adoption of the enact-

Wyoming.— Ex p. Bergman, 3 Wyo. 396, 26 Pac. 914.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 164 et seq.

78. People v. Rumsey, 64 Ill. 44.

79. Forbes v. State, (Del. 1898) 41 Atl. 1102; State v. Walsh, 32 La. Ann. 1234.

80. Hall's Petition, 38 Kan. 670, 17 Pac. 649.

81. Ex p. Pitts, 35 Fla. 149, 17 So. 76.

82. As to construction of statutes generally see STATUTES.

83. In re Mitchell, 120 Cal. 384, 52 Pac. 799 [followed in People v. Burns, 121 Cal. 529, 53 Pac. 1096]; People v. Wall, 88 Ill. 75; People v. Barr, 44 Ill. 198; Middleton v. White, 35 Ill. 114; Baker v. The Milwaukee, 14 Iowa 214 (declaring that it will reasonably be believed that if the legislature designed to repeal an act establishing a court it would have indicated its intention by some express language, especially where the court is one of importance, with its powers, duties, terms, judges, and other officers provided for and a mode for correcting its abuses not inconsistent with the terms of the constitution); Ex p. Cannon, (Tex. Crim. 1897) 43 S. W. 87.

The rule that a repeal by implication is not favored applies to an unconstitutional provision of a statute relating to ministerial officers of a court. McAllister v. Hamlin, 83 Cal. 361, 23 Pac. 357.

84. People v. New York Gen. Sess., 15 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 59.

85. Rhoads v. Philadelphia, 2 Phila. (Pa.) 149, 13 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 238.

86. State v. Harris, 47 La. Ann. 386, 17 So. 129.

87. State v. Anderson, 29 La. Ann. 774.

ment.[88] (10) Where the establishment or disestablishment of courts of inferior jurisdiction by special legislation rests in the legislature's discretion, such legislation will not be reviewed by the courts.[89]

b. General and Specific Constitutional Provisions. In addition to vesting judicial power in certain courts, delegating authority, and directly creating judicial tribunals,[90] constitutions divide a state into judicial circuits, districts, etc.,[91] or provide that it shall be done;[92] divide counties;[93] abolish the entire judiciary system created and established under a prior constitution;[94] abolish courts, divest and transfer their jurisdiction, or substitute other courts in their place;[95] create one court as the successor of another, giving it jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings pending in the abolished court;[96] provide that causes shall be transferred or that jurisdiction over the same be vested in other courts or tribunals;[97] continue courts and their jurisdiction[98] until the legislature shall act;[99] reorganize the judiciary and divest them of jurisdiction[1] except over specified causes;[2] limit or specify the number of judges in counties or other judicial divisions;[3] provide for uniformity in organization, proceedings, and practice in certain courts;[4] expressly specify the limitation of jurisdiction in designated courts;[5] make specific provision covering the organization of courts, the extent and number of judicial districts, the election of judges, terms of courts, and place of holding the same until otherwise provided by law, and provide for officers thereof;[6] and restrict legislative power by designating the manner, mode, and time of its exercise, or by otherwise placing limitations thereon as to population, elections, extent of territory or districts, etc.[7]

88. Murray v. State, 112 Ga. 7, 37 S. E. 111.

89. State v. Pinger, 50 Mo. 486.

90. See supra, III, A, 1.

91. State v. Martin, 60 Ark. 343, 30 S. W. 421, 28 L. R. A. 153; Lytle v. Halff, 75 Tex. 128, 12 S. W. 610.

92. Stocking v. State, 7 Ind. 326.

93. Goforth v. Adams, 11 Ill. 52.

94. State v. Duffel, 32 La. Ann. 649. See also Fowler v. Thompson, 22 W. Va. 106.

95. California.— Gillis v. Barnett, 38 Cal. 393.

Georgia.—Strickland v. Griffin, 70 Ga. 541.

Louisiana.— Scherrer v. Caneza, 33 La. Ann. 314.

Maryland.— Orrick v. Boehm, 49 Md. 72.

Montana.— In re Davis, 11 Mont. 1, 27 Pac. 342.

New Jersey.— State v. Taylor, 68 N. J. L. 276, 53 Atl. 392.

North Carolina.—Forsyth County v. Blackburn, 68 N. C. 406; Green v. Moore, 66 N. C. 425.

Pennsylvania.—Taylor v. Com., 103 Pa. St. 96.

United States.— Mitchell, etc., Furniture Co. v. Sampson, 40 Fed. 805.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 180 et seq.

96. Learned v. Castle, 67 Cal. 41, 7 Pac. 34; Gurnee v. San Francisco Super. Ct., 58 Cal. 88; People v. Colby, 54 Cal. 184; Glendenning v. Ansley, 52 Ga. 347.

97. Foster v. Daniels, 39 Ga. 39; State v. Mathews, 33 La. Ann. 103; Wegman v. Childs, 41 N. Y. 159; O'Maley v. Reese, 1 Barb. (N. Y.) 643; Butler v. Benson, 1 Barb. (N. Y.) 526; Johnson v. Sedberry, 65 N. C. 1.

98. Marble v. Whaley, 35 Miss. 527; State v. Laughlin, 75 Mo. 147; Kilpatrick v. Com., 31 Pa. St. 198.

99. Edwards v. Newton County, 73 Mo. 636.

1. Orrick v. Boehm, 49 Md. 72; Fowler v. Thompson, 22 W. Va. 106.

2. Fowler v. Thompson, 22 W. Va. 106.

3. State v. Martin, 60 Ark. 343, 30 S. W. 421, 28 L. R. A. 153; State v. Shuford, 128 N. C. 588, 38 S. E. 808; Ex p. Wilbarger, 41 Tex. Crim. 514, 55 S. W. 968.

4. Parker v. People, 13 Colo. 155, 21 Pac. 1120, 4 L. R. A. 803; Frantz v. Fleitz, 85 Ill. 362; People v. Rumsey, 64 Ill. 44.

5. Bookhout v. State, 66 Wis. 415, 28 N. W. 179.

6. Lytle v. Halff, 75 Tex. 128, 12 S. W. 610.

7. Arkansas.—Patterson v. Temple, 27 Ark. 202.

California.— People v. Sassovich, 29 Cal. 480.

Illinois.— People v. Opel, 188 Ill. 194, 58 N. E. 996; People v. Rose, 166 Ill. 422, 47 N. E. 64; Klokke v. Dodge, 103 Ill. 125; Knickerbocker v. People, 102 Ill. 218; People v. Wall, 88 Ill. 75.

Kentucky.— Clerk Whitley County Ct. v. Lester, 46 S. W. 694, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 481.

Mississippi.—Lindsley v. Coahoma County, 69 Miss. 815, 11 So. 336.

New Jersey.— Kenny v. Hudspeth, 59 N. J. L. 320, 36 Atl. 662.

New York.—Lanning v. Carpenter, 20 N. Y. 447, time for altering districts.

Ohio.—State v. Kinninger, 46 Ohio St. 570, 22 N. E. 637.

Pennsylvania.— Com. v. Handley, 106 Pa. St. 245; Com. v. Dumbauld, 97 Pa. St. 293.

Tennessee.— McCully v. State, 102 Tenn. 509, 53 S. W. 134, 46 L. R. A. 567.

c. Exclusive Constitutional Provisions — (I) Statement of Rule. The provisions of the constitution may be such as to operate as an express restriction or limitation upon legislative authority in respect to matters of the character under consideration,[8] and it is a general rule that the legislature is powerless to interfere with the jurisdiction, functions, or judicial powers conferred by the constitution upon a court, nor can it diminish, enlarge, transfer, or otherwise infringe upon the same, nor abolish, reorganize, divide, or consolidate such constitutional courts or judicial districts,[9] especially so where the court has long been acquiesced in as permanent.[10] And the rule applies to a court whose existing powers and jurisdiction has been continued by the constitution. Nor may such court itself transfer or relinquish its jurisdiction or be authorized so to do by statute.[11] A constitutional restriction, however, as to the creation of new and enlarged circuits will not be implied from a limitation as to changing boundaries of circuits, the general rule which is applicable being that if no technical words are employed in a constitution it admits of no interpretation other than that which the common understanding places upon it.[12] Again the constitutional specification of courts which may exercise judicial power operates as a limitation.[13] Otherwise, however, where other sections provide for other courts.[14] So if a court is distinctly designated by name in the constitution, another court, not within that constitutional name and intent, cannot be held to be included.[15]

(II) Appellate and Intermediate Appellate Courts. Where a court is by the constitution placed at the head of the judicial system of a state, there being no appeal from its judgments to any other state tribunal, the legislature cannot interfere with its existence or supremacy, nor can that body alter the nature of its jurisdiction and duties, nor create a court of coördinate final jurisdiction, for no statute can in such case deprive the court of last resort of its rank

Texas.— Ex p. Hart, 41 Tex. Crim. 581, 56 S. W. 341.

Virginia.— Foster v. Jones, 79 Va. 642, 52 Am. Rep. 637.

Washington.—State v. Rusk, 15 Wash. 403, 46 Pac. 387; In re Cloherty, 2 Wash. 137, 27 Pac. 1064.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 180 et seq.

8. People v. Porter, 90 N. Y. 68; Lanning v. Carpenter, 20 N. Y. 447.

9. Alabama.— Perkins v. Corbin, 45 Ala. 103, 6 Am. Rep. 698.

Arkansas.— Patterson v. Temple, 27 Ark. 202; Ex p. Jones, 2 Ark. 93.

California.—People v. Burns, 121 Cal. 529, 53 Pac. 1096; In re Mitchell, 120 Cal. 384, 52 Pac. 799 (justices of the peace are part of the constitutional judiciary of the state); Zander v. Coe, 5 Cal. 230; Hicks v. Bell, 3 Cal. 219.

Colorado.— In re Senate Bill No. 76, 9 Colo. 623, 21 Pac. 471.

Illinois.— Berkowitz v. Lester, 121 Ill. 99, 11 N. E. 860; In re Welsh, 17 Ill. 161.

Indiana.— State v. Friedley, 135 Ind. 119, 34 N. E. 872, 21 L. R. A. 634.

Michigan.— People v. Kent County Cir. Judge, 37 Mich. 472.

New Jersey.— Flanigan v. Guggenheim Smelting Co., 63 N. J. L. 647, 44 Atl. 762; Johnson v. State, 59 N. J. L. 271, 35 Atl. 787 [affirmed in 59 N. J. L. 535, 37 Atl. 949, 39 Atl. 646, 38 L. R. A. 373]; Schalk v. Wrightson, 58 N. J. L. 50, 32 Atl. 820.

New York.—Alexander v. Bennett, 60 N. Y. 204; People v. Howland, 17 N. Y. App. Div. 165, 45 N. Y. Suppl. 347; De Hart v. Hatch, 3 Hun 375.

North Carolina.— State v. Wilmington, etc., R. Co., 122 N. C. 877, 29 S. E. 334.

North Dakota.— McDermont v. Dinnie, 6 N. D. 278, 69 N. W. 294.

Ohio.— In re Judges Assignment, 34 Ohio St. 431.

Pennsylvania.—In re Bern Tp., 115 Pa. St. 615, 9 Atl. 62; Com. v. Green, 58 Pa. St. 226.

Wisconsin.— Smith v. Odell, 1 Pinn. 449.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 180.

10. Schalk v. Wrightson, 58 N. J. L. 50, 32 Atl. 820.

11. Alexander v. Bennett, 60 N. Y. 204.

12. It should not be hampered by judicial construction so as to make it impracticable or inoperative; that which is plainly expressed admits of no construction. People v. Wall, 88 Ill. 75.

13. Knickerbocker v. People, 102 Ill. 218; State v. Police Jury, 30 La. Ann. 287; Smith v. Odell, 1 Pinn. (Wis.) 449.

14. State v. Police Jury, 30 La. Ann. 287.

15. People v. Rucker, 5 Colo. 455, declaring also that the fact that the power to establish a particular court is vested by the constitution in the legislature does not support the contention that such court is not "provided for," that is, created and established by the constitution. See also Ex p. White, 5 Colo. 521.

as the highest and ultimate judicial power; but where the constitution expressly or impliedly so permits, or where its judgment is subject to review by the court of dernier ressort, or where its jurisdiction is so limited that it cannot equal that of the highest court, an intermediate appellate court may be created having even final jurisdiction, where the constitution is not exclusive in respect to supreme courts as courts of last resort.[16]

d. Power of Congress Over State Courts. Congress cannot confer judicial power upon state courts[17] nor enlarge their jurisdiction.[18]

3. Delegation to Legislature of Power and Its Exercise — a. Governing Principles. If the organic law evidences an intent to delegate to the legislature the power to create, establish, organize, or reorganize courts, to regulate their jurisdiction, or to otherwise legislate concerning them, that body may so do, subject to whatever restrictions or limitations are imposed. A statute, however, which is wholly unconstitutional cannot be upheld and confers no authority or jurisdiction whatsoever upon any court or judicial body as to any matters upon which it is attempted therein to legislate. The terms in which the constitutions so doing have delegated to the people or legislative body the above-mentioned power are various, being both general and specific, and these include by necessary implication the exercise of such authority as is essential to effectuate the purposes intended.[19] But whether the constitutional delegation of power be general or specific, restrictive or otherwise, inclusive or exclusive, or discretionary and not exclusive, or whatever be the nature thereof, its exercise must be governed by the organic law granting or conferring the right. These principles are fundamental; they run through all the decisions and govern statutes relating to inferior courts in general,[20] county and probate courts,[21] municipal and police courts,[22] charter

16. Colorado. — People v. Richmond, 16 Colo. 274, 26 Pac. 929; In re Court of Appeal, 15 Colo. 578, 26 Pac. 214.

Illinois.— Berkenfield v. People, 191 Ill. 272, 61 N. E. 96.

Indiana.— Branson v. Studabaker, 133 Ind. 147, 33 N. E. 98.

Louisiana.— State v. Jones, 8 Rob. 573.

Missouri.— State v. Vallins, 140 Mo. 523, 41 S. W. 887.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 180.

17. Ex p. Knowles, 5 Cal. 300.

Rule applies to suits arising on penal laws of the United States. Davison v. Champlin, 7 Conn. 244; Ely v. Peck, 7 Conn. 239.

As to revenue stamps see Lewis v. Randall, 30 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 378; German Liederkranz v. Schiemann, 25 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 388.

18. U. S. v. Campbell, Tapp. (Ohio) 61.

19. Powers essential to functions granted may be expressly granted by the statute. Barrett v. Jackson, 38 Ga. 181. But the legislative authority to grant such essential powers may arise by implication under the constitutional authorization to create courts. People v. Wall, 88 Ill. 75.

20. Alabama.— Sanders v. State, 55 Ala. 42.

California.— People v. Toal, (1890) 23 Pac. 203.

Delaware.— Morrow v. State, 2 Marv. 4, 37 Atl. 43.

Florida.— Ex p. Cox, (1902) 33 So. 509.

Indiana.— Woods v. McCay, 144 Ind. 316, 43 N. E. 269, 33 L. R. A. 97; Smith v. Smith, 77 Ind. 80.

Iowa.— Page v. Millerton, 114 Iowa 378, 86 N. W. 440.

Kansas.— Morris v. Bunyan, 58 Kan. 210, 48 Pac. 864.

Louisiana.— State v. Anderson, 29 La. Ann. 774; State v. Judge Seventh Dist. Ct., 22 La. Ann. 565; State v. Jones, 8 Rob. 573.

Mississippi.—Hughes v. State, 79 Miss. 77, 29 So. 786.

Missouri.— Bailey v. Winn, 113 Mo. 155, 20 So. 21.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 166.

21. Alabama.— Craft v. Simon, 118 Ala. 625, 24 So. 380; Balkum v. State, 40 Ala. 671.

Arkansas.— Patterson v. Temple, 27 Ark. 202.

Florida.— Ex p. Pitts, 35 Fla. 149, 17 So. 76.

Illinois.— People v. Opel, 188 Ill. 194, 58 N. E. 996.

Kansas.— Atchison, etc., R. Co. v. Rice, 36 Kan. 593, 14 Pac. 229.

Pennsylvania.— Com. v. Green, 58 Pa. St. 226.

Wisconsin.— American L. & T. Co. v. Bond, 91 Wis. 204, 64 N. W. 854; Lannon v. Hackett, 49 Wis. 261, 5 N. W. 474; State v. La Crosse County Ct. Judge, 11 Wis. 50.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 167.

22. Alabama.— Nugent v. State, 18 Ala. 521.

California.— Ex p. Mauch, 134 Cal. 500, 66 Pac. 734; In re Lloyd, 78 Cal. 421, 20 Pac. 872; Uridias v. Morrill, 22 Cal. 473; Meyer v. Kalkmann, 6 Cal. 582.

Colorado.— Ingols v. Plimpton, 10 Colo. 535, 16 Pac. 155; Darrow v. People, 8 Colo. 417, 8 Pac. 661.

provisions relating to such courts,[23] courts of equity or chancery in general,[24] special courts[25] or tribunals,[26] commissions,[27] the creation of courts of either exclusive[28] or concurrent jurisdiction[29] or both,[30] changing the status of courts,[31] acts in derogation of constitutional provisions as to appeals,[32] appellate jurisdiction of particular courts,[33] and statutes providing or failing to provide for judges[34] or prescribing or regulating the mode of procedure.[35]

b. Extent of Authority Conferred — (i) In General. Where the constitution expressly or by necessary and lawful implication so permits the legislature may divide the state into judicial districts; alter the same and their boundaries;[36] increase or diminish the number thereof;[37] detach and attach counties or districts;[38] create courts and invest them with such jurisdiction as seems necessary and proper, and separate the judicial powers of the state, so as to adapt them to Georgia.— Heard v. State, 113 Ga. 444, 39 S. E. 118, city court.

Illinois.— Reid v. Morton, 119 Ill. 118, 6 N. E. 414; People v. Evans, 18 Ill. 361; People v. Wilson, 15 Ill. 388.

Iowa.— Davis v. Woolnough, 9 Iowa 104.

Kansas.— Chesney v. McClintock, 61 Kan. 94, 58 Pac. 993; State v. Young, 3 Kan. 445; Malone v. Murphy, 2 Kan. 250.

Kentucky.— Tesh v. Com., 4 Dana 522; Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Adams, 10 S. W. 425, 10 Ky. L. Rep. 713; Digby v. Newport City Ct., 8 Ky. L. Rep. 144.

Michigan.— Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Nester, 63 Mich. 657, 30 N. W. 315; People v. Treasurer, 36 Mich. 332.

Mississippi. — Thomas v. State, 5 How. 20.

New York.— International Bank v. Bradley, 19 N. Y. 245; Sill v. Corning, 15 N. Y. 297; Beaudrias v. Hogan, 16 N. Y. App. Div. 38, 44 N. Y. Suppl. 785; Pierson v. Fries, 3 N. Y. App. Div. 418, 38 N. Y. Suppl. 765; People v. Dutcher, 4 Thomps. & C. 391.

North Carolina.— Washington v. Hammond, 76 N. C. 33.

Pennsylvania.— In re Cahill, 110 Pa. St. 167, 20 Atl. 414; Com. v. Conyngham, 65 Pa. St. 76, 3 Brewst. 214.

South Carolina.— State v. Fillebrown, 2 S. C. 404.

Texas.— Corey v. State, 28 Tex. App. 490, 13 S. W. 778.

Virginia.— In re Richmond Mayoralty Case, 19 Gratt. 673.

Washington.— In re Cloherty, 2 Wash. 137, 27 Pac. 1064.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 168.

23. People v. Sands, (Cal. 1894) 35 Pac. 330; Ex p. Reilly, 85 Cal. 632, 24 Pac. 807; People v. Toal, 85 Cal. 333, 24 Pac. 603, 23 Pac. 203; In re Ah You, 82 Cal. 339, 22 Pac. 929; Malone v. Murphy, 2 Kan. 250; Worthington v. London Guarantee, etc., Co., 164 N. Y. 81, 58 N. E. 102, 31 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 274.

24. State v. Fairchild, 15 Ark. 619; Houston v. Royston, 7 How. (Miss.) 543.

25. Rabe v. Fyler, 10 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 440, 48 Am. Dec. 763; State v. Cooper, 2 Yerg. (Tenn.) 599, 24 Am. Dec. 517.

26. Ex p. Wells, 21 Fla. 280; Meagher v. Storey County, 5 Nev. 244.

Board to try election contests.— Pratt v. Breckinridge, 65 S. W. 136, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1356.

Court of mediation and arbitration.— Renand v. State Ct., 124 Mich. 648, 83 N. W. 620, 83 Am. St. Rep. 346, 51 L. R. A. 458.

27. Case v. Dean, 16 Mich. 12; Warren v. First Div. St. Paul, etc., R. Co., 18 Minn. 384; Henderson v. Beaton, 52 Tex. 29; Forest County v. Langlade County, 76 Wis. 605, 45 N. W. 598.

28. State v. Archibald, 52 Ohio St. 1, 38 N. E. 314; Ex p. Wilbarger, 41 Tex. Crim. 514, 55 S. W. 968; Lannon v. Hackett, 49 Wis. 261, 5 N. W. 474.

29. Reid v. Morton, 119 Ill. 118, 6 N. E. 414; Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Nester, 63 Mich. 657, 30 N. W. 315; Rhyne v. Lipscombe, 122 N. C. 650, 29 S. E. 57; Ex p. Hart, 41 Tex. Crim. 581, 56 S. W. 341; Ex p. Welbarger, 41 Tex. Crim. 514, 55 S. W. 968.

30. Coombs v. State, (Tex. Crim. 1898) 44 S. W. 854.

31. State v. Wilmington, etc., R. Co., 122 N. C. 877, 29 S. E. 334.

32. State v. Ray, 122 N. C. 1097, 29 S. E. 61.

33. Morrow v. State, 2 Marv. (Del.) 4, 37 Atl. 43.

34. People v. Wall, 88 Ill. 75; Com. v. Swank, 79 Pa. St. 154.

35. Purcell v. Riverside, 1 Ohio Cir. Dec. 648.

36. California. — People v. Sassovich, 29 Cal. 480.

Illinois.— Davison v. People, 90 Ill. 221; People v. Wall, 88 Ill. 75.

Louisiana.— State v. Williams, 29 La. Ann. 779; State v. Anderson, 29 La. Ann. 774.

Mississippi.—Alfred v. State, 37 Miss. 296.

Nevada.— State v. Atherton, 19 Nev. 332, 10 Pac. 901.

Ohio.— State v. Jacobi, 52 Ohio St. 66, 39 N. E. 317.

Washington.— State v. Rusk, 15 Wash. 403, 46 Pac. 387.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 180.

37. State v. Atherton, 19 Nev. 332, 10 Pac. 901; State v. Kinkead, 14 Nev. 117.

38. Kansas.—In re Schurman, 40 Kan. 533, 20 Pac. 277; In re Wells, 36 Kan. 341, 13 Pac. 548; Pelham v. Finney County, 36 Kan. 101, 12 Pac. 557; State v. Ruth, 21 Kan. 583.

Minnesota.— State v. Wilcox, 24 Minn. 143.

Missouri.— State v. Laughlin, 75 Mo. 147.

its growth and change of circumstances;[39] create separate judicial districts;[40] create and limit the duration of judicial circuits;[41] establish new, additional, other, or independent courts,[42] even though additional courts are not specified in the constitution;[43] abolish and reorganize existing courts;[44] transfer undetermined causes;[45] abolish courts and designate other places than county-seats for holding the same;[46] abolish inferior courts and confer their jurisdiction upon a higher court;[47] determine whether the necessity exists for certain judicial circuits;[48] and limit the jurisdiction of the supreme court on appeal to the review of questions of law.[49]

(II) Over Particular Courts and Their Jurisdiction—(A) Governing Rules. The legislature may, when acting within the constitutional limitations over its power, confer or impose additional authority on courts,[50] limit jurisdic-

Nebraska.— Behr v. Willard, 11 Nebr. 601, 10 N. W. 525.

New York.—Rumsey v. People, 19 N. Y. 41.

Tennessee.— McCully v. State, 102 Tenn. 509, 53 S. W. 134, 46 L. R. A. 567.

Virginia.— Foster v. Jones, 79 Va. 642, 52 Am. Rep. 637.

Wyoming.— White v. Hinton, 3 Wyo. 753, 30 Pac. 953, 17 L. R. A. 66.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 178.

After the exercise of the power to redistrict the state, the legislature cannot thereafter make any changes before the expiration of the time limit specified in the constitution. Clerk Whitley County Ct. v. Lester, 46 S. W. 694, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 481.

39. Com. v. Hipple, 69 Pa. St. 9.

40. Com. v. Judges, 6 L. T. N. S. (Pa.) 223.

The specific inclusion of a particular county in creating a judicial district excludes any other county. State v. Blasdel, 6 Nev. 40.

41. Carpenter v. State, 72 Ind. 331.

42. Ex p. Jordan, 62 Cal. 464; Ex p. Lee, 1 Minn. 60; Hughes v. State, 79 Miss. 77, 29 So. 786; In re Cahill, 110 Pa. St. 167, 29 Atl. 414.

A statute is equivalent to a repeal which creates a new court with new duties and powers, but at the same time embraces all the duties and powers theretofore exercised by an inferior tribunal. Ex p. Lee, 1 Minn. 60.

43. Com. v. Hipple, 69 Pa. St. 9.

The constitution sanctions and validates the practice, where it is adopted after a decision of the supreme court that a county might lawfully be divided into districts, and it fails to prohibit or restrict said practice. Lindsley v. Coahoma County, 69 Miss. 815, 11 So. 336.

44. Kilpatrick v. Com., 31 Pa. St. 198; State v. Lindsay, 103 Tenn. 625, 53 S. W. 950. See also State v. Wright, 7 Ohio St. 333.

45. Indiana.— Davidson v. Koehler, 76 Ind. 398.

Kansas.— Hentig v. Redden, 1 Kan. App. 163, 41 Pac. 1054, transfer from supreme court to court of appeals.

Maryland.— Brown v. Gilmor, 8 Md. 322.

Mississippi.— Marble v. Whaley, 35 Miss. 527.

Missouri.— Graham v. O'Fallon 3 Mo. 507, to county from probate court.

North Carolina.— Patton v. Shipman, 81 N. C. 347.

Ohio.— Purcell v. Riverside, 1 Ohio Cir. Dec. 648.

South Carolina.— Norris v. Clinkscales, 59 S. C. 232, 37 S. E. 821, transfer to a new county.

Virginia.— Cowan v. Fulton, 23 Gratt. 579.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 186.

Cases pending in one court of appeals may be transferred to another court to be there heard as by an appellate court. Cowan v. Fulton, 23 Gratt. (Va.) 579.

46. Milner v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 77 Iowa 755, 42 N. W. 567.

Courts may be abolished by the same power which creates them, and this rule applies to courts which derive their existence from legislative enactment under constitutional permission. Perkins v. Corbin, 45 Ala. 103, 6 Am. Rep. 698.

47. Kavanaugh v. State Bank, 21 Ala. 564; Johnson v. State, 59 N. J. L. 535, 37 Atl. 949, 39 Atl. 646, 38 L. R. A. 373; Kenny v. Hudspeth, 59 N. J. L. 320, 36 Atl. 662; McCully v. State, 102 Tenn. 509, 53 S. W. 134, 46 L. R. A. 567.

48. State v. Daniels, 66 Mo. 192.

49. McElwee v. McElwee, 97 Tenn. 649, 37 S. W. 560.

50. Alabama.— Richardson v. Cleaveland, 5 Port. 251.

Arkansas.— Oliver v. Martin, 36 Ark. 134; Price v. State, 22 Ark. 335.

Georgia.— Davis v. Harper, 54 Ga. 180.

Illinois.— Broadwell v. People, 76 Ill. 554; Lansing v. Hunter, 25 Ill. 247.

Kentucky.— Tudder v. Warren, 6 J. J. Marsh. 93.

Louisiana.— Ledoux v. Ducote, 24 La. Ann. 181; State v. Judge Sixth Judicial Dist., 12 La. Ann. 405.

Mississippi.— Hunt v. Potter, 58 Miss. 96.

Missouri.— State v. Brown, 71 Mo. 454.

New York.— Sale v. Lawson, 4 Sandf. 718; Sweet v. Flannagan, 61 How. Pr. 327.

South Carolina.— Pringle v. Carter, 1 Hill 53.

Tennessee.— Duggan v. McKinney, 7 Yerg. 21.

Texas.— Franks v. Chapman, 61 Tex. 576; Mora v. State, 9 Tex. App. 406; Kaufman County v. McGaughey, 11 Tex. Civ. App. 551, 33 S. W. 1020; Gulf, etc., R. Co. v. Tacquard, 3 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 141.

tion or provide that it shall be exclusive,[51] confer extraterritorial jurisdiction,[52] authorize suits against non-residents,[53] and provide for the revival of actions where a party dies during the pendency thereof.[54] The legislative exercise of power must not, however, encroach upon the constitutional authority of courts. This rule applies to the power to take jurisdiction from one court and vest it in another,[55] to divesting courts of jurisdiction,[56] and to the power to convert local courts into courts of general jurisdiction.[57]

(B) Courts of Appellate Jurisdiction. The legislative power with respect to an appellate court depends upon the exclusive character of the revising power with which the court is vested by the constitution, and upon the factor whether such court is placed at the head of the judiciary system of the state as a court of last resort, or is an intermediate appellate court with or without final jurisdiction,[58] or a court with both original and appellate jurisdiction. The nature of the court, the character of the jurisdiction conferred, and the terms of the constitution of each state must therefore determine the extent of the legislative power in reference to such courts. It also becomes a question of construction in most cases whether or not a statute which attempts to confer jurisdiction upon other courts infringes upon the constitutional powers of courts of appellate jurisdiction, and the test is the constitutional and statutory intent.[59]

(C) County and Probate Courts. Where the constitution does not so permit, county courts cannot be created with a jurisdiction coextensive within the county

Wisconsin.— State v. McArthur, 13 Wis. 383; Second Ward Bank v. Upmann, 12 Wis. 499.

United States.— U. S. v. Union Pac. R. Co., 98 U. S. 569, 25 L. ed. 143.

Additional power is not conferred where the statute is unconstitutional or legislative power is exceeded.— Alabama.— Foster v. Glazener, 27 Ala. 391.

Arkansas.— Ex p. Batesville, etc., R. Co., 39 Ark. 82.

Illinois.— Weatherford v. People, 67 Ill. 520.

Maryland.— State v. Mace, 5 Md. 337.

Michigan.— Quinlon v. Rogers, 12 Mich. 168; Waldby v. Callendar, 8 Mich. 430.

New Jersey.— Flanagan v. Plainfield, 44 N. J. L. 118.

New York.— Rall v. Buckhout, 2 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 442; Lenhard v. Lynch, 62 How. Pr. 56; Griffin v. Griffith, 6 How. Pr. 428.

North Carolina.— Wilmington v. Davis, 63 N. C. 582.

Texas.— Sun Vapor Electric Light Co. v. Keenan, 88 Tex. 197, 30 S. W. 868; Leach v. State, 36 Tex. Crim. 248, 36 S. W. 471.

51. Comstock v. Matthews, 55 Minn. 111, 56 N. W. 583; Higgins v. Beveridge, 35 Minn. 285, 28 N. W. 506; Burke v. St. Paul, etc., R. Co., 35 Minn. 172, 28 N. W. 190; Agin v. Heyward, 6 Minn. 110; State v. Brown, 71 Mo. 454; In re Beavins, 33 N. H. 89.

The legislature cannot withdraw and vest in the jury a part of the judicial power of circuit courts to determine actions, although it may perhaps withdraw from such courts a particular class of equitable actions, such as foreclosure suits. Callanan v. Judd, 23 Wis. 343.

52. State v. McArthur, 13 Wis. 383, holding that legislative power to "vest such jurisdiction as may be deemed necessary" does not prohibit vesting extraterritorial jurisdiction on the inferior local court contemplated by such constitutional provision.

When legislative power is restricted as to vesting extraterritorial jurisdiction see People v. Evans, 18 Ill. 361; In re Buffalo, 139 N. Y. 422, 34 N. E. 1103 [affirming 18 N. Y. Suppl. 771]; Connors v. Gorey, 32 Wis. 518.

53. Elliott v. Farwell, 44 Mich. 186, 6 N. W. 234, where service is made within the jurisdiction. Contra, where jurisdiction depends upon residence, and the constitution limits the jurisdiction. Grand Rapids, etc., R. Co. v. Gray, 38 Mich. 461.

54. Wade v. Bridges, 24 Ark. 569.

55. Ex p. Kennedy, 11 Ark. 598; Zander v. Coe, 5 Cal. 230; Broadwell v. People, 76 Ill. 554; Pittsburg, etc., R. Co. v. Hurd, 17 Ohio St. 144.

56. State v. Moore, 19 Ala. 514.

When statute held not to operate to divest jurisdiction within this rule see Deere v. Council Bluffs, 86 Iowa 591, 53 N. W. 344; Sterritt v. Robinson, 17 Iowa 61; Jordan v. Moses, 10 S. C. 431; Murfree v. Leeper, 1 Overt. (Tenn.) 1. See also Reeves v. Brown, 2 Pa. L. J. Rep. 196, 3 Pa. L. J. 464.

57. Landers v. Staten Island R. Co., 53 N. Y. 450, 13 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 338.

58. See supra, III, A, 2, c, (II).

59. Although the exclusive revising power cannot be divested (Byrd v. Brown, 5 Ark. 709; Haight v. Gay, 8 Cal. 297, 68 Am. Dec. 323; Hazen v. Com., 23 Pa. St. 355), jurisdiction be limited (Com. v. Allegheny County Com'rs, 37 Pa. St. 237; Hazen v. Com., 23 Pa. St. 355), the general jurisdiction conferred under the former constitution upon the supreme court of New York be abridged or limited by statute with or without the consent of such court (De Hart v. Hatch, 3 Hun (N. Y.) 375, 6 Thomps. & C. (N. Y.) 186), nor a supreme court, whose powers are defined and limited by the constitution, be deprived with that of a constitutional circuit court.[60] A court may, however, be established with exclnsive jurisdictiou in specified matters, and as to such matters it will supersede another court, where it is evident that it was intended that there should not be concurrent jurisdiction between the two courts in the same county.[61] And the legislature may relieve the probate court of matters not interfering with its general jurisdiction, and invest the power as to such matters in another court, and so even though the first mentioned court is created by the constitution, but not with exclusive jurisdiction.[62] So more than one judicial district in a county may be created, and two district courts may be authorized to sit at one place, the county-seat, where the constitution does not show an intention to forbid the same.[63] Again the legislature may diminish or change the jurisdiction of county courts,[64] or of courts created by statute when proper provision is made for pending causes;[65] confer additional power on probate courts;[66] authorize such courts to

of appellate jurisdiction, nor invested with original jurisdiction (Vail v. Dinning, 44 Mo. 210), still the power to restrict is limited only by the constitution (Stewart v. Stewart, 2 T. B. Mon. (Ky.) 85), and the legislature may restrict the appellate jurisdiction of the supreme court within this rule (Lampson v. Platt, 1 Iowa 556). So the right to appeal may be limited as to the amount involved, as this simply limits the exercise of appellate jurisdiction and does not oust the appellate court of power to review by certiorari (Tierney v. Dodge, 9 Minn. 166), the right to certiorari may be limited as to the amount involved, and this does not limit supervisory jurisdiction (Wilson v. West Virginia Cent., etc., R. Co., 38 W. Va. 212, 18 S. E. 577), the right to hear appeals in special cases may be conferred where the powers of the revising court are left untrammeled (State v. Northern Cent. R. Co., 18 Md. 193), and other concurrent jurisdiction may be conferred on other courts (Burns v. Henderson, 20 Ill. 264). So the mode of taking appeals may be prescribed (Haight v. Gay, 8 Cal. 297, 68 Am. Dec. 323), and the power to review its own decrees may be conferred (Longworth v. Sturges, 4 Ohio St. 690). So the statute may provide that the supreme court shall reëxamine cases upon questions of law only (Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Fisher, 141 Ill. 614, 31 N. E. 406), and the fact that another court's decision is final under a statute does not make the act unconstitutional (State v. Le Burgeois, 45 La. Ann. 249, 12 So. 360), nor is a statute invalid which makes the decision of a circuit court of appellate jurisdiction final on appeal (Dismukes v. Stokes, 41 Miss. 430), and the right of appeal may be conferred on another court where it does not violate a constitutional provision by increasing the jurisdiction of such other court (Harris v. Vanderveer, 21 N. J. Eq. 424. See Jones v. Jones, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 200), nor deprive the supreme court of the right of review (Overseers of Poor v. Smith, 2 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 363). Again it has been held that the jurisdiction of an appellate court conferred by the constitution cannot be enlarged, although it may be regulated and restricted by legislative enactment. State v. Jones, 22 Ark. 331. But a reference which can only be granted by consent does not interfere with nor diminish the jurisdiction of the supreme court. Newark Pass. R. Co. v. Kelly, 57 N. J. L. 655, 32 Atl. 223. So a statute providing for maintaining actions against foreign corporations does not restrict the constitutional jurisdiction of the supreme court. Ladenburg v. Commercial Bank, 87 Hun (N. Y.) 269, 33 N. Y. Suppl. 821 [reversing 32 N. Y. Suppl. 873]. And the supreme court may be given exclusive cognizance of all actions against the mayor, aldermen, etc. Bretz v. New York, 6 Rob. (N. Y.) 325, 4 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 258, 35 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 130 [reversing 3 Abb. Pr. N. S. 478]. Again merely declaring the decision of an inferior tribunal final and conclusive is not sufficiently express language to deprive the supreme court of jurisdiction. State v. Falkinburge, 15 N. J. L. 320.

A statute does not transfer jurisdiction in quo warranto from a supreme to a circuit court so as to be unconstitutional, where it provides that county courts "shall pronounce judgment whenever the incumbent or any contestant was duly elected, and the person so declared elected will be entitled to his certificate on qualification." Conger v. Convery, 52 N. J. L. 417, 442, 20 Atl. 166 [affirmed in 53 N. J. L. 658, 24 Atl. 1002]. See also O'Brien v. Benny, 58 N. J. L. 189, 33 Atl. 380.

60. State v. La Crosse County Ct. Judge, 11 Wis. 50.

61. Klokke v. Dodge, 103 Ill. 125. See also Gassenheimer v. District of Columbia, 6 App. Cas. (D. C.) 108.

62. State v. Archibald, 52 Ohio St. 1, 38 N. E. 314.

63. Lytle v. Halff, 75 Tex. 128, 12 S. W. 610.

64. Blair v. Blanton, (Tex. Civ. App. 1899) 54 S. W. 321.

65. Citizens St. R. Co. v. Haugh, 142 Ind. 254, 41 N. E. 533.

66. New Orleans, etc., R. Co. v. Southern, etc., Tel. Co., 53 Ala. 211; In re Johnson, 12 Kan. 102; Kirkpatrick v. State, 5 Kan. 673; State v. Wilcox, 24 Minn. 143; Servis v. Beatty, 32 Miss. 52; McCullom v. Box, 8 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 619.

When grant of appellate jurisdiction void grant divorces;[67] and vest them with jurisdiction of proceedings in aid of execution,[68] although these courts cannot, contrary to the organic law, be invested with jurisdiction in chancery and at common law.[69]

(D) Municipal and Police Courts. No power may exist to repeal a city charter establishing a city court;[70] but city courts may be created by carving out of other courts the necessary power therefor.[71] So courts may be established under one section of a constitution which are independent of those erected under another section thereof;[72] and a court within municipal limits may be given jurisdiction over offenses arising therein, even though a general court has jurisdiction in common over the same offenses.[73] It has also been held that the legislature cannot, when it has no authority, invest municipal courts with jurisdiction, exclusive of or concurrent with the state courts, to try violations of penal laws.[74] And where it is the plain intent of a constitution that the powers and jurisdiction of city courts shall be uniform, they will not be continued in existence contrary to such requirement; and it is the duty of the legislature where it has the necessary authority to bring about such uniformity as soon as possible.[75] So where the constitution so provides inferior courts may be established in one city; nor need all such courts have the same organization and jurisdiction, but the several courts in cities having more than one must all be like those of their own class.[76] Again, where the power of the legislature under the constitution to create additional inferior courts is not an original, inherent one but is delegated within certain limitations, it cannot be redelegated, and inferior courts can be created only in accordance with express statutory provisions, and this rule applies to municipal or police courts.[77]

(E) Special and Temporary Courts and Commissions. In determining to what extent the power may be exercised to create, abolish, or otherwise affect special and temporary courts and commissions, recourse must be had to the constitution and the legislative enactment to which such bodies, or as in some cases the appointing or creating power, directly or indirectly owe their existence. The question is largely one of construction, dependent upon particular wordings of constitutions or statutes applying to such bodies or to the immediate appointing or creative power, and therefore each case must rest upon its own especial governing factors.[78] But generally it may be said that the legislature may abolish as to probate court see Moore v. Koubly, 1 Ida. 55.

When statute authorizing proceedings on guardian's bond void as to probate court see Handy v. Woodhouse, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 25 S. W. 40.

67. Kenyon v. Kenyon, 3 Utah 431, 24 Pac. 829; Whitmore v. Hardin, 3 Utah 121, 1 Pac. 465; Cast v. Cast, 1 Utah 112.

68. Young v. Ledrick, 14 Kan. 92.

69. Dewey v. Dyer, McCahon (Kan.) 77; Locknane v. Martin, McCahon (Kan.) 60; McCray v. Baker, 3 Wyo. 192, 18 Pac. 749; Perris v. Higley, 20 Wall. (U. S.) 375, 22 L. ed. 383.

70. Hetherington v. Bissell, 10 Iowa 145.

71. People v. Treasurer, 36 Mich. 332.

Jurisdiction taken from justices and conferred on police court as to offenses in a city. Perrott v. Pierce, 75 Mich. 578, 42 N. W. 1002.

72. Hughes v. State, 79 Miss. 77, 29 So. 786.

73. In re Pennsylvania Hall, 5 Pa. St. 204. See also State v. Foster, 105 La. 315, 29 So. 806; Ex p. Hart, 41 Tex. Crim. 581, 56 S. W. 341.

74. Coombs v. State, (Tex. Crim. 1898) 44 S. W. 854.

75. Frantz v. Fleitz, 85 Ill. 362.

76. Stow v. People, 25 Ill. 81.

77. In re Cloherty, 2 Wash. 137, 27 Pac. 1064.

78. Board of commissioners superseding court of claims.— Dotson v. Fitzpatrick, 66 S. W. 403, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 2042.

Commission of arbitration and award acts only by consent, and cannot render judgment, and its award should be entered as the judgment of the court to which it is returned, subject to examination for proper entry. Henderson v. Beaton, 52 Tex. 29.

Commissioners to assess damages in condemnation proceedings may be appointed by judge of county court, which court was substituted in place of abolished county commissioners' court. Shute v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 26 Ill. 436.

City recorder may be given powers like those of former supreme court commissioners and also powers of a justice of supreme court at chambers. Hayner v. James, 17 N. Y. 316. See further as to recorders Carrol v. Langan, 63 Hun (N. Y.) 380, 18 N. Y. Suppl.

special courts,[79] and transfer their jurisdiction[80] and the powers appertaining to them to commissioners.[81]

4. Effect of Exercise of Power — a. In General. A proper and lawful exercise of delegated legislative authority, or the direct exercise of constitutional power, will operate to abolish a court or not, according to the intent expressed or lawfully to be implied within the principles heretofore stated. This intent governs in determining the effect of the adoption of a new constitution, of the creation, alteration, and reorganization of new districts, circuits, or other judicial subdivisions, of the detaching, attaching, annexation, and consolidation of districts and the transfer of jurisdiction in general. Specifically, however, each law must be interpreted and applied in each individual case.[82]

b. With Relation to Time. The effect generally of specifying a time certain in the law creating, continuing, or abolishing a court is to fix a period governing the jurisdiction of the new, continued, or old court.[83] Where a constitution abolishes a court "from" a day certain, that day is excluded and a judgment of such court rendered on such day is valid.[84] A court is not, however, divested of all jurisdiction immediately after the date of an amendment of a constitution, where it is the evident intent thereof that such tribunal should remain in existence with jurisdiction over specified subjects until a certain subsequent date.[85] Again the provisions of the law may be such that the jurisdiction of the old court will continue until such time as is specified for the judge of the new court to 290; People v. Freund, 33 N. Y. Suppl. 612, 9 N. Y. Crim. 516; People v. Hulett, 15 N. Y. Suppl. 630.

"Court of claims" is not a "court" but a tribunal in the nature of a board of audit constitutionally created to inquire as to unfunded state debts. Ex p. Childs, 12 S. C. 111.

Jurisdiction ends and special court is dissolved when each separate case is ended which it is constituted to try. Warren v. African Baptist Church, 50 Miss. 223.

Special and inferior courts cannot set aside verdict and award another trial except where right is expressly given. Warren v. African Baptist Church, 50 Miss. 223.

79. State v. Smith, 65 N. C. 369; In re Pennsylvania Hall, 5 Pa. St. 204. See also Dotson v. Fitzpatrick, 66 S. W. 403, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 2042.

80. Opinion of Justices, 8 Gray (Mass.) 20; Dearborn v. Ames, 8 Gray (Mass.) 1.

81. Dotson v. Fitzpatrick, 66 S. W. 403, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 2042.

82. California.— Matter of Guerrero, 69 Cal. 88, 10 Pac. 261; People v. Provines, 34 Cal. 520.

Illinois.— People v. Aurora, 84 Ill. 157.

Kansas.— State v. Ruth, 21 Kan. 583.

Kentucky.— Drake v. Vaughan, 6 J. J. Marsh. 143.

Louisiana.— State v. Walsh, 32 La. Ann. 1234; Lafayette F. Ins. Co. v. Remmers, 29 La. Ann. 419. See also Harrison v. Hernsheim, 28 La. Ann. 881.

Minnesota.— State v. Wilcox, 24 Minn. 143.

New Hampshire.— Jenkins v. Sherburne, 56 N. H. 17.

New Jersey.— Rutgers v. New Brunswick, 42 N. J. L. 51.

New York.— People v. Wilcox, 22 Barb. 178 [affirmed in 14 N. Y. 575].

Ohio.— Talliaferro v. Porter, Wright 610.

Pennsylvania.— Com. v. Harding, 87 Pa. St. 343; Kilpatrick v. Com., 31 Pa. St. 198.

Tennessee.— State v. Cole, 13 Lea 367.

Texas.— Galbraith v. State, 33 Tex. Crim. 331, 26 S. W. 502; Long v. State, 1 Tex. App. 709; Daniel v. Hutcheson, 4 Tex. Civ. App. 239, 22 S. W. 278.

Wisconsin.— State v. Messmore, 14 Wis. 163.

United States.— Page v. Chillicothe, 6 Fed. 599.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 181.

83. McAllister v. Ball, 24 Ill. 149; Richards v. Morton, 18 Mich. 255; Lash v. Thomas, 86 N. C. 313.

Where the statute is silent as to the time of expiration a court remains in existence to superintend the execution of a judgment in a habeas corpus case, and there is still a tribunal to be reached by certiorari. Livingston v. Livingston, 24 Ga. 379.

84. Strickland v. Griffin, 70 Ga. 541.

Proceedings in the new court prior to the date of the statute taking effect are illegal. Ex p. Snyder, 64 Mo. 58. See also Downer v. Smith, 24 Cal. 114.

85. Fowler v. Thompson, 22 W. Va. 106.

Where the jurisdiction of a court is continued to a day certain, a cause standing in said court on the date of the amendment of the constitution is within its jurisdiction, even though a decree has been granted, it being unexecuted. Brandon v. Bingaman, 39 Miss. 505.

Where the time of the adoption of a statute is that evidently intended to govern as to certain courts then existing it will be so construed, even though the enactment was not to take effect until a stated future time. Milner v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 77 Iowa 755, 42 N. W. 567.

enter upon his duties,[86] or until the time specified for the organization of the new court, such tribunal being the successor of the old court, and so, even though the terms of its judges, so far as provided by law, may expire.[87]

c. As to Transfer of Causes of Action and Jurisdiction — (I) IN GENERAL. As a general rule causes of action may and will be transferred where they come within the terms of a constitution or constitutional statute providing therefor; otherwise not.[88] And it has been held that in the absence of a constitutional or statutory provision to the contrary causes pending in the abolished courts are transferred by operation of law to the new courts,[89] no certificate[90] or order transferring them being necessary.[91]

(II) AUTHORITY OF NEW OR SUPERSEDING COURT. If such is the intent of the law, the new court will obtain and may proceed to exercise jurisdiction over causes lawfully transferred, reference being necessarily had to the nature and status of the cause, to the character of the jurisdiction with which the new court

86. Edwards v. Newton County, 73 Mo. 636. See also Gillis v. Barnett, 38 Cal. 393; State v. Pratt, 23 La. Ann. 730; Opinion of Justices, 3 Gray (Mass.) 601; Mason v. Woerner, 18 Mo. 566.

87. Addams' Petition, 26 S. W. 182, 16 Ky. L. Rep. 45.

The expiration of existing terms of office of judges may govern the time when an annexed parish will become part of a judicial district. Lafayette F. Ins. Co. v. Remmers, 29 La. Ann. 419.

88. Causes transferable. — An action in which a verdict is recovered but no judgment entered (Foster v. Daniels, 39 Ga. 39), a suit to revive a contract of marriage (Starns v. Goodwyn, 43 La. Ann. 302, 8 So. 931), a suit commenced in the old court prior to the adoption of the constitution (Knox v. Gurnett, 28 La. Ann. 601), a suit brought in the old court (Moore v. Dunn, 50 Miss. 32), a suit not finally disposed of, and which comes within the final appellate jurisdiction of the new court under the statute (State v. Slevin, 16 Mo. App. 541), a cause in which judgment was vacated and new trial granted (Aldrich v. Wright, 57 N. H. 104), and an action is "pending" as long as judgment is unsatisfied (Wegman v. Childs, 41 N. Y. 159. See also Hyland v. Loomis, 3 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 223). So all suits are "pending" in which any judicial act remains to be had (O'Maley v. Reese, 1 Barb. (N. Y.) 643), and judgments previously rendered are included in "questions of law and suits in equity pending" (Johnson v. Sedberry, 65 N. C. 1). So a cause is pending where it rests upon exceptions to a master's report when the constitution was adopted (Kersey Oil Co. v. Oil Creek, etc., R. Co., 3 Wkly. Notes Cas. (Pa.) 288), and an award made upon a cause upon which judgment had not been entered is a case "remaining untried" (Preston v. Englert, 5 Binn. (Pa.) 390). So the court whose jurisdiction is superseded may order the transfer of causes pending at the time of the passage of the transferring statute. Sharpleigh v. Cooper, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 55.

Causes not transferable.— Suits in which judgments had been rendered are not within the clause "all causes now pending and on file" (La Chambre v. Cole, 30 La. Ann. 961), nor does "all suits and causes" depending apply to judgments then rendered (McMurray v. Hopper, 43 Pa. St. 468), nor is a suit "pending" so as to be transferable where final judgment is entered (Wegman v. Childs, 44 Barb. (N. Y.) 403 [reversed in 41 N. Y. 159]), and a statute making a district court exclusively a probate court does not operate to transfer successive cases pending in another court (State v. Judge New Orleans Second Dist. Ct., 20 La. Ann. 466), nor is the jurisdiction which a probate court has at the time of decedent's death divested by a transfer of jurisdiction, even though proceedings had not been instituted in the first court (Forstall v. Forstall, 4 La. 214). Again a case dismissed from the docket merely to relieve the same is "pending" within an exception that cases "pending" shall not be transferred (Darrow v. Darrow, 159 Mass. 262, 34 N. E. 270, 21 L. R. A. 100), nor does the conferring of concurrent jurisdiction on two courts operate to transfer a pending case from one to the other (Langmaid v. Reed, 159 Mass. 409, 34 N. E. 593. See also Baldwin v. Wilbraham, 140 Mass. 459, 4 N. E. 829), nor can the constitutional right of a party to have his action tried in a certain court be taken away by the legislature or the court without his consent (De Hart v. Hatch, 3 Hun (N. Y.) 375, 6 Thomps. & C. (N. Y.) 186). Again an act directing the transfer of pending causes does not authorize the transfer of an administration, on the application of the widow, as against the administrator (Wilson v. Catchings, 41 Tex. 587), nor of actions pending on cases stated and agreed upon by the parties transferred (Walbridge v. Hall, 3 Vt. 114), and courts will not be included which are not within the purview of the statute as to transfer of "pending and undetermined" suits (Knowlton v. Culver, 2 Pinn. (Wis.) 93, 1 Chandl. (Wis.) 25.

89. State v. Duffel, 32 La. Ann. 649.

Rule is also applied where a new county is created. Perkins v. Patten, 10 Ga. 241.

90. Easterlin v. State, (Fla. 1901) 31 So. 350.

91. Davis v. San Francisco Super. Ct., 63 Cal. 581; Millard v. Yee Teen, 63 Cal. 584.

is invested and of which the old court is divested, and to such other matters as are material and relevant.[92] This rule includes authority to hold the remainder of a term which was in session when the statute took effect;[93] the right to amend records relating to the judicial action of the superseded court;[94] and to try de novo a transferred cause.[95]

(III) Authority of Old or Superseded Court. An abolished court cannot sign a bill of exceptions,[96] try actions,[97] nor overrule exceptions so as to bind the new court.[98] If, however, the statute is not imperative in requiring the transfer of all causes the original court may continue to exercise jurisdiction over an action commenced therein.[99] So the circumstances of the case may justify the chancellor of the abolished court in appointing a receiver to hold and preserve property,[1] and a judge who has tried a cause may make and file a decision after

But see Stone v. Martin, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 87.

An enabling act is unnecessary to confer jurisdiction upon a constitutional court, where the state is reorganized. State v. Chambers, 45 La. Ann. 36, 11 So. 944.

92. Thus original jurisdiction may be conferred to reopen the final settlement of an estate. Heaton v. Knowlton, 65 Ind. 255. So an orphans' court of the new county has jurisdiction over all subsequent accounts of new trustees. Brown's Appeal, 12 Pa. St. 333. So jurisdiction of a minor's estate may be acquired and also power to appoint a guardian, accept his resignation, appoint his successor, and decree a sale of the minor's lands. McGale v. McGale, 18 R. I. 675, 29 Atl. 967. And a circuit court of a city may become vested with power to construe a will and direct the distribution of an estate. Orrick v. Boehm, 49 Md. 72. So proceedings may be continued and completed before the new court which were commenced in the abolished court. Polly v. Saratoga, etc., R. Co., 9 Barb. (N. Y.) 449. And a court of a new county obtains jurisdiction of a properly transferred cause, where the law so permits, although only one of defendants was a resident. Norris v. Clinkscales, 59 S. C. 232, 37 S. E. 821. So the new court may render judgment (Clark v. Sawyer, 48 Cal. 133; Kruse v. Wilson, 79 Ill. 233; Moore v. Dunn, 50 Miss. 32), enter decrees (U. S. v. Garcia, 25 Fed. Cas. No. 15,186, 1 Sawy. 383), revive a judgment (Scherrer v. Caneza, 33 La. Ann. 314) which is unsatisfied (Mitchell, etc., Furniture Co. v. Sampson, 40 Fed. 805), reëxamine the case on proper showing therefor (U. S. v. Garcia, 25 Fed. Cas. No. 15,186, 1 Sawy. 383), set aside a decree (Sherman v. Felt, 2 N. Y. 186, 3 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 425), and issue an execution on a legal judgment in the old court (Rutherford v. Crawford, 53 Ga. 138; Wegman v. Childs, 41 N. Y. 159 [reversing 44 Barb. 403]).

Where new court has no jurisdiction.— Where by abolishing a court and transferring its business an appeal is lost the new court cannot set aside a verdict and grant a new trial. Cummings v. White Mountains R. Co., 43 N. H. 114. And where an action was not pending in the circuit court when the constitution of New York of 1895 took effect, said court having been thereby abolished and the jurisdiction of all actions and proceedings pending having been vested in the supreme court, the special term has no power to order exceptions taken in the circuit court to be heard in the first instance in the general term, and the fact that the special term judge was the trial judge also is immaterial. Fifth Ave. Bank v. Forty-Second St., etc., R. Co., 6 N. Y. App. Div. 567, 40 N. Y. Suppl. 219.

93. Com. v. Skiffington, 14 Gray (Mass.) 381.

94. Forsyth County v. Blackburn, 68 N. C. 406.

95. State v. Mathews, 33 La. Ann. 103.

96. Reed v. Worland, 64 Ind. 216.

97. Brown v. Kimball, 4 Kan. 422.

98. Parker v. Shropshire, 26 La. Ann. 37.

99. Hosie v. McCann, 2 Pennyp. (Pa.) 133.

If the new court is vested with exclusive jurisdiction, there being no saving clause as to pending suits, the old court is without jurisdiction thereafter. State v. Lackey, 2 Ind. 285.

An inferior court may act in matters before it after the adoption of the constitution and until the appointment of the official to whom jurisdiction is transferred. Aycock v. Aven, 25 Ga. 694. So an original bill in chancery may be proceeded with as if the suit had not been abolished. Marble v. Whaley, 33 Miss. 157. And where no final decree has been rendered in equity it must be proceeded with in accordance with the practice of courts of equity existing when the constitution was adopted. Green v. Moore, 66 N. C. 425. So scire facias will lie after jurisdiction is transferred. In re Dougherty, 9 Watts & S. (Pa.) 189, 42 Am. Dec. 326. But contra, as to fieri facias. Strickland v. Griffin, 70 Ga. 541. The old court may render judgment on the day "from" which a constitution takes effect, but an execution thereafter issued is not valid. Strickland v. Griffin, 70 Ga. 541. It cannot, however, render judgment in a case pending when the constitution was adopted (Randall v. Kline, 44 Miss. 313), nor sign a judgment in an injunction suit after passage of the act transferring such suits (Hoyle v. New Orleans City R. Co., 23 La. Ann. 502), nor revive a judgment (Calhoun v. Levy, 33 La. Ann. 1296. But see McMurray v. Hopper, 43 Pa. St. 468).

1. In re Colvin, 3 Md. Ch. 278.

the county is attached to another district, even though he is not a judge thereof.[2]

(iv) Practice, Procedure, Process, and Defenses. If a court under a new constitution is a continuation of an established one, and no change is made in the practice or procedure therein, the former laws regulating the practice of the old courts will be in force;[3] and where the constitution provides for a transfer of causes to the superseding court to be proceeded with as though the old courts had not been abolished the legislature has the right to provide for and regulate the modes of procedure therein, and to prescribe what proceedings in regard thereto should be taken by the court and the parties in the specified cases.[4] But a statute relating to appeals from an order granting or refusing a new trial, and applicable to the new court to which probate matters are transferred by the constitution, governs instead of the statute which related to probate appeals in the old court.[5] Again a motion in the case is included when jurisdiction is legally transferred;[6] but a writ cannot be issued from a court not in existence, as where the statute appointing the court has not taken effect.[7] As to defenses it is a general rule that such as were available in the old court may be relied upon in the new where a cause of action has been lawfully transferred.[8]

d. Whether Court New or Continuation of Established Court. A new court is not created within a constitutional prohibition by a charter provision wherein certain courts are "continued, consolidated, and reorganized under one name, as 'The Municipal Court,'" etc., but such charter merely continues and reorganizes existing courts.[9] Nor is a new court created by merely dividing the territorial jurisdiction of an established court, where no provision of the constitution

2. Darelius v. Davis, 74 Minn. 345, 77 N. W. 214.

A division of a county, etc., will not oust attached jurisdiction (Lindsay v. McCormack, 2 A. K. Marsh. (Ky.) 229, 12 Am. Dec. 387; Champlin v. Bakewell, 21 La. Ann. 353; Patouillet v. Patouillet, 2 La. 270; Drury v. Midland R. Co., 127 Mass. 571) unless express prohibitory words are used in the statute (State v. St. Louis County Ct., 38 Mo. 402), nor where there is a saving clause (Drury v. Midland R. Co., 127 Mass. 571).

3. Ross v. Lafayette, etc., R. Co., 6 Ind. 297.

The law of the court to which a suit is transferred under an act of congress providing for such removal regulates the practice. Alexandria Canal Co. v. Swann, 5 How. (U. S.) 83, 12 L. ed. 60.

4. Purcell v. Riverside, 1 Ohio Cir. Dec. 648.

Number of petit jurors may properly be provided for. Parker v. People, 13 Colo. 155, 21 Pac. 1120, 4 L. R. A. 803.

Procedure for obtaining new official bonds may be prescribed and be made applicable to the new court. Hollingsworth v. State, 111 Ind. 289, 12 N. E. 490. See also Purcell v. Riverside, 1 Ohio Cir. Dec. 648.

Supplementary proceedings may be instituted and a receiver appointed by the superseding court. Wegman v. Childs, 41 N. Y. 159 [reversing 44 Barb. 403].

A constitutional provision requiring the proceedings, practice, jurisdiction, powers, etc., of all courts of the same grade so far as regulated by law, and the course and effect of process, judgments, and decrees of such courts severally to be uniform, will so operate even to the abrogation of special legislation to the contrary. People v. Rumsey, 64 Ill. 44.

5. In re Davis, 11 Mont. 1, 27 Pac. 342.

No appeal lies from the "county and probate courts" when such courts are amalgamated. Ex p. Sellers, Walk. (Miss.) 414.

A writ of error should be sued out in the division in which judgment was recovered. Goforth v. Adams, 11 Ill. 52.

6. Kavanaugh v. State Bank, 21 Ala. 564; Chipman v. Bowman, 14 Cal. 157.

7. Coleen v. Figgins, 1 Ill. 19.

The old court may issue process until an order of transfer is made. Stone v. Martin, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. 87. But see supra, III, A, 4, c, (III).

Process may be regular, although on the day of issuance no judges were in commission. Evans v. Webb, 4 Pa. L. J. 318.

8. Alexandria Canal Co. v. Swann, 5 How. (U. S.) 83, 12 L. ed. 60.

Legal and equitable remedies remain distinct, although transferred to one tribunal. Onderdonk v. Mott, 34 Barb. (N. Y.) 106. See also Westlake v. Farrow, 34 S. C. 270, 13 S. E. 469. But equitable defenses in an action at law and same relief may be availed of and had where chancery powers of old court are vested in a law court. Gates v. Smith, 2 Minn. 30. See also Campbell v. Montgomery, 1 Rob. (Va.) 392.

9. Worthington v. London Guarantee, etc., Co., 164 N. Y. 81, 58 N. E. 102, 31 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 274 [reversing 47 N. Y. App. Div. 609, 62 N. Y. Suppl. 591]. But see Matter of Schultes, 33 N. Y. App. Div. 524, 54 N. Y. Suppl. 34, holding such court a new court.

Courts may be continued under another name by the joint operation of a new constiimposes any limitation upon the legislative power in respect to making such division or appointing a place in each division for holding the court.[10] Again, even though the jurisdiction is somewhat different under a new constitution, a court may nevertheless be a continuation of an established court.[11] But where it is evident from the language of a new constitution that a new tribunal was not created, even though an additional judge was added, and that such court was not to be continued as before until the general assembly should elect an additional associate justice, it will be so construed.[12] And a new judge may be added by statute to an existing court without thereby creating a new court or constituting a legislative attempt to make the judges of an existing court judges of a new court.[13]

e. Divisions and Parts of Courts. The legislature in the absence of a constitutional limitation may divide the territorial jurisdiction of a county court, and appoint a place in each division for holding the same.[14] A constitutional provision, however, for "a superior court" means that there shall be one and only one tribunal of that name, even though it has by statute distinct sessions in several counties at stated times, separate county clerks, and separate records.[15] And where the constitution vests the power in the court and not in departments which are merely for convenience, the judges hold but one and the same court whether sitting separately or together, and causes may be assigned to one department, and transferred to another, even though irregularly done, so as to validate the latter's jurisdiction and subject its orders to review by certiorari.[16] So actions brought in such departments are in effect in the same court, and the judgments are rendered by the same tribunal. The rule therefore that the judgment of the court first acquiring jurisdiction will prevail over that of another court subsequently acquiring jurisdiction does not apply in such a case, nor does the reason for its exercise have any existence.[17] Although the various branches of a court constitute but one tribunal, still the proceedings in such branches must be separate and independent in so far as the trial of causes is concerned.[18] Again a grant is exclusive in accordance with its terms where it confers authority to sit in banc for a specified purpose, and for no other purpose whatever.[19] Beyond these general rules, however, the law in relation to divisions and parts of courts and of jurisdiction in connection therewith is peculiar to the particular constitution and statutes under which they exist.[20] tution and statute. People v. Aurora, 78 Ill. 218, common pleas continued as city courts.

10. Lowery v. State, 103 Ala. 50, 15 So. 641.

11. Ross v. Lafayette, etc., R. Co., 6 Ind. 297.

12. Middleton v. Taber, 46 S. C. 337, 24 S. E. 282; Land Mortg. Invest., etc., Co. v. Faulkner, 45 S. C. 503, 23 S. E. 516, 24 S. E. 288.

13. Ex p. Lloyd, 78 Cal. 421, 20 Pac. 872.

Spanish tribunals were not continued after the United States took possession of the territory and all suits had to be begun de novo in American courts. Dennis v. Durnford, 4 Mart. N. S. (La.) 32.

14. Lowery v. State, 103 Ala. 50, 15 So. 641.

15. Smith v. Hall, 71 Conn. 427, 42 Atl. 86. See Jackson v. State, 87 Md. 191, 39 Atl. 504; O'Keefe v. Moore, 60 N. J. L. 138, 37 Atl. 453.

As to division of superior court into a "criminal," a "civil," and an "equity department" and transfer and retransfer of case see State v. Lichtenberg, 4 Wash. 553, 30 Pac. 659.

16. White v. San Francisco Super. Ct., 110 Cal. 60, 42 Pac. 480. See also Wood v. Fithian, 24 N. J. L. 838.

But where courts have no authority or control over the clerks, dockets, or records of other courts, they are separate and distinct bodies. Goldsmith v. Kilbourn, 46 Md. 289.

17. Brown v. Campbell, 110 Cal. 644, 43 Pac. 12.

18. People v. Matson, 129 Ill. 591, 22 N. E. 456.

19. People v. Arapahoe County Dist. Ct., 14 Colo. 396, 24 Pac. 260.

20. The intent of the constitution will determine the power of judges to sit together or separately to hold court in each branch. Jones v. Albee, 70 Ill. 34. And a court has no power to peremptorily order the clerk to determine by lot to which of the two branches of a court a case on the docket should be transferred. Hindman v. Toney, 97 Ky. 413, 30 S. W. 1006, 17 Ky. L. Rep. 286. If the constitution does not prohibit, and the statute so provides, a judge of one branch of a court may upon request of a judge of another branch, hear and determine a cause pending in the latter, although one is a criminal and

B. Judges[21] and Constitutional and Legislative Powers Relating Thereto — 1. IN GENERAL. A court cannot be established until it has a judge, and unless the things required by the constitution for the existence of a court concur the court cannot exist.[22] The right to try the constitutional qualifications of one elected by the two houses of the legislature to a judgeship is a judicial and not a political question.[23] The establishment of a court is not the creation of a contract. Such establishment, however, originates the office, and the judicial power is lodged in the court and not in the magistrate.[24] If there is a constitutional delegation of power to the legislature to create inferior courts it may authorize any judicial officer to preside over them ex officio, even though judges of inferior courts are required to be elected by the people.[25] Again the legislature may provide for the appointment of a judge of a new judicial district,[26] and by limiting the extent of a circuit thereby limit the jurisdiction of its judges.[27] But the right of a county expressly given by the constitution not to have associate judges cannot be taken away by the attachment of one county to another;[28] nor can the legislature confer authority on judges to sit in matters contrary to those authorized by the constitution.[29] And where justices of the peace are part of the constitutional judiciary of the state, the determination by the legislature of their number in an incorporated city is not subject to the distinction between general and special laws.[30]

2. ABOLISHING OFFICE — a. Constitutional Power. If the constitution abolishes a court, the office of judge thereof does not exist either de facto or de jure after the day "from" which the constitution takes effect[31] or on the adoption of the constitution.[32] But in order that a constitutional provision shall operate to abolish the office of judge, such intent must appear from express language or by necessary implication.[33]

b. Legislative Acts and Authority — (i) IN GENERAL. Under a general constitutional delegation of power to the legislature, and in the absence of an express or implied limitation, it may abolish a court. If a court is abolished the office of judge thereof is abolished in the absence of such constitutional protection thereof, and within the same rule the law providing for salary may be repealed, and one the other a civil branch. Mengel v. Jackson, 94 Ky. 472, 22 S. W. 854, 15 Ky. L. Rep. 289. Again an assignment of the first of several identical suits will carry all the others to the same division of the court. State v. Judges Civil Dist. Ct., 47 La. Ann. 1601, 18 So. 632. And a case may be transferred to a division of a court other than that to which it was allotted, and it cannot be dismissed because improperly allotted, and such action is not necessarily divisible, its purpose being the payment of a legacy out of the assets of a solvent succession, although the proceedings attacked show it to be insolvent. Pironi v. Riley, 39 La. Ann. 302, 1 So. 675.

21. See, generally, JUDGES.

22. People v. Opel, 188 Ill. 194, 58 N. E. 996. See also Com. v. Swank, 79 Pa. St. 154.

23. State v. Porter, 1 Ala. 688.

24. Perkins v. Corbin, 45 Ala. 103, 6 Am. Rep. 698.

The official acts of a "county judge" are the acts of the "county court," the terms being identical. Lee County v. Nelson, 4 Greene (Iowa) 348.

25. Balkum v. State, 40 Ala. 671. See also Engeman v. State, 54 N. J. L. 247, 23 Atl. 676.

Effect of constitutional requirement for election of judges upon power of legislature see State v. Stingley, 10 Iowa 488; Com. v. Conyngham, 65 Pa. St. 76, 3 Brewst. (Pa.) 214; McCully v. State, 102 Tenn. 509, 53 S. W. 534, 46 L. R. A. 567; State v. Rusk, 15 Wash. 403, 46 Pac. 387.

Legislative acts as to population and judges see In re Mitchell, 120 Cal. 384, 54 Pac. 799 [followed in People v. Burns, 121 Cal. 529, 53 Pac. 1096]; People v. Opel, 188 Ill. 194, 58 N. E. 996; Field v. Silo, 44 N. J. L. 355; Com. v. Dumbauld, 97 Pa. St. 293.

Time of election of judges see People v. Opel, 188 Ill. 194, 58 N. E. 996; People v. Rose, 166 Ill. 422, 47 N. E. 64; Com. v. Handley, 106 Pa. St. 245.

26. In re Fourth Judicial Dist., 4 Wyo. 133, 32 Pac. 850.

27. State v. Laughlin, 75 Mo. 147.

28. Com. v. Dumbauld, 97 Pa. St. 293.

29. Worthen v. Badgett, 32 Ark. 496.

30. In re Mitchell, 120 Cal. 384, 52 Pac. 799.

31. Strickland v. Griffin, 70 Ga. 541.

32. Ex p. Bergman, 3 Wyo. 396, 26 Pac. 914.

33. Forbes v. State, (Del. 1898) 41 Atl. 1102.

who accepts a statutory office accepts it with such a condition.[34] So where the legislature under a legitimate exercise of its power abolishes courts, reorganizes them, detaches and attaches districts, circuits, or other judicial divisions, or transfers the jurisdiction of courts or the duties of judges, such enactment operates to vacate the judicial office, or the statute may expressly declare such office vacant and provide for a new judge or for the election thereof.[35] Again where the judge's office is abolished, and the appointment of new judges is provided for, there becomes attached to them the jurisdiction of the old ones.[36] But the legislature cannot interfere with a judicial office established by the constitution by changing the boundaries of circuits so as to nominally create one new one with a new judge, and so leave one of the old judges without a circuit.[37]

(II) During Term of Office. If the legislature has a constitutional delegation of power to alter or divide judicial districts, circuits, or counties, or to transfer their jurisdiction, or otherwise to abolish courts, such power is not restricted by the duration of the term of office of a judge being fixed by the constitution for a period extending beyond the time of such legislative action.[38] When a court is abolished there is no office to fill.[39] On the other hand it has been held that the legislature cannot abridge the constitutional term of the office of a judge by abolishing the court, nor add to, take from, or create new circuits before such constitutional term of office expires, since a judge cannot be removed except in the manner provided by the constitution.[40]

(III) Increasing or Limiting Number of Judges. The legislature may by a lawful and constitutional exercise of its power increase[41] or diminish the number of judges.[42]

C. Ministerial Officers — 1. In General. The legislature may create ministerial officers with power to perform ministerial duties necessary in the administration of the law.[43] Again if the constitution repeals the law under which the 34. Perkins v. Corbin, 45 Ala. 103, 6 Am. Rep. 698; Rutgers v. New Brunswick, 42 N. J. L. 51; State v. Wright, 7 Ohio St. 333. See also State v. Porter, 1 Ala. 688; Van Buren County v. Maddox, 30 Ark. 566.

35. Kansas.— Aikman v. Edwards, 55 Kan. 751, 42 Pac. 366, 30 L. R. A. 149.

Massachusetts.—Brien v. Com., 5 Metc. 508.

Mississippi.— Miazza v. State, 36 Miss. 613.

Missouri.— State v. Mann, 41 Mo. 395.

Tennessee.— State v. Lindsay, 103 Tenn. 625, 53 S. W. 950; McCully v. State, 102 Tenn. 509, 53 S. W. 134, 46 L. R. A. 567.

36. Russell v. Howe, 12 Gray (Mass.) 147. See also Baker v. Fernald, 12 Gray (Mass.) 154.

Where the duration of a judicial circuit ceases by lapse of time subsequent acts of a judge therein are void. Carpenter v. State, 72 Ind. 331.

37. People v. Bangs, 24 Ill. 184.

The legislature cannot abolish the office of judge created by the constitution. State v. Floyd, 9 Ark. 302.

38. Alabama.— Perkins v. Corbin, 45 Ala. 103, 6 Am. Rep. 698.

Arkansas.— Van Buren County v. Maddox, 30 Ark. 566.

Indiana.— Stocking v. State, 7 Ind. 326.

Kansas.— Aikman v. Edwards, 55 Kan. 751, 42 Pac. 366, 30 L. R. A. 149.

New Jersey.— Kenny v. Hudspeth, 59 N. J. L. 320, 36 Atl. 662.

Tennessee.— McCully v. State, 102 Tenn. 509, 53 S. W. 134, 46 L. R. A. 567.

39. Van Buren County v. Maddox, 30 Ark. 566.

40. State v. Friedley, 135 Ind. 119, 34 N. E. 872, 21 L. R. A. 634. See also State v. Bear, 135 Ind. 701, 34 N. E. 877; Clerk Whitley County Ct. v. Lester, 46 S. W. 694, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 481; Lafayette F. Ins. Co. v. Remmers, 29 La. Ann. 419.

As to a constitutional provision that during a term of office no judicial circuit shall be altered, etc., see Opinion of Judges, 55 Mo. 215; State v. Blasdel, 6 Nev. 40.

41. State v. Martin, 60 Ark. 343, 30 S. W. 421, 28 L. R. A. 153; In re Cahill, 110 Pa. St. 167, 20 Atl. 414; Kilpatrick v. Com., 31 Pa. St. 198. See also State v. Atherton, 19 Nev. 332, 10 Pac. 901; Field v. Silo, 44 N. J. L. 355.

A legislative act does not increase the number of justices of the peace contrary to a constitutional limitation thereof, where such statute creates a corporation court in each municipality and confers upon it the same criminal jurisdiction as possessed by said justices. Ex p. Wilbarger, 41 Tex. Crim. 514, 55 S. W. 968.

42. State v. Atherton, 19 Nev. 332, 10 Pac. 901; State v. Kinkead, 14 Nev. 117; State v. Holle, 64 N. J. L. 363, 48 Atl. 1118 [affirming 62 N. J. L. 533, 41 Atl. 832].

43. Smith v. Odell, 1 Pinn. (Wis.) 449.

Appointment of standing master need not be recorded to be valid. Seaman v. Northwestern Mut. L. Ins. Co., 86 Fed. 493, 30 C. C. A. 212.

appointment was made the appointment ceases.[44] And where the legislative power to establish, alter, or abolish courts exists, if such courts are abolished the terms of their officers are thereby terminated.[45] So there may be a substitution of officers,[46] and the court may call upon its officers to make correct and proper return of process.[47]

2. INTERPRETERS. The law may expressly provide for the appointment of an interpreter for designated courts or purposes,[48] although the right and duty of courts to employ and swear interpreters of foreign languages when necessary is conceded.[49] But the court is not bound to appoint a sworn interpreter, for if there be none any qualified person may act in that capacity.[50] Such officer cannot be removed without cause, under a law authorizing his appointment with a salary "during good behavior."[51]

3. STENOGRAPHERS — a. Appointment and Duties. Generally the appointment, duties, and qualifications of stenographers rest upon the law providing therefor, and the construction of the terms thereof, and this also governs the effect of their acts in relation to matters or proceedings in courts.[52] Such stenographer is an official of the court, and must act under its directions, and is subject to its control.[53]

"Public office" construed and distinguished, in a constitution prohibiting the judges from exercising "any power of appointment to public office" in connection with legislative power to invest courts with jurisdiction to appoint officers of a certain class. In re Hathaway, 71 N. Y. 238 [affirming 9 Hun 79].

44. People v. Rumsey, 64 Ill. 44.

45. Rutgers v. New Brunswick, 42 N. J. L. 51.

The resignation of a judge does not arrest ministerial proceedings of subordinate court officers, who may continue to exercise their legal duties until his successor is appointed. Maskell v. Horner, 10 La. Ann. 641.

46. State v. Griffith, 63 Mo. 545.

47. Com. v. Green, 1 Ashm. (Pa.) 289.

48. People v. Young, 108 Cal. 8, 41 Pac. 281; People v. Adams, 89 Hun (N. Y.) 284, 35 N. Y. Suppl. 648 [reversed in 148 N. Y. 724, 42 N. E. 725]; Com. v. Sanson, 67 Pa. St. 322.

49. As where a witness is not sufficiently acquainted with the English language to be understood (Horn v. State, 98 Ala. 23, 13 So. 329; Amory v. Fellowes, 5 Mass. 219; In re Norberg, 4 Mass. 81), or where the court and jury are ignorant of the language in which records are written (Davis v. Police Jury, 19 La. 533).

The determination of the necessity when a matter of discretion is not abused by the court's refusing an interpreter to an accused foreigner who appears to sufficiently understand English. People v. Young, 108 Cal. 8, 41 Pac. 281.

50. Farar v. Warfield, 8 Mart. N. S. (La.) 695.

Next friend of infant may act. Swift v. Applebone, 23 Mich. 252.

Witness on criminal charge is not incompetent before grand jury at examination of other witnesses. People v. Ramirez, 56 Cal. 533, 38 Am. Rep. 73.

51. People v. Adams, 89 Hun (N. Y.) 284, 35 N. Y. Suppl. 648 [reversed in 148 N. Y. 724, 42 N. E. 725].

Compensation.— Resolution fixing salary is not applicable to successor (Rosenthal v. New York, 6 Daly (N. Y.) 167), and the nature of the jurisdiction of a court may determine the right to appoint an interpreter at the county's expense (Crawford County Sup'rs v. Le Clerc, 3 Finn. (Wis.) 325, 4 Chandl. (Wis.) 56). Again a later statute fixing the salary of an Indian interpreter repeals a former one. U. S. v. Mitchell, 109 U. S. 146, 3 S. Ct. 151, 27 L. ed. 887. And an unqualified interpreter cannot recover salary when so far unqualified as to be chargeable with fraud in accepting office. Conroy v. New York, 6 Daly (N. Y.) 490 [affirmed in 67 N. Y. 610].

52. People v. McIntyre, 127 Cal. 423, 59 Pac. 779 (holding that the legislature did not intend that civil sections should be read into the penal code in relation to stenographers' qualifications); People v. Lon Me, 49 Cal. 353 (holding that if a law allowing shorthand reporters at a grand jury hearing be repealed, an indictment will be set aside where a stenographer was present at such hearing); State v. Murphy, 125 Mo. 464, 28 S. W. 767 (appointment may be limited to courts having jurisdiction over felonies in cities exceeding a certain population). See also State v. Martin, 121 Mo. 61, 25 S. W. 851.

Employment of stenographers before commissioners in executing orders or decrees of reference is unauthorized. Weigand v. Alliance Supply Co., 44 W. Va. 133, 28 S. E. 803.

Official recognition.— A court reporter may become by official recognition a de facto officer, even though not regularly appointed by the court. Etter v. O'Neil, 83 Iowa 655, 49 N. W. 1013.

53. Varnum v. Wheeler, 9 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 421.

He may be required by a circuit judge to attend a court regularly held by him in a circuit other than his own, whenever in his

b. Compensation — (I) In General. A statute by providing for compensation to official shorthand reporters is not unconstitutional.[54] And the statutory compensation will rule, whether it be a per diem allowance[55] to be fixed by the court,[56] or an annual salary,[57] unless by the operation of concurrent statutes the judge can fix a different fee.[58] And the compensation will be limited to the term specified for a temporary appointment beyond which the judge could not have continued the employment.[59] So the manner of payment prescribed by statute governs.[60] Again neither the state nor the county can be charged with liability for a stenographer's fees, unless authorized by law.[61] A stenographer is, however, entitled to reasonable compensation for his services, even though his fees are not fixed by statute, where the law authorizes the court to appoint such official.[62] Again a superseding constitutional court invested with like powers as the old court may fix and order the compensation of its stenographer under statutes providing therefor, as to the superseded court.[63] And where the statute requires that the compensation of such official shall be fixed by the court at a sum not exceeding a certain amount, the magistrate's action thereon is judicial and not legislative.[64] So where the court's discretion in fixing fees has not been abused such action will not be interfered with.[65]

(II) Attendance Before Examiners, Referees, Auditors, Etc. A stenographer's compensation for performance of his duties before examiners, referees, auditors, etc., depends upon the statute where it provides therefor,[66] and judgment public interests so demand. Underwood v. Lawrence County, 6 S. D. 5, 60 N. W. 147.

54. Smith v. Strother, (Cal. 1885) 7 Pac. 801.

A statute providing that fees be taxed as costs does not require a party to employ a stenographer. Chosen Friends Home, etc., League v. Otterson, 7 Wyo. 89, 50 Pac. 194.

55. Knight v. Ocean County, 48 N. J. L. 70, 3 Atl. 344, holding that if the statute fixes a per diem allowance for attendance, taking testimony and proceedings and furnishing a copy to the judge such statute is exclusive.

56. Andreson v. Ogden Union R., etc., Co., 7 Utah 396, 26 Pac. 1119.

57. Stockwell v. Genesee County Sup'rs, 56 Mich. 221, 23 N. W. 25, holding that if an annual salary is fixed by law no per diem allowance while in attendance can be made. So where the statute specifies certain duties as those required they must be performed without other compensation than the salary allowed. State v. Supple, 22 Mont. 184, 56 Pac. 20.

Where salary must be apportioned among counties no more than the salary can be recovered, nor can a county be compelled to pay any specific sum as salary in the absence of a showing that it was the amount apportioned. Goodale v. Marquette County, 45 Mich. 47, 7 N. W. 207.

58. Knight v. Ocean County, 49 N. J. L. 485, 12 Atl. 625.

59. In re O'Sullivan, 166 N. Y. 596, 59 N. E. 1128 [affirming 54 N. Y. App. Div. 374, 66 N. Y. Suppl. 611].

60. McAllister v. Hamlin, 83 Cal. 361, 23 Pac. 357.

But a county treasurer is not obligated to pay upon the certificate of a magistrate that services were rendered, nor is such certificate a demand, there being no law prescribing the fees or authorizing the magistrate to fix them. Fox v. Lindley, 57 Cal. 650.

61. Mattingly v. Nichols, 133 Cal. 332, 65 Pac. 748.

A city and county cannot avoid an obligation to pay fees on the ground of no appropriation by councils. Wilson v. Philadelphia, 14 Wkly. Notes Cas. (Pa.) 74.

Mandamus will not lie to compel a county treasurer to pay a certificate of a city judge issued to a shorthand reporter, where the law providing for such officials has no application to city courts. Bartling v. People, 92 Ill. App. 410.

62. Washoe County v. Humboldt County, 14 Nev. 123. But he is not entitled to compensation for the time between preferring charges against him and the entry of an order for his removal, where during such time he did not attend court as required by law nor offer to do so except by deputy. State v. Slover, 113 Mo. 211, 20 S. W. 790.

Mileage is recoverable under the statute, where a stenographer by direction of the judges who appointed him attends court outside of the circuit for which he is appointed. Underwood v. Lawrence County, 6 S. D. 5, 60 N. W. 147.

63. Ex p. Reis, 64 Cal. 233, 30 Pac. 806. See also People v. Becker, (Cal. 1884) 4 Pac. 942.

64. McAllister v. Hamlin, 83 Cal. 361, 23 Pac. 357.

65. Andreson v. Ogden Union R., etc., Co., 7 Utah 396, 26 Pac. 1119.

66. Taylor's Estate, 3 Pa. Super. Ct. 275 (such as shall be directed by the court, and fixed by the auditor, examiner, master, referee, or commissioner, including extra services, within the limitation prescribed by the

where the statute does provide for such compensation the fees are not a subject of contract.[67]

(III) Transcript of Shorthand Notes. The right of a stenographer to compensation for services for a transcript of his shorthand notes must be determined by the law creating the office and specifying the duties, etc., of such officials.[68] There may, however, be an express or implied contract to pay for such services.[69]

c. Removal. If a constitutional court is a different tribunal from the superseded one the reporter of the former will not succeed to the office of reporter of the latter.[70] And where the legislature and not the constitution creates the office of court stenographer it may abolish, modify, or control it, and the appointee takes it subject to that risk. Hence he cannot complain when a new court is carved out of his circuit, or his court divided and a separate stenographer appointed therefor.[71] Again where the statute provides that a court may employ a stenographer it has authority to discharge one who is incompetent and delays the trial on account of his slowness, even though no other stenographer can be obtained.[72] statute); Drinkhouse's Estate, 1 Pa. Dist. 92. See Underwood v. Lawrence County, 6 S. D. 5, 60 N. W. 147.

A federal court will allow rate in state courts to a state court stenographer appointed by a federal court as a special examiner in chancery. Indianapolis Water Co. v. American Straw Board Co., 65 Fed. 534.

67. Taylor's Estate, 3 Pa. Super. Ct. 275.

If a reporter holds no official position his compensation depends on contract which may be implied. Coale v. Suckert, 18 Misc. (N. Y.) 76, 41 N. Y. Suppl. 583.

68. California.— Mattingly v. Nichols, 133 Cal. 332, 65 Pac. 748.

Georgia.— Henderson v. Parry, 93 Ga. 255, 20 S. E. 107, holding that the stenographer is not entitled in addition to the statutory per diem allowance to compensation per folio for transcribing. See also Ragland v. Palmer, 93 Ga. 777, 21 S. E. 145, holding that the court may allow for time spent in writing out the stenographic notes in case of conviction, but not in case of a mistrial, under Code, § 4696*b*, and the act of Oct. 12, 1885. And see Henderson v. Parry, 93 Ga. 775, 21 S. E. 144.

Montana.— It is a stenographer's ministerial duty under Code Civ. Proc. § 1874, to deliver, without demanding his fees in advance, the transcript of notes taken in a proceeding conducted by the attorney-general on behalf of the state. State v. Ledwidge, 27 Mont. 197, 70 Pac. 511.

Nebraska.— State v. Moore, 8 Nebr. 22.

New York.—McCarthy v. Bonynge, 12 Daly 356, holding that compensation fixed by statute for copies precludes agreement for greater rate. And see Baker v. New York, 56 N. Y. App. Div. 350, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 814.

Pennsylvania.— Lehigh County v. Meyer, 102 Pa. St. 479 (statute fixing annual compensation does not provide for additional duty such as writing out notes in longhand); Briggs v. Erie County, 98 Pa. St. 570 (county is not liable for transcript of notes, unless made by order of court or filed in performance of general duty, nor for transcript furnished at request of counsel, although filed as part of record); Reed v. Sieman, 24 Pittsb. Leg. J. N. S. 129 (rate per folio fixed by statute).

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 200.

Compensation is based on actual count and not on estimated folios. Wright v. Nostrand, 58 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 184.

Mandamus to compel furnishing transcript without cost does not lie where statute does not authorize appointment of stenographer. Sattley v. Wofford, 126 Mo. 435, 29 S. W. 152.

Prepayment of fees may be required. State v. Supple, 22 Mont. 184, 56 Pac. 20; State v. Moore, 8 Nebr. 22; Guth v. Dalton, 58 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 289. But see Wright v. Nostrand, 58 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 184.

69. Miller v. Palmer, 25 Ind. App. 357, 58 N. E. 213, 81 Am. St. Rep. 107; Arcana Gas Co. v. Moore, 8 Ind. App. 482, 36 N. E. 46; Query v. Cooney, 34 Misc. (N. Y.) 161, 68 N. Y. Suppl. 800 [affirming 33 Misc. 795, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 592].

Fees for copies made for private persons under special contract may be recovered. Langley v. Hill, 63 Mich. 271, 29 N. W. 709.

When attorney is not liable in absence of express agreement to pay see Sheridan v. Genet, 12 Hun (N. Y.) 660; Bonynge v. Waterbury, 12 Hun (N. Y.) 534.

70. Ex p. Lawrence, 1 Ohio St. 431.

71. State v. Ford, 41 Mo. App. 122, holding that an original appointee of a court thereafter divided has no title over a reporter appointed to a certain division, under a law providing for a stenographer for each division. In such case relator cannot preform the duties of both courts, sitting separately at the same time, either in person or by deputy, the latter being merely an assistant not authorized to take charge of a separate division.

72. Hines v. Holland, 3 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 99.

The failure of such official to devote his personal attention to the duties of his office, leaving them to be wholly performed by his

4. Court Attendants and Assistants — a. Appointment and Duties. A court[73] may be authorized by statute[74] or possess as a court of general jurisdiction, as a court of record, or of last resort, the inherent power to provide the necessary attendants and assistants as a means of conducting its business with reasonable despatch, or to provide for assistants charged with the care of its rooms or other like functions, and the court itself may determine the necessity.[75] In those cases, however, where the statute vests the right to appoint in other than the judge, such enactment operates as a limitation or exclusively;[76] but this rule is subject to such exception as arises from the necessity created by the neglect or refusal of the appointing power to act, although such right to appoint is only coextensive with the necessity and ceases with it.[77] So if the power of appointment has been lawfully exercised the court cannot be compelled by mandamus to appoint another to the same office.[78] Again the duties of an attendant may be founded on ancient practice sanctioned by laws impliedly recognizing the same.[79] But the duties generally of these appointees are those which appertain to the character of the office itself, and the necessity upon which rests their appointment, and such as are also specifically provided by law.[80]

b. Compensation. The right to compensation may rest upon the statute[81] or deputies, constitutes a cause for his removal, where the constitution and statute both provide for such action. Tilley v. Slover, 113 Mo. 202, 20 S. W. 788.

73. In the early history of English jurisprudence when the sheriff himself held court he appointed the clerks, criers, tipstaffs, constables, and other officers. Thereafter, however, his authority was divested until he became a ministerial and executive officer, but still as a matter of form he appointed court officers, although subject to the approval of the court. In re Court Officers, 3 Pa. Dist. 196.

74. Cox v. Passaic County C. Pl. Ct., 45 N. J. L. 328 (holding that judges have statutory power to require the sheriff to summon additional constables, whenever necessary for the proper transaction of public business); In re Court Officers, 3 Pa. Dist. 196 (holding that the statute gives power to courts and not to county commissioners to control court criers, and tipstaffs).

An appointment contrary to statutory intent cannot be made by an inferior court. Bannister v. Middlesex County, 125 Mass. 523.

75. People v. Wendell, 57 Hun (N. Y.) 362, 10 N. Y. Suppl. 587; White v. Hughes County, 9 S. D. 12, 67 S. W. 855; In re Janitor Supreme Ct., 35 Wis. 410. But see Huff v. Knapp, 3 Sandf. (N. Y.) 299, declaring that a court with none of the incidental powers of a court of record could appoint no officers except such as were named in and authorized by the act creating it or subsequent acts.

76. State v. Smith, 82 Mo. 51, holding that the court cannot appoint a janitor where it derives all its jurisdiction and power from the statute creating it, and can have no authority which is expressly withheld from it and conferred upon another, and where a statute gives all the control of court buildings to the city, and an ordinance provides that the commissioner of public buildings shall appoint janitors subject to approval of the board of public improvements, it excludes the exercise of such power by another.

Court cannot interfere with sheriff's discretion in appointing bailiffs nor reduce the number provided by statute. But the sheriff is liable for contempt in appointing persons offensive to the court's order and decorum, under pretense of exercising his statutory discretion, and the court may enforce the exclusion of such appointees from his presence. Ex p. Strobach, 49 Ala. 443.

77. Mayhew v. Hamilton County, 1 Disn. (Ohio) 186, 12 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 565, holding that on the neglect or refusal of commissioners to appoint the judge may appoint.

78. People v. Wendell, 57 Hun (N. Y.) 362, 10 N. Y. Suppl. 587, holding that an honorably discharged soldier cannot by mandamus compel a county judge to appoint him after the office is filled.

79. Cox v. Passaic County C. Pl. Ct., 45 N. J. L. 328, where it is said that the practice that all constables of the county attend all sessions of the court is very ancient and is probably coeval with the establishment of courts in the colony. It does not seem that the practice was adopted over the united colonies. This practice is sanctioned by the fact that when new courts were created to sit in colonies, constables were made ministerial officers, which necessitated their presence at the sessions, and such practice is necessary to the transaction of business.

80. See In re Court Officers, 3 Pa. Dist. 196 (criers and tipstaffs); U. S. v. Winn, 28 Fed. Cas. No. 16,740, 3 Sumn. 209 (criers); N. Y. Civ. Proc. § 96; U. S. Rev. Stat. § 715 [U. S. Comp. Stat. (1901) p. 579]; Bacon Abr. tit. Constables (A).

81. Bannister v. Middlesex County, 125 Mass. 523, holding that the statute may merely operate to fix the compensation for upon the inherent power of a court of record to appoint.[82] Where the statute specifies the fees it thereby limits the recovery.[83] A sheriff is not entitled to pay for services not required by the court, and outside of his duty under the statute.[84] But commissioners may be liable for services of court attendants appointed by the court from the necessity occasioned by their neglect or refusal to appoint, such services having been accepted by the commissioners.[85]

c. Removal. Where the requisite authority exists the appointee may be removed, but not otherwise.[86] And the power of removal, there being no other provision, follows and abides with the power of appointment, and if the court or the justices possess the latter it follows that they alone can exercise the former.[87] But the power to terminate the appointment must be actually exercised and cannot be implied from a transfer of the appointing power even though the statute providing therefor takes effect immediately.[88]

D. De Facto and Unauthorized or Illegal Courts and Tribunals — 1. In General. A de facto[89] officer implies a de jure office.[90] There cannot be a de facto officer of an office which has no existence, nor can there be an officer either de jure or de facto if there be no office to fill, and while there may be de facto officers there can be no de facto office in a constitutional government.[91] Within this rule the general assembly cannot create the office of judge to begin to take effect before the district exists, and one attempting to perform the duties of an alleged judicial office before its existence is neither a de jure nor a de facto attendance on a court of record, and not as a requirement that such service may or shall be rendered in all courts of record.

Fees are not allowable after the repeal of the statute providing therefor. Hart v. New Orleans, 24 La. Ann. 290.

If the selection is required from the existing class of attendants it must be so made to entitle appointee to compensation. Day v. New York, 66 N. Y. 592 [reversing 6 Hun 92].

82. White v. Hughes County, 9 S. D. 12, 67 N. W. 855.

Compensation of appointee of court not of record not recoverable. Huff v. Knapp, 3 Sandf. (N. Y.) 299 [affirmed in 5 N. Y. 65].

83. Lewis v. Hoboken, 42 N. J. L. 377.

A bailiff is not entitled to extra compensation when, being in attendance at court, he is required to attend a jury at night pending a verdict. Randolph County v. Henry County, 27 Ind. App. 378, 61 N. E. 612, 621.

A criminal court attendant allowed and paid per diem fee cannot recover fees allowed sheriffs for summoning special juries. Brantly v. State, 4 Baxt. (Tenn.) 307.

Officers take their offices cum onere, and services required of them for which they are not specifically paid must be considered compensated by the fees allowed for other services. Noble v. Wayne County, 101 Ind. 127; Atchison County Com'rs v. Tomlinson, 9 Kan. 167; Morris County v. Freeman, 44 N. J. L. 631; Crocker v. Brown County Sup'rs, 35 Wis. 284.

84. St. Clair County v. Irwin, 15 Ill. 54.

85. Mayhew v. Hamilton County, 1 Disn. (Ohio) 186, 12 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 565.

86. Mayhew v. Hamilton County, 1 Disn. (Ohio) 186, 12 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 565; In re Janitor Supreme Ct., 35 Wis. 410, holding that the superintendent of public property without authority over the rooms of state officers cannot remove a janitor previously appointed by the supreme court.

A court has no power to vacate, contrary to statutory provisions, the office of constable and no general power to do such acts as shall cause his office to become vacant; and where the only power in the premises is to require the constable to show cause why a new bond should not be given the law must be strictly pursued, and an order peremptorily requiring a new bond and thereafter declaring the office vacant, no order to show cause being made, is absolutely void. Sheeley v. Wiggs, 32 Mo. 398.

Mandamus against judge does not oust an incumbent unless he is a party to the proceeding. People v. Wendell, 57 Hun (N. Y.) 362, 10 N. Y. Suppl. 587.

87. In re Janitor Supreme Ct., 35 Wis. 410.

88. Blunt v. New York, 60 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 482.

A direct proceeding is necessary and the incumbent must be a party, to determine a constable's right to office or to vacation of office, where he has the commission, has given bond, and has taken the oath of office. Ex p. Strobach, 49 Ala. 443.

89. As to reasons for de facto doctrine see State v. Carroll, 38 Conn. 449, 9 Am. Rep. 409 [quoted in Burt v. Winona, etc., R. Co., 31 Minn. 472, 476, 18 N. W. 285].

90. Burt v. Winona, etc., R. Co., 31 Minn. 472, 18 N. W. 285, 289.

91. State v. Shuford, 128 N. C. 588, 38 S. E. 808 [citing Carleton v. People, 10 Mich. 250; Norton v. Shelby County, 118 U. S. 425, 6 S. Ct. 1121, 30 L. ed. 178].

When the constitution or form of government remains unaltered there can be no de facto department or de facto office. While the legislative and executive departments re-officer, and his acts are null and void.[92] And a de facto court of appeals cannot exist under a constitution which authorizes only one supreme court, defines the qualification of its judges, and prescribes the mode of appointing them.[93] But where a court has been established by an act of the legislature apparently valid, and has gone into operation under such act it is to be regarded as a court de facto.[94] If, however, there is no law authorizing a certain court to be held, and the judge assumes to create a court and preside over it, the tribunal so created and all its proceedings will be void.[95] Again although a court is established, yet if it was never legally authorized a person convicted therein will be discharged.[96]

2. Courts of De Facto Government. A state county government, organized in disputed territory, and in which the inhabitants have exercised all governmental functions, is a de facto government, and the courts held therein under and by virtue of the laws of the state are de facto courts, and their judgments valid during the period prior to a determination of the supreme court of the United States that such territory belongs to the national government, it appearing that up to the time of such decision the United States had acquiesced in such acts in the disputed territory.[97] So acts of a government in actual possession in the ordinary administration of its laws so far as they affect private rights are valid, and can be set up to support an action or defend a right. Those affecting public rights are, however, void and cannot be enforced, but the proceedings must have been final and the decree conclusive.[98] Again the judgments of courts of a state exercising main there can be no de facto judicial department or head of that department, unless it also be de jure. Hildreth v. McIntire, 1 J. J. Marsh. (Ky.) 206, 19 Am. Dec. 61.

92. State v. Shuford, 128 N. C. 588, 38 S. E. 808.

93. Hildreth v. McIntyre, 1 J. J. Marsh. (Ky.) 206, 19 Am. Dec. 61.

94. Burt v. Winona, etc., R. Co., 31 Minn. 472, 18 N. W. 285, 289.

A court adjourned by a special judge with authority so to do is a de facto court, and its proceedings are valid. Brewer v. State, 6 Lea (Tenn.) 198.

95. State v. Boone County Ct., 50 Mo. 317, 11 Am. Rep. 415.

96. In re Davis, 62 Kan. 231, 61 Pac. 809.

A court which is not established under any lawful legislature nor under any constitution entitled to be enforced, or which is established by no valid enactment, or which is not created by any lawful sovereignty has no lawful existence. The establishment of a court and the election of a judge are two separate and distinct things, and each must be accomplished in the manner that the constitution prescribes. Perkins v. Corbin, 45 Ala. 103, 6 Am. Rep. 698.

Confederate courts have been held illegal (Perkins v. Corbin, 45 Ala. 103, 6 Am. Rep. 698; Hickman v. Jones, 9 Wall. (U. S.) 197, 19 L. ed. 551), their acts not binding (Snider v. Snider, 3 W. Va. 200), their judgments stand upon no higher ground than acts and judgments of a foreign court, and can be impeached in the same manner (Troy v. Ellerbe, 48 Ala. 624; Bibb v. Avery, 45 Ala. 691; Griffin v. Ryland, 45 Ala. 688; Mosely v. Tuthill, 45 Ala. 621, 6 Am. Rep. 710; Martin v. Hewitt, 44 Ala. 418), and their judgments null and void (Timms v. Grace, 26 Ark. 598; Thompson v. Mankin, 26 Ark. 586, 7 Am. Rep. 628). On the other hand it has been held that the state courts of Alabama during the Civil war were legal courts and their judgments valid (McQueen v. McQueen, 55 Ala. 433; Hill v. Huckabee, 52 Ala. 155; Parks v. Coffey, 52 Ala. 32), that the jurisdiction of the civil courts of Louisiana between citizens of the state was not affected (Pepin v. Lachenmeyer, 45 N. Y. 27), and that the judgments and decrees of judges of the court of appeals holding over until restoration of the Union were valid and binding (Griffin v. Cunningham, 20 Gratt. (Va.) 31. See also Johnson v. Atlantic Transit Co., 156 U. S. 618, 15 S. Ct. 520, 39 L. ed. 556; Ketchum v. Buckley, 99 U. S. 188, 25 L. ed. 473; Ford v. Surget, 97 U. S. 594, 24 L. ed. 1018; Keith v. Clark, 97 U. S. 454, 24 L. ed. 1071; Taylor v. Thomas, 22 Wall. (U. S.) 479, 22 L. ed. 789; U. S. v. Home Ins. Co., 22 Wall. (U. S.) 99, 22 L. ed. 816).

97. Cullins v. Overton, 7 Okla. 470, 54 Pac. 702.

98. Trevino v. Fernandez, 13 Tex. 630, where the rule was applied to a decree of a Mexican tribunal as to the ownership of lands in disputed territory made subsequent to the declaration of ownership by Texas, but while such territory was claimed and controlled by Mexico.

Courts acting under rulers de facto of a country for the time being have the jurisdiction of legitimate courts. Bank of North America v. McCall, 4 Binn. (Pa.) 371.

A judgment of a foreign tribunal sitting in ceded territory, but the actual possession of which is not surrendered to the United States, the ceding power being de facto in possession, is valid as to rights of private persons affected by such judgment. Keene civil jurisdiction in territory between its acquisition by the United States and the adoption of a state code of laws are valid where such courts exercised unlimited jurisdiction in civil cases and over deceased persons' estates and were the only courts then in existence exercising these functions, and their authority was universally acquiesced in.[99]

3. Collateral Impeachment. The legality of a de facto court or judicial officer cannot be questioned collaterally.[1]

IV. Terms and Places of Holding Court.

A. Term of Court — 1. Definition. Terms of a court are the time prescribed for holding it for the administration of judicial duties[2] and not the time the court sits transacting business.[3]

2. Time For Holding. The designation and regulation of the terms for holding court is ordinarily controlled either by legislative acts or by the courts themselves, where such power is conferred upon them.[4] Again the establishment of the time and place of holding the court when controlled by the legislature is a matter of general legislation, respecting which the acts of one session of the gen-

v. McDonough, 8 Pet. (U. S.) 308, 8 L. ed. 955. But see Ainsa v. New Mexico, etc., R. Co., 175 U. S. 76, 20 S. Ct. 28, 44 L. ed. 78; Jones v. U. S., 137 U. S. 202, 11 S. Ct. 80, 34 L. ed. 691; Pollard v. Kibbe, 14 Pet. (U. S.) 353, 10 L. ed. 490; Strother v. Lucas, 12 Pet. (U. S.) 410, 9 L. ed. 1137.

99. Ryder v. Cohn, 37 Cal. 69.

1. Jenkins v. State, 93 Ga. 1, 18 S. E. 992; State v. Harris, 47 La. Ann. 386, 17 So. 129; Burt v. Winona, etc., R. Co., 31 Minn. 472, 18 N. W. 285, 289.

That there were not enough inhabitants to constitutionally make a separate court can be the ground of a plea to the jurisdiction to impeach the constitutionality of an act creating a separate court. Coyle v. Com., 104 Pa. St. 117.

Direct attack by sovereign power necessary. — A judge de facto assumes the exercise of a part of the prerogative of sovereignty, and the legality of that assumption is open to the attack of the sovereign power alone, and the rightful authority of a judge in the full exercise of his judicial functions cannot be questioned by any merely private individual nor by any other except in the form provided by law. The attorney-general representing the sovereignty of the state by a writ of quo warranto might properly raise this constitutional question, but it cannot be raised by any other source or in any other form. Coyle v. Com., 104 Pa. St. 117.

2. Bush v. Doy, 1 Kan. 86; Horton v. Miller, 38 Pa. St. 270; Lipari v. State, 19 Tex. App. 431.

Other definitions are: The times fixed by law for the transaction of judicial business. Von Schmidt v. Widber, 99 Cal. 511, 512, 34 Pac. 109.

"A definite and fixed period prescribed by law for the administration of judicial duties." Anderson L. Dict. [quoted in Walsh v. Matchett, 6 Misc. (N. Y.) 114, 117, 26 N. Y. Suppl. 43, dissenting opinion].

"Those times or seasons of the year, which are set apart for the despatch of business in the superior courts of common law." Tidd Pr. 105 [quoted in State v. McHatton, 10 Mont. 370, 378, 25 Pac. 1046; Horton v. Miller, 38 Pa. St. 270, 271].

Appearance term is ordinarily the first term after legal service has been made, but as referred to in Iowa Code, § 2742, as to trials de novo in the supreme court, means the term when it first becomes apparent that an issue of fact is to be determined. Vinsant v. Vinsant, 47 Iowa 594.

Session of a court has been construed as the time of its actual sitting. Lipari v. State, 19 Tex. App. 431.

"Sitting" of a court may mean session for the day (Costigin v. Bond, 65 Md. 122, 3 Atl. 285); or the phrase may be used in such a way that it will be regarded as signifying term (Gird v. State, 1 Oreg. 308 [Oreg. Act, Dec. 10, 1856]); and the words "before the sitting of the court" have been construed as equivalent to "before the first day of the term" (Anonymous, 5 Mass. 197 [Mass. Act (1785), c. 69, § 8]).

3. Bush v. Doy, 1 Kan. 86.

Where it is provided that the term shall commence and terminate on certain days it comprises the whole of the intermediate period. Hatton v. Weems, 12 Gill & J. (Md.) 83.

4. Colorado.—Wilson v. People, 3 Colo. 325.

Idaho.— U. S. v. Kuntze, 2 Ida. (Hasb.) 480, 21 Pac. 407.

Illinois.— Petty v. People, 118 Ill. 148, 8 N. E. 304.

Louisiana.— State v. De Baillon, 51 La. Ann. 788, 25 So. 648.

Massachusetts.— In re Sawtell, 6 Pick. 110.

Texas.— Doss v. Waggoner, 3 Tex. 515; Wilson v. State, 15 Tex. App. 150.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 206.

As to the construction of particular constitutional and statutory provisions as to terms of courts see the following cases:

Alabama.— Johnson v. State, 94 Ala. 35, 10 So. 667; Ex p. State Bank, 6 Ala. 498.

Arizona.— Campbell v. Shivers, 1 Ariz. 161, 25 Pac. 540.

eral assembly cannot be binding on another.[5] And where the terms of a court are once fixed they cannot be changed except in the manner directed.[6] Nor where the authority to regulate the terms is conferred by statute upon the judges can they exceed the authority so conferred.[7] And where the statute provides that the designation of the time shall be done in a certain manner by the judges, they must comply therewith.[8] The power, however, given to judges to fix the time of holding court "until otherwise provided by law" is a continuing power to be exercised whenever proper occasion arises and is not exhausted by user.[9] And although in a general sense a legislature cannot delegate its general powers as to legislation, it may, where the regulation of the terms of a court is conferred upon it, designate one regular term and authorize the judges to name such other terms as the business may require.[10] And a provision of the constitution that all laws relating to courts shall be of general and uniform application does not apply to the time when the several courts shall meet nor to the length of their terms.[11] Again the terms of a court being fixed by law all persons are bound to know and observe the same.[12]

3. FIRST DAY OF TERM. The first day of the term is the day designated for the commencement thereof, and it is immaterial whether the judge attends or not,[13] or that the court is adjourned to another day.[14] And in determining whether the lien of a judgment has priority over that of a mortgage filed on the first day of the term it will be presumed that the term began at the statutory hour in the absence of evidence to the contrary.[15] If the day fixed is a legal holiday the court may be opened on the succeeding day.[16]

4. ORDER FIXING TERM. An order by a judge fixing the term of a court should appear affirmatively in the record.[17] And where certain essentials are prescribed Arkansas.— Hellems v. State, 22 Ark. 207; Jones v. Austin, 16 Ark. 336; Ex p. Trapnall, 6 Ark. 9, 42 Am. Dec. 676.

Colorado.— Wilson v. People, 3 Colo. 325; Marlow v. Kuhlenbeck, 2 Colo. 602.

Illinois.— Goodall v. People, 123 Ill. 389, 15 N. E. 171; Parks v. Miller, 48 Ill. 360.

Indiana.— Augustine v. Rigdon, 48 Ind. 255; Church v. Stadler, 16 Ind. 463.

Iowa.— Pilkey v. Gleason, 1 Iowa 522.

Kansas.— State v. Countryman, 57 Kan. 815, 48 Pac. 137.

Louisiana.— Hoyle's Succession, 109 La. 623, 33 So. 625; Borgstede v. Clarke, 5 La. Ann. 291.

Mississippi.— Mobile, etc., R. Co. v. Mattan, 41 Miss. 692; In re Opinion of Ct., 41 Miss. 54; Sagory v. Bayless, 13 Sm. & M. 153.

Missouri.— State v. Stratton, 136 Mo. 423, 38 S. W. 83.

Nevada.— State v. Atherton, 19 Nev. 332, 10 Pac. 901.

North Carolina.— State v. Brown, 127 N. C. 562, 37 S. E. 330.

Ohio.— Ex p. Shean, 25 Ohio St. 440.

South Carolina.— Burwell v. Chapman, 59 S. C. 581, 38 S. E. 222; Goodlett v. Charles, 14 Rich. 46.

South Dakota.— Benedict v. Ralya, 1 S. D. 167, 46 N. W. 188.

Texas.— Whitener v. Belknap, 89 Tex. 273, 34 S. W. 594; Stebbins v. State, 22 Tex. App. 32, 2 S. W. 617.

Washington.— Skagit R., etc., Co. v. Cole, 1 Wash. 330, 26 Pac. 535.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 207.

5. Elwell v. Tucker, 1 Blackf. (Ind.) 285.

6. State v. Chambers, 45 La. Ann. 36, 11 So. 944.

7. Flanagan v. Borg, 64 Minn. 394, 67 N. W. 216.

8. People v. Moneghan, 1 Park. Crim. (N. Y.) 570.

9. Candy v. State, 8 Nebr. 482, 1 N. W. 454.

10. Moore v. Packwood, 5 Oreg. 325. See also Merchant v. North, 10 Ohio St. 251.

11. Karnes v. People, 73 Ill. 274.

12. Gauldin v. Shehee, 20 Ga. 531.

13. Downey v. Smith, 13 Ill. 671; Bush v. Doy, 1 Kan. 86.

Where there are several statutes relating to the same subject-matter it is a general principle that their provisions should be so construed, if this can reasonably be done, as to produce consistency and harmony and effectuate their apparent intent, and this general rule applies where several statutes have been passed referring to the commencement of the terms of courts. Wortham v. Basket, 99 N. C. 70, 5 S. E. 401. See also Smithson v. Dillon, 16 Ind. 169. And see In re House Bill No. 218, 12 Colo. 359, 21 Pac. 485; Richie v. Peiper, 99 Ky. 194, 35 S. W. 279, 18 Ky. L. Rep. 87.

14. McKellar v. Parker, 29 S. C. 237, 7 S. E. 295.

15. Hemminway v. Davis, 24 Ohio St. 150.

16. Maskell v. Horner, 10 La. Ann. 641.

17. Clelland v. People, 4 Colo. 244.

An order, although written and signed at chambers, is substantially an order rendered in open court if spread the same day it is rendered on the minutes. State v. West, 45 La. Ann. 14, 12 So. 7.

by statute in connection with the making or publication of the order they should be complied with.[18] Again it has been decided that an order fixing terms cannot be revoked.[19] Judges are in some cases also authorized to alter the terms fixed by law,[20] and where the judge has such power notice that he has ordered a changed term must precede the term, although it need not precede the order.[21]

5. Interval Between Terms. A statutory provision that a certain period should intervene between the terms of a court should be complied with.[22]

6. Change of Terms by Statute — a. Power to Change. In the absence of some provision in the constitution which forbids, the legislature may change the terms of a court.[23]

b. Effect of Change. An act which merely changes the time of holding a certain court does not abolish such court[24] nor effect a discontinuance of business therein pending.[25] And a court which has convened prior to the passage of such an act is not prevented from concluding its session.[26] But where a law has gone into effect which changes the term of a court, and in ignorance thereof the term is held as provided by the former law, all judgments and proceedings are without warrant of law and void.[27]

7. Court Held at Unauthorized Time. All proceedings in a court at a time when the holding of such court is unauthorized by law and its jurisdiction is not exercised within the time prescribed will be void.[28] But although a court may convene before the time designated it has been decided that a judgment rendered

If it is objected that the order of notification to persons interested was made when no term existed by law and required appearance at a time when no term could by law exist, these defects should be shown affirmatively. Overton v. Johnson, 17 Mo. 442.

18. People v. Nugent, 57 N. Y. App. Div. 542, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 1035, 15 N. Y. Crim. 312; People v. Wilcox, 23 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 297.

Substantial compliance may be sufficient. People v. Nugent, 57 N. Y. App. Div. 542, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 1035, 15 N. Y. Crim. 312.

A provision that the court shall not change the number of terms for one year does not prevent the court making an order to that effect within a year after the previous order, where the new terms are to commence after the expiration of the year. Frickie v. State, 40 Tex. Crim. 626, 51 S. W. 394.

19. State v. Bristol, 21 Mont. 578, 55 Pac. 107.

20. Overton v. Johnson, 17 Mo. 442; Jackson v. Com., 13 Gratt. (Va.) 795.

21. State v. Dillard, 35 La. Ann. 1049.

22. Manning v. Kohn, 44 Ala. 343.

An admission that the designated period has not elapsed from the date of adjournment of a prior term does not prove non-compliance with a provision that such a period shall intervene between the beginning of terms. State v. Brodden, 47 La. Ann. 375, 16 So. 874. And where it is provided that in a district composed of three or more parishes the terms shall commence on days a certain period apart, it is not an irregularity of which defendant can complain that in other parishes than that in which he was indicted the opening days were less than three weeks apart. State v. Powell, 45 La. Ann. 694, 12 So. 757; State v. Stuart, 45 La. Ann. 659, 12 So. 736.

23. Parker v. Sanders, 46 Ark. 229; Reid v. Hawkins, 46 Ind. 222; Carson v. Walker, 16 Mo. 68; Prescott v. Linney, 75 Tex. 615, 12 S. W. 1128; Ex p. Murphy, 27 Tex. App. 492, 11 S. W. 487; Goosby v. State, 17 Tex. App. 167; Graves v. State, 6 Tex. App. 228.

If the constitution confers such power upon certain legislatures no other legislature has authority to so act. Kepley v. People, 123 Ill. 367, 13 N. E. 512.

24. Com. v. Holbrook, 140 Mass. 440, 5 N. E. 168; Com. v. Parker, 140 Mass. 439, 5 N. E. 167.

25. Boswell v. Newton, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,683*a*, Hempst. 264; Compton v. Palmer, 6 Fed. Cas. No. 3,070*a*, Hempst. 282.

Writs are returnable to the substituted term. Freeman v. Thompson, 53 Mo. 183.

Where defendant is notified to appear at the next term which is changed to a later month, he should appear without further notice. Peoria M. & F. Ins. Co. v. Dickerson, 28 Iowa 274.

26. Shelton v. Maybin, 4 S. C. 541; Womack v. Womack, 17 Tex. 1.

Where convened before law goes into effect a judgment subsequently rendered is valid. Clare v. Clare, 4 Greene (Iowa) 411; Venable v. Curd, 2 Head (Tenn.) 582.

27. Robinson v. Ferguson, 78 Ill. 538.

28. Alabama.— Garlick v. Dunn, 42 Ala. 404.

Arkansas.— Brumley v. State, 20 Ark. 77.

Illinois.—Galusha v. Butterfield, 3 Ill. 227.

Indiana.— Cain v. Goda, 84 Ind. 209; McCool v. State, 7 Ind. 378.

Maine.— White v. Riggs, 27 Me. 114.

Oklahoma.—American F. Ins. Co. v. Pappe, 4 Okla. 110, 43 Pac. 1085.

South Carolina.— Ex p. De Hay, 3 S. C. 564.

Texas.— Hodges v. Ward, 1 Tex. 244; Wil-or order made on a day subsequent to that fixed for the rightful convening of the court will be valid.[29]

8. Sessions of Court — a. Time For. The sitting or session of a court should be held at a time prescribed or authorized by law,[30] and where it is held at a time and place designated by law the fact that during the session an act is passed which fixes a different time for holding the court does not affect the jurisdiction of the court to continue its session, there being no provision in that regard.[31]

b. Adjournment. The sessions or sittings of a court during the term are as a general rule within the control of the court, and it may adjour n its session from day to day or for a longer period.[32] And an adjournment for a longer period than that specified in a statute which provides that if the judge of the court is absent for more than a designated time his court shall be adjourned until the next regular term is not prohibited by such statute, which is applicable only to those cases where the judge is absent without a regular adjournment.[33] Again it has been decided that after the court has adjourned for the day the judge may cause it to reconvene for the transaction of business.[34]

B. Special or Extraordinary Terms — 1. Appointment. In most states the legislature has power to authorize judges of the courts to hold special terms.[35] And an act to this effect conferring such authority upon judges of certain courts son v. State, 37 Tex. Crim. 373, 35 S. W. 390, 38 S. W. 624, 39 S. W. 373.

Virginia.— Withers v. Fuller, 30 Gratt. 547.

West Virginia.— Johnston v. Hunter, 50 W. Va. 52, 40 S. E. 448.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 217.

A plaintiff notified to bring suit at first term to which suit may be brought is excused from bringing it at an unauthorized term. Simpson v. McDaniel, 42 Ala. 458.

Probate courts.— In New Hampshire it has been held that the constitutional provision that probate courts shall be held at times and places fixed by law does not deprive them of jurisdiction over proceedings at other times. Kimball v. Fisk, 39 N. H. 110, 75 Am. Dec. 213.

29. Garlick v. Dunn, 42 Ala. 404; Shumard v. Phillips, 53 Ark. 37, 13 S. W. 510.

30. Norwood v. Kenfield, 34 Cal. 329; McAfee v. State, 31 Ga. 411.

Sufficient notice of a night session is given by an announcement thereof in open court. Boon v. Moline Plow Co., 81 Ill. 293.

A provision that the district courts shall be in session at all times and open at any place where the judge may be is within the powers conferred by the organic acts. U. S. v. Gwyn, 4 N. M. 635, 42 Pac. 167.

Under organic acts relating to district courts providing that "the first six days of every term of said courts, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be appropriated to the trial of causes arising under said constitution and law," the court is convened for federal and territorial business and is in session for both purposes from the beginning of its term until it finally adjourns. Peters v. U. S., 2 Okla. 138, 143, 37 Pac. 1081.

31. Shelton v. Maybin, 4 S. C. 541.

32. Georgia.—Wharton v. Sims, 88 Ga. 617, 15 S. E. 771; Revel v. State, 26 Ga. 275; Mealing v. Pace, 14 Ga. 596.

Illinois.— Cook v. Skelton, 20 Ill. 107, 71 Am. Dec. 250.

Kansas.— Steele v. Martin, 6 Kan. 430.

Kentucky.— Richie v. Peiper, 99 Ky. 194, 35 S. W. 279, 18 Ky. L. Rep. 87.

New Hampshire.— Kimball v. Fisk, 39 N. H. 110, 75 Am. Dec. 213.

North Carolina.— State v. Martin, 24 N. C. 101.

Pennsylvania.— Briceland v. Com., 74 Pa. St. 463.

Texas.— Labadie v. Dean, 47 Tex. 90; Robinson v. State, 22 Tex. App. 690, 2 S. W. 539.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 250.

Adjournment "from day to day" in code provision refers to judicial days and not to Sunday. State v. Howard, 82 N. C. 623.

Adjournment of a court for refreshment does not suspend its functions as a court and its authority over its officers, the parties, counsel, and juries. Barrett v. State, 1 Wis. 175.

Judge may adjourn his court more than once in same term. Willis v. Elam, 28 La. Ann. 857.

Notice of adjournment need not be posted, as required by statute, where the judge is not present, if adjournment is ordered by the court on the first day of the term. Bressler v. People, 117 Ill. 422, 8 N. E. 62.

An order cannot be antedated so as to create a legal session where there was no adjournment to a day certain. Stovall v. Emerson, 20 Mo. App. 322.

33. Redwine v. State, 15 Ind. 293; Seymour v. State, 15 Ind. 288.

34. Bowen v. Stewart, 128 Ind. 507, 26 N. E. 168, 28 N. E. 73.

35. Iowa.— Harriman v. State, 2 Greene 270.

Oregon.— O'Kelly v. Territory, 1 Oreg. 51.

South Carolina.— State v. Williams, 2 McCord 301.

Texas.— Hardin v. State, 38 Tex. 597.

is not invalid as infringing the constitutional requirement of uniformity in the jurisdiction, powers, proceedings, and practice of courts,[36] nor is it repugnant to a constitutional provision that the legislature shall fix the terms of such courts,[37] nor to such a provision regulating only the regular terms of the courts, and prohibitive of subsequent legislation.[38] This power or authority to call special terms is usually conferred upon the judges of the courts to be exercised whenever the occasion or necessity may require,[39] and in some states the governor has been given such authority.[40] But where a special term is unauthorized all proceedings therein are void,[41] as is likewise the case where the facts essential to authorize the holding of a special term do not exist.[42] Again a judge of a circuit court who is required by law to hold court in a certain county has no authority to appoint a special term to commence in another county at the same time.[43]

2. PRESUMPTION AS TO NOTICE. Where a special term of the court is authorized by statute parties are bound to take notice thereof.[44]

3. ORDER APPOINTING — a. Sufficiency. If certain provisions are imposed by statute as essential to the validity of an order there should be a compliance therewith. This rule applies where the statute requires the order to be entered on the records of the court,[45] or specifies what it shall contain.[46] But where the statute prescribes no set form to be used by a judge in appointing a special term any Wisconsin.— Messenger v. Broom, 1 Pinn. 630.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 221.

As to the construction of particular constitutional or statutory provisions see the following cases:

Alabama.— Stickney v. Huggins, 10 Ala. 106.

California.— People v. Tyler, 36 Cal. 522.

Colorado.— Klopfer v. Keller, 1 Colo. 410.

Iowa.— State v. Nash, 7 Iowa 347.

Louisiana.— State v. Judge Seventh Judicial Dist., 11 La. Ann. 66.

Minnesota.— Flanagan v. Borg, 64 Minn. 394, 67 N. W. 216.

New York.— Matter of Rupp, 45 N. Y. App. Div. 631, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 1147 [affirming 28 Misc. 703, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 997].

North Carolina.— State v. Monroe, 80 N. C. 373.

South Dakota.— Myers v. Mitchell, 1 S. D. 249, 46 N. W. 245.

Utah.— Winters v. Hughes, 3 Utah 443, 24 Pac. 759.

Wisconsin.—State v. Bardon, 103 Wis. 297, 79 N. W. 226.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 220.

36. Branch v. Augusta Glass Works, 95 Ga. 573, 23 S. E. 128.

37. Spann v. State, 47 Ga. 553; Grinad v. State, 34 Ga. 270.

38. State v. Claude, 35 La. Ann. 71.

39. Alabama.— Knight v. State, 116 Ala. 486, 22 So. 902; Wilson v. State, 52 Ala. 299; Taylor v. State, 48 Ala. 180; Levy v. State, 48 Ala. 171.

Arkansas.— Galbreath v. Mitchell, 32 Ark. 278.

Illinois.— Burnham v. Chicago, 24 Ill. 496.

Kansas.— In re Wells, 36 Kan. 341, 13 Pac. 548.

Kentucky.— Com. v. Graves, 18 B. Mon. 33.

Louisiana.— State v. Scott, 48 La. Ann. 293, 19 So. 141; State v. Judge Seventh Judicial Dist., 11 La. Ann. 66.

Mississippi.—Mastronada v. State, 60 Miss. 86.

New Mexico.— Territory v. Hicks, 6 N. M. 596, 30 Pac. 872.

Oregon.— Kamer v. Clatsop County, 6 Oreg. 238.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 219.

A provision requiring the appointment of special terms on or before a certain date is directory merely. People v. Youngs, 151 N. Y. 210, 45 N. E. 460.

An irregularity in designation by the appellate division justices arising from the fact that such division had no legal existence at the date of making the designation may be cured by a redesignation on the day such court legally convenes. People v. Youngs, 151 N. Y. 210, 45 N. E. 460.

40. People v. Young, 18 N. Y. App. Div. 162, 45 N. Y. Suppl. 772; State v. Ketchey, 70 N. C. 621. See also People v. Shea, 147 N. Y. 78, 41 N. E. 505; People v. McKane, 80 Hun (N. Y.) 322, 30 N. Y. Suppl. 95.

41. Wightman v. Karsner, 20 Ala. 446; Stewart v. Kemp, 54 Tex. 248.

42. Dunn v. State, 2 Ark. 229, 35 Am. Dec. 54.

43. Archer v. Ross, 3 Ill. 303.

44. Sharp v. Pike, 5 B. Mon. (Ky.) 155.

45. Toler v. Com., 94 Ky. 529, 23 S. W. 347, 15 Ky. L. Rep. 292; Huber v. Armstrong, 7 Bush (Ky.) 590.

Order need not be entered on minutes until court convenes.— Grant v. State, 62 Ala. 233. So an order is properly entered on the minutes of the special term and need not be entered on the minutes of the term when made. Daughdrill v. State, 113 Ala. 7, 21 So. 378.

For sufficiency of recital on records see Grant v. State, 62 Ala. 233.

46. Toler v. Com., 94 Ky. 529, 23 S. W. 347, form will be sufficient which clearly indicates the purpose.[47] It need not recite that a special term is necessary, as the order is of itself an affirmation of this fact.[48] Nor is an order nugatory because it recites that the authority therefor is derived from the constitution instead of from a statute.[49] Again where the records have been destroyed, if it appears that the judge had authority to call a special term it will be presumed to have been regularly called.[50]

b. Publication and Notice. Where the statute provides that there shall be a publication and notice of an order for a special term, a compliance with these provisions is essential to the validity of the proceedings at such term.[51] It has, however, been held that a provision that the notice be posted by the clerk at the court-house door for a specified time is directory merely and failure to so post it will not invalidate the term.[52] A similar ruling has been made as to a provision that the clerk shall notify the commonwealth's attorney and sheriff.[53]

c. Revocation. An order for the calling of a special term may be revoked by the court making the same, and a different time appointed for the holding of such term.[54]

4. Jurisdiction and Authority — a. In General. The jurisdiction and authority of a court at special term is ordinarily prescribed by statute, and as a general rule a court at such term has the same jurisdiction and authority as it possesses at a regular term.[55] So it has been decided that suits may be commenced and determined at special term,[56] that a cause may be removed to another county at special term,[57] that a grand jury may be organized at special term,[58] and that an act

15 Ky. L. Rep. 292. See Knight v. State, 116 Ala. 486, 22 So. 902.

47. Mattingly v. Darwin, 23 Ill. 618.

48. Grant v. State, 62 Ala. 233.

49. Brown v. State, 9 Nebr. 157, 2 N. W. 378.

50. Spring v. Kane, 86 Ill. 580. See also Merchant v. North, 10 Ohio St. 251.

The burden of overcoming the presumption of the validity of a special term is upon the party contesting its validity. Black v. Bent, 20 Colo. 342, 38 Pac. 387.

51. People v. Riley, 16 Cal. 186; Toler v. Com., 94 Ky. 529, 23 S. W. 347, 15 Ky. L. Rep. 292; Flanagan v. Borg, 64 Minn. 394, 67 N. W. 216; Reams v. Kearns, 5 Coldw. (Tenn.) 217. But see Friar v. State, 3 How. (Miss.) 422.

The affidavit of the manager of the paper in which the notice is published is sufficient proof of publication, under a statute requiring evidence of publication to be in the form of a certificate of the printer or publisher. Black v. Bent, 20 Colo. 342, 38 Pac. 387.

That required notice was given may in some cases be presumed. Harriman v. State, 2 Greene (Iowa) 270; Harman v. Copenhaver, 89 Va. 836, 17 S. E. 482; Chadron Bank v. Anderson, 6 Wyo. 518, 48 Pac. 197.

52. Blimm v. Com., 7 Bush (Ky.) 320; State v. Claude, 35 La. Ann. 71; Northwestern Fuel Co. v. Kofod, 74 Minn. 448, 77 N. W. 206; State v. Shanley, 38 W. Va. 516, 18 S. E. 734.

53. Harman v. Copenhaver, 89 Va. 836, 17 S. E. 482.

54. Brown v. People, 9 Ill. 439.

55. Alabama.— Bales v. State, 63 Ala. 30; Wilson v. State, 52 Ala. 299; Roach v. Gunter, 42 Ala. 239; Arrington v. Roach, 42 Ala. 155.

Illinois.— Buck v. Beekly, 45 Ill. 100.

Mississippi.— Dees v. State, 78 Miss. 250, 28 So. 849.

New York.— In re Seventh Ave., 29 How. Pr. 180.

North Dakota.— In re Baker, 8 N. D. 277, 78 N. W. 988; Smith v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 3 N. D. 17, 53 N. W. 173.

Oregon.—Kamer v. Clatsop County, 6 Oreg. 238.

Tennessee.— Hall v. State, 3 Lea 552.

Virginia.— Harman v. Copenhaver, 89 Va. 836, 17 S. E. 482; Hitchcox v. Rawson, 14 Gratt. 526. Compare Fowler v. Mosher, 85 Va. 421, 7 S. E. 542.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 228.

An order reciting that important business is pending, that it is to the interest of the county that a special term be held for the trial of the same, and ordering the drawing of a grand jury, contemplates the trial of any indictment which may be returned. Perry v. State, 102 Ga. 365, 30 S. E. 903.

At special term for disposal of unfinished business of regular term only such causes are triable as could have been tried at the preceding regular term. Hatto v. Brooks, 33 Miss. 575; Commercial Bank v. Galloway, 6 How. (Miss.) 515; McKinley v. Beasley, 5 Sneed (Tenn.) 170.

Where an inquiry of damages is ordered to be executed at the next term, without specifying whether at a regular or special term, damages may be assessed at a special term held before the next regular term. Hall v. Mount, 3 Coldw. (Tenn.) 73.

56. Darby v. McConnel, 13 Ill. 352; Knight v. Bamberger, 19 Ind. 91.

57. Sparkman v. Daughtry, 35 N. C. 168.

58. Floyd v. State, 55 Ala. 61; Harrington v. State, 36 Ala. 236.

authorized to be done by a judge at chambers may be performed at special term.[59]

b. As Affected by Matters Specified in Order. The power of a court at special term is not necessarily limited by the fact that the order therefor specifies a particular business for which the court will convene, but it may transact other business where there is no surprise to parties or their counsel.[60] The trial of criminal cases, however, will be excluded by an order for a special term "for the trial of causes upon the civil docket."[61]

C. Duration of Term — 1. In General. A term continues until it is adjourned or until it expires according to the time established by law.[62] Where the judge leaves the court before the expiration of the term he should formally adjourn it and not leave it to expire by its own limitation.[63] Again the whole term of a court is regarded by law as if but one day,[64] and all acts done within it

59. Whallon v. Bancroft, 4 Minn. 109.

60. Wharton v. Sims, 88 Ga. 617, 15 S. E. 771; People v. Nichols, 58 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 200.

61. Brown v. Newby, 6 Yerg. (Tenn.) 395.

62. Georgia.—King v. Sears, 91 Ga. 577, 18 S. E. 830.

Illinois.—Jasper v. Schlesinger, 22 Ill. App. 637.

Kansas.— Union Pac. R. Co. v. Hand, 7 Kan. 380.

Maine.— Parsons v. Hathaway, 40 Me. 132.

Maryland.— Townshend v. Chew, 31 Md. 247.

New York.— People v. Central City Bank, 53 Barb. 412, 35 How. Pr. 428.

North Carolina.— State v. Penley, 107 N. C. 808, 12 S. E. 455.

Ohio.— Paris v. Coppock, 7 Ohio Cir. Ct. 402; Waters v. Hamilton County, 9 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 5, 10 Cinc. L. Bul. 4.

Pennsylvania.— Com. v. Thompson, 18 Pa. Co. Ct. 487.

South Carolina.— De Leon v. Barrett, 22 S. C. 412.

Texas.— Labadie v. Dean, 47 Tex. 90; Clegg v. Galveston County, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 58.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 230.

A continuance by consent of all parties of all causes not otherwise disposed of would be a completion of business justifying adjournment. Ex p. Croom, 19 Ala. 561.

The court may continue in session to the latest hour which permits the judge to attend the next regular term. Hill v. Com., 2 Gratt. (Va.) 594. So the term may be extended so as to include Sunday. Franklin v. Com., 105 Ky. 237, 48 S. W. 986, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 1137. Again a term is not ended by adjournment to a subsequent day of the term. Green v. Morse, 57 Nebr. 391, 77 N. W. 925, 73 Am. St. Rep. 518. So the death of the regular judge does not end the term, his successor qualifying on the same day. Franklin v. Vandervoort, 50 W. Va. 412, 40 S. E. 374. But an adjournment to the day fixed for the beginning of the next regular term puts an end to the current term. State v. Todd, 72 Mo. 288.

A term commencing on Monday to continue for a week does not include the following Sunday. Davis v. Fish, 1 Greene (Iowa) 406, 48 Am. Dec. 387; Harper v. State, 43 Tex. 431; Michie v. Michie, 17 Gratt. (Va.) 109. See also Richter v. Koopman, 131 Ala. 399, 31 So. 32. But see Taylor v. Ervin, 119 N. C. 274, 25 S. E. 875. So the word "until," in a statute providing that the term shall continue "until" a specific day, does not include such day. Ryan v. State Bank, 10 Nebr. 524, 7 N. W. 276. And a rule to declare before the end of the next term means before actual adjournment. Pike v. Power, 1 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 103.

63. Foley v. Blank, 92 N. C. 476.

The court's convening in another place in the same district does not necessarily end a term of the United States circuit court. East Tennessee Iron, etc., Co. v. Wiggin, 68 Fed. 446, 15 C. C. A. 510.

The judge's going home before the jury agreed on a verdict does not dissolve the court, where with the consent of the parties a justice of the appellate court was present to receive the verdict. French v. Seamans, 21 Misc. (N. Y.) 722, 48 N. Y. Suppl. 9. Compare In re Patzwald, 5 Okla. 789, 50 Pac. 139.

Where a recess merely is taken the term continues, although other courts of the circuit are held in the meantime. King v. Sears, 91 Ga. 577, 18 S. E. 830.

64. Arkansas.— Cunningham v. Ashley, 13 Ark. 653.

Kentucky.— Dye v. Knox, 1 Bibb 573.

New York.— Manchester v. Herrington, 10 N. Y. 164.

South Carolina.— Saunders v. Bobo, 2 Bailey 492.

United States.— The Canary No. 2, 22 Fed. 536.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 230.

Principle applied where a statute requires that before every adjournment of a court the minutes of the proceedings shall be publicly read by the clerk and then signed by the judge, it being held that the statute does not require each day's proceedings to be read from day to day, but that the whole session may be treated as one day and a single ad-

as contemporaneous.[65] This fiction of the law, however, does not prevent the court from inquiring as to the day or the hour if it becomes important.[66]

2. SPECIAL TERMS. Judges who call special terms have the authority to designate the time to which such special terms may be adjourned.[67] And a special term not being limited by law to any specified number of days, proceedings thereat will not be invalid because it continues in session for a longer period than the regular term of such court is limited to.[68] Nor are proceedings at a special term invalidated by a continuance of the term beyond the time fixed for a regular term.[69]

3. ADJOURNMENT — a. Extension of Term by. The terms of a court may in some cases be extended by adjournment.[70] And it has been decided that an adjourned term may remain in session so long as it may be necessary to transact its business,[71] and that new actions may be brought.[72] Again, where adjourned terms are authorized by statute if nothing to the contrary appears, it will be presumed that the court was regularly held and the cause regularly brought to trial.[73] But a court having regular terms and in which all cases are continued from one term to another in regular succession has no power to adjourn to a time beyond the commencement of another regular term of the same court in the same county, where both terms are of the same character.[74] journing order made at the end of that time. Com. v. Howard, 99 Ky. 542, 36 S. W. 556, 18 Ky. L. Rep. 412.

65. Saunders v. Bobo, 2 Bailey (S. C.) 492.

66. People v. Beatty, 14 Cal. 566.

67. Jernigan v. State, 17 Fla. 690; Bass v. State, 17 Fla. 685; State v. Ballenger, 10 Iowa 368.

A statute providing "if any court shall not be held on the first day of the term, such court shall stand adjourned from day to day until the evening of the third day" applies to special terms as well as to regular. State v. Harkins, 100 Mo. 666, 670, 13 S. W. 830.

Where the day named for a special term conflicts with that for a regular term and adjournment of the special term is taken to a succeeding day, an indictment found at such term is legal. State v. Clark, 30 Iowa 168.

68. Dees v. State, 78 Miss. 250, 28 So. 849.

69. Lewin v. Dille, 17 Mo. 64; Samuels v. State, 3 Mo. 68; Cheek v. Merchants' Nat. Bank, 9 Heisk. (Tenn.) 489; Munzesheimer v. Fairbanks, 82 Tex. 351, 18 S. W. 697; Borrego v. Cunningham, 164 U. S. 612, 17 S. Ct. 182, 41 L. ed. 572 (construing N. M. Comp. Laws, §§ 543, 552). But see Blake v. Harlan, 75 Ala. 205.

Continuance to receive the verdict of the jury does not prejudice the rights of the parties. Greensboro Nat. Bank v. Gilmer, 116 N. C. 684, 22 S. E. 2.

70. Cochran v. State, 113 Ga. 726, 39 S. E. 332; Cordell v. State, 22 Ind. 1; State v. Palmer, 40 Kan. 474, 20 Pac. 270.

A term of the United States circuit court may be adjourned to a distant day, although another term intervenes. Florida v. Charlotte Harbor Phosphate Co., 70 Fed. 883, 17 C. C. A. 472.

A judgment entered at an hour earlier than that named in the adjournment but on the same day is not invalid. Richardson v. Beldam, 18 Ill. App. 527.

Where court adjourns with no time fixed to reconvene it cannot convene until the next regular session. Irwin v. Irwin, 2 Okla. 180, 37 Pac. 548. But see State v. McBain, 102 Wis. 431, 78 N. W. 602.

A district court may adjourn a term in one county over an intervening term in another county.

Indian Territory.— White v. Brown, 1 Indian Terr. 98, 38 S. W. 335.

Iowa.— State v. Van Auken, 98 Iowa 674, 68 N. W. 454; In re Hunter, 84 Iowa 388, 51 N. W. 20.

Kansas.— State v. Rogers, 56 Kan. 362, 43 Pac. 256; Kingsley v. Bagby, 2 Kan. App. 23, 41 Pac. 991.

Louisiana.— State v. Euzebe, 42 La. Ann. 727, 7 So. 784.

Montana.— Mayne v. Creighton, 3 Mont. 108; Higley v. Gilmer, 3 Mont. 90, 35 Am. Rep. 450.

Nebraska.— Tippy v. State, 35 Nebr. 368, 53 N. W. 208. Compare Smith v. State, 4 Nebr. 277.

Oklahoma.— In re Dossett, 2 Okla. 360, 37 Pac. 1066.

Wyoming.— In re McDonald, 4 Wyo. 150, 33 Pac. 18; Stirling v. Wagner, 4 Wyo. 5, 31 Pac. 1032, 32 Pac. 1128.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 241.

71. Murray v. State, 91 Ga. 136, 17 S. E. 99.

72. Hawley v. Parrott, 10 Conn. 486.

Where a term is adjourned for the purpose of completing business and before the time set for the adjourned term papers in a divorce suit are filed on a change of venue and the parties subsequently appear and waive all irregularities and consent to go to trial, the court may try the action. Hyatt v. Hyatt, 33 Ind. 309.

73. Shirts v. Irons, 28 Ind. 458.

Substantial compliance with statute as to adjournment is sufficient. Washer v. Allensville, etc., Turnpike Co., 81 Ind. 78.

74. Jaques v. Bridgeport Horse R. Co., 43 Conn. 32, where it is decided that a civil

b. Postponement or Commencement of Term by. Where the power to adjourn a court exists, the power to put off the holding of the court to another time or place is implied, subject to such legal restrictions thereon as may be imposed.[75] And the authority is conferred upon a judge in some states when the completion of a trial would proceed beyond the day fixed for the next term, to adjourn the latter term so that there may be sufficient time to complete such trial.[76] And where a court is so adjourned or postponed the return-day thereof is also adjourned.[77]

c. On Non-Attendance of Judge. In order to prevent the loss of a term it is frequently provided by statute that in case of the absence of the judge on the day appointed for commencing such term all cases therein shall be continued and the court adjourned from day to day for a specified time until the judge shall appear.[78] But where the court is not held until after the expiration of the time designated all proceedings thereat will be void.[79]

d. Order. Requirements are frequently imposed by statute as essential to the validity of an order for adjournment. Thus it may be necessary that the order shall be a "written order,"[80] that there be notice by publication in some newspaper,[81] or that it be entered upon the records.[82] But an order of the court continuing to the next term all cases which are undisposed of does not, it has been determined, remove such cases from the control of the court, but the order may be set aside and the cases tried.[83] The power of final adjournment, however, which is conferred upon a court cannot be delegated by it to its clerk.[84] term may, however, be adjourned beyond a criminal term and vice versa.

The adjourned session fails, if the judge does not appear to hold it on the day to which the adjournment is taken. Streett v. Reynolds, 63 Ark. 1, 38 S. W. 150.

75. People v. Northrup, 50 Barb. (N. Y.) 147.

76. State v. Stevens, 67 Iowa 557, 25 N. W. 777 (Iowa Code (1873), § 169); Cluverius v. Com., 81 Va. 787 (Va. Code, c. 154, §§ 26, 36).

77. Wilson v. Lott, 5 Fla. 302.

First day of actual session is first day of actual jury term. State v. Pate, 40 La. Ann. 748, 5 So. 21.

78. Alabama.—Cullum v. Casey, 1 Ala. 351.

California.— Thomas v. Fogarty, 19 Cal. 644.

Georgia.— Osgood v. State, 63 Ga. 791.

Missouri.— Holman v. Hogg, 83 Mo. App. 370.

Nevada.— State v. Roberts, 8 Nev. 239.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit "Courts," § 235.

Tornado furnishes unavoidable cause of absence. Allen v. State, 74 Ga. 769.

The clerk (Denver Circle R. Co. v. Martin, 10 Colo. 428, 15 Pac. 726; Denver Circle R. Co. v. Nestor, 10 Colo. 403, 15 Pac. 714; Cogswell v. Schley, 50 Ga. 481), sheriff (Flagg v. Roberts, McGloin (La.) 238. But see Thomas v. Fogarty, 19 Cal. 644), or a special judge appointed by the proper officers (Jones v. State, 11 Ind. 357) may on the non-appearance of the regular judge on the first day adjourn court.

When the first day is Monday and court is to adjourn for a week a final adjournment on Saturday is premature. Thomas v. Fogarty, 19 Cal. 644.

When judgment lien may attach from first day see Wight v. Wallbaum, 39 Ill. 554.

79. Holman v. Hogg, 83 Mo. App. 370; Garza v. State, 12 Tex. App. 261.

80. State v. Holmes, 56 Iowa 588, 9 N. W. 894, 41 Am. Rep. 121, holding that a telegram from the judge to the clerk is a written order within Iowa Code (1873), § 169.

81. Clarke v. State, 61 Ind. 75, holding that where the statute does not fix the time of notice nor prescribe the number of insertions, publication in a paper of general circulation before the holding of the term is sufficient.

Affidavit of publisher of the newspaper is sufficient proof of publication within Ind. Acts (1877), Reg. Sess. p. 28. Clarke v. State, 61 Ind. 75.

Notice by publication is unnecessary as to parties having actual and seasonable notice within N. H. Pub. Stat. c. 207, §§ 3, 4, as amended by Laws (1895), c. 56. State v. Moore, 69 N. H. 102, 40 Atl. 702.

That the clerk shall advertise the order is merely directory. Wise v. State, 34 Ga. 348.

82. Slaughter v. Gregory, 16 Ind. 250. But see Cass v. Krimbill, 39 Ind. 357.

Order may be entered nunc pro tunc (Green v. White, 18 Ind. 317), and it need not specify the manner in which public notice of such term is to be given (Conrad v. Johnson, 20 Ind. 421).

As to sufficiency of record see Shiel v. Maffett, 17 Ind. 316; Cole County v. Dallmeyer, 101 Mo. 57, 13 S. W. 687.

83. Lamont v. Williams, 43 Kan. 558, 23 Pac. 592; Green v. Morse, 57 Nebr. 391, 77 N. W. 925, 73 Am. St. Rep. 518.

An order as to the registration of voters made in the interval between the date of adjournment and the time set for court to reconvene is not coram non judice. State v. Nash, 83 Mo. App. 509.

84. State v. McBain, 102 Wis. 431, 78 N. W. 602.

e. Nature of Adjourned Term. A legally adjourned term of court is not, it has generally been determined, a distinct, independent term, but is rather regarded as a continuance or part of the same term.[85]

4. Continuance of Proceedings Beyond Term. Where the time at which a term of court shall terminate is designated by law and no authority is conferred to continue it beyond such time, all proceedings at a continuance thereof beyond that time will be void.[86] But in some states power is conferred upon a court to continue in session beyond the term for the purpose of disposing of unfinished business.[87]

5. Simultaneous and Conflicting Terms. A court cannot be held at a time when no authority therefor is conferred by law, and where the terms of a district or circuit court are fixed by statute and there is but one judge, if a court hold a term in one county during the time fixed by law for the term in another county or part of the same circuit or district its proceedings will not be sustained.[88] But where a judge is required by law to hold court in two counties at the same time it has been decided that he may in his discretion hold court in either county.[89]

That the sheriff may adjourn court on an order given by the judge see State v. Reed, 49 La. Ann. 704, 21 So. 732.

85. Arizona.— Compare Bryan v. Pinney, (1888) 17 Pac. 97.

California.— People v. Ah Ying, 42 Cal. 18.

Georgia.— Hodnett v. Stone, 93 Ga. 645, 20 S. E. 43.

Indiana.— Smith v. Smith, 17 Ind. 75.

Kansas.— Sawyer v. Bryson, 10 Kan. 199.

Kentucky.— Compare McManama v. Garnett, 3 Metc. 517.

Massachusetts.— Com. v. Justices Norfolk County Ct. Sess., 5 Mass. 435.

Missouri.— Aull v. St. Louis Trust Co., 149 Mo. 1, 50 S. W. 289; Higgins v. Ransdall, 13 Mo. 205; Fannon v. Plummer, 30 Mo. App. 25.

New Hampshire.— Eastman v. Concord, 64 N. H. 263, 8 Atl. 822.

Pennsylvania.— In re Springbrook Road, 64 Pa. St. 451.

Vermont.— Hoar v. Franklin County Jail Delivery Com'rs, 2 Vt. 402.

United States.— Florida v. Charlotte Harbor Phosphate Co., 70 Fed. 883, 17 C. C. A. 472; Memorandum, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 9,409, 1 Cranch C. C. 159.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 237.

The "additional term" provided for by the Ohio act of January, 1854, § 5 [52 Ohio Laws, p. 10] is a distinct term. Harris v. Gest, 4 Ohio St. 469.

86. Lawson v. Pulaski County, 3 Ark. 1; Ex p. Lilly, 7 S. C. 372.

An order allowing a fee cannot be made at a term subsequent to final disposition of a case. Hill v. Faison, 27 Tex. 428.

Judgment rendered after time set for term to expire is void. Wright v. Northwestern Union R. Co., 37 Wis. 391.

87. Napper v. Noland, 9 Port. (Ala.) 218; Sutherlin v. State, 150 Ind. 154, 49 N. E. 947; McDonald v. McDonald, 142 Ind. 55, 41 N. E. 336; Dorsey Mach. Co. v. McCaffrey, 139 Ind. 545, 38 N. E. 208, 47 Am. St. Rep. 290; Wayne Pike Co. v. Hammons, 129 Ind. 368, 27 N. E. 487; Walker v. State, 102 Ind. 502, 1 N. E. 856; Dorsch v. Rosenthall, 39 Ind. 209; Addington v. Wilson, 5 Ind. 137, 61 Am. Dec. 81; Mapstrick v. Ramge, 9 Nebr. 390, 2 N. W. 739, 31 Am. Rep. 415; U. S. v. Loughery, 26 Fed. Cas. No. 15,631, 13 Blatchf. 267.

The phrase "whenever any criminal case shall be on trial at the end of any term," must be taken literally. Com. v. MacLellan, 121 Mass. 31.

The power of the legislature to authorize a continuance is not restricted by express words or by implication by a constitutional provision that a court shall be held "in each county, at least twice in each year, to continue for two weeks." State v. Taylor, 76 N. C. 64; State v. Adair, 66 N. C. 298.

When no judgment is entered on a verdict during the term at which the verdict is rendered, the cause passes over to the next term for entry of judgment, disposition of a motion for a new trial, and any other action that might be taken in the case. Walker v. Moser, 117 Fed. 230, 54 C. C. A. 262. See also Jones v. Miller, (Nebr. 1902) 92 N. W. 201.

88. Arkansas.— Ex p. Williams, 69 Ark. 457, 65 S. W. 711.

Colorado.— Cooper v. American Cent. Ins. Co., 3 Colo. 318.

Indiana.— Batten v. State, 80 Ind. 394.

Iowa.— Grable v. State, 2 Greene 559.

Kansas.— In re Millington, 24 Kan. 214.

Nebraska.— Tippy v. State, 35 Nebr. 368, 53 N. W. 208.

North Carolina.— See McNeill v. McDuffie, 119 N. C. 336, 25 S. E. 871, where it is decided that acts providing for the holding of a superior court at the same time in two counties in the same judicial district are not irreconcilably in conflict, but that the judge after opening court in one county may subsequently hold court in the other county, the term not having been previously adjourned by the sheriff.

Tennessee.— Gregg v. Cooke, Peck 82.

Texas.— Wilson v. State, 37 Tex. Crim. 373, 35 S. W. 390, 38 S. W. 624, 39 S. W. 373.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 243.

89. Brock v. Gale, 14 Fla. 523, 14 Am. Rep. 356; Carland v. Custer County, 5 Mont. 579,

Again the holding of different branches of the same court by different judges at the same time may be authorized.[90] And likewise simultaneous terms of different courts may be held in the same county.[91]

6. Lapse or Discontinuance of Term. Where the judge fails to appear on the day fixed by law for the opening of a term, his non-appearance will result in the lapse and loss thereof in the absence of some constitutional or statutory provision preserving the term in such case.[92] It has been decided, however, that after a court is regularly convened the failure of the judge to appear on a distant day to which the court is adjourned does not cause a discontinuance of the term.[93] But although there is a failure to hold a term owing to the absence of the judge or other cause it is still the appearance term as to the suing out and returning of process and filing of declarations,[94] and causes both civil and criminal stand continued by operation of law.[95]

7. Proceedings in Vacation — a. In General. Although there may be no express direction to that effect, it is a general rule that all judicial business should be transacted by a court in term-time. For the transaction of such business in vacation there must be some warrant therefor, either in a constitutional or statutory provision.[96]

6 Pac. 24. But see Ex p. Jones, 49 Ark. 110, 4 S. W. 639, where such an act is declared void.

90. Cahill v. People, 106 Ill. 621; Harris v. Gest, 4 Ohio St. 469 (as to common pleas courts); Cumberland First Nat. Bank v. Parsons, 45 W. Va. 688, 32 S. E. 271 (as to circuit court). But see State v. Leahy, 1 Wis. 258.

That an adjourned term conflicts with the regular term in the same county does not render proceedings void where a special judge presides at the latter. Smurr v. State, 105 Ind. 125, 4 N. E. 445.

If a party acquiesces in setting a case for trial at an adjourned term he cannot object, when the case is called, that such term conflicts with the regular term of the court in another county, where the court has at least color of authority under the law to hold the former. Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Power, 119 Ind. 269, 21 N. E. 751.

91. Wadhams v. Hotchkiss, 80 Ill. 437; Swails v. Coverdill, 21 Ind. 271.

92. In re McClasky, 52 Kan. 34, 34 Pac. 459; In re Terrill, 52 Kan. 29, 34 Pac. 457, 39 Am. St. Rep. 327; In re McClaskey, 2 Okla. 568, 37 Pac. 854.

The appearance of parties does not render proceedings legal which are held on a subsequent day. Cullum v. Casey, 1 Ala. 351.

The setting aside a first venire and ordering the drawing of a second does not cause a term to lapse where the court remains in session. State v. Vance, 31 La. Ann. 398.

Irregularity from the failure of the clerk to perform his duty as to the daily adjournments provided for by statute upon the non-appearance of the judge does not cause the term to lapse. May v. People, 8 Colo. 210, 6 Pac. 816. Compare State v. Roberts, 8 Nev. 239.

A judge may hold court where he appears on the morning of the fourth day at eleven thirty, where a statute provides that if he does not appear on the first day the sheriff may adjourn court from day to day for three days, and on the morning of the fourth day, in the absence of the judge, he shall adjourn it until the first day of the next term. Texas Mexican R. Co. v. Douglass, 69 Tex. 694, 7 S. W. 77.

That a statute subsequently passed may validate proceedings where the judge fails to appear on the first day and court is held on a later day see Neal v. Shinn, 49 Ark. 227, 4 S. W. 771.

93. Palmer v. State, 73 Miss. 780, 20 So. 156; People v. Sullivan, 115 N. Y. 185, 21 N. E. 1039; In re Dossett, 2 Okla. 369, 37 Pac. 1066; Schofield v. Horse Springs Cattle Co., 65 Fed. 433.

94. Downey v. Smith, 13 Ill. 671; Thornton v. Fitzhugh, 10 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 438.

95. Ex p. Driver, 51 Ala. 41; Singleton v. Pidgeon, 21 Ind. 118; State v. Wells, 54 Kan. 161, 37 Pac. 1005; Thornton v. Fitzhugh, 10 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 438.

96. California.—Wicks v. Ludwig, 9 Cal. 173.

Colorado.— Thomas v. Guirand, 6 Colo. 530.

Illinois.— People v. Mobley, 2 Ill. 215.

Indiana.— Newman v. Hammond, 46 Ind. 119; Ex p. Skeen, 41 Ind. 418; Lunger v. State, 12 Ind. 483.

Louisiana.— Baltimore, etc., Tel. Co. v. Louisiana Western R. Co., 39 La. Ann. 659, 2 So. 67; State v. Judge Orleans Parish Sixth Dist. Ct., 21 La. Ann. 733. But see Berfuse's Succession, 34 La. Ann. 599.

Mississippi.— Wingate v. Wallis, 5 Sm. & M. 249.

Oklahoma.—American F. Ins. Co. v. Pappe, 4 Okla. 110, 43 Pac. 1085.

Texas.— International, etc., R. Co. v. Smith, 62 Tex. 185.

Vermont.— Yatter v. Miller, 61 Vt. 147, 17 Atl. 850.

Virginia.— Tyson v. Glaize, 23 Gratt. 799.

b. Decisions and Judgments. Decisions and judgments may in some cases be rendered in vacation where the cause has been heard and submitted during term-time.[97] But only such judgments can be rendered as are authorized by the constitution or by a statute.[98] And where a court has no jurisdiction to so act it cannot be conferred by agreement of the parties unless it is so provided by law.[99]

D. Places For Holding Terms — 1. In General. The places for holding courts are generally designated by statute which, however, should not conflict with any constitutional provision.[1] And where the place at which a court shall be held is fixed by law the judge has no power to hold such court at any other place.[2] In some cases, however, the power to designate the place for holding court has been conferred upon the judge.[3]

2. At Seat of Government or County-Seat. Ordinarily the supreme or other highest court in a state is held at the seat of government,[4] and such courts as

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 265.

Authorized by statute in some cases.— Ex p. State, 7 Ind. 347 (preliminary examination in criminal cases); Williams v. Judge Eighteenth Judicial Dist. Ct., 45 La. Ann. 1295, 14 So. 57 (expropriation suits may be tried); Kelly v. State, 79 Miss. 168, 30 So. 49 (quo warranto to try right to office).

Where case is continued nisi court has jurisdiction during vacation. Adams v. Adams, 64 N. H. 224, 9 Atl. 100.

Where by agreement of the parties a case is heard and decided before one judge of the circuit court of the United States, it will be considered as if heard and decided before and by the court. Doggett v. Emerson, 7 Fed. Cas. No. 3,961, 1 Woodb. & M. 1.

"Vacation" at common law means "all the time between the end of one term and the beginning of another," but it has been construed as covering a recess caused by an adjournment over of court for several days or weeks (Conkling v. Ridgely, 112 Ill. 36, 40, 1 N. E. 261, 54 Am. Rep. 204), and also where the court is kept open for the purpose of hearing matters ex parte, where no order of final adjournment is made, although the court ceases to meet in the court-room from day to day and no parties can be compelled to appear (Northern Indiana R. Co. v. Michigan Cent. R. Co., 2 Ind. 670). Again when the court finally adjourns it is "vacation." In re Murphy, 73 Vt. 115, 50 Atl. 817.

97. Arizona.— Woffenden v. Charouleau, (1886) 11 Pac. 61.

Idaho.—Schenk v. Birdseye, 2 Ida. (Hasb.) 130, 6 Pac. 128.

New Hampshire.— State v. Rye, 35 N. H. 368.

Vermont.— Yatter v. Miller, 61 Vt. 147, 17 Atl. 850.

Virginia.— Tyson v. Glaize, 23 Gratt. 799.

United States.—Harrison v. German-American Ins. Co., 90 Fed. 758.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 268.

98. Smith v. Chichester, 1 Cal. 409; Tyson v. Glaize, 23 Gratt. (Va.) 799.

99. Francis v. Wells, 4 Colo. 274. See also supra, II, C. 5.

1. Arkansas.— Ex p. Jones, 27 Ark. 349.

Colorado.— Beery v. U. S., 2 Colo. 186.

Georgia.— Bone v. State, 86 Ga. 108, 12 S. E. 205; Johnson v. Heitman, 67 Ga. 482.

Illinois.— Waller v. Tully, 75 Ill. 576; Rutan v. Lagonda Nat. Bank, 72 Ill. App. 35.

Indiana.— Shull v. Kennon, 12 Ind. 34.

Missouri.— Rose v. Kansas City, etc., R. Co., 128 Mo. 135, 30 S. W. 518.

New Hampshire.— Willie v. Parkhurst, 31 N. H. 415.

Virginia.— Com. v. Scott, 10 Gratt. 749.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 255.

The transfer of a cause from one place of session to another may be authorized by statute. Lillienfeld v. Com., 92 Va. 818, 23 S. E. 882.

A term of the district court cannot be held in a district which is not an organized county. State v. Osborn, 36 Kan. 530, 13 Pac. 850.

The failure of the records to state the place to which a case is adjourned may not cause loss of jurisdiction. State v. Wright, 80 Wis. 648, 50 N. W. 894.

The argument of a motion for a new trial at a place outside of the county in which the case was tried, but in the same judicial district, will not invalidate an order for a new trial duly made and entered in the county in which the action was tried. Mathias v. Cook, 57 Kan. 16, 45 Pac. 56.

2. White v. Riggs, 27 Me. 114; Hershoff v. Beverly, 43 N. J. L. 139; Gould v. Bennett, 59 N. Y. 124; Eaton, etc., R. Co. v. Varnum, 10 Ohio St. 622.

Proceedings are void if held at an unauthorized place. Williams v. Reutzel, 60 Ark. 155, 29 S. W. 374. But see State v. Peyton, 32 Mo. App. 522.

3. Campbell v. Shivers, 1 Ariz. 161, 25 Pac. 540; U. S. v. Kuntze, 2 Ida. (Hasb.) 480, 21 Pac. 407.

4. State v. Tally, 102 Ala. 25, 15 So. 722, where it is held, however, that it may adjourn to a different place in proceedings to impeach a circuit judge where such action subserves the convenience of witnesses, and in pursuance of an agreement between the state and respondent to take evidence and hear the arguments at a place other than the seat of government.

county, district, and circuit courts are generally held at the county-seat,[5] although there be no express statutory provision in reference thereto.[6] Again if a statute provides that a court shall be held at the county-seat it cannot be held elsewhere.[7]

3. Temporary Quarters. It is not in all cases essential to the validity of a court's proceedings that the court be held in the room where its sessions are usually held.[8] And in case of the destruction of the court-house by fire temporary quarters may be obtained and used,[9] as may also be done where the county-seat has been changed and there is no court-house at the new place.[10]

4. Court-Houses. A United States court which derives its right to the use and occupancy of rooms in a federal building directly from an act of congress providing for "permanent accommodations" cannot be dispossessed by the treasury department of the United States from the occupancy of such rooms as have been permanently appropriated for its use.[11] And where the control of the location of court-houses is vested in the county commissioners a circuit court of a state has no power to change the location of a court-house.[12]

5. Expenditures of Court. In the absence of some statutory provision in reference thereto it is for the court alone to determine as to what expenditures are necessary to carry on the business of the court.[13] But if there is a statute in reference thereto, the power of the court is controlled thereby.[14]

5. Jordan v. People, 19 Colo. 417, 36 Pac. 218; White County v. Gwin, 136 Ind. 562, 36 N. E. 237, 22 L. R. A. 402.

Such courts may be held at other than county-seat where authorized by statute. Woods v. McCay, 144 Ind. 316, 43 N. E. 269, 33 L. R. A. 97; Whallon v. Gridley, 51 Mich. 503, 16 N. W. 876. But see Coulter v. Routt County Com'rs, 9 Colo. 258, 11 Pac. 199.

That a place is county site de facto is sufficient. Watts v. State, 22 Tex. App. 572, 3 S. W. 769.

6. White County v. Gwin, 136 Ind. 562, 36 N. E. 237, 22 L. R. A. 402.

7. Whitener v. Belknap, 89 Tex. 273, 34 S. W. 594.

It is not necessary to hold court in the court-house, although it must be held at the county-seat. Jordan v. People, 19 Colo. 417, 36 Pac. 218.

Incursion of enemies will excuse compliance. Sevier v. Teal, 16 Tex. 371.

8. Smith v. Jones, 23 La. Ann. 43.

The regular judge may hold court in another room in the court-house where another judge has been substituted for the trial of a particular case which is in progress in the regular court-room. Courtney v. State, 5 Ind. App. 356, 32 N. E. 335. See also Reed v. State, 147 Ind. 41, 46 N. E. 135. And a judge may be authorized by statute to hold court at a place other than the court-house when it cannot be conveniently held at the latter place. Cody v. Cody, 98 Wis. 445, 74 N. W. 217. Attending and taking part in a trial is a waiver of any objection to the adjournment of a court from a court-room to another building. Mohon v. Harkreader, 18 Kan. 383. So the court may adjourn to the house of a judge who is ill. Bates v. Sabin, 64 Vt. 511, 24 Atl. 1013. And an adjournment to the house of a sick juror has been held proper. Litchfield Bank v. Church, 29 Conn. 137. But the court cannot adjourn to the home of a sick witness and proceed with the trial there. Funk v. Carroll County, 96 Iowa 158, 64 N. W. 768. See also Selleck v. Janesville, 100 Wis. 157, 75 N. W. 975, 69 Am. St. Rep. 906, 41 L. R. A. 563, as to an adjournment to the home of a sick litigant.

9. Lee v. State, 56 Ark. 4, 19 S. W. 16; Wheeler v. Wheeler, 76 Tex. 489, 13 S. W. 305; State v. Staley, 45 W. Va. 792, 32 S. E. 198.

10. Hudspeth v. State, 55 Ark. 323, 18 S. W. 183.

Where a county-seat is changed provided a convenient place for holding such court shall be furnished at another place, until such accommodations have been furnished court will be held at the former county-seat. Edwards v. Ide, 49 Conn. 507.

11. In re Lyman, 55 Fed. 29.

12. Benton County v. Thompson, 7 Ind. 265.

A county board which has care of a court-house as real estate simply, the court-house, as such, being in the custody of the sheriff and subject to the court's direction, has no power to dictate to the courts what court-rooms they shall severally occupy. Dahnke v. People, 168 Ill. 102, 48 N. E. 137, 39 L. R. A. 197 [affirming 57 Ill. App. 619]. Compare Hardin v. Sangamon County, 71 Ill. App. 103, as to the authority and the duty of a sheriff.

Use of elevators.—Where the county commissioners refuse to permit the use of an elevator in a court-house, which is the principal means of reaching the circuit court rooms, the court may on refusal of the one in charge of the elevator to run it direct the sheriff to take charge of and run the same. Vigo County v. Stout, 136 Ind. 53, 35 N. E. 683, 22 L. R. A. 398.

13. State v. Smith, 5 Mo. App. 427.

14. Nienaber v. Tarvin, 104 Ky. 149, 46

V. JUDGES AND OFFICERS.

A. Designation, Assignment, and Attendance of Judges — 1. In General. The designation, assignment, and attendance of judges is generally controlled by statute either by direct provisions or by a delegation of power to the courts themselves.[15]

2. Holding Court in Another Circuit. In those states where circuit courts are in existence it has been held that a judge of one circuit may preside in and hold a court for a term or for a single trial where the presiding judge of the latter circuit is absent.[16]

3. Power to Enforce Attendance. The supreme court of a state has the power to enforce the attendance of its members, such power being indispensable to its very existence.[17]

B. Attendance of Officers. It is frequently provided by statute that the sheriff of a county shall attend certain courts. Where this provision is construed as a directory one his presence is not necessary to the organization or continuance of the court.[18] And where such attendance is required the presence of a duly qualified deputy sheriff is in contemplation of law attendance by the sheriff.[19]

VI. RULES OF COURT.

A. Regulation of Procedure — 1. Constitutional and Statutory Provisions. It is within the power of the legislature, subject to such provisions as may be incorporated in the constitution, to establish the procedure by which courts shall exercise their jurisdiction.[20]

S. W. 513, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 451; State v. Wear, 140 Mo. 487, 41 S. W. 967.

Ice has been held not one of the things "necessary for the proper furnishing of the offices of the register of wills and of orphans' court." Commercial Ice Co. v. Philadelphia, 6 Pa. Super. Ct. 299, 42 Wkly. Notes Cas. (Pa.) 255.

15. Brunswick First Nat. Bank v. Lime Rock F. & M. Ins. Co., 56 Me. 424, holding that the presence of the presiding judge is essential to constitute "a session of the supreme judicial court," under Me. Rev. Stat. c. 82, § 1.

A limitation by the assignment of the powers and duties of the justice assigned by the general term has been held not to invalidate the assignment even if improper. McLane v. Cropper, 6 App. Cas. (D. C.) 422.

Statutes must not violate the constitutional provisions in reference to courts. Jordan v. People, 19 Colo. 417, 36 Pac. 218; Hall v. Hamilton, 74 Ill. 437; Beauchamp v. State, 6 Blackf. (Ind.) 299.

As to qualification, appointment, and tenure of judges see Judges.

16. Grant v. State, 62 Ala. 233; Flemming v. Lyon, 3 McCord (S. C.) 183.

A statute to this effect is not unconstitutional. Bradley v. Barbour, 74 Ill. 475; Hall v. Hamilton, 74 Ill. 437; Beauchamp v. State, 6 Blackf. (Ind.) 299.

As to power of military governor of a state to order the holding of courts by judges of other courts see Lanfear v. Mestier, 18 La. Ann. 497, 89 Am. Dec. 658.

In New York a justice of the supreme court may accept an assignment outside of his own department, although it has been declared that he is not obliged to accept. People v. Herrmann, 149 N. Y. 190, 43 N. E. 546.

17. Opinion of Chief Justice, 8 Fla. 496.

18. McGuffie v. State, 17 Ga. 497.

A provision that a constable attend the sittings of a district court refers to attendance on the court when sitting for the performance of its judicial functions. Lewis v. Hoboken, 42 N. J. L. 377.

19. McGuffie v. State, 17 Ga. 497.

20. California.— Ex p. Harker, 49 Cal. 465.

Illinois.— O'Connor v. Leddy, 64 Ill. 299.

New York.— In re Bowery Extension, 19 Barb. 588.

North Carolina.— McAdoo v. Benbow, 63 N. C. 461.

Pennsylvania.— Com. v. Dieffenbach, 3 Grant 368.

Texas.— Texas Land Co. v. Williams, 48 Tex. 602.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 275.

A constitutional provision for uniformity of practice and proceedings in courts operates to abrogate all special laws in relation to practice in force at the time of the adoption of the constitution. O'Connor v. Leddy, 64 Ill. 299.

Courts of equity. — A statute prescribing regulations for the practice of courts has been held not to embrace courts of equity without express words to that effect or plain implication. Sandridge v. Spurgen, 37 N. C. 269.

Where a positive rule of practice is given by statute, courts have no discretion in the matter. Stevens v. Ross, 1 Cal. 94; Piggott v. Ramey, 2 Ill. 145.

2. Power of Court to Make Rules — a. In General. Courts are in some cases authorized by statute to make their own rules for the regulation of their practice and the conduct of their business, and in the absence of any statutory provision or regulation in reference thereto a court has the inherent power to make such rules,[21] subject, however, to this limitation, that a court can make no rule which is unreasonable, which deprives a party of his legal rights, or which is in contravention of a statute or of the law of the land.[22]

b. As Affecting Practice in Another Court. In the absence of some authority either under the constitution or a statute, an appellate court has no power to make rules which are binding on an inferior court as to practice and proceedings in the latter.[23] Nor similarly are the rules of a court in one county binding on the corresponding court in another county.[24]

B. Matters Subject to Regulation — 1. In General. Only such matters as are not regulated by general or special laws in reference to practice and procedure may be regulated by a rule of court,[25] and there must be a compliance

21. Alabama.—Ex p. Birmingham, 134 Ala. 609, 33 So. 13, 59 L. R. A. 572.

Connecticut.— Sanford v. Sanford, 28 Conn. 6.

District of Columbia.— Reynolds v. Smith, 18 D. C. 27, 17 Wash. L. Rep. 117; National Metropolitan Bank v. Hitz, MacArthur & M. 198.

Illinois.— Prindeville v. People, 42 Ill. 217; Holloway v. Freeman, 22 Ill. 197; Hopper v. Mather, 104 Ill. App. 309; Beveridge v. Hewitt, 8 Ill. App. 467. See also Hinckley v. Dean, 104 Ill. 630.

Indiana.— State v. Van Cleave, 157 Ind. 608, 62 N. E. 446; Fletcher v. Holmes, 25 Ind. 458.

Missouri.— Brooks v. Boswell, 34 Mo. 474; Nutter v. Houston, 42 Mo. App. 363; Maloney v. Hunt, 29 Mo. App. 379.

Nebraska.— Hunter v. Union L. Ins. Co., 58 Nebr. 198, 78 N. W. 516.

New York.— Francis v. Watkins, 171 N. Y. 682, 64 N. E. 1120; Vanderheyden v. Reid, Hopk. Ch. 408.

Oregon.— Coyote, etc., Co. v. Ruble, 9 Oreg. 121; Carney v. Barrett, 4 Oreg. 171.

Pennsylvania.—In re McCandless Tp. Road, 110 Pa. St. 605, 1 Atl. 594; Gannon v. Fritz, 79 Pa. St. 303; Snyder v. Bauchman, 8 Serg. & R. 336; Dubois v. Turner, 4 Yeates 361.

South Dakota.— Smith v. Hawley, 11 S. D. 399, 78 N. W. 355.

Tennessee.— Boring v. Griffith, 1 Heisk. 456.

Vermont.— Jones v. Spear, 21 Vt. 426.

United States.— Lawrence v. Bowman, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,134, 1 McAll. 419.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 274.

Rules altering the practice previously settled by decision may be made. Havemeyer v. Ingersoll, 12 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 301. Compare Bachman v. Sulzbacher, 5 S. C. 58.

A commission to hear and determine claims has been held to have power to make rules. Guthrie Nat. Bank v. Guthrie, 173 U. S. 528, 19 S. Ct. 513, 43 L. ed. 796.

22. California.— People v. McClellan, 31 Cal. 101; Stevens v. Ross, 1 Cal. 94.

Illinois.— Fisher v. National Bank of Commerce, 73 Ill. 34; Prindeville v. People, 42 Ill. 217; Beveridge v. Hewitt, 8 Ill. App. 467; Crotty v. Wyatt, 3 Ill. App. 388.

Kentucky.— Kennedy v. Cunningham, 2 Metc. 538.

Louisiana.— State v. Judges Fifth Cir., 37 La. Ann. 596; State v. Posey, 17 La. Ann. 252, 87 Am. Dec. 525.

Maryland.— Main v. Lynch, 54 Md. 658.

Missouri.— Purcell v. Hannibal, etc., R. Co., 50 Mo. 504; Nutter v. Houston, 42 Mo. App. 363; Maloney v. Hunt, 29 Mo. App. 379.

New Jersey.— Hinchly v. Machine, 15 N. J. L. 476.

New York.— Gormerly v. McGlynn, 84 N. Y. 284.

Oregon.— Coyote, etc., Co. v. Ruble, 9 Oreg. 121; Carney v. Barrett, 4 Oreg. 171.

Pennsylvania.— In re McCandless Tp. Road, 110 Pa. St. 605, 1 Atl. 594; Gannon v. Fritz, 79 Pa. St. 303; Barry v. Randolph, 3 Binn. 277; Dubois v. Turner, 4 Yeates 361.

Virginia.— Suckley v. Rotchford, 12 Gratt. 60, 65 Am. Dec. 240.

United States.— Saylor v. Taylor, 77 Fed. 476, 23 C. C. A. 343.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 276.

The legality of a rule of court cannot be questioned by proceedings brought in the name of a private citizen. Holcomb v. Reporter-Journal Pub. Co., (Pa. 1886) 3 Atl. 243.

Where the discretion of the court is unlimited at common law in certain matters judges cannot make a rule restricting such discretion. De Lorme v. Pease, 19 Ga. 220.

A court on an appeal from a surrogate is not restricted as to the method of its procedure by a statute providing that the court in such case shall proceed as the court of probate might have proceeded. Vanderheyden v. Reid, Hopk. (N. Y.) 408.

23. Smith v. Valentine, 19 Minn. 452; Ex p. Larkin, 11 Nev. 90. See also State v. Fenly, 18 Mo. 445; Trotter v. Heckscher, 41 N. J. Eq. 478, 4 Atl. 784.

24. Clayton's Estate, 1 Chest. Co. Rep. (Pa.) 21.

25. Palmer v. Phenix Ins. Co., 22 Hun (N. Y.) 224; Stedman v. Poterie, 139 Pa. St. 100, 103, 21 Atl. 219, 27 Wkly. Notes Cas. (Pa.) 270.

Affidavit of defense may be required independent of any special legislation on the subject. Hogg v. Charlton, 25 Pa. St. 200.

with such rules where they are lawfully prescribed.[26] These general principles have been applied in construing rules of court as to the time of trial,[27] calendars,[28] procedure and practice in general,[29] a motion to require security for costs,[30] time of application for change of venue,[31] presenting or filing complaints, pleadings, and other papers,[32] process,[33] defaults,[34] trial by jury,[35] admissibility and reception of evidence,[36] exceptions to auditor's report,[37] time for presenting special instructions and interrogatories to the jury,[38] entry of judgment,[39] applications for a rehearing,[40] appeals,[41] submission of civil causes on abstracts of record,[42] and fees and costs.[43]

A rule authorizing summary trial of actions defended for delay is void where inconsistent with the general law. Angel v. Plume, etc., Mfg. Co., 73 Ill. 412; Fisher v. National Bank of Commerce, 73 Ill. 34.

26. Jones v. Menefee, 28 Kan. 436 (holding that district courts may prescribe by rule that cases shall be noticed for settlement within a certain time); Maberry v. Morse, 43 Me. 176 (holding that there must be compliance with the rule that all objections should be in writing); Peck's Appeal, 11 Wkly. Notes Cas. (Pa.) 31 (holding that a court may by rule require that exceptions to an auditor's account be accompanied by affidavit that they were not filed for purposes of delay).

27. Angel v. Plume, etc., Mfg. Co., 73 Ill. 412.

A rule that on affidavit that a defense is for delay only plaintiff may on giving five days' notice bring the cause to trial has been held within the power of the court. Wallbaum v. Haskin, 49 Ill. 313. But a rule allowing cases, where there is no defense, to be taken out of their docket order is unconstitutional. Sea v. Glover, 1 Ill. App. 335.

28. Merchants' Nat. Bank v. Greenhood, 16 Mont. 395, 41 Pac. 250, 851.

29. Gibbes v. Mitchell, 2 Bay (S. C.) 467; Jones v. Spear, 21 Vt. 426.

Where parties desire the court to state in writing its findings of fact separately from its conclusions of law, the court may require by rule that the request shall be made at the commencement of the trial. Schuler v. Collins, 63 Kan. 372, 65 Pac. 662.

30. Pancoast v. Travelers Ins. Co., 79 Ind. 172.

31. Hoke v. Applegate, 92 Ind. 570; Jones v. Rittenhouse, 87 Ind. 348; Thompson v. Pershing, 86 Ind. 303; Truitt v. Truitt, 38 Ind. 16; Vail v. McKernan, 21 Ind. 421; Anglemyer v. Blackburn, 16 Ind. App. 352, 45 N. E. 483.

32. Minnesota.— Fagebank v. Fagebank, 9 Minn. 72.

New Hampshire.— Carr v. Adams, 70 N. H. 622, 45 Atl. 1084.

Pennsylvania.— In re McCandless Tp. Road, 110 Pa. St. 605, 1 Atl. 524; Lehman v. Howley, 95 Pa. St. 295; In re Little Britain Road, 27 Pa. St. 69.

Texas.— New York Fidelity, etc., Co. v. Carter, 23 Tex. Civ. App. 359, 57 S. W. 315.

Washington.— Washington Bank v. Horn, 24 Wash. 299, 64 Pac. 534.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 287.

33. The Planet Venus, 113 Fed. 387.

Alias attachment writ may be allowed by rule, such writ not being prohibited by statute. Van Benschoten v. Fales, 126 Mich. 176, 85 N. W. 476.

34. Hurst v. Hawkins, 40 Mich. 575; Wyandotte Rolling Mills Co. v. Robinson, 34 Mich. 428; Howard v. Tomlinson, 27 Mich. 168.

35. Gambrill v. Parker, 31 Md. 1.

Court may deny defendant a trial by jury where he refuses to furnish an affidavit of his own belief that the claim is disputable. Jones v. Spear, 21 Vt. 426.

Where trial by jury, unless expressly waived, is provided for by statute, a court cannot make a rule that a jury shall be considered as waived, unless demanded at a certain term. Ten Eyck v. Farlee, 16 N. J. L. 348.

36. Thus rules have been sustained in reference to the admission of office copies of deeds (Sellars v. Carpenter, 27 Me. 497), which provide that the whole testimony on both sides shall be offered before any question of law is raised (Gist v. Drakely, 2 Gill (Md.) 330, 41 Am. Dec. 426), which provide that parties shall be confined on the trial of an action to the grounds of defense stated in the specification filed by them with the clerk (Fox v. Conway F. Ins. Co., 53 Me. 107), and which provide that a defendant deny by affidavit the execution of an instrument on which suit is brought (Odenheimer v. Stokes, 5 Watts & S. (Pa.) 175). But a court cannot enforce a rule which has the effect of admitting illegal evidence (Kennedy v. Meredith, 3 Bibb (Ky.) 465), nor can it control the rights of parties in matters of evidence admissible by general principles of law (Patterson v. Winn, 5 Pet. (U. S.) 233, 8 L. ed. 108).

Appointment of examiners by court of quarter sessions in Pennsylvania to take testimony in contested election cases has been held proper. In re Election Cases, 65 Pa. St. 20.

37. In re Mylin, 7 Watts (Pa.) 64.

38. Ollam v. Shaw, 27 Ind. 388; Bell v. North, 4 Litt. (Ky.) 133.

39. Harres v. Com., 35 Pa. St. 416.

40. Brooks v. Dolard, McGloin (La.) 279; Burch v. Newberry, 3 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 271, 1 Code Rep. (N. Y.) 41.

41. Pinders v. Yager, 29 Iowa 468; Ismond v. Scougale, 119 Mich. 501, 78 N. W. 546; Sayer v. Kirchhof, 3 Misc. (N. Y.) 245, 22 N. Y. Suppl. 773; Frost v. Roatch, 6 Whart. (Pa.) 359; Kuhn v. Kisterhock, 6 Whart. (Pa.) 166.

42. Smith v. Guckenheimer, 42 Fla. 1, 27 So. 900.

43. Meffert v. Dubuque, etc., R. Co., 34

2. Jurisdiction. The jurisdiction of a court as conferred by the constitution or a statute cannot be enlarged or diminished by a rule of court.[44]

C. Operation and Force — 1. In General. A rule of court cannot operate so as to render valid anything which is void in law,[45] nor can it supersede a statute.[46] But where a court is authorized to establish its own rules, such rules, when not repugnant to or in conflict with the organic laws, have all the force of law,[47] and likewise as to an inferior court whose rules are prescribed by an appellate court.[48]

2. Construction of Rules. A reasonable interpretation should be given to the rules of a court so as to effectuate the purposes for which they were adopted.[49] And while a court may have authority to make its own rules it is not in all cases the final and conclusive judge of the construction and legal effect thereof.[50] An appellate court, however, will generally adopt the construction which an inferior court has placed on its rules of practice,[51] unless it clearly appears that there has been manifest and material error in their construction and application.[52]

3. Time of Taking Effect. Rules of court should only operate prospectively;[53]

Iowa 430; McGreevy v. Kulp, 126 Pa. St. 97, 17 Atl. 541; Salt Lake City v. Redwine, 6 Utah 335, 23 Pac. 756.

A court has no power to adopt a rule allowing a fee to complainant's solicitor where a decree or order of sale is passed. McCullough v. Pierce, 55 Md. 540.

A board of justices of the municipal court in New York city have no power to create and, exact fees. Matter of Hale, 32 Misc. (N. Y.) 104, 65 N. Y. Suppl. 449.

44. Rozier v. Williams, 92 Ill. 187; Brown v. Snell, 46 Me. 490; The St. Lawrence, 1 Black (U. S.) 522, 17 L. ed. 180; The Brig Hiram, 23 Ct. Cl. 431.

45. Pickett v. Pickett, 1 How. (Miss.) 267.

46. Cates v. Mack, 6 Colo. 401.

47. District of Columbia.— District of Columbia v. Roth, 18 App. Cas. 547.

Illinois.— Gage v. Eddy, 166 Ill. 102, 47 N. E. 200; Kluesmith v. Van Bramer, 104 Ill. App. 384; Hopper v. Mather, 104 Ill. App. 309.

Iowa.— David v. Ætna Ins. Co., 9 Iowa 45.

Louisiana.— Walker v. Ducros, 18 La. Ann. 703.

Maine.— Maberry v. Morse, 43 Me. 176.

Maryland.— Dunbar v. Conway, 11 Gill & J. 92.

Massachusetts.— Pratt v. Pratt, 157 Mass. 503, 32 N. E. 747, 21 L. R. A. 97.

Nevada.— Lightle v. Ivancovich, 10 Nev. 41.

New Jersey.— Ogden v. Robertson, 15 N. J. L. 124.

North Carolina.— State v. Edwards, 110 N. C. 511, 14 S. E. 741.

Ohio.— Wood v. Ward, 1 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 589, 10 West. L. J. 505.

Pennsylvania.— Strouse v. Miller, 3 Dauph. Co. Rep. 90.

Wyoming.— Johns v. Adams, 2 Wyo. 194.

United States.— Rio Grande Irr., etc., Co. v. Gildersleeve, 174 U. S. 603, 19 S. Ct. 761, 43 L. ed. 1103.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 294.

It is not negligence for parties or their attorneys to assume that the rules of a court regulating practice will be observed and enforced. Consolidated Rapid Transit, etc., R. Co. v. O'Neill, 25 Ill. App. 313.

Where by a long-established usage returns to writs of error are made without the signature of the judge, which is also not required by any statute, a court of appeals will not in view thereof hold a return defective regardless of whether such signature is required. State v. Buchanan, 5 Harr. & J. (Md.) 317, 9 Am. Dec. 534.

48. Chester Traction Co v. Philadelphia, etc., R. Co., 180 Pa. St. 432, 36 Atl. 916, 40 Wkly. Notes Cas. (Pa.) 49.

49. Ferguson v. Kays, 21 N. J. L. 431.

Construction of particular rules.— An adjourned term is not included in a rule of court which requires that appearance shall be entered at the term next succeeding the term at which the case is entered. Larman v. Tisdale, 11 How. (U. S.) 586, 13 L. ed. 823. And issues out of chancery are not subject to a rule which requires that a report of the evidence be filed before moving for judgment on a special verdict. Purcell v. McKune, 14 Cal. 230. Again where a rule of court provides that a defendant in default for want of a plea shall if required by plaintiff show that he has a meritorious defense, plead issuably, and proceed to trial, a defendant who comes within the application of this rule cannot plead the statute of limitations. Wood v. Ward, 1 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 589, 10 West. L. J. 505.

50. Rathbone v. Rathbone, 4 Pick. (Mass.) 89. But see Hunter v. Union L. Ins. Co., 58 Nebr. 198, 78 N. W. 516.

51. Simmons v. Morrison, 13 App. Cas. (D. C.) 161; Mix v. Chandler, 44 Ill. 174.

52. Bair v. Hubartt, 139 Pa. St. 96, 21 Atl. 210, 27 Wkly. Notes Cas. (Pa.) 272; Morrison v. Nevin, 130 Pa. St. 344, 18 Atl. 636.

53. Poyntz v. Reynolds, 37 Fla. 533, 19 So. 649; Owens v. Ranstead, 22 Ill. 161; Smith v. Lee, 10 Nev. 208; Reist v. Heilbrenner, 11 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 131.

An amendment of a rule as to the record does not apply to a case tried before such amendment was made. Rawlings v. Neal, 122 N. C. 173, 29 S. E. 93.

and rules of court should not be in force until after reasonable publicity and notice thereof.[54]

4. Non-Compliance With Rules. Non-compliance with a rule requiring applications for a change of venue to be made at least one day before the cause is set for trial is excused where prejudice on the part of the judge which was not known in time to comply with the rule is alleged in the affidavit.[55] And a person is not subject to such a rule who has entered into a voluntary appearance to an action after the date set for the trial of the case.[56] Again where a rule is made merely for the convenience of the clerk a non-compliance therewith cannot be taken advantage of by the opposite party whose rights have not been affected thereby.[57]

5. Modification, Suspension, or Rescission — a. Power of Court. There are numerous cases which declare that rules of court should be adhered to both by parties litigant and the court, in all cases which fall within them so long as they remain in force, and that the court has no power in a particular case, where no discretion is reserved, to suspend or modify any rule which it has made.[58] It has generally been decided, however, that rules of court are but a means to accomplish the ends of justice, and that the court always has the power to modify, suspend, or rescind its own rules whenever justice requires it.[59] But if the rules of a court are prescribed by a higher court, under a statute, the court for which such rules are prescribed has no authority to modify or suspend the same.[60] And rules adopted by a whole body of judges or a majority of them should be observed

54. Owens v. Ranstead, 22 Ill. 161; Risher v. Thomas, 2 Mo. 98; Smith v. Lee, 10 Nev. 208.

Admission of attorneys.— A provision that after the adoption of rules as to admission to the bar copies are to be filed in the office of the secretary of state, who must transmit a printed copy thereof to the clerk of each county, and also cause the same to be published in the next ensuing volume of the session laws, has been held directory merely. In re Maxwell, 14 N. Y. Suppl. 658.

55. Galloway v. State, 29 Ind. 442.

56. Truitt v. Truitt, 38 Ind. 16.

57. Kennedy v. Kennedy, 18 N. J. L. 51.

58. California.— Hanson v. McCue, 43 Cal. 178.

Illinois.— Beveridge v. Hewitt, 8 Ill. App. 467.

Indiana.— Magnuson v. Billings, 152 Ind. 177, 52 N. E. 803.

Iowa.—Burlington, etc., R. Co. v. Marchand, 5 Iowa 468.

Louisiana.— Walker v. Ducros, 18 La. Ann. 703.

Maine.— Witzler v. Collins, 70 Me. 290, 35 Am. Rep. 327.

Maryland.— Quynn v. Brooke, 22 Md. 288; Hughes v. Jackson, 12 Md. 450; Dunbar v. Conway, 11 Gill. & J. 92; Wall v. Wall, 2 Harr. & G. 79.

Massachusetts.— Pratt v. Pratt, 157 Mass. 503, 32 N. E. 747, 21 L. R. A. 97; Thompson v. Hatch, 3 Pick. 512.

New Jersey.— Ogden v. Robertson, 15 N. J. L. 124.

Oregon.— Coyote, etc., Co. v. Ruble, 9 Oreg. 121.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 295.

A rule which has become permanently engrafted in a system of law and sanctioned by a long series of repeated adjudications cannot be revoked in a particular case. Powell v. Waters, 8 Cow. (N. Y.) 669.

59. California.— Symons v. Bunnell, (1889) 20 Pac. 859; Sullivan v. Wallace, 73 Cal. 307, 14 Pac. 789; Chielovich v. Krauss, (1886) 9 Pac. 945; People v. Williams, 32 Cal. 280.

Georgia.— Snipes v. Parker, 98 Ga. 522, 25 S. E. 580.

Kansas.— Dolan v. Stone, 63 Kan. 450, 65 Pac. 641.

Minnesota.— Gillette-Herzog Mfg. Co. v. Ashton, 55 Minn. 75, 56 N. W. 576; Sheldon v. Risedorph, 23 Minn. 518.

New Hampshire.— Eastman v. Amoskeag Mfg. Co., 44 N. H. 143, 82 Am. Dec. 201; Deming v. Foster, 42 N. H. 165.

New York.— Apel v. O'Connor, 39 Hun 482; Burch v. Newberry, 3 How. Pr. 271, 1 Code Rep. 41.

Pennsylvania.— Lance v. Bonnell, 105 Pa. St. 46; McBeth v. Newlin, 15 Wkly. Notes Cas. 129; Lewis v. Jones, 10 Kulp 32.

South Carolina.— Ex p. Clyde, 14 S. C. 385.

Texas.— De Leon v. Owen, 3 Tex. 153.

Vermont.— Plattsburg First Nat. Bank v. Post, 65 Vt. 222, 25 Atl. 1093; McNeish v. U. S. Hullness Oat Co., 57 Vt. 316.

United States.—U. S. v. Breitling, 20 How. 252, 15 L. ed. 900; Southern Pac. Co. v. Johnson, 69 Fed. 559, 16 C. C. A. 317; Southern Pac. Co. v. Hamilton, 54 Fed. 468, 4 C. C. A. 441; Mutual Bldg. Fund Soc., etc., Bank v. Bossieux, 17 Fed. Cas. No. 9,977, 1 Hughes 386; Russell v. McLellan, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,158, 3 Woodb. & M. 157; Wallace v. Clark, 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,098, 3 Woodb. & M. 359.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 295.

60. State v. Call, 39 Fla. 504, 22 So. 748; Baker v. Blood, 128 Mass. 543; Detroit, etc., R. Co. v. Eaton Cir. Judge, 128 Mich. 495, 87 and enforced by single judges.[61] Again where a lower court has the power to make its own rules they cannot be suspended by a higher court in a particular case.[62]

b. By Statute. Where the authority exists in the legislature to regulate the practice and procedure in courts, the rules of a court may be amended, rescinded, or repealed by statute.[63]

c. By Parties. Where rules are prescribed by a court no unqualified right exists in parties to stipulate for the abrogation of the same.[64]

6. Record and Evidence of Rules. Rules of court cannot rest in parol, but must be placed upon the records of the court.[65] Such records are the only competent evidence of the existence of a rule of court.[66]

VII. Rules of Adjudication, Decisions, Opinions, and Records.

A. Mode and Principles of Adjudication — 1. In General. The business of a court is confined to giving decisions to causes properly before it.[67] And where a decision of the United States circuit court is being reviewed collaterally by the supreme court of a state, the latter will not give a judgment at variance with its own view of the law, where such view accords with that of the circuit court, in order that the question may be reviewed by the United States supreme court.[68] Nor will a court of last resort in a state in deciding a cause between those who are parties to another cause in a circuit court give a decision upon a question in that action, where the decision of such question is not necessary to the disposition of the cause by it.[69] But if two cases in a court of last resort appear to be in irreconcilable conflict as to the right of a complainant to maintain a bill, a demurrer to such bill will be sustained so that a speedy determination of the right may be obtained.[70]

2. When Court May Decline to Act. Where the same questions are before a court of last resort and a lower court in the same case, and the latter's decision will in any event be nugatory, it will not pass upon the question.[71]

N. W. 641; Shamokin, etc., Light, etc., Co. v. John, 18 Pa. Super. Ct. 498.

Rules of United States supreme court prescribed by authority of congress are binding on the circuit courts, except where they remit power to such courts in certain cases. Poultney v. La Fayette, 13 Pet. (U. S.) 472, 9 L. ed. 1161.

61. Tripp v. Brownell, 2 Gray (Mass.) 402; In re Livingston, 34 N. Y. 555; People v. Nichols, 18 Hun (N. Y.) 530.

62. Baker v. State, 84 Wis. 584, 54 N. W. 1003.

63. Jordan v. White, 20 Minn. 91. See Shane v. McNeill, 76 Iowa 459, 41 N. W. 166.

64. Reynolds v. Lawrence, 15 Cal. 359.

65. Owens v. Ranstead, 22 Ill. 161. But that adoption of written rules is not essential in establishing or changing a court's practice see Duncan v. U. S., 7 Pet. (U. S.) 435, 8 L. ed. 739.

Rules must be adopted of record by the court, although they need not be spread in full on the record. State v. Ensley, 10 Iowa 149.

A single record showing assent of the several judges of a circuit to rules jointly adopted by them is sufficient, although there is no authority for such judges to jointly hold a term. Gage v. Eddy, 167 Ill. 102, 47 N. E. 200.

Where rules are made known by publication they may be enforced before actual filing in clerk's office. State v. Ensley, 10 Iowa 149.

66. Davis v. Northwestern El. R. Co., 170 Ill. 595, 48 N. E. 1058; Roby v. Title Guarantee, etc., Co., 166 Ill. 336, 46 N. E. 1110.

The affidavit of counsel to the effect that there was no general rule or order of court for the opening of depositions does not establish the non-existence of such rule or order, as rules of court must be proved by the record, and their non-existence by the testimony of the clerk of court. Hughes v. Humphreys, 102 Ill. App. 194.

In Louisiana it has been decided that the court of appeals cannot take ex officio notice of the rules of a lower court, nor receive evidence to show their existence or character. Dours v. Cazentre, McGloin (La.) 251.

67. Mississippi v. Durham, 4 Mackey (D. C.) 235.

68. Lord v. Cannon, 75 Ga. 300.

69. Maghee v. Robinson, 98 Ill. 458.

70. Graver v. Faurot, 64 Fed. 241.

71. New York, etc., R. Co. v. Woodruff, 42 Fed. 468.

In an election contest a court will not assume jurisdiction for any purpose where a trial by it would be a fruitless proceeding and another trial by the state senate would be necessary to determine the rights of the parties. Ellison v. Barnes, 23 Utah 183, 63 Pac. 899.

3. AGREEMENT OF PARTIES AS TO MODE. A court will not be bound by an agreement of the parties that an action at law may be decided on the same principles as though it were pending in a court of equity.[72]

4. PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE SHOULD NOT AFFECT. In all judicial investigations the decision of the court should be given according to the proofs, unaffected by any personal knowledge of the facts of the case under advisement.[73]

5. STATUTORY PROVISIONS. A statutory provision that a court may in certain cases render such judgment as substantial justice shall require is to be construed as meaning substantial legal justice ascertained and determined by fixed rules and positive statutes, and not the abstract, varying notions of equity entertained by each individual.[74]

6. WHERE INTEREST OF PARTIES IN DECISION HAS CEASED. Whether a decision of a case involving a question which has ceased to be of practical interest to the parties will be given by the court depends on whether the question is one of great public importance.[75]

B. Previous Decisions as Controlling or as Precedents — 1. IN GENERAL. As a general rule where a principle of law has become settled by a series of decisions it is binding on the courts and should be followed.[76] But it has been determined that a single decision is not necessarily binding.[77] Again the maxim stare decisis is not imperative;[78] and an opinion is not authority for what is not mentioned therein and what does not appear to have been suggested to the court from which the opinion emanates.[79]

72. Fagan v. Jacocks, 15 N. C. 263.

73. Mills v. Paynter, 1 Nebr. 440.

74. Stevens v. Ross, 1 Cal. 94.

75. Matter of Cuddeback, 3 N. Y. App. Div. 103, 39 N. Y. Suppl. 388.

76. Martin v. Martin, 25 Ala. 201; Ferris v. Coover, 11 Cal. 175; Morgan v. Parker, 1 Dana (Ky.) 444.

The doctrine of stare decisis has no application to findings of fact. Stern v. Fountain, 112 Iowa 96, 83 N. W. 826. See McWilliams v. Bonner, 69 Ark. 99, 61 S. W. 378.

Where the constitution and laws of the federal government are to be expounded it is important that there be uniformity of decision. Ferris v. Coover, 11 Cal. 175.

As to extending scope of decision.— The power and duty to maintain the fundamental law of the constitution being intrusted to the United States supreme court it is not required under the rule of stare decisis to extend the scope of any decision upon a constitutional question, where it is convinced that error in principle might supervene. Pollock v. Farmers' L. & T. Co., 157 U. S. 429, 15 S. Ct. 673, 30 L. ed. 759.

Failure to give grounds of decision.— The authority of a decision of the supreme court of the United States upholding a rule of a court is not lessened by the former court's failure to give the grounds for its decision, as this omission does not give rise to an inference that it had doubts as to the validity of the rule, but rather that it regarded the grounds of challenge to such validity as without foundation. Fidelity, etc., Co. v. U. S., 187 U. S. 315, 23 S. Ct. 120, 47 L. ed. 194.

77. California.—Duff v. Fisher, 15 Cal. 375.

Indiana.— Jackson County v. State, 155 Ind. 604, 58 N. E. 1037.

Kentucky.—Montgomery County Fiscal Ct. v. Trimble, 104 Ky. 629, 47 S. W. 773, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 827, 42 L. R. A. 738.

Louisiana.— Smith v. Smith, 13 La. 441.

South Carolina.— State v. Williams, 13 S. C. 546.

Utah.— Kimball v. Grantsville, 19 Utah 368, 57 Pac. 1, 45 L. R. A. 628.

Washington.—McDonald v. Davey, 22 Wash. 366, 60 Pac. 1116.

Wisconsin.— Pratt v. Brown, 3 Wis. 603.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 314.

A decision in conflict with prior decisions and not supported by reason or authority will not be adhered to where it is not probable that property rights will be seriously affected. Young v. Downey, 150 Mo. 317, 51 S. W. 751. See Truxton v. Fait, etc., Co., 1 Pennew. (Del.) 483, 42 Atl. 431, 73 Am. St. Rep. 81.

78. Colorado Seminary v. Arapahoe County, 30 Colo. 507, 71 Pac. 410; Kneeland v. Milwaukee, 15 Wis. 454.

Positive authority of a decision is coextensive only with the facts upon which it is founded. Grimes v. Bryne, 2 Minn. 89. See Southern Pac. R. Co. v. Robinson, 132 Cal. 408, 64 Pac. 572; Reed v. Reed, 114 Mass. 372.

"Precedents are to be regarded as the great storehouse of experience; not always to be followed, but to be looked to as beacon lights in the progress of judicial investigation, which, although, at times, they be liable to conduct us to the paths of error, yet, may be important aids in lighting our footsteps in the road to truth." Per Bartley, C. J., in Leavitt v. Morrow, 6 Ohio St. 71, 78, 67 Am. Dec. 334.

English privy council is not concluded by former decisions in other ecclesiastical cases. Read v. Lincoln, [1892] A. C. 644, 56 J. P. 725, 62 L. J. P. C. 1, 67 L. T. Rep. N. S. 128, 46 Alb. L. J. 365.

79. Gage v. Parker, 178 Ill. 455, 53 N. E.

2. Decisions of Courts of Same State — a. Of Same Court — (I) In General. Upon the principle of stare decisis the decisions which have been rendered by a court will be adhered to by such court in subsequent cases, unless there is something manifestly erroneous therein,[80] or the rule or principle of law established by such decisions has been changed by legislative enactment.[81]

(II) By Divided Court. A decision rendered by a divided court is not generally considered obligatory as a precedent.[82]

(III) Statute That Unanimous Decision Shall Not Be Overruled. A statute providing that unanimous decisions shall never be overruled but shall be followed as law cannot operate retrospectively, and so far as it may tend to so operate it will to this extent be unconstitutional.[83]

b. Of Coördinate Courts. A decision by a state court unless clearly erroneous should be followed by other courts of coördinate jurisdiction until the question is settled in the court of last resort.[84]

317; Larson v. First Nat. Bank, (Nebr. 1902) 92 N. W. 729.

An exception taken to the form of a declaration in a court does not constitute an approval thereof, where such question is not called to the attention of the court. Knight v. St. Louis, etc., R. Co., 40 Ill. App. 471.

80. Colorado.— In re House Resolutions, 15 Colo. 598, 26 Pac. 323. Compare Colorado Seminary v. Arapahoe County, 30 Colo. 507, 71 Pac. 410; Calhoun Gold Min. Co. v. Ajax Gold Min. Co., 27 Colo. 1, 59 Pac. 607, 83 Am. St. Rep. 17, 50 L. R. A. 209.

Georgia.— Adams v. Franklin, 82 Ga. 168, 8 S. E. 44; Gray v. Gray, 34 Ga. 499.

Illinois.— McCormick v. Bauer, 122 Ill. 573, 13 N. E. 852.

Indiana.— Grubbs v. State, 24 Ind. 295.

Iowa.— State v. Silvers, 82 Iowa 714, 47 N. W. 772; Davidson v. Biggs, 61 Iowa 309, 16 N. W. 135; Lemp v. Hastings, 4 Greene 448.

Maryland.— Dugan v. Hollins, 13 Md. 149.

Minnesota.— Knox v. Randall, 24 Minn. 479; Nininger v. Carver County, 10 Minn. 133.

Missouri.— St. Louis R. Co. v. Southern R. Co., 138 Mo. 591, 39 S. W. 471; Shoenberg v. Heyer, 91 Mo. App. 389; Wells v. Adams, 88 Mo. App. 215.

Nebraska.— Richardson Drug Co. v. Raymond, 59 Nebr. 157, 80 N. W. 490.

New Jersey.— State v. Taylor, 68 N. J. L. 276, 53 Atl. 392.

New York.— Reynolds v. Davis, 5 Sandf. 267; Greenbaum v. Stein, 2 Daly 223; Gibbons v. Ogden, 17 Johns. 488.

North Carolina.— Mayo v. Washington, 122 N. C. 5, 29 S. E. 343, 40 L. R. A. 163.

Pennsylvania.— McDowell v. Oyer, 21 Pa. St. 417.

Tennessee.— State v. Bristol, 109 Tenn. 315, 70 S. W. 1031; Cox v. Crumley, 5 Lea 529.

Utah.— Whittemore v. Cope, 11 Utah 344, 40 Pac. 256.

United States.— Wright v. Columbus, etc., R. Co., 176 U. S. 481, 20 S. Ct. 398, 44 L. ed. 554; Wright v. Sill, 2 Black 544, 17 L. ed. 333; Hadden v. Natchaug Silk Co., 84 Fed. 80; Buchanan v. Knoxville, etc., R. Co., 71 Fed. 324, 18 C. C. A. 122.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 314.

Mere errors or irregularities will not prevent a former decision from controlling. McCormick v. Bauer, 122 Ill. 573, 13 N. E. 852.

A departure from the rule has been held proper in a case involving the question whether a state has alienated its right to tax a private corporation. Adams v. Yazoo, etc., R. Co., 77 Miss. 194, 24 So. 200, 317, 28 So. 956, 60 L. R. A. 33. So a former judgment in obedience to a ruling of the United States supreme court as understood is not conclusive, where such court subsequently places a contrary construction on its former holding. Union, etc., Bank v. Memphis, (Tenn. 1898) 46 S. W. 557.

81. Lemp v. Hastings, 4 Greene (Iowa) 448.

82. Georgia. — Gilbert v. State, 116 Ga. 819, 43 S. E. 47; Hill v. State, 112 Ga. 32, 400, 37 S. E. 441.

Illinois.— Hopkins v. McCann, 19 Ill. 113.

New York.— Morse v. Goold, 11 N. Y. 281, 62 Am. Dec. 103.

Pennsylvania.— In re Griel, 171 Pa. St. 412, 33 Atl. 375, 37 Wkly. Notes Cas. 85.

Virginia.— Postal Tel. Cable Co. v. Farmville, etc., R. Co., 96 Va. 661, 32 S. E. 468; Whiting v. West Point, 88 Va. 905, 14 S. E. 698, 29 Am. St. Rep. 750, 15 L. R. A. 860.

United States.— Hanifen v. Armitage, 117 Fed. 845.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 316.

Where judges in the minority on the general question concur in an opinion of one of the majority in relation to another question, the principle as established therein may be considered as the settled law of the court. Boyle v. Zacharie, 6 Pet. (U. S.) 348, 8 L. ed. 423.

83. Bond v. Munro, 28 Ga. 597.

84. Bentley v. Goodwin, 38 Barb. (N. Y.) 633, 15 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 82; Loring v. U. S. Vulcanized Gutta Percha Belting, etc., Co., 30 Barb. (N. Y.) 644; Andrews v. Wallege, 29 Barb. (N. Y.) 350, 8 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 425, 17 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 263; Malam v. Simpson, 12 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 225, 20 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 488; State v. Frosdick, 1 Ohio Cir. Ct. 265, 1 Ohio Cir. Dec. 145; Miller v. Hulbert, 8 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 240, 6 Cinc. L. Bul. 412.

A wrong construction by a circuit court upon a decision of the supreme court, no reason therefor being given, cannot be consid-

c. Of Higher Court or Court of Last Resort. Decisions of a court of last resort in a state are to be regarded as law and should be followed by inferior courts, whatever the view of the latter may be as to their correctness, until they have been reversed or overruled.[85] And likewise an inferior court should follow the decisions of a superior or appellate court, although the latter is not a court of last resort.[86]

d. Change in Organization of Court. Where a court is abolished or reorganized and succeeded by a new court which is in fact a continuation of the former court the decisions of such former court are generally followed in the application ered as authority in other courts of the state. In re McDonald, 4 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 396.

85. California.—People v. McGuire, 45 Cal. 56.

Delaware.— State v. Green, 1 Pennew. 63, 39 Atl. 590.

Illinois.— Field v. People, 3 Ill. 79.

Indiana.— Julian v. Beal, 34 Ind. 371; Kelley v. Crawfordsville, 14 Ind. App. 81, 42 N. E. 491.

Iowa.— Telford v. Barney, 1 Greene 575.

Missouri.— Harburg v. Arnold, 87 Mo. App. 326; Becker v. Schutte, 85 Mo. App. 57; Schafer v. St. Louis, etc., R. Co., 76 Mo. App. 131; Hamilton v. Aurora F. & M. Ins. Co., 35 Mo. App. 263; White v. Wabash Western R. Co., 34 Mo. App. 57.

New Jersey.— Hodge v. U. S. Steel Corp., 64 N. J. Eq. 90, 53 Atl. 601.

New York.— Palmer v. Lawrence, 5 N. Y. 389; Ryan v. New York, 78 N. Y. App. Div. 134, 79 N. Y. Suppl. 599; Smith v. Lehigh Valley R. Co., 77 N. Y. App. Div. 43, 79 N. Y. Suppl. 106; Devitt v. Providence Washington Ins. Co., 61 N. Y. App. Div. 390, 70 N. Y. Suppl. 654; Bigelow v. Tilden, 52 N. Y. App. Div. 390, 65 N. Y. Suppl. 140; Scott v. King, 51 N. Y. App. Div. 619, 64 N. Y. Suppl. 626; Jersey City Mechanics', etc., Bank v. Dakin, 8 Hun 431; Costello v. Syracuse, etc., R. Co., 65 Barb. 92; Rochester, etc., R. Co. v. Clarke Nat. Bank, 60 Barb. 234; Hanford v. Artcher, 4 Hill 271; Hawley v. James, 7 Paige 213, 32 Am. Dec. 623.

Ohio.— Vattier v. Cheseldine, 1 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 127, 2 West. L. J. 375.

Pennsylvania.— Com. v. Geesey, 1 Pa. Super. Ct. 502, 38 Wkly. Notes Cas. 274; Wheeler v. Rice, 4 Brewst. 129, 3 Wkly. Notes Cas. 333, 8 Phila. 115.

Tennessee.— Rush v. Moore, (Ch. App. 1897) 48 S. W. 90.

Texas.— Jones v. Gulf, etc., R. Co., (Civ. App. 1893) 23 S. W. 186.

Wisconsin.— Eau Claire Nat. Bank v. Benson, 106 Wis. 624, 82 N. W. 604; Cawley v. La Crosse City R. Co., 106 Wis. 239, 82 N. W. 197; Atty.-Gen. v. Lum, 2 Wis. 507.

United States.— Gooding v. Oliver, 17 How. 274, 15 L. ed. 148; Williams v. Gibbs, 17 How. 239, 15 L. ed. 135.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 325.

A decision of commissioners of appeal when adopted by the court of last resort is to be followed the same as a decision of that court. Wooters v. Hollingsworth, 58 Tex. 371.

The last decision of a court of last resort should be followed by a lower court without inquiring as to whether it is in harmony with earlier decisions. Becker v. Schutte, 85 Mo. App. 57; Thompson v. Irwin, 76 Mo. App. 418; Seaboard Nat. Bank v. Woesten, 76 Mo. App. 155. See also Costello v. Syracuse, etc., R. Co., 65 Barb. (N. Y.) 92.

A decision of the United States supreme court contrary to that of the court of last resort in a state will not be followed by an inferior court in such state, although the principles of law in such case are reviewable in the supreme court. Poole v. Kermit, 37 N. Y. Super. Ct. 114. See also Ascherson v. Pennsylvania Steel Co., 2 Pa. Dist. 599; Ascherson v. Bethlehem Iron Co., 2 Pa. Dist. 597. But where the supreme court of the United States reverses the decision of a state court effect must be given to that decision in the suit in which it is made. Venice v. Breed, 65 Barb. (N. Y.) 597.

86. Indiana.— Leard v. Leard, 30 Ind. 171.

Louisiana.— Martin v. Hoggatt, 37 La. Ann. 340.

New Jersey.— Flaucher v. Camden, 56 N. J. L. 244, 28 Atl. 82.

New York.— People v. American L. & T. Co., 39 Misc. 647, 80 N. Y. Suppl. 627; Western Nat. Bank v. Faber, 29 Misc. 467, 62 N. Y. Suppl. 82; In re Ransier, 26 Misc. 582, 57 N. Y. Suppl. 650; U. S. Trust Co. v. Black, 9 Misc. 653, 30 N. Y. Suppl. 453; Adams v. Bush, 2 Abb. Pr. N. S. 112; Burt v. Powis, 16 How. Pr. 289.

Ohio.— Cincinnati Gaslight, etc., Co. v. Bowman, 1 Handy 289, 12 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 147.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 326.

A decision in a proceeding outside of its jurisdiction will not be binding on a lower court. Lockwood v. Carr, 4 Dem. Surr. (N. Y.) 515. So a decision on a question relating to a statute which is involved in a maze of legislation will not be given the same weight where it appears that statutory provisions have been overlooked. Overheiser v. Morehouse, 8 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 11, 16 Abb. N. Cas. (N. Y.) 208, 2 How. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 257. Again a county court has been held not bound by a decision of the supreme court in another department. Nichols v. Fanning, 20 Misc. (N. Y.) 73, 45 N. Y. Suppl. 409. And a decision entered pro forma without argument or consideration and solely to hasten determination of the question by the court of appeals will not be regarded as binding. Matter of McGinness, 13 Misc. (N. Y.) 714, 35 N. Y. Suppl. 820.

of the principle of stare decisis, except where such decisions are manifestly erroneous.[87]

e. Matters of Form and Practice. Decisions on mere matters of form and practice will generally be followed,[88] although were it not for such prior decisions a contrary conclusion might be reached.[89]

f. Construction of Constitutions and Statutes. A court will not as a general rule inquire into the constitutionality of a statute where this question has been passed upon in previous decisions,[90] nor will it under like circumstances again consider the question as to the construction and operation of a statute,[91] or of a pro-

87. California. — Davis v. San Francisco Super. Ct., 63 Cal. 581.

Delaware.—The supreme court will not depart from the decisions of the court of oyer and terminer and the court of general sessions unless clearly erroneous. Daniels v. State, 2 Pennew. 586, 48 Atl. 196, 54 L. R. A. 286.

Iowa.— Doolittle v. Shelton, 1 Greene 272, holding that the state supreme court will follow decisions of the territorial supreme court.

Maryland.— Hammond v. Ridgely, 5 Harr. & J. 245, 9 Am. Dec. 522, as to court of appeals.

New York.— Olcott v. Tioga R. Co., 26 Barb. 147; Spicer v. Norton, 13 Barb. 542; Lovett v. German Reformed Church, 12 Barb. 67. But the appellate division of the supreme court is not bound by the decisions of the former general terms of the supreme court. Sias v. Rochester R. Co., 18 N. Y. App. Div. 506, 46 N. Y. Suppl. 582.

South Carolina.— Lewis v. Wilson, 1 McCord Eq. 210.

Wisconsin.— Parker v. Pomeroy, 2 Wis. 112.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 315.

88. Louve's Succession, 6 La. Ann. 529; Wells v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 2 Wash. Terr. 303, 5 Pac. 215; Sauer v. Steinbauer, 10 Wis. 370; Smith v. Ely, 15 How. (U. S.) 137, 14 L. ed. 634.

What is said in an advisory way by a court of last resort as to matters of procedure should be followed. Mauch v. Hartford, 112 Wis. 40, 87 N. W. 816. See also Strauss v. Jacobs, 10 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 132, 7 Ohio N. P. 258.

89. Wells v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 2 Wash. Terr. 303, 5 Pac. 215.

In a case of glaring or dangerous error a prior decision will not be followed. Weaver v. Gardner, 14 Kan. 347. So if no substantial injury will be suffered by litigants a court may, as to a matter of practice, correct an error in a former opinion by it. Wetzstein v. Boston, etc., Consol. Copper, etc., Min. Co., 25 Mont. 135, 63 Pac. 1043.

90. Colorado.— Campbell v. Los Angeles Gold Mine Co., 28 Colo. 256, 64 Pac. 194.

Indiana.— Bothwell v. Millikan, 104 Ind. 162, 2 N. E. 959, 3 N. E. 816; Ricketts v. Spraker, 77 Ind. 371; State v. Stout, 61 Ind. 143.

Kansas.— Missouri, etc., R. Co. v. Steinberger, 60 Kan. 856, 55 Pac. 1101 [affirming 6 Kan. App. 585, 51 Pac. 623].

Kentucky.— Hughes v. Hughes, 4 T. B. Mon. 42.

New Hampshire.— Amoskeag Mfg. Co. v. Goodale, 62 N. H. 66.

New York.— Scott v. King, 51 N. Y. App. Div. 619, 64 N. Y. Suppl. 626.

Pennsylvania.— Com. v. Mill Creek Coal Co., 157 Pa. St. 524, 27 Atl. 375; Com. v. National Oil Co., 157 Pa. St. 516, 27 Atl. 374, 33 Wkly. Notes Cas. 137.

Tennessee.—State v. Bristol, 109 Tenn. 315, 70 S. W. 1031; McCully v. State, 102 Tenn. 509, 53 S. W. 134, 46 L. R. A. 567.

Texas.— May v. Finley, 91 Tex. 352, 43 S. W. 257; Bogard v. State, (Crim. 1900) 55 S. W. 494.

Vermont.— Gill v. Parker, 31 Vt. 610.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 317.

The rule of stare decisis does not require that, in deciding on the constitutionality of a statute in an action which concerns public interests, the court should be bound by a decision by a circuit court in an action between private citizens. Denney v. State, 144 Ind. 503, 42 N. E. 929, 31 L. R. A. 726. So decisions on former statutes which were similar to that in question but not identical with it are not binding within the rule of stare decisis. Adams v. Yazoo, etc., R. Co., 77 Miss. 194, 24 So. 200, 317, 28 So. 956, 60 L. R. A. 33. Again a decision that a special act to relocate a county-seat is constitutional is subject to review in a new and independent action, it not being a rule of property. Jackson County v. State, 155 Ind. 604, 58 N. E. 1037.

91. California.— Seale v. Mitchell, 5 Cal. 401.

Indiana.— Stout v. Grant County, 107 Ind. 343, 8 N. E. 222.

Louisiana.— New Orleans v. Hermann. 31 La. Ann. 529; Wolf v. Lowry, 10 La. Ann. 272; State v. Thompson, 10 La. Ann. 122; Beck v. Brady, 7 La. Ann. 1.

Mississippi.— Davis v. Holberg, 59 Miss. 362.

Missouri.—Sedalia v. Gold, 91 Mo. App. 32.

New York.— Wood v. New York, 73 N. Y. 556; Von Loon v. Lyon, 4 Daly 149.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 318.

To have the force of stare decisis the construction of the statute should be directly involved in the case decided. St. Louis, etc., R. Co. v. Fowler, 142 Mo. 670, 44 S. W. 771. See Remey v. Iowa Cent. R. Co., 116 Iowa 133, 89 N. W. 218. A decision by a divided court construing a statute has been held vision of the constitution.[92] And where the interpretation of a statute in a prior case is relied upon by a party to an action it is not necessary for him to show that the same facts existed in and governed the determination of that case, but the opposite party should prove, before he can ask for a reversal of that decision, that such facts do not exist in the case at bar.[93]

g. Erroneous Decisions. Although the rule of stare decisis is entitled to great weight, and is adhered to in most courts, yet it is not followed to the exclusion in all cases of a departure therefrom, and it is a doctrine generally recognized that the rule will not be invoked to sustain and perpetuate a principle of law which is established by a series of decisions, clearly erroneous, unless property complications have resulted therefrom, and a reversal would result in greater injury and injustice than would ensue by following the rule.[94] But the rule should not be departed from except on the fullest conviction that such an error has been committed.[95]

3. Decisions of Courts of Other States — a. In General. The courts of one state in construing constitutional or statutory provisions of such state, or in determining a question of common law, are not bound by decisions of other states upon a similar question.[96] not binding where the construction given is erroneous and contrary to public policy. Postal Tel. Cable Co. v. Farmville, etc., R. Co., 96 Va. 661, 32 S. E. 468.

92. Angus v. Plum, 121 Cal. 608, 54 Pac. 97.

93. Wood v. New York, 73 N. Y. 556.

94. California.—Aud v. Magruder, 10 Cal. 282; McFarland v. Pico, 8 Cal. 626.

Colorado.— Calhoun Gold Min. Co. v. Ajax Gold-Min. Co., 27 Colo. 1, 59 Pac. 607, 83 Am. St. Rep. 17, 50 L. R. A. 209.

Georgia.— Ellison v. Georgia R. Co., 87 Ga. 691, 13 S. E. 809.

Indiana.— Jasper County v. Allman, 142 Ind. 573, 42 N. E. 206, 39 L. R. A. 58; Paul v. Davis, 100 Ind. 422.

Kentucky.—Pratt v. Breckinridge, 65 S. W. 136, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1356. Compare Tribble v. Taul, 7 T. B. Mon. 455; South v. Thomas, 7 T. B. Mon. 59.

Louisiana.— Lagrange v. Barré, 11 Rob. 302; Griffin v. His Creditors, 6 Rob. 225.

Missouri.— Compare Long v. Long, 79 Mo. 644.

Nebraska.— State v. Hill, 47 Nebr. 456, 66 N. W. 541.

New York.— Judson v. Gray, 11 N. Y. 408; Romaine v. Kinshimer, 2 Hilt. 519.

Oregon.— State v. Clark, 9 Oreg. 466.

Pennsylvania.—Callender v. Keystone Mut. L. Ins. Co., 23 Pa. St. 471.

South Carolina.— State v. Aiken, 42 S. C. 222, 20 S. E. 221, 26 L. R. A. 345 [overruling McCullough v. Brown, 41 S. C. 220, 19 S. E. 458, 23 L. R. A. 410].

Texas.— Groesbeck v. Golden, (Sup. 1887) 7 S. W. 362.

Wyoming.— Kelley v. Rhoads, 7 Wyo. 237, 51 Pac. 593, 75 Am. St. Rep. 904, 39 L. R. A. 594.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 320.

Where rights and obligations of individuals have become conformed to such construction, only the strongest possible reasons can justify a departure therefrom; but such is not the case where a rule of evidence has been misconstrued so as to impair a fundamental rule on which rights of persons and property rest. Roof v. Charlotte, etc., R. Co., 4 S. C. 61.

95. Sydnor v. Gascoigne, 11 Tex. 449.

A rule of law apparently salutary in its operation and recognized by decisions of other states should rarely be abandoned merely because the reasons given for its original adoption are not altogether satisfactory. Jansen v. Atchison City, 16 Kan. 358.

Simply because of a doubt as to its correctness a prior decision will not be overruled. State v. Silvers, 82 Iowa 714, 47 N. W. 772; St. Louis R. Co. v. Southern R. Co., 138 Mo. 591, 39 S. W. 471; Wells v. Adams, 88 Mo. App. 215.

96. Georgia.— Krogg v. Atlanta, etc., R. Co., 77 Ga. 202, 4 Am. St. Rep. 85.

Indiana.— Nathan v. Lee, 152 Ind. 232, 52 N. E. 987, 43 L. R. A. 820.

Iowa.— Michigan Nat. Bank v. Green, 33 Iowa 140; Franklin v. Twogood, 25 Iowa 520, 96 Am. Dec. 73.

New York.— St. Nicholas Bank v. State Nat. Bank, 128 N. Y. 26, 27 N. E. 849, 13 L. R. A. 241 [reversing 59 Hun 383, 12 N. Y. Suppl. 864]; Faulkner v. Hart, 82 N. Y. 413, 37 Am. Rep. 574; Brinkley v. Brinkley, 50 N. Y. 184, 10 Am. Rep. 460; Boyce v. St. Louis, 29 Barb. 650.

Texas.— Alexander v. Lebanon Bank, (Civ. App. 1898) 47 S. W. 840.

Wisconsin.— Finney v. Guy, 106 Wis. 256, 82 N. W. 595, 49 L. R. A. 486.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 322.

In questions arising under the federal constitution and laws a state court is not bound by adjudications in other states. Caldwell v. Gale, 11 Mich. 77.

In construing a will devising lands situate in two states a construction given to the will in one of such states does not bind the courts

b. As to Statutes of Other States. The construction of the constitution or statutes of a state which has been given thereto by its supreme judicial tribunal should be followed by the courts of other states, and of the United States in those cases where similar questions arise.[97]

4. Decisions of United States Courts — a. Of Coördinate Courts. A court will not reverse or review a judgment of another court of coördinate jurisdiction.[98] So the rule prevails in the various circuit courts of the United States, which are coördinate tribunals constituting but a single system, that where a question has been fully considered and decided in such a court it will be followed in the other circuit courts until it has been reversed by the appellate court.[99] And in order in the other state in construing it. McCartney v. Osburn, 118 Ill. 403, 9 N. E. 210.

Constitutions should be construed from their own terms rather than by authorities from other states, although a definite construction of like provisions is entitled to the same weight as in other cases. People v. Burbank, 12 Cal. 378.

97. Alabama.—See Nelson v. Goree, 34 Ala. 565.

California.— McGrew v. New York Mut. L. Ins. Co., (1901) 64 Pac. 103.

Connecticut.— Fish v. Smith, 73 Conn. 377, 47 Atl. 711.

Georgia.— Clark v. Turner, 73 Ga. 1.

Illinois.— Bell v. Farwell, 176 Ill. 489, 52 N. E. 346, 68 Am. St. Rep. 194, 42 L. R. A. 804; Fowler v. Lamson, 146 Ill. 472, 34 N. E. 932, 37 Am. St. Rep. 163.

Iowa.— Fred Miller Brewing Co. v. Capital Ins. Co., 111 Iowa 590, 82 N. W. 1023, 82 Am. St. Rep. 529; Franklin v. Twogood, 25 Iowa 520, 96 Am. Dec. 73; Brown v. Phillipps, 16 Iowa 210.

Louisiana.— Cucullu v. Louisiana Ins. Co., 5 Mart. N. S. 464, 16 Am. Dec. 199. Compare Cotton v. Brien, 6 Rob. 115.

Massachusetts.— Broadway Nat. Bank v. Baker, 176 Mass. 294, 57 N. E. 603.

Mississippi.— McIntyre v. Ingraham, 35 Miss. 25.

Missouri.— McMerty v. Morrison, 62 Mo. 140.

New Jersey.— Rosenbaum v. U. S. Credit System Co., 64 N. J. L. 34, 44 Atl. 966; Watson v. Lane, 52 N. J. L. 550. 20 Atl. 894, 10 L. R. A. 784 [affirming 51 N. J. L. 186, 17 Atl. 117]; Hale v. Lawrence, 23 N. J. L. 590, 57 Am. Dec. 420.

New York.— Leonard v. Columbia Steam Nav. Co., 84 N. Y. 48, 38 Am. Rep. 491; Jessup v. Carnegie, 80 N. Y. 441, 36 Am. Rep. 643; Howe v. Welch, 17 Abb. N. Cas. 397; Viele v. Wells, 9 Abb. N. Cas. 277.

North Carolina.— Watson v. Orr, 14 N. C. 161.

Ohio.— Ott v. Lake Shore, etc., R. Co., 18 Ohio Cir. Ct. 395, 10 Ohio Cir. Dec. 85.

Pennsylvania.— Schmaltz v. York Mfg. Co., 204 Pa. St. 1, 53 Atl. 522, 93 Am. St. Rep. 782, 59 L. R. A. 907; Ball v. Anderson, 196 Pa. St. 86, 46 Atl. 366, 79 Am. St. Rep. 693; Grant v. Henry Clay Coal Co., 80 Pa. St. 208; Merrimac Min. Co. v. Levy, 54 Pa. St. 227, 93 Am. Dec. 697; Kean v. Rice, 12 Serg. & R. 203.

South Carolina.—Carlton v. Felder, 6 Rich. Eq. 58; Johnston v. South Western Railroad Bank, 3 Strobh. Eq. 263.

Washington.— Whitman v. Mast, etc., Co., 11 Wash. 318, 39 Pac. 649, 48 Am. St. Rep. 874.

Wisconsin.— Eau Claire Nat. Bank v. Benson, 106 Wis. 624, 82 N. W. 604.

United States.—Wiggins Ferry Co. v. Chicago, etc., Co., 11 Fed. 381, 3 McCrary 609; Humphreyville Copper Co. v. Sterling, 12 Fed. Cas. No. 6,872, Brunn. Col. Cas. 3; Prentice v. Zane, 19 Fed. Cas. No. 11,383.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 323.

The duty rests upon comity, and is not imposed by the federal constitution. Wiggins Ferry Co. v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 11 Fed. 381, 3 McCrary 609.

The decision of an inferior court of one state is not binding as against the court of highest appellate jurisdiction in another. Matter of Robertson, 23 Misc. (N. Y.) 450, 51 N. Y. Suppl. 502.

A court will not declare unconstitutional the statute of another state, although apparently repugnant to the federal constitution where it has not been so adjudged in the state in which it was enacted, if the question can be decided without passing on the validity of such law. Shelden v. Miller, 9 La. Ann. 187.

If the decision of the United States supreme court relative to the subject-matter to which the statute relates conflicts with the decisions of the state court in construing the statute, the court of another state may follow the supreme court of the United States. Davis v. Robertson, 11 La. Ann. 752.

98. Hayes v. Dayton, 20 Fed. 690.

99. McMurray v. Gosney, 106 Fed. 11; Reed v. Atlantic, etc., R. Co., 85 Fed. 692; Grand Trunk R. Co. v. Central Vermont R. Co., 84 Fed. 66; Norton v. Brownsville Taxing Dist., 36 Fed. 99; Celluloid Mfg. Co. v. Zylonite Brush, etc., Co., 27 Fed. 291; Reed v. Atlantic, etc., R. Co., 21 Fed. 283; Wells v. Oregon, etc., R. Co., 15 Fed. 561, 8 Sawy. 600; Edgarton v. Furst, etc., Mfg. Co., 9 Fed. 450, 10 Biss. 402; Goodyear v. Providence Rubber Co., 10 Fed. Cas. No. 5,583, 2 Cliff. 351, 2 Fish. Pat. Cas. 499. But see Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Sanders, 47 Fed. 604, where it to secure uniformity a district court will follow the decisions of other district courts in similar cases.[1]

b. Of Higher or Supreme Court. The decisions of the supreme court are binding on all of the federal courts on matters of general jurisprudence not involving any state law,[2] and in the absence of any such decisions which are controlling a circuit court should follow the decisions of the circuit court of appeals.[3]

c. As Authority in State Courts. In cases not arising upon the construction of the constitution and laws of the federal government, but in which the state courts have full jurisdiction and their judgments are final, such courts will adhere to and follow their own decisions and are not bound by those of the federal courts.[4] As to questions, however, which are federal in their nature, decisions of the supreme court of a state should yield to those of the United States supreme court.[5] is held such a decision is not necessarily binding.

Motions for injunctions have been held to be exceptions to the rule, where error may be followed by irremediable mischief. Many v. Sizer, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 9,057, 1 Fish. Pat. Cas. 31.

A circuit court of appeals should follow the decision of a circuit court of appeals of another circuit. Beach v. Hobbs, 92 Fed. 146, 34 C. C. A. 248.

1. The Chelmsford, 34 Fed. 399. Compare Louis Snyders' Sons Co. v. Armstrong, 37 Fed. 18.

2. Angle v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 95 Fed. 214; Crooks v. Stuart, 7 Fed. 800, 2 McCrary 13.

A circuit court of appeals will not certify to the supreme court for instructions a case under a federal statute, like one already decided. Lau Ow Bew v. U. S., 47 Fed. 641, 1 C. C. A. 1.

A decision by the supreme court of the United States affirming a decision of a state court as to the validity of a state statute is binding on the lower federal courts, and where the constitutionality of such statute was dependent upon the existence of a certain remedy the lower court cannot disregard the decision on the ground that its existence was assumed by the supreme court, because it was bound in that case to follow the decision of the state court, and is not so bound in a case arising in a federal court. In cases on writ of error to the supreme court it must exercise an independent judgment, and not follow the state court. Saranac Land, etc, Co. v. Roberts, 177 U. S. 318, 20 S. Ct. 642, 44 L. ed. 786. So where after an interlocutory decree and before a final decree the supreme court renders a decision affecting the case, the final decree of the circuit court will be made in accordance with such decision. Wooster v. Handy, 21 Fed. 51.

3. Fayerweather Will Cases, 118 Fed. 943; Hale v. Hilliker, 109 Fed. 273; Duff Mfg. Co. v. Norton, 96 Fed. 986; National Folding-Box, etc., Co. v. Dayton Paper-Novelty Co., 95 Fed. 991; Fairfield Floral Co. v. Bradbury, 87 Fed. 415; Beach v. Hobbs, 82 Fed. 916; Edison Electric Light Co. v. Bloomingdale, 65 Fed. 212; Norton v. Wheaton, 57 Fed. 927.

4. California.— Ferris v. Coover, 11 Cal. 175.

Connecticut.— Slocum v. Wheeler, 1 Conn. 429.

Georgia.— Baldy v. Hunter, 98 Ga. 170, 25 S. E. 416.

Illinois.— Fuller v. Shedd, 161 Ill. 462, 44 N. E. 286, 52 Am. St. Rep. 380, 33 L. R. A. 146.

Louisiana.— State v. Citizens' Bank, 52 La. Ann. 1086, 27 So. 709; Murphy v. Factors, etc., Ins. Co., 36 La. Ann. 953.

Maryland.— Baltimore v. Baltimore, etc., R. Co., 6 Gill 288, 48 Am. Dec. 531.

Mississippi.—Shelton v. Hamilton, 23 Miss. 496, 57 Am. Dec. 149.

New York.—Towle v. Forney, 14 N. Y. 423; Mynard v. Syracuse, etc., R. Co., 7 Hun 399.

Ohio.— Skelly v. Jefferson Branch Bank, 9 Ohio St. 606.

Pennsylvania.— Lebanon Bank v. Mangan, 28 Pa. St. 452.

Tennessee.— Pickle v. Muse, 88 Tenn. 380, 12 S. W. 919, 17 Am. St. Rep. 900, 7 L. R. A. 93.

Texas.— El Paso v. Ft. Dearborn Nat. Bank, (Civ. App. 1903) 71 S. W. 799 [reversed in (Sup. 1903) 74 S. W. 21].

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 329.

Territorial courts are not obliged to follow a decision of the federal supreme court on a question of practice determined on appeal from another state. People v. Ritchie, 12 Utah 180, 42 Pac. 209.

The supreme court of the District of Columbia is bound by a decision by the federal supreme court holding a patent valid. Goodyear Dental Vulcanite Co. v. Brightwell, MacArthur & M. (D. C.) 74.

Where bonds have been declared void by state courts, and similar bonds in the hands of non-residents have been held valid by a United States circuit court, the state court will not compel a resident holder to deliver up his bond to be canceled. Dallas County v. Merrill, 77 Mo. 573.

5. California.— Belcher v. Chambers, 53 Cal. 635.

d. As to Patents. A former decision of a circuit court in which the question of the validity of a patent is determined will be followed by other circuit courts in a case involving the same question where there is no new evidence, such action being based not merely on the ground of comity, but for the purpose of avoiding repeated litigation and conflicting decrees.[6] And the existence of a grave doubt as to the soundness thereof is not sufficient ground for a refusal to follow such a decision.[7]

e. As to Construction of Federal Constitution, Statutes, and Treaties. Decisions of the United States supreme court on all questions involving the construc-

Illinois.— Breitung v. Chicago, 92 Ill. App. 118.

Louisiana.— State v. Ardoin, 51 La. Ann. 169, 24 So. 802, 72 Am. St. Rep. 454; Laughlin v. Louisiana, etc., Ice Co., 35 La. Ann. 1184.

Missouri.— See Barber Asphalt Paving Co. v. French, 158 Mo. 534, 58 S. W. 934, 54 L. R. A. 492.

Tennessee.— Bell v. Perkins, Peck 261, 14 Am. Dec. 745.

Texas.—Kipper v. State, 42 Tex. Crim. 613, 62 S. W. 420.

Utah.— State v. Bates, 22 Utah 65, 61 Pac. 905, 83 Am. St. Rep. 768.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 329.

The rule has been applied to a decision that a federal court is not deprived of jurisdiction by prior proceedings in a state court (Clark v. Wolf, 29 Iowa 197), to decisions as to who must pay the stamp required by the war revenue act of June 13, 1898 (U. S. Express Co. v. People, 195 Ill. 155, 62 N. E. 825; Biddle Hardware Co. v. Adams Express Co., 8 Pa. Dist. 43, 22 Pa. Co. Ct. 1), to a decision in an action to determine the liability of a United States marshal, and the sureties on his official bond (McKee v. Brooks, 64 Tex. 255), and in determining to what extent a judgment of the United States circuit court operates as a lien (Rock Island Nat. Bank v. Thompson, 173 Ill. 593, 50 N. E. 1089, 64 Am. St. Rep. 137 [affirming 74 Ill. App. 54]).

As to questions in commercial law it has been held that paramount authority should be attributed to the decisions of the United States supreme court, this being a subject of national character. Stoddard v. Long Island R. Co., 5 Sandf. 180.

6. Cutter Electrical, etc., Co. v. Anchor Electric Co., 97 Fed. 804 [affirmed in 101 Fed. 120, 41 C. C. A. 246]; Office Specialty Mfg. Co. v. Winternight, etc., Mfg. Co., 67 Fed. 928; Edison Electric Light Co. v. Packard Electric Co., 61 Fed. 1002; Edison Electric Light Co. v. Spreckels Sugar-Refining Co., 60 Fed. 397; National Folding-Box, etc., Co. v. Phœnix Paper Co., 57 Fed. 223; Accumulator Co. v. Consolidated Electric Storage Co., 53 Fed. 793; National Cash-Register Co. v. American Cash-Register Co., 53 Fed. 367, 3 C. C. A. 559; Overman Wheel Co. v. Curtis, 53 Fed. 247; American Paper Pail, etc., Co. v. National Folding Box, etc., Co., 51 Fed. 229, 2 C. C. A. 165; Zinsser v. Krueger, 45 Fed. 572; American Bell Tel. Co. v. Wallace Electric Tel. Co., 37 Fed. 672; Kidd v. Ransom, 35 Fed. 588; Hancock Inspirator Co. v. Regester, 35 Fed. 61; Meyer v. Goodyear India-Rubber Glove Mfg. Co., 11 Fed. 891, 20 Blatchf. 91; Spring v. Domestic Sewing Mach. Co., 9 Fed. 505; Blake v. Robertson, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,501 [affirmed in 94 U. S. 728, 24 L. ed. 245]. But see Welsbach Light Co. v. Cosmopolitan Incandescent Gaslight Co., 100 Fed. 648.

The obligation to follow in patent cases increases according to the number of courts that have passed on the question. Mast v. Stover Mfg. Co., 177 U. S. 485, 20 S. Ct. 708, 44 L. ed. 856.

The rule does not apply to the circuit court of appeals which may examine and dispose of a question according to its own convictions, independent of a circuit court decision of another circuit. Curtis v. Overman Wheel Co., 58 Fed. 784, 7 C. C. A. 493; Wanamaker v. Enterprise Mfg. Co., 53 Fed. 791, 3 C. C. A. 672; National Cash-Register Co. v. American Cash-Register Co., 53 Fed. 367, 3 C. C. A. 559. But a circuit court of appeals should follow a decision of another circuit court of appeals. Hatch Storage-Battery Co. v. Electric Storage Battery Co., 100 Fed. 975, 41 C. C. A. 133; Beach v. Hobbs, 92 Fed. 146, 34 C. C. A. 248. But this is not obligatory, and where such a decision is not so followed in another court the latter decision will not be reversed, although sufficient weight is not given to the doctrine of comity. Mast v. Stover Mfg. Co., 177 U. S. 485, 20 S. Ct. 708, 44 L. ed. 856.

A decision in another circuit overruling a prior one should be followed. Brown Mfg. Co. v. Mast, 53 Fed. 578.

After a decree is entered in ignorance of a decision in another circuit court it is too late to call upon the court to follow such decision. Consolidated Roller-Mill Co. v. George T. Smith Middlings Purifier Co., 40 Fed. 305.

7. Macbeth v. Gillinder, 54 Fed. 169.

There must be a clear case of mistake of law or fact, some newly discovered evidence, or some question not considered by the court to justify another court in a reëxamination of the question. Heaton-Peninsular Button-Fastener Co. v. Elliott Button-Fastener Co., 58 Fed. 220; Zinsser v. Krueger, 45 Fed. 572; Green v. French, 11 Fed. 591; Searls v. Worden, 11 Fed. 501.

tion of the constitution of the United States should be followed by the state courts in determining legal questions dependent upon such constitution.[8] A similar rule prevails as to decisions of the supreme court construing treaties of the United States[9] and acts of congress,[10] and state courts will be bound by whatever the supreme court may determine as to the constitutionality of such acts.[11]

f. As to Construction of State Constitutions and Statutes. A decision of the federal courts as to the construction and interpretation of the statutes of a state will not be followed by the state court where at variance with its own judgment.[12]

8. Connecticut. — Hempstead v. Reed, 6 Conn. 480.

Georgia.— Compare Padelford v. Savannah, 14 Ga. 438.

Illinois.— McInhill v. Odell, 62 Ill. 169.

Indiana.— Churchman v. Martin, 54 Ind. 380.

Kentucky. — Eubanks v. Poston, 5 T. B. Mon. 285; Bodley v. Gaither, 3 T. B. Mon. 57; U. S. Bank v. Norton, 3 A. K. Marsh. 422.

Louisiana.— Saloy v. New Orleans, 33 La. Ann. 79.

Maryland. — Baltimore v. Baltimore, etc., R. Co., 6 Gill 288, 48 Am. Dec. 531.

Massachusetts. — Mooney v. Hinds, 160 Mass. 469, 36 N. E. 484; Braynard v. Marshall, 8 Pick. 194.

Nebraska.— State v. Sioux City, etc., R. Co., 46 Nebr. 682, 65 N. W. 766, 31 L. R. A. 47.

New Hampshire.—Newmarket Bank v. Butler, 45 N. H. 236.

New York.— Hicks v. Hotchkiss, 7 Johns. Ch. 297, 11 Am. Dec. 472.

Ohio.— Lee v. Citizens' Bank, 5 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 21, 1 Am. L. Rec. 385.

Pennsylvania.— Com. v. Lewis, 6 Binn. 266.

Texas.— Osborne v. Barnett, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 125.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 332.

The construction is binding on a jury as well as on the court. U. S. v. Shive, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 16,278, Baldw. 510.

Although similar provisions in state constitution may be differently construed the supreme court decision will be followed. Lee v. Citizens' Bank, 5 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 21, 1 Am. L. Rec. 385.

9. Purvis v. Harmonson, 4 La. Ann. 421; Pontalba v. Copeland, 3 La. Ann. 86; Baltimore v. Baltimore, etc., R. Co., 6 Gill (Md.) 288, 48 Am. Dec. 531.

10. Alabama.—Rugely v. Robinson, 19 Ala. 404.

Colorado.— Calhoun Gold-Min. Co. v. Ajax Gold Min. Co., 27 Colo. 1, 59 Pac. 607, 83 Am. St. Rep. 17, 50 L. R. A. 209.

Georgia.— Clews v. Mumford, 78 Ga. 476, 3 S. E. 267.

Illinois.— Gilmore v. Sapp, 100 Ill. 297; McGoon v. Shirk, 54 Ill. 408, 5 Am. Rep. 122; Lender v. Kidder, 23 Ill. 49.

Indiana. — Richmond First Nat. Bank v. Turner, 154 Ind 456, 57 N. E. 110.

Kentucky.— Moore v. Allen, 3 J. J. Marsh. 612.

Missouri.— Haseltine v. Central Nat. Bank, 155 Mo. 66, 56 S. W. 895.

Nebraska.— Bressler v. Wayne County, 25 Nebr. 468, 41 N. W. 356.

Nevada.— Feusier v. Lammon, 6 Nev. 209.

New Jersey.— Stockton v. Dundee Mfg. Co., 22 N. J. Eq. 56.

New York.— York v. Conde, 147 N. Y. 486, 42 N. E. 193; Duncomb v. New York, etc., R. Co., 84 N. Y. 190; Harris v. Jex, 55 N. Y. 421, 14 Am. Rep. 285; Buffalo German Ins. Co. v. Buffalo Third Nat. Bank, 29 N. Y. App. Div. 137, 51 N. Y. Suppl. 667; American Ins. Co. v. Fisk, 1 Paige 90.

Ohio.— Board of Trustees v. Cuppett, 52 Ohio St. 567, 40 N. E. 792; Wellington First Nat. Bank v. Chapman, 9 Ohio Cir. Ct. 79; In re Brophy, 4 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 391.

Washington.—Aberdeen First Nat. Bank v. Andrews, 7 Wash. 261, 34 Pac. 913, 38 Am. St. Rep. 885.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 332.

This rule has been applied to decisions construing the National Banking Act (Duncomb v. New York, etc., R. Co., 84 N. Y. 190), the Bankruptcy Act (Rugely v. Robinson, 19 Ala. 404), as to the jurisdiction of the federal judiciary (Feusier v. Lammon, 6 Nev. 290), and as to the effect of a patent (Gilmore v. Sapp, 100 Ill. 297).

11. Kentucky.— Com. v. Morrison, 2 A. K. Marsh. 75.

Massachusetts.— In re Sims, 7 Cush. 285.

Michigan.— Baldwin v. Baker, 121 Mich. 259, 80 N. W. 36.

New Jersey.— Stockton v. Dundee Mfg. Co., 22 N. J. Eq. 56.

Ohio. — Ex p. Bushnell, 9 Ohio St. 77; Keene v. Mould, 16 Ohio 12.

Virginia.— Burwell v. Burgess, 32 Gratt. 472.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 332.

The rule has been applied to decisions upon legal tender acts. Black v. Lusk, 69 Ill. 70; Barringer v. Fisher, 45 Miss. 200; Cochran v. Darcy, 5 S. C. 125; Kellogg v. Page, 44 Vt. 356, 8 Am. Rep. 383; Townsend v. Jennison, 44 Vt. 315.

In case of a gross violation of the constitution the opinion has been expressed that a state court would not be bound, but it was also declared that nothing but an overwhelming necessity can justify such a semirevolutionary act. Ex p. Bushnell, 9 Ohio St. 77.

12. California.— People v. Linda Vista Irr. Dist., 128 Cal. 477, 61 Pac. 86.

But where a state statute is by the supreme court of the United States declared to be in violation of the federal constitution, such decision will be binding on the state courts.[13] And it has been decided that a decision by the federal district court of another state as to the construction of a statute of such state will be followed by the federal circuit court.[14]

5. English Decisions. English decisions made subsequent to the period of our separation from the British empire, while they are not received as absolute authority in our courts, may nevertheless be referred to and are entitled to great respect.[15] And where the common law has been adopted as a rule of decision in a state, the common-law rule of a case for the first time in such state will not be disregarded merely because the English judges have frequently regretted its adoption.[16]

Illinois.— Penn v. Bornman, 102 Ill. 523.

Indiana.— Indianapolis v. Navin, 151 Ind. 139, 47 N. E. 525, 51 N. E. 80, 41 L. R. A. 337, 344.

Iowa.— Goodnow v. Wells, 67 Iowa 654, 25 N. W. 864; McClure v. Owen, 26 Iowa 243.

Kentucky.—Perry v. Wheeler, 12 Bush 541.

Louisiana.— Levy v. Mentz, 23 La. Ann. 261.

Maryland.—As to state insolvent laws the court of appeals is bound by the decisions of the United States supreme court. State v. Krebs, 6 Harr. & J. 31.

Mississippi.— Bailey v. Fitz-Gerald, 56 Miss. 578; McIntyre v. Ingraham, 35 Miss. 25; Deans v. McLendon, 30 Miss. 343.

Missouri.— State v. Trammel, 106 Mo. 510, 17 S. W. 502.

Nebraska.— Franklin v. Kelley, 2 Nebr. 79.

Ohio.— Sandusky City Bank v. Wilbor, 7 Ohio St. 481; Wilkins v. Philips, 3 Ohio 49, 17 Am. Dec. 579.

United States.— Winona, etc., R. Co. v. Plainview, 143 U. S. 371, 12 S. Ct. 530, 36 L. ed. 191.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 333.

A federal decision prior to any decision in the state court will be held binding by the latter as between the parties. Hoyle v. Southern Athletic Club, 48 La. Ann. 900, 19 So. 924; Billgery v. Indianapolis Land Trust, 48 La. Ann. 890, 19 So. 920.

Where the obligation of a prior contract is involved the United States supreme court will assume jurisdiction. Winona, etc., R. Co. v. Plainview, 143 U. S. 371, 12 S. Ct. 530, 36 L. ed. 191.

Where a state was a territory at the time a decision was rendered by the supreme court construing a statute such decision will be controlling on the state court in construing a statute which is in effect the same. Choate v. Spencer, 13 Mont. 127, 32 Pac. 651, 40 Am. St. Rep. 425, 20 L. R. A. 424.

13. Illinois.— Smoot v. Lafferty, 7 Ill. 383.

Indiana.— Ballard v. Wiltshire, 28 Ind. 341.

Louisiana.— State v. Fullarton, 7 Rob. 219.

Missouri.— Barber Asphalt Paving Co. v. French, 158 Mo. 534, 58 S. W. 934, 54 L. R. A. 492; Paddock v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 155 Mo. 524, 56 S. W. 453.

Ohio.— Railway Pass. Assur. Co. v. Pierce, 27 Ohio St. 155; Skelly v. Jefferson Branch Bank, 9 Ohio St. 606.

Tennessee.— State v. Hernando Ins. Co., 97 Tenn. 85, 36 S. W. 721.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 331.

Statute regulating service of process on non-residents.— The decisions of the United States supreme court are binding upon the state courts as to the constitutionality of such a statute. Caldwell v. Armour, 1 Pennew. (Del.) 545, 43 Atl. 517.

A state court will decide according to its judgment as to whether a state statute violates the federal constitution, where there is no federal decision in reference thereto. State v. Intoxicating Liquors, 95 Me. 140, 49 Atl. 670.

14. White v. The Cynthia, 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,546*a*.

15. Kentucky.— Leigh v. Everheart, 4 T. B. Mon. 379, 16 Am. Dec. 160; Hickman v. Boffman, Hard. 348. But see Acts (1807), p. 28, c. 7.

Louisiana.— Miller v. Holstein, 16 La. 389.

Maryland.— Koontz v. Nabb, 16 Md. 549.

Virginia.— Marks v. Morris, 4 Hen. & M. 463.

United States.— Cathcart v. Robinson, 5 Pet. 264, 8 L. ed. 120.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 324.

Decisions under the English statute of wills are not authority. Miller v. McNeill, 35 Pa. St. 217, 78 Am. Dec. 333.

The principle and practice of the ecclesiastical courts of England should be considered as a precedent and guide to state courts in exercising any part of such jurisdiction under a statute. Brinkley v. Brinkley, 50 N. Y. 184, 10 Am. Rep. 460. But the decisions of the courts of common law and chancery in England should be followed in preference to those of the ecclesiastical courts. Chapman v. Gray, 8 Ga. 341.

On principles of comity a mortgage on a vessel has been held void in a federal court where it is void under English law. The Acme, 1 Fed. Cas. No. 27, 2 Ben. 386.

16. Johnson v. Fall, 6 Cal. 359, 65 Am. Dec. 518.

If a statute is merely affirmative of the common law, decisions of the common law are applicable as precedents. Wren v. Dooley, 97 Ill. App. 88.

6. DICTA. A judicial opinion is an authority as a precedent only as to the point or points decided, and views upon any point or principle which the court is not required to decide or statements by way of argument or illustration beyond the case, not necessarily leading to the opinion on the point intended to be decided and not uttered upon such point or question but as if turning aside from the main topic of the case to collateral subjects, are mere dicta, and although entitled to respect are not binding as authority.[17]

7. RULES OF PROPERTY. Where judicial decisions may fairly be presumed to have entered into the business transactions of a country and have been acted upon as a rule of contracts and property it is the duty of the court, on the principle of stare decisis, to adhere to such decisions without regard to how it might be inclined to decide if the question were new.[18] And this rule obtains, although the

Where a resort to legislation is regarded as warranted by the English bench and bar to eliminate a rule established by a decision, such decision will not be followed. North Chicago St. R. Co. v. Le Grand Co., 95 Ill. App. 435.

17. California.— Mulford v. Estudillo, 32 Cal. 131; Trinity County v. McCammon, 25 Cal. 117.

Florida.— Hart v. Stribling, 25 Fla. 433, 6 So. 455.

Illinois.— Bratsch v. People, 195 Ill. 165, 62 N. E. 895; Mayer v. Erhardt, 88 Ill. 452; Brown v. Coon, 36 Ill. 243, 85 Am. Dec. 402; Stow v. People, 25 Ill. 81.

Indiana.— Lucas v. Tippecanoe County Com'rs, 44 Ind. 524.

Louisiana.— Davis v. Millaudon, 17 La. Ann. 97, 87 Am. Dec. 517; State v. Rohfrischt, 12 La. Ann. 382; Miller v. Marigny, 10 La. Ann. 338.

Maryland.— Alexander v. Worthington, 5 Md. 471.

Michigan.—Holcomb v. Bonnell, 32 Mich. 6.

Mississippi.— Adams v. Yazoo, etc., R. Co., 77 Miss. 194, 24 So. 200, 317, 28 So. 956, 60 L. R. A. 33; Lanier v. State, 57 Miss. 102.

New York.— Rohrbach v. Germania F. Ins. Co., 62 N. Y. 47, 20 Am. Rep. 451; Matter of Klock, 30 N. Y. App. Div. 24, 51 N. Y. Suppl. 897; People v. Leubischer, 23 Misc. 495, 51 N. Y. Suppl. 735.

Rhode Island.— Hancock Nat. Bank v. Farnum, 20 R. I. 466, 40 Atl. 341.

Tennessee.— Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Davidson County Ct., 1 Sneed 637, 62 Am. Dec. 424.

Virginia.— Lewis v. Thornton, 6 Munf. 87.

United States.— Pollock v. Farmers' L. & T. Co., 157 U. S. 429, 15 S. Ct. 673, 39 L. ed. 759; Cross v. Burke, 146 U. S. 82, 13 S. Ct. 22, 36 L. ed. 896; Carroll v. Carroll, 16 How. 275, 14 L. ed. 936.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 335.

"It is a maxim not to be disregarded, that general expressions, in every opinion, are to be taken in connection with the case in which those expressions are used. If they go beyond the case, they may be respected, but ought not to control the judgment in a subsequent suit when the very point is presented for decision." Per Marshall, C. J., in Cohens v. Virginia, 6 Wheat. (U. S.) 264, 399, 5 L. ed. 257.

That a decision might have been put upon a different ground does not place it in the category of a dictum. Clark v. Thomas, 4 Heisk. (Tenn.) 419. So the fact that the questions determined were not properly raised by the record and were not necessary to the determination of the case will not release an inferior tribunal from following such decision. Gibson v. Chouteau, 7 Mo. App. 1. Again, although a point is not fully argued, the decision of the court cannot be considered a dictum. Michael v. Morey, 26 Md. 239, 90 Am. Dec. 106. But where no argument or authorities are presented upon a point which the appellant failed to notice and the decision is based thereon the court will not consider itself concluded by what was stated in its opinion from considering the same question in a subsequent case. Lyman v. Malcolm Brewing Co., 161 N. Y. 119, 55 N. E. 408. In a decision that a recovery cannot be had at law but is in equity the latter conclusion is not a dictum. Menken v. Frank, 58 Miss. 283. And where the record presents two or more points, on either of which the decision might turn, and both are fully considered and determined neither can be considered as a dictum. State v. Brookhart, 113 Iowa 250, 84 N. W. 1064; Brown v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 102 Wis. 137, 77 N. W. 748, 78 N. W. 771, 44 L. R. A. 578; Hawes v. Contra Costa Water Co., 11 Fed. Cas. No. 6,235, 5 Sawy. 287 [affirmed in 104 U. S. 450, 26 L. ed. 827]. But see Florida Cent. R. Co. v. Schutte, 103 U. S. 118, 26 L. ed. 327.

18. Alabama.— Bibb v. Bibb, 79 Ala. 437; Bennett v. Bennett, 34 Ala. 53; Matheson v. Hearin, 29 Ala. 210; Field v. Goldsby, 28 Ala. 218, 65 Am. Dec. 341; McVay v. Ijams, 27 Ala. 238.

Arkansas.— Townsend v. Martin, 55 Ark. 192, 17 S. W. 875.

California.— Sacramento Bank v. Alcorn, 121 Cal. 379, 53 Pac. 813; Smith v. Ferries, etc., R. Co., (1897) 51 Pac. 710; Smith v. McDonald, 42 Cal. 484; Hihn v. Courtis, 31 Cal. 398; Clark v. Troy, 20 Cal. 219.

Georgia.— Scott v. Stewart, 84 Ga. 772, 11 S. E. 897.

Illinois.— Braxon v. Bressler, 64 Ill. 488; Hopkins v. McCann, 19 Ill. 113.

Indiana.— Pond v. Irwin, 113 Ind. 243, 15 N. E. 272; Frank v. Evansville, etc., R. Co., 111 Ind. 132, 12 N. E. 105; Schori v. Ste-court may be of the belief that such decisions are founded upon an erroneous principle and are not sound, for when parties have acted upon such decisions as settled law and rights have been vested thereunder, their inherent correctness or incorrectness in the abstract are of less importance than that the rule of property so established should be constant and invariable.[19] So such a rule controls as to decisions involving questions of constitutional law[20] and the construction and operation of statutes.[21] phens, 62 Ind. 441; Carver v. Louthain, 38 Ind. 530; Harrow v. Myers, 29 Ind. 469.

Kentucky.— Uhl v. Reynolds, 64 S. W. 498, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 759; Nickels v. Com., 64 S. W. 448, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 778; Flannery v. Givens, 52 S. W. 962, 21 Ky. L. Rep. 705.

Michigan.— Reid v. Donovan, (1903) 93 N. W. 914; Rothschild v. Grix, 31 Mich. 150, 18 Am. Rep. 171.

Missouri.— Wilson v. Beckwith, 140 Mo. 359, 41 S. W. 985; Dunklin County v. Chouteau, 120 Mo. 577, 25 S. W. 553.

New Jersey.— Ocean Beach Assoc. v. Brinley, 34 N. J. L. 438.

New York.— Mott v. Clayton, 9 N. Y. App. Div. 181, 41 N. Y. Suppl. 87.

North Carolina.— Kirby v. Boyette, 118 N. C. 244, 24 S. E. 18.

Ohio.— Shumaker v. Pearson, 67 Ohio St. 330, 65 N. E. 1005; Cincinnati v. Taft, 63 Ohio St. 141, 58 N. E. 63; June v. Purcell, 36 Ohio St. 396; Sheldon v. Newton, 3 Ohio St. 494.

Oregon.— Paulson v. Portland, 16 Oreg. 450, 19 Pac. 450, 1 L. R. A. 673.

Pennsylvania.— Bright v. Esterley, 199 Pa. St. 88, 48 Atl. 810; White v. Kyle, 1 Serg. & R. 515.

South Carolina.— Gage v. Charleston, 3 S. C. 491.

Texas.— Mayman v. Reviere, 47 Tex. 357; Dean v. Gibson, (Civ. App. 1898) 48 S. W. 57. But where a decision is in contravention of the constitution it need not be followed. Higgins v. Bordages, 88 Tex. 458, 31 S. W. 52, 803, 53 Am. St. Rep. 770. See also Storrie v. Cortes, 90 Tex. 283, 38 S. W. 154, 35 L. R. A. 666.

West Virginia.— Pyles v. Riverside Furniture Co., 30 W. Va. 123, 2 S. E. 909; Wilson v. Perry, 29 W. Va. 169, 1 S. E. 302.

Wisconsin.— Brader v. Brader, 110 Wis. 423, 85 N. W. 681; Pittelkow v. Milwaukee, 94 Wis. 651, 69 N. W. 803.

United States.— McCullough v. Com., 172 U. S. 102, 19 S. Ct. 134, 43 L. ed. 382 [reversing 90 Va. 597, 19 S. E. 114]; Minnesota Min. Co. v. National Min. Co., 3 Wall. 332, 18 L. ed. 42.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 336.

A decision which has become a rule of property should be overruled only for most cogent reasons (Reichert v. McClure, 23 Ill. 516; Pond v. Irwin, 113 Ind. 243, 15 N. E. 272) or most palpable error (Lindsay v. Lindsay, 47 Ind. 283; Lombard v. Lombard, 57 Miss. 71; Boon v. Bowers, 30 Miss. 246, 64 Am. Dec. 159; Reed v. Ownby, 44 Mo. 204; Kearny v. Buttles, 1 Ohio St. 362).

The rule applies only to decisions of courts of last resort. Board of Directors v. People, 189 Ill. 439, 59 N. E. 977. So decisions in circuit courts cannot be held to establish a rule of property, where no appeals have been taken therefrom, so as to bind the circuit court of appeals. American Mortg. Co. v. Hopper, 64 Fed. 553, 12 C. C. A. 293. See also The Madrid, 40 Fed. 677.

Where a state is divided into two states and prior to such division a rule of property is established by a series of decisions of the highest court, the courts of the new state formed by such division will be bound thereby. Pyles v. Riverside Furniture Co., 30 W. Va. 123, 2 S. E. 909; Wilson v. Perry, 29 W. Va. 169, 1 S. E. 302.

19. Alabama.— Bennett v. Bennett, 34 Ala. 53.

California.— Smith v. McDonald, 42 Cal. 484.

Georgia.— Scott v. Stewart, 84 Ga. 772, 11 S. E. 897.

Indiana.— Hines v. Driver, 89 Ind. 339; Ewing v. Ewing, 24 Ind. 468; Rockhill v. Nelson, 24 Ind. 422.

Michigan.— Emerson v. Atwater, 7 Mich. 12.

Nevada.— Linn v. Minor, 4 Nev. 462.

New York.— Van Winkle v. Constantine, 10 N. Y. 422.

Ohio.— Thoms v. Greenwood, 6 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 639, 7 Am. L. Rec. 320.

Tennessee.— State v. Whitworth, 8 Lea 594.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 339.

Decisions should be those of supreme judicial tribunal in order to raise an erroneous decision to the dignity of law so as to be within the rule. Ocean Beach Assoc. v. Brinley, 34 N. J. L. 438. So if a decision is clearly incorrect it may be reversed where no injurious results are likely to flow therefrom. Linn v. Minor, 4 Nev. 462.

20. Alabama.— Hart v. Floyd, 54 Ala. 34.

Kentucky.— Maddox v. Graham, 2 Metc. 56.

Texas.— Willis v. Owen, 43 Tex. 41.

Wisconsin.— Fisher v. Horicon Iron, etc., Co., 10 Wis. 351.

United States.— Mitchell v. Burlington, 4 Wall. 270, 18 L. ed. 350.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 337.

Construction of a provision as to mode of amending laws is not a rule of property. Greencastle Southern Turnpike Co. v. State, 28 Ind. 382.

If municipal bonds are valid by the judicial interpretation of the constitution and laws of a state they cannot be made invalid by a subsequent decision. Mitchell v. Burlington, 4 Wall. (U. S.) 270, 18 L. ed. 350.

21. Indiana.— Haskett v. Maxey, 134 Ind.

8. PREVIOUS DECISIONS IN SAME CASE AS LAW OF CASE. As a general rule where a court has considered and determined a point in a case, its conclusion becomes the law of that case until reversed by an appellate court.[22]

9. RULINGS OF LEGISLATIVE AND EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND SPECIAL TRIBUNALS. If a doubtful constitutional question has been construed by the legislature, the courts will adhere to the construction so given, unless it be clearly wrong.[23] And upon the question as to when a war was terminated, an act of congress designating a certain day as the one upon which it was closed may be accepted by the courts.[24] But decisions or rulings of any of the departments of government are not generally considered as binding on the courts.[25] And it has been determined 182, 3 N. E. 358, 19 L. R. A. 379 [modifying Bryan v. Uland, 101 Ind. 477, 1 N. E. 52].

Louisiana.— Levy v. Hitsche, 40 La. Ann. 500, 4 So. 472.

Ohio.— Day v. Munson, 14 Ohio St. 488; Brown v. Farran, 3 Ohio 140.

Oregon.— Ross v. Ross, 21 Oreg. 9, 26 Pac. 1007 [overruling Weiss v. Bethel, 8 Oreg. 522].

Texas.— Hall v. White, (Sup. 1901) 61 S. W. 385 [affirming (Civ. App. 1900) 59 S. W. 810]; Thouvenin v. Rodrigues, 24 Tex. 468.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 338.

22. Illinois.— Hallissy v. West Chicago Park Com'rs, 177 Ill. 598, 52 N. E. 843.

Louisiana.—Henderson v. Rost, 11 La. Ann. 541.

Massachusetts.— Luchterhand v. Sears, 108 Mass. 552.

Michigan.—Carpenter v. Carpenter, 126 Mich. 217, 85 N. W. 576.

Missouri.— Paddock v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 155 Mo. 524, 56 S. W. 453; Harburg v. Arnold, 87 Mo. App. 326.

Nebraska.—Smith v. Neufeld, 61 Nebr. 699, 85 N. W. 898.

New Hampshire.—Hedding v. Gallagher, 70 N. H. 631, 47 Atl. 614.

New York.— Brennan v. New York, 1 Hun 315; Guidet v. New York, 37 N. Y. Super. Ct. 124; Matter of Post, 30 Misc. 551, 64 N. Y. Suppl. 369; Cullen v. Cullen 23 Misc. 80, 50 N. Y. Suppl. 433; People v. Rourke, 11 Abb. N. Cas. 89; Peel v. Elliott, 16 How. Pr. 484; Brinkerhoff v. Marvin, 5 Johns. Ch. 320. See also McGill v. Holmes, 168 N. Y. 647, 61 N. E. 1131 [affirming 54 N. Y. App. Div. 630, 66 N. Y. Suppl. 359].

Ohio.— Bane v. Wick, 6 Ohio St. 13; Walbridge v. Union Mfg. Co., 5 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 203, 7 Ohio N. P. 430.

Pennsylvania.— In re Devine, 199 Pa. St. 250, 48 Atl. 1072.

South Carolina.— Hunter v. Ruff, 47 S. C. 525, 25 S. E. 65, 58 Am. St. Rep. 907.

Tennessee.— Maloney v. Jones, (Ch. App. 1900) 59 S. W. 700.

Texas.— Grassmeyer v. Beeson, 18 Tex. 753, 70 Am. Dec. 309. See also O'Rourke v. Clopper, 22 Tex. Civ. App. 377, 54 S. W. 930.

Vermont.— Enright v. Arnsden, 70 Vt. 183, 40 Atl. 37.

United States.—Montgomery v. McDermott, 99 Fed. 502; Cleveland v. Cleveland, etc., R. Co., 93 Fed. 113; Wakelee v. Davis, 44 Fed. 532; Simonds Counter Machinery Co. v. Knox, 39 Fed. 702.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 340.

Another element entering into the consideration of a case may justify a reversal. Knight v. Finney, 59 Nebr. 274, 80 N. W. 912.

The court will be governed by the record of the previous trial in determining whether an issue has been adjudicated. Hart v. Chemical Nat. Bank, (Miss. 1900) 27 So. 926.

A judge of a circuit court will not review a decision in a case rendered by another circuit judge. Taylor v. Decatur Mineral, etc., Co., 112 Fed. 449; Oglesby v. Attrill, 14 Fed. 214, 4 Woods 114; Cole Silver Min. Co. v. Virginia, etc., Water Co., 6 Fed. Cas. No. 2,990, 1 Sawy. 685; Turner v. Indianapolis, etc., R. Co., 24 Fed. Cas. No. 14,259, 8 Biss. 380.

A decision on a demurrer in a federal court has been held binding as the law of the case until a different rule is laid down by the supreme court. Wakelee v. Davis, 44 Fed. 532. But an order sustaining defendant's demurrer and giving plaintiff leave to amend does not preclude the court from entertaining the same question of law upon the subsequent trial on an amended complaint. Post v. Pearson, 108 U. S. 418, 2 S. Ct. 799, 27 L. ed. 774. Compare Richman v. Muscatine County, 77 Iowa 513, 42 N. W. 422, 14 Am. St. Rep. 308, 4 L. R. A. 445.

A suggestion by a trial judge as to the validity of a stipulation of facts between the parties is not binding on the judge, before whom the case comes up. Brown v. Pechman, 55 S. C. 555, 33 S. E. 732. See Seery v. Murray, 107 Iowa 384, 77 N. W. 1058.

23. Hedgecock v. Davis, 64 N. C. 650.

24. So held as to the termination of the Civil war, although in a foreign war the treaty of peace is generally evidence of this. U. S. v. Anderson, 9 Wall. (U. S.) 56, 19 L. ed. 615; Grossmayer's Case, 4 Ct. Cl. 1.

25. Lownsdale v. Portland, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,579, 1 Oreg. 381, where it is so held as to the determination of what laws of the United States were applicable to the territory of Oregon under the act organizing the territory.

This rule has been followed as to rulings of the navy department (Goldsborough v. U. S., 10 Fed. Cas. No. 5,519, Taney 80), of the treasury department (U. S. v. Bashaw, 50 Fed. 749, 1 C. C. A. 653), and of the war department (Wilson v. Wall, 34 Ala. 288).

that decisions of military tribunals are of no binding authority except as to the particular cases decided by them.[26] And a similar conclusion has been reached as to the opinion of a commission of arbitration and award, where such tribunal can only act with the consent of the parties, and cannot render or enforce a judgment.[27] Where, however, a trust is created for the benefit of those adhering to a particular denomination it has been decided that the determination of the proper ecclesiastical tribunals as to who are in subordination to that denomination will be accepted and followed by the courts.[28]

10. Effect of Reversal of Prior Decision. A decision overruling an earlier one is said to relate back to the date of the latter,[29] except so far as the construction last given would impair the obligations of contracts and injuriously affect vested rights.[30]

C. Number of Judges Necessary to Adjudication — 1. In General. The question as to how many judges should be present to authorize the legal transaction of business by a court is generally a matter to be determined in each case from the constitutional or statutory provisions creating or regulating the courts, and although the number varies in the different jurisdictions, as a general rule a 26. Taylor v. Murphy, 50 Tex. 291.

27. Henderson v. Beaton, 52 Tex. 29, Moore, C. J., dissenting.

28. First Constitutional Presb. Church v. Congregational Soc., 23 Iowa 567.

29. Boyd v. State, 53 Ala. 601; Taliaferro v. Barnett, 47 Ark. 359, 1 S. W. 702; Center School Tp. v. State, 150 Ind. 168, 49 N. E. 961; Lewis v. Symmes, 61 Ohio St. 471, 56 N. E. 194, 76 Am. St. Rep. 428.

A change in the construction of a statute relates back to the time of its enactment except where by so doing it would impair the obligation of contracts. Byrum v. Henderson, 151 Ind. 102, 51 N. E. 94. See also Pierce v. Pierce, 46 Ind. 86. So held as to a decision overruling a prior decision in reference to the distribution of the surplus dog fund, it being declared that the township trustees acquired no vested rights under the earlier decision, and that a town might under the later one recover its share of such fund. Addison School Tp. v. Shelbyville School, 21 Ind. App. 707, 52 N. E. 105; Center School Tp. v. State, (Ind. App. 1898) 51 N. E. 103.

Persons agreeing to be bound by a decision in a case pending in the United States supreme court are bound thereby, although in a subsequent case the decision is overruled. Woodruff v. Woodruff, 52 N. Y. 53.

The right to public office is not contractual, and where fees are paid to an officer to which he is entitled under decisions construing a statute it has been decided that there may be a recovery back of such fees where a decision is subsequently rendered which holds to the contrary. Sudbury v. Monroe County, 157 Ind. 446, 62 N. E. 45.

30. Indiana.—Thompson v. Henry, 153 Ind. 56, 54 N. E. 109; Center School Tp. v. State, 150 Ind. 168, 49 N. E. 961; Hardinsburg v. Cravens, (Sup. 1897) 47 N. E. 153; Hibbits v. Jack, 97 Ind. 570, 49 Am. Rep. 478.

Minnesota.— Hollinshead v. Von Glahn, 4 Minn. 190.

New York.— See Miller v. Tyler, 58 N. Y. 477.

Ohio.— Lewis v. Symmes, 61 Ohio St. 471, 56 N. E. 194, 76 Am. St. Rep. 428.

Pennsylvania.— Geddes v. Brown, 5 Phila. 180, 22 Leg. Int. 324.

United States.— In re Dunham, 8 Fed. Cas. No. 4,146.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 341.

Compare Allen v. Allen, (Cal. 1891) 27 Pac. 30; Bool v. Kenner, 105 Ky. 517, 49 S. W. 330, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 1343; Bradshaw v. Duluth Imperial Mill Co., 52 Minn. 59, 53 N. W. 1066; McMaster v. Dyer, 44 W. Va. 644, 29 S. E. 1016.

Bonds valid according to the judicial decisions at the time of their issuance cannot be rendered invalid by a subsequent reversal of such decisions. State v. Bristol, 109 Tenn. 315, 70 S. W. 1031; Richardson v. Marshall County, 100 Tenn. 346, 45 S. W. 440; Kenosha v. Lamson, 9 Wall. (U. S.) 477, 19 L. ed. 725.

A decision as to the taxation of stock-holders in national banks, which reverses prior decisions holding that such stock-holders were entitled to deduct from the value of their shares for purposes of taxation the amount of their indebtedness, and under which such deductions were made, is not retroactive so as to permit a recovery by the state of taxes on the amount of the deductions. Mercantile Nat. Bank v. Lander, 109 Fed. 21. In another case, however, where an opinion that banks were not subject to county taxation was subsequently overruled, it was decided that back taxes could be collected, as the payment had merely been suspended by the earlier decisions. Bohannon v. Shelbyville Bank, 63 S. W. 474, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 508.

Where, pending an appeal to the court of appeals of the District of Columbia from a judgment based on a decision of this court in another and analogous case, the decision of this court in the latter case is reversed by the supreme court of the United States, the judgment appealed from will be reversed. Macfarland v. Byrnes, 19 App. Cas. (D. C.) 531.

majority is a quorum sufficient for this purpose.[31] And in the absence of the quorum or number required by law to hold court a judgment rendered by the remaining judges will be regarded as a nullity, as in such a case there is no authority conferred to render a judgment.[32]

2. DEATH, DISQUALIFICATION, OR ABSENCE OF A JUDGE. The effect which the death, disqualification, or absence of a judge may have upon the right of the other judges to hold court and transact business must ordinarily depend upon the provisions of the constitution or statutes in reference to courts. As a general rule, however, the death, disqualification, or absence of a judge will not deprive the surviving judges of power and authority to hold court and exercise all its functions, provided the existence of any of the above factors does not reduce the number of judges below that legally required for the transaction of business.[33]

31. Arkansas.—Trice v. Crittenden County, 7 Ark. 159; Ferguson v. Crittenden County, 6 Ark. 479.

California.— All the judges should be present. People v. Barbour, 9 Cal. 230; People v. Ah Chung, 5 Cal. 103.

Florida.— Opinion of Chief Justice, 8 Fla. 478; Griffin v. Orman, 5 Fla. 332.

Indiana.— A single judge may hold court alone and transact business. Miller v. Burger, 2 Ind. 337.

Massachusetts.— Coffin v. Hussey, 12 Pick. 289.

New Jersey.— Engle v. State, 50 N. J. L. 272, 13 Atl. 604. See also Gray v. Bastedo, 46 N. J. L. 453.

New York.— Matter of Divine, 11 Abb. Pr. 90, 21 How. Pr. 80, 5 Park. Crim. 62; McFarland v. Crary, 6 Wend. 297 [affirming 8 Cow. 253]. See also Lawrence v. Republic Bank, 6 Rob. 497.

North Carolina.— State v. King, 27 N. C. 203, holding that the record should show that the requisite number of judges were present.

Pennsylvania.— Kilpatrick v. Com., 31 Pa. St. 198; In re Northern Liberty Hose Co., 13 Pa. St. 193; Zeppon v. Com., 4 Pa. L. J. 362. See also Com. v. Martin, 2 Pa. St. 244; Com. v. Nathans, 2 Pa. St. 138.

Tennessee.— Steele v. Blanton, 1 Lea 514.

Texas.— Austin v. Nalle, 85 Tex. 520, 22 S. W. 668, 960; West v. Burke, 60 Tex. 51.

Vermont.— State v. Bradley, 67 Vt. 465, 32 Atl. 238.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 344.

The legislature may provide that a less number of judges shall constitute a quorum than the number which the constitution requires the court shall be composed of. Oakley v. Aspinwall, 3 N. Y. 547.

Where two constitute a quorum if that number are duly qualified in their office the court is duly organized. Snider v. Rinehart, 18 Colo. 18, 31 Pac. 716. But if they are divided in opinion a valid final judgment cannot be rendered. Deglow v. Kruse, 57 Ohio St. 434, 49 N. E. 477.

32. Trice v. Crittenden County, 7 Ark. 159; Ferguson v. Crittenden County, 6 Ark. 479; Jagger v. Coon, 5 Mich. 31.

33. Thus the death of one of three judges does not deprive the surviving two of power to hold court. Campbell v. Seaman, 63 N. Y. 568, 20 Am. Rep. 567; State v. Lane, 26 N. C. 434; Aultman v. Utsey, 35 S. C. 596, 14 S. E. 351. So where a judge is disqualified for any reason from sitting the remaining judge or judges may hold court. Oakley v. Aspinwall, 3 N. Y. 547; People v. Davis, 61 Barb. (N. Y.) 456; McLughan v. Bovard, 4 Watts (Pa.) 308; Nalle v. Austin, 85 Tex. 520, 22 S. W. 668, 960; Western Union Tel. Co. v. McLeod, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 24 S. W. 815. And a judge who is disqualified is in some cases allowed to sit for the purpose of making a quorum, although he is not permitted to act or participate in the proceedings. Nephi Irr. Co. v. Jenkins, 8 Utah 452, 32 Pac. 699; Walker v. Rogan, 1 Wis. 597. Again the absence of a judge may not deprive the court from acting. Pedrieau v. Hunt, Riley Eq. (S. C.) 88. So the absence of a judge of a special court commissioned by the governor has been held not to invalidate proceedings held by the other two. Goodman v. Walker, 29 Ala. 444. So the temporary absence of one of the members necessary to make a duly organized court does not impair the validity of the court's proceedings. People v. Dohring, 59 N. Y. 374, 17 Am. Rep. 349; Tuttle v. People, 36 N. Y. 431. But where a judge was absent for a day it has been decided that he was disqualified from further participation in the trial, and that where another judge subsequently absented himself, and did not return, a verdict by the remaining members was one by a court not legally constituted, there not being present the necessary members required by law. People v. Shaw, 63 N. Y. 36. Compare Furman v. Applegate, 23 N. J. L. 28. In case of a vacancy in office the remaining judges may act. Sullivan v. Speights, 14 S. C. 358.

The calling in of another judge to constitute a quorum is in some cases authorized by statute. People v. Barbour, 9 Cal. 230; Pedrieau v. Hunt, Riley Eq. (S. C.) 88. Or one "learned in the law" may be commissioned by the governor to act where such power is conferred upon him. Williams v. Benet, 35 S. C. 150, 14 S. E. 311, 14 L. R. A. 825; Austin v. Nalle, 85 Tex. 520, 22 S. W. 668, 960; Western Union Tel. Co. v. McLeod, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 24 S. W. 815.

A single judge may hold a special court alone, where the two associate judges are interested in the event of the suit, and where such action is taken to prevent a failure of

D. Number of Judges Concurring in Opinion — 1. In General. The question as to the number of judges who must concur in an opinion is one which must generally be determined from the constitutional or statutory provisions in reference to courts in general or to the particular court. Therefore no definite rule applicable in all cases can be stated except that where by such provisions a certain number of judges of a court must concur in an opinion by it there must be a compliance with such provision to render the opinion valid and binding.[34]

2. Where Court Is Divided. Where, upon the question whether relief should be granted or refused, the judges constituting the court are equally divided in opinion, such relief cannot be granted.[35] So under such circumstances an objection to evidence will not prevail,[36] nor will a demurrer be sustained;[37] and a motion for a new trial and in arrest of judgment will be considered as overruled,[38] and likewise a motion for a writ of habeas corpus will be dismissed.[39] But where in an action at law submitted by agreement to the president of a court and one of the associate judges they were divided in opinion it was decided that under such circumstances the cause should have been continued for a new trial.[40] justice. McLughan v. Bovard, 4 Watts (Pa.) 308.

34. Alabama. — Goodman v. Walker, 38 Ala. 142.

California. — Luco v. De Toro, 88 Cal. 26, 25 Pac. 983, 11 L. R. A. 543.

Georgia. — Hardin v. Lovelace, 79 Ga. 209, 5 S. E. 493; Johnson v. State, 1 Ga. 271.

Louisiana. — State v. Judges Civ. Dist. Ct., 35 La. Ann. 1075.

New Jersey. — Patterson v. State, 48 N. J. L. 381, 4 Atl. 449.

New York. — Corning v. Slosson, 16 N. Y. 294; Oakley v. Aspinwall, 3 N. Y. 547.

Pennsylvania. — In re Branch, 164 Pa. St. 427, 30 Atl. 296, 35 Wkly. Notes Cas. 310; Hamlin v. Peck, 135 Pa. St. 493, 19 Atl. 1053; In re Huntington County Line, 8 Pa. Super. Ct. 380.

Rhode Island. — State v. Congdon, 14 R. I. 458.

South Carolina. — Johnson v. Lewis, 1 Rich. Eq. 390.

Tennessee. — Austin v. Harbin, 95 Tenn. 598, 32 S. W. 628; Radford Trust Co. v. East Tennessee Lumber Co., 92 Tenn. 126, 21 S. W. 329; Love v. Smith, 4 Yerg. 117.

Texas. — Lewis v. Riggs, 9 Tex. 164.

West Virginia. — Bruff v. Thompson, 31 W. Va. 16, 6 S. E. 352.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 351; and Appeal and Error, 3 Cyc. 405.

A judge writing an opinion on a different ground than that appearing in the opinion by the other judges will be presumed to have concurred therein, where his opinion is not inconsistent with the same and where he has made no reference thereto. State v. Greene, 1 Pennew. (Del.) 63, 39 Atl. 590.

A majority of those sitting, provided the number required to hold court is present, may be sufficient, although not a majority of all the judges of such court, unless the law provides otherwise. Patterson v. State, 48 N. J. L. 381, 4 Atl. 449; Oakley v. Aspinwall, 3 N. Y. 547; Love v. Smith, 4 Yerg. (Tenn.) 117. But where constitutional questions are involved a majority of all of the judges of the supreme court of the United States should concur, according to the practice of that court in such cases. Briscoe v. Kentucky Bank, 8 Pet. (U. S.) 118, 8 L. ed. 887.

Where no dissent or absence of a judge is noted a decision will be regarded as one by the whole court. Vincennes Nat. Bank v. Cockrum, 64 Ind. 229. See also State v. Green, 1 Pennew. (Del.) 63, 39 Atl. 590; Warn v. New York Cent., etc., R. Co., 163 N. Y. 525, 57 N. E. 742; Anderson v. Fowler, 48 S. C. 8, 25 S. E. 900.

35. Madlem's Appeal, 103 Pa. St. 584. See also Hatton v. Weems, 12 Gill & J. (Md.) 83, holding that where the court is divided in opinion on a motion to dismiss an appeal, the motion cannot be granted.

As to equal division of appellate court see Appeal and Error, 3 Cyc. 219, 405.

An absent judge's opinion will not be considered for the purpose of showing a division of the court. Johnson v. Lewis, 1 Rich. Eq. (S. C.) 390.

The court may appoint another judge under the constitution in some cases. Colvin v. Johnston, 104 La. 655, 29 So. 274; Florence v. Brown, 49 S. C. 332, 26 S. E. 880, 27 S. E. 273.

In Louisiana it has been held that in a suit involving the principal and a reconventional demand, if three justices of the supreme court concur in rejecting the principal demand, and three concur in rejecting the reconventional demand, there is a concurrence of the majority of the court. Losecco v. Gregory, 108 La. 648, 32 So. 985.

In Minnesota it has been held that the opinion of the senior judge of the district court is the opinion of the court, where he and his associate fail to agree. Darelius v. Davis, 74 Minn. 345, 77 N. W. 214; In re State Bank, 57 Minn. 361, 59 N. W. 315.

36. Henry v. Ricketts, 11 Fed. Cas. No. 6,385, 1 Cranch C. C. 545.

37. Putnam v. Rees, 12 Ohio 21.

38. State v. Brown, 2 Marv. (Del.) 380, 36 Atl. 458.

39. Stockman's Case, 56 Mich. 218, 22 N. W. 321.

40. Irons v. Hussey, 3 Ind. 158. Compare

E. Opinions — 1. Necessity, Requirements, and Sufficiency. It has been held that it is not necessary in all cases that an opinion be written,[41] or that the reasons therefor be given.[42] But it is frequently provided by the constitution or statutes of a state that opinions, particularly those of an appellate court or a court of last resort, shall be in writing, and where there is such a provision of law it should as a general rule be complied with;[43] although where the statute so provides the supreme court need not prepare and file an opinion in a cause when it deems it unnecessary.[44] And the judge of an appellate circuit court need not file an opinion on reversing or affirming the judgment appealed from.[45] A court need not, however, give an opinion upon a point of law which is not raised by the evidence,[46] nor will it give an advisory opinion to another court after the latter has rendered judgment.[47] But where jurisdiction in error is conferred on a court all errors assigned should be passed upon by it.[48] Again an expression of an opinion ore tenus by one of the judges of a court after judgment is pronounced does not affect the law of the case.[49] And the head-notes to a case are an expression of the law thereof only so far as they are warranted by the judgment of the court upon the facts.[50] Again it may be stated that the absence of a judge from the Northern R. Co. v. Concord R. Co., 50 N. H. 166, as to a hearing in equity.

41. Randolph County v. Ralls, 18 Ill. 29; Brady v. Edwards, 35 Misc. (N. Y.) 435, 71 N. Y. Suppl. 972; Letzkus v. Butler, 69 Pa. St. 277; In re Spring Garden St., 4 Rawle (Pa.) 192; Needham v. Hickey, (Tex. Civ. App. 1901) 61 S. W. 433.

That the legislature has no authority to require the supreme court of a state to give in writing the reasons for its decisions see Vaughn v. Harp, 49 Ark. 160, 4 S. W. 751; Houston v. Williams, 13 Cal. 24, 73 Am. Dec. 565.

An act requiring judges to write a syllabus is unconstitutional, as the legislature cannot impose ministerial duties upon a court or add duties to those devolved by the constitution. Ex p. Griffiths, 118 Ind. 83, 20 N. E. 513, 10 Am. St. Rep. 107, 3 L. R. A. 398; Matter of Head-Notes to Opinions, 43 Mich. 641, 8 N. W. 552.

42. Respublica v. Doan, 1 Dall. (Pa.) 86, 1 L. ed. 47. But see Garrett v. Weinberg, 59 S. C. 162, 37 S. E. 51 [rehearing denied in 37 S. E. 225].

The reason why defenses were not sustained need not be set up in a decision. Brady v. Edwards, 35 Misc. (N. Y.) 435, 71 N. Y. Suppl. 972. So reasons for rulings on motions and interlocutory proceedings need not be written out and filed. Farwell v. Laird, 58 Kan. 817, 51 Pac. 284. And on a finding by a court of review that the verdict is supported by the testimony the opinion need not recite and discuss the facts on which it is based. Sweet v. West Chicago Park Com'rs, 177 Ill. 492, 53 N. E. 74. See also Harrell v. Beall, 17 Wall. (U. S.) 590, 21 L. ed. 692. Again what the supreme court may deem a fallacy need not be answered at length. Speight v. People, 87 Ill. 595. So the court will not write out reasons at length on a second appeal, but will simply announce its decision on "an inspection of the whole record." Bradsher v. Cheek, 112 N. C. 838, 17 S. E. 533.

A judgment with an opinion per curiam is held to imply that elucidation and argument are not required in the particular case. Letzkus v. Butler, 69 Pa. St. 277.

43. Arizona.—Arhelger v. New York Mut. L. Ins. Co., (1899) 56 Pac. 720.

Arkansas.—Vaughn v. Harp, 49 Ark. 160, 4 S. W. 751

California.— McQuillan v. Donahue, 49 Cal. 157.

Illinois.— Speight v. People, 87 Ill. 595.

Indiana.— Craig v. Bennett, 158 Ind. 9, 62 N. E. 273; Trayser v. Indiana Asbury University, 39 Ind. 556; Willetts v. Ridgway, 9 Ind. 367; Hand v. Taylor, 4 Ind. 409.

Iowa.— Baker v. Kerr, 13 Iowa 384. See also Clay v. Maynard Sav. Bank, 104 Iowa 748, 73 N. W. 884.

Minnesota.—Brackett v. Rich, 23 Minn. 485, 23 Am. Rep. 703.

Nebraska.— See Stevens v. State, 56 Nebr. 556, 76 N. W. 1055.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 354.

On the affirmance of a judgment by a divided court a written opinion need not be delivered. Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Sharp, 91 Ky. 411, 16 S. W. 86.

A judge who did not hear the oral argument may write the opinion where it is concurred in by the other judges who heard such argument. Wollman v. New York Fidelity, etc., Co., 87 Mo. App. 677.

44. Anderson v. Connecticut Mut. L. Ins. Co., 55 Kan. 81, 39 Pac. 1038. See also Metzler v. Wenzel, 6 Kan. App. 921, 49 Pac. 750.

45. U. S. Express Co. v. Meints, 72 Ill. 293.

46. Gardner v. Collins, 9 Fed. Cas. No. 5,223, 3 Mason 398.

47. Ex p. Barker, 7 Cow. (N. Y.) 143.

48. Kramer v. Toledo, etc., R. Co., 53 Ohio St. 436, 42 N. E. 252.

49. Steele v. Charlotte, etc., R. Co., 14 S. C. 324.

50. Denham v. Holeman, 26 Ga. 182, 71 Am. Dec. 198.

The title of a cause and the court at the head of an opinion when erroneous may be county will not deprive him of the power to prepare and sign the finding and decision in another county, and the clerk on receiving them may file the same and enter judgment.[51] The court cannot, however, be compelled by mandamus to certify a paper which is not a decree, but one merely prepared for the convenience of counsel to enable them to see what decree he was prepared to make.[52]

2. SUPPLEMENTAL AND MODIFIED OPINIONS. A supplemental opinion may be filed as of the date of the first opinion setting forth the facts on which the court acted;[53] and the original opinion may be modified on the denial of a motion for a reargument.[54]

3. OF COMMISSIONERS OF SUPREME COURT. The opinions prepared by a commissioner of the supreme court and submitted to the judges thereof for examination and criticism and adopted by them are opinions of the court.[55]

4. OPERATION AND EFFECT. The law and the opinion of the judge are not always convertible terms or one and the same thing, since it may sometimes happen that the judge may mistake the law.[56] The decision of a supreme court is, however, in general, evidence of what is the law. Legis interpretatio legis vim obtinet.[57] But an opinion is not authority that the assumption of a certain principle by counsel is correct law where the court does not discuss the correctness thereof, and so, even though the court decides the case upon such assumption.[58] So the decision of the highest court of another state on a particular question will be presumed to govern the matter to which it applies in the absence of any other decision or statute to the contrary.[59] The presumption exists, however, that all facts in a record bearing upon the points decided have received due consideration by the supreme court, whether all, a part, or none of these facts are mentioned in the opinion.[60] If a decision of a court is reversed by an appellate court and its decision is reversed by the court of last resort on such terms as to leave the question of jurisdiction in the first court doubtful such question will not be thereby decided.[61] Again the rule is declared to be well settled that the language of an opinion must be held as referring to the particular case,[62] and an opinion is not a judgment and becomes no part of the record.[63]

F. Records — 1. WHAT CONSTITUTES, AND NECESSITY FOR. The record constitutes a history of the cause, and is required in England to be enrolled.[64] Records disregarded. Lovelace v. Taylor, 6 Rob. (La.) 92.

51. Comstock Quicksilver Min. Co. v. Santa Cruz County Super. Ct., 57 Cal. 625.

52. Fairbanks v. Amoskeag Nat. Bank, 32 Fed. 572.

53. Lester's Appeal, (Pa. 1887) 11 Atl. 387.

Additional reasons for reversing and remanding a cause may be given in an opinion filed after trial of the remanded cause. Adams v. Yazoo, etc., R. Co., 77 Miss. 194, 24 So. 200, 317, 28 So. 956, 60 L. R. A. 33.

54. Philadelphia v. Jewell, 2 Mona. (Pa.) 734.

55. Randall v. Minneapolis Nat. Bldg. L., etc., Union, 43 Nebr. 876, 62 N. W. 252.

56. 1 Bl. Comm. 71.

57. Breedlove v. Turner, 9 Mart. (La.) 353.

58. Donner v. Palmer, 31 Cal. 500.

An opinion is no authority for what is not mentioned in it and what does not appear to have been suggested to the court rendering it. Knight v. St. Louis, etc., R. Co., 40 Ill. App. 471 [affirmed in 141 Ill. 110, 30 N. E. 543].

59. Meuer v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 11 S. D. 94, 75 N. W. 823, 74 Am. St. Rep. 774.

Obiter dicta of the highest court of another state is some evidence of the law of such state, and in the absence of conflicting evidence warrants a finding that the law is as stated. Meuer v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 11 S. D. 94, 75 N. W. 823, 74 Am. St. Rep. 774.

60. Mulford v. Estudillo, 32 Cal. 131.

A statement of facts in an opinion is not binding on third parties, even though it may be regarded as an adjudication of matters of fact. Gage v. Busse, 7 Ill. App. 433.

The opinion of a judge on issues of fact in trial which did not result in a judgment is not admissible in evidence on a second trial before another court. Eckerson v. Archer, 10 N. Y. App. Div. 344, 41 N. Y. Suppl. 802.

61. In re Henderson, 33 N. Y. App. Div. 545, 53 N. Y. Suppl. 957.

62. People v. Winkler, 9 Cal. 234.

63. Gage v. Busse, 7 Ill. App. 433.

64. "The record is a history of the most material proceedings in the cause entered on a parchment roll, and continued down to the present time; in which must be stated the original writ and summons, all the pleadings, the declaration, view or oyer prayed, the imparlances, plea, replication, rejoinder, continuances, and whatever farther proceedings have been had; all entered verbatim on the roll; and also the issue or demurrer, and joinder

were formerly all written in Norman or law French.[65] Again all orders of a court not entered of record are extrajudicial and void.[66] And where a court consists of several judges, a transcript of the record should show that there were justices enough to constitute a court, and therefore having authority to make or cause to be made a record of the court.[67]

2. Making, Authentication, Certification, and Custody. In determining questions as to the making, authentication, certification, and custody of records resort must be had not only to statutes relating to records,[68] their authentication, etc.,[69] but also to the law of the creation of courts, the nature of such courts, and the character of their jurisdiction.[70] therein." 3 Bl. Comm. 317. See also Wilkins v. Anderson, 1 Phila. (Pa.) 134, 8 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 6.

"Record" means a copy of the record in expressions referring to proceedings before courts of review such as "defect in the record," etc. Anderson L. Dict.

The original entry of each matter in the course of a suit is essentially the record of that matter. Wilkins v. Anderson, 1 Phila. (Pa.) 134, 8 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 6. But the trial list of causes (Moore v. Kline, 1 Penr. & W. (Pa.) 129), or minutes or memoranda only (Hoehne v. Trugillo, 1 Colo. 161, 91 Am. Dec. 703. See also Harvey v. Brown, 1 Ohio 268) are not parts of the record. And unless made so by agreed statement, etc., affidavits, depositions, and matters of parol evidence are no part of the record or transcript of the proceedings of a common-law court. Baltimore, etc., R. Co. v. Sixth Presby. Church, 91 U. S. 127, 23 L. ed. 260.

The word "record" technically applied to courts which proceeded according to the course of the common law, which courts were denominated courts of record, and did not apply to inferior courts. See supra, I, E. But these latter, when courts of record, even those not technically such, are required in this country to keep records of their proceedings. Chase v. Hathaway, 14 Mass. 222.

65. 3 Bl. Comm. 317.

66. Medlin v. Platte County, 8 Mo. 235, 40 Am. Dec. 135.

67. State v. King, 27 N. C. 203.

68. A statute may require separate dockets to be kept by county and circuit courts and that entry of judgments shall state when docketed. Western Sav. Co. v. Currey, 39 Oreg. 467, 65 Pac. 360, 87 Am. St. Rep. 660.

A statute relating to records should not conflict with a constitutional provision that the jurisdiction and powers of all courts of the same class shall be uniform. In re Beaver County Indexes, 6 Pa. Co. Ct. 525.

69. Thus where a statute requires the minutes of the proceedings to be signed by the presiding judge at the end of the term the failure of such judge so to sign does not invalidate orders entered on the minutes in regard to local option. Lillard v. State, (Tex. Civ. App. 1899) 53 S. W. 125. So a statute relating to the custody of records is not unconstitutional where it provides for a certified copy of a decree to be annexed to a tax record and such record to be delivered to the county treasurer in whose office it shall remain, "except as needed in the office of the county clerk," since the court may at any time repossess itself of the tax record. Mersereau v. Miller, 112 Mich. 103, 70 N. W. 341. And a statute does not authorize judges to order new indexes to their records, where it requires them to superintend said records and to require that the dockets "and all indexes to the records be correctly made out at the proper time." Ward v. Cole County Ct., 50 Mo. 401. Again a statute confirming all acts of surrogates in certifying the records covers the record of a will existing and undetermined in the courts at the passage thereof. Fetes v. Volmer, 58 Hun (N. Y.) 1, 11 N. Y. Suppl. 552.

Records unless copied cannot be removed from files where the statute requires the surrogate "to file and preserve in his office every deposition, etc." Matter of Smith, 15 N. Y. St. 743.

70. Thus it is not irregular to keep the minutes of civil cases in one book and those of criminal cases in another. Wilson v. State, 69 Ga. 224. If a court is subdivided into different rooms it gives each room its minutes under the control of the presiding judge therein, and an entry in any one of the minute books of any room reciting that all matters pending in that court are continued is an entry continuing everything pending in that court. Hazzard v. State, 6 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 1081, 10 Am. L. Rec. 307. Again a judge's signature made by his clerk, in his presence and at his direction, to the record of one day's business is binding, and the failure of the judge to sign one day's record does not invalidate the proceedings, the beginning of one day's orders being sufficient to give validity to the orders of preceding days of the same month. Middleton v. Hensley, 52 S. W. 974, 21 Ky. L. Rep. 703. So if a book containing the entry of the minutes is signed by the presiding judge at the end of the term it need not be paragraphed "ne varietur" (State v. Hardaway, 50 La. Ann. 1345, 24 So. 320), although the minutes of a term of a court not signed by the judge have no force (Johnson v. Johnson, 2 Heisk. (Tenn.) 521); but in the absence of a law so requiring records need not be made out at length and signed by the judges before the close of the term (Chouteau v. Hooe, 1 Pinn. (Wis.) 663). Again if the records of one tribunal are required to be kept with another and are made records of such other, they may be authenticated by the seal and signatures of the chief

3. Entries Nunc Pro Tunc. It is competent for the court to make an entry nunc pro tunc,[71] even though the rights of third persons may be affected.[72] But record entries nunc pro tunc can only be properly made when based on some writing in a cause which directly or by fair inference indicates the purpose of the entry so sought to be made.[73]

4. Amendment and Correction — a. In General. In case of an omission or error in the record the power exists in the court to amend such record so that it may conform to the actual facts and truth of the case.[74] But where the rights of third persons will be affected by the allowance of an amendment for the purpose of putting into a process, pleading, or return something which was not originally judge and clerk of the court in which they are deposited. Taylor v. Barron, 35 N. H. 484. And if the minutes of a certain day of a special term chambers, offered in evidence, do not show that certain orders were made at any particular time in the day or that the entries were made consecutively in relation to time, such questions may be determined by the jury. Hamilton v. Gorman, 24 N. Y. App. Div. 85, 48 N. Y. Suppl. 1002. Where the clerk of a circuit court is the legal custodian of the records and files the supreme court has no power to compel him to surrender them to any other person (Anonymous, 40 Ill. 77; Cameron v. Savage, 40 Ill. 76), nor will a legal custodian of the records of former county courts be compelled to surrender them to the board of county commissioners to be altered by them (Forsyth County v. Blackburn, 68 N. C. 406).

On application to the surrogate to sign the records of a predecessor left incomplete it is proper to require proof by affidavit or otherwise of the fact and to recite in the record the mode in which completed. Matter of Espie, 2 Redf. Surr. (N. Y.) 445.

71. Buckwalter v. Craig, 24 Iowa 215; Foster v. Woodfin, 65 N. C. 29; Miller v. Richardson, 38 Tex. 500; Burnett v. State, 14 Tex. 455, 65 Am. Dec. 131; Hamilton Bank v. Dudley, 2 Pet. (U. S.) 492, 7 L. ed. 496.

When order nunc pro tunc cannot be made see People v. New York City Super. Ct., 18 Wend. (N. Y.) 675; Kelly v. Belcher, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 1126; The Bayonne, 159 U. S. 687, 16 S. Ct. 185, 40 L. ed. 305.

The clerk has no authority after adjournment of court to write out in full his minutes of the preceding day, for he thereby becomes a judicial officer as to matters not contained in the minutes. Johnson v. Com., 80 Ky. 377.

72. Foster v. Woodfin, 65 N. C. 29.

73. St. Francis Mill Co. v. Sugg, 142 Mo. 358, 44 S. W. 247. See also Gilmore v. Harp, 92 Mo. App. 386; Miller v. Richardson, 38 Tex. 500.

The amendment by the court of the record nunc pro tunc to speak the truth, on conflicting evidence as to the facts, is conclusive. Kerr v. Hicks, 131 N. C. 90, 42 S. E. 532.

74. California.—Allison v. Thomas, 72 Cal. 562, 14 Pac. 309, 1 Am. St. Rep. 89.

Colorado.— Pleyte v. Pleyte, 15 Colo. 44, 24 Pac. 579.

Georgia.— Baker v. Parrott, 105 Ga. 479, 30 S. E. 420.

Indiana.— Beach v. Woolford, 7 Ind. 351.

Iowa.— Goodrich v. Conrad, 28 Iowa 298; Stockdale v. Johnson, 14 Iowa 178.

Maine.— Morrell v. Cook, 31 Me. 120; In re Limerick, 18 Me. 183.

Missouri.— Gilmore v. Harp, 92 Mo. App. 386.

Nevada.— Sparrow v. Strong, 2 Nev. 362.

New Hampshire.— Frink v. Frink, 43 N. H. 508, 80 Am. Dec. 189, 82 Am. Dec. 172.

New York.— Dart v. McAdam, 27 Barb. 187; In re Munro, 15 Abb. Pr. 363.

North Carolina.— Ricaud v. Alderman, 132 N. C. 62, 43 S. E. 543; Peoples Nat. Bank v. McArthur, 82 N. C. 107; Ashe v. Streator, 53 N. C. 256.

Pennsylvania.— Sweeny v. Delany, 1 Pa. St. 320, 44 Am. Dec. 136; Cumberland County v. Renninger, 9 Pa. Dist. 628.

South Carolina.— Gibson v. Gibson, 7 S. C. 356.

Texas.— Johnston v. Arrendale, (Civ. App. 1902) 71 S. W. 44.

Vermont.— Mosseaux v. Brigham, 19 Vt. 457.

Wisconsin.— Hill v. Hoover, 5 Wis. 386, 68 Am. Dec. 70.

United States.— Gilman v. Libbey, 10 Fed. Cas. No. 5,445, 4 Cliff. 447.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 369.

A refusal to amend by the trial judge will not be disturbed by the supreme court where the facts concerning which the evidence is contradictory occurred before him. Stockdale v. Johnson, 14 Iowa 178.

That the judge, by whose omission the record is erroneous, is no longer in office does not prevent the aggrieved party from having the correction made. Goodrich v. Conrad, 28 Iowa 298.

Records of a court can be altered only by the court itself. Otey v. Rogers, 26 N. C. 534. And a court is the exclusive judge of the necessity and propriety of an amendment to its record and of the sufficiency of the proof offered. Gilman v. Libbey, 10 Fed. Cas. No. 5,445, 4 Cliff. 447. A clerk has no authority to substitute his recollection for the written memorandum of the court. Crowell v. Deen, 21 Ill. App. 363. Any competent evidence may be received and acted upon by the court in its discretion. Frink v. Frink, 43 N. H. 508, 80 Am. Dec. 189, 82 Am. Dec. 172. And an amendment to a record cannot be collaterally inquired into or impeached. Hamilton v. Seitz, 25 Pa. St. 226, 64 Am. Dec. 694. See also In re Limerick, 18 Me. 183.

in such process, pleading, or return, it has been decided that such an amendment will not as a general rule be allowed.[75]

b. Procedure. Upon motion with due notice to the opposite party the record may be amended.[76]

c. Time. The minutes or records of a trial court may be amended by such court at any time during the term.[77] And although after the final adjournment of a term a court ceases to have any power over its records, yet it is a general rule that clerical errors in a record may be corrected at any time, although subsequent to the term in which they are made, where the record affords matters, or where there is some written memorandum upon which to base such correction.[78] It has also been decided that a record may be corrected by the court in chambers as well as in term.[79]

5. Operation and Effect. The records of a court of record, where made pursuant to law, import absolute verity and cannot be contradicted within the jurisdiction of such court.[80] But where the approval of the judge is required by statute, a record is not conclusive which has not been so approved.[81]

6. Supplying Lost Records. Where any part of the records of a court have been lost or destroyed the power exists in such court of supplying a new record.[82]

VIII. Courts of General Original Jurisdiction.[83]

A. Nature and Grounds of Jurisdiction — 1. In General. The nature and character of the jurisdiction which a court possesses may be determined in

75. Foster v. Woodfin, 65 N. C. 29.

76. Eno v. Hunt, 8 Iowa 436; Hill v. Hoover, 5 Wis. 386, 68 Am. Dec. 70. But see Gilman v. Libbey, 10 Fed. Cas. No. 5,445, 4 Cliff. 447, where it is held that mistakes or omissions of clerks or recording officers may be supplied at any time without notice.

Collateral attack.—An error in the record cannot be attacked collaterally. Willson v. Broder, 24 Cal. 190.

On a motion to amend the question will not be considered collaterally as to what effect the amendment may have or whether the court had the right to do what it is alleged to have done. Foster v. Woodfin, 65 N. C. 29.

Correction of a record after the expiration of a term should be made only upon formal petition, in which the error is set forth and the respect in which it is sought to be corrected, and also after notice has been given to the adverse party. Weed v. Weed, 25 Conn. 337.

77. State v. Griffin, 4 Ida. 459, 40 Pac. 60; Burnside v. Ennis, 43 Ind. 411; Robbins v. Neal, 10 Iowa 560; Howell v. State, 1 Oreg. 241.

78. Alabama.—Van Dyke v. State, 22 Ala. 57.

Arkansas.— King v. State Bank, 9 Ark. 185, 47 Am. Dec. 739.

Connecticut.— Waldo v. Spencer, 4 Conn. 71.

Illinois.— Chicago v. Wolf, 86 Ill. App. 286; Schmelzer v. Chicago Ave. Sash, etc., Mfg. Co., 85 Ill. App. 596.

Iowa.— Roberts v. Corbin, 26 Iowa 315, 96 Am. Dec. 146. But see Perry v. Kaspar, 113 Iowa 268, 85 N. W. 22.

Louisiana.— State v. Howard, 34 La. Ann. 369.

Maine.— Lewis v. Ross, 37 Me. 230, 59 Am. Dec. 49; Woodcock v. Parker, 35 Me. 138.

Nebraska.— Wachsmuth v. Orient Ins. Co., 49 Nebr. 590, 68 N. W. 935.

New Mexico.—Borrego v. Territory, 8 N. M. 446, 46 Pac. 349.

North Carolina.— Galloway v. McKeithen, 27 N. C. 12, 42 Am. Dec. 153.

Pennsylvania.— Nimick's Estate, 179 Pa. St. 591, 36 Atl. 350.

Texas.— Johnston v. Arrendale, (Civ. App. 1902) 71 S. W. 44.

West Virginia.— Miller v Zeigler, 44 W. Va. 484, 29 S. E. 981, 67 Am. St. Rep. 777.

Wisconsin.— Hill v. Hoover, 5 Wis. 386, 68 Am. Dec. 70.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 372.

Record cannot be amended at a subsequent term from recollection merely (Hotaling v. Huntington, 64 Ill. App. 655) or upon information obtained from an affidavit of the attorney for one of the parties interested (Scott v. Schnadt, 67 Ill. App. 545).

79. Picard v. Prival, 35 La. Ann. 370; Falkner v. Hunt, 68 N. C. 475.

80. Shroyer v. Richmond, 16 Ohio St. 455; Selin v. Snyder, 7 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 166; Adickes v. Allison, 21 S. C. 245. See also Walker v. Moser, 117 Fed. 230, 54 C. C. A. 262.

Courts must be trusted as to the fidelity of their records and their decision thereon is final. People v. Judge Tenth Judicial Dist., 9 Cal. 19.

The record of the proceedings of the district court, kept in its journal entries, is the legal evidence of judgments and orders of the court. Morrill v. McNeill, (Nebr. 1901) 91 N. W. 601.

81. Shepherd v. Brenton, 15 Iowa 84.

82. Taylor v. McElrath, 35 Ala. 330; Loomis v. McKenzie, 48 Iowa 416; Gammon v. Knudson, 46 Iowa 455; Dubois v. Thomas, 14 S. C. 30.

83. Definition of a court of general juris-many cases from the constitutional provisions in reference to such court;[84] although it may also be stated that the jurisdiction which is now exercised by the common-law courts or courts of general jurisdiction in this country is in a large measure dependent upon the special statutes conferring it.[85] Courts are not necessarily limited in all cases to those powers conferred by statute, for courts of superior general jurisdiction may possess other inherent powers.[86] If, however, the jurisdiction of a court is expressly limited it cannot be extended except by express grant or necessary implication.[87] Nor on the other hand should the jurisdiction of a court of general jurisdiction be restricted except by the unequivocal will of the legislature.[88] Again the question whether a court is of inferior or general jurisdiction is to be determined by the nature of the jurisdiction conferred, and not by the territorial limits within which it is to be exercised.[89]

2. Conferred For a Limited Period. Jurisdiction conferred for a limited period of time will not continue in force after the expiration of such period, nor will any power exist thereafter to review or modify a judgment pronounced prior thereto.[90]

3. Amount in Controversy. The jurisdiction of a court of original or exclusive jurisdiction may depend in some cases upon the amount or value in controversy.[91] diction see supra, I, B. Of a court of original jurisdiction see supra, I, C.

84. Wright v. Johnson, 5 Ark. 687; Agin v. Heyward, 6 Minn. 110.

Where the constitution vests sole jurisdiction or certain actions in a particular court the legislature has no power to vest any part of such jurisdiction in another tribunal. Goldstein v. Ewing, 62 N. J. Eq. 69, 49 Atl. 517.

85. California.—Wright v. Central California Colony Water Co., 67 Cal. 532, 8 Pac. 70.

Iowa.— Laird v. Dickerson, 40 Iowa 665.

Kansas.— McGregor v. Morrow, 40 Kan. 730, 21 Pac. 157; English v. Woodman, 40 Kan. 412, 20 Pac. 262.

Maryland.— O'Brian v. Baltimore County Com'rs, 51 Md. 15.

Oregon.— Wright v. Young, 6 Oreg. 87.

Pennsylvania.— Ainey's Appeal, 2 Pennyp. 192.

United States.— Harvey v. Tyler, 2 Wall. 328, 17 L. ed. 871.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 375.

Power to set aside a verdict is a power usually belonging to courts exercising a common-law jurisdiction, and a court of the class to which such power is granted by a statute possesses it, although not created until after the passage of such statute. Brown v. Moore, 79 Me. 216, 9 Atl. 355.

The jurisdiction of a tribunal is exclusive unless otherwise provided, where a statute confers a right, provides a specific remedy, and designates the tribunal for the enforcement thereof. Armstrong v. Mayer, 61 Nebr. 355, 83 N. W. 401.

To constitute a court a superior court as to any class of actions within the common-law meaning of the term it has been declared that its jurisdiction of such actions must be unconditional, so that the only thing essential to enable the court to take cognizance of them is the acquisition of jurisdiction of the persons of the parties. Simons v. De Bare, 4 Bosw. (N. Y.) 547, 8 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 269.

Where a certain jurisdiction is expressly conferred by statute upon a court all power necessary to carry such jurisdiction into effect is likewise conferred thereby. Ex p. State, 71 Ala. 371.

Where statute enacted or repealed after suit commenced.—An act which is a beneficial or remedial law may in some cases have a retrospective operation so as to confer jurisdiction upon a court of an action commenced before the passage of the act. Simmons v. Hanover, 23 Pick. (Mass.) 188. And again where a court has jurisdiction of an action when commenced such jurisdiction may continue as to that action, although the court be deprived of its jurisdiction by an act subsequently passed. Braman v. Johnson, 26 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 27. See In re Innes, 4 Whart. (Pa.) 179.

86. Cook v. Walker, 15 Ga. 457; Curtis v. Gooding, 99 Ind. 45; Sanders v. State, 85 Ind. 318, 44 Am. Rep. 29; Nealis v. Dicks, 72 Ind. 374. See Wright v. Central California Colony Water Co., 67 Cal. 532, 8 Pac. 70.

87. Anderson v. Fowler, 1 Hill (S. C.) 226. See also Dangberg v. Ruhenstroth, 26 Nev. 455, 70 Pac. 320.

A judge will not be deputed to hold a special election court, that election officers may have a tribunal to advise them as to their legal rights or duties. In re Election Ct., 204 Pa. St. 92, 53 Atl. 784.

88. Henry v. Keays, 12 La. 214.

It is incumbent upon those who deny the jurisdiction of such a court to point out the constitutional or statutory provision which abridges its powers. Barrett v. Watts, 13 S. C. 441.

89. State v. La Crosse County Ct. Judge, 11 Wis. 50.

90. Texas Mexican R. Co. v. Jarvis, 80 Tex. 456, 15 S. W. 1089.

91. California.— Christian v. San Diego County Super. Ct., 122 Cal. 117, 54 Pac. 518.

4. Construction and Application of Provisions Conferring Jurisdiction — a. Of Civil Causes. In determining whether a case is a "civil case" within the meaning of a constitutional or statutory provision conferring jurisdiction in this class of cases not only should the general meaning of the term be considered, but resort should also be had to the provision creating the court or conferring the jurisdiction upon it.[92]

b. Of "Special Cases." As to what are "special cases" within the meaning of a constitutional provision permitting the legislature to confer jurisdiction on a certain court in "special cases" it has been decided that the ordinary interpretation of this provision is that it means a case unknown to the framework of the courts of law or equity.[93]

Connecticut.— Starr Cash, etc., Car Co. v. Starr, 69 Conn. 440, 37 Atl. 1057. Compare Brennan v. Berlin Iron Bridge Co., 75 Conn. 393, 53 Atl. 779.

District of Columbia.—Mansfield v. Winter, 10 App. Cas. 549.

Kentucky.— Com. v. Scott, 65 S. W. 596, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1488, 55 L. R. A. 597.

Michigan.— Dodge v. Van Buren Cir. Judge, 118 Mich. 189, 76 N. W. 315.

Missouri.— Force v. Van Patton, 149 Mo. 446, 50 S. W. 906.

New Jersey.— Margarum v. Moon, 63 N. J. Eq. 586, 53 Atl. 179.

North Carolina.— Sloan v. Carolina Cent. R. Co., 126 N. C. 487, 36 S. E. 21.

Ohio.— Burnap v. Sylvania Butter Co., 1 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 110, 7 Ohio N. P. 217.

Texas.—Williams v. Harrison, 27 Tex. Civ. App. 179, 65 S. W. 884; Delling v. Waddell, (Civ. App. 1901) 64 S. W. 945; Calhoun v. Wren, (Civ. App. 1901) 64 S. W. 786; French v. McCready, (Civ. App. 1900) 57 S. W. 894; Lazarus v. Swafford, 15 Tex. Civ. App. 367, 39 S. W. 389. Compare Jackson v. Corley, (Civ. App. 1902) 70 S. W. 570.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 413 et seq.; and infra, IX, C.

The amount claimed in the complaint determines the jurisdiction in such cases.

Alabama.— Sharpe v. Barney, 114 Ala. 361, 21 So. 490.

California.— Rodley v. Curry, 120 Cal. 541, 52 Pac. 999.

Colorado.— Sams Automatic Car Coupler Co. v. League, 25 Colo. 129, 54 Pac. 642.

Florida.— Florida Cent., etc., R. Co. v. Seymour, (1902) 33 So. 424, addition of attorney's fee.

Missouri.— Bay v. Trusdell, 92 Mo. App. 377, addition of attorney's fee.

New Jersey.— Quairoli v. Vineland Italian Beneficial Soc., 64 N. J. Eq. 205, 53 Atl. 622.

North Carolina.— McCall v. Zachary, 131 N. C. 466, 42 S. E. 903.

Texas.— Smith v. Horton, 92 Tex. 21, 46 S. W. 627; Allison v. Haney, (Civ. App. 1901) 62 S. W. 933; Lillard v. Freestone County, 23 Tex. Civ. App. 363, 57 S. W. 338. See also infra, IX, C.

92. Gilbert v. Thomas, 3 Ga. 575.

What are civil actions.— A suit against a surety on an administration bond (State v. Turner, 10 Ind. 411), an action under the insolvent law, charging fraud against an insolvent (Mayewski v. Creditors, 40 La. Ann. 94, 4 So. 9), and a proceeding for the recovery of a penalty (Huggins v. Ball, 19 Ala. 587; Cahill v. Pennsylvania R. Co., 56 N. J. L. 445, 29 Atl. 156; Donahue v. Dougherty, 5 Rawle (Pa.) 124. Contra, Deer Lodge County v. Kohrs, 2 Mont. 66; Koch v. Vanderhoof, 49 N. J. L. 619, 9 Atl. 771) have been held to be civil actions. But it has been decided in Massachusetts that a proceeding for the enforcement of a mechanic's lien is not a "civil proceeding" of which the municipal court of Boston has jurisdiction, when the claim does not exceed three hundred dollars. Cooper v. Skinner, 124 Mass. 183. And see Actions; Civil Action; Civil Case; Civil Cause.

93. Parsons v. Tuolumne County Water Co., 5 Cal. 43, 63 Am. Dec. 76; Hall v. Nelson, 23 Barb. (N. Y.) 88; Beecher v. Allen, 5 Barb. (N. Y.) 169.

What are "special cases."— It has been decided that cases of insolvency (Harper v. Freelon, 6 Cal. 76), proceedings to enforce mechanics' liens (McNiel v. Borland, 23 Cal. 144), proceedings to decide contested elections (Saunders v. Haynes, 13 Cal. 145), proceedings to condemn lands (Spencer Creek Water Co. v. Vallejo, 48 Cal. 70), proceedings for the partition of real estate (Doubleday v. Heath, 16 N. Y. 80), and proceedings under an act regulating the mode of settling claims to lots in joint town sites on public land in a certain county (Ricks v. Reed, 19 Cal. 551) are special cases. But actions for assault and battery (Kundolf v. Thalheimer, 12 N. Y. 593), actions to prevent or abate a nuisance (Parsons v. Tuolumne County Water Co., 5 Cal. 43, 63 Am. Dec. 76), or writs of mandamus (People v. Kern County, 45 Cal. 679. Compare People v. Day, 15 Cal. 91) are not special cases. And see, generally, Actions.

In a later case, however, in New York it was decided that under such a provision all remedies which were pursued by actions at common law were not excluded, and that jurisdiction might be conferred where the remedy was by a bill in equity. Arnold v. Rees, 18 N. Y. 57, 17 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 35, 7 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 328. Compare Hall v. Nelson, 14 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 32.

c. Of Actions Ex Contractu.[94] Actions on judgments are actions on contract, a judgment being declared to be a contract of the highest nature known to law.[95] And a tax properly assessed likewise is a debt on contract implied.[96]

d. Of Actions Ex Delicto.[97] Where a court has jurisdiction of actions in tort, within certain amounts, it has jurisdiction of an action for damages for conversion, the amount claimed being within the prescribed limits, such action being one sounding in tort, although based on a breach of contract.[98] And similarly where a court has such jurisdiction it has been decided that a penalty for violation of a statute, requiring every telegraph company to transmit and deliver messages with impartiality, may be recovered in an action before it.[99]

B. Courts of Particular States. In Arkansas the jurisdiction of the circuit courts is only limited as to the subject-matter by the constitution; and their jurisdiction of the person and powers to issue writs to other counties is to be determined by statute.[1]

In California the superior courts, which superseded the district courts under the constitution of 1879, were vested with the jurisdiction of the latter courts to inquire into any election held by any corporate body.[2] And they may administer relief in equity and also in accordance with the laws relating to probate matters.[3]

In Colorado county courts are courts of superior or general jurisdiction.[4]

In Connecticut the court of common pleas is inferior to the superior court, and it is the duty of the former to obey a writ of mandamus issued by the latter.[5]

In Florida the circuit court is a superior court of general jurisdiction,[6] and has jurisdiction of all actions which relate to the possession of real estate subject to exercise in such form as the legislature may prescribe.[7]

94. See, generally, ACTIONS; CONTRACTS.

95. Decree of a court of another state directing the payment of alimony is a contract. Crane v. Crane, 19 N. Y. Suppl. 691. And see EQUITY; JUDGMENTS.

96. Bowe v. Jenkins, 69 Hun (N. Y.) 458, 23 N. Y. Suppl. 548. And see TAXATION.

97. See, generally, TORTS.

98. McDonald v. Cannon, 82 N. C. 245. And see TROVER AND CONVERSION.

99. Western Union Tel. Co. v. Brightwell, 94 Ga. 434, 21 S. E. 518; Dicken v. Western Union Tel. Co., 94 Ga. 433, 21 S. E. 228; Solomon v. Western Union Tel. Co., 92 Ga. 360, 17 S. E. 265. And see TELEGRAPHS AND TELEPHONES.

1. Tucker v. Real Estate Bank, 4 Ark. 431.

They have jurisdiction of all civil causes not cognizable before a justice of the peace and in cases involving title to lands they have jurisdiction. Evans v. Percifull, 5 Ark. 424.

2. Wickersham v. Brittan, 93 Cal. 34, 28 Pac. 792, 29 Pac. 51, 15 L. R. A. 106.

3. Pennie v. Roach, 94 Cal. 515, 29 Pac. 956, 30 Pac. 106.

As affected by amount in controversy see California Cured Fruit Assoc. v. Ainsworth, 134 Cal. 461, 66 Pac. 586; Gallagher v. McGraw, 132 Cal. 601, 64 Pac. 1080.

Jurisdiction of an action to have an absolute conveyance of real estate declared a mortgage, to redeem therefrom, and to obtain an accounting of profits see Peninsular Trading, etc., Co. v. Pacific Steam Whaling Co., 123 Cal. 689, 56 Pac. 604.

Such courts are not prevented from exercising any jurisdiction conferred on them by the constitution because an act which was passed subsequent to the adoption of the constitution for the purpose of adapting the phraseology of the several codes to the nomenclature of the courts omitted such change in any particular section of the code. Wickersham v. Brittan, 93 Cal. 34, 28 Pac. 792, 29 Pac. 51, 15 L. R. A. 106.

4. Terry v. Wright, 9 Colo. App. 11, 47 Pac. 905.

5. Ansonia v. Studley, 67 Conn. 170, 34 Atl. 1030. See Conn. Const. art. 5, § 1.

6. Nothing is out of its jurisdiction except that which specially appears to be so intended. Chapman v. Reddick, 41 Fla. 120, 25 So. 673.

As to issuance of summons ad respondendum see Chapman v. Raddick, 41 Fla. 120, 25 So. 673.

As to writs of attachment see Chapman v. Reddick, 41 Fla. 120, 25 So. 673.

In matters of costs.— Fla. Const. art. 5, § 11, relating to the jurisdiction of circuit courts, does not deny the legislature the right to confer jurisdiction in matters of costs, as provided by Fla. Rev. Stat. § 1305, where any officer shall have wilfully overcharged, although the amount involved be less than one hundred dollars. State v. Reeves, (Fla. 1902) 32 So. 814.

7. Stark v. Billings, 15 Fla. 318.

County courts are not courts of general jurisdiction proceeding according to the course of the common law. Epping v. Robinson, 21 Fla. 36.

In Georgia the superior court has power, where proceedings to change militia district lines are for any reason void, to so declare.[8]

In Illinois circuit courts are courts of superior general jurisdiction.[9] County courts are courts of general jurisdiction of unlimited extent as to a particular class of subjects, and when acting within that sphere they have the same general jurisdiction as the circuit court.[10] City courts have concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit court in all civil cases.[11]

In Indiana circuit courts are courts of superior general jurisdiction,[12] possessing both common-law and equity powers, although they act as distinct tribunals in exercising the different jurisdictions.[13]

In Iowa all civil and criminal business which arises in their respective districts is within the jurisdiction of the district courts.[14]

In Kentucky the circuit court of Franklin county is the fiscal court of the commonwealth and its jurisdiction for this purpose is coextensive with the whole state.[15]

In Louisiana by the constitution[16] the distinction between the jurisdiction of probate courts and civil courts of ordinary general jurisdiction is abolished, and the civil district court of the parish of Orleans[17] has a blended probate and general ordinary jurisdiction.[18]

In Maryland the circuit court of Anne Arundel county has jurisdiction over the space lying between the limits of that county, as described in the act of 1726,[19] and the channel of the Patapsco river.[20]

In Massachusetts the supreme judicial court when held by one judge in one

3. Howell v. Kinney, 99 Ga. 544, 27 S. E. 204.

9. Haywood v. Collins, 60 Ill. 328; Kenney v. Greer, 13 Ill. 432, 54 Am. Dec. 439; Beaubien v. Brinckerhoff, 3 Ill. 269; Kincaid v. Storz, 52 Mo. App. 564.

The constitution recognizes two courts of general jurisdiction in Cook county, the circuit and superior courts. Each court has its own clerk, who is responsible to it, and not to any other court of coördinate jurisdiction. Each has its files, records, and proceedings, which are before that court, and which cannot be controlled, altered, or reversed by any other court of coördinate jurisdiction. Mathias v. Mathias, 104 Ill. App. 344 [affirmed in 202 Ill. 125, 66 N. E. 1042].

When acting within the scope of their general powers such jurisdiction extends to all matters and suits at common law and in chancery. Haywood v. Collins, 60 Ill. 328.

10. People v. Gray, 72 Ill. 343.

All questions of conflicting or controverted titles are within its jurisdiction. Sutton v. Reed, 176 Ill. 69, 51 N. E. 801.

The superior court of Cook county is one of superior general jurisdiction. Ross v. Knapp, etc., Co., 77 Ill. App. 424.

11. Ill. Rev. Stat. c. 37, § 240.

City court of Mattoon has jurisdiction of an action to reform a written instrument on the ground of mistake. McKinstry v. Elliott, 89 Ill. App. 599.

12. Barkley v. Tapp, 87 Ind. 25.

13. Bequette v. Lasselle, 5 Blackf. (Ind.) 443.

Such court has power to set aside a fraudulent conveyance.—Barkley v. Tapp, 87 Ind. 25.

14. Chapman v. Morgan, 2 Greene (Iowa) 374.

15. Mershon v. Com., 2 Metc. (Ky.) 371. See also Com. v. Lyddane, 108 Ky. 503, 55 S. W. 704, 56 S. W. 807, 21 Ky. L. Rep. 1514.

16. La. Const. art. 130.

17. The terms and vacations of the civil district court for the parish of Orleans, and the character of litigation which may be conducted otherwise than by consent in vacation, are regulated by La. Acts (1896), No. 4, and the rules of court not in conflict therewith. State v. St. Paul, 109 La. 8, 33 So. 49.

18. Bellande's Succession, 41 La. Ann. 491, 6 So. 505, holding that questions of ownership of real estate may be passed upon by it. But see Union Wood Preserving Co. v. Bell, 29 La. Ann. 13.

In a suit between the state and a recorder to test the title of the latter to his office the civil district court has jurisdiction. State v. Grandjean, 51 La. Ann. 1099, 25 So. 940.

May decree a judgment a nullity where pronounced by a court without jurisdiction. Hibernia Nat. Bank v. Standard Guano Chemical, etc., Co., 51 La. Ann. 1321, 26 So. 274.

Fourth district court of the parish of Orleans is one of general civil jurisdiction. State v. Judge Fourth Dist. Ct., 27 La. Ann. 704.

Where a judge of one district court upon a legal system of interchange acts in another upon matters lodged in that other, the acts done by him must in their legal effect be held as if performed by the actual judge of the latter district acting within his jurisdiction, and by that court. Brigot v. Brigot, 49 La. Ann. 1428, 22 So. 641.

19. Md. Acts (1726), c. 1.

20. Acton v. State, 80 Md. 547, 31 Atl. 419; Md. Acts (1704), c. 92.

place has been declared to have jurisdiction of all matters of which it may take cognizance when so held in any other county.[21]

In Michigan a suit by a receiver of an insolvent fire insurance company to declare a lien on insured property cannot be entertained by the circuit court, where the amount inclusive of costs is less than one hundred dollars.[22]

In Nebraska the district court is a court of general jurisdiction,[23] possessing ample powers in cases of fraud by persons holding a fiduciary relation, to compel the proper application of trust funds committed to their care.[24]

In New Hampshire the supreme court has no original jurisdiction of claims against the estate of an insolvent debtor.[25]

In New Jersey it has been decided that general common-law powers and jurisdiction are vested in a court of common pleas.[26]

In North Carolina the superior court is one of general common-law jurisdiction.[27]

In Ohio the general equity jurisdiction of the court of common pleas was not taken away by the jurisdiction conferred on the probate court.[28]

In Pennsylvania it was decided in an early case that jurisdiction of the proof and execution of all contracts for the sale of land, made on a valuable consideration, whether for money or otherwise, exists in the court of common pleas.[29] A court of common pleas is, however, generally confined in its jurisdiction to the limits of the county in which it is located.[30]

21. Coffin v. Hussey, 12 Pick. (Mass.) 289.

22. Peake v. Bradley, 121 Mich. 182, 79 N. W. 1108, construing Howell Anno. Stat. Mich. §§ 4258, 6613.

23. May give legal or equitable relief. State v. Dickinson, 63 Nebr. 869, 89 N. W. 431.

In cases of forcible detainer the court has no original jurisdiction. Armstrong v. Mayer, 61 Nebr. 355, 83 N. W. 401.

24. Blake v. Chambers, 4 Nebr. 90.

25. In all cases of insolvency the courts of probate have original jurisdiction. Hunt v. O'Shea, 69 N. H. 600, 45 Atl. 480.

26. Den v. Gaston, 24 N. J. L. 818.

The jurisdiction is not extended by N. J. Pub. Laws (1892), p. 224, which authorizes the transfer of suits from circuit courts to courts of common pleas. Coles v. Collingswood First Baptist Church, 59 N. J. L. 311, 35 Atl. 907.

Appeal to the court of common pleas has been declared to be the only method of reviewing a case brought in the district court, where the amount did not exceed two hundred dollars. Lochanowski v. McKeone, 60 N. J. L. 118, 36 Atl. 882.

27. May try actions founded on contract where the principal sum is above the amount necessary to confer jurisdiction, and such other actions as the general assembly may constitutionally designate. Walton v. Walton, 80 N. C. 26.

Of an action for mandamus this court has sole jurisdiction. State v. Haywood County, 122 N. C. 661, 29 S. E. 60.

As to a civil action begun before a clerk of a superior court under N. C. Acts (1887), c. 27, see Baker v. Carter, 127 N. C. 92, 37 S. E. 81.

Original jurisdiction does not exist where the amount sought to be recovered in an action to recover over payment of interest on a loan is less than two hundred dollars. Gillam v. Virginia L. Ins. Co., 121 N. C. 369, 28 S. E. 470.

28. Deering Harvester Co. v. Keifer, 20 Ohio Cir. Ct. 311, 11 Ohio Cir. Dec. 270.

The jurisdiction of the common pleas court in an action against several subscribers to a contract to purchase, who were only liable to the extent of their subscription, so far as it is dependent upon the amount involved, should be determined by the amount recoverable against each subscriber. Hoosier Canning, etc., Co. v. Donovan, 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 59, 6 Ohio N. P. 431.

29. Meanor v. McKowan, 4 Watts & S. (Pa.) 302, construing the act of March 31, 1792.

This court also has jurisdiction of a petition to prevent grade crossings (In re Upper Darby Tp. Road, 8 Del. Co. 158), to foreclose a mortgage executed by a street railway company (Old Colony Trust Co. v. Allentown, etc., Rapid-Transit Co., 192 Pa. St. 596, 44 Atl. 319, under the acts of May 5, 1876, and March 23, 1877).

The court of common pleas of Dauphin county has power to issue a writ of quo warranto against a corporation, in which the commonwealth is the real plaintiff. Com. v. Pennsylvania, etc., R. Co., 2 Dauph. Co. Rep. (Pa.) 283.

30. Ollendike's Petition, 9 Pa. Dist. 95, 5 Lack. Leg. N. (Pa.) 356. Compare Com. v. Philadelphia County, 2 Dauph. Co. Rep. (Pa.) 8, where it is held that under the Pennsylvania act of April 7, 1870, in reference to the court of Dauphin county, such court has jurisdiction of an action by the state against Philadelphia county to recover charges for keeping its insane.

In Rhode Island the jurisdiction conferred by the Judiciary Act[31] on district courts over actions for the possession of tenements or estates left or held at will or by sufferance applies to all tenements or estates so held whether they are let or not.[32]

In South Carolina a circuit court has jurisdiction of an action to recover past-due taxes from a railroad.[33] A court of common pleas is one of general jurisdiction.[34]

In Tennessee the chancery court has concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit court of all actions triable at law "except for injuries to persons, property or character, involving unliquidated damages."[35]

In Texas the district court is under the constitution[36] given general jurisdiction over all cases for which jurisdiction is not otherwise provided.[37]

In Virginia a county court was a court of general jurisdiction.[38]

IX. COURTS OF LIMITED OR INFERIOR JURISDICTION.

A. Nature and Scope of Limitations — 1. In General. The powers conferred upon courts of limited jurisdiction must be exercised by them in the mode prescribed and cannot be enlarged by implication.[39]

31. R. I. Judiciary Act, c. 8, § 23.

32. O'Conner v. O'Brien, 18 R. I. 529, 28 Atl. 765.

33. State v. Cheraw, etc., R. Co., 54 S. C. 564, 32 S. E. 691.

34. Its records are absolute verities. Adickes v. Allison, 21 S. C. 245.

But under the constitutional provisions conferring exclusive original jurisdiction upon the court of common pleas in all actions ex delicto which are not cognizable before justices of the peace, and conferring upon the latter jurisdiction of such actions where the damages claimed do not exceed one hundred dollars (S. C. Const. art. 4, §§ 5, 22) it is determined that the exclusive jurisdiction vested in the court of common pleas extends only to those cases where the claim for damages exceeds such amount. Rhodes v. Wilmington, etc., R. Co., 6 S. C. 385.

35. Dorris v. King, (Tenn. Ch. App. 1899) 54 S. W. 683, where it is decided that an action for damages growing out of the violation of a contract is not within the exception to the act conferring such jurisdiction.

No jurisdiction, however, is conferred upon the court of chancery of a claim for less than fifty dollars. McNew v. Toby, 6 Humphr. (Tenn.) 27.

The common-law and chancery court of Memphis is one possessing general jurisdiction of all causes at law of a civil nature, and its judge may issue a writ of mandamus. Saffrons v. Ericson, 3 Coldw. (Tenn.) 1.

36. Tex. Const. art. 5, § 8.

37. Allen v. Parker County, 23 Tex. Civ. App. 536, 57 S. W. 703.

Such court has jurisdiction of an action to enjoin the taking of land by a county under proceedings alleged to be void where no damages are claimed (Allen v. Parker County, 23 Tex. Civ. App. 536, 57 S. W. 703); of an action against an officer for damages caused by a wrongful levy, if the amount sued for is beyond that over which the justice's court has jurisdiction (Ostrom v. McCloskey, (Tex. Civ. App. 1898) 44 S. W. 307); of an action on a note on which less than five hundred dollars was due where a lien on real estate was asked and granted (Green v. Scottish-American Mortg. Co., 18 Tex. Civ. App. 286, 44 S. W. 319); of actions to foreclose a lien on land (Grace v. Bonham, 26 Tex. Civ. App. 161, 63 S. W. 158); of an action to restrain the use of a trade-name and to recover five hundred dollars damages, the jurisdiction being determined by the equitable relief prayed for (Cleaver v. Duke, (Tex. Civ. App. 1900) 58 S. W. 145); and of an action in which the petition alleges the execution of deeds in fraud of the law, prays that they be declared null and void, and also charges the executors with fraud and collusion in the procurement of the will, the county court in such case having no power to grant full and adequate relief (Becton v. Alexander, 27 Tex. 659).

38. Shelton v. Jones, 26 Gratt. (Va.) 891; Ballard v. Thomas, 19 Gratt. (Va.) 14.

39. No controversy not clearly within the comprehension of the law conferring the jurisdiction can be entertained by such courts.

California.— Umbarger v. Chaboya, 49 Cal. 525.

Connecticut.— Sears v. Terry, 26 Conn. 273.

Georgia.— Butler v. Mutual Aid, etc., Co., 94 Ga. 562, 20 S. E. 101.

Illinois.— Hardin County v. McFarlan, 82 Ill. 138; Board of School Inspectors v. People, 20 Ill. 525; Bowers v. Green, 2 Ill. 42.

Indiana.— English v. Smock, 34 Ind. 115, 7 Am. Rep. 215; Rhode v. Davis, 2 Ind. 53; White v. Conover, 5 Blackf. 462.

Kentucky.— Tull v. Geohagen, 3 J. J. Marsh. 377.

Louisiana.— Samory v. Hebrard, 17 La. 555.

Michigan.— Clark v. Holmes, 1 Dougl. 390; Wight v. Warner, 1 Dougl. 384.

2. What Are Courts of Limited Jurisdiction.[40] Where an act confers upon a court exclusive jurisdiction in certain cases, but abstains from conferring general jurisdiction, such court is one of limited jurisdiction.[41] But it has been decided that, although courts may be limited in their jurisdiction as to the division of judicial powers between them, they are not thereby made courts of inferior jurisdiction whose judgments are void, unless the record shows the facts necessary to bring all their powers into exercise.[42]

3. Powers as to Procedure. Although a court may possess inherent powers as to procedure, yet it is a general rule that the extent of its powers, whether inherent or otherwise, must depend upon the character of the jurisdiction conferred upon it.[43]

New Jersey.— See v. Zabriskie, 28 N. J. Eq. 422.

New York.— In re Jay, 5 Sandf. 674; Ahern v. National Steamship Co., 3 Daly 399; Richards v. Littell, 11 Misc. 637, 32 N. Y. Suppl. 919.

North Carolina.—Thompson v. Cox, 53 N. C. 311.

Ohio.— McCleary v. McLain, 2 Ohio St. 368.

South Carolina.— Pringle v. Carter, 1 Hill 53; McKenzie v. Ramsay, 1 Bailey 457.

South Dakota.— Benedict v. Johnson, 4 S. D. 387, 57 N. W. 66.

Vermont.— U. S. v. Davy, Brayt. 146.

Virginia.— Jackson v. Maxwell, 5 Rand. 636.

United States.— Hart v. Gray, 11 Fed. Cas. No. 6,152, 3 Sumn. 339.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 404.

40. Definition of court of limited jurisdiction see supra, I, B.

41. Howard v. Lacroix, McGloin (La.) 16. Whenever the enforcement of a new statutory right is committed to a court, even of general original jurisdiction, such court is as to this an inferior court and should pursue the statute strictly. Cohen v. Barrett, 5 Cal. 195. Compare Diehl v. Page, 3 N. J. Eq. 143.

42. Williams v. Ball, 52 Tex. 603, 36 Am. Rep. 730; Guilford v. Love, 49 Tex. 715.

43. Inferior courts have power to allow the plaintiff to amend his summons on the return-day where the defendant appears. Cooper v. Kinney, 2 Hilt. (N. Y.) 12, 6 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 380. A rehearing cannot be granted by a state board of mediation and arbitration, where no such power is conferred upon the court by law. Renaud v. State Ct. Mediation, etc., 124 Mich. 648, 83 N. W. 620, 83 Am. St. Rep. 346, 51 L. R. A. 458.

A county court has power to review its proceedings in an action after judgment and to grant a new trial (Hall v. Hall, 30 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 51. See also Yenawine v. Richter, 43 Cal. 312; Dickinson v. Van Horn, 9 Cal. 207); to revive a judgment rendered by it which has become dormant (Dennis v. Omaha Nat. Bank, 19 Nebr. 675, 28 N. W. 512); to permit by order a return of property, in mitigation of damages, in an action of trover (Rutland, etc., R. Co. v. Middlebury Bank, 32 Vt. 639); to hear and determine, in allowing demands, in a summary way, without the form of pleading (Sublett v. Nelson, 38 Mo. 487); and to grant an injunction (People v. Dwyer, 90 N. Y. 402). See also Hathaway v. Warren, 44 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 161; Middletown v. Rondont, etc., R. Co., 43 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 144.

A court of common pleas in Ohio may make all such orders and issue all such processes as are authorized by well-established chancery practice as it existed before the adoption of the code (Tetterbach v. Meyer, 10 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 212, 19 Cinc. L. Bul. 221), but cannot, it is decided in an early case, try the facts of a case without the consent of both parties (Mills v. Noles, 1 Ohio 534).

As to the district court in New York city it has been held that supplemental matter may be inserted in an answer by amendment (Myers v. Rosenback, 9 Misc. (N. Y.) 89, 29 N. Y. Suppl. 34 [affirming 7 Misc. 560, 28 N. Y. Suppl. 9, 23 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 363]); that a non-resident can only sue by short summons after furnishing evidence of non-residence and giving security for costs (Haulenbeck v. Gillies, 2 Hilt. (N. Y.) 238); that a cause may be adjourned upon the default of a defendant to answer a complaint for the purpose of hearing a motion to vacate an order of arrest (Adler v. Kerner, 13 Daly (N. Y.) 60); but that a reply not being necessary, judgment for defendant on a counter-claim will not be entered on the pleadings for want of a reply (Kuhn v. American Automatic Knife, etc., Co., 9 Misc. (N. Y.) 54, 29 N. Y. Suppl. 73), and that the code provision as to arrests in civil actions and requiring that fraud in contracting a debt must be proved on the trial does not apply to proceedings in this court (Stern v. Moss, 12 Daly (N. Y.) 516).

Particular municipal courts.— See Rossiter v. Minnesota Bradner-Smith Paper Co., 37 Minn. 296, 33 N. W. 855 (as to municipal court of the village of Duluth having power to vacate an attachment); Gould v. Johnston, 24 Minn. 188 (as to the municipal court of St. Paul having discretion as to the form of the summons); Schmidt v. Eiseman, 6 Misc. (N. Y.) 264, 26 N. Y. Suppl. 766 (as to city court of Albany, holding that statute of limitations need not be pleaded to a counter-claim); Jackson v. Hovey, 2 Misc. (N. Y.) 208, 21 N. Y. Suppl. 256 (as to municipal court of Buffalo); Schork v. Moritz, 6 N. Y. Suppl. 554 (as to municipal court of Buffalo, holding that under Code Civ. Proc. § 2944, a complaint may be amended during trial); Heath v. Kyles, 1 N. Y. Suppl. 770 (as to municipal court of Buffalo, holding that it

4. Civil Jurisdiction of Criminal Courts. The civil jurisdiction of a criminal court must in each case be determined from the constitutional or statutory provision creating or conferring jurisdiction upon it, and where civil jurisdiction is conferred it can only be exercised in the mode and to the extent designated.[44]

B. Limitations as to Subject-Matter. The jurisdiction of a court may be limited as to the subject-matter of the controversy, as in the case of attachment proceedings,[45] or in the case of actions which involve title to or interest in land.[46] has power to charge the jury under Code Civ. Proc. § 2868, and Acts (1880), c. 344, § 6); Gunsolus v. Lormer, 54 Wis. 630, 12 N. W. 62 (as to municipal court of Dane county and appeal from judgment of such court). See also Williams v. State, 116 Ga. 525, 42 S. E. 745, as to making up panels of jurors by the city court of Cartersville in Georgia.

44. Alabama.— Lassiter v. State, 106 Ala. 292, 17 So. 725.

California.— Santa Barbara v. Stearns, 51 Cal. 499, holding that a police court cannot try an action to recover a license-tax for the transaction of business, where the legality of the tax is denied.

Kentucky.— Cessna v. Stedman, 1 Duv. 188; Smither v. Blanton, 1 Metc. 44.

Missouri.— St. Louis v. Tiefel, 42 Mo. 578; State v. Woerner, 33 Mo. 216.

New York.— Sill v. Corning, 15 N. Y. 297.

Tennessee.— State v. Alder, 1 Heisk. 543.

45. No general rule can be laid as controlling in this class of cases. Recourse must be had in each case to the constitutional or legislative provisions by virtue of which the court acquires jurisdiction as well as to such acts as may exist in reference to these particular actions, the court in some cases being specifically limited to jurisdiction of such actions in particular instances, or being controlled as to the amount involved or both. So it is decided in some cases that the circuit court has jurisdiction of such actions (Sturman v. Stone, 31 Iowa 115; Monks v. Strange, 25 Mo. App. 12; Brown v. Bissett, 21 N. J. L. 46), also the court of common pleas (McHugh v. Meyer, 61 Mo. 334; Voorhees v. Jackson, 10 Pet. (U. S.) 449, 9 L. ed. 490); the county court (Wragg v. Kelley, 42 Miss. 231; McRimmon v. Moody, 87 Tex. 260, 28 S. W. 279; Barnett v. Rayburn, (Tex. App. 1890) 16 S. W. 537; Grizzard v. Brown, 2 Tex. Civ. App. 584, 22 S. W. 252. Contra, as to an attachment on land, Newton v. Heidenheimer, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 126. See also Wright v. Cullers, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 750); the district court (Malkemesius v. Pauly, 17 Misc. (N. Y.) 371, 39 N. Y. Suppl. 1095; Reeves v. Brown, 2 Pa. L. J. Rep. 196, 3 Pa. L. J. 464; Wright v. Cullers, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 750; Rowan v. Shapard, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 302); a city court (Lowenstein v. Martin, 105 Ala. 668, 17 So. 97; Bledsoe v. Gary, 95 Ala. 70, 10 So. 502; Sherwood v. Stevenson, 25 Conn. 431. Contra, Rome First Nat. Bank v. Ragan, 92 Ga. 333, 18 S. E. 295; Simpson v. Holt, 89 Ga. 834, 16 S. E. 87); a mayor's court (Welles v. Detroit, 2 Dougl. (Mich.) 77); and a justice of the peace (Hawkins v. Com., 1 T. B. Mon. (Ky.) 144).

46. If the title to real estate is the principal thing to be determined it may be then said that the title is in issue, but if such question only arises incidentally it is not in issue so as to affect the jurisdiction of a court, although in some cases a decision on this point may be material to the determination of the cause.

Alabama.— Stein v. Ashby, 24 Ala. 521.

California.— Randolph v. Kraemer, 106 Cal. 199, 39 Pac. 533.

Florida.— Collier v. Anderson, 36 Fla. 635, 18 So. 850.

Indiana.— Sipe v. Holliday, 62 Ind. 4; Carpenter v. Vanscoten, 20 Ind. 50; Macy v. Allee, 18 Ind. 126; Wolcott v. Wigton, 7 Ind. 44.

Louisiana.— State v. Lochte, 45 La. Ann. 1405, 14 So. 215; Samory v. Hebrard, 17 La. 555.

Maine.— Knight v. Dunbar, 83 Me. 359, 22 Atl. 216.

Minnesota.— Judd v. Arnold, 31 Minn. 430, 18 N. W. 151; Bassett v. Fortin, 30 Minn. 27, 14 N. W. 56; Steele v. Bond, 28 Minn. 267, 9 N. W. 772.

Nebraska.— Hesser v. Johnson, 57 Nebr. 155, 77 N. W. 406; Republican Valley R. Co. v. Fink, 28 Nebr. 397, 44 N. W. 434.

New Jersey.— Buttoro v. Whalen, 64 N. J. L. 461, 45 Atl. 981.

New York.— Cannavan v. Conklin, 1 Daly 509, 1 Abb. Pr. N. S. 271.

North Carolina.— Henderson v. Davis, 106 N. C. 88, 11 S. E. 573.

Texas.— Hampton v. Hampton, 9 Tex. Civ. App. 497, 29 S. W. 423; Meyers v. Jones, 4 Tex. Civ. App. 330, 23 S. W. 562; Hatch v. Allan, 3 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 229; C. B. Carter Lumber Co. v. De Grazier, 3 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 176; Porter v. Porter, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 433.

Vermont.— Long v. Ober, 51 Vt. 73.

See 14 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 410.

In the application of these principles it has been decided that a title to or interest in land is involved, so as to oust a court of jurisdiction where the action is one to enjoin the opening of a street (Lamasco v. Brinkmeyer, 12 Ind. 349); where a right of way is claimed by a railroad (Cincinnati, etc., R. Co. v. Sipe, 11 Ind. 67. See also Vaughn v. Dayton, 12 Ind. 561); in case of an action to set aside a sale of a debtor's real estate on execution in favor of a third person (Clark v. Trovinger, 8 Ind. 334); of a prosecution for obstructing a public alley, where the question of title to the alley is necessarily involved (People v. Stott, 90 Mich. 343, 51 N. W. 509; Jackson v. People, 9 Mich. 111, 77 Am. Dec. 491; State v. Cotton, 29 Minn. 187, 12 N. W. 529); of a

C. Amount or Value in Controversy[47] — 1. As Affecting Jurisdiction Generally. The jurisdiction of courts of limited or inferior jurisdiction is generally dependent upon and must be determined by the amount in controversy.[48] And suit to enforce an attachment lien on land (Rowan v. Shapard, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 295); to enjoin the opening of a street (Coleman v. Thurmond, 56 Tex. 514); to enjoin the sale of land under execution, claimed as a homestead (Cross v. Peterson, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 1061); to enjoin the obstruction of an alleged right of way (Scripture v. Kent, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 1056); to enjoin the removal of a house on lands (Bean v. Toland, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 1022); to foreclose a lien on a grade or rail bed of a railroad (Texas, etc., R. Co. v. McMullen, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 160); to remove a cloud from title to land (Greenwood v. Watts, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 114); or to recover for the removal of permanent fixtures (Beckham v. Burney, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 31 S. W. 718). But it has been decided that a title to land is not involved where the suit is one to subject realty held in trust to the payment of a claim for services rendered (Beckwith v. McBride, 70 Ga. 642); where it is one in equity to annul a deed to land (Smith v. Bryan, 34 Ga. 53. Compare Moise v. Franklin, 79 Mo. 518); a proceeding to revoke the will of a person (Morse v. Morse, 42 Ind. 365); an action in trespass claiming damages by adverse possession (Carter v. Augusta Gravel Road Co., Wils. (Ind.) 14); an action to recover for the use or expense of building a party wall (Blondean v. Sheridan, 103 Mo. 134, 15 S. W. 530; Garmire v. Willy, 36 Nebr. 340, 54 N. W. 562; Mahoney v. Lapowski, 3 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 307. But see Holman v. Taylor, 31 Cal. 338); an action to recover for gravel taken from plaintiff's land (Victoria v. Schott, 9 Tex. Civ. App. 332, 29 S. W. 681); an action for a growing crop taken and sold under execution (Phillips v. Warner, (Tex. App. 1890) 16 S. W. 423); an action for the cutting of timber (Brown v. Brown, 3 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 82); or of an action to foreclose a mortgage of personalty such as a boiler or engine with the shafting and pulleys (Ames Iron Works v. Davenport, (Tex. Civ. App. 1893) 24 S. W. 369).

Contracts relating to sale or mortgage of land.— An action upon a promissory note for the price of land is not one respecting titles to land, although a failure of consideration is alleged (Black v. Fritz, 98 Ga. 32, 25 S. E. 188; Spears v. Featheringill, 14 Ind. 402; De Armond v. Bohn, 12 Ind. 640; Harvey v. Dakin, 12 Ind. 481. But see Kelly v. Kelly, 2 Duv. (Ky.) 363; Lindsay v. Lindsay, 1 McCord (S. C.) 490); nor is a suit for damages for breach of warranty of title (McGregor v. Tabor, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 26 S. W. 443; Williams v. Truitt, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 518), to enforce a vendor's lien on real estate for unpaid purchase-money (Jemison v. Walsh, 30 Ind. 167; Bailey v. Winn, 101 Mo. 649, 12 S. W. 1045, 113 Mo. 155, 20 S. W. 21), to enforce a mechanic's lien (Wheatley v. Blalock, 82 Ga. 406, 9 S. E. 168); or an action on a contract for purchase-money and damages (Messer v. Bassett, (Tex. App. 1892) 18 S. W. 650); a suit to recover back money paid on an agreement to purchase (Mushrush v. Devereaux, 20 Nebr. 49, 28 N. W. 847. See also Lewis v. Reed, 11 Ind. 239. Compare Copertini v. Oppermann, 76 Cal. 181, 18 Pac. 256); or an action for specific performance of a contract to convey land (Snideman v. Rinker, 42 Ind. 223). But a contract, however, to give a lease has been held to be a contract relating to land for the breach of which an action should be brought before the "land court" (Brockman v. Dessaint, 21 Mo. 585); and it has been decided that title to land is the gist of an action on a bond conditioned for the payment of a specified sum to plaintiffs if their title to land should be held superior to that of defendants (Edwards v. Hefley, 3 Tex. Civ. App. 465, 22 S. W. 659).

What are easements on real estate.— See Knowles v. Eastham, 11 Cush. (Mass.) 429; Ashley v. Ashley, 6 Cush. (Mass.) 70; Salem Turnpike, etc., Bridge Corp. v. Hayes, 5 Cush. (Mass.) 458; Crittenton v. Alger, 11 Metc. (Mass.) 281; Hunt v. Hanover, 8 Metc. (Mass.) 343; Turner v. Blodgett, 5 Metc. (Mass.) 240 note; Cary v. Daniels, 5 Metc. (Mass.) 236.

47. See supra, VIII, A, 3.

48. Arkansas.— Dillard v. Noel, 2 Ark. 449.

California.— Napa State Hospital v. Flaherty, 134 Cal. 315, 66 Pac. 322.

Connecticut.— Fowler v. Fowler, 50 Conn. 256; Stone v. Platt, 41 Conn. 285.

Dakota.— St. Paul F. & M. Ins. Co. v. Hanson, 4 Dak. 162, 28 N. W. 193.

Georgia.— Baxley Banking Co. v. Carter, 112 Ga. 529, 37 S. E. 728; Lathrop v. Clewis, 63 Ga. 282.

Illinois.— Haines v. O'Conner, 5 Ill. App. 213.

Indiana.—Brown v. McQueen, 6 Blackf. 208.

Louisiana.— Conery v. New Orleans Water-Works Co., 39 La. Ann. 770, 2 So. 555; In re Brown, 28 La. Ann. 716; Bynum v. Bynum, 24 La. Ann. 127; Swan v. Gayle, 21 La. Ann. 478; Taenzer v. Judge Third Dist. Ct., 15 La. Ann. 120.

Massachusetts.— Bossidy v. Branniff, 135 Mass. 290.

Missouri.— Frazer v. Shitle, 1 Mo. 575.

New Jersey.— Hood v. Spaeth, 51 N. J. L. 129, 16 Atl. 163.

New York.— Ferguson v. Kimball, 3 Barb. Ch. 616; Spear v. Given, 9 Paige 362; Smith v. Adams, 6 Paige 435; Vredenberg v. Johnson, Hopk. 112; Church v. Ide, Clarke 494.

North Carolina.— Cooper v. Chambers, 15 N. C. 261, 25 Am. Dec. 710; Griffin v. Ing, 14 N. C. 358; Williams v. Holcombe, 4 N. C. 33.

Pennsylvania.— Kline v. Wood, 9 Serg. & R. 294; Byrne v. Gordon, 2 Browne 271.

South Carolina.— Trowell v. Youmans, 5 Strobh. 67.

Texas.— Johnson v. Happell, 4 Tex. 96; Cleveland v. People's Nat. Bank, (Civ. App.

although proof of plaintiff's title may be requisite, in an action to recover rent the amount of which is within the jurisdiction of the court, since the question of title is a collateral matter, the court's jurisdiction will not be thereby affected.[49]

2. AMOUNT CLAIMED DETERMINES — a. In General. The jurisdiction of a court is as a general rule to be determined by the amount claimed by the plaintiff without regard to the amount found due by the court or jury.[50] And if the plaintiff 1899) 49 S. W. 523; Cross v. Peterson, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 1028.

Vermont.— Field v. Randall, 51 Vt. 33; Washburn v. Washburn, 23 Vt. 576; Hobart v. Wardner, 15 Vt. 564; Kittridge v. Rollins, 12 Vt. 541.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 413 et seq.

Ad damnum may be increased before trial to give jurisdiction in some cases. Merrill v. Curtis, 57 Me. 152.

Amount due at the time of hearing may determine jurisdiction where not sufficient at the time of filing the bill, although alleged to be sufficient. Smalley v. Martin, Clarke (N. Y.) 293.

Amount involved in divorce decree.— See Hall v. Harrington, 7 Colo. App. 474, 44 Pac. 365.

A premium note, to be paid at such times and in such amounts as the directors may require, is one for the whole amount so far as jurisdiction is affected, although the assessments amount to only part thereof. Farmers' Mut. F. Ins. Co. v. Marshall, 29 Vt. 23.

In all actions of covenant and all actions upon liquidated demands, it is decided in an early case that if the law prescribes the precise sum which may be legally claimed and can be recovered, and no discretion is left to the court and jury, that sum must be treated as the sum in controversy, for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of the court. Heilman v. Martin, 2 Ark. 158.

In an interpleader suit for a particular fund the amount should be ascertained with sufficient certainty to enable it to be brought into court, unless the parties can agree to fix it. Finlay v. American Exch. Bank, 11 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 468.

It is proper to hear and consider evidence upon the question whether a court has jurisdiction as to the amount. State v. Judge Third Judicial Dist., 47 La. Ann. 1022, 17 So. 479.

Although the verdict of a jury is in excess of the court's jurisdiction it does not deprive such court of power to grant a new trial. Kirk v. Grant, 67 Ind. 418, 10 Atl. 230.

Where a garnishee is summoned in, in an attachment suit, the amount in controversy between the defendant and him is the test. Haines v. O'Conner, 5 Ill. App. 213.

49. Kalteyer v. Wipff, (Tex. Civ. App. 1901) 65 S. W. 207.

50. Alabama.— Crossthwaite v. Caldwell, 106 Ala. 295, 18 So. 47; Bell v. Montgomery Light Co., 103 Ala. 275, 15 So. 569; Haws v. Morgan, 59 Ala. 508; Howard v. Wear, Minor 84.

Arkansas.— Heilman v. Martin, 2 Ark. 158.

California.— Derby v. Stevens, 64 Cal. 287, 30 Pac. 820; Solomon v. Reese, 34 Cal. 28; Wratten v. Wilson, 22 Cal. 465.

Connecticut.— Stone v. Hawkins, 56 Conn. 111, 14 Atl. 297; Nichols v. Hastings, 35 Conn. 546; Skinner v. Bailey, 7 Conn. 496; Pitkin v. Flowers, 2 Root 42.

Florida.— Livingston v. L'Engle, 27 Fla. 502, 8 So. 728.

Georgia.— Velvin v. Hall, 78 Ga. 136; Giles v. Spinks, 64 Ga. 205.

Illinois.— Wilson v. McKenna, 52 Ill. 43.

Indiana.— Pate v. Shafer, 19 Ind. 173; Guard v. Circle, 16 Ind. 401. But see Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Johnson, 67 Ind. 546.

Iowa.— Bush v. Elson, Morr. 316.

Kentucky.— Hambell v. Hamilton, 3 Dana 501; Mills v. Couchman, 4 J. J. Marsh. 242; Whitecotton v. Simpson, 4 J. J. Marsh. 11; Singleton v. Madison, 1 Bibb 342.

Louisiana.—Abney v. Whitted, 28 La. Ann. 818; Daigle v. Lirette, 23 La. Ann. 34; Oakey v. Aiken, 12 La. Ann. 11.

Maryland.— Baltimore Cannel Coal, etc., Co. v. Steuart, 28 Md. 365; Reidel v. Turner, 28 Md. 362; Beall v. Black, 1 Gill 203. But see Rohr v. Anderson, 51 Md. 205; Carter v. Tuck, 3 Gill 248.

Massachusetts.— Wright v. Potomska Mills Corp., 138 Mass. 328.

Michigan.— Raymond v. Hinkson, 15 Mich. 113; Strong v. Daniels, 3 Mich. 466.

Minnesota.— Barber v. Kennedy, 18 Minn. 216; Turner v. Holleran, 8 Minn. 451.

Mississippi.— Fenn v. Harrington, 54 Miss. 733.

Missouri.— Funk v. Funk, 35 Mo. App. 246; Henks v. Debertshauser, 1 Mo. App. 402.

Nevada.— Klein v. Allenbach, 6 Nev. 159.

New Hampshire.— Adams v. Spaulding, 64 N. H. 384, 10 Atl. 688; Hoit v. Molony, 2 N. H. 322.

New York.— Foley v. Gough, 4 E. D. Smith 724; In re Barbour, 52 How. Pr. 94; Shotwell v. Daniels, 8 Johns. 341; Fitzburgh v. Everingham, 6 Paige 29.

North Carolina.— Newman v. Tabor, 27 N. C. 231; Clark v. Cameron, 26 N. C. 161; McGehee v. Draughon, 4 N. C. 240.

Ohio.— Linduff v. Steubenville, etc., Plank-Road Co., 14 Ohio St. 336; Brunaugh v. Worley, 6 Ohio St. 597; Jenney v. Gray, 5 Ohio St. 45.

Pennsylvania.— Fenton v. Harred, 17 Pa. St. 158; McKinney v. Allen, 1 Walk. 289; Matlock v. Brown, 2 Miles 15.

Rhode Island.— Edwards v. Hopkins, 5 R. I. 138.

has brought his action for an amount within the jurisdictional limits in respect thereto the cause will not be dismissed because he fails to establish the amount claimed, but the court may adjudicate the subject-matter and a judgment for a less sum than that required to give jurisdiction may be given, unless it appear that the plaintiff in stating his demand improperly sought to give jurisdiction where it did not rightfully belong.[51]

b. Fictitious or Fraudulent Demand. While the sum demanded ordinarily determines the jurisdiction, where it is dependent on the amount in controversy, yet if it manifestly appears that part of the demand is fictitious, being claimed merely to give the court jurisdiction, and that a less sum is really due, which is below the required amount, the suit will be dismissed.[52]

Tennessee.— Spurlock v. Fulks, 1 Swan 289.

Texas.— Little v. State, 75 Tex. 616, 12 S. W. 965; Jecker v. Phytides, 27 Tex. Civ. App. 410, 65 S. W. 1129; Euless v. Russell, (Civ. App. 1895) 34 S. W. 176; Sanger v. Ker, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 1081; Lay v. Blankenship, 2 Tex. Unrep. Cas. 272.

Vermont.— Scott v. Moore, 41 Vt. 205, 98 Am. Dec. 581; Joyal v. Barney, 20 Vt. 154; McGray v. Wheeler, 18 Vt. 502; Brainard v. Austin, 17 Vt. 650; Manwell v. Briggs, 17 Vt. 176; Stevens v. Pearson, 5 Vt. 503; Ladd v. Hill, 4 Vt. 164.

Virginia.— Newsum v. Pendred, 2 Va. Cas. 93.

West Virginia.— Marion Mach. Works v. Craig, 18 W. Va. 559.

Compare Lee v. Foot, 2 Bailey (S. C.) 112.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 413 et seq.

This rule has been applied in actions under the Mechanics' Lien Law (Foley v. Gough, 4 E. D. Smith (N. Y.) 724. See Jecker v. Phytides, 27 Tex. Civ. App. 410, 65 S. W. 1129); for damages for breach of contract (Newsum v. Pendred, 2 Va. Cas. 93); by a landlord against his tenant to recover rent due under a lease (Bailey v. Sloan, 65 Cal. 387, 4 Pac. 349); in replevin (Adams v. Spaulding, 64 N. H. 384, 10 Atl. 688; Stevens v. Chase, 61 N. H. 340; Fenton v. Harred, 17 Pa. St. 158; Matlock v. Brown, 2 Miles (Pa.) 15. Compare Powell v. Hyndman, 29 Ill. App. 179); for conversion (Haws v. Morgan, 59 Ala. 508; Euless v. Russell, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 34 S. W. 176); and generally in actions of tort (Aulick v. Adams, 12 B. Mon. (Ky.) 104; Abbott v. Gatch, 13 Md. 314, 71 Am. Dec. 635; Hancock v. Barton, 1 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 269; Ancora v. Burns, 5 Binn. (Pa.) 522; Edwards v. Hopkins, 5 R. I. 138).

Dismissal by the court of an action sounding in damages merely when the ad damnum brings the case within the jurisdiction of the trial court should not be done after reference and report. Learned v. Bellows, 8 Vt. 79.

If no value is alleged in the complaint, where the value of the property involved is essential to jurisdiction, the question may be raised by the pleadings. Fowler v. Fowler, 50 Conn. 256.

Sufficiency of oath as to value or amount of matter in controversy. Lincoln v. Taunton Copper Mfg. Co., 11 Cush. (Mass.) 440; Ives v. Hamlin, 5 Cush. (Mass.) 534; Farrar v. Parker, 7 Metc. (Mass.) 43.

51. Arkansas.— Heilman v. Martin, 2 Ark. 158.

California.— Jackson v. Whartenby, 5 Cal. 94.

Mississippi.—Griffin v. Lower, 37 Miss. 458.

North Carolina.— Martin v. Goode, 111 N. C. 288, 16 S. E. 232, 32 Am. St. Rep. 799; Usry v. Suit, 91 N. C. 406.

Texas.— Dwyer v. Brenham, 70 Tex. 30, 7 S. W. 598; Tidball v. Eichoff, 66 Tex. 58, 17 S. W. 263; Dwyer v. Bassett, 63 Tex. 274; Sherwood v. Douthit, 6 Tex. 224; Tarbox v. Kennon, 3 Tex. 7; Sozaya v. Patterson, (Civ. App. 1893) 23 S. W. 745; Bates v. Van Pelt, 1 Tex. Civ. App. 185, 20 S. W. 949.

Vermont.— Drown v. Forrest, 63 Vt. 557, 22 Atl. 612, 14 L. R. A. 80; Clark v. Crosby, 37 Vt. 188; Mason v. Potter, 26 Vt. 722; Henry v. Tilson, 17 Vt. 479; Spafford v. Richardson, 13 Vt. 224.

52. Arkansas.— Heilman v. Martin, 2 Ark. 158.

Connecticut.— Hunt v. Rockwell, 41 Conn. 51.

Louisiana.— Bayon v. Rivet, 2 Mart. 149; Taylor v. Frederick, McGloin 380.

Michigan.— Fix v. Sissung, 83 Mich. 561, 47 N. W. 340, 21 Am. St. Rep. 616.

Mississippi.— Potts v. Hines, 57 Miss. 735.

North Carolina.—Wiseman v. Witherow, 90 N. C. 140; Froelich v. Southern Express Co., 67 N. C. 1; Johnston v. Francis, 35 N. C. 465.

Texas.— Bridge v. Ballew, 11 Tex. 269; Gulf, etc., R. Co. v. Wilm, 9 Tex. Civ. App. 161, 28 S. W. 925.

Vermont.— Scott v. McDonough, 39 Vt. 203; Miller v. Livingston, 37 Vt. 467.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 423.

A claim for court costs is to be considered as a fictitious demand. Taylor v. Frederick, McGloin (La.) 380.

An intent to evade the limitations on jurisdiction is not sufficiently shown by the mere fact that the plaintiff testified that an account for a sum under the jurisdictional limit was correct. Potts v. Hines, 57 Miss. 735; Johnson v. Borden, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 25 S. W. 1131.

c. Amount of Damages Claimed. The amount of damages claimed is in many cases to be considered in determining the question of a court's jurisdiction, where such jurisdiction is dependent upon the amount in controversy.[53]

3. Value of Property as Affecting. It has been decided that in actions to foreclose a mortgage the jurisdiction of the court is determined by the amount of the mortgage debt or liability;[54] that in case of a bill to quiet title to land of an actual value less than the jurisdictional amount, equity may have jurisdiction, where by reason of valuable riparian rights the value of such land is greater than the required sum;[55] that in replevin the real value of the property regulates the jurisdiction of the court;[56] that where a judgment creditor seeks to have a purchase declared simulated the test of jurisdiction is the value of the property and not the amount of the judgment;[57] and that in a joint action against parties for a tract of land of a value sufficient to confer jurisdiction, although the interest of Presumption is that plaintiff acted in good faith. Bickford v. Travelers' Ins. Co., 67 Vt. 418, 32 Atl. 230; Worcester v. Lampson, 55 Vt. 350; Joyal v. Barney, 20 Vt. 154.

53. Covey v. Noggle, 13 Barb. (N. Y.) 330; Seay v. Diller, (Tex. Sup. 1891) 16 S. W. 642; Dahoney v. Allison, 1 Tex. Unrep. Cas. 112.

This rule has been followed in actions in replevin (Payne v. Weems, 36 Mo. App. 54; Dempsey v. Hill, 3 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 260, 5 Wkly. L. Gaz. 181) and for assault (Covey v. Noggle, 13 Barb. (N. Y.) 330).

Allegations as to damages are, it has been decided, not to be considered in determining whether the amount in controversy is sufficient to give jurisdiction, where the damages could not under any evidence be recovered. Harmon v. Callahan, (Tex. Civ. App. 1896) 35 S. W. 705; Texas, etc., R. Co. v. Crawford, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 757; Lay v. Blankenship, 2 Tex. Unrep. Cas. 272. So there being no uncertainty as to the amount to be recovered, increasing the ad damnum will not confer jurisdiction. Griffin v. McDaniel, 63 Miss. 121. Thus it has been so held in an action in debt (Grant v. Tams, 7 T. B. Mon. (Ky.) 218) and in conversion (Hannon v. Bramley, 65 Conn. 193, 32 Atl. 336).

A sum claimed as exemplary damages may be considered (Connellee v. Drake, (Tex. App. 1890) 16 S. W. 175; Waugh v. Dabney, 12 Tex. Civ. App. 290, 33 S. W. 753) unless the facts pleaded do not sustain such claim (Paterson v. Thomas, (Tex. Civ. App. 1893) 24 S. W. 1124); and the dismissal of this claim because of the subsequent death of plaintiff does not cause a loss of jurisdiction, already acquired, because the amount is reduced below that necessary to give jurisdiction (Dwyer v. Bassett, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 29 S. W. 815).

In a petition for an injunction, where it is averred that unless it is issued the petitioner will sustain injury to a certain amount, such amount may determine the jurisdiction. State v. Judge, 39 La. Ann. 619, 2 So. 385; Gay v. New Orleans Pac. R. Co., 31 La. Ann. 274.

54. Cantoni v. Betts, 70 Conn. 386, 39 Atl. 604; Conn. Gen. Stat. § 809; Page v. Harrison, 20 Wis. 323. Compare Griswold v. Mather, 5 Conn. 435; Scripture v. Johnson, 3 Conn. 211; Peters v. Goodrich, 3 Conn. 146; Wheat v. Griffin, 4 Day (Conn.) 419; Marshall v. Taylor, 7 Tex. 235; Munroe v. Schwartz, (Tex. App. 1890) 16 S. W. 539.

Where the mortgage covers other property than that in controversy it is error to charge that the value of the property in the mortgage is the test. Baker v. Guinn, 4 Tex. Civ. App. 539, 23 S. W. 604.

55. Blodgett v. Dwight, 38 Mich. 596.

56. Sanford v. Scott, 38 Conn. 244; Small v. Swain, 1 Me. 133; Annis v. Bigney, 28 Mo. 247; Barnard v. Devine, 34 Misc. (N. Y.) 182, 68 N. Y. Suppl. 859.

In proceedings to recover goods wrongfully seized for rent the amount of plaintiff's damages rather than the amount of rent is said to control. Hirst v. Moss, 3 Phila. (Pa.) 457, 16 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 316. See Dazey v. Pennington, 10 Tex. Civ. App. 326, 31 S. W. 312.

Where a sum is specified in excess of which jurisdiction only exists and a verdict is given for such sum the court will be considered as having no jurisdiction in the absence of all showing in the declaration or otherwise that the plaintiff had reason to believe and did believe the property involved to be of greater value. Stephen v. Eiseman, 54 Miss. 535.

Assessed value.— In Texas the rule prevails by statute that the jurisdiction of justice, county, and district courts in trials of right to property is, in the absence of fraud, to be determined by the value assessed thereon by the officer serving the writ. Betterton v. Echols, 85 Tex. 212, 20 S. W. 63; Cleveland v. Tufts, 69 Tex. 580, 7 S. W. 72; Erwin v. Blanks, 60 Tex. 583; Chrisman v. Grayham, 49 Tex. 491; Harris v. Hood, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 573; Tex. Rev. Stat. arts. 4823, 4826, 4831. But in Michigan it has been decided that where property has been recently purchased at a sum in excess of that necessary to give jurisdiction the fact that it is appraised at a less sum will not deprive the court of jurisdiction. Eldred v. Woolaver, 46 Mich. 241, 9 N. W. 266.

57. Godshaw v. Judges Second Cir. Ct. App., 38 La. Ann. 643.

each of the defendants does not appear equal to that amount, the court may have jurisdiction.[58] In proceedings, however, to enforce a lien it has been declared that jurisdiction is to be determined by the amount demanded;[59] and likewise that in attachment the jurisdiction is so determined.[60] Again in quo warranto involving the right to impose taxes the amount of such taxes controls.[61]

4. Uniting Separate Demands or Causes of Action — a. In General. The law, to prevent vexatious litigation, encourages a consolidation of actions in all cases where they can be joined according to the rules of pleading,[62] and in accordance with this principle it has been decided that the aggregate amount of several notes, or where the demand consists of several items or debts, the aggregate amount of the same, will determine the jurisdiction of the court.[63] There are numerous other decisions, however, in which it is declared that jurisdiction cannot be conferred by an aggregation of the amounts claimed in several substantive causes of action, each of which is for sums under the jurisdictional amount.[64]

58. Clarey v. Marshall, 4 Dana (Ky.) 95.

59. May v. Williams, 61 Miss. 125, 48 Am. Rep. 80; Vaughn v. Ely, 4 Barb. (N. Y.) 159. And see Lake Nav. Co. v. Austin Electrical Supply Co., (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 30 S. W. 832; Texas, etc., R. Co. v. Allen, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 568.

60. Barnett v. Rayburn, (Tex. App. 1890) 16 S. W. 537; Wheeler, etc., Mfg. Co. v. Whitener, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 15. But see Kelley v. Stein, 3 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 451.

The amount named in a receipt given by the officer attaching property which he promises to pay upon failure to deliver the same on demand is not the test in a suit on such receipt. Fowler v. Bishop, 32 Conn. 199.

In case of doubt, where property sold on instalments has been levied on, whether the entire value of such property is recoverable or only the amount unpaid, the court will not dismiss for want of jurisdiction. Hefflin v. Bell, 30 Vt. 134.

61. East Dallas v. State, 73 Tex. 371, 11 S. W. 1030.

62. See, generally, Consolidation and Severance of Actions, 8 Cyc. 589.

63. Alabama.— Ledbetter v. Castles, 11 Ala. 149.

California.— Galloway v. Jones, (1887) 13 Pac. 712; Bailey v. Sloan, 65 Cal. 387, 4 Pac. 349.

Connecticut.— New London City Nat. Bank v. Ware River R. Co., 41 Conn. 542.

Georgia.— Green v. Lester, 78 Ga. 86.

Indiana.— Culley v. Laybrook, 8 Ind. 285; State Bank v. Brooks, 4 Blackf. 485.

Kentucky.— Bakewell v. Howell, 2 Metc. 268; Sayre v. Lewis, 5 B. Mon. 90.

Michigan.— Picard v. McCormick, 11 Mich. 68.

Mississippi.— Cocke v. Board of Police, 38 Miss. 340.

Missouri.— Vineyard v. Lynch, 86 Mo. 684; Langham v. Boggs, 1 Mo. 476.

North Carolina.— Burrell v. Hughes, 116 N. C. 430, 21 S. E. 971; Martin v. Goode, 111 N. C. 288, 16 S. E. 232, 32 Am. St. Rep. 799; Moore v. Nowell, 94 N. C. 265; McCasten v. Quinn, 26 N. C. 43.

Pennsylvania.— Curry v. Spink, 23 Pa. St. 58.

Tennessee.— Nashville Bank v. Henderson, 5 Yerg. 104, 26 Am. Dec. 257.

Texas.— Cotter v. Parks, 80 Tex. 539, 16 S. W. 307; Nichols v. Snow, 42 Tex. 72; Lott v. Adams, 4 Tex. 426; Mays v. Lewis, 4 Tex. 38.

Vermont.— Cook v. Porter, 1 Tyler 450; McFarland v. McLaughlin, 2 D. Chipm. 90; Keyes v. Weed, 1 D. Chipm. 379.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 417.

In actions ex delicto the aggregate amount of damages prayed for will determine and not the amount prayed for in a single count. Vineyard v. Lynch, 86 Mo. 684.

All animals killed on the track of a railroad company at any one time constitute a single cause of action. Lafayette, etc., R. Co. v. Ehman, 30 Ind. 83; Indianapolis, etc., R. Co. v. Elliott, 20 Ind. 430.

In actions for penalties the rule has been applied. Com. v. Mills, 6 Bush (Ky.) 296; Cocke v. Board of Police, 38 Miss. 340; Burrell v. Hughes, 116 N. C. 430, 21 S. E. 971. But compare Gibson v. Gault, 33 Pa. St. 44; Putney v. Bellows, 8 Vt. 272.

Where a claim under the mechanic's lien act was filed for a sum in excess of the amount necessary to confer jurisdiction, but was apportioned among several buildings so that the lien against each was for less than the amount necessary, it was held that the claim was to be considered as an entirety. Curry v. Spink, 23 Pa. St. 58. But see Keystone Min. Co. v. Gallagher, 5 Colo. 23.

Where a sum of money payable in instalments is due the whole amount determines. Brown v. Brown, 10 B. Mon. (Ky.) 247.

Where defendant has asserted his right to be sued on one of the notes in the county in which he resides, it cannot be added to those sued for the purpose of making the aggregate amount sufficient to give jurisdiction. Middlebrook v. David Bradley Mfg. Co., (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 26 S. W. 113.

64. Arkansas.— Friend v. Smith Sons' Gin, etc., Co., 59 Ark. 86, 26 S. W. 374; Mannington v. Young, 35 Ark. 287; Berry v. Linton, 1 Ark. 252.

b. Claims By or Against Two or More Parties. In some cases jurisdiction may be determined by the amount of the claims of two or more plaintiffs against a defendant or of the amount claimed against two or more defendants.[65] But it is a general rule that one or more plaintiffs cannot, by improperly joining in one bill two or more claims against one or more defendants, where such claims are in their nature several and distinct as to each, both in law and in equity, compel the court to take jurisdiction thereof.[66]

c. Aggregate of Principal and Interest or Costs. Where the principal sum sued for is less than is necessary to confer jurisdiction upon the court, it is the general rule, supported by the weight of authority, that if the accrued interest, together with the principal, amount to the sum required for this purpose, the court will have jurisdiction of such suit.[67] Again it has been decided that the Colorado.—Keystone Min. Co. v. Gallagher, 5 Colo. 23.

Connecticut.— Camp v. Stevens, 45 Conn. 92; Hoey v. Hoey, 36 Conn. 386; Denison v. Denison, 16 Conn. 34. Compare Main v. Preston First School Dist., 18 Conn. 214.

Indiana.— Jones v. Buntin, 1 Blackf. 322.

Kentucky.— Harris v. Smith, 7 T. B. Mon. 310; Lightfoot v. Payton, Hard. 3; Blackwood v. Tanner, 66 S. W. 500, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 1919.

New York.— People v. Crosby, 1 How. Pr. 243.

Pennsylvania.— Gibson v. Gault, 33 Pa. St. 44.

Vermont.— Putney v. Bellows, 8 Vt. 272.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 417.

In case of an attachment on an account consisting of several items as to one only of which there is ground for attachment, and this is less than the amount necessary to confer jurisdiction, the attachment will be dissolved for want of jurisdiction. Delmas v. Morrison, 61 Miss. 314.

Where sheep are killed by dogs in an action against a town for damages jurisdiction cannot be conferred by combining in several counts of a complaint damages sustained on different days. Davis v. Seymour, 59 Conn. 531, 21 Atl. 1004, 13 L. R. A. 210.

Where two summary processes are brought on two distinct notes against the same defendant they will not be consolidated if the amount of both notes exceeds the summary jurisdiction. Parrot v. Green, 1 McCord (S. C.) 531.

65. Where a several contract is treated as a joint one for the purpose of a joint action jurisdiction may be determined by the whole amount claimed. Wilde v. Haycraft, 2 Duv. (Ky.) 309.

In an action against sureties the fact that the demand against each is below the jurisdictional limit is held not to deprive the court of jurisdiction. State v. Cousin, 31 La. Ann. 297. Compare Moore v. McSleeper, 102 Cal. 277, 36 Pac. 593. And where a suit is brought against a principal and surety, although the plaintiff may permit a discharge of the principal and take judgment against the surety for contribution, which reduces the amount below the jurisdictional limit, this does not deprive the court of jurisdiction. Powers v. Thayer, 30 Vt. 361.

In an action to enforce a lien against two persons, the amount of the lien has been held to determine (Rickets v. Hamilton, 29 S. W. 736, 16 Ky. L. Rep. 762), and also where several lien-holders join in a petition to enforce such claims (Amato v. Ermann, 47 La. Ann. 967, 17 So. 505).

In a suit by several taxpayers to enjoin the collection of taxes the jurisdiction is determined by the aggregate of the taxes of all the petitioners. Girardin v. Dean, 49 Tex. 243; Carlile v. Eldridge, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 986; Hamilton v. Wilkerson, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 556.

In case of a creditor's bill the aggregate amount of their judgments will control. Sizer v. Smith, 9 Paige (N. Y.) 605; Dix v. Briggs, 9 Paige (N. Y.) 595; Van Cleef v. Sickles, 5 Paige (N. Y.) 505.

Where an action to enforce the execution of an express trust is brought by a creditor in behalf of himself and other creditors the aggregate amount of all the creditors' claims is the amount in controversy. Goncelier v. Foret, 4 Minn. 13.

Where a question of title is involved in an action against two defendants to recover land the value of such land determines. Derbes v. Romero, 28 La. Ann. 644.

66. Chapman v. Banker, etc., Pub. Co., 128 Mass. 478. See also Stevenson v. Weber, 29 La. Ann. 105.

Debts due to persons severally cannot be joined in one bill in equity. Chapman v. Banker, etc., Pub. Co., 128 Mass. 478.

In actions against stock-holders for a corporate debt, although the aggregate amount sought to be recovered from all exceeds the sum required to give jurisdiction, it has, however, been decided that the court cannot take jurisdiction as to those against whom the claims do not amount to a sum sufficient for that purpose. Derby v. Stevens, 64 Cal. 287, 30 Pac. 820; Evans v. Bailey, (Cal. 1885) 6 Pac. 424.

In an action to recover a reward offered by one instrument the court cannot take jurisdiction where each is bound in a sum below the amount required. Thomas v. Anderson, 58 Cal. 99.

67. Alabama.—Hogan v. Odam, 3 Stew. 58.

costs cannot be considered in determining whether the amount in controversy is sufficient to confer jurisdiction upon the particular court.[68]

d. Addition of Attorney's Fees. Where it is provided in a note that a certain amount shall be added for attorney's fees in case the note is not paid at maturity, such fees are to be included in determining the jurisdiction of the court with reference to the amount involved.[69]

5. Where Original Amount Has Been Reduced — a. In General. In an action to recover money due on a contract, although the original debt or amount due was one in the jurisdiction of the court, yet if it appears that such amount has been reduced by credits before the suit was commenced to an amount within the jurisdiction of another court, the suit should be brought in the latter court;[70]

Connecticut.— Stone v. Hawkins, 56 Conn. 111, 14 Atl. 297; Boyle v. Rice, 41 Conn. 418.

Florida.—Wilson v. Sparkman, 17 Fla. 871, 35 Am. Rep. 110.

Kentucky.— Bakewell v. Howell, 2 Metc. 268.

Maryland.— Barger v. Collins, 7 Harr. & J. 213.

Minnesota.—Crawford v. Hurd Refrigerator Co., 57 Minn. 187, 58 N. W. 985; Cooper v. Reaney, 4 Minn. 528.

New Jersey.— Van Giesen v. Van Houten, 5 N. J. L. 822.

North Carolina.— Ausley v. Alderman, 61 N. C. 215. Compare Birch v. Howell, 30 N. C. 468.

South Dakota.— Nelson v. Ladd, 4 S. D. 1, 54 N. W. 809.

Tennessee.— Brimingham v. Tapscott, 4 Heisk. 382.

Texas.—Dwyer v. Bassett, (Civ. App. 1895) 29 S. W. 815. See San Antonio, etc., R. Co. v. Barnett, (Civ. App. 1901) 66 S. W. 474.

Vermont.— Ormsby v. Morris, 28 Vt. 711; Hall v. Wadsworth, 28 Vt. 410; Blin v. Pierce, 20 Vt. 25; Nichols v. Packard, 16 Vt. 91.

Virginia.— Stone v. Ware, 6 Munf. 541.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 419.

A court may enjoin the collection of a judgment which it had power to render, although with accrued interest and costs it exceeds the limit of original jurisdiction. Davis v. Davis, 10 Bush (Ky.) 274.

Interest from time of finding until judgment is not to be considered. Conger v. Nesbitt, 30 Minn. 436, 15 N. W. 875.

Jurisdiction once acquired will not be ousted by the accumulation of interest pendente lite. Denver Brick Mfg. Co. v. McAllister, 6 Colo. 326.

Where interest was neither claimed in the petition nor stipulated for by the contract it was held that the court had jurisdiction, the principal sum being within the required amounts. Evans v. Holliman, 2 Brev. (S. C.) 150.

In a few cases, however, it is declared that the question of jurisdiction must be determined by the principal sum in controversy exclusive of interest, this rule in part of the decisions being dependent upon particular constitutional or statutory provisions which so require.

Arkansas.— Fisher v. Hall, 1 Ark. 275.

California.—Arnold v. Van Brunt, 4 Cal. 89.

Louisiana.— State v. Fernandez, 49 La. Ann. 249, 21 So. 260; Johnson v. Mayer, 30 La. Ann. 1203; Decklar v. Frankenberger, 30 La. Ann. 410; Kahn v. Gay, 28 La. Ann. 240; Badeaux v. Blake, 24 La. Ann. 184; La. Const. §§ 85, 87. Compare Bloom v. Kern, 30 La. Ann. 1263.

Mississippi.— Martin v. Harden, 52 Miss. 694.

Missouri.— Bradley v. Asher, 65 Mo. App. 589; Monks v. Strange, 25 Mo. App. 12.

New York.— Knickerbacker v. Boutwell, 2 Sandf. Ch. 319.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 419.

"Exclusive of interest," as used in a constitutional provision conferring jurisdiction, where the matter in controversy does not exceed a certain sum exclusive of interest, refers to the interest which in certain cases is expressly given by statute and not to interest which is allowed, without special statutory provision, as part of the damages to be recovered. Baker v. Smelser, 88 Tex. 26, 29 S. W. 377, 33 L. R. A. 163.

68. Payne v. Davis, 2 Mont. 381; Shirley v. Shirley, 9 Paige (N. Y.) 362; Van Tyne v. Bunce, 1 Edw. (N. Y.) 583.

69. Simmons v. Terrell, 75 Tex. 275, 12 S. W. 854; Altgelt v. Harris, (Tex. 1889) 11 S. W. 857; Blakenship v. Watelsky, (Tex. 1887) 6 S. W. 140; Rainey v. Laudaudale, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 30 S. W. 1084; Moore v. Foy, (Tex. Civ. App. 1891) 15 S. W. 199.

In case of a mortgage this rule applies. McAffrey v. Richards, (Tenn. Ch. App. 1900) 59 S. W. 1064.

Under a statute, however, providing that a reasonable attorney's fee may be recovered by plaintiff, the amount alleged as a reasonable attorney's fee is not to be considered in determining whether the amount involved exceeds the jurisdiction of the court. Eagle Gold Min. Co. v. Bryarly, 28 Colo. 262, 65 Pac. 52.

70. Illinois.— Seymour v. Seymour, 31 Ill. App. 227.

Indiana.— Collins v. Shaw, 8 Ind. 516.

New York.— Bundick v. Hale, 4 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 311, 13 Abb. N. Cas. 60.

North Carolina.— Ausley v. Alderman, 61 N. C. 215; Parham v. Hardin, 33 N. C. 219.

South Carolina.— Leek v. Goodman, 2 Rich. 564; Vaughan v. Cade, 2 Rich. 49.

and similarly, where the amount has been so reduced by reason of part of the demand being barred by the statute of limitations.[71]

b. Remission of Sum in Excess. Where the amount in controversy exceeds that over which the court has jurisdiction it has been decided that a party may remit that part of his claim which is in excess and bring the amount within the jurisdiction of the court, and a judgment rendered for the latter amount will be regular.[72]

c. Reduction by Set-Off or Counter-Claim. The reduction of a claim by set-off or counter-claim does not affect the jurisdiction of the court.[73]

6. Actions on Bonds. In actions upon bonds the rule, supported by the major-

Texas.— Swigley v. Dickson, 2 Tex. 192; Wilkins v. Weller, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 876. But see Middlebrook v. David Bradley Mfg. Co., 86 Tex. 706, 26 S. W. 935; Blankenship v. Adkins, 12 Tex. 536.

Vermont.— Abbott v. Chase, 55 Vt. 466; Hodges v. Fox, 36 Vt. 74; Southwick v. Merrill, 3 Vt. 320. But see Willard v. Collamer, 34 Vt. 594; Sanborn v. Chittenden, 27 Vt. 171; Shepherd v. Beede, 24 Vt. 40; Reed v. Talford, 10 Vt. 568; Middlebury Bank v. Tucker, 7 Vt. 144.

Virginia.— Larowe v. Binns, 2 Va. Cas. 203. See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 421.

An amendment to a bill of particulars is held proper to make it conform to the declaration in respect to the amount demanded. Grether v. Klock, 39 Conn. 133.

In a suit by the assignee of a note a payment to the assignor which was unknown to the former and not entered on the note will not cause plaintiff to be nonsuited. Bean v. Baxter, 47 N. C. 356.

No ouster of jurisdiction by payments after suit is commenced. Picard v. Wade, 30 La. Ann. 623.

That want of jurisdiction should be specially pleaded where the amount is reduced by direct payment see Hayes v. Robb, 1 Pa. L. J. Rep. 394, 3 Pa. L. J. 29; Meredith v. Pierie, 1 Pa. L. J. Rep. 195, 2 Pa. L. J. 58.

71. Baltimore, etc., Turnpike Co. v. Barnes, 6 Harr. & J. (Md.) 57; Kelly v. Western Union Tel. Co., 17 Tex. Civ. App. 344, 43 S. W. 532; Keller v. Huffman, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 26 S. W. 863. Compare Burton v. Archinard, (Tex. Civ. App. 1899) 49 S. W. 684; Harrell v. Storrie, (Tex. Civ. App. 1898) 47 S. W. 838.

72. Alabama.— Wharton v. King, 69 Ala. 365.

Georgia.— Dowdle v. Stein, 103 Ga. 94, 29 S. E. 595; Stewart v. Thompson, 85 Ga. 829, 11 S. E. 1030; Ga. Civ. Code, § 4195.

Illinois.— Wright v. Smith, 76 Ill. 216; Reading v. Mead, 16 Ill. App. 360.

Minnesota.— Wagner v. Nagel, 33 Minn. 348, 23 N. W. 308; Barber v. Kennedy, 18 Minn. 216.

Missouri.— Matlack v. Lare, 32 Mo. 262; Hempler v. Schneider, 17 Mo. 258.

New Jersey.— Lochanowski v. McKeone, 61 N. J. L. 288, 41 Atl. 1117. But see Sonders v. Stratton, 3 N. J. L. 528.

New York.— Van Clief v. Van Vechten, 130 N Y. 571, 29 N. E. 1017; Putnam v. Shelop, 12 Johns. 435.

Virginia.— Tennant v. Gray, 5 Munf. 494.

But see Bents v. Graves, 3 McCord (S. C.) 280, 15 Am. Dec. 632; St. Amand v. Gerry, 2 Nott & M. (S. C.) 487; Simpson v. McMillion, 1 Nott & M. (S. C.) 192; Burke v. Adoue, 3 Tex. Civ. App. 494, 22 S. W. 824, 23 S. W. 91. See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 421.

An indorsement on a bond by the payee for the purpose of bringing the amount within the jurisdictional limits, where done without the consent of the obligor, has been declared to be a fraud on the law. Moore v. Thomson, 44 N. C. 221, 59 Am. Dec. 550.

A verdict or judgment may be reduced, where in excess of jurisdictional amount. Velvin v. Hall, 78 Ga. 136; Giles v. Spinks, 64 Ga. 205; Globe v. Rauch, 21 Misc. (N. Y.) 48, 46 N. Y. Suppl. 889; Roof v. Meyer, 8 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 60.

Judgment to extent of jurisdiction is held proper in early decisions in South Carolina. Huff v. Huff, 1 Bailey (S. C.) 456; Gracy v. Wright, 2 McCord (S. C.) 278.

Time when excess should be remitted.—See Reading v. Mead, 16 Ill. App. 360; McIntyre v. Carriere, 17 Hun (N. Y.) 64.

73. The St. Matthews v. Mordecai, 1 McMull. (S. C.) 294; Jordan v. Barry, 4 Hayw. (Tenn.) 102; Ratigan v. Holloway, 69 Tex. 468, 6 S. W. 785; Ferguson v. Highley, 2 Va. Cas. 255. See Walcott v. McNew, (Tex. Civ. App. 1901) 62 S. W. 815.

Matter in defense not a counter-claim, although setting up an amount in excess of the court's jurisdiction, does not oust it of jurisdiction. Lynch v. Frec, 64 Minn. 277, 66 N. W. 973.

Where a contract is pleaded in counter-claim for a sum less than is necessary to confer jurisdiction and shows plaintiff's claim to be wholly unfounded, defendant will not be entitled to judgment. Griswold v. Pieratt, 110 Cal. 259, 42 Pac. 820.

Plea in reconvention, however, being in effect a suit against the plaintiff, it has been decided that a court may acquire jurisdiction under such a plea where the amount is sufficient, although the plaintiff's claim is below the required amount. Phelps, etc., Windmill Co. v. Parker, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 30 S. W. 365. And likewise a court has no jurisdiction over such a claim so pleaded when in excess. Gimbel v. Gomprecht, 89 Tex. 497, 35 S. W. 470; Pennybacker v. Hazlewood, 26 Tex. Civ. App. 183, 61 S. W. 153; Newman v. McCallum, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 273.

ity of the cases, is that it is not the penalty of the bond which determines the jurisdiction of the court but the amount due thereon.[74]

7. ALLEGATIONS IN PLEADINGS. The declaration, complaint, or petition of the plaintiff should show that the amount in controversy is one over which the court has jurisdiction,[75] and it is decided that in determining whether jurisdiction exists the court will ascertain the amount from the statements of plaintiff's cause of action and not by the ad damnum or amount for which judgment is prayed.[76] But, although the complaint may state a cause of action for an amount in excess of the jurisdictional one, if the amount claimed is not in excess thereof the court will have jurisdiction, the claim in such case being considered as a remittance of the excess.[77] Again a complaint or petition may be in some cases amended so as to bring the amount within the jurisdiction of the court.[78]

74. Arkansas.—Huddleston v. Spear, 8 Ark. 406.

California.— Page v. Ellis, 9 Cal. 248.

Colorado.— Rawles v. People, 2 Colo. App. 501, 31 Pac. 941. Compare Davis v. Wannamaker, 2 Colo. 637.

Illinois.— People v. Summers, 16 Ill. 173.

Indiana.— Paul v. Arnold, 12 Ind. 197.

Kansas.— Swartz v. English, 4 Kan. App. 509, 44 Pac. 1004.

Pennsylvania.— Coates v. Cork, 1 Miles 270; Freedenberg v. Meeteer, 4 Pa. L. J. Rep. 182, 7 Pa. L. J. 244.

South Carolina.— Lynch v. Crocker, 2 Bailey 313.

Vermont.— Edgerton v. Smith, 35 Vt. 573; Maxfield v. Scott, 17 Vt. 634; Barker v. Willard, Brayt. 148.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 425.

In some cases, however, it has been decided that the question of jurisdiction is to be determined by the amount of the penalty and not the damages laid or the amount to be recovered. Sims v. Harris, 8 B. Mon. (Ky.) 55; Com. v. Bohon, 1 Litt. (Ky.) 22; St. Louis v. Fox, 15 Mo. 71; Joyner v. Roberts, 112 N. C. 111, 16 S. E. 917; Brickell v. Bell, 84 N. C. 82. See Heath v. Blaker, 2 Va. Cas. 215.

75. California.—Greenbaum v. Martinez, 86 Cal. 459, 25 Pac. 12.

Colorado.— Home v. Duff, 5 Colo. 574.

Connecticut.— Skinner v. Judson, 8 Conn. 528, 21 Am. Dec. 691; Watson v. Wells, 5 Conn. 468; Griswold v. Mather, 5 Conn. 435.

Michigan.— Huyck v. Bailey, 100 Mich. 223, 58 N. W. 1002; Glidden v. Norvell, 44 Mich. 202, 6 N. W. 195; Abbott v. Gregory, 39 Mich. 68.

Mississippi.— Thomas v. Miller, Walk. 324.

New York.— Bradt v. Kirkpatrick, 7 Paige 62; Smets v. Williams, 4 Paige 364. See Dwyer v. Rathbone, 49 Hun 609, 2 N. Y. Suppl. 170.

Pennsylvania.— Warfel v. Beam, 3 Penr. & W. 397.

Tennessee.— Albright v. Rader, 13 Lea 574.

Texas.— Morris v. State, 62 Tex. 728; Bohl v. Brown, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 538.

Vermont.— Paul v. Burton, 32 Vt. 148. But see Widber v. Benjamin, (1903) 53 Atl. 1071, replevin, as in the case of beasts distrained.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 427.

76. Connecticut.— Grether v. Klock, 39 Conn. 133.

Indiana.— Williamson v. Brandenburg, 133 Ind. 594, 32 N. E. 834; Collins v. Shaw, 8 Ind. 516.

Pennsylvania.— Gordon v. Correy, 5 Binn. 552.

Rhode Island.— Edwards v. Hopkins, 5 R. I. 138.

Texas.— Rose v. Riddle, 3 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 298.

Vermont.— Thompson v. Colony, 6 Vt. 91.

Compare Smith v. Hunt, 91 Me. 572, 40 Atl. 698; Ashuelot Bank v. Pearson, 14 Gray (Mass.) 521; Richardson v. Denison, 1 Aik. (Vt.) 210.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 427.

An answer alleging a sum in excess of the court's jurisdiction as to the amount in controversy does not oust the court of jurisdiction where the action is for a sum not in excess. Corbell v. Childers, 17 Oreg. 528, 21 Pac. 670.

If the amount actually claimed is within the jurisdictional limits, that the suit is upon a demand for a larger sum in excess thereof does not affect. Wilhelms v. Noble, 36 Ga. 599. See also McVey v. Johnson, 75 Iowa 165, 39 N. W. 249; Goldthwaite v. Dent, 3 McCord (S. C.) 296.

77. Litchfield v. Daniels, 1 Colo. 268; Hapgood v. Doherty, 8 Gray (Mass.) 373; Wagner v. Nagel, 33 Minn. 348, 23 N. W. 308.

78. Miller v. Newbauer, (Tex. Civ. App. 1901) 61 S. W. 974; Watson v. Mirike, 25 Tex. Civ. App. 527, 61 S. W. 538. Compare Sanders v. Pierce, 68 Vt. 468, 35 Atl. 377.

An amendment to bring a demand within the court's jurisdiction by striking out an item improperly charged in an action on an account is permissible. Temple v. Bradley, 14 Vt. 254. See also San Antonio, etc., R. Co. v. Barnett, 27 Tex. Civ. App. 498, 66 S. W. 474. Compare Heffron v. Jennings, 66 N. Y. App. Div. 443, 73 N. Y. Suppl. 410. And where items are stricken out of a complaint and others added by amendment the jurisdiction will be determined by the amount of those not stricken out and of those so added. Missouri, etc., R. Co. v. Kolbe, 95 Tex. 76, 65 S. W. 34.

If the pleadings are such that the amount in controversy is not settled or presented thereby amendments or additional pleadings are held permissible. McNab v. Noonan, 28 Wis. 434.

8. Persons and Proceedings Affected — a. Construction of Constitutional and Statutory Provisions — (I) In General. Jurisdiction is conferred by the constitution or statutes[79] of a state and courts can only exercise such as is derived therefrom. Where it is limited as to the amount, if the amount in controversy is not within such limits, no jurisdiction is conferred and none can be exercised.[80] And where jurisdiction is expressly conferred by the constitution a statute merely declaratory thereof confers of itself no jurisdiction.[81]

(II) As Enlarging or Restricting Jurisdiction. Where the jurisdiction of a court is expressly prescribed and limited by the constitution in respect to the amount in controversy, the legislature cannot confer jurisdiction of an amount in excess thereof;[82] nor can it enact any law restricting the same.[83]

(III) Application to State and Municipal Body. It has been determined that general statutes as to courts of record, restricting the jurisdiction as to the amount in controversy, do not bind the state unless expressly mentioned therein, and that a suit may be brought by the state for a sum less than the statute specifies as necessary to confer jurisdiction.[84]

b. Proceedings in Which Jurisdictional Amount Applies. No general rule for the determination of the question as to what proceedings the jurisdictional amount applies to can be given. Each particular case must stand by itself[85] to be determined in the particular instance from the constitutional or statutory provisions conferring jurisdiction. So upon the construction of such provisions

79. Doubtful provisions of constitutions or statutes should be interpreted so as to maintain the jurisdiction of legal tribunals. Abbott v. Gatch, 13 Md. 314, 71 Am. Dec. 635. See also Reese v. Hawks, 63 Md. 130.

Repugnant provisions of a constitution should be so construed that the more general provisions yield to the more specific (Carroll v. Silk, 70 Tex. 23, 11 S. W. 116; Gulf, etc., R. Co. v. Rambolt, 67 Tex. 654, 44 S. W. 356; Erwin v. Blanks, 60 Tex. 583; St. Louis Type Foundry v. Taylor, 6 Tex. Civ. App. 732, 26 S. W. 226), and the latter in position is said to control, although it has been declared that this rule should be appealed to, if at all, only as a last resort (Gulf, etc., R. Co. v. Rambolt, 67 Tex. 654, 4 S. W. 356).

New provisions in a revised or amended constitution take effect from the time that those they take the place of cease to be of force, and where former provisions are enacted in the same words their operation and force is considered as uninterrupted. Muench v. Oppenheimer, 86 Tex. 568, 26 S. W. 496; Gossett v. Munro, (Tex. Civ. App. 1894) 26 S. W. 780.

80. Georgia.— Forbes v. Owens, 45 Ga. 132.

Indiana.— Brown v. McQueen, 6 Blackf. 208.

Kentucky.— Griswold v. Peckenpaugh, 1 Bush 220.

Massachusetts.— Octo v. Teahan, 133 Mass. 430; Sumner v. Finegan, 15 Mass. 280.

North Carolina.— Harrell v. Warren, 100 N. C. 259, 6 S. E. 777.

Tennessee.— Fleming v. Talliafer, 4 Heisk. 352.

Wisconsin.— State v. Smith, 14 Wis. 564.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 429.

Exclusive jurisdiction does not exist unless expressly conferred. Sams v. Stockton, 14 B. Mon. (Ky.) 232.

81. Rich v. Calhoun, (Miss. 1893) 12 So. 707.

82. Buckhout v. Rall, 28 Hun (N. Y.) 484.

83. Dillard v. Noel, 2 Ark. 449. See also Fort v. Hundley, 5 Ark. 179.

Where a court is one of general jurisdiction, merely conferring jurisdiction upon another court of a certain class of actions does not divest the former of its powers, but operates as giving concurrent jurisdiction. Koons v. Dyer, Morr. (Iowa) 93.

84. State v. Garland, 29 N. C. 48.

That a county is restricted in like manner as an individual see Camp v. Marion County, 91 Ala. 240, 8 So. 786.

85. Georgia.— Georgia State Bldg., etc., Assoc. v. Owens, 88 Ga. 224, 14 S. E. 210 (jurisdiction of city court as to distress warrants); Graves v. Tift, 50 Ga. 122 (jurisdiction of county courts as to distress warrants).

Illinois.— People v. Woodside, 72 Ill. 407.

Louisiana.— Cross v. Parent, 26 La. Ann. 591 (petition in intervention in district court); Hagan v. Hart, 6 Rob. 427.

Mississippi.— Martin v. Harvey, 54 Miss. 685.

New Jersey.— Baldwin v. Hertzman, 47 N. J. L. 225.

North Carolina.— Latham v. Rollins, 72 N. C. 454.

Ohio.— Ford v. Parker, 4 Ohio St. 576.

Texas.— Aulanier v. Governor, 1 Tex. 653 (action in district court to recover sum due for license-tax); Morrow v. Short, 3 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 31 (sequestration suit in county court).

Vermont.— Carlton v. Young, 1 Aik. 332.

Wisconsin.— State v. Smith, 19 Wis. 531.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 429 et seq.

must depend the jurisdiction of actions upon contracts,[86] the jurisdiction of suits concerning real property,[87] the jurisdiction of proceedings in reference to estates of deceased and incompetent persons and probate matters generally,[88] the jurisdiction of proceedings for the enforcement of liens and mortgages,[89] the jurisdiction of suits for statutory penalties,[90] the jurisdiction of actions in replevin,[91] the jurisdiction of proceedings to try title to office,[92] the jurisdiction of tax proceedings,[93] and the jurisdiction of equitable proceedings in general.[94] Again a court

86. Alabama.— Cavender v. Funderburg, 9 Port. 460, in circuit court.

Arkansas.— Blackwell v. State, 3 Ark. 320.

Connecticut.— Andrew v. Babcock, 63 Conn. 109, 26 Atl. 715.

Indiana.— Proctor v. Bailey, 5 Blackf. 495.

Maryland.— Bruner v. Hedges, 1 Harr. & J. 207.

Ohio.— Crafts v. Prior, 51 Ohio St. 21, 36 N. E. 1070 (in common pleas for purchase-price of land); Baker v. Weaver, 1 Ohio Cir. Ct. 397 (action on note in justice's court).

Texas.— Grady v. Rogan, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 259, action in county court on a bond.

Vermont.— Hobart v. Wardner, 15 Vt. 564 (action on note in county court); Harris v. Bullock, Brayt. 141 (action of debt in county court).

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 429 et seq.

87. Colorado.— Denver, etc., R. Co. v. Otis, 7 Colo. 198, 2 Pac. 925.

Illinois.— Lachman v. Deisch, 71 Ill. 59.

Louisiana.— Fellers v. Brown, 24 La. Ann. 300, suit in parish court to annul title.

North Carolina.— Ballentine v. Poyner, 3 N. C. 110, action in county court for waste.

Rhode Island.— Clarke v. Rice, 15 R. I. 132, 23 Atl. 301, court of common pleas.

Texas.— Meade v. Jones, 13 Tex. Civ. App. 320, 35 S. W. 310.

Vermont.— Doubleday v. Marstin, 27 Vt. 488, county court — trespass to freehold.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 429 et seq.

88. Colorado.— Wyman v. Felker, 18 Colo. 382, 33 Pac. 157.

Florida.— Simpson v. Gonzales, 15 Fla. 9.

Indiana.— Wheeler v. Calvert, 25 Ind. 365 (court of common pleas); Wiggins v. Holman, 5 Ind. 502.

Louisiana.—Lay v. O'Neil, 25 La. Ann. 608; Nugent v. Randolph, 23 La. Ann. 693; Montgomery v. All the World, 23 La. Ann. 239; Hebert v. Winn, 22 La. Ann. 109.

Maryland.— Hale v. Howe, 4 Harr. & J. 448.

New York.— Matter of Smith, 16 How. Pr. 567.

Tennessee.— Fleming v. Talliafer, 4 Heisk. 352.

Texas.— Robertson v. McAfee, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 546.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 429 et seq.

89. California.— Van Winkle v. Stow, 23 Cal. 457, jurisdiction of county court as to mechanics' liens held not dependent upon amount of the lien. But see Brock v. Bruce, 5 Cal. 279.

Connecticut.— Griswold v. Mather, 5 Conn. 435.

Georgia.— Aycock v. Subers, 73 Ga. 807.

Kentucky.— Bush v. Williams, 6 Bush 405.

Louisiana.— Truxillo's Succession, 24 La. Ann. 453.

Michigan.— Dewey v. Duyer, 39 Mich. 509.

Minnesota.— Agin v. Heyward, 6 Minn. 110.

Mississippi.— Bibb v. Martin, 14 Sm. & M. 87.

Missouri.— Cranston v. Union Trust Co., 75 Mo. 29, circuit court may enforce mechanics' liens for less than fifty dollars. See Albers v. Eilers, 18 Mo. 279.

New York.— Hawley v. Whalen, 64 Hun 550, 19 N. Y. Suppl. 521.

North Carolina.— Murphy v. McNeill, 82 N. C. 221.

Pennsylvania.— Woodruff v. Chambers, 13 Pa. St. 132.

Tennessee.— Malone v. Dean, 9 Lea 336.

Texas.— Wood v. Galveston, 76 Tex. 126, 13 S. W. 227.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 434.

Suit by a creditor in a common pleas court to compel a mortgagee to permit the redemption of property see Bridgeport v. Blinn, 43 Conn. 274.

90. Koch v. Vanderhoof, 49 N. J. L. 619, 9 Atl. 771; Denoon v. Binns, 2 Pa. L. J. Rep. 397, 4 Pa. L. J. 183; State v. Eggerman, 81 Tex. 569, 16 S. W. 1067; Lockridge v. Baldwin, 20 Tex. 303, 70 Am. Dec. 385.

91. Blimline v. Cohen, 8 Md. 147 (court of common pleas); Walker v. Cooke, 163 Mass. 401, 40 N. E. 185 (municipal court).

92. Amount of salary determines jurisdiction. State v. De Vargas, 28 La. Ann. 342; State v. De Gress, 72 Tex. 242, 11 S. W. 1029; State v. Owens, 63 Tex. 261; Krakauer v. Caples, 5 Tex. Civ. App. 264, 23 S. W. 1036. Compare Dean v. State, 88 Tex. 290, 30 S. W. 1047, 31 S. W. 185, as to extraordinary writs in such cases.

93. Alabama.— State v. McAllister, 60 Ala. 105, justice of the peace.

California.— Bell v. Crippen, 28 Cal. 327; People v. Mier, 24 Cal. 61.

Louisiana.— Sentell v. Police Jury, 48 La. Ann. 96, 18 So. 910 (judicial district court); Roberts v. Zansler, 34 La. Ann. 205 (district court of parish of Orleans).

Missouri.— Williams v. Paynes, 80 Mo. 409.

Texas.— Moody v. Cox, 54 Tex. 492.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 435.

94. Alabama.—Campbell v. Conner, 78 Ala. 211. See also Wood v. Wood, 3 Ala. 756.

Arkansas.—Uptmoor v. Young, 57 Ark. 528, 22 S. W. 169.

has no power to issue a mandamus to enforce its jurisdiction where the amount involved is less than that necessary to be in controvery to confer jurisdiction.[95]

D. Courts of Particular States — 1. New Jersey — a. Court of Common Pleas. The court of common pleas cannot try a question of title to lands.[96]

b. Court For Trial of Small Causes. Judgments of a court for the trial of small causes cannot be called in question in a collateral proceeding, and in this sense it is not an inferior court.[97]

c. District Court. The district court of Newark has jurisdiction of an action by a landlord against his tenant to recover double damages and for wilfully holding over if the amount involved does not exceed three hundred dollars.[98]

d. Courts of Police Justices. Courts of police justices have jurisdiction of complaints for violation of the Oleomargarine Act.[99]

2. New York — a. County Courts. County courts are courts of limited jurisdiction.[1] And it has been decided that they have no power to determine the right to possession of realty,[2] although they may have jurisdiction of an action for the invasion of the right of possession.[3] It has also been decided that this court has jurisdiction to try an issue between a creditor and receiver as to the title to a liquor-tax certificate,[4] and also of an action on a judgment of a justice of the peace of the county against a resident thereof.[5] Again the constitutional provision[6] restricting the jurisdiction of the county courts over non-residents, and within a certain amount applies, it has been decided, only to actions for the recovery of money and not to proceedings to assess damages to landowners by the laying out of a street.[7]

California.— Deuprez v. Deuprez, 5 Cal. 387.

Kentucky.— Burnes v. Cade, 10 Bush 251; Noland v. Johnson, 1 J. J. Marsh. 9; Cummins v. Canter, 5 T. B. Mon. 493.

Louisiana.— State v. Judge Second City Ct., 37 La. Ann. 583; Walker v. Kimbrough, 23 La. Ann. 637.

Michigan.— Mastenbrook v. Alger, 110 Mich. 414, 68 N. W. 213; Sanford v. Haines, 71 Mich. 116, 38 N. W. 777; Fuller v. Grand Rapids, 40 Mich. 395.

Mississippi.— Henderson v. Herrod, 23 Miss. 434.

New Jersey.— Allen v. Demarest, 41 N. J. Eq. 162, 2 Atl. 655.

New York.— It has been decided that the equitable jurisdiction of the supreme court is not limited as to amount. Marsh v. Benson, 34 N. Y. 358; Sarsfield v. Van Vaughner, 38 Barb. 444; Durham v. Willard, 19 How. Pr. 425. For earlier decisions as to chancery courts see Marsh v. Benson, 11 Abb. Pr. 241, 19 How. Pr. 415; Shepard v. Walker, 7 How. Pr. 46; Winsor v. Orcutt, 11 Paige 578; Sizer v. Miller, 9 Paige 605; Church v. Ide, Clarke 494.

North Carolina.— Charlotte Planing Mills v. McNinch, 99 N. C. 517, 6 S. E. 386; Smaw v. Cohen, 95 N. C. 85; Barnett v. Woods, 55 N. C. 198; Chunn v. McCarson, 17 N. C. 73.

Ohio.— Devou v. Simpson, 1 Handy 557, 12 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 287.

Tennessee.— Rentfroe v. Dickinson, 1 Overt. 196.

Texas.— Harrison Mach. Works v. Templeton, 82 Tex. 443, 18 S. W. 601; Jenkins v. Cain, (Sup. 1889) 12 S. W. 1114; Mixan v. Grove, 59 Tex. 573; Anderson County v. Kennedy, 58 Tex. 616; Graves v. Fry, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 134.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 433.

"Matter in demand" as used with reference to suits in equity means the pecuniary value of the matter in controversy, and not necessarily a money demand. Blakeslee v. Murphy, 44 Conn. 188.

95. Goree v. Dupree, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 825.

96. Collins v. Keller, 58 N. J. L. 429, 34 Atl. 753.

97. Russell v. Work, 35 N. J. L. 316.

98. Tims v. Spragg, 58 N. J. L. 273, 33 Atl. 213.

As to actions for statutory penalties see Koch v. Vanderhoof, 49 N. J. L. 619, 9 Atl. 771.

Such court is, however, confined in its jurisdiction to the limits of that city. Yost v. Burns, 48 N. J. L. 356, 4 Atl. 858, construing N. J. Pub. Laws (1873), p. 245; N. J. Pub. Laws (1884), p. 169.

99. McGuire v. Doscher, 65 N. J. L. 139, 46 Atl. 576, construing N. J. Pub. Laws (1898), p. 556, and 1 N. J. Gen. Stat. p. 1164, § 10.

1. Frees v. Ford, 6 N. Y. 176.

2. Wilkins v. Williams, 3 N. Y. Suppl. 897, 15 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 168.

3. Delamater v. Folz, 50 Hun (N. Y.) 528, 3 N. Y. Suppl. 711.

4. Albany Brewing Co. v. Smith, 74 N. Y. Suppl. 901.

5. Fink v. Shoemaker, 33 Misc. (N. Y.) 687, 68 N. Y. Suppl. 1112.

6. N. Y. Const. art. 6, § 14.

7. Matter of Folts St., 18 N. Y. App. Div. 568, 46 N. Y. Suppl. 43.

In an action ex delicto, where some of the defendants are non-residents, the court may have jurisdiction as to those who reside in the county, although all the defendants were

b. Municipal Courts[8]—(I) In General. The municipal court of the city of New York is an inferior court.[9] Its jurisdiction will not be presumed, but all the facts essential thereto must appear in the record.[10] Under the constitution it can have no greater jurisdiction than county courts have.[11] And it has no jurisdiction where equitable issues are created.[12]

(II) Jurisdiction Over Non-Residents. By the Greater New York Charter provision is made as to actions by or against non-residents.[13] In this connection it has been decided that the municipal court has jurisdiction of an action by a non-resident corporation[14] and also against non-residents,[15] but not of an action by a non-resident against a foreign corporation, unless it appears that the cause of action arose in the state or that the contract sued on was made therein.[16] sued as partners. Weidman v. Sibley, 16 N. Y. App. Div. 616, 44 N. Y. Suppl. 1057.

8. Municipal court: Of Buffalo see Revere Rubber Co. v. Genesee Valley Blue Stone Co., 20 N. Y. App. Div. 166, 46 N. Y. Suppl. 989, as to non-residents. Of Rochester see Ziegler v. Corwin, 12 N. Y. App. Div. 60, 42 N. Y. Suppl. 855 (as to extension of jurisdiction beyond limits of city); Baird v. Helfer, 12 N. Y. App. Div. 23, 42 N. Y. Suppl. 484 (as to service of summons out of the city).

9. Smith v. Silsbe, 53 N. Y. App. Div. 462, 65 N. Y. Suppl. 1083.

It is not a new court, but a continuation of the district court of such city. Routenberg v. Schwertzer, 165 N. Y. 175, 58 N. E. 880 [reversing 50 N. Y. App. Div. 218, 63 N. Y. Suppl. 746]; Worthington v. London Guarantee, etc., Co., 164 N. Y. 81, 58 N. E. 102, 31 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 274 [reversing 47 N. Y. App. Div. 609, 62 N. Y. Suppl. 591]; Meuthen v. Eyelis, 33 Misc. (N. Y.) 98, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 246, 8 N. Y. Annot. Cas. 372. Contra, McConologue v. McCaffrey, 29 Misc. (N. Y.) 139, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 279.

10. Tannenbaum v. Natchtigall, 29 Misc. (N. Y.) 759, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 474.

11. N. Y. Const. art. 6, § 18.

This provision has been construed as having reference to subject-matter and persons and not to territory. Kantro v. Armstrong, 44 N. Y. App. Div. 506, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 970; Irwin v. Metropolitan St. R. Co., 38 N. Y. App. Div. 253, 57 N. Y. Suppl. 21 [affirming 25 Misc. 187, 54 N. Y. Suppl. 195]. But see Tyroler v. Germmersbach, 28 Misc. (N. Y.) 151, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 266, 319.

12. Jacobs v. Lieberman, 51 N. Y. App. Div. 542, 64 N. Y. Suppl. 953 [affirming 29 Misc. 354, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 493].

13. See Greater New York Charter, §§ 1364, 1370.

Greater New York Charter, § 1370, subd. 1, provides that one of the parties to a suit in a municipal court must reside in the district, unless all reside outside the city. Subdivision 4 provides, if the district in which the action is brought is not the proper one, the action may be tried there, unless it is transferred to the proper one before trial on demand of defendant. It was held that the right to transfer will be deemed to have been waived; the record showing only that defendant made an affidavit for transfer, and it not appearing that the application was acted on, or that the point was raised when the case came on for trial. Brinn v. Rinderman, 38 Misc. (N. Y.) 792, 78 N. Y. Suppl. 921.

Who are residents or non-residents.— See Routenberg v. Schwertzer, 165 N. Y. 175, 58 N. E. 880; Langman v. Milbury, 31 Misc. (N. Y.) 459, 64 N. Y. Suppl. 465; New York v. Union R. Co., 31 Misc. (N. Y.) 451, 64 N. Y. Suppl. 483; Titus Sheard Co. v. Morissey, 23 Misc. (N. Y.) 122, 50 N. Y. Suppl. 634.

14. Lake Geneva Ice Co. v. Selvage, 28 Misc. (N. Y.) 581, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 544.

15. Schillinger v. Herrmann, 35 Misc. (N. Y.) 280, 71 N. Y. Suppl. 778; Meuthen v. Eyelis, 33 Misc. (N. Y.) 98, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 246; Masu v. Blumenstein, 32 Misc. (N. Y.) 691, 66 N. Y. Suppl. 449.

May have jurisdiction coextensive with the limits of the city and therefore has jurisdiction where defendant is a resident of the city, although in another county, and a provision conferring such jurisdiction does not contravene N. Y. Const. art. 6, § 18. Luban v. Simonds, 46 N. Y. App. Div. 192, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 697; Phillip Semmer Glass Co. v. Nassau Show Case Co., 46 N. Y. App. Div. 98, 62 N. Y. Suppl. 703 [reversing 28 Misc. 577, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 530]; Kantro v. Armstrong, 44 N. Y. App. Div. 506, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 970; Irwin v. Metropolitan St. R. Co., 38 N. Y. App. Div. 253, 57 N. Y. Suppl. 21 [affirming 25 Misc. 187, 54 N. Y. Suppl. 195]. Contra, Chavin v. Smith, 28 Misc. (N. Y.) 531, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 593; Tyroler v. Gummersbach, 28 Misc. (N. Y.) 151, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 266, 319.

Against non-resident of state this court has no jurisdiction. Pierson v. Ward, 27 Misc. (N. Y.) 793, 58 N. Y. Suppl. 362.

In an action for the recovery of money only it has been held that such court has jurisdiction where defendant is a non-resident. McKenna v. Fireman's Ins. Co., 28 Misc. (N. Y.) 173, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 41.

Actions against foreign corporations see Routenberg v. Schweitzer, 165 N. Y. 175, 58 N. E. 880; Worthington v. London Guarantee, etc., Co., 164 N. Y. 81, 58 N. E. 102, 31 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 274; Riesor v. Parker, 27 Misc. (N. Y.) 205, 57 N. Y. Suppl. 745.

16. Allison v. T. A. Snider Preserve Co., 20 Misc. (N. Y.) 367, 45 N. Y. Suppl. 923.

(III) JURISDICTION IN WHAT ACTIONS. The class of actions over which the municipal court has jurisdiction has been specifically designated by the Greater New York Charter.[17] In the construction and application of these provisions it has been decided that the municipal court has jurisdiction of an action to replevin chattels, although they were unlawfully taken and detained by defendant in the city of New York in a county other than that of the plaintiff,[18] of an action to recover five hundred dollars for conversion of personalty,[19] of an action for damages for fraud and deceit,[20] of an action for damages for breach of a contract by a vendor to convey good title,[21] of an action for damages by a passenger,[22] of a summary proceeding by a landlord to recover possession for the non-payment of rent where defendant denies plaintiff's title and claims title in himself,[23] and of an action by a creditor, whose debtor has wrongfully paid the debt to a third person, to recover the money from such person;[24] but it has been determined that this court has no jurisdiction of an action under the Mechanics' Lien Law,[25] of actions on attachment bonds taken in the supreme court, conditioned to pay costs and damages sustained by wrongful attachment,[26] or of an action against an officer for consequential damages for loss of property.[27]

(IV) PROCEDURE. The powers of such court as to procedure are in general the same as were possessed by the district court of that city.[28]

17. See Greater New York Charter, §§ 1364, 1365.

N. Y. Laws (1902), c. 580, § 1, subd. 14, confers on the municipal court of the city of New York jurisdiction over actions for damages for an injury to personal property. Section 139 provides that no action shall be maintained in the municipal court which arises on a written contract of conditional sale of personal property, except an action to foreclose the lien. It was held that the general provision in section 1, subd. 14, is restricted by the excluding provision of section 139, and an action of the class specified in the latter section cannot be maintained, notwithstanding that it involves an injury to personal property. Samodwitz v. Karpf, 80 N. Y. App. Div. 496, 80 N. Y. Suppl. 704.

18. Luban v. Simonds, 46 N. Y. App. Div. 192, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 697.

19. Vogel v. Banks, 60 N. Y. App. Div. 459, 70 N. Y. Suppl. 1010.

20. Chase v. Herr, 34 Misc. (N. Y.) 526, 69 N. Y. Suppl. 908. See also Agresta v. Hart, 34 Misc. (N. Y.) 784, 69 N. Y. Suppl. 1031.

21. Katz v. Henig, 32 Misc. (N. Y.) 672, 66 N. Y. Suppl. 530.

22. Hart v. Metropolitan St. R. Co., 65 N. Y. App. Div. 493, 72 N. Y. Suppl. 797.

23. Quinn v. Quinn, 46 N. Y. App. Div. 241, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 684. See Sage v. Crosby, 33 Misc. (N. Y.) 117, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 139.

24. Dechen v. Dechen, 59 N. Y. App. Div. 166, 68 N. Y. Suppl. 1043.

25. Smith v. Silsbe, 53 N. Y. App. Div. 462, 65 N. Y. Suppl. 1083; McConologue v. McCaffrey, 29 Misc. (N. Y.) 139, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 279. But see Kotzen v. Nathanson, 33 Misc. (N. Y.) 299, 68 N. Y. Suppl. 497.

26. Ward v. American Surety Co., 25 Misc. (N. Y.) 198, 54 N. Y. Suppl. 177.

27. Kneustler v. Doyle, 30 Misc. (N. Y.) 442, 62 N. Y. Suppl. 593.

28. Greater New York Charter, § 1369.

Adjournment.— Hertz v. Schmidt, 31 Misc. (N. Y.) 725, 65 N. Y. Suppl. 225.

Appeals.— Walker v. Baermann, 44 N. Y. App. Div. 587, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 91; People v. Ash, 44 N. Y. App. Div. 6, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 436, 14 N. Y. Crim. 167; Wallot v. Weber, 30 Misc. (N. Y.) 632, 62 N. Y. Suppl. 756.

Directing a verdict.— Douglass v. Seiferd, 18 Misc. (N. Y.) 188, 41 N. Y. Suppl. 289.

Discontinuance of action.—Weidler v. Weidler, 36 Misc. (N. Y.) 219, 73 N. Y. Suppl. 200.

Granting new trial.— Prager v. Borden's Condensed-Milk Co., 34 Misc. (N. Y.) 193, 68 N. Y. Suppl. 833.

Opening of defaults.— Koerkle v. Pangborn, 33 Misc. (N. Y.) 476, 67 N. Y. Suppl. 898; Cahill v. Lilienthal, 30 Misc. (N. Y.) 429, 62 N. Y. Suppl. 524; Salvino v. Metropolitan St. R. Co., 29 Misc. (N. Y.) 746, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 476; Stivers v. Ritt, 29 Misc. (N. Y.) 341, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 507.

Pleadings and amendments.— Shirtcliffe v. Wall, 68 N. Y. App. Div. 375, 74 N. Y. Suppl. 189; Rothfeld v. Lintz, 36 Misc. (N. Y.) 220, 73 N. Y. Suppl. 191; Hawkes v. Burke, 34 Misc. (N. Y.) 189, 68 N. Y. Suppl. 798; Equitable Providing Co. v. Eisentrager, 31 Misc. (N. Y.) 707, 65 N. Y. Suppl. 296; Lambert v. Hoffman, 20 Misc. (N. Y.) 331, 45 N. Y. Suppl. 806.

Removal of case.— Vogel v. Banks, 60 N. Y. App. Div. 459, 70 N. Y. Suppl. 1010; Lewis v. Metropolitan St. R. Co., 35 Misc. (N. Y.) 304, 71 N. Y. Suppl. 948. A justice of the municipal court of the city of New York has no authority to render judgment in a cause which he should have transferred on the ground that none of the parties resided in the district. Goldman v. Jacobs, 38 Misc. (N. Y.) 781, 78 N. Y. Suppl. 833.

Service of process.— Newton v. Stachelberg, 36 Misc. (N. Y.) 184, 73 N. Y. Suppl. 147; Tausend v. Handlear, 33 Misc. (N. Y.) 587, 68 N. Y. Suppl. 77, 31 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 170.

c. City Court of New York.[29] The city court of New York, having no equitable jurisdiction, cannot grant relief on equitable grounds;[30] and it has no jurisdiction of an action involving an accounting.[31] Nor has it any jurisdiction over the person of a defendant served without the city in an action to foreclose a mechanic's lien;[32] but it has been decided that it may entertain an action by a resident of the state, but not of the city, against a foreign corporation on a cause of action which arose outside the city.[33]

3. PENNSYLVANIA — a. Court of Quarter Sessions. This court has no jurisdiction of a petition to restrain the opening and grading of a duly authorized public highway across the tracks of a steam railroad at grade.[34] It may, however, adjust boundaries of boroughs, townships, etc.[35]

b. Magistrates' Courts. The act providing that a magistrate in Philadelphia should exercise the same jurisdiction as was exercised by two aldermen did not violate the constitutional provision as to the establishment of magistrates' courts in this city.[36]

4. TEXAS — a. County Courts. In those counties where the jurisdiction of the county court has not been transferred to the district court,[37] the former has general jurisdiction in all cases which relate to the administration of decedents' estates, and judgments rendered by it within the scope of its powers are entitled to the same presumption in support of their validity as the judgments of any court of general jurisdiction.[38] Such a court may also issue a writ of garnishment and determine a case against a non-resident having creditors in the state.[39] And an action for breach of warranty of title to land is within its jurisdiction,[40] as is also an appeal from the award of the county commissioners' court for damages sustained in establishing a third-class road[41] and an action in which a county judge is a defendant.[42] Its jurisdiction, however, is limited by the amount in contro-

Setting aside verdict.— Bale v. Pass, 64 N. Y. App. Div. 302, 72 N. Y. Suppl. 93.

Staying proceedings.— Farber v. Flauman, 30 Misc. (N. Y.) 627, 62 N. Y. Suppl. 784.

Time of rendering judgment.— Mayer v. Friedman, 44 N. Y. App. Div. 518, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 969.

Vacating a judgment.— Horowitz v. Fuchs, 39 Misc. (N. Y.) 344, 79 N. Y. Suppl. 864; Wolchock v. Tombarelli, 32 Misc. (N. Y.) 694, 66 N. Y. Suppl. 504; Porter v. Cregan, 26 Misc. (N. Y.) 417, 56 N. Y. Suppl. 200.

Vacating satisfaction pieces.— People v. Fitzpatrick, 35 Misc. (N. Y.) 456, 71 N. Y. Suppl. 191.

29. As to appeals from this court to the supreme court it has been determined that the rules control which govern the court of appeals on appeal from the supreme court. Wright v. May, 29 Misc. (N. Y.) 300, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 534 [affirming 57 N. Y. Suppl. 1151]. Weight of evidence is not to be considered on an appeal from the general term of the city court. Mahoney v. O'Neill, 29 Misc. (N. Y.) 619, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 69 [reversing 28 Misc. 437, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 378].

30. Lawrence v. Lawrence, 32 Misc. (N. Y.) 503, 66 N. Y. Suppl. 393 [reversing 31 Misc. 646, 64 N. Y. Suppl. 1113].

31. Gorse v. Lynch, 36 Misc. (N. Y.) 150, 72 N. Y. Suppl. 1054 [reversing 35 Misc. 848, 72 N. Y. Suppl. 1105]; Frost v. Weehawken Wharf Co., 33 Misc. (N. Y.) 736, 68 N. Y. Suppl. 399; Meyer v. Chamberlyn, 62 N. Y. Suppl. 431.

32. McCann v. Gerding, 29 Misc. (N. Y.) 283, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 467 [reversing 27 Misc. 845, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 381].

33. Maas v. Cunard Steamship Co., 19 Misc. (N. Y.) 100, 43 N. Y. Suppl. 219, 26 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 155.

34. In re Upper Darby Tp. Road, 8 Del. Co. 158.

35. In re Boundary Line, 10 Kulp (Pa.) 64.

36. Gallagher v. Maclean, 193 Pa. St. 583, 45 Atl. 76.

Such courts have jurisdiction of an action for removal of tenants at the expiration of a lease, although the damages claimed may exceed the limitation imposed by the constitution. Gallagher v. Maclean, 193 Pa. St. 583, 45 Atl. 76. See Pa. Const. art. 5, § 12, as to amount.

37. And such jurisdiction as was taken from county courts and vested in the district courts was not restored by the substitution by constitutional amendment in 1891 of a new section defining the jurisdiction of such courts and providing for appeals therefrom. Muench v. Oppenheimer, 86 Tex. 568, 26 S. W. 496.

38. Guilford v. Love, 49 Tex. 715.

39. Weems v. Miles, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 1207.

40. Patrick v. Laprelle, (Tex. Civ. App. 1897) 40 S. W. 552.

41. Karnes County v. Nichols, (Tex. Civ. App. 1899) 54 S. W. 656.

42. State v. Hanscom, (Tex. Sup. 1896) 37 S. W. 601.

versy,[43] and it has no power to determine the validity of a lien upon land created by the levy of an execution.[44] Again the power conferred upon such court to approve a surveyor's report as to county boundary lines was only a veto power and not an original jurisdiction.[45]

b. Municipal Courts. It has been decided that municipal courts constitute no part of the judicial power of the state within the meaning of the constitution.[46]

5. OTHER STATES. Similarly the courts of other states, applying the principles hitherto stated and construing the respective constitutional and statutory provisions of such states, have determined the jurisdiction of courts of inferior or limited jurisdiction in particular cases; for example, in Alabama the jurisdiction of the circuit court,[47] and the jurisdiction of the city court;[48] in Arkansas the jurisdiction of the circuit court;[49] in California the jurisdiction of the superior court;[50] in Connecticut the jurisdiction of the superior court;[51] in Florida the jurisdiction of the county court;[52] in Georgia the jurisdiction of the county court[53] and of city courts;[54] in Illinois the jurisdiction of the county court;[55]

43. Must exceed two hundred dollars. Bonner v. Moores, 3 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 12.

The equitable relief prayed for determines the jurisdiction of an action to restrain the use of a trade-name and for five hundred dollars damages, the damages being stated incidentally and to show the result of defendant's acts. Cleaver v. Duke, (Tex. Civ. App. 1900) 58 S. W. 145.

44. Frichott v. Nowlin, (Tex. Civ. App. 1899) 50 S. W. 164.

45. Wise County v. Montague County, 21 Tex. Civ. App. 444, 52 S. W. 615.

46. Ex p. Coombs, 38 Tex. Crim. 648, 44 S. W. 854, construing Tex. Const. (1876), art. 5.

47. Circuit court.— In an action on a contract commenced in the circuit court there is not sufficient to sustain the jurisdiction of the court, if a valid cause of action for only a nominal sum is stated in the complaint. Cahuzac v. Samini, 29 Ala. 288.

48. City courts have jurisdiction of bastardy proceedings arising within its territorial jurisdiction. Williams v. State, 113 Ala. 58, 21 So. 463.

49. Circuit court.— To confer jurisdiction upon the circuit court the amount involved should be over one hundred dollars. Martin v. Foreman, 18 Ark. 249.

50. The superior court has original jurisdiction of actions, in which in order to determine the case the issue of title or possession is so involved, although only incidentally, that it must be decided (Hart v. Carnall-Hopkins Co., 103 Cal. 132, 37 Pac. 196), and it also has jurisdiction of an action to recover the penalty of a bond given by a liquor-seller to the city in the sum of one thousand dollars (Tulare v. Hevren, 126 Cal. 226, 58 Pac. 530).

51. Superior court.— Jurisdiction of an action qui tam for burglary has been declared to exist in the superior court. Parks v. Morgan, Kirby (Conn.) 159.

52. County court.— In the matter of granting letters of administration on the estates of deceased persons a general and exclusive jurisdiction is conferred upon the county court (Epping v. Robinson, 21 Fla. 36), and such a court has jurisdiction of an action to recover on a written obligation for the payment of money, where the demand involved does not exceed five hundred dollars, although the cause of action sued on accrued prior to the organization of that court (Varn v. Alderman, 42 Fla. 378, 29 So. 323).

53. County court.— Under a code provision that the practice and procedure in the county court shall be the same as in the superior court, except as otherwise provided by the code (Ga. Civ. Code, §§ 4198, 4204), a code provision "to regulate the practice in the superior court" is applicable to pleadings in the county court (Newman v. Scofield, 102 Ga. 810, 30 S. E. 427).

No authority to administer the oath necessary for a warrant to issue against a tenant at sufferance, nor to issue such warrant, is conferred on a county judge. Griswold v. Rutherford, 109 Ga. 398, 34 S. E. 602, holding that under the statute the oath may be administered only by a judge of the superior court or a justice of the peace.

54. City courts.— Equitable defenses, which if proven will prevent a recovery or reduce the amount of plaintiff's verdict, may be set up by a party sued in the city court, although such a court has no power to grant affirmative equitable relief. Gentle v. Atlas Sav., etc., Assoc., 105 Ga. 406, 31 S. E. 544.

City courts, established on the recommendation of grand juries, were declared not to be "city courts" witnin the constitutional provision by which the power to grant new trials was confined to the superior court, and such city courts as were recognized by the constitution. Stewart v. State, 98 Ga. 202, 25 S. E. 424. See Ga. Const. art. 6, § 4, par. 5.

Particular municipal courts.— See Williams v. Augusta, 111 Ga. 849, 36 S. E. 607 (as to recorder's court of the city of Augusta); Cooper v. Jackson, 107 Ga. 255, 33 S. E. 60 (as to city court of Gwinett county); Johnson v. Hilton, etc., Lumber Co., 103 Ga. 212, 29 S. E. 819 (as to city court of Brunswick); Williams v. State, 116 Ga. 525, 42 S. E. 745 (as to the city court of Cartersville).

55. The county court is a court of record having a general jurisdiction over a particular class of cases, and its jurisdiction is not in Indiana the jurisdiction of the superior court,[56] the jurisdiction of the criminal court in Marion county,[57] and the jurisdiction of the county commissioners' court;[58] in Kentucky the jurisdiction of the county court;[59] in Maine the jurisdiction of the municipal court of Portland;[60] in Maryland the jurisdiction of the circuit court;[61] in Massachusetts the jurisdiction of the supreme court[62] and the jurisdiction of the superior court;[63] in Michigan the jurisdiction of the superior court of Grand Rapids;[64] in Minnesota the jurisdiction of the municipal court of Duluth;[65] in Missouri the jurisdiction of the county court,[66] inferior, although limited. Propst v. Meadows, 13 Ill. 157. Has no general chancery jurisdiction or powers. Friedman v. Podolski, 185 Ill. 587, 57 N. E. 818 [affirming 85 Ill. App. 284]. When adjudicating on the administration of estates it is not an inferior court. Moffitt v. Moffitt, 69 Ill. 641. The county court has jurisdiction of an action to recover five hundred dollars damages, where the subject-matter was one of which a justice of the peace has jurisdiction. Offield v. Siler, 15 Ill. App. 308. The claim of an attorney against the assets of an insolvent in the custody of an assignee for services may be heard and determined. Jones v. Spencer, 79 Ill. App. 349. When an action for damages for personal injuries is not within the jurisdiction of a county court. Robinson v. Hilderbrand, 71 Ill. App. 53. Again the jurisdiction of such courts should be uniform. Ill. Const. (1870), art. 6, § 29. Under this constitutional provision an act to increase the jurisdiction of county courts, but providing that it shall not apply to counties having a certain population, has been declared invalid as in contravention thereof (Myers v. People, 67 Ill. 503), as has also an act extending the jurisdiction of county courts in counties in which probate courts are or may be established (Klokke v. Dodge, 103 Ill. 125).

The county court of De Kalb county was not invested with chancery jurisdiction by the act of 1863. Boynton v. Holcomb, 49 Ill. App. 503.

The county court of Lasalle county was by the constitution of 1870 deprived of the extended jurisdiction conferred by the act of 1865. People v. Mead, 66 Ill. 135; Blake v. Peckham, 64 Ill. 362.

56. The superior court of Tippecanoe county has jurisdiction of a suit for a mandatory injunction to compel the removal of an obstruction to a highway. Martin v. Marks, 154 Ind. 549, 57 N. E. 249.

57. The criminal court in Marion county having exclusive criminal jurisdiction in such county is an inferior court under a constitutional provision that all courts other than the supreme or circuit courts shall be inferior to them. Cropsey v. Henderson, 63 Ind. 268; Ind. Const. art. 7, § 1.

58. County commissioners' court is an inferior court of special and limited jurisdiction possessing only such jurisdiction and authority as are conferred by statute. Doctor v. Hartman, 74 Ind. 221; Rosenthal v. Madison, etc., Plank-Road Co., 10 Ind. 358.

59. In an early case it is decided that jurisdiction and authority of the county courts are derived wholly from the statute law of the state. Elliott v. Peirsol, 1 Pet. (U. S.) 328, 7 L. ed. 164. Statute as to time of holding court is not unconstitutional. Mullins v. Andrews, 45 S. W. 231, 20 Ky. L. Rep. 20, construing Ky. Stat. § 1508; Ky. Const. § 51.

60. The municipal court of Portland, upon which the same jurisdiction was conferred as justices of the peace might exercise irrespective of the residence of the parties, was not affected by an act subsequently passed which provided that all actions between parties residing in the same county, returnable before any trial justice, should be commenced before a justice holding court in the town where one of the parties resided. Allen v. Somers, 68 Me. 247, construing Me. Laws (1856), c. 204, § 2; Rev. Stat. c. 83, § 7.

61. The special jurisdiction conferred upon the circuit courts as to the sale of mortgaged premises under a power in the mortgage has been decided to be confined to the parties to the instrument constituting the mortgage and conferring such power, and no others can be permitted to intervene. Warfield v. Ross, 38 Md. 85.

62. Supreme court.— In an action of replevin in which the parties have agreed that the property has a value less than twenty dollars, the supreme court has no jurisdiction. Leonard v. Hannon, 105 Mass. 113.

63. The superior court may grant a motion to vacate an order dismissing an appeal from a police court, although such motion is made during the adjournment of a session of the court. Dalton-Ingersoll Co. v. Fiske, 175 Mass. 15, 55 N. E. 468, so held under Mass. Stat. (1885), c. 384, § 2.

64. The superior court of Grand Rapids is one of special and limited jurisdiction. Denison v. Smith, 33 Mich. 155.

65. Municipal court of Duluth.— An action to recover damages for fraudulent covenants of warranty is within the jurisdiction of the municipal court of Duluth (Carlson v. Segog, 60 Minn. 498, 62 N. W. 1132); but it has been decided that such court has no jurisdiction in an action of forcible entry and detainer to determine a defense which seeks to set aside a foreclosure sale for fraud and to obtain leave to redeem (Lundberg v. Davidson, 68 Minn. 328, 71 N. W. 395, 72 N. W. 71). See Tilleny v. Knoblauch, (Minn. 1898) 75 N. W. 1039, as to municipal court of Minneapolis.

66. The act conferring power upon the county court, whenever any part of a mortgage containing a power of sale became payable, to make an order to the sheriff and of the St. Louis court of criminal correction;[67] in Nebraska the jurisdiction of the county court;[68] in North Carolina the jurisdiction of the superior court;[69] in Ohio the jurisdiction of the court of common pleas,[70] and the jurisdiction of the superior court of Cincinnati;[71] in Oregon the jurisdiction of the county court;[72] in Tennessee the jurisdiction of the county court;[73] and in West Virginia the jurisdiction of the county court.[74]

X. COURTS OF PROBATE JURISDICTION.

A. Nature, Scope, and Exercise of Jurisdiction — 1. In General. While probate courts, surrogates' courts, and courts of like character have only a special and limited jurisdiction,[75] yet the nature, extent,[76] and exercise of probate jurisdic-commanding him to levy on the property described in the mortgage and providing that a copy of such order duly certified being delivered to the sheriff should have the effect of a fieri facias on a judgment of foreclosure by the circuit court, has been construed as valid. Benton County v. Morgan, 163 Mo. 661, 64 S. W. 119, construing Mo. Const. art. 6, § 1; Mo. Rev. Stat. (1899), § 9835.

67. The court of criminal correction of St. Louis has no jurisdiction to enter a final judgment upon a recognizance taken before it in a felony case. State v. Hoeffner, 63 Mo. App. 409.

68. County court.— An action to recover one hundred dollars damages for assault and battery is, it has been determined, within the jurisdiction of the county court (Brauer v. Luntzer, 12 Nebr. 473, 11 N. W. 730), as are also funds of an insolvent debtor which come into the hands of the assignee, the court having power in such cases to determine the rights of the creditors and to grant relief (Wilson v. Coburn, 35 Nebr. 530, 53 N. W. 466). A suit in equity, however, to vacate proceedings for the condemnation of the right of way for a railroad is not within the jurisdiction of such court. Mattheis v. Fremont, etc., R. Co., 53 Nebr. 681, 74 N. W. 30.

69. Superior courts have no jurisdiction of actions on implied contracts for money had and received, where the amount sued for is less than two hundred dollars. Powell v. Allen, 103 N. C. 46, 9 S. E. 138; Winslow v. Weith, 66 N. C. 432. But in actions for tort, although the amount claimed is fifty dollars or less, they may have jurisdiction. Crinkley v. Egerton, 113 N. C. 142, 18 S. E. 341. See Bowers v. Richmond, etc., R. Co., 107 N. C. 721, 12 S. E. 452.

70. Stevens v. State, 3 Ohio St. 453.

71. Superior court of Cincinnati.— It has been decided that the special term of the superior court of the city of Cincinnati is a court of original jurisdiction. Robert Mitchell Furniture Co. v. Cleveland, etc., R. Co., 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 674.

72. A county court is one of special or limited jurisdiction. State v. Officer, 4 Oreg. 180. When exercising the powers and authority pertaining to county commissioners it is such. Crossen v. Wasco County, 10 Oreg. 111. It has no jurisdiction over questions of title or rights arising out of the exercise of eminent domain. Canyonville, etc., Road Co. v. Douglas County, 5 Oreg. 280.

73. The county court has jurisdiction to appoint and remove trustees (Brien v. Robinson, 102 Tenn. 157, 52 S. W. 802); but has none of a suit to sell land for the enforcement of a judgment lien (Turner v. Turner, (Tenn. Ch. App. 1901) 64 S. W. 392).

74. Mayer v. Adams, 27 W. Va. 244. See W. Va. Const. art. 8, § 24.

75. Mathewson v. Sprague, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 9,278, 1 Curt. 457.

76. Alabama.— Probate courts are of limited jurisdiction (Chamblee v. Cole, 128 Ala. 649, 30 So. 630), although it is also decided that such courts have original, general, and unlimited jurisdiction of the administration and probate of wills (Acklen v. Goodman, 77 Ala. 521; Steele v. Tutwiler, 68 Ala. 107; Hall v. Hall, 47 Ala. 290; Ikelheimer v. Chapman, 32 Ala. 676); but it is declared that as to the settlement of executors' accounts such courts are of limited and statutory jurisdiction (Whorton v. Moragne, 62 Ala. 201), and that the county court's jurisdiction in the adjustment of a decedent's estate is limited (Leavens v. Butler, 8 Port. 380).

Arkansas.— Probate courts have plenary and original jurisdiction in all matters within their cognizance. Borden v. State, 11 Ark. 519, 44 Am. Dec. 217.

California.— Under Const. art. 6, the probate court had not jurisdiction in all matters relating to the estates of deceased persons, its powers being limited by statute (Bush v. Lindsey, 44 Cal. 121); and prior to the statute of 1858 probate courts were of limited and inferior jurisdiction (Townsend v. Gordon, 19 Cal. 188; Irwin v. Scriber, 18 Cal. 499; Grimes v. Norris, 6 Cal. 621, 65 Am. Dec. 545; Clarke v. Perry, 5 Cal. 58, 63 Am. Dec. 82).

Colorado.— The probate court in 1871 was of limited but not of inferior jurisdiction. Cody v. Raynaud, 1 Colo. 272.

Connecticut.— Probate courts are of limited jurisdiction. Potwine's Appeal, 31 Conn. 381.

District of Columbia.— The supreme court succeeded to all the powers and jurisdiction of the orphans' court. Keyser v. Breitbarth, 2 Mackey 332.

Georgia.— The court of ordinary is a court of general jurisdiction in matters relating to decedents' estates. Stuckey v. Watkins, 112

tion depend upon the source thereof with reference to constitutional and statutory

Ga. 268, 37 S. E. 401, 81 Am. St. Rep. 47. They are also declared to have the same jurisdiction as the English ecclesiastical courts (Finch v. Finch, 14 Ga. 362), although they may exercise jurisdiction in matters testamentary and of administration, and are courts of general jurisdiction (Tucker v. Harris, 13 Ga. 1, 58 Am. Dec. 488).

Illinois.— The act of April 27, 1877, created probate courts in all counties having a certain population and thus divested county courts in these counties of all probate jurisdiction (Meserve v. Delaney, 105 Ill. 53); and the courts are evidently of limited and inferior jurisdiction (Matthews v. Hoff, 113 Ill. 90; People v. Cole, 84 Ill. 327; People v. Gray, 72 Ill. 343; Housh v. People, 66 Ill. 178).

Indiana.— The jurisdiction of the circuit court in probate matters is held to be entirely independent of its jurisdiction in civil actions (Noble v. McGinnis, 55 Ind. 528); and it was decided in 1849 that the probate court had general jurisdiction (Doe v. Smith, Smith 381).

Iowa.— In 1849 the then probate court, although of limited jurisdiction, had plenary and original jurisdiction over the administration of decedents' estates. Barney v. Chittenden, 2 Greene 165.

Louisiana.— Prior to the constitution of 1845, courts of probate were of limited jurisdiction (Erwin v. Lowry, 1 La. Ann. 276; Le Page v. New Orleans Gas Light, etc., Co., 7 Rob. 183; Soulie v. Soulie, 5 La. 26), and had no jurisdiction of petitory actions, or actions of revendication (Barnes v. Gaines, 5 Rob. 314) or actions on appeal-bonds against sureties (Elkins v. Berry, 15 La. 358); nor could their jurisdiction be extended to cases not expressly included (Zander v. Pile, 8 La. 211. See also Erwin v. Lowry, 1 La. Ann. 276).

Maryland.— Orphans' courts are of limited jurisdiction under a decision in 1858. Michael v. Baker, 12 Md. 158, 71 Am. Dec. 593. See also Townshend v. Brooke, 9 Gill 90; Brodess v. Thompson, 2 Harr. & G. 120.

Mississippi.— Chancery courts succeeded to all the probate cognizance of the probate courts as they existed under the constitution of 1832 (Saxon v. Ames, 47 Miss. 565), and are courts of original and general jurisdiction (Hanks v. Neal, 44 Miss. 212; Pollock v. Buie, 43 Miss. 140; McWillie v. Van Vacter, 35 Miss. 428, 72 Am. Dec. 127), and it has been decided that the powers of such courts are coextensive with those of a court of equity (Carmichael v. Browder, 3 How. 252; Blanton v. King, 2 How. 856; Simmons v. Henderson, Freem. 493. But see Saxon v. Ames, 47 Miss. 565).

Missouri.— Probate courts are on the same footing as courts of general jurisdiction (Cooper v. Duncan, 20 Mo. App. 355), and, being courts of record, their jurisdiction as to wills and the administration of estates is general, exclusive, and original (Johnson v. Beazley, 65 Mo. 250, 27 Am. Rep. 276. See also State v. Millsaps, 69 Mo. 359; Pattee v. Thomas, 58 Mo. 163, as to particular counties).

New Hampshire.— Probate courts are of special and limited jurisdiction and their proceedings are not according to the course of the common law. Wood v. Stone, 39 N. H. 572.

New Jersey.— Orphans' courts have been held to be not of special but of limited jurisdiction (Hess v. Cole, 23 N. J. L. 116); and it is also decided that such courts are not of special jurisdiction for a particular purpose, nor a court of limited jurisdiction in the common acceptation of the term, which applies to courts having special powers only for performing special duties (Obert v. Hammel, 18 N. J. L. 73).

New York.— The powers of the surrogate and of surrogates' courts include, in addition to the powers conferred upon them by special provisions of the law, jurisdiction in certain enumerated cases under the code embracing also exclusive, concurrent, and incidental powers in specified cases (Stover Anno. Code Civ. Proc. §§ 2472, 2482, 2484, 2486; and as to jurisdiction under §§ 2486, 3347, see In re Gilman, 17 N. Y. Suppl. 494), and these courts are of special and limited jurisdiction (Dubois v. Sands, 43 Barb. 412; Seaman v. Duryea, 10 Barb. 523 [affirmed in 11 N. Y. 324]).

Ohio.— Under the act of April 30, 1852, the probate court is of special and limited jurisdiction in the matter of providing compensation to the owners of property taken for the use of corporations. Dayton, etc., R. Co. v. Marshall, 11 Ohio St. 497.

Oregon.—County courts under Const. art. 7, §§ 1, 2, and by statute are, in matters of probate, of general and superior jurisdiction, and are courts of record (Monastes v. Catlin, 6 Oreg. 119; Tustin v. Gaunt, 4 Oreg. 305; Russell v. Lewis, 3 Oreg. 380); but under the territorial organization they had only a limited and inferior jurisdiction (Farley v. Parker, 6 Oreg. 105, 25 Am. Rep. 504).

Pennsylvania.— The jurisdiction of a register of wills was, under a decision in 1889, decided to be limited by statute (Wall v. Wall, 123 Pa. St. 545, 16 Atl. 598, 10 Am. St. Rep. 549); and the same is true as to the orphans' court (Shollenberger's Appeal, 21 Pa. St. 337; Ainey's Appeal, 2 Pennyp. 192; Holt's Estate, 11 Phila. 13, 32 Leg. Int. 29); but as to those matters over which it has authority its jurisdiction is as exclusive and extensive as the demands of justice (Shollenberger's Appeal, 21 Pa. St. 337).

South Carolina.—Probate courts are of limited jurisdiction, but are not inferior courts, being courts of record (Turner v. Malone, 24 S. C. 398; Gallman v. Gallman, 5 Strobh. 207), and such courts are purely civil in their institution and jurisdiction, irrespective of their origin (Lide v. Lide, 2 Brev. 403).

South Dakota.— Under a decision in 1894 provisions[77] and also with reference to the common law;[78] and their incidental powers, which have elsewhere been discussed,[79] include the right to try questions which arise incidentally in a cause over which such courts have jurisdiction and the determination of which are necessary to a lawful exercise of the powers expressly conferred in arriving at a decision.[80] Accordingly the jurisdiction of these courts in matters of administration and over ordinary civil actions must be determined by a consideration of the factors just mentioned,[81] since each particu-

a probate court is one of general jurisdiction, with the same presumptions in favor of its proceedings as in case of ordinary courts of general jurisdiction. Matson v. Swenson, 5 S. D. 191, 58 N. W. 570.

Tennessee.— The county court in probate matters is not an inferior court and its jurisdiction is general, original, and exclusive. Townsend v. Townsend, 4 Coldw. 70, 94 Am. Dec. 185.

Texas.— Const. (1895), art. 5, § 16, gives the county court general jurisdiction of the administration of decedents' estates. Dodson v. Wortham, 18 Tex. Civ. App. 666, 45 S. W. 858. Probate courts, or the county courts as courts of probate, are courts of record and of general jurisdiction over decedent's estates. Crawford v. McDonald, 88 Tex. 626, 33 S. W. 325; Murchison v. White, 54 Tex. 78; Easley v. McClinton, 33 Tex. 288. And see Bowser v. Williams, 6 Tex. Civ. App. 197, 25 S. W. 453.

Utah.— Probate courts have general jurisdiction as to matters of divorce. Amy v. Amy, 12 Utah 278, 42 Pac. 1121.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 469 et seq.

77. Alabama.— Chamblee v. Cole, 128 Ala. 649, 30 So. 630.

Arkansas.— Reinhardt v. Gartrell, 33 Ark. 727. See also West v. Waddill, 33 Ark. 575.

California.— Bush v. Lindsey, 44 Cal. 121; In re Bowen, 34 Cal. 682; Grimes v. Norris, 6 Cal. 621, 65 Am. Dec. 545.

Connecticut.— State v. Blake, 69 Conn. 64, 36 Atl. 1019.

Louisiana.— Erwin v. Lowry, 1 La. Ann. 276. See also Le Page v. New Orleans Gas Light, etc., Co., 7 Rob. 183; Elkins v. Berry, 15 La. 358; Soulie v. Soulie, 5 La. 26.

Maryland.— Conner v. Ogle, 4 Md. Ch. 425. See also Brodess v. Thompson, 2 Harr. & G. 120.

Mississippi.— Hanks v. Neal, 44 Miss. 212; Root v. McFerrin, 37 Miss. 17, 75 Am. Dec. 49; McWillie v. Vacter, 35 Miss. 428, 72 Am. Dec. 127.

Missouri.— Burke v. Walroud, 28 Mo. 591.

New Jersey.— Wood v. Tallman, 1 N. J. L. 153. And see Steele v. Queen, 67 N. J. L. 99, 50 Atl. 668.

New York.— In re Bolton, 159 N. Y. 129, 53 N. E. 756 [affirming 37 N. Y. App. Div. 625, 56 N. Y. Suppl. 1105 (affirming 20 Misc. 532, 46 N. Y. Suppl. 908)]; Riggs v. Cragg, 89 N. Y. 479, 11 Abb. N. Cas. 401 [reversing 26 Hun 89 (affirming 5 Redf. 82)]. See also Seaman v. Duryea, 10 Barb. 523 [affirmed in 11 N. Y. 324]; Dakin v. Hudson, 6 Cow. 221; Harris v. Meyer, 3 Redf. Surr. 450; Furniss v. Furniss, 2 Redf. Surr. 497.

Ohio.— Foresman v. Haag, 36 Ohio St. 102.

Oregon.— Wright v. Edwards, 10 Oreg. 298.

Pennsylvania.— Wall v. Wall, 123 Pa. St. 545, 16 Atl. 598, 10 Am. St. Rep. 549; Mann v. Mullin, 84 Pa. St. 297; Ainey's Appeal, 2 Pennyp. 192; Patterson's Estate, 3 Pa. Co. Ct. 236; Holt's Estate, 11 Phila. 13, 32 Leg. Int. 29; Fisher v. Kreebel, 1 Leg. Chron. 113.

Rhode Island.—See Mitchell v. People's Sav. Bank, 20 R. I. 500, 40 Atl. 502.

South Carolina.—Davenport v. Caldwell, 10 S. C. 317.

Texas.— Marks v. Hill, 46 Tex. 345; Daniel v. Hutcheson, 4 Tex. Civ. App. 239, 22 S. W. 278.

United States.— Mathewson v. Sprague, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 9,278, 1 Curt. 457. And see Fitzwilliam v. Campbell, 99 Fed. 30, 39 C. C. A. 399.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 470.

78. East St. Louis v. Wittich, 108 Ill. 449 (county court at probate term has no jurisdiction in cases of law); Fisher v. Kreebel, 1 Leg. Chron. (Pa.) 113 (orphans' court system not indebted to common law for its existence or development); Brunson v. Burnett, 2 Pinn. (Wis.) 185, 1 Chandl. (Wis.) 136 (probate courts are offspring of common law, and statutes do not divest them of powers and functions of common-law courts, except to abridge or regulate); Ex p. Tweedy, 22 Fed. 84 (common-law jurisdiction of probate court in Tennessee cannot be supported). See further Wood v. Tallman, 1 N. J. L. 153.

79. See supra, II, D, 3, b. See also Riggs v. Cragg, 89 N. Y. 479 [reversing 26 Hun 89]; Sipperly v. Baucus, 24 N. Y. 46; Campbell v. Thatcher, 54 Barb. (N. Y.) 382; Davenport v. Caldwell, 10 S. C. 317.

80. District of Columbia.— McIntire v. McIntire, 14 App. Cas. 337.

Louisiana.—Schick v. Corbett, 52 La. Ann. 180, 26 So. 862.

Massachusetts.— Wade v. Lobdell, 4 Cush. 510.

New York.— Matter of Friedell, 20 N. Y. App. Div. 382, 46 N. Y. Suppl. 787; In re Davenport, 37 Misc. 179, 74 N. Y. Suppl. 940.

North Carolina.— Murrill v. Sandlin, 86 N. C. 54; Lovinier v. Pearce, 70 N. C. 167.

Ohio.— Cleveland, etc., R. Co. v. Johnson, 4 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 67, 1 Clev. L. Rec. 89.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," §§ 474, 475.

81. Iowa.— Steiner v. Lenz, 110 Iowa 49, 81 N. W. 190 [distinguishing Gillespie v. See, 72 Iowa 345, 33 N. W. 676]. See also Capper v. Sibley, 65 Iowa 754, 23 N. W. 153.

Nebraska.— Boales v. Ferguson, 55 Nebr. 565, 76 N. W. 18.

lar decision rests substantially upon some or all of these factors and the law and the facts peculiar thereto.

New York.— Matter of McKeon, 26 Misc. 464, 58 N. Y. Suppl. 589.

Ohio.— Gill v. Sealbridge, 17 Ohio Cir. Ct. 390, 9 Ohio Cir. Dec. 554; Graham Lumber Co. v. Julien, 5 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 167, 7 Ohio N. P. 391.

Oklahoma.— Walters v. Ratliff, 10 Okla. 262, 61 Pac. 1070.

Wisconsin.— Ludington v. Patton, 111 Wis. 208, 86 N. W. 571, 87 Am. St. Rep. 897, 56 L. R. A. 261; Burnham v. Norton, 100 Wis. 8, 75 N. W. 304.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 469 et seq.

A court of probate has been held to have jurisdiction: To administer property consisting of stock in a domestic corporation owned by a non-resident decedent. Matter of Fitch, 26 Misc. (N. Y.) 353, 57 N. Y. Suppl. 212, 29 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 63. To authorize a mortgage to pay decedent's debts. Wilhelm's Estate, 20 Pa. Co. Ct. 413. To construe a will to the extent of determining whether a claim that a gift over is void is made in good faith and is based upon any foundation in law or in fact. Chamberlin's Appeal, 70 Conn. 363, 39 Atl. 734, 41 L. R. A. 204. To decide the validity of a bequest if put in issue. Matter of Lampson, 22 Misc. (N. Y.) 198, 49 N. Y. Suppl. 576. To decree property to plaintiff under a contract disposing of decedent's estate, the consideration being performed. Kleeberg v. Schrader, 69 Minn. 136, 72 N. W. 59. To determine all questions preventing distribution among legatees, etc. (In re Watson, 30 Pittsb. Leg. J. N. S. 206), the existence of an alleged assignment, under which authority for payment of a legacy to an assignee is claimed (Matter of Geis, 27 Misc. (N. Y.) 490, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 175), questions relating to a tax on collateral legacies, etc. (Callahan v. Woodbridge, 171 Mass. 595, 51 N. E. 176), the right of a trustee under the will to deduct from the income accruing to a beneficiary an overpayment, where the matter is merely one of accounting, and not dependent upon any doctrine of set-off or other principles of exclusive equity jurisdiction (Rutherford v. Myers, 50 N. Y. App. Div. 298, 63 N. Y. Suppl. 939), the validity of mortgages held by decedent against legatees (Prouty v. Matheson, 107 Iowa 259, 77 N. W. 1039), and whether the proceeds of a life-insurance policy shall be distributed to creditors or to the widow and child (Dulaney v. Walsh, (Tex. Civ. App. 1896) 37 S. W. 615). To direct an executrix to pay over personal property to the next of kin. Sinnott v. Kenaday, 12 App. Cas. (D. C.) 115. To enforce an attorney's lien on its decree where the value thereof has been fixed by judgment. Matter of Regan, 61 N. Y. Suppl. 1074, 7 N. Y. Annot. Cas. 165. To hear and determine a petition for the distribution of an estate, although there is a petition pending to determine heirship. In re Sheid, 129 Cal. 172, 61 Pac. 920, under Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 1664. Over the abrogation of the adoption of a child. Matter of Trimm, 30 Misc. (N. Y.) 493, 63 N. Y. Suppl. 952, 7 N. Y. Annot. Cas. 293.

A court of probate has been held not to have jurisdiction: To adjudge that a ward is indebted to his guardian, for advances made by the latter after the former had attained his majority, and after expending estate for his benefit. In re Kincaid, 120 Cal. 203, 52 Pac. 492. To adjudicate a contest between an assignee of a legatee, and the latter's attaching creditor. Dunn v. Arkenburgh, 165 N. Y. 669, 59 N. E. 1122 [affirming 48 N. Y. App. Div. 518, 62 N. Y. Suppl. 861]. To authorize an executor to lend money or direct the clerk to execute and deliver the mortgage. Wilhelm's Estate, 20 Pa. Co. Ct. 413. To compel payment of disputed claims against decedent's estate. Matter of Whitehead, 38 N. Y. App. Div. 319, 56 N. Y. Suppl. 989. To conclude by decree the rights of mortgagees in mortgaged land devised to plaintiffs. Hershey v. Meeker County Bank, 71 Minn. 255, 73 N. W. 967. To construe wills. Dudley v. Gates, 124 Mich. 440, 83 N. W. 97, 86 N. W. 959. To decree that executors pay back money obtained by them on a judgment. In re Truslow, 37 Misc. (N. Y.) 189, 74 N. Y. Suppl. 944. To determine divorce suits (In re Christiansen, 17 Utah 412, 53 Pac. 1003, 70 Am. St. Rep. 794, 41 L. R. A. 504), the existence of an alleged partnership which is denied (Wright v. Wright, 11 Colo. App. 470, 53 Pac. 684), the validity in law, as against the legatee, of an assignment of a legacy (In re Grant, 37 Misc. (N. Y.) 151, 74 N. Y. Suppl. 958; In re Boyce, 37 Misc. (N. Y.) 146, 74 N. Y. Suppl. 946), whether an indorser of decedent's note is liable to the estate, upon an issue whether decedent was an accommodation indorser or maker (In re Schmidt, 58 N. Y. Suppl. 595), or whether a will contest settlement was fraudulent, collusive, etc. (Matter of Evans, 58 N. Y. App. Div. 502, 69 N. Y. Suppl. 482). To direct distribution of an estate charged with a lien in favor of the administrator for his expenses (Huston v. Becker, 15 Wash. 586, 47 Pac. 10), or the payment into court for distribution of a sum in lieu of dower where a dower interest is charged on lands by deed (Farrer v. Denning, 11 Pa. Super. Ct. 62). To empower a guardian to invest the ward's funds in real property to be used by the ward as a residence. In re Bolton, 159 N. Y. 129, 53 N. E. 756 [affirming 37 N. Y. App. Div. 625, 56 N. Y. Suppl. 1105 (affirming 20 Misc. 532, 46 N. Y. Suppl. 908)]. To enforce a right of action growing out of contract or the conduct of living persons. Wood's Estate, 7 Pa. Dist. 655. To order a special administrator to pay claims in advance of general administration. State v. Second Judicial Dist. Ct., 18 Mont. 481, 46 Pac. 259. To pass finally upon the validity of an applicant's claim that a certain gift over was void. Chamberlin's Appeal, 70

2. EQUITABLE POWERS. In determining this, as in other questions of jurisdiction, the constitutional and legislative grant of authority must be considered, and also whether the jurisdiction invoked is over purely a matter of equity, or one merely involving equitable principles. So the question is pertinent whether such aid of the court is sought in a direct proceeding or in one which is in effect collateral or incidental to the exercise of such jurisdiction as is conceded. It may therefore be stated that, assuming that these courts may not take cognizance of a purely equitable matter,[82] nevertheless such a rule would not be exclusive, for in some states it is expressly decided that they have jurisdiction in equity, and in other jurisdictions which do not so decide, or which even hold against the exercise of equitable authority as such, certain matters of equity may be passed upon; especially where they are merely of an equitable nature, or arise collaterally or incidentally in the exercise of a conceded jurisdiction.[83]

Conn. 363, 39 Atl. 734, 41 L. R. A. 204. To pass on the validity of releases given executors by legatees. Potts v. Potts, 88 Md. 640, 42 Atl. 214. See also Shafer v. Shafer, 85 Md. 554, 37 Atl. 167. To render judgment against the sureties on the bond of a removed guardian for the amount due his ward's estate. Richardson v. Knox, 14 Tex. Civ. App. 402, 37 S. W. 189. To separate complicated, unsettled accounts and pass upon those items within its jurisdiction, leaving other items to the cognizance of another tribunal. Fulton's Estate, 178 Pa. St. 78, 35 Atl. 880, 35 L. R. A. 133. To subject an heir's interest to the payment of his creditors' judgment in a suit therefor. Attridge v. Maxey, 15 Tex. Civ. App. 134, 39 S. W. 322. To try an issue whether a bequest is void as an evasion of the statute relating to bequests to charitable institutions. Matter of Mullen, 25 Misc. (N. Y.) 253, 55 N. Y. Suppl. 432. And in general if a court clearly ought not to exercise jurisdiction as to the settlement of an estate it is error so to do, even though there is a waiver. Burnham v. Norton, 100 Wis. 8, 75 N. W. 304.

82. Alabama.— Moore v. Winston, 66 Ala. 296.

California.— Meyers v. Farquharson, 46 Cal. 190.

Colorado.— Marshall v. Marshall, 11 Colo. App. 505, 53 Pac. 617.

Delaware.— McCaulley v. McCaulley, 7 Houst. 102, 30 Atl. 735.

District of Columbia.— McLane v. Cropper, 5 App. Cas. 276.

Illinois.— Van Schaack v. Leonard, 164 Ill. 602, 45 N. E. 982.

Iowa.— Prouty v. Matheson, 107 Iowa 259, 77 N. W. 1039.

Massachusetts.— Green v. Gaskill, 175 Mass. 265, 56 N. E. 560.

Michigan.— Murdoch v. Walls, 121 Mich. 164, 79 N. W. 1096; Shurte v. Fletcher, 111 Mich. 84, 69 N. W. 233.

Minnesota.— Svanburg v. Fosseen, 75 Minn. 350, 78 N. W. 4, 74 Am. St. Rep. 490, 43 L. R. A. 427.

Mississippi.— Barlow v. Esterling, Walk. 302.

Missouri.— Lietman v. Lietman, 149 Mo. 112, 50 S. W. 307, 73 Am. St. Rep. 374; In re Glover, 127 Mo. 153, 29 S. W. 982; Burckhartt v. Helfrich, 77 Mo. 376; Butler v. Lawson, 72 Mo. 227.

New Jersey.— Sherman v. Lanier, 39 N. J. Eq. 249. And see O'Callaghan's Appeal, (Prerog. 1902) 51 Atl. 64.

New York.— In re Randall, 152 N. Y. 508, 46 N. E. 945 [reversing 80 Hun 229, 29 N. Y. Suppl. 1019]; Rutherford v. Myers, 50 N. Y. App. Div. 298, 63 N. Y. Suppl. 939; Matter of Widmayer, 28 Misc. 362, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 980.

North Carolina.— Sprinkle v. Hutchinson, 66 N. C. 450.

Ohio.— Gilliland v. Sellers, 2 Ohio St. 223; Jones v. Standard Home, etc., Assoc. Co., 18 Ohio Cir. Ct. 189, 10 Ohio Cir. Dec. 41.

Pennsylvania.— Ake's Appeal, 74 Pa. St. 116; Weyand v. Weller, 39 Pa. St. 443; Dundas' Estate, 8 Phila. 598.

Texas.— Hanrick v. Gurley, (Civ. App. 1899) 48 S. W. 994.

Vermont.— Mann v. Mann, 53 Vt. 48.

83. California.— Clary's Estate, 112 Cal. 292, 44 Pac. 569. And see Toland v. Earl, 129 Cal. 148, 61 Pac. 914, 79 Am. St. Rep. 100.

Connecticut.— Donovan's Appeal, 41 Conn. 551.

Delaware.— Green v. Saulsbury, 6 Del. Ch. 371, 33 Atl. 623.

Georgia.— Welhorn v. Rogers, 24 Ga. 558.

Illinois.—Spencer v. Boardman, 118 Ill. 553, 9 N. E. 330; Brandon v. Brown, 106 Ill. 519. See also Doggett v. Dill, 108 Ill. 560, 48 Am. Rep. 565; In re Steele, 65 Ill. 322; Hurd v. Slatem, 43 Ill. 348; Adams v. Adams, 81 Ill. App. 637.

Indiana.— Powell v. North, 3 Ind. 392, 56 Am. Dec. 513.

Massachusetts.—Green v. Gaskill, 175 Mass. 265, 56 N. E. 560.

Michigan.—Sullivan v. Ross, 113 Mich. 311, 315, 71 N. W. 634, 76 N. W. 309.

Missouri.— Lietman v. Lietman, 149 Mo. 112, 50 S. W. 307, 73 Am. St. Rep. 374.

New York.—Wood v. Brown, 34 N. Y. 337; Rutherford v. Myers, 50 N. Y. App. Div. 298, 63 N. Y. Suppl. 939. And see Matter of Richmond, 63 N. Y. App. Div. 488, 71 N. Y. Suppl. 795.

Ohio.— Matter of Carter, 2 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 655, 4 Cinc. L. Bul. 428.

Oklahoma.— State Capital Printing Co. v. Grant County, 8 Okla. 229, 56 Pac. 957.

3. Over Real and Personal Estate and Title Thereto. Technically the jurisdiction of courts of probate covers the personal and not the real estate,[84] although they have a certain power in regard to real estate.[85] Thus they may order the sale of land to pay debts,[86] and may partition land according to the will, where no question of title is to be tried.[87] But after the homestead has been set apart, the court has no jurisdiction over it for the purpose of distribution,[88] since the purpose and effect of such an order is to relieve the property from administration; nor does the court by such act change, transfer, or adjudicate the question of title.[89] Such courts may also determine questions which affect rights of devisees where the title to the real estate so affected is not put in issue.[90] And, it is decided, they may determine claims of property as between those interested in the estate; this authority, however, only goes to the extent of determining their relative interests as derived from the estate, and not to an interest derived adversely thereto.[91] Probate courts cannot, however, determine questions of title

Pennsylvania.— Tyson v. Rittenhouse, 186 Pa. St. 137, 40 Atl. 476; Ake's Appeal, 74 Pa. St. 116; Fidelity Ins., etc., Co. v. Gazzam, 2 Pa. Dist. 569; Neill's Estate, 3 Pa. Co. Ct. 197, 19 Wkly. Notes Cas. 380; In re Albright, 6 Lack. Leg. N. 108. See also Snyder's Appeal, 36 Pa. St. 166, 78 Am. Dec. 372; Dundas' Estate, 8 Phila. 598, 26 Wkly. Notes Cas. 481.

Vermont.— Mann v. Mann, 53 Vt. 48.

Wisconsin.—Brook v. Chappell, 34 Wis. 405. See also Tryon v. Farnsworth, 30 Wis. 577.

United States.— Farmers' Nat. Bank v. Green, 4 Fed. 609.

Equity jurisdiction qualified.— Such courts cannot exercise any chancery powers, unless such powers are of such a nature that they may be called as well a probate or surrogate power as a chancery power. Ritch v. Bellamy, 14 Fla. 537. And in New Jersey under a decision in 1793 it was determined that the orphans' court partook of the powers of chancery, and prerogative jurisdiction. Wood v. Tallman, 1 N. J. L. 177.

84. Illinois.— Ferguson v. Hunter, 7 Ill. 657.

Louisiana.—O'Donogan v. Knox, 11 La. 384.

Maryland.— Hayden v. Burch, 9 Gill 79; Stewart v. Pattison, 8 Gill 46.

Mississippi.— Hollman v. Bennett, 44 Miss. 322.

Pennsylvania.— Shields' Appeal, 20 Pa. St. 291; Fell's Estate, 14 Phila. 248, 38 Leg. Int. 6.

Texas.— Bradley v. Love, 60 Tex. 472.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 478.

85. Matter of Leonhard, 86 Hun (N. Y.) 289, 33 N. Y. Suppl. 302 [modified in 152 N. Y. 645, 46 N. E. 1145] (holding that an executor might be compelled to account for lands in which he has invested the funds of the estate, where under the facts the investment in realty might be treated as personalty); Porter v. Woodard, 4 Coldw. (Tenn.) 86 (holding that where land is sold under its order judgment might be given upon the notes and obligations taken in the case, and also that the court could relieve a purchaser or interested party by opening biddings, setting aside sales, and the like).

Circuit courts may transfer title to real estate when necessary to the settlement of the estate and to end the entire controversy. Burnham v. Norton, 100 Wis. 8, 75, N. W. 304.

The circumstances may justify assuming jurisdiction over realty as well as personalty. In re Tyson, 191 Pa. St. 218, 43 Atl. 131. So the orphans' court may determine on a trustee's petition whether he or a purchaser is liable for an assessment on the land sold, of which neither party had knowledge at the time of the sale. Kayser's Estate, 9 Pa. Dist. 360. So a will may be construed which disposes of personal and real estate by directing its conversion into money. Matter of Bogart, 43 N. Y. App. Div. 582, 60 N. Y. Suppl. 496. And where the court has once acquired jurisdiction of a cause it may determine the existence of a tax lien, and such defenses as can properly be interposed against it, and a homestead claim can be properly so interposed. George v. Ryon, 94 Tex. 317, 60 S. W. 427 [followed substantially in State v. Jordan, 25 Tex. Civ. App. 17, 60 S. W. 1008, 59 S. W. 826].

86. Hamm v. Hutchins, 19 Tex. Civ. App. 209, 46 S. W. 873.

Orphans' court may order sale of land. In re Goddard, 198 Pa. St. 454, 48 Atl. 404.

Probate court may sell both real and personal estate where required in administration of estate. Fitzwilliam v. Campbell, 99 Fed. 30, 39 C. C. A. 399, construing Texas statute.

87. Blackwell v. Blackwell, 86 Tex. 207, 24 S. W. 389.

May partition real property and sell real or personal property under a mortgage lien or other encumbrance. Gill v. Sealbridge, 17 Ohio Cir. Ct. 390, 9 Ohio Cir. Dec. 554. See also In re McCorkle, 184 Pa. St. 626, 39 Atl. 545; In re Nixon, 28 Pittsb. Leg. J. N. S. 112.

88. Gilmore's Estate, 81 Cal. 240, 22 Pac. 655.

89. Rich v. Tubbs, 41 Cal. 34.

Cannot divide homestead between widow and heirs, upon latter's petition. In re James, 23 Cal. 415.

90. Morse v. Morse, 42 Ind. 365.

91. Stewart v. Lohr, 1 Wash. 341, 25 Pac. 457, 22 Am. St. Rep. 150.

to property,[92] unless such question arises collaterally as a necessary incident to the determination of other matters which are within the court's jurisdiction.[93] Nor can such courts determine adverse claims to property in the administrator's charge,[94] adjudicate disputed rights against an estate,[95] compel on summary application, an administrator in possession of property to deliver it over to the owner,[96] order an executor to reconvey real estate, conveyed to the testator by deed absolute, but intended only as security,[97] award partition between a surviving tenant in common and the heirs of his deceased tenant in common,[98] order a seizure, from one claiming to hold under a good title, of goods said to belong to the intestate,[99] issue a writ of possession, after confirmation, of lands sold under its order,[1] set aside a decree transferring a mortgage, on the ground of title thereto in the petitioner,[2] or determine the rights of remainder, merely adjudging the interest of a legatee in the land subject to such remainder.[3]

B. Practice and Procedure — 1. In General. Under certain decisions, the practice of courts of chancery may be adopted by courts exercising probate jurisdiction.[4] The statutes may also affect or control the manner of exercise of jurisdiction;[5] again the court may proceed according to the course of the common law, except as modified by statute, and if general power is given by the statute, without prescribing the mode of its exercise, the court in its sound discretion must regulate the same.[6] Outside of these general principles the practice and 92. Arkansas.—Mobley v. Andrews, 55 Ark. 222, 17 S. W. 805.

Connecticut.—Mack's Appeal, 71 Conn. 122, 41 Atl. 242; Homer's Appeal, 35 Conn. 113.

Louisiana.— Schick v. Corbett, 52 La. Ann. 180, 26 So. 862; Breau v. Landry, 16 La. 88; Kemp v. Kemp, 15 La. 517; Kerr v. Kerr, 14 La. 177; Lavigne v. Chalambert, 11 La. 17; Overton v. Overton, 10 La. 466; Curtis v. Curtis, 3 La. 513; Sharp v. Knox, 2 La. 23; Reels v. Knight, 5 Mart. N. S. 9; Donaldson v. Dorsey, 4 Mart. N. S. 509; Harris v. McKee, 4 Mart. N. S. 485.

Maryland.— Daugherty v. Daugherty, 82 Md. 229, 33 Atl. 541; Gibson v. Cook, 62 Md. 256.

Missouri.— Smith v. Gilmore, 13 Mo. App. 155.

New York.— In re Walker, 136 N. Y. 20, 32 N. E. 633 [reversing 17 N. Y. Suppl. 666]; Doyle v. Doyle, 15 N. Y. St. 318, 28 N. Y. Wkly. Dig. 325.

Pennsylvania.— Rankin's Estate, 2 Pa. Co. Ct. 264; Ryan's Estate, 12 Phila. 153, 35 Leg. Int. 431.

Texas.— Edwards v. Mounts, 61 Tex. 398; Wise v. O'Malley, 60 Tex. 588; Hamm v. Hutchins, 19 Tex. Civ. App. 209, 46 S. W. 873; White v. White, 11 Tex. Civ. App. 113, 32 S. W. 48.

Washington.— Stewart v. Lohr, 1 Wash. 341, 25 Pac. 457, 22 Am. St. Rep. 150.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 478 et seq.

93. Schick v. Corbett, 52 La. Ann. 180, 26 So. 862.

94. Garver v. Richardson, 77 Mo. App. 459.

95. In re Singleton, 26 Nev. 106, 64 Pac. 513.

96. Marston v. Paulding, 10 Paige (N. Y.) 40.

97. Anderson v. Fisk, 41 Cal. 308.

98. Wilhelm's Estate, 6 Pa. Dist. 236, 18 Pa. Co. Ct. 637.

99. State v. Mitchell, 2 Bailey (S. C.) 225.

1. Porter v. Woodard, 5 Coldw. (Tenn.) 86.

2. Curran's Estate, 9 Pa. Co. Ct. 514.

3. Bramell v. Cole, 136 Mo. 201, 37 S. W. 924, 58 Am. St. Rep. 619.

4. Adams v. Adams, 81 Ill. App. 637; Guier v. Kelly, 2 Binn. (Pa.) 294; Ex p. Richards, 2 Brev. (S. C.) 375; Walsh v. Walsh, 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,117, 3 Cranch C. C. 651.

5. Murzynowski v. Delaware, etc., R. Co., 15 N. Y. Suppl. 841. And see Woodruff v. Cox, 2 Bradf. Surr. (N. Y.) 223. But see, however, Kohler v. Knapp, 1 Bradf. Surr. (N. Y.) 241.

But even though the statute may govern, yet in casus omissus the court should not decline jurisdiction because the law is silent as to the mode of exercise thereof, when it is apparent that a proper occasion to invoke the court's authority is shown. Kohler v. Knapp, 1 Bradf. Surr. (N. Y.) 241.

Surrogate's court may, by order to show cause, shorten time of notice of motion, regardless of whether the code is applicable to such court. In re Filley, 20 N. Y. Suppl. 427, 1 Pow. Surr. (N. Y.) 234.

There being no statutory provision, final disposition upon case stated cannot be made by the orphans' court. Holt's Estate, 11 Phila. (Pa.) 13, 32 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 29.

6. Campbell v. Logan, 2 Bradf. Surr. (N. Y.) 90. See Stover N. Y. Anno. Code Civ. Proc. § 2481, subs. 11, as to proceeding according to course and practice of a court of common-law jurisdiction.

In the absence of statutory directions it has been decided that the modes of procedure adopted by the English ecclesiastical courts were in force. Cowden v. Dobyns, 5 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 82.

Orphans' court is untrammeled by strict forms of common-law courts. In re Albright, 6 Lack. Leg. N. (Pa.) 108.

procedure of courts of probate jurisdiction is necessarily peculiar to the particular court, the jurisdiction of which is invoked, and no governing rule of value can be stated.[7]

2. Process, Parties, and Pleading. The statute may regulate the service of citations,[8] and authorize such courts to issue writs necessary in the exercise of their respective jurisdictions; and they may, in view of such statute or by virtue of their inherent powers, enforce their judgments by execution or other appropriate process.[9] Again it is decided that the technicalities of common-law pleadings do not obtain in orphans' courts,[10] and also that no formal pleadings are required in probate and like courts.[11]

3. Trial, Judgments, Orders, and Records. Courts of probate may under certain decisions summon a jury,[12] direct or award an issue,[13] judge the facts as a

7. The practice and procedure of probate courts need not be the same as district courts, in matters of concurrent jurisdiction. Nix v. Gilmer, 5 Okla. 740, 50 Pac. 131. See American F. Ins. Co. v. Pappe, 4 Okla. 110, 43 Pac. 1085.

Defects in procedure may be waived. Mack's Appeal, 71 Conn. 122, 41 Atl. 242.

District courts are governed by rules of practice applicable to former probate courts. In re Foley, 24 Nev. 197, 51 Pac. 834, 52 Pac. 649.

Surrogate's practice should conform with that of courts of record. Goulburn v. Sayre, 2 Redf. Surr. (N. Y.) 310. Nor can such courts relax or extend supreme court rules of practice. De Lamater v. Havens, 5 Dem. Surr. (N. Y.) 53. And as to conformity by surrogate with practice of courts of general jurisdiction see Cluff v. Tower, 3 Dem. Surr. (N. Y.) 253.

The court will of its own motion consider and dispose of the question of the superiority of the allowance to the widow, in lieu of a homestead, over the state's lien for taxes against the real estate set apart to her, and the probate court alone has jurisdiction to determine that question. George v. Ryon, 94 Tex. 317, 60 S. W. 427.

8. Koch's Estate, 12 N. Y. Suppl. 94, 19 N. Y. Civ. Proc. 165.

9. Yeoman v. Younger, 83 Mo. 424.

So a court of probate jurisdiction with equity powers can by its power summon before it all parties concerned, and is not bound by the forms of the common-law courts. In re Albright, 6 Lack. Leg. N. (Pa.) 108.

New parties.—It is determined that the New York code provisions, as to the introduction of new parties to a pending suit and regulating proceedings upon the transfer of the interest of a party thereto, do not apply to surrogate's courts. Tilden v. Dows, 2 Dem. Surr. (N. Y.) 489. Orphans' court cannot permit any one to intervene in issue granted Whitaker's Estate, 14 Phila. (Pa.) 289, 38 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 214.

10. Strashaugh v. Dallam, 63 Md. 712, 50 Atl. 417.

11. Bellows v. Cheek, 20 Ark. 424; Charles v. Eshleman, 5 Colo. 107; Williams v. Gerber, 75 Mo. App. 18; Brown v. Hobbs, 19 Tex. 167.

Applications for relief on the probate side of a county court, in matters within the exclusive jurisdiction of that court, are suits in equity, and are governed by the general rules of pleading applicable to such suits. Genau v. Abbott, (Nebr. 1903) 93 N. W. 942.

Facts on which order is founded need not be set forth in petition, verified by affidavit. Grier's Appeal, 25 Pa. St. 352.

If party elects to file written plea, it must be signed as required by rules of special pleading. Bellows v. Cheek, 20 Ark. 424.

May grant relief consistent with case made, without prayer for relief, different from that asked for; not limited to granting or refusing precise relief asked. Brook v. Chappell, 34 Wis. 405.

No pleadings on claims presented to auditors are required, and objection may be taken on terms. Matter of Linn, 2 Pearson (Pa.) 487. See Charles v. Eshleman, 5 Colo. 107.

On mere motion or petition for rehearing, a final decree may be corrected as to clerical errors, etc. Bishop's Appeal, 26 Pa. St. 470.

Statutes contemplate that complaint or exceptions be filed by person wishing to contest. Brown v. Hobbs, 19 Tex. 167.

Statutory provision that all applications shall be in writing is directory merely. Robbins v. Tafft, 12 R. I. 67.

Verbal statement that title is in issue will oust the court of jurisdiction. Pickering v. Pickering, 21 N. H. 537.

When declaration must be filed see Wallace v. Elder, 5 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 143.

Written pleadings are unnecessary when a claim is presented for allowance in the probate court. Thomson v. Barker, 102 Ill. App. 304 [affirmed in (Ill. 1902) 65 N. E. 1092].

12. As to the right to summon a jury see Driver v. Hudspeth, 16 Ala. 348; Savage v. Dickson, 16 Ala. 256; Colorado Springs Co. v. Hewitt, 3 Colo. 275.

13. Price's Appeal, 116 Pa. St. 410, 9 Atl. 856; In re Krug, 13 York Leg. Rec. (Pa.) 163; In re Yohu, 17 Lanc. L. Rev. 52; In re Millar, 18 Lanc. Bar (Pa.) 206. See further as to granting or directing an issue Wallace v. Elder, 5 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 143; Clendaniel's Estate, 13 Phila. (Pa.) 248, 36 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 278; Evans' Estate, 11 Phila. (Pa.) 113, 33 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 45; South's Estate, 11 Phila. (Pa.) 107, 32 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 456; Clendaniel's Estate, 11 Phila. (Pa.) 50, 32 court,[14] dismiss actions,[15] pass upon requests to find questions of law or fact,[16] and pass upon evidence, either under the general rules of common law or of those prescribed by statute,[17] although it is decided that equitable defenses cannot be considered.[18] But if the court has equity powers it can make such orders as justice demands.[19] Again probate and like courts may under the statute or by virtue of their inherent powers make the necessary orders to effectuate their jurisdiction,[20] and their valid decrees are as lawful and binding as those of any other court and cannot be attacked except on appeal,[21] although the record should be made up in compliance with the requirements of the law.[22]

4. Revisory Power Over Orders and Decrees; Appeals, Bills of Review, Etc. Courts of probate jurisdiction have the power, at least in a certain degree, to open, review, modify, correct, vacate, and set aside their orders and decrees, or a revisory power exists over such orders or decrees by way of new trial, appeal, or bill of review;[23] the extent to which this power may be exercised varying accord-

Leg. Int. (Pa.) 117; Hill's Estate, 9 Phila. (Pa.) 355, 31 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 204.

14. Okeson's Appeal, 2 Grant (Pa.) 303. See also Keller v. Franklin, 5 Cal. 432, as to the right of the judge of former probate to try issues of fact.

15. Banks v. Uhl, 6 Nebr. 145.

16. Matter of Hoyt, 5 Dem. Surr. (N. Y.) 284; Hartwell v. McMaster, 4 Redf. Surr. (N. Y.) 389.

Decision in writing stating separately facts found and conclusion of law must be filed by surrogate in his office. Matter of Kaufman, 14 N. Y. Suppl. 901; Matter of Peck, 14 N. Y. Suppl. 899; Falls v. Falls, 10 N. Y. Suppl. 41.

17. Eveleth v. Crouch, 15 Mass. 307. See People v. Coffin, 7 Hun (N. Y.) 608; Hoyt v. Jackson, 2 Dem. Surr. (N. Y.) 443.

Surrogate may continue proceedings and consider testimony taken before his predecessor as well as that before himself. Reeve v. Crosby, 3 Redf. Surr. (N. Y.) 74.

18. Young v. Purdy, 4 Dem. Surr. (N. Y.) 455; Gardner v. Gardner, 10 R. I. 211. See as to equitable jurisdiction supra, X, A, 2.

19. In re Albright, 6 Lack. Leg. N. (Pa.) 108.

20. Yeoman v. Younger, 83 Mo. 424.

Mere verbal order is of no effect, allowing administratrix to take property returned in the inventory at the appraisement. Scott v. Fox, 14 Md. 388.

No power to inflict fine and then commit under statute giving power to enforce all lawful orders, processes, etc., by attachment of person. In re Watson, 5 Lans. (N. Y.) 466.

21. Gates v. Treat, 17 Conn. 388.

22. Tidd v. Rines, 26 Minn. 201, 2 N. W. 497 (use of seal not essential); McNaughton v. Chave, 5 Abb. N. Cas. (N. Y.) 225 (holding that surrogate must sign his decrees, that successor cannot sign for him, and that his clerk cannot file unsigned decree or otherwise make it valid); Espie's Estate, 2 Redf. Surr. (N. Y.) 445 (decree void for defect of surrogate; holding also that on application to surrogate to sign record of incompleted business of predecessor, consent or an opportunity to be heard should be given); Hartman's Appeal, 21 Pa. St. 488 (decrees and orders need not be drawn up at length during session). See also Roderigas v. East River Sav. Inst., 76 N. Y. 316, 32 Am. Rep. 290 [affirming 43 N. Y. Super. Ct. 217].

Nunc pro tunc entry.— Where orders and proceedings of a probate court were omitted from the minutes, the court has power to order that they be entered nunc pro tunc with the same effect as though entered in the first place. Alexander v. Barton, (Tex. Civ. App. 1902) 71 S. W. 71.

23. Thus if a void decree is rendered the court should be petitioned to set it aside and vacate the same (Vaughan v. Suggs, 82 Ala. 357, 2 So. 32); and although the power to vacate judgments after the term may not exist, yet the statute may change the rule in certain matters (Desha County v. Newman, 33 Ark. 788); so an application may properly be made for an order vacating and annulling a grant of administration on the estate of a living person, supposed to be dead (Stevenson v. San Francisco Super. Ct., 62 Cal. 60); and where equitable powers are possessed in probate matters orders for allowances may be set aside, after the term, for fraud or mistake (Schlink v. Maxton, 48 Ill. App. 471). So the court may pass upon the nullity or rescission of its own decrees or judgments (Darse v. Leaumont, 5 Rob. (La.) 284; Harty v. Harty, 8 Mart. N. S. (La.) 518) and may within a reasonable time revoke or correct an order of ratification of a sale procured by honest mistake or by deceit (Montgomery v. Williamson, 37 Md. 421). So the power exists independent of the statute to revoke letters testamentary or of administration when issued without jurisdiction, or irregularly, illegally, or for a special cause which has ceased to exist. Morgan v. Dodge, 44 N. H. 255, 82 Am. Dec. 213. And the surrogate, in court or out of court, has power to open, vacate, modify, or set aside, or to enter as of a former time, a decree or order of his court; or to grant a new trial or a new hearing for fraud, newly discovered evidence, clerical error, or other sufficient cause. But such power must be exercised only in a like case and in the same manner, as a court of record and of general jurisdiction exercises the same ing to the nature and scope of the jurisdiction possessed or conferred, as well also as upon specific statutory regulations expressly governing such matters. But in certain decisions such authority is denied, while in other cases it is declared to be limited, and in still others it does not include questions of law but merely those of fact, mistake, errors, fraud, and the like.[24] powers. In re Flynn, 136 N. Y. 287, 32 N. E. 767 [affirming 20 N. Y. Suppl. 919]; Campbell v. Thatcher, 54 Barb. (N. Y.) 382; Matter of Gilman, 7 N. Y. St. 321; Matter of Olmsted, 17 Abb. N. Cas. (N. Y.) 320, 4 Dem. Surr. (N. Y.) 44; Brick's Estate, 15 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 12; Gay v. Monroe Gen. Sess., 12 Wend. (N. Y.) 272; Pew v. Hastings, 1 Barb. Ch. (N. Y.) 452; Janssen v. Wemple, 3 Redf. Surr. (N. Y.) 229; In re Espie, 2 Redf. Surr. (N. Y.) 445; 1 E. D. Smith (N. Y.) xvii; Campbell v. Logan, 2 Bradf. Surr. (N. Y.) 90). So a verdict on an issue directed by the orphans' court is no more binding than an auditor's report, for the court is bound to revise it (In re Krug, 13 York Leg. Rec. (Pa.) 163), and error in its original decree may be corrected either under or independent of statute (In re Burbaker, 4 Lanc. L. Rev. 90). So its adjudications may be revised for manifest error either of its own fault or of that of the parties (Milne's Appeal, 99 Pa. St. 483); nor is the power to correct its own decree in case of fraud, accident, or mistake restricted or taken away by the statutory protection of accountants (Hattrick's Estate, 13 Phila. (Pa.) 275, 36 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 436), and a question may be reopened to determine whether a judgment in a tax-lien suit is not entitled to priority over the widow's homestead claim (State v. Jordan, 25 Tex. Civ. App. 17, 59 S. W. 826, 60 S. W. 1008), and as long as the cause is pending the power exists to reopen and reëxamine former decrees and to correct all errors, irregularities, and mistakes (French v. Winsor, 24 Vt. 402). So apparent errors in former decrees or errors conceded by the parties or proved beyond all doubt may on petition be corrected at any time short of twenty years. Smith v. Rix, 9 Vt. 240. So where their orders and process conflict with statutory requirements courts review, correct, and annul the same. Brunson v. Burnett, 2 Pinn. (Wis.) 185, 1 Chandl. (Wis.) 136.

24. Thus where the court acts judicially it cannot set aside judgment after term. Brandenburg v. State, 24 Ark. 50. So a final decree distributing an entire estate vests the title in the distributees until modified or reversed on appeal, and pending the same the court can make no further order or different disposition of the estate. In re Garraud, 36 Cal. 277. Nor when the court has directed a certain payment can it thereafter direct nonpayment without notice to relator to appear and resist such order (Johnson v. State, 1 Ga. 271); nor has the surrogate any general revisory power on the ground that it erred as to the law or decided erroneously upon the facts, such revisory power being vested in the appellate court (Campbell v. Thatcher, 54 Barb. (N. Y.) 382; Brick's Estate, 15 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 12; Farmers' L. & T. Co. v. Hill, 4 Dem. Surr. (N. Y.) 41); nor can the surrogate grant a reargument of questions finally determined and disposed of by his predecessor (Melcher v. Stevens, 1 Dem. Surr. (N. Y.) 123); nor revoke his decision in a matter not included within the statute (Munro's Estate, 15 Abb. Pr. (N. Y.) 363), since the right of such courts to revoke their acts exists only to a limited extent as indispensable to the administration of justice (Campbell v. Thatcher, 54 Barb. (N. Y.) 382), and the power to vacate a judgment after the term for fraud, erroneous proceedings, etc., is restricted (Johnson v. Johnson, 26 Ohio St. 357). Again the probate court having entered a final decree cannot enter a second final decree in the same matter so as to revive a lapsed right of appeal (Harvey v. Wait, 10 Oreg. 117); nor can a confirmed sale be declared void (Young v. Shumate, 3 Sneed (Tenn.) 369).

Appeal, new trial, or writ of error.— It is decided in Colorado that the statute of 1885 as to notice, etc., in appeals does not apply to probate cases (Pennsylvania Mortg. Trust Co. v. Elliott, 19 Colo. 394, 35 Pac. 914; Lusk v. Kershow, 17 Colo. 481, 30 Pac. 62), although an appeal from a justice of the supreme court in the District of Columbia is to be taken in the same manner as an appeal from his action in holding any other than a special orphans' court (Keyser v. Breitbarth, 2 Mackey (D. C.) 332), and an appeal-bond properly executed may be sufficiently delivered from a distant county by mail (Harvey v. Allen, 94 Ga. 454, 19 S. E. 246). Where a statute provides for appeals to the circuit courts from orders of the county court in probate matters an appeal will not lie to the appellate court from such an order. Stull v. Stull, 68 Ill. App. 389. See Boyce v. Stull, 68 Ill. App. 392. See also as to procedure for review by appeal or writ of error of decrees of probate court Lynn v. Lynn, 160 Ill. 307, 43 N. E. 482. Again a palpable abuse of the surrogate's discretion in admitting evidence is reviewable on appeal. People v. Coffin, 7 Hun (N. Y.) 608. So an appeal lies in Utah to the district court from a judgment of the probate court refusing to remove, upon the heirs' petition, an administrator for alleged misconduct. Matter of Reese, 9 Utah 171, 33 Pac. 698.

Bill of review.— See Martin's Estate, 7 Pa. Dist. 408. See further as to bill of review Austin v. Lamar, 23 Miss. 189; Cowden v. Dobyns, 5 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 82; Harris v. Fisher, 5 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 74; Fortson v. Alford, 62 Tex. 576, correction by bill of review of judgment procured by fraud.

XI. COURTS OF APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

A. Grounds and Exercise of Jurisdiction — 1. In General. Although appellate jurisdiction may depend upon the nature of the cause of action,[25] and while it may be generally stated that where an appellate court is one of last resort it is the exclusive judge of its own jurisdiction,[26] still jurisdiction over an appeal cannot be taken under an unconstitutional statute,[27] nor can the legislature confer on the supreme court jurisdiction not given by the constitution.[28]

2. Manner of Exercise. The supreme court must exercise directly conferred power in a constitutional manner,[29] even though no rule of procedure applicable to the particular case is prescribed by statute.[30]

B. Appellate Courts of Particular States — 1. Alabama — a. Supreme Court. Except in the cases otherwise directed in the constitution the supreme court has appellate jurisdiction only, which is coextensive with the state, under such restrictions and regulations, not repugnant to the constitution, as may from time to time be prescribed by law; provided that such court shall have power to issue writs of injunction, habeas corpus, quo warranto, and other such remedial and original writs as may be necessary to give it general superintendence and control of inferior jurisdictions.[31]

b. Other Courts. The circuit court has appellate jurisdiction of all civil actions cognizable before a justice of the peace, and in such other cases as may be provided by law, and may exercise a general superintendence over all inferior jurisdictions,[32] and courts of chancery with appellate jurisdiction may be established by the legislature.[33]

25. Kinnear v. Jones, 24 Mo. 83; Norris v. Nesbit, 123 N. Y. 650, 25 N. E. 377, 3 Silv. App. (N. Y.) 183.

26. Hailey First Nat. Bank v. Lewis, 13 Utah 507, 45 Pac. 890. See Kramer v. Toledo, etc., R. Co., 53 Ohio St. 436, 42 N. E. 252; State v. King County Super. Ct., 24 Wash. 605, 64 Pac. 778; Milwaukee v. Simons, 93 Wis. 576, 67 N. W. 922.

27. Hauser v. Farrell, (N. J. Sup. 1900) 46 Atl. 784.

28. Winsor v. Bridges, 24 Wash. 540, 64 Pac. 780.

29. State v. Moores, 56 Nebr. 1, 76 N. W. 530 [reversed in 58 Nebr. 285, 78 N. W. 529].

30. State v. Moores, 56 Nebr. 1, 76 N. W. 530 [reversed in 58 Nebr. 285, 78 N. W. 529].

But a distinction seems to exist between power conferred by the constitution and that conferred by statute over the subject-matter, since in the former instance an appellate court may prescribe the mode and rules and regulations for bringing a case before it on error but not on appeal to be tried de novo, while in the latter instance where such statute prescribes no method for bringing a cause before it on appeal or error it acquires no jurisdiction and can provide no method. State v. Hanousek, 19 Ohio Cir. Ct. 303, 10 Ohio Cir. Dec. 516.

31. Ala. Const. (1875), art. 6, § 2; State v. Savage, 89 Ala. 1, 7 So. 7, 183, 7 L. R. A. 426; Ex p. Pearson, 76 Ala. 521; Ex p. Floyd, 40 Ala. 116; Lewis v. Lewis, Minor (Ala.) 35; State v. Flinn, Minor (Ala.) 8.

Such jurisdiction includes chancery causes (Lewis v. Lewis, Minor (Ala.) 35), and an appeal may be directly taken to such court from any inferior tribunal which has original, general, and unlimited jurisdiction of the cause of action (Ex p. Boynton, 44 Ala. 261). But its jurisdiction as to writs (Ex p. Pearson, 76 Ala. 521; Ex p. Peterson, 33 Ala. 74; Ex p. Pickett, 24 Ala. 91; Ex p. Simonton, 9 Port. (Ala.) 383; Davis v. Tuscumbia, etc., R. Co., 4 Stew. & P. (Ala.) 421) is revisory and can only be exercised when justice requires it for the purpose of such control, and the necessity does not exist where another court or judge has the power to issue such writs. It is necessary therefore to apply in the first instance to the lower court in certain cases (Ex p. Henderson, 43 Ala. 392; Ex p. Floyd, 40 Ala. 116; Ex p. Croon, 19 Ala. 561; Ex p. Tarlton, 2 Ala. 35; State v. Williams, 1 Ala. 342; Ex p. Mansony, 1 Ala. 98), especially so where the lower court is an appellate tribunal (State v. Hewlett, 124 Ala. 471, 27 So. 18; Ex p. Russell, 29 Ala. 717. But see Ex p. Burnett, 30 Ala. 461).

It is not an assumption of original jurisdiction to give summary judgment on motion against the securities in writ-of-error bonds. Johnston v. Atwood, 2 Stew. (Ala.) 225.

The legislature cannot prescribe the manner of exercising supervisory jurisdiction as to writs, etc. Ex p. Candee, 48 Ala. 386.

Proceedings before the register must first be acted on by the chancellor, and from his rulings only can an appeal be taken to the supreme court. Rogers v. Prattville Mfg. Co., 81 Ala. 483, 1 So. 643, 60 Am. Rep. 171.

32. Ala. Civ. Code (1896), § 918, subds. 2, 3.

33. Ala. Const. (1875), art. 6, § 7.

Injunctions returnable into courts of chancery may be issued. Ala. Code (1896), § 784.

2. Arkansas — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court, except in cases otherwise provided by the constitution, has appellate jurisdiction only, which is coextensive with the state, under such restrictions as may from time to time be prescribed by law. It also has a general superintending control over all inferior courts of law and equity; and in aid of its appellate and supervisory jurisdiction it has power to issue writs of errors and supersedeas, certiorari, habeas corpus, prohibition, mandamus, and quo warranto, and other remedial writs and to hear and determine the same, and its judges have likewise power to issue said writs. In the exercise of its original jurisdiction it may also issue writs of quo warranto to the circuit judges and chancellors when created, and to officers of political corporations when the question involved is the legal existence of such corporations.[34]

b. Circuit Courts. The circuit courts exercise superintending control and appellate jurisdiction over county, probate, court of common pleas, and corporation courts and justices of the peace, and have power to issue, hear, and determine all the necessary writs to carry into effect their general and specific powers, and any of said writs may be issued upon order of the judge of the appropriate court in vacation.[35]

3. California — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has appellate jurisdiction in all cases in equity except such as arise in justices' courts;[36] also in all cases at law which involve the title or possession[37] of real estate, or the legality Settlement of decedent's estate.— Chancery may correct errors of law or of fact occurring in the settlement of a decedent's estate. Ala. Code (1896), §§ 805, 807.

Although a circuit court may have a general supervisory jurisdiction over inferior courts it cannot mandamus a probate judge of a county in another judicial district (Dunbar v. Frazer, 78 Ala. 529), nor can it issue a supersedeas to an execution of the probate court, although it has to issue a mandamus to it (Ex p. Peterson, 33 Ala. 74).

34. Ark. Const. (1874), art. 7, §§ 4, 5; Massey-Herndon Shoe Co. v. Powell, 64 Ark. 514, 43 S. W. 506 (constitution confers no jurisdiction to hear and determine a motion for a summary judgment against a sheriff for failure to return an execution directed to and received by such sheriff); Ex p. Snoddy, 44 Ark. 221 (constitution confers original jurisdiction to issue writs of quo warranto and in all other cases the jurisdiction is appellate and such court cannot by mandamus compel a clerk of a circuit court to perform a legal duty which the judge is by reason of interest disqualified to perform); Ex p. Batesville, etc., R. Co., 39 Ark. 82; Price v. Page, 25 Ark. 527; Jones v. Little Rock, 25 Ark. 284 (power is limited to writs enumerated and such other remedial writs as are proper or necessary to the exercise of the court's supervisory jurisdiction, but the court cannot issue an injunction upon an original bill); Ex p. Crise, 16 Ark. 193; Ex p. Allis, 12 Ark. 101 (no jurisdiction to compel by mandamus inspectors of penitentiary to certify to auditor quarterly compensation of contractor); Ex p. Jones, 2 Ark. 93 (can issue only enumerated writs and cannot enjoin proceedings at law in inferior court); State v. Ashley, 1 Ark. 279 (no jurisdiction of an information in the nature of a quo warranto).

A removal directly into the supreme court by writ of error from a city court is not permitted. Hall v. State, 1 Ark. 201.

The original jurisdiction has been decided to be only such as is necessary to exercise a general control over all the courts and does not extend to cases where other courts have implied jurisdiction over the writ sought to be issued. Ex p. Allis, 12 Ark. 101.

35. Ark. Const. (1874), art. 7, § 14.

Statutes are constitutional providing for such appellate jurisdiction. Miller v. Heard, 6 Ark. 73.

Circuit courts have appellate jurisdiction from judgments of county courts (Dodson v. Ft. Smith, 33 Ark. 508), and have superintending control over county courts and justices of the peace (Carnall v. Crawford County, 11 Ark. 604; Levy v. Lychinski, 8 Ark. 113). Such control is of the same character as exercised by the court of king's bench of England over inferior courts, but not to the same extent. Carnall v. Crawford County, 11 Ark. 604. But in exercising such control they cannot adjudicate any cause determined in such county courts, etc. Levy v. Lychinski, 8 Ark. 113.

36. Edsall v. Short, 122 Cal. 533, 55 Pac. 327. See Raisch v. Sausalito Land, etc., Co., 131 Cal. 215, 63 Pac. 346.

37. Possession.—Title to land involved cannot be based upon the statement of counsel as a substitute for matter of record. Raisch v. Sausalito Land, etc., Co., 131 Cal. 215, 63 Pac. 346. But complaint may aver ownership of land and it is sufficient. Boyd v. Southern California R. Co., 126 Cal. 571, 58 Pac. 1046. And where the nature of the action is such that plaintiff must show ownership or at least possession, and issue thereon is raised by the pleadings, defendant's appeal need not raise the question of ownership or of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine,[38] or in which the demand, exclusive of interest, or the value of the property in controversy, amounts to three hundred dollars;[39] also in cases of forcible entry and detainer, and in proceedings in insolvency, and in actions to prevent or abate a nuisance, and in all such probate[40] matters as may be provided by law. The court also has power to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, and habeas corpus, and all other writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its appellate jurisdiction.[41] Each of the justices may likewise issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the state.[42]

b. Superior Courts. The superior courts have appellate jurisdiction in such cases arising in justices' and other inferior courts in their respective counties as may be provided by law,[43] and they are limited in the exercise of their jurisdiction to the extent and mode which the legislature prescribes.[44]

4. Colorado — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court, except as otherwise provided by the constitution, has appellate jurisdiction only,[45] which is coextensive with the state, and has general superintending control over all inferior courts, under such regulations and limitations as may be prescribed by law. It also has possession, and the supreme court has appellate jurisdiction. Baker v. Southern California R. Co., 110 Cal. 455, 42 Pac. 975.

38. People v. Horsley, 65 Cal. 381, 4 Pac. 384. But a fine for wrongfully collecting toll is not within the appellate jurisdiction of the supreme court. People v. Johnson, 30 Cal. 98.

39. Amount.— The supreme court has appellate jurisdiction over superior court judgments only in those cases in which that court is entitled to exercise original jurisdiction and cannot review its action where it exercises only an appellate jurisdiction. So that where plaintiff's demand is less than three hundred dollars the superior court has no original jurisdiction to try the cause unless a question apparent of record exists of which the constitution gives such superior court jurisdiction, and where no such question is involved and the amount is less than three hundred dollars and has come before the superior court on appeal from a justice of the peace, the superior court's judgment is final and not subject to review by the supreme court. Raisch v. Sausalito Land, etc., Co., 131 Cal. 215, 63 Pac. 346. See also Edsall v. Short, 122 Cal. 533, 55 Pac. 327; Ertle v. Placer County, (Cal. 1896) 44 Pac. 229; Wheeler v. Donnell, 110 Cal. 655, 43 Pac. 1; Maxfield v. Johnson, 30 Cal. 545. But where title to real property is involved the fact that the amount is less than three hundred dollars, and that the suit was commenced in a justice's court, has been decided not to deprive the supreme court of appellate jurisdiction. Doherty v. Thayer, 31 Cal. 140.

40. Keller v. Franklin, 5 Cal. 432.

41. Issuance of writs and original jurisdiction.— A statute which organizes the supreme court and confers upon it original jurisdiction as to writs not within the constitutional grant of power is invalid (Ex p. People, 1 Cal. 85); and the enumeration of writs does not change as to original jurisdiction the provision of the old constitution which uses the words "and also all the writs necessary" (Hyatt v. Allen, 54 Cal. 353). So the supreme court cannot grant a petition for an original injunction upon appeal from a judgment to restrain threatened acts under such judgment, which acts amount only to a threatened trespass. Rose v. Mesmer, 131 Cal. 631, 63 Pac. 1010. Appellate jurisdiction in cases of mandamus also existed even though the constitution contained no provision therefor (Palache v. Hunt, 64 Cal. 473, 2 Pac. 245), and original jurisdiction also existed therefor (Tyler v. Houghton, 25 Cal. 26) as necessary to carry such appellate powers into effect and an inferior tribunal may be compelled to determine a proper cause (Purcell v. McKune, 14 Cal. 230).

Special causes.— The supreme court may entertain an appeal in special causes, such as a proceeding to condemn land. Stockton, etc., R. Co. v. Galgiani, 49 Cal. 139. It has also appellate jurisdiction over election contest in county court. Knowles v. Yates, 31 Cal. 82.

42. Cal. Const. art. 6, § 4.

The constitution establishes one supreme court, although it exercises jurisdiction coördinately either in department or in banc; but the court in banc exercises supervisory jurisdiction over the action of the court in department, the exercise of which by the justices of the court may be without a distinct order that the cause be heard in banc. So the department which rendered a judgment, the court in banc, or the justices, may reconsider the cause, modify, correct, or vacate the judgment, even of their own motion, although there is a constitutional provision as to hearing in banc of causes determined in department. Niles v. Edwards, 95 Cal. 41, 30 Pac. 134.

43. Cal. Const. art. 6, § 5. See Cal. Code Civ. Proc. §§ 75, 77.

On an appeal from a court without jurisdiction to the superior court which has original jurisdiction the irregular manner of obtaining jurisdiction does not affect the cause. Santa Barbara v. Eldred, 95 Cal. 378, 30 Pac. 562.

44. Sherer v. Lassen County Super. Ct., 94 Cal. 354, 29 Pac. 716.

45. The constitution confers no original jurisdiction to hear and determine a controversy power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, quo warranto,[46] certiorari,[47] injunction, and other original and remedial writs, with authority to hear and determine the same; and each judge has like power and authority as to writs of habeas corpus. The court is further required to give its opinion upon important questions upon solemn occasions when required by the governor, the senate, or the house of representatives,[48] and such opinions must be published with the reported decisions.[49] Again writs of error from, or appeals to, the supreme court lie to review every final judgment of the court of appeals in cases which might have been taken to the supreme court in the first instance.[50] And such court between rival political factions as to the party name and emblem. Whipple v. Stevenson, 25 Colo. 447, 55 Pac. 188. Nor will original jurisdiction be taken as to mandamus, except in causes involving questions publici juris. People v. Arapahoe County Dist. Ct., 22 Colo. 280, 44 Pac. 506. See Wheeler v. Northern Colorado Irr. Co., 9 Colo. 248, 11 Pac. 103. Nor can injunction issue from such court to restrain the secretary of state from delivering certificates of election to public officers where trial of title thereto is required. People v. McClees, 20 Colo. 403, 38 Pac. 468, 26 L. R. A. 646. Nor does a petition at the instance of owners of irrigated land and praying an injunction against polluting waters present a cause publici juris. People v. Rogers, 12 Colo. 278, 20 Pac. 702. Nor where the writs of the supreme court are invoked primarily for the enforcement of a private right, although questions publici juris may be indirectly or remotely involved, will the supreme court entertain jurisdiction, except in causes presenting some special or peculiar exigency, or where the interest of the state at large is directly involved, or its sovereignty violated, or the liberty of its citizens menaced, or where the usurpation of the alleged use of its prerogatives or franchises is the principal and not the collateral question. Wheeler v. Northern Colorado Irr. Co., 9 Colo. 248, 11 Pac. 103. Nor has such court original jurisdiction of condemnation proceedings. Denver, etc., R. Co. v. Lamborn, 9 Colo. 119, 10 Pac. 797. But original jurisdiction in quo warranto proceedings exists, notwithstanding the repeal of Rev. Stat. c. 73, and the enactment of a code remedy. People v. Boughton, 5 Colo. 487.

If original jurisdiction is invoked causes should be brought in the name of the people and the person instituting the same should appear as relator. Wheeler v. Northern Colorado Irr. Co., 9 Colo. 248, 11 Pac. 103.

The supreme court may of its own motion notice its jurisdiction to entertain appeals. McCarthy v. Crump, 28 Colo. 398, 65 Pac. 49.

46. People v. American Smelting, etc., Co., 30 Colo. 275, 70 Pac. 413.

47. Certiorari will not lie to review a judgment of the court of appeals where it has jurisdiction to review the judgment of the trial court, even though its judgment is erroneous, unless the court of appeals has clearly refused to be guided by the law set forth in prior decisions of the supreme court; nor will the supreme court review the determination of the court of appeals where the latter has never passed upon a question raised in the trial court; nor will such review be had where the decision of the court of appeals is not contrary to any decision of the supreme court (People v. Court of Appeals, 28 Colo. 442, 65 Pac. 42; People v. Court of Appeals, 27 Colo. 405, 61 Pac. 592, 51 L. R. A. 105); nor where certain insufficiencies in the record to the court of appeals is alleged, where the opinion of the latter court shows that the cause was submitted on an amended abstract, which contained facts sufficient to entitle the court to determine the cause; nor where the court of appeals considered the former decisions of the supreme court, but based its decision on peculiar facts not existing in such prior decisions (People v. Court of Appeals, 27 Colo. 405, 61 Pac. 592, 51 L. R. A. 105).

48. The supreme court will not generally give its opinion as to the constitutionality of a pending bill or of a provision thereof, where the conditions do not warrant such exercise of power, or where the opinion does not concern matters publici juris but solely private rights of persons (In re Senate Bill No. 27, 28 Colo. 359, 65 Pac. 50; In re House Bill No. 495, 26 Colo. 182, 56 Pac. 900; In re House Bill No. 99, 26 Colo. 140, 56 Pac. 181); nor review its previous decision as to the constitutionality of a provision in a bill (In re Senate Bill No. 142, 26 Colo. 167, 56 Pac. 564); nor decide questions of liability under existing statutes by an opinion as to constitutionality of a pending bill (In re Senate Bill No. 196, 23 Colo. 508, 48 Pac. 540); nor answer ex parte interrogatories of the governor affecting certain private rights of persons (In re State Lands, 27 Colo. 99, 60 Pac. 345; In re State Bd. of Equalization, 25 Colo. 296, 53 Pac. 1056). See further as to what submission must show or as to form of inquiry In re House Bill No. 107, 21 Colo. 32, 39 Pac. 431; In re Eight-Hour Bill, 21 Colo. 29, 39 Pac. 328; In re Loan of School Fund, 18 Colo. 195, 32 Pac. 273; In re House Bill No. 165, 15 Colo. 593, 595, 26 Pac. 141.

49. Colo. Const. art. 6, §§ 1, 2; Mills Anno. Stat. Colo. § 1091.

50. Colo. Laws (1891), p. 121, § 15; Mills Anno. Stat. Colo. pp. 319, 320, § 1002.

A decree declaring one lien subordinate to another and overruling a demurrer is not appealable from a district to a supreme court. Fisher v. Hanna, 21 Colo. 9, 39 Pac. 420.

Divorce and alimony.—The supreme court has no jurisdiction to review on its merits an appeal from a dismissal of an appeal in divorce proceedings by the court of appeals.

does not lose jurisdiction to review a final judgment of a county court because of a review had in the court of appeals.[51] The supreme court may also review a decree of the county court affirmed by the court of appeals where the jurisdiction does not depend upon the nature of the controversy, but attaches by reason of the rendition of the judgment by the county court.[52] Again the supreme court has appellate jurisdiction where the judgment exceeds two thousand five hundred dollars[53] or the matter relates to a franchise or a freehold or requires or involves the construction of a federal or state constitutional question, otherwise not.[54] In order, however, to bring a case within the exception, the construction of the constitutional question must appear to be necessary to a decision of the case, and that it was construed adversely to appellant.[55] But all questions necessary to a complete determination of the matters involved may be considered by the supreme court where a constitutional question exists or has been found necessary to be decided by the inferior court.[56]

b. Court of Appeals. The court of appeals has jurisdiction to review the final judgments of inferior courts of record in all civil cases where the judgment, or in replevin the value found is two thousand five hundred dollars or less exclusive of costs. It has jurisdiction not final in cases where the controversy involves a franchise or freehold, or where the construction of a provision of the constitution of the state or of the United States is necessary to a decision of the case. Writs of error from, or appeals to, the court of appeals lie to review final judgments within the same time and in the same manner as is or may be provided by law for such reviews by the supreme court.[57]

Mercer v. Mercer, 27 Colo. 216, 60 Pac. 349. See also Smith v. Smith, 24 Colo. 113, 48 Pac. 811.

51. Crawford v. Brown, 21 Colo. 272, 40 Pac. 692. But see Altman v. Huffman, 30 Colo. 278, 70 Pac. 420.

52. Bitter v. Mouat Lumber, etc., Co., 27 Colo. 120, 59 Pac. 403 [affirming 10 Colo. App. 307, 51 Pac. 519].

In actions relating to real property the judgment of the court from which the appeal is taken and not the relief sought determines the jurisdiction of the supreme court. Weiss v. Gullett, 29 Colo. 121, 67 Pac. 155.

53. People v. Carver, 19 Colo. 86, 34 Pac. 576, holding that error does not lie to a judgment of the district court for usurpation of public office.

The primary object of a suit has been held material in so far as the necessary amount requisite to confer jurisdiction is concerned. St. Joe, etc., Min. Co. v. Aspen First Nat. Bank, 24 Colo. 537, 52 Pac. 678. But if a suit is substantially one in replevin, uncontroverted allegations of value do not confer jurisdiction on the supreme court where the judgment finds no value. Denver First Nat. Bank v. Follett, 27 Colo. 512, 62 Pac. 361. So although a cause is transferred by stipulation, this does not confer jurisdiction upon the supreme court unless requirements as to jurisdictional amount exist. Denver v. Marselis, 29 Colo. 79, 66 Pac. 887.

54. Weiss v. Gullett, 29 Colo. 121, 67 Pac. 155; Denver First Nat. Bank v. Montrose County, 29 Colo. 114, 66 Pac. 890; Park v. Park, 28 Colo. 447, 65 Pac. 38; Board of Public Works v. Denver Tel. Co., 28 Colo. 401, 65 Pac. 35; McCarthy v. Crump, 28 Colo. 398, 65 Pac. 49; Murto v. King, 28 Colo. 357, 64 Pac. 184; Jossey v. Atchison, etc., R. Co., 28 Colo. 248, 64 Pac. 188; Campbell v. West, 28 Colo. 160, 63 Pac. 300; Hahn's Peak, etc., Min. Co. v. Lees, 28 Colo. 5, 62 Pac. 841; Knowles v. Lower Clear Creek Ditch Co., 27 Colo. 469, 63 Pac. 317; Kyle v. Shore, 27 Colo. 300, 60 Pac. 568; Anthony v. Slayden, 27 Colo. 144, 60 Pac. 826; Daum v. Conley, 27 Colo. 56, 59 Pac. 753; Denver v. Denver Union Water Co., 26 Colo. 413, 58 Pac. 594; La Junta, etc., Canal Co. v. Hess, 25 Colo. 515, 55 Pac. 728; Madden v. Day, 24 Colo. 418, 51 Pac. 165; Kelly v. Atkins, 24 Colo. 267, 51 Pac. 164; Morris v. People, 23 Colo. 465, 48 Pac. 534; Persse v. Gaffney, 23 Colo. 245, 47 Pac. 293; Spangler v. Green, 21 Colo. 505, 42 Pac. 674, 52 Am. St. Rep. 259; Hurd v. Atkins, 21 Colo. 259, 40 Pac. 443; McClellan v. Hurd, 21 Colo. 197, 40 Pac. 445; McCandless v. Green, 20 Colo. 519, 39 Pac. 64; Baker v. Barton, 20 Colo. 506, 35 Pac. 65; Timerman v. South Denver Real Estate Co., 20 Colo. 147, 36 Pac. 901; Wyatt v. Larimer, etc., Irr. Co., 18 Colo. 298, 33 Pac. 144, 36 Am. St. Rep. 280; Brandenburg v. Reithman, 7 Colo. 323, 3 Pac. 577.

Appeal does not lie unless right or title to freehold is the direct subject of the action, nor unless the judgment is conclusive of such right until reversed. Harvey v. Travelers' Ins. Co., 18 Colo. 354, 32 Pac. 935.

55. Hurd v. Carlile, 18 Colo. 461, 33 Pac. 164. See also Mackey v. Tabor, 22 Colo. 67, 43 Pac. 143.

56. Trimble v. People, 19 Colo. 187, 34 Pac. 981, 41 Am. St. Rep. 236.

The amount involved may affect the right to raise a question as to the constitutionality of a law. McCandless v. Green, 20 Colo. 519, 39 Pac. 64.

57. Colo. Laws (1891), p. 119, § 4; Mills Anno. Stat. Colo. (1896), § 1002*a*.

c. Other Courts. District courts have such appellate jurisdiction as may be conferred by law, and appeals may be taken from the county to the district or supreme court in such cases and in such manner as may be prescribed by law, but no appeal lies to the district court from any judgment given upon an appeal from a justice of the peace.[58] County courts have appellate jurisdiction of appeals from justices of the peace in the same county and from judgments of police magistrates' courts.[59]

5. Connecticut — a. Supreme Court of Errors. Under the constitution the powers of the supreme court of errors and its jurisdiction are such as shall be defined by law;[60] and under the general statutes it has final and conclusive jurisdiction of all matters brought before it according to law, and it may carry into execution all its judgments and decrees. The chief justice or presiding judge may also by written order direct a judgment by agreement in a pending cause to be entered up.[61] Again writs of error, for errors of law from the judgments of a superior court, may be brought to the supreme court; and where errors of law cognizable in that court alone are involved, such court and not the superior court can review the same.[62] There exists, however, a right of appeal, and writs of error may be brought from the judgments of city courts to either the supreme or superior court, but appealing to one precludes an appeal to the other.[63] An appeal also lies to the supreme court of errors from a judgment of certain district courts.[64]

b. Other Courts. Superior courts' powers are such as are defined by law,[65] and they have appellate jurisdiction of judgments from justices of the peace and of other inferior courts, except as otherwise provided.[66] Again writs of error for errors in matters of fact, or errors in which matters of fact and of law are joined, may be brought from the judgment or decree of the superior court, court of

All final judgments in civil causes irrespective of the amount involved have been held appealable to the appellate court. Livermore v. Truesdell, 7 Colo. App. 470, 43 Pac. 663. Thus such court has jurisdiction to review a final judgment granting a writ of mandamus against the state board of canvassers. Orman v. People, (Colo. App. 1903) 71 Pac. 430. But such court has no jurisdiction of an appeal from an order of a county court appointing a conservator (Shapter v. Arapahoe County Ct., 13 Colo. App. 484, 59 Pac. 59), of an appeal from a decree of a county court in a special statutory proceeding providing for the disconnection of outlying territory from cities and towns (Fletcher v. Smith, (Colo. App. 1902) 70 Pac. 697), or of an appeal in divorce proceedings or those incidental thereto (Meiss v. Meiss, (Colo. App. 1901) 63 Pac. 952; Clark v. Clark, 15 Colo. App. 211, 61 Pac. 479; Eickhoff v. Eickhoff, 14 Colo. App. 127, 59 Pac. 411; Mercer v. Mercer, 13 Colo. App. 237, 57 Pac. 750). So such court has no jurisdiction of a transferred cause where the supreme court had no jurisdiction. Lowenbruck v. Denver, etc., R. Co., 2 Colo. App. 323, 30 Pac. 261; Pitkin County v. Aspen Min., etc., Co., 1 Colo. App. 125, 27 Pac. 875.

58. Colo. Const. art. 6, §§ 11, 23; Mills Anno. Stat. Colo. (1891), §§ 1085, 1090, 2678. See also Mills Anno. Stat. Colo. (1896), §§ 1087*a*, 1097; Lusk v. Kershow, 17 Colo. 481, 30 Pac. 62.

District courts have no appellate jurisdiction over probate courts. Cass v. Davis, 1 Colo. 43. See also Harrison v. Smith, 2 Colo. 625.

59. Mills Anno. Stat. Colo. (1891), §§ 2678, 2679, 3514; Ingols v. Plimpton, 10 Colo. 535, 16 Pac. 155.

Appellate jurisdiction may be conferred on county courts under Const. art. 6, § 23, for Const. art. 6, §§ 2, 11, does not by implication limit appellate jurisdiction to the supreme and district courts. Jeffries v. Harrington, 11 Colo. 191, 17 Pac. 505.

60. Conn. Const. art. 5, § 1.

61. Conn. Gen. Stat. (1888), §§ 815, 826. See also Pub. Acts (1897), c. 194, pp. 888–895.

Cause must have come regularly before the superior court by appeal, writ of error, or original process or the supreme court will not take cognizance thereof. Green v. Hobby, 8 Conn. 165.

62. Hubbard v. Hartford, 74 Conn. 452, 51 Atl. 133; Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1146; Conn. Pub. Acts (1897), p. 888, c. 194, § 1.

63. Bergkofski v. Ruzofski, 74 Conn. 204, 50 Atl. 565; Conn. Acts (1895), p. 370.

64. Fritts v. New York, etc., R. Co., 62 Conn. 503, 26 Atl. 347; Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1129; Conn. Pub. Acts (1889), c. 141.

65. Conn. Const. art. 5, § 1.

66. Conn. Pub. Acts (1897), p. 896, c. 196; Conn. Rev. Stat. (1888), § 774.

Appeal lies from probate court.— Edmond v. Canfield, 8 Conn. 87. See also Brewster v. Shelton, 24 Conn. 140; Leavenworth v. Marshall, 19 Conn. 1.

Appeal lies from final judgment of city court.— Conn. Special Acts (1895), p. 370; Bergkofski v. Ruzofski, 74 Conn. 204, 50 Atl. 565; White v. Washington School Dist., 45 Conn. 59; Kallahan v. Osborne, 37 Conn. 488.

common pleas, or city court to the superior court in which such judgment was rendered or decree passed; but such writs may be only of error on facts, not appearing on the face of the record, which render the judgment erroneous, and which can only be where the party had no legal capacity to appear, where he had no legal opportunity, or where the court had no power to render judgment. Where, however, the question is one of law the supreme and not the superior court has cognizance.[67] The court of common pleas in certain counties has jurisdiction of all civil causes brought to it, according to law, by appeal from judgments of justices of the peace or other inferior courts, and of writs of error from such judgments, and it seems in one county to have jurisdiction, with the superior court, of appeals from the acts of commissioners of insolvent estates subject to limitation as to amount.[68]

6. Delaware — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has jurisdiction to issue writs of error to the superior court and to determine finally all matters in error in the judgments and proceedings of said superior court. It may issue writs of error to the court of oyer and terminer and the court of general sessions in certain criminal matters and in such other cases as may be provided by law. Said court may receive and determine finally appeals from the court of general sessions in cases of prosecutions for bribery at elections, appeals from the court of chancery, and all matters of appeals in the interlocutory or final decrees and proceedings in chancery. It may issue writs of prohibition, certiorari, and mandamus to the superior court, the court of oyer and terminer, the court of general sessions, the court of chancery, and the orphans' court, or any of the judges of said courts, and all orders, rules, and process proper to give effect to the same. The general assembly may provide by what judges of the supreme court the jurisdiction and power conferred under the constitution are to be exercised in vacation. Whenever the superior court, court of oyer and terminer, or court of general sessions shall consider that a question of law ought to be heard by the court in banc they have power upon application to direct it to be so heard. Such courts in exercising this power may direct a cause to be proceeded into verdict or judgment in that court, or to be otherwise proceeded in as shall be best for expediting justice. In matters of chancery jurisdiction where the chancellor is disqualified, the chief justice has jurisdiction, and there is an appeal to the supreme court. In the absence or disability of the chancellor the chief justice, or in his absence or disability the senior associate judge, has power to grant restraining orders and preliminary injunctions, pursuant to the rules of chancery; but general jurisdiction over the case is not conferred. Jurisdiction is also coextensive with the state.[69]

b. Other Courts. Where the opinions of the judges of the orphans' court are opposed, or when the decision is made by both of them in matters involving a right to real estate, or the appraised value or other value thereof, and in all matters affecting guardians' accounts, there shall be an appeal to the superior court for the county which has final jurisdiction in every such case.[70] Appeal lies to the 67. Hubbard v. Hartford, 74 Conn. 452, 51 Atl. 133; Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1146. See also Lockwood v. Knapp, 4 Conn. 257.

68. Conn. Pub. Acts (1899), c. 38, p. 1004, amending Conn. Gen. Stat. (1888), § 724. See also Conn. Pub. Acts (1887), c. 34; Conn. Pub. Acts (1889), cc. 114, 138.

69. Del. Const. (1897), art. 4, §§ 12, 15, 16, 17, 19.

Until the general assembly shall otherwise direct there shall be an appeal to the supreme court in all cases in which there is an appeal, according to any act of the general assembly, to the court of errors and appeals. Del. Const. (1897), art. 4, § 20.

"Before the adoption of the constitution in 1897, vesting this Court with the jurisdiction to issue writs of error to the Court of Oyer and Terminer, and to the Court of General Sessions, and to determine all matters in error, the last named courts were each, within their respective criminal jurisdictions, courts of last resort, possessing original and final jurisdiction." Per Boyce, J., in Daniels v. State, 2 Pennew. (Del.) 586, 591, 48 Atl. 196, 54 L. R. A. 286.

70. Del. Const. (1897), art. 4, § 11.

The jurisdiction of the courts in the several counties is not different under the new constitution from that under the old constitution, court of general sessions in all cases in which the sentence is imprisonment exceeding one month or a fine exceeding one hundred dollars, although the general assembly may grant or deny the privilege of appeal to the court of general sessions.[71]

7. FLORIDA — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has appellate jurisdiction[72] in all cases at law and in equity originating in circuit courts, and of appeals from the circuit courts in cases arising before judges of the county courts in matters pertaining to their probate jurisdiction, and in the management of the estates of infants, and in cases of conviction of felony in the criminal courts, and in all criminal cases originating in the circuit courts. The court has also power to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, quo warranto, habeas corpus, and also all writs[73] necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its jurisdiction. Each of the justices has power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the state upon petition by or on behalf of any person held in actual custody, and may make such writs returnable before himself or the supreme court, or any justice thereof, or before any circuit judge.[74]

b. Other Courts. Circuit courts have final appellate jurisdiction in all civil and criminal cases arising in the county court, or before the county judge, of all misdemeanors tried in criminal courts, of judgments or sentences of any mayor's court, and of all cases arising before justices of the peace in counties in which there is no county court; and supervision and appellate jurisdiction of matters arising before county judges pertaining to their probate jurisdiction, or to the estates and interests of minors and of such other matters as the legislature may provide. The circuit courts and judges have power to issue writs of mandamus, injunction, quo warranto, certiorari, prohibition, habeas corpus, and all writs necessary to the complete exercise of their jurisdiction.[75] County courts have final appellate jurisdiction in civil cases arising in the courts of justices of the peace. The trial of such appeals may be de novo at the option of appellant.[76]

8. GEORGIA — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has no original jurisdiction, but is a court alone for the trial and correction of errors[77] from the superior nor are the courts "more blended." Thomas v. Adams Express Co., 1 Pennew. (Del.) 142, 39 Atl. 1014.

If superior courts of one county attempted to exercise supervisory or appellate powers over the superior courts in other counties, the greatest inconvenience and confusion would ensue, and the superior court has no power to set aside or entertain jurisdiction of a judgment entered by the superior court in another county. Thomas v. Adams Express Co., 1 Pennew. (Del.) 142, 39 Atl. 1014.

71. Del. Const. (1897), art. 4, § 30.

72. Appellate jurisdiction exists either when regularly brought up or where forms are dispensed with by agreement in causes from circuit courts. Holbrook v. Allen, 4 Fla. 96.

73. State v. Gleason, 12 Fla. 190 (holding that information in nature of quo warranto is included); Ex p. White, 4 Fla. 165.

74. Fla. Const. (1887), art. 5, § 5.

The supreme court has general superintendence and supervisory control over all other courts. Ex p. White, 4 Fla. 165.

The governor may at any time require the opinion of the justices of the supreme court as to the interpretation of any portion of the constitution upon any question affecting his executive powers and duties, and the justices shall render such opinion in writing. Fla. Const. (1887), art. 4, § 13; In re Advisory Opinion to Governor, 39 Fla. 397, 22 So. 681; In re Executive Communication, 23 Fla. 297, 6 So. 925; Opinion of Justices, 14 Fla. 289.

75. Fla. Const. (1887), art. 5, § 11.

The purpose and effect of the constitutional provision is that an appeal shall be to the appellate and not to the original jurisdiction of the circuit court. State v. McClellan, 25 Fla. 88, 5 So. 600; State v. McClellan, 25 Fla. 111, 5 So. 603; State v. King, 20 Fla. 399.

76. Fla. Const. art. 5, § 18.

77. McRae v. Adams, 36 Ga. 442; Doe v. Lancaster, 5 Ga. 39.

Illustrations.— The decision of the superior court as to the sufficiency of a petition for the removal of an action to a federal court is subject to review in the supreme court. Carswell v. Schley, 59 Ga. 17. So jurisdiction exists in the supreme court of a bill against executors, and a receiver may be appointed and an injunction may be issued. Johns v. Johns, 23 Ga. 31. And an appeal lies to the supreme court from a decision refusing to grant letters of administration. Gresham v. Pyron, 17 Ga. 263. But such court cannot hear ex parte cases or entertain jurisdiction of an appeal from an order fixing an administrator's commissions on property turned over by a distributee. Ex p. Burney, 29 Ga. 33.

courts, and from specified city courts,[78] and such other like city courts[79] as may be established.[80]

b. Other Courts. Superior courts have appellate jurisdiction in all such cases as may be provided by law. They also have power to correct errors in inferior jurisdictions, by writ of certiorari, which can only issue on the sanction of the judge; and such courts and the judges thereof have power to issue writs of mandamus, prohibition, scire facias, and all other writs that may be necessary for carrying their powers fully into effect, and they have such other powers as may be conferred upon them by law.[81] There may also be an appeal (or, by consent of parties, without a decision) from the court ordinary to the superior court, under regulations prescribed by law.[82] A statute, however, cannot confer on a city court jurisdiction over appeals from justices' courts, contrary to the constitutional provision that in civil actions before justices of the peace there may be an appeal to a jury in said court, or to the superior court, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.[83]

9. Idaho — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction to review, upon appeal, any decision of the district courts or the judges thereof. The supreme court shall also have original jurisdiction to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, and habeas corpus, and all writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its appellate jurisdiction.[84]

b. District Courts. District courts have such appellate jurisdiction as may be conferred by law.[85]

10. Illinois — a. Supreme Court — (i) Generally. The supreme court of the state of Illinois has original jurisdiction[86] in cases relating to the revenue,[87] in

78. Hayden v. State, 69 Ga. 731.

79. Sellers v. Mann, 113 Ga. 643, 39 S. E. 11; Ivey v. State, 112 Ga. 175, 37 S. E. 398.

The words "like courts" refer to city courts, and a writ of error does not lie from a judgment of a county court. Bradford v. Preer, 51 Ga. 168. The legislature, however, cannot provide for writs of error from a city court unless such court is established in a city. Savannah, etc., R. Co. v. Jordan, 113 Ga. 687, 39 S. E. 511. Moreover a court is not "like" the specified city courts where it is established in a "city" which is not the county-seat of the county, and the jurisdiction of which extends only over the city and one militia district of the county. Collier v. Means, 113 Ga. 681, 39 S. E. 418. Again a town is not converted into a city so as to confer jurisdiction on the supreme court by an incidental reference in the title and body of a statute to the "city" of E which is a town. Atkinson v. State, 112 Ga. 402, 37 S. E. 746. See also Veiwig v. Polk, 112 Ga. 513, 37 S. E. 747; Wight, etc., Co. v. Wolff, 112 Ga. 169, 37 S. E. 395; Comer v. Rynehart, 99 Ga. 128, 24 S. E. 871.

80. Ga. Const. (1877), art. 6, § 2, par. 5; Ga. Code (1895), § 5836.

81. Ga. Const. (1877), art. 6, § 4, pars. 4, 5; Ga. Code (1895), §§ 5845, 5846.

A writ of error to the superior court lies from a city court. Ivey v. State, 112 Ga. 175, 37 S. E. 398.

82. Ga. Const. (1877), art. 5, § 6, par. 1; Ga. Code (1895), § 5852.

Appeal lies to the superior court from the justice's court under such regulations as may be prescribed by law. Ga. Const. (1877), art. 5, § 7, par. 2; 2 Ga. Code (1895), § 5856.

83. Kirkman v. Gillespie, 112 Ga. 507, 37 S. E. 714.

84. Ida. Const. art. 5, § 9.

Supreme court cannot review, by certiorari or appeal, a judgment of a justice's court. Nordyke, etc., Co. v. McConkey, 7 Ida. 562, 64 Pac. 893.

Place of hearing an appeal to the supreme court from a judgment in a proceeding to remove a county officer is determined the same as other causes, the word "causes" covering special proceedings. Mahoney v. Elliott, (Ida. 1902) 67 Pac. 317.

85. Ida. Const. art. 5, § 20.

86. The original jurisdiction of the supreme court cannot be enlarged by a statute giving such court the right to hear and determine election contests of judges of certain courts. Baird v. Hutchinson, 179 Ill. 435, 53 N. E. 567; Canby v. Hartzell, 167 Ill. 628, 48 N. E. 687. So the supreme court has no original jurisdiction to allow attorney's fees and expenses on appeal. Ingraham v. Ingraham, 169 Ill. 432, 48 N. E. 561, 49 N. E. 320.

87. Cases relating to the revenue cover a suit to enjoin the collection of taxes, and an appeal lies directly to a supreme court and none to the appellate court. Lippincott v. Board of Education, 86 Ill. App. 522; Phœnix Grain, etc., Exch. v. Gleason, 22 Ill. App. 373. These words also include all taxes and assessments imposed by any public authority and cover a special assessment for street improvements (Herhold v. Chicago, 106 Ill. 547; People v. Springer, 106 Ill. 542; Potwin v. Johnson, 106 Ill. 532), and a petition under the drainage act to validate an assessment (Claypool Drainage, etc., Dist. v. Chicago, mandamus[88] and habeas corpus, and appellate jurisdiction[89] in all other cases,[90] subject, however, to such exceptions as may exist by virtue of the establishment of inferior appellate courts.[91] The supreme court can also reëxamine cases brought to it by appeal or writ of error as to questions of law only, subject to certain exceptions.[92] And such court may issue writs of mandamus, habeas corpus, certiorari, error, and supersedeas, and all other writs, not prohibited by law, which may be necessary to enforce the due administration of justice in all matters within its jurisdiction.[93] The court has also certain powers in vacation over judgments,[94] and in condemnation proceedings.[95]

(II) Over Appellate Courts. Appeals and writs of error may be prosecuted from the final judgments,[96] orders, or decrees of the appellate courts; also in cases decided by said courts involving a less sum than one thousand dollars, exclusive of costs,[97] where a majority of the judges thereof are of opinion[98] that questions of law of such importance, either on account of principal or collateral interests, are involved that they should be passed upon by the supreme court; and also in all actions where there was no trial on an issue of fact[99] in the lower court where the amount claimed in the pleadings exceeds one thousand dollars.[1] Appeals may also be prosecuted to the supreme court from the final judgments of the appellate courts in all other cases[2] except actions ex contractu wherein the etc., R. Co., 81 Ill. App. 433). The appellate court has no jurisdiction of an appeal from a decree on a bill to restrain the collection of taxes. Huling v. Ehrich, 81 Ill. App. 404. But an action in the name of the people on the official bond of a county collector does not relate to revenue. People v. Gillespie, 47 Ill. App. 522.

88. Original jurisdiction in mandamus is limited to protect the rights, interests, and franchises of the state and the people at large, and to enforce official duties affecting the general public, and does not include causes affecting local public interests or private rights unless there is no other adequate remedy at law, and the exercise of such jurisdiction is necessary to prevent a failure of justice. People v. Chicago, 193 Ill. 507, 62 N. E. 179, 58 L. R. A. 833.

89. The supreme court has only appellate jurisdiction except where original jurisdiction is expressly given. Crull v. Keener, 17 Ill. 246; Beaubien v. Hamilton, 4 Ill. 213; Clark v. Ross, 1 Ill. 334.

90. Ill. Const. (1870), art. 6, § 2; Starr & C. Anno. Stat. Ill. (1896), p. 147.

91. Fleischman v. Walker, 91 Ill. 318; Ill. Const. (1870), art. 6, § 11; Starr & C. Anno. Stat. Ill. (1896), p. 149.

92. Starr & C. Anno. Stat. Ill. (1896), p. 3136, c. 110, § 90.

Restriction to questions of law of supreme court in appeals from appellate courts. Lake Shore, etc., R. Co. v. Richards, 152 Ill. 59, 38 N. E. 773, 30 L. R. A. 33, 32 N. E. 402; Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Fisher, 141 Ill. 614, 31 N. E. 406. See also Kerfoot v. Cromwell Mound Co., 115 Ill. 502, 25 N. E. 960.

93. People v. Cook County Cir. Ct., 173 Ill. 272, 50 N. E. 928, 169 Ill. 201, 48 N. E. 717 [affirming 59 Ill. App. 514]; Campbell v. Campbell, 22 Ill. 664; People v. Taylor, 2 Ill. 202.

The supreme court has no jurisdiction to consider a writ of error to the circuit court to review an order dismissing a petition for a writ of mandamus against the state's attorney to compel him to file informations in the nature of quo warranto against certain persons to try their title to the office of medical director and superintendent of nurses of county institutions. People v. Deneen, 201 Ill. 452, 66 N. E. 368.

94. Starr & C. Anno. Stat. Ill. (1896), p. 1149, c. 37, § 17.

95. Peoria, etc., Union R. Co. v. Peoria, etc., R. Co., 105 Ill. 110.

96. Harzfeld v. Converse, 105 Ill. 534, holding that the judgment must be final disposing of the cause on its merits.

Validity of tax-title.—An appeal lies from a judgment of the appellate court affirming a decree barring a wife of a mortgagor from asserting title on a bill to foreclose. Bozarth v. Landers, 113 Ill. 181.

97. Tucker v. Champaign County Agricultural Bd., 154 Ill. 593, 39 N. E. 563.

98. A certificate of importance is a condition precedent to an appeal where the amount involved is less than one thousand dollars. McNay v. Stratton, 109 Ill. 30; Klees v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 82 Ill. App. 624. See also Preston v. Gahl, 94 Ill. 586.

99. Cummings v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 189 Ill. 608, 60 N. E. 51 [affirming 89 Ill. App. 199]; Washington v. Louisville, etc., R. Co., 136 Ill. 49, 26 N. E. 653.

A finding of fact by the appellate court in an action at law precludes the supreme court finding otherwise, and it will not consider a question of law that might arise on other facts. Harzfeld v. Converse, 105 Ill. 534.

1. Starr & C. Anno. Stat. Ill. (1896), pp. 1153, 1154, c. 37, § 28; Ill. Rev. Stat. (1892), c. 37, § 25; Hurd Rev. Stat. Ill. (1889), p. 415.

2. "All other cases" includes a suit to restrain the obstruction of a right of way. Green v. Goff, 153 Ill. 534, 39 N. E. 975.

amount involved is less than one thousand dollars, and in all cases sounding in damages wherein the judgment is for less than one thousand dollars.[3]

(III) Over Circuit, City, and County Courts. Appeals and writs of error lie from the final orders, judgments, or decrees of the circuit and city courts, and from the superior court of Cook county, directly to the supreme court in all criminal cases and in cases involving a franchise or freehold, the validity of a statute,[4] or the construction of the constitution;[5] in all cases relating to revenue,[6] or in which the state is interested[7] as a party or otherwise.[8] Appeals and writs of error may also be taken and prosecuted to the supreme court from the final orders, judgments, and decrees of the county court in proceedings for the confirmation of special assessments, for the sale of lands for taxes and special assessments, and in all common-law and attachment cases and cases of forcible entry and detainer.[9]

b. Appellate Courts. Appellate courts exercise appellate jurisdiction only, and have jurisdiction of all matters of appeal or writs of error from final judgments, orders, or decrees of any of the circuit courts, or the superior court of Cook county, or county courts, or from the city courts in any suit or proceeding at law,[10]

3. Ill. Rev. Stat. (1893), c. 37, § 25; Hurd Rev. Stat. Ill. (1897), p. 506. See also In re Landfield, 182 Ill. 264, 55 N. E. 371.

Amount involved.—An appeal lies regardless of the amount involved where the bill is not for the recovery of money, but is to set aside a sheriff's sale as a cloud on the title and to enjoin the making of a deed. Farmers' Nat. Bank v. Sperling, 113 Ill. 273. So an appeal will not be dismissed where the amount claimed exceeds one thousand dollars, although the judgment is for much less. Guyer v. Caldwell, 189 Ill. 581, 60 N. E. 50 [reversing 89 Ill. App. 110]. But where the judgment of the appellate court is for less than one thousand dollars it is final and not appealable. Rimmer v. O'Brien-Green Co., 165 Ill. 31, 45 N. E. 979.

4. Morgan Park v. Knopf, 199 Ill. 444, 65 N. E. 322; Sauter v. Anderson, 199 Ill. 319, 65 N. E. 247; Union Drainage Dist. v. Cortland Highway Com'rs, 199 Ill. 80, 64 N. E. 1079; Foote v. Lake County, 198 Ill. 638, 64 N. E. 1015; Mechanics', etc., Sav., etc., Assoc. v. People, 184 Ill. 129, 56 N. E. 346; Haines v. Cearlock, 184 Ill. 96, 56 N. E. 336; Rowell v. Covenant Mut. L. Assoc., 176 Ill. 557, 52 N. E. 271; Clark v. Kern, 171 Ill. 538, 49 N. E. 488; Whittaker v. Venice, 150 Ill. 195, 37 N. E. 240; People v. Blue Mountain Joe, 129 Ill. 370, 21 N. E. 923; Pearson v. Zehr, 125 Ill. 573, 18 N. E. 204; Williams v. People, 118 Ill. 444, 8 N. E. 841; Virden v. Allan, 107 Ill. 505; Talcott v. Schuh, 95 Ill. 201; Hoffner v. Cass County, 94 Ill. App. 49.

Where the validity of a city charter is involved the supreme court has jurisdiction. Cairo v. Bross, 8 Ill. App. 296; East St. Louis v. School Trustees, 8 Ill. App. 295, because in such case the validity of a statute is involved.

The mere assertion of counsel that the validity of a statute is involved is not sufficient to confer jurisdiction on the supreme court of a direct appeal. Beach v. Peabody, 188 Ill. 75, 58 N. E. 679; Rowell v. Covenant Mut. L. Assoc., 176 Ill. 557, 52 N. E. 271; St. Louis Transfer Co. v. Canty, 103 Ill. 423. So the denial in a pleading of the validity of a statute is insufficient in itself to give the supreme court jurisdiction on direct appeal. Beach v. Peabody, 188 Ill. 75, 58 N. E. 679. But see Chaplin v. Highways Com'rs, 126 Ill. 264, 18 N. E. 765.

5. Chicago General R. Co. v. Sellers, 191 Ill. 524, 61 N. E. 495; Brueggemann v. Alton, 188 Ill. 320, 58 N. E. 951; Beach v. Peabody, 188 Ill. 75, 58 N. E. 679; Clark v. Kern, 171 Ill. 538, 49 N. E. 488; Lester v. People, 150 Ill. 408, 23 N. E. 387, 37 N. E. 1004, 41 Am. St. Rep. 375; Corbin v. People, 142 Ill. 58, 31 N. E. 19; Cook County v. Chicago Industrial School, 125 Ill. 540, 18 N. E. 183, 8 Am. St. Rep. 386, 1 L. R. A. 437; McCoy v. Chicago, 33 Ill. App. 576.

6. Reed v. Chatsworth, 201 Ill. 480, 66 N. E. 217; People v. Hendee, 199 Ill. 55, 64 N. E. 1071; Kilgour v. Drainage Com'rs, 111 Ill. 342; Webster v. People, 98 Ill. 343; Ashford v. People, 82 Ill. 214; Fowler v. Perkins, 77 Ill. 271; Brown v. McCord, 9 Ill. App. 550; Johnson v. Eliel, 9 Ill. App. 520.

7. People v. Hendee, 199 Ill. 55, 64 N. E. 1071; Canal Com'rs v. Chicago Sanitary Dist., 191 Ill. 326, 61 N. E. 71; Evans v. Pierce, 163 Ill. 207, 45 N. E. 144.

8. Starr & C. Anno. Stat. Ill. (1896), p. 1153, c. 37, § 28, p. 3114, c. 110, § 89; Boddie v. Brewer, etc., Brewing Co., 193 Ill. 203, 61 N. E. 1047; Swift v. People, 160 Ill. 561, 43 N. E. 731; People v. St. Louis, etc., R. Co., 106 Ill. 412; Hodge v. People, 96 Ill. 423; Aiken v. Deal, 2 Ill. 327. See also Grand Tower Min., etc., Co. v. Hall, 94 Ill. 152; Williams v. Ayers, 92 Ill. 16; Meeks v. Leach, 91 Ill. 323; Young v. Stearns, 91 Ill. 221.

9. Starr & C. Anno. Stat. Ill. (1896), p. 1191, c. 37, § 241.

Bastardy cases are reviewable by the supreme court from a county-court judgment. Peak v. People, 76 Ill. 289. And see, generally, Bastards, 7 Cyc. 673.

10. Chicago v. Gosselin, 91 Ill. 48; People v. Church, 103 Ill. App. 132; Haines v. Cearlock, 95 Ill. App. 203; In re Busse, 80 Ill. App. 261; People v. Gillespie, 47 Ill. App. 522.

or in chancery,[11] other than criminal cases, not misdemeanors, and cases involving a franchise or freehold or the validity of a statute.[12] In all cases determined in said appellate courts, in actions ex contractu where the amount involved is less than one thousand dollars exclusive of costs, and in all cases sounding in damages where the judgment of the court below is less than one thousand dollars exclusive of costs, and the judgment is affirmed or otherwise finally disposed of in the appellate court, the judgment, order, or decree of the appellate court is final[13] and no appeal shall lie or writ of error be prosecuted therefrom, provided the term ex contractu shall not be construed to include actions involving a penalty.[14] Appeals also lie to the appellate courts from the final judgments, orders, or decrees of county courts in proceedings for the confirmation of special assessments, for the sale of lands for taxes and special assessments, and in all common-law and attachment cases and cases of forcible entry and detainer.[15] Appellate courts may also issue writs of mandamus to cause a proper record to be duly certified or made and certified, or to cause any other act to be done which may be necessary to enforce the due administration of justice in all matters, suits, or proceedings which could or might by appeal, writ of error, or in any other lawful manner be brought within their respective jurisdictions. They may also issue writs[16] of certiorari, error, supersedeas, and all other writs not prohibited by law which may be necessary to enforce the due administration of justice in all matters within their jurisdiction.[17] Appellate courts have in addition the same power as the supreme court to compel a party prosecuting an appeal for delay to pay the damages provided for in the statute.[18]

A suit or proceeding at law includes an appeal from an application to be released from imprisonment imposed by a writ of capias ad satisfaciendum. First Nat. Bank v. Sanford, 83 Ill. App. 58. But see Harmanek v. Guthman, 66 Ill. App. 593. It also includes an action under the statute providing for the trial of the right of property in personal property. Sellers v. Thomas, 185 Ill. 384, 57 N. E. 10 [reversing 85 Ill. App. 58]. But an order of the county court admitting a will to probate is not a proceeding at law or in chancery so as to be appealable to the appellate court. Schenk v. Schenk, 80 Ill. App. 614.

11. Union Trust Co. v. Trumbull, 137 Ill. 146, 27 N. E. 24; In re Busse, 80 Ill. App. 261.

12. People v. Kelly, 187 Ill. 333, 58 N. E. 373; Illinois State Bd. of Health v. People, 181 Ill. 512, 54 N. E. 1011; Chicago v. Duffy, 178 Ill. 258, 53 N. E. 439; Spring Valley v. Spring Valley Coal Co., 173 Ill. 497, 50 N. E. 1067 [reversing 71 Ill. App. 432]; Chaplin v. Highways Com'rs, 126 Ill. 264, 18 N. E. 765; Williams v. People, 118 Ill. 444, 8 N. E. 841; Gross v. People, 95 Ill. 366; Shakel v. People, 86 Ill. App. 686; Chicago Gen. R. Co. v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 82 Ill. App. 407; Pennsylvania Co. v. Chicago, 73 Ill. App. 345; Brennan v. Kinsley, 70 Ill. App. 645; Bernstein v. People, 70 Ill. App. 175; Spring Valley Coal Co. v. Spring Valley, 65 Ill. App. 571; Gorr v. Dahmke, 46 Ill. App. 421; Cook County v. Sennott, 37 Ill. App. 268; Graham v. People, 35 Ill. App. 568; Stevens v. St. Mary's Training School, 33 Ill. App. 237; Pearson v. Zehr, 26 Ill. App. 286; Provident Sav. L. Assur. Co. v. English, 25 Ill. App. 134; Rosenstein v. Case, 9 Ill. App. 482; Falch v. People, 8 Ill. App. 351; Cairo v. Bross, 8 Ill. App. 296; East St. Louis v. School Trustees, 8 Ill. App. 295.

The appellate court may determine whether a statute is repealed. Morgan Park v. Gahan, 35 Ill. App. 646. See also Pearce v. Vittum, 193 Ill. 192, 61 N. E. 1116. And the appellate court must determine whether a statute exists where the claim or defense is under the statute. American Live Stock Commission Co. v. Chicago Live Stock Exch., 41 Ill. App. 149.

13. The statute authorizing the appellate court to make a finding of fact, and declaring such binding on the supreme court, is not unconstitutional. Earnshaw v. Western Stone Co., 200 Ill. 220, 65 N. E. 661.

14. Starr & C. Anno. Stat. Ill. (1896), pp. 1153, 1154, c. 37, § 28.

15. Starr & C. Anno. Stat. Ill. (1896), p. 1191, c. 37, § 241; Webster v. Gilmore, 91 Ill. 324; Hide, etc., Nat. Bank v. Rehm, 27 Ill. App. 172 [affirmed in 126 Ill. 461, 18 N. E. 788]; Smith v. Hood, 4 Ill. App. 360; West v. People, 3 Ill. App. 377.

16. Issuance of writs.— Original writ of prohibition by appellate court may issue as an ancillary writ to prevent encroachment on its appellate jurisdiction by inferior courts in a pending cause. People v. Cook County Cir. Ct., 169 Ill. 201, 48 N. E. 717. Compare People v. Cook County Cir. Ct., 59 Ill. App. 514. But the appellate court cannot by mandamus compel a judge of the superior court to sign a bill of exceptions in a cause not appealed to the former court nor pending there. Hawes v. People, 124 Ill. 560, 17 N. E. 13.

17. Starr & C. Anno. Stat. Ill. (1896), p. 1154, c. 37, § 29.

18. Town v. Alexander, 185 Ill. 254, 56 N. E. 1111 [affirming 85 Ill. App. 512]; Baker v. Prebis, 185 Ill. 191, 56 N. E. 1110 [affirming 86 Ill. App. 334]; Wallen v. Cummings, 88 Ill. App. 45; Hough v. Wells, 86 Ill. App. 186.

c. Other Courts. Circuit courts have such appellate jurisdiction as is or may be provided by law.[19] And in their respective counties, except where appeals lie to other courts, they have jurisdiction of appeals in all matters from the final orders, judgments, and decrees of the county courts, and upon such appeal the case may be tried de novo.[20] County courts have in addition to their original jurisdiction such other jurisdiction as may be provided by law.[21] City courts have jurisdiction of appeals from judgments of justices of the peace or police magistrates, and writs of certiorari may issue to remove causes from before such officers into the city court.[22]

d. Appeal When Franchise Is Involved. In the absence of statute conferring appellate jurisdiction on the appellate court in cases where a franchise is involved,[23] an appeal directly to, or a writ of error directly from, the supreme court only lies in such cases.[24] This rule is subject, however, to certain qualifications; as in case of waiver of objections by failing to question the decree on the point of a franchise being involved;[25] or in cases where the point arises whether the proceedings are such as legally involve a franchise.[26]

e. Appeal When Freehold Is Involved — (i) Statement of Rule. An appeal or a writ of error lies directly to the supreme court, where the whole 19. Ill. Const. (1870), art. 6, § 12.

On appeal from a justice's court in an action of forcible entry and detainer the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction with the county court. People v. Huntoon, 71 Ill. 536.

20. Starr & C. Anno. Stat. Ill. (1896), p. 1190, c. 37, § 240; Heinzelman v. Schrader, 150 Ill. 227, 37 N. E. 235; Union Trust Co. v. Trumbull, 137 Ill. 146, 27 N. E. 24; In re Storey, 120 Ill. 244, 11 N. E. 209; Ennis v. Ennis, 103 Ill. 95; Johnson v. People, 84 Ill. 377; Haines v. Cearlock, 95 Ill. App. 203; Roheson v. Lagow, 73 Ill. App. 665; Grier v. Cable, 53 Ill. App. 350; Dailey v. Phillips, 52 Ill. App. 444; Columbian Light, etc., Co. v. Bunker, 51 Ill. App. 258; Traver v. Rogers, 16 Ill. App. 372; McFadon v. McEwen, 22 Ill. App. 563; Morris v. Morris, 12 Ill. App. 68.

Bastardy.— An appeal lies to the circuit court from a county court in bastardy proceedings. Stivers v. People, (Ill. 1894) 38 N. E. 574 [overruling Lee v. People, 140 Ill. 536, 30 N. E. 690]. See also Lewis v. People, 82 Ill. 104; Peak v. People, 76 Ill. 289; Rogers v. People, 34 Ill. App. 448.

Trial is de novo on appeal from a county to a circuit court in matters of assessment, and the latter court does not acquire any jurisdiction beyond that of the county court. Brown v. Joliet, 22 Ill. 123. And so on appeals from the county probate court. Lovell v. Divine, 12 Ill. App. 50. See also In re Storey, 120 Ill. 244, 11 N. E. 209.

21. Ill. Const. (1870), art. 6, § 18.

22. Starr & C. Anno. Stat. Ill. (1896), p. 1203, c. 37, § 285.

23. Perry v. Bozarth, 198 Ill. 328, 64 N. E. 1076, construing Starr & C. Anno. Stat. Ill. (1896), p. 3114, c. 110, § 88.

Ill. Const. (1870), art. 6, § 11, authorizing the creation of inferior appellate courts, to which such appeals as the legislature provide may be prosecuted, and from which appeals shall lie to the supreme court in cases involving a freehold, does not give the appellate court jurisdiction of an appeal involving a franchise, but merely authorizes the legislature so to do, with a condition that in such case there may be a further appeal to the supreme court. Perry v. Bozarth, 198 Ill. 328, 64 N. E. 1076.

The word "franchise," as used in the appellate court act in relation to appeals directly from the trial court to the supreme court, does not include a privilege merely, but is used in the restricted sense of a special privilege conferred by grant from the state. Hesing v. Atty.-Gen., 104 Ill. 292.

24. Bixler v. Summerfield, 195 Ill. 147, 62 N. E. 849; People v. Board of Trade, 193 Ill. 577, 62 N. E. 196; Chicago Steel Works v. Illinois Steel Co., 153 Ill. 9, 38 N. E. 1033; People v. Cooper, 139 Ill. 461, 29 N. E. 872; People v. O'Hair, 128 Ill. 20, 21 N. E. 211 [reversing 29 Ill. App. 239]; Mills v. Parlin, 106 Ill. 60; Talcott v. Schuh, 95 Ill. 201; Martens v. People, 85 Ill. App. 66 [affirmed in 186 Ill. 314, 57 N. E. 871]; Buda Foundry, etc., Co. v. Columbian Celebration Co., 55 Ill. App. 381; People v. Matthews, 53 Ill. App. 305; Parlin v. Mills, 11 Ill. App. 396; Springfield, etc., R. Co. v. Peters, 8 Ill. App. 300. See also People v. Marquiss, 192 Ill. 377, 61 N. E. 352; Winne v. People, 177 Ill. 268, 52 N. E. 377; People v. Bruennemer, 168 Ill. 482, 48 N. E. 43; American L. & T. Co. v. Minnesota, etc., R. Co., 157 Ill. 641, 42 N. E. 153; People v. Spring Valley, 129 Ill. 169, 21 N. E. 843.

An office is not a franchise.— Whipple v. People, 180 Ill. 258, 54 N. E. 279; Graham v. People, 104 Ill. 321; McGrath v. People, 100 Ill. 464; People v. Holtz, 92 Ill. 426. But the right to hold a municipal office is a franchise when depending on the legality of the incorporation of a municipality. People v. Spring Valley, 129 Ill. 169, 21 N. E. 843.

25. O'Donnell v. Illinois Steel Co., 53 Ill. App. 314.

26. Citizens' Horse R. Co. v. Belleville, 47 Ill. App. 388.

merits of the cause cannot be adjudicated without determining the question of freehold, or where the necessary result of the judgment is that one party loses, and the other gains, a freehold estate, or where the title is so put in issue by the pleadings that a decision of such issue is necessarily required.[27] It is not essential, however, to the question that one party must lose, and another gain, the freehold;[28] and if a freehold is only incidentally or collaterally involved, the appeal is not to be taken directly to the supreme court.[29] The appellate court, however, 27. Helton v. Elledge, 199 Ill. 95, 64 N. E. 1091; Seidschlag v. Antioch, 198 Ill. 413, 64 N. E. 969; Harlem v. Suburban R. Co., 198 Ill. 337, 64 N. E. 1010; Perry v. Bozarth, 198 Ill. 328, 64 N. E. 1076; Dolton v. Malin, 102 Ill. App. 417; Smith v. Patton, 97 Ill. App. 180; Mills v. Wilson, 95 Ill. App. 88; Rice v. Adams, 91 Ill. App. 505; Vose v. Northwestern Loan, etc., Assoc., 83 Ill. App. 261; Gage v. McLaughlin, 7 Ill. App. 623; Neimeyer v. Knight, 7 Ill. App. 200; Randolph County v. Caldwell, 7 Ill. App. 135; McDowell v. Lucas, 7 Ill. App. 128.

The rule applies to a case where the title to lands is in controversy (Smith v. Patton, 97 Ill. App. 180), a claim in an equity suit to the fee of lands (Pratt v. Kendig, 30 Ill. App. 281), a case where the effect of the decree is to take a freehold out of one person and put it in another (Mills v. Wilson, 95 Ill. App. 88), all cases in law or equity involving a freehold (Chicago Theological Seminary v. Gage, 103 Ill. 175), a case where the question of freehold is only one of law, to be determined upon the pleadings (Ducker v. Wear, 45 Ill. App. 153), an action to set aside an order in proceedings under an assignment for creditors, part of the assigned estate being lands (Howe v. Warren, 154 Ill. 227, 40 N. E. 472), a bill by the holder of a sheriff's deed to have an alleged adverse title set aside as colorable (Shelton v. Blake, 115 Ill. 275, 6 N. E. 409), a claim for relief in equity for a cloud upon title, and a defense of title to part of the land (Bremer v. Calumet, etc., Canal, etc., Co., 123 Ill. 104, 13 N. E. 837), a suit to have a deed of lots, formed by accretion, set aside as a cloud upon title (Rutz v. Kehr, (Ill. 1890) 25 N. E. 957), an action by a husband, as tenant by the curtesy, to have a deed by him and his wife set aside (Agnew v. Fulton, 15 Ill. App. 668), an allegation and denial as to the amount of land intended to be conveyed in a bill to correct a deed (Baker v. Updike, 47 Ill. App. 516), an action where the existence of a passage for stock and wagons under the right of way of a railroad company is involved (Cleveland, etc., R. Co. v. Munsell, 94 Ill. App. 10), an action involving the right of one owning a drain to go upon the lands of another to repair it (Wessels v. Colebank, 174 Ill. 618, 51 N. E. 639), an action of trespass to real estate where the only issue was its dedication as a public alley (Galt v. Palmer, 89 Ill. App. 479), an action of trespass to real estate, where the defense was liberum tenementum, license and not guilty (Ragains v. Stout, 81 Ill. App. 209. See also Piper v. Connelly, 108 Ill. 646; Alton v. Fishback, 81 Ill. App. 86; Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Robbins, 70 Ill. App. 195; West Chicago St. R. Co. v. Morrison, etc., Co., 54 Ill. App. 556), an action of forcible entry and detainer, by one claiming under a sheriff's sale, against one in possession claiming title from third persons (Kepley v. Luke, 10 Ill. App. 403), a suit by a ward for an accounting and to establish a resulting trust in land alleged to have been bought with the ward's money (Lehmann v. Rothbarth, 111 Ill. 185), a bill against executors for division and distribution of the estate, real and personal, and for the construction of the will as to the time of distribution (Newberry v. Blatchford, 106 Ill. 584), and an injunction suit against a municipal corporation, where ownership of the land on which defendant is about to construct a bridge is alleged and denied (Riverside v. Watson, 54 Ill. App. 432).

28. Hibernian Banking Assoc. v. Commercial Nat. Bank, 54 Ill. App. 277.

The test as to whether or not a freehold is involved is to determine whether, as a result of the execution of the judgment or decree, one of the parties gains or loses a freehold estate. McDavid v. Sutton, 104 Ill. App. 626.

29. Pitts v. Looby, 142 Ill. 534, 32 N. E. 519; Matthiessen, etc., Zinc Co. v. La Salle, 117 Ill. 411, 2 N. E. 406, 8 N. E. 81; Payne v. Miller, 9 Ill. App. 403; McCarty v. Reeve, 8 Ill. App. 44.

The rule applies to an application for a writ of assistance which involves only the question of petitioner's right to the possession (Kerr v. Brawley, 193 Ill. 205, 61 N. E. 1057), a suit in equity to compel a railroad company to maintain a farm crossing (Cleveland, etc., R. Co. v. Hobbie, 61 Ill. App. 396), a bill to enjoin the interruption by a city of complainant's possession of land (Bryan v. East St. Louis, 105 Ill. 144), a question dependent only upon the location of the true boundary line between lots (Brownmark v. Livingston, 190 Ill. 412, 60 N. E. 618), an action for injury to real property, and a defense justifying acts under a claim of ownership, but not equivalent to a plea liberum tenementum (Cobine v. McKittrick, 186 Ill. 324, 57 N. E. 880), an appeal from a decree of specific performance of a contract for the sale of land, the only question raised being the amount due under the finding (Smith v. Gallentin, 171 Ill. 423, 49 N. E. 487), a suit to cancel an agreement to exchange lands and for liquidated damages and a cross bill praying specific performance or payment of liquidated damages (Hutchinson v. Howe, 100 Ill. 11), a case of dower and homestead rights which have been settled, only a controversy remaining as to the amount payable to lift has jurisdiction to investigate the question whether a freehold is in fact involved, but if it decides in the affirmative, its jurisdiction determines with the dismissal.[30] Again, where no objection is made to the decree settling the freehold, an appeal from a part of the decree not involving such question must be taken to the appellate court.[31]

(II) Applications of Rule. The rule just stated[32] applies to suits which involve an easement,[33] suits which relate to highways,[34] suits which involve the title, or transfer of title to land,[35] partition suits,[36] actions of ejectment,[37] suits encumbrances (Selb v. Mabee, 14 Ill. App. 574), a suit to set aside a fraudulent decree of divorce after defendant's death, the heirs being parties, no issue involving directly a freehold being raised (Maher v. Title Guarantee, etc., Co., 95 Ill. App. 365), a suit, by a trustee in bankruptcy, to set aside a fraudulent conveyance, where the claims in bankruptcy have been paid without a sale or further conveyance of title other than that of the one general transfer to the trustee (Lamont v. Regan, 96 Ill. App. 359), a bill, by two trustees, to determine whether the resignation of a third trustee was effective, whether the trustees had power to sell the real estate, and whether they should carry out a contract with the bidder therefor, and for directions as to execution of the trust (Casey v. Canavan, 93 Ill. App. 538), and an action against a trustee, under a will to require him to account for certain securities belonging to the trust fund, and to restore thereto the amount of wasted securities, although the title to land is held, but not claimed, except as trustee (Nevitt v. Woodburn, 175 Ill. 376, 51 N. E. 593).

30. Smith v. Patton, 97 Ill. App. 180.

31. Rhodes v. Rhodes, 172 Ill. 187, 50 N. E. 170.

32. See supra, XI, B, 10, e, (I).

33. Waggeman v. North Peoria, 160 Ill. 277, 43 N. E. 347; Dierks v. Highway Com'rs, 142 Ill. 197, 31 N. E. 496; Turpin v. Dennis, 139 Ill. 274, 28 N. E. 1065; Chronic v. Pugh, 136 Ill. 539, 27 N. E. 415; Tinker v. Forbes, 136 Ill. 221, 26 N. E. 503; Oswald v. Wolf, 126 Ill. 542, 19 N. E. 28 [affirming 25 Ill. App. 501]; Cottrell v. Cates, 67 Ill. App. 401; Brushy Mound v. McClintock, 46 Ill. App. 273. But see Keating v. Hayden, 132 Ill. 308, 23 N. E. 1023; Eckhart v. Irons, 114 Ill. 469, 6 N. E. 15; Lucan v. Cadwallader, 114 Ill. 285, 7 N. E. 286.

34. Taylor v. Pierce, 174 Ill. 9, 50 N. E. 1109 [reversing 71 Ill. App. 525]; Farrelly v. Kane, 172 Ill. 415, 50 N. E. 118; Crete v. Hewes, 168 Ill. 330, 48 N. E. 36 [reversing 68 Ill. App. 305]; Riverside v. Watson, 157 Ill. 669, 41 N. E. 1020 [affirming 54 Ill. App. 432]; Brushy Mound v. McClintock, 146 Ill. 643, 35 N. E. 159; Chaplin v. Highways Com'rs, 126 Ill. 264, 18 N. E. 765 [overruling Eckhart v. Irons, 114 Ill. 469, 6 N. E. 15; Lucan v. Cadwallader, 114 Ill. 285, 7 N. E. 286]; Cox v. Highway Com'rs, 97 Ill. App. 218; Highway Com'rs v. Elwood, 96 Ill. App. 239; Brewster v. Cahill, 81 Ill. App. 626; Alton v. Fishback, 81 Ill. App. 86; Roheson v. Hutton, 77 Ill. App. 464; Whitley Tp. v. Linville, 72 Ill. App. 426; Vermont v. Miller, 60 Ill. App. 166; Illinois Cent. R. Co. v. Mattoon Tp., 60 Ill. App. 165; Highways Com'rs v. Green, 55 Ill. App. 667; Madison Tp. v. Gallagher, 54 Ill. App. 91; Mt. Carmel v. McClintock, 53 Ill. App. 544; Wright v. Highway Com'rs, 46 Ill. App. 271; Highways Com'rs v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 34 Ill. App. 32; Goudy v. Lake View, 31 Ill. App. 652. But see Rhoten v. Baker, 193 Ill. 271, 61 N. E. 1058; Shelby County v. People, 159 Ill. 242, 42 N. E. 777; Edwards County Road Dist. No. 3 v. Miller, 156 Ill. 221, 40 N. E. 447; Monroe v. Van Meter, 100 Ill. 347.

35. Hand v. Waddell, 167 Ill. 402, 47 N. E. 772; Eastman v. Littlefield, 164 Ill. 254, 45 N. E. 141; Hibernian Banking Assoc. v. Commercial Nat. Bank, 157 Ill. 576, 41 N. E. 918 [affirming 54 Ill. App. 277]; Hayes v. O'Brien, 149 Ill. 403, 37 N. E. 73, 23 L. R. A. 555; Rutz v. Kehn, 143 Ill. 558, 29 N. E. 553; Kankakee, etc., R. Co. v. Straut, 101 Ill. 653; Smith v. Patton, 97 Ill. App. 180; Mills v. Wilson, 95 Ill. App. 88; Rice v. Adams, 91 Ill. App. 505; Vose v. Northwestern Loan, etc., Assoc., 83 Ill. App. 261; Roberts v. Woods, 82 Ill. App. 630; Bethmann v. Bowman, 81 Ill. App. 85; Bauer Grocer Co. v. Zelle, 71 Ill. App. 73; McDole v. Kingsley, 62 Ill. App. 30; Humphreys v. Roth, 57 Ill. App. 40; Davis v. Chicago Dock Co., 27 Ill. App. 569; Patterson v. McKinney, 6 Ill. App. 394. But see Roodhouse v. Briggs, 194 Ill. 435, 62 N. E. 778; Brownmark v. Livingston, 190 Ill. 412, 60 N. E. 618; La Fleure v. Seivert, 188 Ill. 525, 59 N. E. 421; Prouty v. Moss, 188 Ill. 84, 58 N. E. 926; Hays City First Nat. Bank v. Vest, 187 Ill. 389, 58 N. E. 229; Goodkind v. Bartlett, 136 Ill. 18, 26 N. E. 387; Hunt v. Connor, 74 Ill. App. 298; Eppstein v. Nathan, 71 Ill. App. 192.

36. Schwartz v. Ritter, 186 Ill. 209, 57 N. E. 887; Wilson v. Dresser, 152 Ill. 387, 38 N. E. 888, 137 Ill. 474, 27 N. E. 536 [affirming 37 Ill. App. 607]; Ames v. Ames, 148 Ill. 321, 36 N. E. 110 [affirming 44 Ill. App. 576]; Le Moyne v. Harding, 132 Ill. 78, 23 N. E. 416; Stunz v. Stunz, 131 Ill. 309, 23 N. E. 410; Bangs v. Brown, 110 Ill. 96; Carter v. Penn, 99 Ill. 390 [reversing 8 Ill. App. 299]; McFarland v. McFarland, 72 Ill. App. 425; Rohn v. Harris, 31 Ill. App. 26. But see Taylor v. Dawson, 65 Ill. App. 232. See also Malaer v. Hudgens, 130 Ill. 225, 22 N. E. 855.

37. Hartshorn v. Dawson, 2 Ill. App. 80. See also Bowar v. Chicago West Division R. Co., 136 Ill. 101, 26 N. E. 702, 12 L. R. A. 81.

which involve homestead rights,[38] suits relating to the assignment of dower,[39] suits involving tax sales of land or deeds thereunder,[40] and suits relating to the validity and construction of devises of land.[41] The question of freehold may be involved in the original suit, however, and not in the appeal, and so qualify the rule.[42] So a freehold is not involved in actions of forcible entry and detainer,[43] in bills to foreclose mortgages on real estate,[44] in bills to redeem or to have a deed declared a mortgage, and to redeem,[45] in suits to enforce liens on land,[46] and in suits involving the right to subject land to the payment of debts.[47]

11. INDIANA — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has jurisdiction coextensive with the limits of the state in appeals and writs of error, under such regulations and restrictions as may be prescribed by law. It also has such original jurisdiction as the general assembly may confer.[48] No appeal can be taken directly to the supreme court unless it be within one of the following classes: (1) Cases in which there is in question, and such question is duly presented,[49]

38. Pettyjohn v. Adams, 95 Ill. App. 243. See also Fizette v. Fizette, 37 Ill. App. 536; Board of Trustees v. Beale, 6 Ill. App. 536.

39. Marsh v. Irwin, 168 Ill. 50, 47 N. E. 768; Walker v. Doane, 131 Ill. 27, 22 N. E. 1006; Walker v. Rand, 31 Ill. App. 636; Hart v. Burch, 31 Ill. App. 22. But see Heuschkel v. Heuschkel, 86 Ill. App. 132.

40. Gage v. Scales, 100 Ill. 218; Angelo v. Angelo, 48 Ill. App. 580; Le Moyne v. Harding, 31 Ill. App. 624 [affirmed in 132 Ill. 23, 23 N. E. 414, 132 Ill. 78, 23 N. E. 416]. But see Westcott v. Kinney, 120 Ill. 564, 12 N. E. 81; Gage v. Pease, 107 Ill. 598; Gage v. Busse, 94 Ill. 590; Ragor v. Lomax, 22 Ill. App. 628.

41. More v. More, 191 Ill. 97, 60 N. E. 880 [reversing 92 Ill. App. 465]; Parsons v. Millar, 189 Ill. 107, 59 N. E. 606; Furnish v. Rogers, 47 Ill. App. 245; Craig v. Southard, 45 Ill. App. 529. See also Moyer v. Swygart, 21 Ill. App. 497; Bice v. Hall, 21 Ill. App. 298.

42. Fread v. Fread, 165 Ill. 228, 46 N. E. 268 [affirming 61 Ill. App. 586]; Franklin v. North America Loan, etc., Co., 152 Ill. 345, 38 N. E. 921; Moore v. Williams, 132 Ill. 591, 24 N. E. 617; Cheney v. Teese, 113 Ill. 444; Pritchard v. Walker, 22 Ill. App. 286.

43. McDole v. Shepardson, 156 Ill. 383, 40 N. E. 953; Spence v. Anderson, 108 Ill. 457; Yokem v. Lovell, 107 Ill. 209; Kepley v. Luke, 106 Ill. 395; Schofield v. Pope, 104 Ill. 130; Morris v. Preston, 93 Ill. 215; McGuirk v. Burry, 93 Ill. 118.

44. Kronenberger v. Heinemann, 190 Ill. 17, 60 N. E. 64; Beach v. Peabody, 188 Ill. 75, 58 N. E. 679; Tormohlen v. Walter, 175 Ill. 442, 51 N. E. 706; Van Meter v. Thomas, 153 Ill. 65, 38 N. E. 1036; Wilkinson v. Gage, 133 Ill. 137, 24 N. E. 562; Sanford v. Kane, 127 Ill. 591, 20 N. E. 810; Aikin v. Cassiday, 105 Ill. 22; McIntyre v. Yates, 100 Ill. 475; Pinneo v. Knox, 100 Ill. 471; Poole v. Kelsey, 95 Ill. App. 233; Wright v. Bruschke, 62 Ill. App. 358; Piper v. Headlee, 39 Ill. App. 93; Gage v. Chicago Theological Seminary, 8 Ill. App. 410. But see Smith v. Jackson, 153 Ill. 399, 39 N. E. 130; Kerfoot v. Cronin, 105 Ill. 609; Parlin, etc., Co. v. Galloway, 95 Ill. App. 60.

A hill to foreclose a chattel mortgage of building on leased ground does not involve the title to real estate. Wheeler v. Gage, 28 Ill. App. 427.

45. Schoendubee v. International Bldg., etc., Union, 183 Ill. 139, 55 N. E. 710; Adamski v. Wieczorek, 181 Ill. 361, 54 N. E. 1034; Ryan v. Sanford, 133 Ill. 291, 24 N. E. 428; Kirchoff v. Union Mut. L. Ins. Co., 128 Ill. 199, 20 N. E. 808; Lynch v. Jackson, 123 Ill. 360, 14 N. E. 697; Hollingsworth v. Koon, 113 Ill. 443; Hoover v. Ekdahl, 59 Ill. App. 312; Story v. Springer, 43 Ill. App. 495. But see Nichols v. Otto, 132 Ill. 91, 23 N. E. 411; Sanford v. Kane, 127 Ill. 591, 20 N. E. 810; Pease v. Hale, 37 Ill. App. 272.

46. Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Peck, 112 Ill. 408. See also Poole v. Kelsey, 95 Ill. App. 233.

In a suit to foreclose a mechanic's lien a freehold is not involved. Pearson Lumber Co. v. Brady, 159 Ill. 378, 42 N. E. 875; Clement v. Reitz, 103 Ill. 315.

47. Pringle v. James, 185 Ill. 274, 56 N. E. 1055; Moshier v. Reynolds, 155 Ill. 72, 39 N. E. 621; Hupp v. Hupp, 153 Ill. 490, 39 N. E. 124; Adkins v. Beane, 135 Ill. 530, 26 N. E. 657; Herdman v. Cooper, 125 Ill. 359, 17 N. E. 826; Blackman v. Preston, 119 Ill. 240, 10 N. E. 669; Johns v. Boyd, 117 Ill. 339, 7 N. E. 588; Illinois Furnace Co. v. Vinnedge, 106 Ill. 650; Dobbins v. Cruger, 106 Ill. 383; Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Watson, 105 Ill. 217; Sawyer v. Moyer, 105 Ill. 192; Conkey v. Knight, 104 Ill. 337; Galbraith v. Plasters, 101 Ill. 444; Magnusson v. Cronholm, 51 Ill. App. 473. But see Ducker v. Wear, etc., Dry Goods Co., 145 Ill. 653, 34 N. E. 562; Frank v. King, 121 Ill. 250, 12 N. E. 720; Dobbins v. Cruger, 11 Ill. App. 114; Patterson v. McKinney, 6 Ill. App. 394.

In suits by an administrator to sell lands to pay debts no freehold is involved. Richie v. Cox, 188 Ill. 276, 58 N. E. 952; Field v. Coker, 161 Ill. 186, 43 N. E. 916; Lynch v. Hickey, 13 Ill. App. 139.

48. Ind. Const. art. 7, § 164.

49. The constitutionality of a statute is involved and is "duly presented" where it is raised by a person as amicus curiæ. Boyd v. Brazil Block Coal Co., 152 Ind. 543, 49 N. E.

either the validity of a franchise,[50] the validity of an ordinance [51] of a municipal corporation, the constitutionality of a statute,[52] state or federal, or rights guaranteed by the state or federal constitution;[53] (2) all prosecutions for felonies; (3) actions to contest the election of public officers; (4) cases of mandate [54] and prohibition; (5) cases of habeas corpus; (6) actions to contest wills; (7) interlocutory orders appointing or refusing to appoint receivers, and interlocutory orders granting or dissolving, or overruling motions to dissolve, temporary injunctions;[55] (8) proceedings to establish public drains and proceedings to change or improve watercourses;[56] (9) proceedings to establish gravel roads.[57] Again if in any case two of the judges of either division of the appellate court are of the opinion that a ruling precedent of the supreme court is erroneous, the case, with a written statement of the reasons for such opinion, shall be transferred to the supreme court.[58] But in any case decided by either division of the appellate court any losing party has the right to appeal to the supreme court, only when the amount in controversy, exclusive of costs and interest on the judgment of the trial court, exceeds six thousand dollars, or where the court is equally divided.[59]

797. But where no provision of the constitution, state or federal, is cited or quoted, no question of constitutional law is "duly presented." In re Pittsburg, etc., R. Co., 147 Ind. 697, 47 N. E. 151. So the question of the validity of an ordinance is not "duly presented" merely because in the circuit court, on appeal from the city court, a demurrer to the answer alleging the invalidity of the ordinance was sustained. Berkey v. Elkhart, 141 Ind. 408, 40 N. E. 1081.

50. Shaul v. Citizens' State Bank, 157 Ind. 281, 61 N. E. 559.

51. People's Nat. Bank v. Ayer, 24 Ind. App. 212, 56 N. E. 267; Pittsburg, etc., R. Co. v. Hays, 17 Ind. App. 261, 44 N. E. 375, 45 N. E. 675, 46 N. E. 597; Griffee v. Summitville, 10 Ind. App. 332, 37 N. E. 280, 1068.

52. See State v. Barnett, 159 Ind. 432, 65 N. E. 515; State v. Wright, 159 Ind. 422, 65 N. E. 289; Colliery Engineer Co. v. American Car, etc., Co., 157 Ind. 111, 60 N. E. 941; Whisnand v. Fee, (Ind. 1898) 49 N. E. 817; Dowell v. Talbot Paving Co., 138 Ind. 675, 38 N. E. 389; Benson v. Christian, 129 Ind. 535, 29 N. E. 26; Ex p. Sweeney, 126 Ind. 583, 27 N. E. 127; State v. Bagby, 29 Ind. App. 554, 64 N. E. 895; Woods v. Indiana Mut. Bldg., etc., Assoc., 28 Ind. App. 359, 62 N. E. 454; Greensburg v. Cleveland, etc., R. Co., 23 Ind. App. 141, 55 N. E. 46; Pittsburg, etc., R. Co. v. Hays, 17 Ind. App. 261, 44 N. E. 375, 45 N. E. 675, 46 N. E. 597; State v. Atkinson, (Ind. App. 1894) 38 N. E. 340; Durham v. State, (Ind. App. 1892) 30 N. E. 936.

Where the validity of a statute is involved the cause will be transferred from the appellate to the supreme court. Praigg v. Western Paving, etc., Co., (Ind. App. 1895) 42 N. E. 372; State v. Columbus, etc., R. Co., 9 Ind. App. 226, 36 N. E. 651; Indiana, etc., R. Co. v. Larrew, (Ind. App. 1892) 30 N. E. 152; Fuller v. Cox, (Ind. App. 1892) 30 N. E. 152. See also Benson v. Christian, 129 Ind. 535, 29 N. E. 26. But where the supreme court has theretofore decided that a statute is constitutional, it is unnecessary to transfer the cause. Van Camp Hardware, etc., Co. v. O'Brien, (Ind. App. 1902) 62 N. E. 464.

53. Willard v. Albertson, 23 Ind. App. 164, 53 N. E. 1077, 54 N. E. 403.

54. See State v. Friedley, 151 Ind. 404, 51 N. E. 473.

55. Leatherman v. Orange County, (Ind. App. 1897) 47 N. E. 347; Wood v. Hughes, (Ind. App. 1892) 32 N. E. 594.

If the decree appointing a receiver is a final one an appeal is to be taken to the appellate and not to the supreme court. Hay v. McDaniel, 156 Ind. 390, 59 N. E. 1064.

56. Haefgen v. Harness, (Ind. App. 1897) 46 N. E. 1006; Denton v. Thompson, (Ind. App. 1893) 34 N. E. 128.

57. 2 Horner Anno. Stat. Ind. (1901), § 6565*e*.

58. 2 Horner Anno. Stat. Ind. (1901), § 6565*f*; Ind. Acts (1901), c. 247, § 10; Wagner v. Carskadon, 28 Ind. App. 573, 60 N. E. 731, 61 N. E. 976.

Where a petition for a rehearing in the appellate court has been overruled the aggrieved party may file an application in the supreme court for transfer thereto on the ground that the opinion of said division of said appellate court contravenes a ruling precedent of the supreme court, or that a new question of law is directly involved, and was decided erroneously and upon granting of the application, presented in compliance with the statute, the case shall be transferred to the supreme court. 2 Horner Anno. Stat. Ind. (1901), § 6565*f*; Ind. Acts (1901), c. 247, § 10.

The transfer of a cause by the supreme court is final and cannot be collaterally attacked. Wagner v. Carskadon, 28 Ind. App. 573, 60 N. E. 731, 61 N. E. 976. See also Newman v. Gates, 150 Ind. 59, 49 N. E. 826. But the supreme court cannot compel the court of appeals to transfer to it a record on appeal from review of a judgment in an action within the appellate court's jurisdiction. Ex p. Kiley, 135 Ind. 225, 34 N. E. 989. Again after an adverse decision in the supreme court the question cannot be presented again to the appellate court. Willard v. Albertson, 23 Ind. App. 166, 53 N. E. 1078, 54 N. E. 446.

59. 2 Horner Anno. Stat. Ind. (1901), § 6565*f*; Ind. Acts (1901), c. 247, § 10.

b. Appellate Court. All cases other than those above specified [60] as appealable to the supreme court are appealable to the appellate court, the jurisdiction of which is final except as above set forth.[61]

c. Other Courts. The circuit court has such appellate jurisdiction as may be conferred by law.[62] Appellate jurisdiction has also been conferred upon superior courts,[63] justices of the peace,[64] and generally upon courts of competent[66] or of general jurisdiction.[66]

12. Iowa — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has appellate jurisdiction [67] only in cases in chancery, and constitutes a court for the correction of errors at law,[68] under such restrictions as the general assembly may by law prescribe,[69] and has power to issue all writs [70] and process necessary to secure justice to parties and exercise a supervisory control over all inferior judicial tribunals throughout the state.[71]

b. Other Courts. The district court possesses and exercises jurisdiction in all appeals and writs of error taken in civil and criminal actions and special proceedings authorized to be taken from all inferior courts, tribunals, boards, or officers, under any provisions of the laws of the state, and it has a general supervision thereof in all matters to prevent and correct abuses, where no other remedy is provided.[72] Writs of error and appeals may be taken to the superior court from justices' courts in the township in which the court is held, and by consent of parties from any other township in the county.[73]

13. Kansas — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has original jurisdiction in proceedings in quo warranto, mandamus, and habeas corpus,[74] and such appellate jurisdiction as may be provided by law. Its jurisdiction is coextensive with

Division of court see Hudson v. Wood, (Ind. 1899) 54 N. E. 104.

Money demands and money judgments only are appealable, and not decrees or judgments involving ownership or possession of real estate merely. Smith v. American Crystal Monument Co., (Ind. 1902) 65 N. E. 524.

60. See supra, XI, B, 11, a.

61. 2 Horner Anno. Stat. Ind. (1901). §§ 6565*e*, 6565*f*, 6565*g*; Heady v. Brown, 151 Ind. 75, 49 N. E. 805, 51 N. E. 85; Indiana Natural Gas, etc., Co. v. Wootens, 141 Ind. 315, 40 N. E. 669; Dallin v. McIvor, 140 Ind. 386, 39 N. E. 461; Midland R. Co. v. State, 138 Ind. 279, 37 N. E. 986; Terre Haute v. Blake, 136 Ind. 636, 36 N. E. 422; Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Towle, (Ind. 1894) 36 N. E. 213; Rauh v. Weis, 133 Ind. 264, 32 N. E. 880; Ex p. Sweeney, 126 Ind. 583, 27 N. E. 127; Hammond v. New York, etc., R. Co., 126 Ind. 597, 27 N. E. 130; Baker v. Groves, 126 Ind. 593, 29 N. E. 1076; Leatherman v. Orange County, (Ind. App. 1897) 47 N. E. 347; North v. Barringer, (Ind. App. 1897) 46 N. E. 479; Indiana, etc., R. Co. v. Rinehart, 14 Ind. App. 587, 42 N. E. 1031; Howks v. Goshen, (Ind. App. 1895) 42 N. E. 242; Kiley v. Murphy, 7 Ind. App. 239, 34 N. E. 112, 650; Rissing v. Ft. Wayne, 7 Ind. App. 103, 34 N. E. 453; Shoemaker v. South Bend Spark Arrester Co., 7 Ind. App. 102, 34 N. E. 126; Evans v. West, 7 Ind. App. 70, 34 N. E. 244; Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Malott, 6 Ind. App. 545, 33 N. E. 1009; Ft. Wayne Land, etc., Co. v. Maumee Ave. Gravel Road Co., (Ind. App. 1892) 30 N. E. 915.

62. Horner Anno. Stat. Ind. (1901), § 1314; Thornton Stat. Ind. (1897), § 1378; Hamilton v. Ft. Wayne, 73 Ind. 1; Hamlyn v. Nesbit, 37 Ind. 284; Henry v. Henry, 13 Ind. 250.

63. Thornton Stat. Ind. (1897), §§ 1416, 8224.

64. 2 Horner Anno. Stat. Ind. (1901), § 5079; Thornton Stat. Ind. (1897), § 7128.

65. Thornton Stat. Ind. (1897), § 3564.

66. 1 Horner Anno. Stat. Ind. 1901), §§ 3180, 3372, 3703; Thornton Stat. Ind. (1897), §§ 3711, 4516.

67. Simonson v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 48 Iowa 19; Harvey v. Miller, 25 Iowa 219; Powell v. Spaulding, 3 Greene (Iowa) 417; Perkins v. Testerment, 3 Greene (Iowa) 207; Reed v. Murphy, 2 Greene (Iowa) 568; Preston v. Daniels, 2 Greene (Iowa) 536.

68. Harvey v. Miller, 25 Iowa 219.

69. Coffin v. Davenport, 26 Iowa 515.

70. Manning v. Poling, 114 Iowa 20, 83 N. W. 895, 86 N. W. 30; Westbrook v. Wicks, 36 Iowa 382.

71. Iowa Const. art. 5, § 4.

The supreme court has appellate jurisdiction over all judgments and decisions of all courts of record, except as otherwise provided by law. Iowa Anno. Code (1897), § 4100.

Motion for new trial.— The supreme court has no jurisdiction to hear and determine motions for a new trial. Stewart v. Pierce, 116 Iowa 733, 89 N. W. 234.

72. Iowa Anno. Code (1897), § 225.

73. Iowa Anno. Code (1897), § 260.

74. State v. Allen, 5 Kan. 213. See also Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Harris, 42 Kan. 223, 21 Pac. 1071.

The supreme court has no original jurisdiction of an action to enjoin one from exercising the duties and powers of county attorney. Foster v. Moore, 32 Kan. 483, 4 Pac. 850.

the state.[75] It may vacate or modify judgments and certain final and other orders of district or other courts of record, except a probate court,[76] but has no jurisdiction, unless the amount or value in controversy exclusive of costs in civil actions exceeds one hundred dollars.[77] It has jurisdiction in cases involving the tax or revenue laws, or the title to real estate, or an action for damages in which slander, libel, malicious prosecution, or false imprisonment is declared upon, or the constitution of the state, or the constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. It has also jurisdiction over certain motions for the rehearing of cases decided in the court of appeals prior to a specified date, and in certain other cases with relation to the court of appeals and cases therein.[78]

b. District Courts. District courts have such jurisdiction in their respective districts as may be provided by law,[79] and all appeals from probate courts and justices of the peace shall be to the district courts,[80] and also from certain police courts.[81] District courts have jurisdiction in cases of appeal and error from all inferior courts and tribunals, and have a general supervision and control of all inferior courts and tribunals to prevent and correct error and abuses.[82]

14. KENTUCKY — a. Court of Appeals. The court of appeals has appellate jurisdiction only,[83] which is coextensive with the state, under such restrictions and regulations not repugnant to the constitution as may from time to time be prescribed by law. Such court has power to issue such writs[84] as may be neces-

75. Kan. Const. art. 3, § 3; Dassler Gen. Stat. Kan. (1899), § 150.

76. Nash v. Campbell, 15 Kan. 226; Crane v. Giles, 3 Kan. 54.

Court of visitation.— The supreme court may review final decrees of the court of visitation. Dassler Gen. Stat. Kan. § 5812.

77. Barker v. Lanyon Zinc Co., 64 Kan. 884, 67 Pac. 629; Staley v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 63 Kan. 885, 65 Pac. 643; Bailey v. Berry, 63 Kan. 880, 64 Pac. 981; Kansas City v. Frowerk, 61 Kan. 859, 64 Pac. 68; Davenport v. Franklin County School Dist. No. 4, 62 Kan. 869, 64 Pac. 596; Carlow v. Fowler, 62 Kan. 868, 63 Pac. 737; Conklin v. Hutchinson, 62 Kan. 867, 62 Pac. 1012; McClain v. Jones, 60 Kan. 639, 57 Pac. 500.

78. Kan. Laws (1901), c. 278, pp. 505–508.

During the existence of the court of appeals the supreme court had certain jurisdiction in relation thereto. See Holton v. Bimrod, 60 Kan. 860, 61 Kan. 13, 58 Pac. 558; McClain v. Jones, 60 Kan. 639, 57 Pac. 500; Erb v. Morasch, 60 Kan. 251, 56 Pac. 133; Standard Oil Co. v. Angevine, 60 Kan. 167, 55 Pac. 879; Stern v. Craig, (Kan. 1898) 51 Pac. 782; Hull v. Johnson, 10 Kan. App. 565, 63 Pac. 455; Landis v. Davidson, (Kan. App. 1898) 53 Pac. 488; Markley v. Kirby, 6 Kan. App. 494, 50 Pac. 953; McCalla v. Daugherty, 4 Kan. App. 410, 46 Pac. 30 [affirmed in 59 Kan. 719, 54 Pac. 1054]; Kansas City, etc., R. Co. v. Johnson County, 2 Kan. App. 742, 43 Pac. 1147. The effect of the act of Feb. 27, 1895, creating the court of appeals was to suspend the operation of the general provisions of the statute during the life of the court of appeals, and upon the expiration of that court [the second Monday of January, 1901] in the absence of any statute further staying the operation of such provisions, they became at once operative and effective; and the jurisdiction of the supreme court over all classes of litigation enumerated in the act of 1895 immediately thereafter attached and became reinstated as if no such act had been passed. A new act was not necessary to restore such jurisdiction, for the repealing part of said statute was not a general repeal, but only of such statutes as might interfere with the operation of the act of which said repealing clause was a part. Atchison, etc., R. Co. v. Morris, 65 Kan. 532, 70 Pac. 651.

Proceedings in error commenced while the court of appeals was in existence do not become cognizable by the supreme court in the first instance. Wood v. O'Hair, 64 Kan. 883, 67 Pac. 451.

79. Kan. Const. art. 3, § 153; Dassler Gen. Stat. Kan. (1899), § 153.

80. Kan. Const. art. 3, § 10; Dassler Gen. Stat. Kan. (1899), § 157.

81. Dassler Gen. Stat. Kan. (1899), §§ 784, 1006, 1117, 1135; Kan. Laws (1901), c. 114.

82. Dassler Gen. Stat. Kan. (1899), § 1879. See also Missouri Pac. R. Co. v. Atchison, 43 Kan. 529, 23 Pac. 610.

83. Marchand v. Russell, 78 Ky. 516; Beazley v. Mershon, 6 Bush (Ky.) 424; Daniel v. Warren County Ct., 1 Bibb (Ky.) 496; Morgan v. Register, Hard. (Ky.) 609.

Appellate jurisdiction implies, ex vi termini, a resort from an inferior to a superior tribunal for the purpose of reviewing the judgments of the former. Smith v. Carr, Hard. (Ky.) 305.

Jurisdiction as a revising tribunal is judicial only and extends only to those acts of inferior tribunals which are in their nature judicial or are done in the exercise of a judicial power. Gorham v. Luckett, 6 B. Mon. (Ky.) 146.

84. Campbellville Tel. Co. v. Patteson, 69 S. W. 1070, 24 Ky. L. Rep. 832; Shackleford v. Patterson, 62 S. W. 1040, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 316.

sary to give it general control of inferior jurisdictions.[85] No appeal can be taken to such court for the recovery of money or personal property, if the value in controversy be less than two hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs,[86] nor to reverse a judgment granting a divorce or punishing contempt, nor from any order or judgment of a county court,[87] except in actions for the division of land or the allotment of dower, nor from any order or judgment of a quarterly, city,[88] police, fiscal, or justice's court, nor from a bond having the force of a judgment. In all other civil cases, the court of appeals has appellate jurisdiction over the final orders and judgments of all courts.[89]

b. Other Courts. Appeals may be taken to the circuit court from all orders and judgments of the fiscal court or quarterly court in civil cases, where the value in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, is over twenty-five dollars, and from all judgments of the county court, where the amount in controversy is over fifty dollars, exclusive of interest and costs; and from all judgments and orders of said court in cases of bastardy, or in the settlement of accounts of personal representatives, assignees, guardians, trustees, curators, and other fiduciaries, and from orders granting, revoking, or refusing letters testamentary, or of administration, or appointing or refusing to appoint, or removing curators, guardians, trustees, or committees of estates, or granting or refusing to grant druggist, tavern, or liquor licenses,[90] and from judgments in proceedings to condemn land for any purpose, and in all other cases allowed by law.[91] Appeals may be taken to the quarterly court from all judgments and orders of justices, fiscal, city, or police courts, when the value in controversy is over ten dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.[92]

15. Louisiana — a. Supreme Court. Under the constitution[93] the supreme court, except as hereinafter stated, has appellate jurisdiction only,[94] which extends to all cases when the matter in dispute, or the fund to be distributed, whatever

Only judgments of inferior courts and not acts of ministerial officers of such courts are within jurisdiction as to writs. Smith v. Carr, Hard. (Ky.) 305.

85. Ky. Const. art. 4, § 1; Carroll Stat. Ky. (1899), §§ 110, 949.

86. Turner v. Pash, (Ky. 1891) 17 S. W. 809; Clarke v. Chiles, 2 T. B. Mon. (Ky.) 105; Hammond v. Lee, 62 S. W. 262, 23 Ky. L. Rep. 8; Gorman v. Glenn, 58 S. W. 776, 22 Ky. L. Rep. 839; Boune v. Beck, 58 S. W. 690, 22 Ky. L. Rep. 792; Brown v. Vancleave, 9 Ky. L. Rep. 150.

87. Hendrickson v. Bell County Ct., 7 Ky. L. Rep. 660. But see Boehler v. Com., 1 Duv. (Ky.) 3.

88. Smith v. Com., 1 S. W. 433, 8 Ky. L. Rep. 260.

89. Carroll Stat. Ky. (1899), § 950; Ky. Gen. Stat. c. 35, art. 1, subd. 2; Whitehead v. Brother's Lodge No. 132, I. O. O. F., 71 S. W. 933, 24 Ky. L. Rep. 1633.

Municipal ordinance.— An appeal to the court of appeals lies from a judgment of a judge of the Lexington city court, deciding against the validity of an ordinance or by-law of that city. Com. v. Ingraham, 7 Bush (Ky.) 106. But see Brannin v. Gleason, 14 Ky. L. Rep. 109.

Office or franchise.— An appeal lies to the court of appeals from an order, judgment, or decree relating to an office or franchise. Smith v. Cochran, 7 Bush (Ky.) 147; Justices Spencer County Ct. v. Harcourt, 4 B. Mon. (Ky.) 499.

Title to land.— Where the title to land is involved the court of appeals has jurisdiction. French v. Sewell, 93 Ky. 1, 29 S. W. 976; Stultz v. Farthing, 91 Ky. 372, 16 S. W. 80; Pittman v. Wakefield, 90 Ky. 171, 13 S. W. 525, 11 Ky. L. Rep. 972; Patterson v. T. J. Moss Tie Co., 71 S. W. 930, 24 Ky. L. Rep. 1571; Roach v. T. J. Moss Tie Co., 71 S. W. 2, 24 Ky. L. Rep. 1222; Hughes v. Merritt, 10 Ky. L. Rep. 543; Quiggins v. McCarty, 4 Ky. L. Rep. 444.

90. Hendrickson v. Bell County Ct., 7 Ky. L. Rep. 660. But see Boehler v. Com., 1 Duv. (Ky.) 3.

91. Carroll Stat. Ky. (1899), § 978; Ky. Gen. Stat. c. 35, art. 2, subd. 2.

The jurisdiction of the circuit courts remains as it existed when the present constitution became of full force, subject to the power of the general assembly to change the same, and this applies to the right to appeal or to sue out a writ of error. Ky. Const. art. 4, §§ 17, 18; Carroll Stat. Ky. (1899), §§ 126, 127.

92. Carroll Stat. Ky. (1899), § 1054; Ky. Gen. Stat. c. 35, art. 3. But see Monterfy, etc., Turnpike Co. v. Davis, 3 Ky. L. Rep. 465, holding that an appeal from a judgment of a police judge does not lie to the quarterly court but to the circuit court where the amount in controversy is sufficient.

93. La. Const. (1898), art. 85.

94. Brown v. Ragland, 35 La. Ann. 837; Walker v. Barelli, 32 La. Ann. 1159; State v. Cheevers, 32 La. Ann. 941; Tauzin's Suc-may be the amount therein claimed, shall exceed two thousand dollars, exclusive of interest;[95] to suits for divorces and separation from bed and board, and to all matters arising therein; to suits involving alimony, for the nullity of marriage, or for interdiction; to all matters of adoption, emancipation, legitimacy, and custody of children; to suits involving homestead exemptions; to all cases in which the constitutionality or legality of any tax, toll, or impost whatever, or of any fine, forfeiture, or penalty imposed by a municipal corporation shall be in contestation, whatever may be the amount thereof;[96] to all cases wherein an ordinance of a municipal corporation or a law of the state has been declared unconstitutional;[97] and to criminal cases on questions of law alone, whenever the punishment of death or imprisonment at hard labor may be inflicted, or a fine exceeding three hundred dollars, or imprisonment exceeding six months is actually imposed.[98] The supreme court has also such original jurisdiction as may be necessary to enable it to determine questions of fact affecting its own jurisdiction in any case pending before it, or it may remand the case; and it has exclusive original jurisdiction in all matters touching professional misconduct of members of the bar, with power to disbar. The supreme court and each of the justices thereof have cession, 21 La. Ann. 536; Elton v. Temple, 21 La. Ann. 502; Gove v. Breedlove, 5 Rob. (La.) 78; State v. Bermudez, 14 La. 478; Robouam v. Robouam, 12 La. 73; Bayon v. New Orleans, 9 La. 578.

95. Sugar v. Monroe, 108 La. 677, 32 So. 961, 59 L. R. A. 723; Hodge v. Monroe Mercantile Co., 105 La. 668, 30 So. 142; State v. Judges Ct. of App., 105 La. 333, 29 So. 892; Grangell v. Taylor, 105 La. 324, 29 So. 885; Immanuel Presb. Church v. Riedy, 52 La. Ann. 1353, 27 So. 888; Macedonia Baptist Church v. Dickinson, 52 La. Ann. 704, 27 So. 100; Germania Sav. Bank v. Muller, 52 La. Ann. 553, 27 So. 81; State v. Jastremski, 33 La. Ann. 110; Johnson v. Mayer, 30 La. Ann. 1203; Ellis v. Silverstein, 26 La. Ann. 47; Malone v. Casey, 25 La. Ann. 466; State v. Clinton, 25 La. Ann. 285; Cushing v. Hickle, 20 La. Ann. 567; Renneberg's Succession, 15 La. Ann. 661; Taenzer v. Judge Third Dist. Ct., 15 La. Ann. 120.

A statute providing that a party aggrieved "in any case" by the judgment rendered may bring the cause before the supreme court for review is unconstitutional. Brown Shoe Co. v. Hill, 51 La. Ann. 920, 25 So. 634.

96. Tebault v. New Orleans, 108 La. 686, 32 So. 983; State v. Delgado, 107 La. 72, 31 So. 389; State v. Putnam, 106 La. 88, 30 So. 285; Kelly v. Chadwick, 104 La. 719, 29 So. 295; State v. Pigot, 104 La. 683, 29 So. 335; State v. Rosenstram, 52 La. Ann. 2126, 28 So. 294; State v. Cox, 52 La. Ann. 2049, 28 So. 356; Kock v. Triche, 52 La. Ann. 825, 27 So. 354; Shreveport v. Prescott, 51 La. Ann. 1895, 26 So. 664, 46 L. R. A. 193; Ouachita Parish v. Monroe, 50 La. Ann. 301, 23 So. 832; Parker v. Strauss, 49 La. Ann. 1173, 22 So. 329; Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Kentwood, 49 La. Ann. 931, 22 So. 192; Fayssoux v. Denis, 48 La. Ann. 850, 19 So. 760; State v. Judge Sixteenth Judicial Dist. Ct., 48 La. Ann. 506, 19 So. 454; Thibodaux v. Constatin, 48 La. Ann. 338, 19 So. 135; Sentell v. Police Jury, 48 La. Ann. 96, 18 So. 910; Vicksburg, etc., R. Co. v. Scott, 47 La. Ann. 706, 17 So. 249; Torian v. Shayot, 47 La. Ann. 589, 17 So. 203; Suthon v. Houma, 46 La. Ann. 1561, 16 So. 474; State v. Judges Ct. of App., 46 La. Ann. 1292, 16 So. 219; Parish v. Broussard, 42 La. Ann. 841, 8 So. 590; Meyer v. Pleasant, 41 La. Ann. 645, 6 So. 258; State v. Pittsburg, etc., Coal Co., 41 La. Ann. 465, 6 So. 220; State v. Miller, 41 La. Ann. 53, 5 So. 258, 7 So. 672; Johnson v. Cavanac, 40 La. Ann. 773, 5 So. 61; Bush v. Police Jury, 39 La. Ann. 899, 2 So. 790; State v. New Orleans, 39 La. Ann. 342, 1 So. 668; Favrot v. Baton Rouge, 38 La. Ann. 230; Sweeney v. Seiler, 37 La. Ann. 585; Adler v. Board of Assessors, 37 La. Ann. 507; Carondelet Canal, etc., Co. v. The First Chevere Tedesco, 37 La. Ann. 100; Cobb v. McGuire, 36 La. Ann. 801; State v. Lazarus, 36 La. Ann. 286; New Orleans v. Arthurs, 36 La. Ann. 98; Tebbe v. Police Jury, 34 La. Ann. 137; State v. Police Jury, 34 La. Ann. 41; Board of Levee Com'rs v. Lorio, 33 La. Ann. 276; New Orleans v. Hill, 32 La. Ann. 1161; Lincoln Parish v. Huey, 30 La. Ann. 1244; Gonzales v. Lindsay, 30 La. Ann. 1085; State v. Sies, 30 La. Ann. 918; State v. Judge Third Dist. Ct., 30 La. Ann. 415; Hyatt v. Police Jury, 28 La. Ann. 233; Rooney v. Brown, 21 La. Ann. 51; State v. Third Justice of Peace, 12 La. Ann. 789; State v. Judge Sixth Judicial Dist., 9 La. Ann. 350; State v. Rebassa, 9 La. Ann. 305; Bayou Sara v. Tooraen, 9 La. Ann. 206; Albert v. Brewer, 9 La. Ann. 64; New Orleans v. The M. Hawes, 6 La. Ann. 389; Second Municipality v. Corning, 4 La. Ann. 407; Penn v. First Municipality, 4 La. Ann. 13.

97. Moss v. Newhouse, 52 La. Ann. 945, 27 So. 536; Central Mfg., etc., Co. v. Mutual Bldg., etc., Assoc., 51 La. Ann. 900, 25 So. 638; New Orleans v. Reems, 49 La. Ann. 792, 21 So. 599; State v. Dean, 45 La. Ann. 441, 12 So. 489; State v. Murphy, 41 La. Ann. 526, 6 So. 816; State v. Judge Fourth Judicial Dist. Ct., 24 La. Ann. 610; Louisiana Bd. of Health v. Pooley, 11 La. Ann. 743; Donaldsonville v. Richard, 4 La. Ann. 83.

98. State v. Hand, 50 La. Ann. 1076, 23 So. 871; Barry v. Garnier, 31 La. Ann. 831.

power to issue writs of habeas corpus at the instance of any person in actual custody in any case where it may have appellate jurisdiction.[99] Such court has also control and general supervision over all inferior courts.[1] The court or any judge thereof has power to issue writs of certiorari, prohibition, mandamus, quo warranto, and other remedial writs.[2]

b. Other Courts. The courts of appeal, except as otherwise provided in the constitution, have appellate jurisdiction only, which extends to all cases, civil or probate, when the matter in dispute or funds to be distributed exceed one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, and does not exceed two thousand dollars, exclusive of interest.[3] The courts of appeal and each of the judges thereof have power to issue the writ of habeas corpus at the instance of any person in actual custody within their respective circuits. They also have authority to issue writs of mandamus, prohibition, and certiorari, in aid of their appellate jurisdiction.[4] District courts have jurisdiction of appeals from justices of the peace in all civil matters, regardless of the amount in dispute, and from all orders requiring a peace bond. Persons sentenced to a fine or imprisonment, by mayors or recorders, are entitled to an appeal to the district court of the parish upon security given, and in such cases the trial is de novo.[5] In all cases where there is an appeal from a judgment rendered on a reconventional demand, the appeal lies to the court having jurisdiction of the main demand.[6]

99. La. Const. (1898), art. 93; In re Ross, 38 La. Ann. 523; State v. Houston, 35 La. Ann. 1194; State v. Fagin, 28 La. Ann. 887; State v. Parish Prison, 15 La. Ann. 347. See also State v. Sauvinet, 24 La. Ann. 119, 13 Am. Rep. 115.

1. State v. King, 49 La. Ann. 1527, 22 So. 806; State v. Judges Ct. of App., 33 La. Ann. 1201.

To authorize review by certiorari the question must be one of law. In re Murff, 50 La. 998, 23 So. 965.

The power to review a judgment of the court of appeals will not be exercised where the amount involved is only a small sum and no application was made to correct the error by an application for a new trial. Schwan v. Forgey, 51 La. Ann. 752, 25 So. 465. And although on writ of review from the court of appeals the judgment may be declared void for want of jurisdiction, yet the merits of the case will not be passed upon under such writ when an adjudication could have been had upon the merits by a proper appeal from the court of first instance. State v. Rosenstream, 52 La. Ann. 2126, 28 So. 294. But see Murphy v. Royal Ins. Co., 52 La. Ann. 775, 27 So. 143.

2. La. Const. (1898), art. 94.

Remedial writs.— State v. Foster, 106 La. 425, 31 So. 57; State v. Hingle, 104 La. 775, 29 So. 349; State v. Judge Second City Ct., 37 La. Ann. 285; State v. Voorhies, 33 La. Ann. 832; State v. Judges Ct. of App., 33 La. Ann. 358; State v. Skinner, 33 La. Ann. 146; State v. Judge Sixth Judicial Dist., 9 La. Ann. 350; McCarty's Succession, 2 La. Ann. 979; State v. Parish Judge, 11 Rob. (La.) 285; Baron v. Kingsland, 5 La. 378. But writ of prohibition will not be issued. State v. Judge First Dist. Ct., 45 La. Ann. 1206, 14 So. 73; State v. Judge Civil Dist. Ct., 45 La Ann. 532, 12 So. 941; State v. Judge Super. Dist. Ct., 27 La. Ann. 676; State v. Judge Super. Dist. Ct., 26 La. Ann. 750.

3. La. Const. (1898), art. 98. See also State v. Circuit Ct. of App., 49 La. Ann. 1221, 22 So. 368; State v. Judges Ct. of App., 45 La. Ann. 1319, 14 So. 118; State v. Judges, 43 La. Ann. 1164, 10 So. 253.

Amount in controversy.—Reinerth v. Rhody, 52 La. Ann. 2029, 28 So. 277; State v. Judges Ct. of App., 52 La. Ann. 1503, 27 So. 965; Weil v. Richaud, 51 La. Ann. 1311, 26 So. 265; State v. Blackman, 50 La. Ann. 126, 23 So. 205; State v. Judges, 43 La. Ann. 198, 9 So. 16; State v. Judges, 42 La. Ann. 589, 7 So. 632; State v. Judge Ct. of App., 37 La. Ann. 372; State v. Judges Ct. of App., 33 La. Ann. 1096; Carroll v. Wallace, McGloin (La.) 316; Martel v. Smith, McGloin (La.) 167.

All cases on appeal to the court of appeal shall be tried on the original record, pleadings, and evidence. La. Const. (1898), art. 103. Such provision applies only to appeals from district courts and does not preclude jurisdiction of an appeal from a parish court. State v. Judges Circuit Ct. of App., 32 La. Ann. 774.

The court of appeal for the parish of Orleans has appellate jurisdiction from the city courts of New Orleans. La. Const. (1898), art. 131. See also State v. Judges Ct. of App., 41 La. Ann. 56, 5 So. 527; State v. Judges Ct. of App., 33 La. Ann. 1351; State v. Judges Ct. of App., 33 La. Ann. 358; Louisiana Ice Co. v. State Nat. Bank, 32 La. Ann. 597.

4. La. Const. (1898), art. 104.

Writs in aid of appellate jurisdiction.— State v. Judge First Dist. Ct., 45 La. Ann. 1206, 14 So. 73; Winn v. Scott, 2 La. 88.

5. La. Const. (1898), art. 111; State v. Judges Circuit Ct. of App., 32 La. Ann. 774.

6. La. Const. (1898), art. 95.

Reconventional demand on appeal goes to the court of appeals where it has jurisdiction of the main demand. Norwood v. Wimby, 104 La. 645, 29 So. 311.

16. MAINE — a. Supreme Judicial Court. The supreme court is obliged to give its opinion upon important questions of law, and upon solemn occasions, when required by the governor, council, senate, or house of representatives.[7] The supreme court has jurisdiction of all offenses, misdemeanors, and civil actions legally brought before it; may render judgment and award execution thereon; may exercise its jurisdiction according to the common law not inconsistent with the constitution or statutes;[8] and may punish for contempts and administer oaths. It has general superintendence of all inferior courts for the prevention and correction of errors and abuses where the law does not expressly provide a remedy.[9] It may issue writs of error, certiorari, mandamus, prohibition, quo warranto, and all writs and processes necessary for the furtherance of justice, or the execution of the laws.[10] It has jurisdiction as a court of equity in specified cases,[11] and full equity jurisdiction according to the usage and practice of courts of equity, in all other cases where there is not a plain, adequate, and complete remedy at law.[12] Such court sits as a court of law only in cases in which there are motions for new trials upon evidence reported by the justice; questions of law arising on reports of cases; bills of exceptions; agreed statements of facts; cases, civil or criminal, presenting a question of law; all questions arising in equity cases; motions to dissolve injunctions issued after notice and hearing, or continued after a hearing; questions arising on writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, and certiorari, when the facts are agreed on, or are ascertained and reported by a justice.[13] The supreme court is also the supreme court of probate and has appellate jurisdiction in all matters determined by the several judges of probate except appointments of special administrators.[14]

b. Superior Courts. The superior court in each of the counties of Cumberland and Kennebec has exclusive jurisdiction of civil appeals from municipal and police courts and trial justices.[15]

17. MARYLAND — a. Court of Appeals. The jurisdiction of the court of appeals is coextensive with the state and such as is or may be prescribed by law.[16] Such court has jurisdiction of appeals from any judgment or determination of any court of law in any civil suit or action, or in any prosecution for the recovery of any penalty, fine, or damages; and from any final decree or order in the nature of a final decree passed by a court of equity.[17]

7. Me. Const. art. 6, § 3.

The question must be submitted on a solemn occasion, and if it appears to the judges that such an occasion does not exist it is their duty to decline to give such opinion. Opinion of Justices, 95 Me. 564, 51 Atl. 224; Opinion of Justices, 85 Me. 545, 27 Atl. 454. And only important questions of law and not questions of policy or expediency are within the requirement. Opinion of Justices, 95 Me. 564, 51 Atl. 224.

8. Badger v. Towle, 48 Me. 20, holding that the supreme court has general common-law jurisdiction in all cases unless restricted by the constitution or statutes.

9. Harriman v. Waldo County Com'rs, 53 Me. 83, holding that the supreme court has general superintendence over inferior courts and may issue writs.

10. Me. Rev. Stat. (1883), c. 77, §§ 1–5.

11. Me. Rev. Stat. (1883), c. 77, § 6, pp. 627, 628; Freeman's Suppl. (1885–1895), pp. 415, 416. See also Tappan v. Deblois, 45 Me. 122; Soutter v. Atwood, 34 Me. 153, 56 Am. Dec. 647; French v. Sturdivant, 8 Me. 246.

The supreme court in one county where an equity bill is filed has jurisdiction of all matters interlocutory or otherwise except such as by statute or by rules of court may be passed upon in another county or by a single judge at chambers in vacation. Androscoggin, etc., R. Co. v. Androscoggin R. Co., 49 Me. 392.

12. Me. Rev. Stat. (1883), c. 77, p. 627 et seq; Freeman's Suppl. (1885–1895), p. 415 et seq.

13. Me. Rev. Stat. (1883), c. 77, § 42.

14. Me. Rev. Stat. (1883), c. 63, § 23. See also McKenney v. Alvord, 73 Me. 221; Carvill v. Carvill, 73 Me. 136.

An action is not a probate appeal, cognizable by a supreme court of probate, when brought by a creditor of an insolvent estate under administration. Merrill v. Crossman, 68 Me. 412.

15. Me. Rev. Stat. (1883), c. 77, §§ 63, 67; Freeman Suppl. (1885–1895), p. 419.

16. Md. Const. art. 4, § 14.

Habeas corpus.— The court of appeals has no original jurisdiction in habeas corpus cases. Sevinskey v. Wagus, 76 Md. 335, 25 Atl. 468; Ex p. O'Neill, 8 Md. 227. But see Roth v. House of Refuge, 31 Md. 329.

17. Md. Pub. Gen. Laws (1888), art. 5, §§ 2, 24.

b. Other Courts. The circuit courts were given by the constitution all the appellate power and jurisdiction exercised by the then circuit courts or which might thereafter be prescribed by law.[18] The Baltimore city court has exclusive jurisdiction of appeals from judgments of justices of the peace in such city.[19]

18. Massachusetts — a. Supreme Judicial Court. The opinions of the justices of the supreme judicial court upon important questions of law and upon solemn occasions may be required by each branch of the legislature as well as by the governor and council.[20] Such court has general superintendence of all courts of inferior jurisdiction to correct and prevent errors and abuses therein where no other remedy is expressly provided; and it may issue writs of error, certiorari, mandamus, prohibition, quo warranto, and all other writs and processes to such courts and to corporations and individuals which may be necessary to the furtherance of justice and to the regular execution of the laws. It may remove clerks of courts, county commissioners, sheriffs, registers of probate and insolvency, or district attorneys. It has original and concurrent jurisdiction with the superior court of actions of contract or replevin in which the damages demanded or property claimed, if the actions are brought in the county of Suffolk, exceed in amount or value four thousand dollars or if brought in any other county exceed one thousand dollars, if the plaintiff, or a person in his behalf, before service of the writ makes the required oath, etc., as to value. The court may also upon petition hear and determine all matters and questions arising under wills. Questions of law are to be heard by the full court[21] — court in banc — arising upon exceptions or report, upon appeals from the superior court, except as otherwise provided. Causes may also be transferred to the full court.[22] Appeal also lies from a final decree of a justice of the supreme judicial court or a final decree of the superior court to the former court.[23] The supreme judicial court is also the supreme court of probate, and it has appellate jurisdiction of all matters which

As to mandamus appeals see Md. Pub. Gen. Laws (1888), art. 5, § 3.

As to appeals from orders as to injunctions, receivers, sale of property, or an order determining the right between parties see Md. Pub. Gen. Laws (1888), art. 5, § 25.

As to appeals from the commissioner of the land-office to the court of appeals see Md. Pub. Gen. Laws (1888), art. 5, § 79.

Order of orphans' court.— No appeal lies to the court of appeals from an order of the orphans' court made appealable elsewhere by statute. Abbott v. Golibart, 39 Md. 554. See also Worthington v. Herron, 39 Md. 145.

18. Md. Const. art. 4, § 20.

Appeals from justices of the peace are allowed in all cases to the circuit courts, except those cases appealable to the Baltimore city court, and such cases are to be heard de novo on appeal. Md. Pub. Gen. Laws (1888), art. 5, § 83.

19. Md. Const. art. 4, § 28.

20. Mass. Const. c. 3, art. 2.

Opinions of justices.—The justices will confine their answer to particular questions of law submitted to them, and there should not be submitted a law or a series of laws or rules more or less complicated to ascertain what questions can be raised as to the validity of every clause, and to obtain an opinion thereon in advance. Opinion of Justices, 145 Mass. 587, 13 N. E. 15. Nor will an opinion be given in relation to a matter where an officer de facto has a right to be heard before an opinion is given. Com. v. Smith, 9 Mass. 531. But a question whether a bill or resolve appropriating money from the state treasury is a money bill which must by the constitution originate in the lower house requires an opinion. Opinion of Justices, 126 Mass. 557.

21. Conto v. Silvia, 170 Mass. 152, 49 N. E. 86.

Hearing by single justice see Ripley v. Collins, 162 Mass. 450, 38 N. E. 1133; Tufts v. Newton, 119 Mass. 476; Granger v. Bassett, 98 Mass. 462.

22. Mass. Rev. Laws (1902), c. 156, §§ 1–27.

Original jurisdiction.—Such court has power to grant an injunction restraining a continuing trespass, such relief being an exercise of its general equity jurisdiction. Boston, etc., R. Co. v. Sullivan, 177 Mass. 230, 58 N. E. 689, 83 Am. St. Rep. 275. But its chancery jurisdiction is limited to that conferred expressly or by implication. Pratt v. Bacon, 10 Pick. (Mass.) 123; Stone v. Hobart, 8 Pick. (Mass.) 464. Such court as one of chancery cannot settle an executor's account, the remedy being appellate. Jenison v. Hapgood, 7 Pick. (Mass.) 1, 19 Am. Dec. 258. Statutes conferring equity jurisdiction are valid and not contrary to the declaration of rights securing a trial by jury. Charles River Bridge v. Warren Bridge, 6 Pick. (Mass.) 376. And the jurisdiction of the supreme court as one of common law is unlimited. Barrell v. Benjamin, 15 Mass. 354.

23. Mass. Rev. Laws (1902), c. 159, § 19.

Full court has exclusive jurisdiction of writ of error to the superior court. Tufts v. Newton, 119 Mass. 476. Appeal also lies to the are determinable by the probate courts and by the judges thereof, except as otherwise expressly provided, and appeal lies to said court from orders, sentences, decrees, or denials of a probate court, or of a judge of such court except as otherwise provided.[24]

b. Superior Court. The superior court has jurisdiction of all civil actions and proceedings which are legally brought before it by appeal or removal, and appellate jurisdiction of crimes tried, etc., in specified courts.[25]

19. MICHIGAN — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has a general superintending control over all inferior courts, and has power to issue writs of error, habeas corpus, mandamus, quo warranto, procedendo, and other original and remedial writs, and to hear and determine the same. In all other cases it has appellate jurisdiction only.[26]

b. Other Courts. The circuit court has appellate jurisdiction from all inferior courts and tribunals and a supervisory control of the same,[27] and the superior court of Grand Rapids has exclusive jurisdiction of appeals from the police court of such city.[28]

20. MINNESOTA — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has original jurisdiction in such remedial cases as may be prescribed by law,[29] and appellate jurisdiction in all cases both in law and equity, but there shall be no trial by jury[30] in said court.[31]

b. District Courts. The district courts have such appellate jurisdiction as may be prescribed by law.[32] full court from a judgment on demurrer in the superior court. Mass. Rev. Laws (1902), c. 173, § 96.

24. Mass. Rev. Laws (1902), c. 162, §§ 8, 9, 18, 27; Ripley v. Collins, 162 Mass. 450, 38 N. E. 1133.

Jurisdiction in insolvency matters see Harlow v. Tufts, 4 Cush. (Mass.) 448; Whiting v. Gray, 9 Metc. (Mass.) 291; Sabine v. Strong, 6 Metc. (Mass.) 270. But see Barnard v. Eaton, 2 Cush. (Mass.) 294.

25. Mass. Rev. Laws (1902), c. 157, §§ 6, 7.

Appeal lies to the superior court from the judgment of a police, district, or municipal court, or trial justice in a civil action, except where there is a written waiver of the right of appeal on trial before a standing and special justice. Mass. Rev. Laws (1902), c. 160, § 42, c. 173, § 97. Appeals also lie to the superior court from decisions and decrees of the land registration court. Mass. Rev. Laws (1902), c. 128, § 13.

26. Mich. Const. art. 6, § 3. See also 1 Mich. Comp. Laws (1887), §§ 191, 192.

A writ of error lies to the circuit court to remove adjudication on an appeal from probate as to a bequest in a will. American Baptist Missionary Union v. Peck, 9 Mich. 445. But it does not lie to any inferior court, the decisions of which are first reviewable by another than the supreme court. Hiney v. Cade, 1 Mich. 163.

The jurisdiction is exclusively appellate, except in special cases. Sanger v. Truesdail, 8 Mich. 543. See also Traverse City, etc., R. Co. v. Seymour, 81 Mich. 378, 45 N. W. 826; Ganoe v. The Jack Robinson, 18 Mich. 456; Jones v. Smith, 14 Mich. 334.

27. Mich. Const. art. 6, § 8. See also 1 Mich. Comp. Laws (1887), § 307.

Appealed cases.— Such court may hear and determine appealed cases. Newell v. Blair, 7 Mich. 103. See also In re Leonard, 95 Mich. 295, 54 N. W. 1082; Hoyt v. Mapes, 3 Mich. 552.

Supervisory control gives jurisdiction to issue common-law certiorari to an inferior court (Thompson v. Crockery School Dist. No. 6, 25 Mich. 483) or to review the action of a court commissioner (People v. Judge St. Clair Circuit, 32 Mich. 95), but a writ of mandamus can be issued only when necessary to carry orders, etc., into effect (McBride v. Grand Rapids, 32 Mich. 360). So such court cannot issue a writ of error. Teller v. Wetherell, 6 Mich. 46.

28. Mich. Comp. Laws (1897), § 630.

29. State v. Otis, 58 Minn. 275, 59 N. W. 1015; State v. Minneapolis Eastern R. Co., 40 Minn. 156, 41 N. W. 465; State v. Burr, 28 Minn. 40, 8 N. W. 899; Crowell v. Lambert, 10 Minn. 369; Prignitz v. Fischer, 4 Minn. 366; Harkins v. Scott County, 2 Minn. 342.

Original jurisdiction is limited to the exceptions enumerated in the statute. Ames v. Boland, 1 Minn. 365.

The legislature is authorized to confer and regulate original jurisdiction. State v. St. Paul, etc., R. Co., 35 Minn. 222, 28 N. W. 245; State v. Lake, 28 Minn. 362, 10 N. W. 17; State v. Grant, 10 Minn. 39.

30. Crowell v. Lambert, 10 Minn. 369; Prignitz v. Fischer, 4 Minn. 366; Harknis v. Scott County, 2 Minn. 342.

31. Minn. Const. art. 6, § 2.

32. Minn. Const. art. 6, § 5.

District courts have appellate jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases from courts of probate and justices of the peace. Minn. Stat. (1894), § 4833.

21. MISSISSIPPI — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has such jurisdiction as properly belongs to a court of appeals,[33] and shall hear and determine all manner of pleas, plaints, motions, causes, and controversies, civil and criminal, pending therein, or which may be brought before it, and which shall be cognizable in said court; but a cause shall not be removed into said court until after final judgment in the court below, except in the cases particularly provided by law; and said court may grant new trials and correct errors of the circuit court in granting or refusing the same. It may make all orders and cause to be issued and executed all necessary process to secure an appeal.[34]

b. Circuit Court. The circuit court has such jurisdiction as shall be prescribed by law.[35]

22. MISSOURI — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has appellate jurisdiction[36] only which is coextensive with the state under the restrictions and limitations of the constitution. It has a general, superintending control over all inferior courts and has power to issue writs[37] of habeas corpus, mandamus, quo warranto, certiorari, and other original remedial writs and to hear and determine the same.[38] Such court has also jurisdiction, under the constitution,[39] over cases certified from the courts of appeals, in decisions contrary to previous decisions,[40] and superintending control over the latter courts by writs of mandamus, prohibition,

The district court may reverse the judgment or award judgment absolute for appellant on appeal on questions of law alone from the judgment of the municipal court of Winona, under Laws (1885), c. 115, § 17, giving the same power on appeals from said court as is possessed by the district court in cases of appeals from justices' courts. Hardenburg v. Roesner, 83 Minn. 7, 85 N. W. 719.

33. Miss. Const. art. 6, § 146; Miss. Anno. Code (1892), § 4345.

The jurisdiction is exclusively revisory and appellate, with such incidental cognizance of a quasi-original character as is necessary to preserve its dignity and decorum, and to give complete operation to its appellate power. Brown v. Carraway, 47 Miss. 668. It has no original jurisdiction. Planters' Ins. Co. v. Cramer, 47 Miss. 200.

Amount in controversy.— Appellate jurisdiction may depend upon the amount in controversy, and where the verdict is reduced by remittitur below the required jurisdictional amount, by plaintiff, no review can be had. Wimbush v. Chinault, 58 Miss. 234.

34. Miss. Anno. Code (1892), §§ 4345, 4346.

Appeal may be taken to the supreme court from any final judgment of a circuit court in a civil case, not taken by confession, or from any final decree of a chancery court not being by consent. Appeal may also be taken on overruling a demurrer in chancery from certain interlocutory orders, from habeas corpus proceedings, in criminal cases, decrees in matters testamentary, etc. Miss. Anno. Code (1892), p. 29, § 31 et seq.

35. Miss. Const. art. 6, § 156.

The circuit court may review by certiorari cases from decisions of justices of the peace. Porter v. Deterly, 1 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 163. And an appeal lies to the circuit court in forcible entry and detainer cases. Robertson v. Williams, 6 How. (Miss.) 579.

36. State v. Flentge, 49 Mo. 488.

The supreme court has no original jurisdiction except in the specified cases, and a statute requiring it to take jurisdiction of an agreed case between the state and the public printer and examine all questions of law and fact therein is void. Foster v. State, 41 Mo. 61.

Where there is no jurisdiction it cannot be assumed by reason of some extraneous matter, such as the incompetency of the lower court by reason of one of its judges having been of counsel. Britton v. Steber, 62 Mo. 370.

37. State v. Eby, 170 Mo. 497, 71 S. W. 52; Kansas City v. Renick, 157 Mo. 292, 57 S. W. 713; State v. Towns, 153 Mo. 91, 54 S. W. 552; State v. Jones, 142 Mo. 354, 44 S. W. 224; State v. Tracy, 94 Mo. 217, 6 S. W. 709; State v. Cooper County Ct., 64 Mo. 170; State v. Vail, 53 Mo. 97; Thomas v. Mead, 36 Mo. 232; Lane v. Charless, 5 Mo. 285; State v. Merry, 3 Mo. 278.

38. Mo. Const. art. 6, §§ 2, 3.

39. Mo. Const. art. 6, Amendm. (1884), §§ 5–8 [Mo. Rev. Stat. (1899), pp. 93, 94].

40. Gipson v. Powell, 167 Mo. 192, 66 S. W. 969; State v. Bland, 148 Mo. 625, 50 S. W. 293, 43 L. R. A. 845; Smith v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 143 Mo. 33, 44 S. W. 718; State v. Smith, 129 Mo. 585, 31 S. W. 917; State v. Smith, 107 Mo. 527, 16 S. W. 401, 17 S. W. 901; State v. Philips, 96 Mo. 570, 10 S. W. 182; State v. Kansas City Police Com'rs, 80 Mo. App. 206; Seaboard Nat. Bank v. Woesten, 76 Mo. App. 155; Robinson v. Smith, 50 Mo. App. 630; Elliott v. Wilson, 27 Mo. App. 218.

A cause may be transferred to the supreme court by either one of the courts of appeals where the former court has jurisdiction of the appeal. Langston v. Southern R. Co., 66 Mo. App. 73.

and certiorari.[41] It has exclusive appellate jurisdiction in all causes or proceedings reviewable by it to issue writs of error directly to the circuit courts and to courts having the jurisdiction pertaining to circuit courts, and appeals lie from such trial courts directly to the supreme court, and in all such cases the supreme court exercises superintending control over such trial courts.[42] Appeal lies to, and writs of error from, the supreme court, from and to the courts of appeals, subject to the jurisdictional limitation of the amount of four thousand five hundred dollars, exclusive of costs,[43] in cases involving the construction of the constitution of the United States,[44] or of the state;[45] in cases where the validity of a treaty or a statute, or of authority exercised under the United States is drawn in question;[46] in cases involving the construction of the revenue laws of the 41. See supra, note 38.

42. Mo. Const. art. 6, Amendm. (1884), § 5 [Mo. Rev. Stat. (1899), p. 93].

Appeal lies directly to the supreme from common pleas court. Schlueter v. Albert, 39 Mo. App. 154. But see Wilson v. Reed, 57 Mo. 238; Smith v. Guerant, 55 Mo. 584.

Writ of error does not lie to county courts. Town v. Supreme Ct. Clerk, 2 Mo. 26; Thompson v. Smith, 1 Mo. 404.

43. Mo. Laws (1901), p. 107; Crawford v. Dixon, 166 Mo. 501, 66 S. W. 159.

Amount in controversy.— Owens v. Fraser, 165 Mo. 242, 65 S. W. 569; Cardwell v. Stuart, 164 Mo. 166, 64 S. W. 158; Lile v. Gibson, 163 Mo. 182, 63 S. W. 371; Kansas City v. Metropolitan St. R. Co., 162 Mo. 236, 62 S. W. 689; Mankameyer v. Egelhoff, 161 Mo. 200, 61 S. W. 836; Kirkwood v. Meramec Highlands Co., 160 Mo. 111, 60 S. W. 1072; Culbertson v. Young, 156 Mo. 261, 56 S. W. 893; Worthington v. Roberta Min. Co., 152 Mo. 184, 53 S. W. 912; Ash v. Independence, 145 Mo. 120, 46 S. W. 749; Parlin, etc., Co. v. Hord, 145 Mo. 117, 46 S. W. 753; Hulett v. Missouri, etc., R. Co., 145 Mo. 35, 46 S. W. 951; Kelly v. Vandiver, 141 Mo. 480, 42 S. W. 1075; Hilton v. St. Louis, 129 Mo. 389, 31 S. W. 771; State v. Noonan, 122 Mo. 638, 27 S. W. 329; State v. Lewis, 96 Mo. 146, 8 S. W. 770; Overall v. St. Louis Traction Co., 88 Mo. App. 175; Cohn v. St. Louis, etc., R. Co., 87 Mo. App. 143; Rivers v. Blom, 78 Mo. App. 142; Missouri, etc., R. Co. v. Watson, 64 Mo. App. 465; Willi v. Lucas, 40 Mo. App. 70; Forster Vinegar Co. v. Guggemos, 24 Mo. App. 444; Priest v. Deaver, 21 Mo. App. 209.

44. Clark v. Porter, 162 Mo. 516, 63 S. W. 89; Hulett v. Missouri, etc., R. Co., 145 Mo. 35, 46 S. W. 951; St. Charles v. Hackman, 133 Mo. 634, 34 S. W. 878; State v. St. Louis Ct. of App., 97 Mo. 276, 10 S. W. 874; Canton v. McDaniel, 91 Mo. App. 626; Collins v. German-American Mut. L. Assoc., 84 Mo. App. 555; Sanders v. St. Louis, etc., Anchor Line, 21 Mo. App. 347.

45. Hardin v. Carthage, 171 Mo. 442, 71 S. W. 673; Hanlon v. Pulitzer Pub. Co., 167 Mo. 121, 66 S. W. 940; Marx v. Hart, 166 Mo. 503, 66 S. W. 260, 89 Am. St. Rep. 715; Ruckert v. Grand Ave. R. Co., 163 Mo. 260, 63 S. W. 814; Kansas City v. Baird, 163 Mo. 196, 63 S. W. 495; Monroe v. Crawford, 163 Mo. 178, 63 S. W. 373; Kirkwood v. Meramec Highlands Co., 160 Mo. 111, 60 S. W. 1072; Coleman v. Cole, 158 Mo. 253, 59 S. W. 106; State v. Smith, 150 Mo. 75, 51 S. W. 713; Kirkwood v. Johnson, 148 Mo. 632, 50 S. W. 433; Ash v. Independence, 145 Mo. 120, 46 S. W. 749; Browning v. Powers, 142 Mo. 322, 44 S. W. 224; State v. Smith, 141 Mo. 1, 41 S. W. 906; Creve Coeur Lake Ice Co. v. Tamm, 138 Mo. 385, 39 S. W. 791; St. Joseph v. Dye, 137 Mo. 177, 38 S. W. 942; Lang v. Callaway, 134 Mo. 491, 35 S. W. 1138; State v. Metcalf, 130 Mo. 505, 32 S. W. 993; State v. Dinnisse, 109 Mo. 434, 19 S. W. 92; Bennett v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 105 Mo. 642, 16 S. W. 947; Baldwin v. Fries, 103 Mo. 286, 15 S. W. 760; Merchants' Ins. Co. v. Hill, 86 Mo. 466; Kreyling v. O'Reilly, 97 Mo. App. 384, 71 S. W. 372; Dawson v. Waldheim, 91 Mo. App. 117; Collins v. German-American Mut. L. Assoc., 85 Mo. App. 242; Tinsley v. Kemery, 83 Mo. App. 94; Tice v. Fleming, 84 Mo. App. 162; Dollar Sav. Bank v. Ridge, 79 Mo. App. 26; State v. Kramer, 78 Mo. App. 60; State v. Carr, 71 Mo. App. 661; Springfield v. Weaver, 66 Mo. App. 293; In re Opening of Essex Ave., 44 Mo. App. 288; State v. Dinnisse, 41 Mo. App. 22; Ex p. Olden, 37 Mo. App. 116; Carroll v. Campbell, 25 Mo. App. 630; State v. Farrell, 23 Mo. App. 176; Kamerick v. Castleman, 21 Mo. App. 587; State v. Elam, 21 Mo. App. 290; McCormick v. St. Louis, etc., R. Co., 20 Mo. App. 65; State v. Kaub, 19 Mo. App. 149.

An appeal does not lie from the court of appeals to the supreme court in an action wherein the court of appeals exercises original jurisdiction, notwithstanding that the determination of the cause involves a constitutional question. State v. Blakemore, 40 Mo. App. 406.

46. Clark v. Porter, 162 Mo. 516, 63 S. W. 89; Robert C. White Live-Stock Commission Co. v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 157 Mo. 518, 57 S. W. 1070; Missouri, etc., R. Co. v. Smith, 154 Mo. 300, 55 S. W. 470; Shewalter v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 152 Mo. 544, 54 S. W. 224; Vaughn v. Wabash R. Co., 145 Mo. 57, 46 S. W. 952; State v. Duestrow, 137 Mo. 44, 38 S. W. 554, 39 S. W. 266; Wilson v. Kimmel, 109 Mo. 200, 19 S. W. 24; Nall v. Wabash, etc., R. Co., 97 Mo. 68, 10 S. W. 610; Lail v. Pacific Express Co., 81 Mo. App. 232; Central Nat. Bank v. Haseltine, 73 Mo. App. 60; Whirlwind v. Von der Ahe, 67 Mo. App. 628; Wabash Western R. Co. v. Siefert, 41 Mo. App. 35.

state,[47] or the title to any office under the state;[48] in cases involving the title to real estate;[49] in cases where a county or other political subdivision of the state, or any state officer, is a party;[50] and in all cases of felony.[51] Causes may also be transferred to the supreme court in banc from a division.[52]

b. Courts of Appeals. The constitution established the St. Louis court of appeals and the Kansas City court of appeals, specifying the counties over which their respective jurisdiction extends, subject to such changes as might be made by the legislature to create an additional court of appeals, to change the districts

47. Daudt v. Drainage Dist. No. 1, 149 Mo. 405, 50 S. W. 893; Stanberry v. Jordan, 145 Mo. 371, 46 S. W. 1093; Hilton v. Smith, 134 Mo. 499, 33 S. W. 464, 35 S. W. 1137; Moore v. Vaughn, 53 Mo. App. 632; State v. Angert, 53 Mo. App. 349; Cape Girardeau v. Burrough, 43 Mo. App. 298.

A conviction for keeping a dramshop without a license does not involve the construction of the revenue laws. State v. McNeary, 88 Mo. 143.

48. State v. Hill, 152 Mo. 234, 53 S. W. 1062; Sanders v. Lacks, 142 Mo. 255, 43 S. W. 653; State v. Meek, 55 Mo. App. 292. But see Vail v. Dinning, 44 Mo. 210.

Mayor of a city is not an officer "under this state." State v. Walker, 132 Mo. 210, 33 S. W. 813.

Policemen are not within the intent of the constitution, although the office is "an office under this state." State v. Kansas City Police Com'rs, 80 Mo. App. 206.

49. Balz v. Nelson, 171 Mo. 682, 72 S. W. 527; Klingelhoefer v. Smith, 171 Mo. 455, 71 S. W. 1008; F. M. Bruner Granitoid Co. v. Klein, 170 Mo. 225, 70 S. W. 687; Miller v. St. Louis, etc., R. Co., 162 Mo. 424, 63 S. W. 85; McGregor-Noe Hardware Co. v. Horn, 146 Mo. 129, 47 S. W. 957; Baker v. Squire, 143 Mo. 92, 44 S. W. 792; Baubie v. Ossman, 142 Mo. 499, 44 S. W. 338; Placke v. Union Depot R. Co., 140 Mo. 634, 41 S. W. 915; May v. Jarvis-Conklin Mortg. Trust Co., 138 Mo. 275, 39 S. W. 782; Northcutt v. Eager, 132 Mo. 265, 33 S. W. 1125; Morris v. Clare, 132 Mo. 232, 33 S. W. 1123; Overton v. Overton, 131 Mo. 559, 33 S. W. 1; Bryant v. Russell, 127 Mo. 422, 30 S. W. 107; Hanna v. South St. Joseph Land Co., 126 Mo. 1, 28 S. W. 652; State v. Rombauer, 124 Mo. 598, 28 S. W. 75; Musick v. Kansas City, etc., R. Co., 114 Mo. 309, 21 S. W. 491; Brown v. Turner, 113 Mo. 27, 20 S. W. 660 [affirming 43 Mo. App. 40]; Gardner v. Terry, 99 Mo. 523, 12 S. W. 888, 7 L. R. A. 67; Dunn v. Miller, 96 Mo. 324, 9 S. W. 640; Krepp v. St. Louis, etc., R. Co., (Mo. App. 1903) 72 S. W. 479; Lappin v. Crawford, 92 Mo. App. 453; Spence v. Renfro, 88 Mo. App. 59; Pelz v. Bollinger, 87 Mo. App. 540; Balz v. Nelson, 86 Mo. App. 374; Turner v. Overall, 83 Mo. App. 378; Yeamans v. Lepp, 80 Mo. App. 584; Longworth v. Sedivec, 77 Mo. App. 361; Schilb v. Pendleton, 76 Mo. App. 454; Moore v. McNulty, 76 Mo. App. 379; Vandergrif v. Brock, 73 Mo. App. 646; Bouner v. Lisenby, 73 Mo. App. 562; Rich v. Donovan, 72 Mo. App. 571; Truesdale v. Brennan, 72 Mo. App. 547; Hall v. Doughett, 71 Mo. App. 576; Beland v. Anheuser Brewing Assoc., 71 Mo. App. 567; Jones v. Gecry, 71 Mo. App. 566; St. Louis Brewing Assoc. v. Howard, 68 Mo. App. 198; Scheer v. Scheer, 67 Mo. App. 371; McGregor-Noe Hardware Co. v. Horn, 65 Mo. App. 200; Wells v. Leitmann, 60 Mo. App. 37; Kelly v. Staed, 59 Mo. App. 54; Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Eubank, 55 Mo. App. 335; Joplin, etc., R. Co. v. McGregor, 53 Mo. App. 366; Hiles v. Rule, 49 Mo. App. 628; Karl v. Gabel, 48 Mo. App. 517; Lindell Glass Co. v. Hanneman, 46 Mo. App. 614; In re Opening of Essex Ave., 44 Mo. App. 288; St. Louis, etc., R. Co. v. Lewright, 44 Mo. App. 212; Nearen v. Bakewell, 40 Mo. App. 625; Pierce v. Georger, 30 Mo. App. 650; Isaacs v. Strainka, 18 Mo. App. 323.

50. Corbin v. Adair County, 171 Mo. 385, 71 S. W. 674; Howell County v. Wheeler, 108 Mo. 294, 18 S. W. 1080; Reynolds v. Clark County, 73 Mo. App. 278; Allen v. Cowan, 30 Mo. App. 1; Webster County v. Cunningham, 25 Mo. App. 358. See also State v. Dent, 121 Mo. 162, 25 S. W. 924.

City is included.— Steffen v. St. Louis, 135 Mo. 44, 36 S. W. 31; St. Louis v. Robinson, 55 Mo. App. 256; Riddle v. Brown, 37 Mo. App. 550. See also Harman v. St. Louis, 55 Mo. App. 175.

State superintendent of insurance is included.— State v. Smith, 131 Mo. 176, 33 S. W. 11; Reichenbach v. Ellerbe, 52 Mo. App. 72.

51. State v. Zinn, 141 Mo. 329, 42 S. W. 938 [affirming 61 Mo. App. 476], holding that an appeal from a judgment of conviction for malicious trespass on land is not within the jurisdiction of the supreme court under this provision of the constitution. But an appeal lies in an action for the penalty for the violation of an ordinance of the city of St. Louis to the supreme court and not to the appellate court. St. Louis v. Coffee, 76 Mo. App. 318.

52. Mo. Const. art. 6, Amendm. (1890), § 4 [Mo. Rev. Stat. (1899), p. 95] provides for a transfer to the supreme court in banc when the judges of a division are equally divided in opinion in a cause, or when a judge of a division dissents from the opinion therein, or when a federal question is involved; or when a division in which a cause is pending shall so order the cause shall be transferred to the court for its decision.

Court in banc cannot entertain a motion to transfer a cause to it for review, decided by one of the divisions, where none of the grounds for transfer appear. McFadin v. Catron, 138 Mo. 197, 38 S. W. 932, 39 S. W. 771.

and the names, etc. Such courts have power to issue writs[53] of habeas corpus, quo warranto, mandamus, certiorari, and other original remedial writs, and to hear and determine the same. They have superintending control over all inferior courts of record and their appellate jurisdiction is final, subject to certain exceptions.[54] But such courts have no jurisdiction over those cases which come within the constitutional or valid statutory specification of the jurisdiction of the supreme court.[55]

c. Circuit Courts. Circuit courts have such appellate jurisdiction over inferior tribunals and justices of the peace as is or may be provided by law.[56] Such courts also exercise a superintending control over all inferior courts.[57]

53. State v. Balcom, 71 Mo. App. 27; State v. Dillon, 65 Mo. App. 197; State v. Field, 37 Mo. App. 83; State v. Seay, 23 Mo. App. 623. But see State v. Green, 1 Mo. App. 226.

54. Mo. Const. art. 6, Amendm. (1884), §§ 1–11 [Mo. Rev. Stat. (1899), pp. 92–94].

Courts of appeals have appellate jurisdiction only and cannot allow claims against an estate except on appeal from the trial court. Wilson v. Ruthrauff, 87 Mo. App. 226. See also State v. Green, 1 Mo. App. 226. So the appellate jurisdiction of the court of appeals does not empower it to allow a female appellant in a divorce suit fees and expenses of appeal. State v. St. Louis Ct. of App., 88 Mo. 135. See also Lawlor v. Lawlor, 76 Mo. App. 293.

When a case comes neither by appeal nor writ of error to the court of appeals, but by transfer from the supreme court where the record was first filed, it will be stricken from the docket. Bristol v. Fischel, 81 Mo. App. 367.

55. See supra, XI, B, 22, a. See also Rowe v. Current River Land, etc., Co., 167 Mo. 305, 66 S. W. 928; Wilson v. Russler, 162 Mo. 565, 63 S. W. 370; Vandergrif v. Brock, 158 Mo. 681, 59 S. W. 979; Turney v. Sparks, 158 Mo. 365, 59 S. W. 73; Ozark Land, etc., Co. v. Robertson, 158 Mo. 322, 59 S. W. 69; Davis v. Watson, 158 Mo. 192, 59 S. W. 65; Bonner v. Lisenby, 157 Mo. 165, 57 S. W. 735; Bristol v. Fischel, 151 Mo. 34, 51 S. W. 678; Cox v. Barker, 150 Mo. 424, 51 S. W. 1051; Gay v. Missouri Guarantee Sav., etc., Assoc., 149 Mo. 606, 51 S. W. 403; Force v. Von Patton, 149 Mo. 446, 50 S. W. 906; Carlin v. Mullery, 149 Mo. 255, 50 S. W. 813; Edwards v. Missouri, etc., R. Co., 148 Mo. 513, 50 S. W. 89; Rothrock v. Cordz-Fisher Lumber Co., 146 Mo. 57, 47 S. W. 907; Bender v. Zimmerman, 145 Mo. 636, 47 S. W. 506; Security Sav. Trust Co. v. Donnell, 145 Mo. 431, 46 S. W. 959; State v. Higgins, 144 Mo. 410, 46 S. W. 423; Webb City, etc., Waterworks Co. v. Webb City, 143 Mo. 493, 45 S. W. 279; State v. School Dist., 143 Mo. 89, 44 S. W. 720; Heman v. Wade, 141 Mo. 598, 43 S. W. 162; Little v. Reid, 141 Mo. 242, 42 S. W. 674; Fischer v. Johnson, 139 Mo. 433, 41 S. W. 203; Parker v. Zeisler, 139 Mo. 298, 40 S. W. 881; Barber Asphalt Paving Co. v. Hezel, 138 Mo. 228, 39 S. W. 781; St. Charles v. Hackman, 133 Mo. 634, 34 S. W. 878; Luther v. Brown, 132 Mo. 70, 33 S. W. 442; Lemmon v. Lincoln, 130 Mo. 335, 32 S. W. 662; McGregor v. Pollard, 130 Mo. 332, 32 S. W. 640; Hilton v. St. Louis, 129 Mo. 389, 31 S. W. 771; Kansas City v. Neal, 122 Mo. 232, 26 S. W. 695; Reichenbach v. United Masonic Ben. Assoc., 112 Mo. 22, 20 S. W. 317 [distinguishing Ellis v. Harrison, 104 Mo. 270, 16 S. W. 198]; Sage v. Tucker, 110 Mo. 407, 19 S. W. 831; State v. Henning, 110 Mo. 82, 19 S. W. 494; State v. Kansas City Ct. of App., 105 Mo. 299, 16 S. W. 853; State v. Rombauer, 105 Mo. 103, 16 S. W. 695; Bobb v. Wolff, 105 Mo. 52, 16 S. W. 835; State v. Rombauer, 101 Mo. 499, 14 S. W. 726; Wolff v. Matthews, 98 Mo. 246, 11 S. W. 563; Anchor Milling Co. v. Walsh, 97 Mo. 287, 11 S. W. 217; Corrigan v. Morris, 97 Mo. 174, 10 S. W. 880; Ford v. Fellows, (Mo. 1888) 8 S. W. 791; State v. Spencer, 91 Mo. 206, 3 S. W. 410; State v. Dillon, 90 Mo. 229, 2 S. W. 417; State v. Board of Health, 90 Mo. 169, 2 S. W. 291; State v. Kansas City Police Com'rs, 80 Mo. App. 206; Schuermann v. Union Cent. L. Ins. Co., 77 Mo. App. 504; Clark v. Porter, 77 Mo. App. 103; Franta v. Bohemian Catholic Cent. Union, 77 Mo. App. 31; Schilb v. Pendleton, 76 Mo. App. 454; Mitchell v. Blatt, 76 Mo. App. 408; Herchenroeder v. Herchenroeder, 75 Mo. App. 283; Farmers' Exch. Bank v. Hageluken, 75 Mo. App. 62; St. Charles v. Elsner, 73 Mo. App. 517; Bell v. Winkleman, 73 Mo. App. 451; Clotilde v. Lutz, 73 Mo. App. 37; Riffel v. Ozark Land, etc., Co., 71 Mo. App. 617; State v. Gilmore, 71 Mo. App. 565; Joyce Surveying Co. v. St. Louis, 68 Mo. App. 182; Drummond Tobacco Co. v. Addison Tinsley Tobacco Co., 52 Mo. App. 10; Leahy v. Davis, 49 Mo. App. 519; Joplin Consol. Min. Co. v. Joplin, 48 Mo. App. 601; Cape Girardeau v. Borrough, 43 Mo. App. 298; Swan v. Thompson, 36 Mo. App. 155; State v. Armstrong, 35 Mo. App. 49; State v. Coleman, 33 Mo. App. 470; State v. Tittman, 31 Mo. App. 82; Freeman v. St. Louis Quarry Co., 30 Mo. App. 362; Owens v. Branson, 28 Mo. App. 584; Johnson County v. Bryson, 27 Mo. App. 341; State v. Jenkins, 25 Mo. App. 484; Myers v. Myers, 22 Mo. App. 94; McCormick v. St. Louis, etc., R. Co., 20 Mo. App. 65; Robertson v. Springfield, etc., R. Co., 18 Mo. App. 185.

56. Mo. Const. art. 6, § 22.

A writ of error will not lie in the absence of a statute. Matson v. Dickerson, 3 Mo. 339.

57. Mo. Const. art. 6, § 23. They exercise a superintending control over criminal courts, probate courts, county courts, municipal cor-

23. MONTANA — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court, except as otherwise provided by the constitution, has appellate jurisdiction only,[58] which is coextensive with the state, and has a general supervisory control[59] over all inferior courts under such regulations and limitations as may be prescribed by law.[60]

b. District Courts. District courts have appellate jurisdiction in such cases arising in justices and other inferior courts in their respective districts as may be provided by the constitution and the law.[61]

24. NEBRASKA — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has original jurisdiction[62] in cases relating to the revenue,[63] civil cases in which the state shall be a party, mandamus,[64] quo warranto,[65] and habeas corpus, and has appellate and final jurisdiction of all matters of appeal and proceedings in error which may be taken from the judgments or decrees of the district courts,[66] in all matters of law, fact, or equity, where the rules of law or the principles of equity appear poration courts, justices of the peace, and all inferior tribunals in each county in their respective circuits.

A statute is constitutional giving power to try appeals from probate, etc., courts. McCraw v. Hubble, 61 Mo. 107; Langshore v. Kelso, 56 Mo. 45; Ross v. Murphy, 55 Mo. 372. But appellate jurisdiction is derivative and cannot exceed that of the probate court from which appeal is taken. Garver v. Richardson, 77 Mo. 459.

58. The appellate jurisdiction of the supreme court extends to all cases in law and equity, subject to such limitations and regulations as may be prescribed by law. Such court has power in its discretion to issue and to hear and determine writs of habeas corpus, quo warranto, certiorari, prohibition, and injunction, and such other remedial writs as may be necessary and proper to the complete exercise of its appellate jurisdiction. Such court has power to summon a jury to determine an issue of fact. Each of the justices has power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the state and to make such writs returnable before himself or the supreme court, or before any district court of the state, or any judge thereof, and such writs may be heard and determined by the particular court or judge before whom made returnable. Each of the justices may also issue, hear, and determine writs of certiorari in proceedings for contempt in the district court, and such other writs as he may be authorized by law to issue. Mont. Const. (1889), art. 8, § 3. See also Finlen v. Heinze, 27 Mont. 123, 69 Pac. 829, 70 Pac. 517; State v. Barret, 25 Mont. 112, 63 Pac. 1030; State v. Moran, 24 Mont. 433, 63 Pac. 390; State v. Hogan, 24 Mont. 379, 62 Pac. 493.

59. Supervisory control may be exercised where the inferior court makes an order not appealable nor subject to appellate jurisdiction by any of the specified writs. State v. Judicial Dist. Ct., 25 Mont. 504, 65 Pac. 1020. Nor is the supervisory control dormant for want of legislation prescribing the mode of exercise, where the code sufficiently overcomes any such objection. State v. First Judicial Dist. Ct., 24 Mont. 539, 63 Pac. 395.

60. Mont. Const. (1889), art. 8, § 2.

61. Mont. Const. (1889), art. 8, § 11.

The legislature may provide for appeals from the state board of medical examiners, for the constitution does not limit appellate jurisdiction to appeals from justices and inferior courts so as to exclude legislative power in this respect. State v. First Judicial Dist. Ct., 13 Mont. 370, 34 Pac. 298.

62. The constitutional specification of cases of original jurisdiction excludes others. Miller v. Wheeler, 33 Nebr. 765, 51 N. W. 137. Original jurisdiction when not expressly restricted is concurrent with that of the district courts of the proper counties and will be entertained in accordance with the terms, orders, and rules prescribed. In re Petition of Atty.-Gen., 40 Nebr. 402, 58 N. W. 945. But such jurisdiction does not exist in an action by a receiver of a state bank to recover assets of the bank. State v. Wahoo State Bank, 40 Nebr. 192, 58 N. W. 863. But see State v. Milligan Exch. Bank, 34 Nebr. 198, 51 N. W. 765; State v. Commercial State Bank, 28 Nebr. 677, 44 N. W. 998.

A writ of prohibition cannot be granted as an independent remedy. State v. Hall, 47 Nebr. 579, 66 N. W. 642.

63. In re Petition of Atty.-Gen., 40 Nebr. 402, 58 N. W. 945.

64. State v. Graves, (Nebr. 1902) 92 N. W. 144; Armstrong v. Mayer, 61 Nebr. 355, 86 N. W. 489; State v. Smith, 57 Nebr. 41, 77 N. W. 384.

65. State v. Frazier, 28 Nebr. 438, 44 N. W. 471.

66. Armstrong v. Mayer, 60 Nebr. 423, 83 N. W. 401; Smith v. State, 4 Nebr. 277.

Although a contested election decision of the district court is final under the provisions of the law, yet the supreme court may correct an error of the district court in administering said law. Miller v. Rolph, 8 Nebr. 438, 1 N. W. 123. But the supreme court has not original jurisdiction of contested election cases. Miller v. Wheeler, 33 Nebr. 765, 51 N. W. 137.

County court.— The supreme court cannot review directly the rulings of the county court, but on appeal or error therefrom to the district court its judgment thereon can be reviewed. Kingman v. Davis, 63 Nebr. 578, 88 N. W. 777. But see Fitzgerald v. Fitzgerald, etc., Co., 48 Nebr. 386, 67 N. W. 158.

from the files, exhibits, or records of such courts to have been erroneously determined.[67]

b. District Courts. District courts have appellate jurisdiction in all civil and criminal matters except where otherwise provided.[68]

25. NEVADA — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has appellate jurisdiction in all cases in equity; also in all cases at law in which is involved the title or right of possession to, or the possession of, real estate or mining claims, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, or in which the demand (exclusive of interest), or the value of the property in controversy exceeds three hundred dollars; also, in all other civil cases not included in the general subdivisions of law and equity, and also on questions of law alone, in all criminal cases in which the offense charged amounts to a felony. The court also has power to issue writs[69] of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, quo warranto, and habeas corpus, and also all writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its appellate jurisdiction. Each of the justices has power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the state upon petition by, or on behalf of, any person held in actual custody, and may make such writs returnable before himself or the supreme court, or before any district court in the state or judge of said courts.[70]

b. District Courts. District courts have final appellate jurisdiction in cases arising in justices' courts and such other inferior tribunals as may be established by law. They also have power to issue writs of mandamus, injunction, quo warranto, certiorari, and all other writs proper and necessary to the complete exercise of their jurisdiction and also writs of habeas corpus.[71]

26. NEW HAMPSHIRE. By the statute of 1901,[72] two courts were established instead of the supreme court then existing, to be known as the supreme court and as the superior court. The supreme court thereby established was given jurisdiction of all matters and things of which the court at law terms had jurisdiction.[73] The superior court was given original jurisdiction of all actions, appeals, processes, and matters and things which could be entered in, or were cognizable by the then court at the trial terms thereof.[74] The justices of the superior court in vacation were given all the powers possessed by the then court in vacation.

27. NEW JERSEY — a. Court of Errors and Appeals. The court of errors and appeals is one of last resort in all cases.[75] Writs and processes may issue out of the court of errors and appeals, and writs of error lie to remove final judgments in any circuit court directly into such court, and may be brought in the same manner and subject to the same rules as exist in case of a writ of error to the supreme court.[76]

67. Nebr. Const. art. 6, § 2; Nebr. Comp. Stat. (1901), §§ 204, 2399.

68. Nebr. Const. art. 6, § 9; Nebr. Comp. Stat. (1901), p. 508, § 2417.

Appeals lie to the district courts from the judgments of county courts (Nebr. Const. art. 6, § 17; Nebr. Comp. Stat. (1901), p. 37), from justices' courts (Nebr. Comp. Stat. (1901), pp. 1348, 1386), and from probate courts (Nebr. Comp. Stat. (1901), pp. 518, 520).

69. State v. McCullough, 3 Nev. 202, holding that the power to issue writs is an original jurisdiction and not merely auxiliary to appellate jurisdiction.

70. Nev. Const. art. 6, § 4; Cutting Comp. Laws Nev. (1900), § 115.

71. Nev. Const. art. 6, § 6; Cutting Comp. Laws Nev. (1900), § 117.

72. N. H. Laws (1901), c. 78.

73. N. H. Pub. Stat. (1901), c. 204, § 3.

74. N. H. Pub. Stat. (1901), c. 204, § 4.

75. N. J. Const. art. 6, § 1.

The court of errors and appeals is purely an appellate court and cannot admit new parties to the cause. New Jersey Franklinite Co. v. Ames, 12 N. J. Eq. 507.

76. N. J. Laws (1900), c. 147, §§ 13, 14; N. J. Gen. Stat. (1895), p. 1022, § 12.

Only such writs as were customary to issue were authorized by the statute "to regulate the proceedings," etc. Anonymous, 20 N. J. L. 495.

Oyer and terminer.— A writ of error does not lie directly to the oyer and terminer from the court of errors. Eutries v. State, 47 N. J. L. 140.

Weighing evidence.— Such court cannot weigh evidence on a writ of error to a judgment of the supreme court and consider whether the verdict is excessive, since such review would deprive the judgment of the

b. Other Courts. In certain cases appellate jurisdiction is vested in the supreme[77] and other designated courts.[78]

28. New York — a. Court of Appeals. After Dec. 31, 1895,[79] the jurisdiction of the court of appeals, except where the judgment is of death, became limited to the review of questions of law.[80] Such court cannot review a unanimous decision of the appellate division of the supreme court that there is evidence, supporting or tending to sustain a finding of fact or a verdict not directed by the court.[81] Except where the judgment is of death appeals may be taken as of right to such court only from judgments or orders entered upon decisions of the appellate division of the supreme court, finally determining actions or special proceedings,[82] and from orders granting new trials or exceptions, where the appellants stipulate that upon affirmance judgment absolute shall be rendered against them.[83] The appellate division in any department may, however, allow an appeal upon any question of law which in its opinion ought to be reviewed by the court of appeals.[84] The legislature may further restrict the jurisdiction of the court of appeals and the right of appeal thereto, but the right to appeal shall not depend upon the amount involved.[85] attribute of finality as to fact. Flanigan v. Guggenheim Smelting Co., 63 N. J. L. 647, 44 Atl. 762. Nor does the statute as to deciding disputed questions of fact by the supreme court apply to the court of errors and appeals. Moran v. Jersey City, 58 N. J. L. 144, 35 Atl. 284.

77. Wilson v. Pennsylvania, etc., R. Co., 64 N. J. L. 44, 44 Atl. 850; Green v. Heritage, 63 N. J. L. 455, 43 Atl. 698; Central R. Co. v. Tunison, 55 N. J. L. 561, 27 Atl. 929; Diament v. Lore, 31 N. J. L. 220; Carron v. Martin, 26 N. J. L. 594, 69 Am. Dec. 584; Krumeick v. Krumeick, 14 N. J. L. 39.

Certiorari power of supreme court cannot be transferred to the district (Green v. Heritage, 64 N. J. L. 567, 46 Atl. 634) or circuit courts (McCullough v. Essex County Cir. Ct., 59 N. J. L. 103, 34 Atl. 1072).

78. Appeals to circuit court see Hauser v. Farrell, (N. J. Sup. 1900) 46 Atl. 784.

Appeals to common pleas see Lochanowski v. McKeone, 61 N. J. L. 288, 41 Atl. 1117 [affirming 60 N. J. L. 118, 36 Atl. 882].

Appeals to court of sessions see Brant v. Froehlich, 49 N. J. L. 336, 8 Atl. 283; Dunn v. Overseers of Poor, 32 N. J. L. 275; Hildreth v. Overseers of Poor, 13 N. J. L. 5.

Appeals to prerogative court see Diament v. Lore, 31 N. J. L. 220. But appeal will not lie directly to the prerogative court from an order of the surrogate granting administration. In re Grissom, 56 N. J. Eq. 373, 41 Atl. 676.

79. The former jurisdiction of the court of appeals depended upon whether the judgment was that of a general term of the supreme court (Martin v. Platt, 131 N. Y. 641, 30 N. E. 565 [affirming 16 N. Y. Suppl. 115]; White v. Delaware, etc., R. Co., 41 N. Y. 520, 39 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 479) or a decree or order of the special term (Potter v. Van Vranken, 36 N. Y. 619; Gracie v. Freeland, 1 N. Y. 228; Hubbard v. Copcutt, 9 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 289; New York v. Schermerhorn, 3 How. Pr. (N. Y.) 334). Such jurisdiction did not permit the review of the exercise of the discretion of a surrogate in refusing to discharge an administrator (In re Cornell, 137 N. Y. 600, 33 N. E. 384), and an appeal was prohibited from any judgment or order granting or refusing a new trial where the amount did not exceed a specified sum and this included a judgment of affirmance (Butterfield v. Rudde, 58 N. Y. 489). But where a judgment was reversed an order thereafter made, refusing defendant's motion for the appointment of commissioners in condemnation proceedings, was appealable to the court of appeals. In re Metropolitan El. R. Co., 136 N. Y. 500, 32 N. E. 1043.

80. In re Caruthers, 158 N. Y. 131, 52 N. E. 742, holding that original jurisdiction is not given by the constitution or codes, and therefore an attorney admitted to practice cannot be permitted to file an oath nunc pro tunc.

81. Israel v. Manhattan R. Co., 158 N. Y. 624, 53 N. E. 517 [reversing 10 Misc. 722, 31 N. Y. Suppl. 816]; Boyd v. Gorman, 157 N. Y. 365, 52 N. E. 113 [affirming 29 N. Y. App. Div. 428, 51 N. Y. Suppl. 1083].

82. In re Regan, 167 N. Y. 338, 60 N. E. 658 [reversing 58 N. Y. App. Div. 1, 68 N. Y. Suppl. 527].

83. Abbey v. Wheeler, 170 N. Y. 122, 62 N. E. 1074 [reversing 58 N. Y. App. Div. 451, 69 N. Y. Suppl. 432].

84. Coatsworth v. Lehigh Valley R. Co., 156 N. Y. 451, 51 N. E. 301 [affirming 24 N. Y. App. Div. 273, 48 N. Y. Suppl. 511].

No appeal shall be taken to the court of appeals in any civil action or proceeding commenced in any court other than the supreme court, court of claims, county court, or a surrogate's court, unless the appellate division of the supreme court allows the appeal and shall certify that a question of law is involved. Stover Anno. Code Civ. Proc. N. Y. § 191; Sidwell v. Greig, 157 N. Y. 30, 51 N. E. 267; Halliburton v. Clapp, 149 N. Y. 183, 43 N. E. 558.

85. N. Y. Const. (1894), art. 6, § 9.

The provision that the legislature may further restrict the jurisdiction does not prohibit

b. Supreme Court and Appellate Division Thereof. After Dec. 31, 1895, the appellate division of the supreme court became vested with the jurisdiction theretofore exercised by the supreme court[86] at its general terms and by the general terms of the court of common pleas for the city and county of New York, the superior court of the city of New York, the superior court of Buffalo, and the city court of Brooklyn, and such additional jurisdiction as might be conferred by the legislature.[87] No justice of the appellate division shall exercise any of the powers of a justice of the supreme court other than those of a justice out of court and those pertaining to the appellate division or to the hearing and decisions of motions submitted by consent of counsel.[88]

29. North Carolina — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has jurisdiction to review on appeal any decision of the courts below upon any matter of law or legal inference, and it may decide facts and issues of fact in equitable matters.[89] Such court has power to issue any remedial writs necessary to give it a general supervision and control over the proceedings of the inferior courts. It also has original jurisdiction to hear claims against the state,[90] but its decision is purely recommendatory;[91] no process in the nature of execution shall issue thereon; they shall be reported to the next session of the general assembly for its action.[92]

b. Superior Courts. Superior courts have appellate jurisdiction of all issues of law or of fact, determined by a clerk of the superior court or a justice of the peace, and of all appeals from inferior courts for errors assigned in matters of law.[93]

30. North Dakota — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court, except as otherwise provided in the constitution, has appellate jurisdiction only,[94] which is coextensive with the state, and has a general superintending control over all inferior courts the enlarging of the jurisdiction and extending it to new cases from time to time subject to the special provisions of the constitution withdrawing certain cases from review, and a statute giving the right of appeal to said court from the court of special sessions of New York city is constitutional. People v. Cullen, 153 N. Y. 629, 47 N. E. 894, 44 L. R. A. 420 [reversing 7 N. Y. App. Div. 118, 40 N. Y. Suppl. 1, 17 N. Y. App. Div. 635, 45 N. Y. Suppl. 1146].

86. The powers of the supreme court as formerly organized were the same as those of the supreme court of the colony, and the latter were identical with those of the king's bench in England. Kanouse v. Martin, 3 Sandf. (N. Y.) 653, 3 Code Rep. (N. Y.) 124.

87. Judson v. Central Vermont, etc., R. Co., 158 N. Y. 597, 53 N. E. 514; Riverside Bank v. Jones, 75 N. Y. App. Div. 531, 78 N. Y. Suppl. 325; McTurck v. Foussadier, 51 N. Y. App. Div. 218, 64 N. Y. Suppl. 962; Barkley v. New York Cent., etc., R. Co., 42 N. Y. App. Div. 597, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 742; O'Rourke v. Feist, 42 N. Y. App. Div. 136, 59 N. Y. Suppl. 157 [affirming 24 Misc. 762, 53 N. Y. Suppl. 1110]; Manheim v. Seitz, 36 N. Y. App. Div. 352, 55 N. Y. Suppl. 321; Van Houten v. Pye, 23 N. Y. App. Div. 206, 48 N. Y. Suppl. 865; Boechat v. Brown, 9 N. Y. App. Div. 369, 41 N. Y. Suppl. 467; Fiske v. Smith, 9 N. Y. App. Div. 208, 41 N. Y. Suppl. 176; Ellensohn v. Keyes, 6 N. Y. App. Div. 601, 39 N. Y. Suppl. 774; Sanger v. French, 1 N. Y. App. Div. 323, 37 N. Y. Suppl. 148; King v. Norton, 36 Misc. (N. Y.) 53, 72 N. Y. Suppl. 591; Meyer v. Suburban Home Co., 25 Misc. (N. Y.) 686, 55 N. Y. Suppl. 566; Gilroy v. Loftus, 22 Misc. (N. Y.) 105, 48 N. Y. Suppl. 532; Eichhold v. Tiffany, 21 Misc. (N. Y.) 627, 48 N. Y. Suppl. 70 [affirming 20 Misc. 681, 46 N. Y. Suppl. 534]; Biel v. Randell, 20 Misc. (N. Y.) 335, 45 N. Y. Suppl. 892; Pollatschek v. Goodwin, 17 Misc. (N. Y.) 587, 40 N. Y. Suppl. 682.

88. N. Y. Const. (1894), art. 6, § 2; Stover Anno. Code Civ. Proc. N. Y. § 220.

89. State v. Hanna, 122 N. C. 1076, 29 S. E. 353; Munden v. Casey, 93 N. C. 97; Young v. Rollins, 90 N. C. 125; Greenshoro v. Scott, 84 N. C. 184; State v. Spurtin, 80 N. C. 362; Henry v. Smith, 78 N. C. 27; Keener v. Finger, 70 N. C. 35; Foushee v. Pottershall, 67 N. C. 453; Simonton v. Chipley, 64 N. C. 152; Heilig v. Stokes, 63 N. C. 612; American Bible Soc. v. Hollister, 54 N. C. 10; Littlejohn v. Williams, 17 N. C. 380: Binford v. Alston, 15 N. C. 351.

90. Reeves v. State, 93 N. C. 257; Martin v. Worth, 91 N. C. 45; Clodfelter v. State, 86 N. C. 51, 41 Am. Rep. 440; Bain v. State, 86 N. C. 49; Horne v. State, 84 N. C. 362; Sinclair v. State, 69 N. C. 47.

91. Bledsoe v. State, 64 N. C. 392.

92. N. C. Code (1883), §§ 945, 947.

93. N. C. Code (1883), § 923. See also Nash v. Sutton, 109 N. C. 550, 14 S. E. 77; Boing v. Raleigh, etc., R. Co., 87 N. C. 360; McArthur v. McEachin, 64 N. C. 454.

94. A statute does not violate the constitution as to appellate jurisdiction only being conferred, hy providing for trial anew of cases on appeal and that final judgment be rendered. Christianson v. Farmers' Ware-under such regulations and limitations as may be prescribed by law.[95] It has power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, quo warranto, certiorari, injunction, and such other original and remedial writs as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction, and has authority to hear and determine the same; provided, however, that no jury trial shall be allowed in said court, but in proper cases questions of fact may be sent by said court to the district court for trial.[96]

b. District Courts. District courts have such appellate jurisdiction as may be conferred by law.[97]

31. Ohio — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has original jurisdiction[98] in quo warranto, mandamus,[99] habeas corpus, and procedendo, and such appellate jurisdiction as may be provided by law.[1] A judgment rendered or a final order made by a circuit court, or a judge thereof, court of common pleas, or a judge thereof, probate court, insolvency court, or a superior court or a judge thereof, may be reversed, vacated, or modified by the supreme court on petition in error, for errors appearing on the record; but no petition in error except as to the judgment or final order of the circuit court, or a judge thereof, or of the general term of any superior court or a judge thereof, shall be filed without leave of the supreme court or a judge thereof, and the supreme court shall not in any civil cause or proceeding, except when its jurisdiction is original, be required to determine as to the weight of the evidence.[2]

b. Other Courts. A judgment rendered or final order made by any court of common pleas, or a judge thereof may be reversed, vacated, or modified by the circuit court of the county wherein such court of common pleas is located, for errors appearing on the record;[3] and a judgment rendered or final order made by a probate court, justice of the peace, or any other tribunal, board, or officer, exercising judicial functions, and inferior in jurisdiction to the court of common pleas, may be reversed, vacated, or modified by the court of common pleas.[4] house Assoc., 5 N. D. 438, 67 N. W. 300, 32 L. R. A. 730.

95. N. D. Const. art. 4.

96. N. D. Const. art. 4.

Jurisdiction as to writs see State v. McLean County, 11 N. D. 356, 92 N. W. 385; State v. Wilcox, 11 N. D. 329, 91 N. W. 955; Anderson v. Gordon, 9 N. D. 480, 83 N. W. 993, 52 L. R. A. 134; State v. Lavik, 9 N. D. 461, 83 N. W. 914; State v. Archibald, 5 N. D. 359, 66 N. W. 234; State v. Nelson County, 1 N. D. 88, 45 N. W. 33, 26 Am. St. Rep. 609, 8 L. R. A. 283.

97. N. D. Const. art. 4.

98. Original jurisdiction.— The supreme court has no original jurisdiction except that constitutionally conferred. Kent v. Mahaffy, 2 Ohio St. 498. See also Yoeman v. Lasley, 36 Ohio St. 416; Anonymous, 1 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 315, 7 West. L. J. 221.

99. State v. Todd, 4 Ohio 351.

1. Ohio Const. art. 4, § 2.

Appellate jurisdiction extends only to judgments and decrees of courts created and organized in pursuance of the provisions of the constitution. Ex p. Logan Branch Bank, 1 Ohio St. 432. But the court exercises appellate and not original jurisdiction in deciding a cause reserved for its decision. Chase v. Washburn, 2 Ohio St. 98.

Correcting error in decision.— The supreme court may entertain a bill for the correction of an error in one of its own decisions. Longworth v. Sturges, 4 Ohio St. 690.

Jurisdiction conferred on other court.— The supreme court has no jurisdiction as to a petition in error where such jurisdiction is conferred upon another court. Kosminski v. Barrett, 34 Ohio St. 163; Benham v. Conklin, 3 Ohio St. 509. And this applies also to a review on certiorari (In re Gregory, 19 Ohio 357) or on appeal (McCurdy v. Legally, 14 Ohio 391).

2. Bates Anno. Stat. Ohio (1903), § 6710. See also Gompf v. Wolfinger, 67 Ohio St. 144, 65 N. E. 878.

3. Bates Anno. Stat. Ohio (1903), § 6709. See also Pierce v. Stewart, 61 Ohio St. 422, 56 N. E. 201; Dalton v. Davis, 18 Ohio Cir. Ct. 878, 6 Ohio Cir. Dec. 133; Toledo v. Andrews, 18 Ohio Cir. Ct. 861, 6 Ohio Cir. Dec. 606; Merchants' Nat. Bank v. Little, 2 Ohio Cir. Dec. 496; Kennedy v. Thompson, 2 Ohio Cir. Dec. 254.

The appellate jurisdiction of the circuit court is only that expressly conferred. Atwood v. Whipple, 48 Ohio St. 308, 28 N. E. 674.

4. Bates Anno. Stat. Ohio (1903), § 6708.

Appeal does not lie to common pleas from the probate court in matters not embraced in the statute. Barr v. Closterman, 1 Ohio Cir. Dec. 546.

As to appellate power of general term of superior court see Robert Mitchell Furniture Co. v. Cleveland, etc., R. Co., 9 Ohio S. & C. Pl. Dec. 674.

Time of determination.— Bates Anno. Stat.

32. Oregon — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has jurisdiction only to revise the final decisions of the circuit courts.[5]

b. Circuit Courts. Circuit courts have appellate jurisdiction and supervisory control over the county courts, and all other inferior courts, officers, and tribunals.[6]

33. Pennsylvania — a. Supreme Court. No duties can be imposed by law upon the supreme court or any of the judges thereof except such as are judicial.[7] The jurisdiction of the supreme court extends over the state. The judges thereof have original jurisdiction in cases of injunction,[8] where a corporation is a party defendant,[9] of habeas corpus, of mandamus to courts of inferior jurisdiction,[10] and of quo warranto as to all officers of the commonwealth whose jurisdiction extends over the state;[11] but they cannot exercise any other original jurisdiction.[12] They have appellate jurisdiction, by appeal, certiorari, or writ of error, in all cases, as is or may be provided by law.[13] The judges may also issue all remedial and other writs and process returnable to said court.[14] The supreme court also has appellate jurisdiction of pleas, plaints, and causes removed from any other court of the state, and may examine and correct all manner of errors of the justices, magistrates, and courts of the state in process, proceedings, judgments, and decrees, and may reverse, modify, or affirm the same.[15] Appeals also lie directly

Ohio (1903), §§ 557-1, 557-2, requiring that any case pending in the common pleas on error shall be determined within ninety days, and that the act shall apply to all motions affecting reports of referees, is directory merely, and on failure so to do the court does not lose jurisdiction. James v. West, 67 Ohio St. 28, 65 N. E. 156.

5. Oreg. Const. art. 7, § 6.

An order not necessary or proper in aid of appellate jurisdiction will not be granted. O'Brien v. O'Brien, 36 Oreg. 92, 57 Pac. 374, 58 Pac. 892.

Original jurisdiction.— The supreme court is precluded from exercising original jurisdiction. Boon v. McClane, 2 Oreg. 331.

6. Oreg. Const. art. 7, § 9.

7. Pa. Const. art. 5, § 21.

8. Bruce v. Pittsburgh, 161 Pa. St. 517, 29 Atl. 584; De Walt v. Bartley, 146 Pa. St. 525, 23 Atl. 448; Clark v. Washington, 145 Pa. St. 566, 23 Atl. 333; Fargo v. Oil Creek, etc., R. Co., 81* Pa. St. 266; Wheeler v. Philadelphia, 77 Pa. St. 338; Philadelphia, etc., R. Co. v. Green, etc., St. Pass. R. Co., 33 Pa. St. 82; Cleveland, etc., R. Co. v. Erie, 1 Grant (Pa.) 212; Riley v. Ellmaker, 6 Whart. (Pa.) 545; Gilder v. Merwin, 6 Whart. (Pa.) 522; Buck Mountain Coal Co. v. Lehigh Coal, etc., Co., 2 Wkly. Notes Cas. (Pa.) 241.

9. Hottenstein v. Clement, 41 Pa. St. 502. See also Cassel v. Jones, 6 Watts & S. (Pa.) 552.

The clause as to a corporation being defendant applies to municipal as well as to private corporations. Wheeler v. Philadelphia, 77 Pa. St. 338.

10. Com. v. Hartranft, 77 Pa. St. 154; Com. v. Baroux, 36 Pa. St. 262; Com. v. Pittsburgh, 34 Pa. St. 496; Pennsylvania R. Co. v. Canal Com'rs, 21 Pa. St. 9; Com. v. Lancaster County Com'rs, 6 Binn. (Pa.) 5.

11. Com. v. Dumbauld, 97 Pa. St. 293.

12. See In re Nichols, 180 Pa. St. 591, 37 Atl. 95; McCurdy's Appeal, 65 Pa. St. 290; Hottenstein v. Clement, 41 Pa. St. 502; Sunbury, etc., R. Co. v. Cooper, 33 Pa. St. 278; Crawford County v. Pittsburgh, etc., R. Co., 32 Pa. St. 141; Mauch Chunk Tp. v. Nescopeck Tp., 21 Pa. St. 46; Hays v. Pennsylvania R. Co., 17 Pa. St. 9; Williams v. Williams, 2 Yeates (Pa.) 167; Com. v. Skinner, 14 Pa. Co. Ct. 347; Lebanon Mut. Ins. Co. v. Erb, 2 Chest. Co. Rep. (Pa.) 573.

13. Pa. Const. art. 5, § 3.

14. 2 Brightly Purd. Dig. Pa. (12th ed.) p. 1957, § 25.

15. 2 Brightly Purd. Dig. Pa. (12th ed.) p. 1955, § 20. See also Hosack v. Crill, 197 Pa. St. 370, 47 Atl. 609; Matthews v. Rising, 194 Pa. St. 217, 44 Atl. 1067; Com. v. Dunham, 174 Pa. St. 436, 34 Atl. 329; Ruffner v. Hooks, 171 Pa. St. 531, 33 Atl. 108; Northampton County Com'rs' Appeal, 57 Pa. St. 452; Com. v. Nathans, 5 Pa. St. 124; Watson v. Mercer, 17 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 343; Wurtz v. McFaddon, 4 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 78; Patterson v. Schoyer, 10 Watts (Pa.) 333; Burginhofen v. Martin, 3 Yeates (Pa.) 479; Brower v. Kantner, 9 Pa. Super. Ct. 94.

Indictments may be removed into the supreme court by a writ of certiorari or a writ of error, as the case may require. 2 Brightly Purd. Dig. Pa. (12th ed.) p. 1957, par. 27.

Appeal lies to the supreme court from a judgment of the superior court: (1) If the jurisdiction of the superior court is in issue; (2) if the case involves the construction or application of the constitution or any statute or treaty of the United States; (3) or the construction or application of the constitution of the state; (4) if the appeal to the supreme court be specially allowed by the superior court itself or by any one justice of the supreme court except where by stipulation the decision of the court below or in the supreme court shall be final. Brightly Purd. Dig. Pa. (Suppl. 1895), p. 2685, § 29 et seq. See also In re Boyle, 190 Pa. St. 577, 42 Atl. 1025, 45 L. R. A. 399.

to the supreme court in all cases of disbarment, irrespective of the court in which the decree may have been pronounced.[16]

b. Superior Court. The superior court has power to grant writs and process necessary for the exercise of its jurisdiction, and for the enforcement of its orders and decrees.[17] Such court has no original jurisdiction except that it, or any judge thereof, has full power and authority when and as often as there may be occasion to issue writs of habeas corpus returnable in such court. Such court has exclusive and final appellate jurisdiction of all appeals in (1) all proceedings in the court of quarter sessions of the peace or before any judge thereof, except cases involving the right to a public office; (2) all proceedings in the court of oyer and terminer and general jail delivery, except cases of felonious homicide; (3) any action, claim, distribution, or dispute of any kind in the common pleas, at law or in equity, whether originating therein or reaching that court by appeal or certiorari from a justice of the peace or alderman, or magistrate, if the subject of the controversy be either money, chattels, real or personal, or the possession of or title to real property, and if also the amount or value thereof really in controversy be not greater than fifteen hundred dollars exclusive of costs, and if also the action be not brought, authorized, or defended by the attorney-general in his official capacity, and any single claim, any dispute, distribution, or other proceeding in the orphans' court, if the subject of the controversy be either money, chattels, real or personal, or the possession of or title to real property, and if also the amount or value thereof really in controversy in such single claim, dispute, or other proceeding be not greater than fifteen hundred dollars, exclusive of costs, and if also the claim, dispute, or other proceding be not brought, authorized, or defended by the attorney-general in his official capacity.[18]

34. Rhode Island. The supreme court has such jurisdiction as may from time to time be prescribed by law, and chancery powers may be conferred on such court. The judges thereof shall in all trials instruct the jury in the law. They shall also give their written opinion[19] upon any question of law whenever requested by the governor or by either house of the general assembly.[20]

35. South Carolina — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has power to issue writs or orders of injunction, mandamus, quo warranto, prohibition, certiorari, habeas corpus, and other original remedial writs.[21] Such court has appellate jurisdiction only in cases of chancery, and in such appeals they shall review the findings of fact as well as the law, except in chancery cases where the facts are settled by a jury and the verdict not set aside. Such court is also constituted

16. Pa. Laws (1899), p. 250, § 6.

17. Brightly Purd. Dig. Pa. (Suppl. 1895), p. 2683, § 15.

18. Pa. Laws (1899), pp. 248, 249, §§ 1-4, amending Brightly Purd. Dig. Pa. (Suppl. 1895), p. 2684.

The jurisdictional amount on appeal from the orphans' court cannot be conferred by lumping the sums of persons whose shares were awarded in trust instead of to them directly. In re Samson, 200 Pa. St. 590, 51 Atl. 325.

19. The opinions of the justices need not be given on questions submitted by the house on resolutions passed after the assembly has been prorogued by the governor. In re Legislative Adjournment, 18 R. I. 824, 27 Atl. 324, 22 L. R. A. 716.

20. R. I. Const. art. 10, §§ 2, 3; R. I. Gen. Laws (1896), tit. 25, cc. 221-223.

Certifying constitutional question.—A judgment is sufficient for certifying a constitutional question to the supreme court where the district court determines that it finds defendant probably guilty, whereupon it certifies, etc. State v. Brown, etc., Mfg. Co., 18 R. I. 1, 16, 25 Atl. 246, 17 L. R. A. 856.

Original jurisdiction.— An action of debt to recover a penalty is not within the original jurisdiction of the supreme court. Parker v. Barstow, 5 R. I. 232.

Overruling demurrer.— The appellate division and not the common pleas division is the one to which an appeal should be taken from the overruling a demurrer in the district court. Denison v. Foster, 18 R. I. 735, 31 Atl. 894.

Waiver of jury.— A case need only be certified to the appellate division for final determination from the common pleas division where a jury is expressly waived by agreement; but waiver by operation of law is contemplated where there is a reference to an auditor by agreement. Blanding v. Sayles, 21 R. I. 211, 42 Atl. 872.

21. Carolina Grocery Co. v. Burnet, 61 S. C. 205, 39 S. E. 381, 58 L. R. A. 687; Gilmer v. Hunnicutt, 57 S. C. 166, 35 S. E. 521; a court for the correction of errors at law under such regulations as the general assembly may by law prescribe.[22]

b. Other Courts. The circuit court has appellate jurisdiction of all matters originally within the jurisdiction of the probate court.[23] The court of common pleas has appellate jurisdiction in all cases within the jurisdiction of inferior courts, except from such inferior courts from which there is provided by the general assembly an appeal directly to the supreme court.[24] Again the court of general sessions has appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases.[25]

36. South Dakota — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court, except as otherwise provided by the constitution, has appellate jurisdiction only, which is coextensive with the state, and has general superintending control over all inferior courts under such regulations and limitations as may be prescribed by law. Such court and the judges thereof have power to issue writs of habeas corpus. The supreme court also has power to issue writs of mandamus, quo warranto, certiorari, injunction, and other original and remedial writs,[26] with authority to hear and determine the same in such cases as may be prescribed by law, provided, however, that no jury trials shall be allowed in the supreme court, but in proper cases questions of fact may be sent by such court to a circuit court for trial before a jury.[27] Again the governor may require the opinion of the judges of the supreme court upon important questions of law involved in the exercise of his executive power and upon solemn occasions.[28]

b. Circuit Courts. Circuit courts have such appellate jurisdiction as may be conferred by law and consistent with the constitution.[29]

37. Tennessee — a. Supreme Court. The jurisdiction of the supreme court is appellate only, under such restrictions and regulations as may from time to time be prescribed by law, although it possesses such other jurisdiction as was conferred by law upon it at the time of the adoption of the constitution.[30]

State v. Farris, 51 S. C. 176, 28 S. E. 308, 370; Salinas v. Aultman, 49 S. C. 325, 27 S. E. 385; State v. Columbia, 16 S. C. 412; State v. Hayne, 8 S. C. 367; Alexander v. McKenzie, 2 S. C. 81; State v. McIver, 2 S. C. 25; State v. Columbia, etc., R. Co., 1 S. C. 46; Mooney v. Welsh, 1 Mill (S. C.) 133.

Appeal does not lie direct to the supreme court from an order of two trial justices as to a writ of habeas corpus. State v. Duncan, 22 S. C. 87.

22. Const. S. C. (1895), art. 5, § 4.

Jurisdiction of appeals from city courts is not precluded by the absence of a constitutional provision, where the statute gives jurisdiction thereof. Charleston v. Weller, 34 S. C. 357, 13 S. E. 628.

Original jurisdiction.— The supreme court has no original jurisdiction of a proceeding to vacate a town charter (State v. Tritter, (S. C. 1898) 30 S. E. 273), nor of a controversy involving the construction of a will (Hayne v. Irvine, 24 S. C. 595).

23. S. C. Code Civ. Proc. §§ 55, 57.

Remanding case to probate court.—The circuit court has appellate jurisdiction only and cannot send a case back to the probate court to take testimony omitted at the original hearing. Ex p. White, 33 S. C. 442, 12 S. E. 5.

24. S. C. Const. (1895), art. 5, § 15.

25. S. C. Const. (1895), art. 5, § 18.

26. State v. McGee, (S. D. 1901) 88 N. W. 115; In re Ringrose, 9 S. D. 349, 69 N. W. 584; State v. Gardner, 3 S. D. 553, 54 N. W. 606.

Certiorari will not be granted at the instance of a private citizen to review the action of the board of county commissioners in establishing election precincts where there is no reason why the circuit court should not take jurisdiction, and the reason is insufficient that there is no term of the circuit court where said court has jurisdiction to issue said writ in vacation. Everitt v. Hughes County, 1 S. D. 365, 47 N. W. 276.

27. S. D. Const. art. 5, § 3.

Writs of error and appeals may be allowed from the county to the supreme court. S. D. Const. art. 5, § 20.

28. S. D. Const. art. 5, § 13.

A resolution is not within the constitution which involves the personal right of certain parties to hold commissioned offices and to be paid for services rendered. In re House Resolution No. 30, 10 S. D. 249, 72 N. W. 892 [citing In re Senate Bill No. 65, 12 Colo. 466, 21 Pac. 478]. The right is confined exclusively to such questions as may raise a doubt in the executive department, never in the legislative, nor where the question involved is one purely of parliamentary procedure. In re Construction of Constitution, 3 S. D. 548, 54 N. W. 650, 19 L. R. A. 575. See also In re Chapter 6, Session Laws, 8 S. D. 274.

29. S. D. Const. art. 5, § 14.

Writs of error and appeals may be allowed from the county to the circuit courts. S. D. Const. art. 5, § 20.

30. Tenn. Const. art. 6, § 2.

Jurisdiction of supreme court see State v.

b. Court of Chancery Appeals. The jurisdiction of the court of chancery appeals is appellate only and extends to all equity cases not involving state revenues, and the findings of facts in such court are conclusive[31] and the supreme court may transfer pending equity cases thereto, except those involving state revenues. On questions of law the decisions of such court are subject to appeal.[32]

38. Texas — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has appellate jurisdiction,[33] coextensive with the limits of the state,[34] which extends to all questions of law arising in all civil cases of which the courts of civil appeals have appellate but not final jurisdiction.[35] All causes may be carried up to the supreme court by writs of error on final judgment and not on judgments reversing and remanding causes,[36] except in the following cases: (1) Where the state is a party or where the railroad commissioners are parties; (2) cases which involve the construction or application of the constitution of the United States or of the state of Texas,[37] or of an act of congress; (3) cases which involve the validity of a statute of the state;[38] (4) cases involving the title to a state office;[39] (5) cases in which a civil court of appeals overrules its own decisions,[40] the decision of another court of civil appeals,[41] or of the supreme court;[42] (6) cases in which the judges

Gannaway, 16 Lea (Tenn.) 124; Dodds v. Duncan, 12 Lea (Tenn.) 731; Chesnut v. McBride, 6 Baxt. (Tenn.) 95; State Bank v. Cannon, 2 Heisk. (Tenn.) 428; Newman v. Scott County, 1 Heisk. (Tenn.) 787; Phillips v. Hoffman, 5 Coldw. (Tenn.) 251; Young v. Thompson, 2 Coldw. (Tenn.) 596; Ward v. Thomas, 2 Coldw. (Tenn.) 565; Bone v. Rice, 1 Head (Tenn.) 149; State v. East Tennessee Bank, 5 Sneed (Tenn.) 573; Wilson v. Wilson, 10 Yerg. (Tenn.) 200; Cox v. Breedlove, 2 Yerg. (Tenn.) 499.

Power to issue writs see State v. Sneed, 105 Tenn. 711, 58 S. W. 1070; Memphis v. Halsey, 12 Heisk. (Tenn.) 210; State v. Elmore, 6 Coldw. (Tenn.) 528; Barry v. Green, 5 Hayw. (Tenn.) 67; King v. Hampton, 3 Hayw. (Tenn.) 59.

31. McElwee v. McElwee, 97 Tenn. 649, 37 S. W. 560, holding that a statute providing that the findings of fact of the court of chancery appeals shall be conclusive on appeal to the supreme court is valid.

32. Shannon Anno. Code Tenn. (1896), §§ 6321, 6323, 6326.

Two judges, one being absent, may decide, hear, etc., causes before them in the court of chancery appeals. Cowan v. Murch, 97 Tenn. 590, 37 S. W. 393, 34 L. R. A. 538.

The jurisdiction of a cause advanced by the supreme court and remanded, in order that it may be determined in advance of its regular order because of its public character, will not be refused by the court of chancery appeals. State v. Allen, (Tenn. Ch. App. 1900) 57 S. W. 182.

33. Trigg v. State, 49 Tex. 643; McKinney v. O'Connor, 26 Tex. 5.

The jurisdiction is essentially and exclusively appellate, and revisory power should be exercised, not over its own judgments, but over those of inferior courts. Chambers v. Hodges, 3 Tex. 517.

The legislature cannot confer appellate power on judges. Kleiber v. McManus, 66 Tex. 48, 17 S. W. 249.

34. See Pevito v. Rodgers, 52 Tex. 581.

35. Sayles Civ. Stat. Tex. (1897), art. 940. See also Security Co. v. Panhandle Nat. Bank, 93 Tex. 575, 57 S. W. 22 [reversing (Civ. App. 1900) 54 S. W. 916]; Texas, etc., R. Co. v. Langsdale, 88 Tex. 513, 32 S. W. 523; Wetzel v. Simon, 87 Tex. 403, 28 S. W. 274, 942; McRimmon v. Moody, 87 Tex. 260, 28 S. W. 279; Burnett v. Powell, 86 Tex. 382, 24 S. W. 788, 25 S. W. 17.

The power to review carries as an incident the power to remand a case to the court of civil appeals with directions to reinstate. Frank v. Tatum, 87 Tex. 204, 25 S. W. 409.

The court of civil appeals may certify an issue to the supreme court for adjudication in a case of which it has final jurisdiction. Wallis v. Stuart, 92 Tex. 568, 50 S. W. 567.

36. Gallagher v. Rahm, 88 Tex. 514, 32 S. W. 523.

37. Austin v. Nalle, 85 Tex. 520, 22 S. W. 668, 960.

Whether the judge is "interested," although a question within the constitution, will not be certified to the supreme court. Herf v. James, 86 Tex. 230, 24 S. W. 396.

38. Mathews Lumber Co. v. Hardin, 87 Tex. 639, 30 S. W. 898; Herf v. James, 86 Tex. 230, 24 S. W. 396. See also State v. Thompson, 88 Tex. 228, 30 S. W. 1046.

39. See State v. Thompson, 88 Tex. 228, 30 S. W. 1046.

40. See Tex. Laws (1899), p. 170.

A conflict of decisions must be well defined. McCurdy v. Conner, 95 Tex. 246, 66 S. W. 664; Bassett v. Sherrod, 90 Tex. 32, 36 S. W. 400.

Where an adjudicated case has been overruled the supreme court will not entertain jurisdiction. Sullivan v. Hartford F. Ins. Co., 89 Tex. 665, 36 S. W. 73.

41. McCurdy v. Conner, 95 Tex. 246, 66 S. W. 664; Gallagher v. Rahm, 88 Tex. 514, 32 S. W. 523; McDonald v. International, etc., R. Co., 86 Tex. 1, 22 S. W. 939, 40 Am. St. Rep. 803.

42. Molino v. Benavides, 94 Tex. 413, 60 S. W. 875; Adoue v. Wettermark, 94 Tex. 81, of any court of civil appeals may disagree;[43] (7) cases in which any two of the courts of civil appeals may hold differently on the same questions of law;[44] and (8) when the judgment of the court of civil appeals reversing the judgment practically settles the case.[45] Again the supreme court or any justice thereof has power to issue certain writs subject to certain limitations.[46]

b. Courts of Civil and Criminal Appeals. The courts of civil appeals may issue writs of mandamus[47] to enforce their jurisdiction and have such other original and appellate jurisdiction as may be prescribed by law.[48] Cases may be transferred to equalize the dockets of the several courts of civil appeals.[49] The court of criminal appeals has no appellate jurisdiction save in criminal cases.[50]

c. Other Courts. Certain appellate jurisdiction is vested in the district courts and supervisory control in certain matters and over certain courts.[51] County courts have appellate jurisdiction in civil cases over which the justices' courts have original jurisdiction, when the judgment of the court appealed from or the amount in controversy exceeds a specified amount.[52]

58 S. W. 722; Douglass v. Blount, 93 Tex. 499, 56 S. W. 334; Assman v. Dittman, 93 Tex. 37, 53 S. W. 342; Gallagher v. Rahm, 88 Tex. 514, 32 S. W. 523.

43. Schintz v. Morris, 89 Tex. 648, 35 S. W. 1041; Texas, etc., R. Co. v. Langsdale, 88 Tex. 513, 32 S. W. 523; Mexia v. Lewis, 87 Tex. 208, 22 S. W. 397; Gulf, etc., R. Co. v. Ramey, 86 Tex. 455, 25 S. W. 406; Herf v. James, 86 Tex. 230, 24 S. W. 396.

44. Harn v. American Mut. Bldg., etc., Assoc., 95 Tex. 79, 65 S. W. 176; Hanway v. Galveston, etc., R. Co., 94 Tex. 76, 58 S. W. 724; Sturgis Nat. Bank v. Smyth, 87 Tex. 649, 30 S. W. 898.

45. Sayles Civ. Stat. Tex. (1897), art. 941. See also International, etc., R. Co. v. Coolidge, 95 Tex. 92, 65 S. W. 181; Molino v. Benavides, 94 Tex. 413, 60 S. W. 875; Douglass v. Blount, 93 Tex. 499, 56 S. W. 334; Powell v. Texas, etc., R. Co., 89 Tex. 663, 36 S. W. 72; Lee v. International, etc., R. Co., 89 Tex. 583, 36 S. W. 63.

The decision of a court of appeals on a question of fact is not reviewable by the supreme court. Warren v. Dennison, 89 Tex. 557, 36 S. W. 404; Word v. Ft. Worth, etc., R. Co., 88 Tex. 661, 32 S. W. 875; Mexican Cent. R. Co. v. Lauricella, 87 Tex. 277, 28 S. W. 277, 47 Am. St. Rep. 103; Schley v. Blum, 85 Tex. 551, 22 S. W. 667. And a statute is constitutional which provides that the judgment of a court of civil appeals shall be conclusive in certain cases. Maddox v. Covington, 87 Tex. 454, 29 S. W. 465.

46. McCurdy v. Conner, 95 Tex. 246, 66 S. W. 664; Travis County v. Jourdan, 91 Tex. 217, 42 S. W. 543; McKenzie v. Baker, 88 Tex. 669, 32 S. W. 1038; Pickle v. McCall, 86 Tex. 212, 24 S. W. 265; Laredo v. Martin, 52 Tex. 548.

47. Wetz v. Thompson, 26 Tex. Civ. App. 396, 63 S. W. 1050; Rice v. Rice, 24 Tex. Civ. App. 506, 59 S. W. 941; Levy v. Gill, (Tex. Civ. App. 1898) 46 S. W. 84.

48. Tex. Const. art. 5, § 6. See also Tex. Rev. Stat. (1895), arts. 997, 1000; Whitener v. Belknap, 89 Tex. 273, 34 S. W. 594; Mexican Nat. R. Co. v. Mussette, 86 Tex. 708, 26 S. W. 1075, 24 L. R. A. 642; Ex p. Lynn, 19 Tex. App. 120; Kiel v. Campbell, (Tex. Civ. App. 1901) 63 S. W. 659; Ellis v. Harrison, 24 Tex. Civ. App. 13, 56 S. W. 592, 57 S. W. 984; Green v. Warren, 18 Tex. Civ. App. 548, 45 S. W. 608; Emerson v. Emerson, (Tex. Civ. App. 1896) 35 S. W. 425; Missouri, etc., R. Co. v. Crane, (Tex. Civ. App. 1895) 32 S. W. 11; Cadwallader v. Lovece, 10 Tex. Civ. App. 1, 29 S. W. 666, 917; Schmidt v. Stern, 2 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 91.

49. Tex. Rev. Stat. (1895), § 994*a*.

A cause once transferred cannot be retransferred to the original court. Gulf, etc., Co. v. Smith, (Tex. Sup. 1897) 38 S. W. 750.

50. Tex. Const. art. 5, § 5. See also Jeter v. State, 86 Tex. 555, 26 S. W. 49; Samuels v. State, (Tex. Crim. 1899) 50 S. W. 715; Russell v. State, 37 Tex. Crim. 503, 36 S. W. 1070.

51. Tex. Const. art. 5, § 8; Sayles Civ. Stat. Tex. (1897), § 1099.

Power of the legislature to confer appellate jurisdiction on the district court see Bexar County v. Terrell, (Tex. Sup. 1890) 14 S. W. 62; Ex p. Whitlow, 59 Tex. 273; Thomerson v. State, 8 Tex. 172; Titus v. Latimer, 5 Tex. 433.

Jurisdiction of district courts see Harrison Mach. Works v. Templeton, 82 Tex. 443, 18 S. W. 601; Buchanan v. Bilger, 64 Tex. 589; Timmins v. Bonner, 58 Tex. 554; Wadsworth v. Chick, 55 Tex. 241; Blythe v. Deaton, 48 Tex. 198; Timmins v. Lacy, 30 Tex. 115; Aulanier v. Governor, 1 Tex. 653; Stephens v. Buie, 23 Tex. Civ. App. 491, 57 S. W. 312; Ballard v. Wheeler, 23 Tex. Civ. App. 422, 56 S. W. 946; Winstead v. Evans, (Tex. Civ. App. 1896) 33 S. W. 580.

52. Tex. Const. art. 5, § 16; Sayles Civ. Stat. Tex. (1897), art. 1158.

Power of the legislature to confer or increase the jurisdiction of the county court see Miman v. Eidman, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 629.

County courts may issue an injunction to enforce their appellate jurisdiction (Anderson v. Larremore, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 947) where the amount involved is within the required jurisdictional sum (Fendrick v. Shea, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 912), otherwise

39. Utah — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has original jurisdiction[53] to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, quo warranto, and habeas corpus. Each of the justices has power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the state, and may make such writs returnable before himself or the supreme court, or before any district court or judge thereof in the state. In other cases[54] the supreme court has appellate jurisdiction only, and power to issue writs necessary and proper for the exercise of that jurisdiction.[55]

b. District Courts. District courts have appellate jurisdiction from all inferior courts and tribunals and a supervisory control of the same, and may issue writs necessary to effect such control.[56]

40. Vermont — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has exclusive jurisdiction of certain petitions and may try and determine questions of law, and has power to issue and determine certain writs.[57] An appeal also lies to such court from the court of chancery.[58] The governor may also require the opinion of the judges where the interests of the state demand it.[59]

b. County Courts. Appellate jurisdiction is vested in county courts in probate matters and over decisions of certain inferior courts and tribunals.[60]

41. Virginia — a. Supreme Court of Appeals. The supreme court of appeals has appellate jurisdiction only,[61] except in cases of habeas corpus,[62] mandamus,[63] and prohibition.[64] It has no jurisdiction in civil cases, where the matter in controversy, exclusive of costs, is less in value or amount than five hundred dollars, except in controversies concerning the title or boundaries of land,[65] the probate of a will, the appointment or qualification of a personal representative, guardian, committee, or curator; or concerning a mill, roadway, ferry, or landing; or the right of a corporation or of a county to levy tolls or taxes,[66] and except in cases not (Lackie v. Bramlett, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 1129). See also Carlisle v. Coffee, 59 Tex. 391; Fitzpatrick v. Small, 1 Tex. App. Civ. Cas. § 1140.

53. Original jurisdiction to issue writs does not authorize original jurisdiction of a quo warranto to contest the election to office of city councilman, although an information in the nature of a quo warranto is included. State v. Elliott, 13 Utah 200, 44 Pac. 248.

Habeas corpus see Godbe v. Salt Lake City, 1 Utah 68.

54. "In other cases" refers to appeals from final judgments. North Point Consol. Irr. Co. v. Utah, etc., Canal Co., 14 Utah 155, 46 Pac. 824. So the supreme court has no jurisdiction of an appeal from an order of the district court vacating and setting aside a sale upon execution by said court issued on a judgment rendered on appeal from a judgment of a justice of the peace. Post v. Foot, 18 Utah 235, 54 Pac. 975. But see Ogden City v. Crossman, 17 Utah 66, 53 Pac. 985; Eureka City v. Wilson, 15 Utah 53, 48 Pac. 41.

55. Utah Const. art. 8, § 4.

The supreme court is the exclusive judge of its own jurisdiction. Hailey First Nat. Bank v. Lewis, 13 Utah 507, 45 Pac. 890.

56. Utah Const. art. 8, § 7.

57. Vt. Stat. (1894), § 993.

The supreme court has no power to set aside a default judgment of the lower court (Goddard v. Fullam, 38 Vt. 75; Scott v. Stewart, 5 Vt. 57), to review probate matters of discretion merely, or to rehear and determine them upon their merits (Holmes v. Holmes, 26 Vt. 536). It has power to issue writs. Shumway v. Sargeant, 27 Vt. 440; In re White River Bank, 23 Vt. 478. It also has original jurisdiction to vacate an order inadvertently made in a suit or a probate bond by a judge. Clerk v. Foster, 2 Tyler (Vt.) 467.

58. Vt. Stat. (1894), § 981.

The supreme court is an appellate court from final decrees only of the court of chancery and its powers are limited to the correction of errors in such decrees. Slason v. Cannon, 19 Vt. 219.

59. Vt. Stat. (1894), § 1006.

60. Vt. Stat. (1894), §§ 2582, 2584.

The county court is but a higher court of probate for determining appeals. Holmes v. Holmes, 26 Vt. 536. Upon appeal from the probate court the county court may allow a guardian reasonable expenses in accounting. Shaw v. Bates, 53 Vt. 360.

61. Mayo v. Clark, 2 Call (Va.) 389.

62. State Prison Assoc. v. Ashby, 93 Va. 667, 25 S. E. 893.

63. Barnett v. Meredith, 10 Gratt. (Va.) 650.

64. Com. v. Latham, 85 Va. 632, 8 S. E. 488; Gresham v. Ewell, 84 Va. 784, 6 S. E. 134.

65. Hutchinson v. Kellam, 3 Munf. (Va.) 202.

66. Com. v. Chaffin, 87 Va. 545, 12 S. E. 972; Prince George County v. Atlantic, etc., R. Co., 87 Va. 283, 12 S. E. 667; Bransford v. Karn, 87 Va. 242, 12 S. E. 404; Callan v. Bransford, 86 Va. 535, 10 S. E. 317; Staunton v. Stout, 86 Va. 321, 10 S. E. 5.

of habeas corpus, mandamus, and prohibition, or the constitutionality of a law;[67] provided that the assent of a majority of the judges elected to the court shall be required, in order to declare any law null and void by reason of its repugnance to the federal constitution, or to the constitution of the state.[68]

b. Other Courts. Certain appellate jurisdiction is vested in the circuit court[69] and also in the county or corporation court.[70]

42. WASHINGTON — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has original jurisdiction in habeas corpus and quo warranto and mandamus as to all state officers, and appellate jurisdiction in all actions and proceedings, excepting that its appellate jurisdiction does not extend to civil actions at law for the recovery of money or personal property when the original amount in controversy or the value of the property does not exceed the sum of two hundred dollars,[71] unless the action involves the legality of a tax, impost, assessment, toll, municipal fine, or the validity of a statute.[72] Such court also has power to issue writs of mandamus,[73] review, prohibition,[74] habeas corpus,[75] certiorari, and all other writs necessary and proper to the complete exercise of its appellate and revisory jurisdiction. Each of the judges has power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the state upon petition and may make such writs returnable before himself, before the supreme court, or before any superior court of the state or any judge thereof.[76]

b. Superior Courts. Superior courts have such appellate jurisdiction in cases arising in justices' and other inferior courts in their respective counties as may be prescribed by law.[77]

43. WEST VIRGINIA — a. Supreme Court of Appeals. The supreme court of appeals has original jurisdiction[78] in cases of habeas corpus, mandamus, and prohibition. It has appellate jurisdiction in civil cases where the matter in controversy, exclusive of costs, is of greater value or amount than one hundred dollars; in certain controversies enumerated in the constitution,[79] and also in cases

67. Com. v. McCullough, 90 Va. 597, 19 S. E. 114; Norfolk, etc., R. Co. v. Pendleton, 86 Va. 1004, 11 S. E. 1062. See also Western Union Tel. Co. v. Goddin, 94 Va. 513, 27 S. E. 429; Western Union Tel. Co. v. Powell, 94 Va. 268, 26 S. E. 828.

68. Va. Const. art. 6, § 2.

69. Va. Code (1887), §§ 161, 839, 840, 3469.

Appeal lies from a judgment of the county court in a case removed, on application of defendant before trial, into the county court where a warrant is brought before a justice on a claim exceeding twenty dollars. Carter v. Kelly, 28 Gratt. (Va.) 787.

A statute attempting to confer appellate jurisdiction on the circuit court by appeal to review an action of the corporation or hustings court is unconstitutional. Watson v. Blackstone, 98 Va. 618, 38 S. E. 939.

70. Va. Const. art. 6, § 14.

71. Trumbull v. Clallam County School Dist. No. 7, 22 Wash. 631, 61 Pac. 714; State v. Spokane County Super. Ct., 22 Wash. 496, 61 Pac. 158.

72. Hansen v. Nilsen, 17 Wash. 606, 50 Pac. 511; Doty v. Krutz, 13 Wash. 169, 43 Pac. 17; Jacobs v. Puyallup, 10 Wash. 384, 38 Pac. 994.

73. State v. Kings County Super. Ct., 24 Wash. 605, 64 Pac. 778.

74. Winsor v. Bridges, 24 Wash. 540, 64 Pac. 780; State v. Spokane County Super. Ct., 15 Wash. 668, 47 Pac. 31, 55 Am. St. Rep. 907, 37 L. R. A. 111; State v. Pierce County Super. Ct., 12 Wash. 677, 42 Pac. 123.

75. In re Rafferty, 1 Wash. 382, 25 Pac. 465.

76. Wash. Const. art. 4, § 4.

77. Wash. Const. art. 4, § 6.

78. Original jurisdiction is not given of application authorizing one against whom a judgment was rendered while an infant to apply for opening thereof after majority. Ewing v. Winters, 39 W. Va. 489, 20 S. E. 572.

79. Right of corporation or county to levy tolls for taxes.— The supreme court has jurisdiction of a writ of error to a judgment of a circuit court affirming a judgment of a county court dismissing a petition by a bank to have an alleged erroneous assessment of its property for taxation corrected, under W. Va. Code, c. 29, § 94, allowing an appeal from the county to the circuit court if the former refuse to correct an assessment claimed to be erroneous, and W. Va. Const. art. 8, § 3, giving the supreme court appellate jurisdiction in civil cases "in controversies concerning the right of a corporation or county to levy tolls or taxes. Bramwell Bank v. Mercer County Ct., 36 W. Va. 341, 15 S. E. 78. In assumpsit by a private corporation authorized by its charter to levy tolls on persons using a river which had been improved by it, against defendant for tolls, the defendant pleaded non assumpsit, the ground of contention being that the condition of the river was such that plaintiff had of quo warranto, habeas corpus, mandamus, certiorari, and prohibition, and in cases involving freedom or the constitutionality of a law. It has appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases and in cases relating to the public revenue the right of appeal belongs to the state as well as the defendant, and such other appellate jurisdiction in both civil and criminal cases as may be prescribed by law.[80]

b. Circuit Courts. The circuit court has supervision and control of all proceedings before justices and other inferior tribunals by mandamus, prohibition, and certiorari. It has appellate jurisdiction in all cases, civil and criminal, where an appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas may be allowed to the judgment or proceedings of any inferior tribunal.[81] It shall also have such other supervisory or appellate jurisdiction as is or may be prescribed by law.[82]

44. Wisconsin — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court, except in cases otherwise provided in the constitution, has appellate jurisdiction only, coextensive with the state; but in no case removed to the supreme court may a trial by jury be allowed. Said court has general superintending control over all inferior courts;[83] it has power to issue writs of habeas corpus,[84] mandamus,[85] injunction,[86] quo warranto,[87]

no right to levy the tolls for which judgment was demanded. It was held that the right of the corporation to levy tolls was not directly called in question, within W. Va. Const. art. 8, § 3, giving the right of appeal in cases where the right of a corporation to levy tolls was concerned, irrespective of the amount involved. Miller v. Little Kanawha Nav. Co., 32 W. Va. 46, 9 S. E. 57.

80. W. Va. Const. art. 8, § 3. See Warth Code W. Va. (1899), p. 898 et seq.

Writs of error, supersedeas, or appeal shall be allowed only by the supreme court of appeals, or a judge thereof, subject to certain conditions. W. Va. Const. art. 8, § 6.

Has no jurisdiction of matters not expressly or by implication given by the constitution and the statutes. State v. Shumate, 48 W. Va. 359, 37 S. E. 618.

81. Appeals from justices see Warth Code W. Va. (1899), p. 516 et seq. See also Warth Code W. Va. (1899), pp. 316, 500, 514, 529, 533, 817.

Appeals from county courts see Warth Code W. Va. (1899), pp. 218, 315, 316; W. Va. Acts (1901), c. 80, pp. 166, 168. But see as to county courts Cobb v. Chesapeake, etc., R. Co., 35 W. Va. 65, 12 S. E. 1097.

82. W. Va. Const. art. 8, § 12. Compare Low v. Lincoln County Ct., 27 W. Va. 785.

83. Judgment cannot be taken directly to the supreme court for review on appeal or writ of error from a police court, the power of review being vested in the municipal court. Milwaukee v. Simons, 93 Wis. 576, 67 N. W. 922 [distinguishing Milwaukee v. Gross, 21 Wis. 241, 91 Am. Dec. 472].

84. Habeas corpus may be granted independently of the court's "superintending control of inferior courts" (In re Pierce, 44 Wis. 411), and such writ may issue, and all legitimate questions arising therefrom may be heard and determined, to release a citizen of the state or one entitled to its protection from illegal imprisonment (In re Booth, 3 Wis. 157).

85. Mandamus to enforce the statutory duty of the state treasurer to pay money may be sued out in the supreme court in the first instance (State v. Davidson, (Wis. 1902) 88 N. W. 596), although there must be a sufficient reason for taking jurisdiction of such writ where the right sought to be enforced is of a permanent character not greatly impaired by delay (State v. Juneau County Sup'rs, 38 Wis. 554). But where the legislature authorized the governor to enter into a certain contract mandamus will not lie to compel him to do acts mentioned in the contract but not provided for in the authorizing statute. State v. Farwell, 3 Pinn. (Wis.) 393, 4 Chandl. (Wis.) 100.

86. Injunction prohibiting a city from maintaining an aggravated public nuisance cannot be issued in the exercise of original jurisdiction. In re Hartung, 98 Wis. 140, 73 N. W. 988. Nor can said court enjoin an obstruction in a navigable river or remove the same. State v. St. Croix Boom Corp., 60 Wis. 565, 19 N. W. 396 [distinguishing Atty.-Gen. v. Eau Claire, 37 Wis. 400]. Nor can an injunction be issued in cases pending and undetermined in any of the other courts. Cooper v. Mineral Point, 34 Wis. 181. But an injunction may be issued on the relation of a private citizen in the name of the state, on the refusal of the attorney-general to act, to enjoin the state's secretary from publishing notices of an election of members of the legislature under an unconstitutional appointment act. State v. Cunningham, 83 Wis. 90, 53 N. W. 35, 35 Am. St. Rep. 27, 17 L. R. A. 145, Winslow, J., dissenting. But see infra, note 87.

87. Quo warranto.—Information in the nature of a quo warranto seeking forfeiture of a corporate charter is within the original jurisdiction of said court (State v. Milwaukee, etc., R. Co., 45 Wis. 579) as is also the writ of quo warranto (Atty.-Gen. v. Blossom, 1 Wis. 317). But such jurisdiction will not be exercised over a quasi-civil action for a local office in the name of the state on complaint of a private citizen. State v. Baker, 38 Wis. 71. But see supra, note 86. And facts of sufficient public importance must be stated to justify issuance of such writ. In re Holland, 107 Wis. 178, 83 N. W. 319.

certiorari,[88] and other original and remedial writs,[89] and to hear and determine the same.[90]

b. Other Courts. Circuit courts have appellate jurisdiction from all inferior courts and tribunals, and a supervisory control over the same. They also have power to issue writs necessary to give them a general control over inferior courts and jurisdictions.[91] Appellate jurisdiction is also vested in other courts.[92]

45. Wyoming — a. Supreme Court. The supreme court has general appellate jurisdiction[93] coextensive with the state, in both civil and criminal causes, and has a general superintending control[94] over all inferior courts, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by law. It has original jurisdiction in quo warranto and mandamus[95] as to all state officers and in habeas corpus. It has power to issue writs of mandamus, review, prohibition, habeas corpus, certiorari, and other writs necessary and proper to the complete exercise of its appellate and revisory jurisdiction. Each of the judges has power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the state upon petition, and may make such writs returnable before himself or the supreme court, or before any district court of the state or judge thereof.[96]

b. District Courts. District courts have such appellate jurisdiction in cases arising in justices' and other inferior courts in their respective counties as may be prescribed by law.[97]

XII. FEDERAL COURTS.

A. Jurisdiction and Powers Generally — 1. General Principles. All the jurisdiction and powers of the federal courts are derived from the constitution and acts of congress,[98] and they do not possess as an incident to their constitution

88. Certiorari lies from a decision of one of the justices of said court on a writ of habeas corpus in vacation. In re Booth, 3 Wis. 1.

89. All common-law writs necessary to superintending control over inferior courts may be issued, including mandamus, prohibition, certiorari, and procedendo. State v. Johnson, 103 Wis. 591, 79 N. W. 1081, 51 L. R. A. 33. See Atty.-Gen. v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 35 Wis. 425; State v. Farwell, 3 Pinn. (Wis.) 393, 4 Chandl. (Wis.) 100.

90. Wis. Const. art. 7, § 3. See also Sanborn & B. Anno. Stat. Wis. (1898), § 2405 et seq.; Sanborn & B. Anno. Stat. Wis. (1898), § 3047; Wis. Laws (1899), c. 63; Wis. Laws (1901), c. 319.

Original jurisdiction will not be exercised, although the question is publici juris where the primary right is of a public nature and adequate relief can be obtained in the first instance in the circuit court. In re Illinois Ct. of Honor, 109 Wis. 625, 85 N. W. 497. Said jurisdiction is also confined to matters affecting the whole state. State v. Shaughnessey, 86 Wis. 646, 57 N. W. 1105. See State v. Juneau County Sup'rs, 38 Wis. 554. Although it will be exercised in matters publici juris. State v. Cunningham, 81 Wis. 440, 51 N. W. 724, 15 L. R. A. 561. See State v. Cunningham, 82 Wis. 39, 51 N. W. 1133. Examine Atty.-Gen. v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 35 Wis. 425.

Power of legislature to confer jurisdiction. Klein v. Valerius, 87 Wis. 54, 57 N. W. 1112, 22 L. R. A. 609; McNab v. Noonan, 28 Wis. 434; Harrison v. Doyle, 11 Wis. 283.

91. Wis. Const. art. 7, § 8. See also Sanborn & B. Anno. Stat. Wis. (1898), § 2420 et seq.; Sanborn & B. Anno. Stat. Wis. (1898), § 3047; Wis. Laws (1901), c. 269.

92. Certain county courts have also appellate jurisdiction from justices of the peace. Wis. Laws (1899), c. 1, § 1.

Municipal courts of certain counties have appellate jurisdiction of appeals from justices' courts. Taylor v. De Camp, 68 Wis. 162, 31 N. W. 728. See Plano Mfg. Co. v. Rasey, 69 Wis. 246, 34 N. W. 85; Bruins v. Bruins, 55 Wis. 548, 13 N. W. 542.

93. Jurisdiction is appellate only and the supreme court cannot allow a guardian's counsel fees incurred in defense of his accounts in proceedings in error. Nagle v. Robins, 9 Wyo. 211, 62 Pac. 154, 796.

94. Superintending control. — Jurisdiction exists over questions certified from the district court upon the point whether a person indicted for murder should be admitted to bail. State v. Crocker, 5 Wyo. 385, 40 Pac. 681.

95. State v. Clay, 3 Wyo. 393, 31 Pac. 409.

96. Wyo. Const. art. 5, §§ 2, 3.

97. Wyo. Const. art. 5, § 10.

98. Rice v. Minnesota, etc., R. Co., 1 Black (U. S.) 358, 17 L. ed. 147; In re Barry, 42 Fed. 113, 34 L. ed. 503 note. See also Fitch v. Creighton, 24 How. (U. S.) 159, 16 L. ed. 596; Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Letson, 2 How. (U. S.) 497, 11 L. ed. 353; Osborn v. U. S. Bank, 9 Wheat. (U. S.) 738, 6 L. ed. 204; Mulqueen v. Schlichter Jute Cordage Co., 108 Fed. 931; Price v. Abbott, 17 Fed. 506; U. S. Bank v. Northumberland Bank, 2 Fed. Cas. No. 931, 4 Wash. 108; Livingston v. Jefferson, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,411, 1 Brock. 203, 4 Hughes 606; Livingston v. Van Ingen, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,420, 1 Paine 45; Moffat v. Soley, 17 Fed.

any common-law jurisdiction, although in the construction of all laws they should be guided by the rules of the common law in the exercise of their special jurisdiction. And it is decided that the United States judiciary system is entirely disconnected with and independent of the judiciary of the several states.[99] Again it is no ground for affording a remedy in a federal court that there is a want of remedy in other courts.[1] And although original jurisdiction is not vested in the federal courts in cases where rights and benefits are claimed under the constitution of the United States a citizen does not thereby lose his rights, for the state courts are open to him.[2]

2. POWERS OF CONGRESS AS TO CREATING COURTS AND CONFERRING JURISDICTION. By the constitution[3] it is provided that the judicial power of the United States shall be vested in a supreme court and such inferior courts as congress may from time to time ordain and establish. This provision is a mandatory one, and congress cannot lawfully refuse to create a supreme court and to vest in it the whole

Cas. No. 9,688, 2 Paine 103; Scott v. Young America, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,549, Newb. Adm. 101; Smith v. Jackson, 22 Fed. Cas. No. 13,064, 1 Paine 453; Spanish Consul's Petition, 22 Fed. Cas. No. 13,202, 1 Ben. 225; U. S. v. Stevenson, 28 Fed. Cas. No. 16,395, 1 Abb. 495; Van Antwerp v. Hulburd, 28 Fed. Cas. No. 16,826, 7 Blatchf. 426.

Consent of the parties will not confer jurisdiction of an action where none exists by statute and the cases have not been removed from a state court in the statutory manner. Parkersburg First Nat. Bank v. Prager, 91 Fed. 689, 34 C. C. A. 51.

In an action against a consul of a foreign government the federal courts do not possess exclusive jurisdiction by Const. art. 3, § 2. Wilcox v. Luco, 118 Cal. 639, 45 Pac. 676, 50 Pac. 758, 62 Am. St. Rep. 305, 45 L. R. A. 579. See also infra, XIII, B, 1, a.

No jurisdiction in probate matters.— Fuentes v. Gaines, 25 La. Ann. 85; Fouvergne v. New Orleans, 18 How. (U. S.) 470, 15 L. ed. 399; In re Frazer, 9 Fed. Cas. No. 5,068. See Everhart v. Everhart, 34 Fed. 82.

The criminal jurisdiction of the federal courts is only such as is expressly conferred upon them. Peters v. U. S., 94 Fed. 127, 36 C. C. A. 105. But it is decided that in the administration of the criminal law such courts are governed by the rules of the common law. Howard v. U. S., 75 Fed. 986, 21 C. C. A. 586, 34 L. R. A. 509.

The constitution and statute law should concur to give jurisdiction to a federal court. U. S. v. Burlington, etc., Ferry Co., 21 Fed. 331.

U. S. Const. art. 3, § 2, extending the judiciary power of the United States "to all Cases, in Law and Equity" arising under the United States constitution, laws, and treaties; "to all Cases affecting Ambassadors;" "to all Cases of admiralty and maritime Jurisdiction," and to various classes of controversies therein specified has been construed as extending to three classes of cases determined respectively: (1) By the subject-matter of the action wherein the power is exercised; (2) by the parties thereto; and (3) by the remedy to be enforced or course of proceedings adopted. Home Ins. Co. v. North Western Packet Co., 32 Iowa 223, 7 Am. Rep. 183.

What are suits "of a civil nature" within the meaning of the judiciary acts. See U. S. v. Block, 24 Fed. Cas. No. 14,610, 3 Biss. 208; U. S. v. Inlots, 26 Fed. Cas. No. 15,441.

99. Ferris v. Coover, 11 Cal. 175.

Empowering justices of the peace, by the Judiciary Act, to arrest and commit persons charged with a violation of the criminal law of the United States was declared not unconstitutional as conferring part of the United States judicial power on state tribunals. Ex p. Gist, 26 Ala. 156. See also Ex p. Pool, 2 Va. Cas. 276.

1. Lozano v. Wehmer, 22 Fed. 755.

2. Harrison v. Hadley, 11 Fed. Cas. No. 6,137, 2 Dill. 229.

3. U. S. Const. art. 3, § 1.

The judicial power extends to two classes of cases: (1) Where the supreme court has original jurisdiction; (2) where it has only appellate jurisdiction, and in the latter class the federal jurisdiction is dormant until congress has authorized its exercise. U. S. Bank v. Roberts, 2 Fed. Cas. No. 934, 4 Conn. 323.

Conferring on state courts jurisdiction of suits to recover penalties provided for by the act of March 3, 1825, relating to the post-office department was unconstitutional as in violation of U. S. Const. art. 3, § 1. Davison v. Champlin, 7 Conn. 244.

Congress alone has the power under the constitution to create a United States court. Mechanics', etc., Bank v. Union Bank, 25 La. Ann. 387.

Congress may direct the transfer of cases from one federal court to another. U. S. v. Haynes, 29 Fed. 691.

Dissolution of provisional courts established during the Civil war and the transfer of the pending cases to the proper United States court was within the power of congress. The Grapeshot v. Wallerstein, 9 Wall. (U. S.) 129, 19 L. ed. 651.

Exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction may be given by congress of actions to enforce any liability incurred, although in obedience to orders of governmental officers, where if damages were recovered defendant could demand indemnity from the public treasury. Mitchell v. Clark, 110 U. S. 633, 4 S. Ct. 170, 312, 28 L. ed. 279.

constitutional jurisdiction.[4] And it is also bound to create some inferior courts in which to vest the jurisdiction which is not vested originally in the supreme court.[5] Again congress has power to authorize judicial officers of the several states to exercise such powers as are ordinarily given to officers of courts not of record.[6]

3. JURISDICTION IS LIMITED. Courts of the United States are of limited, but not inferior, jurisdiction, possessing only such powers as are either expressly or by necessary implication conferred upon them.[7]

4. STATE LAWS AS AFFECTING. No state legislature has any power to enlarge, diminish, or alter the jurisdiction of federal courts, nor can any citizen[8] be

Matters exclusively committed to the judicial department by the constitution cannot be withdrawn by congress, but it may designate such courts as it sees fit for the determination of matters of public right. Murray v. Hoboken Land, etc., Co., 18 How. (U. S.) 272, 15 L. ed. 372.

The bringing of all controversies between citizens of different states within the jurisdiction of the federal courts, at the option of either party, may be provided for by congress. Gaines v. Fuentes, 92 U. S. 10, 23 L. ed. 524. See Kaufman v. McNutt, 7 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 60, 1 Cinc. L. Bul. 94.

As to taking depositions on letters rogatory see In re Pacific Railway Commission, 32 Fed. 241, 12 Sawy. 559.

4. Martin v. Hunter, 1 Wheat. (U. S.) 304, 4 L. ed. 97.

Original jurisdiction of the supreme court cannot be enlarged or restricted by congress. U. S. v. Haynes, 29 Fed. 691; Cohens v. Virginia, 6 Wheat. (U. S.) 264, 5 L. ed. 257; Martin v. Hunter, 1 Wheat. (U. S.) 304, 4 L. ed. 97. But an extension of the appellate jurisdiction has been held within its power. Cohens v. Virginia, 6 Wheat. (U. S.) 264, 5 L. ed. 257; Martin v. Hunter, 1 Wheat. (U. S.) 304, 4 L. ed. 97.

5. Martin v. Hunter, 1 Wheat. (U. S.) 304, 4 L. ed. 97.

Congress may establish circuit and district courts in any and all the states (Livingston v. Story, 9 Pet. (U. S.) 632, 9 L. ed. 255), and a court to determine claims against the United States as to lands in the territories (U. S. v. Coe, 155 U. S. 76, 15 S. Ct. 16, 39 L. ed. 76). And such courts can only exercise such jurisdiction as has been expressly conferred upon them by act of congress. Belknap v. Northern R. Co., 25 Vt. 715; Manley v. Olney, 32 Fed. 708; U. S. Bank v. Roberts, 2 Fed. Cas. No. 934, 4 Conn. 323; Harrison v. Hadley, 11 Fed. Cas. No. 6,137, 2 Dill. 229; Livingston v. Van Ingen, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,420, 1 Paine 45; In re Metzger, 17 Fed. Cas. No. 9,511; U. S. v. Alberty, 24 Fed. Cas. No. 14,426, Hempst. 444; U. S. v. New Bedford Bridge, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 15,867, 1 Woodb. & M. 401; U. S. v. Railroad Bridge Co., 27 Fed. Cas. No. 16,114, 6 McLean 517. Compare Jolly v. Terre Haute Drawbridge Co., 13 Fed. Cas. No. 7,441, 6 McLean 237.

Jurisdiction of inferior courts is subject to the absolute control of congress. U. S. v. Union Pac. R. Co., 98 U. S. 569, 25 L. ed. 143; U. S. v. Haynes, 29 Fed. 691.

Where the supreme court has original jurisdiction by the constitution, congress may confer jurisdiction on inferior courts. Ames v. Kansas, 111 U. S. 449, 4 S. Ct. 437, 28 L. ed. 482; Bors v. Preston, 111 U. S. 252, 4 S. Ct. 407, 28 L. ed. 419. But see U. S. Bank v. Roberts, 2 Fed. Cas. No. 934, 4 Conn. 323.

6. Robertson v. Baldwin, 165 U. S. 275, 17 S. Ct. 326, 41 L. ed. 715, where it was, however, decided that congress had no authority to confer upon justices of the peace power to arrest deserting seamen and deliver them on board their vessel, such power not being a part of the judicial power.

7. Kempe v. Kennedy, 5 Cranch (U. S.) 173, 3 L. ed. 70; Ex p. Cabrera, 4 Fed. Cas. No. 2,278, 1 Wash. 232; U. S. v. Alberty, 24 Fed. Cas. No. 14,426, Hempst. 444; U. S. v. Tawan-ga-ca, 28 Fed. Cas. No. 16,435, Hempst. 304. See also Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. Letson, 2 How. (U. S.) 497, 11 L. ed. 353; Maxfield v. Levy, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 9,321, 2 Dall. (Pa.) 381, 4 Dall. (Pa.) 330; Spanish Consul's Petition, 22 Fed. Cas. No. 13,202, 1 Ben. 225. See also Van Antwerp v. Hulburd, 28 Fed. Cas. No. 16,826, 7 Blatchf. 426.

Regarded as courts of general jurisdiction although limited by intendment of law see Reed v. Vaughan, 15 Mo. 137, 55 Am. Dec. 133.

The limits of their jurisdiction must be determined by the courts themselves, and of this question the supreme court is the final arbiter. Starr v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 110 Fed. 3.

8. A foreign corporation cannot be deprived by any state laws of its right to maintain an action in the federal courts. Merchants' Mfg. Co. v. Grand Trunk R. Co., 11 Abb. N. Cas. (N. Y.) 183; Thoms v. Greenwood, 6 Ohio Dec. (Reprint) 639, 7 Am. L. Rec. 320; Rece v. Newport News, etc., Co., 32 W. Va. 164, 9 S. E. 212, 3 L. R. A. 572; Home Ins. Co. v. Morse, 20 Wall. (U. S.) 445, 22 L. ed. 365; Orange Nat. Bank v. Traver, 7 Fed. 146, 7 Sawy. 210; Northwestern Mut. L. Ins. Co. v. Elliott, 5 Fed. 225, 7 Sawy. 17; Metropolitan L. Ins. Co. v. Harper, 17 Fed. Cas. No. 9,505, 3 Hughes 260. An act is void which provides that a permit to a foreign corporation shall be void if the corporation removes any case from the state to a federal court (Texas Land, etc., Co. v. Worsham, 76 Tex. 556, 13 S. W. 384; Southern Pac. Co. v. Denton, 146 U. S. 202, 13 S. Ct. 44, 36 L. ed. 942; Barrow v. Burnside, 121 U. S. 186, 7 S. Ct. 931, 30 L. ed. 915. But see Goodrel v. Kreichbaum, 70 Iowa 362, 30 N. W. 872; Morse v. Home Ins. Co., deprived of his rights in the federal courts, as conferred by the constitution or acts of congress, by any state laws or regulations.[9]

5. Equity Jurisdiction in General. Only such equity powers can be exercised by the United States courts as may be conferred by act of congress, and those judicial powers which were possessed and exercised by the high court of chancery in England[10] under its judicial capacity as a court of equity, at the time of the formation of the United States constitution.[11] And the equity powers of the federal 30 Wis. 496, 11 Am. Rep. 580 [reversed in 20 Wall. (U. S.) 445, 22 L. ed. 365]), or provides for certain penalties in case of the removal of a suit (Chicago, etc., R. Co. v. Becker, 32 Fed. 849). And it has been decided that where an act provides for a forfeiture in such a case a federal court may restrain a forfeiture thereunder (Hartford F. Ins. Co. v. Doyle, 11 Fed. Cas. No. 6,160, 6 Biss. 461), and that an act is void which provides that "in all suits and proceedings upon causes of action arising in this state in which it shall be a party" the corporation shall be deemed a domestic corporation (Moore v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 21 Fed. 817 [following Home Ins. Co. v. Morse, 20 Wall. (U. S.) 445, 22 L. ed. 365, and distinguishing Stout v. Sioux City, etc., R. Co., 8 Fed. 794, 3 McCrary 1]. But see Home Ins. Co. v. Davis, 29 Mich. 238; New York L. Ins. Co. v. Best, 23 Ohio St. 105). And see Hobbs v. Manhattan Ins. Co., 56 Me. 417 96 Am. Dec. 472; Columbia Wire Co. v. Freeman Wire Co., 71 Fed. 302. See also Foreign Corporations.

9. Greely v. Townsend, 25 Cal. 604; Collier v. Stanbrough, 6 Rob. (La.) 230; Chicot County v. Sherwood, 148 U. S. 529, 13 S. Ct. 695, 37 L. ed. 546; Lincoln County v. Luning, 133 U. S. 529, 10 S. Ct. 363, 33 L. ed. 766; Smith v. Ft. Scott, etc., R. Co., 99 U. S. 398, 25 L. ed. 437; Ex p. Schollenberger, 96 U. S. 369, 24 L. ed. 853; New Orleans Bd. of Liquidation v. U. S., 108 Fed. 689, 47 C. C. A. 587; Taylor v. Louisville, etc., R. Co., 88 Fed. 350, 31 C. C. A. 537; Bigelow v. Nickerson, 70 Fed. 113, 17 C. C. A. 1, 30 L. R. A. 336; Heaton v. Thatcher, 59 Fed. 731; Blydenstein v. New York Security, etc., Co., 59 Fed. 12; Hastings v. The Elexena, 53 Fed. 359; Semmes v. Whitney, 50 Fed. 666; Barling v. Bank of British North America, 50 Fed. 260, 1 C. C. A. 510; East Tennessee, etc., R. Co. v. Atlanta, etc., R. Co., 49 Fed. 608, 15 L. R. A. 109; Hoover v. Crawford County, 39 Fed. 7; Hall v. Devoe Mfg. Co., 14 Fed. 183; The Belfast v. Boon, 7 Wall. (U. S.) 624, 19 L. ed. 266; Hyde v. Stone, 20 How. (U. S.) 170, 15 L. ed. 874; Watson v. Tarpley, 18 How. (U. S.) 517, 15 L. ed. 509; Suydam v. Broadnax, 14 Pet. (U. S.) 67, 10 L. ed. 357; The Orleans v. Phœbus, 11 Pet. (U. S.) 175, 9 L. ed. 677; Beers v. Haughton, 9 Pet. (U. S.) 329, 9 L. ed. 145; Hamilton Bank v. Dudley, 2 Pet. (U. S.) 492, 7 L. ed. 496; Wayman v. Southard, 10 Wheat. (U. S.) 1, 6 L. ed. 253; U. S. v. Peters, 5 Cranch (U. S.) 115, 3 L. ed. 53; Davis v. James, 2 Fed. 618, 10 Biss. 51; Pomeroy v. New York, etc., R. Co., 19 Fed. Cas. No. 11,261, 4 Blatchf. 120.

10. Applies to remedy not to right.— They cannot, however, grant any remedy where no right exists either under the laws of the United States or of the state, even though the English court of chancery might grant one, for the rule that the powers of the federal courts are to be regulated by the law of the English chancery applies to the remedy and not to the right. Meade v. Beale, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 9,371, Taney 339. See Lewis v. Shainwald, 48 Fed. 492.

11. Loring v. Marsh, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,515, 2 Cliff. 469 [affirmed in 6 Wall. 337, 18 L. ed. 802]; Lorman v. Clarke, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,516, 2 McLean 568.

An adequate remedy at law will deprive a federal court of equity of jurisdiction, but to have this effect it must be one enforceable in the same court by an action which may be brought by complainant, as a remedy in a state court is not sufficient (U. S. Life Ins. Co. v. Cahle, 98 Fed. 761, 39 C. C. A. 264; Coler v. Stanly County, 89 Fed. 257), and one existing when the judiciary act of 1789 was adopted or subsequently provided by act of congress (Green v. Turner, 98 Fed. 756; Pokegama Sugar-Pine Lumber Co. v. Klamath River Lumber, etc., Co., 96 Fed. 34; Alger v. Anderson, 92 Fed. 696). It has, however, been decided that the object of this is to preserve to the parties the right to jury trial which may be waived by complainant bringing a suit in equity and defendant answering to the merits. Green v. Turner, 98 Fed. 756.

Federal courts have equitable jurisdiction of a suit against an administrator to recover assets fraudulently withheld by him (Van Bokkelen v. Cook, 28 Fed. Cas. No. 16,831, 5 Sawy. 587), for the partition of land (Daniels v. Benedict, 50 Fed. 347. See also Frey v. Willoughby, 63 Fed. 865, 11 C. C. A. 463. Compare Strettell v. Ballou, 9 Fed. 256, 3 McCrary 46), to require an executor to account (Pulliam v. Pulliam, 10 Fed. 23), to cancel an insurance policy claimed to have been procured by fraud (U. S. Life Ins. Co. v. Cable, 98 Fed. 761, 39 C. C. A. 264), and to protect riparian rights (Sullivan Timber Co. v. Mobile, 110 Fed. 186). They may enforce trusts in equity (Irvine v. Marshall, 20 How. (U. S.) 558, 15 L. ed. 994), and may also enforce judgments rendered in the state courts (Gilchrist v. Helena Hot Springs, etc., R. Co., 58 Fed. 708), and the circuit court may have equitable jurisdiction of a controversy, although it involve rights arising under judicial proceedings in another jurisdiction (Arrowsmith v. Gleason, 129 U. S. 86, 9 S. Ct. 237, 32 L. ed. 630); but it has been decided that a federal court has no jurisdiction of a suit to cancel a tax-title to lands as a cloud on a title (Little Rock Junction R. Co. v. Burke, 66 Fed. 83, 13 C. C. A. 341. See also Davidson v. Calkins, 92 Fed. 230. Compare Green v. Turner, 98 Fed. 756), over the subject of divorce or for the allowance of alimony (Barber v. Barber, 21 How. (U. S.) 582, 16 L. ed. 226), or of a proceeding for an equitable attachment under a state statute (Hall v. Gambrill, 92 Fed. 32, 34 C. C. A. 190).

courts are declared to be coequal and coextensive with those of such court as to rights and remedies within the limits of their constitutional jurisdiction.[12]

6. Jurisdiction to Afford Complete Relief. If jurisdiction of the parties has once been rightfully obtained by a federal court it may be retained until complete relief is afforded within the general scope of the equities to be enforced;[13] and jurisdiction will not be ousted by a subsequent change in the condition of the parties;[14] nor is it exhausted by the rendition of a judgment, but continues until the judgment shall be satisfied.[15]

7. Ancillary and Incidental Jurisdiction. Where a federal court has jurisdiction of the cause of action and of the parties it may also have jurisdiction of a suit which is a continuation of or incidental and ancillary to the former suit, although it might not have jurisdiction of the latter one, if it were an original action.[16]

In a suit where the United States is a party and there is no adequate and complete remedy at law the circuit court may have equitable jurisdiction. U. S. v. Parrott, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 15,998, 1 McAll. 271.

May construe wills where the execution, validity, and probate are recognized (Wood v. Paine, 66 Fed. 807; Richardson v. Green, 61 Fed. 423, 9 C. C. A. 565; Toms v. Owen, 52 Fed. 417), and have jurisdiction of a suit to amend a will as a muniment of title and to restrain the enforcement of a decree admitting it to probate (Everhart v. Everhart, 34 Fed. 82. Compare Oakley v. Taylor, 64 Fed. 245), but not of a suit instituted to determine the validity of a will as a preliminary step in determining whether it should be admitted to probate (Copeland v. Bruning, 72 Fed. 5). See also Wart v. Wart, 117 Fed. 766; and, generally, Wills.

May entertain creditors' bills.— Buckeye Engine Co. v. Donan Brewing Co., 47 Fed. 6; Gorrell v. Dickson, 26 Fed. 454; Frazer v. Colorado Dressing, etc., Co., 5 Fed. 163, 2 McCrary 11; Wilkinson v. Yale, 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,678, 6 McLean 16. Compare Hollins v. Brierfield Coal, etc., Co., 150 U. S. 371, 14 S. Ct. 127, 37 L. ed. 1113; England v. Russell, 71 Fed. 818. See, generally, Creditors' Suits.

Powers as to injunctions.— Krippendorf v. Hyde, 110 U. S. 276, 4 S. Ct. 27, 28 L. ed. 145; Sullivan Timber Co. v. Mobile, 110 Fed. 186; Haverhill Gaslight Co. v. Barker, 109 Fed. 694; Louisville Trust Co. v. Stone, 107 Fed. 305, 46 C. C. A. 299; Defiance Water Co. v. Defiance, 90 Fed. 753; Scholenberg-Boeckeler Lumber Co. v. Hayward, 20 Fed. 422; New York City Bank v. Skelton, 5 Fed. Cas. No. 2,740, 2 Blatchf. 26; Works v. Junction R. Co., 30 Fed. Cas. No. 18,046, 5 McLean 425. And see Injunctions.

12. Harvey v. Richards, 11 Fed. Cas. No. 6,184, 1 Mason 381.

Powers not judicial exercised by the chancellor as the representative of the king's prerogative are not possessed by the circuit courts. Loring v. Marsh, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,515, 2 Cliff. 469 [affirmed in 6 Wall. 337, 18 L. ed. 802].

13. Ward v. Todd, 103 U. S. 327, 26 L. ed. 339; Ober v. Gallagher, 93 U. S. 199, 23 L. ed. 829; Jew Ho v. Williamson, 103 Fed. 10; Miles v. New South Bldg., etc., Assoc., 99 Fed. 4; Juando v. Taylor, 13 Fed. Cas. No. 7,558, 2 Paine 652; Robinson v. Hook, 20 Fed. Cas. No. 11,956, 4 Mason 139. See also Omaha Horse R. Co. v. Cable Tramway Co., 32 Fed. 727.

Cross bills.— See Park v. New York, etc., R. Co., 70 Fed. 641; Salem First Nat. Bank v. Salem Capital Flour-Mills Co., 31 Fed. 580, 12 Sawy. 485, 496; Vannerson v. Leverett, 31 Fed. 376; Schenck v. Peay, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,450, Woolw. 175. And see Equity.

Foreclosure proceedings.— See Muller v. Dows, 94 U. S. 444, 24 L. ed. 207; White v. Ewing, 69 Fed. 451, 16 C. C. A. 296; New York Cent. Trust Co. v. East Tennessee, etc., R. Co., 30 Fed. 895; Blackburn v. Selma, etc., R. Co., 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,467, 2 Flipp. 525; Randolph v. Wilmington, etc., R. Co., 20 Fed. Cas. No. 11,563. And see Mortgages.

14. A subsequent change rendering the parties citizens of the same state does not oust the jurisdiction. New York Cent. Trust Co. v. Wabash, etc., R. Co., 46 Fed. 156; U. S. v. Myers, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 15,844, 2 Brock. 516.

15. Pollock v. Lawrence County, 19 Fed. Cas. No. 11,255.

16. Comstock v. Holbrook, 16 Gray (Mass.) 111; Kendall v. Winsor, 6 R. I. 453; New Orleans v. Fisher, 180 U. S. 185, 21 S. Ct. 347, 45 L. ed. 485; Carey v. Houston, etc., R. Co., 161 U. S. 115, 16 S. Ct. 537, 40 L. ed. 638; White v. Ewing, 159 U. S. 36, 15 S. Ct. 1018, 40 L. ed. 67; Covell v. Heyman, 111 U. S. 176, 4 S. Ct. 355, 28 L. ed. 390; Clarke v. Mathewson, 12 Pet. (U. S.) 164, 9 L. ed. 1041; Davis v. Martin, 113 Fed. 6, 51 C. C. A. 27; Louisville Trust Co. v. Stone, 107 Fed. 305, 46 C. C. A. 299; Everett v. Rock Rapids Independent School Dist., 102 Fed. 529; Rice v. Durham Water Co., 91 Fed. 433; McDonald v. Seligman, 81 Fed. 753; New York Cent. Trust Co. v. Benedict, 78 Fed. 198, 24 C. C. A. 56; People's Sav. Inst. v. Miles, 76 Fed. 252, 22 C. C. A. 152; Kuhn v. Morrison, 75 Fed. 81; Jones v. New York Cent. Trust Co., 73 Fed. 568, 19 C. C. A. 569; Chattanooga Terminal R. Co. v. Felton, 69 Fed. 273; Compton

8. Issuance of Prerogative and Other Writs.[17] Jurisdiction is conferred upon the supreme court and the circuit and district courts to issue writs of scire facias

v. Jesup, 68 Fed. 263, 15 C. C. A. 397; Rosenbaum v. Council Bluffs Ins. Co., 37 Fed. 724, 3 L. R. A. 189; Thompson v. McReynolds, 29 Fed. 657; De Vignier v. New Orleans, 16 Fed. 11, 4 Woods 206; Atwood v. Portland Co., 10 Fed. 283; Howards v. Selden, 5 Fed. 465, 4 Hughes 300; Deakin v. Lea, 7 Fed. Cas. No. 3,695, 11 Biss. 27; Seymour v. Phillips, etc., Constr. Co., 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,689, 7 Biss. 460.

Amount involved in the ancillary suit does not affect this jurisdiction. Aldrich v. Campbell, 97 Fed. 663, 38 C. C. A. 347; Lanning v. Osborne, 79 Fed. 657; Washburn v. Pullman's Palace-Car Co., 76 Fed. 1005, 21 C. C. A. 598.

Irrespective of citizenship such jurisdiction exists. New Orleans v. Fisher, 180 U. S. 185, 21 S. Ct. 347, 45 L. ed. 485; Ex p. Tyler, 149 U. S. 164, 13 S. Ct. 785, 37 L. ed. 689; Krippendorf v. Hyde, 110 U. S. 276, 4 S. Ct. 27, 28 L. ed. 145; Reilly v. Golding, 10 Wall. (U. S.) 56, 19 L. ed. 858; Minnesota Co. v. St. Paul Co., 2 Wall. (U. S.) 609, 17 L. ed. 886; Files v. Davis, 118 Fed. 465; Davis v. Martin, 113 Fed. 6, 51 C. C. A. 27; Virginia-Carolina Chemical Co. v. New York Home Ins. Co., 113 Fed. 1, 51 C. C. A. 21; Compton v. Jesup, 68 Fed. 263, 15 C. C. A. 397; Pullman's Palace-Car Co. v. Washburn, 66 Fed. 790; Central Trust Co. v. Bridges, 57 Fed. 753, 6 C. C. A. 539; Lamb v. Ewing, 54 Fed. 269, 4 C. C. A. 320; Carey v. Houston, etc., R. Co., 52 Fed. 671; Foster v. Mansfield, etc., R. Co., 36 Fed. 627; Miller v. Rogers, 29 Fed. 401; Barth v. Makeever, 2 Fed. Cas. No. 1,069, 4 Biss. 206; Stone v. Bishop, 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,482, 4 Cliff. 593. Compare Christmas v. Russell, 14 Wall. (U. S.) 69, 20 L. ed. 762; Winter v. Swinburne, 8 Fed. 49, 10 Biss. 454.

By compulsory process a party may be brought in, in such a suit, without regard to his citizenship. Compton v. Jesup, 68 Fed. 263, 15 C. C. A. 397.

Under such circumstances a federal court may have jurisdiction to enforce a judgment rendered by it over persons not parties to the judgment sought to be enforced (Labette County v. U. S., 112 U. S. 217, 5 S. Ct. 108, 28 L. ed. 698. See Jenks v. Brewster, 96 Fed. 625. See also Milwaukee, etc., R. Co. v. Chamberlain, 6 Wall. (U. S.) 748, 18 L. ed. 859; Babcock v. Millard, 2 Fed. Cas. No. 699. But compare Anglo-Florida Phosphate Co. v. McKibben, 65 Fed. 529, 13 C. C. A. 36); of a suit to have a decree set aside (Pacific R. Co. v. Missouri Pac. R. Co., 111 U. S. 505, 4 S. Ct. 583, 28 L. ed. 498); of a bill by defendant in an action to have a judgment set aside (O'Brien County v. Brown, 18 Fed. Cas. No. 10,399, 1 Dill. 588. See also Johnson v. Christian, 125 U. S. 642, 8 S. Ct. 1135, 31 L. ed. 820; Dunlap v. Stetson, 8 Fed. Cas. No. 4,164, 4 Mason 349; Williams v. Byrne, 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,718, Hempst. 472. Compare Ralston v. Sharon, 51 Fed. 702; Clarke v. Mathewson, 5 Fed. Cas. No. 2,857, 2 Sumn. 262); of a scire facias to revive a judgment (Wonderly v. Lafayette County, 77 Fed. 665; Penn. v. Klyne, 19 Fed. Cas. No. 10,936, Pet. C. C. 446); of a scire facias to enforce the liability for costs of the indorser of a writ (Washburn v. Pullman's Palace-Car Co., 76 Fed. 1005, 21 C. C. A. 598); of a bill for discovery (Kendall v. Winsor, 6 R. I. 453); of a suit to reach equitable assets of a non-resident debtor (Montgomery v. McDermott, 103 Fed. 801, 43 C. C. A. 348); of a bill of revivor (Hone v. Dillon, 29 Fed. 465); of a bill to obtain the benefit of a depending suit by a party who acquired plaintiff's title by transfer (Miller v. Rogers, 29 Fed. 401); of a bill by a receiver to protect his possession of lands (Connor v. Alligator Lumber Co., 98 Fed. 155); of an action against a receiver growing out of the transactions of the receiver or his employees (Carpenter v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 75 Fed. 850. See also Blake v. Pine Mountain Iron, etc., Co., 76 Fed. 624, 22 C. C. A. 430; Washington v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 75 Fed. 333); of a mortgage foreclosure suit, where the court has possession of the property through its receiver in another suit (Continental Trust Co. v. Toledo, etc., R. Co., 82 Fed. 642; Fish v. Ogdensburgh, etc., R. Co., 79 Fed. 131; Central Trust Co. v. Carter, 78 Fed. 225, 24 C. C. A. 73); of an action in aid of an execution at law (Claflin v. McDermott, 12 Fed. 375, 20 Blatchf. 522); of a bill to enjoin the further prosecution of an action or suit (Widaman v. Hubbard, 88 Fed. 806. See also Hill v. Kuhlman, 87 Fed. 498, 31 C. C. A. 87; Bradshaw v. Joplin Miners' Bank, 81 Fed. 902, 26 C. C. A. 673; Cortes Co. v. Thannhauser, 9 Fed. 226, 20 Blatchf. 59; St. Luke's Hospital v. Barclay, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,241, 3 Blatchf. 259); and of a bill to enforce liens on part of a railroad as against the lien of a general mortgage (McBee v. Marietta, etc., R. Co., 48 Fed. 243).

After the determination of the original cause jurisdiction will not be extended to other questions and issues raised by supplemental bill filed after such determination. Omaha Horse R. Co. v. Cable Tramway Co., 33 Fed. 689. See also Georgia Cent. R., etc., Co. v. Farmers' L. & T. Co., 112 Fed. 81.

Decrees for the sale of mortgaged property entered in ancillary suits for the foreclosure of the mortgage should conform so far as possible to that of the court of primary jurisdiction as to the method of the sale of the property. New York Cent. Trust Co. v. U. S. Flour Milling Co., 112 Fed. 371.

Suit to restrain private persons from selling the stock of a railroad company is not ancillary to one to foreclose a mortgage on property of such company, to which the stock-holders are not parties. Raphael v. Trask, 118 Fed. 777.

17. See, generally, Prohibition; Quo Warranto. And see Attachment, 4 Cyc. 460.

and "all writs not specifically provided for by statute, which may be necessary for the exercise of their respective jurisdictions, and agreeable to the usages and principles of law."[18] Jurisdiction is also conferred upon such courts to issue writs of habeas corpus.[19] And the circuit courts may issue writs of mandamus, but their power in this respect is confined to those cases where it may be necessary to the exercise of their jurisdiction and the enforcement of their judgments.[20]

9. Territorial Limitations and Districts in Which Suits Must Be Brought — a. In General. The jurisdiction of the federal circuit and district courts is as a general

18. U. S. Rev. Stat. (1878) § 716 [U. S. Comp. Stat. (1901) p. 580].

Ne exeat.— See Lewis v. Shainwald, 48 Fed. 492. Compare In re Bininger, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,417, 7 Blatchf. 159; Gernon v. Boecaline, 10 Fed. Cas. No. 5,367, 2 Wash. 130. See also U. S. Rev. Stat. (1878) § 717 [U. S. Comp. Stat. (1901) p. 580]; and, generally, Ne Exeat.

Injunctions.— See Reagan v. Farmers' L. & T. Co., 154 U. S. 362, 14 S. Ct. 1047, 38 L. ed. 1014; Claybrook v. Owensboro, 16 Fed. 297. See also U. S. Rev. Stat. (1878) § 718 et seq. [U. S. Comp. Stat. (1901) p. 580 et seq.]; and, generally, Injunctions.

19. U. S. Rev. Stat. (1878) § 751 et seq. [U. S. Comp. Stat. (1901) p. 592 et seq.]. See also In re Neagle, 135 U. S. 1, 10 S. Ct. 658, 34 L. ed. 55; Ex p. Milligan, 4 Wall. (U. S.) 2, 18 L. ed. 281; Re Kaine, 14 How. (U. S.) 103, 14 L. ed. 345; Kelly v. Georgia, 68 Fed. 652; In re Fitton, 45 Fed. 471; U. S. v. Spink, 19 Fed. 631; In re Brosnahan, 18 Fed. 62, 4 McCrary 1; Ex p. Cabrera, 4 Fed. Cas. No. 2,278, 1 Wash. C. C. 232; In re Keeler, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,637, Hempst. 306; Ex p. McCann, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,679; Seavey v. Seymour, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,596, 3 Cliff. 439; Ex p. Smith, 22 Fed. Cas. No. 12,968, 3 McLean 121; and, generally, Habeas Corpus.

Jurisdiction to issue habeas corpus exists in case of a debtor confined in jail under execution in a civil action (In re Mineau, 45 Fed. 188. See also Ex p. Randolph, 20 Fed. Cas. No. 11,558, 2 Brock. 447), where it is alleged that a person is restrained of his liberty, within the territorial jurisdiction of the court without due process of law (Ex p. Farley, 40 Fed. 66; In re Laundry License Case, 22 Fed. 701), in violation of the laws of the United States (U. S. v. Spink, 19 Fed. 631; Seavey v. Seymour, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,596, 3 Cliff. 439), or under a statute in conflict with such laws (In re Brosnahan, 18 Fed. 62, 4 McCrary 1); where a person is in custody under a valid conviction and sentence but claims release under a pardon (In re Greathouse, 10 Fed. Cas. No. 5,741, 2 Abb. 382, 4 Sawy. 487); or where a person is wrongfully arrested by direction of a state executive for rendition to another state (Ex p. Smith, 22 Fed. Cas. No. 12,968, 3 McLean 121). But no jurisdiction exists over a prisoner removed from the territorial limits of the court before the petition is filed (In re Bickley, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,387); or of an application by a father for such a writ for the purpose of enforcing his right to the custody of a child (In re Barry, 42 Fed. 113, 34 L. ed. 503 note; Ex p. Everts, 8 Fed. Cas. No. 4,581, 1 Bond 197).

Acts done in pursuance of a law of the United States.— See In re Neagle, 135 U. S. 1, 10 S. Ct. 658, 34 L. ed. 55; Kelly v. Georgia, 68 Fed. 652.

Jurisdiction of a court to try an offender may be inquired into by habeas corpus. U. S. v. Rogers, 23 Fed. 658.

Power on petition of a Chinese immigrant held in custody on board a vessel under directions from the customs authorities is not taken away by the Chinese restriction act. U. S. v. Chung Shee, 71 Fed. 277.

Restriction as to prisoners in jail.— In re Mineau, 45 Fed. 188; Bennett v. Bennett, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,318, Deady 299; Ex p. Cabrera, 4 Fed. Cas. No. 2,278, 1 Wash. 232; Seavey v. Seymour, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,596, 3 Cliff. 439.

The treaty with Great Britain of Aug. 9, 1842, as to the arrest and imprisonment of fugitives and the act of Aug. 12, 1848, supplemental thereto did not affect authority as to habeas corpus in cases of imprisonment thereunder. In re Kaine, 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,598.

20. See U. S. Rev. Stat. (1878) §§ 688, 716 [U. S. Comp. Stat. (1901) pp. 565, 580]. See also Rosenbaum v. Bauer, 120 U. S. 450, 7 S. Ct. 633, 30 L. ed. 743; U. S. v. Johnson County, 6 Wall. (U. S.) 166, 18 L. ed. 768; Knox County v. Aspinwall, 24 How. (U. S.) 376, 16 L. ed. 735; McIntire v. Wood, 7 Cranch (U. S.) 504, 3 L. ed. 420; U. S. v. New Orleans, 117 Fed. 610, 54 C. C. A. 106; Gares v. Northwest Nat. Bldg., etc., Assoc., 55 Fed. 209; Evans v. Pittsburgh, 8 Fed. Cas. No. 4,568, 2 Pittsb. (Pa.) 405; Smith v. Jackson, 22 Fed. Cas. No. 13,064, 1 Paine 453; U. S. v. Union Pac. R. Co., 28 Fed. Cas. No. 16,599, 2 Dill. 527.

Jurisdiction was not enlarged in this respect by the act of March 3, 1875. Rosenbaum v. Bauer, 120 U. S. 450, 7 S. Ct. 633, 30 L. ed. 743; Rosenbaum v. Board of Sup'rs, 28 Fed. 223; American Union Tel. Co. v. Bell Tel. Co., 1 Fed. 698, 1 McCrary 175.

Mandamus to compel the collection of a tax may be issued. Aylesworth v. Gratiot County, 43 Fed. 350; U. S. v. Scotland County Judges, 32 Fed. 714. But such power cannot be extended to compel the levy of a tax unauthorized by the constitution or laws of a state. Graham v. Parham, 32 Ark. 676; Vance v. Little Rock, 30 Ark. 435; U. S. v. Knox County Ct., 15 Fed. 704, 5 McCrary 76.

Mandamus may be issued to a state officer rule, in the absence of express authority by act of congress, confined or restricted to the territorial limits within which they are placed.[21]

b. Actions Between Citizens of Different States. Where the jurisdiction is founded only on the fact that the parties are citizens of different states suit shall be brought only in the district of the residence of either the plaintiff or the defendant.[22]

c. Local or Transitory Actions. Actions which are of a local nature by reason of the fact that the controversy involves property rights or interests should as a general rule be brought in the district where such property is located.[23] And the (U. S. v. Johnson County, 6 Wall. (U. S.) 166, 18 L. ed. 768), against county commissioners (Knox County v. Aspinwall, 24 How. (U. S.) 376, 16 L. ed. 735), and to enforce judgments against public corporations (Evans v. Pittsburg, 8 Fed. Cas. No. 4,567, 19 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 4).

But a circuit court has no power to issue such a writ, as an original proceeding, to compel a postmaster to enter and transmit through the mails a publication as second and not as third class matter (U. S. v. Pearson, 32 Fed. 309, 24 Blatchf. 453), to a federal district court to compel it to set aside its decree in admiralty, to grant a rehearing, or to allow an appeal after the time has elapsed in which it should have been taken (The Enterprise, 8 Fed. Cas. No. 4,500, 3 Wall. Jr. 58); or to require the clerk of the district court to pay to the receiver a fund in the registry of that court belonging to the execution debtor (In re Forsyth, 78 Fed. 296). Nor has it any power to issue a writ of this nature to compel the distribution of money raised from taxation for public schools under a state statute, there being nothing in such distribution and there being no contract with complainants which the court can enforce by affirmative relief. Claybrook v. Owensboro, 23 Fed. 634.

21. Toland v. Sprague, 12 Pet. (U. S.) 300, 9 L. ed. 1093; Mexican Ore Co. v. Mexican Guadalupe Min. Co., 47 Fed. 351; Colorado v. Colorado Cent. R. Co., 42 Fed. 638; Ex p. Graham, 10 Fed. Cas. No. 5,657, 3 Wash. 456, 4 Wash. 211; Hodge v. Hudson River R. Co., 12 Fed. Cas. No. 6,559, 6 Blatchf. 85; U. S. v. Town-Maker, 28 Fed. Cas. No. 16,533*a*, Hempst. 299; Wheeler v. McCormick, 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,498, 8 Blatchf. 267.

A navy-yard includes waters contiguous thereto, and necessary to the operation thereof, and both are in the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States. Ex p. Tatem, 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,759, 1 Hughes 588.

An action to recover a penalty for violation of the embargo acts of 1807–1808 was held to be properly brought in the district where the offender was found. U. S. v. Woolsey, 28 Fed. Cas. No. 16,762.

A non-resident of the district may come in and submit to jurisdiction. McPike v. Wells, 54 Miss. 136; Denniston v. Potts, 11 Sm. & M. (Miss.) 36.

As to proceedings under the bankrupt act of March 2, 1867, see Lathrop v. Drake, 91 U. S. 516, 23 L. ed. 414. See also, generally, BANKRUPTCY.

As to service on non-residents in suits to enforce liens upon property within the district see Hay v. Alexandria, etc., R. Co., 11 Fed. Cas. No. 6,254*a*, 4 Hughes 331.

Jurisdiction over Indian reservations.— Gowen v. Harley, 56 Fed. 973, 6 C. C. A. 190; U. S. v. Rogers, 23 Fed. 658; U. S. v. Alberty, 24 Fed. Cas. No. 14,426, Hempst. 444. And see Harkness v. Hyde, 98 U. S. 476, 25 L. ed. 237.

Of a bill to abate a nuisance consisting of a bridge across the Mississippi from Iowa to Illinois it has been determined that the district court for the district of Iowa had no power to abate the nuisance on the Illinois side, the dividing line between the states being the middle of the river. Mississippi, etc., R. Co. v. Ward, 2 Black (U. S.) 485, 17 L. ed. 311.

The circuit court for South Carolina has been declared to have jurisdiction throughout the entire state. U. S. v. Butler, 25 Fed. Cas. No. 14,700, 1 Hughes 457.

Who is a resident of the district see King v. U. S., 59 Fed. 9.

22. In re Keasbey, etc., Co., 160 U. S. 221, 16 S. Ct. 273, 40 L. ed. 402; Bostwick v. American Finance Co., 43 Fed. 897; Winona Bank v. Avery, 34 Fed. 81; Harold v. Iron Silver Min. Co., 33 Fed. 529; St. Louis, etc., R. Co. v. Terre Haute, etc., R. Co., 33 Fed. 385; Short v. Chicago, etc., R. Co., 33 Fed. 114; Bourke v. Amison, 32 Fed. 710.

Residence in the particular division of the district where the suit is brought is not required. Merchants' Nat. Bank v. Chattanooga Constr. Co., 53 Fed. 314.

Defendant may waive this privilege of exemption by a general appearance or by pleading to the merits of the action. Van Doren v. Pennsylvania R. Co., 93 Fed. 260, 35 C. C. A. 282; Southern Express Co. v. Todd, 56 Fed. 104, 5 C. C. A. 432. See also Cooley v. McArthur, 35 Fed. 372. But the filing of a demurrer to the bill, although on other grounds, is not such a waiver. Chesapeake, etc., Coal Agency Co. v. Fire Creek Coal, etc., Co., 119 Fed. 942.

Of an action against an alien temporarily in the district the circuit court has no jurisdiction. Meyer v. Herrera, 41 Fed. 65. Compare Cooley v. McArthur, 35 Fed. 372.

23. This rule has been applied in an action by creditors for the appointment of a receiver for a railroad (Texas, etc., R. Co. v.

federal court of the district where land is situated has jurisdiction of a controversy in reference to such land, although neither plaintiff nor defendant is a resident of such district.[24]

d. District of Which Defendant Is an Inhabitant or in Which He Is Found. By the judiciary act of 1789 it was provided that no civil suit should be brought before the circuit or district courts against an inhabitant of the United States in any other district than that whereof he was an inhabitant or in which he shall be found at the time of serving the writ. This provision was in substance incorporated into various acts of congress subsequently passed.[25] This Gay, 86 Tex. 571, 26 S. W. 599, 25 L. R. A. 52; East Tennessee, etc., R. Co. v. Atlanta, etc., R. Co., 49 Fed. 608, 15 L. R. A. 109), an action in rem (U. S. v. One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Six Shares of Capital Stock, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 15,961, 5 Blatchf. 231), a libel in rem (Nelson v. The Willamette, 53 Fed. 602), a petition to confirm a claim (Callender v. U. S., 4 Fed. Cas. No. 2,321, Hempst. 334), a suit to foreclose a mortgage (Merrihew v. Fort, 98 Fed. 899; Grove v. Grove, 93 Fed. 865; Atkins v. Wabash, etc., R. Co., 29 Fed. 161; Randolph v. Wilmington, etc., R. Co., 20 Fed. Cas. No. 11,563, 11 Phila. (Pa.) 502, 33 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 221) or to cancel a mortgage (Cowell v. City Water-Supply Co., 96 Fed. 769), and to an action for trespass upon land (Ellenwood v. Marietta Chair Co., 158 U. S. 105, 15 S. Ct. 771, 39 L. ed. 913; Livingston v. Jefferson, 15 Fed. Cas. No. 8,411, 1 Brock. 203, 4 Hughes 606). But it has been decided that a suit to enforce a contract to convey land should be brought in the district where one of the parties resides (Municipal Invest. Co. v. Gardiner, 62 Fed. 954), and that a suit by heirs against trustees under a will to recover a residue in the hands of defendants is not within the act of March 3, 1875 (Fayerweather v. Ritch, 89 Fed. 385).

Although land is situated within the district it does not give a federal court jurisdiction when it would not otherwise exist. Pooley v. Luco, 72 Fed. 561.

A non-resident of the district may be enjoined in such district from infringing the patent of another, although he is not subject to service of process therein or to be sued as a defendant. Kennedy v. Penn. Iron, etc., Co., 67 Fed. 339.

A penal statute is to be strictly construed, and where such an enactment makes penal only the act of falsely stamping an article patented, and provides for a penalty therefor, the suit to recover the penalty can only be brought in the district where such articles were actually stamped. Pentlarge v. Kirby, 19 Fed. 501. See also Winne v. Snow, 19 Fed. 507.

A sale of land located in one state cannot be decreed by the circuit court for another state, nor can it make its decree a lien on such land. Boyce v. Grundy, 9 Pet. (U. S.) 275, 9 L. ed. 127. See also Guarantee Trust, etc., Co. v. Delta, etc., Co., 104 Fed. 5, 43 C. C. A. 396.

Of a suit for the diversion of water the federal court of the district where the act was committed may have jurisdiction. Foot v. Edwards, 9 Fed. Cas. No. 4,908, 3 Blatchf. 310. See also Stillman v. White Rock Mfg. Co., 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,446, 3 Woodb. & M. 538.

Of a suit to remove a cloud on title to land, the circuit court, where such land is situated, has jurisdiction, although defendant is a citizen of another state (Dick v. Foraker, 155 U. S. 404, 15 S. Ct. 124, 39 L. ed. 201. See also U. S. v. Southern Pac. R. Co., 63 Fed. 481); but it is decided that such a suit need not be brought in the state where such land is situated (Remer v. McKay, 54 Fed. 432).

Shares of stock where deemed personal property by the laws of the state will be so considered within the meaning of the act of congress of March 3, 1875. Jellenik v. Huron Copper Min. Co., 177 U. S. 1, 20 S. Ct. 559, 44 L. ed. 647.

The place of actual seizure of property by customs authorities determines jurisdiction of the federal court. Seitz v. U. S., 97 U. S. 404, 24 L. ed. 1031.

Where a testator left real and personal property in one state in which administration was granted it has been decided that the fact that he died in another state, in which his will was proved, did not deprive the circuit court of the former state of jurisdiction of a bill for account of trust funds received by testator for complainant. Walker v. Beal, 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,065, 3 Cliff. 155.

24. De Hierapolis v. Lawrence, 99 Fed. 321; Spencer v. Kansas City Stock Yards Co., 56 Fed. 741; Single v. Scott Paper Mfg. Co., 55 Fed. 553; Wheelwright v. St. Louis, etc., Co., 50 Fed. 709.

Although plaintiff and some of the defendants are non-residents, the rule prevails. Greeley v. Lowe, 155 U. S. 58, 15 S. Ct. 24, 39 L. ed. 69 [distinguishing Smith v. Lyon, 133 U. S. 315, 10 S. Ct. 303, 33 L. ed. 635]; Ames v. Holderbaum, 42 Fed. 341. Compare Detweiler v. Holderbaum, 42 Fed. 337.

25. Chaffee v. Hayward, 20 How. (U. S.) 208, 15 L. ed. 804; Huff v. Hutchinson, 14 How. (U. S.) 586, 14 L. ed. 553; McMicken v. Webb, 11 Pet. (U. S.) 25, 9 L. ed. 618; Barton v. Petit, 7 Cranch (U. S.) 194, 3 L. ed. 313; Commercial Bank of Commerce v. Green, 6 Fed. Cas. No. 3,059, 2 Flipp. 181; Saddler v. Hudson, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,206, 2 Curt. 6; U. S. v. Ottman, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 15,977, 1 Hughes 313; Wilson v. Graham, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 17,804, 4 Wash. 53; Winter v.

judiciary act was, however, amended in 1887,[26] and again in 1888,[27] by acts of congress which provided that a civil suit must be brought in the district of which the defendant is an inhabitant, except when founded on the residence of the parties in different states, in which case it should be brought in a district of which either party is an inhabitant.[28]

e. Co-Plaintiffs or Co-Defendants Inhabitants of Different Districts. Where jurisdiction rests solely on the grounds of diverse citizenship and the action should be brought in the district of which either the plaintiff or defendant is a resident, and there are several co-plaintiffs or co-defendants, or both, if the jurisdiction depends on the citizenship of the plaintiffs it has generally been decided that each plaintiff must be competent to sue in that district, or, if on that of the defendants, each defendant must be capable of being sued in such district or jurisdiction cannot be entertained.[29]

Ludlow, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 17,891, 3 Phila. (Pa.) 464.

Attachment suit against property of non-resident not authorized by U. S. Rev. Stat. (1878), § 739. Ex p. Des Moines, etc., R. Co. 103 U. S. 794, 26 L. ed. 461; Maudlin v. Carll, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 9,307, 3 Hughes 249; Nazro v. Cragin, 17 Fed. Cas. No. 10,062, 3 Dill. 474; Richmond v. Dreyfous, 20 Fed. Cas. No. 11,799, 1 Sumn. 131. See also Seidenbach v. Hollowell, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,635, 5 Dill. 382.

Cross bill was held to be an original bill within such an act. Bates v. Delavan, 5 Paige (N. Y.) 299.

In patent cases the rule was not changed. Chaffee v. Hayward, 20 How. (U. S.) 208, 15 L. ed. 804; Saddler v. Hudson, 20 Fed. Cas. No. 12,206, 2 Curt. 6.

Defendant non-resident of district might waive service of process by entering appearance in the suit. Levy v. Fitzpatrick, 15 Pet. (U. S.) 167, 10 L. ed. 699. See also Taylor v. Cook, 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,789, 2 McLean 516.

26. 24 U. S. Stat. at L. 552.

27. 25 U. S. Stat. at L. 434.

28. Campbell v. Duluth, etc., R. Co., 50 Fed. 241; U. S. v. Crawford, 47 Fed. 561; U. S. Express Co. v. Allen, 39 Fed. 712.

A defendant should be a real and not merely a nominal party to the suit to give jurisdiction on the ground of residence. Sacketts' Harbor Bank v. Barry, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,204, 1 Bond 154.

A resident of one state temporarily in another is an inhabitant of the power within the meaning of such acts. Bicycle Stepladder Co. v. Gordon, 57 Fed. 529 [following Shaw v. Quincy Min. Co., 145 U. S. 444, 12 S. Ct. 935, 36 L. ed. 768 and distinguishing U. S. v. Southern Pac. R. Co., 49 Fed. 297].

In cases arising under the patent and copyright laws, it has been decided that a defendant may be sued in any district in which valid service can be made, the acts of 1887 and 1888 not applying to such cases. Spears v. Flynn, 102 Fed. 6; Lederer v. Rankin, 90 Fed. 449; National Button Works v. Wade, 72 Fed. 298; Smith v. Sargent Mfg. Co., 67 Fed. 801; Allen v. Blunt, 1 Fed. Cas. No. 215, 1 Blatchf. 480; Day v. Newark India-Rubber Mfg. Co., 7 Fed. Cas. No. 3,685, 1 Blatchf. 628. And see In re Hohorst, 150 U. S. 653, 14 S. Ct. 221, 37 L. ed. 1211. But compare Fraser v. Barrie, 105 Fed. 787; Union Switch, etc., Co. v. Hall Signal Co., 65 Fed. 625; Illingworth v. Atha, 42 Fed. 141; Reinstadler v. Reeves, 33 Fed. 308. Under a later act of congress, however, it has been decided that the jurisdiction of the federal court is restricted as to such cases. Bowers v. Atlantic, etc., Co., 104 Fed. 887. See also Fraser v. Barrie, 105 Fed. 787.

In suits by the federal government the only restriction is that they be brought in the district of which the defendant is an inhabitant. U. S. v. Southern Pac. R. Co., 49 Fed. 297.

Service on an agent of a manufacturer who resides in another district in a suit for infringement of a patent is not sufficient to bring the latter within the court's jurisdiction. Anderson v. Germain, 48 Fed. 295.

29. Shaw v. Quincy Min. Co., 145 U. S. 444, 12 S. Ct. 935, 36 L. ed. 768; Smith v. Lyon, 133 U. S. 315, 10 S. Ct. 303, 33 L. ed. 635; Susquehanna, etc., R., etc., Co. v. Blatchford, 11 Wall. (U. S.) 172, 20 L. ed. 179; Northern Indiana R. Co. v. Michigan Cent. R. Co., 15 How. (U. S.) 233, 14 L. ed. 674; Lengel v. American Smelting, etc., Co., 110 Fed. 19; Lancaster v. Asheville St. R. Co., 90 Fed. 129; Excelsior Pebble Phosphate Co. v. Brown, 74 Fed. 321, 20 C. C. A. 428; Duchesse d'Auxy v. Porter, 41 Fed. 68. Compare Smith v. Atchison, etc., R. Co., 64 Fed. 1; Bensinger Self-Adding Cash Register Co. v. National Cash Register Co., 42 Fed. 81; Rawitzer v. Wyatt, 40 Fed. 609; Wiggins v. European, etc., R. Co., 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,626, 1 Hask. 122.

"Each distinct interest should be represented by persons, all of whom are entitled to sue, or may be sued, in the federal courts. That is, that where the interest is joint, each of the persons concerned in that interest must be competent to sue, or liable to be sued, in those courts." Per Marshall, C. J., in Strawbridge v. Curtiss, 3 Cranch (U. S.) 267, 2 L. ed. 435.

An action to enforce a claim to property which is located in a state of which neither the plaintiff nor defendants are residents, and all the parties are residents of different

f. Actions by or Against Corporations. In construing the application of the federal statutes which provide that a civil suit shall be brought in the district of which defendant is an inhabitant or where the jurisdiction is founded on diverse citizenship, in the district of which either plaintiff or defendant is a resident, it has been determined that a corporation is not a resident, citizen, or inhabitant of a state in which it has not been incorporated, within the meaning of such statutes.[30] And it has also been declared that a corporation is not an inhabitant of a state states, is properly brought in the district where such property is located. Carpenter v. Talbot, 33 Fed. 537.

Where defendants reside in different districts in the same state it has been decided that an injunction may be served on one of them out of the district in which the court sits. Babbitt v. Burgess, 2 Fed. Cas. No. 693, 2 Dill. 169.

30. In re Keasbey, etc., Co., 160 U. S. 221, 16 S. Ct. 273, 40 L. ed. 402; Rust v. United Waterworks Co., 70 Fed. 129, 17 C. C. A. 16; National Typographic Co. v. New York Typographic Co., 44 Fed. 711; Myers v. Murray, 43 Fed. 695, 11 L. R. A. 216; Booth v. St. Louis Fire-Engine Mfg. Co., 40 Fed. 1; Filli v. Delaware, etc., R. Co., 37 Fed. 65; Jesup v. Illinois Cent. R. Co., 36 Fed. 735; Eaton v. St. Louis Shakspear Min., etc., Co., 7 Fed. 139, 2 McCrary 362; Myers v. Dorr, 17 Fed. Cas. No. 9,988, 13 Blatchf. 22; Pomeroy v. New York, etc., R. Co., 19 Fed. Cas. No. 11,261, 4 Blatchf. 120. Compare In re Hohorst, 150 U. S. 653, 14 S. Ct. 221, 37 L. ed. 1211; Hunter v. International R. Imp. Co., 26 Fed. 299; Thornburgh v. Savage Min. Co., 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,986.

A corporation may be sued in a state in which incorporated by a citizen of another state, although it may also be incorporated in such other state. Page v. Fall River, etc., R. Co., 31 Fed. 257. See also Boston, etc., R. Co. v. Hurd, 108 Fed. 116, 47 C. C. A. 615, 56 L. R. A. 193; Culbertson v. Wabash Nav. Co., 6 Fed. Cas. No. 3,464, 4 McLean 544; Minot v. Philadelphia, etc., R. Co., 17 Fed. Cas. No. 9,645, 2 Abb. 323, 7 Phila. (Pa.) 555, 27 Leg. Int. (Pa.) 396 [affirmed in 18 Wall. 206, 21 L. ed. 888].

"Or in which he is found" as used in earlier acts and applied to corporations. Merchants' Mfg. Co. v. Grand Trunk R. Co., 11 Abb. N. Cas. (N. Y.) 183; Carpenter v. Westinghouse Air-Brake Co., 32 Fed. 434; Hat-Sweat Mfg. Co. v. Davis Sewing Mach. Co., 31 Fed. 294; Elgin Canning Co. v. Atchison, etc., R. Co., 24 Fed. 866; Good Hope Co. v. Railway Barb Fencing Co., 22 Fed. 635, 23 Blatchf. 43; Merchants' Mfg. Co. v. Grand Trunk R. Co., 13 Fed. 358, 21 Blatchf. 109; McCoy v. Cincinnati, etc., R. Co., 13 Fed. 3; Mohr v. Insurance Cos., 12 Fed. 474; Robinson v. National Stock-Yard Co., 12 Fed. 361, 20 Blatchf. 513; Blackburn v. Selma, etc., R. Co., 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,467, 2 Flipp. 525; Knott v. Southern L. Ins. Co., 14 Fed. Cas. No. 7,894, 2 Woods 479; Schollenberger v. Forty Five Foreign Ins. Co.'s, 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,475*a*; Southern, etc., Tel. Co. v. New Orleans, etc., R. Co., 22 Fed. Cas. No. 13,185; Williams v. Empire Transp. Co., 29 Fed. Cas. No. 17,720, 3 Ban. & A. 533.

Railroad corporations are under the laws of Georgia inhabitants of all the counties through which their roads run. East Tennessee, etc., R. Co. v. Atlanta, etc., R. Co., 49 Fed. 608, 15 L. R. A. 109 [following Davis v. Central R., etc., Co., 17 Ga. 323]. But although such a law may exist in a state, yet if it is also provided by statute that the public office which every railroad is required to maintain shall be considered its domicile it must be sued by an alien in the district where such office is located. Galveston, etc., R. Co. v. Gonzales, 151 U. S. 496, 14 S. Ct. 401, 38 L. ed. 248. Compare Zamhrino v. Galveston, etc., R. Co., 38 Fed. 449. And it has been decided that in the absence of any charter provision on the subject the principal office and domicile of such a corporation for the purposes of a suit in the federal courts are in the district where its stock-holders and directors' meetings are held, and the records thereof kept, together with the stock certificate book and where the principal officers have their offices. Texas, etc., R. Co. v. Interstate Commerce Commission, 162 U. S. 197, 16 S. Ct. 666, 40 L. ed. 940 [affirming 57 Fed. 948, 6 C. C. A. 653]. Again where a Canadian railroad corporation operated a railroad in one of the states under a lease ratified by the legislature it was decided that it must be considered as being within the state and subject to the jurisdiction of the federal court at the suit of a citizen of the district. Cummings v. Grand Trunk R. Co., 6 Fed. Cas. No. 3,475, 2 Hask. 101.

An order may be issued to a foreign railroad corporation to appear and plead in a suit by an alien bondholder against the trustee, in a mortgage securing such corporation's bonds, to restrain the payment of certain funds to the corporation, where the action was commenced in the district of which the trustee was an inhabitant. Pollitz v. Farmers' L. & T. Co., 39 Fed. 707.

Service of process on an officer or director of a corporation and in a state other than that of its incorporation was held not to confer jurisdiction. Ellsworth Trust Co. v. Parramore, 108 Fed. 906, 48 C. C. A. 132; Eldred v. American Palace-Car Co., 105 Fed. 455, 45 C. C. A. 1.

Where jurisdiction is founded only on the fact of diverse citizenship suit may be brought in the district where plaintiff resides against a non-resident corporation. McCormick Harvesting Mach. Co. v. Walthers, 134 U. S. 41, 10 S. Ct. 485, 33 L. ed. 833. See also Fairbank v. Cincinnati, etc., R. Co., 54 Fed. 420, other than that in which it is incorporated from the fact that it does business in such state.[31] It has, however, been decided in numerous cases that if a foreign corporation engages in business in a state, and in pursuance of the laws thereof appoints an agent or attorney with power to receive service of process in any suit against it, it thereby becomes an inhabitant or resident of the state and consents in advance to be sued in the federal court located therein.[32]

10. Pleadings and Waiver of Objections. Where diverse citizenship is the only fact on which the jurisdiction of the court is founded it should appear from the complaint that either the plaintiff or the defendant resides in the district in which suit is brought.[33] The exemption, however, which a defendant may claim from suit in the federal court in any other district than that in which he is a resident is a personal privilege and may be waived,[34] and it will be considered

4 C. C. A. 403, 38 L. R. A. 271; Rawley v. Southern Pac. R. Co., 33 Fed. 305.

31. Southern Pac. Co. v. Denton, 146 U. S. 202, 13 S. Ct. 44, 36 L. ed. 377; Shaw v. Quincy Min. Co., 145 U. S. 444, 12 S. Ct. 935, 36 L. ed. 768; Central Trust Co. v. Virginia, etc., Steel, etc., Co., 55 Fed. 769; St. Louis R. Co. v. Pacific R. Co., 52 Fed. 770; Campbell v. Duluth, etc., R. Co., 50 Fed. 241; Bensinger Self-Adding Cash Register Co. v. National Cash Register Co., 42 Fed. 81; Booth v. St. Louis Fire-Engine Mfg. Co., 40 Fed. 1; Filli v. Delaware, etc., R. Co., 37 Fed. 65; Preston v. Fire-Extinguisher Mfg. Co., 36 Fed. 721; Connor v. Vicksburg, etc., R. Co., 36 Fed. 273, 1 L. R. A. 331; Gormully, etc., Mfg. Co. v. Pope Mfg. Co., 34 Fed. 818; Eaton v. St. Louis Shakspear Min., etc., Co., 7 Fed. 139, 2 McCrary 362. But see Palmer v. Chicago Herald Co., 70 Fed. 886; Gilbert v. New Zealand Ins. Co., 49 Fed. 884, 15 L. R. A. 125; East Tennessee, etc., R. Co. v. Atlanta, etc., R. Co., 49 Fed. 608, 15 L. R. A. 109; U. S. v. Central Pac. R. Co., 49 Fed. 304; U. S. v. Southern Pac. R. Co., 49 Fed. 297; Miller v. Eastern Oregon Gold Min. Co., 45 Fed. 345; U. S. v. Union Pac. R. Co., 28 Fed. Cas. No. 16,600, 3 Dill. 524; Wilson Packing Co. v. Hunter, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 17,852, 4 Ban. & A. 184, 8 Biss. 429.

A citizen of Mexico cannot, it has been declared, sue a Connecticut corporation in the circuit court for the southern district of California, although the corporation has an office and a managing agent in such district. Denton v. Mexico International Co., 36 Fed. 1, 13 Sawy. 355.

In an action for infringement of a patent against a foreign corporation the fact that it has a place of business in the state does not confer jurisdiction for the purposes of a suit. Shaw v. Quincy Min. Co., 145 U. S. 444, 12 S. Ct. 935, 36 L. ed. 768; Gorham Mfg. Co. v. Watson, 74 Fed. 418; Donnelly v. U. S. Cordage Co., 66 Fed. 613; Cramer v. Singer Mfg. Co., 59 Fed. 74; National Typewriter Co. v. Pope Mfg. Co., 56 Fed. 849; Adriance v. McCormick Harvesting Mach. Co., 55 Fed. 287; Halstead v. Manning, 34 Fed. 565. But see Sayles v. Grand Trunk R. Co., 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,419. But where a suit of this nature was brought against a New York corporation whose principal business office was declared by its certificate to be in New York city, and "such other places as the company may hereafter select," it was decided that suit was properly brought in the circuit court for the northern district of that state for an infringement there committed and in which it had a place of business. Consolidated Fastener Co. v. Columbian Fastener Co., 73 Fed. 828.

32. Ex p. Schollenberger, 96 U. S. 369, 24 L. ed. 853; Shainwald v. Davids, 69 Fed. 704; Dinzy v. Illinois Cent. R. Co., 61 Fed. 49; Spencer v. Kansas City Stock-Yards Co., 56 Fed. 741; Minford v. Old Dominion Steamship Co., 48 Fed. 1; Consolidated Store-Service Co. v. Lamson Consol. Store-Service Co., 41 Fed. 833; Riddle v. New York, etc., R. Co., 39 Fed. 290; Wotherspoon v. Massachusetts Ben. Assoc., 38 Fed. 625. And see U. S. v. Sheridan, 119 Fed. 236; Gale v. Alabama Southern Bldg., etc., Assoc., 117 Fed. 732. But see Platt v. Massachusetts Real-Estate Co., 103 Fed. 705; Rowhotham v. George P. Steele Iron Co., 71 Fed. 758; Southern, etc., Tel. Co. v. New Orleans, etc., R. Co., 22 Fed. Cas. No. 13,185.

Conditions declared essential to confer jurisdiction over a foreign corporation have been said to be: (1) That such corporation is as a matter of fact carrying on business in the state or district; (2) that such business is transacted or managed by some agent or officer appointed by and representing the corporation in such state; and (3) that there is some local law which makes such corporation amenable to suit as an express or implied condition of its doing business within the state. Mecke v. Valley Town Mineral Co., 89 Fed. 114; U. S. v. American Bell Telephone Co., 29 Fed. 17. See also Westinghouse Mach. Co. v. Press Pub. Co., 110 Fed. 254; Eldred v. American Palace-Car Co., 105 Fed. 455, 45 C. C. A. 1.

33. Laskey v. Newtown Min. Co., 50 Fed. 634. See also Harvey v. Richmond, etc., R. Co., 64 Fed. 19; U. S. v. Woolsey, 28 Fed. Cas. No. 16,762.

Averment on the record that defendant is an inhabitant of the district in which the suit is brought has been held not to be necessary. Gracie v. Palmer, 8 Wheat. (U. S.) 699, 5 L. ed. 719; Teese v. Phelps, 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,818, McAll. 17.

34. Smith v. Atchison, etc., R. Co., 64 Fed. 1; Jewett v. Bradford Sav. Bank, etc., Co.,

as waived if not pleaded and the court may then have jurisdiction of the suit.[35]

11. Record Should Show Jurisdiction. The jurisdiction of a federal court should be affirmatively shown by the record, as where it depends alone on the diverse citizenship of the parties, and if it is not so shown a judgment given under such circumstances will be reversed by the appellate court.[36] And although the point is not made in the arguments by either party in the supreme court, such court will of its own motion deny both its own jurisdiction and that of the court from which the record comes.[37]

12. Presumption as to Jurisdiction. In an action in a federal court it is presumed that the court is without jurisdiction until the contrary affirmatively appears.[38]

45 Fed. 801; Purcell v. British Land, etc., Co., 42 Fed. 465; U. S. v. American Bell Telephone Co., 29 Fed. 17; Page v. Chillicothe, 6 Fed. 599.

35. Interior Constr., etc., Co. v. Gibney, 160 U. S. 217, 16 S. Ct. 272, 40 L. ed. 401; Central Trust Co. v. McGeorge, 151 U. S. 129, 14 S. Ct. 286, 38 L. ed. 98 [reversing 55 Fed. 769]; De Wolf v. Rabaud, 1 Pet. (U. S.) 476, 7 L. ed. 227; Von Auw v. Chicago Toy, etc., Co., 69 Fed. 448; Hoover, etc., Co. v. Columbia Straw-Paper Co., 68 Fed. 945; Walker v. Windsor Nat. Bank, 56 Fed. 76, 5 C. C. A. 421; Vermont Farm Mach. Co. v. Gibson, 50 Fed. 423; McBride v. Grand de Tour Plow Co., 40 Fed. 162; Norris v. Atlas Steamship Co., 37 Fed. 279; Blackburn v. Selma, etc., R. Co., 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,467, 2 Flipp. 525; Black v. Thorne, 3 Fed. Cas. No. 1,465, 10 Blatchf. 66.

The point may be raised by demurrer as well as by motion to dismiss, where it appears from the face of the bill that the defendants have been sued in the wrong district. Reinstadler v. Reeves, 33 Fed. 308; U. S. v. Woolsey, 28 Fed. Cas. No. 16,762.

36. Mattingly v. Northwestern Virginia R. Co., 158 U. S. 53, 15 S. Ct. 725, 39 L. ed. 894; Brock v. Northwestern Fuel Co., 130 U. S. 341, 9 S. Ct. 552, 32 L. ed. 905; Continental L. Ins. Co. v. Rhoads, 119 U. S. 237, 7 S. Ct. 193, 30 L. ed. 380; Robertson v. Cease, 97 U. S. 646, 24 L. ed. 1057; Connolly v. Taylor, 2 Pet. (U. S.) 556, 7 L. ed. 518; McCormick v. Sullivant, 10 Wheat. (U. S.) 192, 6 L. ed. 300; Sullivan v. Fulton Steamboat Co., 6 Wheat. (U. S.) 450, 5 L. ed. 302; Kempe v. Kennedy, 5 Cranch (U. S.) 173, 3 L. ed. 70; Course v. Stead, 4 Dall. (U. S.) 22, 1 L. ed. 724; Turner v. Enrille, 4 Dall. (U. S.) 7, 1 L. ed. 717; Norton v. Brewster, 23 Fed. 840; Allen v. Blunt, 1 Fed. Cas. No. 215, 1 Blatchf. 480; Tunstall v. Worthington, 24 Fed. Cas. No. 14,239, Hempst. 662; U. S. v. Alberty, 24 Fed. Cas. No. 14,426, Hempst. 444; Wood v. Mann, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 17,952, 1 Sumn. 578; Johnson v. U. S., 29 Ct. Cl. 1. Compare Chemung Canal Bank v. Judson, 8 N. Y. 254, Seld. Notes (N. Y.) 49; Wood v. Mann, 30 Fed. Cas. No. 17,952, 1 Sumn. 578.

Allegation of citizenship in a remittitur of damages will not give jurisdiction. Denny v. Pironi, 141 U. S. 121, 11 S. Ct. 966, 35 L. ed. 657.

Diversity of "residence," where shown by the record, is not sufficient. Diversity of citizenship should be shown. Robertson v. Cease, 97 U. S. 646, 24 L. ed. 1057; Texas, etc., R. Co. v. Rogers, 57 Fed. 378, 6 C. C. A. 403; Southwestern Tel., etc., Co. v. Robinson, 48 Fed. 769, 1 C. C. A. 91.

In papers copied into the transcript and which do not make a part of the record citizenship of the parties should be shown. Robertson v. Cease, 97 U. S. 646, 24 L. ed. 1057.

Leave to amend the petition so as to give the circuit court jurisdiction will not be granted by the supreme court on appeal. Cameron v. Hodges, 127 U. S. 322, 8 S. Ct. 1154, 32 L. ed. 132.

Where shown in summons which forms a part of the record it may be sufficient when the question is first raised in the supreme court. Gordon v. Chattanooga Third Nat. Bank, 144 U. S. 97, 12 S. Ct. 657, 36 L. ed. 360.

Where the fault alone rests on plaintiff reversal by the supreme court will be at his cost. Halsted v. Buster, 119 U. S. 341, 7 S. Ct. 276, 30 L. ed. 462.

Where, whether the land in controversy was in the northern or southern district of California was not shown by the record, the judgment was reversed and the case was remanded by the supreme court to the circuit court for the purpose of making jurisdiction apparent and for the correction of other matters of form or substance. Cervantes v. U. S., 16 How. (U. S.) 619, 14 L. ed. 1083.

37. King Iron Bridge, etc., Co. v. Otoe County, 120 U. S. 225, 7 S. Ct. 552, 30 L. ed. 623.

Although exception to jurisdiction was not taken in the trial court the appellate court will reverse. St. Louis, etc., R. Co. v. Newcom, 56 Fed. 951, 6 C. C. A. 172.

38. Robertson v. Cease, 97 U. S. 646, 24 L. ed. 1057; U. S. v. Central Pac. R. Co., 49 Fed. 304; U. S. v. Southern Pac. R. Co., 49 Fed. 297; Hampton v. Truckee Canal Co., 19 Fed. 1, 9 Sawy. 381.

Where an order in mandamus proceedings is made by a federal court, it will not be presumed that such court ordered the officer to perform an act in violation of a previous injunction decree of a state court. Mail v. Maxwell, 107 Ill. 554.

13. Determination of Question of Jurisdiction. It is the duty of the court to dismiss the action as soon as lack of jurisdiction over it satisfactorily appears.[39] Where jurisdiction depends upon the question of citizenship it is to be determined by the citizenship of the parties to the record and not of those beneficially interested.[40] And where jurisdiction is claimed by reason of a federal question being involved it should be determined by the issues raised in the plaintiff's petition, which are necessary to be decided in order to afford an adequate remedy.[41]

14. Loss or Divestiture of Jurisdiction.[42] It is a general rule that the jurisdiction of the federal court having attached the right of the plaintiff to prosecute his suit to a final determination cannot be arrested, defeated, or impaired by any proceeding in a court of another or concurrent jurisdiction;[43] nor can it be defeated by the fact that after the action is begun defendant does not continue to resist plaintiff's demands,[44] by reason of the parties becoming citizens of the same state,[45]

Where, however, a judgment has been rendered in a federal court it will be presumed, where such judgment is collaterally assailed in a state tribunal, that the court had jurisdiction of the cause unless the contrary appears on the face of the records.

Alabama.— Hundley v. Chadick, 109 Ala. 575, 19 So. 845.

Michigan.—Arnold v. Nye, 23 Mich. 286.

Minnesota.—Turrell v. Warren, 25 Minn. 9.

Nevada.— Ex p. Hill, 5 Nev. 154.

New York.— Ruckman v. Cowell, 1 N. Y. 505; Griswold v. Sedgwick, 1 Wend. 126.

United States.— Erwin v. Lowry, 7 How. 172, 12 L. ed. 655.

Compare Morse v. Presby, 25 N. H. 299.

See 13 Cent. Dig. tit. "Courts," § 817.

39. Morris v. Gilmer, 129 U. S. 315, 9 S. Ct. 289, 32 L. ed. 690; U. S. v. Crawford, 47 Fed. 561.

It is never too late to consider the question of jurisdiction, and the court may dismiss an action at any time after it has been commenced, where the want thereof satisfactorily appears. Robinson v. Anderson, 121 U. S. 522, 7 S. Ct. 1011, 30 L. ed. 1021; Williams v. Nottawa Tp., 104 U. S. 209, 26 L. ed. 719; Fuller v. Metropolitan L. Ins. Co., 37 Fed. 163; Vannerson v. Leverett, 31 Fed. 376; Eaton v. Calhoun, 15 Fed. 155, 2 Flipp. 593; Spring v. Domestic Sewing Mach. Co., 13 Fed. 446. The case may be dismissed after verdict. Hartog v. Memory, 23 Fed. 835.

Although the complaint may bring the case within the jurisdiction of a federal court the action may be dismissed where it appears on the trial that no federal question is involved. Fergus Falls v. Fergus Falls Water Co., 72 Fed. 873, 19 C. C. A. 212.

Likewise where the ground of jurisdiction is diversity of citizenship, and it appears on the trial that the court has no jurisdiction on such ground, the action should be dismissed. Maxfield v. Levy, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 9,321, 2 Dall. (Pa.) 381, 4 Dall. (Pa.) 330. Compare Hartog v. Memory, 116 U. S. 588, 6 S. Ct. 521, 29 L. ed. 725.

Where as to part of the matters there is no jurisdiction and as to the others there is extreme doubt, and there is an adequate remedy in the state courts, a plea to the jurisdiction should be sustained. Freeney v. Plattsmouth First Nat. Bank, 16 Fed. 433, 3 McCrary 622.

Where averments are found to be immaterial in the determination of the matter really in dispute between the parties and were evidently made for the purpose of conferring jurisdiction where none in fact existed the case may be dismissed. Robinson v. Anderson, 121 U. S. 522, 7 S. Ct. 1011, 30 L. ed. 1021. See also Filhiol v. Torney, 119 Fed. 974.

40. Robb v. Parker, 3 S. C. 60. See Georgia v. Madrazo, 1 Pet. (U. S.) 110, 7 L. ed. 73.

A decree dismissing a bill will be affirmed in the supreme court where it did not appear from the record that the court below had jurisdiction, the parties not being citizens of different states. Sullivan v. Fulton Steamboat Co., 6 Wheat. (U. S.) 450, 5 L. ed. 302.

Jurisdiction depends not merely on the description of the parties as belonging to different states, but upon the fact that they do so belong. Killpatrick v. Frost, 2 Grant (Pa.) 168.

Where a bill contains the necessary averments to give the court jurisdiction on the ground of diversity of citizenship, and no plea to the jurisdiction is interposed, but the question is raised for the first time on a hearing, the burden of proof rests upon the defendants to disprove such averments; and affidavits of unknown witnesses, who have not been subjected to cross-examination, obtained by a person shown to have resorted to questionable methods, will not be accepted as sufficient against positive testimony in contradiction. Kilgore v. Norman, 119 Fed. 1006.

41. Sawyer v. Concordia Parish, 12 Fed. 754, 4 Woods 273, where it is also decided that jurisdiction will not be divested by the character of the defense made.

42. A clerical error in docketing an admiralty cause on a civil docket will not oust the jurisdiction of the court sitting in admiralty. Hatch v. The Boston, 3 Fed. 807.

43. Suit filed in state court will not oust. Sharon v. Terry, 36 Fed. 337, 13 Sawy. 387, 1 L. R. A. 572; Gaylord v. Ft. Wayne, etc., R. Co., 10 Fed. Cas. No. 5,284, 6 Biss. 286. But see U. S. v. Wickersham, 10 Fed. 505.

44. Park v. New York, etc., R. Co., 70 Fed. 641.

45. Clarke v. Mathewson, 12 Pet. (U. S.) 164, 9 L. ed. 1041; Cross v. Evans, 86 Fed. 1, 29 C. C. A. 523.

or by an amendment to the pleading setting forth an entirely new cause of action.[46]

B. Jurisdiction Dependent on Nature of Subject-Matter — 1. In General. Where it appears that some right, title, privilege, or immunity will be defeated by one construction of the constitution or a law or treaty of the United States, or sustained by the opposite construction, then the case is one arising under the constitution or laws of the United States;[47] and where a federal question is involved jurisdiction exists without regard to the citizenship of the parties;[48] but it is a rule that to confer jurisdiction on the ground that a federal question is involved there must be a real and substantial dispute[49] as to the effect or construction of a provision either of the constitution or of some law of the United States, upon the determination of which the right of recovery depends.[50] Again the federal courts have jurisdiction of actions where the question is involved whether by a state law the obligation of a contract has been impaired,[51] where persons are denied the 46. Green v. Custard, 23 How. (U. S.) 484, 16 L. ed. 471.

47. Cooke v. Avery, 147 U. S. 375, 13 S. Ct. 340, 37 L. ed. 209; Carson v. Dunham, 121 U. S. 421, 7 S. Ct. 1030, 30 L. ed. 992; Starin v. New York, 115 U. S. 248, 6 S. Ct. 28, 29 L. ed. 388; New Orleans, etc., R. Co. v. Mississippi, 102 U. S. 135, 26 L. ed. 96; Osborn v. U. S. Bank, 9 Wheat. (U. S.) 738, 6 L. ed. 204; Richards v. Rock Rapids, 31 Fed. 505; Leonard v. Shreveport, 28 Fed. 257; Hughes v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 18 Fed. 106, 9 Sawy. 313; Ellis v. Norton, 16 Fed. 4, 4 Woods 399; Van Allen v. Atchison, etc., R. Co., 3 Fed. 545, 1 McCrary 598.

Cases arising under the laws of the United States are such as grow out of the legislation of congress. New Orleans, etc., R. Co. v. Mississippi, 102 U. S. 135, 26 L. ed. 96; Ellis v. Norton, 16 Fed. 4, 4 Woods 399.

What does or what does not constitute a federal question see Avery v. Papper, 179 U. S. 305, 21 S. Ct. 94, 45 L. ed. 203; La Abra Silver Min. Co. v. U. S., 175 U. S. 423, 20 S. Ct. 168, 44 L. ed. 223 [affirming 32 Ct. Cl. 462]; In re Delafield, 109 Fed. 577; Anglo-American Provision Co. v. Davis Provision Co., 105 Fed. 536; Mercantile Trust, etc., Co. v. Collins Park, etc., R. Co., 107 Fed. 762; Southern Bell Telephone, etc., Co. v. Richmond, 103 Fed. 31, 44 C. C. A. 147 [affirming 98 Fed. 671]; Leslie v. Brown, 90 Fed. 171, 32 C. C. A. 556; Capital City Gas Co. v. Des Moines, 72 Fed. 818; Green v. Elbert, 63 Fed. 308, 11 C. C. A. 207. See Green v. Rogers, 56 Fed. 220; Sowles v. Witters, 46 Fed. 497; Murdock v. Cincinnati, 44 Fed. 726; Winter v. Swinburne, 8 Fed. 49, 10 Biss. 454; Johnson v. Jumel, 13 Fed. Cas. No. 7,392, 3 Woods 69. See also Jones v. Seward, 40 Barb. (N. Y.) 563; Ex p. Kinnebrew, 35 Fed. 52.

48. U. S. Express Co. v. Allen, 39 Fed. 712; Woodfin v. Phœbus, 30 Fed. 289; Sawyer v. Concordia Parish, 12 Fed. 754, 4 Woods 273; Fischer v. Neil, 6 Fed. 89. See also Files v. Davis, 118 Fed. 465.

49. A case which in fact depends upon questions of local or general law cannot be brought within the jurisdiction of a federal court, as one arising under the constitution or laws of the United States by a reference thereto. St. Paul, etc., R. Co. v. St. Paul, etc., R. Co., 68 Fed. 2, 15 C. C. A. 167. See Dowell v. Griswold, 7 Fed. Cas. No. 4,041, 5 Sawy. 39.

The mere fact that it may become necessary to construe the constitution or laws of the United States in the progress of the trial of the case does not give the federal courts jurisdiction, unless the decision must depend upon such construction. Wise v. Nixon, 78 Fed. 203.

50. McCain v. Des Moines, 174 U. S. 168, 19 S. Ct. 644, 43 L. ed. 936 [affirming 84 Fed. 726].

51. Reagan v. Farmers' L. & T. Co., 154 U. S. 362, 14 S. Ct. 1047, 38 L. ed. 1014; Citizens' St. R. Co. v. City R. Co., 56 Fed. 746; Citizens' St. R. Co. v. Memphis, 53 Fed. 715; Saginaw Gas-Light Co. v. Saginaw, 28 Fed. 529; Leonard v. Shreveport, 28 Fed. 257; Levy v. Shreveport, 28 Fed. 209; Sawyer v. Concordia Parish, 12 Fed. 754, 4 Woods 273. And see U. S. Const. art. 1, § 10.

A bill alleging contract exemption from taxation, and that the state is attempting to impair or destroy the same, raises a question of which the federal courts have jurisdiction. Illinois Cent. R. Co. v. Adams, 180 U. S. 28, 21 S. Ct. 251, 45 L. ed. 410. See also Union, etc., Bank v. Memphis, 111 Fed. 561, 49 C. C. A. 455.

Existence of a valid contract, the impairment of which is complained of, is not necessary. Pacific Electric Co. v. Los Angeles, 118 Fed. 746; Riverside, etc., R. Co. v. Riverside, 118 Fed. 736, 55 C. C. A. 240. Compare New York City Underground R. Co. v. New York City, 116 Fed. 952.

That a municipal ordinance impairs the obligation of a contract involves a constitutional question which is within the jurisdiction of a federal court. Walla Walla v. Walla Walla Water Co., 172 U. S. 1, 19 S. Ct. 77, 43 L. ed. 341 [affirming 60 Fed. 957]; Anoka Waterworks, etc., Co. v. Anoka, 109 Fed. 580; Los Angeles City Water Co. v. Los Angeles, 103 Fed. 711; Mercantile Trust, etc., Co. v. Collins Park, etc., R. Co., 99 Fed. 812; Iron Mountain R. Co. v. Memphis, 96 Fed. 113, 37 C. C. A. 410; Michigan Tel. Co. v. Charlotte, 93 Fed. 11. The ordinance should, however, be authorized, or supposed to be authorized.

equal protection of the laws,[52] or where a proceeding is without due process of law;[53] of all cases arising under treaties made under the authority of the United States;[54] of cases arising under the Civil Rights Act;[55] of torts committed on the high seas without reference to the nationality of the vessel;[56] and of actions which arise under the federal bankruptcy laws.[57] So also such courts have Hamilton Gaslight, etc., Co. v. Hamilton, 146 U. S. 258, 13 S. Ct. 90, 36 L. ed. 963.

A federal court is not ousted of jurisdiction of a suit, in which the question is raised whether the state was attempting to impair the obligation of a contract, by a decision that the question was res judicata as against the state. Stone v. Kentucky Bank, 174 U. S. 408, 19 S. Ct. 881, 43 L. ed. 1187 [affirming 88 Fed. 383].

Where a state constitutional provision does not indicate on its face that it was to be applied to antecedent contracts, and the state supreme court has held that it could not be so applied, a federal court has no jurisdiction. Shreveport v. Cole, 129 U. S. 36, 9 S. Ct. 210, 32 L. ed. 589.

Where such question not involved.— New Orleans v. Benjamin, 153 U. S. 411, 14 S. Ct. 905, 38 L. ed. 764; Carter v. Greenhow, 114 U. S. 317, 5 S. Ct. 928, 962, 29 L. ed. 202. See also Elkins v. Chicago, 119 Fed. 957.

52. Davenport v. Cloverport, 72 Fed. 689.

Denial of right to vote for non-compliance with state law see Swafford v. Templeton, 108 Fed. 309.

Of a suit to restrain collection of taxes on the ground that taxing authorities are proceeding illegally and not in conformity with the statutes of the state, a federal court has no jurisdiction. Manhattan R. Co. v. New York City, 18 Fed. 195.

53. U. S. Const. Amendm. 14, § 1. And see Gundling v. Chicago, 177 U. S. 183, 20 S. Ct. 633, 44 L. ed. 725; Hanford v. Davies, 163 U. S. 273, 16 S. Ct. 1051, 41 L. ed. 157; Crystal Springs Land, etc., Co. v. Los Angeles, 76 Fed. 148. Compare Huntington v. New York City, 118 Fed. 683.

A federal court has jurisdiction of a writ of habeas corpus alleging the arrest and imprisonment of the petitioner without authority under the state laws (In re Monroe, 46 Fed. 52); and of a bill for an injunction against owners of trespassing cattle, where it is alleged that the injury was committed by defendants under an unconstitutional state act by which the complainant was deprived of the use of his property without due process of law (Smith v. Bivens, 56 Fed. 352); but a federal question is not involved in a suit to enjoin the threatened taking of property, which it is alleged will be without any authority of law (Kiernan v. Multnomah County, 95 Fed. 849); nor is this constitutional provision involved where the question is under what statute a convict shall be executed, or whether he shall be executed at all (Davis v. Burke, 179 U. S. 399, 21 S. Ct. 210, 45 L. ed. 249); and a fine and imprisonment imposed by a state court for contempt in disobeying a writ of habeas corpus are not without due process of law (Ex p. Young, 50 Fed. 526).

An illegal levy of a tax or assessment may be a taking of property without due process of law. Norwood v. Baker, 172 U. S. 269, 19 S. Ct. 187, 43 L. ed. 443; White v. Tacoma, 109 Fed. 32; Southern R. Co. v. North Carolina Corp. Commission, 97 Fed. 513; Nashville, etc., R. Co. v. Taylor, 86 Fed. 168; Ceredo First Nat. Bank v. Savings Soc., 80 Fed. 581, 25 C. C. A. 466. Compare McCain v. Des Moines, 174 U. S. 168, 19 S. Ct. 644, 43 L. ed. 936 [affirming 84 Fed. 726]. But see Chicago Union Traction Co. v. State Bd. of Equalization, 112 Fed. 607; Corbus v. Alaska Treadwell Gold-Min. Co., 99 Fed. 334.

Of an action by a tribal Indian for false arrest on a charge of violating the laws of the United States or of a state a federal court has jurisdiction. Peters v. Malin, 111 Fed. 244; Ma-Ka-Ta-Wah-Qua-Twa v. Rebok, 111 Fed. 12; Y-ta-tah-wah v. Rebock, 105 Fed. 257; Peters v. Malin, 104 Fed. 849.

The fixing of rates to be charged by a railroad, water, or gas company, may amount to a taking of property without due process of law. Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. McChord, 103 Fed. 216; Kimball v. Cedar Rapids, 99 Fed. 130; Consolidated Water Co. v. San Diego, 93 Fed. 849, 35 C. C. A. 631; San Joaquin, etc., River Canal, etc., Co. v. Stanislaus County, 90 Fed. 516; Consolidated Water Co. v. San Diego, 84 Fed. 369; Indianapolis Gas Co. v. Indianapolis, 82 Fed. 245.

54. U. S. v. Weld, 127 U. S. 51, 8 S. Ct. 1000, 32 L. ed. 62; Verden v. Coleman, 1 Black (U. S.) 472, 17 L. ed. 161; New Orleans v. De Armas, 9 Pet. (U. S.) 224, 9 L. ed. 109; Smith v. Maryland, 6 Cranch (U. S.) 286, 3 L. ed. 225; Owings v. Norwood, 5 Cranch (U. S.) 344, 3 L. ed. 120; Bodemuller v. U. S., 39 Fed. 437. See also, generally, TREATIES.

When action is held not to arise under a treaty in particular cases so as to confer jurisdiction see Crystal Springs Land, etc., Co. v. Los Angeles, 177 U. S. 169, 29 S. Ct. 573, 44 L. ed. 720; Muse v. Arlington Hotel Co., 168 U. S. 430, 18 S. Ct. 109, 42 L. ed. 531.

55. See, generally, CIVIL RIGHTS. And see Smoot v. Kentucky Cent. R. Co., 13 Fed. 337. See also Harrison v. Hadley, 11 Fed. Cas. No. 6,137, 2 Dill. 229; U. S. v. Rhodes, 27 Fed. Cas. No. 16,151, 1 Abb. 28. But compare U. S. v. Cruikshank, 25 Fed. Cas. No. 14,897, 1 Woods 308 [affirmed in 92 U. S. 542, 23 L. ed. 588].

56. The Noddleburn, 28 Fed. 855, 30 Fed. 142.

57. See, generally, BANKRUPTCY. And see Lord v. Cannon, 75 Ga. 300; Burbank v. Bigelow, 92 U. S. 179, 23 L. ed. 542; Gindrat v. Dane, 10 Fed. Cas. No. 5,455, 4 Cliff.

jurisdiction of actions which relate to public lands of the United States;[58] of a controversy growing out of the exercise of rights by a railroad company in the construction and operation of its road in and through a territory of the United States where all such rights are derived from an act of congress;[59] of a suit in reference to mining property, where the interpretation of a federal statute is involved;[60] of questions relating to commerce[61] and navigable waters;[62] and of 260; Payson v. Stoever, 19 Fed. Cas. No. 10,863, 2 Dill. 427.

58. See, generally, PUBLIC LANDS. And see Eaton v. Calhoun, 47 Fed. 422; Jones v. Florida, etc., R. Co., 41 Fed. 70; Hills v. Homton, 12 Fed. Cas. No. 6,508, 4 Sawy. 195; Mezes v. Greer, 17 Fed. Cas. No. 9,520, 1 McAll. 401.

A federal court may have jurisdiction of an action for violation of an act forbidding the inclosure of public lands (U. S. v. Bisel, 8 Mont. 20, 19 Pac. 251); of an action for mesne profits of land during the time between plaintiff's preëmption entry and the issuance of the patent (Florida Cent., etc., R. Co. v. Bell, 87 Fed. 369, 31 C. C. A. 9); of an action in regard to the right to accretions along the river front by owners of land who acquired title through a patent issued under act of congress (King v. St. Louis, 98 Fed. 641); and of suits generally to determine conflicting claims to public lands, where each party claims under the United States (McHenry v. Nygaard, 72 Minn. 2, 74 N. W. 1106; Linkswiler v. Schneider, 95 Fed. 203; Florida Cent., etc., R. Co. v. Bell, 87 Fed. 369, 31 C. C. A. 9; Evans v. Durango Land, etc., Co., 80 Fed. 433, 25 C. C. A. 531; Pierce v. Molliken, 78 Fed. 196. Compare King v. Lawson, 84 Fed. 209). But the acts of congress of 1824, and of 1844, which provided for the enforcement of claims to land in the Louisiana purchase by petition to the district court referred not to perfect legal titles under grants of former governments, but only to equitable and inchoate titles. U. S. v. Ducros, 15 How. (U. S.) 38, 14 L. ed. 591; U. S. v. D'Auterieve, 15 How. (U. S.) 14, 14 L. ed. 580; U. S. v. Pillerin, 13 How. (U. S.) 9, 14 L. ed. 28; U. S. v. Castant, 12 How. (U. S.) 437, 13 L. ed. 1056; U. S. v. Reynes, 9 How. (U. S.) 127, 13 L. ed. 74. And jurisdiction is not conferred by the mere fact that the title to lands in controversy was originally derived from the United States. St. Paul, etc., R. Co. v. St. Paul, etc., R. Co., 68 Fed. 2, 15 C. C. A. 167. So a question which merely involves the title to public land, and does not involve the construction of a United States law, is not within the jurisdiction of a federal court. Theurkauf v. Ireland, 27 Fed. 769. See also Butler v. Shafer, 67 Fed. 161; Stayton Min. Co. v. Woody, 50 Fed. 633; Southern Pac. R. Co. v. Whittaker, 47 Fed. 529. Nor has the circuit court any jurisdiction of a suit to cancel a United States patent to land on the ground of fraud in obtaining the same. Holland v. Hyde, 41 Fed. 897.

59. Southern Kansas R. Co. v. Briscoe, 144 U. S. 133, 12 S. Ct. 538, 36 L. ed. 377 [affirming 40 Fed. 273].

60. See, generally, MINES AND MINERALS.

May have jurisdiction of an action where the right to enter within the side-lines of the land of another and mine and take ore therefrom is claimed under the mining laws of the United States (Cheesman v. Shreeve, 37 Fed. 36. See also Montana Ore-Purchasing Co. v. Boston, etc., Copper, etc., Min. Co., 85 Fed. 867, 29 C. C. A. 462), of a suit to quiet title to a placer mining claim, where defendant claims title by reason of a location after issue of the patent on a quartz vein known to exist before the application for the placer patent (Haggin v. Lewis, 66 Fed. 199. See also Gillis v. Downey, 85 Fed. 483, 29 C. C. A. 286. Compare Wise v. Nixon, 76 Fed. 3), and of an action in which it is claimed that the defendant procured a patent for a mining claim from the land department by fraud, and without complying with the statute as to notice and proofs, and that it was issued without authority of law, and asking for a decree that the defendant hold the patent in trust for complainants (Cates v. Producers', etc., Oil Co., 96 Fed. 7); but not of the question whether a mining claim has been abandoned (Inez Min. Co. v. Kinney, 46 Fed. 832); or of a trespass upon such a claim (Peabody Gold-Min. Co. v. Gold Hill Min. Co., 97 Fed. 657).

Where a suit in support of an adverse mining claim is brought, it is not a suit arising under the laws of the United States, so as to confer jurisdiction, unless it involves the meaning and construction of federal statutes. Shoshone Min. Co. v. Rutter, 177 U. S. 505, 20 S. Ct. 726, 44 L. ed. 864 [reversing 87 Fed. 801, 31 C. C. A. 223]; Blackburn v. Portland Gold-Min. Co., 175 U. S. 571, 20 S. Ct. 222, 44 L. ed. 276; Nevada Sierra Oil Co. v. Miller, 97 Fed. 681; Dewey Min. Co. v. Miller, 96 Fed. 1. Compare Larned v. Jenkins, 109 Fed. 100, 48 C. C. A. 252; McFadden v. Mountain View Min., etc., Co., 97 Fed. 670, 38 C. C. A. 354; Burke v. Bunker Hill, etc., Min., etc., Co., 46 Fed. 644.

61. Elder v. Whitesides, 72 Fed. 724; Monteith v. Kirkpatrick, 17 Fed. Cas. No. 9,721, 3 Blatchf. 279. See also, generally, COMMERCE.

Interstate commerce.—Ex p. Lennon, 166 U. S. 548, 17 S. Ct. 658, 41 L. ed. 1110; Donald v. Scott, 67 Fed. 854; Toledo, etc., R. Co. v. Pennsylvania Co., 54 Fed. 730, 19 L. R. A. 387; Kentucky, etc., Bridge Co. v. Louisville, etc., R. Co., 37 Fed. 567, 2 L. R. A. 289. But see New York Cent. Trust Co. v. Grantham, 83 Fed. 540, 27 C. C. A. 570.

62. See, generally, NAVIGABLE WATERS. And see U. S. v. The Kodiak, 53 Fed. 126.

What constitutes an unlawful obstruction of navigable waters is a question of which actions arising under the patent laws of the United States.[63] They likewise have jurisdiction of actions for the infringement of a copyright;[64] of suits to obtain relief for the infringement of trade-marks;[65] of actions by or against corporations the federal courts have jurisdiction. Sunflower River Packet Co. v. Georgia Pac. R. Co., 39 Fed. 229; Wallamet Iron Bridge Co. v. Hatch, 19 Fed. 347, 9 Sawy. 643; U. S. v. Milwaukee, etc., R. Co., 26 Fed. Cas. No. 15,778, 5 Biss. 410. So such jurisdiction exists in the case of a suit by the United States to enjoin the deposit in a river of a mining debris injurious to navigation (U. S. v. North Bloomfield Gravel-Min. Co., 53 Fed. 625), of a suit for an injunction against a log boom as an obstruction to navigation (U. S. v. Bellingham Bay Boom Co., 176 U. S. 211, 20 S. Ct. 343, 44 L. ed. 437 [reversing 81 Fed. 658, 26 C. C. A. 547]), of a suit to enjoin the erection of a bridge over navigable waters (Chatfield Co. v. New Haven, 110 Fed. 788; Hatch v. Wallamet Iron Bridge Co., 6 Fed. 326, 7 Sawy. 127; U. S. v. Milwaukee, etc., R. Co., 26 Fed. Cas. No. 15,778, 5 Biss. 410), although authorized by the legislature of a state (Baird v. Shore Line R. Co., 2 Fed. Cas. No. 758, 6 Blatchf. 276); but in such a suit between citizens of the same state, the jurisdiction is declared to extend only so far as to inquire whether its construction is in violation of the constitution or laws of the United States (Miller v. New York City, 17 Fed. Cas. No. 9,585, 13 Blatchf. 469); and in the absence of a federal statute assuming police jurisdiction of navigable waters lying wholly within the limits of a particular state, it has been decided that the question whether certain erections are a public nuisance is not one of which the federal court has jurisdiction (Kenyon v. Knipe, 46 Fed. 309; Milnor v. New Jersey R. Co., 17 Fed. Cas. No. 9,620; Silliman v. Hudson River Bridge Co., 22 Fed. Cas. No. 12,852, 4 Blatchf. 395).

Question as to the rights of a state over marsh and tide lands on the borders of a sea or its estuaries is a local question. Shively v. Bowlby, 152 U. S. 1, 14 S. Ct. 548, 38 L. ed. 331; Chisolm v. Caines, 67 Fed. 285. See Kenyon v. Knipe, 46 Fed. 309.

Questions as to priority of possession of a water right and of conformity to local customs, laws, and decisions are not federal ones. Telluride Power Transmission Co. v. Rio Grande Western R. Co., 175 U. S. 639, 20 S. Ct. 245, 44 L. ed. 305 [dismissing appeal in 16 Utah 125, 51 Pac. 146].

Questions as to riparian rights of owners of real estate bounded by a navigable river, although generally subject to local laws, may involve a consideration of other matters bringing it within jurisdiction of federal courts. King v. St. Louis, 98 Fed. 641.

63. Puetz v. Bransford, 32 Fed. 318; Duke v. Graham, 19 Fed. 647; Campbell v. James, 2 Fed. 338, 18 Blatchf. 92; Hoffheins v. Brandt, 11 Fed. Cas. No. 6,575. See also Osborn v. U. S. Bank, 9 Wheat. (U. S.) 738, 6 L. ed. 204; and infra, XIII, B, 1, b.

The object in placing the subject-matter of patents under the control of congress and the federal courts was to give patentees everywhere the same rights and remedies, without regard to local laws. Read v. Miller, 20 Fed. Cas. No. 11,610, 2 Biss. 12.

Act of March 3, 1887, did not repeal the act of March 3, 1875, or Rev. Stat. (1878), §§ 699, 711. Miller-Magee Co. v. Carpenter, 34 Fed. 433.

A general equity power was conferred by the act of 1836. Hoffheins v. Brandt, 11 Fed. Cas. No. 6,575; Potter v. Dixon, 19 Fed. Cas. No. 11,325, 5 Blatchf. 160. See also Sayles v. Richmond, etc., R. Co., 21 Fed. Cas. No. 12,424, 3 Hughes 172.

The interest of a patentee cannot be ordered sold by the circuit court to pay a judgment rendered in a state court. Ryan v. Lee, 10 Fed. 917.

A suit to enjoin the collection of state taxes on the ground that they are illegal because in effect levied on patents or patent rights is not within the jurisdiction of the circuit court under U. S. Rev. Stat. (1878) § 629, cl. 9 [U. S. Comp. Stat. (1901) p. 504]. Holt v. Indiana Mfg. Co., 176 U. S. 68, 20 S. Ct. 272, 44 L. ed. 374 [affirming 80 Fed. 1, 25 C. C. A. 301].

64. Potter v. McPherson, 21 Hun (N. Y.) 559. See, generally, COPYRIGHT.

